LONGHORNS WILL TANGLE WITH SUDAN HORNETS HERE TONIGHT

Local fans will be treated to the first home game for the Lockney Longhorn football team tonight (Friday) at 8 p. m. when they tangle with the strong Sudan Hornets of District 4-A.

There is no way to compare strength of the two teams but Sudan has been rated as one of the leading teams in their district along with Levelland, Littlefield and Muleshoe.

Coach Curtis Kelley, who saw the Hornets play Dimmitt last Friday night, reported that the Sudan team had a strong passing attack and lots of speed. The Dimmitt Bobcats, a Class B team, defeated the Hornets 12-7 but Kelley believes that the Hornets had the best team and should have won the game.

The Hornets have eight starters from last season's team, a fast backfield and an average weight line.

The Longhorns will be in top shape for the game, Kelley said, and he expects it to be an interesting one although it does not count in district standings.

The Longhorns have been getting used to the mud this week and have been through heavy work outs.

New Stadium Ready

Fans will be using the new football stadium for the first time tonight and it is expected to add much to the comfort of the fans during the game. The stadium is built to seat 1200 people but will probably seat more than that, Supt. Sidney Reeves said. The reserved seat section totaling 476 seats is in the center of the stadium and practically all of these had been sold Wednesday. Tickets may be picked up at Lockney Drug by those who have bought them and haven't secured them at yet.

Preston Johnson, S.M.U. will be the referee in the game tonight and Elmer Tarbox, S. M. U. will be the umpire. The third man will be from Texas University but his name was unavailable. Starting line-ups for the two teams have been announced as follows:

Santa Fe Men Check Five-Day Week

H. O. Wagner, superintendent, H. E. Cooley, transportation inspector, and David F. Tipple, assistant division freight and passenger agent of the Santa Railway Co. were in Lockney Friday checking on the effects of the railroad 5-day week on the local business houses.

Under the recently enacted 40 hour week, passed by Congress, both local depots are staying open only five days a week. Monday through Friday. The closing Saturday and Sunday both will result in some inconvenience but will not stop mail shipments since the trains will continue to run six days a week as they have been doing. Freight shipments will arrive as usual but will not be delivered on Saturday or Sunday.

Tulia-Crosbyton Open 3-A Play

The first district game in District 3-A will be played tonight between Tulia and Crosbyton, two of the highly rated teams of the district. The game will be played at Tulia.

Other District 3-A teams will play but will have non-district opponents. Lockney plays here against Sudan, Abernathy plays at Slaton, Floydada plays Post at Floydada, Paducah plays Crowell at Paducah, Matador takes on Silverton at Matador, Ralls plays Tahoka at Ralls and Spur plays at Hamlin.

The Tulia-Crosbyton game will be anxiously watched by other 3-A teams since it will serve as some indication of the probable strong team of the district.

District 3-A teams had a bad night last Friday when all but Floydada and Ralls lost their games. Floydada defeated the Slaton Tigers 8-0 in a mud battle at Slaton. Both of the Whirlwinds' scores came on recovered fumbles but their had the best of the statistics too with nine first downs to six for the Tigers.

The Ralls Jackrabbits tied the Post Antelopes 13-13 in a battle at Post. The Antelopes are defending champions of District 4-A. Ralls took an early lead and maintained it most of the way.

Chillicothe rapped the Paducah Dragons 18 to 7 at Chillicothe. The Dragons were out-classed according to newspaper accounts of the game.

Tulia went down before the Canyon Eagles 6-0 in an upset victory which the Hornets were supposed to have won.

Abernathy also had a bad night, losing to the Class B New Deal team 6 to 7. Abernathy is another reportedly strong team in this district.

Matador also lost to a Class B team, the Turkey Turks, 13-6. The Turks have a good team however, and the Matadors are not to be counted out.

Spur lost their annual battle with Haskell 6 to 19. Haskell had the best of the statistics but Spur's Clyde Blair returned a kick-off for a touchdown and will be watched closely by other 3-A teams.

Some boys and girls will also get a chance to ride the pony, Mr. Faggard said. All boys and girls are urged to be present for the pony show. No charge will be made to see it.

Arthur Nigh Is Improving

The condition of Arthur Nigh, local postoffice clerk, was reported to be improved Thursday at the Floyd County Co-operative Hospital here. Nigh was seriously injured on Wednesday night of last week when his car was rammed in the side by another car in Plainview. Nigh was thrown from his car and suffered severe head injuries. He was unconscious for several days but is now normal.

Weather Slows Polio Fund Drive

Hubert Frizzell of Lone Star turned in $83.00 Thursday from that community to bring the total for the North part of the county to $384.00.

Rainy weather the past week has slowed the polio emergency fund drive in Floyd County, it was indicated by reports Thursday. Lockney's contributions, incomplete as yet, totaled $219.15 up to Thursday. The Erick community was the only community in North Floyd that had completed a drive, turning in $82.00 the first of the week.

Other communities are working on the drive but have made no report as yet, according to F. L. Brown, chairman for the north part of the county.

The Lockney contribution included a $28.00 gift from the Main Street Church of Christ.

The emergency drive is to replenish funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which have been drained off by the epidemic this year. The Foundation recently sent $1800 to the Floyd County chapter to take care of polio victims in this county since the county chapter's funds had been exhausted.

The drive will continue until everyone has had a chance to contribute to it, Mr. Brown said.

Rotary Works For Peace—Wasson

Rotary clubs in 81 countries throughout the world are united in an endeavor to promote international understanding, good will and peace. That was the message brought by Elmo Wasson of Big Spring, Governor of District 183 of Rotary International, in addressing the Rotary Club of Lockney last Friday, following a conference with local Rotary officers, directors and committee chairmen.

In addition to the activities of Rotary's 7,000 clubs in their own communities to promote this objective, Mr. Wasson explained, during the next three years Rotary International will spend $750,000, principally to create better understanding among the various nations. One of the principal ways in which this money will be spent will be on Rotary Foundation Fellowships which enable outstanding graduate students to study abroad for one year as ambassadors of good will. Since this program was established in 1947, 111 fellowships have been awarded to students in 27 countries, with grants totaling more than $250,000.

"Devoted to service, Rotary provides a common ground for 330,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of nationalities or political or religious beliefs," the Rotary District Governor emphasized.

He said that there is a striking parallel between the program of Rotary and the United Nations Charter, and that, since the organization of the United Nations in 1945, Rotary Clubs throughout the world have been active in the development of an informed public opinion on the objectives of the United Nations in an endeavor to make if an effective instrument for free people everywhere.

Mrs. Doris Bilbo and children of Victoria arrived last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. R. E. L. Stutts.

First 1949 Maize Received Monday

The first 1949 maize was received here Monday from two different farmers.

Frank McClure brought in five loads of maize to the Baxter & Smith Grain Co. from his farm north of town. The maize was a good No. 1 with 13.5 moisture content. Mr. McClure was putting the maize into government loan which brought him $1.81½ net per hundred pounds. However, for the first load Baxter & Smith paid $2.00 per hundred as a premium. The maize was yielding around 2500 pounds per acre. He has 30 acres ready to cut now.

Neil Scott, who lives just south east of town brought in a load of No. 2 maize to Patterson Grain Co. The moisture content, however, was too high for the loan, running 14.70.

Rains and Cloudy Weather Retard Cotton Maturity

Rains and cloudy weather this week have cotton farmers worried. The cotton crop in Floyd County is late and lots of sunshine is needed to mature the crop before fall. In addition to the inch and a half of rain falling here last week a total of .61 of an inch was measured by Hammond & Company's gauge up to Wednesday noon. The rain has been much heavier in the north part of the county.

County Agent Robert H. Gibson told The Beacon this week that Floyd County had probably 70,000 acres in cotton and it could make, with favorable weather, up to 60,000 bales. K. N. Clapp's September 1 estimate gave Floyd County 50,000 bales.

Chief cause for worry is the fact that cold, cloudy weather would prevent the cotton from maturing before frost, which has been set by the weather prophets as between Oct. 20 and 25th. If this type of weather continues the crop could be cut possibly thirty of forty per cent.

Mr. Gibson also reported a slight infestation of bollworms in southeast Floyd County. The cloudy, wet weather will also encourage these pests which would also cut down on the production.

Clouds were breaking up Thursday morning and prospects were better for fair weather.

The first bale of cotton for the year was ginned at Plainview Monday. It was from the Austin Meriwether place, near Petersburg and was produced by J. O. Ray. The first bale was ginned at Petersburg last week and Crosby and Motley counties have both received their first bale of cotton.

Grand Jury Returns Seven Indictments

The Floyd County Grand Jury meeting Monday returned seven indictments of which three were for forgery, one for theft of property valued at more than $50, property valued at more than one for conversion by bailee of $50, one wrongful conversion of property valued at more than $50, and one second offense of of drunken driving.

District court has not been set as yet but the trials will probably be held soon, officials said.

COUNTY RURAL ROADS ASS'N IS FORMED WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The beginning of a Floyd County Rural Roads Association was set up Wednesday night in a meeting held in the county court room at Floydada. Due to inclement weather only about 25 men were present but some officers of the association were elected and the organization will be completed in a meeting at the High School auditorium in Floydada on September 29.

Officers of the Floyd County association chosen were County Judge G. C. Tubbs, president; G. N. Shirey, treasurer. A vice-president, secretary and a board of directors will be selected at the September 29 meeting.

Col. J. I. McGregor of Temple, who is leading the organization movement in West Texas, was present Wednesday night and spoke to the group. He explained the object of the Rural Roads association and the many difficulties that would face the organization in reaching its object.

The present object of the various county Rural Roads associations is to push through a bill in the Texas Legislature to tax natural resources such as was proposed last year and failed to pass by just a few votes.

Under the new bill proposed for the coming year, however, the tax has been broadened to include a tax on sulphur and oil as well as natural gas. The scope of benefits of the tax money has also been broadened. Of course the first benefit is to improve rural roads. The funds derived from the proposed tax will be expended on rural roads which are not now a part of the state system of roads. The funds would also be used for soil conservation purposes and for control of run-off water, as well as building of permanent state buildings.

According to a letter from Judge Gilbert Smith, executive director of the state association, the one cent tax on 1000 cu. ft. of natural gas would produce an annual revenue for Floyd County of $183,318.40. This does not take into consideration the additional revenue from sulphur and oil.

The funds would be divided to the various counties under this plan: two-tenths according to the ratio of the area of the county to that of the state; four-tenths according to the ratio of the population of the county to that of the state, and four-tenths according to ratio of the rural road mileage in the county to that of the state.

Goal 1,000 County Members

The Floyd County goal for membership is 1,000 members, Judge Tubbs said. The membership fee is a minimum of $1.00 with more accepted if the applicant desires to contribute more. Hale and Lubbock counties as well as a number of other counties in West Texas have already organized.

Discussing the purpose of the Floyd County meeting and the enlarged program, Jim Cantrell, Collin county banker, President of the Texas Rural Roads Association, said: "We are offering the people of Texas a chance to rally to the support of a program that will mean more to the future permanent prosperity of this State as a whole and to farmers and agriculture centers in particular, than any other long range program ever offered by a distinguished group of business and farm leaders looking only to the welfare of Texas and all its people."

"Natural resources, our State's greatest capital assets, should by a fair severance tax, finance a continuing program of permanent improvements, such as rural roads, soil and water conservation, state and institutional buildings and other permanent improvements deemed necessary by our Legislative bodies," he continued.

"This sound business and economic principal," banker Cantrell said, "will prevent the State going bankrupt by the un-sound practice of using capital investments for current operations. It will prevent the necessity of levying a sales tax on our daily necessities of life."

"Under our enlarged program," Col. McGregor said, "each county in Texas is being organized, with their own officers and directors and own constitution and by-laws. They in turn will control the policies of the State Association."

Price Supports Based On Wheat Allotments

Farmers were put on notice today that compliance with wheat acreage allotments will be necessary if they want the protection of Government price supports on their 1950 wheat crop.

According to Ray S. McEntire, Administrative Officer of the Floyd County Agricultural Conservation Association, an "eligible" producer for price support on the 1950 wheat crop—generally—will be "any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity that has an interest as landowner, landlord, tenant or sharecropper in a farm on which the acreage planted to wheat for harvest in 1950 is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment."

If such a producer has an interest in more than one farm in a county, he will be eligible for wheat price support of the total of his share of the 1950 wheat acreage seeded for harvest on all of the farms does not exceed his total share of the wheat allotments or "permitted" acreages.

If the producer has an interest in farms in more than one county or state, he would not be eligible for wheat price supports if the total of his share of the 1950 wheat acreage seeded for harvest on all of the farms exceeds his total share of such allotments or permitted acreages, regardless of where such farms are situated.

A "permitted" acreage, Mr. McEntire said, will be used only for those farms for which a 1950 wheat allotment of less than 15 acres is established and the acreage seeded for harvest is in excess of the allotment. In those cases, the permitted acreage is the smaller of the wheat acreage seeded for harvest or 15 acres.

1950 Wheat Mixtures

Several questions have come up regarding the classification of acreages seeded to mixtures of small grains and wheat under the 1950 program.

The following rules apply to barley, oats, or rye mixtures:

(1) An acceptable mixture must be seeded in the same operation.

(2) The mixture when seeded must contain less than 50% by weight of wheat or not less than 25% by weight of barley or rye.

(3) The acreage of mixed grains must reasonably be expected to produce a crop containing sufficient other grains other than wheat that the acreage could not be harvested as wheat grain or seed.

(4) If the small grains other than wheat seeded in the mixture fail to reach maturity and the remaining wheat plants are permitted to reach maturity, then such acreage shall be classified as seeded wheat and will be credited against the farm allotment in determining performance in 1950. (In this case the rye, oats, or barley seeded with wheat in an acceptable mixture might not reach maturity because of the use of bad seed or because these other small grains froze out.)

If the acreage properly seeded to a mixture is plowed under or pastured out before any of the plants reach maturity, there would be no question as to the classification of the acreage.

Volunteer wheat can not be overseeded with other grains and qualify. However, volunteer wheat may be grazed and destroyed before maturity without affecting performance. All volunteer wheat reaching maturity will be counted against the allotment.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Handley Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kelley, all of Petersburg; Miss Eloise Kelley, Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weise and Mary of Lorenzo.

EVER WONDER HOW MANY STEPS YOUR TELEPHONE SAVES? Like most people, Mrs. Sivley was amazed when she looked at the actual record of the calls she made and received . . . and at the actual cost of those calls.

Every year the telephone becomes more and more important in our daily lives. And every year brings further progress in telephone service. New tele-phones added so you can reach and be reached by more people. Improvements made so you can hear better, get your calls through quicker, enjoy more trouble-free service. The result—a real bargain today that grows in value every year.

Methodist Notes

Sunday is Rally Day! We want 200 in church school. Come and help us.

You know one of the things that makes me sad as I visit and talk with people of our community, is that I find so many who say they are going to start to Sunday School and church but never do. Some have been saying this for a number of years I suspect. They are sure that they will get their children in Sunday School right away. They may have been just as sure 10 years ago. They keep putting it off. The children are growing up and miss the Christian training that they should have had and father and mother are getting older all the time and still that day does not come when all the family attends Sunday School and Church. Isn't it sad to think that if they keep putting it off they never will start? They will go out to meet God with their good intentions and excuses, and I am afraid that day will be a sad day for them.

I appreciate the fine crowd we had last Sunday, but let us work to make it even better this Sunday. I also greatly appreciate the splendid offering for McMurry College which was something over a thousand dollars.

Thought for the Week

Procrastination is the thief of time, also the thief of souls.

They say that Hell is paved over with good intentions.

One good decision acted upon is worth more than 1,000 good intentions that you never do any thing about.

Rally Day is a good day to start to Sunday School, and every Sunday is a good day to be found in Sunday School and church.

Newton Daniel, Pastor

Soil Conservation News

Abruzzi Rye is fast becoming as popular as a winter cover crop and for winter grazing. It does well on the soils below the cap. You can plant it later than wheat and it will make faster growth and produce more forage than wheat. As a cover crop on the soils below the cap it will come up and make growth under very adverse conditions. As a grazing plant it is considered as one of the best by the farmers who have tried it. Many farmers report that cattle take to Abruzzi Rye much better than they do to wheat. In one field that had wheat on half and abruzzi rye on the other half of the land the cattlemen reported that the cows grazed the rye to the ground but would not touch the wheat in the next row.

This is the season when some may be thinking about winter legumes. We generally think of legumes on irrigated land but the experience of farmers below the cap might warrant their use on dry land. Austrain Winter peas planted last fall on sandy soil below the cap did very well. At one time the vines were over 36 inches long and cattle grazed them very readily. They were grazed off several times during the growing season but yet enough remained for a green manure crop.

Strickland Home Endangered by Fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Strickland in Lone Star community was endangered recently when lightning struck a transformer near their home, burned it up and burned the wires into. The house caught fire in one of the rooms but went out after the electricity had been turned off.

The Stricklands were away from home at the time but their neighbors called the REA and had the electricity shut off and also called the Stricklands and notified them of the damage.

In a note to The Beacon Mr. and Mrs. Strickland and their children, DeJuan and Sharinne, expressed their thanks to their good neighbors for the help in preventing the house from burning.

"We are indeed grateful to the Hendersons, McPhersons, Brantlets and Jack Chandler but most of all to God that our home was spared," the note said.

He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not; one thing I do know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. —John 9:25.

The apparent necessity of an almost continuous investigation of many of those holding high places in Washington is unfortunate. It tends to cause one to wonder if there is anyone in the government circles who does not have his hand out to anyone willing to buy his influence. It may be all smoke and there may be no fire at all, but suspicion, once it falls across the pathway of a man in public life, is never erased. It all reminds us of that familiar poem which starts out: "God give us men."

As we see it, the person who can salvage a few thousand out of a $25,000 merchandising jackpot is a genius. After one sells enough of the merchandise to pay the income tax there isn't much left. In those instances where the jack-pot is paid in cash, of course, the situation is different.

What kind of government do we want in these United States? Something may be learned from a lesson that is going on in Europe right now. Many countries in Europe suffered as much or more than did England from loss of physical assets, loss of population, etc. Yet, at this moment, according to a number of competent observers returning from Europe, England is further away from self-sufficiency and complete recovery than any other nation on the continent. Even Belgium and France are better off and people better cared for than England. Why? England is the only one of the group which has a socialistic form of government. In England the government has control of the railroads, the coal mines, and all large manufacturing plants. The government says what to do and when to do it. It is our opinion that the socialistic government of England has retarded the recovery of that nation by at least five years. And yet some people in the United States are asking for the same kind of government.

We know one man's whose life ambition is to possess sufficient influence to rate a deepfreeze.

Opposition sometimes accelerates progress and worthwhile endeavors. If those who try to accomplish something and move forward in their respective work didn't have the soreheads and aginers yapping at their heels, they wouldn't be challenged to do their best.

Some believe that the demand made by John L. Lewis for a three day work week is not really intended for a temporary maneuver but merely a scheme to hedge against the day when three days a week operation of the mines will supply the nation's coal needs. Because of the frequent interruptions in the coal mining industry caused by strikes and threatened strikes, and because of the increased price of coal and the lowered price of competing fuels, the use of coal is being rapidly replaced with oil, gas and electricity. This continued falling off in consumption will one day make itself felt in the coal mining industry, if it has not already done so.

ANOTHER MIRACLE?

We read with a deep sigh last week that the venerable bones of Saint Peter are about to be discovered under the basilica of St. Peter's Church in Rome. The last Religious-Miracle-of-the-Month was the image of the Virgin Mary that shed tears. What happens under the basilica should top that a mile. The affair will be a gold-inlaid elephant's tusk to the Rome Chamber of Commerce. A million pilgrims will besiege Rome, buying picture postcards, medallions and pistachio. The 'miracle' will, of course, occur—because it has been planned that way. We've already braced ourselves for the deluge of propaganda unleashed via press, movies and radio. You can bet your next month's tithe there will be plenty of newsreel cameras and reporters on the scene when some blind man regains his eyesight simply by kissing the left femur of the departed saint. It makes better reading that the recent experience of an eastern dude who lost his teeth by merely kissing a hind foot of an East Texas mule. Intertwined with the bones we expect to find an ancient piece of parchment. On the battered papirus, in St. Peter's own handwriting, will be a message to the American Congress to hurry up and recognize the butcher regime of Franco of Spain because the clericofascist government needs American loans. In a P. S. this: How about American tax dollars to support parochial schools. —The Ralls Banner.

MEXICAN NATIONALS

Roll out the plush carpet. Fatten the gilded pig. Move out of your home into the cotton pullers shack, redecorate and refurbish your home with the best money can buy; turn it over to the cotton pullers, and you may get some Mexican nationals to help you pull your cotton this fall.

Getting Mexican labor from Mexico isn't quiet that hard, but it's hard enough. The Mexican government, after refusing for two or three years to let their nationals work in Texas, has condescended to let Texans employ them this fall—with certain restrictions. The Mex won't come to you looking for a job—you'll have to make an application. If you are a suitable employer, have money enough to post a $15 bond per head, will go after them at a designated place on the border, promise to fix up your truck like a bus, agree not to travel too hard or too far each day, have suitable housing when they arrive, and see that they return home after the season is over—otherwise you won't get your $15 back—then you can have some of these laborers. Do you want any? —Crosbyton Review

WESTWAY LEADS TO NEW COMMUNITY LIFE?

Rural community life is a thing of the past. At least, that is what the big shots are saying all over the country, and they can prove it too.

School consolidations, for instance, have eliminated the old time gatherings and quilting bees; square dances now flourish in swanky clubs instead of the old community meeting places and no longer does the circuit rider travel homeward, laden with chickens, eggs, and fresh produce galore.

Fortunately, however, no one has ever told the people of Westway, Deaf Smith County, these things.

The good people of this community did relinquish their school to the consolidation movement, but they are having a finer time, perhaps than ever before. Last Friday night, for instance, folks out at Westway passed the word around and things began to happen. People brought pies, chickens and steaks, all of which resulted in one of the biggest get togethers in the history of the community. Did they have a good time? Just ask some of them and find out for yourself. Furthermore, the Westway folks have an up and going Sunday School, more than 100 in attendance just a week ago today.

While we are inclined to agree, at least to some extent, with extremists who say that rural community life is on the decline, we sometimes wonder if the cause should not be attributed to the people rather than to conditions. The automobile, plus other means of transportation and communication, has no doubt contributed more to this decline than any other factor; through this medium a greater scope of activity has been placed in every home, bringing competition in many forms to the old time pie suppers.

Human relationship and associations are after all, the fundamental thing in any form of society. Gatherings like the Westway people sponsor may be the first indication of a return of what thousands term as "the good old days." When you compare the finest of foods, plus wholesome companionship and low costs, along side a smoke filled roadside inn and five dollar steaks without flavor, it is difficult to understand the twentieth century trend. On the other hand, if community gatherings cannot meet the competition of other forms of entertainment they will naturally become a thing of the past.—The Hereford Brand.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Huggins and family of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huggins and children of Colorado City were here Sunday visiting in the J. D. Huggins home.

We rise in glory as we sink in pride; when boasting ends, there dignity begins.

Whatever your difficulties may be, they are not peculiar to you.

The test of good manners is being able to put up pleasantly with bad ones.

Some people consider themselves plenty smart if they can stretch the truth without breaking their word.

A man whose only motive for action is his wages, does a bad piece of work.

CHIROPRACTORS POINT OUT...

That all bodily function is directed and controlled by the nervous system. Sensation is carried to the brain over a network of nerve fibers. Responding impulses set the glands and muscles to action in what is called metabolism or normal function. Sometimes, however, due to a fall or mishap, these nerve channels become blocked in a measure. This usually occurs when they leave the spinal cord itself. When this occurs, resistance will be lowered and eventually ill health and irritableness may come upon you.

Chiropractors are trained to locate and adjust these spinal displacements. They set free the life forces within and soon you are cheerful, happy yourself again. The thoughts you think and the smiles you wear make the sun shine everywhere, the poet tells us. So do your part to make the world a little happier.

V. L. Case No. 11,728—Woman, age 44, had a nagging pain that ran down her left leg to the foot. She was nervous also, had headaches and became tired easily. When nothing else brought relief, Chiropractic cleared up the misery within a few days.

Floyd County Ladies Attend THDA Meeting

A thousand women are expected to attend the session of the annual meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association at Mineral Wells, September 21-23. The three-day meeting is planned around the theme "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

Mrs. R. L. Campbell, Wildorado, Texas, president of the association, will preside over the general sessions, and other members of the board of directors will conduct work shops on the association's plan of work—results in the counties, and recommendations for the new year's program.

The scope of their interests has broadened during the years of their growth in home demonstration organizations. Miss Maurine Hearn, state home demonstration agent and vice-director for women for the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College, says "The leadership which home demonstration workers have always given in the important fields of nutrition, home management, clothing, housing and the like, is also needed in solving such problems as health, recreation and the enrichment of living."

Mrs. Gus Rogas, Manor, Texas, will act as chairman of the plan of work which will be made during the six work shop sessions. Mrs. C. E. Caskey, Graham will conduct the recreation committee workshop; Mrs. George Parr, Paris—the Legislative; Mrs. B. M. Harris, Plainview—the 4-H committee; Mrs. Robert Lange, Brenham, the education; Mrs. T. L. Earnest, Jourdanton—marketing, and Mrs. T. J. Quebe of Providence; and Mrs. Wayne Russell of Lakeview. Mrs. C. L. King, chairman of the Floyd County Council also plans to attend, and Miss Leila Petty, County Home Demonstration Agent, will represent the County Home Demonstration Agents in District II. The group will go on a chartered bus from Lubbock next Tuesday.

Alternate delegates to the state meeting are Mrs. Clem of Homebuilders; Mrs. Lee Rushing of Friendship; and Mrs. F. L. Brown of Lockney.
