NOTHING TOO GOOD FOR PEACE ENVOYS

Can Have Anything They Desire at Portsmouth—Air Is Charged With Mystery

BY MARLEN E. PEW. Staff Correspondent of The Telegram. HOTEL WENTWORTH, NEW CASTLE, N. H., Aug. 15.—Sleepy old Portsmouth is awake to her importance in the world's serious affairs, and she is learning new and strange things. Portsmouth has eyes and ears open wide for every development in this dignified business of making the world's peace on the banks of the Piscataqua river.

maintains an embassy to the mikado's ministry in the United States, may be perfectly reconcilable at Washington, but it is a little incongruous in New Hampshire-by-the-sea. "Dang them navy yard folks!" spoke Anderson Blake, an honest Yankee skipper, on his fishing smack. He had just seen Rear Admiral Mead greet the Serge Julesch Witt, and later with his respects to little Baron Komura.

"That ain't right. Maybe the admiral has forgot Port Arthur and fight of the Japan sea. Wall, I ain't, and I've got my hat off to the winner every time." That sums up the way Portsmouth views this matter of precedence, though it doesn't appear to bother the small brown men with the slanting eyelids a bit. In truth nothing seems to bother them. They are ever serene and silent. Portsmouth sees another inconsistency. Here is the big Russian plenipotentiary thrashing his huge form over Baron Komura. The battleship is commingled with the torpedo boat. The great man of the czar looks like a protecting figure for the tiny, fragile senior envoy of Japan. If danger should approach you would expect to see the Russian take the Jap under his broad arm and lift him from harm's way. It suggests patronage misplaced. Portsmouth has followed the news dispatches from the front in the far east closely. She had built in her imagination a very different picture than that presented by the representatives of the stricken empire, and the empire which has won the world's admiration in war. They are small inconsistencies perhaps, but Portsmouth smees them big.

Grove's The-Highest-Quality Chill Tonic

It would be false economy to cheapen the cost of production by using ingredients of inferior quality, because the selling reputation of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic demands the maintenance of the highest obtainable quality. The makers use every year about ten (10) tons of Quinine alone, which is the largest amount used by any manufacturer in the world, and one-thirtieth (1-30) of the entire Quinine supply.

"Hist!" "Fish!" "Hush!" What has happened? A Japanese secretary has called a bell boy. What did he do that for? The Lord knows, it may signify a disagreement in the conference room. "Hist!" Little dialogues like that can be heard in the conference room.

ICEING CHARGES BEING PROBED
Railroad Officials Go to Austin for Important Commission Hearing

The question of icing private cars is one of the paramount issues between the shippers and the railroad companies in Texas at this time and may result in an open rupture before it is finally adjusted. General freight agents of the Rock Island, Denver Road and Frisco, accompanied by local attorneys, are at Austin this week attending a hearing of the question before the Texas railroad commission.

The complaint has become a general one all over the country and is being vigorously contested by shippers generally, not only in Texas but in other states. The charge is made by shippers that the rate for icing charged by the private car companies, among them the Armour company, the American Refrigerator Transit Company and the Fruit Growers' Express company, is exorbitant and instead of being from $60 to $70 per car should be not to exceed $30 to $40 and should be paid by the railroad companies who lease the cars.

NORTH FORT WORTH and ROSEN HEIGHTS

Recommendation calling for the adoption of air compressors for pumping for the North Fort Worth water works was made at a meeting of the water works committee held Monday night. The report of the committee is to be referred to a special meeting of the council calls for the purchase of a duplex air compressor capable of pumping from 400 to 450 cubic feet of water per minute. The contract, it is recommended, shall be let to the lowest bidder. The compressors will be placed in deep well pumps, this matter having been left open in the specifications.

Erection of houses in West Central avenue by Strain and on lots 5 and 6, block 83, by Fred Pain have been arranged for and will commence shortly. R. Lambert is building a five-room cottage on Rosen Heights. J. S. Brown has just completed two cottages and is building an office building at Rosen Heights.

Mr. Wootley has commenced the erection of a cottage at Rosen Heights. Mrs. Dora Lovejoy, 2319 Chestnut avenue, Rosen Heights, is making a two week visit to relatives and friends near Temple. Mrs. Boldingfield, 2601 Chestnut avenue, Rosen Heights, went to Dallas Saturday for a week's visit.

CORDIAL INVITATION ADDRESSED TO WORKING GIRLS
Miss Barrows Tells How Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Helps Working Girls

Girls who work are particularly susceptible to female disorders, especially those who are obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night in stores or factories. Day in and day out the girl toils, and she is often the bread-winner of the family. Whether she is sick or well, whether it rains or shines, she must get to her place of employment, perform the duties exacted of her—smile and be agreeable.

Among this class the symptoms of female diseases are early manifest by weak and aching backs, pain in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach. In consequence of frequent wetting of the feet, monthly periods become painful and irregular, and frequently there are faint and dizzy spells, with loss of appetite, until life is a burden. All of these symptoms point to a derangement of the female organism which can be easily and promptly cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is to such girls that Mrs. Pinkham holds out a helping hand and extends a cordial invitation to correspond with her. Her long record of success in treating woman's ills makes her letters of advice of untold value to every ailing working girl, and from her wide experience and skill she quickly points the way to health. Her advice is free, and all letters are held by her in the strictest confidence. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

SHERER RECOVERING FROM HIS INJURIES
Former Railroad Man Here Shot by Robbers in Chicago is Now Out of Danger From Wounds

Friends here have received advice from Chicago that Albert W. Sherer, who was shot twice in April last, is rapidly recovering and has been removed from the hospital to the home of his parents in Jackson boulevard. Young Sherer is well known in Texas and prior to April 1 was traveling freight agent of the Frisco, with headquarters in Fort Worth. He left here about April 10 for Chicago where he went to resume his studies at the Chicago University.

Soon after arriving in Chicago he was well up by three young boys ranging in age from 15 to 18 years, and badly wounded in the right lung and back. The robbers stepped from a dark spot along the boulevard and attempted to rob him. In the scuffle Sherer knocked one of them down and started to run. As he did so they opened fire on him, seriously wounding him.

ANNUAL REUNION PROGRAM ISSUED

Duke Goodman Memorial Day to Be Feature of Week's Gathering

Program for the annual reunion at the Confederate Park, ten miles northwest of Fort Worth, on Silver creek, the week beginning Sept. 4 next and closing the Saturday following, has been issued.

Monday, Sept. 4, will be set apart for the pitching of tents.

Tuesday, 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., speaking and other interesting exercises will take place.

Wednesday will be Colonel Duke Goodman memorial day. Colonel Goodman has died since the last reunion. The idea of the Confederate Park Association and its purposes originated with Colonel Goodman, and he was the chief spirit in carrying out this idea as long as he lived. It is the desire of the association to devote this day to exercises in honor of his memory, which will consist of memorial addresses, appropriate songs and recitations.

Thursday will be Old Settlers' Day. On this day it is the earnest desire of the association that all the old settlers of Tarrant and surrounding counties, and the whole state for that matter, attend the reunion.

Members of the executive committee said today: "We want them to attend every day if possible, but especially on Old Settlers' Day. The day will be devoted to hearing the experiences of the old settlers of Texas by different old settlers, and all of them are cordially invited to be present."

Friday from 10 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 to 5 p. m. addresses will be delivered by prominent speakers.

Each night at 8 o'clock appropriate exercises will be had, consisting of old southern songs, recitations, etc.

Invitation has been issued especially to old fiddlers with their wives, children and their fiddles.

Saturday will be good-by day and will witness the breaking up of camp.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

William B. Paddock, referee in bankruptcy, has just returned from a business and pleasure trip to Colorado. While gone he visited Denver, Colorado Springs and Manitou. He says that the mountains are full of Texas people and that the travel to that state from Texas is the largest in years.

He says that at Denver elaborate arrangements have already been made for entertaining the Eagles and Grand Army of the Republic delegates who are there by the thousands this week. The decorations, Mr. Paddock says, are fine and elaborate.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Fort Worth Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Fort Worth people endorse our claim. G. W. Gill, of 913 West Daggett avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a bad attack of kidney trouble and rheumatic pain two years ago. I was in a terrible condition then, had severe pains across the back and hips up under the shoulder blades and into the back of my neck. The kidney secretions were irregular and highly colored. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and I remained cured until an attack of pneumonia two years ago left me with pain in the back. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and two boxes cured me. I think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills and have also found Doan's Reguloids to be a great medicine for the liver and bowels—in fact, the finest of the kind that I ever used."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

IN THE COURTS

The county commissioners' court today appointed the two guards who are to be stationed at one of several detention camps to be established by State Health Officer Tabor along the North Texas border.

The appointees are A. L. Averett of Bransford and Crate Flemister of Keller. Their selection was in conformity with action taken Monday by the commissioners' court after conferring with the county and city health officers.

The appointments were wired Dr. Tabor who is expected to open the detention camps at once.

The guards will receive a salary of $3 per day for their services, which will probably be continued until frost occurs.

SENT TO ASYLUM

John Durbin, who has been in the county jail since being convicted of larceny seven months ago, was taken to the asylum at Terrell today. THE FARMERS' UNION

There has been considerable newspaper comment on the annual meeting of the Texas State Farmers' Union at Waco last week, and conflicting reports as to what was done during the time the farmers were deliberating.

Farmer Shaw of Dallas seems to be among the number who were run over by the real agricultural land wagon.

"Of course, I cannot enter into specific details as proceedings were behind closed doors, but I will say that there were some exceedingly interesting proceedings. You see certain interests, in order to secure a following, resorted to misrepresentations.

"I am talking to you Dallas people just as I talked to the Fort Worth people this morning. Fort Worth didn't wake up till she got scared.

"Yes, we have the yellow fever mosquito in this part of Texas. It is here; it is in Fort Worth. It is found as far north as St. Louis, even—Dallas News.

Dr. Tabor perhaps feels he is only doing his plain duty as state health officer when he is engaged in making such statements as the above, but they must impress the average reader as very intemperate expressions at a time when prudence and discretion would dictate a less alarming policy.

More than three-fourths of the people of Norway have just voted on the question of dissolving the union with Sweden affirmatively, and that would seem to indicate a fixed purpose to cut loose.

help the farmer and the country. There may be grangers and selfish people in it, but the good can be kept out of their reach it will be a great power for good.

If the men in attendance upon the Waco meeting were of weak mentality it is not reflected in the work that they accomplished while there.

SOME INTEMPERATE TALK: Dr. George R. Tabor, state health officer, came over to Dallas from Fort Worth yesterday afternoon and held a conference at Commercial Club headquarters with a number of business men.

"Three weeks since," said Dr. Tabor, "I issued a proclamation to the public notifying all that there was yellow fever in Louisiana. I said then, as I say now, it is absolutely no Monday and Tuesday the mosquito. How many cities and towns in this section of Texas have complied? I leave it to you to answer.

"I speak thus plainly, gentlemen, in order that all who hear may realize the gravity of the situation. North Texas must get clean, I don't mean that Dallas must get clean up, but that Fort Worth alone must clean up, but that every village, town and city throughout this section must do so. My advice to everybody is to commence this work Monday morning. Don't wait until Monday and then hold a meeting to decide what shall be done.

"When people say you can't have yellow fever in north Texas they don't know what they are talking about. They can have it here just as well as they can have it in south Texas. The chances for infection here are greater than in the other parts of the state, because north Texas cities are not protected. There are more prospects of your having it in Dallas than there are of having it in Houston.

"I am talking to you Dallas people just as I talked to the Fort Worth people this morning. Fort Worth didn't wake up till she got scared.

There seems to be considerable interest in the home industry matter in this city, but it does not extend far enough.

tory in the southwest located in Fort Worth, and it is building up a lucrative business. But home people, especially home jobbers, are not taking the proper interest in the matter.

Again the report comes from Washington that the President has not fully determined to call an extra session of congress, but will finally determine the matter upon his return to the capital in September.

There are always some new buildings in course of construction in this city and Fort Worth mechanics and artisans are pretty busy people these days.

The beef trust cases will go to trial in Chicago during the latter part of October, and the government is making every effort to develop all the evidence that can be adduced for the conviction of those under indictment.

M. Witte still insists on peace with honor and dignity for Russia, and says his country is prepared to carry on the struggle indefinitely. But the fulfillment of such action has already been fully demonstrated.

The lid has slipped a cog over in Dallas. Cigars and tobacco were sold there freely last Sunday, with doors wide open.

It is whispered that Uncle Trav, Henderson, the agricultural statesman, from Lamar county, is about to blossom forth as a candidate for state office since his affiliation with the Farmers' Union.

CHAPTER XX: Harmony Frayer leaned back in the sofa-corner and regarded Maddox with a quizzical air.

"I believe I did say that one day—under great provocation," she finally answered.

"Well, I have never forgotten it, because I then and there resolved that you should some day give me a case, and that I would win it if I never won another as long as I lived."

THE BODY HAD BEEN DISCOVERED BY THE NIGHT WATCHMAN

nothing remained but a glad sense of dangers passed and a feeling of new-born confidence and hope.

"I caught you anticipating one of my pet moves, which I prided myself was absolutely original," declared Maddox. "I don't know when the idea of getting Lorimer away from Nugent's influence occurred to you."

"Harmony Frayer!" she repeated. "Of course I remember her. Why do you ask?"

"Because her name is the Sesame we have been seeking for the door of our difficulties. She absolutely controls Mr. Frayer. He simply worships her, and I don't believe he could deny her anything.

"I thought perhaps—" "No." "I'm sorry."

He knew her meaning, but the words also told him she was no longer thinking of herself and that he had succeeded in guiding her safely back to her natural self.

action until all the facts can be laid before you." "And until then?" "I ask you to trust me."

"Please don't tear up all my visitors' cards." Dave looked guiltily at the card in his hand which he had taken from the tray beside him and which he was unconsciously tearing to pieces.

"At a ball, I think." "Does Mr. Frayer know he calls?" "Is this a cross-examination?" she laughed.

Verses That Ring

WHEN BABY PRAYS: When baby by her crib at night Enfolded her little hands to pray— Dear little hands so soft and white— I know while the sweet lips say: "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; And, listening, years are backward rolled The past is as a tale untold.

It comes again, the old sweet faith; It is my own, it is my own, it is my own. And doubt has fled, the gloomy wrath, Before a baby's words alone; "If I sound die before I wate, I play the Lord my soul to late; So, for a baby, then, give place, My thanks, dear Lord, my thanks to Thee.

Two negro rapists have been lynched in Texas this week, Waco and Sulphur Springs, being the scenes of the lynchings. All of which goes to show that even in most law-abiding communities there are some crimes so appalling that sinning vengeance will be taken.

The trust question seems to have been entirely lost sight of in the Texas gubernatorial scrap. What's the matter with going after a few Standard Oil scamps, if we must have them, such a corruption and the ground all torn up in Texas next year?—Sherman Register.

China sold us $60,000,000 worth of goods last year, while we disposed of but half that amount to the Flowery Kingdom. Why all this bother, then, about a boycott by the plant-eyed and tricky Monrolians? A proper retaliatory boycott by the United States would be to bar both him and his goods from this country.

Before the people can be expected to employ Judge Brooks to "clean out the democracy's Augean stable at Austin," he must, as mayor, Mr. Waples would be an excellent man for mayor of a Texas city. BRITT-NEELSON GO FOR ALL OR NOTHING

Purse of Coming Event is $10,000 to Winner—20-Round Fights No Go

BY W. W. NAUGHTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 15.—Who dare say now that pugilism is a purse-splitting, mercenary pursuit with never a glimmer of true rivalry about it? Here we have Jimmy Britt and Battling Nelson fighting for the biggest monetary guarantee that has ever offered two men outside the heavyweight class and agreeing that there shall be a side bet of $10,000 and that the winner shall take everything in sight.

Hard times, my masters, and cold comfort for any kind of a ring specialist when the excitement of matchmaking time wears away and he settles down to the treadmill routine of training days.

To the best of my recollection Sharkey and Fitzsimmons were the last pair of glove-wielders that fought on the all or nothing basis. That was when they boxed in Mechanics' pavilion, San Francisco, back in '96.

I know that the sailor used to feel quite queer when he pondered over the fact that he was going against one of the greatest human fighting machines in existence and that his managers had made no provision for a loser's end.

Maybe the fellows behind Sharkey finally got to thinking that the prospect was none too rosy. Anyhow, Wyatt Earp came to the rescue and Sharkey, the winner, "took everything."

NO "FUNNY" BUSINESS. It does not follow that there will be any queer dealings in connection with the Britt-Nelson match but it would be just as well for both camps to be thoroughly informed of the time comes for choosing the referee. The terms such as the articles of agreement contain have been responsible for crookedness on more occasions than the shark-Eitzimmons fight, for there are numbers of men connected with pugilism who cannot look forward complacently to a prospect of no returns from a contest they are interested in.

BRITT ASKS NO QUARTER. As far as can be judged at present it is nothing but the bitterest of rivalry that has caused Britt and Nelson to have their articles framed thuswise. In speaking of the matter before the contract was drawn up Willie Britt said: "We ask no consideration and we will give none. My brother has gone about his business and has not been afraid of Nelson's prospective contest with Nelson. He knew it was inevitable. He remained silent when the Nelson crowd was tempting him about being afraid to have the fight on all this time he was simply comparing the offers made and trying to figure out which was the best. We believe now that the Colma proposition is the most enticing and the fight is on. Nelson will not get a dollar out of it unless he can beat Britt."

PUBLIC THOUGHT BRITT SCARED. Willie Britt states the case correctly when he says that his brother was charged with being afraid of Nelson. Jimmy kept his own counsel so long in respect to his intentions that some of his best friends even were beginning to think that he had no stomach for a tussle with the durable Dane. One story was circulated to the effect that Jimmy had been offered a role in Nat Goodwin's new play and was going to give Nolan and the fight fans the blues by going off to New York to enter upon a footlight career.

WE ALL KNOW DIFFERENT NOW. Articles of agreement have been signed, sealed and delivered and Britt and Nelson will meet in a daylight ring on the green sward of Colma on the afternoon of Sept. 9.

TWENTY ROUNDS GOOD ENOUGH. The Britts now admit that they would just as soon have entered into a twenty-round match with Nelson before making arrangements for another and longer battle.

Great minds sometimes run in the same channel. Without knowing what Billy Britt's ideas on the subject, Billy Nolan, manager of Nelson, said yesterday afternoon: "We don't want any more twenty-round affairs with Britt if we can avoid them. It looks to me as though they could go on boxing twenty rounds all the year round and still have the question of superiority left open. But wants to meet this fellow in a battle to the bitter end and have the matter settled."

WACO IS REVENGED

Panthers' Errors Help Tigers Get Easy Victory. WACO, Texas, Aug. 15.—Taking advantage of Panther errors and hitting at opportune times, Waco took the game from Fort Worth Monday, score 7 to 3. Christmas worked in the Fort Worth box for seven innings but was replaced in the eighth by Walsh. Waco scored first in the fourth on a base on balls, a three-bagger and a single. Three more tallies in the seventh and two in the ninth gave the Tigers the game.

AT CANFIELD'S ANKLE DEEP IN PLUSH, MEN CROWD AROUND ROULET WHEELS BETTING STACKS OF $1,000 AT A CLIP

Marble Statue in Park Surrounding Canfield's Gambling House at Saratoga

A Crowd of Bookmakers watching a Finish

Lillian Russell in the Grandstand of the Saratoga Race Course

MOST EXCLUSIVE GAMBLING HOUSE AT AMERICA'S MONTE CARLO CATERS TO A GILDED COTERIE—IN A MAGNIFICENT MANSION AT SARATOGA FORTUNES ARE TOSSED AWAY LIKE PEBBLES—SENSUOUS SURROUNDINGS FOR SPENDERS.

Saratoga, N. Y., the American Monte Carlo, supports some twenty-five gambling houses, which run wide open. Canfield's is the fashionable resort and $200,000 is won or lost there at roulette and faro six nights a week. "Joe" Ullman's, where professionals are more welcome, does an even larger business at times. Small resorts, like the "Gem" or Sweeney's, will take 5-cent wagers at roulette, Klondike, bookmaking-wheel or dice. Canfield is said to win $100,000 a week. Half a million dollars change hands in the betting ring of the race track every day. Jesse Lewisohn employs three men to lay his track wagers. A pool room runs wide open near the race track for bets on foreign races. Scores of women gamble in the rooms of fashionable hotels with cards, principally bridge, afternoon and evening. Town officials do not stop the gambling. Estimated amount of money wagered among a possible 10,000 people each day, $1,000,000. The unsophisticated pay the freight.

BY MARLEN E. PEW.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Gambling mad Saratoga looks upon Canfield's as its show place. It is where spenders in high life can have high play. People come from afar to gaze at the establishment. Only the elect pass in. A white chip at Canfield's is equal to the cost of a swell Christmas dinner for a family of six. One white chip at Canfield's could buy stacks at most of the other gaming rooms of Saratoga. Canfield's is the place where wealth stands ankle deep in the plush carpet and shoves $1,000 bets across a table with sickening monotony, and $10,000 wagers are no rarity. A night in Richard Canfield's fashionable gambling house opens with active operations at 9:30 o'clock. By that time the 200 or 300 men and women, who make this a nightly rendezvous, have returned from the races and have dressed for dinner. Canfield's magnificently appointed dining room, adjoining the gambling saloon, is declared to be the finest restaurant on the American continent, and certainly is the most expensive. Delmonico's and Sherry's in New York do not compare with it in the matter of price. The house is a magnificent old brick of stately dimensions, with tall windows, high ceilings and spacious rooms. It is blanketed with creeping ivy. It was a time-worn mansion when Canfield purchased it several years ago to be used as a gambling house in the summer and as a residence in winter. It is in the very heart of the town and the beautiful surrounding park of four acres is one great bower of flowers in full bloom, playing fountains, imported Italian marble statuary and soft green lawns bordered by dense shrubbery. The most conspicuous piece of statuary is an indescribably sardonic smile, as if mocking at human folly. It is flanked by the bust of a wood nymph, whose beauty might point the moral of still more folly. Canfield's total of statuary is said to have cost $50,000. Richard Canfield is an acknowledged connoisseur of art. He has equipped his place as becomes the fastidious tastes of his wealthy patrons. Expensive paintings adorn the lofty walls, and the color schemes and decorations were worked out under a master eye. Canfield's is wide open, but nevertheless a certain exclusiveness is maintained. Canfield is himself a walking combination social directory. Who's Who and Almanach de Gotha. One of his fads, he admits, is to follow the destinies of generations of fashionable families. At most of the Saratoga gambling houses which make any sort of pretentions the only credentials for admittance are a dress suit and a bank account. Canfield demands these, too, but he discourages the professional gambler, and, in fact, everyone who cannot claim some sort of social prestige. There are no hang-outs and undesirable patrons are politely but firmly requested to evaporate. By 10 p. m. the game is in full swing in the great green gaming room. The nine roulette wheels are ranged along the outside wall, and the rattle of ivory chips can be distinctly heard in the street. The two faro layouts are at one end. From six to fourteen men surround the roulette tables, and usually four or five are at each faro table. The common purchase is $1,000 worth of chips to start the game. The smallest chip is valued at $2, and they range to $100 in value. Not a night passes that $200,000 is not lost over these green tables. Very little actual currency or gold changes hands, as all payments are made in checks. Mr. Canfield thoughtfully provided a handsomely carved writing desk behind a screen for the purpose of check endorsement.

Canfield says that he does not encourage faro playing because it is the game of the professionals. As a matter of fact, a heady faro player, with an honest deal, can frequently beat the game. Roulette, on the other hand, is a sure percentage winner for the bank. Canfield says that his average percentage on roulette is five and a fraction on each spin of the ball in the wheel. Professional gamblers declare it is much more, but, taking Canfield at his own word, his net profit can be figured to be in the neighborhood of $10,000 a night, exclusive of faro and the dining room. It is common belief among sports that his profit is something like $100,000 a week. The real, lively gambling season continues only through August and when the tremendous expenses of maintenance, "protection," hush money, etc., are computed it is little wonder that Canfield favors roulette as a steady income producer. There is no limit. Canfield personally superintends the play. He knows the man who can afford to lose $20,000 and who cannot be depended upon to make good a $50,000 loss. When the player reaches his limit in Canfield's judgment the game is closed to him. The writer stood at a roulette wheel from midnight to 1 a. m. and watched the operations of seven players. Three of the men were well-known Wall street operators, and frequenters of the race tracks. The play was in absolute silence save for the spin of the marble in the mahogany wheel and the rattle of the fine ivory chips of variegated colors.

A Millionaire's Play
The table was on the single board variety, with thirty-six numbers and the usual side plays. A young New York millionaire who had been drinking heavily played at the wheel end and attempted a system upon the "0" and "double 0," with an occasional stack upon a number, but all with bad fortune. He brought 200 $25 chips and in ten minutes had exhausted these, in addition to those from one small winning on a number. He then took over 500 chips of the same price and lost consistently. Seeing his stupid condition a friend urged him to retire. He refused and insisted upon buying more. Canfield sent a lieutenant to him with a message that it was time to write a check if he wanted more chips. The millionaire wrote the check and bought more chips. Fortune played him fickle turns, and he lost to the end of the hour, not quite an hour, and something like $10,000.

Won a Little
A gray-haired old financier at the end of the table, his grizzled beard brushing a melting shirt front, playing with $10 chips, and frequently his stock would represent $10,000. The old man at the single spin his wager would at times be $1,000. At the end of the hour he was more than even with the game, and he quit a mild winner. A dark-eyed little man at the table played the colors with fair profit. He seemed to be fascinated with No. 26, and every play carried from one to ten of his chips on this chance. It came twice in the hour, once with three of his chips aboard and once with five.

It Scared Him
A boyish-faced chap, who did not look to be more than 22, played at the side. For half an hour he "piked" on "splits," odd and even, and the red and black, and he realized a stack which represented perhaps $2,000. A sudden wild fever then seemed to seize him and he pushed the entire stack onto the black. Half a dozen chips fell over the line onto the numbers. The stack, soft-voiced croupier passed and he asked inquiringly at the youth. The boy reached out his trembling hand and stacked the six chips on 36, red. Then the boy cashed in, a loser about $1,400 on that turn of the wheel, and seemed frightened at his darning.

The bank has not been "broken" this season. John W. Gates is reported to have plunged $50,000 in a night's play. John Drake and Jesse Lewisohn are said to have made some heavy wagers. "Diamond Jim" Brady boasted of a $25,000 killing. It is daylight ere the play stops, and it would continue then if the gamblers had not been told that Canfield has no closing hour in August.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS

Official announcement is made that the Santa Fe has decided on its route for the short cut to Galveston from the main trunk line. The surveys have been completed and the right of way is being secured. The gap to be closed is 250 miles long. The line or cut-off is to be known as the Belton cut-off, beginning at Belton thence to Rincon. At Whitewater connection will be made with the extension of the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix, now under construction.

RUSHING MEXICO TRAVEL

Texas Roads Will Benefit by Increased Winter Traffic
Passenger Traffic Manager Murdock of the Mexican Central railroad was here Monday on his return to the republic from a trip to Kansas City. Mr. Murdock is elated over the prospects of a heavy winter movement to the republic and says that many people are going there from the two territories and also from northern Texas. Not only from these sections, but from other states the movement, he says, will be very large. The railroads of the republic, he says, are working together in an effort to make Mexico a great winter resort for tourists and the number of people who will visit that country the coming winter will, he says, be exceedingly large. In past years Mexican railroads have taken very little interest in putting that country to the front as a desirable country

ROADS ARE VALUABLE

Government Bulletin Shows Valuation by States
A government bulletin has been issued by the census bureau giving the valuation of railroads in the United States. The total is placed at $11,244,852,000, distributed among the various states. Texas has $25,772,000. Others: Alabama, $123,401,000; Maine, $19,148,000; Maryland, $132,342,000; Massachusetts, $250,052,000; Michigan, $277,597,000; Minnesota, $466,734,000; Mississippi, $107,884,000; Missouri, $309,728,000; Montana, $19,299,000; Nebraska, $23,170,000; Nevada, $43,745,000; New Hampshire, $79,786,000; New Jersey, $332,560,000; New Mexico, $66,400,000; New York, $598,222,000; North Carolina, $118,146,000; North Dakota, $122,290,000; Ohio, $589,797,000; Oklahoma, $78,668,000; Oregon, $75,561,000; Pennsylvania, $1,420,608,000; Rhode Island, $25,719,000; South Carolina, $75,500,000; South Dakota, $49,846,000; Tennessee, $121,166,000; Utah, $9,325,000; Vermont, $321,000; Virginia, $11,315,000; Washington, $182,837,000; West Virginia, $201,799,000; Wisconsin, $284,510,000; Wyoming, $100,307,000.

GOOD SUMMER TRAVEL

Tourist travel at the present time is breaking all records in every section of country. Transcontinental and Colorado roads say the volume of business is simply immense. It is said that the cause of this great movement of people is mainly the Lewis and Clark exposition now going on at Portland, Ore. There has not been such a large tourist travel from the south in many years.

INTERURBAN APPOINTMENT

Steps Taken Toward Improvements Recently Outlined
R. P. Williams of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been appointed roadmaster of the Northern Texas Traction company, with headquarters here. Mr. Williams' first work will be to put the interurban line between Fort Worth and Dallas in first-class shape. After this has been done attention to improving the city lines in Fort Worth will command the roadmaster's time, as announced several days ago by President Bishop of the Traction company proposes to put the company property between the two cities and in Fort Worth

In good shape, necessitating the expenditure of about $50,000. Thomas Haw has been appointed master mechanic by General Manager Mapledoram, to succeed O. S. Haw, resigned.

STRIKE IN MEXICO
News comes from Mexico that brakemen on the Mexican Central are out on a strike for advanced wages. Some thirty struck a few days ago at Oaxaca. This is the second strike on the Mexican this year. In January they went out for a similar reason. Those who quit work were supplanted by new men, and this is being done in the present trouble as fast as the company can find men to take the place of the brakemen who went out.

TO BURN OIL
It is learned that the Mexican Central railroad company is now having built at different points along the line in the republic tanks preparatory to the use of oil for fuel on all locomotives. Eight large tanks are being constructed and later the use of oil will be extended to the entire system. The oil will probably come from the Texas fields.

RABBI JASEN SAYS JEWS SHOULD ARM
Only Hope of Down-trodden, Either Jew or Gentile, Lies in Armed Self-Defense
Defer-se
Rabbi Joseph Jasen of this city, who is at present spending his vacation with his parents in Cincinnati, Ohio, is quoted by the Cincinnati Post as being an advocate of armed self-defense upon the part of Jewish people in Russia. Quoting him the paper says: "The mass of the Jewish people in Russia and elsewhere thoroughly sympathize in such a movement. They have learned by bitter experience that there is nothing to be gained by trying to placate the Russian bureaucracy. It is well known to the American public how the Russian officials were principally responsible for the brutal massacres of Kishineff and elsewhere. The only hope of the down-trodden peoples of Russia, for the Jew or Gentile, is in armed self-defense."

NO MEETING HELD
Members of School Board Not Present For Session
Absence of several members of the school board and lack of a quorum, caused a postponement of the meeting to have been held in the mayor's office Monday afternoon. In addition to the mayor and city secretary, only Mayor Van Zandt was present. A meeting will be held some time in the near future, the exact date not announced. Senator Hanger will then appear before the board, and attorney for the American Book Company, with a view of having White's Arithmetics, which have been replaced by other books, again adopted for use.

COLLECTOR AFTER DELINQUENT TAXES
Statement of Personal Dues Dating Back to 1885 Being Sent Out From Office Aggregate $50,000
City Assessor and Collector W. J. Glavin and his force have been busy for several weeks preparing statements for those who are delinquent in their personal taxes dating back many years. Some of them run as far back as 1885. Two thousand of these renditions have been sent out during the past week, the total amount of the taxes aggregating approximately $50,000. It is not believed likely that more than half this sum will be collected. A century ago France had 26 per cent of the population of Europe; now it has only 11 per cent of it. At one time French was spoken all over the world. Today it is the language of 45,000,000 people, while German is spoken by 100,000,000 and English by nearly 150,000,000.

AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS

Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Itching Unbearable—Cured by Cuticura in Thirty Days at Cost of $4.75.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Soap, six boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. I bathed with the Soap, applied the Ointment once a day, and took the Resolvent as directed. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago. "The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable. "To sum it all up, I would not go through such another ordeal of affliction for thirty-five years for the State of Kansas. (signed) W. M. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905." Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent are sold throughout the world. Fuller Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors, Boston. "Mailed Free," How to Cure Psoriasis Humors.

Mosquito Bites Cause MALARIA

Scientists have discovered after the most careful tests and experiments that mosquitoes are actually the means of conveying Malaria and other summer fevers. These dangerous insects carry the disease germs from those already sick and when they bite, they inject the poison directly into the human blood. Then the only way to be safe from these diseases is to stop the mosquito from biting—you may say: "easier said than done," but it is an actual fact that

Littell's Liquid Sulphur Prevents Mosquito Bites

It not only does this, but it puts the blood in such a fine, healthy condition, that you are rendered immune from all contagious diseases. You can do this

By following these directions: Take a few drops of Littell's Liquid Sulphur in a glass of water at night and morning for a week or ten days, also apply externally to exposed spots in mosquito seasons.

HOMAN MAY ENTER MAYORALTY RACE

Young Business Man Is Being Urged by Friends for City Office

Since Paul Waples has declined to enter the race for mayor, a new candidate is being urged to enter the race. Friends of John Homan, son-in-law of J. W. Spencer of this city, declares that he will be a candidate. As a prominent member of the Sixth Ward Civic League he is expected to be strongly backed by that organization and similar ones in other wards of the city. Mr. Homan is at present in Mineral Wells and his candidacy has not been officially announced. So well defined is the rumor, however, that there is little doubt in regard to the matter. J. W. Spencer this morning declined to discuss the matter.
