GLOVER STILL ON THE STAND

Cross-Examination of State's Witness in Moore Case at Austin Continues

DENIES ANY CONSPIRACY

Practically No New Statements Developed During Morning Session

Special to The Telegram.
AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 28.—Cross-examination of Frank Glover was continued this morning in the fifty-third district court and when court took a recess for dinner Glover was still on the stand.
There was little new development in the testimony of Glover from that adduced yesterday. He went over the same ground and his testimony was so much like yesterday that Judge R. L. Penn, one of the attorneys for the defense, asked Glover how it was that he was able to tell the same story, word for word, as he did yesterday.
Judge Penn wanted to know if Glover had not written down his testimony and committed it to memory. Glover denied he had done this.
Inquiring into the motive prompting Glover to undertake the settlement of the anti-trust suits, Judge Penn asked: "What led you into this? Just a desire to commit crime?"
"No, sir," answered the witness.
Witness said he was closely connected with Warren Moore by having engaged him as his attorney in many cases and from having loaned him money.
NEW LINE OF DEFENSE
During the cross-examination today Judge Penn outlined another line of defense when he asked the following questions:
"Is it a fact that you and Bill Wortham entered into a conspiracy to represent to Vandervoort that Wortham was to direct him to pay $12,500 to you, then that Bill should represent to John H. Kirby that he had gone to the First National bank and gotten this sum of money from him and then represent that it was to be used in the interest of Kirby, and then to show Kirby that he had used it to buy off Warren Moore or the attorneys in those cases and thereby induce Kirby to refund or pay that amount on Vandervoort's draft, and that you and Bill Wortham divided that money and kept it?"
"No, it is false from start to finish," replied the witness.
Glover said that about that time he was indebted to the First National bank of Austin more than $10,000, but could not tell if he reduced the indebtedness shortly after the transaction relating to the dismissal of the anti-trust suits, which were instituted about three years ago against the Kirby Lumber Company. The three witnesses were ex-State Treasurer W. B. Wortham, A. S. Vandervoort, who was cashier of the First National bank at Austin in 1902, and Frank Glover of Austin. The trial is being conducted before Judge Calhoun of the Fifty-third judicial district. County Attorney Brady and Assistant States Attorney General Howard Smith conducted the direct examination for the state yesterday, while the cross-examination for the defense was conducted by Judge Penn.
Mr. Wortham's testimony on direct examination was given in substance in yesterday's dispatch to The Telegram. On cross-examination Mr. Penn testified that he never had any conversation with Moore regarding the disposition of the case in connection with the Kirby Lumber Company suit, and the payment of any sum of money to him. He testified that he did not claim to have seen any money paid to Moore. Mr. Wortham further testified that he had loaned state's witness, and that he was given immunity before he testified.
A. S. VANDERVOORT
A. S. Vandervoort, a witness for the state, testified that he was cashier of the First National bank of Austin in the month of March, 1902. He said he remembered paying about March 12 $12,500 out of the bank's funds to Frank D. Moore. He said he paid it on instructions from Mr. Wortham, received by him from the latter in Dallas. He said he did not know for what purpose the money was paid to Glover. He said he was instructed by Mr. Wortham to make a draft of Mr. Kirby for this money. On direct examination Vandervoort testified: "I don't think I had anything to do with Glover or from anybody else so that I could show that I paid it (the money). The house trusted Frank Glover for the $12,500 without anything to show for it."
"I had to go to Houston with Mr. Moore. I took him to Mr. Kirby's house. Glover wanted to talk with him about the anti-trust suits. He seemed to take considerable interest in them. I don't know whether he had any interest in them or not. I don't remember the exact circumstances about how he came to go down there together. I don't know how long he was there. I don't know if he had ever met him. He said he was a great friend of the Wortham and a great admirer of Kirby's and a friend of Warren Moore's and he

POLICE FAIL TO CURB TERRORISTS

Russian Capital Filled With Proclamations of Duke Sergius' Death

VLADIMIR NEXT ON LIST

Strain Said to Have Made Him a Physical Wreck—Wife Tries to Shield Him

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 28.—The utter impotency of the police in the face of the terrorists' organization is shown by the increasing boldness of the latter all over St. Petersburg. Even in the steps of the public buildings simple notices of Grand Duke Sergius' death are found. They read:
"The sentence of death passed upon Sergius Alexandrovich, was executed Feb. 17. (Signed)
"FIGHTING ORGANIZATION OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY."
Moreover, the notices are neatly printed, a thing unknown in the days of the late Interior Minister Von Plehve, when similar notices were always run off on copying machines. The secret police were then too close on the terrorists to permit the use of a printing press.
WIFE TRIES TO SHIELD HIM
Grand Duchess Maria Pavlovna, whose husband, Grand Duke Vladimir, is high on the list of those condemned to death, is trying to shield his life with her own. Since "Red Sunday" the grand duke has not only been showered with threats and warnings but twice received from abroad formal letters signed by different groups informing him of his sentence of death and the assignment of men to execute it.
At the same time Grand Duchess Maria, like the Grand Duchess Elizabeth in the case of Grand Duke Sergius, has been notified her life and her son's lives will be spared, and she is appealed to not to go abroad in her husband's company. The letter naturally terrified the family and the household of the grand duke, who has aged greatly during the last few weeks under the strain of what he insists is unjust criticism which has placed the responsibility for the bloodshed Jan. 22 wholly on his shoulders.
DUKE NOW A WRECK
Although the grand duke's health has been falling for over a year, he is now almost a complete wreck. For a time the entreaties of his family and the warnings of the police sufficed to keep him within the walls of the palace, but since the funeral of the Grand Duke Sergius Grand Duke Vladimir has shaken off the restraint, declaring he refuses to show cowardice and not only drives out in a closed carriage, but on Sunday walked for a short time up and down the walk in front of the inner palace. At his side on each occasion was the Grand Duchess Maria Pavlovna. The grand duke tries to elude her, but she insists upon being immediately apprised if he is going out, donning her wraps and accompanying him.
SENTENCE SUSPENDED
Today Grand Duke Vladimir received a letter from one group which previously warned him, saying his sentence was temporarily suspended, which is attributed either to a more correct appraisal of his share in the events of Jan. 22, or to the general decision of the terrorists to give the autocracy a breathing spell and await the result of the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius. The latter coincides with the views of those acquainted with the methods of the terrorists, who point out their success in assassinations would defeat their object by compelling the emperor in the interest of safety of the imperial family to thru out the most drastic methods of repression.

MAXIM GORKY GOES TO RIGA

Declares Russian Government Would Not Permit Him to Leave Country

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Maxim Gorky, who was released from prison yesterday and immediately rerearrested, has according to a St. Petersburg dispatch to the New York American, been escorted by government agents to Riga. The author told his friends who gathered at the railway station that he wanted to go to the Crimea but the government refused his request.
Mrs. Gorky, with her young son, was awaiting his arrival at home, when she was called by telephone late in the evening. An unknown person said to her: "Gorky will leave the Warsaw station for some unknown destination at 10:15."
"Thank God," exclaimed Mrs. Gorky. "I will go immediately." Summoning a sleigh, she carried her ailing son and hurried to the station. The author was there with eight friends and two government agents. The boy kissed his father's hand repeatedly, while Gorky's friends crowded about the family group and affectionately. "Alexander Michailovitch, we congratulate you. Save for Gorky's family and the group of friends there was no demonstration."
To a correspondent Gorky said: "I want to thank you and all the world for the sympathy expressed to me."
"Where are you going—abroad?"
"You don't imagine," Gorky answered, "that the government will let me go abroad? I am going to Riga, or to Moscow."
"Is your health better?"
"Thank God," he answered, "it might be worse."
He said this cheerily and with a loud laugh. "You have not suffered from your prison experiences?"
"No," he answered, "I only want a rest. My friends' kindness is itself curative. I wanted to go to the Crimea where the climate is warm, but the government won't allow me to go there or to Moscow."
In the midst of an affectionate leaving-taking from his wife, son and friends, the train bell rang a last warning. Gorky shook hands all around, kissed his wife, lifted up little Maxim, kissed him on both cheeks and then stepped in the car, while his wife sobbed quietly and his son screamed, "good bye, papa; good bye."
The secret service men slammed the car door and the train steamed out of the station.

RUSSIAN DEFEAT SEEMS CERTAIN

Despite Wildness of St. Petersburg Rumors, the Stories Have Some Truth

POPULACE BELIEVES WORST

Declared That if Gen. Kuroki Crosses Hun River, War's End Is Near

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 28, 1:15 p. m.—Fragmentary official and press reports of fresh reverse sustained by general Kuropatkin are inadequate, and draw a conclusion of the magnitude of General Kuroki's success against the Russian left. But the public as usual, is ready to believe the worst and the city already is full of reports that a big disaster again has overtaken the Russian army, according to which Mukden has been outflanked and the extreme Japanese right, and Kuropatkin is withdrawing from his strong position on the Shakhe river.
That such reports are exaggerated is beyond question; but although reticent and seeking to minimize the operations of the last few days, the officials of the war office are plainly discouraged at the fashion in which Kuroki was able to drive in and turn the Russian extreme left advance columns actually crossing the Shakhe river.
It is admitted that the fighting was desperate at several passes during Sunday and Monday, while the front was being involved, the purpose of Field Marshal Oyama evidently being to keep the center and right engaged and prevent Kuropatkin from sending reinforcements to head off Kuroki.
Should Kuroki cross the Hun river, the high road to Tse Pass, forty miles north of Mukden, would be open and Kuropatkin's retreat threatened.
Further news is awaited with great anxiety. Anything like a decisive Japanese victory now probably would end the war.

Dr. Jacques Loeb Announces Investigation of Disaster in Brooklyn Negro Church

TEN KILLED BY BREAKING BEAM

Marvelous Results of Long Investigations Has Begun

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 28.—Extraordinary results have attended recent experiments of Dr. Jacques Loeb of the University of California, who has been delving deep into the mysteries of life and who now announces without reservation that his experiments have produced most surprising results, which involve the production by artificial means of sexual fertilization in the eggs of sea urchins, a consummation long sought but hitherto not attained in any such measure as through the most recent experiments of Dr. Loeb.
Says Dr. Loeb at the conclusion of a long statement regarding his work: "It is obvious that we are now able to imitate the process of sexual fertilization in the egg of the sea urchin completely and in all its essential features by purely physical and chemical means."

ARDMORE, I. T., Feb. 28.—Clarence Morgan, a young man, whose home was at Cornish, was accidentally shot and killed Sunday afternoon by Miss Bessie Irby, aged 18, at the home of her parents in South Ardmore. The two young people were playing with an air gun when it was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking the young man in the cheek and passing through his brain.

Concurrent Resolution to Petition Mexican Government Passes House
AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 28.—A concurrent resolution was adopted in the house today by a rising vote providing that the legislature of Texas petition and urge the governor of Chihuahua, Mexico, to pardon and deport from Mexico the veteran Mac Stewart, now serving a twenty-year sentence for killing a Mexican policeman ten years ago. This is a noted case and Stewart has already served half his term.
CONCUR ON LOVE TAX BILL
The house today concurred in the senate amendments to Representative Love's bill equalizing the franchise tax, which increases the permit fees of foreign corporations. The senate amendments exempt corporations without capital stock. The bill will become a law upon receiving the governor's signature.
The entire morning session of the house was consumed in consideration of a bill by Love of Dallas taxing one and one-half per cent of gross earnings of railroads. No action has been taken on the bill as yet.
A numerous signed petition was presented in the senate today from the citizens of Robertson county objecting to the passage of a bill providing for the working of short term convicts.
A resolution of respect was adopted in the senate on the death of E. H. (Babe) Henderson of Sulphur Springs. The senate engrossed the bill prohibiting the adulteration of food stuffs by manufacturers. A bill was passed finally to give furnishers of feed for cattle a prior lien on such cattle.

ODDS FAVOR NELSON IN TONIGHT'S MATCH

Corbett's Friends, However, Expect Him to Make Fight of His Life—Probably Last Big Fight on Pacific Coast

CORBETT AND FRANKIE NEIL ENJOYING A SWATFEST

Special to The Telegram.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 23.—Bet-ting odds on the bout between Young Corbett of Denver and Battling Nelson tonight have settled at 10 to 8, with Corbett at the short end.
Nelson's victory over Corbett at their former meeting is responsible for the odds, despite the skillfully disseminated rumors about the wiry Dane, which have been coming from the latter's training camp during the past few weeks. One of the stories most persistently circu-lated is that Nelson celebrated his recent victory with a long carousal, but those who have read the history of his steady fight up from the ranks of the amateurs will hardly place much credence in it. Nelson is one of the most careful livers among the followers of the ring, and that he would deliberately break training with the prospect of a match in sight looks very unlikely.

Stories from the Corbett training quar-ters, on the other hand, are all to the effect that the Denver lad was never in better shape, that he has been training for the fight of his life, has the weight and speed and is going to win.

Jack Welch probably will referee the match. The attendance promises to be the biggest in years, as there is little prospect of another match so good ever being pulled off again in California. The Ralston bill, which will give the fighting game a knockout blow, is still pending in the California legislature, with strong likelihood of passing.
There is a bare chance that the winner of tonight's match may sign with Jimmy Britt, who is still waiting for a match, but whether such a fight will ever be pulled off on the coast is extremely doubt-ful.

GEORGE S. BOUTWELL DEAD

Former Governor of Massachusetts Had Been in Public Life Sixty Years

GROTON, Mass., Feb. 28.—After an illness of a few days George Sewall Boutwell, former governor of Massachusetts and former United States secretary of the treasury, died at his home here yesterday, age 87.

For more than sixty years Boutwell had been in public life, beginning his career as a lecturer at the age of 19. He was a personal friend of President Lincoln and an outspoken abolitionist. He was secretary of the treasury in President Grant's first cabinet.

Mr. Boutwell was among the most earnest opponents of the Spanish war. In fact, he was a convinced republican that after war was declared he left the republican party and with the formation of the anti-imperialist league became its president, which office he held at the time of his death.

AMUSEMENTS

BLACK PATTI TROUBADOURS

Mirth, melody and music is the keynote of the performance to be given by the famous Black Patti Troubadours at Greenwall's opera house tonight at 8:15. Those sweet singers and ebony colored fun-makers of Dixie land have been recognized for years as a high-class, standard and one that has scored a phenomenal popular success.

"THE TWO ORPHANS"

Local play goes are assured of a rare dramatic treat on the occasion of the engagement of the celebrated all-star cast in "The Two Orphans," at Greenwall's opera house Wednesday night, March 1. The version of the play to be presented is the original one made for A. M. Palmer thirty years ago. It is considered the best melodrama constructed during the past generation. Everything there should be in a drama seems to be in "The Two Orphans"—innocence, virtue, adventure, villainy, peril, grief, lust and hypocrisy.

RICHARD MANSFIELD

Richard Mansfield is to appear at Greenwall's opera house on Friday night, March 3, with the greatest play of his career, "Ivan, the Terrible." From the point of view of a play this is an historical drama of the majesty of empire and the intolerant not-to-be juggled facts of history are the background. It gives dramatic phases in dramatic form of the highly theatrical reign of one of the most singular characters that ever lived, "Ivan, the Terrible," is cousin-german to Shakespeare's "King Richard III." and the Hugo masterpieces. It acts events, however, in the case of "Ivan, the Terrible," there is a convincing factor in the great central role. From all that has been written of the part and Mansfield's remarkable make-up and performance, one can only marvel at the lack of knowledge or judgment on the part of dramatists who have so long permitted this role to remain off the stage.

"SHORE ACRES"

Mrs. Belle Theodore was a member of the original "Shore Acres" company, and as this is her eleventh season with this famous play, she thinks she ought to know something about it. As Ma Berry she is known from one end of the country to the other. Her new used to play young Nat Berry, but he now stands six feet two in his stockings and is winning success in higher roles. Mrs. Theodore says everything is beautiful in "Shore Acres" except the turkey dinner, and that is an abomination. As she is obliged

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF

Which is Better—Try an Experiment or Profit by a Fort Worth Citizen's Experience

Something new is an experiment. Must be proved to be as represented. The statement of a manufacturer is not convincing proof of merit.

But the indorsement of friends is. Now supposing you had a bad back, a lame, Weak or Aching one? Would you experiment on it? You will read of many so-called cures. Indorsed by strangers from far-away places.

It's different when the indorsement comes from home. Easy to prove local testimony. Home indorsement is the proof that backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Read this case: J. E. Gaskill, a well known carpenter contractor, living at 701 Battle street, says: "More than a year ago I was relieved of an aggravated attack of backache by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I had procured at Weaver's Pharmacy on Main street. At that time I made the fact known to citizens of Fort Worth so that others suffering from kidney complaint in any of its various forms might have the benefit of my experience. My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills is the same today as it was when they were first brought to my notice. The cure has stood the test of a year's time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Weak Kidneys

To any Kidney sufferer who has not tried my remedy I offer a full dollar's worth of sample—but a regular dollar bottle—standard size and staple.

There is nothing to pay, either now or later. I ask no deposit—no promise. You take no risk. The dollar bottle is free because mine is no ordinary remedy, and I feel so sure of its results that I can afford to make this offer.

In the first place, my remedy does not treat the kidneys themselves. Such treatment is wrong. For the kidneys are not to blame for their weakness or irregularities. They have no power—no self-control. They are operated and actuated by a tiny shred of a nerve which comes from the brain. If the kidney nerve is strong and healthy the kidneys are strong and healthy. If the kidney nerve goes wrong you know it by the inevitable result—kidney trouble.

This tender nerve is only one of a great system of nerves, this system of nerves not only the kidneys, but the heart and the liver and the stomach. For simplicity's sake I have called this great nerve system the "Inside Nerves." They are not the nerves of feeling—not the nerves that enable you to walk, to talk, to act, to think. They are the master nerves and every vital organ is their slave. The common name for these nerves is the "sympathetic nervous system." Each set is in such close sympathy with the others, that weakness anywhere results in weakness everywhere.

This is why I treat not the kidney that is weak but the ailing nerve that MAKES it weak. This is the secret of my success. This is why I can afford to offer this unusual thing—to give away FREE every full dollar bottle, that ANY STRANGER may know how my remedy succeeds.

The offer is open to every one, everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. Those who have tried it do not need the evidence. So you must write ME for the free dollar bottle order. I will then send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle, standard size and staple. He will pass it down to you from his stock just as freely as though it were his own. Write for the order today.

For a free order for a full dollar bottle you must address Dr. Shoop, Box B863, Racine, Wis. State which book you want. Book 1 on Dyspepsia. Book 2 on the Heart. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Book 4 for Women. Book 5 for Men. Book 6 on Rheumatism.

Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

to sit down to this feast about eight times a week for thirty-five consecutive weeks, one can readily forgive her not liking this toothsome Thanksgiving bird. "Shore Acres" is announced for production at Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, March 4.

ELKS MINSTRELS

Every day is adding to the enthusiasm of the participants and the Elks lodge in their benefit minstrel show, which will be pulled off at the Greenwall opera house, March 6 and 7. As far as the stage management and the general equipment of the show is concerned, it will be as good or better than the majority of big road companies. In the first part the orchestra is placed on the stage behind the singers, and the setting and costuming is very tasteful, representing the interior of a mammoth conservatory, with electrical and balcony effects. The olio or second part is composed of dancing turns, single, double and ensemble, and will conclude with a very catchy sketch, entitled "Make Yourself at Home." Judging from the interest so far displayed, it is now a certainty that crowded houses will greet the boys both nights.

Officers Secure Evidence Upon Which Warrants are Issued

—No Raids Made

The prosecuting attorney's office today issued fifteen warrants against persons charged with having kept their saloons open Sunday.

Deputies from the county attorney's office and members of the city police made complaints based on investigations made yesterday. None of the places visited were closed up.

The cases will be docketed in the county court today and the hearings of them will come up later in the week.

HOT SPRINGS VICTIMS STILL UNIDENTIFIED

Now Believed That Only Three Persons Perished in Flames—Relief Work Well Underway

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 28.—Contributions continue to arrive here from outside cities for the benefit of those rendered destitute by Saturday's great fire. It is now generally accepted that only three persons perished in the flames. The identity of these victims has not been established. The relief committee, with Mayor Belden at the head, is doing splendid work and all sufferers have been temporarily provided for. No statement as to insurance has been issued.

Several adjusters have arrived. After settlements have been agreed upon the work of rebuilding the devastated district will begin. The Oklahoma Racing Association will resume its spring meeting today.

BOY DROWNED AT SHERMAN

SHERMAN, Texas, Feb. 28.—Clarley Ballard, 8 years old, fell in a railroad reservoir here yesterday and was drowned. He was the son of A. T. Ballard and was visiting a friend when he met his death. The man in charge of the pump station went down into the well to look after the machinery and supposed that the boy followed. The pump man heard a splash but could see no object and when grappling hooks were used the body of the boy was brought out. All efforts to revive him proved useless. The funeral will be tomorrow morning.

BALL PLAYERS AT WORK

Panther Squad, Amateurs and Small Boys Visit Haines' Park

Haines' Park was the scene of early spring baseball practice Monday afternoon when several members of the Fort Worth baseball team and a number of local amateurs indulged in a little preliminary practice preparatory to the game with the St. Louis Browns which will be played here next Sunday. Manager Feeley announced that the first regular practice before the game with the St. Louis players will be held Friday afternoon of the week.

Those out yesterday were: Murphy, Cavender, Hoxby, Tabbersy and Hubbard. The small boy was also very much in evidence, chasing flies and getting in the way.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develop into nervous prostration.

Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nervine brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"During the past winter I had two attacks of La Grippe, which left me very weak, and in bad condition. I was so nervous I could not sleep. My wife, after trying different remedies, went for a doctor. The doctor was out, and a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine, and she brought home a bottle. I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my head. After taking a few doses of Nervine the pain was not so severe, and I slept. I am now taking the second bottle, and am very much improved."

HENRY M. SMITH, Underhill, Vt. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

TO PROSECUTE THE TRUST

The beef trust situation is the absorbing topic of conversation with Texas cattlemen at this time, and the next step of the government is looked for in keen anticipation. As this state is the greatest producer of range cattle in the union, the effects of market manipulation have been more keenly felt here than elsewhere.

In the event that the government determines to institute criminal proceedings against the members of the alleged trust, it is suggested that the services of Judge Sam H. Cowan of this city be retained to assist in the prosecution. Cowan is the man who led the recent fight at Denver in behalf of the cattlemen, and is a very able lawyer.

The Kansas idea of a state oil refinery is but the natural result of the popular demand which seems to be growing that government shall become the guardian and burden bearer for the masses, which is about as dangerous procedure as that of being the sponsor and sponge holder for the classes.

Russia, acting on the advice of Emperor William of Germany is said to be about agreed on the terms of the peace she is willing to establish with Japan, except that she is unwilling to pay any indemnity.

F. C. Wellesley writes that cattle conditions in Archer county are in very satisfactory shape, and out of a bunch of 2,000 steers he is holding in that section he did not lose an animal during the recent blizzard.

been the heaviest sufferer in the matter of stock losses.

The state legislature will soon be down to the $2 per day period of its existence, and when that time comes there will be something doing in legislative circles.

Theodore Roosevelt will be duly inaugurated as president of the United States next Saturday, and Senator Fairbanks will assume the duties of the vice presidency.

In a recent speech President Roosevelt announced that he would not be bound by party ties during the four years of his coming administration, and that remarkable declaration has had the effect of still further alienating his party leaders.

That finance committee selected to raise the money necessary for entertainment of the cattlemen's convention and for the Fat Stock Show, got down to business with the proper Fort Worth spirit.

The suggestion that the annual meetings of the Cattle Raisers' Association should all be held in Fort Worth meets with popular favor, and it is to be hoped the coming convention will view the situation in its proper light.

The anti-free pass measure is among the number that will be considered in the state legislature at Austin this week, and the result is problematical.

If Buffalo Bill had been content to round out his life in the old occupation of fighting Indians and scouting on the plains, and had not embarked on the troublous sea of matrimony, he would now not be reduced to the painful necessity of a divorce court order.

Thomas K. Niedringhaus, republican caucus nominee for United States senator from Missouri, announces that he is still in the race, but at this distance it looks as if he is only far enough in to really feel uncomfortable.

The Washington Post says that the dollar of today will not go as far as the dollar of a few years ago.

Hon. Curtis Hancock, member of the state legislature from Dallas county, is explaining why it was that he rode to Laredo on a railway pass.

It is said that the territory of Arizona is delighted that it was left out of the statehood combination which carried with it the shutting off of snake-bite for a period of twenty-one years.

The Venezuelan navy consists of one solitary old battered gunboat, and when we consider that fact, President Castro's nerve in openly defying this government is sufficiently colossal to win our unqualified admiration.

The Chicago board of trade is making war on the napkin as the disseminator of many forms of deadly disease. Perhaps the Chicago idea is to have mankind return to the primitive method of using his coat sleeve.

The Moore and Kirby alleged bribery cases are on trial in Austin, and the state appears to be making out a pretty strong case.

The Standard Oil people boast of the fact that they have never yet been whipped in a fight, but the explanation thereof may lie in the fact that they have not heretofore gone up against the real thing.

Having put out her peace feelers, Russia is now sitting back and insisting that she has not had near enough, and the war must go on indefinitely.

A LEGACY of HATE

SYNOPSIS.

After a quarrel with his cousin David, Sir Alan Hume-Frazier is found murdered at Beecheroff Hall, near Stowmarket, Acquit of the charge of murder, David requests Reginald Brett, lawyer-detective, to find the real murderer.

Winter, a Scotland Yard detective, finds a man who saw the real murderer of Sir Alan and shows Brett a typewritten note supposed to have been written by the guilty person.

Capella leaves suddenly on a secret mission to Naples, followed by Holden, one of Brett's men. Mr. Jiro, a Japanese, who knows more than he tells, is asked to translate an inscription on the weapon used by Sir Alan's slayer.

The ladies came back, laden with good things from the kitchen, which they insisted on carrying themselves, much to the astonishment of the servants.

The tactful lawyer drew Hume and Helen outside to discuss immediate arrangements. David promised faithfully to return from the rectory in 15 minutes, and Brett re-entered the library.

Robert Hume-Frazier gave evidence of his semi-starvation. He tried to disguise his eagerness, but in vain. Biscuits, sandwiches and soup vanished rapidly, until Margaret suggested a further supply.

"Hold me responsible! What do you mean? Did you kill my brother?" She rose to her feet. Her eyes seemed to peer into his soul.

"By God," he cried, "this is too much! Why didn't you ask your husband that question?"

"Because my husband, with all his faults, is innocent of that crime. He was with me in London the night that Alan met his death."

"And I, too, was in London. I left Stowmarket at 6 o'clock."

"The other turned to him with eager pleading. 'In heaven's name, Mr. Brett, if you know all about my movements that day, disabuse Margaret's mind of the terrible idea that prompted her question.'"

"Why did you come here on that occasion?" "The truth must out now. My two uncles swindled my father—that is, Margaret, your father led my Uncle David with him in a most unjust proceeding."

"My dear girl," he answered, "I am really a very unfortunate person. I own a hundred thousand acres of the best land in South America, and I have been in England nearly two years trying to raise capital to develop it."

"The affair killed him. I made my own way in the world, and came here to ask Alan to help to undo the wrong done years ago, and help me to get on my feet."

"Why did you not come forward then?" "Why? No man could have better reasons. First it seemed to me that David had killed him. Then, when the second trial ended, I came to the conclusion—Lord help my wits—that there was some underhanded work about the succession to the property, and my doubts appeared to receive confirmation by the news of Margaret's marriage."

"He looked at her steadily before he explained: 'Because you are a woman.'"

only have helped to hang one of my own relatives. 'It never occurred to you that you might be suspected?'

"You have also convinced me, Mr. Frazier," said Brett quietly.

CHAPTER XVII. "CHARCHIEZ LA FEMME"

The three men drove to Stowmarket in the same vehicle, the rooms returning in the second dog cart.

Hume broke in with a laugh: "That shows why he was so unusually attentive when I arrived this evening. He spotted me getting out of the train, and would not leave me until I was clear of the station."

"It depends on how many of our precious collection you are acquainted with," said Robert.

"The only person Mr. Brett is not acquainted with is my father," exclaimed David, stiffly.

"I was not alluding to him, of course. Indeed, I had not individual specially in mind."

"There again—how do you define the word 'relative.' I suppose, Mr. Brett, you are fairly well posted in the history of our house?"

"Well, has it never struck you that there was something queer about the manner of my Uncle's Alan's marriage—Margaret's father, I mean?"

"Nothing definite. When I was a midshipman on board the Northumberland I have a lively recollection of a fiendish row between a man named Somers and another officer who passed some chaffing remark about my respected uncle's goings on in Italy."

"That question may soon be answered," said Brett.

WALL STREET STRONGER

Stock Market Opens Higher and Firmer All Around—Industrials Show Improvement

(Special to The Telegram.) NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The stock market opened strong and higher all around. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was the leader in the early trading, scoring an advance of 1 1/2 per cent, on good buying by the same interests who have been quietly accumulating their stock for some days. The balance of the traction stocks were dull and irregular with Manhattan fractionally lower.

St. Paul, after a fairly strong opening, developed a small rally in some issues, heavy profit-taking sales, and sold off to 1 1/2, or 2 per cent share from the opening. There was good support at this stage, which brought about a rally to 17 1/2. There was a great deal of profit taking in Southern Pacific, which caused a decline of 1/4 from the closing figures of yesterday. There was a renewal of the buying from the same sources as yesterday, however, and the stock scored a good rally.

The industrials were weak at the start, but after a decline of 2 per cent, Tennessee Coal and Iron was supported and not only regained the early loss, but advanced to 24 1/2 above the previous closing. Colorado Fuel and Iron was in good demand on the decline, and regained all the early loss. Transactions were not as large as yesterday, but were on a fairly large scale. Sales to noon amounted to $97,990 shares.

At the beginning of the afternoon session the whole list turned weak, liquidation setting in all along the line. New York Central, Pennsylvania and St. Paul were among those most affected. The former selling off to 15 1/4, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Missouri, Pacific, Reading and in fact all the rails suffered severe declines. Late in the session the tractions became affected and gave away under heavy profit-taking sales, losing all of the day's advance and more. The industrials also broke toward the close of the session, Colorado Fuel being the weakest in this department.

There was a small rally in some issues toward the last, but the list as a rule closed very weak, with prices at about the bottom for the day.

WHEAT OPENING WEAKER Heavy Selling From Start of the Market, Valentine Being Leader. Market Closes at Loss

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Wheat opened weak at a decline of 3/8 to 1/2 per cent for May. There was very heavy selling from the start. Mr. Valentine being the leader in this movement, which was very little supported, and no encouragement from the cash markets. Duluth reported no demand for cash wheat, the millers being inclined to wait until the market becomes more settled. Under $14 some support was extended in the shape of buying by Pringle & Irwin, Green & Co. The market did not respond to this, however, and ruled weak throughout, finally closing near the bottom at 11 1/2, or a loss of 2 1/2 per cent from last night's closing.

Provisions opened weak, in sympathy with wheat. There was some early support, but the weakness of wheat was apparently too much for the bulls in corn and the support was withdrawn, whereupon the market sagged off to 4 1/2 per cent, where it closed. Mr. Phillips was out with a bullish opinion on corn and strongly advised his friends to make purchases on the decline.

CHICAGO CASH GRAIN (By Private Wire to M. H. Thomas & Co.) CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 28.—The cash grain market was quoted today as follows:

LIVERPOOL GRAIN CABLE (By Private Wire to M. H. Thomas & Co.) LIVERPOOL, Feb. 28.—The following changes were noted today in the grain and wheat markets:

COTTON OPENS UNCHANGED Liverpool Strength Has No Effect at Opening—Advance Develops Toward Close

(Special to The Telegram.) NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Cotton opened practically unchanged this morning and was moderately active for a time. Under liquidation and bear pressure growing out of better weather a larger increase in receipts and reports of weakening by the interior holders, the market declined 12 to 15 points, with what was termed a "ease."

The steady and higher opening of Liverpool, with a good spot demand and sales of 12,000 bales had little or no effect on our market, inasmuch as at their close, which was only 2 to 3 points lower than yesterday, found our market at the low point of the day. At the beginning of the afternoon session, however, a better demand for spots was reported throughout the southern markets and support was given by brokers believed to represent a large Philadelphia spot house, causing a gradual advance to the close, ending the early loss.

It's a Changed World

To old folks, folks whose time-dimmed eyes are made young again through the magic of right-fitting glasses. And this pleasure and comfort costs so little measured by its value, there should be none who may say "they can't see as they used to."

ORDINANCE NO. 927
An Ordinance to Prevent Cruelty to Animals.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Fort Worth: Section 1. That it shall be hereafter unlawful for any one to cruelly beat or otherwise cruelly mistreat any dumb animal in the City of Fort Worth, or to wantonly kill, maim, wound, poison or disgrace any horse, ass, mule, cattle, sheep, goat, swine, dog or beast of any kind, or to mutilate or cruelly kill other domesticated animal or bird, or to drive, over-drive, over-load or unnecessarily confine or in any manner oppress the same; or to unnecessarily fail to provide the same with proper food or drink or shelter, or to work or use the same when such animal is maimed, wounded, sick, lame or otherwise unfit for labor; or to willfully abandon same to die; or to carry or cause same to be carried, hauled or forced along in a cruel or inhuman manner, or to leave any animal tied up, or confined anywhere, day or night, without proper feeding and caring for same. This article is not to be construed to prevent policemen or other persons from killing dogs when lawfully entitled to do so.

Section 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of the foregoing section of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than two dollars nor more than five dollars, which said fine shall be inflicted against any person violating the aforesaid section of this ordinance on the first conviction for such violation.

Section 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance after having been once before found guilty of violating this ordinance, shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars.

Section 4. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance after having been twice before convicted for violations of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than one hundred dollars.

Section 5. That all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent that they are in conflict herewith.

Section 6. This ordinance to be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication as required by law. Filed Feb. 17, 1905.

$100 REWARD, $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one drenched disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Are You Fat?

Kellogg's Obesity Food Will Reduce Your Weight to Normal, Free You From Suffering and Turn Your Fat Into Muscle

It Has Done This For Many Others Who Testify to Its Efficacy—Trial Package Free

The Above Illustration Shows the Remarkable Effects of this Wonderful Obesity Food—What it Has Done for Others it Will Do for You Don't be fat. It is an abnormal and diseased condition of the body. Nutrition that should have built up bone and muscle for you has made fat instead.

Excess fat is attended by many dangers. The heart, stomach, liver and kidneys become seriously affected; breathing is made difficult and often, though seemingly well, the fat person is in grave danger.

Don't starve yourself. You will only become weakened and aggravate your condition without losing flesh.

There is a sure way and a safe way. Hundreds of reputable people testify to what Kellogg's Obesity Food has done for them. It has turned their fat into muscle. They submit their photographs as corroborative evidence. Can you doubt such proof?

Don't be fat. Write to me today and I will send you free, a trial package, postpaid, in plain wrapper.

Among the many instances of relief and cure through Kellogg's Obesity Food, the case of Mr. H. S. Myers, of Pensilvania, LaFayette Co., Pa., may be mentioned. Mr. Myers has been greatly benefited and gratified with the result; he writes as follows:

"Dear Mr. Kellogg:—I want to thank you for your Obesity treatment and tell you that there is something truly remarkable and wonderful about it. I began losing in weight the first week and am now 70 pounds lighter than before taking and am still losing. The treatment is all and more than you claim it to be. I never felt better in my life than I do today. My health is better than for years, and although I am 48 years old, I feel as strong and active as at 18. I shall use my best endeavors to induce all afflicted as I was, to do as I have done and enjoy comfort and health. I will be glad to answer all letters of inquiry that come to me at any time."

Send your name and address—no money—today to F. J. Kellogg, 1210 Kellogg Bldg., Battle Creek, Mich., and receive your trial package in plain wrapper free by mail.

lines mentioned in these resolutions, and shall act in connection with the other committees that may be appointed as provided hereby, and said joint committee to have entire charge of all arrangements with reference to the reception and entertainment, with full power to appoint sub-committees and to do any and all other things necessary in the premises.

The committee then supplemented its report by the following resolutions, which were also adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Roosevelt Central Republican Club that all organizations of the city desiring to do so should have the opportunity to join in the welcome and entertainment to be given our president when he visits our city, and that the committee on arrangements provided by the resolutions just adopted is hereby instructed to communicate with and invite the Grand Army of the Republic of this city, the Confederate camp, the Civil League and the Federation of Labor to take part in the welcome and entertainment of the president, in conjunction with other bodies, by such action as the several named organizations may determine to take, under the direction of the joint committee provided for in the above named resolutions.

NORTHERN PACIFIC TO BUILD

Announces Plans for Eight Six-Story Buildings in Seattle

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 28.—The Northern Pacific Railway Company announces that it will immediately begin the construction of eight six-story buildings, each of them occupying half a block, all to be erected upon the railroad's property holdings in the heart of the wholesale district of this city. The improvements will cost $2,000,000.

CROP OUTLOOK GOOD

Reports Received by Rock Island Best in Five Years

The general passenger department of the Rock Island yesterday received reports from its agents along the Graham and Amarillo divisions, giving a brief statement of the outlook for crops during the coming season. The reports give conditions as being first-class and better than they have been in five years.

There has been from eight to nine inches of snow along the Graham branch, which has put the ground in fine shape for crops. Grass is already beginning to show and on the whole the conditions along the Rock Island are reported very flattering.

C. G. WARNER ILL.

Compelled to Cut Short Stay in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The stay in this city of C. G. Warner, vice president of the Missouri Pacific railway, has been cut short by his serious illness and he is now traveling to St. Louis in his private car.

He came to California several weeks ago for his health and showed decided improvement. Sunday he was taken ill and his order for apartments at a local hotel was countermanded.

PISTOLS MAY NOW BE SENT THROUGH MAILS

Postal Clerks Dislike Ruling Which Allows Weapons to Be Sent Like Ordinary Merchandise

Postal clerks in the local postoffice have expressed regret that Postmaster General Wynne has issued an order permitting pistols and small firearms to be sent through the mails. Under the old ruling the revolvers had to be taken to pieces before being received as mail matter as it is now, so the order reads, "postmasters at the mailing offices will carefully examine each package and will receive it only when sure that it is harmless."

"That means we will have to take chances of being shot every time some man sends a gun through the mail," said one of the clerks. "Of course the fellow who mails it will say 'it isn't loaded,' but you know the usual story of the unloaded gun."

Assistant Postmaster McKee makes the announcement that despite the new order there will be few pistols sent through the mails, as express rates on such articles are cheaper.

COUNTY TAX RATE IS MADE HIGHER

Total State and County Rate Now Five and One-half Cents More

The county tax rate will be 5 1/2 cents more the coming year than it was last year, the county commissioners' court this morning deciding that an increase was necessary to meet all obligations of the county.

Last year the rate was 96 1/6 cents on the $100 valuation, for both county and state taxes. Under the new county rate the total tax will be $1.01 2/3 cents. County Collector Walker stated today that the total rate may still be increased, provided the state rate is increased, which is more than likely. He thinks that if an increase is authorized by the legislature it will not be in excess of 9 cents, the present state rate being 34 2/3 cents on the $100 valuation.

The increase of the state rate will depend entirely upon whether tax measures now pending in the legislature become law. If they do not, Mr. Walker is confident that the rate will be advanced.

The commissioners' court Monday afternoon levied a tax of 25 cents on the $100 for general county expenses; 27.05 cents for road and bridge purposes; 2.95 cents

NOT FOR BEST FARM

In the State

"I saw so much in the papers about the wonderful cure effected by Pyramid Pills Cure, I determined to give it a trial. I bought from my druggist one fifty cent box and used it as directed and by the time I had used the last 'pyramid' I was entirely cured in four days after I began to use the 'pyramid' all inflammation was gone. I was perfectly easy all the time, the excessive discharge stopped at once, and stools became easy and gentle."

"I was unable to get my own firewood for four months, and half the time when I could walk at all I had to walk half bent. I used many pile remedies, salves and ointments, all to no effect until I used one fifty cent box of Pyramid Pills Cure and was cured."

"I would not be afflicted as I was four months ago for the best farm in the state of Arkansas. I can give proof and reference of the wonderful cure to all who are afflicted as I was. Please publish my letter that I may advise the afflicted."

The experience of Mr. Wallis is that of thousands of others who suffer for years with the most painful forms of hemorrhoids, or piles, and after trying everything they hear of, give up all hope of a cure and look for temporary relief only. To all such a little book published by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., brings glad tidings, as it tells all about the cause and cure of piles, and is sent free for the asking.
