

DELAY FOR HOCH AT 11TH HOUR

Chicago Bluebeard Sentenced to Hang Gets Respite Almost at Scaffold

CLUNG TO HOPE Prisoner Believed State Would Interfere at Last Moment.

Unknown Benefactor CHICAGO, July 28.—Dr. Linton H. Montgomery, a well-known physician, accompanied by a woman whose name was said to be Mrs. Mary Wilson, appeared at the jail about two hours before the time set for the execution of Johann Hoch, and stated that money was available to take Hoch's case to the supreme court.

It is announced that his attorney would talk to the governor by long distance telephone as soon as possible.

PRISONER WAS HOPEFUL COOK COUNTY JAIL, Chicago, July 28.—Three hours before the time set for his execution "Blue Beard" Johann Hoch, wife murderer, had not given up hope of clemency. Although there seemed little probability of interference by the state as a result of the action of Governor Deneen and the state board of pardons refusing him further reprieve, Hoch believed that he yet had a chance for life.

He appeared as cheery as possible under the circumstances and chatted pleasantly with his secretly assigned guard, assigned as a death watch. Hoch has been a model prisoner and the jail warden has been particularly friendly to him.

Manning, director of the Kansas City and Orient railway which is to run through Southwestern Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Mexico to terminate at the Gulf of California, is here "He expresses the utmost confidence in the ability of A. ACCIDENTALLY KILLED Pistol Drops from Pocket and Kills Two Mexicans at Ozona OZONA, Texas, July 28.—Two Mexicans, names unknown, while talking to each other last Friday night on the street at Ozona, were killed by a most peculiar accident. One of the men had a pistol in his right hip pocket, which in some manner dropped to the ground, discharging the bullet passed through the right thigh of the owner, the pistol, cutting a large artery, thence to the other man, striking him in the stomach and coming out through his left lung. Both of the men died shortly after the accident.

PRETTY GIRL GETS NEEDED EVIDENCE

Succeeds in Buying Drink at Asbury Park Resorts Where Detectives Fall

NEW YORK, July 28.—Asbury Park hotel and restaurant proprietors who were thought to maintain quiet little rooms where thirsty guests could indulge in something stronger than iced tea, despite the prohibition law of the New Jersey resort, have been thrown into state of consternation by the arrest yesterday of one of their number. It was declared that 40 more warrants will be issued today or tomorrow.

Securing evidence upon which warrants could be issued has up to the present time been a difficult problem for the district attorney.

Thirsty looking detectives sent out by the prosecutor were regulars with a blank stare when they hinted that their lives might be saved by violation of the Ocean Grove mile limit law.

Spore looking men who arrived at the various hotels with a flourish and began hinting about aridity hinted to deaf employees. A pretty young woman detective from New York was finally called in and through her efforts the needed evidence was easily procured. All those arrested pleaded not guilty and were placed under bond for trial.

AGREE ON COMPROMISE American Wife of King O'Keefe Is Granted One-Half Fortune

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—Advice from Yap, in the Caroline Islands, say that the contest over the $1,000,000 estate of King O'Keefe of the islands has been compromised, the estate being equally divided between the American and the native wives.

O'Keefe went to the Carolines in the '60s, amassed a fortune and gained great influence over the natives. He built schools and on many islands was practically the ruler. He married a native woman, who bore him half a dozen children.

About five years ago he died while returning from Hong Kong to Yap. His fortune was taken by the widow and family in Yap, but it developed that O'Keefe had a wife in the United States, whom he married regularly in San Francisco. She sent a lawyer from San Francisco to Yap to file the claim, and a compromise was reached when he presented his proofs.

AUSTIN COMMISSION MUST TURN ON LIGHT

Tower System Illumination, Discontinued June 6, Must Be Continued by Court Order

AUSTIN, Texas, July 28.—The tower lights, which were cut off on June 6 by the water and light commission because the city did not pay for the lights, will be turned on again, very likely within the next twenty-four hours. Judge Calhoun in chambers, yesterday afternoon granted a temporary writ of mandamus injunctive against the board of water, light and power commissioners, as a result of the hearing held before the court, compelling the commission to turn on the lights and keep them on at night.

While the court granted the temporary writ, as prayed for by the city, the official order commanding the commission to turn on the lights will not be issued until today, due to the fact that the question of the city's furnishing a bond is to be determined. The court gave the city attorney until this morning to settle the matter, and the order commanding the commission to turn on the lights will be issued.

The general rule in such cases is that a bond is required, but as to whether the city shall be made to furnish a bond, is yet to be determined. In the event it is held that a bond is required, it is more than likely that a special meeting of the council will have to be held to take action in the matter.

As soon as the court granted a temporary writ of injunction the water and light commission filed a cross action with the court by amending its original answer, praying for a temporary injunction against the city of Austin for the payment of the water, light and power rates provided for in the charter and fixed by the defendant commission, which have accrued and will accrue for the current season, to compel the city to pay the expenses of the city for the year. The defendant commission also prays that on final hearing the defendant commission have judgment over and against the city of Austin, and that the city be held liable for all costs of suit.

The application of the defendant commission for a temporary writ of injunction and mandamus was set by the court for hearing on Aug. 8, 1905, at 10 a. m., and the clerk was directed to issue all proper notice to the defendant.

When the matter is taken up by the court it will be only to consider the application for a temporary writ and mandamus, but the question of indebtedness will not come up until the regular term of court.

STRANGE CURE IS MADE

Man With Rheumatism Falls Into Tan Pit and Gets Well

COLOGNE, July 28.—Johann Simon, a tanner of Ulm, has been cured of a rheumatic complaint of several years' standing as a result of falling into a tan pit. Simon remained in the pit for more than half an hour before he was rescued. He then found himself completely cured of his illness, with a feeling of rejuvenation permeating his limbs as the tan was carried out by an electrical process, the local medical faculty attribute the strange cure to the combined effects of electricity and tannic acid in expelling the uric acid from the man's body.

Simon's tanning yard is attracting hosts of visitors, and already eighty-five rheumatic subjects have plunged into his pits, paying fees from 5 shillings to £2 each.

FARMERS' CONGRESS AT BRYAN ENDED

Prof. J. H. Connell Re-elected President—Constitutional Amendment Goes Over

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, July 28.—After the election of officers and the completion of its program, the Farmers' Congress brought its eighth annual session to a close yesterday afternoon. The proposed constitutional amendment introduced by H. E. Singleton of McKinney, providing that the executive committee might at its discretion arrange for the congress to meet elsewhere, was permitted to lie over until next year after a spirited debate. It developed that the sentiment of the congress was largely in favor of continuing the sessions at the Agricultural and Mechanical College notwithstanding some inconvenience.

Professor J. H. Connell was for the eighth consecutive time elected president of the congress. C. Hansen of Rockdale was elected secretary. The executive committee is composed of one member from each of the constituent organizations, as follows: South Texas Fruit and Truck Growers' Association, S. A. McHenry of Cuero; State Horticultural Society, C. Mayhew of Sherman; Texas Nurseriesmen, E. W. Kirkpatrick of McKinney; Swinebreeders, H. E. Singleton of McKinney; Sheep and Goat Breeders, W. C. McKamy of Dallas; Southern Cotton Association, Dr. J. H. Hope of Marshall; Alfalfa Growers, B. E. Smith of Sherman; Dairymen, W. B. Spann of Dallas; Farmers' Boys and Girls' League, Rice Dennis of Milano; Woman's Industrial Association, Mrs. Rebecca Henry Hayes of Georgetown; Beekeepers, W. H. Yaws of Beville.

POLICE CREDIT HIM WITH 27 WIVES

Exact History of Hoch's Matrimonial Ventures Probably Will Remain Mystery

CHICAGO, July 28.—Johann Hoch, convicted murderer and confessed bigamist who was condemned to die today for killing one of his many wives, was in some respects a most remarkable criminal.

The exact number of the women he married will probably never be known, but he is reported to have had more than a score of wives in the last ten years. Seven of this number he wedded in this city, some of whom are said to have died under suspicious circumstances.

Mrs. Marie Welcker Hoch, for whose murder Hoch was sentenced to hang today, died of arsenical poisoning after a short illness, Dec. 1 of last year, preceding her death of the country woman from the woman all her money as he had done in most of his previous marriages.

Five days after her death he married her sister, Mrs. Emma Fischer, his last wife as far as the record now shows, and the day following the wedding he obtained from her $750 to be used, he said, in paying the mortgage on the furniture and houses where he lived. A day or two later he disappeared and Mrs. Fischer Hoch told the police.

A search for Hoch extending to Milwaukee, Cincinnati, Pittsburg and New York then began. He was arrested in New York Jan. 20 on information given by a woman at whose home he was boarding and to whom he is said to have proposed marriage after an acquaintance of scarcely 24 hours.

Meanwhile Hoch's alleged marriages and crimes received wide publicity and in various parts of the country women were reported as having been his victims.

The bigamous practice of Hoch started in Germany. It is said where he is supposed that was his real name. His first wife was deserted by him in Vienna. The list of wives as compiled by the police after his arrest numbered 27.

Hoch was promptly brought back to Chicago. The body of Mrs. Marie Welcker Hoch was exhumed. A coroner's jury found she had died of arsenical poisoning. Hoch was indicted and after a trial lasting a month

COURT TAKES PEEP BEHIND THE SCENES

Qualities of Minstrel Show Discussed in Suit Against Amusement Manager

Can a florist enjoy a minstrel show? Does participation in Shakespearean plays to the extent of being a page in a production of "The Merchant of Venice" make a woman an expert on the merits of black-face work?

These and other neat legal points arose in the county court Thursday afternoon when Acting Judge Bouldin heard evidence in the application of Rooney's Minstrels for a receiver at Rosen Heights Pike to protect them in a contract for an engagement which Manager Glasco of the Pike admitted he had cancelled.

A decided stage air pervaded the court room and though the court required an explanation of "getting a hand" and other professional terms, the atmosphere was generally convincing.

Climax came when lawyers endeavored to have a production in court of the "box act"—the one that had gotten the hand. Lack of properties, however, prevented the performance.

Question as to a florist appreciation of black-face came at the opening of the trial in the afternoon when attorneys for the Rooney Company urged that Robert Drumm, being engaged in the florist business was accustomed to appreciate the beautiful rather than the ridiculous. Being accepted as an expert, Mr. Drumm testified that there was not a worthy act in the show and that finally he was obliged to leave, being unable to endure it any longer.

"GARDEN OF THE GODS"

Will Be Presented to Colorado Springs to Be Used for Park

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., July 28.—The famous "Garden of the Gods" will be presented to the city of Colorado Springs as a part of the city's park system.

C. E. Perkins, former president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, has owned the garden for twenty-five years. He recently spent several hours in consultation with General William J. Palmer, who has given the city 2,000 acres of parks. A survey of the garden has since been made. It is not known whether the gift will be from Mr. Palmer or Mr. Perkins. The area embraces 960 acres of rare rock formation.

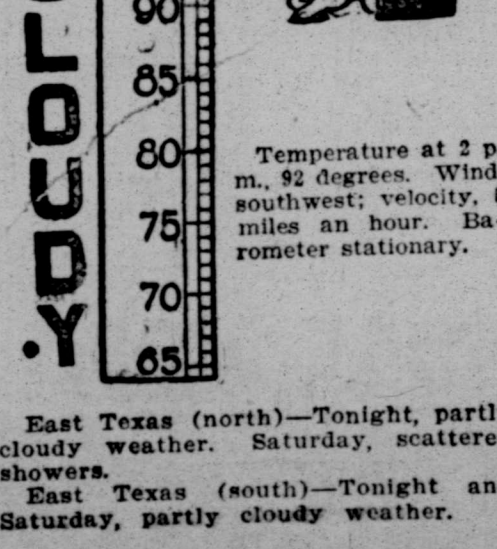

RAT IN CHADWICK CELL

Mrs. Chadwick Disturbed Every Morning by a Rat Chasing Her

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 28.—Pestered for months by deputy sheriffs, attorneys and creditors, Mrs. Chadwick now has other troubles. A rat has appeared in her cell in the county jail, and it is making life miserable for her. It generally begins its visits about 7 o'clock in the morning, just when the prisoner is arising and chases her. She jumps on chairs and utters screams which arouse all the prisoners and bring the deputy sheriffs to the cell.

Mrs. Chadwick appealed to Sheriff Mulhern for a trap, and he promised to buy one.

DETECTIVES AFTER CIGAR MAKERS

Charge Made That Revenue Stamps on Cheap Stogies Have Been Used Twice

NEW YORK, July 28.—Arrests are anticipated here within a short time as the result of a seizure of cheap stogies reported by Associated Press dispatches from St. Louis. The consignment taken from a firm on Broadway numbered 48,000 and bore internal revenue stamps which are alleged to have been used once and from which the cancellation marks had been made possible by collusion with one or more of his deputy collectors. He was unwilling to believe such a charge well founded.

By one of the revenue agents who has charge of the secret service end of the case it is stated that the present investigation involves three manufacturers. The substance has been aided by a fourth cigar maker whose motive is to eliminate the unfair competition occasioned by his competitors not always paying the tax. All these manufacturers concerned are Italians.

COMING TO TEXAS AFOOT

Missouri Man Walks and Pulls Daughter in Little Wagon

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 28.—A man passed through Columbia yesterday pulling a 6-year-old girl in a toy wagon. He had come from a farm near Hamilton, Mo., and was on his way to Dallas, Texas, to visit his mother, who recently wrote to him that she was hopelessly ill with consumption and wished to see her son and granddaughter before she died. The man who gave his name as J. B. Kemp, said that he could not raise the money for a railroad ticket, he decided to undertake the journey on foot.

The little girl, who is remarkably pretty and none the worse for her strange journey, soon gave out, and the man purchased the little wagon for this reason. He was in good spirits and said that the journey is a pleasure to him because the child seems to so thoroughly enjoy it.

REGENTS' ACTION WILL BE TEMPORARY

Probable That Permanent Successor to Dr. Prather Will Not Be Selected At This Meeting

AUSTIN, Texas, July 28.—T. W. Gregory, a member of the board of regents of the university, stated yesterday that among the matters to come at the special meeting of the board Saturday, is the election of a successor to Dr. J. W. McLaughlin to the chair of medicine at the medical branch of the university at Galveston.

Mr. Gregory said that there were several applicants for the position, which is one of the most important to be filled by the regents.

As to the election of a successor to the late President Colonel William L. Prather, Mr. Gregory said that a temporary election will more than likely be made, but he was certain that no final action would be taken by the board at the special meeting to be held Saturday.

It is imperative that some one be placed at the head of the institution for the present, and this will be the action taken by the regents when they meet Saturday. Gregory did not mention any idea as to who the board would name for the position.

MISS ALICE SEES GEISHA GIRLS DANCE

Secretary Taft and Party Entertained at Gorgeous Function by Tokio Business Men

TOKIO, July 28.—The bankers and merchants of Tokio entertained Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt at the Maple Club house last night, and after the which there was a Geisha dance.

The club house was handsomely decorated and illuminated and American and European flags crossed were displayed throughout the building. Shiba Park, surrounding the club house, was illuminated and the driveways were thronged with crowds that cheered Miss Roosevelt and Secretary Taft as they arrived and departed from the club. The streets from the center of the capital were illuminated and there was a brilliant display of fireworks in honor of the Americans.

The popular demonstrations and official and private courtesies shown the visitors have been the most remarkable ever shown foreigners.

INSANITY AND REVIVALS

Kansas Discovers Remarkable Connection Between Two

TOPEKA, Kan., July 28.—An investigation made by the state board of control of charitable institutions during the last week shows a remarkable connection between lengthy religious revivals have been held during the last year have the high record for the number of insane persons sent to the state asylums.

"Insanity," said H. C. Bowman, a member of the board, "seems to have followed the religious revivals like an epidemic. Reno county, where there was a protracted revival early last year, has sent fifty-two insane persons to the state asylum in Topeka in twelve months. I find that this epidemic of insanity has also followed the revivals which were held in Topeka, Arkansas City, Winfield, Wichita and other places. Our asylums will be overcrowded if this epidemic is not checked."

OFFICIALS STOP FEVER REFUGEES

Shotgun Guards Stationed to Stop Immigration of Frightened Residents

NOW 200 CASES Health Authorities Believe All Patients Enrolled—Disease Appears at Tampa

The official detailed report of thirty-six new cases and two deaths in the last twenty-four hours was made to the board of health today, making a total of 206 cases and forty-four deaths today. Of thirty-six new cases all except one are Italians. The exception is a negro living in the infected district.

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—The health authorities who are handling the yellow fever situation here are now so thoroughly protected in their organization that they feel confident that every case of fever, even though not thoroughly developed, will be promptly reported and go on official records. So thorough has been the inspection of the city that it is believed that every existing case has been noted out and is now included in the 206 cases which have been announced. Many are on the road to recovery, and it is expected that with perfect scientific treatment that has been arranged for there will be a reduction in the mortality rate, which in early stages of the disease was admittedly high.

All Towns Quarantining A feature of the situation now is a disposition of practically every town in this state, as well as adjoining states, of quarantining against the city.

There is a feeling beyond the city that 200 cases means a serious condition, and the fact that the case of the Italian from the French Market district resulted in cases of fever in many points, added to the general distaste.

Shotgun guards are now being put on public roads in the parishes outside of New Orleans, to turn back every Italian who makes his appearance and bars have been put up all over the state against that nationality in particular.

Two Italians who managed to board the Mississippi Valley train yesterday were locked in a car which was side tracked at Baton Rouge last night and sent back to New Orleans today. Here in the city and elsewhere the Italians are suffering through the delay in fruit business in which they are largely engaged. There is a popular misconception that fruits from the tropics are capable of transmitting infection and some towns are already including the fruit among their quarantined articles. In New Orleans many people are refusing to patronize Italian peddlers and fruit stands.

Rev. Dr. Beverly Warner, who recently returned here from Philadelphia, today opened offices in one of the prominent office buildings. He has been chosen superintendent of the wards in the great campaign in cleaning and sanitation of the city. All wards make daily reports to him.

The screening and oiling of cisterns is to be generally insisted upon as a preventative of the spread of the disease.

Crusade Against Mosquitoes Buttons are being furnished to those who are helping out in the crusade against mosquitoes. The buttons contain the figure of the foot and are very unique.

The city has been divided into large number of districts. Each inspector is required to visit every premises in his district and every room if possible. Special endeavor must be made to discover every person who is sick with the fever. Each inspector is provided with much authority.

OFFICIAL FEVER RECORD

NEW ORLEANS, July 28.—Yesterday's fever record to 6 p. m.: New cases, 28; deaths, 2. Total number of cases to date, 206; total deaths, 44. Four new foci of infection, making twenty-three places either exist now or has existed.

NEW PROPHECY AMONG MORMONS

Grandson of Joseph Smith Says Brigham Young Led Faithful Away From Truth

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 28.—Frederick F. Smith, grandson of the Prophet Joseph Smith and the son of Joseph Smith, the present head of the reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints, has started a propaganda to convert the Mormons of Utah to the former principles of the church as enunciated by the prophet. As the initial step in his campaign, Mr. Smith has issued an open letter to the Mormons of Utah, appealing to them to abandon polygamy, commercialism and political interference. Authorities are quoted to prove that Brigham Young led the people away from the teachings of the prophet.

WEATHERFORD NOW AFTER INTERURBAN

Meeting of Citizens Announced for Today to Consider Raising Bonus

Agitation of an interurban electric line from Fort Worth to Mineral Wells and the probable success of the same has aroused the people of Weatherford to action and some of the leading citizens of that city, realizing that if the line is built and it does not include Weatherford as one of the points on the route, it will prove injurious to that city, has started a movement to secure the road.

R. W. Davis, cashier of the First National bank of Weatherford, accompanied by C. C. Littleton, postmaster of Weatherford, and a brother of Martin W. Littleton of Brooklyn, N. Y., was in Fort Worth Thursday, conferring with leading citizens regarding the building of the proposed interurban road, advocating its going by way of Weatherford instead of via Springtown, and the other small cities which have been mentioned as being on the line.

"The people of Weatherford will see that a bonus in excess of $100,000 is raised provided the road will go to that place on its way to Mineral Wells," said Mr. Davis. "Besides a line that will take in Weatherford en route from Fort Worth to Mineral Wells will be at least ten miles shorter."

Mr. Davis said he had seen a number of the heaviest landowners along the Weatherford route and in every case they agree to give $1 for every acre of land they own, provided the line is constructed via Weatherford. Several of these farmers, he says, own 8,000 or 10,000 acres and all of them are anxious to give liberally to secure the road.

Mr. Davis said there would be a mass meeting of Weatherford citizens held here today for the purpose of formulating a proposition to be submitted to some company in the hopes that the line will be built through Weatherford.

When asked if the proposition would be made Major Beardsley, who is promoting the road from here to Mineral Wells via Springtown, or to other persons, Mr. Davis replied that he was not now at liberty to say, but insisted that the proposition would be made to responsible persons and that he was confident due consideration would be given the matter.

Mr. Davis says the line, if built via Weatherford, can be constructed for at least $100,000 less. He says the line, as proposed, would connect with the Arlington Heights road and continue on to Weatherford from the Heights, following the course of Mary's Creek almost the entire distance. This route, he says, would be feasible and would avoid any heavy grades.

MAN CRUSHED BETWEEN CARS

H. Borman Killed on Main Street While on Way to His Home From Work

H. Borman of 720 White street was almost instantly killed Thursday night shortly after 6 o'clock, while attempting to board a southbound car on Main street, to return to his home from work. According to report of the accident given by employees of the Northern Texas Traction Company and bystanders, Mr. Borman was on the east side of Main street and had just stepped up to take on passengers and started again, he darted across the street to catch it, passing directly in front of an interurban car northbound. He was caught between the cars and crushed so severely that his death occurred before he could be removed to the hospital.

Mr. Borman was about 50 years of age and a member of the local organization in this city, where he has resided for the past sixteen years. A widow and six children survive him. His funeral is announced for this afternoon from the residence. Interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery.

Henry M. Chapman of this city will leave for Austin today to attend a meeting of the board of regents of the state university. In regard to the selection of a successor to the late Colonel W. L. Prather as president of the university, Mr. Chapman declines to make any statement.

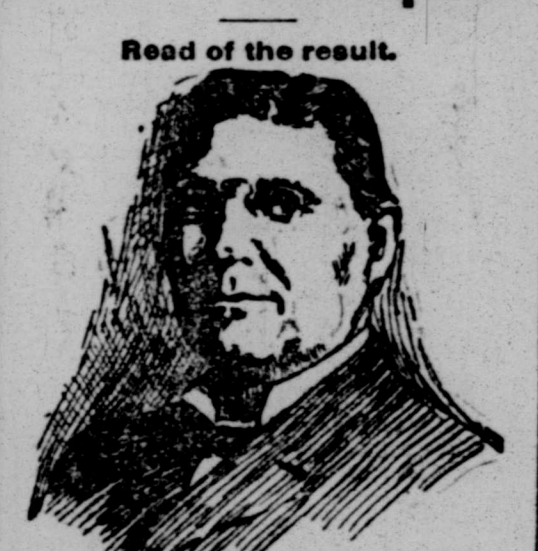

"Further than the fact that the most able man in the state who can be secured will be chosen, I can say nothing," he said.

European and American Specialists FAILED TO CURE ECZEMA

This Doctor Then Tried

D. D. D. Prescription

Read of the result.

For over 10 years I have suffered with Eczema on my hands. I tried leading specialists in Europe and America, and none could do me a particle of good. My hands were swollen until they were like huge stoves. I did not dare to wash them properly, as I found that every soap I used made the disease grow worse. The European doctors knew no more than the American. I finally used Three D's Eczema Cure, carefully following directions, and I find that it is all that you claim for it. It has completely cured me. I shall take great pleasure hereafter in recommending it to my patients.

Yours truly,
D. S. M. JOHNSON
Feb. 2, 1905. 3650 Prairie Ave., Chicago.

What we do for others we can just as surely do for you. No use to dose the stomach; you can't reach the skin that way. No use to go to health resorts; water won't kill parasites. There is only one scientific and logical treatment; D. D. D. Prescription. It actually slaughters the parasites in the skin that result in Eczema and all skin diseases. PASSENGERS FROM GALVESTON HELD AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 28.—Twenty-five persons were today removed from the steamer Alamo from Galveston, suspected of having yellow fever and transferred to Hoffman's Island for inspection. Only ten of this number really have high temperature, which is the first symptom of yellow plague. The other fifteen were the wives, mothers, husbands, children and brothers or sisters who refused to be separated from their relatives and who were consequently sent to the detention station with the suspects. More than half those removed from the vessel were cabin passengers.

Before entering Galveston all trains will be inspected at Virginia Point, all passengers required to answer questions under oath, and if not satisfactory will be held at a detention camp at Virginia Point. George T. Moore Hands in His Resignation to Secretary Wilson and It is Accepted

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28.—George T. Moore, physiologist, has tendered his resignation to Secretary Wilson and it has been accepted. The action is the culmination of a discussion yesterday, in which it is alleged by two representatives of an agricultural publication that Moore's wife held stock in a company manufacturing culture for soil inoculation, while Moore, who had charge of the preparation and revision of the bulletins regarding the curbing of farming directed farmers to the concern in question for their supplies of culture.

A. B. Moore, delegate from Fort Worth Typographical Union to the international meeting at Toronto, Canada, will leave this city tonight for Galveston, going to New York by water and thence to Toronto from New York city. Heavy Cotton Movement

Cotton shipments through Fort Worth during this month caused by the late release of cotton have been the heaviest for July in the history of the city. Recent advances in cotton prices have caused thousands of bales to be handled through Fort Worth. It is said that the International and Great Northern alone has carried 10,000 bales so far this month.

Exchange Figures As Given in Telegram Confirmed

Further instructions to local book dealers from D. Appleton & Co. in regard to the sale of Young & Jackson arithmetics recently adopted by the school board, replacing the White books, confirm the figures of exchange given in The Telegram. The statement, however, made by T. J. Boas that only 4 cents would be allowed for White's first book, costing 25 cents, was incorrect. Mr. Boas wishes it announced that this should have been 14

The mistake was made of ground that the Young & Jackson was to sell for 25 instead of 14 hence the 10 cents difference.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H. THE HOME OF PEACE

Navy Yard Where Russo-Jap Conference Will Be Held, Only Hint of Strife

BY MARLEN E. PEW.

Special Correspondence to The Telegram.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 28.—Peace and good will are suggested by the very air you breathe in Portsmouth. From the nature of the place it can be called the psychological spot for the forthcom-and the synonym is simple peace. It is the heart of the people of New Hampshire that no armed enemy, other than Indians, ever trod the soil of the state. But there are not a few gray-haired old men who are prepared to tell the visiting plenipotentiaries of the gallantry and valor of the men of a generation ago, and that Portsmouth was one of the first places to be settled by the colonists from Great Britain in 1623, or three years after the landing of the Pilgrims on Cape Cod. Here John Paul Jones, whose remains we are just now claiming back from France, fitted out the first frigate for the American navy.

HAS A TRANQUIL AIR

"The prettiest place in the world," wrote Thomas Bailey Aldrich, in his famous story of a bad boy's adventures in Portsmouth. "The streets are long and wide, shaded by gigantic American elms, whose drooping branches, interlacing here and there, span the avenues with arches graceful enough to be the handiwork of fairies. Many of the houses have small flower gardens in front, gay in the season

Auditorium Notes

Every one is looking forward with much interest on the outcome of the first relay which closes at 6 o'clock tomorrow night. There is only one more day remaining in which ten votes will be counted, and the contestants are working hard today to get in a heavy vote to be cast tomorrow night. The young ladies that have entered this contest are very loyal to Fort Worth and are doing everything they possibly can to help build this grand auditorium, realizing at the same time that the prizes that are being given away are worth trying for and knowing that every hour's work that they put in during this contest is for a good cause. Every one in Fort Worth should be interested in this grand movement, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance at Secretary Harwood's office tomorrow night at 6 o'clock, the time at which the first relay closes.

Miss Frances Preuitt is still in the lead.

COLORADO BEAR ROUTED BY SONG

Preacher's Warble Was Too Much for This Bruin, Who Had Dodged Roosevelt's Bullets

NEWCASTLE, Colo., July 28.—One of the oldest inhabitants of this section had a terrifying experience on the south road last night. The "oldest inhabitant" is a venerable and rusty black bear who dodged President Roosevelt's bullets a short time ago and has avoided the rifles and kodaks of hunters and tourists for years.

There was a picnic at the President's hunting camp yesterday and just at sundown the pastor of a prominent church not a score of miles from here, with his wife and a load of Sunday school children, drove homeward over the south road.

There is little travel on this road and the old black bear was dozing in the middle of the highway.

Suddenly the worthy pastor's voice, raised in religious song, smote the bear's ear. The crack of the rifle and the bay of hounds were familiar notes of menace to him, but the strains of "Greenland's Ley Mountains" rumbled among the treetops, threw him into panic, for he was not a polar bear.

Just then the pastor's faithful horse woke up and started a warning. Elated in the deepening gloom the startled pastor and his little charges saw an awful shape upright on a pair of huge hind legs. It was a bear, externally formidable, but quaking within.

There was a terrific squeal from the children and a wild whirl of the pastor's whip. With a roar of fright the old bear lowered his forepaws and galloped into the underbrush with the speed of a Colorado derby winner.

"Greenland's Ley Mountains" had wrecked his nerve.

DAILY FASHION HINT

NOS. 2760 AND 2749—A FETCHING GOWN FOR A YOUNG MAID

There is an indefinable charm about the lithe, willowy maiden in her early teens which finds its complement in the soft shirts and gathers which Dame Fashion has bidden us favor. The accompanying sketch shows an unusually pretty gown which will appeal at once to the girl whose instincts for the beautiful are already awakened. The triple rows of shirtings at the shoulders, back and front, furnish fullness for the natty blouse which falls slightly over the close-fitting girdle. The deep flounce of the skirt relieves that long appearance of a soft silk or checked taffeta, with lace for yoke and cuffs, will make an attractive afternoon gown. The Pompadour yoke may be omitted and the waist gathered into the collar in front. For a medium size, nine and a half yards of thirty-six inch goods are required.

Pattern No. 2760 is in five sizes, from 8 to 16 years, as is 2749. Either of both of these patterns will be mailed, postpaid, by enclosing 10 cents for one of 20 cents for both patterns, and sending the size, name and address to THE FASHION DEPARTMENT of The Telegram.

with china-asters, and are substantially built, with massive chimney stacks and protruding eaves. A beautiful river goes rippling through the town, and, after turning and twisting among a lot of tiny islands, empties itself into the sea. Then he tells how Captain John Smith, who, according to legend was rescued by Pocahontas, explored that river nearly 300 years ago and dined sumptuously from the wild strawberry vines.

THE CONFERENCE ROOMS

Four large rooms, on the second floor of the new navy yard store house, are being furnished with the best of government equipment and well suited for the purpose, this building will nevertheless be an odd setting for this last act in the great tragedy of nations across the sea. Any one of the envoys could easily get lost in the big rambling lobby, and all of the floors are caged off with steel wire netting, making it look like an untenanted animal house. There are two or three big vaults, bare of fittings and of fit to give subtle suggestion to the Russians of the reported boom-proof in each imperial palace.

The envoys will ascend and descend from the conference rooms on a huge freight elevator, which is yet to be installed.

The routine of the yard will continue as usual, Rear Admiral Meade, the commandant, said. The rear admiral and his wife, with Captain of the Yard Garst, Mrs. Garst and their daughters, will entertain the diplomats at their quaint homes on the hill and within the navy yard inclosure.

From Paris comes the latest news saying that the modish bride now exhibits her gifts in glass cases.

with 6,220 votes to her credit. Miss Bessie Elmore is a close second, with 5,800 votes. Miss Margaret Ochs is in third place, with 5,700 votes. Miss Myrtle Frost is in fourth place, with 2,800. The young ladies holding these positions at the end of the contest will receive the four prizes.

Several of the young ladies are working hard this week for the special prize of a tally-ho ride to the one who sells the largest number of coupons during the week ending Saturday, July 29. Remember if you win you can invite as many friends to accompany you as the seating capacity of the tally-ho will permit.

The auditorium benefit ball game, between the society clubs, the Sara Parlel and the Entre Nous, promises to be one of the best amateur games of the season. The game will be called at 4 p. m. and special cars will be run to and from Haines park. Both teams are in fine trim and have been practicing for this great game for the past two weeks. The lineup will be as follows:

THE PRIZES

First Prize—The young woman who secures the largest number of votes between July 15 and Sept. 9, 1915, will receive a $750 piano. This piano has been donated by the Ross-Heyer Music Company.

Second Prize—The young woman who secures the next largest number of votes between July 15 and Sept. 9, will receive one—... Portland Ore., and $100 in gold. This round trip ticket will also include ten admission

LILLIAN RUSSELL HAS BROKEN RIB

Prima Donna Fell From Horse Three Weeks Ago, But Didn't Know She Was Hurt

NEW YORK, July 28.—Lillian Russell, prima donna, has a broken rib, which she sustained by falling from a horse. The fact that she had suffered such an accident only became known to Miss Russell's friends this week, and she only became aware that a rib was broken after she had suffered from a pain in her side for three weeks and decided to consult a physician.

That Miss Russell had been thrown from a horse and had been hurt would probably have never been known had it not been for a bulky automobile in which she was riding yesterday, when she started from her home on the Shore road to go to Dr. John F. Erdman's office. The automobile got cranky at the

WACO TO ENTERTAIN THE FARMERS' UNION

Reception Committee Will Be the Largest Ever Appointed for Any Gathering in Waco

WACO, Texas, July 28.—The various committees who have in charge the preparations for the proper entertainment of the delegates and visitors to the Farmers' State Union, which meets in Waco Aug. 8 to 10, shall be the largest ever appointed for that purpose, as it is considered one of the most important features that all delegates shall be welcomed on arrival.

The entertainment committee will have headquarters at Labor Hall, and delegates and visitors will be escorted by the reception committee to that building immediately upon arrival. The entertainment committee has nearly finished its work of recording the boarding houses and lodging houses within easy reach of the city hall, together with their location and number, and can be accommodated, and will be prepared to assign each delegate or visitor on arrival day or night to a suitable boarding place.

The committee on arrangements has also decided on several features of entertainment in a general way, the details of which will be given later.

On Wednesday, the 9th, at 2:30 p. m., Governor Hogg will address the people at Padgett Park, and a large crowd of visitors will undoubtedly be present to hear him.

The finance committee is progressing nicely with its work, and everything indicates that Waco will sustain, if not surpass, her previous record for hospitality. Other details will be published soon.

prove that Texas farmers are learning to take the proper interest in these matters. Farming in Texas is annually rising to a higher plane.

The gases rising from tanks of petroleum are the surest kind of lightning conductors, as is proven by the fact that oil tanks are being continually struck by lightning.

The case, it behooves oil companies to construct their tanks, earthen or steel, in such a manner as will guard against the spread of the flames and the loss of human life in case of one tank in a field being struck.

There ought to be a law passed to prevent the storage of crude oil in earthen tanks. Experience has amply demonstrated the dangers of such procedure.

Oil companies that are unable to provide proper receptacles for their product should be compelled to let it remain in the bowels of the earth.

On this day of conventional religion one must prove himself good to a hypocrite before the other "good" people will help him.

There are a few exceptions but they are very rare.—Floresville Chronicle.

There is considerable criticism of the latter day tendency of many church members who too often assume the "I am holier than thou" attitude.

True Christian principles are contrary to this procedure, but it seems to be an era when Christianity is capable of many varying definitions.

THE IOWA IDEA

"Just what effect this year's cattle business will have on the cattlemen for next year is more than I can say," said former M. Fairfield of Des Moines, Iowa, who was looking over the Fort Worth market Wednesday. "Anything that might be said at this time would be purely conjecture, yet there are some things that seem to show some of the effects.

"In the first place, many of the cattlemen are making some arrangements about their winter supplies, and in the north his is being carried on in an extensive way.

"I am told that more cattle in Texas and Mexico will be carried over this winter than there was last year. Personally I know that in my state there will be a great many more; just what percentage I am not sure, but it will be a large one.

"I am confident that most of the cattlemen of Iowa and Nebraska have made money this season, and I suppose that Texas cattlemen have done as well. Bankers are feeling just a little better toward the cowman this year all over the north, nearly all of them have been able to collect their loans without any trouble.

"It is only a brief time now until the winter season will set in, two or three months, and the cattlemen will once more see their old-time enemy. Upon the condition of this winter will largely depend the success of the business next year. It is a fact that the cattle now being held in the north have cost the feeders and the cowmen large sums. They said high prices, paid high freight tariffs and their leases have cost them more this year. Should an extra cold winter cause them to lose many, it will cut some big pieces from their profits.

BAD BLOOD INVITES DISEASE

The blood supplies nourishment and strength to every part of the body when it is rich, pure and healthy. When from any cause it becomes diseased or weak it cannot supply the nutriment the system needs, and the body is unable to resist the diseases and troubles that are constantly assailing it to break down the health.

I have used S. S. S. and found it to be an excellent blood purifier and tonic. My blood was weak and impure, and as a result my system became very much weakened and debilitated. I lost twenty or more pounds in weight, had no appetite, and was in bad shape. Seeing S. S. S. advertised I began its use, and am well pleased with the results after using it for some little while. My system and general health have been wonderfully built up and I no longer have to give S. S. S. the credit for it. H. MARTIN, Warren, O., 60 Second St.

Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Catarrh, Old Sores, Malaria, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are the results of bad or diseased blood, and until this vital fluid is cleansed and made pure, strong and healthy, these diseases will continue. The greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics is S. S. S. It has been curing all diseases of the blood for more than forty years by going down to the very root of the trouble, forcing out all poisons and impurities and building up every part of the system by its fine tonic effect. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Catarrh, Old Sores, Malaria, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood troubles, and cures them permanently. S. S. S. is the acknowledged king of blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics. Books on the different diseases, and any medical advice you may wish will be given without charge.

Moines of organizing a co-operative cattle company. The plan was, as best I can remember, an appraiser would inspect your cattle, and issue you stock for the amount of their value. The agent explained to me that a number of the Iowa stockmen get together on this plan that they would be able to control the lease price on pasturage and in a measure influence the market.

"The company was to have a president and a cabinet of advisors, the president to be an experienced business man and the cabinet to be cattlemen. It was suggested that at a plan of this kind would enable the company to get the best price for the cattle that could be had, as they could well afford to keep in touch with all the markets, and would not be compelled to ship a little car load to a market just to find when it arrived that the market was off several points.

"The company could sell by the train load, and would not be forced to ship until after the cattle had all been sold, as the buyers would come to the pasture to purchase so many cattle.

"The scheme sounded good, as do all such schemes that have for their purpose the betterment of the conditions of the cowman. But I see many weak points in such a plan. Again, there has been several large cattle companies organized in the last few years, and some of them have controlled a great many cattle, but I failed to hear of where they had received more for their stuff than has the ordinary cowman. It seems that it was simply too extensive of this kind to fail.

"I want to see better prices, and I want to see a more steady market, but I do not believe it will ever be brought about in this manner. In fact I do not think the packing trust will ever be broken until the United States government steps in and takes charge of the plants. If this should ever be done, I do not think the market would raise the price of meat to consumers, but on the contrary, believe that it would eventually lower it, but you can rest assured that the price of American meat abroad would be raised, as the government would not sell at a lower rate abroad after paying the freight than it would sell at in the United States.

"At the prices that meat sells at in the United States the packers could pay a fair price for the cow, but when all the foreign trade is considered they have to meet competition."

CAUSE OF THE BREAK

In discussing the break in the cattle market last week, W. T. Way of this city says:

"The bad break in the cattle market last week was due to the heavy runs of cattle that were not fat. It has been the custom of producers as long as I can remember to let cattle stay at home until they are in proper condition for the market. When a man markets any commodity that he raises that is not fit for the market, he is the product of the farm, dairy, orchard or ranch, he suffers just to the extent that the commodity he furnishes doesn't suit the wants of the people who want to buy. This is just as much the case with cattle as with any other product raised or produced in this country. There never was, in my recollection, enough fat cattle in the market to make a market, and the beef market, I am not defending the beef trust, if there is one. This is not a question of trusts or of over production of beef, but simply a question of getting the best quality of beef to the market, you would soon hear the howl of 'trust' no more. No slaughterer, packer, dressed beef man or butcher will pay satisfactory prices for stuff he doesn't want, no more than would any respectable man or set of men. The subject of the proper preparation of stock intended for the butcher's block has been worn threadbare by newspapers and others since I can remember, but let any man go on the market and stay there as much as long as I have, and he will see the justice of my argument. He will see that a large per cent of the cattle on any market at any time are not the kind of cattle that make good beef. Remove the competition by which fat cattle suffer from the fat supply trade, and the immature stuff by keeping everything away from the market until it is in good condition for slaughter, and you will at the same time remove all complaint of cryancs about low prices and beef trusts."

SHIPMENTS TO CUBA

"Sever train loads of Texas cattle have been shipped to Cuba within the last few weeks," said W. M. Stewart, who is here representing an eastern purchasing company.

"These cattle were not the very best that we could find; on the contrary, we endeavored to get very lightweight cattle that could be bought cheap. Just as soon as they arrive in Cuba they will be taken charge of by the company's agent and placed on the steamer. This method reduces the freight rate, as the very finest condition cattle will die even more rapidly aboard a ship than do these scrubs that are packed up along the extreme southern routes.

"These lean cattle can be bought for a very small sum of money, and while we accept cows and steers indiscriminately, at the same time we are happier when we see the cows, as very few of them are ever sold for beef purposes in Cuba at the present, but are sold to the natives for milk cows, and as the native as a rule, is extremely poor, the demand for the cheaper cow is, of course, by far the best.

"Of the seven train loads that I have just shipped there, there were more than over half were cows; this will enable the country to make some good clear money on that shipment.

"A cow that will be sold in this country for $10 to $15 can be shipped down there and sold for $25 to $30 American money. This, you will see is a fair margin of profit, but then we receive heavy losses on each shipment from death and disease. These cattle were placed personally to General Weyer to ask him what action he would take toward assisting me in the protection of the cattle. He agreed to do all in his power, and I will say for Weyer that he did just what he agreed to do. We lost some cattle, but it was the insurgent army that took

CONDITIONS ARE GOOD

Richard Parks of San Angelo was a Fort Worth visitor Thursday and reports conditions in the San Angelo country as the very best.

"I do not see how we could have things in better shape," said Mr. Parks, "but the grass is ample for all the stock in the country, and there is enough water in tanks that stockmen are pumping very little."

"Cattle are doing well. There are some down there now that are in condition to ship, but the owners will not say what their intentions are. The calf crop was good this year, but not so good as last year. There are a number of twos and threes on feed in that vicinity."

IN GRAYSON COUNTY

C. E. Compton of Sherman was in the city yesterday. Mr. Compton stated that all the cattle had long since been taken from his county, all but those kept for milk cows.

"There was a day when we furnished our share of live stock, but that belongs to the times of the past," said Mr. Compton. "We have some good farms, but scarcely any cattle."

WANT BETTER PRICES

James E. Winters of El Paso was in Fort Worth Thursday. He reports the conditions along the lines of the Texas and Pacific as in the very best of shape.

"There are some good farms, but they look like the cattle might suffer a little unless they were given proper care, but with these few exceptions conditions are all that the stockmen could ask for," said Mr. Winters. "The only thing that we would like now, which we don't seem to be able to get, is better prices for our cattle. But I suppose that it is our lot to accept just what we are offered, and be content."

New York Lady Proves That Every Woman May Have It By

USING CUTICURA SOAP

Mrs. R. Reichberg, wife of the well-known jeweler of 146 Fulton St., New York, says: "I had a friend who was justly proud of her complexion. When asked what gave her such a brilliant and lovely complexion, she replied, 'A healthy woman can be sure of a fine skin if she will do as I do, use plenty of Cuticura Soap and water.' She insisted that I follow her example, which I did with speedy conviction. I find that Cuticura Soap keeps the skin soft, white, and clear, and prevents redness and roughness."

It is caused primarily by lack of certain elements in the food which tend to more or less imperfect digestion and to hardening of the fecal matter, to sluggish, torpid liver, and to lack of secretions in the nature of lubricating fluids in the bowels and intestines.

CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFERS supply the lacking elements in the food and also act as a gentle tonic on the glands which recreate the gastric juices, the bile and other elements.

"I believe there is money to any one in the cattle business in Cuba at this time. Just how long these conditions will last is more than I can say, but right now there are a great many opportunities. In the first place, nearly all the cattle in the island are scrubs. There are very few good breeds of stuff. I think the Jersey is best liked there, and I always believe that a Jersey farm in Cuba would succeed."

FACTORY CLUB PLANS CAMPAIGN

Meeting of Joint Committee of Organization Held at Headquarters in Wheat Building Thursday

An interesting joint meeting of different committees of the Factory Club was held Thursday afternoon in the rooms of the organization to give consideration to the best methods for increasing the membership of the club, as well as to increase its usefulness.

After the proposition was discussed for several hours it was decided to request Secretary Hard Butler to compile a list of factories in Fort Worth, which will be asked to aid the work of the Factory Club.

Report of the secretary is to be submitted to a subsequent meeting of the joint committee, at which definite action is to be taken.

The advertising committee was authorized to prepare a circular letter, setting forth specifically the plan of work being done by the club, which is to be distributed among the business men of Fort Worth.

ATAxia FOUR YEARS

FOLLOWS MALARIA CONTRACTED IN SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR

Woman Had Become Helpless When He Tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but Was Cured in Four Months.

Because he did not know that there is a remedy for ataxia, Mr. Ariel endured four years of weakness, pain and misery of thinking his case incurable.

"At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war," he says, "I went with Company B, Eighth Regiment, M.V.M., into camp at Chickamauga, and while there my system became thoroughly poisoned with malaria. When I was mustered out, I carried that disease home with me. After a while locomotor ataxia appeared."

"How did the ataxia begin?"

"I first noticed a pain in my ankles and knee joints. This was followed by a numb feeling in my legs. At times I had to drag myself around; my legs would shake or become perfectly dead. I had constant trouble in getting about in the dark. I kept a light burning in my room at night as I could not balance myself in the darkness. Even with the aid of a light I wobbled, and would reach out and catch hold of chairs to prevent myself from falling."

"How long were you a sufferer?"

"Four years in all. During the last three years I was confined to bed, sometimes for a week, again for three or four weeks at a time. When I was lying down the pain in my back was frequently so severe that I had to be helped up and put in a chair to get a little relief. I had considerable pain in my bowels and no control over my kidneys. The worst of all was that the doctor could give me no hope of recovery."

"How were you cured?"

"I read that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured locomotor ataxia and one or two friends spoke to me about them. In the fall of 1905 I began to take them for myself and I had not used more than one box before I found that the pains in my knees and ankles were greatly relieved. Four months afterward I became a perfectly well man, and I am today enjoying the best of health."

Mr. Edward H. Ariel lives in No. 43 Powow street, Amesbury, Mass. Every sufferer from locomotor ataxia should try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills without delay. Any druggist can supply them.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP UNDER DISCUSSION

Interesting Session of Third Ward Democratic Club—Addressed by Residents of City

Discussion of ownership of public utilities occupied a large part of the meeting of the Third Ward Democratic Club held Thursday night to hear an address by George W. Armstrong upon the merits of the franchise asked by him and associated for a heating and lighting system. Owing to absence from the city Mr. Armstrong was not present.

Addresses were delivered by J. E. Martin, Frank Cook and Dr. C. P. Brewer. Dr. Brewer, in his address, opposed the granting of additional franchises, declaring that in modern days they were aimed with a view to the special monetary interest of applicants.

Mr. Martin discussed public ownership in a well received speech. A further meeting of the club is announced to take place upon the return of Mr. Armstrong.

COULDN'T QUIET JACK'S HEE-HAWS

Court Admitted Itself Powerless to Quell Noisy Braying of Missouri Mules

TOPEKA, Kan., July 28.—"No power on earth can prevent a jackass from braying. This court is powerless to grant relief in this case and the injunction is dissolved," said Judge Dana in dismissing a suit brought by the postmistress of Richland, Kan., against the owners of a number of jackasses, to prevent their braying.

Tibbets & Hotz own a livery stable in Richland, and it is the next door neighbor to the postoffice. The postmistress resides in the apartments over the postoffice, and she has been sorely annoyed during the day and night by the raucous braying of the discontented jacks in the livery barn. Whenever she sought to white away the tedious hours by singing softly to herself the jacks would break in and agitate the atmosphere with their distracting noise. At night when she raised her windows to get a breath of fresh air her ears would be benumbed by the hee-haws of the jacks.

Owners Were Powerless

She appealed to the owners of the stable to suppress the animals, but they, politely informed her that to bray was the chief delight and function of a jackass, and they could not prevent it. Furthermore, the nature of their business precluded sending the offending animals away for the night. Finally she appealed to the court and secured from a judge in Shawnee county a temporary injunction against Messrs. Tibbets & Hotz.

Then she gave final warning that the noise must cease. They immediately took the case before Judge Dana and the case was argued. It was one of the most unique hearings in the history of Kansas even, which is the author and scene of many unique things.

In their reply to the injunction Messrs. Tibbets & Hotz set up that the courts, and, in fact, all human machinery, stood absolutely powerless to prevent the braying of a jackass. They cited instances where various expedients had been tried, such as dynamite, muzzling, solitary confinement, etc., but all efforts had proved futile. It was ably argued that the Missouri and Kansas jack or mule is a peculiar animal, and that his predilection for braying and kicking had been a peculiarity of the jackass from the beginning of the world and would be so to the end thereof.

Made the Judge Ponder

While they regretted that any of their property should prove annoying to the postmistress of Richland, for which lady they had profound esteem,

Judge Dana pondered at some length over the case and finally announced that he would dissolve the injunction. "It is apparent to any student of animal nature," he said, "that human agencies are helpless to prevent the braying of a jackass. It is his nature, and the courts can afford no relief. Let the order dismissing this case be entered."

they could not prevent their jacks heehawing, nor could they cripple their own business by disposing of the animals—"and your petitioners will ever pray, etc."

Cherry Pectoral. Doctors have used it for over sixty years. We are willing, anxious that you should ask your own doctor about your using it for coughs, colds, bronchitis.

FARMERS CLOSE MARKETING DEAL

Final Arrangements for Sale and Distribution of Produce to Be Made Thursday

Plans for a farmers' market and commission house in this city took definite shape at a meeting of the executive committee of the Tarrant County Farmers' Union held this morning in Labor Temple. The committee has been empowered to close a deal with the Market Square Company of this city, with F. W. Axtell at its head, for permanent arrangements for the market place and commission house on the lot west of the county court house. A further meeting will be held next Thursday morning, when all arrangements will be perfected.

In discussing the matter this morning, F. V. Evans, county organizer of the Farmers' Union, who has taken an active part in the arrangements, said that the object of the organization is the distribution and sale of all farm products. "In taking up the perishable goods we have tackled the most difficult part of the matter first, and with this fairly accomplished we can readily attend to the distribution and sale of other things," said Mr. Evans.

Plans for the conduct of the market place, as outlined, include the establishment of a large board for quotation of all articles on sale. Orders can then be received either by phone or personally and the produce distributed from the market place.

Building of a market house, declared Mr. Evans, will depend entirely upon the support given the movement by the city. Both the Factory Club and the Board of Trade, he announces, are considering the matter and their action, he says, will largely determine the matter.

QUARANTINE EFFECTS MAIL SERVICE LITTLE

No Postal Clerks Have Been Detained in Fever Stricken City by Authorities

Though New Orleans is included in this, the Eleventh division of the railway mail service, with headquarters in this city, Assistant Superintendent Cate of this city announces that so far as he knows no Texas clerks have been quarantined in the fever-stricken city.

Mr. Cate said this morning that if any clerks are detained there he had received no report of it.

By means of changing clerks at the state line, Texas clerks not entering Louisiana and Louisiana clerks remaining within the boundaries of the state, mail service has been carried on with as much dispatch as formerly.

Mail not originating at New Orleans is allowed to pass through unimpeded. Mail from New Orleans direct is fumigated.

Mr. Cate announces that the fever, beside calling for the transfer of clerks, has caused no serious trouble to the postal service.

CHICAGO POLICE AFTER GAMBLERS

New Chief Takes Personal Charge of Work and Begins Cleaning Up Campaign

CHICAGO, Ill., July 28.—Spectacular raiding of handbook resorts, in which four men were taken prisoners in four hours' work, marked the John M. Collins second day's work as general superintendent of the Chicago police department. Then at night came descents on ten poker games.

Following out his startling action of Wednesday evening, when he interrupted several time-honored poker games, the new chief yesterday removed Assistant Chief Schuetler from the command of the gambling detail and took personal charge himself, announcing at the same time that he would hold his inspectors responsible for whatever gambling was discovered in their districts.

Armed with search warrants and sledges, the "gambling detail" continued all night the destructive raids which had terrorized the gambling fraternity during the preceding twenty-four hours. A score of warrants, to which the signatures of two police magistrates were appended, were given to the raiders and descents on ten clubs were made before midnight. The paraphernalia or that part of it left intact after the onslaught of the raiders, was confiscated.

FORMAL OPENING OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The Arlington Heights Realty Company today formally announces beginning of the sale of lots in this beautiful suburb.

A distinguished magazine correspondent, in writing of Fort Worth, said: "Barely fifty years ago—or to be exact, on May 8, 1849—a small detachment of United States cavalry, under the command of Major Ripley A. Arnold, who was commissioned by the government to establish certain military posts for the protection of the frontier of the newly acquired state of Texas, halted late in the afternoon upon an elevation which commanded a sweeping view of the valley of Trinity river, a small but pleasant stream, which, rising on the roof of the watershed that separates the sources of the Brazos and Red rivers, winds its way into the Gulf of Mexico, some four hundred miles to the southeast. From where he sat upon his horse, Major Arnold could gaze down into the valleys of the river. Lifting his eyes and looking to the westward he beheld miles after mile of rolling prairie, rich with smiling verdure, the tall waving grasses undulating gently under the influence of the cooling breeze. Behind him to the east and south stretched a gentle declivity merging into a similar landscape. It seemed an advantageous location for a military post, and being further impressed by the natural beauty of the scene Major Arnold made a quick decision. Under his orders the battalion standard bearer thrust the staff of the colors into the soil, and thus Fort Worth, named after General Worth of Mexican war fame, sprang into existence."

Last evening the writer of this article stood on a spot a few hundred yards from the Country Club building in Arlington Heights and gazed down upon the realization of this early dream. Fifty-six years after the staff of Major Arnold planted our national colors in Fort Worth sold the Arlington Heights Realty Company makes the announcement that the land in this beautiful suburb is ready for purchasers. Now, for a greater Fort Worth. A big tract of land is now open for immediate settlement, possessing all the natural advantages conducive to ideal home surroundings. It can truly be called "Beautiful Arlington Heights"—where nature has been lavish with her gifts. A smiling lake, the coolest of breezes, and highest elevation in Greater Fort Worth makes Arlington Heights pre-eminently destined to be the fashionable suburb of this growing metropolis.

Nervous Women

Their Suffering Are Usually Due to Uterine Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous?

How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly;" or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in women is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability. Spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps. Pain in the ovaries and between the shoulders. Loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia. A tendency to cry at the least provocation. All this points to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night."

"I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonderfully for me."

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick and weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

FOUND GUILTY BY OWN CHILD

"I want both my father and my mother. I can't be happy without either of them. I've just got to have them both."

This is the cry of little 9-year-old Margaret Jerome of Chicago. Her father, charged with the murder of his wife's lover, Charles Faure, is locked up in east Chicago avenue police station. Her wayward mother is also under arrest. The child is living with her aunt.

MARGARET JEROME. "I know," says the blue-eyed child, whose knowledge of the great blot upon her young life is almost weird, "I know that Faure is dead. My papa had a right to kill him."

It is hard to question a little one about the sins of those she loves, but little Margaret talks on and on, with a sad little smile, and it is she who asks the questions.

"I think my papa struck Faure because he kissed my mamma. It wasn't right, was it? It wasn't right for them to kiss each other."

This has a child of 9, with wisdom beyond her years, weighed her mother's honor, found her guilty and condemned her.

Thus has a baby's clear blue eye looked into the depths of a father's sin and judged him justified.

As the days pass and the child may see neither father nor mother she turns to her aunt with the eager question, "Does my mamma need me? Tell me, does mamma need me, now?"

The child's face shines with truth. The mother was false to children and faithless to her children's father.

The man who stole from the child the happiness of home is dead. The mother who robbed her daughter of the innocence of childhood, who tore from her baby heart the heritage of purity and bequeathed to her a burden of wretchedness and shame, sits behind the iron bars of a prison door and thinks.

Until today, this mother has had no time to think. What form, think you, do these prison thoughts take unto themselves? Does the mother think of the shrill voice of her little daughter crying accusingly, "It wasn't right. My mamma kissed the man, and it wasn't right?"

Does she think of the loving mothers who hold their own darlings closer as her child passes? Does she, this wayward mother, picture in the prison gloom her daughter, her victim, grown to womanhood, crying out in her innocent suffering because her mother's sin has wrought her own disgrace?

Does this mother think today of the false lover's whispers as the hissing of a serpent in the guise of love? Does she think of herself as she might have been, the revered mother of a loving daughter, with trust in mother's purity and honor as undying as the soul's?

Wives and mothers, as you read, think now. Wait not to think when the eyes are blinded by the darkness of prison walls.

Think now, once, twice, thrice, and, again, before you mar the future of your darling with taint of shame.

Think of the sad, sweet face of little Margaret Jerome sobbing, "I want them both. I love them both. I cannot live without them. But mamma did wrong. It was not right."

CYNTHIA GREY.

PUBLICITY THE CURE FOR CORRUPTION SAYS GIBBONS

AMERICAN CARDINAL CHARACTERIZES THE METROPOLITAN PRESS AS THE GREATEST FACTOR IN EXPOSING GRAFT AND EVIL IN PUBLIC LIFE

NEW YORK, July 23.—Cardinal James Gibbons, who is spending the summer at Southampton, Long Island, gave an interview yesterday on the subject of corruption in business and public life, which he declared must be cured by publicity through the press.

"Corruption is a fixed evil that we must reckon with just as long as the present condition of society exists in this country," said the cardinal. "Whenever there is an amalgamation of great capital or a large collection of men interested in one money-making concern there is sure to be corruption. It is not a new story. It is a story as old as the world's history. The only reason that it comes so much to the fore at present is that the methods of its detection are daily growing stronger."

WILL ALWAYS EXIST "Corruption has always existed, and I am much afraid will exist as long as human nature yields to the attributes that lead to temptation."

"The bright spot is the fact that the degradation is made known. Corruption cannot exist nowadays without being discovered after a while. The greater the evil the greater the possibility of remedy. And that possibility of remedy has now become so assured a fact that it counter-balances, almost, the evil which the present condition of money madness creates."

PRaises THE PRESS "The fear, the dread of exposure is the counter-balancing element, and that fear, that dread, that horror of having a name once respected dragged down is due to the efforts of the metropolitan press."

A FEARFUL PENALTY FOR SELLING LIQUOR

Vermont Hotel Keeper to Pay $7,500 Fine or Go to Jail For Sixty-One Years

MONTEPELIER, Vt., July 23.—That it doesn't pay to be caught violating the new local option liquor law in this state has been found out by one man who has been fined $7,500. If he does not pay up he will be sent to the house of correction in Rutland, where he will be forced to polish marble and make himself otherwise useful for sixty-one years.

The law provides for a fine of $500 for every illegal sale, and when William Caulton, former proprietor of the Colburn House at Manchester, was convicted in the Bennington county court of making twenty-five sales Justice Rowell ordered him to pay a fine of $1250.

By a legislative oversight no provision was made in the income law for taxing the alternative sentence in full and there was nothing left for the justice to do but notify Caulton that in case he could not or would not pay he was to serve those days in jail.

"IT TAKES THE CAKE"

Is the usual favorable comment on the superb laundry work turned out at the Fort Worth Steam Laundry.

The best of linen and other materials are easily ruined by careless and indifferent laundering. We cannot and do not hope to retain your patronage by slipshod work, and the best is none too good here.

KATY AT WORK ON STOCK PENS

New Yards at Hodge Will Be Complete Within Next Sixty Days

Work on the new stock yards of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, first announced in The Telegram, is now being pushed, the intention being to have them ready for use in sixty days. A force of twenty-five mechanics is engaged in the work. The yards are located at Hodge, about six miles from the city. The pen capacity will be about twenty acres and will have a holding capacity of 200 cars of cattle. When completed the Katy company will have expended about $25,000 for these improvements. Similar work is being carried on at Hillsboro and other points along the line north from Texas. These stock pens are being put in for the purpose of permitting the company to better serve the twenty-eight hour law compelling railroads to stop and feed cattle in transit within these hours. The Katy is the first to observe the ruling of the interstate commerce commission by providing commodious pens at places along the line to enable the proper handling of live stock. These pens are to be bricked and put in first class shape.

company that will construct a new railroad that is to connect the Pan-American with the United Railways of Yucatan, thus forming communication between Mexico City and the peninsula. The plan is to build from the station of Jalisco on the Pan-American road to Tuxtla, the capital of Chiapas, and thence north to the city of Comanche, thus connecting with the Yucatan railroads. It is said that the road would open up one of the most fertile regions in the world. It is believed that the project will have begun to assume tangible shape by early fall. The government of Mexico is very anxious to have this connection made and is willing to give substantial concession in order to encourage the building of the line.

ORIENT ATTORNEY HERE Goes to Panhandle to Complete Right of Way Plans

H. C. Hord, general attorney of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad company, is here from Sweetwater headquarters on his way to the Panhandle country to look after right of way matters in the vicinity of Chillicothe, near which point the Orient road is to cross the Denver Road. Grading of the line south from Sweetwater toward San Angelo is under way with six different grading gangs in the field, while track-laying is proceeding north from Sweetwater. This work, however, has been considerably delayed the past few weeks on account of slow progress in putting in several bridges in the Clear Fork bottom. Now that this work has been completed it is expected that the laying of steel north to Red river will be pushed with vim. There will be no more bridges to cross until the line reaches Salt Fork of the Brazos in Knox county, ninety miles from Sweetwater. Between twenty-five or thirty miles of the road have been laid north from Sweetwater. Mr. Hord says that it is the policy of the company to push construction in Texas just as fast as is practicable.

AFTER FAST MAIL Roadbed Improvements May Forecast Quickened Service

Improvement of the roadbed of the Katy in the territory preparatory to putting on faster schedules, has received discussion of the proposed fast southwestern mail which the people of the territory and especially in Texas have been urging for some time. It is believed that the improved service on the Katy is the first step toward a realization of the hope that congress will make an appropriation for this new fast mail service. According to plans now projected the Katy will make the run between Texas points and Kansas City several hours quicker than the present schedule.

GREENE ENTERS SUIT Sierra Madre Man Has Mining Litigation

Col. W. C. Greene, owner of the Sierra Madre railroad and president of the Greene Consolidated Gold Company, has instituted suit for damages against former Treasurer E. B. Tustin of the mining company, the damages asked being over $200,000. The petition alleges that Tustin has failed to carry out his contract with Greene, the part of which contract was that Greene was to receive $100,000 for certain shares of stock in the mining company.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Denver Circular Confirms Transfer of Superintendent Dolan

Vice President and Traffic Manager D. B. Keeler of the Fort Worth and Denver City railroad company today issued an official circular announcing the resignation of Frank T. Dolan as general superintendent of the Denver Road and the appointment of G. F. Cotter as his successor. The appointment becomes effective August 1.

PASSENGER AGENTS BACK

Southwestern Excursion Ends Season at Eureka Springs

General Passenger Agents Phil Auer of the Rock Island and A. A. Gilson of the Denver Road, who attended the meeting of the Southwestern Excursion Bureau at Eureka Springs this week, returned to Fort Worth Thursday night. General Passenger Agent Strain of the Frisco, with his wife, continued the journey to St. Louis.

Little that is definite was done at the meeting, most of matters considered being referred to committees who will report at a meeting to be held at Hot Springs in October.

It was decided that hereafter these meetings will be held quarterly. It is announced that the next meeting of the Texas Passenger Agents' Association will be held at Corpus Christi instead of at San Antonio. The meeting will be August 8.

GALVESTON EXCURSION

Indications point to a very large number of people who will avail themselves of the cheap round-trip rate from Fort Worth to both Houston and Galveston, especially to the latter place. The Santa Fe local office announces today that all reservations in two sleepers have been taken, but additional cars will be provided, if necessary. The Katy and Central also report that their trains on Saturday will be well crowded. It is believed that at least two hundred people will go to Galveston on this occasion.

NEW SEATS The Santa Fe has just put into service a number of new high back seat coaches of the latest design and pattern. These cars are seventy feet long with a seating capacity of eighty, and have six-wheel trucks, the same as the first class chair cars. These cars are now being used out of Fort Worth.

HARD LUCK STORY Officer Suffers Two Painful Accidents in One Night

Dislocation of both collar bones, the same night is the painful experience suffered Thursday night by Policeman Bibb of the local department. Shortly after 10 o'clock he dislocated the left bone while eating a horse and buggy on Jennings avenue. Later in the night, while riding on South Calhoun street, his horse slipped and fell, throwing him violently to the ground. The impact dislocated the right collar bone and inflicted severe bruises.

Bibb's left collar bone, which was injured first, is not strong, having been broken previously in a runaway.

Police Start Crusade Following instructions from Chief of Police Maddox, who recently announced a crusade against houses of questionable character along Main and Houston streets, policemen Thursday night raided a place in Main street. Three women were arrested, one charged with conducting a disorderly house, the other two with vagrancy.

AMUSEMENTS

AT LAKE ERIE

Manager H. B. Burton of the Lake Erie Amusement Company has a great fund of stage stories. Here is one of his latest:

"Manager Smith, who also played first gravidigger in a barnstorming production of 'Hamlet', was in despair in a certain Arizona town, for his company was booked for a two weeks' engagement, and the people treated the play with a most disheartening indifference. They yawned in the sallooly, and in the mad scene many of them went off to sleep. "Smith would have changed the bill, but no other play had been rehearsed, and there was neither costumes nor scenery for any other play. So 'Hamlet' had to continue, though Smith would have given anything for the power to stir the audience up a bit. "One night he stirred them up unintentionally. He put on, by accident, two vests. When he took off, in the graveyard scene, first the one vest and then the other, the people were amused. A roar of laughter ran over the house, and there was an outburst of applause—the first applause of the engagement. "Smith was pleased and proud. He saw now what the people liked, and he resolved to give it to them in full measure. So the next night, in this scene, he wore twelve vests, and, standing in front of the grave, he removed them one by one. Roars of mirth shook the house; it was the proudest moment of Smith's life; he felt that he had been the company's salvation. "As he removed the ninth vest he looked around, and at once his self-conceit fell 60 per cent. He had thought they were laughing at him alone, but there behind him was the second gravidigger, putting on the vests as fast as he took them off. "Rafael, a clever ventriloquist, and Emil Hoggner, monopedle gymnast, are new attractions at Lake Erie this week. Both please good-sized audiences nightly. The two Fantasi and their educated pig, 'Mike,' continued to provoke laughs, and Virginia Rankin's illustrated songs are one of the most attractive features of the program.
