PRESIDENT'S BEAR WAS A MONSTER

First Bruin Which Fell in Colorado Hunt Will Make a Handsome Rug

BY JAS. G. G. THOMPSON. GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Col., May 5.—Bobcat and bear are as plentiful in this neighborhood as fleas in Washington.

ELMER CHAPMAN, The President's Courier.

Since the president has been in camp, his messages to the outside world have been carried by Elmer Chapman, rancher, mountaineer and huntsman.

But this recklessness of the game became even more apparent, when after a dance over town, some rollicking sports got into Frank Hayes cage and turned loose upon the street two full-grown bobcats.

Hayes is the taxidermist who has the contract to prepare all of the skins the president's party may take on their trip. He occupies his largest side stretching board, and even then there is not room for the head and the paws.

Chicago Employers' Association Determined to Crush Teamsters' Union

BY JACOB WALDECK. Special Correspondence to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—There is an ostentatious and a rest of the disastrous strike conditions here.

fused to arbitrate. It was virtually a rout. Five thousand garment workers were affected. The strike, while officially in effect, has in fact been lost by the union.

A short time ago the teamsters voted to assist the garment workers by a sympathetic strike. It was decided to begin the attack on Montgomery Ward & Co., a mail order house having a large number of stores.

STRIKE BREAKER FARLEY DYING OF CONSUMPTION

Strange Character Who Had a Field of His Own Creating—Was Cool, Nery, Silent and Fearless

The famous strike breaker, said to be dying in the south. The word was flashed over the wires a few days ago that Strike Breaker Farley had been taken to Chicago, and the hearts of union men sank.

JAMES FARLEY.

He went south after the big New York subway strike. He was in wretched health and the story of his illness is not improvable.

With Farley will pass one of the peculiar products of the twentieth century, for Farley has no competitor in his strange field.

Money without limit was subscribed to carry on the fight. Professional strike breakers, men who work only for princely fees, were brought to the city.

In refusing to negotiate for peace the employers say that if the authorities will preserve order there will be no need of arbitration.

Fast Cruisers Turn Fourth Russian Division North From Sunda Straits

ST. PETERSBURG, May 5, 1:55 p. m.—Admiral Rojevstevsky, according to high naval authorities, has sailed south to meet the division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Admiral Nebogatoff.

There is also reason to believe Nebogatoff first approached the Straits of Sunda, but finding them too well guarded, put about and headed north for the Straits of Malacca, his division lacking the protection of fast cruisers and being at a great disadvantage in meeting torpedo boat attacks.

season on account of the continuous rains over the state. He believes that the crop will be very small in every county in the state from this cause. Especially is there a discouraging outlook in the black land country where the farmers have been unable to even plant cotton thus far. Planting, he says, is at least one month late already.

There is a very fine prospect for oats and wheat in Texas this year, he says, provided the season continues favorable from this date. Corn, he says, is foul and weedy on account of rain. Farmers are far behind in their spring work.

INSURANCE MEN TO REORGANIZE

Meeting of State Body Called to Be Held in Fort Worth on May 17

The local underwriters of Texas have been called to meet in Fort Worth, May 17 and 18, by President Stuart Harrison, and each member of the state has been sent a notification under date of May 5. The meeting will be mainly for the purpose of reorganization.

In his letter President Harrison says: "In this day of demoralization, uncertainty and perplexity, so far as the insurance business is concerned, it behooves every local agent in Texas to attend this meeting. The time has arrived when the conduct of the business has virtually passed into the hands of local agents, and an earnest effort will be made to reorganize the association, and to so shape it in the future that much good can be accomplished for the agents and for the good people of Texas."

It is held by the president that almost every class of business men have their associations and the universal testimony from the members is that much good has been accomplished. He is thoroughly impressed with the idea that with a united effort among the local agents, they can accomplish wonders in the way of correcting abuses and elevating the business from the chaotic condition into which it has fallen during late years.

Many interesting papers will be read by local agents and some eloquent addresses made by both special and general agents.

It is expected that the official head of several companies will attend the meeting.

The local insurance men are preparing to entertain the visitors.

SMALL FIRES NUMEROUS

Three Horses Burned in Stable Blaze at Night

The building occupied by the Royal Liquid Coffee Company, corner Eighth and Throckmorton streets, narrowly escaped destruction by fire at midnight last night, when wood surrounding the furnace took fire.

Firemen at the Central station, just across the street, discovered smoke issuing from the structure, made a hasty entrance and found the floor ablaze. The blaze had not had time to spread and was extinguished before serious damage resulted. The floor was only slightly charred around the base of the furnace. The building is owned by Thomas J. Weaver of Nashville, Tenn.

Just a few minutes before the blaze mentioned above, an alarm was turned in, calling the department to 1108 Jennings avenue, fire having been discovered in the grocery store of A. P. Johnson. Application of water soon had the flames under control. The building, which is owned by W. J. Bailey, was not damaged. Damage to the stock is placed at $300, fully covered by insurance.

Wednesday night a fire in a shed belonging to H. Peterson at 799 Huffman street caused the death of three horses belonging to the R. H. Griffin Grocery Company. The shed, with a buggy, some harness and a delivery wagon, was destroyed. The department responded at 10:30 o'clock, but found the horses dead and the structure almost destroyed on their arrival.

Mr. Griffin's loss, including the horses, a buggy and damage to a delivery wagon, is placed at $375. He carried no insurance.

MICHIGAN ROADS TO MERGE

Detroit Southern Said to Have Bought Ann Arbor Railroad

NEW YORK, May 5.—It is stated by the Herald that the recent purchase of the Ann Arbor railroad from the Washburn interests was for the Detroit Southern and that the two lines shortly will be merged. While the ownership and management of the Ann Arbor and Detroit Southern will be distinct from the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton system, similar interests are identified with both systems. Inability to combine them is due to the fact that the Detroit Southern and Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton are parallel roads.

A harmonious working arrangement will, it is added, be entered into by the two systems. The Detroit Southern will thus enter Toledo over the tracks of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton.

A new directorate will shortly be announced for the Ann Arbor road. The line runs from Toledo, Ohio, to Frankfort, Mich., a distance of 122 miles. It also operates steam transients on Lake Michigan, between Frankfort and Kewanna, Wis., and Menominee, Gladstone and Manistiquic, Mich. The Detroit Southern operates a road of 553 miles from Detroit to Ironton, Ohio.

GIRL HELPED SAILOR DESERT

Edward Williams of Galveston's Crew Surrenders to Officers Here

As was told in The Telegram of April 25, Edward Williams, 22 years of age, formerly a fireman on the boat, arrived in this city Thursday night and surrendered to Police Officer Bibb of the local force. The secretary of the navy has been notified and it is probable that the sailor in company of Officer Bibb will be taken to Norfolk, Va., tonight.

The young sailor is a native of Colorado and is one of the hundred men who left the cruiser after a riot occurred on the night of April 25. After other men he escaped by jumping through a gun hole to a nearby barge. After changing his sailor costume for citizens' clothes and leaving his navy togs in charge of a girl, he says, he made his way by freight to Houston, thence to this city.

According to the statements of Williams this morning, Captain Cutler refused to let the men go ashore. This caused bitter feeling among the crew and a large number deserted on April 23 and 24.

A riot occurred on the evening of April 25 when peace and marine officers were bringing several of the recaptured men aboard. Men were clubbed and for a while it looked as if a pitched battle would be fought. After the scrimmage additional desertions occurred.

The cruiser carried 375 men. According to the statements of Williams 100 of this number deserted; thirty-four have been captured. Williams says that the men have sent a petition to the navy department asking for Cutler's removal.

During the trip to Galveston from Pensacola, Fla., Williams says the men were greatly dissatisfied with the commander's treatment. When Galveston was reached the feeling reached its crisis when the men were not allowed to go ashore.

The young seaman in telling of the matter this morning seemed inclined to think that he would receive light punishment at the hands of the government from the fact that he surrendered of his own accord together with the circumstances of desertion.

Before enlisting for service on the Galveston Feb. 15 last, Williams saw four years' service on the training ship Hartford.

Officer Bibb will receive a reward for the delivery of the sailor boy and in the event he accompanies him to Norfolk will have all his expenses paid.

FARMERS' UNION OUT OF POLITICS

State Officer Declares They Will Not Take Hand in Such Matters

J. D. Montgomery, general organizer for the Farmers' Union in Texas, is here today on his way to Dallas from Gordon. He will address a meeting of the Dallas county farmers at Dallas Saturday.

Referring to the farmers union movement Mr. Montgomery said that it was enjoying a phenomenal growth, not only in Texas, but all over the south. State organizations have been formed in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and the Indian and Oklahoma Territories, he says, and on May 27 the state of Georgia will come in. The meeting for this purpose will be held at Thomaston. It will be addressed by Mr. Montgomery, who will effect the organization.

"By September next the entire cotton states will be organized," said Mr. Montgomery.

Asked if steps would then be taken to control political affairs Mr. Montgomery said he believed this would not be the case, but thought it probable that members would be apt to stand together on all questions affecting their interests.

Speaking of the meeting recently held at Hot Springs for the formation of a state farmers' union in Arkansas Mr. Montgomery said that the principal address was made by Jeff Davis, governor of that state, during which he declared for the referendum and said he favored government ownership of railroads. Governor Davis further said that he would be a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator James H. Berry, whose term expires two years hence. Mr. Montgomery said there was no doubt but that Governor Davis will be elected senator, as he is very popular among the farmers of Arkansas.

COTTON LATE
His duties as state organizer takes Mr. Montgomery over practically the entire state of Texas, and in this capacity he has an excellent opportunity of judging of crop conditions. Speaking along these lines today he said that it will be impossible to raise anything like a good cotton crop this

SKIN DISEASES SPEAK FOR THE BLOOD

Skin Diseases speak for the blood and tell of the acid-laden, poisonous condition of that vital fluid, and of its effort to throw off and rid the system of the poisons and waste matters that have accumulated in it. Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Boils and diseases of this type are all caused by a weakened and polluted blood circulation, and though they may have lain dormant in the system during the cold weather, at the coming of Spring and Summer, when the blood is reacting and making extra efforts to expel all morbid and poisonous matter, they make their appearance. External remedies cannot cure; they soothe and give temporary relief, but often clog the pores and glands, and the poison causing the trouble is thus shut up in the system to break out afresh later on. S. S. S., a purely vegetable blood remedy, cures all skin diseases by going down into the circulation, driving out all poisons and waste matters, strengthening the blood, leaving the skin soft and smooth, and building up the entire system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. cures Nettle Rash, Poison Oak and all skin diseases that enter the system through the pores and glands, as well as those that have their origin in the blood. PRISONER WILLING FOR DEATH SENTENCE

Will T. Manning, convicted of poisoning his wife, refuses to let Attorney Appeal.

GREENVILLE, Texas, May 5.—Judge Porter has overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of Will T. Manning, who was convicted and given a death sentence in the Eighth district last Saturday on a charge of poisoning his wife.
After the motion had been overruled Judge H. D. Wood, attorney for the defendant, told Manning he would take an exception in the case and take it to the court of criminal appeals. Manning refused to let this be done, stating that he preferred to have the finding of the jury carried out, and asked Judge Porter to pass sentence upon him to be hanged.
As the present term of the court does not expire until next Saturday, Judge Porter will give Manning until that time to decide definitely in the matter. The prisoner was ordered back to jail to await the last day of court. Manning is also under a life sentence in the penitentiary on a charge of assaulting his young sister-in-law.

GENERAL LEE BURIED

Funeral Most Imposung in History of Richmond, Va.

RICHMOND, Va., May 5.—Not in all its eventful history has Richmond witnessed a more imposing demonstration than that which marked yesterday the funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee.
The military contingent taking part in the procession consisted of two full regiments of infantry, the Seventh, Seventy-first, the Richmond light infantry blues, a battalion of artillery and seven detached infantry companies, making in all about 2,000 men. Added to this were the veteran organizations. Practically every carriage in the city had been engaged for the occasion, and by noon the business section was almost deserted. Around St. Paul's church, in which the funeral services took place, there was a dense throng, and from there to Hollywood the sidewalks along the line of march were lined with spectators.

On conclusion of the service at the church the line of march was taken up for the cemetery. The escort, including the Seventh and Seventy-first regiments of Virginia volunteer infantry and provisional regiments of unattached infantry companies from every part of Virginia, Confederate organizations, representatives of the federal and state and city governments and distinguished persons from outside the commonwealth. There were thirty-three military companies in line and the procession was more than a mile long. At the head of the escort rode former Governor Farrell, chief marshal, with aids, and conspicuous in the procession were Governor Warfield of Maryland and the attorney general of his state, the two United States senators from Virginia, riding side by side in a carriage; General W. J. Hayes, Major R. E. L. Michie and Colonel J. C. Dempsey, U. S. A., in full dress uniform and Lieutenant Governor Willard, representing Governor Montague, who was prevented by illness from being present.

THOROUGHBREDS BURN AT ST. LOUIS TRACK

Stable Destroyed by Fire Early Today and Three Valuable Animals Perish

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—So far as can be definitely learned until the horses that were released from their stalls and allowed to run free during the excitement attending the fire have been located, only three thoroughbreds are estimated to be the St. Louis Fair Association track early today.

The horses known to have been burned were Molly T., Irvy Bennett, each valued at $400, and an unnamed maiden, valued at $1,200. All three belonged to Frank Gering of St. Louis. The damage to the buildings is estimated at $3,000.

The fire was discovered in a stall in a building used by the fair association for exhibit purposes and converted into a stable. The flames spread so rapidly that it was found necessary to throw open the stable doors and allow the horses to run free. In this manner several animals that were at first reported burned were afterward recovered running about the race track enclosure or in the streets in the neighborhood.

There were about fifty horses quartered in the burned section, and it kept searching parties busy all night catching the animals that had fled panic-stricken from the flames and smoke.
The cause of the fire is not known, but it is believed that it started from a cigar or cigarette thrown into the straw in one of the stalls, and that the fire was discovered in some distance away from the living quarters of the stable attendants.

BRITT AND WHITE WILL FIGHT TONIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 5.—After many ups and downs, Jimmy Britt of this city and Jabez White of England are to meet tonight in Woodward's pavilion in a twenty-round bout before the Hayes Valley Club. It is not expected the grand jury will interfere with the fight. The police will be instructed not to permit overcrowding the gallery or any part of the house. Britt has ruled a strong 4 to 10 choice in what little betting has been done locally. There is no open betting owing to the attitude of the police against public pool selling. What money has been placed is chiefly between friends. The men are to weigh in this afternoon at 2 o'clock at 133 pounds. Both are expected to come in handily at this weight, as it is a natural mark for them to make. They will both gain before they enter the ring, and possibly they will scale nearly 135 pounds, as neither is of the worrying kind. White's long siege of training is over and the Briton is anxiously waiting for the tap of the gong. The only work indulged in on the last day of training was a few minutes' exercise with dumb bells. Both are in fine condition and equally confident and from indications the fight will be lively from start to finish. Fast and furious work is expected when the men enter the ring, with every prospect of an early ending to the fight. The contest is of international importance, and will go nearer toward deciding the championship of the world in the lightweight division than anything in the same line that has been witnessed in years.

TEXAS DOWN, MISSOURI
AUSTIN, Texas, May 5.—University of Missouri reversed matters yesterday, winning from Texas by a score of 7 to 2. Defeat for Texas came as a surprise, they having shut out Missouri Wednesday.

POLYTECHNIC DEFEATED
WAXAHACHIE, Texas, May 5.—Trinity made one more than Polytechnic College of Fort Worth yesterday in a rattling golf fifteen-inning game with the final score 2 to 1. The game was strictly a pitcher's battle. Detheridge of Polytechnic struck out sixteen men. Farner for Trinity is credited with half that number of strike-outs.
Batteries—Polytechnic, Detheridge and Rogers; Trinity, Farner and Steele.

MORE MONEY FOR STATE'S SCHOOLS

Special to The Telegram.
AUSTIN, Texas, May 5.—The house spent the entire morning session in considering the general appropriation bill. Appropriations for the North Texas Normal Institute were passed without any change.

The first material amendment to the bill occurred today, when an amendment was adopted increasing the appropriation mentioned in the bill for the Southwest Texas Normal Institute, by allowing $1,000 more for repairs.

An amendment was also adopted allowing $1,350 for repairs to the Girls' Industrial School above the amount mentioned in the original bill.

A proposition to reduce the salary of the superintendent of the Girls' Industrial School failed after a heated debate. The governor today submitted two additional subjects for the consideration of the legislature. The first was a bill creating the Sixty-third judicial district, and the second was a bill making the town of Jacksonville into an independent school district.

The senate spent the entire morning session considering the state banking bill, which had been vetoed by the governor.

An amendment was adopted to the bill providing for the appointment of a bank examiner, the same as is done with national banks. An amendment was also adopted making an inspector liable on bond in damages, and in case he makes a false report he shall be deemed guilty of felony. An amendment was also adopted confining trust companies to one place of business, as provided in the bill.

JOE JEFFERSON'S OPTIMISM

A pleasant article of personal reminiscence about Jefferson is contributed to The Outlook's May Magazine number by its "Spectator," with pictures not before printed. Of one phase of Jefferson's character the writer speaks in the lighter philosophies. The work of Prentice Mulford greatly attracted him at one time. He had remarkable communications, as he believed, from the other world—enough, at any rate, to convince him that there was another world, and to make him confident that he should see again those he loved. He was a wonderful optimist, always cheerful, always looking for the brightness of life. He once told the "Spectator" that in all his thousands of miles of travel he had never been in a railway or steamship accident or seen one. The last letter which the "Spectator" received from Mr. Jefferson was reminiscent of their earlier friendship, and closed with these words:

"How time goes on, so heedless of us all! What a short-lived creature is man (myself excepted—by the by, '75 next birthday). In a few years we shall be sweet little angels, wings and all; and, as the old gambler said on his death-bed, 'If we meet, I'll fly you for $5.' Till then, sincerely yours, J. JEFFERSON."

MENINGITIS PLAGUE STILL CAUSES DEATHS

Three Fatalities Within Three Hours Reported at Bellevue Hospital, New York.
NEW YORK, May 5.—Three deaths from cerebro-spinal meningitis have occurred within the space of three hours at Bellevue hospital today. Four other fatal cases were reported to the health authorities by various physicians during the past few days. These figures indicate a big falling off in the disease.
Twenty-six beds in the meningitis pavilion of the hospital are still filled with patients.
In support of his theory that children must have proper nourishment in order to withstand the ravages of meningitis, Commissioner Darlington will today take up with the committee of physicians, the matter of instructing the parents of school children as to what food should be provided for the morning meal particularly. "This is a most important question," he said. "There are hundreds of school children in New York who do not get the right kind of food for breakfast. As a result we have so many poorly nourished little ones starting out each day in a condition that makes them susceptible to almost any disease."

WE ARE ONE PEOPLE

The president, in one of his speeches in Texas, declared that the men of the south and the men of the north had only to meet and mingle to become good friends and stouter patriots than ever.

At Worcester, Mass., the other day, memorial services were held for the late Senator Hoar. He was greatly beloved by his people, and deserved the attachment.

The orator on this occasion was Senator Daniel of Virginia, a democrat, and a warm partisan on his side as Mr. Hoar was on his. He fought for the southern Confederacy, and in congress has supported all of his party's measures.

This was fully confirmatory of the truth of the president's Texas deliverance. Mr. Daniel and Mr. Hoar had met and mingled, and warm friendship was the result.

And that is the idea exactly. We may divide sharply in this great country of ours on matters political, but the fact remains paramount that we are all Americans and with but one country to serve.

These feelings were confined to the men who were actual participants in the fratricidal strife which deluged the southern country with blood and caused the hand of brother to be raised against brother.

The effect of this is to give us a broader and better statesmanship. A statesmanship that more nearly measures up to the requirements of the situation than the country has ever known before.

The north and the south already understand each other, and each is willing to make proper concessions. It is only necessary sary for northern men to come south and southern men to go north and mix and mingle with the people to come to the conclusion that we are but one people.

The jury in the Nan Patterson case was unable to agree, and for the third time the trial of this unfortunate show girl has come to naught. It is pretty evident from these facts that a conviction is almost impossible, and the great majority of the American people have long ago come to the conclusion that the girl should be dismissed from custody.

If Fort Worth would go after one of those five cotton mills that are to be moved to this state from Massachusetts she would probably get it, and there can be no questioning the fact that Fort Worth would afford an ideal location for an enterprise of this kind.

The Farmers' Union already has a membership of more than 200,000 in the state of Texas, and that fact has already been noted by the men who succeeded in wrecking the old Farmers' Alliance by converting it into a political machine.

A man by the name of Hatfield has been paid $1,000 by the business men of Los Angeles for the successful operation of a rain making machine, which is alleged to have produced more than 18 inches of rainfall in the section where it is located during the month of May.

If the governor has to keep up the lick of submitting to the extra session those measures passed by the regular session of the state legislature in order to have them corrected and perfected, there will soon be absolutely nothing left to show for the first round of law making. Never in the history of the state has there been such a record made by a legislature as that now in session at Austin.

President Harvie Jordan is making strong appeals to the farmers of the country to reduce their cotton acreage and continue to hold the surplus brought over from last season. But many farmers are gradually selling the surplus as the exigencies of the occasion demands.

William J. Bryan says that Judge Dunne is the best mayor that Chicago has ever had, but it is a noticeable fact that the judge has not yet been able to place a quietus upon the prevailing strike.

Information comes from Dallas that the warring Baptist brethren, Drs. Hayden and Cranfill, have settled their long pending litigation outside the courts. The trouble between these two Baptist brethren has been of long standing, and there will be general rejoicing among the denomination all over the state that a basis of settlement has at length been devised.

The Cubans are said to greatly mourn the passing of Fitzhugh Lee, and well they may, for he was a true friend to the oppressed inhabitants of the island republic. General Lee showed his love for the Cubans in a manner that will admit of no cavil or doubt, and he rendered them the most valuable service.

A Pittsburg Presbyterian minister offered a resolution at a session of his presbytery a short time ago to the effect that ministers who part their hair in the middle are "sissified asses."

George Gould says that no attention is paid to the vapors of Tom Lawson, but it has been noticed that every man hit by Lawson generally gives utterance to some kind of a howl.

The Texas Elks are to be with us next week, and they will find good grazing in the place where the panther laid down.

Gleanings From the Exchanges

The legislature will refuse to allow for any expenditure of money unauthorized by law. That is clearly right. Heads of institutions are apt to get heady and spend the people's patrimony without due regard for strict economy.

It would be a little more to the credit of the state to pay the bills and fire the men who contracted them. The credit of the state should not be injured by repudiating any just obligation, and when that course is adopted the state suffers while the individual is only made to realize that he has slightly transcended his authority.

The man who is valuable to his town is a man who keeps in close touch with the current events of the day. On the other hand, the man who does not keep himself informed cannot be of much force in the community in which he lives.

There is no excuse for any man being behind the times and out of joint with the general situation in this day of general enlightenment. Never before in the history of the world has vox populi enjoyed such excellent facilities for gaining information.

For many years in Texas every person, every act, every suggestion in opposition to the "stand" of our own politicians has been condemned by the press and by the friends of the politicians to maintain the character of being loyal to the state's interests.

That there is money in feeding cattle is clearly demonstrated by the last bunch of steers fed by Captain W. S. A. Smith, at his feeding station situated just outside of Leeds, Iowa.

The remarks of the esteemed News are both to the point and quite timely, even if they are made after The Telegram and a few other papers have fought the "satellites" referred to a standstill.

Who says the evening makeshifts never score a scoop? One of Houston's evening papers scooped the world on the battle between Togo and Rojestvensky.

The above represents fairly the tactics adopted by the morning misfits to bring odium upon the afternoon publications, which are skinning them in the matter of important news every day of their lives.

"Who killed cock robin?" "I did," said the sparrow. "Who offered postage stamps for sale?" "I didn't," said the senate, and the jury acquitted the grave and reverend law-makers.

The state senate has cleared its decks of any appearance of trading in postage stamps, and the matter was thus shoved up to the lower branch, where it has been investigated. As was to be expected, the investigating committee has reported that it is unable to locate the guilty party, notwithstanding the Austin postmaster testified that the stamps were offered for sale to him by a member of the state legislature.

How the Wise Barber Boomed His Business

The announcement that Charles A. Myers, who has been business manager of the Houston Chronicle from its organization, bought a half interest in The Fort Worth Telegram, and will at once go to that paper, should be a matter of congratulation to Fort Worth and North Texas.

The new acquisition will bring to The Telegram the ripe experience of several years' success in the journalistic field, and will be an important factor in the future growth and development of the paper.

The announcement that Charles A. Myers, who has been business manager of the Houston Chronicle from its organization, bought a half interest in The Fort Worth Telegram, and will at once go to that paper, should be a matter of congratulation to Fort Worth and North Texas.

WITH THE CATTLEMEN

That there is money in feeding cattle is clearly demonstrated by the last bunch of steers fed by Captain W. S. A. Smith, at his feeding station situated just outside of Leeds, Iowa.

The following table gives the facts and figures of the feeding from the time the cattle were purchased until they were sold:

Oct. 14, 1904, 73 steers at 3c, weight 64,780 pounds, with dipping and commission, $1,988.74; Nov. 37, 40 steers bought at $3.25, weight 29,830 pounds, with dipping and commission, $1,005; total, $2,993.74; deduct 2 steers fed with other cattle, $51; cost of all steers, $2,942.74.

There is especial interest attached to this particular lot of cattle, as Mr. Smith had representatives of the Iowa State Agricultural College at Ames at his feet last Nov. 3 to April 6, 1905, during the feeding transaction and has sent the college professors a copy.

GRASS TO BURN J. H. Jones of Clarendon has just shipped 1,000 steers to Kansas for pasturage. Speaking about the cattle outlook in the Panhandle country Mr. Jones said: "There are fewer steers in that country than for many years, and fewer cattle will be moved from Texas to the Kansas pasture fields this spring than usual."

REDUCING THE SUPPLY Christ Hogelstein of Sonora reports things in good shape in his section. "But steers are scarcer there now than they have been for some time," remarked Mr. Hogelstein. "It is a fact that Texas is the great source of supply for the cattle trade, and while there are a great many cattle in that country, those who are right on the ground and can see for themselves know that cattle are growing fewer right along."

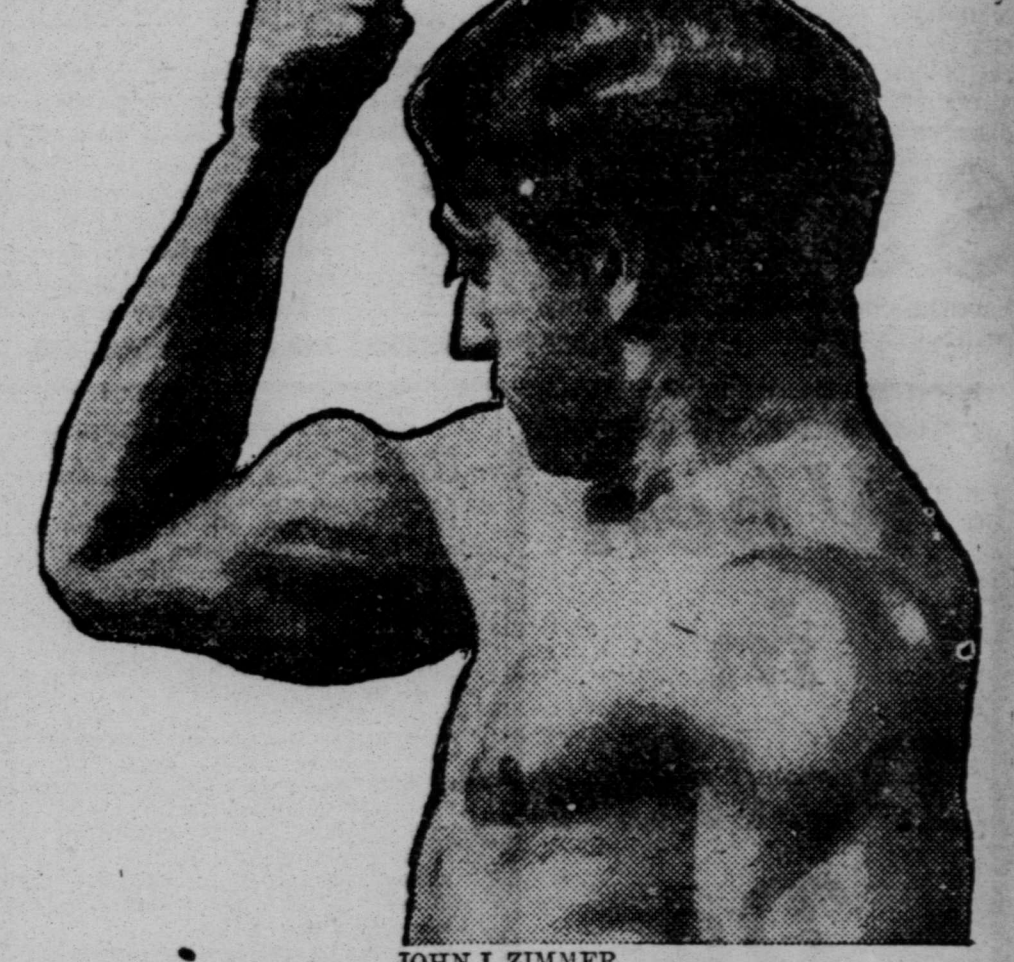

THE BEEF TRUST "On Feb. 18, 1903, the Federal court at Chicago enjoined the beef trust from doing certain things," says Charles E. Busch, in Everybody's April installment of "The Greatest Trust in the World." "Every day since that it has done the identical things it was enjoined from doing. From time to time spasmodic efforts are made to discover why a Federal court injunction, binding on everybody else, is not binding on the beef trust. The demands for an investigation were particularly urgent at the time of the stock yards strike last summer (about which I shall have a little story to tell hereafter), and in August Mr. Garfield, chief of the bureau of corporations at Washington, sent some of his men to Chicago to collect the necessary evidence of the law breaking. Ample warning was sent from Washington, I do not know by whom, and when Mr. Garfield's men arrived in Chicago they were met by trust detectives, who never let the Washington men out of their sight by day or night. The course of their investigation led naturally into the railroad offices. Whenever one of Mr. Garfield's agents entered such a place he was followed within twenty-four hours by a confidential representative of the trust, who said to the railroad officer: "One of Garfield's men was in here yesterday. What did you tell him? Did you tell him anything about our arrangements?"

Letters to The Telegram

THE JR. O. U. A. M. CONVENTION

As state council secretary of the Junior Order United American Mechanics of Texas, I desire to state in justice to the body assembled in the hall of Glenwood council No. 59 Tuesday and Wednesday of this week on the occasion of its annual gathering, and in order to express a sentiment conveyed to the public mind by the publication of an article in a certain paper of this city, namely, "That the delegation was small and that there would be but very little business transacted," etc. I want to say that I have in the past attended state council meetings in this and in other states; that were a great deal larger in representation and otherwise, but never have I witnessed an occasion of this character that equaled this one in Glenwood. This week in point of interest, enthusiasm and the amount of important business transacted. Every delegate present seemed to have come to this meeting for a determined purpose. The Junior Order, in the character of the organization and the objects for which it stands, is naturally a very live organization, and there is always something lively going on when the state council convenes every year. This meeting just adjourned will go on record as being the most harmonious session ever held in Texas and will have to its credit the disposing of more important business than any previous session of the state council. I am glad to give the state council by Glenwood Council No. 59 and its auxiliary, the Daughters of America, was a rare treat, such as is not generally accorded state delegations of orders anywhere. The Daughters contributed largely to the enjoyment of this annual occasion. The dinners and suppers prepared by them for the Juniors each day were excellent, and beside made it very convenient for the Juniors. The valuable assistance of the Daughters will always be considered in future sessions of the state council. Junior Order of Texas, respectfully,
A. S. FULGHUM,
S. C. Secretary.

PLANS FOR ELK CONVENTION

Committee to Meet Tonight and See That All Details Are Complete

Preparatory to the Elks' state convention which will begin in the city Monday morning, the last meeting of the committee of fifteen of the local lodge will be held at the Elks' Club rooms tonight. All committees will make final reports, and the finishing touches will be put to all arrangements for entertainment.

Chairmen of the different committees said Thursday that all plans for the features of the convention had been completed. The barbecue to be held at Hermann park Monday is all arranged. The military features, including the line of march and the details of the parade, have been mapped out. The grand ball at Lake Erie to be held Tuesday evening has been fully prepared. The decoration of the pavilion will begin Saturday.

The baseball team has been picked, the line-up having been previously announced in The Telegram. Manager Goetz of the team announces that a meeting of the baseball men will be held at the club rooms Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in order to hold a council of war before locking antlers with the Dallas men Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Mary Greenwall, sponsor for the Elks, announces that the flower parade will be in keeping with other features of the convention. Automobiles, carriages and vehicles of all kinds, decked with flowers, will take part in the military parade.

Today purple and white, the B. P. O. E. colors, are becoming conspicuous in the city. Already the principal stores and hotels have displayed bunting and flags and show windows about Main and Houston Streets are gay with "Welcome" to the Elks.

The crowd will begin to arrive in the city Saturday evening, though the crush will not get here until Sunday night and Monday morning. Then for the convention.

FORT WORTH TO SEEK CONVENTION

Will Ask Grain Dealers' Association to Hold Meeting in This City

Fort Worth members of the State Grain Dealers' Association have been advised by Secretary H. B. Dorsey of Weatherford that the executive committee of the association will hold an important meeting in Dallas Saturday. The meeting will be held at the Oriental Hotel at 11 o'clock for the purpose, among other things, to select a place for the next annual convention of the association and also to name the date of the meeting.

To date only two cities have sought the meeting—Fort Worth and Mineral Wells—with the chances strongly in favor of this city. The last convention was held in Fort Worth.

Secretary Dorsey advises that he has just finished a long trip through the southeastern sections of the state and learned while gone that there is a strong tendency on the part of the state of Louisiana to raise the quarantine that now rests against the introduction of Texas oats into that state. He believes that this action will soon be taken by Louisiana.

At the Dallas meeting Saturday the arbitration committee will hold a session to consider matters before it for the adjustment of differences among members, if any. Mr. Dorsey says that the committee hopes to be able to clear the docket of all such claims prior to the state meeting, which will soon be held.

REASONED IT OUT

And Found a Change in Food Put Him Right

A man does not count as wasted the time he spends in thinking over his business, but he seems loth to give the same sort of careful attention to himself and to his health.

And yet his business would be worth little without good health to care for it. A business man tells how he did himself good by carefully thinking over his physical condition, investigating to find out what was needed, and then changing to the right food.

"For some years I had been bothered a great deal after meals. My food seemed to lay like lead in my stomach, producing heaviness and dullness and sometimes positive pain. Of course this rendered me more or less unfit for business, and I made up my mind that something would have to be done.

"Reflection led me to the conclusion that over-eating, filling the stomach with indigestible food, was responsible for many of the ills that humankind suffer in that way—that what was making me so dull, heavy and uncomfortable, and unfit for business after meals. I concluded to try Grape-Nuts food to see what it could do for me.

"I have been using it for some months now, and am glad to say that it has given me entire relief. I do not suffer any longer after meals; my food seems to assimilate easily and perfectly, and to do the work for which it was intended. I have regained my normal weight, and find that business is a pleasure once more—can take more interest in it, and my mind is clearer and more alert."

CATARRHAL TROUBLES PREVALENT

Spring Months Cause Sickness—Breathe Hyomei and Be Cured of Catarrh.

Catarrhal troubles are more common at this season than at any other time of the year. The sudden changes that come during the spring months are productive of many cases of catarrh that without proper treatment will become chronic.

The pleasantest, most convenient and only scientific method for the treatment and cure of catarrh is Hyomei. Simply put twenty drops in the little pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, and then breathe it for three minutes four times a day.

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the system when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the inhaler, the balsamic fragrance of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose and throat, and thus kills the catarrhal germs, heals the irritated mucous membrane and gives complete and permanent cure.

Thousands of testimonials have been given as to the astonishing cures made by this remedy. J. S. Nugent, treasurer of the New York Life Insurance Company, writes: "Hyomei has completely cured my daughter of catarrh, from which she has been a sufferer for years."

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but one dollar, and as the inhaler will last a lifetime and there is sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment, it is the most economical catarrhal remedy known. Extra bottles can be procured for fifty cents. Ask R. A. Anderson to show you the strong guarantee under which he sells Hyomei.

be a theater complete within itself and will cost several thousand dollars.

This step was made necessary on account of the demand made for the pavilion for private parties and balls.

One of the amusement features will be a "Figure 8," an improvement on the scenic railway. This will be put in motion during July and will cost about $15,000. Another amusement feature will be what is known as the "helter-skelter," one of the leading amusement acts at the World's Fair. This will be ready by next Monday.

Space is being provided on the balcony for a cafe, where private and special parties may be accommodated.

The grounds and buildings are being put in excellent shape this season and already the grounds present an enchanting scene, with large clusters of flowers here and there in great profusion. Special attention has been given to this feature and the expense has not been considered by the traction company in its effort to make Lake Erie one of the prettiest spots in Texas. The management of this summer resort has been placed in the hands of H. B. Burton, who has had many years' experience in the conduct of amusement features. He has already shown his wisdom in the selection of excellent high-class vaudeville acts for the opening week and while the crowds as yet have not been large, still they have all been appreciative ones. The orchestra is in charge of Professor Phil Epstein, and is decidedly one of the best ever heard at Lake Erie.

The bill for this week includes illustrated songs by Mr. Bowman, who has a rich baritone voice; the wonder shooters, Coleman and Meix, who are the most sensational shooters ever seen here; Miss Virginia Rankin in classic songs, the whole concluding with an up-to-date orograph exhibition showing the life of Napoleon Bonaparte. The marching band in this act is the most expensive and elaborate seen in Texas. On the whole the performance is high class and entertaining, far exceeding the entertainments given at the well-known resort last season.

Two performances are being given daily—one at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and one at night. The day performance is free of charge. To induce attendance many prizes are to be given away Saturday.

In July there will be a week of opera, the company being one of the best on the road. During the season many standard operas and dramatic companies will appear.

STRIKERS' FORCES ARE STILL GROWING

Nearly One Hundred Will Be Added Today to List of Chicago's Idle Union Men

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—Additions to the number of teamsters on strike will aggregate nearly a hundred today. The new strikers are confined to individual concerns, chiefly wholesale grocery houses. All the principal wholesale grocery firms in the city are now under the ban of the teamsters and the diminishing stocks in the retail stores are further placed in jeopardy.

The union leaders also threaten to tie the men and thus add more difficulties to the transfer of goods from the grocery warehouses. Union tug men reported that several large concerns were utilizing the river route to move merchandise.

It is learned that President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has recommended to his executive board that they vote an assessment for the striking teamsters in Chicago.

The teamsters' strike has attracted many labor leaders from all over the country, among whom is P. H. McCarthy of San Francisco, John L. Lennon, treasurer of the river service by calling out the river of the American Federation of Labor, also is in Chicago.

"CHIEF" PORTER PROVES PUZZLE

Panthers Fail to Solve Mystery of Dallas Pitcher's Delivery

Ever head a little girl learning to play the piano count "One, two, three; one, two, three?" Well, that is about the way the Panthers were counted out at Haines Park Thursday afternoon in the third game of the series with Dallas.

The official score shows not a single hit to Fort Worth's credit. There is some doubt about Bates' swift grounder, to Myers and Boles' fly to Doyle. Both Dallas men were running when they touched the ball and under the liberality of the new rules, could hardly be charged with errors in failing to recover and nail their men at first.

Big Chief Porter's pitching cannot be called wonderful, but his support after the first inning was good. The Panthers seldom failed to connect and only one strike-out shows against them, but their hitting was confined to flies or easy grounders, which the infield effectively bagged.

The Panthers open with Austin this afternoon.

LOOKED LIKE A GIVE-AWAY

For the third time this week, Maloney opened for Dallas. He walked, stole second, and went to third on the fielder's choice which nabbed Andres going to first. Ury filed out to Poindexter and Doyle's fly fell into Sullivan's hands. No runs.

Sullivan walked. Burleson got advantage of Porter's throw to Ury, nailing Sullivan. Burleson stole second. Andres' error let Horn go safe and he promptly stole second. Burleson having gone to third on Horn's error, Myers and Ury retired Boles. Then Andres muffed Poindexter's grounder and Burleson and Bates scored. Poindexter going safe. Ury retired Bates unassisted. Two runs.

BUT RETALIATION CAME

Johnson and Bates retired Myers, and Horn caught Bero's easy fly. Then Boles fanned after a base from Ragsdale. Blumling followed with a two-bagger to right and Ragsdale scored. Porter singled and Blumling scored. Burleson nabbed Maloney with a pretty throw to Bates. Two runs.

Burleson got a base on balls and stole second. Horn filed out to Blumling and Boles repeated the hit. Poindexter filed out to Doyle. No runs.

THE LAY OF THE GOOSE-EGG BEGINS

At the end of a run almost to center field, Sullivan caught Andres' fly. Ury filed out to Poindexter. Doyle smashed a two-bagger into left. Horn and Bates retired Myers. No runs.

Bates popped an easy fly to Myers. Mauch filed out to Maloney and Ballew repeated Bates' hit to Myers. No runs.

SINGLES HELP SOME TIMES

Bero died going to first, Johnson to Bates. Ragsdale followed suit. Boles to Bates. Blumling singled. Porter singled and Blumling scored. Maloney singled. Andres' grounder to Burleson nailed Porter going home. One run.

John filed out to Doyle. Maloney's long run after Sullivan's fly was successful. Burleson got a base on balls but in an effort to record three stolen bases in one game, died going to second, Porter to Myers. No runs.

THE FIRST STRIKE OUT

Bero walked and stole second. Ragsdale singled. Blumling fanned. Bates retired Porter unassisted. No runs.

Myers and Ury retired Horn. Boles fanned. Porter and Ury nailed Poindexter at first. No runs.

DOUBLE, DOUBLE, ETC.

Maloney opened with a two-bagger. Andres filed out to Ballew. Boles and Bates retired Ury. Then Doyle doubled to center, scoring Maloney. Myers fanned. One run.

Myers failed to connect with Bates' grounder and he went safe. Mauch's bounder to Porter forced Bates at second. Ballew placed one just right for Porter to nail Mauch at second and catch Ballew at first in a neat double play. No runs.

ONE RUN WITHOUT A SINGLE HIT

Bero walked. Ragsdale died at first. Boles to Bates. Bero going to second. Bero stole third. Boles nailed Ragsdale at first. Horn's recover of Blumling's bounder failed to nail Bero at home and Blumling went safe. Porter retired, Horn to Bates. Horn caught Maloney's easy fly. One run.

Maloney caught Johnson's fly after a long run. Sullivan walked, but died stealing second. Ragsdale to Andres. Burleson filed out to Blumling. No runs.

TOO LATE FOR HUMAN AID

Bates retired Ury unassisted. Ury filed out to Sullivan. Doyle died going to first, Bates to Johnson. No runs.

Horn died at first, Bero to Ury. Boles went safe on Blumling's error. Poindexter had the advantage of a fielder's choice which killed Boles at second. Andres to Myers. Bates filed out to Blumling. No runs.

AT BELMONT

NEW YORK, May 5.—One of the greatest crowds that ever came to see a thoroughbred race in America was at Belmont Park yesterday to witness the sensational running of the Metropolitan Handicap, in which James R. Keene's 3-year-old Sysonby and O. L. Richards' hardy 4-year-old, Race King, finished so close together the judges were unable to separate them. Both owners announced their satisfaction with the result as it stood and the purse, amounting to more than $14,000, was divided.

Sysonby was the favorite in the betting. Long odds were offered the public on Race King, but there were few who thought highly of the Tenny colt's chances. The time of the race was disappointing.

Not-offen has the spectacle furnished by the struggle in the Metropolitan Handicap been equaled on an American race course. An even dozen thoroughbreds went to the post. Sysonby was made favorite at odds of 2 to 1. Beldame was heavily played by the general public at 4 to 1. The two carried the bulk of the wagers.

After a rather tiresome delay at the post, the horses were sent away. Sysonby was seen to bear away toward the outside rail on coming into the stretch and at his side was Race King, a little swayed back son of the famous Tenny. To even hardened racegoers, the struggle between these two was such as to send a lump in their throat. There was an instant silence as the thoroughbreds dashed along the rail. First one brown muzzle showed in front and then the other as the horses strained every fiber to gain an inch.

Shaw and Smith were driving like mad, but to no purpose and their charges finished so close together that the judges were unable to separate them.

The shouting crowd, which had been stilled for an instant by the royal struggle, broke out into cheer after cheer as the ciphers went up denoting a dead heat.

James B. Keene and O. L. Richards, owners of Sysonby and Race King, quickly settled the question of the dead heat by dividing the purse.

MAN'S UNREASONABLENESS

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Manager of the "Republican" of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctor to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties."

RULES SHOULD EQUALIZE THE ATTACK AND DEFENSE

Henry Chadwick, Father of Baseball, Tells How the National Game Can Be Made Faster—Reviews 1905 Outlook

 ★ BASEBALL'S GRAND OLD MAN ★
 ★ TELLS MAGNATES SOMETHING ★
 ★ Henry Chadwick, known throughout the United States as the "Father of Baseball," has written an estimate of our national sport for The Telegram.
 ★ His "copy" for the article legibly and with crystal thought.
 ★ Father Chadwick does not claim to have invented baseball, but through the papers he made the sport what it is today, the most popular of American field sports. He has written ten baseball manuals and sets of rules and his word is gospel to the votaries of the sport.

 BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 5.—In reply to a series of questions which I have been requested to answer, I find that the first requirement is "to tell the story, in brief, of the evolution of baseball, and of the improvements made in the game since it first became the popular field sport of the American people." The second question is "Why is baseball so popular?" The third, "How 'faster' is the game now than it was in the earlier period of its history?"

BASEBALL OF ENGLISH ORIGIN
 Last December, in an interview with A. G. Spalding in his New York office, my young friend (I call him "young," as I am a quarter of a century his senior) argued that baseball was distinctly of American origin.
 Now, the fact is, there is but one field game now in vogue in this country that is thoroughly American in its origin and that is the aboriginal game of lacrosse, the Canadian national field sport.
 Baseball of the existing period is doubtless an American game, but it is equally true that it originated from an old English schoolboy game, as is plainly shown by the fact that the basic principle of both games is the use of a ball, a bat and bases.

LOVE OF SPORT HAS BENEFITED US
 It may be truthfully said that in my life work of evolution in the building up of our national game I was given a powerful lever to aid me in popularizing athletic sports in general.
 In the bygone days of half a century ago, our people were the butt of our English cousins on account of our neglect of physical recreation, and for our worship of the "almighty dollar" at the cost of every other consideration.
 Now, however, things are different. We have not only acquired the English taste for manly exercises, but we rival them in matters of sports, in which they have held sway for centuries.
 The equipment of a fondness for athletic sports may be said to have begun with the brilliant success of the yacht America in English waters in 1851; and the movement was aided by the achievements of the American chess champion of the world, Paul Morphy, in 1857. Since then, step by step, have we worked our way forward in the great race for supremacy in the arena of sports, until now we rival our English brethren in rowing, on the turf, on the tennis and golf field and in fact in nearly all athletic sports.
 The question may be asked: "What has been the result of the change made in the character of our people?" The answer is: "Beneficial in every way."
 Improvement in the physique of Americans has been one result; a wider sphere for rational social enjoyment has been opened to us for another, especially as regards the enjoyment of sundry sports and pastimes suited to them, such as were closed to women a quarter of a century ago.
 Look at the throngs of women skaters on our park lakes in winter. Note the grand stands at our baseball grounds crowded with women; at college matches; not to mention the women's out of door clubs for riding and walking, now so fashionable; and the participation of girls in golf, tennis and basket ball, all of which were unknown pleasures to American women even twenty years ago.
SOME OLD BASEBALL RULES
 As to the improvements made in baseball since the '50s, they have simply transformed the game from an out-door exercise for fun and frolic, into a grand, manly sport requiring the highest degree of physical and mental ability to excel in it. By way of illustration, I give below range of the first or third base is foul.

 Sec. 2. Three balls being struck at and missed, and the last one caught, is a hand out; if not caught, is considered fair, and the striker is bound to run.
 Sec. 6. A ball being struck or tipped and caught either flying or on the first bound is a hand out.
 Sec. 7. A player, running the bases, shall be out, if the ball is in the hands of an adversary on the base, as the runner is touched by it before he makes his base—being understood, however, that in no instance is a ball to be thrown at him.
 Sec. 8. A player running, who shall prevent an adversary from catching or getting the ball before making his base, is a hand out.
 Sec. 9. If two hands are already out, a player running home at the time a ball is struck cannot make an ace if the striker is caught out.
 Sec. 10. Three hands out, all out.
 Sec. 11. Players must take their strike in regular turn.
 Sec. 12. No ace or base can be made on a foul strike.
 Sec. 13. A runner cannot be put out in making one base, when a ball is made by the pitcher.
 Sec. 14. But one base allowed when the ball bounds out of the field when struck. It will be seen that there are no changes in the code as to the size of the ball or bat. But there was one important change made from the game of "rounders" or "town ball," in vogue in the '40s, and that was the repeal of the old rule which put out a base runner by throwing the ball at him. Another change, too, over the "town ball" rule of the '30s was that of changing the form of the field to a diamond square instead of the oblong of "town ball."

POPULARITY OF BASEBALL
 The last important question is as to whether the game is "faster" now than in the earlier period of its professional life?
 Unquestionably it is. The reason it is so is because the opportunities for strategic skill in playing the game have been largely increased for one thing; as also have the power of the attack in the game over those of defense; the pitching having been greatly improved over that of two decades ago.
 The term "faster" refers chiefly to increased facilities for scientific methods and not to the fact that less time is required to play a game to a finish.
IT'S UP TO THE RULE MAKERS
 That the game could be made "faster" than it is now, even, goes without saying. If the rule makers could be made to realize how incomplete the existing code of rules is in many of its sections. One great rule which should govern the work of framing a code of baseball playing rules, is that of equalizing the powers of the attack and defense, and this has for several years past been neglected by the rule makers.
 As to the question whether the game is more popular now than of old, the answer is: That at no period of its history has baseball reached a greater popularity than it has now.

 Not only are the professional games more largely attended than ever before by the professional class—the majority class—but the amateur fraternity, which includes the college and school clubs, drew the largest assemblages of spectators ever known in baseball history.
THE PRESENT SEASON
 One more question remains: That is the forecast of the present season. In view of the fact of the "glorious uncertainty" of the game, this is the toughest of all to answer.
 The character of the team management enters so much into the question that it is difficult to arrive at a correct solution.
 Looking at the array of teams gathered by the National League for this season, it may be said that there is a promise of a more evenly contested pennant race than that of last year, which was too one-sided to be interesting.
 From a metropolitan point of view, it may be fairly said that better work at the hands of the New York team may be expected than was shown in 1904, although they did win the pennant; and the chances are they will be forced to work harder to win this season.
 In regard to the American League race, the promise is favorable for another such closely contested campaign as that of 1904, which was the most exciting seen in the professional arena for many years past. From an impartial point of view it looks as if the brunt of the fight for the pennant would again be between the Boston and New York teams.

GULF ROADS FORCE CUTS
 Keen Competition for Export Trade Causes Reduction by Eastern Lines

Competition of Gulf railroads for business has caused a 33 1-3 per cent reduction in rates on packing house products from Chicago to the eastern seaboard by the eastern roads. The rate, in effect May 2, is 20 cents per 100 pounds, instead of 30 cents for export.
 As yet no cut has been made by the lines between Chicago and the Missouri river, but it is thought there will be when the western trunk line committee meets next week. It is believed just here the trouble started, but some attribute it to the Clover Leaf. The Clover Leaf, of which T. P. Shonts, head of the Panama canal commission, is president, admits cutting the rate from St. Louis to the seaboard, but claims it was to meet a cut in rates from St. Louis to the gulf. The size of the cut evidences the alarm which is felt by the eastern traffic men over the diversion of this traffic.
 The gulf lines are said to be determined to secure a large portion of the packing house products traffic, both from Chicago and from the Missouri river territory. The eastern roads are as determined to retain it, so that a lively rate war may be expected.

ALEXANDER SAYS HE WILL NOT RESIGN
 President of Equitable Assurance Society Denies He Has Been Asked to Retire From Office

NEW YORK, May 5.—President James Alexander of the Equitable Life Assurance Society has given out a statement in which he makes a denial of all reports to the effect that any one has been asked to succeed him as president of the society. He said:
 "All reports that anybody has been asked to be president of the Equitable are obviously false. I have been elected president by the board and have no intention of resigning—there is no body of men having the authority to offer the presidency to anybody. Caution should be exercised in accepting unauthorized rumors, many of which are circulated for a purpose."

FALL COUNTY MAN FINDS WEEVIL EATER
 New Bug Said to Have Healthy Appetite for the Cotton Crop

WACO, Texas, May 5.—Foreman Allen, on a farm in Falls county, has discovered a bug which attacks and kills boll weevils. The fact was fully verified today and a dispatch was sent to Dr. L. O. Howard, chief entomologist of the United States department of agriculture, requesting that an expert be ordered to go to Falls county and secure specimens of the boll weevil killer for classification with a view to propagation.

GOULD RETIRING
 Leaving Directorship of Many of the Allied Roads

George Gould, who recently retired from the directorate of the Union Pacific, has also gone out of the Southern Pacific as a director. It is said he will also leave the directorate of the Oregon Short Line after the next annual meeting. E. H. Harriman is to withdraw from the directorate of the Ilo Grande and Rio Grande Western, which are owned by the Goulds. The report that Harriman would cease to be a director of the Western Union Telegraph Company is denied by George J. Gould, who controls this corporation. Wall street expects to see E. H. Harriman dropped from the Northern Pacific board at the annual meeting of the stockholders on May 18. The Union Pacific has parted with a large part of its northern securities stock, and the Morgan-Hill-Kennedy interest will hold an overwhelming majority.

REUNION FOLDER
 The Texas and Pacific has just issued a neat folder giving a complete description of the route via that line to the national reunion of the Confederate Veterans, to be held at Louisville, Ky., June 14 to 16. The Texas and Pacific announces that it will run through to Louisville without change. A special feature will be a lunch car on the train.
 The train will leave Fort Worth June 12 at 9 a. m. and arrive at Louisville June 13 at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. General Cabell and staff will go on the Texas and Pacific. The equipment of this special train will be standard Pullman sleepers, tourist Pullman sleepers, chair cars and lunch car.

COW CAUSES COSTLY SUIT
 Sam McGee Awarded $30 Animal Over R. L. Crowds in Trial Costing Over $50

To secure possession of a cow there was a lengthy court trial before Justice C. T. Rowland Thursday, which lasted throughout the entire day, and which cost twice the value of the animal in costs and witness fees, there being some thirty or forty witnesses to testify in the case. The suit was brought by R. L. Crowds against Sam McGee. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant. There were many complications in the case, one being the identification of the cow. It was decided by the jury that the only correct way to determine this was to visit the stock yards and see the cow in order to ascertain the character of brand. The jury repaired to the yards and late in the afternoon rendered its verdict.
 The animal is worth possibly $30. The costs of the suit exceed $50.

HER WEAKNESS GONE
 HOT FLASHES AND SINKING SPELLS CONQUERED AT LAST.

Mrs. Murphy Tells Her Fellow-Sufferers How She Got Rid of Serious Troubles by Simple Home Treatment.

"I had been bothered for several years," said Mrs. Murphy, "by stomach disorder, and finally I became very weak and nervous. Flashes of heat would pass over me, and I would feel as if I was sinking down. At such times I could not do any household work, but I would have to lie down, and afterwards I would have very trying nervous spells."
 "Didn't you have a doctor?" she was asked.
 "Yes, I consulted several doctors but my health did not improve. One day a friend asked me why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She assured me that they had proved of the greatest benefit in the case of her daughter. In fact, she praised them so enthusiastically that my husband got me a box."
 "And what was the result?"
 "Before I had taken half of the first box my condition was greatly improved. The quickness with which they reached and relieved all my troubles was really surprising. After I had used only three boxes I had no more heat-flashes or weak spells. Thanks to them, I have become a well woman."
 Mrs. Mary D. Murphy lives at No. 1903 Force street, Fort Wayne, Indiana. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the remedy which she found so satisfactory, furnish directly to the blood the elements that give vigor to every tissue of the body. They can be depended on to revive failing strength, and to banish nervousness. Their tonic properties are absolutely unsurpassed.
 As soon as there is drag, or dizziness, or pallor, or poor circulation, or disordered digestion, or restlessness, or pains, or irregularities of any kind these famous pills should be used. They have cured the most obstinate cases of anemia, dyspepsia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous prostration and even partial paralysis.
 If you desire information specially suited to your own case write directly to the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N.Y. Every woman should have a copy of Dr. Williams' "Plain Talks to Women," which will be mailed free to any address on request. Any drugist can supply the pills.

Women in Our Hospitals

Appalling Increase in the Number of Operations Performed Each Year—How Women May Avoid Them.

Going through the hospitals in our large cities one is surprised to find such a large proportion of the patients lying on those snow-white beds women and girls, who are either awaiting or recovering from serious operations.

Why should this be the case? Simply because they have neglected themselves. Ovarian and womb troubles are certainly on the increase among the women of this country—they creep upon them unawares, but every one of those patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, leucorrhoea, dizziness, flatulency, displacements of the womb or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb, and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation.

When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from surgical operations.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulency) general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, etc., they should remember there is one tried and true remedy.

The following letters cannot fail to bring hope to despairing women.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, 412 N. 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
 "I was in a very serious condition when I wrote to you for advice. I had a serious womb and ovarian trouble and I could not carry a child to maturity, and was advised that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I could not bear to think of going to the hospital, so wrote you for advice. I did as you instructed me and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and I am not only a well woman to-day, but have a beautiful baby girl six months old. I advise all sick and suffering women to write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Miss Ruby Mushrush, of East Chicago, Ind., writes:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
 "I have been a great sufferer with irregular menstruation and ovarian trouble, and about three months ago the doctor, after using the X-Ray on me, said I had an abscess on the ovaries and would have to have an operation. My mother wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and it not only saved me from an operation but made me entirely well."

Lydia E. P. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Louis Johns' Foot Crushed in Switch—Mack Johns Injured at Packing Plant

Louis Johns, 414 East Central Avenue, North Fort Worth, had a narrow escape from death on the Fort Worth Belt railroad Thursday, saving his life only by pulling his foot caught in a switch frog completely out of a tight fitting shoe as the train he was switching passed over the shoe, which was cut to pieces.

Johns was switching the train when his foot became caught in throwing a switch. As the train rapidly approached he grasped the end of the switch bar and exerting all his force drew his foot, badly crushed, from the shoe and fell in a faint clear of the rails. He was at once taken to his home. Fears that the foot will have to be amputated were expressed by members of the family this morning.

An accident was also suffered yesterday by Mack Johns, a brother of Louis Johns, a nail being run through his foot at the switch packing plant.

PAINT STORE FIRE

Prompt work by the fire department under Chief Capps prevented a spread of the blaze to other buildings.

LABOR BOARD MAKES REPORT

Work of Body at Austin Summarized in Document Being Printed

The report of the joint labor legislative board maintained at Austin by the railway and labor organizations has been prepared.

In it the work of the board is summarized as follows:

Laws enacted: Bill to relieve railroad employees from assuming the risk of defective equipment and appliances.

Bill to require railroads to maintain signal lights on all main line switches at night, and provide derail switches on all main line sidings on which cars are left standing.

Bill making it unlawful to pay employees in checks or merchandise scrip.

Bill taxing out of existence the "10-per-cent-a-month" money sharks who prey upon and blackmail workmen by means of assignment of future wages.

Measures Successfully Opposed: Bill to increase the poll tax.

Two so-called anti-conspiracy bills, the effect of which if passed would have been to make all labor unions unlawful.

A compulsory arbitration law fraught with grave danger to labor.

A stock report bill, which would have been exceedingly troublesome to locomotive engineers.

Measures advocated which failed to pass: Telegraphers' bill.

Compulsory school attendance bill.

Mine bill.

Experience bill, relating to railway employees.

Full crew bill, relating to railway service.

Members of the board are: E. P. Curtis, O. E. C., chairman, Smithville; Joseph S. Myers, B. of L. E., vice chairman, Fort Worth; O. E. Petty, secretary, Austin; C. D. Johnson, B. of L. E., treasurer, Temple; Walton Petzet, Texas Federation of Labor, San Antonio; H. G. Wagner, B. of R. T., Temple.

TAYLOR CASE HAS BEGUN

Prisoner Held at Beaumont on Charge of Having Swindled Banker

BEAUMONT, Texas, May 5.—The hearing has begun on the application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Charles F. Taylor, held by Nacogdoches authorities on the charge of having swindled Banker E. A. Blount out of $3,000, before Judge W. H. Pope of the district court Thursday afternoon.

The petition in which the fact is shown that three separate indictments have been secured against Taylor in Nacogdoches, the last one being quashed as defective, and the holding of Taylor on a complaint thereafter, was read.

Mr. Taylor for nearly two hours was submitted to a running fire of questions, which he answered with great deliberation. George S. King of Nacogdoches is his counsel and S. M. Adair appears for the Blount interests.

It was anticipated that Mrs. Alice Webb Duke would be present, but it was announced that she was prevented from attending as a witness on account of illness at Dallas.

The testimony related to both the indictments and the purchase of the land field tobacco plantation was started.

The hearing was adjourned at 5 o'clock to enable the counsel for Blount to get the attendance of other witnesses and Taylor was put in the custody of Sheriff T. E. Beckner of Nacogdoches county.

Taylor apparently has the utmost confidence in the outcome of the proceedings.

FOR SALE

176 acres of the best grade chocolate soil, eleven miles northwest of Dallas, on the Elm Fork of the Trinity river, within three miles of three railway stations, and one-fourth mile from a new railroad to be constructed.

30 acres in wheat, 20 acres in meadow, 17 acres in bottom, heavily timbered, the balance in rich mesquite pasture; all tillable except 2 acres; fenced and cross-fenced. Flowing well of fine artesian water, 160 feet deep, on adjoining farm; therefore this land is in the artesian belt.

On pike road and within two hours' drive of the largest city in Texas, and being on the edge of Grapevine prairie is sufficient evidence that the soil is of the best quality.

The United States government and the city of Dallas will expend ($566,000) five hundred and sixty-six thousand dollars for the improvement of the Trinity river in the vicinity of Dallas; and Dallas county will expend ($500,000) five hundred thousand dollars for the improvement of public roads; therefore it is safe to say that the value of this land will increase to $80 or $100 per acre in the next year or two.

We will sell all or part of this land at $45 per acre upon our regular contract terms, which is about 10 per cent cash, the balance on ten, fifteen or twenty-year time, based upon 5 per cent interest, payable on or before. Or will exchange for Dallas or Fort Worth city property. Immediate possession granted.
