One of the biggest things of all to a great extent will be the square dance which begins at 9:30 p. m. and continues to midnight.

J. Blanchard Makes Formal Announcement

Utilizing the responsibilities of the office which I am undertaking, and with the desire to undertake the high trust imposed thereby, I announce my candidacy for Representative of the 22nd District in the State Legislature.

Not only by knowing and understanding each candidate's ability, but that you are able to choose the best man for the job. I consider it a pleasure to meet each and all of you and to explain any part of my platform. I believe that the farm-rocket road program should be continued and improved.

I believe that a small claims court should be set up to speed up the processes of justice to people who have small claims, thereby doing away with the expense of my smaller claims system in improving the judicial system so that it will be aided and not hindered through the technicalities of the law. I believe in the simplification of taxes to the farmer and the business man through the taxing machinery and to cut out duplicity of taxes and red tape which runs through the government up. I believe in a more streamlined age policy so that the people will be able to obtain the allowance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. [Name], long time residents of [Location], I am 26 years old, and have a small [Business]. I am a member of [Church], Masonic [Shrine], B. P. O. E. and [American Legion]. I am a member of the S. M. U. School of [Location] and have had my undergraduate work at Texas Tech. I lived in this district all my life, with the exception of [Location], which I spent in [Location] forces of our country. I am a resident of Lockney. (Doc) BLANCHARD

LOCKNEY, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY MAY 12, 1950

OIL TEST SCHEDULED NEAR LOCKNEY SOON

Location Reported NE of Lockney

The Beacon was informed by a reliable source Wednesday that an oil test would probably be drilled in the immediate vicinity of Lockney on or before July 1.

Extensive leasing has been going on north and east of Lockney for months. The area being leased lies north of the farm highway 135 running east of town running almost to the Motley County line on the east and to the Briscoe county line on the north.

An item in a daily paper reported the location of the test to be northeast of Lockney but The Beacon's information was that this was not quite correct and indications seem to point to a location just north of Lockney.

Some major companies have been active in leasing in the area, paying in most cases $5 bonus and $1 per year rental on a 10 year contract.

Longhorns Lose To Spur Team

The Longhorn baseball team lost two straight games to the Spur Bulldogs the past week end, which gave Spur the district championship in District 3-A baseball race.

Coach Sid Thomas' Longhorns lost to Spur last Friday 9 to 2 and on Monday of this week lost the game by 14-7.

Spur has a very experienced and very good team and has two exceptionally good high school pitchers in King and Lindsey. Last Friday afternoon King pitched for the Dickens County boys had 14 strike-outs and the Longhorns didn't get a man on base until the sixth inning.

C. B. Smart started for the locals and pitched three and one-third innings, striking out four and allowing only three earned runs. However, poor support in spots in the field allowed the Bulldogs to score several more runs.

Little Pat Frizzell took over and finished the game, getting eight strike-outs in the remaining three and two-third innings and setting the Bulldogs down in order several times.

Monday afternoon the Longhorns jumped to a 4-0 lead in the first inning but in the third they had trouble getting the Bulldogs put out and let them pull ahead. Pat Frizzell was again called on to finish the job and he completed the game on the mound for the locals.

Considering their inexperience the Longhorns have a good record this year in baseball and most of the boys will be back next year to play.

Farmers Called To Meeting Monday

Ben Quebe, president of the Floyd County Farm Bureau has called a meeting of all farm bureau members and other interested farmers to be held Monday night, May 15 at the City Auditorium in Lockney. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock.

Chief topics of discussion will be the electrical rates on irrigation wells in this area. Mr. Quebe said. Rates are scheduled to be raised, farmers have been advised and the matter will be discussed at the meeting, he said.

Supt. Reeves May Be Home This Week

Supt. Sidney Reeves is expected home this week after undergoing an operation in a Dallas hospital. Mr. Reeves had the operation last Friday and was reported to be doing "just fine" by Mrs. Reeves.

Stock Violations Will Be Fined

Mayor G. M. Brunner said Wednesday that the City office had received numerous complaints concerning stock in the city limits and that those in violation of the ordinance concerning stock would be fined if they persisted in the violation.

A city ordinance forbids the keeping of more than one cow and also forbids the keeping of any hogs within a major part of the city limits.

Lease On Post Office Building Is Renewed

The lease on the present post office building has been renewed for a ten year period, the Beacon has been informed by Dorsey Baker, owner of the building. The old lease expires on September 1.

The post office department has accepted Mr. Baker's offer for a lease on the building for a consideration of approximately $10,000 for the ten year period, he said.

In the lease contract Mr. Baker has agreed to renovate the building, paint the interior, install steel doors at the rear of the building and make other improvements.

Rev. and Mrs. Cobb At Chicago Meeting

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Cobb of the First Baptist Church, Lockney, are attending the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Chicago this week. The couple left here Friday of last week. They expect to be back in time for Sunday services.

Rev. and Mrs. Cobb are delegates from the local church and the membership of the church paid their expenses to the convention.

The Southern Baptist Convention is meeting this year outside of the "solid south" for the first time in history. The meeting is being held in Chicago because of the fact that there are many Baptist Churches affiliated with the convention in that area, it was said.

Ledell Colvin and Jessie Mae Carthel visited Mrs. Gene Reynolds of Silvertown Sunday afternoon.

BANK DEPOSITS HIT NEW HIGH

Deposits in the First National Bank of Lockney reached a new high mark for a call statement on April 24 when they totaled $2,342,137.24, about $650,000 more than a year ago, according to the bank statement published this week.

The present deposits are also an increase of about $70,000 more than the last statement at the close of business December 31, 1949. However, this does not represent the peak of deposits at the local bank, President M. W. Wiley pointed out Wednesday. At one time during the spring deposits were only slightly under $3,000,000.

Reflecting the sound financial condition of farmers of this area, Mr. Wiley said, are the facts that farmers have paid a lot of land notes and other debts since January 1, have purchased considerable new equipment, put down a number of irrigation wells, and made other capital investments while getting this far into the crop year and still the deposits are higher than January 1.

Mr. Wiley said that in his opinion twice as many irrigation wells have been drilled this spring as last.

Loans and discounts stand now at $615,576.46 compared to $533,500.35 on December 31, 1949 and $641,804.14 a year ago.

Cash on hand at the present time is $1,624,981.23 as compared to $1,234,559.43 on December 31 and $948,475.60 a year ago.

Rain Fall Here Is Quarter Inch

Showers fell in this area Tuesday night and again Wednesday afternoon and night to give the country some much needed moisture.

No measurement was available here but the estimate was probably around a quarter inch. Hilburn Casey, Guy Jackson and Clyde Farish, all in the area north of town, reported about a half inch, while R. C. Mitchell in the Pleasant Valley community reported about a quarter.

A half inch was reported at Lone Store by the Lone Star Grocery Wednesday night.

Fog was heavy and the prospect of more rain was good.

What effect the rain will have on planted cotton was hard to say, but most farmers are willing to accept the rain and take their chances on the cotton coming up.

The change in weather was welcomed after the boiling dust that hit last Thursday night. The heavy west winds destroyed some trailers and did other damage including the destroying of some young hay.

Alfalfa Price Is $12 in Field

The National Alfalfa Milling & Products Company began operating the dehydrator for this season last Thursday morning and announced the price for alfalfa hay, dehydrated and in the field, at $12 per ton. No price has been set locally as yet on baled hay.

The mill is operating day and night now according to a report from Revis Harris, and is "snowed under" with hay.

Mr. Harris estimated that the alfalfa acreage in this area was about the same as last year, saying some had plowed up their hay while others had sowed new alfalfa.

The mill is employing about 22 men and probably will use about this number all summer.

How to Park

A survey of high school driving instructors by the Chevrolet Motor Division discloses parking as the toughest maneuver for students to master. The above photo-diagram illustrates correct procedure. First, stop close and approximately even with the car ahead. Next, cut your wheels sharply right, and back up until your front right bumper just clears the rear left bumper of the car ahead. Check Cows' Feet

Although one would hardly gather the impression from the Holstein cow (above), cows are like people in more ways than one—one sure one being that when their feet hurt, their production lags. Farmers can help prevent loss of production from this source by periodic attention to the feet of their cattle to check for foot infection or other ills.

New Dairy Element Seen As Aid in More Output

The animal protein factor—miraculous dairy element which speeds up the growth of farm animals and poultry at less cost to the farmer—is now in tonnage production and should be readily available to consumers within a short time. Officials of the chemical company producing the element which is accomplished by bacterial fermentation, promise feed efficiency that will represent a significant new advance in animal nutrition. The fermentation APF, as the feed component is known, has a Vitamin B12 content approximately 40 times that of good fish meal, the outstanding natural source of APF which has been widely used heretofore in feed mixtures. This vitamin compound is one of the most effective known for supplementing chicken and hog feeds.

Superphosphate Will Help Add to Manure Properties

Adding superphosphate to manure not only increases its plant food balance, but helps it hold valuable nitrogen that otherwise might be lost, according to Prof. C. J. Chapman, University of Wisconsin agronomist. He says it should be added before the manure is spread on the field. The superphosphate can be put in the spreader at the rate of 20 to 25 pounds per load.

Edwin Langford Wins Scholarship In Business Adm.

Lubbock.—Four Texas Technological college students have been awarded the 1950 C. N. Hilton Scholarships for scholastic excellence in the division of business administration.

The $100 cash awards are presented to the students in each undergraduate class who attained the highest grade point average in their class. The awards were made on Mr. Hilton's behalf by Dr. George G. Heather, dean of the business administration division.

The winners are: LaJuana Smart, freshman, Canadian; Edwin Langford, sophomore, Lockney; Kenneth Cotton, junior, Blossom; and Irma Rae Beaver, senior, Levelland.

The scholarship was founded at Tech by the nationally-known hotel operator in 1947.

In a recent poll of editors of the country, conducted by the Pageant Magazine on the question of "Who is America's most influential woman?" Mary McLeod Bethune, a negro woman, founder of the National Council of Negro Women, was awarded 15th place.

Volunteer leaders in home demonstration clubs last year in Texas held 9,401 meetings that were attended by 137,000 rural women.

According to statistics about ten percent of the American women fail to marry.

Mrs. Kreis Is Named Conservation Queen For Region

Mrs. A. H. Kreis of Floydada was named the soil conservation queen for Region I, the Texas Panhandle, in a contest sponsored recently by the Fort Worth Press. Other candidates from Floyd County were Mrs. C. L. King of Lone Star and Mrs. B. H. Quebe of Providence.

Mrs. John E. Schmidt of New Ulm in Austin County was selected soil conservation queen of the state.

The soil conservation queen is chosen from ladies who are typical Texas farm women, a member of a home demonstration club and who live on a farm operated under specifications of a soil conservation district.

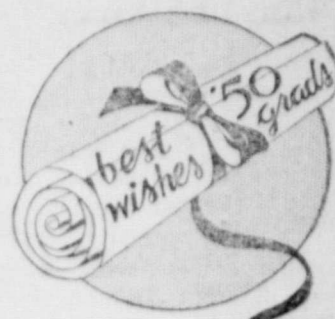

Mrs. Kreis was chosen regional queen by a committee headed by Mrs. G. T. Maitby of Muleshoe, vice-president for district 2 of the Texas Home Demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. Kreis attended the banquet at the Texas Hotel in Fort Worth Saturday evening where awards were made to the various state winners. Other regional queens were honored along with Mrs. Kreis. About 600 were present at the banquet.

Mrs. Kreis will be awarded a plaque at the annual Soil Conservation Field Day at Tulla on May 10. Other regional awards will be made at that time.

And now, behold I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem not knowing the things that shall befall me there.—Acts 20:22.

SOIL CONSERVATION is a mighty important thing, especially to West Texans who still have a well-preserved farming area. Don Jones of the Lubbock Experiment Station probably speaks the sentiments of everyone when he says that conservation ought to be practiced in every way possible regardless of whether or not the government pays the farmer to do it. The field tour last Thursday emphasized the importance of this phase of farming and also demonstrated that probably one of the most important of all the government farm agencies is the soil conservation service. The men in this agency, we believe, are performing a very worthwhile and important service to the country.

WE JOIN other business firms of Lockney in extending congratulations to the graduating class of Lockney High School this week. Young people who have the perseverance to complete a high school education are to be congratulated. It is not only important to the future of the graduate but also to the future of the country. Although education is not the only important thing in life, it is one of the things that every young person needs to fill his or her place.

THE WINNING of a Texas congressional seat by a Republican has created considerable excitement in the Texas Panhandle, and probably elsewhere. However, to expect that this plurality (not a majority) will keep the Republican in office in the general election in November is expecting too much. Not that this independent newspaper would object to that. It might be a good thing for the country but come next January we expect to see one of Harry's men (or women) back in the saddle.

A KANSAS EXCHANGE notes that the several communities of the state are experiencing a boom in one line of business since the state repealed its 60 year old prohibitory law. Every police court in the state has had an increase in income derived from fines to turn over to the community. The unfortunate part of it is the editor notes, is that most of the money comes from individuals who cannot afford to spend it for such purposes.

AMERICA is the only country in which a man can ride down town in his own car and collect unemployment insurance.

THE REASON why some quarrels are so hard to patch up is that while the quarrel has been in progress too many true but unpleasant things have been said.

IT IS PREDICTED that some 50,000 coal miners will lose their jobs permanently late this year, because of oil and gas installations and that for the same reason scores of small mines will go out of business. The frequent interruptions in coal supply have caused a great deal of dissatisfaction among coal users. The railroads, perhaps the largest users of coal in the country, are turning to Diesel power as rapidly as the Diesel units can be built.

BOOSTING BENEFITS

The enormous surplus which has been accumulated in the Social Security reserve justifies two proposals now awaiting U. S. Senate action. One would freeze Social Security taxes at present levels for at least five years.

The surplus, which exceeded $10 billion at last reports, is large enough to permit more liberal payments without increased taxation.

True, the surplus is theoretical. The government has spent this money for other purposes as fast as it has come in, replacing the cash with a sort of government "I. O. U."

As a matter of fact, Social Security has not been operated in a way which stresses the protection of contributors to the fund. The levy has been used primarily as a means of bringing in more money for a wildly extravagant government to spend. It has been spending stimulated by the confidence that the security deductions always will be far larger than are needed to meet benefit payments.

It is to be expected, therefore, that the liberalizations proposed in the senate will be opposed because increased benefits would mean less money for the politicians in power to spend. But the opposition cannot remove the fact that the government could be more generous in these payments, without additional taxes, if it chooses to be.—Lubbock Avalanche.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT-AND KIDS

Do you believe your child is not getting nourishing food at the school lunchroom? If so, take a look at the wholesome items delivered free of charge to the local lunchroom for the first seven months of this school year—

Free foods include 690 lbs. butter, 9 cases honey, 20 boxes pears, 540 lbs. cheese, 3,000 lbs. potatoes, 11 crates sweet potatoes, 26 cases peaches, 62 boxes apples, 36 cases corn, 25 cases tomatoes, 6 cases peanut butter, 5 cases dried eggs, and 5 cases dried milk.

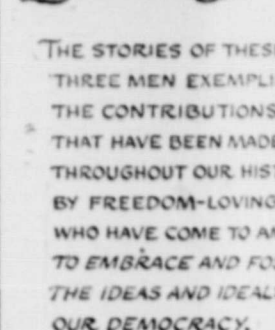

The only charge made for receiving this food was $126.38 for freight and handling charges.

And did you know that Texas is the only state in the union that does not have a state agency set up to distribute these government surplus foods to school children? Federal authorities

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

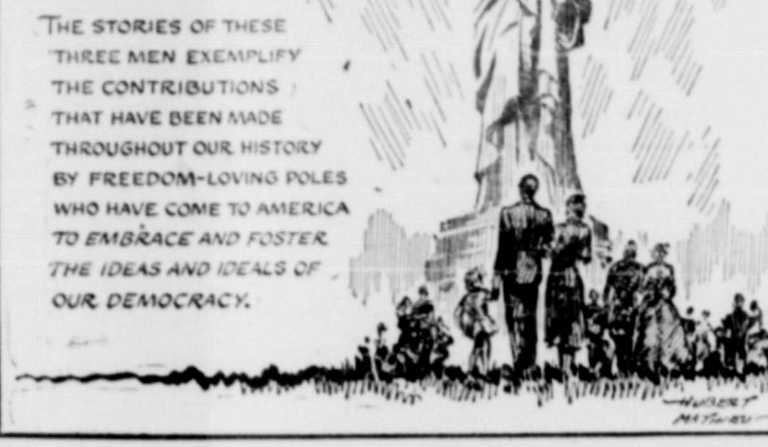

AMERICANS ALL—

SOME HAVE BECOME FAMOUS! GENERALS KOSCIUSZKO AND PULASKI, POLISH HEROES OF OUR REVOLUTIONARY DAYS, HAVE MANY MONUMENTS IN THEIR HONOR.

OTHERS ARE RELATIVELY UNKNOWN! NAVAJ SALOMON CAME FROM POLAND TO AMERICA IN 1772. HE RISKED HIS LIFE AND GAVE HIS FORTUNE TO THE CAUSE FOR WHICH THE COLONISTS WERE FIGHTING.

THE STORIES OF THESE THREE MEN EXEMPLIFY THE CONTRIBUTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN MADE THROUGHOUT OUR HISTORY BY FREEDOM-LOVING POLES WHO HAVE COME TO AMERICA TO EMBRACE AND FOSTER THE IDEAS AND IDEALS OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

have been handling distribution themselves, and they have indicated that unless the state sets up some agency to handle the food, it will be taken as evidence that Texas does not want these millions of dollars worth of food for its school children, and shut off the supply.

Ralls children are receiving healthful and adequate meals at the lunchroom, but they won't be next year unless Texas acts to cooperate in the federal lunchroom program. Meals that now sell for 25 cents will advance to 50 cents—or more.—The Ralls Banner.

Glass Walls For A New Mode Of Living

NEW CANAAN, CONN.—Here's a house designed to bring the outdoors indoors. It sits on the edge of a grassy plateau overlooking the gently rolling hills of Connecticut and was designed by Philip C. Johnson, Director, Dept. of Architecture, Museum of Modern Art. The four walls are polished Pittsburgh plate glass supported by thin steel beams, the floor is polished brick, it has an acoustical ceiling and is warmed by radiant heating. As you're used to thinking of it, this house is not a complete dwelling, just a single unit of an entire living space. Other units are a large lawn or "floor," a contrasting brick guest house and a display of sculpture outside. The entire tree-bordered house and a display of sculpture outside. Also, it's not a house in the conventional manner, but rather a single large room. Except for the bathroom it has no inner partitions. The bathroom and fireplace are back-to-back in a large floor-matching brick cylinder. Furniture is positioned to create the illusion of different parts of the house. For privacy, and to keep the sun's rays out, pandanus drape-like cloth hung from metal tracks in the ceiling can be moved to partially or completely cover the walls.

Counties Plan Water Districts

The High Plains Water Conservation and Users Association, meeting Thursday in Plainview, focused its attention on movements by water users in Dallam, Hockley and Lamb counties to organize underground water conservation districts and commend the action.

Dallam and Lamb counties are represented on the executive board of the High Plains group, which also has affiliate organizations in Randall, Hale, Swisher, Lubbock, Parmer, Bailey, Castro, Floyd, Deaf Smith, Brisco and Crosby counties.

Among speakers at the meeting were James S. Guleke of Amarillo and Austin, member of the Texas Board of Water Engineers, and William L. Broadhurst of Austin, ground-water geologist from the U. S. Geological Survey. W. O. Fortenberry of Monroe, president, presided at the all-day session in the Hilton Hotel, Plainview.

Guleke reported that the Board of Water Engineers had completed its field work prior to designating a water reservoir in the Dallam County area, commenting that "Dallam County seems to be very anxious to organize a district."

Designation of the boundaries of a reservoir is the first step toward organizing a district under House Bill 162 passed by the Texas Legislature in 1949. After reservoirs and corresponding districts are determined, elections creating districts may be called.

Guleke told the group: "It is a pleasure to be working with folks on this matter of water conservation. I am glad to be of service in trying to work out a planned course of usage."

Broadhurst told of experiments by ground-water geologists in recharging reservoirs. He admitted that the re-charge possibilities in some areas are negligible, but gave the opinion that in many other areas the ground water supply could be plentifully successfully. One of the powers of water districts is to re-charge.

Broadhurst added that experiments on irrigation methods carried out by water districts would be valuable in gathering information for farmers, who singly could not afford the expensive tests.

Fortenberry declared that recharging and educational projects alone would make a district worthwhile, but said that districts should be made operative soon to be ready for action in case waste and abuse become prevalent. Districts also have the power, through injunction proceedings, to prevent waste and otherwise enforce rules and regulations.

"The longer we wait, the more complicated it will be to organize districts," Fortenberry went from the Plainview meeting to Amherst Thursday night. Scheduled to speak at a Lamb County water rally, they were delayed en route by a bad sandstorm and arrived just as the meeting of 250 irrigation farmers was breaking up. The meeting Lamb County was expected to result in action towards organizing a district. It will be held later in May.

Brown County Reunion May 21

Former residents of Brown county will have their annual reunion and picnic May 21 at McKenzie Park in Lubbock. Festivities will start at 10:30 that morning. The reunion site will be held in the northeast part of the park. G. W. Small, Tahoka, president of the association, says that a record attendance of former residents is expected this year.

Guests of Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Greer Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Patterson, Jr., of Lubbock.

It is estimated that unemployment will reach 5 million as school and college graduates join the hunt for work.

150-Mile Rural Electric Program Planned In Area

Bids were opened Tuesday of last week from nine electric line contractors at the office of the Floyd County Rural Electric Cooperative in Floydada, for the construction of a project consisting of approximately 150 miles of electric line in Hale, Swisher, Briscoe, Crosby and Floyd Counties. One bidder failed to properly execute his bid which left eight to be considered in the selection of a bidder to do the job.

Low bidder was the F. J. Seatrunk Electrical Company, Columbus, South Carolina, with a base bid of $432,705.06; second low bidder was B. & C. Construction Company, Dallas, Texas, $450,612.25; third low bidder was Thompson, Haight, and Kelster, Oklahoma City Oklahoma, $458,018.20.

Other contractors submitting bids were:

Guthrie Electrical Construction Company Inc., Shreveport, La., H. B. Zachary Company, San Antonio; Walko Engineering Construction Company, Tulsa Oklahoma; W. J. Thomas Co., Inc., Dallas; Eugene Ashe Electrical Company, Fort Worth, and B. H. R. & W. Construction Company.

It is anticipated that approval by REA will be forthcoming shortly and the bidder will commence construction in approximately 45 days, said J. C. Ginn, president of the board of directors.

The bulk of the project to be constructed is in Hale County and involves a turn key job on three substations of sufficient size and capacity to serve a large number of irrigation wells. Substation sites have been acquired at a point approximately 3 miles north and 2 miles east of Plainview, another 6 miles east of Hale Center.

Supporting lines will be constructed from these locations to the surrounding territories. "It is not anticipated that this construction will be completed in time for irrigation members to receive full benefit during this season," stated Ginn, "however, it should be completely ready for the 1951 irrigation season."

Bids for this construction project were originally to have been let on April 11th, but due to a misconstruction of the details of the project there were not sufficient bidders at the time to choose between.

New Coiffure for Heart-Shape Face

built in 1942 and made more than 100 test flights. Current advanced models are circular, 105 feet in diameter, and about 10 feet thick. They have no protruding surfaces of any kind. They are powered by jet engines using a secret fuel. The power is exerted through a series of jet nozzles around the saucer's rim.

Their performances, according to the magazine, is next to unbelievable. They can stand still in the air, like a helicopter, and rise almost vertically. Their cruising speed may be as high as 600 miles an hour. Due to the helicopter feature, they do not need conventional airfields for landing or take-off—a very small space is adequate. Control is achieved by tilting the jet nozzles to desired angles, and by turning certain nozzles off and on. Maximum forward speed is attained by turning the nozzles to the rear and applying full power.

U. S. News emphasizes that this is not a Buck Rogers concept. The principles on which the saucers are allegedly built are known, are sound, and are accepted by the top aeronautical engineers.

Who, then, is building and operating the saucers? The magazine thinks it most likely that the Navy—in spite of this Service's denial—is the agency. The Navy has been given twice as large a guided-missile research budget as the Air Force and no public accounting is made of how the money is spent. And these saucers could be flown from any combat ship, not just the carriers.

The possible significance of the saucers is tremendous. U. S. sums it up in these words: "In war, the combination of helicopter and fast jet plane will easily outfly any present types of military aircrafts. In peacetime, the safety of a nearly crash-proof aircraft may be expected to revolutionize civil air transport. It all points to a big advance in the science of flying."

SIPHON TUBES IN BURMA?

Plainview.—From as far as Burma come questions about Bill Ebbs' siphon tube.

Bill Ebbs, a former student at Wayland College, invented this siphon tube, an improvement to aid irrigation farmers. The profits from this invention will go to the college.

A C Munro of Burma, Rangoon, wrote for further particulars on the invention after reading about it in The Reclamation Era.

Flying Saucers Are U. S. Craft Report Says

Those amazing "flying saucers" which have been observed during the last two years or so have been variously described as figments of excited imaginations, as an ominous new Russian weapon, and as space ships carrying observers from another planet which may be centuries ahead of the earth scientifically. However, according to a fascinating article in U. S. News & World Report, the saucers are none of these. They exist, they are manned by living pilots, and they are a revolutionary United States development in aircraft.

U. S. News has gathered and briefed data from responsible sources—including a group of scientists who were able to track a saucer for several minutes with advanced measuring instruments. And here is what it believes to be the true story.

400 Make Annual Tour Thursday

From the standpoint of numbers attending, at least, the annual tour put on by the Floyd County Soil Conservation District last Thursday was the most successful in history. More than 400 people made the tour and well over 150 cars were in the parade, officials said.

At the barbecue held at noon at the Lockview farm, just north of Aiken, Robert Stewart, manager of the farm was chosen as outstanding conservation farmer of the year and presented a plaque by Enos T. Jones, president of the Lions Club in Floydada.

Don Jones, manager of the Lubbock Experiment Station was the principal speaker at the noon program. Mr. Jones censured farmers for having to be "paid to practice conservation" and urged that every farmer practice every conservation method he knows in order to take care of his own land and maintain his crop production.

Mr. Jones also urged the conservation of water and urged farmers to keep their water "out of the bar ditches." He said that he had noticed a number of bar ditches full of water on the tour and that this practice was wasteful both of money and of the natural resources of water.

W. E. Garrett, president of the Floydada Jaycees, presented prizes to winners in the soil conservation window display contest at the noon program. First prize winners was a team composed of Buddy Brown, Billy Buth and Warren Mathis of the Lockney High School FFA chapter. This display was in Campbell Variety Store window here.

Second prize was won by Norton Baker, Bobby Sammann and Pat Leaverton for a display in the Baker Hardware Co. window here. Two other Lockney FFA teams won places as did several from Floydada.

The tour started at 10 a. m. Thursday with a visit to the R. C. and Chester Mitchell farms in the Pleasant Valley community for a look at demonstrations in border irrigation and weed control. Next stop was at the Harmon Handley farm to observe utilization of shallow lakes with level irrigation. On Jack Billington's farm the group saw some Hubam clover in wheat as a soil building crop, and on the Marvin Sams place they saw sudan followed by vetch in pasture. On the C. O. Roberts farm south of town, farmed by Henry Ford, they saw an oat crop that is expected to make close to 100 bushels per acre. Permanent pasture was observed on the Fritz Schacht farm just south of Lockney and the group then went on to the Lockview farm for the noon barbecue. While there they looked at some pasture grasses and seed production projects.

The afternoon tour stopped first at the Oscar Golden farm to look at permanent pasture, stopped at the A. P. Shugart and Vernon Daniel places to look at weed control demonstrations and then went to the Paul Cooper farm where they looked at a demonstration of weed control along irrigation ditches and a crop of flax Mr. Cooper is growing under irrigation.

Floyd Co. Quota Is Set At $43,000

Floyd county has accepted a quota of $43,000 for the sale of United States Savings Bonds during the Independence Drive, J. M. Wilson, county Savings Bond chairman, announced today. The drive will begin on May 15 and continue through July 4.

The county's quota, and also the state quota of $24,088,000, apply only to the sale of Series E. bonds, the county chairman explained.

Symbol for the Independence Drive is the Liberty Bell, and the slogan is "Save for Your Independence—Buy U. S. Savings Bonds." President Truman and Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder will participate in ceremonies to be held on May 15 in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, to initiate the national drive. The Texas "kick-off" will be held the following day in Fort Worth with the unveiling of an exact duplicate of the original Liberty Bell. During the seven weeks of the drive this bell will visit 120 towns in 87 Texas counties, on a 5000-mile tour of the state.

The greatness of a loss, as the proverb suggests, is determinable, not so much by what we have lost, as by what we have left. —Bovee

Ag History

At the beginning of the year the enrollment in Ag. was forty-seven and hasn't decreased much if any through the year.

About the first main activity that happened was the trip to the Lubbock Fair by the F. F. A. boys and the F. H. A. girls. It was a swell trip and every one had fun.

The boys managed to run a concession stand at one of the football games and sold Ag. pencils with the football schedule on them. Then they sold license tags with Longhorns on them.

The biggest event of the year was the annual trip to the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. The boys left on Thursday of the week, school was out for Scarlet Fever and came back on Sunday. The trip was educational, entertaining, and everyone had lots of fun.

The boys have entered many kinds of agricultural contests this term and have won in some, lost in others, but all in all they have done pretty well for themselves.

A lot of the residents of Lockney got their trees pruned by the boys and the trees on the campus were helped considerably. Some of the boys traveled to Floydada and helped prune the trees around the court house. Most of the improvement around the School building is done by the Ag. Boys. The braces for the Ping-Pong tables were built by them and now they have just finished putting running water in their Ag. building and are now constructing a barbecue pit for steak fries.

Most of the work done by the boys is for free and they usually do a pretty good job. Under the direction of Mr. Montandon the Ag. Boys do many services and do them well.

Albert Orr and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Orr of Tulla were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Orr.

TECH STUDENTS FIND FOSSILS BELIEVED TO BE 500,000 YEARS OLD

Lubbock.—Fossil remains believed to be 500,000 years old have been discovered by a group of Texas Technological college students on a field trip near Lubbock.

Working under the direction of Dr. G. E. Meade, associate professor of geology, the students found fossils of a prehistoric elephant, horses, camels and a wolf. Dr. Meade said other evidence of the ancient mammals had been found on the South Plains previously, but he pointed out that discovery of fossils has become a rare occurrence in the area.

TECH MUSEUM PLAYS HOST TO THOUSANDS

Lubbock.—An estimated 12,000 persons visited the Museum at Texas Tech during the last three weeks of April. Dr. W. C. Holden, museum director, reports.

Dr. Holden said the recent Pan-American Fiesta and Interscholastic League meet on the campus helped boost the attendance to one of the largest totals since the Museum opened its doors several months ago to mark completion of the 15-year project.

The students who made A's during the fall semester missed an average 1.06 classes, while those who made F's averaged 5.26 absences.

By Frances Ainsworth

Spring-time is my favorite season of the year! I'm always so happy when I can open my windows and doors and let the clean fresh Spring air sweep through every room in the house. We just had screens put in all our windows last week, and so I've been enjoying that Spring air every morning since . . . opening the windows long enough to really bring Spring-time inside.

Speaking of screens, I had several new ones put in this year . . . and discovered something that I think will interest you, too. When the screens were brought to the house I noticed a small label on the frames, and asked the serviceman about it. He told me that the label signified that the screening used complied with all requirements of a special U. S. Department of Commerce standard for Insect Wire Screening — and that the label was my guarantee of the best in quality and dependability. He went on to explain that only those using standard insect wire screening were allowed to use the label, and that the standards were set after exhaustive tests of screen material to find just what was best for protecting homes against those pesky mosquitoes and other insects. This standard type must be a certain size mesh and wire, and durable.

These new requirements were instituted just a few weeks ago . . . and are now in use by window screen manufacturers throughout the country. You're undoubtedly getting set for screens, too — for Spring and Summer protection — and I know you, too, will want to make sure you're getting the best in quality. That's why I knew you'd be interested in learning about Certified Screening and how it will help you in determining top quality.

Honor Students To Take Tests

The four highest ranking seniors of Lockney High School have been invited to spend a day visiting at the Texas Technological College at Lubbock. The students chosen were selected on the basis of their average for the last two years of school work. Receiving the invitation from J. G. Allen, Dean of Men at Tech, were Kay Norman, Jerry Cooper, Nova Cox, and Rosa Lee Matthews.

While at Tech, they will be interviewed and will take three objective tests. On the basis of this interview and three tests, they will be considered for a Dunlap Scholarship at Texas Tech for the next year. The Dunlap stores of Lubbock give away thirty scholarships each year to graduates from the eight surrounding counties of Lubbock.

Jerry, Nova Jean, Kay, and Rosa Lee will go to Lubbock Saturday, May 13, to be the guests of the college. They will assemble at 8:30 Saturday morning in the Aggie Auditorium, where they will be with the rest of the students from other high schools. They will then meet with officials of the college and later in the evening take the three tests. Lunch will be served at the dormitory and then entertainment will be furnished for the students for the remainder of the day.

Students Will Probe 15th Century Ruins

Lubbock.—A field camp 20 miles east of Santa Fe, N. M., will serve as a base for the 1950 Texas Technological college summer archeological course, Dr. W. C. Holden said today.

Dr. Holden, head of Tech's department of history, anthropology and sociology, said graduate students and upper classmen will be permitted to make the trip to Arrowhead Lodge. The class will work at a Pueblo excavation believed to be around 550 year old. Lectures, reading and work on restoration will be included in the course program.

Dr. Holden said costs of the trip will be on a cooperative basis, and the initial fee of $90 should be sufficient. The initial fee will provide transportation, food and lodging. Linens and three blankets must be furnished by the student. Dr. Holden pointed out that the elevation is 7,300 feet at Arrowhead and "those blankets will come in handy."

Senior Class Will

We, the seniors of 1950, being of unsound body and insane mind from 11 years of constant grueling slave labor under the direction of various and sundry pedagogues, hereby leave this our last will and testament. Somewhat we hope the Juniors will profit by this will but we are of a doubtful mind since they are restricted by a dictatorship commonly known as faculty and board of education. First, let us as seniors will our dear English teacher to the juniors, especially to Loyd Leach, Laverne Starnes, and Patsy Fortenberry. Now that that unpleasant matter is off our minds let us turn to the more pleasant features.

We will Mr. Sloan to the juniors also, since he is made of a tough fibre and is able to stand up under the strain that caused Mr. LaFollette to resign.

The seniors will their superior mentality to anyone who has the capacity to manage it. Jerry Paul wills his cotton hair to Red Horston and his ability to gripe to Stanley Connor. Kay Norman wills her basketball ability to Jeanette Pickens and Wanda Dorman providing these two girls put their basketball interest above boxing and farming, namely Hershel and Billy Fred.

Charles Crouch wills his super brain power to his sister Cleva because he thinks she needs it and besides he wants to keep it in the family.

DeJuan wills his high temper, his ability to walk out of class, his quarrels with the teachers, and his football playing ability to Mr. Smith to file in the office along with the dust and cobwebs. He figures the sooner he is forgotten, the better. Woops, almost forgot that he also wants to will his position as Mrs. Appiewhites pet to Don Clarkston.

Robert Matthews leaves his ability to blush to Mac Howard if Mac will promise to take enough vitamins to have blood pressure to blush well. In this case Robert neglects modesty in connection with blushes.

Verda Mae Holt leave everything she can to her sister Shirley; however this isn't much since Shirley, sisterlike, has been helping herself to all that Verda Mae owns for seventeen years.

Kay Norman also wishes to will her three year old tennis shoes to Mary Jones because the soles are falling off of Mary's.

Bonita Glover gives all of her home town, Sterley, to Sid Thomas. That is all except the post office. She figures Sid B. will never receive any letters and besides she wants some little hold on her old home town after she has moved to Plainview.

Eddie Wayne "Ope" Cooper passes his Ope ability on to Pat Frizzell because he feels it will be practically no strain at all on Pat to act like Ope. It will just come natural.

Nova Jean Cox will leave nearly everything she has but Don McLaughlin. If she ever gives him up it will be through competition. Junior girls, its worth a trial!

Lucille Cargill isn't going to leave anything. From the looks of her grades, it is doubtful if she leaves herself!

Robert Hückaby leaves Betty Handley to Gene Collis. That is a real tragedy.

Bonnie Harrison leaves love and kisses. She has more love and more kisses and she will soon be sixteen!

Wanda Jack leaves for Plainview but she asks that you not worry because she knows the road and will not get lost. She even knows some very good parking places on the way. Ah hem!

Almeta by George. George by George we forgot to ask Almeta what she was interested in leaving by George.

Delbert Shearer could leave a number of things but because he is the emotional type he decided on leaving a part of himself. You state the poundage Shylock. Delbert feels there will still be enough of him left to fill a good sized doorway. He also leaves his football shoes to Joe Cunyus and hopes they hurt his feet as bad as they did his.

W. C., just in Casey—well, just in Casey graduates will leave Jontha during school hours but promises to pick her up often after school, on Saturdays and Sundays, during the summer months, and on holidays. Fair enough W. C.

Tommy Nance should have left school years ago for the good he has done, but since he is just getting around to it he leaves with malice toward the teachers and love for any junior girl that would give a second look. As prospects we have Jeanene Foster, Mary Louise Rigdon, and Patsy Hammonds.

Robert Canon leaves anything that is under lock and key—that is if the lock cannot be picked to Edgar Hartley, Billy Stowe, L. V. Eiland and Bobby McLeod.

Eugene Tannahill leaves by the same door he entered when he first came to high school six years ago. He promises to leave the door wide open for Ronald Reece and Joe Huffman. He knows that he had just as well because Ronald will soon have the door off its hinges anyway.

John L. Hooten leaves a pair of socks to Billy Sloan. They are valuable socks. John L. has worn them every day during his four years in high school. They are now stiff enough to stand alone. They are time savers if you leave them standing at a convenient spot by the bed so that you can make a flying leap and land in them when you wake up every morning. They have saved John L. from being tardy many a time. When Billy is through with them John L. asks that they be passed on to Jean Willis.

Ilene Harris leaves her boy friends to Nelda and Fredda.

Myrtle Lou Newton doesn't know whether it is easier to leave or be left. She is used to both. But with pleasure she leaves everything she hasn't already turned over to Jontha Casey to Barbara Mullins.

If there is anything left loose around that we have over looked to will then we will let Rex Rogers, W. L. Rowell, and Velma Seale have it—They will take it anyway.

Don McLaughlin wills the tire that he blew out on his car to Jessie Mae Carthel. He didn't want it anyway.

Rosalie Matthews leaves John L. to Shirley.

Annie Murphy leaves her giggles to Laverne Seigler, and Betty June Clark.

L. J. Carthel leaves all his love to Wanda Kellison and Bobbye Nell Cross.

If we have forgotten anyone leave the care of L. H. S. to them.

Witnessed and signed with considerable pomp and ceremony this day of April 21st, 1950.

The Seniors of '50.

Mrs. Oscar Jetton of Gainville, a former resident of Lockney, was here several days last week visiting friends and relatives.

It doesn't pay to say too much. When you are mad enough to choke. For the word that stings the deepest is the word that's never spoke. Let the other fellow wrangle; Till the storm has blown away; Then he'll do a heap of thinking 'Bout the things you didn't say.
