NEGRO LABORERS PROVE A FAILURE

Have Succeeded Only in Arousing Popular Indignation and Causing Riots-White Men to Take Their Places

CHICAGO, May 6 .- An official probe of the great teamsters' strike through an inquiry into the points into controversy as well as a vigorous sifting of grave charges against the leaders of both the warring forces, was ordered today by Mayor Edward F. Dunne in a proclamation creating a commission to take evidence and to return public findings.

Three men well known to the public and numbering a prominent employer and two of Mayor Dunne's most pronounced opponents in his mayorality campaign was named to constitute the commission. They are: Graham H. Taylor, president of the Chicago Common Council; William C. Boyden, attorney, partner of Walter L. Fisher, president of the Legislature Voters' League, and T. K. Webster, president of the Chicago City Club and head of the T. K. Webster Company, manu-

"I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice though I thought surely I would die."

"After my baby came in January, 1900," writes Mrs. Nancy Abner, of St. Paul, Ark., "I suffered severely from all-sorts of aches and pains, until the following May, when I read one of your pamphlets, treating ou female diseases. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice, although I thought surely I would die, as our physician told me I was more liable to die than to get well; your fatherly advice c.used my health to be restored. I took five bottle; of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three vials of 'Pellets,' together with you other remedies, and I am now able to do all my work."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free, and so obtain without charge or fee the advice of a specialist upon diseases peculiar to women. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The invitation to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free, is not to be confused with offers of "free medical advice" made by irresponsible persons who are not physicians and are professionally and legally disqualified for the practice

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a safe and reliable remedy for the cure of womanly ills. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pier . Buffalo, N. Y.

"No. Boy," answered the captain, 'don't trust your eyes; that's mirage. But it does look so good, doesn't it, once again to see something that looks like a bush? But it's all deceit, Boy; all deceit. It's desert hereabouts for miles and miles. Why, the horse's foot leaves a track! Look behind! Here's where I found our last night's trail, this alkali spot. By this time he had and the impression still remains. This ground isn't all sand here, but-oh, can it be those are real bushes, after all? Why, Boy, then there's water near! Water! Do you hear? Look at Lucy!"

The old horse's head was up, her eyes shone, her nostrils worked, and then she whinnied as she had whinnied when she passed that way before, wiser in her instinct than the intent human being who was her master.

Then came a ground flaky with alyou were only Tige, I might hope in kall, and then a bit of rushy marsh, your scent," the captain said aloud, and then a pool of clear, dark water, "But, surely, old girl, with your legs scarce fit to drink save by wanderers deed, but after the stringy bit of jerked beef taken from the saddlebags was eaten the tense threads of the captatn's mind slackened, and he began

With one last, blissful wallow in the marsh, old Lucy was saddled, Boy was boosted to her back, and, the captain and a soldier riding double, the cavalcade rode away, brave in its numbers.

The waiting train was overtaken and greetings given, one strange young man wringing the captain's hand with effusion in the early dawn and compel-Adelaide from the dangers he fain would have spared her at the first.

And, weak and worn, Adelaide had put her tired head on his shoulder, and he had gathered her limp form to himself. When, under guard of soldiers, the shrunken train of two wagons left for Albuquerque, Adelaide stayed behind, content to be the wife of a comparative stranger and the only white woman in Zuni.

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor.

That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It en livens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it. Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation. Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

> Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

> > NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

WOMEN WHO ARE HELPING THE PROGRESS OF THE WORLD.

Pe-ru-na is Their Remedy in Sickness--Their Safeguard in Health. THE business woman finds in Peruna an ever-available remedy. While woman's social possibilities have been enlarged through a business life, at the same time, the unavoidable contact with climatic dangers incident to such a life has brought with it overwrought nerves, deranged digestion and a whole train of physical ailments. Even after exposure and disease have produced some definite derangement, a short course of Peruna is sufficient to restore the health again. These facts are well-known to the business woman. Hence the popularity of Peruna among these workers Our Testimonials. We have on file thousands of testimonials like those given here. BY MARGARET E. SANGSTER. (Copyright, 1905, by Joseph B. Bowles.) "How does it happen," said a girl the other day, "that so many homely women have handsome husbands? Dumpy little women without a bit of style, frumps who have not the least idea what to wear, women who positively could never have had any looks to boast of, are married to men of fine presence and absolute good looks. I cannot understand it." Said an older woman: "I have been thinking about the same problem. Among the girls who went to school when I did, there was one who was our belle and boast, Sally X-, a girl so brilliant that she seemed to light up a room as soon as she entered it. She was grace itself, her eyes were blue as the sky, her hair spungold, her complexion a miracle. No one could compare with her. But though she had plenty of admirers she did not marry. It seemed as if she could not find the right one, or else nobody wanted her. I have never settled that point to my satisfaction. Today she is an old maid, fat and sallow, and not at all interesting. You would not dream that she had ever
