DEFENSE ENDS IN CHADWICK CASE

Taking of Testimony Is Concluded and Arguments Before Jury Begun

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT

State's Strongest Evidence Is Letters From Defendant Regarding Checks

CLEVELAND, March 9.—The defense in the Chadwick case closed its case this morning. It is expected arguments will be concluded this afternoon.

CLEVELAND, March 9.—The case of the government against Mrs. Chadwick was completed yesterday afternoon. One witness for the defense, an expert accountant, was sworn, but an adjournment was taken before he had given any testimony.

The most important point made by the prosecution in its entire case was made yesterday when District Attorney Sullivan after a hard fight with the attorneys for the defense secured the admission as testimony of two drafts aggregating $5,000, issued by the Oberlin bank in favor of Mrs. Chadwick August 4, 1903. On this same date Mrs. Chadwick obtained from the bank a certified check for $12,500, and Receiver Lyon testified that there was nothing on the books of the bank to show that at the time of receiving the drafts and the check Mrs. Chadwick had a cent of money in the bank or was in any way entitled to credit. The drafts were entered on the books of the bank one month and five days after being issued. During this time the books of the Oberlin bank showed that the money was held in its credit to the Importers and Traders bank in New York, while it was really in the possession of Mrs. Chadwick. It is believed that only a part of the next session of the court will be required for the witnesses for the defense and that the attorneys will begin their arguments soon.

Last night both sides expressed themselves with the case as made out by the court. District Attorney Sullivan said:

"I think we have made out a strong case. It is not over, but I believe we have proved conclusively that a conspiracy existed between Beckwith, Spear and Mrs. Chadwick."

Attorney Doversly, acting for Mrs. Chadwick, said:

"I did not think that the government would be able to make out a case of conspiracy against Mrs. Chadwick, and I do not think that it has done so."

Two letters written by Mrs. Chadwick to Beckwith and Spear were read during the afternoon session and afforded considerable amusement to the court. The first letter was written jointly to Beckwith and Spear and related to a loan which Mrs. Chadwick had secured from W. L. Fay of Elyria, Ohio. It declared that the writer had given a check to Fay and when he came to see them about it all they had to do was to say that they had agreed to extend her paper. It would not be necessary for them to say anything beyond that.

The letter concluded:

"He said that you would be surprised to see the check in his hands, so you had better be surprised. If you don't say it you can look it."

The second letter was written to Spear alone. In it Mrs. Chadwick asked him to certify a check to be given by her to Henry Wurst of Elyria, saying that she would get the goods in the east to meet the check.

"So draw a check for $15,000," the letter said, "and I will sign it and pay you well for it. I am about to do something of great interest to us all."

District Attorney Sullivan in great stress in presenting the letters to the jury, to the apparent fact that Mrs. Chadwick was asking for the certification of a check not only when she had no funds in the bank, but even before she had signed it.

A curiosity to be seen at Berlin is a pair of curtains made of champagne corks, each cork being still covered by the gilt paper associated with the brands.

TIE PASS REPORTED IN HANDS OF THE JAPANESE

New Chwang, March 9, via Tien Tsin.—It is reported here that Tie Pass has been invested by the Japanese, and Gen. Kuropatkin, having no alternative, probably will be forced to surrender within a week.

SENATOR BATE OF TENNESSEE DEAD

End Comes Suddenly in Washington Following Attack of Pneumonia

WASHINGTON, March 9.—United States Senator Bate of Tennessee died here at 6 o'clock this morning. The cause of his death was pneumonia and a defective heart. He died at his apartments at the Ebbitt house.

Senator Bate was twice governor of his state; a veteran of both the Mexican and civil wars, rising from private to major general in the latter and for eighteen years was a conspicuous member of the upper house of congress.

Senator Bate attended the inauguration ceremonies March 4 and his death is believed to be due primarily to exposure on that occasion. He suffered a slight chill that day. He, however, continued his official duties and occupied his seat in the senate last Tuesday. He became suddenly ill at the dinner table that evening and immediately called for a physician. He was not to bed and despite the efforts of a physician he became steadily worse.

TO ELECT SUCCESSOR

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 9.—The Tennessee legislature adjourned soon after it was called to order today out of respect to Senator Bate. It was decided that during the brief session to elect Senator Bate's successor on March 21.

Senator Bate, who was elected last fall to succeed himself, his time expiring March 4, had therefore just entered upon a new term. Governor Frazier, former Governor Robert L. Taylor and Hon. Benton McMillan are mentioned to succeed Mr. Bate, but the impression prevails the legislature will decide upon Governor McMillan.

JUDGE CALHOUN TAKES THE STAND

Presiding Officers in Moore Bribery Hearing, Testifies Today

SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 9.—The feature of today's testimony in the Warren Moore bribery case now on trial in the Fifty-third district court, was that given by Judge George Calhoun, the presiding judge in the case.

Judge Calhoun testified that he had three conversations with McFall about the case; that McFall told him about the latter part of January last that Governor Sayers had discovered the $12,500 draft as an item of expense in dismissing the anti-trust cases and had told George Allen about it.

McFall told the witness that he had two witnesses who knew all about it. Witness said that McFall had talked to Warren Moore about it and told Moore that Judge Morris was the man who was bribed.

Warren said to McFall that if he could prove that Morris was the man who was bribed (Moore) would join in the prosecution. The witness said he asked McFall what was back of all this and what had Glover against Moore. McFall said that Kirby had promised Glover $30,000 for buying Warren Moore and when Glover asked Kirby about it Kirby laughed at Glover.

J. L. Hume, president of the First National Bank, testified that he had bought Wortham's plantation and assumed certain obligations that Wortham owed the bank.

Former Congressman Ball, one of the attorneys for defense, read a statement from Judge Streetman in which Streetman said that McFall had agreed with Wortham that the anti-trust cases might be dismissed and refilled after the First National Bank had re-opened and that the dismissal of the last case was secured by bribery of the district attorney and district judge.

Attorney Joe Eagle was placed on the stand by the defense and testified about Wortham coming to his office and wanting a settlement with Kirby.

POLICE SEEKING GLEW FOR MURDER

Have Not Yet Given Up The-ory Mrs. Stanford Was the Victim of Plot

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Though they still believe proof of murder is inconclusive, the police of this city are trying to find a possible motive for poisoning Mrs. Stanford.

With this end in view they are making a minute investigation into the stories of household intrigues told by Beverly, the former butler, and Elizabeth Richmond, the former maid of Mrs. Stanford, who now lives in Beverly's home at San Mateo. It is believed among the stories of quarrels and "graff" a hint of the motive for the murder may be found.

Albert Beverly, the former butler, has, it is said, made a statement to the police to the effect that by the means of "trike downs" and commissions he "graffed" about $2,100. He reiterates his story that he divided the "trike down" with Mrs. Berner, Mrs. Stanford's secretary, and that her share amounted to between $1,000 and $1,100.

London possesses a curiosity in the Southwark El Market, which is said to have been held regularly for over 200 years. It is little known except in the neighborhood where it is held.

JAPS CUT RAILROAD NORTH OF MUKEDEN

Dispatch to Tokio Says Russian Retreat Has Been Blocked. St. Petersburg Declares Line of Communication Still Open. Tokio Begins Celebrating Victory

TOKIO IS CELEBRATING

Full Extent of Marshal Oyama's Victory Not Yet Known

TOKIO, noon, March 9.—Although the actual extent of the success gained by Field Marshal Oyama's army is unknown, Tokio is already celebrating the victory. Flags are going up all over the city and crowds on the streets are eagerly buying extra editions of the local papers and congratulating one another in the office of the minister of war and to the army staff headquarters. It is rumored General Kuropatkin's retreat has been partly cut off, insuring heavy losses of supplies and the capture of many prisoners, but this is impossible to confirm. Official announcement of the result of Field Marshal Oyama's victory is expected later today.

DEMAND IMPARTIALITY

Japanese Insist on Transportation of Rice for Troops

TIENTSIN, March 9, 2 p. m.—The Japanese have requested the transportation of 450 tons of rice to Simmlin. Unless the request is complied with the Japanese threaten to seize the railroad. The Russians are constantly shipping wheat and coal to Simmlin and are not interfering with the Japanese demand impartiality. Today they again seized the telegraph office at Simmlin.

RESPECT CHINESE TOMBS

Marshal Oyama Gives Orders Preventing Troops from Desecrating Chinese Burial Places

TOKIO, March 9, noon.—Field Marshal Oyama, in an order received directing the pursuit of the retreating Russians yesterday, restrained his troops from entering Mukden in masses, in order to preserve the respect of the tombs and sacred places of the imperial Chinese household and to protect the welfare of the inhabitants.

The foregoing dispatch would indicate that the Russians have already retreated from Mukden, although the following dispatch, dated an hour earlier, says they are still in the city. The Japanese are concealing the real extent of their victory, presumably for fear lest the Russians come in possession of information as to the distance northward the right and left wings have advanced.

RUSSIANS HOLD MUKEDEN

Dispatch Says Japs Have Not Yet Captured City

MUKEDEN, March 9, 11 a. m.—Mukden is still in the hands of the Russians, but withdrawal from the lines of the Shakkie is in full progress. The Japanese are making a strong attack north of Mukden, where they occupy a right angled position, one side parallel with the railroad and three and a half miles distant and the other facing northward three miles north of the imperial tombs. The Russians have retired somewhat from the positions they occupied yesterday in the region of Tachekiao, but are making a strong stand.

BATTLE LASTS ALL DAY

Total List of Dead and Wounded Now Reaches 100,000

TOKIO, March 9, 6 a. m.—The great battle in Manchuria raged all day yesterday along the entire front. The Japanese are generally victorious and they drove the Russians from a series of important positions. By daylight it seemed imperative that General Kuropatkin would have to withdraw his shattered legions to avoid a complete disaster. Indeed, it appeared impossible for him to effect its retreat without heavy loss of prisoners, guns and stores.

The continuous battle is already the bloodiest of the war.

Upon the ground that General Oku alone gained 10,000 Russian dead. The reports from the other armies are expected to triple these figures. It is expected that the Japanese have lost 50,000, making the joint slaughter far in excess of 100,000 men, dead and wounded.

Details of the combat are lacking, but it is believed the Japanese have cut the railway north of Mukden, leaving only the roadways and a light railway from Fushun to Tie Pass as avenues for retreat of the Russians, but army headquarters refrain from affirming or denying a report to that effect.

It is thought that Mukden is still in the hands of the Russians.

OYAMA PROVES SKILL

Admirals Crushing Defeat After Trench Engagement

ST. PETERSBURG, March 9, 3 a. m.—The battle of Mukden has resulted in a Russian defeat.

Field Marshal Oyama has once more proved himself one of the greatest masters of offensive strategy since Napoleon, while General Kuropatkin is now engaged in endeavoring to defend his title as a master of successful retreats and bring off his army, with its immense train, safely to Tie Pass, where a position was long ago prepared with this contingency in view.

The problem before the Russian commander in chief is much more difficult than the one he met successfully at Liao Yang, since now he is threatened on a fierce front with a Russian force three times its number. The Russian casualties number ten thousand. The Russian center is retreating in great confusion.

General Kuropatkin's ability once more to extricate his army is in question. Besides his skill in retreat, the Russian commander in chief is in a very difficult position, they base their hopes on the physical condition of the Japanese soldiers, who though they are conceded to be the greatest fighters in the world, are well nigh exhausted by their strenuous endeavors of the last fortnight.

The great question now, and the one over which the general staff burned its lights late in the night, is whether Field Marshal Oyama has entangled the Russians in his strategic net sufficiently to prevent a successful retreat to Tie Pass. General Rennenkampf's force to the eastward admittedly is in great danger of being cut off and a considerable force of Japanese appears to be operating on the Russian right, well toward Tie Pass.

If the Japanese succeed in reaching the railroad and interrupting traffic, if only for a few hours, it may have the greatest consequences, for General Kuropatkin is now engaged on a literal case with the Japanese to reach a naturally defensible position, forty miles northward. Thus far he has stood off attacks directly against the flanks of his army and holds the way of retreat open. He undoubtedly is forced to abandon a number of siege guns at his Shakkie river position, but if he succeeds in turning over the army intact, with the principal portion of his artillery intact, the success of the Japanese will be by no means desperate, for Oyama will have again missed his quarry and a comparatively barren victory will have been purchased at enormous cost of life.

All reports indicate that the Japanese were utterly reckless of sacrifices, making attack after attack, and especially against machine guns and infantry fire, which literally mowed down the retreating columns, making human life so cheap that the survivors could bastion themselves behind piles of corpses.

After this action General Kuropatkin's position may be regarded as critical. War Minister Sukharoff is picked as his probable successor, though Grand Duke Nicholasievitch of the board of strategists may be entrusted with the direction of affairs. A strong faction of the army, whose high influence about the emperor, opposed General Kuropatkin from the first, and though his early defeats were conceded, because it was realized that General Kuropatkin was doing all man could do with the tools at his command, it is now felt that after twice having had the opportunity to show what he could do with a powerful army and having failed to accomplish victory either time, his removal is advisable. A high military official said last night that the emperor had enough of a general whose interpretation of a victory was a successful retreat.

WAR OFFICE DENIES HAS BEEN A DISASTER

Admits Defeat of Kuropatkin, But Declares Line of Communication North of Mukden Interrupted

ST. PETERSBURG, March 7, 2:50 p. m.—The veil has been drawn over the progress of General Kuropatkin's heroic efforts to extricate his beaten army, but the general staff insists while he has been defeated, yet there has been no disaster. The peril of the whole army, especially the rear guard, is admitted and Mukden may have been evacuated during last night, although nothing definite has been received on this point. Yesterday General Biderling's army which held the center, fell back upon the Hun river, clinging all day desperately to Madyou at the apex southwest of the city. One of General Lievevitch's corps was hurriedly withdrawn during Wednesday night and dispatched to the support of General Kuropatkin's hard pressed forces, who were fighting off General Nogai's flanking legions west and northwest of the city. At the same time the remainder of General Lievevitch's army fell back to the north bank of the Hun river where it checked temporarily the pursuing columns of General Kuroki, who hemmed it in west, south and east. All day yesterday and last night, wounded, munitions, baggage and stores streamed northward. The railroad and Mandarian road were almost blocked at the last moment, notwithstanding the fact that an immense amount of stores, etc., were removed last week. The Russo-Chinese bank removed to Tie Pass Sunday.

Trains are run under the Japanese guns westward, some of the projectiles reaching the railroad. General Nogai, according to the latest authentic Russian reports, already has reached a point opposite the station of Souhalt, half way between Mukden and Tie Pass, but it is believed his left is swinging still further north for a blow at the line of communications, which will realize Field Marshal Oyama's plans for closing the iron ring.

The Tokio report the railroad has actually been cut is not confirmed here, telegraph office of the contrary declaring communication with General Kuropatkin is still open. The losses already exceed those of any battle of the war. The fanaticism displayed by the Japanese is shown in an instance mentioned by a Russian correspondent who describes how a captured Japanese broke away from his captors and threw himself head-foremost into a Chinese wall.

While the defeat of Kuropatkin has revived talk of peace, it is too early yet to measure the full effect. If Kuropatkin succeeds in drawing off his army, no matter how badly shattered, the war office insists that the situation will be unchanged.

Railroad Traffic Resumed

MUKEDEN, March 9.—The Japanese during the night broke through the Russian lines and reached the railroad. The Russians later drove them away. The line was repaired and traffic resumed. Early this morning heavy fighting was in progress against the flank division and the report was received of the presence of columns of Japanese far to the northward and marching westward.

FREE PASS BILL KILLED IN HOUSE

Measure Is Postponed Until March 30, Practically Shelving It for Good

SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 9.—After a stormy session lasting three hours, the house today killed the senate anti-free pass bill by a vote of 57 to 46, on a motion to postpone the measure until March 30. Even the advocates of the bill declare it will never be called up again. The house went wild when the announcement was made that the bill had been postponed.

Representative Brown of Wharton county made quite a sensational speech in favor of postponement, when he charged that the delegates to the last democratic platform, incorporated an anti-free pass plank in the platform, when they had their pockets filled with passes. This is another platform demand which had been repudiated by the legislature.

The house today passed finally the senate bill paroling meritorious convicts after having served two years. The house passed finally the senate bill providing for the incorporation of corporations for the purpose of growing rice.

Hill Rankin Believes the Lad Killed Near Clifton Is His Younger Brother

Hill Rankin of this city will leave this evening for Clifton, Texas, to identify if possible the body of a boy found dead on the railroad tracks at that place, as his brother, Ambrose Rankin, aged 13 years.

The description of the dead boy corresponds almost exactly with that of Ambrose Rankin, who ran away from this city last Tuesday evening. He had been living in this city at 214 West Bluff street with his brother, who says he knows of no reason why the boy should wish to leave. The mother of the boys is living in Memphis, Tenn.

Following his brother's disappearance, Mr. Rankin says they heard he was on his way to Gainesville, but have not heard directly from him. A red sweater worn by the boy corresponds to the clothing description sent out from Clifton. The only point of difference, the brother says, is in the color of the eyes, which are given as blue in the description, while his brother had dark eyes.

An inquest held at Clifton resulted in a verdict of accidental death. The boy's head was crushed and both his limbs were cut off.

DISCUSS CATTLE EST MATE

The Telegram Wednesday published an interview had with Lon Barkley on the South Texas cattle situation, in which he places the number of 4-year-old steers in the country between Eagle Pass and Brownsville at more than 500,000 head.

Exceptions to this estimate are taken by Secretary Lytle of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association, and S. B. Burnett, who claim not to exceed 75,000 head are to be found in the country designated.

Mr. Barkley was seen today and sticks to his previous statements which he says are based on a personal investigation. He says he has no reason to go back on what he told a reporter of the Telegram.

I feel well and would not be without a bottle in time of need for ten times its cost.' Gives Pe-ru-na Entire Credit. Daniel D. Bidwell, Notary Public and member of I. O. O. F., 160 Pearl street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: 'When I obtained Peruna I was suffering from chronic indigestion, and kidney and bladder trouble. It helped the circulation at once. Subway Cars Running. Conditions in New York Traction Strike Said to Be Improved—Elevated Still Blocked.

NEW YORK, March 9.—With the opening of the third day of the Interborough trainmen's strike there appeared to be marked improvement in the operation of trains in the subway. Otherwise little change is noted. Traffic on the east side elevated lines, Second and Third avenues, was almost at a standstill. In fact, no trains whatever were operated during the early hours on the Second avenue line, while on Third avenue, where an attempt was made to resume service, something went wrong and for half an hour at a time no trains passed a given point.

PANAMA BOARD TO BE RELEGED

President Is Dissatisfied With Work Accomplished by Canal Commission.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Radical changes are to be made in the personnel of the Panama canal commission. President Roosevelt has let members of congress know that he is not at all satisfied with the work of the commission. He had hoped that, at the close of the session which closed last Saturday would enact legislation under which he could reconstruct the commission and place the work of building the canal on a more practicable basis than now exists.

While no statement concerning the president's intentions is obtainable at the white house, it is known to be his purpose to make such changes as, in his judgment, will facilitate work on the greater gateway. His desire, it is understood, is to reduce the commission to three members, all of whom shall be practical engineers of eminence. Under the Spooner act, one of these engineers must be from the navy and one from the army. Admiral John G. Walker now represents the navy and General George W. Davis the army on the commission. It is said, positively, that Admiral Walker will not continue long as a member of the commission. The achievements of the body under the direction of Admiral Walker have not been satisfactory to the president.

As constituted now, the commission is said to be unwieldy. It is regarded as containing too many elements which have to be adjusted, one to another, before anything definite can be done. To remedy this defect, the president, it is believed, will reduce the membership of the body and place in immediate supervision of the canal workmen who will work in conformance with the ideas of himself and Secretary Taft. Doing this, the president will exercise his discretion about appointing several members of the body, as provided under the Spooner act. It is very likely, indeed, that eventually he will reduce the commission to three members, simply not filling the places of those whose resignation shall have been accepted.

The president is deeply interested in the construction of the canal and proposes to do everything possible to facilitate the work. By adopting such a plan as here outlined, he hopes to get together homogeneous and harmonious working forces that will do things and achieve results.

Sleeplessness. Sleeplessness, restlessness, nervousness, irritability, are the outward signs of inward nerve disturbance. The fault is not with the nerve which gives you your vitality, but with the nerves which enable you to feel, to walk, to talk, to think, to see. But the INSIDE nerves, the automatic power nerves—these are the nerves that work wear and worry breaks down.

I have not room here to explain how the tender nerves are destroyed, but I can state the stomach, the heart, the kidneys, the liver. How excesses and strains and overindulgences destroy their delicate fibers. How, through a bond of sympathy, weakness in one center is conveyed to each of the other centers. How this same bond of sympathy binds the outward signs of nervousness which should warn us of the trouble within. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be cured, but I can state how they are cured, and strengthened and vitalized and made well by a remedy I spent thirty years in perfecting—now known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I have not room to explain how this remedy by removing the cause, puts a certain end to all forms of nervousness, inward and outward including fretfulness, restlessness, sleeplessness, irritability. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will send you when you write.

In more than a million homes my remedy is known and relied upon. Yet you may not have heard of it. So I make this offer to you, a stranger, that every possible excuse for doubt may be removed. Send no money—make no promise—take no risk. Simply write and ask. If you have never tried my remedy, I will send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle—not a sample, but the regular standard bottle he keeps constantly on his shelves. Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Sleeplessness, restlessness, nervousness, irritability, are the outward signs of inward nerve disturbance. The fault is not with the nerve which gives you your vitality, but with the nerves which enable you to feel, to walk, to talk, to think, to see. But the INSIDE nerves, the automatic power nerves—these are the nerves that work wear and worry breaks down. I have not room here to explain how the tender nerves are destroyed, but I can state the stomach, the heart, the kidneys, the liver. How excesses and strains and overindulgences destroy their delicate fibers. How, through a bond of sympathy, weakness in one center is conveyed to each of the other centers. How this same bond of sympathy binds the outward signs of nervousness which should warn us of the trouble within. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be cured, but I can state how they are cured, and strengthened and vitalized and made well by a remedy I spent thirty years in perfecting—now known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I have not room to explain how this remedy by removing the cause, puts a certain end to all forms of nervousness, inward and outward including fretfulness, restlessness, sleeplessness, irritability. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will send you when you write. In more than a million homes my remedy is known and relied upon. Yet you may not have heard of it. So I make this offer to you, a stranger, that every possible excuse for doubt may be removed. Send no money—make no promise—take no risk. Simply write and ask. If you have never tried my remedy, I will send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle—not a sample, but the regular standard bottle he keeps constantly on his shelves. The druggist will require no conditions. He will accept my order as cheerfully as though your dollar lay before him. He will send the bill to me. Will you accept this opportunity to learn MY EXPENSE ABSOLUTELY how to be rid forever of all forms of nervousness and insomnia—to be rid not only of the trouble, but of the very cause which produced it? Write today. For a free order Book 1 on Dyspepsia. Book 2 on the Heart. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Book 4 for Women. Book 5 for Children. Book 6 on Rheumatism. A solemn duty which we owe society, our children and ourselves is that nothing which can be done to assist nature at that time when our wives are to become mothers should be left undone. When a community is prosperous, abundant wealth and contentment prevails. The bank clearings for the year 1904—$188,484,605.02—show a marvelous growth over those of 1903—$168,007,238.56, an increase of $19,577,266.46. THE WILLIAMS BILL

There appears to be a very limited understanding of the Williams intangible asset bill, and The Telegram has been asked more than once to explain what the bill really involves.

The Cotton Belt railway is to expend a half million dollars in Texas betterments and improvements, as a result of the visit of President Edwin Gould to the state last winter.

News from St. Petersburg indicates that the big strike among the laborers of that city is still spreading, and there yet remains a strong probability that it will prove strike for freedom.

The state legislature attended the Reagan funeral at Palestine in a body and it was a fitting tribute to the memory of the Grand Old Commoner, who served his country so long and so well.

Buffalo Bill has stated publicly in court that he desires no reconciliation with Mrs. Buffalo Bill, and this may be accepted as conclusive evidence that the grizzled old scout knows when he has had a sufficiency.

The Texas reunion of Roosevelt's Rough Riders heretofore announced to be held in San Antonio on March 31, has been postponed until April 7, as the Japanese appear to be bringing our old friend Kuropatkin in a very tight place, and are also giving him the worst drubbing a Russian commander has received.

Providing for the erection of packing houses to be operated under state supervision, will receive support as a matter of interest at this time, says the Drivers' Journal.

Our own state of Illinois is the last to take action in this matter. Representative Canady yesterday introducing a bill providing for the erection of two meat packing plants—one at the state prison at Joliet and the other at the Chester prison.

The girl threw White over and married the wealthy young man.

The woman is still in Washington, though the prosperous judge does not know it. She does not attend receptions.

There may be a few larger cities than Fort Worth in Texas, but it is morally certain that there are none better.

The Texas lumbermen are preparing to hold their annual meeting in this city, and Fort Worth is pining to give them a taste of the genuine old Fort Worth hospitality.

The Cotton Belt railway is to expend a half million dollars in Texas betterments and improvements, as a result of the visit of President Edwin Gould to the state last winter.

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

CATTLE PAPER SAFE

According to the Cincinnati Price Current, the president of a western bank is credited with saying: "In recent years the banker, in making a cattle loan, knew almost to a certainty that the average borrower had to lose money."

"One of the greatest safeguards of the credit business is anticipation of borrowers' profits. In making a loan the credit man ought to feel reasonable assurance that before he repays there will be an accretion."

It is plain from this explanation that the intention of the author of the bill is to smoke out the large interests in this state that are now evading their just proportion of state and county taxes.

CAREFUL GIRLS Mr. Justice White, of the supreme court of the United States, and Mrs. White, are giving some handsome entertainments in their beautiful home in Washington.

Just to what extent the bills now being introduced into state legislatures, the president finds he cannot conveniently be on hand at the date first selected.

Another big snow up in the Texas Panhandle this week has only served to add several bushels more per acre to the already promising wheat crop of that section.

There is one fact that stands out to the credit of General Kuropatkin at the time when all the world is criticizing him for his lack of military ability.

As the days pass by the chances for Thomas K. Niedringhaus to be elected United States senator from the state of Missouri seem to grow more beautifully less.

It is rumored that there are to be more bribery indictments at Austin, and in view of the testimony already offered it is surprising that such action has not already been taken.

Former United States Senator Cannon has been dismissed from the Morning church for "un-Christian-like conduct and apostasy."

The state legislature is after the men who are engaged in the promotion of litigation through the encouragement of the damage suit industry.

Judge John H. Reagan was a native of Tennessee, and the legislature of that state adjourned out of respect to his memory when informed of his death.

The Japs appear to be bringing our old friend Kuropatkin in a very tight place, and are also giving him the worst drubbing a Russian commander has received.

Our own state of Illinois is the last to take action in this matter. Representative Canady yesterday introducing a bill providing for the erection of two meat packing plants.

There seems to be a general desire on the part of the legislators of the various states to learn something of the packing business by actual experience.

"Why he growled" Look here! I believe I have been bunked in the stock you sold me.

"That's just the trouble; I haven't realized a cent." Chicago News.

A LEGACY OF HATE

By LOUIS TRACY Copyright, 1934, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

After a quarrel with his cousin David, Sir Alan Hume-Frazier is found murdered at Beecherot Hall, near Stowmarket.

WINTER, a Scotland Yard detective, finds a man who saw the real murderer of Sir Alan and shows Brett a typewritten note supposed to have been written by the guilty person.

Smith entered with a telegram. It was in the typed capitals usually associated with continental messages.

"Johnson leaves Naples tonight with others. I travel same train—Holiden."

"What does he mean by 'others'? Who is Capella bringing with him?"

"How the how can I tell?" "Now, mark you, Capella wishes to be rid of his wife, by death or legal separation.

"No, not exactly, Mr. Brett. I must admit that each one of them is your discovery, except the fact that he is a Jap—always excepting that—but yesterday I knows what Capella has accomplished, and thinks it is unnecessary to remain longer in Naples. He is right, I tell you, Wintler, I like Holiden."

"HE PUTS TOGETHER A SMALL ELECTRIC MACHINE AND I TAKE IT APART."

"And I tell you, Mr. Brett, I couldn't make out Holiden's telegram in that fashion. When shall I see you next?"

"Well, until then my address is 'Hotel Metropole, Brighton.'"

"I'm not joking, Mr. Brett. That is the name of the mysterious gent in No. 37—Ooma, no initials. Anyhow, that is the name he gives to the landlady and her daughter—the girl you followed from the hotel—tells all her friends that when he gets his rights he will marry her and make her a princess."

"Excuse my appearance," he said, "I have had no time for even a wash since this morning. On board the boat I thought it best to keep a constant watch on Capella and his companions."

"Who are they?" demanded Brett. Mr. Holden looked at the lawyer with an injured air.

yard, take a rise out of Brett in this manner.

"As I was saying, gentlemen, I kept an observant eye on Capella and his companions, and at the same time occupied myself in the fabricating of certain little models with which to illustrate my subsequent remarks."

"He produced a map of Naples, which he carefully smoothed out on the table, pressing the creases with his fingers until Brett itched to twerk his long nose both ways."

On the face of the map he located a number of small wooden carvings, which were really very ingenious. They represented churches, an hotel, a mansion, an ordinary public building, a public institution, and a non-descript structure difficult to classify.

"Allow me to remark," interpolated Brett, "that your telegrams were admirably terse and to the point."

"Thank you, sir. Many eminent judges have complimented me on my manner of giving evidence. And now to business, I arrived at the railway station here (touching the nondescript building), and took a room in the Villa Nuova here (he ticked a finger on the mansion), which, as you see, is quite close to the Hotel de Londres here (a flourish over the hotel), at which, as I expected, Mr. Capella took up his abode."

"It appears further," he resumed, "that the Englishman and the Signorina di Orvieto could not marry, on account of some foolish religious scruples held by the young lady, but they entertained a very violent passion for each other, met clandestinely, and a female child was born, whose father is registered under the name of Margarieta di Orvieto, in the church of the village of La Scullio here."

"The two were living there in great secrecy, as they were in fear of their lives, not alone from the young lady's relatives, but from her discarded lover, the Marchese di Capella, father of the present Mr. Giovanni Capella, who has dropped the title in England."

The affair created some stir in the Naples of that day, but Beecherot's suffering, the calm face with which, after the girl's death, he defied those who vowed vengeance on him, and the generally passionate nature of the attachment between the two, created much public sympathy for him.

"The two were living there in great secrecy, as they were in fear of their lives, not alone from the young lady's relatives, but from her discarded lover, the Marchese di Capella, father of the present Mr. Giovanni Capella, who has dropped the title in England."

Some of our democrats have fallen into the dangerous habit of defending a protective tariff when it hits some industry in their locality.

"I don't know, Mr. Brett." "Unless I am much mistaken, you will learn tonight, Holiden is nearly due."

"What has Ferguson got to do with the business?" asked the detective.

"This gentleman, like all Japanese, has twenty other names," he said, "Doesn't strike you as odd that the man who struck down the late Hume-Frazier baronet on the spot so fatal to his four predecessors, should bring from a country given to such name-changes a cognomen that irresistibly recalls the original enemy of the family, David Hume?"

"It is odd," asserted Wintler. "Someone rang, and was admitted." "Mr. Holden," announced Smith.

After an exhaustive investigation, Commissioner Garfield of the government bureau of labor and commerce has made the remarkable discovery that the beef trust makes only a profit of $1.50 on each beef butchered by that concern. Remarkable. The Journal has often heard it stated that the packing houses made the first cost of the beef out of what the ordinary slaughter house throws away as offal—such as bones, horns, entrails, etc. Gar-

ELKS TO BLACK FOR CATTLEMEN

Repeating of Successful Show to Supplant Misnamed Cattlemen's Ball

It was decided at a meeting of the entertainment committee for the Cattlemen's ball this year but to have a repetition of the Elks' minstrel show instead of the usual smoker. This was decided Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the committee held in the Board of Trade rooms. Plans for the entertainment of the cattlemen were discussed in general and the final conclusion was that there should be no ball but that a smoker should be held on the second night of the convention and the minstrel show the last night. A. S. Goetz, J. E. Weeden and John Hird were appointed on a committee to arrange for a suitable hall for the smoker, while Jake Washer, W. R. Edgington and J. E. Weeden were selected to secure a number of vaudeville artists in order to provide amusement at the smoker. The advisability of giving a ball was then discussed, it being finally decided to endeavor to have the local Elks give their minstrel show, this to take the place of the ball. All of the committee were of the opinion that local society derived more benefit from the ball than the cattlemen. The following committee was then appointed to confer with the Elks in regard to reproducing the minstrel show: A. S. Goetz, C. J. McKenna, E. T. Crittenden, John Hird and C. O. Elliott. The opera house being engaged for the nights of the convention and it being impossible on this account to hold the minstrel show there, it was decided to utilize the city hall, making such enlargements to the stage as will be necessary. The committee will meet again at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

You Can Feel Better at Once!

When everything seems an effort, when you feel tired most of the time, when you wake up every morning as tired as when you went to bed,—then there is something wrong.

Nature is protesting against some neglect or some abuse.

Nature protests more often against nerve neglect than any other cause.

Remember, your strength is not in your muscles—the muscles simply work when the Nerve Force tells them to.

Even your brain does not work by itself—the substance in your brain cells must have energy to do its work; this energy must be nerve force—the same great power-of-life that controls every organ of the body.

Every form of weakness, or sickness, or disease, comes from a lack of Nerve Force to keep the organs working properly.

When one speaks of "a good constitution," one simply means a strong, healthy nerve system.

When the nerve system is not strong and well-nourished, it follows inevitably that one is easily "over-worked"—easily run down—just as Mrs. Lowry describes.

"For several months my system had been run down and I felt all worn out, tired, did not feel able to get out of bed in the morning and felt just as tired when I got up as when I retired. Had no appetite and looked pale and sallow. A friend who had used Paine's Celery Compound a couple of years ago, and who recommended it very highly, induced me to try it. I felt better at once and I found that at the end of six weeks it had changed me into a well woman, and I cannot say too much in its praise. I shall take a bottle every Spring and Fall and feel sure that it is all the medicine I shall need. Very truly yours,—Mrs. Ina M. Lowry, 3109 Duham Ave., Kansas City, Mo. (Worthy Matron Order of Eastern Star; Rec. Sec. Kansas City Friendly Aid Society.)

Paine's Celery Compound is giving new Nerve Force to thousands every day by feeding and restoring the nerves to their full strength. It never fails to build up the run down system to full, ruddy health.

Two days' treatment proves its marvelous power. You feel better at once.

Try Paine's Celery Compound to-day. Take just one dose when you go to face the hard part of the day's trials.

See how much better you feel. See how much more easily the trials roll away. Paine's Celery Compound feeds the nerves—restores them to their strength—gives them new power to send vitality and health to every part of your body, new courage to your heart, new animation to your brain.

Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University.

All reputable druggists recommend and sell Paine's Celery Compound.

HURRY UP!

Everywhere one hears that expression "hurry up!" It is a genuine American expression, expressive of the "rush" in which we live. Nothing is swift enough for us. We race against steam and lightning and find them slow. We grudge the time given to eating, and rush through our meals as though life depended upon our haste.

Life does depend on our haste, but not in the sense we look at the obituary columns of the papers and see how many prominent men are carried away by "stomach trouble," "acute indigestion" and other related diseases. Their haste has been sacrificed to the haste and rush of business which overlooked the fact that food can only nourish the body when digested and assimilated and that the digestive and assimilative processes are the most important.

Facts: Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and the associated organs of digestion and nutrition. The source of all physical strength is food, properly digested and perfectly assimilated. By enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food "Golden Medical Discovery" increases and enriches the blood supply and sends new strength to every organ of the body.

"I was at one time as I thought almost at death's door," writes Mr. J. S. Bell, of Leasda, Van Buren Co., Iowa. "I was so weak that my house and part of the time to my bed. I had taken quantities of medicines but they only seemed to feed the disease, but I must say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured me, and to-day I am stronger than I have been for twenty years. I am now forty-three years old."

County officials are planning a wolf hunt to be held during this week with a supposed band of wolves on the farm of D. R. Martin as the game. One effort to dig out the wolves has proven unsuccessful. A number of fine fox hounds have been secured to participate in the hunt.

DR. MYERS HERE FOR VISIT WITH FAMILY

Former Pastor of First Christian Church Will Engage in Evangelistic Work at Chicago
Rev. J. S. Myers, formerly pastor of the Christian Tabernacle, this city, but who has been absent for some time, returned Wednesday night and will be here for a week visiting his family. Dr. Myers has been acting pastor of the First Christian church at Atlanta, Ga., the past four or five months, in connection with lecture work through the south. He will deliver several lectures in Texas during the next three weeks, one of his engagements being at Dallas next week, where he will lecture under the auspices of the medical college.
Dr. Myers is due to reach Chicago April 1, where he will begin evangelical work among the different churches of that city, beginning at the Monroe street church. He will spend six or eight weeks in Chicago and then go to Fort Smith, Ark., where he will be engaged in similar work.

RALLY SERVICE PLANNED

Impetus to Be Given Building Plans for Old and New Structures
Sunday
A rally service for the purpose of raising funds and considering fully the plans under way for improving the present Mulkey Memorial church building and building a new church in the Eighth ward will be held at the Mulkey church Sunday morning.
Final decision as to the location of the church in the Eighth ward has not yet been made, but there is a strong feeling toward locating the church near the site of the Eighth ward school building to be completed during this summer. Several available sites in that locality and the rapid settlement of the land to the south are urged by those desiring the site.
A further meeting of the building committee is expected to be called before Sunday morning's rally.

CHURCH FUND GROWING

Subscriptions for First Methodist Building
Forty-seven thousand dollars has now been subscribed for the erection of the proposed new Methodist church. Dr. Alonzo Monk, pastor of the First Methodist church, announced this fact and says that the canvass for funds is being continued.
Dr. Monk denies the report that the new church will be built on the southwest corner of Jackson and Taylor streets and says that as yet no site has been selected.

RETURN FROM AUSTIN

General Passenger Agents Auer and Gilsom at Their Desk
Phil Auer and A. A. Gilsom, general passenger agents of the Rock Island and the Denver Road respectively, returned Wednesday night from Austin where they have been on matters connected with railroad affairs.
Mr. Auer said today that he did not look for any great amount of legislation at this session on railroad matters as very slow progress is being made in dealing with the measures now pending.
It is desired by the railroads that the law with reference to filing of damage suits against railroads should pass at this session, but there is very little show according to present indications. The law provides that unless claims are filed within ten days from the time of the alleged occurrence which would entitle them to damages, they will be barred.
Such a law, however, is not likely to pass at this session, according to railroad people here.

ELKS WILLING TO RESPOND

"If the board of trade wants the Elks lodge to give the minstrel show for the entertainment of the cattlemen, it will be done," said C. O. Elliott, exalted ruler of the local lodge of Elks, this morning.

"What I mean by this is that I am sure every member of the Elks club will be only too glad to lend a hand in making the Cattlemen's convention a success. I say this because I am sure that every man in the lodge will be only too willing to assist the board of trade.

"It really is the people of Fort Worth make the Elks club and that we depend on them for support, therefore we are glad of an opportunity to be of any service.

"If some of the men who were in our recent show are unable to participate in this reproduction of the performance, there are others who will gladly put on the burnt cork and make funny faces for the visiting cowmen.

"I make this statement unofficially for we have held no meeting yet, but as I said before, I am sure that if the Elks are called upon they will respond, for I know the Elks."
