WET SPRING AIDS WESTERN RANGES

Henry Sayles Reports Cattle Fat, Ground Boggy and Grass Growing Fast

Henry Sayles of Abilene, who is just in from the Trans-Pecos country, said today: "I was surprised to find the country northwest of Toyah, at the side of the Gandulge and Davis mountains, in such fine shape. The broad valleys among the hills are covered with weeds six inches high. The fillaree is blooming and a species of yellow weed, common in the Abilene country, is all over the flats. The loss country, in all over the flats, the grass is green on the hills, and the face of the country is of advanced spring time. I drove northwest forty miles from Toyah last Wednesday to the M ranch, through a heavy snowstorm, and was surprised to find among the hills big fat steers, sleek cows and little calves browsing undisturbed under the weeds peeping out above the snow. The weather was comparatively warm, and not a breeze disturbed the snow as it fell lightly. Before the night passed the snow was nearly gone, and the weeds stood up in the sun."

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss. Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of E. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. FRANK J. CHENEY. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1885. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials free.

shine next morning as green and as fresh as any bed of flowers in spring time. "There has been absolutely no loss in that country. I have passed through a number of pastures, including Mrs. Kendall's, Hart's, Cowan's, Mac Sayles', White's, Zapp's and others, and did not see a dead animal. I was told everywhere that not a single animal in that section had died from poverty this winter, and I believe it, for I never saw a range country anywhere in Texas in finer shape at this season of the year. In Mac Sayles' and White's pastures there are hundreds of big fat 3 and 4-year-old steers that would make good beef today. "The valleys and hill slopes are so thoroughly wet that we could not drive an empty hack pulled by two strong horses, away from the beaten roads; that country is absolutely boggy all over. "The country of which I have spoken is behind the high mountains and protected against the northerly blast so fiercely in this section of the state. This year, the dread to the cowman, a dry spring, is not a fear, but on the contrary there is enough moisture to bring and mature an immense grass crop. A great many 3 and 4-year-old steers have been held over, and they will be fat early this year. "There is a large number of coming 2c also that are in fine shape. There are no sheep in the country north of Toyah. I never expected to see the valleys green, and the wild flowers blooming in the Toyah country at this season of the year."

POINTERS FOR AMATEURS WHO WANT TO RAISE POULTRY FOR PLEASURE OR FOR PROFIT

ARTICLE I-- ADVANTAGES OF THE BUSINESS Perhaps no man in America is a better authority on everything connected with poultry than T. E. Orr, secretary-treasurer of the American Poultry Association, and superintendent of the great poultry show held on the World's Fair grounds at St. Louis last year. Mr. Orr began keeping poultry for his health, in an Ohio town, where he was superintendent of schools, about twenty-five years ago. In a few years he gave up school work, in order to give his time exclusively to running his poultry yards, and editing the poultry department of an agricultural paper. He now manages his two large poultry farms, acts as lecturer on the leading poultry shows, and is secretary-treasurer of the American Poultry Association since 1901.

By T. E. Orr. (Copyright, 1905, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.) There are some who realize good profits from their investments in the poultry business. There are many who derive much pleasure and satisfaction therefrom. But in this article we shall try to show that both are possible. And both must be possible or one will not continue it long. He who derives pleasure only, will before long seek pleasure elsewhere. He who merely makes money in any business, finding no pleasure in it, is a freak, and after a time must either fall in love with his business or quit it. One cannot profit in a business if his first investment is unreasonably large. Here is where most people starting in the business err fatally. Their first investment is too large. It being known that a profit of 25 per cent is a reasonable one to expect when handling poultry on a commercial basis, it may be easily seen that he whose original plant cost him $10 per hen cannot get back his first cost inside of five years. Too long a time to wait for profits to begin to flow. Another argument against a large start is this: One needs to learn the business and apply it practically to his particular location as he grows up with it. The poultry problem is within a few miles of a large eastern city and the poultry problem in one of our western states are two very different problems. Both are susceptible of a successful solution, but each must be solved by the individual's own particular application of himself thereto. Again, many people suppose that anybody can run the poultry business. They will generally admit that it requires years of patient experience to succeed in the horse, cattle, sheep or other business, but that the hen business is plain sailing. Please make a note of it: IT REQUIRES AS MUCH GOOD SENSE, AS MUCH DILIGENT APPLICATION, AS MUCH PERSISTENT PUSH, TO MAKE A LARGE POULTRY PLANT SUCCESSFUL AS IT DOES TO ATTAIN THE SAME MEASURES OF SUCCESS WITH ANY OTHER BUSINESS. There are these advantages in the poultry business over all other kinds of live stock husbandry. 1-It requires a very small investment

Weak Kidneys

To any Kidney sufferer who has not tried my remedy I offer a full dollar's worth free. Not a mere sample—but a regular dollar bottle—standard size and shape. There is nothing to pay, either now or later. I ask no deposit—no promise. You take no risk. The dollar bottle is free—because I am sure of its results that I can afford to make this offer. In the first place, my remedy does not treat the kidneys themselves. Such treatment is wrong. For the kidneys are not to blame for their weaknesses or irregularities. They are operated and actuated by a tiny shred of a nerve which alone is responsible for their condition. The Kidney nerve is strong and healthy the kidneys are strong and healthy. If the Kidney nerve goes wrong you know it by the result—the result—kidney weakness. This tender nerve is only one of a great system of nerves; this system controls not only the kidneys, but the heart and the liver and the stomach. For simplicity's sake I have called this great nerve system the "Inside Nerve." They are not the nerves of feeling—not the nerves that enable you to walk, to talk, to act, to think. They are the master nerves and every vital organ is their slave. The common name for these nerves is the "sympathetic nerves"—because each set is in such close sympathy with the others, that weakness in one where results in weakness everywhere. This is why I treat not the kidney that is weak but the ailing nerve that MAKES it weak. This is the secret of my success. This is why I can afford to do this unusual thing—give away FREE the first dollar bottle to ANY STRANGER who knows how my remedy succeeds. The offer is open to every one, everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. Those who have tried it do not need the evidence. I will write for a free dollar bottle order. I will then send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle, standard size and shape. He will use it down to you from his stock as freely as though your dollar lay before him and will send the bill to me. Write for the order today. For a free order Book 2 on the full dollar bottle. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Book 4 for Women. Book 5 for Men. Book 6 on Rheumatism. Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

COUNCIL ACCEPTS THE REFERENDUM

Referendum of franchise applications to the people as embodied in Mayor Powell's charter amendment was agreed to by the city council in a special meeting held Monday evening at the mayor's reception room. In the absence of both the mayor and Mayor Pro Tem Lehan, Alderman Moreland presided. Those present were Aldermen Ward, Newby, Lydon, Parker, Zurn, Waggonman and Moreland. A reconsideration of the mayor's charter action was formally moved and with but little discussion the mayor's veto was sustained. The vote sustaining the mayor's veto was unanimous. The sustaining of the veto leaves the charter amendments as originally reported by the committee and sends them before the legislature with the united support of the citizens meeting, charter committee, council and the mayor. Action was taken in advance of the regular meeting Friday night, it is announced, in order that delay might not interfere with the passage of the bill incorporating the changes at the present session of the legislature. The charter amendments are at present in the hands of Senator Hanger and Representatives Williams and Fitzhugh, who will push them before the legislature.

POINDEXTER AND BOLES EN ROUTE

The regular St. Louis National League team will be here Friday, March 17 (St. Patrick's day) and will play the local league club at Haines' park. The game will be called at 3:30 in the afternoon. The line-up of the visitors will be as follows: Second base, Farrell, left field, Shannon; center field, Smoot; shortstop, Brain; first base, Grady; right field, Dunleavy; third base, Burke; catcher, Butler; pitchers, Taylor, McFarland and Eagan. The line-up of the locals has not yet been announced, but there will be three new players on the Fort Worth team for the game. They are Walter Boles, who comes from Topeka, Kan., pitcher, who was formerly a member of the local team; L. E. Ballow of Checotah, I. T., who will be another twirler for the locals, and D. GAS FRANCHISE WILL BE ASKED Application Filed With North Fort Worth City Secretary by Local Company Application for a franchise in North Fort Worth has been filed by the Fort Worth Light and Power Company and will likely be taken up for discussion by the North Fort Worth city council tonight. The application as made seeks a fifty year franchise for the laying of gas mains for the supply of gas for light and fuel purposes. The application provides that the price charged shall be not to exceed $2 per thousand feet. No statement regarding the application could be secured this morning from the offices of the company. It is believed the matter tonight will be referred to the planning and alley committee, following the usual course of procedure. No action will be taken on the water works, bids for the construction being received until March 25.

Dramatic

Rudolph and Adolph, both Dinkenspell, caused several hours' merriment at Greenwall opera house Monday night in the farcical comedy which gives vent to character sketches involving several nationalities. Complete resemblance of Dinkenspell, horse doctor, to Dinkenspell, ladies tapper, coupled with the securing of apartments in the same flat and the ensconcing of their respective wives in the wrong apartments bring about a series of side splitting situations heightened by the clever dialect work marking the performance. Harry West and Harry Price as Rudolph and Adolph, played battledore with the English language while the dancing of Robert Mack, the gas man and Bessie Phillips, the soubrette received much applause.

Roselli, a young man of much wealth and high social standing. At the conclusion of her course, Miss King returned to America, where, according to arrangements, the baron was to follow last summer, at which time it was arranged that a wedding was to take place. The baron arrived in due time and seemed to be more madly in love than ever with his fair betrothed. Preparations for the nuptial event were being actively rushed and the beautiful Miss King was being showered with congratulations and good wishes by her companions in stage life, when there came a sudden rift in the proceedings. It was a suit of boy's clothes that blocked the course of true love. When the nobleman came face to face in broad daylight and upon a public

MANSION AND WILLARD IN "A TRIP TO EGYPT."

AN ADVENTURE COST HER A NOBLE TITLE

Daisy King, pretty actress, lost her Italian baron when she paraded in man's attire. Daisy King, a pretty and accomplished actress well known to theater goers, has become quite famous in theatrical circles for her unsatiated taste for adventure. Had it not been for this love of excitement she would now have been a baroness. It is due to Miss King's appearance at Greenwall's opera house tonight and tomorrow matinee and night as one of the leading lights in "A Trip to Egypt," that the story in question has just come to light. Three years ago Miss King was taking a special course in operatic singing at Milan. While there she met an Italian nobleman, the Baron street, with his fiancée clad in the habiliments of man it was more than his blue blood could stand, and all negotiations were off. Miss King had good and sufficient reasons for desiring to masquerade in male attire. It seems that one of her relatives at the Brooklyn navy yard had charge of the recent experiments with the submarine boat, Shark. Miss King had long cherished a desire to take a cruise in this submarine boat, and had petitioned her official relative to such an extent that at last he reluctantly consented to take her on board, but upon the condition that she was to disguise herself as a midshipman. It was after her cruise under the sea and while on her way back to her apartments that Miss King encountered her Italian lover and incidentally lost all chance to become a baroness.

WEATHER

FORECAST

The forecast for Texas east of the one hundredth meridian, issued at New Orleans, is as follows: East Texas—Tonight and Wednesday, unsettled weather, probably showers.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

D. S. Landis issued the following statement of the weather conditions this morning: High pressure dominates the lake regions, but on the south and southwest of this "high" there are snow and rain areas, rain falling over Nebraska, and snowing in Iowa, Michigan and Illinois.

A low pressure area is over the Florida peninsula, with rain falling at Jacksonville. Another "low" dominates the southern plateau regions of the Rocky mountains, giving rain in Southern Colorado and New Mexico.

The extreme northwest is coming under low pressure domination, preceded by rain over Northwest Montana. The California coast is under high pressure domination, accompanied by clear cool weather.

Texas is generally clear, without precipitation, and temperatures are generally normal.

WHAT DR. OSLER SAID

Dr. William Osler, who was lately a professor in the medical department of Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore, recently made a statement in regard to old men that has set tongues wagging all over the United States and Canada.

I have two fixed ideas well known to my friends. The first is the comparative uselessness of men above 40 years of age.

It is difficult to name a great and far-reaching conquest of the mind which has not been given to the world by a man whose back the sun was still shining.

In the science and art of medicine there has been no advance of the first rank which has not been initiated by young or comparatively young men.

The young men should be encouraged and afforded every possible chance to show what is in them.

My second idea is the uselessness of men above 60 years of age and the incalculable benefit it would be in commercial, political and professional life.

As it can be maintained that all the great advances have come from men under 40, so the history of the world shows that a very large proportion of the evils may be traced to the sexagenarians.

Dr. Osler's remarkable ideas were carried out the world would have the benefit of but very little mature thought and calculation.

The successful business and professional men of today are men whose heads have been frosted by the passage of more than forty years.

It is stated that Mr. Rockefeller's income from all sources this year will amount to $60,000,000, and it does look like a man ought to be able to get along comfortably on $5,000,000 per month, even though he have the whole state of Kansas nagging at his heels.

There is already talk of putting General Nelson A. Miles up as the democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts two years hence, but the democracy of the Old Bay state had better stick to their shoemaker.

It begins to look like the autoerotic czar of all the Russias is too badly scared to give much attention to any thoughts of reform.

age when he won the celebrated victory of Blenheim.

But there is no use in continuing the list. Enough has already been written to demonstrate the fatal weakness of the Osler theories, which if generally adopted would have killed off the greatest and best men of this earth when they were comparatively unknown and before they had accomplished their mission in life.

The supreme court of the state of Connecticut has decided that William J. Bryan is not entitled to receive $50,000 from the Bennett estate, and it is to be hoped that Mr. Bryan will accept this decision as final.

New Mexico has made eighteen successive attempts to become a state in the American union, but every one of them has proved abortive, and statehood now seems no nearer than it was when the first application was filed.

A LEGACY of HATE

By LOUIS TRACY

After a quarrel with his cousin David, Sir Alan Hume-Frazer is found murdered at Beechcroft Hall, near Stowmarket, Acadia.

Winter, a Scotland Yard detective, finds a man who saw the real murderer of Sir Alan and shows Brett a typewritten note supposed to have been written by the guilty person.

CHAPTER XXX. TO BEECHCROFT.

Thenceforth, as the French say, events marched. Robert Frazer faithfully recounted Margaret's statement to the lawyer and the detective.

"ARE YOU SURE OF THIS?" DEMANDED BRETT, EXCITEDLY.

Here, at last, was the motive of the murder laid bare.

The Japanese, by some means, learned that the young baronet possessed these papers, and held them in terror over his reputed sister.

Mr. Brett, he cried, "there is no man would be so pleased as I to see you come out of your shell, and tell the court all you have done. You deserve it. It would be the proudest moment of your life."

"You have known me for years, Winter," he said, "yet you believe that. Go to! You are incorrigible!"

"There is no use in asking me questions I can't answer," snapped the detective.

"Well, my dear Winter, we have now placed together every material stone in our edifice. Mrs. Capella's yielding to blackmail is the keystone of the arch.

"There is no use in asking me questions I can't answer," snapped the detective.

"Quite certain, sir. Mr. Winter's mate followed him to the station, and told me who the Japanese was. Be at the hall.

"What do you think, Mr. Brett?" inquired Winter.

"I can form no opinion. I only wish Ooma was in jail. For once, Winter, I appreciate the strength of your handcuffing policy."

Gleanings From the Exchanges

Bryan is billed to add his silvery voice to the orators who will deliver their feeling orations over the lately deceased Hon. John Reagan.

It is fitting that William J. Bryan, one of the greatest living orators and himself a man of the people, should speak words of tribute above the bier of our honored dead.

The Texas and Pacific railroad and the cattlemen along its line are at odds over the cattle shipments, the road refusing to bill cattle to points beyond its line.

While the entente cordiale between the Texas and Pacific railway and the cattlemen of west Texas may be somewhat strained, yet the statement that the road does nothing for the country it traverses is something of an injustice.

For twenty-five years or more a Dallas man labored to build up a business that would crown his life as a success and engage the activities of his children.

The matter of adjourning the legislature sine die is not so important as the enactment of an appropriation bill, and when it is shown that that bill can be considered best in a special session, it is safe to say that the people will not only endorse but appreciate anything that the members do looking to a consummation of that.

There is nothing else so interesting to the people of Austin as the appropriation bill. It is the big planet around which all the Austin satellites revolve, and when there is no state appropriation in evidence things become very dull and monotonous in the Capital City.

Fort Worth is a very busy city nowadays, in preparing for the cattlemen's convention, annual meeting of the Texas lumbermen and state convention of El Paso.

Fort Worth is the great convention city of Texas and the southwest. People just naturally love to come to Fort Worth, for it is the one place in this great state where all interests can meet and feel truly at home.

Burton-Peel Dry Goods Co

Every Day Specials

This store is daily offering some articles of merchandise for less than prevailing value. Every day you will see this store advertised in this paper—on this page "5." By a glance at our ads you will note that the prices are always less, and if you will call at time stated you will most positively find the goods on sale at prices quoted, and plenty of them. Today we mention a few high grade fabrics you should see.

Wash Goods 50c

The new spring Wash Goods of the higher sorts are shown in this lot. Some should bring 69c and 75c, but we combine the lots and make one price—50c. New Damask Waitings and Suitings, swivel loom woven spots of silk on mercerized grounds, hazy shadow plaids, boucle effects and stripes—no heavy, but light, airy imported fabrics, 50 cents.

Wash Goods 12 1/2c

Several hundred pieces of Flecked Cotton Voile, white and tan ground, Batiste with small and large polka dots, very fine quality, washable colors; a large range of patterns and colorings.

New Mohairs

Another shipment of the celebrated Salt's Mohairs, made by "Sir Titus Salt," Salt-are, England; dyed and finished by Bradford's noted dyer, "Ripley"; cream Sicilian and Mohair, 50c up to $1.75; colored Mohairs, 50c up to $1.98; fancy pin plaid and flecked Sicilian and Mohairs now so popular, 50c up to $1.98; black Mohairs and Sicilians, 50c on up to $1.98.

Walking Skirts $2.98

We place on sale tomorrow a new shipment of spring weight Walking Skirts, mottled and flecked fabrics, pin and shepherd checks in black and white, also solid weaves. These skirts are made to our order, having purchased an immense lot of fabrics from the mills, we engaged a leading maker to design and make them to our order good. Every stitch is correct, every tuck and plait precise. regular $4.50 qualities; special, $2.98.

Wash Goods 19c

Truly a showing beyond your comprehension—250 pieces, not a single yard worth under 25c and up to 35c. The real Lisle Tissue—always good and washable colors, in checks and stripes, usual price 25c; also the silk stripe Gingham, the new woven spots and figures, the plain colors, the Voiles and other light weight wash fabrics, one price, every shade, 250 patterns to select from, and you pay but 19c.

The Organdies 35c

We have just opened a shipment of the most popular Silk Organdies. This line is quite a bargain—usual 50c grade; large Dutch bouquets and flowers now so popular; yard 35c.

Spring Silks

Not a store in the South that can show a greater line of the new spring styles. Here you will see the new rough Shantung Silks in all the leading shades for suits and coats, 75c, 98c; new fancy Taffeta, from 39c, 49c, 75c, $1.00; wide widths, light and dark shades, fancy changeable effects, warp print and Persian Silks, $1.00 and $1.25. We invite inspection.

PRESIDENT LAUDS THE BRAVE OF MOTHERS

Praises Ideal American Womanhood as Exemplified in the Home

CONDEMNNS RACE SUICIDE

Says Strength of Nation Depends More on Home Life Than Wealth

WASHINGTON, March 14.—An address by President Roosevelt was the feature of the session of the National Congress of Mothers now holding its triennial convention at the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church, last night. Anticipating the president's appearance, there was an immense crowd at the church, composed largely of women, and when Mr. Roosevelt arrived he was given a cordial reception. The president was formally introduced to the audience by Mrs. Frederic Schorr of Philadelphia, the president of the congress.

The president spoke as follows: "In our modern industrial civilization there are many grave dangers to counterbalance the splendors and the triumphs. It is not a good thing to see cities grow at disproportionate speed relatively to the country; for the small land owners, the men who own their little homes, and therefore to a very large extent the men who till farms, the men of the soil, have hitherto made the foundation of lasting national life in every state; and, if the foundation becomes slight, too weak or too narrow, the superstructure, no matter how attractive, is in imminent danger of falling.

"But far more important than the question of the occupation of our citizens is the question of how the family life is conducted. No matter what that occupation may be, as long as there is a real home and as long as those who make up that home do their duty to one another, to their neighbors and to the state, it is of minor consequence whether the man's trade is pined in the country or the city, whether it calls for the work of the hands or for the work of the brain.

"But the nation is in a bad way if there is no real home; if the family is not of the right kind; if the man is not a good husband and father, if he is brutal or cowardly or selfish, if the woman is not of the right kind, if she is sunk in vain self-indulgence or has her nature be twisted so that she prefers a sterile pseudo-intellectuality to that great and beautiful development of character which only to those whose lives know the fullness of duty, done of effort made and self-sacrifice undergone.

"In the last analysis the welfare of the state depends absolutely upon whether the primary duty of the citizen, the man and woman and their children, represent the kind of citizen fit for the foundation of a great nation; and if we fail to appreciate this we fail to appreciate the root morality upon which all healthy civilization is based.

"No piled-up wealth, no splendor of material growth, no brilliance of artistic development, will permanently avail any people unless its home life is healthy, unless the average man possesses honesty, courage, common sense and decency, unless he works hard and is willing to need to fight hard; and unless the average woman is a good wife, a good mother, able and willing to perform the first and most important duty of womanhood, able and willing to bear, and to bring up as they should be brought up, healthy children, sound in body, mind and character, and numerous enough so that the race shall not become decreaser.

"There are certain old truths which will be true as long as this world endures, and which no amount of progress can alter. One of these is the truth that the primary duty of the husband is to be the home maker, the bread-winner for his wife and children, and that the primary duty of the woman is to be the meet, the housewife and mother. The woman should have ample educational advantages; but save in exceptional cases the man must be, and she need not be, and generally ought not to be, trained for a life-long career as a family bread-winner; and, therefore, before the certain point the training of the two must normally be different because the duties of the two are normally different. This does not mean inequality of function, but it does mean that normally the man's duty is of a different character from the woman's. On the whole, I think the duty of the woman the more important, the more difficult, and the more honorable of the two; on the whole I respect the woman who does her duty more than I respect the man who does his.

"No ordinary work done by a man is either as hard or as responsible as the work of a woman who is bringing up a family of small children; for upon her time and strength demands are made not only every hour of the day but often every hour of the night. She may have to get up night after night to take care of a sick child, and yet must by day continue to do her household duties as well; and if the family means are scant she must usually enjoy even her rare holidays taking her whole load of children with her. The birth pains make all men the debtors of all women. Above all their sympathy and regard are due to the struggling wives among those whom Abraham Lincoln called the plain people, and whom he so loved and trusted; for the lives of these women are often led in the lonely heights of quiet, self-sacrificing heroism.

"Just as the happiest and most honorable and most useful task that can be set any man is to earn enough for the support of his wife and family, for the bringing up and starting in life of his children, so the most important, the most honorable and desirable task which can be set any woman is to be a good and wise mother in a home marked by respect and mutual forbearance, by willingness to perform duty and by refusal to sink into self-indulgence or avoid that which entails effort and self-sacrifice. Of course there are exceptional men and exceptional women who can do and ought to do much more than this; who can lead and ought to lead great careers of outside usefulness in addition to—not as substitutes for—their home work; but I am not speaking of exceptions; I am speaking of the primary duties, I am speaking of the average citizen, the average man and woman who make up the nation.

"Inasmuch as I am speaking to an assembly of mothers I shall have nothing whatever to say in praise of an easy life. Yours is the work which is never ended. No mother has an easy time, and most mothers have very hard times; and yet for a partment, though neither the effort nor the self-sacrifice may be the same for the one as for the other, I do not in the least believe in the patient Griselda type of woman, in the woman who submits to a punishment, in which each effort to furnish her the least possible expenditure of effort the maximum of comfort and of luxury, but in which there is literally no place for children?

"The woman who is a good wife, a good mother and the entitled to our respect as is no one else; but she is entitled to it only because, and so long as, she is worthy of it. Effort and self-sacrifice are the law of worthy life for the man as for the woman; though neither the effort nor the self-sacrifice may be the same for the one as for the other, I do not in the least believe in the patient Griselda type of woman, in the woman who submits to a punishment, in which each effort to furnish her the least possible expenditure of effort the maximum of comfort and of luxury, but in which there is literally no place for children?

"I believe in the woman's keeping her self-respect just as I believe in the man's doing so. I believe in her rights just as much as I believe in the man's, and indeed a little more; and I regard marriage as a partnership, in which each partner is in honor bound to think of the right of the other as well as of his or her own. But I think that the duties are even more important than the rights; and in the long run I think that the reward is ampler and greater for duty well done, than for the insistence upon individual rights, necessary though this, too, must often be. Your duty is hard, your responsibility great; but greatest of all is your reward. I do not pity you in the least. On the contrary, I feel respect and admiration for you.

"Into the woman's keeping is committed the destiny of the generations to come after us. In bringing up your children you mothers must remember that while it is essential to be loving and tender, it is no less essential to be wise and firm. Foolishness and affection must not be treated as interchangeable terms; and besides training your sons and daughters in the softer and milder virtues, you must give them those stern and hardy qualities which in after life they will surely need. Some children will do wrong in spite of the best training; and some will go right even when their surroundings are most unfortunate; nevertheless an immense amount depends upon the family training. If you mothers through weakness bring up your sons to be selfish and to think only of themselves, you will be responsible for much sadness among the women who are to be their wives in the future. If you let your daughters grow up idle, perhaps under the mistaken impression that as you yourselves have had to work hard they shall know only enjoyment, you are preparing them to be useless to others and burdens to themselves. Teach boys and girls alike that they are not to look forward to lives spent in avoiding difficulties, but to lives spent in overcoming difficulties. Teach them that work for themselves and also for others is not a curse but a blessing; seek to make them happy, to make them enjoy life, but seek also to make them face life with the steadfast resolution to wrest success from labor and adversity, and to do their whole duty before God and to man. Surely the man who can thus train her sons and daughters is thrice fortunate among women.

"There are many good people who are denied the supreme blessing of children, and for these we have the respect and sympathy always due to those who, from no fault of their own, are denied any of the great blessings of life. But the man or woman who deliberately forgoes these blessings, whether from viciousness, coldness, shallow-heartedness, self-indulgence, or mere failure to appreciate aright the difference between the all-important and the unimportant—why, such a creature merits contempt as heartily as any visited upon the soldier who runs away in battle, or upon the man who refuses to work for the support of those dependent upon him, and who though abhorred is yet content to sit in idleness the bread which others provide.

"The existence of women of this type forms one of the most unpleasant and unwelcome features of modern life. If any one is so dim of vision as to fail to see what a thoroughly unlovely creature such a woman is I wish they would read Judge Robert Grant's novel, 'Unlabeled Bread,' ponder seriously the character of Selma, and think of the fate that would surely overcome any nation which developed its average and typical woman along such lines. Unfortunately it would be untrue to say that this type exists only in American novels. That it also exists in American life is made unpleasantly evident by the statistics as to the dwindling families in some localities. It is made evident in equally sinister fashion by the census statistics as to divorces, which are fairly appalling; for easy divorce is now as it ever has been, a bane to any nation, a curse to society, a menace to the home, an incitement to married unchastity and to immorality, an evil thing for men and a still more hideous evil for women. These unpleasant tendencies in our American life are made evident by articles such as those which I actually read not long ago in a certain paper, where a clergyman was quoted, seemingly with approval, as expressing the general American attitude when he said that the ambition of any save a very rich man should be to rear two children only, so as to give his children an opportunity to 'taste a few of the good things of life.' 'Treat man, whose profession and calling should have made him a moral teacher, actually set before others the ideal, not of training children to do their duty, not of sending them forth with stout hearts and ready minds to win triumphs for themselves and their country, not of allowing them the opportunity, and giving them the privilege of making their own place in the world, but, forsooth, of keeping the number of children so limited that they might 'taste a few good things.' The way to give a child a fair chance in life is not to bring it up in luxury, but to see that it has the kind of training that will give it strength of character. Even apart from the vital question of national life, and regarding only the individual interest of the children themselves, happiness in the true sense is a hundredfold more apt to come to any given member of a healthy family of healthy-minded children, well brought up, than to those who are brought up to shift for themselves, must win their own way, and by their own exertions make their own positions of usefulness, than it is apt to come to those whose parents themselves have acted on and have trained their children to act on, the selfish and sordid theory that the whole end of life is 'to taste a few good things.'

"The intelligence of the remark is on a par with its morality; for the most rudimentary mental process would show the speaker that if the average family in which there are children contained but two children the nation as a whole would decrease in population so rapidly that in two or three generations it would very deservably be on the point of extinction, so that the people who had acted on this base and selfish doctrine would be giving place to others with braver and more robust ideals. Nor would such a result be in any way desirable; for a race that practiced such doctrine—that it was unfit to exist, and that it had better give place to people who had not forgotten the primary laws of their being.

"To sum up, then, the whole matter is simple enough. If either a race or an individual prefers the pleasures of mere self-indulgence, of self-indulgence, to the higher pleasures that come to those who know the toil and the weariness, but also the joy, of hard duty well done, why, that race or that individual must inevitably in the end pay the penalty of leading a life both vapid and ignoble. No man and no woman really worthy of the name can care for the life spent solely or chiefly in the avoidance of risk and trouble and labor. Save in exceptional cases the prizes worth having in life must be paid for, and the life worth living must be a life of work for a worthy end, and ordinarily of work more for others than for one's self.

STAND PIPE FOR FIRE PROTECTION

Plans for Adequate Means of Fighting Flames to Be Reported at Meeting

The Glenwood Water Works Company, in conjunction with the citizens, is planning to install fire plugs and a stand pipe exclusively for fire purposes. In regard to this matter, however, nothing definite has been given out.

Citizens of Glenwood will assemble in the Glenwood Methodist church at 8 o'clock this evening for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee recently appointed to investigate the matter of providing fire protection. Final arrangements will be made tonight for the provision of the necessary apparatus.

The report of the committee, though not officially announced, will recommend the purchase of a number of chemical extinguishers, hook and ladder apparatus and a pump wagon. A fire station will then be established, but just how many regular firemen, if any, will be employed has not been decided.

Colds cause congestion and constiveness. Fluids which should pass through the bowels and kidneys are secreted by the nose and throat. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will positively cure. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

STOCKING CUBA WITH CATTLE

Whether the Cuban cattle craze is a good thing or merely a combination of delusion and snare, remains to be determined. Certain it is that many United States cattlemen have the fever badly. The Duhamels, the Driscolls and the Ashes of South Dakota are already in heavy. B. R. Pierce, the Illinois Angus breeder, is investigating and others are looking to the Pearl of the Antilles as an avenue to wealth.

Live Stock Agent Harding of the Mobile and Ohio, says he has sent 30,000 American cattle to Cuba recently. Peter Duhamel, of Rapid City, S. D., one of the exodus, tells the Omaha Stockman of the prospect in this fashion: "The Grass of the Antilles is entirely free from that great pest of this country, and I have thoroughly enjoyed the past two or three seasons I have spent in that part of the world. Not only is the climate about as near perfection as could be asked, but now that there has been established a stable government there are abundant opportunities of all kinds for investment in the island and Americans are flocking there in large numbers every year. I do not particularly like the Cuban people, they are too much like our Indians to suit an old plainsman and they simply tolerate us. Americans are coming into the country so fast, however, that there is plenty of society and companionship even now. Fruit and sugar cane culture appear to offer the most attractions to the newcomers, but the country is developing very fast and the ubiquitous Yankee is there with his towhee proposition and investment in land appears to be a good proposition. I think there is a splendid chance to go into cattle raising as the weather is fine and stock has excellent grazing the year round. Of course, in a tropical climate, practically no grain is raised for feeding stock, but the cattle keep 'green grass fat' all the time and there is always a good demand for them. A friend of mine who has been there in the stock business for the past five years is doing well and finds a ready market for his steers at $5 per hundred, live weight. Most of the cattle in the island are Texas or Mexican grades, and generally what a western man would call poor quality, but the customs of the country are so different from ours that good beefs would not be appreciated. It is almost impossible to describe the beauty and luxuriance of the vegetation of all kinds and in contrast to the plains and hills of South Dakota looked like a barren desert when I got back." Mr. Duhamel closed out his range interests in South Dakota a few years ago and expects to close up his business here as soon as possible.

CATTLEMEN IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, March 14.—A committee of cattlemen representing the western range interests is here today in consultation with Secretary Wilson and Dr. Salmon. The committee consists of Hon. Conrad Kohrs, of Helena, Mont., chairman; E. McCrillis of Denver, secretary; W. G. Comstock, Ellsworth, Neb.; Henry Bolce, Kansas, and Murdo Mackenzie, representing Texas. This committee was appointed at a meeting in Denver in January to represent the range interest in dealing with the cattle mania infection. The committee is down to see about the department regulations for the movement of cattle from sections where this infection exists. The government proposes to quarantine all such sections and permit no cattle to move unless dipped. This would involve the dipping of cattle at the time of going to market, when it would not only shrink them badly, but would put them in such condition that would injure their sale. The committee has behind it the entire organized cattlemen of the west and it is hoped that the government will consent to leave the regulations as they are at the present time, as the infection is not nearly serious enough to call for such strenuous action as proposed by the government. The committee will also call upon the president.

LOSSES NOT LIGHT
While the reports from the range country continue very favorable and the live stock press is constantly putting the best possible face on the situation, the fact remains, however, that the winter losses for this season will be the heaviest in several years. The heaviest losses, however, are confined to limited localities, and taken as a whole, might be much worse. But as one philosopher puts it, "Every hoof lost only adds just that much to the future demand." When grass comes again and prices start up, the losses will be quickly forgotten.—Denver Record-Stockman.

MEXICAN CATTLE IMPORTS

According to the report of the bureau of animal industry for this department, issued today, 568 cattle were imported into the United States from Mexico during the month of February, 1905. The class of animals, their destination and the purposes for which they were imported follows: Three-year-old steers, 133; 2-year-old steers, 156; stags, 9; yearling heifers, 2; yearling steers, 32; cows, 10; calves, 6; total, 468. Of these cattle, 315 were destined for Arizona and Texas for feeding and the remainder for California for grazing.

Inspections were made at El Paso, Nogales and San Diego.

RAINS IN NEW MEXICO

Heavy Precipitation Has Delayed Spring Work
DEMING, N. M., March 14.—Unprecedented rains have rendered unpracticable and many proposed early deliveries will be deferred until the regular spring work. The incessant downpour, which continued for nearly six weeks, baffled the memory of the oldest inhabitants. The soil is supersaturated, the gulches and arroyos full, and the Mimbres river on a prolonged tear. Promptness in railway traffic is only a memory, and the majority of our stockmen are making more or less elaborate arrangements to try farming as a side line.

Several good horse deals are delayed by the soft condition of the range. A good demand for heavy mares is developing. A number of our leading stockmen will be in evidence at Fort Worth on the 21st inst., and will be prepared to close contracts for spring delivery if prevailing prices suit. With the unusual prospects ahead, many of our largest growers will make no effort to dispose of their young stuff this year. It is the general opinion that range conditions are guaranteed for at least two years to come by the recent heavy rainfall.

Many of our heaviest producers are holding in anticipation of something approaching competition in prices, Denver buyers being the only ones to appear so far. To their way of thinking, there is an African concealed in the woodpile, when a territory like this, producing hundreds of thousands of head annually, is given up to one or two men and other buyers hold aloof. Many of them look to the recent Denver organization of stock-raisers to bring relief from established conditions, and it is safe to say the first annual meeting of that body at Denver on May 9 will be well attended by growers from this section.

An effort is being made to procure legislation authorizing a bounty on the loco plant, which is found in some sections of the territory. The proposed bill would pay about $5 per ton for the cleaned roots of the plant delivered to some designated county officer, and furnish a fund therefor by levying a special tax on stock interests. The plan is in favor among stockmen in this section.

An unusually good crop of calves is anticipated. Orders are being placed for an unusual number of good bulls, and breeders generally are feeling much encouraged.

RESCUE LEAGUE ORGANIZED

Officers Chosen for Ensuing Year and Committees Named to Carry on Non-Sectarian Work

Permanent organization of the Fort Worth Rescue League was accomplished Monday afternoon at a meeting of those interested, in the parlors of the Taylor Street Cumberland Presbyterian church. Officers for the ensuing year were elected and a constitution and by-laws adopted. An advisory board of twenty members was selected and chairman of three committees named.

The new league is organized to carry on the work which has heretofore been carried on by members of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The organization is composed of persons desirous of aiding fallen women and to continue the rescue industrial home in this city. It is non-sectarian.

The officers of the new league elected at the meeting yesterday afternoon are: President, Mrs. J. C. Harrison; first vice president, Mrs. George Egges; second vice president, Mrs. J. H. Bevans; recording secretary, Mrs. George Speer; treasurer, Mrs. Ada Russell. Floyd McChesney was elected chairman of the finance committee; George Mulkey of the buildings and grounds, and Mrs. W. W. Parinton of the evangelistic committee.

The matter of erecting new buildings on the site of the present ones was discussed at the meeting, but nothing definite was decided upon. It is, however, the stated intention of the society to have the present quarters of the industrial home repaired until such a time as sufficient funds can be raised to pay for new and adequate buildings. At the meeting yesterday it was decided that a regular meeting would be held the first Monday of each month.

NATIONAL OFFICERS OF MISSIONS TO VISIT HERE

Members of Local Society Planning Meeting Upon Visit of Their President, Belle Bennett

At a meeting of the members of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the First Methodist church, South, Monday afternoon, arrangements were made for a meeting to be held on March 21, at which time Miss Belle Bennett of Louisville, Ky., president of the national Home Mission Society; Miss Mary Helm of Nashville, Tenn., editor of the Home Mission, a paper published by the society, and Miss Emma Pucker of Atlanta, Ga., are to be present.

Plans for their reception and entertainment while here were discussed. It was decided to hold a meeting the evening of March 26, at which time the three ladies are to tell of the work and its scope. The following Sunday, April 2, a grand rally and institute is to be held in Dallas. A number of those present at the meeting signified their intention of attending.

J. H. MADDOX IS ELECTED

Chosen Manager of Eagles' Baseball Team

Chief James H. Maddox of the Fort Worth fire department, at a meeting Sunday evening of Fort Worth Aerie, No. 42, Fraternal Order of Eagles, was elected by the order as manager of the baseball nine, which the society is to put in the field for this season.

Manager Maddox is already selecting the probable players. The candidates are to be given a try-out some time this week and when a list of fourteen or more players who desire to make the team have shown their ability as ball players, they are to select a captain.

The manager of the nine is already on the lookout for games with the Elks, Entre Nous, Sans Parier and any other teams of the same class. Teams of Eagles from nearby towns are also to be challenged with the hope of getting games from them.

If you are thinking of building, see Donaldson, 207 1/2 Main street.

WILL RAISE FORAGE

Ranchmen Near Midland Going in for Farming

MIDLAND, Texas, March 14.—The recent rain has proven a good thing for the stock interest. A few more days and the weeds and new grass will come. The cold weather just passed drew the cattle very much, as they were not used to such extreme weather, but instead of blinding sandstorms we have had rains, which have made the stockmen conclude to plant large crops of forage and cotton. Hides are being brought to town in wagon loads.

Charles O'Neal and Blair returned from their ranch, making the best of their losses by skinning the dead carcasses. Burt Holloway returned from St. Louis, where he has been with his young calves, fattened with cotton seed meal. The cold spell was against them, but they marketed very well.

I. P. Scott was in Midland trying to buy some good horses or mules.

All is quiet in stock sales, as most of the stock traders are waiting to see what can be done at the convention.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS OF FORT WORTH, TEXAS

The best indication of the business sagacity and acumen of a community is gauged to a very considerable extent by the prosperity of its banking institutions. When a community is prosperous, abundant wealth and contentment prevails.

The bank clearings for the year 1904—$188,484,605.02—show a marvelous growth over those of 1903—$168,907,338.56, an increase of $19,577,306.46. The year 1905, from the present healthy growth and commercial activity prevalent, shows that it will be the best year Fort Worth and Tarrant county ever had.

The integrity of a community is in its most healthy condition when its banks are doing a splendid business. Fort Worth banks given in this list are in such a condition.

Persons desiring information regarding prospective business locations or financial investments would do well to seek information from these institutions. It will be cheerfully given.

Cooling Off.

The man who would sit on a cake of ice to cool off would be considered crazy. Yet it is a very common thing for a person heated by exercise to stand in a cool draught, just to cool off. This is the beginning of many a cough which ultimately involves the bronchial tract and the lungs.

For coughs in any stage there is no remedy so valuable as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures deep-seated, obstinate coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, and like conditions which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate in consumption. There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

I took a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes," writes Rev. Frank Ray, of Fort Worth, Jefferson Co., Kansas. "After trying medicine labeled 'sure cure,' almost without number, I was led to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles and was cured, and have stayed cured."

"When I think of the great pain I had to endure, and the terrible cough I had, it seems almost a miracle that I was so soon relieved."

"That God may spare you many years and abundantly bless you is the prayer of your grateful friend."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, containing 1008 large pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send at once stamps for the book in paper covers or 33 cents for it in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ROCK ISLAND TO REACH GALVESTON

General Attorney Lassiter Secures Passage of Terminal Ordinance

NO HEADQUARTERS CHANGE

Freight Receipts and Activity of Competing Lines Will Hold General Offices

GALVESTON, Texas, March 14.—Newt H. Lassiter of Fort Worth, general attorney for the Rock Island in Texas, is at Galveston for the purpose of securing the adoption by the Galveston board of city commissioners of the ordinance regarding the Rock Island property in that city. A meeting held of the above commissioners adopted the ordinance Mr. Lassiter will now go before the legislature with a bill to ratify the ordinance.

With reference to Galveston improvements of the Rock Island Mr. Lassiter says that the action taken on the bill by the legislature will also have some bearing on the situation.

The value of the improvements to be made at Galveston by the Rock Island will approximate between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

If the Rock Island builds from Fort Worth or Dallas, the beginning of the work on the terminals and wharves will be necessarily delayed some months. However, should the Rock Island buy either the Central or the Brazos Valley system will reach Galveston at a much earlier date. In the event one of the two last propositions is accepted, work will begin much sooner.

Mr. Lassiter, when asked as to the location of the general headquarters of the Rock Island in the future, said:

"Well, the general offices have been established at Fort Worth for several years. You know I am a Fort Worthite. It is not the policy of roads, for good reasons, to remove their general offices after they have been established.

"At present our freight revenue at Fort Worth averages from $40,000 to $50,000 per month, and as we have several competing lines from there we might lose a goodly portion of this revenue should our general offices be changed.

"Our roadbed," he said, "has been valued by the railroad commission at $27,000 per mile in Texas, which does not include terminals. For other lines the average is $15,000 per mile, so ours is a little more than double the average of other roads."

MEXICAN ELECTRIC LINE

St. Louis Men to Invest $6,000,000 in Project

Charles Kratz of St. Louis and C. E. Carroll, formerly of St. Louis, but now of Mexico, are to engage in the construction of an electric railroad from Guadalajara to the Port of Chamela, on the Pacific coast of Mexico.

These gentlemen have organized a company with a capital of $6,000,000 for the purpose of building the road. The proposed line will be about 125 miles long. A number of American and Mexican capitalists are connected with the company and work on the road is to be commenced at once.

KATY EXTENSION

Said to Contemplate Building From Austin to Aransas Pass

It is reported from Austin that the Missouri, Kansas and Texas intends to extend its road from Austin to the port of Aransas Pass on the Gulf of Mexico, the distance being 225 miles.

It is also understood that the Katy is making preparations for building extensive terminals at Austin, which will, when this has been accomplished, be made an important division point.

TO REOPEN FIGHT

Eastern Ports Attack Settlement of Grain Rate War

The settlement in the grain rate war is being bitterly opposed by the exporters of the Atlantic seaboard towns, and the objection is said to be having its effect upon the traffic managers of the eastern and western railroads, and it is said the settlement agreed upon is likely to be abrogated before the date upon which it is to go into effect. Touching the matter Chicago dispatch says:

The first move in a reconsideration of the matter was taken when Vice President Hland of the St. Paul, Freight Traffic Manager Gorman of the Santa Fe, and Freight Traffic Manager Smith of the Missouri Pacific were appointed a committee to investigate the grain business and report whether a more equitable adjustment could be made. With a view to aiding this committee in its work, one of the western roads recently sent an agent to every grain port on the Gulf and on the seaboard. The agent has gathered data regarding conditions surrounding the export grain trade at all the ports, and this information will be at the service of the committee.

It is stated that the eastern protest is made on account of the differential in favor of Gulf ports, which is allowed in the settlement, and which is claimed to be excessive. Eastern exporters are charging eastern railroads with backing down in the fight and leaving the east in bad shape. It is also asserted that it is impossible for New York to do a good export business with a differential higher than 2 cents. Conditions are so changed at Gulf ports, it is stated, that corn can be exported there all the year round.

Easy to Cure Piles at Home

Instant Relief, Permanent Cure—Trial Package Mailed Free to All, in Plain Wrapper.

A 50-CENT BOX FREQUENTLY CURES Piles is a fearful disease, not easy to cure if you go at it right. An operation with the knife is dangerous, cruel, humiliating and unnecessary. There is just one other sure way to be cured—painless, safe and in the privacy of your own home—it is Pyramid Pile Cure. We mail a trial package free to all who write. That will give you instant relief, show you the harmless, painless nature of this great remedy and start you well on the way toward a perfect cure. Then you can get a full sized box from any drug-gist for 50 cents, and often one box cures. If the druggist tries to sell you something just as good, it is because he makes more money on the substitute. Insist on having what you call for. The cure begins at once and continues rapidly until it is complete and permanent. You can go right ahead with your work and be easy and comfortable all the time. It is well worth trying. Just send your name and address to Pyramid Drug Co., 1815 Main street, Marshall, Minn. You will be free by return mail the trial package in a plain wrapper. Thousands have been cured in this easy, painless and inexpensive way, in the privacy of the home. No knife and its torture. No doctor and his bills.

All druggists, 50 cents. Write today for a free package.

The germinating period of corn no longer prevents its export by way of the gulf. This and other shipments being removed from the gulf ports places them, it is claimed, almost on a parity with the seaboard ports. In order to prove how little there is in the old germinating theory and its effect upon the exporting of corn, the secretary of agriculture has been appealed to for data, and has promised to supply it.

HUMANE SOCIETY AT WORK

No Prosecutions Have Been Made, but It Is Announced Letters Are Proving Effective in Cases Reported

In order to devise means to raise funds for carrying on the work, a meeting of the Fort Worth Humane society will be held in the parlors of Fakes & Co. at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Though the ordinance for the prevention of cruelty to animals as passed at a recent meeting of the city council, has been in effect for some time, as yet the humane society has taken no action to have persons prosecuted. Secretary J. C. Miller makes the announcement, however, that a dozen or more letters have been sent out by the society warning persons against cruelly treating animals in their possession.

"It is our aim to educate rather than prosecute," said Mr. Miller, Monday. "At any rate we try to educate at first, then if this means fails we will resort to the law. If we hear of a man mistreating his horse we warn him by letter first, then the next time if he continues his brutality we take advantage of the ordinance. So far our letters have had the desired effect, as far as we can learn."

At the meeting of the society this afternoon the question of employing a special officer for the society, who will patrol the streets looking for all cases of cruelty, will be discussed. It is the intention to have such an officer in connection with authority to make arrests, yet paid by the humane society.

FIRE DEPARTMENT TRIES NEW FUEL

Tests Being Made of Compressed Bricks Made by Fort Worth Company

Tests of a patent fuel, manufactured in this city by the Fort Worth Patent Fuel Company, are being made by the fire department in the fire engines. In the test already had the new fuel was not used exclusively, being mixed with wood. On this account another trial of the material will be made in the near future.

The patent fuel is a compressed mixture of crude oil and saw dust, shaped in convenient blocks. Its compactness makes it especially valuable for fire engine purposes from the reason that a great amount of it can be stored in a small space. Intense heat, greater than wood, is also claimed for the new product.

Assistant Chief Bideker of the fire department said this morning that the results obtained by the use of the new fuel brick were very satisfactory, one advantage being that the bricks in burning leave no embers to drop from the grate of the engine and be scattered over the street. The intense heat attained rapidly also insures a full head of steam for instant work upon arrival at the fire.

CITIZEN'S MEETING SPRINGS SURPRISE

Maddox Is Endorsed for City Marshal—McC Campbell Is Also Named

HEATED ARGUMENTS MADE

Alderman Waggoman and L. M. Whitsitt Entertain Those Present

An unexpected turn was given the citizens' meeting held at the court house Monday night for the ostensible purpose of nominating a rival candidate for city marshal, when James Maddox, the regular democratic nominee, was endorsed. L. M. Whitsitt, who called the meeting and others then withdrew and nominated Andrew McC Campbell.

In response to the call signed by Mr. Whitsitt, over five hundred voters gathered in Justice Rowland's office. The room was so jammed with men there was not even standing room. Every one present was on the anxious seat to learn what was going to be done. Mr. Whitsitt stated to the assemblage that since he had signed the call he would take the privilege of calling the meeting to order. He stated the purpose of the meeting was to hold a convention of citizens to nominate a ticket. He desired those present to understand that the meeting was not called under the auspices of the Civic league.

Mr. Whitsitt said in his remarks that he was inclined to believe that the present ticket of the democratic party nominated for the coming April election was not a legal one, as the candidates were nominated by those who paid their poll taxes for 1904 and not for 1905. He suggested that a fine point of law was involved and it was a matter not yet decided whether or not there were any legal candidates.

While speaking on this point some one in the audience questioned the chair as to whether or not he had participated in the primaries last fall. Mr. Whitsitt stated he had, but had scratched his ticket. He then read Webster's definition of democracy. He also stated that last year many persons and a large number were urging the voters to influence the city committee to change the date of the primaries, which had been decided upon as Dec. 15, they refused to do so. He said aldermanic influence had been used to get the committee to stick to that date.

At this point the temporary chairman was asked by Alderman B. L. Waggoman to name one of them. Mr. Whitsitt stated that he had simply been told so, and gave no opinion. He said the man named in the first allegation was called for, but was not present at the meeting. Mr. Waggoman then stated the alderman had never threatened and it was false, saying that no one wanted it changed but a faction in industry. Mr. Waggoman then nominated Mr. Whitsitt as chairman of the meeting and the move was heartily endorsed on almost every side.

Mr. Whitsitt stated it was not yet time to take part in the convention and declined to accept. A motion was then made nominating William Smith. He was unanimously elected. At this period Mr. Whitsitt asked those in harmony with him to go to another part of the building. He led the room amid a burst of applause.

A motion was then made that it be the sense of the meeting that James H. Maddox's candidacy be endorsed as the choice of the meeting for city marshal. The motion was seconded and carried with a whoop. Following the carrying of the motion another was made by Alderman Waggoman that the meeting adjourn. The motion carried, the meeting adjourning without the election of a secretary.

While the convention in the room was still in progress, Mr. Whitsitt, George Neis, John Kilander, M. J. Black, Thomas Bush, L. C. Schuster, Thomas Dooley, B. E. Gray, Porter True, J. E. Wright and Ed Rogers held a meeting in the hallway of the basement at the door of the southeastern corner of the building. There they elected L. M. Whitsitt as chairman and B. E. Gray, secretary. A motion was then made, seconded and carried nominating Andy McC Campbell for city marshal. A second motion was made endorsing W. J. Glavin for city tax assessor and collector. A committee of three, L. M. Whitsitt, B. E. Gray and L. C. Schuster, was named as a campaign committee. The chair was also empowered to select a committee-man from each ward. The meeting then adjourned.

"The call was for those citizens entitled to take part in a convention who had taken no part in the primaries. The motion made, seconded and carried by the Maddox crowd took charge of the convention without any authority I am convinced we had a right to leave the meeting at once. They didn't give us an opportunity to state the object of the meeting," said Mr. Whitsitt.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

"The people of Dallas are not going to make a big hullabaloo about getting the cattlemen's convention for 1906, and they will not spend one cent for that purpose," said United States Marshal George Reed Monday, who is in the city attending the opening of the March term of the United States circuit and district court. "They are going to invite the cattlemen to come there, but they are not going to spend one cent in persuasion. If the cattlemen want to come, we, in Dallas, will be glad to have them; we will entertain them royally but we will not spend one penny in preliminaries just to get the convention."

"I believe that El Paso and San Antonio will make a big play for the convention. As for Fort Worth, I do not know what plans you have on here, but I can say that Dallas will quietly invite. There will be no badges, buttons and blowing of horns as there was last year."

"Politics? There isn't any that I know of," responded the big republican leader.

Whitsitt to a Telegram representative at the close of the meeting in the hallway. "It is possible it may be necessary to start mandamus proceedings to get our nominees on the ticket, but I guess we are able to do so."

All in attendance at the two meetings were decided in their opinion and several times after the two meetings had adjourned there were several heated arguments between the two factions. Both sides seemed to be secure in their actions and contented with what had been done. The friends of Chief Maddox were exceptionally elated at the action of the convention in endorsing his candidacy. Both factions contented they were simply carrying out the provisions of the Terrell election laws and were in the right.

Send for Book about "Motherhood." Are you to become a mother? If so, do you realize the great amount of suffering that most women are obliged to undergo, the pain they have to bear? If you could do anything to relieve that pain would you not do it? You are a sensible woman, and of course you would—then read carefully every word.

Mother's Friend

Is a liniment so potent that it will greatly lessen the suffering of any case of labor, no matter how difficult. With this liniment, Motherhood is a beautiful dream; without it, a nightmare. No more suffering, no more needless cares, but one peaceful ideal motherhood is yours if you will but open your eyes.

For external use, safe to administer, and wonderful in results. A word to the wise is "Mother's Friend." All druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle. We send our book, "Motherhood," free, if you ask for it.

inaugural of President Roosevelt, has returned to Fort Worth. He reports the inaugural event as the grandest affair he ever witnessed, and says that the city of Washington was well cared for by a special force of 200 extra officers brought to the capital from every state in the union.

"During the entire inaugural week not a single robbery occurred," said Mr. Ray today, "which was due to the splendid system provided by Major Sylvester, at the head of the detective service at Washington. He arranged to have the city officered from one end to the other, and to accomplish this he placed in each carriage two detectives. The carriages were driven over Washington during the day to prevent robberies. The plan worked like a charm."

Mr. Ray says that only two arrests were made during the week and that they were made by himself and Detective Joseph Barry of Chicago. The men proved to be professional picking business from the main yards and saving yard charges and the middleman's expenses, getting last year alone, direct from the country over 100,000 hogs.

HOW THE PACKERS

Packers have already absolute ownership of the National Stock yards at East St. Louis; the St. Joseph Stock yards at St. Joseph, Mo.; the Union Stock yards at Omaha; the Sioux City Stock yards, Sioux City, Iowa; the Fort Worth Stock yards, at Fort Worth, Texas, and the Union Stock yards at St. Paul; with a combined capitalization of $24,710,950 or 13 per cent of the entire capital invested in the leading stock yards of the west shown below, exclusive of their interest in the Chicago and Kansas City yards.

Western stock yards and their capitalization and ownership are shown as follows: Union Stock yards, Chicago, Ill., owned by the Chicago-Junction railway company (the Vanderbilt interest control), has 470 acres and 150 miles of track. Its common stock amounts to $6,500,000, and declares 8 per cent dividend; its preferred stock is $3,500,000, and declares 6 per cent dividend. Total, $10,000,000 capital. Kansas City Stock yards, controlled by Chas. Francis Adams with Boston associates, capital stock $2,500,000, with 4 per cent dividend. Total capital, $5,500,000. Union Stock yards, Omaha, Neb., under packers' control, capital stock $6,000,000; stock dividend $1,500,000. Total $7,500,000. St. Joseph Stock yards, at St. Joseph, Mo., under packers' control, capital stock $1,500,000, with 6 per cent dividend. Sioux City Stock yards, Sioux City, Iowa, packers' control; capital stock $3,000,000, Fort Worth Stock yards, packers' control; capital stock $2,000,000. Union Stock yards, St. Paul, Minn., packers' control; capital stock $2,000,000; its bonds $2,000,000. Total $4,000,000. Total capital and bonds, all yards $45,950,950. Total 6 packers' yards $24,710,950.

Total capitalization and bonds of these yards is $45,950,000 of which amount $24,710,000 belongs to the packers' stock yards and $21,250,000 to the Chicago and Kansas City stock yards, and a good percent of this is owned by the packers. The bulk of the net earnings of the stock yards of the west. It will thus be seen, going to the packers who are quietly working towards the domination of the entire stock yards system of the west, the earnings of which are only second to those of the packing industry, and the two interests being so closely interwoven, why not consolidate them? Packers think they should be one. With this accomplished, what use of the middleman at the yards, or at least so many? Would not the combining of these interests greatly reduce the cost of marketing the stock and save much to the manufacturer on the cost of the raw material? And nowhere else can packers find such safe and profitable investment for their steadily accumulating profits.

TEXAS WOODMEN

GATHER IN WACO

Convention of "Jurisdiction C" Assembles With 1000 Delegates

Special to The Telegram.

WACO, Texas, March 14.—This city is in the hands of the Woodmen today, and choppers from Texas, Arizona and New Mexico are mingling in the forests of fraternity and clasping hands with genuine fervor and friendship. Jurisdiction C, which includes the territory mentioned, is in session and will be until the 17th instant. The meeting formally assembled in the auditorium this morning, and apparently a thousand Woodmen were present, while it is thought that others will come in today. Head Consul W. A. Fraser is presiding, and his report was presented today. It is a lengthy document and deals with many questions in an able manner.

The meeting this morning was opened with an invocation, when addresses of welcome and responses were delivered by Mayor James B. Baker, Congressman R. L. Henry, Head Consul Fraser and others. After this morning meetings will be held in the Baptist Tabernacle on South Sixth street. The meetings will be secret. This afternoon there will be an unveiling of six monuments to departed Woodmen at Oakwood cemetery. The Woodmen marching to that place.

One of the most important matters to come before the biennial meeting is the question of establishing a great sanitarium, this having been under earnest consideration some time. Definite action may be taken. Among the chief officers of the Woodmen, most of whom are present, are Dr. A. P. Brown, senior head consul, Fort Worth; W. G. Ayers, past head consul, Austin; Hon. Morris Sheppard, past head consul and sovereign banker, Texarkana; W. A. Fraser, head consul, Dallas; J. E. Mattison, head advisor, Leutenancy, Vernon; J. W. Blake, head banker, Dallas; Clarence Sperry, head clerk, Paris; J. D. Alexander, head escort, Garland; H. B. Taylor, head watchman, Hondo; Louis Rogers, head sentry, Galveston.

The Woodmen Circle, composed of the ladies of the order, is also in session at the same time the head camp meeting is held.

NIGHT SESSION IN MOORE CASE

Trial Will Be Wound Up Before Wednesday if Jurors Can Stand Strain

Special to The Telegram.

AUSTIN, Texas, March 14.—An effort is being made to have the case of Warren Moore, charged with bribery, go to the jury some time tonight, provided Juror J. W. Cloud, who is somewhat ill, can stand the strain of a night session. This announcement was made by the court so as to expedite the termination of the case, but from present indications it is hardly probable that this will be accomplished.

When the court convened this morning, Judge R. L. Batts concluded his argument began yesterday afternoon, for the defense. He was followed by Assistant Attorney General Pollard, for the state. Mr. Pollard spoke until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when he concluded and the court took a recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge R. L. Penn for the defense began his argument this afternoon at 2 and is still arguing the case. He will be followed by Judge James H. Robertson for the state. The county Attorney Brady will close for the state. Judge Robertson will consume the remainder of the afternoon and if a night session is not held, Brady will have to conclude tomorrow morning.

Judge McFall's condition continues to improve, but he will not have opportunity of testifying in this case, although an agreement exists that if he should recover before the arguments are closed, he would be given a chance to testify.

GREAT FLOTO SHOWS

Interesting information comes from several sources that the Great Floto Shows have met with such a degree of prosperity that the management has decided to spend all of last year's profits, amounting to over $170,000, in embellishing the program with a feature that will at once enhance the value of this progressive institution in the estimation of its admirers. The wealthy owners of the Great Floto Shows have met with such encouragement from the public it has been decided to place all the profits back into "The Circus Beautiful" and allow the generous patrons to participate in the arrangement. This, in a way, makes every ticket purchaser a stockholder in the big shows and he can point with pride to the fact that "he owns part of a circus," for all of the profits of the Great

OTTO FLOTO.

Flo-to Shows are turned into the latest hit-to-date features to enlarge what has ever been and always will be a prize-worthy program. The feature for the coming season will be an exact reproduction of that most sublime and gorgeous of all royal spectacles, "The Durbar at Delhi," for which foreign agents for "The Circus Beautiful" have secured the original, costly and elaborate paraphernalia and trappings, direct from India; likewise the camels, elephants and herds of burden used in this grand scene of royal splendor which Lord Curzon, viceroy of India, celebrated the accession of King Edward VII. to the throne of England. All of which will be seen here when the Great Floto Shows open the circus season.
