STRIKERS TO VOTE ON ENDING LOCKOUT

Rank and File of Chicago Teamsters Will Be Given Chance to Decide

CHICAGO, June 24.—The "rank and file" of the striking teamsters will today be given an opportunity to say whether the strike will continue or whether it will be called off and the men take their chances of getting employment.

At a meeting of the Teamsters' Joint Council it has been decided to submit to the men on strike the latest peace terms received from the employers.

The three principal clauses in the proposition which the strikers will accept are as follows:

The elimination of the express drivers from the strike settlement.

The maintaining of police and armed guards on the wagons after the strike is called off.

The right to wear a union button.

It is said that the employers are inclined to take back a big percentage of their old teamsters but it must be on terms dictated by them and unless the teamsters surrender unconditional-ly the fight will go on.

Special meetings of the different locals involved will be called during the coming week for the purpose of taking a referendum vote.

WHAT WILL THE SAFETY RECORD BE?

EXPERT DISCUSSES RAILWAY CONTROL

James Dalrymple of Glasgow Says Government Management Is Feasible

BOSTON, June 24.—James Dalrymple, the Glasgow railroad expert, who, at the invitation of Mayor Edward Dunne of Chicago, came to this country to advise him as to the feasibility of the municipal ownership of the street rail-ways there, before sailing on the Saxonian, discussed the railway condi-tions, with reference to municipal ownership, and gave some of his con-clusions.

Mr. Dalrymple has been quoted as declaring that the municipal own-ership of railways in this country is im-possible because of the danger of building great political machines. Mr. Dalrymple has killed that fiction. He never said anything of the kind—so he emphatically declared.

While he has not yet made known as Mayor Dunne his final conclusions as a result of his examination of the rail-ways of Chicago and other American cities, some of the conclusions that will be incorporated in his report, which he will write on his homeward voyage, are these:

First.—That the municipal own-ership of railways in this country is not only feasible, but advisable.

Second.—That this presupposes that they will be run upon a purely busi-ness basis, and that they will have no connection with politics.

Third.—That he never said that mu-nicipal ownership was impossible here, because it would serve to build up powerful political machines.

Fourth.—That he knows, but very little about "great political ma-chines." He never said anything of the kind—so he emphatically declared.

DEATH COMES TO PIONEER CITIZEN

J. I. Mulkey Expires at Home on Leuda Street After Long Illness

JAMES I. MULKEY, 43 years of age and one of Fort Worth's pioneer citizens, died at his home, 109 West Leuda street, at 5 o'clock this morning. Mr. Mulkey's health had been failing for a year or more and he gradually grew worse, having been confined to his bed for the last few weeks.

Funeral services will be held at the Mulkey Memorial church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. A. Whitcomb, assisted by Rev. R. C. Armstrong, will conduct the services.

James Mulkey was a son of S. H. Mulkey of this city, who survives him, and a nephew of George and Abe Mulkey of this city.

He is also survived by a widow and a daughter and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. L. J. Thomason, Mrs. George C. Ward, Mrs. C. R. Field, Mrs. J. M. Burman and Mrs. J. T. Graves, all of this city; W. G. Mulkey of Quanah, P. T. Mulkey, J. B. Mulkey and Frank Mulkey of this city.

Mr. Mulkey has been a member of the board of stewards of the Mulkey Memorial church for the last ten years. Members of the board will act as pallbearers.

He was also a member of the W. O. W., which order will participate in the funeral services.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The com-mittee appointed by President Roose-velt to inquire into the methods used in the transaction of public business is finding many foolish practices. Among other discoveries it has found the prize-maker of records over in the department of agriculture. His name is withheld, although he is entitled to rank with "William the Silent" of Orange as a man of few words.

This man is chief of a small division under Secretary Wilson. Spoken lan-guage, it seems, is not for him in his official communications. When he wants to ask a clerk in his division anything it must be written.

One of the tales told of him is that he called a stenographer and dictated a letter inquiring of a man in another room, whose desk is near a thermom-eter, how hot it was.

This chief calls his stenographer on every possible occasion. He never uses the telephone on his desk to ask a subordinate a question. He asks many questions, but they are always written.

In order to get an idea of how soon a report might be expected from a clerk in the adjoining room the follow-ing is cited as an illustration:

This chief called a messenger, who sent him a stenographer from another room. To the stenographer he dic-tated the question he had in mind; the stenographer took it in potbooks, transcribed them and then handed the note to the chief.

The latter then called the messenger again, and in that way got at the clerk from whom he wanted the infor-mation.

It is a rule of the office that replies must be written so as to embody the question which is to be answered. The clerk answered the note by saying that in answer to the inquiry he had the honor to report as follows: "Tomor-row."

The committee has found that in the treasury there are rules prescribing exactly how letter age to be written. The last phrase before the beginning of the answer is "as follows."

In ordinary English "as follows" is followed with a colon. The treasury rules of composition, however, require a period to be used after that word. Letters not so written are sent back for correction.

President Roosevelt referred in his instructions to the committee to the "paper work" which officers of the army had to do. General Mackenzie has recently had an example of that. Before a young officer in Maine could get two thermometers required in his work his requisition had to have the endorsements of 23 officers. But that was only half the trip of that requisition. It had to go back presumably by the same route.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24.—So-ciety here is interested in the rumor that General Nelson A. Miles is about to an-nounce his engagement to Mrs. Rush Shippen Huidkoper, widow of Dr. Huidkoper of Philadelphia. The general has been very attentive to her all winter and when Mrs. Huidkoper sailed for Europe a few days ago he was on hand to wave her farewell and had his stateroom loaded with flowers and bouquets.

Mrs. Reha, the general's only daughter, lives in Washington. She is said to be opposed to her father's marriage. It is stated that Mrs. Huidkoper has gone to Europe.

East Texas, South—Tonight and Sunday, thunderstorms, fresh easterly winds on coast.

Arkansas—Tonight, partly cloudy weather; Sunday scattered showers and thunderstorms.

CHAMPION LETTER WRITER IS FOUND

Wrote to Man in the Next Room to Find Out How Hot It Was

GIVES EVIDENCE AGAINST STANDARD

Former St. Louis Employee Testifies as to Relations With Waters-Pierce Company

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—The testimony at yesterday session of the hearing before Special Commissioner Anthony of the suit instituted in the state supreme court by Attorney General Harley of Missouri to revoke the charters of the Standard Oil Company, the Waters-Pierce Company and the Republic Oil Company, tended to show the close relations existing between the Standard and Waters-Pierce.

George N. Hendricks testified that from 1880 to 1904 he was an employe of the Waters-Pierce Company. He stated that the traveling auditor of the Standard previous to 1900 audited the books of the Waters-Pierce Company in St. Louis and that since that time the books were audited by a man named Backus, who, the witness de-clared, he knew was employed by the Standard Company.

Mr. Hendricks also testified that Missouri was divided into two sections by the Standard and Waters-Pierce companies and that when an order was received by the Waters-Pierce concern for a customer in the Standard's territory it was sent to the nearest Standard Oil agency.

NEW YORK, June 24.—On a special mission for the state department, for which he was commissioned by President Roosevelt, Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state, sailed for Southam-pton today on the steamer Philadelphia.

Concerning the mission, Mr. Loomis only said: "I am not only going as a special ambassador to receive Paul Jones' body, but also have been commissioned by the president to perform a secret mission for the state department while abroad. I must decline positively to state what my mission is."

"Has anything to do with peace?" he was asked.

"I can say nothing," was the reply.

Mr. Loomis said he expected the secret mission would prevent him from returning with the warship squadron, which will be cutting open a number of plums if he expected to, but he hoped to return in about a month.

Mr. Loomis added that the exercises at- tending the departure of the body will be held July 7 or 8, in the American church at Paris.

General Horace Porter, retiring ambas- sador to France, Mr. Loomis said, spent a large amount of his own funds in the search and the identification of the body, and he has not been reimbursed by the United States government.

NEW YORK, June 23.—In order to catch the steamship Etruria, which is held four hours overtime in New York at the request of the United States postoffice department, sixteen sealed sacks of mail, originating in San Francisco and bound for the continent, so as to make up two days lost through a delay in the Ventura at San Francisco. There is no obligation of the present United States postal authority or the railroads which carry the mail to make up these two days, and it is the last chautauistic toward Germany in the last few years, corresponding with the wanting influence of the nationalist-clerical mili-tary combination in French politics, some anxiety still prevails in Berlin lest the leaders of the opposition to the French government again succeed in inflaming the passions of the people and arousing a storm which republicans leaders will be unable to withstand.

KAUFMAN CO. ANNOUNCES HIS PLATFORM EARLY

TREBLE, Texas, June 24.—Captain H. W. Wade of Kaufman, well known to the citizenship of Kaufman county, will offer himself as a candidate for governor at the coming election. In an interview with the Telegram, Captain Wade announced his candidacy and outlined his policy as follows: "Yes, I will likely be in the race for governor in 1906. Having served the people in constitutional convention of 1875, the next highest position that of governor, I would be very proud indeed of the distinguished honor of that place. I shall therefore be before the people of the great state of Texas for governor in 1906."

"What of your party and policies?" "Having always been a democrat, I shall submit to the action of that party, though I believe an executive officer should not be very partisan in the discharge of his official duties. I shall be in favor of a square deal to all classes and parties strictly opposed to all grafting, ring-lashing and personal lobbying before the legislature or its committees. The right of petition on paper for the redress of grievances is guaranteed by the constitution of the United States. "As to the policies of administration, will say that the legislature should pass an appropriation bill for the current expenses of the state without an extra session and by enactment reduce the force and expenditures of the state departments to efficient, economical administration. I also favor the eight-hour labor law on all public works. "I shall advocate the adoption by the state of the dispensary system for the control of the whisky traffic, the relief of the courts of the vast accumulation of cases under our present system and the corrupting tendencies with other evils connected with the traffic and the attempted prohibition of sale. "I will also favor the state doing all the insurance business, both life and fire, except fraternal. "I will advocate the levying of a graduated income tax by the state on all corporations except municipal and charitable. The last two measures will keep down the deficit in the treasury, and the dispensary system, besides paying its way, will furnish a good revenue to be applied to the distributive school fund. "I would suggest that the people require candidates for legislative honors to pledge themselves to the enactment of such measures as they favor before the election, and if the declaration shall be made by the people through the party for the ownership of all public utilities, I shall say 'amen.'"

PREACHER SAYS HE HEARD GOD'S VOICE

Story of Personal Experience Rouses Colleagues to Shouts of 'Amen'. NEW YORK, June 24.—The Rev. Frank A. Schofield, pastor of the East Sixty-first Street People's church, declared that he had talked to God and had heard His voice in reply, in an address at the Methodist preachers' meeting at 150 Fifth avenue. "I heard, as truly as any prophet ever heard, the voice of God speaking to me, telling me that I should be restored to health and strength and be able again to labor for the kingdom," he said. "Mr. Schofield preached from the text, 'This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him and saved him out of all his troubles.' His vivid narrative of a personal experience aroused the other ministers present to enthusiastic shouts and a chorus of 'Amen! Amen!'"

CANAL ENGINEERS TO MEET SEPT. 1

Plans for Panama Construction Will Be Reviewed in Conference. WASHINGTON, June 24.—A meeting of the consulting engineers of the isthmian canal commission was called today to meet in Washington Sept. 1, for review of the plans for the construction of the Panama canal and to make recommendations to the commission. The consulting engineers are authorized to go to the isthmus if they deem it necessary. There are fourteen members of the consulting board, a number of them being foreigners.

LETTER TO OUR READERS

53 Cottage St., Melrose, Mass. Dear Sir: Jan. 11, 1904. "Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power almost leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time. "I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition. "I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am, "Very truly yours, "I. C. RICHARDSON." You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

now to have the tallest building in the world. Plans for its construction are now under preparation by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, whose building already occupies most of the block bounded by Madison avenue, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets and Fourth avenue. At present the architects are working on plans for an edifice seventy feet square and about 560 feet in height.

GAS WELL RECORD

Held By Monster Gusher Struck at Butler, Ohio

MANFIELD, Ohio, June 24.—Expert oil and gas well drillers believe that the monster gas gusher recently struck at Butler, Ohio, will be the greatest producer of gas in the world. The well is sending out with tremendous force 5,000,000 cubic feet of gas every twenty-four hours, and shows no indications of diminishing pressure. Several miles within a radius of twenty miles has been leased by oil and gas capitalists.

TROOPS PATROL WARSAW

Workman Murdered by Companions for Refusing to Strike

WARSAW, June 24.—Stephen Okreja, the locksmith who threw a bomb into the Praga police station March 26, injuring 32 policemen, has been sentenced to death. Workmen have threatened a general strike as a consequence, and further serious disorder is anticipated. The streets are heavily patrolled by Cossacks and infantry. A workman was murdered in the streets during last night for refusing to strike.

CITY MOWING THE WEEDS

Waco Has a Mowing Machine Belonging to the City

WACO, Texas, June 24.—The city has a big weed mower, which is kept going constantly now, cutting the weeds on vacant lots and cleaning up generally. The health board and City Health Inspector B. H. Hatcher say that the people must have the weeds cut, and many are already obeying. The city mower is the cheapest method of cutting the weeds, and it is kept busy. The intention is to cut down all of them and make the city a clean one in this respect, as in others.

ENGLISHMEN HONOR NEW AMBASSADOR

Whitelaw Reid Guest at Dinner of Pilgrim's Society in London

LONDON, June 24.—Whitelaw Reid, American ambassador, who has been officially received by King Edward and members of the cabinet, and entertained socially by royalty and the leaders of English society, made his first appearance as ambassador at a dinner given in his honor at the Pilgrim's Society of London last night.

The gathering included many of England's most famous men, with a sprinkling of American residents of London, all of whom gave the heartiest welcome to the American representative. The large banquet hall at Claridge's was crowded and presented a brilliant scene. Field Marshal Lord Roberts presided, and among the guests were Henry Waterson, Elbridge T. Gary, Professor Gilderale and Bishop Doane of Albany.

Lord Roberts in proposing a toast to King Edward and President Roosevelt, said: "The first toast on this vast program is one which cannot but appeal to every one in this room. It is that of King Edward and President Roosevelt. I thought that on an occasion such as this, when we Pilgrims of this country assembled to do honor to a brother pilgrim in the person of the eminent gentleman who has come to this country to represent America at the court of St. James, that it would be appropriate to bracket the names of the rulers of the respective countries, not only because they are our rulers, but because in their persons we have two of the greatest peacemakers of the present time. "President Roosevelt even now is giving the world the strongest proof of his love of peace, and may be considered to be one of civilization's truest friends. "I ask you all to drink to the health, long life and prosperity of the king and that distinguished American gentleman, President Roosevelt."

Lord Roberts' reference to President Roosevelt's efforts to end the war was received with cheer. Premier Balfour proposed the toast to the guest of the evening, and in doing so commented on the many ties America and England had in common.

STATEMENT BY WARREN MOORE

Says the Jury Did Not Find Him Guilty

AUSTIN, Texas, June 24.—District Attorney Warren Moore, in reference to the contempt proceedings against him, said yesterday that the jury did not find him guilty of contempt, as had been generally reported; that the jury had no jurisdiction to pass on that matter. It could only be empowered to try the issue as to whether he should be disbursed. Mr. Moore admitted that he saw a list of names to the deputy sheriff in the interest of justice, and not to give either the state or Kirby and others an advantage. The jury answered the first question, as to whether Mr. Moore gave Barbach a list in the affirmative, as admitted by Mr. Moore, and answered the second question as to whether he did the thing set out in the first question with any wrongful or corrupt motive in the negative. On the question of contempt, the case was submitted to the court without a jury and he held that it was immaterial whether Mr. Moore did it in the interest of justice or not or with wrongful or corrupt motive, that the mere handing of the list to the deputy sheriff, and proceeding to punish him with a $100 fine and all costs and three days in the county jail, which was the maximum punishment in both fine and imprisonment that could be meted out for contempt.

MASONS OBSERVE ST. JOHN'S DAY

Gather at Lake Erie for Annual Outing—Installation Tonight

Today, St. John's Day, Masons of Fort Worth are holding their annual picnic and outing at Handley. The management of the resort has turned it over to the Masons and their guests for the entire day and the occasion promises to be one of the most notable in the history of Fort Worth Masonry. Fully a thousand people, including the inmates of the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' home, gathered at Lake Erie this morning to enjoy the day. A program of exercises has been arranged for this afternoon, including addresses by well known Masons. In addition the management of Lake Erie has provided a special matinee. Tonight there will be a public installation of Blue Lodge officers on the picnic grounds. Picnic lunch will be served at the grounds.

PANTHERS LOSE AGAIN

Huddleston's Passes Give Game to the Tigers

WACO, Texas, June 24.—Huddleston, who pitched for Fort Worth, gave the game to the Tigers yesterday as a result of two free passes he issued in the third. These being followed by a Panther error then hits by Curtis and Stovall and a sacrifice by Biggie gave Waco three runs. The feature of the entire game was Pruitt's work in the Waco box. The manner in which he fielded his position was especially noticeable.

GIANTS BEAT TEMPLE

Maloney's Luck Hit Gives Lead in the Seventh

DALLAS, Texas, June 24.—After the Boll Weevils had tied the score in the seventh Maloney, for the Giants, came to the bat in the ninth and brought in a tally which placed Dallas in the lead. Both pitchers worked hard but the game was one of the "hit and run" kind. Ables showed up better than Mitchell who pitched for Temple.

***** WHAT WE ARE HERE FOR *****

It is almost an old story now that the evening newspaper has become vastly more popular than the morning sheet. Yet some persons do not realize the fact. Here is testimony from an eastern contemporary, in these words:

"In the east in recent times the evening newspaper has become decidedly more important and of increased weight. We have scarcely a morning paper in the country which in these respects approaches the Boston Transcript, and the Washington Star; and the Chicago News can be rated with them, into which class enters also the Philadelphia Bulletin, the Brooklyn Eagle, the Baltimore News, the Indianapolis News, the Detroit News and the New York Evening Post."

The list is so long that other notable examples—like the Terre Haute Tribune Gazette—are not needed to prove the proposition of our eastern contemporary. The chief reason for this growing popularity of the evening paper is, that it gets fully two-thirds of all the big news from twelve to fifteen hours before its morning rival has jumped out of bed. The people want today's news today, not tomorrow. In the case of the important events of Europe, the evening paper gets the intelligence first, as it did the news of the fall of Port Arthur and the rising in St. Petersburg (though the Associated Press kindly allowing its morning clients to use the news that Sunday in the shape of window bulletins).

It always gets congress first, as that body begins its sessions at noon, and almost all the Indiana assembly's doings first, as that body, likewise, works chiefly during the daylight hours. When it comes to the market reports, the platter is swept clean by 3 p. m., and the dealer in grain, provisions, staples of all kinds, stocks and bonds, and nearly all other things that move prices, has nothing to learn next morning.

Yes, indeed, it is inconceivably true, as our eastern contemporary says, "In recent times the evening newspaper has become decidedly more important and of increased weight."—Terre Haute Tribune.

There has been a great deal said and printed of late concerning relative worth and importance to the reading public of the morning and afternoon paper. And the strongest argument that has ever been advanced in favor of the afternoon publication is that it is the paper of today while its morning contemporary is the paper of yesterday.

That is the situation in a nutshell. It expresses just about all that it is necessary to repeat, for it embodies a great truth that cannot be successfully refuted. The Telegram would not print one word in disparagement of any morning paper in Texas, for those publications have their friends and their particular field, just the same as attaches to their more sprightly and entertaining afternoon contemporaries. We may not admire the taste of the men who are wedded to their morning idol, but we are free to grant that they have the privilege of reading any particular paper that may please their fancy. The morning paper usually contains but little that has not already been published. It treats matters at more length, but that is only an advantage to the man who is fond of detail. If facts are wanted, and facts that are served up in a palatable manner, the reader is compelled to go to the afternoon publication in self-defense.

The beginning of the war between the United States and Spain marked the beginning of the real popular appreciation of the afternoon paper. The people of the United States were so intensely patriotic and so deeply concerned in the status of the affair that they could not wait for the venerated morning publications to make their appearance. They snatched up every afternoon publication that materialized in the hope of getting even a few lines of late information, and the men who were at the head of the afternoon publications were not slow to recognize their opportunity. They made arrangements to cover that war just as effectively as it was covered by the morning papers, and the wires were kept hot with the latest developments up to the very hour of going to press.

And often the big presses were stopped after they had begun their mission of furnishing out the news for the waiting thousands, in order that a later dispatch should be more authentic information than the way into the regular edition.

The war between the United States and Spain did not last long, but it was sufficient to insure two very gratifying results. It insured a demand from the public for the very latest news while it is yet news and encouraged the managers of afternoon publications to go after and get the news. It educated the public up to the fact that the afternoon paper is the paper of today, and there was such a boom in afternoon newspaper circulation as the world never saw before.

As a result of this combination of circumstances, the public has come to a full realization that the afternoon paper is a mighty good thing, and they are helping to push it along. The Telegram finds that the sentiment of the public is unerringly in the direction of the afternoon paper as the paper of the future that will measure up to the requirements of the situation, and while this means a loss of prestige to the morning press, it is a condition that cannot be avoided. They will just simply have to take the medicine that is dished out to them.

The Telegram is giving its patrons and friends a paper that is seldom equaled in a city the size of Fort Worth, and the Telegram is constantly growing in popularity, power and influence. It knows no higher duty than that it owes to its constituency—to get and print the news while it is news, and constitute itself a lively type of the successful paper of today.

OF THE OLD SCHOOL The death of Hon. Francis R. Lubbock at Austin Thursday evening was not unexpected, from the fact that this distinguished and greatly venerated citizen of Texas had been stricken with paralysis several days before and at his advanced age it was realized that recovery was impossible. "Uncle Frank" Lubbock, as he was known affectionately to admiring Texans throughout the state, was one of the last ties binding the present with that period when Texas was in its infancy. He was born in South Carolina during the year 1815, and came to New Orleans in early life. He landed in Texas during the time the few patriots then within the confines of this great empire state were struggling for independence against the yoke of oppression that was maintained by Mexico, and did valuable service for his adopted country.

After the war for Texas independence was over, he settled in Houston where he attracted the attention of the officers of the infant republic as a capable business man and was entrusted with several important positions, filling all of them with signal skill and ability. Later, he was district clerk of Harris county for a period of about 15 years, and was elected lieutenant-governor of Texas in 1857, and was elected governor of the state in 1861, doing all in his power to further the interests of the Confederate government during his term of office.

At the expiration of his term, Governor Lubbock declined re-election to enter the Confederate service, where he rendered valiant and distinguished service. President Jefferson Davis was so impressed with his ability that he made him a member of his staff, and he continued with the president until the fall of the Confederacy. He was with President Davis when that gentleman was captured, and shared captivity with him for about seven months.

After the close of the war, Governor Lubbock returned to Texas and settled in Galveston, engaging in business pursuits, and contributing much to the rehabilitation of the country generally. In 1873 he was elected to the office of state treasurer, holding that position until 1890, when he voluntarily retired, making his home after that time in Austin, where he was a familiar and greatly venerated figure.

Governor Lubbock was thrice married, his latest wife, who survives him, having been Miss Lou Scott, of Abilene, whom he married less than two years ago. It has been truly said that no man ever lived in the whole great state of Texas who possessed the confidence and esteem of the people to a more marked degree. He was truly a gentleman of the old school—a leaf that bound the present with the dim pages of the past, and his passing will be sincerely mourned throughout the length and breadth of this great state. Peace to his ashes.

AN IMPORTANT ISSUE Writs of mandamus have been granted by the supreme court of Texas against the state land commissioner in the case of nine applicants who desired to purchase land in Andrews county. The land had been classified as dry grazing and valued at $2 per acre, but when the applicants made application to purchase they were informed that the land had been re-classified and valued at $5 per acre.

The condition governing this land applies to West Texas land generally, the prices having been raised by the commissioner in what has been termed a very arbitrary manner. The action taken in the premises has been very severely condemned out in the western portion of the state, not only by the cattlemen, but by the settlers who were anxious to purchase the land on which to make their homes.

The explanation offered at various times in extenuation of the action of the land commissioner is to the effect that it was largely done to withdraw the land from the market until such time as the legislature could take action to remedy existing evils. But as the lease price of land was raised in the same ratio, this explanation does not seem altogether plausible.

The contention is made by the would-be purchasers that the price of the land having been fixed by statutory enactment, it is not within the province of the land commissioner to arbitrarily raise it of his own free will and accord.

It is a matter that is fraught with much importance to the people of the west, who should not be compelled to pay more for their homes than the land is actually worth. Land purchases ers out west need encouragement and should not suffer from any form of restraint.

The Dallas News opines that gasoline motor cars will be running between this city and Dallas in a few months, over the new double track of the Texas and Pacific. The "Old Reliable" has not been saying much for several months, and while other lines were sawing wood, she has been throwing dirt on that double-track arrangement. But there is something interesting going to happen real soon.

Under orders of the Texas railroad commission, Amarillo is to be included in what is known as common point territory. With the CATTLEMEN FINE FED STUFF

C. C. Fidler, the well-known feeder of Cresson, was on the market Friday with twenty-two head of full-bred Hereford steers. Mr. Fidler commenced feeding this bunch Nov. 15 on cotton seed, and finished on cake.

They were one of the best bunches of cattle on the market for many days, and bidders were very active.

Mr. Fidler says conditions in his part of the country are fine—cattle are doing well and stockmen are satisfied.

Conditions in my section have not been better for years," said J. J. Hand, a stockman from Stephens county, who was in Fort Worth Friday with a string of cattle.

"Most all the cattle have been shipped from that part of the country, however," he continued, "because of the drought which scared stockmen into selling. Cattle are in fair shape and no complaints are heard."

CONDITIONS IN OKLAHOMA H. O. Dutton of Cordell, Okla., was a visitor at the Fort Worth stock yards Friday. He reported conditions in Southern Oklahoma as in excellent shape and that cattle are doing well. Cereal crops have done well this year, oats are simply fine, while wheat is making a record. Plenty of rain recently has resulted in prime conditions for every class of stock raising and farming.

WHY HE FAVORS DURHAMS J. M. Kimberlin, owner of the Stirrup ranch in Wilbarger county, this state, was in Fort Worth Friday from his home in Altus, Okla. Mr. Kimberlin is one of the pioneers in the improving of his herds by breeding them up to a higher standard.

"This is the better course to pursue is evidenced by the fact that those who have started to grade up their herds have kept persistently at it, constantly buying better bulls from which to breed.

The purpose of Mr. Kimberlin's visit to Fort Worth was the purchase of twenty-two head of Durham bulls from parties living between this city and Jacksonboro. The animals will make a full car load and will be shipped direct to the Stirrup ranch.

These bulls are 2 and 3 years of age, and while it is not claimed for them that they are the highest grade Durhams, they are good sound animals and breed to a mixed herd as good, if not better than the thoroughbred stuff.

Three years ago Mr. Kimberlin purchased a number of fine thoroughbred bulls in Iowa and bred them to his ranch, but ticks and mange caused the death of the best of them, and since then bulls of less value have been purchased.

The Stirrup ranch keeps about fifty Durham bulls on the ranch at all times, and after from two to three years' sojourn, they are fed up and sold for beef.

When asked if this was not a rather expensive procedure, Mr. Kimberlin stated that it was, but that he would rather lose a few dollars in this manner than to have his brand scattered broadcast throughout the country.

A representative of The Telegram and Stockman-Journal asked Mr. Kimberlin what were the salient points in favor of the Durham breed over the Herefords, which are very numerous in that section of the Panhandle country, to which he replied: "The best reason that I know of is that they pull down heavier on the scales. They are longer, larger and in every way a better animal for the market."

"I admit they are not as good rustlers as the Herefords, nor do they breed as well, but I prefer less calves and better ones to a larger number of less value.

"Another point in favor of the Durhams is that they breed further, they show up strong as far as the sixteenth generation, while the Hereford would be entirely lost long before that.

"If you take a well-finished Hereford steer you have an animal that will weigh about 1,200 pounds; this is a difference worth considering.

"The stockmen of the Panhandle have been imposed upon in the Hereford breed. They were brought into this country and sold in great numbers as the only cattle that were fit for the country, and while they have done well in some places, where they have been bred straight, they have been a failure where there was a mixture.

"The fact that the grass in that country is better than it has been for over fifteen years makes me rather sanguine as to the year to come, as I don't believe I will lose anything to amount to much next winter, but then when grass is bad and the winter cold all breeds die just about the same, unless they are fed, and in such case I believe the Durhams will hold their own with any other breed.

"Mr. Kimberlin stated that there was a large crop of feed stuff in the Panhandle country this year, and that the stockmen as a rule were in pretty fair shape to stand the winter.

Another point that may interest the reader is the manner in which the Stirrup ranch was rid of ticks. They became so bad that it was found necessary to

It is nothing more than right that members of the Texas legislature should return to Austin and correct the error made in section 120 of the Terrell election law. The members are responsible to the people for their acts, and in committing such an error they should be made to correct it without cost to the state.—Beaumont Journal.

It is nothing more than right that members of the legislature should do this thing, but members of the legislature are not noted for always doing the right thing at the right moment.

Six women are under sentence of death in the United States for the murder of their husbands, and this, too, in face of the fact that it is so easy to get divorces in this country.—Austin Statesman.

If there were no divorce laws the probabilities are that there would be many more murders of the kind as a result. When men and women reach the limit in their unhappy marital relations something usually happens.

The Austin Statesman notes that the northern press marvels at the fact that Texas taxes goats. It is true. Goats are assessed in Harris county at 12 1/2 cents a head and the relentless and remorseless state of Texas exacts a fortieth of a cent for each Harris county goat.—Houston Post.

It is now in order for some suffering goat man to move for the complete abrogation of this goat tax. It is thus the leading industries of Texas are being slowly but surely taxed to death.

The railroads of the state with all their complaints about the rates the state has put on them still seem to be making fair interest on the money invested and are also willing to extend their lines into new territory.—San Angelo Standard.

The Texas railways are too busy and too prosperous to engage in any kind of a scrap at this time. They are enjoying one of the greatest eras of prosperity in all their past history.

What special advantage over the others does your road offer?" asked the Chicago man who was arranging a trip to New York for a society of which he was president.

"In the first place," replied the railroad's agent, "the regular running time of our trains from here to New York is three days, but as a special inducement we'll make it in four for your society."

It required no further argument to induce the man to select that line for the excursion.

"There's no doubt about it, summer must be here. The Washington ball team is in last place.

GLEANINGS FROM EXCHANGES

There is a lady who lives just outside of Denison who frequently plows. We have seen a great many women do that. This woman is an exception. She frequently whips her husband when he comes home full of "booze." It affords us a great deal of pleasure to address the woman as "lady." It is a great calamity that more women don't whip their good-for-nothing husbands. If we were a very wealthy man, we would suspend a gold medal to the neck of every lady who has the grit and gall to lambast a drunken husband.—Denison Gazette.

Any woman who has to plow for a living is a real lady and entitled to whip her husband any time the inclination comes over her to do so. Every lady who indulges in such procedure is entitled to at least a vote of thanks from the entire community in which she resides. The same remarks also apply to the lady who is so unfortunate as to be yoked to a professional booze fighter.

The University of Ohio is about to spend $20,000 in equipping a department to teach young women every day economy. Surely the average young woman always knows how to save money, else why the $2.98 shirtwaist? It is the man who recklessly pays out the full $3 that should be given a university training in economy.—Cortland Courier-Light.

Women know more real economy in a minute than a man can learn in a week. The average man would be much better off financially if he would study and emulate the domestic economies of his helpmeet.

Texas leads all the states in number of Confederate camps, having 392 live camps and fifteen dormant. The next nearest is Georgia with 144 live and two dormant camps. In the northern states, Illinois has two camps, and Indiana, Massachusetts and Ohio one each.—Galveston Messenger.

There are many gallant old Confederates in Texas, and they constitute the most honored portion of our population. Texas leads in Confederate organizations, just as Texas leads in all things.

When Vest was scarce The late Senator Vest of Missouri, when a young lawyer, was the attorney for the plaintiff in a case wherein the defendant was almost bankrupt because of a verdict against him. Vest had severely criticized the defendant in his speech to the jury, and the latter was very bitter, even making threats against the attorney. Time passed and Vest was a candidate for the legislature. He was driving along one day in a wild part of Cooper county, and as he was passing a house a man stepped out and said, "Here, you, hold on there; I have something to say to you."

"I recognized my old enemy of the lawsuit two years before," said Senator Vest, "and I never came nearer cutting and running in my life than I did then, for I supposed the man intended to attack me. But I knew if I did run it would get out on me and my chances of being elected would vanish. The man came ambling up to my buggy and said: 'See here, you are the man that came near ruining me in that lawsuit two years ago, and now I am going to hire you to ruin another man for me, so that I can get square with the world.'"

"No one can imagine the relief I felt at this turn of the affair, and after hearing the man's story I knew he had a good case and agreed to take it. We won, and the man gained several thousand dollars and I was elected to the legislature, but I am frank in admitting that I never came nearer running like a scared dog than I did that day. The man had been one of my strongest friends and supporters ever since."

A MOTHER'S LOVE Senator Dewey, at a dinner in Washington, praised the exceeding love and devotion that mothers lavish on their children.

"This maternal love," he said, "is perhaps the most beautiful and the most heartrending thing in human nature. Its beauty and its paths have been revealed to us by J. M. Barrie as by no other writing man."

Senator Dewey paused. Then resumed: "Permit me to show you another side of maternal love, a side that Mr. Barrie has not touched on."

"He is wounded," said the surgeon to the commander-in-chief, "in three places."

"Are these wounds fatal? General Grant asked.

"The surgeon nodded a grave assent. 'Two of the wounds is fatal,' he said. 'The third is not. If we can leave him to rest quiet for a while, I think he will pull through.'—Minneapolis Journal.

Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering.

As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

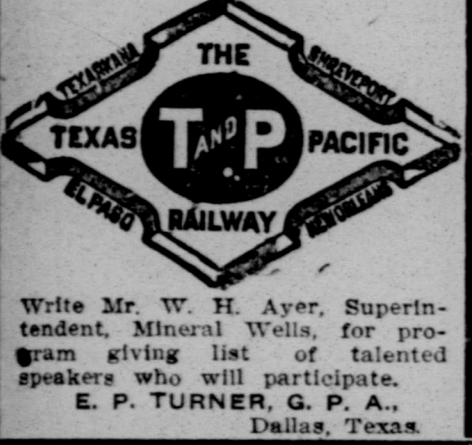

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spells of backache, that seem almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me much relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same results." MRS. PARK, 721 E. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

DOUBLE TRACKING NEAR COMPLETION

Texas and Pacific Work to Dallas Will Be Finished in a Few Months

The Texas and Pacific is working a large force of graders double-tracking the line between Fort Worth and Rock Ford, and considerable progress has been made during the past thirty days.

There is a large camp outfit midway between Dallas and Grand Prairie. The grade work is nearing completion between these two points, and about eight miles of grade between Fort Worth and Arlington are about ready for the steel, which it is understood will soon be laid.

There is about two miles of track laid between Grand Prairie and Rock Ford, and about one and a half miles between the latter point and Dallas.

At the present rate the Texas and Pacific will have the line ready for use within the next few months if there is no interruption.

It is the general belief here that when the Texas and Pacific has been double-tracked from this city to Dallas the company will put into service motor cars and give the public an half-hour service between the two cities.

UNION PACIFIC WORK

Half Million Dollars to Be Spent in Improvements

Officials of the Union Pacific have just concluded an inspection of the line in Colorado and decided to expend half a million dollars to improve the roadbed. Over 500 miles of road are to be ballasted with disintegrated granite. The stretch of road to be thus improved is between Denver and Kansas City, and when the present plans are carried out it will give the Union Pacific a fine line between these two points.

Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance for the Harriman lines, states also that the company is going to do some construction work in Idaho and Oregon.

PASSES CUT OFF

Santa Fe Line Will Issue No More Free Transportation

E. P. Ripley, president of the Grand Canyon Railway Company (Santa Fe system), has just issued an ultimatum to all employees of the company to the effect that when free passes now outstanding have expired no further free transportation will be issued by the company. He gives as a reason that the line depends solely on its passenger earnings and cannot continue the practice of complimentary to its employees unless on company business. However, employees will be granted half rates.

TEXAS EXTENSION

Stockholders to Authorize 400 Miles Construction

Notice has been given that on July 10 there will be a stockholders' meeting of the Colorado, Texas and Mexico Railroad Company held in New York to vote on a proposed bond issue for the construction of 400 miles of road from Wilbarger county, Texas, to a connection with the San Antonio and Aransas Pass line near Comstock, and a line from Washburn, Texas, connecting with the Fort Worth and Denver City, the Santa Fe and the Rock Island to San Antonio.

Twenty-five miles of the road have been graded south from Abilene and it is said that the work of construction will be taken up at once and pushed as fast as possible.

TRACKAGE AGREEMENT

Details of Trinity and Brazos Deal Fixed at Galveston

The Houston Chronicle of Friday says that General Manager Mike Sweeney of the Trinity and Brazos Valley and General Manager Nixon of the Santa Fe held a conference at Galveston Thursday regarding trackage arrangements. It is understood that the Santa Fe will use the tracks of the Santa Fe between Fort Worth and Cleburne.

Further referring to the matter the Chronicle says:
"In connection with the statement that the Brownsville road would enter Fort Worth over the Santa Fe, Colonel Nixon said that the road would also enter Galveston via the Santa Fe, either from Alvin or via Houston.

"The fact that the Santa Fe would be used in entering Fort Worth has been known some time, but Mr. Nixon's statement that the Santa Fe tracks would also be used in reaching Galveston is the first official announcement to this effect.

AFTER PULLMANS

Colorado Official Attacks Right to Operate There

The Pullman company is about to get into trouble in Colorado. Attorney General N. C. Miller filed a suit in the district court at Denver against this company to determine by what authority it operates cars between points in that state. The dispute has arisen over the alleged refusal of the company to pay incorporation fees to the state, amounting to $2,175.

An effort will be made by the attorney general to secure an injunction to restrain the company from selling tickets between any point in the state of Colorado and from operating cars between these points.

The interstate commerce law will prevent.

URIC ACID GRAVEL

IS CAUSED BY THE KIDNEYS BEING UNABLE TO CARRY THE POISONOUS WASTE MATTERS OUT OF THE BLOOD

The urine of persons suffering from uric acid or gravel is generally scanty, and after it has stood a while, a reddish, sediment like brick dust forms in it. In advanced stages the uric acid sometimes appears as fine sand, or large crystals.

Those who pass gravel in any considerable quantity are usually troubled with inflammation of the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, gout and rheumatism.

CURED BY WARNER'S SAFE CURE

"I have used Safe Cure for chills caused by uric acid poison in my system and I have been perfectly cured. It has done for me what I have never known any other medicine to do. It cures people in the South who suffer from malaria, which always affects the kidneys. All the doctors would prescribe Safe Cure instead of quinine for cases of malaria there would be less bad after effects, as quinine does not remove the malarial germs from the system like Safe Cure. I take 'Safe Pills' for my kidneys. Write to 'Mrs. M. E. DEAN, Tress, Lotus Club, Chattanooga, Tenn."

THIS TEST WILL TELL:

Put some urine in a glass or bottle. After it has stood 24 hours, if it is cloudy, or contains a reddish-brown sediment, or if particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased and unable to carry the uric acid, and if not attended to at once Bright's Disease, diabetes, rheumatism, gout, uric acid, inflammation of the bladder, gall-stones or urinary troubles will develop and prove fatal in a short time.

Safe Cure is the only absolutely safe and certain cure for all these forms of kidney, liver and bladder diseases. It is purely vegetable, from hardy plants found in many so-called kidney cures, contains no sediment and is pleasant to take.

For sale at all drug stores, or direct, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle.

ANALYSIS FREE.

If after making this test you have any doubt as to the development of the disease in your system, send a sample of your urine to the Medical Department of Warner Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y., and our doctors will analyze it and send you a report, with advice and medical booklet, free.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES AND IMITATIONS

vent any possible injunction of the state courts from operating of Pullman cars running between Denver and points outside of Colorado.

It is charged that the Pullman Company began to operate in Colorado in 1879, and that it filed a copy of the act of incorporation, paying $11 in fees. At that time it is alleged they stated that the capital of the company was $100,000, instead of $30,000,000, thus avoiding the payment of fees ordered by law, $30 for the filing of articles of incorporation for companies with a capital not over $100,000 and 30 cents for each additional $1,000 of capital.

In 1867 the company was capitalized at $100,000. In 1887, according to the company, this was increased to $2,000,000. In 1889 by $24,875,000. In 1891 by $5,000,000 and since then it is said it has increased to $74,000,000.

All this time, although the law requires that whenever a foreign corporation doing business in Colorado increases its capital stock it shall pay an additional fee to the treasurer of the state, the Pullman Company has neglected and failed to do this, it is claimed.

GUN CLUB SHOOT

The Score Marks Work at Traps on Friday

The Fort Worth Gun Club held its weekly shoot at Prospect Park Friday afternoon. This was the first shoot for the $25 trophy medal. Harry Attwell walked away the winner. A large number of shooters participated and a good display of marksmanship was given.

In the regular twenty-five bird shoot J. H. Tiller and William Edelman tied for first place, both making a score of twenty-two out of twenty-five.

Following are the scores made in the medal contest: Attwell, 15 singles and 16 pairs of doubles; Hubbard, 12 singles and 4 doubles; Edelman, 15 singles and 10 pairs of doubles; Maddox, 9 singles, 10 pairs of doubles; Boland, 14 singles and 13 pairs of doubles; Davis, 18 singles and 10 pairs of doubles; Day, 7 singles, 4 pairs of doubles; Hart, 2 singles and 12 pairs of doubles; Tiller, 14 singles and 8 pairs of doubles; Ponder, 12 singles and 9 pairs of doubles.

Following is the result of the club shoot: Attwell 21, Hubbard 16, Edelman 22, Boland 13, Day 15, Davis 20, Tiller 22, Ponder 19.

BUREAU SEEKS

HELP OF PEOPLE

Government Makes Appeal for Trade Information—Cotton Exports Increasing

John M. Carson, chief of the department of commerce and labor, bureau of manufactures, has appealed to the public to aid in the investigation of trade conditions abroad, for which purpose special agents will be sent out July 1.

Completion of the reported boycott of American goods in China is contained in a prediction that cotton exports to that country will be in excess of any previous period.

This letter is as follows:
"In pursuance of the act of Feb. 3, 1905, authorizing the secretary of commerce and labor to investigate trade conditions abroad, special agents have been appointed and assigned to make the West Indies, Central and South America and the Orient. Owing to the comparatively small sum appropriated for this work, the number of special agents appointed and the several fields of operations are necessarily limited. The work is experimental, and the results will be made known to the effort and the expenditure of money, it is confidently hoped congress will authorize continuance of the investigations and make them a permanent feature of the bureau of manufactures under direction of the secretary of commerce and labor.

"In furtherance of this important work in the interest of the foreign commerce of the United States the co-operation of any manufacturer or merchant is respectfully solicited. Special inquiry will be made into our export of manufactures of cotton, the total value of which in 1904 was $10,000,000 below that for the preceding year, all of which was substantially lost in the markets of China. That loss will be overcome the current year, the latest available official reports showing that for the ten months ending April 30 exports to China of manufactures of cotton exceeded twenty-one million dollars in value, a sum largely in excess of any previous corresponding period. The department's agents will visit China with instructions to investigate trade conditions and also to inquire what our manufacturers and merchants can do to assist this department, or by our manufacturers and merchants to promote the cotton trade.

"You are respectfully solicited to communicate to the bureau of manufactures in 1905 if filed a copy of the act of incorporation, paying $11 in fees. At that time it is alleged they stated that the capital of the company was $100,000, instead of $30,000,000, thus avoiding the payment of fees ordered by law, $30 for the filing of articles of incorporation for companies with a capital not over $100,000 and 30 cents for each additional $1,000 of capital.

In 1867 the company was capitalized at $100,000. In 1887, according to the company, this was increased to $2,000,000. In 1889 by $24,875,000. In 1891 by $5,000,000 and since then it is said it has increased to $74,000,000.

All this time, although the law requires that whenever a foreign corporation doing business in Colorado increases its capital stock it shall pay an additional fee to the treasurer of the state, the Pullman Company has neglected and failed to do this, it is claimed.

WEEK OLD BABY LEFT IN BASKET

Infant Found on Polytechnic Heights Taken in Charge

by Rev. Morris

A little baby girl, hardly more than a week old, was found in a basket Friday afternoon in the front yard of the home of Mrs. Gilbreath, who lives on Polytechnic Heights. The child was later turned over to Rev. I. Z. T. Morris, the person leaving the baby evidently knowing that the residence of Mr. Morris, who carries on an extensive work in finding homes for children, was near.

Mr. Morris says that this is one of the youngest children that has ever been brought to him, and believes that it is the same child that was brought to him by a young woman some days ago, when the infant was about two days old. The woman wanted Rev. Morris to take the child in at that time, but owing to its age he refused. He offered to take the child and child in and keep them until he could secure a home for the baby, but the girl did not want to stay there. He believes that the baby taken to him last night is the same child. He will keep it until he can secure a home for it.

After it had been removed to his home a man and woman drove by Mrs. Gilbreath's home and asked if Mr. Morris would be placed in Mr. Morris' home. When told that it had they drove off.

JUDGE BELL TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Will Speak at Meridian, Bosque County, July Fourth.

Other Speakers

Politicians are already moving in their candidacy for office. The campaign in the Corsicana congressional district will begin to warm up during July, while there will be a celebration at Meridian in Bosque county July 4, the occasion being the fifty-first anniversary of the organization of that county to be observed under the auspices of the Old Settlers' Association.

Among the speakers will be Former Attorney General C. K. Bell of Fort Worth, United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Gainesville and Judge A. W. Correll of Austin, author of the Terrell law.

General Bell is a gubernatorial candidate and while the Bosque county affair is in the nature of a reunion of old settlers, candidates will be given an opportunity to discuss political affairs.

A large delegation from Fort Worth will attend the gathering, particularly those who are close friends of Judge Bell.

BISHOP COMING HERE

Interurban President Expected to Announce Appointment

President Bishop of the Northern Texas Traction Company is expected to arrive in Fort Worth within the next few days. The prospect of his coming has given rise to speculations as to who will be appointed successor to the late F. M. Haines as general manager of the company's services here and in Dallas. Mr. Bishop has been overseeing the work of building an interurban line between Baltimore and Washington for some time past.

A believed that he would reach Fort Worth during the coming week.

At the offices of the interurban, Acting Manager Clifford stated that he believed Mr. Bishop would arrive about the first of July. It is not known what the company has done in the matter of appointing a successor to Mr. Haines, but it is thought that President Bishop will be in a position to announce the appointment when he reaches this city.

MAN DIES VICTIM OF BUBONIC PLAGUE

Panama Apprehensive Least This Terrible Plague Be Introduced. PANAMA, June 24.—A fatal case of bubonic plague occurred at Laboca yesterday. Constant arrivals of steamers from the infected South American ports, which are received at Laboca without any extra precautions being taken, must be the source of the contagion. The dead man had been working on board the British steamer Chill, which the authorities at Guayaquil would not allow to enter that port. The companions of the deceased laborer have been isolated. Rats taken from the steamer Chill are now being examined at Anchoa.

Thirty Spaniards Drown

VIGO, Spain, June 23.—Advice received here today from Minho river (which empties into the Atlantic near Gambia), say thirty persons were drowned recently there through the capsizing of a bark which arrived in the river from Portugal.

THE LIVESTOCK MARKET

One summer evening a rowboat containing two young men and two young women was drifting idly on the Allegheny river above the city of Pittsburgh. They were two pairs of lovers, John Baron and Lillie Beck, Bartle Farr and Margaret Ferris. If any one very brave told them that within a very short time there would be a transposition among them as fiances they would not have believed it. Nevertheless such a change came to pass. John Baron was one of those phlegmatic, tactful, unobtrusive fellows who usually choose their opponents, and in Lillie Beck he found exactly the girl to attract him. Bartle Farr was a gay, devil may care young man, who found in Margaret Ferris those steady qualities that a man of his character seemed to need. Everybody said that both couples would make an admirable match.

STEEPS

Receipts of cattle today amounted to 175; for the week, 14,200. The feature of the cattle market today was that there was no market. Out of over 700 head in the pens, less than 120 cattle and about 200 calves were on sale. With such a beggarly array of material packer buyers would have nothing to do except in the calf and cow trade, and buying was confined to speculators.

COWS

Cows were mainly in mixed lots, and some left over. The best price was $2.35, with other sales at $2.30 and $2.10. Sales today: No. Ave. Price. No. Ave. Price. 7... $30 $2.30 22... 658 $2.10 11... 813 2.30 8... 702 1.75 28... 763 2.35 4... 689 1.35 4... 760 1.35 32... 759 2.00

HEIFERS

No. Ave. Price. No. Ave. Price. 1... 590 $1.69

CALVES

Calves were weak and lower. Nothing choice seemed to be in sight. Heavy calves were in the light, the latter being thin and out of condition. Prices ranged from $2 for thin calves to $3.25 for heavies. Today's sales: No. Ave. Price. No. Ave. Price. 5... 138 $2.50 4... 125 $2.10 14... 132 2.25 5... 201 2.50 9... 182 2.00 5... 110 3.25 78... 236 3.25

HOGS

The hog supply was small, 297 head; for the week receipts amounted to 4,327. Of this the bulk was that of the territory and two from Texas points. The former were of good quality and sold quickly at prices a shade stronger than Friday. The others were not disposed of until late in the session, selling weak to 5c lower. Top brought $5.25. Sales today were as follows: No. Ave. Price. No. Ave. Price. 10... 181 $4.37 6... 133 $4.25 56... 213 5.23 65... 234 6.25

SHEEP

Receipts of sheep today were 416; receipts for the week were 2,449. The day's supply was made up of one double of mixed and 176 head of drive-ins, mixed and stockers. The packers took hold of the killing supply in the absence of hogs. The market was quoted steady. Sales were as follows: No. Ave. Price. No. Ave. Price. 31 turned... 92 $4.25 120 mixed... 77 4.20 120 mixed... 76 4.20 125 ewes... 79 4.00 20 stockers, per head... 2.50

NOTES ON THE TRADE

Make the bear the principal means of improving the herd. A vicious sow will always be a source of annoyance on the farm. Feeding hogs after they have passed the growing stage and are well fattened is a loss. The Wisconsin experiment station sold a pair of steers on the Chicago market April 11 at $7.15 per cwt. The steers were shorthorns. Shipments of hog products have been liberal and the cash demand has increased in a manner quite satisfactory to the packer. During the week the shipments of meats were 15,432,000 pounds, compared with 11,976,000 pounds for the corresponding period a year ago.

NEGRO'S PENALTY BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Lee Robinson Given 1,001 Years by Jury at Waco. WACO, Texas, June 24.—It is said that the sentence of Lee Robinson yesterday breaks the records in the Texas courts, the highest penalty heretofore affixed being 999 years, whereas Robinson received a verdict of a thousand years for a crime of attempting to assault Mrs. Ella Robinson, wife of a white farmer, two miles southwest of Waco, on June 13. In his brief talk to the jury Assistant County Attorney E. M. Neff asked the jury to return a verdict of a thousand years for the sake of example and to accentuate the feeling against such action, as by law the death penalty could not be assessed. Judge Surratt of the district court said he felt gratified that the people had waited quietly for the law to take its course, and that the law usually was an adequate and full remedy if only the people would wait for it. When the verdict was returned the crowd gave a yell of approval before the court could enter a protest. The story told by Mrs. Robinson as to the attack of the negro was harrowing.

OFFICERS MAKE ARREST

IN THE COURTS

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS. AUSTIN, Texas, June 24.—The court of criminal appeals sat in special session yesterday and made the following orders: Appeals dismissed—Ex parte Clark Billups, from Bosque. Affirmed—J. P. Nelson, from Dallas; Tranquilino Ruiz, from Val Verde; Dan Shoemaker, from Crockett; Frank Kehoe, from Bell; Joe Beagles, from Van Zandt; Polk Adams, from Llano. Reversed and remanded—Will Pool, alias Wash George, from Ellis; Henry Tally, from Fannin; Joe Barnes, from Van Zandt; Marie Moore, from Fort Bond; Wallace Franks, from Falls. Bail fixed at $10,000—R. R. Parker, from Dallas. Affirmed—J. C. Savage, from Navarro. Rehearing denied—Candelario Trevino, from Kerr; John Jones and S. E. Finley, from Grayson; Will Parish, from Bell; Green Moore, from Bexar; R. Hilscher, from Lavaca. The Savage case, which was reversed last Wednesday (Brooks then dissenting) holding a lunatic sane, was affirmed. The case involving the amount of any drink, including beer, free of charge, was a gift of the beer, and not sale of commodity in violation of the Sunday law, was affirmed yesterday on rehearing. The court holds that such transaction is for the jury to decide under proper instructions, and they having settled it as a sale, the court will not disturb their findings. The court also holds that a restaurant or hotel keeper cannot serve intoxicants with meals on Sunday. The law allowing them to pursue their vocation on Sunday does not authorize them to violate other laws. Without writing an opinion, the court decided in the Parker habeas corpus proceedings that applicant was entitled to bail, and fixed the amount at $10,000. Parker was deputy district clerk at Dallas and shot and killed Frank J. Bell, a well-known attorney and prominent knight of Elysian officer. The trouble arose over a coat bill.

SUPREME COURT ADJOURNS

AUSTIN, Texas, June 24.—Yesterday the supreme court made several orders and adjourned for the term, to meet on the first Monday in October. Affirmed—Avagus Titus vs. Sheeman Garland, from Harris. Motion for rehearing dismissed in Missouri Kansas and Texas Railroad Company vs. D. Henscher, from Hays, and motion for rehearing overruled in Norman Stephens vs. R. B. Herron, from Tarrant. It was ordered by the court that all motions, applications for writs of error and causes now on the docket and undispensed of be continued until the next term of court. The court had fairly cleared its docket, only three submitted cases having gone over without decision, besides a number of motions and applications which came in too late for disposition at this term. The three cases undecided and carried over were: Raley vs. Red River, Texas and Southern, from Tarrant; Scott vs. Llano County Bank, from Llano, and Morrison vs. Thoman, from Tarrant. Among the applications for writs of error carried over into the next term, known as the Spanish land grant cases, to recover thousands of acres on the Rio Grande. Requests to argue them orally having been made, the court took no action and they will be disposed of next term.

Fort Worth has secured another manufacturing enterprise, final location of which is expected to be effected next week. Today U. S. Pawkett, commercial agent of the International and Great Northern railroad, received a letter from President Cummer of the Cummer Manufacturing Company of Cadillac, Mich., stating he would arrive in Fort Worth either today or early next week, accompanied by J. K. Warren, secretary of the company. In October last Mr. Warren spent several weeks in Texas, looking for a desirable location for a branch plant for the manufacture of crates used in shipping fruits, vegetables, eggs, etc. He visited Dallas, Austin, San Antonio, Waco, Houston, Galveston and other cities and discovered Fort Worth was the best point because of the excellent railroad facilities. Mr. Pawkett assisted Mr. Warren in compiling freight rates on bringing in lumber and sending out manufactured goods. In the letter received today President Cummer states that his company will require a track location of at least five acres of ground. The plant will have a capacity sufficient to work at least one hundred employees and possibly more. It is the intention of the company to bring work on the plant just as soon as a location is secured.

Two arrests have been made in connection with an alleged series of frauds that have been operated on the firm of Lyerly & Smith, 562 Main street, this city, during the last two weeks. According to statements of W. L. LeBow, a member of the firm, four blank checks have been removed from the company's check book and detectives have recovered them at several places in the city with signatures alleged to be forged. Weaver's Pharmacy on Main street and bore the signature of Mr. LeBow. This check Mr. LeBow says was not signed by him. In connection with these alleged forgeries, Police Captain Blanton made one arrest shortly after 10 o'clock Friday night. By means of a ruse, saying that he was a stenographer for a local firm, some one obtained a typewriter from Lyerly & Smith Wednesday evening. The machine was recovered in a downtown pawn shop Thursday. In regard to this Mr. LeBow made the following statement this morning: "Wednesday evening some one phoned to the office and saying that he was a stenographer for the firm, which is a reputable one, and asked to rent a typewriter. He said further that he could not come for the machine until after 6 o'clock and for me to leave it in the drug store next door. I did so and the machine was taken that night. Investigation next day showed that there was no stenographer at the firm named who wanted to rent a machine. An investigation followed. We have recovered the machine and I understand that the police have made an arrest in the case."

SENATOR'S WIFE RETURNS SUORS Know Butte City's Society Leaders

BUTE, Mont., June 23.—Social leaders of Butte are very much agitated because several members of the upper set have been refused admittance to the residence of United States Senator W. A. Clark by the senators' young wife. Three of the more prominent women of Butte society called at the Clark mansion several days ago to pay their respects to Mrs. Clark. The butler took their cards, and while they waited, the women say, they heard a gentle, familiar voice instructing the servant to convey to the callers the information that Mrs. Clark was not at home. The fact that this trio had been snubbed did not deter others from having a try at making their way into the presence of the wife of Montana's senior senator. Some of them—in every instance, those who had known Mrs. Clark during her girlhood, when she lived in poverty with her parents here—were admitted and welcomed cordially. Then it leaked out that Mrs. Clark preferred the friends of the old days to those who seek to pay her homage now that she is wealthy, but who failed to recognize her or any member of her family at the time when she was Miss La Chapelle and known only as the daughter of a poor French physician, struggling to support his family.

POPULAR CONTEST TO BE ENLARGED Increased Prize List to Mark New "Who-Where-What Contest" in Telegram

The Telegram will give another of the popular "Who? Where? What?" contests. The great success of The Telegram's "Who? Where? What?" contest Sunday, June 4, created so much favorable comment that many Fort Worth subscribers and merchants have asked for another. In the first contest $25 in prizes was offered; in the contest tomorrow there will be $30 in prizes. The contests are simple and fascinating and will be interesting to young and old. Every subscriber of The Telegram and purchaser of a copy of the paper tomorrow is eligible. You are not restricted to one set of answers. After sending in one set, if there is any doubt in your mind as to its correctness send in another. Every merchant who has an ad in the contest is alive to the opportunities and is taking advantage of The Telegram's contest by offering exceptional bargains. As before, the contest will close at 6 p. m. Thursday, and prize winners will be announced in The Telegram the Sunday following. All answers should be addressed to "The Editor, 'Who? Where? What? Contest,' care of The Telegram. Watch Page 7 in tomorrow's Telegram.

BEWITCHED

One bright summer morning more than two hundred years ago, a ship from England anchored off shore at a settlement in Massachusetts. To the people of the place the arrival of anything or any person was a subject of excitement and they all went down to see what the vessel brought them. To their great joy besides stores there had come a number of people to cast their fortunes with them. The watchers on shore stood gaping under their broad brimmed puritan hats while a ship's boat unloaded the emigrants, among them a young girl, who from the moment her foot touched the land made herself as much at home as if she had been born there. She had not been landed five minutes before her shoes and stockings were off and she was wading in the shallows, splashing the water, laughing and otherwise disporting herself. The grim faces on the shore formed a singular contrast with the capering maiden.

"Tell me," said Hezekiah Stonehedge to the captain of the ship, "who is that madcap who is disgracing herself by showing her bare ankles to our young men?" "She calls herself Abigail Rogers." "To which of the families does she belong?" "To none of them." "God help us!" exclaimed Hezekiah Stonehedge, throwing up his hands in pious horror. At that moment Abigail Rogers' back was turned to the shore while she waded out toward a place where a small bit of sand rose above the surface. As the water deepened she raised her skirts accordingly. Then it grew more shallow, and she stood on the little island, clapping her hands in great glee. She splashed her white feet in the water, hunted for shells—indeed found more to do in the narrow compass than many would have found on all the coast. Though all eyes from the shore were fixed upon her, she paid no attention to her observers and when she had tired started landward. But while she had been sporting the tide had risen, and after she had advanced till the water became so deep that she could raise her skirts no further she stopped and cast her eyes to the shore as if looking for help. Sweeping the line of scowling faces, she at last fixed on Hugh Saltonstall, a stalwart young fellow, who had been looking on with the others. The moment he received the maiden's glance he strode into the water and carried her in his arms to the shore. That was quite sufficient to stamp her as a witch. Hezekiah Stonehedge took the captain of the ship into his house and wrote down all the information he had to impart concerning Abigail Rogers. No one knew how she had got aboard his vessel, for she had not appeared till the morning after the ship had sailed. She had bewitched the sailors, who when she fixed her eyes on them could not be made to perform their duties properly. This Stonehedge considered all the proof needed. When the young man set the girl down on the sand every person who saw what they considered his enthrallment turned and went up toward the settlement, feeling lest they should themselves come under the spell. Abigail wondered what had sent them away in such a hurry. Young Hugh endeavored to make her aware of the terrible danger overhanging her. "Why," he asked, "did you put yourself in such jeopardy?" "The good God made me happy," she replied, "and I must be happy."

WEATHER FORECAST

The forecast for Texas east of the one-hundredth meridian, issued at New Orleans, is as follows: East Texas—Tonight and Sunday, probably showers. WEATHER CONDITIONS D. S. Landis issued the following statement of weather conditions this morning: Low barometric conditions prevail over the southwest quarters of the country, the reading at Modena being 29.54. Modena reports a maximum wind velocity of 48 miles, and Huron had 85 miles. Comparatively high pressure dominates conditions in the extreme upper Missouri, rain falling between this "high" and the "low" center of the southwest, Helena and Lander having rain this morning. The northern quarter of the country is dominated by high pressure, but rain is falling on the southeast of the high center, Washington City and Philadelphia reporting rain. Thunder storms occurred since last report in Minnesota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Oregon, District of Columbia, Virginia and Tennessee. The heat belt is partly cloudy, to cloudy. The cotton belt is generally cloudy, and temperatures have changed but little. Heavy rains have occurred in Louisiana. Texas is cloudy, except in the west. Rain is falling at Houston, 1.10 inches being recorded last night.

REPLACE STAGE

Fort Worth Enthusiast Advocates San Angelo Line to Eola

H. R. Cromer of this city, who with D. A. Cromer and wife is camping for the summer near San Angelo, having made the trip for the first time, is reported to be advocating the establishment of an automobile system to succeed the stage service running out of that city. In an interview in the San Angelo Standard he says: "There is no reason that I can see why automobiles should not take the place of the present stages running out of this city. The roads are as fine as can be found in any part of the state. Automobiles could make the trips with greater speed and really less expense. A company of energetic citizens of San Angelo should organize to operate an automobile line from here to Stoner, Ozona, Robert Lee, Sterling City, Fort McKavett, Eden and Eola. The time of the present stages is good for the patronage, but the automobile line could be made and a better service could then be given and more patronage secured. In that way only can the people of those places ever get any better service. An automobile line to these points could be made to pay. People would come from other parts of the state to have an opportunity to ride over the Concho country at a good rate of speed and see all there is to see of this wonderful land that you residents out here possess. It will be many a day before a railroad or an interurban road can be constructed to any of these points from here with any profit to the builders. None of the towns reached by stage are sufficiently large to pay any portion of the cost of construction in patronage for many long years to come. For the building of railroads. The automobile lines are the only true solution of the present time and such lines would undoubtedly pay a large and handsome return on the investment."

THE WEATHER

Official report from Phoenix, Ariz., shows the thermometer for Friday registered 108 degrees, or two degrees hotter than that of Thursday. The cotton belt is generally cloudy with little change in temperatures. The thermometer here Friday registered 85 degrees. Comparatively high pressure dominates conditions in the extreme upper Missouri, rain falling between this "high" and the "low" center of the southwest, Helena and Lander having rain this morning. The northern quarter of the country is dominated by high pressure, but rain is falling on the southeast of the high center, Washington City and Philadelphia reporting rain. Thunder storms occurred since last report in Minnesota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Oregon, District of Columbia, Virginia and Tennessee. The heat belt is partly cloudy, to cloudy. The cotton belt is generally cloudy, and temperatures have changed but little. Heavy rains have occurred in Louisiana. Texas is cloudy, except in the west. Rain is falling at Houston, 1.10 inches being recorded last night.
