MAN KILLS WOMAN THEN SHOOTS SELF

Double Tragedy Enacted in a Room at 111 West Weatherford Street

TWO DIE ALMOST INSTANTLY

Woman the Daughter of Well-Known Turfman Who Was Killed in Street Battle

Because she refused to allow him to accompany her home Fred Street, a waiter, shot and killed Annie Stoffer, better known as Annie Brown, and then killed himself, Tuesday night about 6:45 o'clock in a room over 111 West Weatherford street.

Mrs. Stoffer came up into the city from the home of her mother on Lexington street about 5 o'clock for the purpose of cashing a check for her sister and was on her way home. Being fatigued she stopped to rest at the home of a friend at the number indicated above.

When she returned to her room she found the door open and Mrs. Stoffer sitting on the floor conversing with young Street. He asked Mrs. Stoffer if he might walk home with her. She refused. He again renewed the request to walk home with Mrs. Stoffer when she again refused.

Almost instantly he whipped out a pistol and fired at the woman as she was sitting on the floor. The bullet struck her in the left breast, ranging downward.

Mrs. Stoffer rose to her knees and implored him not to shoot again, promising to accompany him to her home. In his excitement, however, she fell over and expired.

The other woman instantly seized Street who threatened to kill her if she did not let him alone. He then turned the gun on himself and fired a bullet through his heart.

Sheriff John T. Honea and two deputies were just emerging from the court house at the time of the shooting and rushed over to the place. On the floor in about the middle of the room they found the two bodies both dead.

Justice Charles T. Rowland was summoned and held an inquest, giving a verdict of murder and suicide. The bodies were ordered taken to Gause's undertaking parlors, where they were prepared for burial.

It is said that Street fired several times but only the two bullets that killed the woman and himself could be located. The inmates of the place say that at least four shots were heard.

Fred Street, who was about 24 years old, was the son of late Samuel Street, who died several years ago. The mother of the dead man has since married and is living about six miles from Itasca. She has been notified of the tragedy and will be here today.

Brother of young Street was drowned in the river near this city about seven years ago.

Annie Stoffer was about 25 years old and had lived in Fort Worth the greater part of her life. She was the daughter of Jim Brown, who was shot and killed on Garfield street track in Chicago in 1892 during a street battle. He was one of the best known turfmen in this country at the time of his death.

THE GREATNESS OF TEXAS The Imperial state of Texas is just now attracting much attention all over the United States and our praises are being sung in every state in the union.

"O, glorious Empire State of the sun-kissed south! With thy one hundred and seventy-five thousand square miles of rich country as was ever tickled by the plow or the pick, and as ever laughed a harvest of corn or cotton for the happiness of man."

"With thy cattle on a thousand hills, thy countless flocks, thy gushing wells of oil, thy fields of rice and sugar cane stretching far away like the sweet fields of Eden on the other side of Jordan!"

"With thy brave men and beautiful women! Out of thine unwasting fatness thou canst feed and warm the world! And thou canst furnish wives for the hachelors and husbands for the old maid."

"I wonder why the poor huddle in the smoke and filth of crowded cities when Texas smiles and beckons them to her landscapes of beauty, where the prairie flowers bloom and the sunshine plays with the zephyrs from the Gulf and sometimes scuffles with a cyclone."

"I wonder why tolling millions dwell amid blackened walls only to be slaves to heartless masters when untouched fields invite the happy home and virgin soil still waits for the plowman and his merry song."

"I wonder why helpless children are doomed to die by thousands in polluted hovels and crowded alleys when the green meadows of Texas bid them to come and chase the butterflies among the bluebells and the daisies and blossoming hills call them hither to romp and play, where the happy birds sing and the cows come home in the evening fragrant with the breath of alfalfa and the sweet wild grasses of the plains."

It requires the eloquence of a Bob Taylor to do the subject justice in an attempt to portray the greatness and grandness of this state. That is—Bob Taylor has come nearer setting forth the real facts as they exist than any other who has essayed the task, but even Bob Taylor has failed to cover the subject in all its mighty entirety.

Texas is the largest state in the union, greater than all the New England states combined, and could contain the entire population of this great republic of ours without any of them feeling very badly crowded.

Texas has more wheat lands than both the Dakotas. More corn land than the great state of Illinois.

More fruit lands than can be found in California. More timber lands than there is in the state of Michigan.

More rice lands than Louisiana and the rest of the country. More marble than the rock-ribbed state of Vermont.

More granite than can be found in the Green Mountain state. More petroleum than the Keystone state of Pennsylvania.

More cotton than is produced in any other state in the union. More iron than can be found in the state of Alabama.

More gypsum than any other state of the entire sisterhood. More lignite than all the countries of Europe combined.

More kaolin than all of the European countries combined. More miles of railway than any other American state.

More cattle and better cattle than any other state in the union. More coal fields than can be found in the state of Pennsylvania.

Texas is today the fifth state in the union in point of population and the day is not far distant when we will be first.

Texas leads the sisterhood of states in so many respects that it is idle to attempt to enumerate all of them. These facts are becoming very generally known, and it is the greatness of Texas that is today attracting thousands of people within our borders. There is room for all. Let them continue to come over into Texas and assist us in working out the glorious destiny that is just a little bit ahead of us. The Texas of tomorrow will be an eye-opener for the civilized world.

The morning papers all over the country are printing a lot of stuff derogatory to the evening papers, and this is but another indication of the fact that the shoe is pinching and somebody's pet corn is hurting. The evening papers of the country have rapidly forged to the front, winning a support that the morning papers never dreamed possible, and becoming so popular with the reading public as to indicate a marked falling off in popularity for the morning publication. The people of the country want the news while it is yet news, and this desire is responsible for the steady growth of the evening paper.

The Texas Press Association is just about to hold its annual meeting in a very dry town, and that fact will doubtless deter the fine drinking man of the Alkali Eye from gracing the occasion with his presence. But it is not far from Brownwood over to San Angelo, where there are all kinds of liquid refreshments. There was a time in the history of the Texas Press Association when its annual meetings were looked upon as the occasions for regular annual jamborees, but that time is now happily past, and its sessions now prove to be very sober business affairs.

Assurances come from the state of Louisiana that the cotton planters of that section have actually cut the cotton acreage just about one-half this season, as a result of fear of the boll weevil, and in accordance with the efforts being made by the Southern Cotton Association. Now let Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas and the Carolinas come forward with assurances of the same kind, and Texas will no longer feel that she is being made the victim of misplaced confidence.

The Japanese government believes that the Russian fleet is still taking advantage of French ports as a base of supplies, and it is understood that a vigorous protest will at once be lodged with the French government. The idea that the Japs are an uncivilized and benighted nation has been pretty thoroughly dissipated during the trouble with Russia, and Japanese statecraft seems amply able to hold its own with that of any of the nations of the world.

The cutting short of the presidential hunt in the state of Colorado and the fact that President Roosevelt is to be in Chicago next Monday, renders it certain that he will not attend the cattlemen's convention in Denver on May 9. This will be a great disappointment to the cattlemen, as it was generally hoped that the president would grace the occasion with his presence.

They knew, however, that they have his sympathy, and that is no small item just at this time.

A resolution has been introduced in the state legislature to investigate the member alleged to have made an effort to improperly dispose of stamps, the property of the state, amounting to $29.29 in value, but not one thing has yet been said concerning the $10,000 improperly paid to all members the first week of the extra session, when the honorable body was not in session. The idea seems to be to look after the small things and let the big ones go without attention.

Interurban railway projects are being sprung all over the state, and it begins to appear that the electric passenger car is one of the new things that have come to stay. The line operating between this city and Dallas is one of the Texas pioneers, and it is a convenience greatly appreciated by the people of both cities, which fact is amply attested by the large patronage extended.

Yellow fever has already made its appearance among the workmen engaged in digging the Panama canal, and as soon as the incubus of red tape can be dispensed with and sanitary regulations made and enforced, it is probable that Yellow Jack will be made as scarce on the isthmus as was the case in Cuba after the American occupation. To the American sanitary officers belongs the credit for freeing Cuba Libre from her greatest peril.

Germany is still considerably alarmed over what has been termed "the yellow peril." Herr von Carban, in an address before the German Asiatic Society a few days ago, used the following significant language: "If Japan defeats Russia and continues to increase in power as she has done for another decade, Germany will undoubtedly be asked point blank by that power to give up her territorial acquisitions in China."

The announcement that old Geronimo is to scalp a paleface every day on the 101 ranch in Oklahoma, for the delectation of the National Editorial Association, is vigorously denied. It transpires that the man who agreed to be scalped every day for $1,000 per scalp, is a hairless, hepecked Oklahoma, who could not to save his own life produce hirute embossing that would aggregate in value the sum of fifteen cents.

President Castro of Venezuela is not saying much these times, but seems content to let Loomis and Bowen fight it out before the president of the United States. Perhaps he is of the opinion if those gentlemen tell all they know this government will tender him a hasty apology.

Cleanings From the Exchanges

Many country papers have said uncomplimentary things about the legislature, and it has made the members complain. The reason for these paragraphs of the country press is that they are in close touch with the people. For instance, the governor has called a thirty days' special session and the first ten days of the time every one of them drew their pay for doing absolutely nothing except going home and attending to private affairs. The governor has called a thirty days' special session and the first ten days of the time every one of them drew their pay for doing absolutely nothing except going home and attending to private affairs.

The fact that the country papers have shown a disposition to rub salt in some of the gaping wounds of the state legislature may not be refreshing to the members, but it reflects the state of public sentiment. The people of Texas are not pleased with legislative behavior and the effort that is being made by some members to force yet another extra session is but intensifying the adverse public sentiment. Instead of making dry faces at the barbs of criticism it receives the best thing the legislature can do is to speedily accomplish the work that has been cut out for it, adjourn and go home.

Our neighboring cities, Dallas and Fort Worth, are on a substantial boom and everything points to a greater increase in wealth and population. Dallas has an organized club, backed by her leading citizens, with the view of increasing her population by 1910 to 150,000. Fort Worth has a similar organization at work to increase her population to 100,000 in the same specific time. Dallas and Fort Worth generally secure what they go after.

TOMMY TUFFON'S WATER CURE

"I'll just drop this indigo into the well," said Tommy Tuffon, the village pest, "and when they begin to pump up colored water they'll think it's blue lick. And then won't the old people hustle to get some of it."

Sure enough, within ten minutes after the "blue lick" was flowing, all the old folks with pains and aches gathered around the pump.

The water must have been good for their troubles, for they certainly did become active when they learned how they had been fooled.

and we have no doubt will succeed in this gigantic undertaking. Both cities have our best wishes.—Denton Monitor.

Fort Worth is thoroughly alive to the necessity of doing things for the further upbuilding and development of the city. Many cities when they reach Fort Worth's present status, are content to sit back and take things as they come, but that is not the Fort Worth style. The word "Finished" will never be written on the outer walls of this proud city.

The state executive committee of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association is of the opinion that the cotton acreage is being reduced to an extent that is not usually believed. It may be so, but the reports from here and there are certainly against the supposition that a general reduction has taken place. The next harvest will declare the facts, but in any event there is hardly a probability of so great a mistake in calculations of the crop as was made last fall. It was this miscalculation that caused all the cotton market trouble.—San Antonio Light.

No doubt there are some farmers in almost every community who have made an honest and sincere effort to carry out the pledge of cotton reduction. But while this is doubtless true, it is apparent that many others are finding justification for not doing so, and these, with those who increase the acreage, will no doubt be sufficient to just about hold the situation down to the normal.

Incidental to this discussion of the elimination of free passes, it is most evident that there are some legislators who are of the opinion that riding on free passes and getting mileage for only one session is not enough. The railroads should be made to pay them for riding in addition to hauling them on passes. That would equalize the shly mileage on the called session.—Austin Statesman.

It is said that some members of the state legislature are so wedded to the idea of drawing mileage on free passes that they are seriously considering methods of forcing yet another extra session. Governor Lanham appears to be equal to the emergency of dealing with the situation, however.

We can see no help for it. The democratic party is apparently bound to go with Mr. Bryan and that means a socialist propaganda. The issue had to come—it is the direct outgrowth of the high tariff. One might suppose that the republican party would go on to a logical conclusion—would be the advocate of socialism. But that step means the people's participation in paternalism, and consequently is resisted by the beneficiaries of partial indulgence. Socialism is not the cure for monopoly evil. But it has in it the promise of better things—it wears an alluring look, and it may prevail, championed by a man as gifted as Mr. Bryan. Should it ever win the day, we will have to thank, speaking ironically, the men who put greed before patriotism—the men who taught us that the government does right when it taxes the many for the benefit of the few.—Waco Times-Herald.

William J. Bryan is not a socialist. He has often been accused of populist tendencies, but he claims to be a democrat, and is unquestionably the head of the democratic party. The result of the fiasco attempted by men who aspired to lead the party in the recent national campaign has caused the development of a very radical spirit in Bryan, and it is feared by conservative democrats that he may attempt to swing the party too far in a radical direction, but it is a far-fetched assumption to class William J. Bryan as a socialist.

The duty confronting a state like Texas in the matter of looking after the interests of its eleemosynary institutions is one that can not be passed lightly by. There are a great many things that are needed this year for the maintenance of these institutions, and it is the duty and will undoubtedly be the pleasure of our legislators to see to it that the most liberal appropriations are allowed the various state institutions. The taking care of these institutions is a public trust and one that can not be lightly overlooked.—Austin Statesman.

The legislature of the state should deal with all state institutions as liberally as existing conditions will warrant. But there are many estimates that can and should be materially reduced. The usual policy in formulating these estimates is not to place them at as small an amount as will permit the work to be carried on in an efficient manner, but the rule is to get every dollar possible out of the state treasury. In shaping up the appropriation bill care should be exercised to hold every one of these institutions down to an economical basis.

Fort Worth's home industry and factory club has a membership of 250 and if every man among them will do his best to promote the purposes of the club by patronizing home industry and encouraging others to do so instead of sending off for everything, under the impression that the home-made article is inferior, there will be some good accomplished.—San Antonio Express.

Fort Worth has set the other cities of the state a splendid example in the organization of a home industry and factory club. Of all the organizations ever effected in this city none are more important or promise more far-reaching results. Patronize home industry and build factories is a slogan that will win if carried into practical application.

President Roosevelt has a rare opportunity to exhibit the real qualities of greatness. If he should be great enough to follow his impulses toward fairness and justice, something glorious will result from his administration. It largely remains to him as to whether his name shall pass down in the history of this country as one of the few great presidents of the United States. Somehow we have come to be impressed with the belief that he will do great things. He has done some, and the opportunities for doing others lie at his door.—Tyler Courier.

President Roosevelt has given ample evidence already of the greatness of his mind and heart, but he is up against an impediment in the shape of his own political party. Whether he is able to overcome this impediment or not is a future problem, but the fact remains that Roosevelt is a man whose sympathies are with the masses.

He is at present the manager and advance agent for Mrs. Curry Nation, the famous Kansas "Joint" smasher, and made an effort while here to arrange a date for her to lecture, but failed, so we understand. Rev. Adams delivered a series of prohibition lectures in the Miller county court house yard and on the streets here last August.—Texarkana, Texarkanan.

Each time the United States Government has officially tested the baking powders the report has shown Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to be of superlative leavening strength, free from alum, absolutely pure and wholesome. This is gratifying, for Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is depended upon by millions of people to raise their daily bread.

PANTHERS WIN FROM DALLAS

First of Three-Game Series Annexed by 4-3 Score in the Ninth

Fort Worth took the first of a three-game series with Dallas at Heines' Park Tuesday afternoon by a score of 4 to 3. The winning run came in the last half of the ninth with two men out. A fair-sized crowd went out to see the game and got its reward in one of the best contests and pulled off on the local grounds this year.

IN WHICH OUR STORY OPENS

Maloney pitched for Dallas with an easy one to Burleson, who benched him at first. Andres used his eyes to advantage and walked, took advantage of a wild throw attempting to nip him at first, and went to third. Ury's single brought him home. Ury Chadwicked second. Bates bagged Doyle's foul and Jackson fanned. One run.

WHEN THE CRASH CAME

In the second, Bero couldn't connect with Christian. Meyers beat out a bunt. Wharton gave Burleson and Bates an opportunity to collaborate successfully and Blumling fanned. No runs. Bero struck out and Pindecker made a successful counterfeiter of his job. Burleson's single to left was so clean as to suggest a soap advertisement in a magazine. Mauch also singled. Then Christian singled to center. Swiftly the snowy sphere, stinging the face of the batter, resounding sweet, sailed toward center and with equal swiftness mighty Maloney ran to meet it. Andres and Jackson saw the ball coming, too, and, putting on reverse levers, backed out to be on hand when it arrived. The result was a collision and Andres, came together with a collision that shook the earth, the ball dropped harmlessly to the ground, and Burleson, quickly followed by Mauch, scored. Sullivan went out on an easy one to Andres. Two runs.

WHICH WAS HITTING SOME

Maloney's bumping ranked in his brain. He was physically and mentally, so when he went to the bat in the third he had a don't-care-how-hard-I-hit-the-ball-even-if-I-do-hurt-it attitude. Christian isn't an expert in attitudes, so he handed out the left field fence, eight feet and probably seven inches to the good of the sign which advises the public to take a certain railroad's World Fair special. While the bleachers were reading the sign, Maloney scored. Christian was so surprised that he struck out Andres, Ury and Doyle in succession. One run. Hubbard's gentle tap to Blumling was his undoing at first. Andres gobbled Bates' easy fly and Bero clung fast to Boles' hot liner. No runs.

WHEN A MISSTEP MEANT SAFETY

Sullivan ate up Jackson's fly. Bero's grounder was perfectly fielded by Boles, but in his eagerness to get out his man, Bates forgot to keep his foot on the bag and Bero was safe. But Myers fanned and Wharton lasted only while an easy fly traveled from his bat to Hubbard's glove. No runs. Boles' fly found its spider in Doyle's dulcet. Pindecker was hit by a pitched ball and stole second. Jackson took care of Burleson's grounder who tossed it to Bero. While the latter pursued Pindecker, Burleson snuffed him out at first. No runs.

THEN BOLES GOT BUSY

Doyle's fly went like the cork out of a champagne bottle. Christian caught it as it came down. Jackson walked. Bero short-circuited to Boles who cut Jackson's wire at second and blew out Bero's fuse at first, landing a double play for himself with Bates' assistance. No runs. Ury hit Bates out unassisted and with Bates' help got Boles to first and he promptly annexed second. Pindecker fanned. No runs.

HORN'S LEGS WERE USEFUL

Christian helped Bates nail Myers at first and Bates then returned the compliment by assisting Christian perform a like service for Wharton. Blumling's drive to center looked good, but long as he hadn't made enough put-outs to drive to center, he was out. No runs. Bero blasted Burleson's hopes of getting to first and first and Mauch struck out. Christian singled, but Bero made it as though when he fielded Sullivan's grounder to Ury in time. No runs.

CHRISTIAN CAUGHT THE FEVER

Christian had been pitching fairly well, and hitting when opportunity offered and fielding his position particularly effectively, but he hadn't made enough put-outs to suit himself, so he gobbled up Maloney's sky-ticking pop-up without winking an eye-lash. Hubbard and Bates took care of Andres and then Christian took care of Ury out of business unassisted, scoring two put-outs for himself in one inning. Jackson and Ury retired Hubbard. Bates singled and advanced on Horn's demise at first through the efforts of Andres and Ury. Then Wharton nailed Bates stealing third. No runs.

OUR HERO COMES TO HIS OWN

Boles and Bates sent Doyle to the bench and Jackson and Pindecker embraced the only chance he saw during the game, regardless of the fact that the whole crowd of fans was staring at him, and took in Bero's fly. No runs. Boles—please remember it was Boles—opened with a single. He stole second.

POINDEXTER MADE A SACRIFICE HIT WHICH WASN'T. MR. SHEEHAN NOTWITHSTANDING, HE HAD TO RETIRE. BOLES MEANTIME HAD REACHED THIRD. THEN BURLESON, BURLESON, SINGLE IN THE SECOND HAD BEEN AS IMMACULATE AS A WHITE LAWN TIE, SINGLED ONCE MORE AND BOLES SCORED. ON RUN. THE OFFICIAL SCORE:

MISSOURI VARSITY WINS

Fort Worth College Boys Hold Them Down Until Sixth, Then Lose Their Grip. The quarter mile runner who easily outstrips his opponent for two-thirds of the race then finds his dismay when he has lost his wind while the man behind shoots suddenly in the lead may be taken as an illustration of the condition of Fort Worth University baseball team Tuesday afternoon, when, after leading in tallies and sticking work for six innings, it lost its "wind" in the seventh, made three costly errors in rapid succession, while the men from Missouri raced madly round the bags for three runs. The game ended with the score 3 to 2 in Missouri's favor. Pitchers held the center of the arena for the first three innings, the total of hits on both sides up to the fourth being three, including only one scratch.

HIS FIRST OBJECT

Thinking the children would be much benefited, Mr. Snively decided to move into the country for the summer. All seemed to enjoy the change except his wife, who was greatly annoyed by the rush and hustle to the train every morning. After they got settled, Mrs. Jones, a neighbor, called on Mrs. Snively and, among other questions, asked: "What is your husband's pursuit in life?" "Oh, the 7:45 train."

MAN'S UNREASONABLENESS

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Manager of the "Republican" of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he refused to allow the doctor to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by W. J. Fisher's, Reeves Pharmacy and M. S. Blanton & Co.'s drug stores. Price 50c.

NOW=IS THE GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY=NOW

Speaking From the Standpoint of Poetic Consistency

Every institution whose service to society is that of adding to the adornment and comfort of the human family has its seasons of special offering. We selected the month of May, the month of blossoms and beautiful beginnings—the month when the trees and fields take on ornamentation and color, and when mankind is reminded that the time for putting off the old and putting on the new is at hand. Tomorrow we will throw our doors open for a nine days' bargain feast, such as the people of Texas have never before had an opportunity of partaking. A sale of commemoration intended as a popular opportunity in everything in men's wearables in keeping with the spirit of the season and with the hint received from Nature. The array of bargains presented are not bargains in name only. They are not mere empty allurements and mere splendid deceptions.

There are no Artificial Buttercups in the Meadows

No imitation peach blossoms on the orchard trees, no cheap, perishable goods made attractive by glitter will degrade the character of this spring offering. They are bargains in men's wearables, that have the virtue of dependability as well as the charm and height of style. The name of August has been so closely allied with correct dress for men and boys for so many years that they have become synonymous. And it is the strength of a good name, the fame for selling clothes of style and durability that has made A. & L. Augusts', literally speaking, "Texas' Greatest Clothing Store." It is with this reputation behind us that we offer to the people this golden money-saving opportunity.

THE LOW PRICES WE HAVE QUOTED HAVE THEIR REAL SIGNIFICANCE ONLY IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE HIGH QUALITIES WE OFFER. IF MONEY-SAVING COUNTS IN YOUR PLANS—THAT IS, REAL MONEY SAVING ON STRICTLY DEPENDABLE AND DESIRABLE CLOTHING AND MERCHANDISE, THEN YOU WILL SURELY BE HERE TOMORROW.

TEXAS CROP REPORT

GALVESTON, Texas, May 3.—Following is the government weather report for the week ending May 2:

The weather was moderately warm during the week. The heavy rainfall which occurred at the end of the previous week over the greater portion of the state was followed on Friday and Saturday by other heavy rains. These were, however, not so general as during the previous week. Farm work was greatly retarded because of the wet condition of the soil resulting from these rains, and woods are getting a big start because of the inability to cultivate. The soil washed to a large extent as a result of the heavy rains, so that much replanting will have to be done. In some southwestern counties rain had come to be greatly needed and crops generally were benefited by the rains.

Cotton.—There has been continued great delay in planting cotton in the central, northern and northeastern counties, because of the heavy rains, and much of the crops remains to be planted. A great deal of replanting will have to be done on account of washing during the heavy rains. In a few northern counties scarcely any cotton has been planted. In most of the northern counties where cotton is up it is in promising condition, but in a few counties it is unhealthy-looking. In the southwestern counties the crop is generally doing well, though washing of soil will necessitate some replanting. Chopping and cultivation are in progress in southwestern counties. The presence of some lice and weevils in the crop is reported from Gonzales county.

Corn.—Corn planting is now practically over, though the wet weather caused delay in this work in northern counties and some corn is yet unplanted. Washing of the soil will cause some to be replanted. This crop appears to have recovered from the effect of the frost, but the wet weather is affecting it injuriously in some sections. In general, however, corn is in fairly good condition.

Wheat, Rye, Oats and Barley.—Over the greater part of the state these crops are in very good condition. The wet weather has, however, caused rust to appear in wheat in several counties. It has also appeared in oats in a few localities. In some counties the growth is so rang as to cause grain to lodge. Much of the grain is heading in southern counties.

Rice and Sugar Cane.—Rice planting has been pushed as rapidly as possible, but this work has been interrupted to some extent. Sugar cane is generally doing well, though excessive rains have injured it to some extent.

Miscellaneous.—Gardens are generally doing well, though they were injured by heavy rain to some extent. Truck is being marketed. Potatoes are doing fairly well. Grass on the ranges and in meadows is making very fine growth. Alfalfa also is fine, but dry weather is needed for harvesting. Sorghum and other forage crops are doing well. Stock continues to improve and is generally coming into fine condition. Fruit is generally promising. In some localities, however, it was blown off considerably by the recent high wind. Strawberries are still being marketed, but not in so large quantities as formerly on account of the heavy rains.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Blood, Bad Breath, Sluggish Bowels, Headache and Backache. It's Rocky Mountain Tea in tablet form, 35 cents a box. Genuine made by HOLLISTER DRUG COMPANY, Madison, Wis. GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

WEATHER

Thunder storms and showers is the prediction for North Texas tonight. Continued showers and thunder storms is Thursday's forecast.

General cloudy conditions with temperatures about normal was the weather condition for Tuesday over the cotton belt. Texas is cloudy and without precipitation of note up to 8 o'clock this morning. Georgia reports heavy rain Tuesday. Allapaha reporting a precipitation of 1.80 inches yesterday and Albany, Ga., 1.56 inches.

STATE HOUSE GOSSIP

AUSTIN, Texas, May 3.—Colonel John L. Wortham, financial agent of the Texas penitentiaries, came here from Huntsville last night to confer with the governor in regard to some matters connected with the penal institutions of the state.

He stated the affairs of these institutions were moving on smoothly and were in good shape.

He was accompanied by J. H. Walker, assistant financial agent, who with General Oppenheimer, chairman of the board of managers, took part in this conference.

The W. O. Brown Company of Dallas filed an amendment to its charter increasing its capital stock from $50,000 to $100,000.

Judge R. E. Gribble of Amarillo was a visitor in the state house yesterday, having private business in some of the state departments.

The Postal Telegraph Company of Dallas reported to the comptroller yesterday having sent $7,326 day and night messages for quarter ending March 31, 1905, and paid a tax of $255.57 on this volume of business.

Governor Lanham allowed the Cleburne charter bill to become a law without his official approval. This is a lengthy act, and gives to that city practically a new charter, with a multitude of provisions.

At a meeting of the state board of education yesterday the sum of $250,000 was apportioned for the support of the public schools of the state for the month of May.

BEEF TRUST INVESTIGATION
CHICAGO, Ill., May 3.—The departure of Attorney Oliver E. Pugin, the personal representative of Attorney General Moody in the present inquiry, for Washington, D. C., yesterday, to report to the attorney general upon the present status, scope and anticipated results of the investigation, is declared by both the packing and Federal officials to be an indication that the climax in the present investigation has been reached. The conference of District Attorney Morrison, Attorney Pugin and Attorney Irving A. Baxter, the United States district attorney at Omaha, brought out the report that the advisability of taking up the packing industry inquiry at Omaha is to be considered by the attorney general.

It developed yesterday that in addition to investigating the casing feature of the packing industries and other business transactions in the line of the prosecution's theory that the Sherman anti-trust law has been violated, the grand jury during the week has been making a special inquiry into the departure and absence of packing officials and employees from this country.
WOULD FIND MISSING WITNESSES
In this connection the absence of ten important officials, principally traffic managers of the different large firms, was given special attention and indictments are now expected in connection with their absence.

F. A. Spinks of the National Packing Company; Irving A. Vant, treasurer of Swift and Company; T. Roberts, traffic manager of Swift and Company; and J. H. Naughton of the Cudahy Packing Company Omaha plant are included among the men absent from this country whose testimony the federal officials last night declared was wanted. Secret service men have kept a close watch on the movements of these men and know their whereabouts.
E. A. Cudahy, the head and manager of the Cudahy company in the west, came to Chicago from Omaha yesterday. It was stated last night that the federal officials may summon him to testify before the grand jury.

THE PACKERS COMPLAIN
CHICAGO, Ill., May 3.—Attorneys for some of the packers complain that the investigation of the packing industry is not directed with equal force against all the large packing firms, but that certain firms are practically being eliminated from the investigation. It was announced last night that if the indictments which are now said to have been practically agreed upon by the federal grand jury support the contention of discrimination and favoritism in not including certain packing firms with the rest, a bitter internal fight will result and a direct appeal will be made to the attorney general at Washington.
The attitude of the district attorney throughout the investigation has been to place the burden and blame upon some of the firms and let the other ones out practically altogether," said one of the lawyers. "While we claim that all the packers are engaged in a legitimate business and they should all be treated as such, we can not help noticing the discrimination which is becoming evident on all sides."
An official denial by attorneys representing the various packing firms was entered to the statements spread by federal officials that employees and officials of packing firms have fled from the United States because of any guilt or guilty knowledge or because they wished to escape appearing before the federal grand jury.

SON LOST MOTHER
"Consumption runs in our family and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid of Harmony, Mo. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. EXPERIMENTS WITH LOCO
Dr. True and Dr. March of the bureau of plant industry came in yesterday from Holgoke and left last night for Hugo, where they will arrange to start some experiments with loco weed at once. They have been making a survey of the eastern part of the state for the past ten days, and have decided that Hugo offers the best opportunity for work in this line.
"We found more loco weed at Hugo than anywhere and will locate there for the present," said Dr. True. The state experiment station will co-operate with us and will provide some cattle and horses for our experimental work. We will put a bunch of cattle and horses in a pasture where there is practically nothing but loco to eat. Another bunch will be put in a pasture where there is no loco, and we will note results. We will have the weed carefully analyzed to discover its actual feeding value and its power of nutrition. Later on there will be a comparison of animals located, and the most careful investigation into the cause of death. We are starting in on the proposition that we know absolutely nothing about this weed. We will take nothing for granted and will prove every step we take. We must first determine whether loco is the real cause of the results noticed. While the surface indications would all point that way, yet we must know absolutely without room for doubt.
"Prof. Carlyle of the Agricultural college is arranging to purchase cattle and horses for the experiment, and the Lincoln county commissioners have agreed to assist in the work in a financial way, as the county state and government will all be interested in the work. It is expected that the experiments determined upon will be started before the end of next week. Dr. Marsh will remain in charge of the field work there and Dr. True will take up other branches of the work elsewhere. Prof. Carlyle and Dr. Glover of the Agricultural college will lend their assistance."—Denver Record-Stockman.

Carlisle defeated Arlington Tuesday in a snappy game by a score of 8 to 0. The features of the game were the slab work of Surr and the strike outs by Maddox for Carlisle. Batteries, for Carlisle, Maddox and Rose; for Arlington, David and Hammack. The Arlington boys showed poor form.

FORT WORTH GIRL DELEGATE AT LARGE

Miss Wanda Woodman, aged 8 years, Member of State Federation of Labor Convention
Word received in this city from the Denison convention of the State Federation of Labor says that a committee of three was appointed Tuesday to make an investigation of the conditions in the lumber camps of this state, to act in conjunction with the resolution of the American Federation of Labor, seeking the organization of the lumbermen.
A unique distinction was conferred on Miss Woodman of this city, who has been a regular attendant at the State Federation meetings for the past six years, though but 8 years of age. On motion she was elected delegate-at-large to the convention by unanimous vote.
The annual report of President Max Andrews was considered most favorable.

A LAND OF LAKES AND ISLANDS
At a point 145 miles north of the city of Toronto, Canada, on the Grand Trunk Railway System, is reached one of the most magnificent districts in the "Highlands of Ontario," known as the "Lake of Bays" district. The region comprises a series of connected lakes, over which large steamers are navigated. What greatly adds to the Lake of Bays' value as a health-giving and sportsman's resort is the unmatchable purity of the air one breathes upon its heights. The visitor forgets his ills under its reviving influence in less than a week. Its bracing morning breeze, which rivals the celebrated atmosphere of Pike's Peak, Colo., imparts new lung power and fresh vitality. Handsome illustrated publications sent free on application to F. CATTLE IMPROVE THROUGH DIPPING

J. H. Wilson, live stock agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas at Muskogee, who has had supervision of the dipping of cattle at three points in the Indian Territory for the Katy, was in Fort Worth Tuesday.
"We have had excellent success with the work," said Mr. Wilson. "We have dipped 50,000 head thus far and of that number there has not been any more deaths than would naturally occur had the cattle not been immersed. It's an error that there have been excessive deaths as a result of dipping. On the other hand, I am of the opinion that dipping improves the cattle where they are given proper care and attention after emerging from the vats. It gives the cattle a good appearance and makes them shed quickly without evil effects."
Single dipping under the regulations of the Federal government will cease on May 15. After that date, according to the order of the bureau of animal industry, cattle must be subjected to two dippings instead of one, as at present, to prevent them going into the country above the quarantine line.
Mr. Wilson does not believe it is best to immerse cattle more than one time—that it is better to dip them at two points, rather than while in transit. He says that the movement of cattle to pastures is about over, and that there will be very few go from this date to May 15. Similar statements are also made by the Sault Ste. Marie, to the effect that dipping, according to government regulation, will not injure cattle.
Board Meetings Postponed
Illness and absence from the city of several of those who compose the auditorium committee, and the directory of the Fort Worth Board of Trade prevented called meetings being held Tuesday afternoon. Some of the committee to look after the interest of working up the auditorium were on hand, but nothing was done, and another meeting will be called in the near future. There were two or three important matters that should have been acted upon by the directors of the board, but action on them was necessarily postponed. A firm that wishes to establish another fence factory and another having in view a box factory are under consideration.

JURY NOW HAS PATTERSON CASE

NEW YORK, May 3.—The Patterson case went to the jury at 1:02 p. m.

In his charge Recorder Goff said: "Of course, gentlemen, you must not think because of the humble position of this woman you should not give her the same consideration as if she occupied a more exalted position in society."

Whatever her position she is entitled to the same legal rights as the most prominent and most conspicuous.

If there be reasonable doubt in this case, on the evidence, this doubt must be thrown into the balance for the defendant.

The danger lies in remarks of the counsel, which might take your minds off the direct issue. Yet must avoid this danger."

The recorder described the two degrees of murder and manslaughter in first and second degrees.

"I understand," said Recorder Goff, "there is no claim on the part of the defense if the defendant committed this homicide that it was either justifiable or excusable, the crime of murder in defense claims or nothing. But you are not brought to accept arguments as to the nature of this crime. You are judges of the facts if there was murder and in what degree. The crucial question is did the man kill himself or did this defendant fire the fatal shot."

TO RAISE MONEY FOR THE STRIKERS
Chicago Union Men Will Be Assessed Total of Thirty Thousand Dollars a Week
CHICAGO, May 3.—Representatives of the striking teamsters have voted for a measure which promises more strength to the striking drivers. At a meeting of the joint council, a fund of $35,000 was pledged by the treasurers of the different affiliated unions, and an assessment upon which if lived up to, will mean an income to the strikers of $30,000 a week.
The weekly assessment is to be furnished by the individual drivers throughout the city who at present are employed. Each man is to be assessed $1 a week in the number of men still employed in the neighborhood of 40,000.
A sympathetic strike will be called by the coal teamsters' union, except in support of a sister organization of teamsters after the present contracts have been expired. An arrangement barring the sympathetic strike has been entered into by the coal and the coal team owners association according to an announcement made at a meeting of the latter organization.

LIFELONG AMBITION AND WORK MADE WORLD'S STRONGEST MAN

Hackenschmidt, "The Russian Lion," Matched to Wrestle Jenkins, May 4, Writes on His Craft and Gives Advice to Young Wrestlers—"Eat Whatever You Please," His Advice

Photographs by Howard Doncourt
Newspaper Enterprise Association's New York staff photographer. Posed especially for the Newspaper Enterprise Association by Georges Hackenschmidt and his wrestling partner, H. Brown.

BY GEORGES HACKENSCHMIDT.
(World's Champion Greco-Roman Wrestler.)
(Copyright, 1905, by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

NEW YORK, May 3.—Nature endowed me with a powerful frame, splendid health, a keen appetite and normal digestion. An ambition to become the world's strongest man, coupled with proper physical training, has done for me only what it will do for any young man so favored and inclined.
I was born in Russia. My father was a German and my mother a Swede. As a youngster I longed to be an athlete. Lacking early opportunity for scientific training I used common sense. I did not abuse my body by eating more than I could easily digest, but I ate what I desired. I pampered a sweet tooth and it did not hurt me. I tried to develop every muscle and as a youngster could run, swim, juggle weights and box with boys twice my age.
At 20 I was an all-round athlete and then secretly incubated the ambition to become the strongest man in the world. At a demonstration by invitation before Dr. I. Krajewski, a prominent St. Petersburg physician, I broke three world's weight lifting records. This started me up the ladder.
Since then I have been around the world, have participated in more than 500 wrestling matches in six years, some with men who outweighed me 100 pounds, and I have not been defeated.
I am matched to meet your American champion, Tom Jenkins. I have great admiration for him. He has strength and nerve at his command, and also that vigorous energy which you Americans make use of to supplement skill and dexterity.
I don't know what tactics I shall employ against Jenkins. Catch-as-catch-can is new to me, but I like it better than Greco-Roman wrestling. When I go into a match I have no idea of my program. Of course, I have favored holds—every one has—but I gauge my work to the prowess of my antagonist.
I conserve my strength until the proper moment and then exert it with all the force I command. It is a great thing to know the second for attack and then attack like lightning.
I don't like boosters. I have always found the greatest braggers have the least to back up their talk. If I succeed in defeating Jenkins it will be for him and the public to say that I am the better man.

qualified, you must first train for uniform development of all your muscles. Go in to make one part of the body as strong as the next, and do this by taking all sorts of exercises in turn.
Try weight lifting. Use big weights, say twenty pounds, and increase this as rapidly as you can stand until you get it up to eighty or 100 pounds.
But if you use nothing but weights you will become muscle-bound, so do a great deal of bag punching and running, which will make the muscles supple and expand the lungs. Indulge in every good sport you can bring out your strength. It will come. And you will be surprised how fast.
In three months, with proper care and work, you will have new arms and legs and will feel power in every tissue.
Exercise will go for naught if the body is abused. Don't expect to develop your physical self to the highest pitch if you burn up your stomach with stimulants or clog the lungs with the poison fumes of cigarette, pipe or cigar to excess.
You must eat properly. Eat as much sweet food as you can stand. But be sure it is good. I can eat a pound of chocolate candy in half an hour and enjoy it. And it does me good. Pie, cake and puddings will do you no harm. Drink plenty of fresh water, and when you feel out of order go to bed and sleep. Sleep, water and good food are the greatest restoratives.
Bathe frequently, at least twice a day. Take a cold plunge in the morning, but do not remain in the water more than a few seconds. Do your exercising after the bath. Get plenty of pure air into your lungs.
Exercise without tiring yourself; develop your muscles and strengthen your organs equally; eat regularly and as much as you need; give yourself plenty of sleep; drink lots of water; keep the pores open by frequent bathing; cultivate good health by living right and keeping your mind free from worry.

TO RAISE MONEY FOR THE STRIKERS
Chicago Union Men Will Be Assessed Total of Thirty Thousand Dollars a Week
CHICAGO, May 3.—Representatives of the striking teamsters have voted for a measure which promises more strength to the striking drivers. At a meeting of the joint council, a fund of $35,000 was pledged by the treasurers of the different affiliated unions, and an assessment upon which if lived up to, will mean an income to the strikers of $30,000 a week.
The weekly assessment is to be furnished by the individual drivers throughout the city who at present are employed. Each man is to be assessed $1 a week in the number of men still employed in the neighborhood of 40,000.
A sympathetic strike will be called by the coal teamsters' union, except in support of a sister organization of teamsters after the present contracts have been expired. An arrangement barring the sympathetic strike has been entered into by the coal and the coal team owners association according to an announcement made at a meeting of the latter organization.

Georges Hackenschmidt, world's champion Greco-Roman wrestler, will meet Tom Jenkins, the catch-as-catch-can champion, May 4. The winner will have a clear title to the catch-as-catch-can heavyweight championship.
Hackenschmidt, in addition to being the wonder of the wrestling world, is a clever gymnast, an expert cyclist, a crack swimmer, runner, jumper and boxer. He is reputed to be the strongest man in the world and in the accompanying article he gives advice which should benefit young men desiring to emulate his success. Hackenschmidt is finely educated, speaking, reading and writing Russian, German, French and English. He is a civil engineer and expects to follow the profession in later years.

1—HALF NELSON.
2—FLYING MARE.
3—REVERSE BODY HOLD.
4—HEAD IN CHANCERY.
I believe that in the future I shall engage only in catch-as-catch-can matches. There is nothing to wrestling if the conditions are not equal. In Greco-Roman there are too many limitations and too many opportunities for trick and device while in catch-as-catch-can the contestants are free to fight it out according to their respective abilities.
Under proper conditions, no sport compares with wrestling as a manly, health-giving exercise. It has a science which must be studied constantly, while the work strengthens and perfects every organ in the human frame.
SUGGESTIONS FOR BEGINNERS
But if you have a weak heart, or I will say, anything but a strong heart, don't wrestle. It is dangerous sport under this condition. You subject yourself to the iron grip of a man who will try to cut off your breath, twist and distort your limbs, squeeze and crush you. The first agency you will call upon to support you will be your heart. If it is weak, permanent injury may result.
Other physical disqualifications are weak lungs and anything but pure blood and normal health. Assuming you are

Make fine coats as surely as fine feathers make fine birds. The edges of your coat must be thin, firm and graceful. The sweep must be symmetrically perfect, the corners tastefully rounded, the lapel and collar with just the proper curve. It will afford us pleasure to show any of the coats on our garment rack and indicate the special excellence of our work. The stock speaks for itself. The prices are of no special importance, but of course are interesting.
