

HEARST SEIZES BALLOT BOXES

First Move Made in Election Contest

AFRAID OF STUFFING

Gets Court Order and Sends Lieutenants in Autos to the Polling Places

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Sensational developments followed rapidly this morning in the fight of William R. Hearst to contest the majority election of George R. McClellan.

Having secured last night an order from Justice Gaylor in Brooklyn directing the police department to deliver the ballot boxes to the board of elections forthwith, Hearst men lost no time in dispatching fifty automobiles carrying men armed with the court's order to various police stations where they demanded the ballot boxes.

In most instances the officers in charge at police stations directed that the boxes be placed in patrol wagons and each lot, guarded by five policemen, hurried to the office of the board of elections at 785 Greenwich street.

Meantime other Hearst men had gone to the home of John R. Voorhees, president of the board of elections, at 11 West Forty-second street, and, arousing him, asked him to immediately go to his office and receive the ballot boxes as fast as they reached his office.

Refuses to Open Office

President Voorhees was surprised at the peremptory demand and was quickly informed of the court's order. Later he appeared at a window and, addressing the Hearst men who fairly surrounded the house, said he would not go to the office of the board of elections at such an unreasonable hour, but that he would appear at his office and open the same at 9 o'clock, the usual hour, today. At 3 o'clock this morning wagons and automobiles filled with ballot boxes, police officers and Hearst watchers began to arrive at the office of the board of elections and an hour later Greenwich street in that vicinity was impassable. Unable to get rid of their charges, there was nothing for the police to do but to await the opening of the office and as every twelve or fourteen boxes were guarded by five policemen, a most impressive array of officers was seen in evidence.

As the morning advanced the balance of the 8,000 boxes continued to arrive and Hearst watchers as numerous as the police helped to swell the crowd, which was further added to as the report spread that some starting political move had been made, necessitating a great body of officers at the office of the board of elections.

When they failed to secure the presence of President Voorhees, Hearst men called upon A. C. Allen, chief clerk of the board at his home on Eighth street. Mr. Allen could do nothing for them, and expressed the opinion that the court order had resulted from a misunderstanding. He said that a literal compliance with the order would be impossible, as the 8,000 ballot boxes used in New York could not by any means be gotten into the rooms occupied by the board.

His understanding of the law, he said, was that the boxes should remain in the possession of the police, but that, following an election, he could give no advice as to the immediate disposition of the fast accumulating boxes and thought that there was nothing to do but await the opening of the board's office and let President Voorhees direct what to do with the 8,000 ballot boxes.

It was said the sudden move made by Mr. Hearst last night, followed the report that a printing company had been at work Tuesday night before noon today in the office of the board of elections. The report was further to the effect that the ballot boxes were to be opened while in the hands of the police and stuffed. Mr. Hearst decided to act at once. The order secured from Judge Gaylor directed the police commissioner and all his subordinates in the five boroughs to turn over to the board of elections forthwith all ballot boxes containing ballots and stubs of ballots, and also to file with the county clerk before noon today all envelopes containing tally sheets, inspectors' returns, defective ballots and ballots marked for identification.

Hearst Makes Affidavit
The order was issued on the affidavit of Mr. Hearst himself. The affidavit states Mr. Hearst's belief that he received a plurality of the votes, but that, according to the returns 3,999 more votes than he himself received were counted for McClellan.

Captain Cruise read the order to Commissioner McAdoo over the telephone. The commissioner's reply was an order over the telephone to the captains, directing them to read the Gaylor order over the telephone to other captains.

BONDSMAN WILL DELIVER PRISONER

Fernar Fort Worth Officer Taken to Mount Pleasant by Chief of Police Maddox

J. H. Maddox, chief of police of Fort Worth, left this morning for Mount Pleasant, Texas, having in charge R. E. Lamb, who is charged in the Titus county district court with embezzlement from the Express company while in the employ of that company between this city and Texarkana, running as messenger on the Cotton Belt. Lamb was formerly an officer of the Fort Worth police department and was taken to Mount Pleasant on Sunday, at 1:50 p. m., made at the time of his arrest. Forfeiture of this bond was followed by the service of papers on the bondsman. It was discovered that the service papers in the bond forfeiture proceedings were dated on Sunday, a continuance being obtained on this ground.

In the meantime Lamb had been located at Beaumont, Texas, being taken into custody in that city Nov. 1 and brought to Fort Worth by Night Captain Blanton. Chief Maddox will ask the indulgence of the court in the matter of the bond forfeiture, inasmuch as the man has now been secured and delivered to the court now in session at Beaumont.

MEN OF HONESTY IN DEMAND, SAYS WARNER

New Missouri Senator Delivers Address at Farewell Banquet in Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—United States Senator-elect Warner, the first republican to be elected to the senate from Missouri since Carl Schurz in 1889, was last night tendered a farewell banquet at the Baltimore Hotel in this city. Six hundred republicans from Missouri and Kansas attended and toasts were responded to by several prominent politicians of this state. Gardner Lathrop of Chicago, general counsel of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railway, acted as toastmaster.

Senator Warner spoke to the toast, "National Issues," and said in part: "The demand of the hour in official life is intellectual honesty, a demand for officials to act right as well as think right; officials who hew to the line of duty as God gives them light to see their duty, letting the chips fall where they may. Today the man of all men in official life who leads the column of intellectual honesty is the President of the United States. I shall enter the senate as the personal friend of the President, as an admirer of his stalwart Americanism and of his rugged official courage. No other president since Lincoln has trusted the people as Roosevelt trusts them, and no other president has the people trusted as they have Roosevelt."

His efforts to secure legislation clothing the interstate commerce commission with power necessary to insure a square deal for common carriers and shippers have my unqualified support."

"Life insurance companies are to a great extent the savings banks of the people, and should by legislation be placed under as strict surveillance as national banks, and the misappropriation or embezzlement of funds by their officials should be declared to be a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary."

Speaking of the tariff question Senator Warner said: "Grounded as I am in the protective tariff, I am not inseparably wedded to it."

Senator Warner said that congress should take no backward step in the reclamation of arid lands, declare strongly for a navy that should be second to none in the world and favored the admission immediately of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one state.

Governor E. W. Hoch of Kansas, who responded to the toast, "Kansas Message to Missouri," said in the course of his remarks: "I want to say to you, not as an alarmist, but as a slight contributor to the American awakening, that unless we find some effectual remedy for the control of the great trusts and corporations in the interest of all people, a tidal wave of socialism will sweep over this country one of these days that will do incalculable damage. It will not come alone. It will sweep the paths of this country's people with destruction."

PANAMA CANAL BLAMED FOR TREASURY DEFICIT

Administration Said to Be Planning $60,000,000 Bond Issue to Cover Shortage

Staff Special to The Telegram.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 9.—A $60,000,000 bond issue is the plan which it now appears, has been determined on to meet the deficit, and solve the government's problem of short revenues.

Congress is to be asked to authorize the secretary of the treasury to borrow enough money to reimburse the government for what has been paid out on account of the Panama canal. The items to date are:

Paid to the Panama Canal company for the rights and effects of that corporation $10,000,000
Paid to the state of Panama, in accordance with the canal treaty, and for rights in the canal strip, etc. 10,000,000
Set aside and mostly expended for salaries and work in preparation to build the canal 10,000,000

Total canal expense to date $30,000,000
The above extraordinary expenditures have been taken out of the government's ordinary revenues and the result has been a shortage. At the end of last year it amounted in round numbers to $24,000,000. On the first of November of this year an additional deficit of $15,000,000 had accumulated. Thus the government is behind its revenues $39,000,000.

By raising $60,000,000 on a bond sale, it is figured, this $39,000,000 deficit would be wiped out and the government's books would show an excess of revenue over expenditures of about $20,000,000.
Secretary of Treasury Shaw is understood to favor the bond plan. He contends that there is no real deficit. The apparent deficit is caused by the payment of extraordinary expenses from the ordinary revenues. The Panama canal should, he contends, be financed by itself. It is an undertaking of unusual magnitude, attended in the beginning by payments of unusual size, and it is unreasonable to ask the ordinary revenues of the government to defray these payments. This principle was recognized by congress when the canal was authorized, for in the act

PATTISON'S PLURALITY IN OHIO OVER 40,000

Democratic Victory Complete. Louisville Fusionists Contest the Result

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 9.—The election of John M. Pattison, democrat, as governor of Ohio by approximately 40,000 plurality over Myron T. Herrick, the present republican governor, a democratic working majority in both houses of the Ohio legislature, an immediate appeal by William R. Hearst, the municipal ownership candidate for the New York mayoralty, to the supreme court to contest McClellan's re-election in that city on the basis of alleged evidence of wholesale illegal acts at the polls; a plurality of 2,485 votes for McClellan, an immediate contest by the fusionists in Louisville in the courts against the election of the democratic municipal officers and members of the legislature, were the developments in yesterday's election aftermath.

McClellan's plurality is the minimum on record for a successful mayoralty candidate in New York. Hearst's managers claim evidence of illegal acts against 1,600 inspectors of elections and that 30,000 of his adherents were turned back from the polls because their names already had been voted.

District Attorney Jerome has announced he will immediately make a searching investigation of the alleged wholesale frauds and has ordered the returns from the Eighteenth and Sixth assembly districts to be carefully guarded. These are the home districts of Tammany Leaders Murphy and Tim Sullivan.

In Louisville the fusion party managers claim a non-election in fifteen precincts because of disappearance of section paraphernalia, that democratic workers confiscated the ballot boxes in fourteen other precincts and allowed falsification of returns and alleged activity of thugs and repeaters.

All through Ohio the belated returns showed republican losses and republicans concede Pattison's plurality will reach 25,000. The democrats claim Pattison's plurality approximately 55,000, which would elect the entire democratic ticket.

Republicans concede the democrats between two and five majority in the next senate and ten to fifteen in the house, while the democratic claim is a majority of five in the senate and twenty-seven in the house.
The city party's "reform" plurality in Philadelphia is 45,333 for sheriff and the fusionist candidate for state treasurer (Berry) carried the city by over 36,000 plurality.
The upheaval was the greatest in Pennsylvania for many years.
The Maryland legislative situation is in doubt.
In Rhode Island the republican gubernatorial candidate has a plurality estimated at 5,000 and Providence elects a republican mayor for the first time in many years.
In Massachusetts democratic threats are made for a recount of the vote for lieutenant governor. The republicans in Massachusetts count 23,116 plurality for Guild for governor, though Draper, for lieutenant governor, got less than 2,000 plurality. The democrats gained three senators and one representative in the legislature.
Every candidate of the Union Labor party in San Francisco was elected by a substantial majority; in Salt Lake the anti-Mormon victory is made complete by the election of the entire American party city ticket.
The Kentucky legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Blackburn, apparently will include thirty-one democrats, five republicans and two doubtful in the senate and seventy democrats and fourteen republicans and seven doubtful in the house.
Nebraska was swept by the republicans. Returns from other states and cities show notable changes.

SEWER CONTRACT LET BY COUNCIL

Extensions on South Side to Be Completed by June, Next Year

Contract for sewer extension in the Second, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards was officially let at a special meeting of city council held Wednesday night. The contract as before determined by the committee was let to the McQuatters Plumbing and Machine company of Hillsboro and W. W. Cook and Son of Junction City, Pa. A schedule of prices for each part of the work was adopted to provide for any variance from the estimated cost of $72,000. The work in the Second ward, added at the preceding session of council, is to be done upon the same scale. Official form of bonds was also adopted at the meeting as well as the levy of a five per cent tax to create a fund for the payment of the sewer extension. This tax will not increase the tax rate of the city, merely setting aside a portion of it for the specific purpose. Provision is also made for the payment of a $25,000 cash payment.

Work on the sewer extension is to begin within thirty days after acceptance and to be completed by June 1, 1906.

Petition was received by council from P. Ingram complaining that Fakes & Co. are extending their frontage eighteen inches, thus cutting off the outlook from his widow. The matter was referred to the city attorney. Final estimate of the cost of the sewer for the Van Zandt and De Zavala schools were allowed.

Tax petition of Oliver S. Kennedy was referred to the finance committee.

Factory Club to Take Up Campaign Based on Improvement Districts

The Factory Club will in the next ten days begin steps looking to the material improvement of the sidewalks of the city. It is proposed to agitate the building of sidewalks in portions of the city where there are, at present, no walks and to extend the ones already built until the entire city conforms to the idea that sidewalks are not a luxury, but a necessity. It is said that the first active work in this direction will be begun on the south side, one or more improvement districts to be formed as an example to the other residents.

The content of the Factory Club will follow a statement of the charter provisions made by E. C. Orrick, city attorney of Fort Worth, who said this morning:

"The same general principles governing the formation of improvement districts for street paving also hold good for sidewalk paving."

"These general principles as laid down by the city attorney regarding the improvement districts may be briefly stated as follows:

Improvement districts may cover grading, graveling, paving, building sewers and constructing sidewalks. Council may levy a tax to cover expense of such improvement.

Districts may be formed by a resolution by council declaring necessary the improvement and requiring the cost to be paid by property owners who will receive benefits of improvement, declaring specifically the nature of improvement directed, with the limits of the same. Ten days publication of notice to real estate owners stating the limits of the districts and cost of improvement; meeting of council to hear any objections offered for formation of districts; filing of claims by persons who have already been to expense in improvement of same nature as that proposed in the district, which shall be adjusted by council and city engineer, and awarding the contract by council.

City may issue bonds, sell the same and pay for the improvement in cash, or may issue interest-bearing warrants payable annually for such a period as may be deemed best by council, all purchasers of such obligations to be protected in the same way as bonds are protected under decisions of the higher courts.

The amount of tax available for improvement is $7500 per $10000 on the valuation of real estate without improvements.

OF INTEREST TO THE CATTLEMEN

MEXICO'S CATTLE TRADE

The Mexican Herald contains the following valuable information regarding the domestic and import cattle, the statement being particularly interesting in view of the fact that cattle raising is becoming an industry of paramount importance in the republic.

Land can be bought which is in every way suitable for running cattle at from $4 to $8 per acre, and at from $12 to $20 per acre, cleared. Clearing and burning land costs at the rate of from $12 to $18 per acre. After it is cleared and planted in fattening grasses of the country it is necessary to clear it of woods and small growth once every year for some years, and this, it is estimated, costs from 12 to 15 cents per acre per year.

Two kinds of fattening grasses are the best for fattening in this section. They are para grass and Guinea grass. Para grass can be bought through an agent. These grasses grow the year around, and when eaten off all that is necessary to rejuvenate the pastures is to give them a short rest. The yearly work of clearing is best done just before the rainy season or in the months of March, April or May. A para pasture is said to be little more expensive to keep up than a Guinea grass pasture. Occasional burning over of the pastures is a good thing. The older a pasture gets the easier it is to maintain and keep clear. A ten-year-old pasture requires very little attention.

Young cows for breeding purposes can be bought at from $20 to $25 per head. A thoroughbred registered bull from the United States costs from $500 to $750 laid down on all breeding purposes, can be brought in for from $150 to $200. These bulls are young and a fine calf crop invariably comes from crossing the heavy breeds of the north with the Mexican cattle.

ONE DIPPING SUFFICIENT

Southern cattle will be admitted into the Indian reservations of northeastern Oklahoma this winter, with one dipping, and no subsequent inspection, at least until further orders. Colonel Albert Dean, local agent of the bureau of animal industry, in charge at Kansas City, received from Secretary Wilson a modification of the inspection rules, granting the privilege mentioned.

"I have had for a week an application from a large shipper for permission to take 1,000 cattle into the reservation," said Colonel Dean this morning. "He wasn't going in unless he could get by with only one dipping."

The usual rules regarding the movement of southern cattle require that they be dipped once in crude petroleum, held at least three days for a second inspection, and dipped again if any ticks were found to have escaped in the first inspection. Last March the department issued an order that cattle could be admitted into the reservations with one dipping, this order existing May 1, 1905. That season 92,000 cattle were dipped in oil.

AMUSEMENTS

A good sized crowd was present at the opera house Wednesday night, despite the heavy rain which came down in the afternoon and evening. The crowd which was there showed its appreciation of the work of the players. "Holy Tolly" has been seen here before and has never been better than it was last night.

The work of Harry Richards as General Steele and Lillian Friebing as Lady Grafton in the burlesque love scene in the second act were the features of the show. Richards especially kept the audience in an uproar almost all the time he was on the stage.

The three Dutch comedian parts were played by Arthur Coe, Nat Bernard and Max Bloom. The bank scene and the power game in both of which Peter Sauerbraten, the wealthy delicatessen purveyor, succeeded in getting beat out of his money, were well done and brought forth laughter from all parts of the house. The three Dutch characters worked together well.

The play opened with a scene on the Yale campus and the familiar fence that has been the pride of Yale for years. The scene with the fence that would never be allowed at Yale. The second scene of the first act was tremendously effective, showing as it did a shell manded by four of the chorus with Lady Grafton as coxswain. The lights were turned out and as the crew pulled at the oars the scenery in moonlight passed by. During the scene Lady Grafton sang the boat song, "O'er Moonlit Waves."

Other songs that took well were "The Prettiest Girl in Borneo," interpolated from "Smiling Island" and sung by Albert Livingston as Harvard Yale and chorus; "Birch Canoe," an India song sung by Tom Moore as Reuben Hunter and a chorus; "Hiram Greene," by General Steele and his four daughters, and "Come Down Malinda," sung by Yale and Miss Hazel Edna as Daisy Raunyanne.

"DU BARRY"

"Du Barry" is written around a period when wars were declared over the love of a woman—when woman's hand ruled all the world. These courtiers of France during the reign of Louis XV were known as the bravest ruffians of any period, and the dramatist has selected that time to tell us of Du Barry—Du Barry, the pretty Parisian milliner—who commanded kings to bow before her and pay homage to her charms.

The company presenting Du Barry is adequate in every respect and it is understood that not every actress or actor is capable of interpreting the parts in this powerful drama. "Du Barry" will be seen at Greenwall's opera house Friday and Saturday night and Saturday matinee, Nov. 10 and 11.

"RAMONA"

A play that will go down in dramatic annals is the play "Ramona," that has recently made such a stir. It is a dramatized version of "Ramona," by Helen

CATTLEMEN PAYING UP

DAVIS, I. T., Nov. 9.—Colonel J. B. Kelsey, United States revenue inspector at Chickasaw nation, who has in charge of the cattle tax collection in this nation, was here today, and when asked about the recent trouble over the tribal cattle tax, said:

"I don't like to collect the penalty of one dollar per head on all delinquents, and do not expect much difficulty in future. Over 125,000 head have been paid on at 25 cents per head, and I don't think any of them believe a higher tax will be imposed. Only non-citizens are taxed, but I find that fully one-half of all the cattle in the Chickasaw nation are owned by citizens, making more than a quarter of a million head of cattle in this nation alone."

"Yes, we shall collect taxes on all cattle owned by non-citizens between Jan. 1 and March 4, 1906. I find cattle men generally are willing to pay without much trouble, and since I have been in charge we have had practically no trouble."

Land has been conducting government townships in the inspector's office in Muskogee, and reports splendid progress. At Ardmore he sold $11,000 worth of lots, some of them selling for as much as a thousand dollars each. At Muskogee he sold sixty-one lots at prices greatly in excess of their appraised value. He says Davis must be a good town, for his list shows that not a single lot here is for sale by the government.

FOOTBALL ARRANGED

Entre Nous to Play Picked Team Thanksgiving Day

A game is being arranged for Thanksgiving Day between the Entre Nous football team and a team composed largely of the players who were on the Sans Parle team last year. From present prospects this will be the only football game in Fort Worth on Thanksgiving Day, as the Elk team plays away from home at Greenville.

The team that will oppose the Entre Nous eleven will probably play under the name of the Fort Worth lightweights although it may still be made a club affair, in which case the team will play under Sans Parle colors.

AMUSEMENTS

Hunt Jackson, and has been acclaimed with unanimity a success. Teeming with dramatic power and pathos, its love element thrilling and pure, its comedy natural and spontaneous, such a verdict was inevitable. Miss Virginia Calhoun essays the title role, making a fascinating creation of it. Her company are of the highest order and lend her admirable support. The scenic effects and costumes are of surpassing excellence. Spanish dances and songs are an important feature, and will make one of the hits of the evening. "Ramona" comes to Greenwall's opera house Monday matinee and night, Nov. 13.

"THE COUNTY CHAIRMAN"

Politicians, merchants, farmers, business men, women and children, all go to make up the characters of "The County Chairman," which Henry W. Sargent offers at Greenwall's opera house Wednesday matinee and night, Nov. 13. The village of Antioch pictured in this comedy has a political campaign as interesting as any you ever took part in and the efforts of both sides are just as strenuous from the children's marching club to that of the torchlight procession supporting "Jim Hooker's" candidacy. It is a remarkable and vivid picture of love and politics in a country town told as only George Ade can tell, with its 100 people it is the most humorous, interesting, exciting and fascinating production of recent years.

"THE COLLEGE WIDOW"

The scenic equipment of "The College Widow," which comes to Greenwall's opera house Friday night, Nov. 17, is the work of Walter Burridge and throughout the frame provided for George Ade's attractive picture of college life is most satisfying to the eye. The exterior of the main university building, the gymnasium during a faculty reception, a corner of the athletic field with a football game in progress, and the porch of the leading town hostelry, illuminated in honor of the local team's victory, are the scenes shown, and they are a credit to the artist. This Ade comedy comes with the prestige of a New York and Chicago success unequalled in the annals of the stage. It is a Savage production, which means the best.

ENTIRE COUNTRY IS ENJOYING PROSPERITY

Cigar Consumption, a Good Index of General Pocketbook Conditions, is Very Heavy

WHOLESALE MERCHANTS SWAMPED WITH ORDERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The volume of business now in sight, wholesale merchants say, is the largest that the country has had for several years. The sidewalks in front of the big dry goods houses on Broadway, Mercer and Leonard streets are filled with cases of goods waiting to be put on cars to distant points. The manufacturers report that their orders for future delivery have never been so numerous. This general prosperity is not confined to any one class of products. In fact, by all, most factories are working day and night, employing a day in an endeavor to keep up with the demand for their products.

A prominent officer of the American Cigar Company, the largest manufacturer in the world, in commenting on the situation, said:

"We are so rushed with work in our factories that we have instructed our salesmen to take no more orders for immediate delivery until January, 1906. We cannot fill the orders we now have before the first of the year.

"This phenomenal business is partly due to the general prosperity of the country. Tobacco is generally looked upon as a luxury, but its consumption is affected less by good or bad times than any article of which I know. All of which goes to show that it is more of a necessity than a luxury."

"Then, too, it must be remembered that the growth of our country and the increasing popularity of tobacco has something to do in swelling our sales. There has been a marked and constant improvement in the production of cigars. Hap-hazard methods have been abandoned for those that are accurate and produce a uniform product. More attention is paid to the curing, the blending and the aging of the leaf tobacco. The cigars are better made, look better and taste better. You can now get a choice cigar for five cents than you could buy a few years ago for ten cents.

"This reduction in price and improvement in quality has been productive of larger sales throughout the country. Poor cigars are still made, but they will be but there is a way by which manufacturers who make good cigars may protect their interests and at the same time confer a favor upon the public, and that is by the use of a trade-mark."

"The American Cigar Company, in recognition of this fact, will hereafter place their Triangle A trade-mark on every box of their standard goods. Its appearance will be our formal guarantee that the product is one of the best quality, is made in a clean factory and is right in price."

MOTHER'S FRIEND

SAFELY THROUGH MOTHERHOOD WITHOUT PAIN.

What a wonderful message of hope and escape from suffering these words carry to that woman who is finding the hour that shall proclaim her Motherhood. For here is the first time God has blessed her; with what awe and mystery and awe she contemplates the coming of her child! She is casting its shadow before in the way of many joyful discords. The hope held out in these words simply means that birth has been turned into an event of thanksgiving and joy, stripped of its agonies and dangers, because of the insured skill of one so much to the expectant mother; she can apply it herself and feel an improvement at once which but the most skillful doctor could give which it saves her Motherhood. ARMY AND NAVY OF BRAZIL IN REVOLT

Ill Treatment by Officers Is Given as Cause of Rio Janeiro Uprising

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.--A Buenos Ayres dispatch to the Herald dated Wednesday says: "A revolution has just broken out in Rio de Janeiro against the Brazilian government. It is both military and naval. The entire garrison of the capital has rebelled, and the squadron in the harbor has sided with the revolutionists and threatened to bombard the city. "Hundreds of persons have been killed in encounters in the streets. One dispatch says the trouble began with a mutiny of the garrison of the fort of Saiz Cruz, due to the ill treatment of a sergeant by the officers in command, Colonel Pedro Ino was arrested and Major Freire and an ensign were killed. Troops were sent there to quell the mutiny." At the Brazilian legation there is no news of the outbreak, but Brazilian residents here say that a revolution would not surprise them, as the chiefs of the last revolutionary attempt were recently pardoned, the principal leader being Lauro Sodre, who was very active.

CORONER'S JURY VIEWS EXPLOSION

Two Thousand Kegs Touched Off to Show Direction of Explosion Force

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 9.--A dispatch to the Inter Ocean from Uniontown, Pa., says for the sake of illustrating a contested point to a coroner's jury there yesterday, 2,000 kegs of powder, representing a value of about $10,000, were exploded by a powder company. The shock of the explosion was felt in several surrounding towns, and there was great excitement throughout that end of the county. The coroner's jury, which had been sitting in the case of eighteen persons killed at Fair Chance Sept. 9, has expressed some desire for information as to the direction in which exploding powder exerted its greatest force. The powder people had taken the stand that the big magazines which went off on Sept. 9 had been exploded by some agency outside the magazines. They claimed that someone having a spite at the concern had exploded, under the magazines containing 10,000 kegs of powder, some other explosive, either fulminate of mercury or nitro-glycerine. In defense of this it was claimed that powder in exploding does not tear holes in the ground, and the company offered to prove this by practical demonstration to the coroner's jury. The coroner's jury retired a great distance and the battery was touched off. The explosion rocked the entire township and was heard as far as Connelville, Pa. The powder people then showed that no hole had been torn in the earth by the explosion.

The feminine political heavers hustled in a way that would make old-time politicians, and took themselves as seriously as though the franchise was entirely theirs. Not one, perhaps in every thousand of these women wants the suffrage; oh, dear no, they are altogether too extremely feminine for that. But playing at politics is quite another thing. So they entered the town, most of them, in the interest of Editor Hearst and William Travers Jerome. If the fair ladies had their way the job of district attorney would be a life one, with Jerome the incumbent. Drawing rooms were turned into semi-political headquarters for Jerome, while pamphlets were folded, envelopes and directed by fair buds. These toured the town in the fastest and most expensive of auto cars, tossing out literature telling why their candidate should win. Mrs. Margaret Astor Chanler is president of the Women's Municipal League. Her second name shows her close relationship to the leader of New York's 400. She brought many fashionable into the political arena with her. They assembled daily at the headquarters of the league, at 21 Union Square. Noon meetings were held, and it was no infrequent sight for such ultra-fashionables as Mrs. Henry Villard and Mrs. Frederick Nathan to be upon the platform pounding their daintily gloved hands together in ardent applause in speeches favoring Jerome. Mrs. Clarence Burns, one of the leading club women of the state, and Miss Helen Varick Boswell talked republicanism. At exclusive Delmonico's many enthusiastic meetings of women in politics were held. Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby, ably supported by Mrs. Harry Hastings and Mrs. Silas Leverette, were democratic feminine leaders. Municipal ownership had its enthusiastic gentle followers. Mrs. Harry Blatch, able daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, gave every moment of her time to help secure the mayor's chair for William Randolph Hearst. Women, maid and matrons in all parts of the city took upon the platform nightly what good times there would be in case Hearst was elected.

FAST BOXER HERE

Jack Madden to Give Exhibitions in This City

Jack Madden arrived in Fort Worth Wednesday night from the City of Mexico and has arranged to give a series of scientific exhibitions with his partner, Jack Daly, in this city, beginning next Monday. He reports that while in Mexico he met the Mexican featherweight champion, Jack Salazar, in a ten-round match before the Cosmopolitan Club of the City of Mexico. The decision was given him on points. He also mentioned among the men he has boxed Harrara, Clarence Forbes and George Dixon. He also boxed at Madison Square Garden, he says, and won the amateur bantam weight championship of the world, defeating three men in one night. In 1894 he reports defeating John Corners at the Coney Island Athletic Club, the bantam weight championship of the world.

NEW YORK URCHINS COMING TO TEXAS

Two Cars Sent Out by Children's Aid Society Leave St. Louis on Way to This State

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 9.--Boys' faces aglow with expectations of attractive Texas homes were prominent last night at the union station, when former New York gamins to the number of two score or more came in over the Washburn in a special car and after several hours' wait, eagerly hopped once more onto their traveling home and were soon singing up the Missouri Pacific toward the Lone Star state. The boys are the proteges of the Children's Aid Society of New York and were accompanied by its superintendent, R. M. Brace with E. J. Wendell and J. C. E. Grauer, two other officers of the society.

STRONG EVIDENCE OF FAITH

R. A. Anderson Guarantees That Hyomei Will Cure the Worst Case of Catarrh in Fort Worth

When one of the most reputable druggists in Fort Worth guarantees that a medicine will effect a cure or he will refund the money, it speaks volumes as to the merits of that remedy. It is in this way that R. A. Anderson is selling Hyomei, the treatment that has made so many cures of both acute and chronic cases of catarrh in Fort Worth and vicinity. Hyomei is not a pill, nor is it a liquid that has to be taken with a tablespoon or wineglass. Just breathe it by the aid of an inhaler that comes with every outfit, and benefit will be seen from the first treatment. It destroys all germ life in the air passages and lungs, and enriches and purifies the blood with additional ozone. It cures catarrh of the head and throat, or of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Wherever mucous membrane contains catarrhal germs, there Hyomei will do its work of healing. When using this treatment, the air you breathe will be found like that on the mountains high above the sea level, where grow balsamic trees and plants which make the air pure by giving off volatile antiseptic fragrance that is healing to the respiratory organs. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks' treatment. Remember that if Hyomei does not cure you, R. A. Anderson will refund your money. This is a good time to cure catarrh by this natural method and prevent catarrhal colds that are so common at this season.

The docket of cases for the committee at this session is especially large. The committee does not hold regular meetings, but meets at such times as the number of cases on the docket requires.

CIRCUS TRAIN WRECKED

Drawhead Pulls Out and Show Wagon Falls on Track

TEMPLE, Texas, Nov. 9.--The Campbell Brothers' circus was wrecked two miles west of Temple while en route to fill an engagement at Goldthwaite and that town was compelled to do without its circus performance. The wreck was caused by a drawhead pulling out of a flat car, letting a circus wagon which spanned the space between the cars fall on the track. The cars following were dented as a result, five cars being involved. No one was injured and none of the animals was in the wreck. The train was brought into Temple and repairs made.

The prisoners will be turned over to the Tarrant county authorities.

LEASES TO BE CANCELED

ARDMORE, I. T., Nov. 9.--United States District Attorney W. B. Johnson has received instructions from the department of justice to institute suits to cancel all leases of land where same were obtained through fraud or for an inadequate consideration. He has already brought several suits. This is in accordance with an act of congress passed for the protection of the Indians. Several real estate firms control as much as one hundred thousand acres each, and for the use of these lands they are making small quarterly payments to the Indians. The new order is likely to result in putting all leaseholds in Indian Territory in a chaotic condition.

FOOTBALL TEAM SUSPENDED IN BODY

All of High School Players Taking Part in Fatal Game Barred from School by Principal

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.--Eleven Hyde Park High school students comprising the football team which participated in the game with the team of Oak Park High school, which resulted in the death of Vernon Wise, were suspended from school forty days yesterday by Principal Hiram B. Loomis. Principal Loomis explained that he was taking action because the members of the Hyde Park team were warned not to play the game, as some of the members were behind in their studies. He made no mention of Wise's death. Murmurs of discontent and threats to appeal to the board of education were heard among the pupils, who said that had not the fatality occurred, nothing would have been heard about the game.

THE PASSING OF POPULISM

Our friends, the populists, are getting to be a very scarce entity these days, and while desultory efforts are being made to keep up some form of party organization in Texas, the rank and file of the small remnant left has betrayed an ardent desire to tie itself on to the tail of the Farmers' union procession, and populism has passed from Texas, apparently, forever.

The people of Texas never had much confidence in populists from the fact that its leaders in this state represented sore-headed and disgruntled office-seekers, who had invariably been repudiated in their political aspirations by the democracy of the state.

Practically the same conditions exist all over the country. Over in Georgia, which was something of a hotbed of populism, Tom Watson seems to be about all that is left of the populist party.

Colorado, Nebraska and other western states have been redeemed from the blight of populism, and in politics it has again narrowed down to the same old fight between the democrats and republicans.

Colorado, Nebraska and other western states have been redeemed from the blight of populism, and in politics it has again narrowed down to the same old fight between the democrats and republicans.

Jerome has been re-elected district attorney in New York, and he should proceed to make good that promise relative to prosecuting the men who have played such high jinks with the insurance funds committed to their care and keeping.

The Telegram predicted from the beginning that McClellan would be re-elected mayor of New York. It is never a safe proposition for a man who calls himself a democrat to run against a regular democratic nominee.

Well, Pennsylvania has a democratic treasurer, anyway, and there is a whole lot of solace in that reflection, together with the wreck of republicanism that was made by John M. Pattison of Ohio.

populism for us. I see the democrats are thinking of joining hands with the republicans and making Roosevelt the republican-democratic nominee for President. Of course such a fusion would probably be considered a crime by the Kansas republican leaders. You know they always claimed that fusion between the democrats and pops was a high crime.

Chairman Habb of the pop state committee stated some time ago that it looked as if the pop party had outlived its days of usefulness. It won't take much pressure to get him to deliver the eulogy and consign the organization "to its last resting place."

SUCCESS OF DALLAS FAIR

It is already apparent that the great Texas state fair at Dallas this year is to go down into history as one of the greatest successes that has ever been scored in the southwest, financially, and in every other respect, and this will be gratifying information to loyal and progressive citizens throughout the state.

This fair enterprise has had a varied and checked career. It has been on the ragged edge for a number of years, and has lost a great deal of money for those who were engaged in the very laudable work of backing it.

But when the outlook seemed the darkest and the general sentiment was to the effect that the fair enterprise must be permitted to go the way of all flesh, a few of the enterprising business men of Dallas got together and resolved it should be saved.

The fair was a success this year from the fact that it was ordained that such should be the case from the very beginning.

Pluck and determination will win nine times out of ten.

Dallas has profited immensely from the fair this season, and all the Doubting Thomases have been converted to the realization that it is the best thing that has ever happened for Dallas.

And what Dallas has done with her fair, Fort Worth can and must do with her Fat Stock show.

The Fat Stock show next March should be made not one of the biggest things that ever happened in the southwest, but THE biggest thing ever.

Nothing short of the biggest ever will satisfy the demands and expectations of the people.

It is up to Fort Worth to again set the pace.

TRADING THIS GREAT STATE

Those candidates for governor who are engaged in an effort to boost themselves into office at the expense of the fair name of Texas should be promptly called down by the people.

The success that has attached itself to an anti-graft campaign in Pennsylvania and other northern states will add new stimulus to the efforts of those distinguished Texans whose desire for political preferment is paramount to their loyalty.

It may be confidently expected that charges that have been made only as glittering generalities in the past will now assume more of the nature of a home thrust, and every effort will be made to inflame the minds of the masses and cause them to believe that rottenness and corruption abound in high places throughout Texas.

If Texas has any dirty linen to launder of this nature, the place to do it is in the courts of justice established and maintained for such purposes. It is an insult to the intelligence of this state to continually drag things through the channel of acrimonious political debate.

It is especially unfortunate that this thing should be done when there is apparently nothing but an inordinate desire for office behind the whole movement.

The man who cannot make the race for an office on his own merits, but who has to depend on the demerits of others, should be compelled to remain in the private walks of life.

The Telegram has never believed that these things are true. The Telegram has a higher opinion of Texas and all Texas institutions than to concede for one moment that such things could be true.

Compel the man who says there is graft and corruption in Texas to prove his charges, or else go away back and sit down.

Texas is all right. The politicians are the ones who need watching.

Jerome has been re-elected district attorney in New York, and he should proceed to make good that promise relative to prosecuting the men who have played such high jinks with the insurance funds committed to their care and keeping.

The Telegram predicted from the beginning that McClellan would be re-elected mayor of New York. It is never a safe proposition for a man who calls himself a democrat to run against a regular democratic nominee.

James B. Wells did not tell us what he would do if he were governor, with the other patriots at Dallas, but the people will readily forgive the omission.

Well, Pennsylvania has a democratic treasurer, anyway, and there is a whole lot of solace in that reflection, together with the wreck of republicanism that was made by John M. Pattison of Ohio.

AMONG THE EXCHANGES

Two Kansas men have been discovered who confine themselves to a diet of dried grass. We expected to hear something like this when we learned that the Kansas sheriffs had poured several barrels of captured whisky on the grass, and that it had killed the grass.—Houston Post.

And the next information that comes to hand will be that a strange race of earth eaters have been discovered in Kansas. When the grass has all been masticated they will go to the very root of the situation.

In 1896 Bryan advocated federal regulation of railroad freight rates, and was denounced as an anarchist. President Roosevelt has appropriated Bryan's declaration and is proclaimed as a patriot. Bryan now favors government ownership of railroads, and it is only a step from federal regulation of rates to government ownership.—Beaumont Journal.

Bryan does not favor government ownership of railroads, but still stands for government regulation and control. He is not so nearly an anarchist as some people affect to believe him.

Negroes in various parts of the state are holding meetings and strongly pledging themselves to uphold law and order. A call has been issued for a meeting of this kind in Corsicana on the 23d, and in the country the call asks that the negroes meet in their respective precincts on the 16th to elect delegates to the meeting.—Corsicana Sun.

The negroes should be encouraged and upheld in the stand they are taking for law and order all over Texas. The negro will help himself now if he is ever given the proper opportunity.

The Sherman Register says an old negro who owns and cultivates a forty-five-acre farm southeast of Sherman will make a bale of cotton to the acre this season. The old fellow explained that his remarkable success was due to topping his plants when there is no moon in August. He tops the plant with a spade, which causes it to spread and put on more fruit. He has practiced this plan for years with perfect success. He has tried topping at other periods, but found it didn't work, so he sticks to August and the dark of the moon.—Denison Gazetteer.

The lightness or darkness of the moon can exert no influence on the result, but that old negro and thousands of other people in Texas could not be convinced to the contrary. They believe in the moon theory and can never be induced to believe in anything else.

Those folks who have moved to West Texas are already beginning to return. In some sections of that country water retails at fifty cents per load, and to the average man who has lived in Red River county during any month in 1905 this water buying proposition assumes immense proportions on short notice.—Clarksville Times.

People who move away from West Texas this year would not be satisfied in paradise. Good seasons have prevailed out in that section all the year, bountiful crops have been made, and there is a big influx of new population. There is no occasion for any man turning his back on West Texas this year.

We do not assume to speak by the card, but we here give it as our opinion that Governor Lanham will not consider favorably the proposition to assemble the legislature in a "free service" special session. If a special session is called, it will be done in the regular way under the conditions prescribed by the constitution.

Apathy is the bane of the American people, for all they have credit abroad as quite an active lot. In Fort Worth, where the people's demand for a referendum was conceded, there have been two elections held to determine the people's will, and in each case less than 50 per cent of the people have turned out to vote.

Fort Worth people are flocking to the Dallas fair in droves. There is no "shriveled localism" in the average Fort Worth citizen.—Dallas Times Herald.

Fort Worth people are the most liberal and progressive people in the world. They can always be depended upon to do the proper thing.

West Texas seems to be trying to keep pace with other sections of the state which only a few years ago was classed as good for nothing but grazing.—Denison Herald.

West Texas is keeping pace with the balance of the state in the matter of progress and development. In fact, West Texas is now setting the balance of the state a hot pace in that direction, and is enjoying an era of unexampled prosperity.

THE OLD-TIME RELIGION

John Sappington, a humorous writer in the Gatesville Star-Forum, draws the following glowing picture of the old-time preacher and the old-time religion, which is true to life.

"The old-time preacher and most of his congregation have long since passed over the dark and silent river. I think the grandest men that ever lived were those pioneer servants of God, who preached his gospel for the sake of humanity and the love of his cause. I had rather claim kinship with these grand old ministers of the meek and lowly Savior than to know that the blood of kings coursed in my veins.

The old-time preacher was a little behind on rhetoric, grammar, theatrical poses and a big salary, but he was never found lagging behind while serving his Master. I think I can hear Saint Peter say to a serving angel when one of these old ministers appears at the nearby gates of heaven: 'Here comes old Uncle Billy, a true servant of the Lord. Go and bring me that seven and three-quarter crown with a thousand jewels—not that six and three-quarter one with a lone pearl; that's for one of those little pigeon-toed preachers that says "amen" at the end of his prayers, that will be here next week, and who gets $10,000 a year for $7.50 worth of preaching.'"

SCHURZ'S FIRST LOVE AFFAIR

Beginning his "Reminiscences of a Long Life" in the November McClure's, Carl Schurz tells of his childhood in a German castle, where his grandfather, a prosperous tenant farmer, lived as the "Burghalfe of Count Wolf Metterlich." Here is the moving history of his first love affair:

"My mother told me later that when I was between 3 and 4 I had an exciting love affair. The count had a daughter who was then about 18 or 19, and beautiful. The young Countess Marie, when she met me on her walks, sometimes stroked my red cheeks with her hands, as young ladies now and then will do with little boys. The consequence was that I felt ardently in love with her, and declared frankly that I would marry her. My intentions were quite determined, but the young Countess Marie did not seem to look at the matter as seriously as I did, and that led to a catastrophe. One day I saw her standing with a young man at one of the windows of the house, busy catching carp with a hook in the moat of the castle. A furious fit of jealousy seized me; I demanded that the young man should leave the adored Countess Marie at once, in default of which I insisted that some one should throw him into the water. I grew still more furious when the young gentleman not only did not leave, but even seemed to be laughing at me. I made such a noise that the castle folk came running from all parts to see what was the matter. I told them, with hot tears; and then they also laughed, making me still more furious. At last the count's good old cook hit upon a successful idea. She took me into the kitchen, where she gave me a small jar of quince jelly to eat. Quince jelly was then to me an entirely new form of human happiness, and it had a remarkable quieting effect upon my distressed feelings. So far the tale my mother told me; and I will confess that quince jelly has ever since remained my favorite sweet."

VERSES THAT RING

COQUETTE. Coquette they call you—they who tried For months in vain to win you— Lovers who lost, and so decide The heart that beats within you Is false and fickle. Let them go! Small comfort comes of scandal; And disappointment, as you know, Makes every man a vandal.

Because you gave them of your smiles Impartially, they reason, You set a snare of subtle wiles And tricked them, which was treason; Each thought himself the mortgagee Of all your love—as though it Were compromising just to be Fond of a man and show it.

Because to each you always seemed— And were—a comrade truly— Forthwith the happy fellow dreamed That he possessed you duly. Such is the arrogance of man; He loves a girl, and—better— Concludes there's nothing simpler than To tell her so and get her!

Coquette! Ah, sweet, that word unkind Implies that you can parody Successfully until you find The man you wish to marry. Flirt, if you like, with whom you may, You never shall discover My jealousy until you say You take me for your lover. —Felix Carmen, in Harper's Magazine.

CHARTER CHANGES DUE TO CROWDING

Senator Hanger Declares Rush at Close of Legislature Caused Omissions

Belief in the unconstitutionality of some parts of the referendum charter amendments, together with the crowding of work at the end of the last session of the legislature, are given by Senator W. A. Hanger of Fort Worth as the reasons for the changes pointed out by Mayor Powell.

While the question is before the people it would be a good idea for those who are in favor of good government in Fort Worth to organize a municipal league for the purpose of considering and discussing public measures so that when these matters come to a vote we would understand them and be able to vote intelligently.

But there is a question— She saw Ray. The words died from her lips. She stood and shivered. "Go on," he said mildly. "Don't mind me. Perhaps I can help Mr. Ducaine to answer it."

Lady Angela was standing upon the hearth. I stepped a little way across the threshold and stopped short. She held out her hand to me with a quiet laugh.

"Have you forgotten me?" she asked, "or am I so alarming?" I set my teeth and moved toward her. "You took my breath away," I said, with an eagerness that was very far from feeling.

"This is a charming arrangement," she declared. "You know that you are such an important person and have to be watched so closely, that you are to stay here. I went up myself with the house-keeper to see to your rooms. I do hope that you will be comfortable."

"Dear me!" she said. "I have so much to tell you, and the carriage is waiting already. Thank goodness, we dine alone tomorrow night. But there is one thing which I must tell you at once. THE BETRAYAL BY I. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

CHAPTER XXXI MY FATHER'S LETTER. I heard Ray's footsteps ascending the stairs to his room. In a few moments he returned, bearing in his hand a letter.

"Guy," he said thoughtfully, "I am a man who is slow to place trust in anyone. For that reason, and perhaps because ignorance was better for you, I have told you little of the events of that night. Now my first opinion of you has undergone some modifications. You are stronger than I thought, you have shown faith in me, too or I should not be here practically a guest under your roof tonight. Listen! The man whom you found dead in the marshes was not your father!"

"Who was he, then?" I asked calmly. reply by Clery, my faithful companion and servant. I am known here as "RICHARD DREW FOSTER."

"I understand the letter and its meaning," he continued. "I knew that the whole neighborhood was under the observation of the French secret service, and the man who signed himself Richard Drew Foster was in your excellent tool ready to his hand. It is very certain also that the matter would probably have presented itself to you in a wholly different light. Accordingly I placed the letter in my pocket, and I released my hold of Clery."

"You can go back to your master," I said, and tell him that you have seen me, and that I have his letter. It will be sufficient. And you can tell him that I shall be in London tomorrow night, and if any such person as Mr. Drew Foster is staying at the Savoy Hotel, he will know the inside of a military prison before midnight."

"The man slunk away. I suppose he realized that with me in the way their game was up. But afterward he must have hesitated and then made up his mind to attempt what was probably the bravest action of his life. He followed me, stole up softly behind, and with an old trick which they teach them on the other side of the Seine, he as nearly as possible throttled me. However, I got my finger inside the silk-knot, and I held him by the throat. When I could breathe, I lifted him up and threw him into the marshes. There I left him. It was absolutely God's justice, but I am quite aware that the laws of the country do not exactly favor summary treatment. Accordingly I held my peace. I am sorry for it now."

"I lifted him up and threw him into the marshes."

"When your father went mad at Gibraltar," Ray said, "he needed help. This man, Clery by name, supplied it. When I knew them both he was your father's rascal. Since then he has been his confederate in many schemes. Your father on many occasions manifested the remnants of a sense of honor. This creature set himself deliberately and successfully to corrupt it. He was a parasite, a nerveless, bloodless thing without a single human attribute. He and that woman were alike responsible for your father's ruined life."

"Once before," Ray continued, after a moment's pause, "I had told him that if ever we should meet where his life would cost me nothing I would kill him as I would set my heel upon an adder—and he only smiled as though I had paid him some delicate compliment. And that night, Guy, a hundred yards from your cottage, he sidled up to me in that lonely road, and bade me direct him to the abode of Mr. Guy Ducaine. A moment after he recognized me."

"A grim smile parted Ray's lips. He seemed at first paralyzed with fear," Ray continued. "He tried to slip away into the marshes, but I caught him easily, and held him so that he could not escape. He admitted that he had come to find you with a message from your father. He denied at first having a letter, but I searched him until I found it. As you see, it is addressed to you. Nevertheless I struck matches, opened it, and with some difficulty managed to read it. All the time this creature was doubling about like an eel trying to get away. Read the letter."

"I drew it from the envelope. It was dated from the Savoy Hotel. "My Dear Son—I do not deserve that you should read beyond these three words. I have a little right to tell you my son as you can have desire to claim me for a father. I am here, however, purely on an errand of justice. I have learned that you have been robbed of the sum sent me to give you a start in life. I am here to endeavor to replace it, see which purpose I desire that you will grant me a business interview within the next few days. I beg your

PENITENTIARY ROAD NOT SOLD, SAYS FRY

Fort Worth Member of State Board Denies Purchase of Line From Rusk

"The state railroad which embraces about nine and one-half miles of lines, has not been sold," said S. M. Fry, member of the Texas penitentiary board, this morning when asked regarding a report in the Dallas News, reading as follows:

"Information comes to the News from reliable parties now in Dallas that the railroad owned by the state in connection with the penitentiary has been sold to L. Lipschitz and J. J. Robertson of Tyler and J. W. Summers of Rusk."

"The new owners, it is said, plan to extend the road to a connection with the Dallas division of the Texas and the Orleans at Ponta, a place about seven miles north of Rusk, and to also extend it to Palestine, where it will connect with both the Gulf and Rio Grande divisions of the International and Great Northern."

"The board will not sell the two and one-half miles of road which reaches from Rusk to the ore beds, as this branch is needed to haul ore to the furnaces. This part of the state railroad is not to be disposed of under any circumstances. The other part may be sold if the state gets its price."

When in the market to buy or sell...

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—An early flurry in the money market today had a chilling effect on the bullish operators on the Stock Exchange and came near creating a panic.

During the morning call loans were made at the very highest rate of the present year, and for some time previous.

Although this occasioned considerable short selling and some liquidation on the part of timid longs, the market was not affected as much as might reasonably have been expected under the circumstances and the majority of issues closed easy and in some instances a little below yesterday's decline.

NEW YORK STOCK QUOTATIONS
NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Stocks ranged in price today on the New York Stock Exchange as follows:

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Wheat weakened today and lost practically all of yesterday's advance. The market was quite steady in the early trading, but a volume of profit-taking throughout the day brought on a recession, and the close was near the lowest.

The reason Joe Gans went to Frisco to fight the man this month, is that giving night to challenge the winner of the Gardner-Sullivan fight. Gans was given a straight tip before he left Baltimore that there was not a chance of his fighting the man this month, but he decided to go just the same.

Eddie Hanlon insisted on getting the $250 forfeit money posted by Aurelia Herrera, even though Herrera was too ill to get to the ring at the Pacific Athletic Club, Los Angeles, last Friday.

Joe Walcott is out with an announcement that he has said farewell to the ring. "I retire an undefeated champion," he says. Walcott is 33 years old, and has fought 116 battles. Tommy West fought him nineteen rounds to a draw in 1936, while a year later West got the decision over him in twenty rounds. Kid Lavigne whipped him in twelve rounds the same year. ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL IS AWARDED BANQUET

Had Largest Percentage of Officers and Teachers at Institute Meeting

The opening exercises of the second and last day of the State Sunday school institute at the First Baptist church were held this morning at 9:45 o'clock. The motto which was offered for the school having the largest percentage of attending officers and teachers at the first meeting Wednesday was awarded this morning to the St. Paul's Methodist church Sunday school, which had fourteen of its twenty-two teachers present.
 The general topic of the meeting this morning was "Ingathering," and the keyword was "A Religious Census Taken in a Day." "Go ye out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in."
 The program this morning opened with the Bible lesson read by George Bachman. C. D. Meigs then spoke on "How to Reach the Masses Through the Sunday School or House to House Canvass." W. C. Pearce spoke on "After the Canvass—What?"
 The morning discussion was on the question "Can It Be Done in This City? Will we do it? When?" and was led by George O. Bachman. The address by C. D. Meigs on the subject of increasing membership was postponed.

The organization of the association for this city, which was planned for this afternoon, was also postponed until this afternoon, when it will be taken up. The election of officers will also be held this afternoon.
 The subject of the meeting this afternoon is "All the Church in the Sunday School." The address will be made by W. C. Pearce and George O. Bachman.
 The closing session will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The program is as follows: Song service; united church Bible lesson; installation of officers—elect; address by W. C. Pearce; "Popcorn Meeting." "What Are the Deepest and the Best Impressions This Institute Has Left on Me?"
 "The New Thing Taught Will My Sunday School Undertake at Once?" personal testimonies from pastors, superintendents and others; collection to help carry on the work.

The meeting last night was not as largely attended as was expected, on account of the bad weather, the rain keeping a large number of people away from the meeting. However, the number was very gratifying to the speaker. Attendance this morning was very good also when the weather was considered.
 The program last night was on the subject, "Organization," and the following addresses were made: "The Evangelization of Our Cities and the Churches' Greatest Problem," by C. D. Meigs, and "The World Wide Sunday School Movement," by W. W. Pearce.
Committee Members to Dissolve
 The regular quarterly meeting of the Texas Sunday School association will be held this afternoon at the Worth hotel at 5 o'clock. The meeting will be followed by a dinner given by the local members of the committee to the visiting members. There are one local member of the committee, Rev. J. F. Boyce, H. B. Corveny, J. B. Baker and John R. Reeves. There are thirty members of the committee altogether, although it is not expected that they will all be present this afternoon. The committee will discuss state Sunday school work and also the means of enlargement of the international Sunday school movement in the United States.
 W. N. Wiggins of San Antonio is president of the state association and is also here for the meeting. The members of the committee are as follows: William G. Byer, chairman, Dallas; C. C. Quarterback Stevenson of Pennsylvania was ordered from the game with Lafayette Saturday for striking an opposing player in the face, knocking him down. One of the first moves for eliminating roughness from the game should be to perpetually dishar Stevenson from all gridirons. He seldom goes through a game without resorting to "tough house" methods of scoring. Pennsylvania drops him from its squad the better it will be for the game.

ROOSEVELT CLUB BANQUET
 Tickets can be procured for the Roosevelt Club banquet from the secretary, Mr. N. B. Moore, Powell Building; J. N. Winters, Fourth and Main, and J. L. Cooper, 1407 Main. Get your tickets before Saturday night.

CONSTITIION
 Health is absolutely impossible if constipation be present. Many serious cases of liver and kidney complaint have sprung from neglected constipation. Such a pleasurable condition is unnecessary. There is a cure for it. Herbine will speedily remedy matters. C. A. Lindsay, P. M., Bronson, Fla., writes Feb. 12, 1902: "Having used Herbine, I find it a fine medicine for constipation." Sold by Covey and Martin. 50c a bottle.

THE 100 CLUB EXCITES INTEREST

With Few Exceptions, Each Caller in Answer to Our Announcement Has Become a Pleased Member of the 100 Club

EVERYBODY DELIGHTED WITH THE 100 CLUB
 The 100 Club Regarded by Everyone as a Profitable Business Offer With Decided Mutual Advantages

SEVERAL MEMBERS ALREADY SECURED
 A $360.00 Strober Piano and Six Months' Instructions Under Teacher of Your Choice for $298.00
 $10.00 at Joining; Immediate Delivery of Piano and an Order for First Month's Instructions—Payments $2.00 Per Week Thereafter

Every call in answer to our announcement, has proven a visit of the most interesting character, because each person has been delighted with "The 100 Club" proposition, and regarded it as offering special mutual advantages. Think of buying a fine $360 Strober Piano at the reduced price of $298, and in addition to this big reduction, you get six months' instructions under the best talent of Fort Worth, such as Professor Maximilian H. Bauer, Miss Martha Whitaker and others. This is decidedly the best offer ever made to the music loving people of Fort Worth—a proposition which could not be made except through the medium of "The 100 Club." "The 100 Club" offers the best of everything, such as the best talent in Fort Worth to instruct and interest piano that $260 can buy anywhere in the United States, all for $298, $10 at joining and $2 per week thereafter.

"The 100 Club" is a concerted effort to buy and sell a hundred pianos of a good make and style at a saving of cost and expense. A club concentrates attention on one thing and rivets a large share of the selling, for the time being, to that one thing, so it justifies us in buying a hundred of a model at one time for instant cash. In a word, "The 100 Club" is mutual, co-operative merchandising of the highest type—profitable to us through large selling and lessened expense; profitable to the club members through very easy terms and at very much lessened price.

THE STROBER PIANO
 Is a fine, big, upright piano, endorsed by the most critical experts in the country. It has a deep, full, round, sweet tone that seems to sustain the voice in singing. The tone is pure and of wonderful resonance, because of the immense size of its scale. It vies with a grand piano as to power of tone.
 Every Strober piano is warranted for ten years, and if the instrument develops a defect it will be replaced with a new one free of charge.
 Remember, a fine Strober piano costs anywhere for $350 and six months' instructions under the tutorage of PROFFESSOR MAXIMILIAN H. BAUER, MISS MARTHA WHITAKER, or the teacher of your choice, for $298, $10 at joining and immediate delivery of piano, and an order for first month's instruction.

Payments $2 per week thereafter.
 First car of "The 100 Club" pianos arrive Monday.
 Some beautiful finishes in mahogany, walnut and oak; your choice.

LETTER TO SAN JOINER,
 Dear Sir: A painter in Erie, Pa., Mr. John Brand, first painted Devos in 1896. No more lead-and-oil for him! He can do a better job at less cost with Devos. Attributes his increase of business to that.
 That's all there is to this yarn, unless he goes into particulars.
 This, for instance: Devos covers more, and so costs less. The reason is: lead-and-zinc is better than lead; and machinery-grinding is better than hand.
 And this: Devos lasts longer. The reason is: lead-and-zinc is better than lead; and machinery-grinding is better than hand.
 Yours truly,
 F. W. DEVOS & CO.,

MISSIONARY TELLS OF BRUTAL MASSACRE
Dr. Machle, Who Escaped Lichenou Outrages, Confirms Reports of Atrocities

HONG KONG, Nov. 9.—Dr. Machle, the American missionary who escaped massacre at Lichenou, confirming previous accounts of the outbreak, adds horrifying details of atrocities committed on American women.
 When the disturbances commenced the mob seized Miss Chestnut and Mrs. Machle and exposed them to public view in the Chinese temple. Amy Machle, the doctor's 10-year-old child, was carried off and flung alive into the river. Miss Chestnut was also flung into the river. While the two were struggling in the water three Chinamen speared them with tridents. Miss Chestnut's body and Amy Machle's head were pierced. Mrs. Machle appeared to the rioters, but the mob threw her brains out, and flung her body into the river. The mob then captured Mr. and Mrs. Peale, clubbed Mr. Peale to death in his wife's presence and brutally killed Mrs. Peale in the same brutal fashion.

CURED CONSUMPTION
 Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption.
 We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him.
 That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Covey & Martin.
