

FORT WORTH READY TO WELCOME THE NATION'S CHIEF

Parade Will Form on Front Street Awaiting Arrival of Presidential Special From San Antonio

STREETS TO BE KEPT CLEAR

Parade Will Move Up Main Street and Down Houston, End- ing at Square Facing T. and P. Station, Where Presi- dent Will Address Crowd—Train Arrives 9:45 a. m.

Hillsboro, Waco, Temple, Austin and San Marcos were visited Thursday by the president. At Taylor a crowd of 4,000 people had assembled to greet him. At Temple the crowd numbered 5,000, a crowd of the same size assembling at San Marcos.

In addition to addressing the Texas legislature while in Austin, President Roosevelt spoke to a crowd estimated at 20,000 people in front of the Capitol building. From the capitol the president went to the State university, where he addressed the students. The president left Austin at 5 o'clock for San Antonio.

Carefully completed arrangements insure that the utmost use will be made of the president's stay of one hour in this city Saturday morning. A procession over the principal street and an open air speech in the Al Haynes triangle insure a view of the head of the nation to thousands of citizens.

Upon arriving in this city at 9:45 a. m. the special train will enter the Texas and Pacific train shed on track No. 7, the one nearest the baggage room. This portion of the station will be roped off and carefully guarded. The party will then leave the train and using the Front street car will enter their carriage, which will be in line on Front street.

and will again board his train, which will have been placed on the nearest track during the interval of the procession. Members of the presidential party will remain on the stand, only a few friends who are to take part in the hunting trip boarding the train. The president will remain on the rear platform as the train leaves and an effort will be made to have the train stop for a moment as the packing houses are reached to enable the employees there to greet him.

MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

Notice is hereby given that the people of Fort Worth that the president of the United States will be their guest Saturday morning was made Thursday night, when Mayor Powell issued the following proclamation:

To the People of Fort Worth:

Whereas, The president of the United States will be the guest of the people of Fort Worth Saturday, April 8, 1905, and the committee having charge of the reception have made elaborate arrangements to provide for a fitting reception of our distinguished guest; and they desire to make the occasion worthy of the well known hospitality of our city and, if possible, the greatest demonstration in its history:

Now, therefore, I, Thomas J. Powell, Mayor of Fort Worth, do hereby urge all the people of the city to come out Saturday, April 8, and join in the welcome to be accorded the president.

Notice is hereby given that under no circumstances will any kind of character of vehicle be allowed on Main street from the depot to the court house, on Weatherford street between Main and Rusk; on Rusk street between Weatherford and Belknap; on Belknap between Rusk and Houston; on Houston street between Belknap and Ninth; on Ninth street and Jennings avenue to Eleventh; on Eleventh street between Jennings and Houston, and on Houston street between the depot and Eleventh, nor between Eleventh and Ninth streets on Houston street, from 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., on Saturday, April 8, 1905, and the police force has been instructed to see that this proclamation is carried out to the letter.

Respectfully,
THOS. J. POWELL,
Mayor.

DECORATIONS ELABORATE

Preparations for the proper appearance of the streets along the line of march are well under way, decorators having transformed many of the buildings already into masses of bunting and flags.

Efforts of the decoration committee to see all business houses along the line of procession have failed and they have issued the following call to "Decorate, Decorate, Decorate."

For the first time in the history of man the chief executive of the United States will visit our city, next Saturday morning at 9:45. The committee on decorations has done everything within reason to give the nation's chief executive a gala appearance, but this is not enough. We haven't the time to see every one and can only make our appeal through the papers. It is our desire to have every building fronting on these streets displaying a piece of bunting and an American flag. We request every occupant of every office to be at the front window with a flag. Make these two streets alive with the American colors.

It is up to our citizenship to exceed all others in this and we can do it. Fort Worth has never yet taken a back seat; shall this occasion be the exception?

TRIP TO FORT WORTH

Thomas Murphy, conductor, and James Blair, engineer, is the selection made by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad officials for the presidential train from Taylor to Fort Worth. Both men have been many years in the service of the company and have enviable reputations for carefulness and experience in train service. They will be accompanied by Engineer Blair has not yet made his selection of a fireman, but it is known that the man will be one who is able to throw coal into the big engine, No. 323, with a will and keep plenty of coal on hand until the train reaches Fort Worth, and is safely delivered to the Denver road. Conductor Murphy has not yet announced whom he will have as brakemen.

Engineers and conductors of the Katy system were all anxious to have the honor of handling the presidential special, but as both of the men selected have had many years' experience and are the oldest in the point of service without demerit, the honors were given to them. They are to bring the train from Taylor to Fort Worth and deliver it to the Denver officials in the Denver yards after the presidential party have left the train at the Texas and Pacific freight depot. Their duties of the trip are then over.

Engine No. 323 has been chosen as the one to pull the president's special of three coaches from Taylor to this city. This engine is one of the largest and finest on the entire Katy system and can easily make the trip from that point in the time scheduled. Proceeding the special by five minutes will travel engine No. 304, pulling special car No. 26 and a combination car. In the private car will be General Superintendent T. S. McDowell of the road and a number of guests. The combination car will be several extra engineers, firemen and one or more conductors, besides the regular crew of the train. Expert track men, car repairers and mechanics will be in the car ready at a moment's notice to jump out of the car and go to work in case of an emergency of any nature. No possible emergency has been overlooked to convey the train without mishap to Fort Worth over the Katy tracks from Taylor, the point where the road receives the train.

Railroad employes of the Katy concerned in the trip from Taylor to Fort Worth have received a general order, which is novel and unique in railroad circles, yet carrying with it the fullest and most complete information concerning the safety and care of the special. At the top of the order and in the center of it, is a picture of President Roosevelt and an each side of the picture is the monogram of the railroad company. The order is entitled, "Special Order, T. R. No. 2—Time Card Form 31," and in the left hand corner at the top has the date "April 8, 1905," and the full name of the railroad.

It is printed with red and blue ink on white paper.

The order is:

"Concerning the movement of the presidential special train and pilot engine, Taylor to Fort Worth, April 8, 1905.

"To All Concerned:

Passenger trains will clear the time of these two special trains thirty minutes, and all other trains and yard engines will clear it one hour.

"The schedule is then given of the time of arrival at each point. It is as follows:

"The order is signed by T. S. McDowell, general superintendent of the system in Texas, and J. H. Davidson, J. S. H. Davidson, R. J. Sullivan, and Trainmasters C. H. Scott and W. W. Miller of the two divisions over which the train passes, and A. D. Bethard, the superintendent of transportation.

"The pilot engine and train, which is to travel five minutes ahead of the special, will upon reaching the Katy yards in Fort Worth, side track, letting the presidential train pass them. The special will be backed under the train sheds of the Texas and Pacific passenger station on track No. 7, which is the track next to the baggage and express row of buildings on the north side of the tracks. After the presidential party have alighted, the engine and train will be backed under the train sheds of the Taylor yards and there turned over to the Denver road officials. The engine, Texas engine put in its place. The train while in the Denver yards will be stocked with necessary provisions and cleaned. It will then be returned to the depot, ready for departure at 10:45.

"Every precaution has been observed for the safety of the party. Orders have been given that none but railroad employes directly concerned are to be in the yards during the morning. Railroad men who have a part in the handling of the train are to be at their posts of duty and are to remain there throughout the morning. Strict orders have been given to the railroad detectives of the several roads entering the yards to see that no one not concerned in the train's movements is allowed in the yards. The yards have been cleaned and put in finest pos-

WITTY TELEGRAM STOPPED
 FRIDAY'S SPECIAL
 TEMPLE, Texas, April 7.—Following is a telegram sent from here yesterday, which succeeded in stopping the presidential special, contrary to its schedule.
 "TEMPLE, Texas, April 5.—Cecil A. Lyon, Sherman, Texas: City council has passed special emergency ordinance requiring all presidential trains passing through the city to stop at least ten minutes, but in this case will compromise on five. Two thousand school children dismissed for day to honor nation's chief morning better than a birds-eye view. Entire citizenship, including veterans of late war, request attention of a square deal for Temple, so they can show regard for President Roosevelt. Five minutes not enough, but will do nothing better. If your rabbit foot is out of order take new one on us. In any event order stop at Temple. Please answer."
 Signed by George C. Pendleton, commander Grand Army of the Republic, Veterans; Fred P. Hamil, mayor; T. J. Darling, president of Board of Trade.
 This telegram greatly amused the president, who declared that such resourcefulness on the part of officials of Temple deserved recognition, at least to the extent of a five-minute speech, and when the town was reached the train stopped.
 Mayor H. W. Harkness and a food-natured colloquy took place between him and the president, who said he believed in observing the laws even if they were made not exactly to his taste.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 7.—Never has such a patriotic demonstration been witnessed here as that which greeted President Roosevelt today upon his first visit to San Antonio since he organized the famous Rough Riders' regiment in the spring of 1898.

All the principal business thoroughfares were a-flutter with flags and bunting, and the president's picture was in evidence everywhere. The weather was bright and pleasant. The city was early astir to prepare its welcome to the president.

He passed the night in sound rest in his special train, where a detail of police was on guard duty throughout the night.

At 9:30 o'clock a committee of citizens called on the president and he was escorted to Fort Sam Houston. Despite the early hour, the entire route was lined with people, who gave the president an enthusiastic welcome. The president, staid in his carriage, bowing and smiling.

When Fort Sam Houston was reached a salute of twenty-one guns was fired. President Roosevelt was met by General Jesse M. Lee, commanding the department of Texas. After a few minutes' chat with the officers, the president reviewed the troops, who paraded in full uniform.

Leaving Fort Sam Houston the party moved to the city, where 10,000 school children awaited the president at Travis park. When he entered every child held aloft a tiny United States flag and waved it vigorously. The children sang "America," and the president bared his head and seemed pleased with the spectacle.

The procession then moved to the Alamo. The historic old fort was in gala attire, and in the plaza beneath its walls a grand stand covered with flags and bunting and bearing a large picture of the president had been erected. The president, with his escort, ascended the stand, after which the president spoke.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Leaping from an express train on the Long Island railroad, speeding at the rate of forty miles an hour, James Rathbourn, a prisoner on his way to Sing Sing, has escaped and thus far evaded the efforts of a large posse to capture him.

Rathbourn, who had been convicted of forgery, boarded the train at Riverhead handcuffed, in charge of a deputy sheriff. The manacles were unlocked so the prisoner might smoke. Suddenly he ran to the car platform and leaped off, landing on the track before a train approaching from the opposite direction. Seeing his danger, the convict halted off the rails. The train was quickly halted by the deputy, but his prisoner had disappeared, leaving not the slightest trace.

COMMITTEE MEETING
 The general arrangements committee for the reception and entertainment of the president met at the Board of Trade Thursday afternoon. Various reports were made, showing that the committee has the affair well in hand.

J. E. Homan said that all arrangements for decorating the city have been completed. The Texas and Pacific station will be handsomely decorated, as well as every bank in the city. The speaker's stand will also be beautifully decorated.

Arrangements he announced, have also been perfected to place stringers across Houston and Main streets at the intersection of each cross street.

American Beauty roses will be placed on the stand, and at the entrance of the speaking will be presented to the president.

The order is:

"Hotels and all public buildings will be appropriately decorated.

Judge N. B. Moore reported he had addressed letters to the teachers and parents of the children of the public schools, requesting that there be a full attendance of these children, who are to be massed on the court house square.

It is thought there will be several thousand children who will witness the parade, as it passed around the court house. All are asked to carry small flags.

R. E. L. Costan agreed to decorate the president's carriage.

Two additional carriages were authorized to be used to take care of Mexican war veterans.

Major C. O. Elliott announced all plans for the parade have been made and will move off promptly.

The Grand Army of the Republic, Confederate Veterans and Spanish-American veterans will be given choice of position just in front of the president's stand.

Provision for carriages for the reception committee, composed of representatives of the city council, Board of Trade and Roosevelt Club, will be made by Judge N. B. Moore today.

Colonel George West authorized the following instructions to the public at the meeting:

Worry Goes to the Stomach

Tears Down the Little Telegraph Lines
That Operate and Control the Digestive Processes

How to Repair These Telegraph Lines

I Will Gladly Give Any Stomach Sufferer
a Full Dollar's Worth of My Remedy
Free to Try

I ask no deposit—no reference—no security. There is nothing to risk—nothing to pay, either now or later. Any stomach sufferer who does not know my remedy may have a full dollar's worth free, if he merely writes and asks.

I willingly make this liberal offer because Dr. Shoop's Restorative is not an ordinary stomach remedy. It does not, indeed, treat the stomach itself. It goes beyond—it treats the nerves that control and operate the stomach. The nerves that wear out and break down, and CAUSE stomach trouble. For stomach troubles are really only a symptom that there is serious nerve trouble inside. That is why ordinary remedies fail. That is why my remedy succeeds. That is why I can afford to make this offer.

Yet do not misunderstand me when I say "nerves." I do not mean the nerves you ordinarily think about. I mean the automatic stomach nerves over which your mind has no control. I have not the space here to explain to you how the nerves control the stomach, or how they may be vitalized and restored. When you write I will send you a book which will make these points clear. But this much is certain—adding nerves cause all forms of stomach troubles—indigestion, belching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. No stomach medicine will cure these ailments. Only nerve treatment will do that. No other remedy than Dr. Shoop's Restorative even claims to reach these nerves.

What ails the stomach nerves? Worry, probably. Mental anguish destroys their tiny fibers and tears down the telegraph lines without which the stomach has no self-control than a sponge. Overwork will do it. Irregular habits will do it. Overeating will do it. Disipation will do it. But the effect is the same—stomach failure.

No matter how these nerves became impaired—I know a way to rebuild their strength—to restore their vigor. It is a remedy which took thirty years of my life to perfect—a remedy which is now known in more than fifty thousand communities—in more than a million homes—as Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

If you have stomach trouble and have never tried my remedy, merely write and ask. I will send you an order on your druggist which will accept as gladly as he would accept a dollar. He will hand you from his shelves a standard sized bottle of my prescription and he will send the bill to me. This offer is made only to strangers to my remedy. Those who have once used the Restorative do not need this evidence. There are no conditions—no investments. It is open and frank and fair. If it is the supreme test of my limitless belief. All that I ask you to do is to write—write today.

For a free order or a full dollar bottle you must address Dr. Shoop, Box 1862, Racine, Wis. State which book you want. Book 1 on Dyspepsia. Book 2 on the Heart. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Book 4 for Women. Book 5 for Men. Book 6 on Rheumatism.

OLD PEOPLE

Their Pains and Ailments

Any taint of the blood quickly shows itself with old people, and troubles, which a younger, more vigorous constitution holds in check, take possession of those of advanced years. A mole, wart or pimple often begins to inflame and fester, terminating in a sore that refuses to heal. Wandering pains of a rheumatic character are almost constant, the joints get stiff and the muscles sore, while sleeplessness and nervousness make life a burden. The natural activity of the body is not so great in old age and all the organs get dull and sluggish, failing to carry out the waste matters and poisons accumulating in the system and they are taken up and absorbed by the blood, rendering it weak and unable to properly nourish the system. There is no reason why old age should not be as healthy as youth if the blood is kept pure and strong. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and is the safest and best blood purifier and tonic for old people, because it is gentle, but at the same time thorough in its action, purifying the blood of all poisons and foreign matter, strengthening it and toning up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. Almost from the first dose the appetite increases, the general health begins to improve and the pains and ailments pass away.

WILLIAMS BILL WAS NEW PHASE

Railroads Will Ask Increased Rates to Meet Extra Valuation of Lines

A new phase of the Williams' intangible asset tax bill has been discovered by the railroads, who have discovered that one feature of the measure had not been considered.

The new law provides that the roads shall pay taxes upon the market value of their stocks and bonds.

The average valuation of Texas roads is $16,000 per mile, and to tax bonds and stocks will increase it to more than $30,000 per mile.

The railroads demand that they be allowed rates to provide 5 per cent on this $30,000 valuation fixed by the state. This will give the railroads an excess in additional revenue over the increased taxes.

GENERAL BELL'S TRAIN

Pays $400 to Reach San Antonio Reunion

Former Adjutant General Sherman Bell of Colorado reached Fort Worth Thursday night over the Denver road from Denver several hours late. So late, indeed, that he was forced to charter a special train on the Katy to carry him to San Antonio in time for the Rough Riders' reunion to be held at that city today. When General Bell saw that he was not going to reach Fort Worth on time he wired ahead to have a special train ready for him. The idea was for the special to overtake the Katy Flyer, which left here at 8:15 o'clock, and which had three hours the start of his special. It is not known here whether the special overtook the flyer or not, but in case that it did not General Bell's train was to run through to San Antonio. General Bell was a member in Roosevelt's Rough Riders' regiment in the Spanish-American war.

The price for the train, which reached San Antonio at 7 o'clock this morning, was $400.

STRIKE IN MEXICO

Reported That Trouble Is Brewing in Republic

Not satisfied with an increase in pay, the brakemen of the National Railroad of Mexico threaten to strike unless the management will agree to pay them still higher wages, it is reported. On April 1 the wages were increased 40 cents a day for those running between the City of Mexico and Gonzalez. The exact demands are not known. The company has recently increased the pay of firemen to within 50 cents of the pay of engineers. A strike under the stringent Mexican laws is expected to develop a new phase of labor affairs.

YOKUM WANTS KIRBY LINES

Deposition Regarding Proposed Transfer Heard at Houston Wednesday

HOUSTON, Texas, April 7.—Before Master in Chancery J. R. Burnett the deposition of E. F. Yoakum in the matter of confirming the contract between Yoakum, John H. Kirby, the Kirby Lumber Company and the Frisco, whereby the latter is to take over the trams and terminals owned by the Kirby company, was heard Wednesday. The hearing was continued to get other testimony from St. Louis.

In his deposition Mr. Yoakum points out wherein the contract would be to the best interest of the lumber company and states that if the court approves it and the Frisco comes into possession of the trams and terminals the same will be connected with the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico road, now building toward Houston, and the Frisco will extend the road to a connection whereby it will have access to the port of New Orleans. He is also contemplating new roads whereby connection will be made for St. Louis, Chicago, Memphis and Colorado. The trams and terminals are now held in trust to secure to the Frisco a loan of $600,000 made the Kirby Lumber Company by B. F. Yoakum, James Campbell of St. Louis and Henry Clay Pierce of New York, all of whom assigned to the Frisco.

The Maryland Trust Company opposes confirmation of the contract, claiming that as a matter of fact these trams and terminals are held in trust, in effect, by the Kirby Lumber Company.

JOHN J. ZIMMER.

Gentlemen: All the medals that I have won in athletics and the honors that I have gained on the track and on the wrestling mat I owe to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I began to take your medicine four years ago, when I was a mere stripling and very much run down in health and weak in body. I had been bedridden for four months, and the doctors thought I would not recover, when an athletic instructor, a neighbor of ours, took me in charge. He stopped all medicine and gave me Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and with the aid of massage brought me back to normal health. Since that time I have trained regularly in the gymnasium and have known no medicine except Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.—JOHN J. ZIMMER, Amateur Champion Wrestler.

TO CLOSE DEAL FOR HUECO TANKS

Fort Worth Buyers of Valuable Property Expected in El Paso Soon to Close Deal

EL PASO, Texas, April 7.—The Fort Worth people who are on a deal for the Armerdaz ranch, on which are located the noted Hueco tanks, northeast of El Paso, will be in the city in a few days to inspect the property, and if a clear title can be given, they will close the deal for the tract, paying $35,000 for the property, which consists of six or eight sections of land and all the cattle thereon.

The Hueco tanks are the only watering places for miles and miles across the ranch is therefore a very valuable one. These tanks never run dry, no matter how dry the season, and they have been known since the Indians roamed the west.

Dr. Ralph Graham, lately stationed in Oklahoma, has been transferred to the El Paso station, relieving Dr. C. E. Mauldin of the local bureau of animal industry. Dr. Graham arrived here today and Dr. Mauldin will leave in a few days for his new station at Fort Worth, where he will have charge of the inspection of cattle in the stock yards at that place, also the dipping vats.

PERJURY CHARGED IN TRUST INVESTIGATION

Federal Grand Jury in Chicago Said to Be Preparing Indictments

CHICAGO, April 7.—Preparations are being made, it is said, by the Federal grand jury investigating the so-called beef trust to indict certain witnesses who have appeared before the inquisitorial body on charges of perjury and for interference with other witnesses.

Evidence tending toward positive information that some testified falsely on the stand before the jury is said to have been produced yesterday and word was sent to Springfield for Judge Humphrey to come to Chicago.

The jury was impaneled by Judge Humphrey and it is asserted he was summoned for advice concerning the proposed perjury charges. The jury today remained in session until almost 6 o'clock, and it is the general belief that some important development is to be expected within a short time. Special efforts have been made in the past few days, it is said, by the Federal officials to secure evidence that a number of important witnesses before the grand jury have not been truthful. Secret service men have been working along these lines and other witnesses have been questioned regarding the testimony of previous witnesses.

Fifteen subpoenas were issued yesterday for additional Chicago witnesses, whose names have been secured by the secret service men. These witnesses, it is asserted, have been summoned in connection with the supposed attempt to show that perjury had been committed. As soon as Judge Humphrey arrived in Chicago he went into conference with District Attorney Morrison and Attorney Pagan, and soon afterward the new subpoenas were issued and given to deputy marshals for service.

MONTAGUE ASPHALT BEDS UNDEVELOPED

Rich Deposits of Paving Material Left Unworked Because Necessary Capital is Lacking

AUSTIN, Texas, April 7.—Sterling P. Strong, formerly county clerk of Montague county, is here on business. He stated yesterday that practically no efforts were being made in his county to develop the unlimited quantity of asphalt which abounds in that county. This asphalt, he said, is of the very best quality, and is only waiting for people with capital to take up the matter and develop these beds. Nearly all of the town of St. Joe, Montague county, is paved with the asphalt. The facilities for transporting it to the market are at present very limited.

A company was formed some time ago to develop these beds of asphalt, but for some reason nothing definite has been done recently.

CATTLE MOVING TO TERRITORIES

Roads Report Heavy Shipments Being Made Daily. Estimate of 250,000

From the present outlook there will be 250,000 head of Texas cattle pastured in the territory country. This estimate is based upon reports of the different railroads that reach the pasture country.

Live Stock Agent J. I. Conway of the Santa Fe said today that his road will take from Texas into the Territory approximately 75,000 head of cattle from various sections of this state, and that the movement daily is quite large, several train loads moving through here every twenty-four hours. He says that the movement, under the special dispensation of the Federal government granting cattle to go to Territory pastures after dipping, between April 1 and May 15, will cease, but that if it is discovered that there are more cattle to go, further arrangements will probably be made by the United States government. He thinks, however, that by the middle of May the majority of the stuff for the Territory pastures will have been moved and there will be no additional legislation on the matter to allow cattle below the quarantine line to go above the line.

Mr. Conway said also that there was quite a movement of cattle to the Territory country from Kansas and other points above the line, but that the numbers will not be as large as on previous years because of the fact that the ranges in these states are the best in years and consequently it will not be necessary to pasture the stock in the Indian country.

COUNTY GINNERS CALLED TO MEET

Organization Branch of North Texas Association to Be Formed Wednesday

A meeting of the ginnerers of Tarrant county has been called at the court house April 12 to form a county organization.

The call issued by the North Texas Ginnerers' Association is as follows:

Dear Sir: Pursuant to a meeting of the North Texas Ginnerers' Association (a division of and acting in harmony with the National Ginnerers' Association), a meeting of the ginnerers of Tarrant county is hereby called at the court house at Fort Worth, Wednesday, April 12, 2 p. m.

This association has been indorsed by the Southern Cotton Growers at their recent convention at New Orleans, also by agricultural organizations elsewhere.

It is not the purpose of the Ginnerers' Association to conflict with the work of the census bureau, but to assist in making that more correct if possible, and to enable the ginner and planter to get it before it has been gambled on in New York and elsewhere.

Every other branch of industrial and agricultural pursuits are well organized, and from well directed and intelligent concert of action have reaped great benefits, compare with which the small fees for membership are insignificant.

While the principal object of the National Association is to gather crop statistics and enable the planter and ginner to know when to sell their cotton, there are many questions of vital importance locally that can best be discussed and acted upon in county meetings. It is to organize such body for your country that you are earnestly requested to be present, as above indicated, and lend your counsel and assistance in a move of greater importance to you than anyone else in the cotton industry. In fact, you hold the key to the situation. Will you help us help you unlock a source of benefit to you?

Mr. Taylor, president of the National Association, and Mr. Rowe, president of the Tex's Association, and other speakers will address you, not only with regard to the interests of the ginner in general, but of matters of direct interest to you. Please be present and give us your hearty co-operation. Yours very truly,

J. S. ROWE,
President North Texas Ginnerers' Association.
N. T. BLACKWELL,
Secretary.

DEFENDS COURSE OF ROCKEFELLER

Standard Oil Attorney Declares His Money Is Secured Honestly

NEW YORK, April 7.—S. C. T. Dodd, chief solicitor of the Standard Oil company, gave out a statement yesterday with reference to the recent discussion as to the acceptance of a gift of $100,000 offered by John D. Rockefeller for missionary work.

Mr. Dodd declares that the statement that Mr. Rockefeller made his money dishonestly "is false; is vile, and when made by ministers in the pretended interest of morality, is doubly vile."

Mr. Dodd then says that the Standard Oil company does not own a share of stock of any railroad company, and that since the enactment of the interstate commerce law has not received better rates than other shippers, by rebates, arrangements, devices or plans of any character. The testimony of Howard Page, freight agent of the Standard Oil company, is quoted in this connection. With reference to gas and copper companies Mr. Dodd says:

"No doubt many have been prejudiced against Mr. Rockefeller by sensational writers, whose articles accompanied by caricatures and portraits are intended to create the impression that Mr. Rockefeller was the principal in the affair relating to the organization of gas and copper companies, although no fact showing such connection is stated. The Standard Oil company already denied that it had any connection or interest, directly or indirectly, in the organization of these corporations and on the best authority the same denial is made for John D. Rockefeller. He had no connection with nor interest in, directly or indirectly, the organization of these corporations."

INSURANCE MEETING PROVES HARMONIOUS

Directors of Equitable Company Meet and Adopt Mutualization Plan—No Resignations Offered

NEW YORK, April 7.—Out of the fifty members of the board of directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, thirty-eight assembled in the company's board room yesterday and after an hour and thirty minutes' discussion, in the course of which it is understood the whole Equitable controversy was gone over, an announcement was made that those present unanimously had decided to adopt the two-year mutualization plan announced several days ago.

Rumors of the resignations did not bear fruit and it was authoritatively said that none was tendered.

"Everything harmonious" was the tenor of the official statement issued after the meeting by Senator Chauncey M. Depew and Cornelius Ellis. This announcement also said that a committee of directors would thoroughly investigate the company's management.

President Alexander of the company and James H. Hyde were present and it is noted that many of the directors came from a distance in order to attend the session.

A new feature in the Equitable matter is a resolution adopted for the appointment of a committee of seven, headed by E. H. Harriman, to thoroughly investigate Equitable affairs.

The original plan for the mutualization of the company provided that it should be accomplished in four years, but after last week's session with the state superintendent of insurance this was amended to make the time two years. The two-year plan was acquiesced in by Mr. Hyde. The plan begins to take effect next December.

During the meeting there were various rumors of a controversy between Mr. Hyde and Mr. Alexander, but so far as known nothing of this kind took place.

President Alexander, Mr. Hyde and John D. Crammins declined to add anything to the official statement and said they had no comments to make on today's meeting.

CZAR LEARS TO LEAVE PALACE

Fails to Attend the Annual Parade of His Own Regiment for First Time

TROOPS GUARD STREETS

Only Two Grand Dukes Willing to Risk Lives and Witness Ceremony

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—The annual parade of the Horse Guards, always one of the spectacular military ceremonies as well as social functions of the year, was chiefly notable today by the absence of Emperor Nicholas and the imperial family.

The Horse Guards is the emperor's own regiment, and never before has he failed to attend the annual parade with the empress, the dowager empress and the entire court. But this year the emperor remained at Tsarkeoelo.

The only grand dukes who ventured out of their palaces were Nicholas Boris and Alexander Mikhailovitch, the first named representing the emperor. Even Grand Duke Vladimir, commander of the military district, was not present. The explanation for the latter's absence being that he was detained at his palace on account of sickness.

Danger to the imperial family was regarded as especially great today, as it happened this is the festival of the immaculate conception, one of the strictest of the religious holidays. All business was suspended in consequence, and the entire population was in the streets, and the fear of an untoward incident in view of the activity of the terrorists induced the extra precautions.

Mounted gendarmes were stationed at the bridges and in the streets leading to the barracks. A regiment on horse guard followed the boulevard to keep back the rougher element, and ordinary spectators were not allowed to approach within a block.

The parade, instead of occurring in the usual open space before the barracks, took place within the riding school, being in every way purely a perfunctory affair, few foreign representatives and members of society being present.

After trooping the colors, the regiment marched to the Church of Ascension, adjoining the barracks, where religious services were held. The area around the church was filled with solid platoons of cuirassiers and chevallier guards, who later greeted Grand Duke Nicholas as he emerged from the portals with the "hurrah" always given to members of the imperial family.

Only one got a glimpse of the representative of the ruling dynasty, and no echoing cheers came from the crowd.

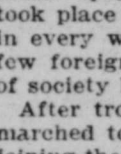

The ceremony of trooping the colors was also carried out in the square of the imperial family, the troops on duty there. The police made a number of arrests, but both military displays happily passed off without disturbances.

EVEN CEMETERIES INVADDED

St. Petersburg Police Go to Ridiculous Extremes to Check Spread of Revolutionary Sentiments

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—Efforts of the police to smother the present agitation have led them to invade the cemeteries in their search for evidence of treason. It has become a practice of the students to place on the graves of comrades who were active or who suffered in the cause of freedom, small bouquets of ribbons on which political sentiments are inscribed.

The police now make nocturnal visits to the cemeteries in search of these treasonable mottoes, which are promptly confiscated. But being ignorant, the policemen make various mistakes.

The other day a harmless inscription in Greek simply expressive of sympathy was seized, and on Wednesday a red ribbon attached to a reath, although upon the grave of a well-known official, being interpreted by the police as a revolutionary emblem, was not only cut off, but created so much alarm a general order was sent out to all vendors of mortuary wreaths prohibiting the sale of ribbons.

Stories of sufferings on the part of widows, wives and families of some of the front are attracting general attention, and the public demands that the government give aid for the sufferers. Local charities are no longer able to cope with the situation.

In many places funds raised for this purpose are entirely exhausted, and the provincial papers are filled with pathetic accounts of starving mothers and children begging in the streets. At Nizhni, Novgorod place, the governor was besieged by a crowd of hungry women with babies in their arms, asking for bread. The governor informed the women he would appoint a committee to investigate the situation. His reply has aroused ire locally. The Viednost said: "There is always a committee to investigate." While it is investigating women and children starve."

Under the new press regulations papers are not permitted to publish anything affecting the emperor or the imperial family without consent of the court censorship. The imperial chancellery formally requested the Kobeko commission, which is revising the press regulations, to include this restriction, and such requests the commission regards as being equivalent to an imperial order.

THE MAY MEETING

The meeting of cattlemen at Denver next month promises to be one of the most far-reaching in its effects. Speaking of that meeting, the Denver Times says: "After May 9 next the National Live Stock Association, so far as the stock-raisers of the country are concerned, will practically be out of existence, according to reports brought to Denver by cattle shepherds from all over the west."

"On that date is to be held the first annual convention of the American Stock Growers' Association. Thereafter, it is declared, the national association will be but an adjunct to the packers' combine. It will then cease, to all intent and purpose, to represent the stockmen.

"Whether it will continue in existence is a question which many stockmen answer in the negative. Already, it is asserted on the most excellent authority, its only income is received from the packers. Even the stock yards, allied though they are with the packing houses, appear to have read right the writing on the wall and to have withdrawn their support. From one who knows it is learned that not a penny has been contributed for the support of the National Live Stock Association by stockmen since the secession of the growers during the annual meeting in Denver last winter.

"The reason for the general defection of the stockmen from the association which first found life in Denver five or six years ago is due, it is asserted, to President Hagenbarth's reorganization plan. It smacked too much, thought the stockmen, of an alliance with their enemies—the packers, the railroads, the stock yards—to which, through all the existence of the association, its members had been diametrically opposed.

"At the meeting of the American association next month all the power of the corporations will be brought to bear to obtain admission to the new organization. They will fail. The stockmen are determined, it is asserted, to maintain an integrity of the stock business."

If the predictions of the Denver paper are correct and the old National Live Stock Association does pass out of existence there will be few tears shed in Texas over its passing. The general sentiment in this state is that the organization referred to has long since outlived its usefulness, if it ever had any. And while its career has been a short one, the result is but what has been generally expected. Several years ago the leading stockmen of this state who attended the annual conventions of the old organization would invariably return home with the assertion that they never expected to attend another of its conventions. The complaint even then was that its proceedings were all of the cut-and-dried nature, where it was impossible to obtain recognition or achieve any desired results unless the mover in that direction was cheek by jowl with the men who were running its affairs to suit themselves.

There has been so little accomplished by the National Live Stock Association that it is wonderful that it was permitted to exist as long as it did. Its meetings were usually a great annual hurrah, with just enough business to tincture them with an appearance of legitimacy. The cattlemen of the country had but slight voice in the direction of its affairs, the bulk of control seeming to be vested in the sheepmen, and the small residue divided among the packers, the stock yards and the railroads. The taste of directing gotten by these interests evidently inspired the desire for more of it, for in the reorganization scheme that was presented at its last annual meeting, they very graciously agreed to pay practically the entire cost of maintenance for the privilege of controlling the organization. This those at the head of the organization seemingly favored, but the cattlemen revolted and the new organization followed.

What the new organization is to amount to depends wholly on the men who are to comprise its membership. Ample opportunity exists to profit by the mistakes made by the old organization, and it is believed this will be done. There is no reason in the world why the American Live Stock Association should not become a great factor in the advancement of the live stock interests. There are matters that cannot be reached so readily within the state organizations. Matters pending before the congress of the United States are best promoted by a national organization thoroughly representative of the whole, for it will at least have the semblance of more weight and more power. The calling into existence of the Interstate Cattlemen's Executive Committee during the life of the old national organization was a sad commentary on the usefulness and efficiency of that organization, and if that new organization was necessary at that time, it is certain that conditions have not so improved as to nullify that necessity. There are many reasons why the new organization should be perfected.

As Texas has been the prime mover in these matters, it should be borne in mind that much is rightfully expected of Texas at the impending Denver meeting. The cattlemen of this state should resolve to attend the Denver meeting in force, encouraging the new organization with their membership and their presence. Both are essential to the getting off of the new undertaking on the right foot, and it is believed the Texas cattlemen will not disappoint their friends.

Measures that have passed the state legislature and have been sent to the governor for his approval have been found to be full of clerical errors as to be invalid unless corrected, and this is a condition of affairs that prevails at every session. Perhaps if the rule was adopted to cut out political henchmen and employ competent men to do the clerical work this state of affairs could be obviated. But so long as men are given important clerkships for which they are absolutely unqualified, simply because they have some kind of a political pull, these conditions will continue and prove a source of constant trouble. Competency is what the state of Texas should demand in every employe.

The Mexican authorities have repiled to the resolution passed by the Texas legislature asking for the release of Mac Stewart, the old Confederate veteran confined in prison in that country, but hold out no hope of compliance. They say the matter is now being considered by the highest court, and point to the fact that Stewart's punishment has already been commuted from death to twenty years' imprisonment. The claim is reiterated that the killing he is charged with was not in self-defense, but was such as to merit capital punishment in any civilized country.

There is one fact that should be borne in mind in connection with the president's visit to Dallas, and that is the demand that was made by the assembled thousands that James S. Hogg should be heard. It is such incidents as these which reveal the wonderful hold that this man has on the masses in Texas, and the aspiring politicians of today realize only too well that Hogg is the idol of Texas people. Hogg and Bryan are two men who can always provoke enthusiasm of the most rampant kind in the Lone Star state.

The people of this state authorized state banking institutions at the last general election and Texas capital is clamoring for opportunity to engage in business under the provisions of that constitutional amendment. But the state legislature has acted upon pending measures in that direction in such a dilatory manner as to create the fear that nothing may be done prior to adjournment.

Judge Talty, the republican nominee who was defeated by Rolla Wells for mayor of St. Louis, is threatening to contest the election. Election contests are very poor business for any man to indulge in. The manly man always accepts defeat without making such an exhibition of himself as to create disgust among his followers. It is nearly always a losing game.

Over in Germany the idea prevails that peace between Japan and Russia is very near at hand, and the presence of Emperor William's brother, Prince Henry, in St. Petersburg at this time indicates that there may be something in the German assertion. It is hoped that it may not turn out to be another false alarm.

That Indian Territory man who climbed a telegraph pole and accosted the president with a "Hallo, old pal," presented Theodore Roosevelt with the highest compliment that was paid him on his entire trip en route to Texas. The Indian Territory man did his best to raise himself to the presidential level.

The news comes from Mexico that Apostle Elijah Dowie is certain to purchase a large hacienda down there and locate his new Zion upon it. The people of the United States wish him good speed in the enterprise and hope to see him locate down there permanently.

April 15 has been definitely decided upon by the lower branch of the state legislature as the time it desires to adjourn and go home, and the senate has been asked to accept the date without question. The longer the honorable body lingers in Austin the more willing the people are to have its members return home.

The list of notaries public that will be manufactured before the state legislature adjourns will be up to the usual standard so far as length is concerned. So many of these are made at every session of the state legislature as to render notaries public about as common in Texas as colonels in Kentucky or pig tracks in Arkansas.

The prospects are brightening for the Pullman Sleeping Car company to have to come up with a more just proportion of taxes before the state legislature adjourns. Colonel Jake Wolters seems to have felicitated himself somewhat prematurely on the magnificence of his pull.

The factory club idea is getting very near the formative stage, and no progressive citizen of this city can afford to hold back and not lend the movement the proper encouragement. Fort Worth needs all sorts of factories in her business.

A B D BOOTHBY FOR FREEDOM

His majesty greeted me with great condescension. He even went so far as to bid me be seated, an honor which I should say he had never been known to show to any European before. "I have given orders for thy journey tomorrow, and tonight my grand vizier shall bring to thee £200 in English gold. The sum of £5,000 will be paid in London to thee at an address of which the grand vizier will tell thee. That and thy life should be sufficient reward."

done the same for me. Well, here we are.

I entered the tailor's shop at which I had already been accustomed to deal. "I was lucky enough to secure a couple of stalls at the St. James for tonight," said my host, as we sipped our coffee. "What do you say to going on there?" "I should like it immensely," I replied. "The last theater I was in was in Rio, and I remember, within a hundred yards of the doors, seeing a woman knife a man and then stab herself. She was a fine-looking creature."

I TOSSED HIM SOME COIN.

"That night I slept more soundly than I had done for weeks past. I woke at daybreak. A magnificent animal had been sent for my use, and I was about to mount it, when his majesty's own servant came to me and said in a low voice: 'The sultan my master—may he live forever—bids me say that he wishes you a safe journey and success to all you undertake.'

"The royal box is on the other side," he said; and as he spoke there came forward to the front of the box in question the most beautiful woman I had ever seen in my life. She was accompanied by an elderly gentleman whom it was easy to see was her father.

CHAPTER VI. It was the middle of November when I reached England, after one of the roughest passages in all my experience. It seemed a fit home-coming for a man like myself, who had such a secret to keep my company and such a villainous piece of work ahead of him.

"For a moment I felt as if the world were spinning round my head a million times a second. The theater swam before my eyes; then, with an effort, I pulled myself together, and glanced at my neighbors to discover whether they had noticed anything. Fortunately, the lady on my right was perusing her program, while Lacey was watching some people who were entering on the left side of the house.

I had telegraphed from Demouth to the Cecil for a room, and I drove there immediately on my arrival. By this time, it was nearly 4 o'clock, and I began to grow dark. I needed some new coats and started out to a tailor shop. I was within fifty yards of the gates of Burlington house when I saw coming towards me a man with whom, less than two years before, I had been on the most intimate terms and on somewhat peculiar circumstances.

"Who is she?" "The most beautiful woman in England," was his reply. "Lady Olivia Belhampton."

Like myself, he had been knocking about the world, here, there, and everywhere, since he was a youngster. When I first met him, he was in China, engaged in the somewhat profitable, but always dangerous, attempt to squeeze the governor of a province. He was anxious to obtain a concession, and came extremely near losing his life in his attempt to get it. By good luck, I was able to extricate him from his dangerous position, and from that moment we became friends.

"What the play was about I have not the remotest notion. It may have been tragedy or comedy—I cannot tell. I had no eyes and no thought but for the lady in the box."

"I thought I couldn't be mistaken," he cried, hastening towards me with outstretched hand. "It's Roger Gavesson."

"I don't know what there is to tell you," he returned, "save that she is popularly supposed to be the most beautiful woman in England, and that when the old duke dies, she'll be immensely rich. She is also a great horsewoman, hunts as many days in the week as hounds are out. I suppose they are up in town on account of the frost."

"I told him my errand and he agreed to accompany me."

"I wouldn't mind doing a little myself. I was thinking of it the other day. What do you say if we chum together? I can't run to a very big stud, but whatever I back shall be good 'uns."

"Not a bit of it! I can rig you out. We are much of a build, and it won't be the first time we've worn each other's duds. Do you remember our arrival at Trouby? And that fat old French priest who lent me a pair of bags that were nearly a foot too big for me round the waist, and didn't reach much below my knees? By Jove! those were jolly old days!"

"I was who got me out of the scrape, old fellow. And I am eternally grateful to you for it."

SPINAL DISEASE STILL UNCHECKED

New York Physicians Unable to Stop Epidemic of Meningitis

NEW YORK, April 7.—Seventeen deaths from cerebro-spinal meningitis were reported during the day in Greater New York making a total for the week thus far of 82. An average of twenty-five developing cases have been reported daily.

A new treatment is being tried at Bellevue hospital. It consists of drawing off the fluid from the spinal canal. This is being done every other day and greatly relieves the patient. By the use of ice bags they are then kept in good condition and with little pain.

"The only question is," said one of the staff at the hospital, "whether we are getting all the discharge from the canal. We are not able to tell, because there is no X-ray strong enough to determine whether the fluid is clogged in the brain. It is believed that in the advanced cases it does clog up." This treatment reduces the temperature almost to normal, thus affording us an excellent opportunity for working. We have found no drugs which have any salutory effect upon the disease.

It is interesting to note that the meningococci of the bacilli of spinal meningitis are so similar to the germs of another disease that it is difficult to tell the two apart. The meningococci have the appearance of a coffee bean would have if it were split in the middle and opened out so that the two hemispheres would form a circle. We have found it mingling yet with which to kill the germ.

At Bellevue is a 6-year-old lad taken there three weeks ago. An eminent surgeon who is studying the disease trephined the boys skull and drew off the fluid which caused the trouble. The patient is still living and shows improvement.

In their investigation of the causes of the epidemic members of the commission appointed by the board of health have turned their attention to animals. The close analogy of the often incurable distemper peculiar to dogs has suggested a new field of inquiry. Stray cats and dogs are now under suspicion.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

WASHINGTON, April 7.—When Tom Ochiltree was in congress he was making strenuous efforts to secure appropriations in the river and harbor bill, but was bitterly opposed by Colonel Hepburn of Iowa, the latter claiming that Texas had long been securing much more than her share of the appropriations for the rivers and harbors of the country. Ochiltree made a brief speech, and won his point, bringing down the house with his conclusion: "Texas has had from the engineers of the war department a tropical fertility of promises, and a Sahara sterility of performances."

When William L. Wilson was a leader, and the famed Wilson revenue bill was being formed, Chairman Wilson told this one to the committee on ways and means. It happened in 1842 at White Sulphur Springs, that there was a revival going on, the meetings being held in Father Perkins' double cabin, which had been built for such purposes. Now Father Perkins was an old hunter, a born sport, but past 80 years of age, and a man of deep pity. The men left their rifles outside the cabin, leaning on the rail fence. The preacher was an earnest one, with a tremendous voice, which he used to good advantage, particularly whenever the dogs were heard in the woods. At last, however, the busy dogs rounded up a score or more of deer, and as they came thundering down the country road, the yelping dogs after them, the congregation disappeared, and the preacher threw up his hands crying: "They're lost. They're lost. It's no use; no use."

The pious, infirm old hunter remained in his seat, and called to the preacher: "Yes it is, Brother Jones; yes it is, They'll get 'em certain, sure."

Senator Billy Mason happened to be at home, when a servant girl called to secure a position. She asked all sorts of questions concerning the amount of work, the kind, the hours, her days off, and her wages. Mrs. Mason asked her husband out into the dining-room to look and listen. The girl was about departing, when Mrs. Mason asked when she would report for duty. The reply was: "I'm lookin' for a permanent place, ma'am; but it's no use to come back here, I guess. You both seem rather old," and she went out.
As she went down the hall, Billy Mason called to her: "You might be kind enough to stay for the funeral."

Hon. Tom Cavanaugh, former sergeant at arms of the house of representatives, says that when he was returning from Buenos Ayres the steamer stopped at Rio and took on passengers, among them being a Brazilian gentleman with two little girls, aged about 15 and 13. The gentleman was sea-sick for a couple of days, and the little girls were lonely. On the third day out, the captain took one of the little girls on each knee and told them stories of sea life for some time, when suddenly the Brazilian appeared and rushing at the captain, shouted: "Are you a married man?"
The captain replied: "Yes, sir, and I have two little girls older than your daughters," and he patted their cheeks.
"Little girl," shouted the Brazilian; "that little girl is my wife. Drop her, sir."

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

THE KANSAS REGULATIONS

TOPEKA, Kan., April 7.—John E. Baker, state live stock sanitary commissioner, will accept federal inspection after this on southern cattle. If a cattle shipper shows a certificate from the government inspectors the state commissioner will pass his cattle. Rules and regulations governing the matter have been promulgated and so long as the government inspection proves safe it will be accepted. If it becomes lax, or experience proves that the cattle interests of Kansas are jeopardized in any manner, then the commissioner will reinstate state inspection.

Supplemental to government regulations, however, the state commissioner will maintain line riders along the south line of the state to prevent the driving of southern cattle across the line. The various railroads hauling southern cattle must also build "tick-tight" fences five feet high at all feeding or unloading points. The state department will devote most of its attention to looking after stock diseases within the border of the state.

The rules accepting government inspection and requiring railroads to build pens for southern cattle follow:

Rule 1—All cattle which come directly or indirectly from any territory which now is or may hereafter be quarantined by the secretary of agriculture of the United States as infected with Texas, spenic or Spanish fever, or from the western tier of townships in Jasper and Newton counties, in the state of Missouri, shall be designated as southern cattle, excepting, however, that part of Oklahoma and the Panhandle of Texas known as the special quarantine district, situated north and west of the regular United States cattle quarantine line. Cattle coming from such district shall be admitted into the state of Kansas if accompanied with a certificate of health issued by the bureau of animal industry.

Rule 2—All public stock yards where southern cattle are received, and all other yards where such cattle are received for feed, water, rest or any other purpose, shall maintain a division, which shall either be separate and apart from yards used for other cattle by a space of not less than ten feet wide, having on each side a tight board fence not less than five feet high, and have posted thereon a sign, "These Pens for Southern Cattle."

Rule 3—All cars while carrying southern cattle in Kansas shall bear on both sides printed Manila placards not less than 5 1/2 x 8 inches in size, the letters of which shall be plain and not less than 1 1/2 inches in height, to be affixed by the railroad company hauling the same, stating that said cars contain southern cattle, and each of the waybills, conductor's manifests and bills of lading of such shipments by cars shall have a note plainly written or stamped thereon with a similar statement.

GOOD FOR TEXAS

Every dog has his day. Men who were dumping young cattle on the market last year with a reckless disregard of anything except a wild desire to "cash in" were contributing to a condition that seems to come around about once in so often in the history of sentiment regarding the desirability and profit in cattle growing.

No doubt beef trust agitation has had a good deal to do with the dumping.

At any rate, "stockers and feeders" are now having their day and it promises to be many a long day before the corn belt and the northern range country is again stocked up with a normal supply.

A ranchman who owns large acreage on the line between the Dakotas—the home of feeding cattle—has lately been writing and wiring to Chicago for information about young cattle to eat his surplus grass.

"Shall I have to go to Texas in order to find young cattle for the purpose?" It looks a little that way, pard, a little that way.

Texas ranchmen who have a pretty strong crop of youngsters on hand do not seem to be as anxious about the situation as the corn belt and northern graziers. The Texas cowman is going to be in during this year of our Lord nineteen five and don't you forget to remember it.—Chicago Live Stock World.

LIGHT LOSSES IN NORTHWEST

Very encouraging reports are received as to the condition of cattle on the great ranges of western South Dakota, and if the beef trust investigation, which is now in progress in Chicago, results in prices of live stock getting back to where they formerly were, a very successful and profitable season is anticipated by the stockmen of the state, says the Sioux City Journal.

Although it is the practice of the cattlemen on the great ranges to turn their animals loose in the fall to shift for themselves over a vast country embracing many millions of acres, the losses from the winter storms are reported to be unusually small. Cattlemen in the Leslie region report the winter loss in that section as less than 1 per cent. Cattle, too, are in the best condition, unlike last spring, when they were barely able to move around after the snow had disappeared from the ground.

Reports from the Moreau river region are to the effect that cattle have wintered well and that the winter losses are not worth considering. In the neighborhood of Steamers, on the White river, the loss will not be 1 per cent. The cattle had an abundance of feed on the prairie all winter and start the spring in good flesh.

The only unfavorable report comes from lower White river, in the eastern portion of the great cattle range, where animals were started into the winter in poor flesh and in a region where feed was short, but even there the losses were not great. The shortage of feed was due to lack of rainfall at the proper time last season.

Meetings have been called by the three principal stock associations of the state to arrange for the annual spring round-ups, which are expected to be much more thorough this spring than for a number of years.

When the thousands of head of cattle are gathered together the reports as to their condition are expected to be fully verified.

PAINFUL PERIODS

Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. If it is painful or irregular something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

More than fifty thousand women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes painful and irregular menstruation.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes of 540 N. Davison Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches, and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the East advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Vegetable Compound sooner; for I have tried so many remedies without help. "I dreaded the approach of my menstrual period every month, as it meant so much pain and suffering for me, but after I had used the Compound two months I became regular and natural and am now perfectly well and free from pain at my monthly periods. I am very grateful for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rests upon the well-earned gratitude of American women.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating, (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and once removed such troubles, refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's ills.

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS VIEWS ON RAILROADS

AUSTIN, Texas, April 7.—In speaking to the legislature yesterday President Roosevelt said:

"No president of the United States, no good American proud of his country, could enter this capitol and stand in this hall without feeling a certain thrill of pride in his citizenship and in the history of the country's past. This building in which we are now is not only one of the largest but one of the most beautiful of its kind throughout the world. It is eminently fitting that so great a state should have so fine a capitol building.

"There are one or two things that I should like particularly to say in this chamber and to the members of the Texas legislature. I received a copy of the resolution passed by your body, introduced, I understand, by ex-Minister Terrell, in reference to the passage of the interstate commerce act. I wish to thank you most heartily for what you did. I think, Governor and Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, that the longer our experience in public office is, the more we realize that at least 85 per cent, if not more, in importance, of the work done by any public officer who is worth his salt, has nothing whatever to do with partisan politics. The things that concern us as good citizens are infinitely larger than the matters concerning which we divided one from the other along party lines. Fundamentally our attitude in our foreign affairs and in reference to foreign nations must, in the long run, be based upon certain common sense rules of conduct—the identical rules upon which every self-respecting citizen must base his private actions.

"This is especially true as regards all questions dealing with capital and labor; and especially with those dealing with the great aggregates of capital to be found in corporate form through who so much of our business at the present day is conducted. It is essential in dealing thus by legislative action with corporate wealth, or indeed, with wealth in any form, that we remember and act upon certain rules simple enough and commonplace enough to state, but not always easy when it comes to acting upon them. Most emphatically we cannot, as good Americans, bear hostility to any rich man as such. My experience has been that the man who talks over-loudly of his hostility to corporate wealth cannot be trusted to act quite up to the way he talks.

"It is a good thing to have moderation in statement, and to make your deeds bear out absolutely your words.

"With that preliminary I would like to say in brief just what my position is as regards this particular question with which I had to deal and as regards which the Texas legislature took the action I so much appreciate.

"On the whole there have been few instruments in the economic development of the country which have done more for the country than the railroads. I do not wish in any shape or way to interfere with the legitimate gain of any of the great men whose special industrial capacity enables them to handle the railroads so as to be of profit to themselves and of advantage to all of us. I should be most reluctant—I put it stronger than that—I will absolutely refuse to be a party to any measure, to any proposition that interferes with the proper and legitimate prosperity of those men; and I should feel that such a measure was aimed not only at them, but at all of us, for any attack upon the legitimate prosperity of any of our citizens is in the long run sure to turn into an attack upon all. With that proviso (as to which I ask you to remember that I mean literally every word), let me further add that the public has a right, not a privilege, but in my view a duty, to see that there is in its behalf exercised such supervisory and regulatory power over the railroads as will insure that while they get fair treatment themselves, they give it in return. The proper exercise of that power is conditioned upon the securing of proper legislation, which will enable the representatives of the public to see to it that any unjust or oppressive or discriminating rates are altered, so as to be a just and fair rate, and are altered immediately.

"I know perfectly well that when you give that power there is a chance of its being occasionally abused. There is no power that can be given to the representatives of the people, which it is not possible for them to abuse. As every one knows, the power of taxation, which must of course be given to the representatives of the people, is the power of death, for it is possible to kill any industry by excessive taxation. There must be a certain trust placed in the common sense and common honesty of those who are to enforce the law. If it ever falls, and I think it will, to my lot to nominate a board to carry out such a law, I shall nominate men as far as I am able on whose ability, courage and integrity I can count; men who will not be swayed by any influence whatever, direct or indirect, social, political or any other, to show improper favoritism for the railroads, and who, on the other hand, if a railroad is unjustly attacked, no matter if that attack has behind it the feeling or prejudice of 99 per cent of the people, will stand up against that attack. That is my interpretation of the doctrine of the square deal.

"I want to say just one word more on an entirely different subject. I have always taken a very great interest in the National Guard in this country. It is our pride that we have the smallest possible regular army. There is not another first class power, there is not a second or third-class power in the world that has not relatively to its population and wealth a very much larger regular army than we have. We do not need anything but a small regular army. We need, and must have, the very best regular army of its size that is to be gotten anywhere. We do not need a large regular army because of the possibilities of our people in raising the volunteer troops. These troops are largely conditioned on the excellence of the National Guard.

"Since I have been in Texas, at almost every stopping place there have been members of the National Guard, companies of the National Guard, or individuals in connection with keeping the crowds in order, in preventing trouble of any kind, keeping the whole proceedings orderly and proper. I have been immensely struck with their soldierly bearing. These troops are largely conditioned on the excellence of the National Guard.

"Your whole history from the days of Austin and Houston and Davy Crockett right to the present time shows what splendid fighting material the average Texas makes. But I do not want to go into amount to much if it is not given a chance. It is a most important thing for all of us, if we desire to keep the regular army small, that we shall have the militia, the National Guard of the several states, kept up to a proper point. Last year, I am happy to be able to say, that at the maneuvers of the regular army Texas troops did admirably. I have been told again and again how well they did. I want to commend you a heartily excellent law for the administration of the National Guard that has recently been passed by the Texas legislature. With that law backed up by a sufficient appropriation to make the old flag available you can count upon having the Texas National Guard a model for the National Guard of the country.

"I feel very much at home here. I have been governor and I have served in the legislature, so I have a good deal of fellow feeling. I have had to for a good many years grapple with just about the problems you are grappling with from time to time here, and I know, as any man who has taken part in active work must know, how easy it is for the outsider to say that everything should be managed perfectly, and how difficult it is to do even properly decent work. There is a difference between the critic, the on-looker and the doer, the man who does the job."

The president's speech on the capitol plaza was on the subject of good citizenship. He expressed his well-known views in his characteristic way. He discussed the people of Texas and told of coming into the state to raise his regiment for the Spanish-American war, as well as a number of other subjects he has taken up among his series of speeches in this state.

At the State University the President told the assembled students that the only way they could help their alma mater is to conduct themselves after leaving the university that they may reflect credit upon the school that drilled them for life's labor.

BOYS' LEAGUE TO HAVE BANQUET

Women of First Presbyterian Church Will Entertain Them Tonight

Boys of the First Presbyterian church, corner Fourth and Calhoun streets, will tonight be given a banquet by a committee of the mothers in the church parlors. Covers are to be laid for sixty-six young men and their friends. A nice Bible will be given to each of the young men.

The banquet is an annual affair, the first one being given a year ago. The young men of the church have a club known as the Boys' League, the members being directed by a cabinet of ten of the larger boys. The main object of the organization is to have the youths of the congregation grow up to be useful men.

The officers are George Thompson Jr., president; Arden Judd, vice president; Percy Evans, secretary; and Reuben Powell, treasurer.

NOT THE CHEAPEST, BUT LEAST EXPENSIVE AMUSEMENTS

Whatever criticism there may be for the weak spots in the play, "Soldiers of Fortune," must be charged up to Augustus Thomas, who prepared for the stage, Richard Harding Davis' stirring but somewhat familiar story of love and adventure. There could not be any criticism that was not favorable for White Whittlesey, the talented young actor who took the part of the Davis hero in the play. Mr. Whittlesey is magnetic, prepossessing in face and figure and puts into his lines much of naturalness. He is something more than an intelligent actor and this quality carries off "Soldiers of Fortune" with a success that would be impossible in a weaker player. Curtain calls were numerous and in responding Mr. Whittlesey insisted on sharing honors with all the members of his company. This generosity was quite in keeping with the temper of the audience that had showered applause upon Eugene Thais Lawton, Edith Campbell, Virginia Erissac, Harry D. Byers and other capable interpreters of an entertaining play.

Miss Alice Lirette writes:—"Thibodeaux, La., Oct. 15, '04. "For four years my face was completely covered with freckles and pimples. All remedies failed, until I used two packages of Satinola, which completely removed the freckles and pimples. My complexion is now perfect, and hope every lady having freckles or pimples will try Satinola. Price 50c and $1.00, by leading druggists, or mail.

"TEXAS"

One of the strongest attractions, direct from New York, which will come to this city, will be seen at Greenwall's opera house Monday night, April 10.

"Texas," a comedy-drama of life in the great southwest, is a play in four acts, written by J. Maudlin Peig. The piece, which was a great vogue in New York City, where it ran for two months, is pronounced one of the most striking and faithful portrayals of American life on the stage. The play stands unique as a stirring, living picture of scenes and incidents in the great Lone Star State.

The original cast of twenty-five people and complete production will present the play exactly as it was shown in New York.

CARTER'S COMEDIANS

"Carter's Comedians," better known here in the early part of the season as "North Brothers," will be the attraction at Greenwall's opera house next week, commencing Tuesday night, April 11, with a daily matinee, except Tuesday. This company gave such satisfaction during its former engagement that it has been charged for a return date. The personnel of the company is the same as last seen here, with the addition of several high-class vaudeville features to supplement the ladies' orchestra. During the engagement a change of play will be given at each performance. The vaudeville features between the acts will be headed by Millie DesMonda, who will be heard in all the latest and most popular songs. On the opening night the management will admit one lady free with each 50 cent ticket secured before 6 p. m.

Y. M. C. A. MAKES TELEPHONE CANVASS

Central Relief Committee Secure Funds for Construction of New Building Planned

Citizens of Fort Worth who have not been approached in person by some member of one of the various committees for the raising of funds for Fort Worth's new Y. M. C. A. building or were never found in when some member of the various committees visited them, were called over the telephone and asked what they were willing to do to aid the cause, Thursday night.

The idea of a telephone canvass, as a last resort to secure the amount desired for the building, was suggested by one of the members of the committee, and it was decided then to try the innovation. A committee of fifteen was selected for the work and from all parts of the city telephones were kept busy calling persons whom the soliciting committees had been unable to see in person. Each member of the telephone committee was given a list of the persons to be called. Several of the committee were stationed in the Y. M. C. A. in the Fort Worth National bank building, and when a member on the outside was unable to land a subscription the matter was immediately reported to the advisory members in the office, and they in turn worked with the hesitating contributor and in most cases eventually landed a donation.

NOT THE CHEAPEST, BUT LEAST EXPENSIVE HEIRESS WEDS AN EX-HOTEL CLERK

Daughter of Millionaire Manufacturer Becomes Bride After Three Weeks' Acquaintance

CHICAGO, April 7.—A dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from Hot Springs, Ark., says: Miss Pearl M. White, daughter of J. W. White, the millionaire manufacturer of Cleveland and former congressman, has been secretly married here at St. Luke's Episcopal church to James L. Bancroft, who three weeks ago was a clerk behind the desk of one of the prominent hotels of Palm Beach, Fla.

The wedding was the culmination of a romance which started with love at first sight. Bancroft gave up his position on the second day after meeting Miss White. His home is in Brookline, Mass., and he is 25 years of age. His parents are poor.

The couple have left for the bride's home.

CHILDREN.

IF YOU HAVE ANY THIS WILL INTEREST YOU

"So many little boys and girls come into our store who are weak, thin-legged and hollow-cheeked," said Mr. Anderson, our well-known druggist. "It seems a shame to allow them to remain so for they will grow up into weak, sickly and nervous men and women, without the vitality to work or enjoy life."

"If," continued Mr. Anderson, "the fathers and mothers of such children would believe what we say of Vinol, we would see a great difference in the appearance of the younger generation of this city. You know Vinol is not a patent medicine, and is just the tonic growing children need. It will make for them good, healthy flesh, sound bone, hard muscle and rich, red blood.

"True, Vinol is a cod liver oil preparation, but it does not contain a drop of oil or any tasteless feature. It is so delicious that all children love it, yet it actually does contain all the medicinal curative elements found in fresh cod livers, and is the most wholesome and best medicine for children we ever sold.

"We have many letters from grateful mothers whose children were their health, and even life, to Vinol. The following letter from Mrs. C. Allen of New Bedford, Mass., tells what Vinol did for her children. She writes: "With two puny, ailing children, I was very much worried, and did not know what to do to create strength for them and to have them gain flesh. I tried almost everything, but it did not contain a drop of oil or any tasteless feature. It is so delicious that all children love it, yet it actually does contain all the medicinal curative elements found in fresh cod livers, and is the most wholesome and best medicine for children we ever sold.

WHEAT CLOSES LOWER

Continental Markets All Stronger—Market Rules Firm Save for Weak Spell at Opening

(By Private Wire to M. H. Thomas & Co.)

CHICAGO, April 7.—Wheat opened 1/4 lower for May and unchanged for July. Broomhall cabled strength in Liverpool market, caused by the large decrease in Argentine supply, and a good demand for both Argentine on the spot and for Laplata cargoes. Argentine shipments amounted to 3,538,000 bushels. The continental markets all closed higher.

Kansas City reports cash markets very slow and dull. Primary receipts 50,000 bushels less than a year ago.

Duluth stocks decreased 175,000 bushels. Minneapolis shipments of flour yesterday amounted to 42,000 barrels and 100,000 bushels of wheat was received. Good cash demand market seems to meet with No. 2 northern, with stocks decreasing 500,000 bushels for the week.

Modern Miller says crop conditions in general continue excellent.

Today's market showed less activity than in recent sessions. Barring a little weak spell shortly after the opening, the market ruled firm, though at times nervous. The action of the market tends to confirm the belief that trade is pretty well sold out, and while sentiment is extremely bearish, there seems to be hesitation about forcing lower prices at this level. Through most of the session the market exhibited quite a little stubborn strength, with the short interest inclined to cover on every little setback. While present excellent crop conditions lead the bulls will undoubtedly find some difficulty in forcing shorts to cover. On the other hand, the bears find it difficult to bring about a lower range of prices, as on each side the market seems to meet with support. It is a typical weather map, and while present conditions exist will likely continue a scalping affair.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET

Cattle Receipts Increasing Steadily With Steers in the Lead—Hog Prices Unchanged

NORTH FORT WORTH, April 7.—Cattle receipts are still crawling up, and the stress of good prices and the steady demand. Today's run totaled around 2,100, against 1,500 of last week, 1,711 the same day in March and 1,297 the corresponding day in 1904.

The supply of steers was again far in excess of the run of cows, and though liberal was quickly taken by the active call for steers by packers. The demand was so brisk that practically all the cattle were weighed up before noon. Scarcely any grass steers were in sight, fed stuff in all grades making up the supply. The market ruled steady. Topp sold for $4.60, averaging around 1,100 pounds, with the bulk at from $4 to $4.60.

Cows were not at all numerous, and the trade was active. Good butcher cows are still in demand and hard to find. The market was steady on grades of cows, tops being $3.40, with the bulk at $3 to $3.30.

Bulls were also scarce, but a few stages came in with the steers. Prices ruled steady on all of these, from $1.50 to $2.75. Steers $3.25 to $3.75.

Calves were short in supply, coming exclusively among loads and small droves of cows. The quality was not as good as seen yesterday, and top sales were lower, though prices ruled steady. Topp, $4.50; bulk, $2.75 to $4.15.

HOGS

The supply of swine was liberal, some 2,100 head, against 2,359 Friday of last week, 3,215 the same day in March and 2,914 the corresponding day in 1904.

The quality was about the same as yesterday, heavy and medium hogs predominating. An active movement set in at the start on strong demand and the forenoon market held to the same tone as yesterday. Top heavy hogs sold at $4.75, with the bulk at $3.50 to $4.15; mediums, $3.12 1/2 to $3.27 1/2; pigs, $3.75 to $4.15.

SHEEP

One consignment of clipped wethers came in on a contract to a local packer, selling at a little under the market. Well fed sheep continue in good demand.

470 KILLED BY INDIA EARTHQUAKE

Belated Reports Tells Story of Enormous Losses of Life and Property

LAHORE, Ind., April 7.—Four hundred and seventy men of the Gurkha regiments were buried alive as the result of an earthquake at Hill Station, Dharmasa, according to the latest information from that place. The report adds that it was impossible to rescue the entombed men.

The greatest difficulty is experienced in procuring news from Dharmasa. The telegraphic staff at the station was practically wiped out and a temporary office has been opened thirteen miles from the town, but the facilities are most scanty.

The Kangra valley is believed to have been devastated and it is reported that the town of Kangra was destroyed with great loss of life. No confirmation of the report is obtainable, as the telegraphic station at Kangra was wrecked.

A private telegram received here says the whole town of Palampur (containing about 5,000 inhabitants) has been leveled to the ground and not a single building is left standing. This announcement has not been confirmed.

The contents of one tube was thrown into the machine while running, though about half of it was spilled, never reaching the fire. The fire in the machine and dust room was quickly extinguished without the use of water or other extinguishers. A few minutes' stop was necessary only to take out the cotton damaged by fire."

GERMAN EMBASSY DENIES PEACE STORY

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—At the German embassy the statement that it had advised the foreign office that it regarded the early conclusion of the war probable, is pointed out, simply reported the prevailing talk about peace in St. Petersburg. The embassy says the opinion expressed in these dispatches that efforts made in the direction of peace had failed for the moment and that nothing was being done, through the Straits of Malacca, but that Admiral Togo's heavy division will be encountered before Rodjenski reaches the eastern sea.

KENNEDY TAX BILL STILL UP

Fight to Reduce Tariff on Receipts of Water and Light Companies Succeeds

TEXAS AGAIN GOES BROKE

AUSTIN, Texas, April 7.—Consideration of the Kennedy tax bill, imposing an occupation tax on the gross receipts of all corporations was resumed today in the senate. An amendment by Senator Chambers to tax breweries 2 1/2 per cent on their gross receipts was vigorously opposed by Senators Harper, Hunter and Davidson, and finally voted down. Senator Stone led a fight to reduce the tax on gross receipts of water, gas and electric companies from 3/4 of one per cent to 1/4 of one per cent, and finally succeeded. This is the first reduction made in the bill.

The senate spent an hour discussing the house sine die resolution, the sentiment being divided on it, and it was finally laid on the table subject to call.

The general school law bill was passed to a third reading in the house after the adoption of an amendment providing that an election for county school superintendent shall be ordered upon the written petition of 200 freeholders in said county.

TO CHRISTIAN CRUISER

ST. LOUIS, April 7.—The announcement that Mayor Wells has selected Miss Gladys Bryan Smith to christen the United States cruiser St. Louis, is followed by expressions generally from St. Louis brewers interests advocating that the cruiser be christened with beer instead of the customary champagne. The brewers declare beer to be typical of St. Louis, and it should therefore be used on the occasion.

OFFICER REA RESIGNS

Has Record of Fifteen Years in City's Service

John Rea, a brotson of City Marshal Rea, will today tender his resignation as an officer on the local police force. Next to Captain Witche, Mr. Rea is the veteran officer on the force, having served in that capacity for fifteen years. He is now 55 years of age. His first served under his brother, the present city marshal, from 1883 to 1887. Later he served under Sam Farmer when he was chief of police, then under J. H. Maddox and lastly for the past eight years under his brother.

John Rea as an officer has an excellent record.

SHAPING PLANS FOR AN AMATEUR LEAGUE

Amateur teams in the city are taking active interest in the framing of a city league and at a meeting held in the Denver building Thursday evening, at which representatives of Amateur Athletic Union, the Denver Athletic Club and Kellner's amateurs were present, appointed a committee to make arrangements for securing a ball park on the race track grounds north of the city. It is the intention to build a fence and grand stand. The committee was instructed to price the lumber and material which will be required. It has not been definitely decided whether to form a four or six-cup league.

Another meeting has been called for Monday night, at which further plans will be made.

There are probably more unattached or independent unions in New York city than anywhere else in the country in proportion to the number of organized workers, even including the far west, where the American labor union has been catering to the independent element.

reduction, Mr. Woodman said he was unable to say what would come of this matter.

County Lecturer Bryan responded to the addresses of Mayor Powell, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Woodman. Mr. Bryan said he was proud that he was living in a county where such men as W. D. Williams live—the man who introduced the intangible bill.

"I see they talk of running Mr. Williams for governor," said Mr. Bryan. "I don't think that is right. I want to see Mr. Williams represent this county in congress. With Roosevelt and Williams we can sweep the whole country."

Mr. Bryan referred to the fact that better feelings should exist between the country and Fort Worth. He said that he was in favor of a compulsory education bill and wanted a law that would take the children out of the factories and cotton patches and graduate them from the colleges of this country.

He wanted a nine-month school. "If we had a thousand men like you, Mr. Mayor, in Texas we'd make the corporation squeal," said Mr. Bryan. "I want a chance to vote for Representative Williams for congress. I have never voted a democratic ticket, but if Mr. Williams runs for congress, I will vote for him."

Milton Park of Dallas was present, he said, to enlist the sympathy of the union members in reference to certain amendments to the constitution of the state alliance authorized at the last Fort Worth convention. The new constitution, he said, takes away the privilege of a member saying what he may want as to the organic law.

Mr. Park said there were good features of the new constitution, but it contains obstacles that will strand this organization as it has the Farmers' Alliance and the Grange movements.

The meeting today will vote on the adoption or rejection of the new constitution. He urged the rejection of the new constitution. Mr. Park said that the Dallas union voted against the new constitution as a whole.

It was announced that the next meeting of the union will be held in the country.

The meeting then went into executive session.

FARMERS UNION IN SESSION HERE

Tarrant County Organization Holds Quarterly Meeting at Labor Temple Today

The quarterly meeting of the Tarrant county Farmers' union was called to order this morning at Labor Temple by President C. A. McMeans of Kennedale. The attendance was large, representatives being present from nearly all of the forty-five locals in the county.

Since the last meeting was held there have been new locals formed in this county at Mansfield, Kennedale, Marina and Riverside. The total membership in the county is now approximately 1,500.

The proceedings were opened by prayer by chaplain, after which Mayor T. J. Powell was introduced and welcomed the delegates. He said it was not his purpose to make a speech, but as an official he was proud to extend a hearty welcome to the members. "I know what benefits the country benefits the city, therefore if I could create a closer bond of sympathy between the city or county I will be glad to do that thing," said the mayor.

"I am aware of the fact that there is a growing sentiment in Texas as well as in other states to carry out that famous declaration of Teddy Roosevelt to give every man a square deal. No declaration has been made by any man that has so touched the hearts of the people as this expression."

The mayor then referred to the efforts to control the prices of the products of the farms, and added that this condition should not exist. He said that the efforts of the president to bring about conditions that will give every man a fair deal should be commended.

The mayor said that if the intangibles of the railroads and the various city franchises can be taxed it will lighten the burdens on the farmers. He wanted to see a friendly feeling exist between the farmers and the people of Fort Worth.

"The capitalization of larger enterprises have driven those connected with the smaller enterprises out of business and they have drifted into the cities. The farmers are the only class who are in position to be independent," he said. "I hope the president will kill this railroad rebate system that is killing the enterprises of this country and I hope you will all come to Fort Worth Saturday to see the president," he concluded.

National Organizer Kelly of the United Hatters of North America was then introduced and spoke in the interest of his organization. He said he wanted the aid and co-operation of all farmers in discouraging the buying of non-union made hats.

"There is a decided attempt being made to drive out the union labor all over this country," said Mr. Kelly, "and union people everywhere must look out for their best interests."

C. W. Woodman, representing the Trades Assembly, spoke briefly to the convention and guaranteed the assistance of every union man in the work of the farmers. He said that the results to follow the intangible bill, should it pass, would be of vast benefit to the farmers. As to the freight rate reduction, Mr. Woodman said he was unable to say what would come of this matter.

County Lecturer Bryan responded to the addresses of Mayor Powell, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Woodman. Mr. Bryan said he was proud that he was living in a county where such men as W. D. Williams live—the man who introduced the intangible bill.

FARMER COMBATS DR. OSLER IDEA

Simpson Bell, Aged 80 Years, Cultivates Allotment of Government Land

That Dr. Osler is not entirely correct when he says that man loses his usefulness when he passes the age of 60 years is evidenced by the fact that Simpson Bell, who is in the city at present, despite the fact that he is past 80 years of age, conducts an 180-acre farm in Oklahoma. Mr. Bell is the father of W. R. Bell, a conductor on the Texas and Pacific.

In the recent allotment of lands in Oklahoma, the old gentleman drew a fertile strip of farm land. He immediately went about cultivating it and now has it in a high state of improvement. Wheat, corn and oats he has set in; also a fine orchard of fruit trees. Mr. Bell was 80 years of age his last birthday, but lives on his farm and personally superintends it. He put in the fence around the land himself, digging all the holes alone. Mr. Bell is at present visiting his son in this city.

DISCUSS COTTON ACREAGE IN TEXAS

Estimate of Acreage in Country West of Brownwood Meets Contradiction

Frank Gaston of Granbury is in the city today. He said, when asked about condition in Hood and adjacent counties, that it was his candid opinion that there would be no reduction of the cotton acreage, and that on the contrary there would be the largest acreage planted in the country west from Brownwood in many years. He gave as a reason for this belief that there are thousands of acres of virgin land, both on the prairie and in the timber sections, that are being turned for the first time and will be planted in cotton. This, he says, insures an increase in the acreage of cotton to be planted in the section of state referred to.

Mr. Gaston believes that the increase will be not less than 25 per cent and in many cases will be as high as 50 per cent.

This statement was referred to members of the Farmers' Union who are in the city today. County Lecturer Bryan promptly declared that it was not a correct estimate to the best of his knowledge. He says that he is acquainted with many of the sections referred to by Mr. Gaston, and that in all of them he is positive that the cotton acreage will be reduced.

Editor Woodman of the Labor Banner of this city shares the same opinion as Mr. Bryan. Mr. Gaston is editor of the Granbury News.

Q. T. MORELAND BEST SPELLER

Spells Down All Opponents in Old Style Match at Residence of Mrs. W. T. Scott

By means of an old-fashioned spelling match over $50 was raised at the residence of Mrs. W. T. Scott on Hill street Thursday evening. The money thus collected will be given to the fund for the erection of the New First Methodist church.

The spelling match was gotten up jointly by Mrs. Scott and H. E. Gray, both of whom have Sunday school classes at the First Methodist church. The classes having promised to subscribe $100 toward the church fund, this manner of collecting it was adopted. A small admission fee was charged.

Two hundred and fifty persons took part in the match. W. G. Newby was captain for Mrs. Scott's class, while Q. T. Moreland was the leader of Mrs. Gray's pupils. Mrs. Scott, in speaking of the match this morning said that Mr. Moreland spelled every one else down. Professor C. F. Webb, who was the judge was unable to catch the attorney on a single word.

After the spelling match refreshments were served.

FORT WORTH BOY ON PRINCETON TEAM

PRINCETON, N. J., April 7.—J. W. Harrison of Fort Worth was one of the candidates for the freshman baseball team who were retained after the first try-out. Over sixty men were trying for the team and this number was cut to less than thirty. Harrison is trying for third base and has a good show for the position, although he is opposed by two or three very good men.

It is the plan among the large eastern universities to have not only a varsity team, but also a team composed of men from the entering class, which plays games with the prominent prep schools and with the freshmen teams of other colleges.
