Received Calers On 90th Birthday

Mrs. Phebe Amelia Pratt Observes 90th Anniversary of Her Birth at Her Home in Chelsea, Mass.

MRS. PRATT. Says She is in Excellent Health and Feels as Vigorous as a Girl. Due to the Use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Mrs. Phebe Amelia Pratt, widow of William Pratt, yesterday celebrated her ninety-ninth birthday anniversary at her home, 168 Broadway, Chelsea. A reception was held from two to six, during which the lady received numerous callers and was the recipient of many presents. She was assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, of Stoughton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Pratt, of Chelsea; Mrs. Eugene Pratt, of her grandchildren, Chester and William Pratt, of Chelsea, and Ida and Mabel Pratt, of Stoughton.

The reception was planned by her relatives and the members of the First Baptist Church of Chelsea, of which she is a member. During the summer Mrs. Pratt wrote: "Gentlemen—I am now almost 91 years of age and am in excellent health, owing to the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Catarrh of the throat troubled me for four years, and I tried many remedies, without any benefit, until a friend induced me to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

My general condition was very poor also until I used Duffy's, but I am very glad to state that since using this grand medicine the catarrh has left me, my general health is better than it has been for years, and I know that it has prolonged my life. I most certainly would not be without it."

This letter of Mrs. Pratt was taken at random from among thousands received from men and women who gratefully thank Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for their wonderful freedom from disease and for their marvelous old age. More are published in a booklet, which you may have free by writing, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a gentle, soothing, tonic-stimulant, which replaces the weakened, diseased tissues, tones up the nerves, strengthens the heart, makes digestion and nutrition perfect. It purifies the blood and regulates the circulation so that every organ is made to do its work perfectly and fully, keeping the whole system in vigorous health and lengthening the days far beyond the century. Every testimonial is published in good faith and guaranteed.

Like all good things, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is imitated by unscrupulous dealers. Accept the genuine but the genuine, which is guaranteed absolutely pure and without adulteration. It is sold by reliable druggists and grocers everywhere. $1.00 a bottle. You will know by the "Old Chemist" trade-mark on the label. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

For Sale by H. Brann, 108 Main Street, Fort Worth.

J. E. Farnsworth of Dallas is Elected to Higher Office

DALLAS, Texas, June 9.—It has been officially announced by the Southwestern Telephone Company that J. E. Farnsworth has been promoted from the office of general manager to that of vice president. The office of vice president was vacant by the promotion of H. J. It is not known who will succeed Mr. Farnsworth, but there is considerable talk that Assistant Manager George W. Foster will receive the appointment, though this is purely speculative, as nothing has been made public.

The Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company is a branch of the Western Telegraph and Telephone Company. The headquarters of the former is at Dallas.

RIGHT TIME TO CURE CATARRH

R. A. Anderson Guarantees Hyomel Will Cure if Used Now

The early summer when the weather becomes warm and settled is the best time of the whole year to treat catarrhal troubles with the expectation of complete and lasting relief.

Everyone who has catarrh of the head or throat should know how foolish it is to try and cure it by drugging the stomach.

Until recently your physician would have said that the only way to cure catarrh would be by a change of climate, but now with Hyomel you can carry a health-giving climate in your purse or vest pocket, and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day soon cure yourself.

Everyone who has catarrh, or even a tendency to catarrh, should use Hyomel now, for the benefit will be gained twice as quickly and the disease thoroughly eradicated from the system.

The complete Hyomel outfit costs but one dollar, and includes a neat pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper and sufficient Hyomel for several weeks' treatment. The inhaler lasts a lifetime, and if more Hyomel is needed, extra bottles can be obtained for 89 cents.

In Fort Worth there are scores of well known people who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomel. If it does not cure you, R. A. Anderson will return your money. This is the strongest evidence

FIVE COTTON MILLS TO BE BUILT IN TEXAS

Party of Eastern Capitalists to Establish Five Mills at Cost of $1,250,000

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 9.—A party of six cotton mill operators, textile experts, machinerymen, mill contractors and attorneys from Fall River, Lowell, Pawtucket and other great milling centers of Massachusetts, in charge of two Southern Pacific officials, passed through the city yesterday for points in Texas, where five cotton mills will be erected.

These New Englanders are said to represent eighty-odd mills already in active operation and to have millions of capital back of them. They are the representatives of large New England interests who are said to have read the handwriting on the wall, and are locating cotton mills in the south while it is yet time.

Three sites have already been selected in Texas—Del Rio, Marble Falls and Brenham. Two other sites will be determined by this tour of inspection.

The project for five mills involves the expenditure of $1,250,000. Each mill will cost a quarter of a million. Each will contain the most modern machinery.

After visiting Texas, the New Englanders will probably drop back by Shreveport and will visit points in the Louisiana and Mississippi cotton belt. The Texas projects are estimated to only be the beginning with these people. The personnel of the party is: Joseph W. Bailey, in charge of the Fall River Textile Schools, Fall River, Mass.; Arthur S. Phillips, lawyer, Fall River; T. Lincoln, member of the firm of Kilbourne & Co., one of the largest plants in Fall River; C. H. Seares, a mill contractor, Fall River; O. A. Robbins, machinery expert, Charlotte, N. C.; M. A. Holland, cotton mill owner, Fall River.

Colonel S. G. Grimshaw, in the service of the Southern Pacific, Del Rio, Texas, and Joseph Hellen, assistant general passenger agent, Houston, Texas.

"This," said Colonel Grimshaw, "will be one of the biggest industrial moves ever made in the southwest. We have been working on it quietly for a long time. The members of this party represent millions upon millions of dollars of investment in cotton mills, and that is their business. There is no theory about them. They know the business, and know as much about cotton as the people who raise it. Every man in this party is an expert in his line, and that line, in a general way, is cotton. I confidently believe the establishment of these five big cotton mills in Texas will mean the revolution of the industry in that state. We are going to gin our own cotton, to spin our own yarn, to operate our own mills, manufacture our own product, instead of shipping it 2,000 miles to some one else, dye it, bleach it, weave it and supply our own market with our fabrics. These men mean business."

"England has been getting 60 per cent of the cotton raised in Texas. When we get our own mills, that will be cut off, and this is the beginning. It is the greatest industrial blow England ever got in her history—the moment Texas and the cotton states begin to manufacture their own cotton products at home."

D. D. D. Prescription

Worth its weight in gold

D. D. D. remedy is worth its weight in gold. One bottle cured my little boy Francis, three years old, of a bad case of Eczema. Had tried all kinds of remedies without effect. When I got the bottle of D. D. D. of you I had no faith in it and expected the result would be as in the past and sure enough your remedies, but to my surprise one bottle made a complete cure, and also cured my hands when I had cut them and caught the Eczema from my little boy. I had tried a great many salves and washes with no success. I cheerfully recommend the D. D. D. with Eczema.

STORE BUILDING TO BE ENLARGED

Three Stories to Be Added to Property at Seventh and Main Streets

Improvements costing $40,000 and comprising the addition of three stories and general renovating of the structure will be made this fall to the building occupied by the Burton-Peel Dry Goods Company, corner Seventh and Main streets. Work on the additions will begin in September.

William Burton in making the announcement this morning, said that the improvements to the building will make it the most up-to-date store structure in the state. Plate glass windows will be placed throughout the additional stories. "Of course we will greatly enlarge our stock," said Mr. Burton. "We intend to have the best equipped and most modern store of its kind in the state."

The present 2-story building, 100x125 feet in dimensions, built of pressed yellow brick, was erected in 1898. It is part of the William James estate of this city and is valued at $125,000.

The upper floor of the building was recently remodeled, offices formerly there being moved to make room for the Burton-Peel store. The lower floor was also remodeled and a large Main street entrance installed.

CATTLE IMPROVING IN THE TERRITORY

John I. Conway, live stock agent for the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad Company, has just returned from a trip through the Indian Territory, and reports that conditions there are very much better than they were two weeks ago. There is also a very fair movement of fat cattle over other railroads out of Texas, but the bulk of the movement has already gone to market.

Mr. Conway says that the sheep movement for the present season is practically over and the consignments have been very satisfactory this year. The wool clip this season has been fine and the output sold at high prices, most of it going to Boston. There is also a very fair movement of fat cattle over other railroads out of Texas, but the bulk of the movement has already gone to market.

BUILDING INTERURBAN LINES

The success of the interurban lines already in operation in this state between Fort Worth and Dallas, Denison and Sherman and Temple and Belton seems to be acting as a great stimulus in the promotion of other lines of the same character.

In some states the competition of these electric lines is becoming so keenly felt that the railroads are equipping themselves with electric and gasoline motor equipment in order to compete with them.

Whether this is true or not, it is already clear that the interurban lines already constructed in this state have not only proven a great convenience to the public, but they are earning good money on the investment.

Fort Worth has found its present interurban line one of its greatest conveniences, and it is for that identical reason that sentiment is now so strong in favor of the line to Mineral Wells.

ANOTHER FORT WORTH PLUM

The selection of Fort Worth as the state headquarters of the Texas grain dealers is but the natural result of appreciation of Fort Worth's many advantages and the eternal fitness of things.

And grain is beginning to be a great product of the Panhandle section of Texas. While it is true that the production of wheat in that section has received some rather severe setbacks, yet with a favorable season, it is a well known fact that Panhandle soil produces enormous crops.

The race for governor of Georgia is to be between Clark Howell of the Atlanta Constitution and Hoke Smith, formerly of the Atlanta Journal. The plan of campaign seems to be to force Howell to the front as the corporation candidate, and if it succeeds defeat is ahead of him.

Those Chicago strikers seem to be in identically the same position as the czar of all the Russias. They have been licked to a standstill, but do not know when they have had enough.

If Fort Worth has been left out of the Texas racing circuit, why is it? There are some good horses in and around Fort Worth and a whole lot of people who are loyal patrons of the turf.

It begins to look like the Big Stick is going to wield a potent influence in settling the existing trouble between Japan and Russia.

might with equal propriety follow the example of the cattlemen, grain men and others in establishing their state headquarters in this city. The Farmers' Union is a great big organization whose headquarters should come here, and The Telegram but voices public sentiment when it repeats the invitation that has already been extended.

Governor Vardaman has declined the tender of $50,000 from Andrew Carnegie for a library for the Mississippi University, conditioned upon the people of the state raising and contributing a like amount. He says the state of Mississippi is not a mendicant, and is amply able to buy and pay for its own library.

Next week the old Confederates will meet in annual reunion in the city of Louisville, and the old heroes are looking forward to the event with almost childish impatience and expectancy. Every year these meetings grow smaller, from the fact that the battle-scarred veterans are steadily answering the last roll call, but there are still enough of them to make a good showing.

Late advices from St. Petersburg indicate that Russia will not be ready to consider the matter of peace until after there is another big fight pulled off in Manchuria, and this fact only serves to demonstrate that the Russian war party is dying very hard. Thousands more of men and treasure are to be ruthlessly sacrificed for the simple reason that a few men still think that Russian honor has not been appeased.

The bond of union between Norway and Sweden has been dissolved by the withdrawal of Norway. There are some whispers of a new northern republic to be born, but that idea will no doubt be promptly knocked into a cocked hat by the crowned heads of Europe.

The Chicago strike is one of the things that should be promptly brought to a close. There has been a reign of terror long enough in that city, which claims to be the second city of the United States in point of population and commercial importance.

Commissioner Garfield has expressed his willingness to rewrite any portion of that celebrated beef trust report that is shown to be wrong, and in that event he might just as well begin to fix up a new report altogether. In this connection it will not be out of place to state that the cattlemen of the country ascribe no ulterior motives to Commissioner Garfield.

Those Russian battered hulks that took refuge at Manila have found that they did not cast anchor in French waters. They were given the alternative of moving in within twenty-four hours or disarming, and of course they despaired. There was too strong a probability of Japanese warships hovering in that vicinity to take any chances on moving on.

The beef trust inquiry has been resumed in Chicago, and the talk is now that the command has come from Washington that indictments must be returned in every case in which there is a probability of making them stick. It is reported that about thirty have already been agreed upon. Perhaps Commissioner Garfield is getting ready to modify that report.

The oil poured on the stagnant waters of North Fort Worth seems to prove a valuable adjunct toward the enforcement of the county stock law. It is reported that several cows have died from drinking the water on which the oil had been placed, but this is problematical.

A STORY OF AMBASSADE PRATT

For hours I slept, it seemed to me, then I awoke with a start, experiencing that strange, intense sense of consciousness which all old campaigners feel when all is not right. I listened with every nerve tension, but the silence was deadly and the dark profound. And yet I felt, I knew, that I was not alone in the room.

I noiselessly slipped my hand out to find my rapier, which I had left standing unheeded beside the bed. To my horror it was gone. I almost cried out at the sight, and then for moments which seemed hours I lay thinking, waiting, gathering myself together, straining my muscles to make a spring when the moment came.

Suddenly a drop of water splashed upon my forehead. I felt it distinctly, and to make sure, put up my hand. Yes, my hand was wet. The strain became too much for me. Uttering a hoarse cry I struck out, and the horror of it! My brutal hand, unaided, soft, yielding, fish—the flesh of a woman.

I heard a low groan and a soft body sank fainting into my arms. Half beside myself I sprang up, and laying her gently on the bed struck a light. It seemed hours before I could get the wretched dip to burn, but at last it flamed.

There, across the coverlid, lay Clarisse, still as marble, her eyes closed, her face pale as death, and her hand struck for a dreadful moment I thought her really dead, and my heart stood still. But soon she moved and gave a little moan.

I sprang toward her and covered her with frantic kisses, bitterly cursing myself and muttering to myself as I jumped to my feet a brute I felt! And she, recovering at last, glanced up at me with a tender smile.

"Oh, say you are not hurt," I muttered, weak tears running down my cheeks. "Ah, God! to think that I have struck you!"

But the woman shone out in Clarisse then as never before, who was most often the child. She took my hand in her hands and I felt beside her forehead, and she kissed me on the forehead. "Yes, dear," she whispered, "you hurt me, it pains me a little yet, but I love the pain since you have caused it." Then she laughed merrily. "Did you think me a robber?"

"I should have known it was you," I groaned. "I could not sleep without your kiss," she muttered reproachfully. "Oh, monsieur, you were asleep."

"You were speaking to me, dear," I said, something of my anger returning, but she stopped me with a kiss. "It was you who was wrong," she said. "You ordered me when you should have entreated; you threatened me when you should have implored. Am I not a woman?"

"Then, Clarisse," I cried, "I entreat you now; for God's sake, dear, never make me jealous again, it is torture."

"I'm getting dressed for the morning," she said, "and I'm not one bit sleepy."

"No, dear, I'm not," she said. "Because I can't catch cold when I'm quite dressed, can I, monsieur—Caryl? And I'm not one bit sleepy."

CHAPTER IX. MY FIRST DAY AT ST. CLOUD. When we were within a few miles of our destination, Lieutenant Lablache sent a soldier forward to announce our advance, and we found on entering the gardens of the court, a guard of honor these friends, after so many years of separation, was a happy one.

GONZALES COUNTY CATTLE. J. A. Stewart was on the cattle market with a shipment from Gonzales county, and says that in that section have practically all been marketed, nothing of any consequence yet to be shipped with the exception of calves.

TEXAS CATTLE QUARANTINED. COLUMBUS, O., June 9.—A carload of steers from the grazing lands of Texas and shipped direct to a local packing firm via St. Louis, was ordered quarantined by City Marshal E. B. Fisher. The purpose of the quarantine is to prevent the possibility of Texas fever spreading to other cattle.

WEST TEXAS CATTLE. Secretary C. M. Hobbs of the National Land and Cattle Company of El Paso county has just returned from the south with a carload of two-year-old high bred Galloway steers.

drawn up to receive us. Clarisse, during the latter part of our journey, hourly grew more concerned for my safety. As yet I had not thought fit to disclose to her more than a small part of my intentions, and she came to marvel at my cheerfulness and to plan in her childish way all manner of expeditions whereby, as soon as possible, I might escape France and return to England.

I scarce gave that matter a thought, being well content—like a proper man—to enjoy the good of each day and not go out of my way to borrow trouble from the morrow. In any case I had no intention of quitting France without the maid I did love. I swore to that, but I did not tell her so.

We arrived at St. Cloud about 11 o'clock in the forenoon. Savary, master of the household, attired in a brilliant court uniform, strode down the steps, and opening our carriage door himself, assisted Clarisse to alight. Ever so excited and expecting faces peered at us, and we could judge how much importance the emperor must attach to our visit from the manner of his servants.

Savary paid us many florid compliments and asked us to give him a list of names of servants, who stood at the salute, tricked out in gorgeous livery.

I had previously determined upon my course of action, and in the role of a prince of the blood I bore myself with a manner of arrogant indifference. I answered Savary's remarks with haughty courtesy, allowing him to perceive that I considered it a condescension to converse with him at all.

The reception room we found to be choked with ladies, but on a clean space in the center stood a stately woman, tall and elegantly robed, alone. I noticed that her cheeks were painted, and that her eyes were beautiful, being large, brown and lustrous, and even to foreign lands. Why couldn't a cotton mill do as well or even better? The wool has to be shipped in here from Abilene and San Angelo and other points. But the cotton is right here on our streets—no shipping is required. A cotton mill with adequate capital for operating and with good management would be a profitable investment and a great help to the town.—Waco Times-Herald.

It looks very strange that Texas cities like Fort Worth, Waco, Austin and others within the great cotton belt of the state, would sit idly by and see big cotton mills go to Del Rio and Marble Falls. Those big mills should come within the cotton belt, and the cities and towns in that territory should get up and go after them.

QUAKER REFLECTIONS. Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise. The automobile is at its best when it is tired. A girl's heart isn't in the right place if she wears it on her sleeve.

GLEANINGS FROM EXCHANGES

That Bonaparte who is to be secretary of the navy, while a grand-nephew of the Emperor Napoleon, the little Corsican, is a great Baltimorean.—Texarkana Texarkanian.

People are wondering why the Baltimore man was appointed secretary of the navy, and it is believed that as Tarft is the fleshy man of the administration, the city of Baltimore has simply been called upon to furnish the bony part.

"The populist party will not attempt the impossible," says Tom Watson; but will it try the probable?—Houston Chronicle.

The populist party has been attempting the impossible ever since it was organized. The probable has already overtaken it.

The prospects are fair for an interurban electric line of railroad between Fort Worth and Mineral Wells. It is expected the line will be completed by fall. It is to be built by Louisiana capitalists.—Wichita Falls Herald.

The general opinion is that the interurban line between this city and Mineral Wells will be speedily built. There is bonus enough in sight to insure the construction of the road.

Mineral Wells people and the public generally are pleased with the new train service over the Texas and Pacific and Weatherford, Mineral Wells and Northwestern roads. The new train is composed of a combination baggage and express car, smoker and chair car of the latest pattern.—Mineral Wells Index.

The Texas and Pacific people have done a great deal for Mineral Wells since they acquired the line into that city, and the new train service is but in keeping with the progressive policy of the road.

Governor Lanham is now a doctor of laws. If he had been a doctor of laws a few weeks ago he might have doctored that new election law after it had been wounded by the enrolling clerk.—Houston Post.

No one will deny that the state of Texas needs a governor who is a doctor of laws after its experience with the last state legislature.

Now let's have the Future over a year ago on the amount of beer consumed in the Panther City and we'll be better prepared to say whether it surprised us or not.—Beaumont Journal.

Fort Worth drinks pure artesian water in unlimited quantities, and only keeps beer on tap for thirsty visitors who have conscientious scruples against the use of water as a beverage.

The state of Texas is still issuing warrants, but she isn't paying them. The state of Texas should have had a special session of the legislature over a year ago to have provided for the payment of its obligations.—Sherman Register.

The state of Texas is paying off warrants as fast as the money is accumulated to do so. The state never fails to pay when means are provided for the purpose.

Fort Worth citizens are making strenuous efforts to boost the Panther city as never before. Dallas must look to her laurels or she will soon be left at the three-quarter post. Nothing like getting up and doing.—San Angelo Standard.

Fort Worth is growing very fast these days, and our people are doing some good work along the line of future development. There is no reason why Fort Worth should not be the largest city in Texas within the next five years.

Widower who prided himself on being a person who never wasted an unnecessary word learned that there was a maiden lady living over in an adjoining county who was smart, 20 and had managed to accumulate a considerable amount of good and charitable. He also learned that she was an excellent housekeeper, and it occurred to him that she was just the sort of a female he was looking for to take the place of his departed companion. He accordingly hitched up one day his buggy and drove over to where the maiden lady lived. He rang the door bell and when she came to the door he said: "My name is Abram Smelser. I live over in the adjoining county and I need a wife. From what you can learn you will suit me to a dot. I am here to offer myself to you as a husband. I am strictly a man of business and will give you five minutes to make up your mind."

The maiden lady looked him over and then remarked: "I am a woman of business. I don't want to take five minutes to make up my mind. I will give you just ten seconds to get outside of the yard. If by the end of that time you haven't shut the gate from the outside, my dog won't leave enough clothes on you to dress a woman in a state of decency. Moral: There are cases where it does not pay to be too blamed hasty."

HE NEVER SPOKE AGAIN. Henry E. Dixey has a story of a vaudeville ventriloquist who had a talking dog. One evening the ventriloquist, decidedly on his uppers, sauntered into a light lunch cafe, followed by his dog. When the waiter came for the bill, he saw the ventriloquist turned to the dog with the query: "Well, Jack, what are you going to have?"

"I guess I'll take a roast beef sandwich," answered the ventriloquist. "The waiter gazed at the dog for an instant, and then hurried to the proprietor. "Say," he cried wildly, "there's a dog over there that can talk."

The proprietor dashed over to the table. "This waiter says your dog can talk," he said. "Is it so?" "Certainly," answered the ventriloquist. "Can't you talk, Jack?" "Of course I can talk!" replied the dog.

"That animal would make my fortune in six months," said the proprietor. "I'll give you a hundred dollars for him." "Oh, please don't sell me!" pleaded the dog.

"I'm afraid I can't help it, old fellow," said the ventriloquist. "You'll be well taken care of here, and besides I need the money."

The proprietor disappeared for a minute, and returned with a roll of bills, which he placed in the ventriloquist's hand. The ventriloquist rose from the table and walked toward the door. The dog was held in the strong grasp of the proprietor's hands.

"Did you really sell me?" inquired the dog, as the ventriloquist opened the door. "Yes, Jack, I sold you for a hundred dollars." "Well, just for that," answered the animal. "I'll never say another word."

HE PASSED IT UP. A story is told of the janitor of a western school house who gave up his job because he confessed that the days later when he had deliberately impugned his honesty. The resignation and the reason given for it came as a surprise to the school board and they asked him to explain.

$10 Brings a Piano To Your Home

A $325.00 HOFFMAN PIANO FOR $262.00
IMMEDIATE DELIVERY OF PIANO ON FIRST PAYMENT—ONLY $1.50 PER WEEK THEREAFTER

Our piano club opened Monday, May 29. Thirteen of the first car of sixteen already sold and delivered. Three on the floor. Second car expected daily. The Hoffman piano offered in this club is an upright, four feet nine inches high (which is very large), cased in either oak or mahogany, seven and a third octaves and an action and scale that makes the piano play in a cooperative manner—clear voice and rather brilliant for the instrumentalist—in a word, a thoroughly well-known $325 for $262. A piano is possible to any family or employed young man or woman by means of this club plan.

Buying sixty pianos at one time lessens the expense of selling and justifies our naming an unusually low price. And the opportunity is still more enhanced by means of the accommodation payment plan.

The advantage of a piano club is this: It concentrates attention on one thing and rivets a large share of the selling for the time being to that one thing, so it justifies us in buying sixty of a model at one time for instant cash—no inventory in pianos brings the utmost economy. This economy and the lessened expense of selling, by having you come in and buy on the floor, justifies our naming an unusually low price. In a word, a Ross & Heyer piano club is a cooperative merchandise plan of the highest type, profitable to us through large selling and lessened expense; profitable to the club members through very easy terms and at very much lessened price.

No soliciting on the outside; you will have to come in to get this special offer.

GRAIN HEADQUARTERS

Office Location Has Not Been Secured by Organization

It has not yet been decided where the general offices of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association are to be located in this city, but the matter will be given consideration by local representatives of the association.

There is some doubt as to whether the secretary, H. B. Dorsey, who was re-elected at the late meeting held here, will remove to Fort Worth. This will be necessary under a resolution adopted by the association, which compels the secretary to be located at the headquarters of the association. If Mr. Dorsey should refuse to finally remove to this city it will be necessary for the association to appoint his successor. The salary was increased from $1,200 to $1,800 a year in order that the secretary might be able to devote his entire time to the business of the association.

Schools Closing

Closing exercises of St. Andrew's school were held this morning. Pupils, teachers and parents assembled in the school study hall, where an interesting program was carried out. The hall was decorated with palms and flowers.

ME TOO

The "Tail Enders" That Follow Genuine Articles
It is sometimes interesting to watch the curio imitators who try to get the public to buy imitations of genuine goods.

Every now and then some one will think there is a splendid opening to fix up something like Postum Coffee and advertise the same way and take some of the business.

An imitator is naturally ignorant of food values and how to skillfully make a cereal coffee, on scientific lines. Each man who thinks of preparing something that looks and tastes like the original, with no knowledge of how the grains should be treated to prepare them so that the starchy part is transformed properly and the valuable nourishing elements made digestible.

Such imitations may be foisted on the public for a short time, but the people are critical and soon detect the attempt, then the imitators go out of business.

Something like 400 of these little factories have been started in various parts of this country in the past 9 years, and practically all of them have gone the "long journey." Just lately a new one has come to life and evidently hopes to insert itself in public favor by copying the style of the Postum advertising in the papers.

This is a free country and every man who makes an honest product and honestly labels it, has a reason for some recognition, but the public has the right to know the facts.

Postum is the one original and genuine Cereal Coffee, made skillfully and for a definite purpose. It has stood through all the wars of the imitators, has won the approval of the Physicians and the people.

People who really seek to free themselves from the coffee habit and at the same time to rebuild the soft gray matter in the nerve centres and broken down the nervous system, broken down by coffee, can rely on Postum. There's a reason.

GOOD-BYE MOSQUITO

City Physician to Begin Campaign with Beaumont Oil

Oil as a means of exterminating mosquitoes by pouring it on ponds and pools of stagnant water will be adopted by City Physician Barber.

Health officers will this week inspect and report to Dr. Barber all these breeding places of mosquitoes, and then the Beaumont oil will be spread on their surfaces.

"Approach of hot weather is rapidly increasing the mosquitoes," said Dr. Barber this morning. "They carry malaria in their bite. In a few days I hope to get at these mosquito hatching with plenty of oil. In places where it is possible the ponds will be drained. At any rate, I shall endeavor in every way to make it as lively as possible for the Fort Worth 'skeeter'."

"For seven years," writes George W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold by W. J. ### PROPERTY OF SCOBLE ESTATE TO BE OCCUPIED BY H. BRANN

Another step in the improvement of Main street business houses will be taken Saturday morning, when the official opening of H. Brann & Co. in their new building at Fourteenth and Main streets will be held.

The upper floor of the new building is used for the storage of flask, jug and case whisky. On the main floor, the northeastern part of the building is devoted to the shipping and wholesale departments for cigars and tobacco. The central portion is used for the wholesale whisky department. On the right of the building are arranged the shelving, bar and counters, while on the opposite side is a large array of barreled whisky. The building is well lighted throughout and well adapted for its purpose.

Mr. Brann came to Texas from Missouri in 1888 and established a liquor house at 108 Main street, and a few months later opened a branch on the site of the present building. Later he transferred his business to that site. His establishment, he says, is the only one having both a wholesale and retail license. He also makes a distinction between a saloon and a liquor house, having no cigars, wine rooms or other usual accompaniments of the former, his boast being that his business is conducted as a grocery, shoe or other store.

Mr. Brann, in discussing the success of his business this morning, said: "In conducting liquor houses ever since 1882, I may state with a certain amount of pride that I have never taken a drink of whisky, never smoked or chewed tobacco nor do I ever accept a treat from anyone. I believe a business man should be perfectly sober to be able to transact business."

"I do not promote drinking, in fact, I have persuaded many a young man to abstain from strong drink, nor will I serve any person under the influence of liquor, and I fear that were I not engaged in the liquor business I would be considered one of the rank and file prohibitionists of the country."

SKIN DISEASES SPEAK FOR THE BLOOD

Skin Diseases speak for the blood and tell of the acid-laden, poisonous condition of that vital fluid, and of its effort to throw off and rid the system of the poisons and waste matters that have accumulated in it. Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Boils and diseases of this type are all caused by a weakened and polluted blood circulation, and through they may have lain dormant in the system during the cold weather, at the coming of Spring and Summer, when the blood is reacting and making extra efforts to expel all morbid and poisonous matter, they make their appearance. External remedies cannot cure; they soothe and give temporary relief, but often clog the pores and glands, and the poison causing the trouble is thus shut up in the system to break out afresh later on. S. S. S., a purely vegetable blood remedy, cures all skin diseases by going down into the circulation, driving out all poisons and waste matters, strengthening the blood, leaving the skin soft and smooth, and building up the entire system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. cures Nettle Rash, Poison Oak and all skin diseases that enter the system through the pores and glands, as well as those that have their origin in the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.

It isn't often spectators at the automobile races see a private car backed up near the grounds, loaded with racing machines. But that is the way Colonel E. H. R. Green, son of Hetty Green, does the thing up. In a big private car, fitted up as a machine shop, he carries eight racing automobiles. The car is sidetracked at the nearest possible point to the race track, and the machines are backed down an inclined plane and taken to the track. Colonel Green's outfit has attracted a great deal of attention on the racing circuit and emphasizes the fact that when a multi-millionaire goes in for sport he gets in up to his neck.

MCGINNITY GOES HOME

SOUTH McALESTER, I. T., June 9.—Joe McGinnity, the famous New York pitcher, who is a resident of this city, is coming home on a vacation and will pitch for the local team against Fort Scott, Kan., on June 15. On June 17 McGinnity will pitch for the visitors against the locals. The locals are to be organized into a night class and McGinnity will deliver general lectures on the national game on Sunday, June 18. Excursion trains will be run to this city to enable all who wish to see McGinnity pitch a national game as pitched in the east.

JOCKEY HILDEBRAND

NEW YORK, June 9.—Jockey Hildebrand, who established a new record for winning mounts last season, will be allowed, it is understood, to resume riding when the meeting at Sheepshead Bay opens one week from today. Hildebrand was suspended recently for the remainder of the season because of his handling of H. P. Whitney's Duenna in a race won by a heavily backed filly named Last Cherry.

Thorough investigation followed reference of the case to the jockey club and it is now said the lad has been practically exonerated of any wrongdoing.

TORTURE OF A PREACHER

The story of the torture of Rev. O. B. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from bronchitis. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough and saved me from consumption. I cured my disease, and my condition is now such that I can sleep in bed. At W. J. Fisher's Pharmacy and M. S. Blanton's Drug Store, price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

WACO LOSES TO GIANTS

DALLAS, Texas, June 9.—By strong playing, including batting and fielding, Dallas took the game from Waco Thursday by a score of 8 to 2.

Ury and Blumling lead in Dallas' stick work. Both pitchers did good work, but the Dallas box artist was the steadiest throughout.

BUILT UP HER HEALTH
SPEEDY CURE OF MISS GOODE

She is Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Writes Gratefully to Mrs. Pinkham.

For the wonderful help that she has found Miss Cora Goode, 355 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill., believes it her duty to write the following letter for publication, in order that other women afflicted in the same way may be benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I tried many different remedies to try to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to get out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. Address, Lynn, Mass.

WILL BE KNOWN SOON

American Ambassador Has Secret Conversation at St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9.—Ambassador Meyer was in constant communication with Washington this morning. He received a long cipher dispatch and soon afterward hurried to the foreign office, where he had a half hour earnest conversation with Foreign Minister Lamsdorff in regard to the information transmitted to him.

Extreme reticence continues to be manifested, but it is apparent that the great announcement which the world is waiting will not be made from here or from Tokio, but from Washington. It is not likely to be delayed beyond Monday at the latest. No hitch occurred and the outlook continues favorable to peace.

Then her skin started to dry up and it became so bad she could not shut her eyes to sleep. One month's treatment with Cuticura Soap and Ointment made a complete cure. Doctors and medicines had cost over $100, with baby growing worse. Then we spent less than $5 for Cuticura and cured her. (signed) Mrs. G. H. Tucker, Jr., 125 Greenfield Ave., Milwaukee, Wis."

sociated Press that exchanges of negotiations would not occur either at Washington or at any European capital, but upon the battlefield in Manchuria. "Both Russia and Japan desire to conduct the negotiations direct," said the ambassador. "Where is there a better place than Manchuria, which, beyond the sphere of outside influence, is practically neutral territory and in direct communication with the respective capitals. Linevitch and Oyama are confronting each other upon the field where they fought and could arrange preliminaries. Once the main principles as to the indemnity statutes, Sakhalin and Vladivostok, and the question of Russian ships in neutral waters in the Far East are adjusted, all other questions will easily be settled."

By the same token no other Fort Worth store equals either the variety or price littleness that characterizes this showing.

Man Relieved of $200 by Grafter's Thursday

Frank Morgan of Sherman has reported to police headquarters that he was robbed of $200 by means of a bunco game worked Thursday night under the Hattie street bridge in this city. Detectives have made two arrests in the case and are making an investigation.

Morgan says that he arrived in the city Thursday, en route to California. He was induced by two men, according to his story, to the southeast part of town. Arriving at the bridge mentioned the men sat down and began to pretend to gamble. At this point a third party arrived on the scene and alleging to be an officer, put all three under arrest. Morgan says the fake officer searched him, securing the $200, then all three fled.

REPORT APPROVES UNIVERSITY PLANS

Issuance of Bonds to Amount of Fifty Thousand Will Be Authorized

J. E. Mitchell of the board of trustees of Fort Worth University has received a report and communication from Bishop Walden, chairman of the general board of the Freedmen's A. E. and Educational Society, which assure the securing of funds asked for the improvement of Fort Worth University.

The report announces that the executive committee which met in Cincinnati June 2 unanimously adopted a recommendation to the board which meets July 2 that provision be made for the university to issue $50,000 in bonds which may be expended on permanent improvements on the campus. The communication of Bishop Walden assures the trustees of the adoption of this report, provided it is thought to be the most practical plan by them and the friends of the institution. Inasmuch as the plan is that urged by the committee who visited Cincinnati, it meets the entire wishes of the trustees, according to their announcement this morning.
