Farmers Hope For Clear Skies After 3 1-4 Inches Of Rain

Farmers this week were scanning the skies hoping that they would stay clear after three and one-fourth inches of rain fell the past week. Both wheat and cotton farmers were hoping for clear weather. Wheat has not been damaged as yet, according to the best information The Beacon could secure Thursday, but one more rain might start rust and cause it to fall over. Cotton farmers want to get their seed in the ground and in some instances replant since the rains of the past few days have blotted out their first planting.

Most people of this section were reminded of 1941 along about Friday or Saturday of last week as the rain continued to come down. It started Wednesday when .71 of an inch fell. Then Friday night the bottom fell out as one and three-quarters fell. Showers on Saturday added .77 of an inch to the moisture making a total of 3.23 for the four days.

The sun has been out most of the time this week and roads dried out to where they are passable.

There was no hail damage in this area but hail did strike in other sections. Up in Deaf Smith County Dr. N. E. Greer of Lockney was reported to have suffered a 50% loss on a half section of wheat. Maurice Tannahill was reported to have lost 90% of his wheat crop and T. B. Cox was reported to have suffered some loss.

The rains were general over West Texas with most of the country receiving three inches and better.

Lubbock received over five inches and much of the city was flooded with property loss from rising waters running into the millions of dollars.

A twister at Sundown, Texas, near Levelland killed two people while two people died at Lubbock as a result of the storm.

Mrs. W. F. Pierce of Lockney died as a result of the electrical storm Friday night. The complete story of this tragedy will be found elsewhere in this newspaper.

Mrs. Marvin Brown of Santa Monica, Calif., is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleatis Jeffcoat. Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffcoat and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sims are all visiting relatives in Houston.

IS THIS SLAVERY?

The National Small Business Men's Association has asked the heads of the AF of L and the CIO whether they consider the Taft-Hartley Act a "Slave Labor Law".

BECAUSE it prevents a union member from being fired from his job and kicked out of the union at the whim of a union official?

BECAUSE under this Law union officials force union members to pay exorbitant dues and are unable to collect unreasonably large initiation fees?

THE UNNOTICED

Few heads turned to notice the old man who arrived late at the press meeting and silently slid into a chair near the rear of the assembly. His eyes were like brown agates, but they recognized no friends in the speechweary group. He listened with the respect of a devout parishioner and held the battered old hat with ink-stained fingers. At intervals he touched the grey mustache that had been twisted at the ends. The compassion of patience was imprinted on his face. The weariness of long wars with battered type and antiquated presses reflected from the stoop of his shoulders. Somewhere away from the rush progress he had lifted the rollers and closed the sagging printshop door; left the dusty forms, the splintered racks of type, the worn composing stick. He might have stepped back out of eternity into a changed world, except for the feeling of understanding from those about him, that creates a fraternity amid the willing slaves who write and print their hearts away on paper.—Trall Dust in The Matador Tribune.

TRUMAN CAN'T FORGET HIS CAMPAIGN

Remember those Truman campaign speeches of six months ago? The president lashed out at the Republican-dominated Congress. It was the worst in the nation's history, he charged. Everything would be all right, he promised, if the people would elect him and give him a Democratic Congress. Then the government would run smoothly in Washington and everything would be prosperous and happy. In November the people gave him all he asked, to the surprise of nearly every political observer. Now everything should be just about perfect from the Truman point of view. Those terrible Republicans have lost all their committee chairmanships, their majority in each House, and most of their influence. The president has the Congress he wanted. His party has a big majority in each House. On every committee the chairman and most of the members are Democrats.

Then what is the matter? Why is the Truman program stalled at every turn? Why does Mr. Truman threaten to go on a barnstorming tour? Against whom would he storm? Surely not against the Republicans he defeated. They do not have the power to defeat his legislative program. The truth is that Mr. Truman's visionary, socialistic measures are shelved because sensible Democrats, most of them from the South, can not stomach them. They want to keep America a nation of free people, as the Republicans do.

If the president goes barnstorming it will have to be against the conservative faction of his own party. He will have to ask the people to turn against the men he asked them to support in November. He will split the Democratic party even wider than it already is split. He will be, in one form or another, adopting the ill-fated purge tactics of his predecessor. He may have to learn the hard way that the Democrats who refused to do his bidding are not the ones who are out of step with party principles. The one who is out of step is Mr. Truman himself.—Dallas Morning News.

The editor urges the citizenry to go to the polls Saturday and vote for the school bonds in order that Lockney may have a school house that will house the 200 scholastics necessary. Some are contending that public subscription is the best way to build the school house but the editor points out the fallacy of this viewpoint and urges the bond issue as the fairest way to build.

year and we all made friends. Our teacher was Mrs. Shaw. 1940-41—Oh, what a year! We all had the mumps including our teacher Miss Frankie Dodson.

1942-43—We didn't find too much this year. There was the May Fate but the same princess and princess so there wasn't anything new.

1943-44—We had a lot of teachers this year, Miss Thornton, Mrs. Cowan Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Gilbert, and our first man teacher, Mr. Allen.

1944-45—This was our last year in grade school. We thought we knew everything there was to know.

1945-46—Oh, what an exciting year this was! We were actually in high school.

1946-47—Our second year in high school. We were sophomores which means "wise fools."

what some thought we were, because we certainly acted crazy. But truly we had fun. There are several of us who wish we were sophomores.

Our first class meeting we elected our officers and sponsors, who were president, Joe Keeter; Secretary, Iva Wright; and vice-president, Jimmie McGowen.

Our party for the juniors was a big highlight. We took them skating and served them cookies and ice cream.

We were lucky enough to have Mr. and Miss Lockney High, Joe and Joy Keeter, from our class.

We had waited a long time for the much talked about Sweetheart Banquet. At last it came.

The sophomore girls served at the Junior-Senior Banquet, and we thought it was great fun.

1947-48—Our junior year. This year everything was different from faculty to friends.

Our principal was Mrs. Hodel and our new superintendent was Mr. Reeves.

After things began to boom we elected our officers and sponsors. Our sponsors were Miss Harris and Miss Hall.

Our football representative was Iva Mae Wright but we just didn't work hard enough and Leo Watson won.

Our class favorites were Joy Keeter and Jimmie McGowen.

Our follies play was "Bargains In Haircuts". The cast consisted of Jimmie, Mary Louise, Joe, and Wyman.

1946-47—Our second year in high school. We were sophomores which means "wise fools."

Several of our girls had left and more of them left this year. You see they heard the wedding bells and decided that they wouldn't finish school.

Our football representative was yours truly, and our class won the contest after hard trying.

Our footbal representative was yours truly, and our class won the contest after hard trying.

The Seniors gave the Juniors a nice Christmas party. It was one that we will always remember.

On April 23 the Juniors honored the Seniors with the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

In March we presented our Junior play "A Case of Springtime" under the direction of Minnie Lou Harris.

Our Junior party was at my house and we had a scavenger hunt and a wener roast.

Our last great pleasure as Juniors came. We were asked to sing at the Baccalaureate sermon and commencement.

1948-49—Our last year in high school. At the beginning of this year we thought we would be so happy if school were only out, but as the time grows near, we wish we had more time here.

Our Senior year has been a joyous one and our teachers have been grand.

We had nearly a new faculty: Mrs. Stone who was replaced by Mrs. Yarbrough, Mr. LaPollette, Mr. Wright, and Mr. Green.

Our new principal was Mr. Smith and we will also remember him.

Our football representative was Tincy Foster, but again we failed to try hard enough and Fredda Bybee was elected.

Our follies were once again successful. We won first place with "Tell It To Tommy" directed by Miss Harris and Mr. Wright.

300 Attend Floyd County Soil Tour

Approximately 300 farmers and business men observed results of soil building practices in a tour of Floyd County farms Friday. The benefits from legumes and other soil building and conservation practices appeared remarkable.

At the Buck Sams farm south of Lockney the group saw the results of wheat grown following hairy vetch. Sams has a field of wheat which two years ago was planted to vetch. The wheat is estimated to yield 35 to 40 bushels to the acre. On the same farm Sams has another field of wheat growing on land that has grown no legumes. It is estimated to yield 8 to 12 bushels.

Sams said the two fields were given the same cultivation and watering. He is convinced the legumes made the difference.

The Sams place was one of 10 farms visited by the tour. Other soil conservation practices observed were: Use of mixed grass pastures, on the Ernest Lee Thomas farm; vetch as cover crop on the Norman Hamilton farm; terracing, on the Glenn B. Treadwell farm; a wheat variety demonstration, on the Ben Quebe farm; use of vetch as green manure, on Lockview Farm; use of mixed pasture grasses, on the Oscar Golden farm; Johnson grass and hindweed control, on the A. P. Shucart farm and weed control on irrigation ditches, on the Paul Cooper farm.

The day-long tour was sponsored by the Floyd County Soil Conservation District, in cooperation with the Texas A&M College Extension Service, the Floydada Lions Club, Floydada Chamber of Commerce and Floyd County Board of Development and the Soil Conservation Service.

Discussion leaders at each stop included Ralph Coddell, SCS technician with the Floyd County soil conservation unit, Bob Gibson, county agent, and farmer landowners of the plots in question. Also assisting with the program was Scott Amend, district SCS conservationist.

At the Lockview Farm where a noon luncheon and program were provided the group saw a field where 5 1/2 tons of hairy vetch had been turned under in preparation for cotton planting.

C. B. Spencer, agricultural director for the Texas Cottonseed Crushers Association, was principal noontime speaker. Also on the noon program was Guy Ginn, former president of the Floydada Jaycees, who presented a number of awards to 4-H and FFA youngsters participating in a soil conservation window decorations contest.

Special guests were FFA classes at Lockney and Floydada High Schools plus a number of 4-H members from the county organization. Also present were Veterans Vocational Agricultural classes from Floydada.

In the mixed grass pasture plots the group saw specially planted irrigated fields where abnormally high numbers of cattle have been carried for months. At the Oscar Golden farm, a little pasture of 7 or 8 acres has been carrying 20 head or more.

Between 40 and 60 head of cattle have been pastured on the Ernest Lee Thomas fields. The plots total only about 25 acres—with an additional 12 acres of native grass under watering.

Sergeant and Mrs. J. L. Carver of Camp Lee, Virginia, were visitors in the home of Mrs. C. J. McCollum last week. Sgt. Carver is the youngest brother of Mrs. McCollum and has been in Germany with the Army of Occupation. His wife is a German war bride and she was very enthusiastic about the beautiful plains country.

Great Britain's national ensign is nicknamed the Union Jack.

It's a bittersweet thing, this starting a new phase of life. Our sincere best wishes go with you.

No. 2-B Carmickle 331-Barrel Potential

A new producer has been completed in the Arick field of Southwest Floyd County by General American Oil Company. It is the concern's No. 2-B E. M. Carmickle, 660 feet from south and west lines of lease in section 18, block K, TTRR survey.

The well flowed six hours through a one-inch choke to make a calculated 24-hour potential of 331.96 barrels of oil, with gas-oil ratio 345-1 and gravity 42.2 degrees. Shakeout of total fluid was 14 per cent water, in addition to the oil.

This potential followed a 5,000-gallon acid treatment in the Pennsylvania pay section through perforations at 5,770-5,847 feet and 5,856-5,898 feet. Total depth is 5,910 feet. Top of pay was called on 5,770 feet.

This new producer formerly was completed as a discovery in the Wolfcamp-Permian to open a new pay for the Arick area. It has been deepened to the regular Pennsylvania pay. Previously, it was reported in error as plugged and abandoned.

Farm-Market Road Lettings Due May 25

FLOYDADA—Official notice that the Center-Fairview highway and the Cedar highway lettings will come up this month is contained in the State Highway department's call for bids, which will be opened on Wednesday, May 25. The bids will be received in Austin and opened and read there. Generally the low bidder, is awarded the contract.

In the two projects is included a total of 13,246 miles of hard-surfaced roadway. The bidders will construct drainage structures, lay a flexible base and give double asphalt surface treatment according to the plans and specifications prepared in the office of Resident Engineer James F. Potts and recently approved by the district engineer.

The highway to Center and Fairview will be known as FM 785 and the highway to Cedar will be FM 786.

There is no probability of any mishaps to the road building plans for the three communities, and if none occur, the roads should be in use in the fall. The roads are "25-75" projects of Floyd county and the State Highway department, the latter handling all the details of the letting, the engineering and supervision. The roads also will be the responsibility of the state for maintenance.

Certified Seed Growers Should Contact Co. Agent

County Agent Robert H. Gibson urges members of the Floyd County Certified Seed Grower's Association and others wishing to certify wheat in 1949 to contact his office as soon as possible in regard to the 1949 seed certification program. May 15 is the deadline for the wheat certification applications to be in the hands of the State Plant Inspection Board, but an extension has been requested and all producers will have ample time to file application for certification.

This does not apply only to members of the Seed Growers Association, but any producer who wishes to certify improved wheat seed can obtain an application blank from the County Agent's office, states Gibson. These applications should be in to the Agent before May 20.

If any information is needed, the Agent will help in anyway he can. He stressed the importance of having the applications in at the earliest date, and would appreciate the cooperation of everyone interested.

Cannery To Move; Canned Goods Must Be Picked Up

The Lockney Cannery will be moved into the new building being prepared for it one block east of the grade school very soon, Mrs. Sallie Griffith said this week. Due to this move all canned goods which have been left at the cannery should be picked up soon. That which isn't picked up will be given to some charitable institution, she said.

The new building, being provided by the county to house the cannery is almost ready for occupancy.

The cannery is open Monday and Tuesday of each week and may remain open on other days if necessary, Mrs. Griffith said.

Someone broke into the cannery building Tuesday night of this week and stole a quantity of canned goods, Mrs. Griffith said. She stated that she could not be responsible for the canned goods left there and urged that owners pick it up as soon as possible.

CLASS WILL

By Eldora Jameson

We, the class of 1949 of the Lockney High School, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, in form and manner as follows:

To the entire school we leave the example we have set as worthy scholars and blameless students. Our record has been spotless and in all the annuals of our career we have done no deed, as a class, that we need blush for.

To the community at large we bequeath the influence we have been for the honorable and better things of life: the interest in music, in local dramatics, in the charitable drives—all these have contributed to the development of the cultures spirit and in all we have taken part and done our share.

To the Junior class we bestow our richest treasures. Almost too numerous to mention are these same treasures and when the lower classmen hear the recital of rare legacies which fall to their excellent wit, our superlative brilliancy, our good looks, our charming manners, our favor with the teachers, our splendid grades and our triumphant exit as the most popular class this school has ever seen—these are the rare treasures that we hand down to the coming Senior class.

But it would not be fair if we withheld other valuables and with great largeness of heart we pass them along, too. Our capacity for fun, our ability to giggle, our good times, our friendship and our loyalty we do hereby bequeath to the Junior class, and may they count them among the richest of the legacies they have received.

We also wish to bequeath to the coming freshman class, our lockers so they won't have to carry their books home at night. To the teachers we leave the halls and hope that our noble instructors appreciate this royal gift. It was with sadness that we parted with so precious a possession.

And now come to the following personal bestowels which have been awarded to individuals with complete consideration to the fitness of the recipient:

To LaVerne Dorman we present this worm. She already has the book so that now the royal title of bookworm is hers and long may she wear it with all due honor and as magnificently as its present owner, Martha Whitfill, has always done.

To Jerry Paul Cooper, we present Joyce Carthel's position as editor-in-chief of the annual. May he perform his duties as faithfully and as well as Joyce has done.

To Rosalee Matthews, we bequeath Janelle Ferris's charm as Minnie Pearl. We hope Rosalee will go as far on the road to fame as Janelle has.

To Kay Norman we bequeath Tiney Foster's way with men. We hope Tiney doesn't mind giving this up and we hope Kay fully appreciates the valuable gift she is receiving.

To Bonnie Harrison we bequeath Joy Keeter's royal title of Miss Lockney High. We hope Bonnie will wear it as nobly as Joy has. We also bequeath to Bonnie Joy's loud mouth. We think Joy has dealt people misery long enough.

To Nova Jean Cox, we give Agnes Gloyna's way with the Simpson twins. Put it to good use.

To Bene Harris, we present Nita Huckabee's sweet disposition and wonderful personality.

To Don McLaughlin, we present "part" of Ewell Dee Kelley's physique. He doesn't need it all but we do think Don could use part of it. We also want to bequeath Ewell Dee's position as all-stat tackle to Delbert Shearer.

To Mervean Patterson, we wish to present Carolyn Hammitt's ability to get her man. Since Mervean is on the verge of setting sail on the sea of matrimony we want to wish her happiness.

To Joanis Daniel, Beth Kellison wishes to leave the temper that goes with her red hair. Beth thinks she has been bothered by her temper long enough and this is her chance to get rid of it.

To Kenneth Murdock, we would like to bequeath Ida Frances Kerby's talkativeness.

To Lucille Cargill, we wish to present Reva Lewis' ability to make long speeches.

To Robert Huckaby, we would like to present Joe Keeter's way with women. We hope Robert will be able to put it to as good use as Joe has.

To DeJuan Strickland, we wish to bequeath Jimmie McGowen's ability as a leader.

To Almata Wilson we wish to leave Mary Evelyn Mannings beautiful soprano voice. We know Almata will someday be a great opera singer with this gift.

To Kay Norman, we would like to leave Mary Louise Mannings ability to play basketball. We also leave her sportsmanship to next year's team.

To Verda Mae Holt, we wish to present Lewzetta Gloyna's ability to manage a home.

Donnie Bybee just leaves. He thinks it will take all he has to get out of school.

To Jerry McCulloch, we bequeath Lena Sue Pylant's surprising ways. Since Jerry already has Lena Sue, we thought he should have her surprising ways, too.

To Eddie Wayne Cooper, we would like to present Donald Reecer's nickname. We think Donald has been called "Monkey" long enough.

To Wanda Jack, we wish to present Midge Rogers loud ways and gentle voice or should we say loud voice and gentle ways?

To Eugene Tannabill, we wish to bequeath Thurman Richards typing ability.

To Robert Canon and Charles Crouch, we wish to bequeath Bill Smith's ability to skate. Maybe Robert and Charles won't fall so many times the next time they go skating.

To Bobby Tamron, we would like to present Charles Simpson's silly laugh. We hope Bobby can do more with it than Charles could. It was always popping out when least expected.

To David Catlin, we bequeath Tom Simpson's flirty ways. Tom has dealt Agnes misery long enough. Let's let David do it for awhile.

To Maxine Foster, we would like to present Gerry Sims neatness.

To Myrtle Lou Newton, we wish to present Gladys Starnes. We pity you, Myrtle Lou.

To Annie Murphy, we wish to present those extra pounds of Joyce Stowe's. Joyce has tried hard to get rid of them and we thought this would be just the time to help her.

To Jack Cole, we bequeath Herbert Watson's way with a bass horn.

To Myrtle Lou Newton, we wish to present Elna Watson's chair in band.

Norma Jean Vernon takes all of herself with her. She thinks she needs all of her possessions.

Marie Whitfill leaves to go where her heart has been all semester, at home with James.

Frances Wilson leaves to spend her time getting her man. Good luck Frances.

To Robert Matthews, we wish to present Iva Mae Wright's quiet and unassuming manner.

To Callie Holmes, we wish to present Wilma Foster's flirty ways.

To John L. Hooten, we wish to leave my smart-aleck doesn't cause John L. as it has me.

To the whole wide world, Mr. Wright, Coach Kelley, give them. They hope the world is teaching us something.

And last, but not the least, the Junior class lets you know we love you.

VA Will Stop Local Calls

Robert W. Sisson, Veterans Administration Regional Manager announced that a minimum number of lay-offs will be necessary in the West Texas VA region as a result of a nationwide reduction in Veterans Administrative employees.

VA will immediately issue reduction in force notices of dismissal to approximately 8000 employees in order to bring personnel within the provisions of the VA budget as submitted to the Congress for Fiscal Year 1950. One immediate effect of the reduction order, will be the closing of 42 VA offices through the nation.

Sisson said that the curtailment would not mean closing any VA offices in this region; however, it would be necessary to stop all itinerate service effective June first. VA contact representatives will continue to make their regularly scheduled itinerate visits until June first. Other than the regional office at Lubbock, VA offices are located at Amarillo, Childress, Abilene, San Angelo, Big Spring, Odessa, and El Paso.

Veterans Administration Central Office at Washington pointed out that this reduction in personnel does not take into consideration any further cuts that may be made by congress which may necessitate further reduction. The entire reduction is being borne by services other than medical and hospitals.

Despite the personnel cut of approximately 5 percent in the West Texas VA regional office, every effort will be made to render the very best type of service humanly possible to veterans and their dependents of this area, the VA manager, emphasized.

ACA Says That Acreage Reports Needed Now

According to information from the Floyd County ACA Office, Floydada, acreage reports desired by the County Committee for use in determining acreage allotments for cotton and wheat are not being reported by the farmers in sufficient numbers to insure the committee of meeting the deadline placed on it in setting up the 1950 wheat allotments. These allotments must be in the hands of the farmer before the referendum in July. Ray S. McEntire, Administrative Officer of PMA, said, "Some farmers are reluctant to turn in the acreage data requested since they do not wish to participate in the controlled program. This is every farmer's prerogative, but he should bear in mind, that if the quotas are voted by a majority of the farmers, he will be penalized severely unless he comes within the program. Consequently, from an economic standpoint, he should be interested in turning in his data and securing the best wheat allotment possible." The data desired is the 1941, 1945, 1946, 1947, 1948, and 1949 acreages of wheat, cotton, grain sorghum, summer fallow, and other minor crops.

Good Crowd Here For "Appreciation Day" Saturday

Despite the fact that it rained before, during and after the event, a good crowd was here last Saturday for the first "Appreciation Day" event sponsored by 34 Lockney merchants.

Due to the rain the prize was awarded in the Plains Theatre, which was filled to overflowing. Bert Vernon of Lockney was awarded the prize for that day which amounted to 5% of the Treasure Chest, the remainder to be carried over.

The Lockney Rotary Club quartet, the "Boreome Foursome" composed of J. D. Copeland, Cleatis Jefferson, J. B. Seale and A. P. Barker Sr., entertained the crowd with a song.

Weather permitting it is expected that a much larger crowd will be here Saturday of this week.

Gas Company Has Hard Week End

Apparently someone down at the West Texas Gas Co. office isn't living right if you consider all the trouble the company had the past week end.

The first thing that happened was lightning striking the regular house on the edge of Floydada last Friday night, burning the house and all its contents, including tools, pipe fittings, etc., and forcing the company to shut off the gas for Floydada. Of course, every meter had to be turned off and then when repairs were made the gas men had to go to every house and turn the meter back on and check to see that there were no open jets. The fact that it was raining most of the time didn't help the situation, the gas men report.

Floydada was turned back on the gas line about noon Saturday.

Then sometime Saturday the main gas line just southeast of Lockney blew out apparently because of the added pressure when the Floydada gas was cut off. The crews worked hard and did not lose Floydada this time—that is they did not have to go turn off all the gas meters but it was a close squeak.

Crews from Plainview, Lubbock and Ralls assisted the Floydada crew in making the repairs and turning the meters off and on again.

Need More Money For School Paving

Henry Schacht said this week that about $1200 more was needed to pay for the paving around the school buildings. This paving is costing $3200 and only about $2000 has been donated toward the cost thus far. Mr. Schacht emphasized that the money would be used solely for paving streets next to the school buildings and that all property owners were paying for their part of the paving.

Those who wish to donate toward this project may leave their money with any member of the school board, at the school, or send it to school and the teacher will turn it in to the right person.

Starch Makers Offer Special Price On New Waxy Milo

There is a new milo that shows great promise of being a new crop for the grain producing area of Texas, stated Robert H. Gibson, Floyd County Agent. This grain sorghum is known as Double Draw Waxy Sooner Milo, and its value is in the fact that it can be used to make starch. It is different from waxy kafir in that it is a milo.

Very good yields were made from this grain sorghum in the Plainview area last year.

The starch manufacturers are interested in securing a large acreage of this sorghum in 1949. They have advised Gibson that they will furnish the planting seed and buy the grain at 10c above the market price on the day the grain is delivered or at the loan price, whichever is the higher.

Any person interested may contact the County Agent for a detailed explanation.

CLASS PROPHECY

By Mary Louise Manning

After many years of working on concessions at ball games that we could force the officials to permit, Lena Sue and I accumulated enough money "under the table" to buy a blue grass ranch in Kentucky. We were so tired of hearing the horses clatter 'round the race track, that when Eldora, who succeeded Kate Smith, arrived that was just the excuse we were waiting for to take off on that jaunt across the nation and follow that impulse to "go west" and FIND A MAN! So we hitched Nellie to the '65 model buggy that the Ford Co. made especially for us, but it was just too much to ask Nellie to pull the load, so we chose Dolly to help her.

As we cruised along in the streamlined buggy singing "She's only a Bird in a Gilded Cage," we came upon a man whom we didn't recognize at first, but when we saw that look of admiration in his eye when he saw our buggy, we knew that was Bill Smith. Yes, sir, those ragged clothes and long hair and beard couldn't fool us.

Our first stop on the road was at the Beaver Dam Garage on the banks of the Mississippi. There to our surprise was Thurman Richards, who was a successful toadstool farmer, thanks to the knowledge Mr. Montandon imparted to him. While we were talking to him, Gady's Starnes drove up in a moving van. Small world after all.

After we crossed the Mississippi, we headed Nellie and Dolly toward St. Louis. The bright lights inspired the esthetic in our souls, so we decided to attend a community concert, knowing that we would hear the best. We almost fell through the sidewalk when we saw the advertisement of Nita Belle Huckabee, soloist of the Metropolitan Opera, and with her as her accompanist and a noted pianist, who won her fame in Carnegie Hall, none other than the Joyce Carthel, maestro of the Class of '49. When we talked to them after the concert, we started the breeze that caused the much talked about dust storm in the Texas Panhandle a few weeks ago. Yes, we really batted the breeze!

We enjoyed the classics at the concert immensely, but for three hillbillies like us, we just had to have some of the more down to earth entertainment, so we found the "Door of the West" Inn and really, we were floored when Norma Jean Vernon floated in and sang "St. Louis Blues" as the climax of the floor show. She was very glad to see us and told us that the former Carolyn Kellison, now Carolyn Hammitt, was a noted designer there in St. Louis. We wanted to see her, so we looked her up and spent the night with her and Charles. That night as we sat around the fireside sipping cold coffee and crunching on crackers, Carolyn told us the news of all the married couples. Marie Whitfill is very happy in her little home with James and her four children. Lewzetta has found a use for her big mouth at last. She spends her time calling pigs and feeding them, what time she isn't feeding Walter. Arlene is content in her log cabin, scrubbing floors to help make a living for she and Glenn. Frances Wilson has settled down and Reva Lewis finds that married life is all she expected it to be, and more too! Nita Joyce is also hitched and living in a rose covered cottage, content with her duties as a mother of twelve children and as a wife. Bobby Frank has a large cattle ranch and he and Mervene spend their time raising little dogies. Oh, yes, the most of all is that after years of "Feudin', Fussin', and Fightin'" Tom has finally won Agnes' love and they are living in Dogpatch next door to Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner.

After an all night hen party we hitched Nellie and Dolly to the buggy, bade Carolyn farewell, and continued our journey. We were driving through Topeka, Kansas when we noticed a large crowd assembled in the auditorium. Curious as always, we went in and never have we been more surprised. Iva Mae Wright, who had worked her way up in politics was to make a campaign speech as she is running for Senator of Ohio. There beside her was her loyal friend, Martha Whitfill, who is her campaign manager, personal secretary, and in fact her right hand man. We stayed to hear her speech and decided she was the one to fill the office. We chatted awhile and she told us that Jerry Sims was to make a speech that night of her work as a missionary in China. We thought perhaps this would be interesting and since Nellie wasn't feeling so well we decided to take her to the doctor and stay over the night. We found a veterinarian and were very surprised when we discovered that Elma Watson was the nurse, still landing a helping hand to those in need. We left Nellie, only because Elma promised to take very good care of her for we didn't like the vet's looks.

Salt Lake City, Utah was our next stop where we visited Mary Evelyn. She spends her time running around, doing as little as possible, and trying to decide which man is to be the unlucky person of spending the rest of his days as her husband. She just can't make up her mind. We decided to remain here a few days and rest and have some of our things cleaned so we would look our best when we arrived in California. The only tailor shop in town was the "Whirl 'em and Stomp 'em Cleaning Co." owned and operated by Donald Reecer. We left our things, much to our sorrow, and then as we started across the street we noticed a familiar person on the other side. It was Herbert Watson who is a well known preacher and was then located in Salt Lake City. Another hen session was in full swing at night as we talked about some more of our friends. Tiney Foster started her career as a model and now has a modeling agency of her own. Joy Keeter is a famous hair designer, and creates many hairdos for the movie stars. Wilma Foster succeeded Adam Loganza, the great love adviser, and he would be ashamed of himself if he were living now.

We at last have reached our final destination, Los Angeles, California. This is as far West as we can go unless we would care to swim awhile. We went to the very exclusive Biltmore Hotel, where all the celebrities stay, which is owned by the very wealthy Jimmie McGowen. He made a fortune from oil wells on his land in Texas. He greeted us and made us very comfortable in this luxurious place. The famous Broadway actor, Joe Keeter, was there and who would have thought of such a thing.

Joe's talent was discovered when he played two very dramatic roles in High School speech plays and he soon climbed the ladder of success. Donnie Bybee, the new owner of Stillman's Gym in New York, had come to the West Coast for a vacation and was staying at the hotel. Janelle Ferris, who puts Minnie Pearl to shame, and the great cartoonist, Mildred Rodgers, whose work excels that of Walt Disney, and the now very famous teacher, concert artist, and composer, Beth Kellison were all staying at the hotel. It began to seem like old times again. Behind the desk was Ida Francis Kerby as P. B. X. operator at the hotel and she was giving information to none other than Admiral Charles Simpson. No one ever dreamed that Charles would be such an important person when he joined the Navy back there in 1949. We all gathered around and began talking of when everyone had accomplished in these fifteen years. It was almost unbelievable and yet its true. After a delightful vacation it was time to start back home and our final stop was to be in Lockney, Texas for the annual Homecoming. Although most of the Seniors of 1949 had deserted the old home town, there were still a few who remained. The school was much the same and Mr. Wright was still there teaching commercial business, producing bigger, and better annuals, and still the Senior sponsor. Coach Kelley was coaching football and had won state many times. Numerous trophies filled the trophy cases that lined the halls. Mrs. Grimm was also there head of the English Department. Too there was an almost forgotten member of the class. Ewell Dee Kelley who reached the height of his fame as All-American tackle, and played in the Rose Bowl, and then returned to Lockney and is faithfully cleaning the halls of our long remembered alma mater, Lockney High.

Things About New York

The most orb-filling view in The Big Town is the Empire State bldg. It is built to accommodate 25,000 tenants. (More than the population of many communities.) . . . Most tourists go right to its top—originally constructed as a mooring mast for passing dirigibles. It is never used as such. It is the coldest spot in town . . . Though Times Square (42nd Street and Broadway) is in the heart of the City of Skyscrapers there isn't one skyscraper there . . . The Times edifice and the Paramount bldg., are pygmies compared to those in lower Manhattan—or the nearest tall building uptown—the Chrysler bldg.—several blocks east.

There are enough regular theatregoers in the Metropolitan area to keep a show (that attracted good notices) running for 40 weeks . . . Approximately 30,000 of them go to see all the shows religiously . . . The best photos of Broadway are usually taken on drizzly nights. The glow-by-glow description afforded by the rain's reflections heightens The Big Stem's dazzle . . . New Yorkers spend about $500,000 a year on phone calls just to find out what time it is.

Those impressive police wagons which race to emergency calls cost more than $21,000 each. They are crowded with gim-cracks and doodads to aid citizens in distress . . . We have more than 100 well-equipped hospitals, too. And that's not enough . . . The most turbulent hospital is The Harlem, where six ambulances are kept busy in New York's jungles. There are so many "cuttings," a reporter was told not to phone them in. It isn't news, any more.

Our town has 120 pawn shops, in case you're broke . . . There are 35 restaurants in the block between 6th and 7th Avenues on 49th Street. They range from a walk-up India dinery to a massive chop-house operated by Eisenhower's one-time mess Sgt. . . . "Sloppy Looney's" is in the heart of the Fish Market on South St. It is said to be one of the finest seafood spots on seven continents . . . We have one restaurant on the lower East Side (been in business 30 years) which serves only one meal a week—Sunday dinner . . . Local hotels list as their worst offenders—college girls in groups. When they check out—their rooms resemble the aftermath of a cyclone.

That gallery of paintings on Lindy's righthand wall is valued at $25,000. Before he purchases them he always consults his personal art connoisseur, Ernest Roehie, one of his writers.

There is a ritzy candy store on upper 5th Avenue, which retails its bonbons at only $80 per box. (The cost of the fancy box is the reason) . . . Toy shops on the same avenue have "toys" that cost you more than the real thing from which they were copied into playthings . . . Contrary to public opinion, unhappy love affairs account for the fewest number of suicides in Our Burg. The reason you think so is that they make the most dramatic headlines . . . The N. Y. Times has the largest city-room—one block long—from 43rd to 44th. It is so big editors summon reporters via microphones.

Another ruling in Our Village demands that cab-drivers must get out and inspect the cab to see if the fare left anything—and if so—to report it to the nearest precinct house . . . The oldest apartment house is on the north corner at 72nd and Central Park West.

Across the way is the Majestic Apartments (once a hotel) where O. O. McIntyre, the columnist, started his colium. He was the press agent there—and sent his colium to papers around the land free—just to get the hotel name in print . . . One swank apartment house at 87th near Madison has more maintenance men than tenants.

If you want to wear your shoes out, you can find quarters in Our Town for as low as $7 per month . . . But if you want a suite at the Waldorf-Astoria (in the Towers there) it'll cost you only $28,000 . . . Most New Yorkers dial the wrong number (about 4 million wrong ones yearly) before 10 a.m. When they are still sleepy, apparently . . . Some sections of the town still have the Gay 90's flavor . . . On West Street—near the Hudson River—there are horse-troughs on every block. We have about 17,000 nags, even with all those motor trucks . . . It is possible to walk from 34th to 42nd Street without traveling on the streets. Via connecting subway underpass . . . The Big Show for country bumpkins still is the famed Automat near 48th on Broadway.

The College Influence

THE ADDITION of Red Rolfe, the distinguished Dartmouth alumnus, to the list of big league managers, increases considerably the influence of the college mind on our national game.

The list of college-trained managers now includes Lou Boudreau of Illinois, Eddie Dyer of Rice, Red Rolfe of Dartmouth and Eddie Sawyer of Ithaca. This is only four out of the 16, but it's at least a lift from the old days when Jake Stahl of Illinois and the Red Sox was Grantland Rice about the only collegian in charge of a squad. Stahl's Red Sox beat the Giants in the 1912 World Series.

It isn't beyond reason to see Boudreau's Indians and Dyer's Cardinals hook up in another world series. This, however, is no even-money bet . . . In the American league, the Indians still have the Red Sox, Yankees and Athletics to subdue. In the National league, the Cardinals still have the Dodgers, Braves, Pirates and Giants to lasso and handle.

The four college-trained managers must also overpower such non-college entries as Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel, Burt Shotton, Leo Durocher, Billy Southworth, Billy Meyer and Connie Mack—a rather formidable troop.

What teams are going to win the two pennants, anyway? With nothing better to do under a hot, steamy sun, we began interviewing ball-players—not the rookies—to get their angles. After all, they had played against these teams and ought to have some slant on the subject.

Their opinions were quite interesting. From American league camps, we found that about 65 per cent gave Cleveland the edge through stronger balance in pitching, hitting, outfield, infield and catching.

There's no doubt that Boudreau's Indians are the best-balanced outfit in either league.

They have what should be the best pitching staff, a fine outfield, a strong infield and competent catching.

The other 35 per cent went 25 for the Red Sox and 10 for the Yankees. I rate the Yankees much higher than this. They have the best outfield in the league, if Joe DiMaggio is O.K. They have the weakest infield of the three contenders, but powerful pitching possibilities. The Red Sox are only uncertain in the box, where pennants are won and lost.

Anyway, most of the American leaguers thought the Indians would win again. They thought so rather violently. They are probably right, as Boudreau is a smart, keen, hustling manager who is going to stand for no loafing. Joe McCarthy must get better pitching and Casey Stengel must get better infield play, improved pitching and improved catching. Could happen.

The National League Vote

The National league vote was even more interesting. We only had the Cardinals, Reds, Phillies and Braves to talk to. The Giants and Pirates are too far away. So are the Dodgers in their madhouse at Vero Beach. All the Cardinals we talked to picked the Cardinals to win by some strange quirk.

The Phillies and the Reds were split among the Braves, Cardinals and Dodgers, with the Braves slightly in the lead because of Sam Spahn, Dark and Pete Reiser's potential gifts. Also, a fellow by the name of Billy Southworth, at least one of the great managers of all time.

The National league vote found the Braves in front with the Dodgers and Cardinals almost equal. The Cardinals were rated a better team than the Dodgers, with too much age against too much youth.

In a series of five games, the Cardinals would probably win four. But 154 games was a different story. Here is a 1940-1941 squad facing a 1947-1948 squad—younger, sounder, with stronger legs and stronger arms.

There is no such creaking and clashing of worn-out bones among the Dodgers that you hear from the Cardinal camp.

The Redbird team must be rebuilt quickly. It is almost through—although still powerful and dangerous. They are a much better ball team than the Dodgers or Giants. But I'm not sure they can go the long route as well as the Dodgers can travel the pennant road.

Oddly enough, few of the National leaguers I talked to gave the Pirates or the Giants a chance. They liked the Pirates over the Giants. In a short series, they'd bet the Braves over the Pirates.

Plenty of Room for a Subdivision

Conceivably, a man could build a house and have his bedroom in New Mexico, his bathroom in Arizona, his kitchen in Colorado, and his living room in Utah.

The only drawback to such a plan is the fact that this would be site—the common meeting point of Utah, Colorado, Arizona, and New Mexico—is quite inaccessible to the ordinary traveler since it is deep in Indian territory, miles from human inhabitants, and used for winter grazing land.

Surveyed by a surveyor named E. N. Darling in 1863, the four-state boundary is at the intersection of the 37th parallel of north latitude and the 109th meridian of west longitude.

FIRST AID to the AILING HOUSE

Question: My new plastic tablecloth has made the ends of the breakfast table sticky. How can this be removed from a varnished birch finish and not ruin the finish?

Answer: Try wiping the sticky places very lightly with benzine, being careful not to press hard on the finish. Be careful of fire, and close the door leading to the kitchen. If the table is in the kitchen, do not work there. If the benzine dulls the finish, apply a thin coat of paste wax, let it dry and then polish with a soft cloth.

Question: Can anything be done to stop the radio interference caused by our oil furnace? Some say to ground the furnace. Our furnace is on the main floor as we have no basement.

Answer: Radio interference from oil burners, motors and other electrical equipment can be eliminated, but this calls for the service of an expert electrician or radio serviceman. The manufacturer of your oil burner might be able to take care of the nuisance.

Sid Reeves Talks To Optimist Club

Sid Reeves, superintendent of Lockney public Schools, spoke to the Plainview Optimist Club Monday on "What Education Means and Why."

Reeves explained that civilization and education go hand in hand. Although uneducated by our standards, people of Africa may be more educated than we, he said. For instance, during the last war while we were busy studying better and faster ways of killing people, the people of Africa were at peace. Education can be, and should be applied to better living and better ways of making our living, Reeves stated.
