500 Attend Farm Bureau Meeting

Approximately 500 people attended the annual meeting of the Floyd County Farm Bureau at the Lockney football stadium Tuesday evening of this week.

Principal speaker of the evening was O. R. Long of Tennessee, field representative for the American Farm Bureau Federation.

A recommendation from the Board of Directors asking that the membership dues be raised from $7.50 to $12 per year was presented and spoken to by Jack McIntosh, a director.

McIntosh was chairman of the resolutions committee and presented a number of resolutions moving their adoption by the body.

Resolutions asking for support of 4-H and FFA work, for full refund of all gasoline taxes to farmers, for maintenance of a county office by the organization and the employing of a service officer, for local control of underground water, opposing federal aid to education and opposing federal health insurance all passed by the group without opposition.

However, when a resolution asking for a flexible price support program was presented, considerable opposition was expressed, some of the farmers favoring the rigid 90% of parity support straight across.

McIntosh explained that the flexible price support program where prices would be supported at between 75% and 90% of parity would tend to keep off acreage controls by leading the farmer to plant his crops to products of which there was not a big surplus.

A resolution on economy in government was presented containing a clause suggesting that the government could save money by stopping payments to farmers for soil practices that had already proven beneficial to the farmer.

The group also passed a resolution urging more farm-to-market roads and opposing the changing of any funds allocated (Continued on back page)

.70 Inch Of Rain Falls Here

Seven-tenths inch of rain fell here Tuesday night and Wednesday morning but it was shy of what was needed for planting wheat.

Some farmers of the area received up to 60 hundreds and about the same amount fell at Floydada.

Floyd County with an estimated 150,000 bale cotton crop in the fields does not need an extended wet spell but a good rain and clearing weather following would be helpful, most farmers say.

First Load Of Maize Received

The first maize from the 1952 crop was being received here this week and it appeared, weather permitting, that the harvesting of grain sorghums would get under way in earnest within the next week or 10 days.

The first load to be received at local elevators came in Monday from the Austin Heard farm, just east of town.

Grain received this load and paid heard $3.25 per 100 for it, a 25c premium over the market price. It was graded No. 2 milo.

On Tuesday Glen Jolly delivered a load of maize to the Sterley elevator. It had a 12% moisture content which made it No. 1.

Tuesday evening late C. L. Mooney of the Prairie Chapel community delivered a load of Martin Maize to Baxter & Smith here. It was irrigated milo but tested 12% moisture.

The present grain market, $3.00 per 100 pounds, is the highest price since 1949 when it hit $4.00 at one time.

Floydada Gin Gets First Bale
Floydada. — The first bale of 1952 cotton was delivered Friday to a Floydada gin by Wayne Russell of Lakeview Community in southeast Floyd County.

The ginning season is not expected to get into full swing in Floyd County for about two weeks. There is an estimated 200,000 acres planted in cotton in the county this year and production is expected to reach 150,000 bales.

Robert Gibson, Floyd County agriculture agency, estimates total cash value of all crops in Floyd County in 1952 will be over 366 million dollars.

Harold Ford Is Shot In Hand

Harold Ford, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ford received a gunshot wound in his hand last Saturday morning while hunting birds in the Lone Star community.

Fire Dept.-Legion Play Tonight

At long last that dispute as to which is the better team is going to be settled—weather permitting. Tonight (Thursday) the Lockney Fire Department softball team will play the Lockney Legion team in a final play-off game to decide the championship of the Lockney Softball League.

The two teams ended the play-off series in a tie after the Legion had defeated the Fire Department in the final Saturday night game.

Polio Victims Not Serious

Harve Pennington of Lockney and Ted Chapman of Sterley are new Floyd County victims of polio but neither are seriously ill, it was reported Wednesday.

Mr. Pennington, local business man, became ill Saturday and was treated by local physicians. His illness continued and Tuesday a spinal tap revealed that he had a mild case of polio.

Ted Chapman of Sterley was admitted to the polio ward Thursday of last week. He is 45 years of age and is an employee of the South Plains Gin.

Local Students Go To College
This week and next week many of the young people of this community will resume their college studies and several 1952 graduates will enter college.

Some of them are on their last go-around which means graduation is in sight. Others are not very eager to get their GI hair cut and wear little green caps.

Glenda Ann Eadheimer graduated with the class of 1952 and she is going to Canyon. Her major will be in Business Administration.

Sam Daniel plans to work on his Masters Degree at West Texas State this semester. Physical Education is his major.

Mary Louise Manning, classified as a senior, is majoring in Elementary Education.

Beverly Bennett will enter as freshman and will major in Business Administration.

Stanley Conner, Sid B. and Mary Thomas and Felicia Applewhite will return to Baylor next week. They are sophomores.

Bobby Baxter and Pat Pylant entered Abilene Christian College this week. Pat was in summer school there and completed her high school work.

Arrest Four On Burglary Charge

Four boys ranging in age from 13 years to 18 years have been arrested and charged with burglaries at Lockney, Floydada and Plainview, Floyd County officers reported this week.

Deputy Sheriff Pat Murphy arrested three of the boys in Lockney Saturday afternoon. The other boy, apparently the ring leader, was arrested in Artesia, N. M., Wednesday of last week.

Officers have a complete story of the burglaries and who participated in each one, it was reported. All four of them live in this community.

Some of the group robbed nine places of business in Lockney including the Faggard Dry Goods, Taylor Laundry, Lockney Lumber & Supply, Baxter & Smith, Consumers Fuel, "66" Drive In Cafe, Highway Gulf Station, Seale Drive In Theatre, Patterson Grain Co.

The oldest boy has been charged in 110th district court at Floydada with burglary. He is involved in the Floydada cases but not in the Lockney burglaries.

The three younger boys, age 13, 15 and 16, have been charged as juvenile delinquents and will appear in juvenile court before County Judge Frank L. Moore at Floydada on Saturday, September 13.

Clean-Up Drive Is Under Way

The Lockney clean-up drive is underway this week and most people are co-operating, according to a report from Joe Holt, chairman of the Public Health Committee.

"We must get the city as clean as possible and keep it that way," Mr. Holt said this week. "Especially important is to destroy breeding places of flies, and prevent them from breeding. Spraying will kill the flies but they will continue to breed if breeding places are not destroyed."

Mr. Holt said that if anyone had any suggestions concerning the program to clean the city and keep it clean, he would appreciate having them sent to the Public Health Committee in care of The Beacon.

An official of the State Department of Public Health was in Lockney last Friday at Mr. Holt's request and made a survey here. He found the town remarkably clean.

Some improvements in sanitation are being made at the labor camp here by the directors of the camp, Mr. Holt said.

All this week has been set as "Clean-Up Week" in Lockney and the Public Health Committee is urging that everyone co-operate by thoroughly cleaning your premises and then spraying with a good insecticide.

Longhorns Play Olton In First Game Fri. Night

The Lockney Longhorns will play their first football game of the season Friday night when they travel to Olton to take on the Olton Mustangs. The game is expected to be a tough one.

The Olton boys lost some of their big players from the last year's team but still have a big squad. They are running a single wing formation.

Starters for the Longhorns are expected to be Aubrey Cox and Teddy Cartheil at ends, Kenneth Williams and Deanie Quisenberry at tackles, Joe Taylor and Orland Gilbert at guards, John Dorman at center, Bill Sherman and C. B. Smart at half back positions, Bill Paschal, quarterback and Norton Baker at fullback.

Lewis Foster will see some action in the backfield and will play a defensive end position, Lyon said. Wayne McClure will also play a defensive end position. Several other boys will see some action also.

A large number of local fans are expected to go to Olton to see the Longhorns in their first game of the season.

Local Delegates At Demo Meeting

Seven Floyd County men attended the State Democratic Convention at Amarillo Tuesday. They were Richard Stovall, T. B. Mitchell and G. C. Tubbs, delegates, R. E. Patterson, Jimmy Willson Jr., Rainey Yearwood, alternates and Enos T. Jones, county attorney.

The men report that the meeting was very harmonious throughout. One delegation offered a plan to carry two Democratic columns, one state and the other national, but this was defeated in a roll call and the group agreed to regular ballot, putting Stevenson and Sparkman, Democratic nominees in the Democratic column and the Republican nominees, Eisenhower and Nixon in the Republican column likewise.

However state party leaders, including Governor Allan Shivers and Attorney General Price Daniel, urged the voters of the state to vote and support the Republican candidates, Eisenhower and Nixon.

East Mound Is Ordered Annexed To Plainview

The Hale County school board in session Wednesday afternoon of last week ordered immediate annexation of the East Mound rural school district with the Plainview Independent District. The board's action was the latest development in a prolonged controversy involving the independent and rural school districts. For several years East Mound high school pupils have attended Plainview High School on a transfer basis. Several months ago the Plainview Independent School board notified East Mound school officials that the independent district would no longer accept transfers from the rural district.

In an election on consolidation of East Mound with the independent district voters in the rural district turned the proposal down. It carried in the Plainview district with comparatively few votes.

The county board informed East Mound that unless provision was made for high school facilities for its pupils the district would be annexed to a district that did provide such facilities.

Kress school officials offered to take the East Mound high school transfers and on August the market price whichever is higher.

Group Gets Instruction
 Jesse Bolen, Washington D. C. marketing specialist for fats and oils for the Department of Agriculture, instructed the group in grading castor beans.

He was followed on the program by Dale Carter, Plainview district PMA field man, and Martin, both of whom added some general information to the discussion on forms for receiving and paying for the crop.

Other Meetings Set
 Martin said that none of the castor bean crop is expected to be harvested until after frost. The Commodity Credit Corporation is furnishing machinery for the harvest.

"Between 1,500 and 2,000 pounds per acre is a fair yield for castor beans," he said, and predicted that irrigated land on the plains will exceed that considerably.

25 the Hale County school board approved the proposition. Last week several parents of children who favored sending their children to Plainview went to Austin and interviewed the State Commissioner of Education.

Records on transfers showed that only five of the thirteen East Mound high school pupils would be sent to Kress. That datum was presented to the State Commissioner of Education.

South Plains Castor Bean Crop Discussed At Plainview Meet

Plainview. — Representatives of Production and Marketing Administration offices in six South Plains counties met in the Hale County courtroom Wednesday to review the procedure for receiving this fall's castor bean crop for the government. Payment for the crop was also discussed.

This will be the first sizeable castor bean crop ever produced in this area. The government-sponsored crop will be used to build up defense supplies of castor oil.

Program Is Explained
 John B. Martin, Plainview, regional man in charge of the castor bean program for the PMA said that there are 1,100 acres of castor beans planted in Hale County, 967 in Floyd, 1,617 in Crosby, 362 in Lubbock, 499 in Bailey, and 850 acres in Farmer County.

All of those counties were represented at the meeting. Instructions on filling out the forms to be used in receiving and paying for the castor bean crop were given by W. H. Mott, College Station, state PMA field man. The growers are being guaranteed 10 cents a pound or

MEDITATION

Let me pray for these alone, but for them also which have come through their word: That they all may be saved. Thou Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they may be one in us." John 17:20-21.

Look upon the religious world today and think of our savior's prayer. It has not been fulfilled. I believe that to a great extent the prayer has been fulfilled. Christ prayed for those who should believe through the apostles' words. (There was a man named Ananias who was called to believe through the Holy Spirit to operate upon the heart of the man who had been blind from birth.) People were to believe through the apostles' words. The apostles were the ones to need the Holy Spirit to operate through their words. What does it mean to believe through the apostles' words? If I do not believe the things that he stated in the Bible, do I believe in Christ? For me to believe in Him it is necessary for me to believe in His testimony. A real belief of His will lead me to obedience. I am sure that this is the way to believe in Him. Christ had reference to this belief through the apostles' words then. The religious world does not come from a full belief in the words of the apostles. Here we have believed something from the words of the apostles if we do not all believe the same thing. THERE CAN BE NO OTHER ANSWER OTHER THAN THIS.

The apostles "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mk. 16:15-16. NOW, is there some to believe what is stated in that verse and believe this: "He that believeth is saved and baptized." and for us to be ONE by belief in Christ. You can see plainly this is in direct opposition to what Christ has stated. But, if everyone accepts what is stated in Mk. 16:15-16 and has enough faith to lead him then everyone is in unity on that command. So carry it all the way through. If we would accept the Bible says then we would be "one" in Christ, as long as men continue to rebel against the command, which was given through the apostles, then we will not be united in Christ through the words of the apostles.

There is someone who has the testimony of the Apostles, but has accepted the ideas and opinions of men. This is the cause of

150 Attend Annual 4-H Club Camp

Over one hundred fifty 4-H Club boys and girls, their parents, and leaders met at the Baptist Assembly grounds in Blanco Canyon south of Floydada on Tuesday of last week for the third annual county-wide 4-H Camp. Campers assembled about 3 p. m. and left the next morning at 10. They were accompanied to Camp by Bob Gibson and Miss Lelia Petty, County Extension Agents.

The main activities of the Camp were swimming, baseball, and hiking. Swimming was enjoyed most, and Dean Handley was the envy of the boys as he acted as life guard for the girls. A picnic supper was served in the evening. The Adult Leaders cooked breakfast at the Camp, and it was served to over one hundred boys and girls who hadn't slept much and to the adults who hadn't slept much either.

The evening's program was made up of movies, a talent show, and a business meeting. Alice Latta, vice president of the County Wide 4-H Club, presided at the program. She introduced Mr. George Cavin of Floydada and Mr. Marvin Standefer of Plainview, both from the Southwestern Public Service Company. They showed several films that were enjoyed by all.

A short talent show was held. The 4-H members who took part were Tommy Brock, Dale Smith, Janice Smith, James Ross, Mona Williams, Naomi Kiker, and Freida Smith.

At the business meeting officers were elected to serve for next year's Camp. Weldon Pickens was elected president; Jack Womack, vice president; Vaidonna Pierce, secretary; and Marceleta Green, reporter. Mr. Gibson told the group about the picture show to be held at Capada Drive-In Theatre on September 3. The profits from the show will be donated to the 4-H Club fund by the owner of the theatre and all the club members are expected to help advertise the show.

Officers of the Camp are planning a bigger and better Camp for 1953.

Prices we have to pay have doubled, too

When we go to market, we find things have doubled in price — or more — in the past 10 years, just like you do.

Here are a few examples:

Item	10 Years Ago	Today	Per Cent Increase
25-foot pole	$ 4.15	$ 9.05	118%
100 feet of 50-pair cable	17.40	40.00	117%
10-foot crossarm	1.63	3.75	130%
100 crossarm bolts	9.30	21.20	127%

It's easy to see how the increased price of materials is increasing the cost of furnishing telephone service. That is one of the reasons we are providing service here at less than cost, why an increase in rates is needed.

At the new rates, your telephone service will still be low in cost — one of the best buys in the average family budget.

Miss Marilyn Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Jones of Floydada became the bride of Donald Clarkston in a ceremony performed Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dunavant, aunt and uncle of the bride.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an arch of greenery entwined with seasonal flowers and flanked by baskets of flowers and house plants. Two tiny wedding bells were tied to the center of the arch with white satin ribbon.

Music from a Swiss music box ushered in the flower boy and girl, Phil and Carolyn Dunavant, who dropped rose petals in the path the bride was to follow.

Tommy Callaway served as best man.

Miss Nell Jones served her sister as bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina length gown of blue nylon net over a skirt of blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

She wore a net stole and a white lace halo to match her gown. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds on a white Bible.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a punch bowl circled with flowers. Two candelabras stood on each side of a miniature bride and groom at the back of the table. Methodist Notes

Newton Daniel, Pastor
 Were you ever short-changed? If you were, you some times wonder if it was deliberate. If you were short-changed several times in succession, you would come to the conclusion that it was deliberate, and you would no longer put much trust in that person.
 Did you ever stop to think that we have 168 hours given to us each week? Out of these hours we spin a life. We eat, sleep, work, play and do a mul- titude of other things. We are just as accountable for these hours as we are the material things we possess. Yet there are approximately two-thirds of our members who do not give even ONE hour per week to the ONE who gave us the entire 168. You might call that a case of short- changing our Lord.
 These members are using the most deadly weapon at their dis- posal, namely: LEAVING THE CHURCH ALONE. No other weapon can be so deadly. Stay- ing at home, sleeping late, working in the yard, taking a trip, fishing, hunting and fam- ily reunions are a few of these weapons.
 If you are among the two- thirds, why don't you and your family do something about it and be in your place next Sun- day. Let's not short-change our Lord.
Thoughts For The Week
 "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord." Were you glad?—Let us be there Sunday. "The church is an inspiration. Enjoy it. The church is a spirit. Show it. The church is a fellowship. Keep it."

EDITORIAL

For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.—1 Peter 3:17.

County Agent Bob Gibson's estimate of the Floyd County cotton crop this year will find some who disagree in the Lockney area, where most of the cotton will be grown. Some of these farmers, obviously without any sort of a chamber of commerce complex, say that their cotton is not quite as good as it was last year and that the 150,000 bale estimate may be 50,000 bales too high. They point out that the dry land cotton will amount to very little and that the irrigated is not any better if as good as last year. We don't know if they consider the acreage but The Beacon is of the opinion that considerable more acreage is in cotton this year than last.

One thing is pretty sure and that is we will be better able to determine how much cotton is raised in the county because more of it will be ginned here. Two new gins in Lockney, one new gin at Lone Star, and other gins being added to and rebuilt will give us much more ginning capacity, perhaps even enough to handle the crop. Then Crosby County, Hale County, Lubbock County, Briscoe County, Motley County, Swisher County and lots of other counties won't be getting credit for Floyd County cotton.

This newspaper will certainly not support Stevenson and Sparkman editorially and perhaps not on the ballot but the only fair thing to do in Texas is to put them on the ballot under the Democratic column. The idea of trying to fix it where voters can vote for Eisenhower for president without bolting the Democratic ticket is a little far-fetched in the opinion of this writer.

In the first place a man who puts loyalty to any party above the welfare of his own country is certainly using poor judgment to say the least. If Eisenhower is the best man for the job of president then the voter ought to vote for him regardless of what ticket he is on. The "yellow-dog" kind of party politics is not the right kind of politics for patriotic men. We believe that every good citizen should vote for the best man for any office regardless of his political party. And we cannot see the sin of bolting The Democratic party. In fact this writer has bolted it several times because he was more interested in his country than he was in the party and we expect to do it again when the occasion demands.

Certainly we believe in the two-party system and we want to see it continued, and we try to be a Democrat every time we can. But we do not propose to vote for any man whom we believe to be unqualified or whose standards are what we believe to be detrimental to the good of this country. If the good citizens of Texas as well as the nation would vote for the best man for the office regardless of party, then the powers that be in the political parties would be forced to improve the quality of their candidates.

Football is here again. Friday night the Longhorns go to Olton for the first game of the season. A lot of local football fans, probably a surprising number, will be on hand to back the local boys and cheer them on to victory.

My salary, so long as it is adequate to pay my bills, is a secondary matter with me, and I suppose I would try to teach if there were no pay to it. Next to that of the ministry, I consider teaching to be the highest calling for a man or woman. AID TO FARMERS

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce deserves commendation for taking the leadership in a campaign to advise West Texas farmers and ranchers on the procedures they must follow if they intend to use Mexican laborers on their places this year.

The agreement under which laborers can be imported from Mexico is not just exactly what Texas farmers and ranchers would like, but it is a vast improvement over last year's pact.

Farmers and ranchers of the state must realize — as most of them do — that the labor agreement is with us as a permanent thing and that if they plan to use the Mexican labor they will have to abide by the agreement.

By bringing to Texas top labor officials and other representatives of government agencies involved some businesses can successfully crawl in their shells withdrawing themselves from community activity, this one can't. Unlike most other business institutions, it is a sort of community servant, striving at all times to give the community those things it wants. Also unlike most other business institutions, most of its service to the masses is free of charge. It publicizes everything from the weekly meeting of the sewing circle to fall football games absolutely free of charge. Such a simple item as a club notice costs the paper several dollars to write, set in type, print and distribute to the readers.

In other respects, a newspaper is no different from any other business institution. It represents an investment of tens of thousands of dollars. Those who invest their savings in a newspaper are entitled to a fair return on their investment the same as those who put their money in a store or in bonds. No one contributes to a newspaper like they do to a chamber of commerce. It must earn its way just like the drug store or filling station.

We cannot speak for other business houses, but so far as this paper is concerned it takes constant vigilance to keep in the black. No one knows better than the management of a business what is necessary to keep that business's head above water. He knows what rates he must charge. He knows how much business he has to have — Tulsa Herald.

FEED SITUATION CRITICAL

Local ranchers, farmers and dairymen Saturday were going ahead—buying hay where they could get it for the best available price. The cost was climbing by the ton, but they told the Record they figured they could not wait for neither politics nor red tape. They had to have feed for their culled herds or go out of business. They could not take the chance of waiting on approval of Governor Shiver's reluctant request for the federal government to buy feed in the northern states and ship it into Texas for sale at "reasonable" prices to drought dry farmers and ranchers. — The Colorado City Record.

Farmers are reminded that chemical treatment of small grain planting seed, just before planting, is mighty good insurance and it's cheap.

THE NEWSPAPER

Somewhat of a hybrid in nature is a newspaper. It is unlike most other business institutions in that one of its principal functions is serving as a sort of chamber of commerce in boosting the community it serves. While

Lake Pump Has 4-Fold Purpose On Cooper Farm

Plagued with a 147-acre wet weather lake on his Floyd County farm, Leo Cooper this year launched an irrigation project with four purposes: to reclaim the land, re-use waste water and rainfall which collects in the lake, quickly drain harmful fall rains off the crops, and to experiment with recharging the water sands.

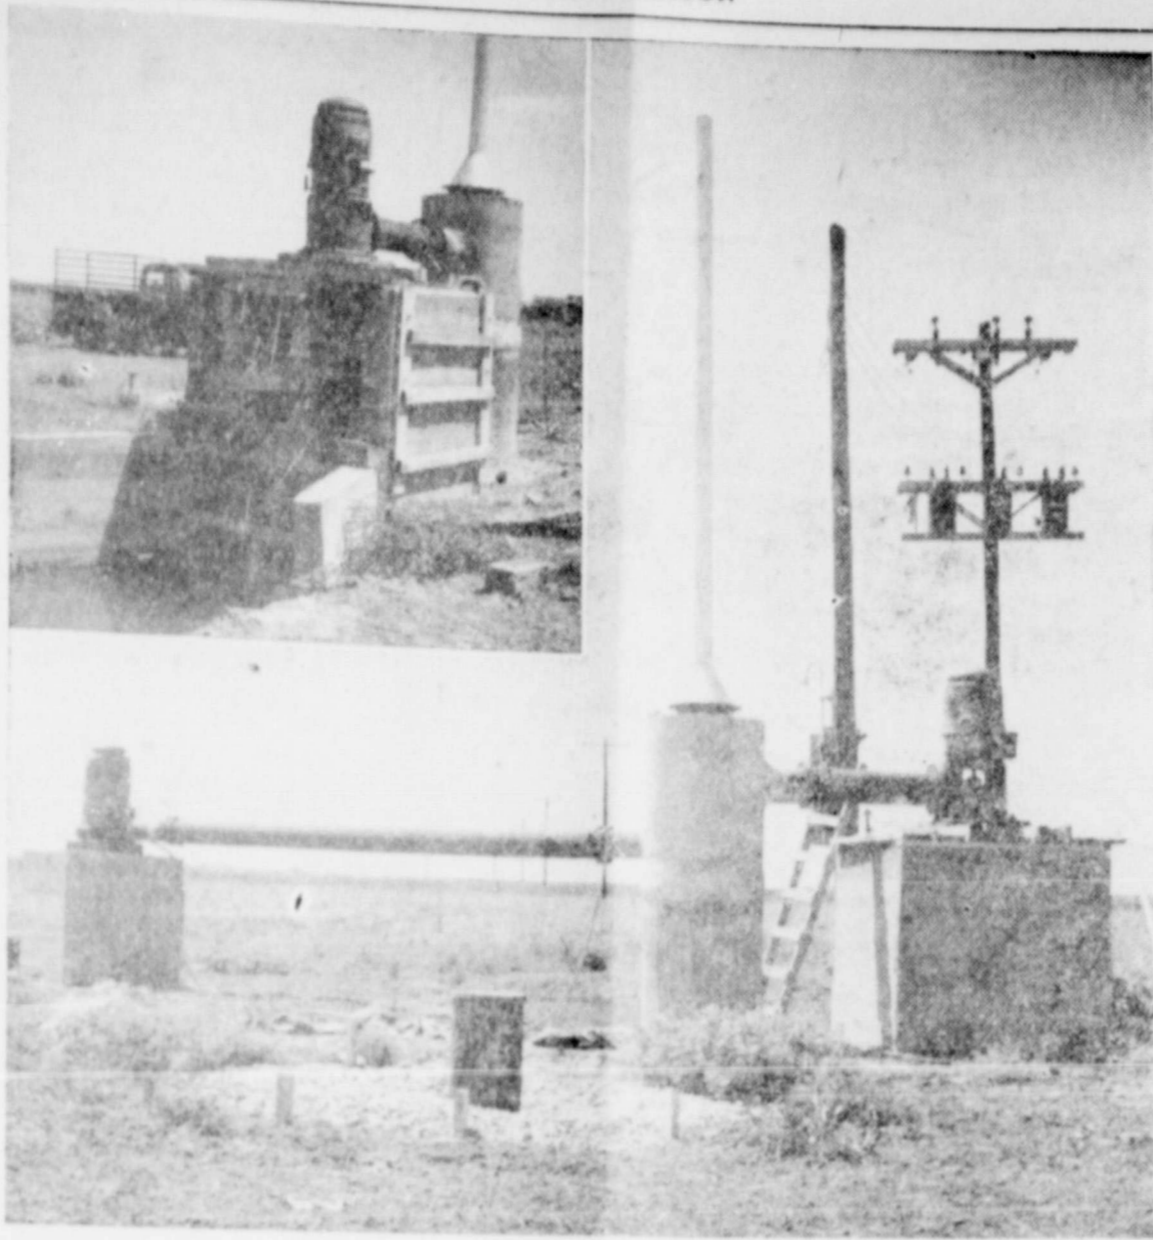

Cooper, who lives four miles north of Lockney on Farm Highway 598, has about 200 acres of irrigated cotton and feed crops surrounding the lake. On trial since April, the project has already saved 60 acres of cotton that were lost in previous years.

The experiment centers around a 12-inch, one-column, one-stage well which pumps a whopping 2,000 gallons per minute. Powered by an electric motor pulling about a 32 horse load, the well pumps into 3700 feet of 15-inch concrete pipe. A large vent on top provides enough atmospheric pressure to push the water over the hill to nearby crops.

This well sets about 100 yards from the bottom of the lake, low enough to keep all but an acre or two well drained. The lake now holds waste water from four directions — the overflow from irrigating cotton above it on all sides. Thus any waste water which gets away in the process of irrigation is caught up by the lake pump for re-use.

In periods of heavy rainfall, when the lake is full and water is not needed for crops, Cooper uses it also for a recharge well, pumping water through the same 15-inch line and sinking it into an old well a quarter of a mile up the hill.

Another recharge well is located about 15 feet from the lake pump. As yet untried, this consists of a "crooked hole" drilled in April of 1952. It was cased to 40 feet and has about 10 feet duty. Left to right are an eight-inch irrigation well, a recharge hole (foreground), an air vent, and a 2,000-gallon per minute of perforated pipe in the top, surrounded by a bed of rocks and gravel. Cooper plans to completely cover the protruding 30 inches of perforated casing with fine gravel to serve as a filter for silt and trash.

Completing a triangle with the lake pump and recharge hole is another irrigation well, drilled in place of the crooked hole. This well is 150 feet deep, has an eight-inch pipe and four stages, and pumps 1200 gallons per minute into the same 3700 ft. line.

There is no evidence of draw-down yet from the regular eight-inch well. One can look down the recharge well and see water at a depth of about 30 feet. A third well, a three year old six-inch well located about a quarter of a mile north, shows evidence of drawdown after about two months of pumping.

Glenn Cooper, no relation to the owner, has operated the farm for the past five years. "We'd have been several thousand dollars losers this year without the lake pump," he said. "Last year we lost 30 acres of cotton north, 10 east and 20 south; and besides that, half a mile of highway was under water." "We are expecting some pretty heavy rains in September, and we hope to get that water off our crops before they're hurt," Cooper added.

"After we reclaim as much of the lake as possible for crops, we plan eventually to put the lake bottom in permanent pasture," the manager said. The Coopers have a small herd of Aberdeen-Angus cattle.

Leo Cooper owns the farm in conjunction with his mother, Mrs. J. M. Cooper who lives there. Cooper spends part of his time in Canyon attending to other farming interests.

The Cooper recharge project is being observed by the Hi-Plains Undergrround Water Conservation District, through Precinct Director C. J. Taylor, also of Lockney. The farm lies within the water district, which embraces parts of 21 counties in the Panhandle-South Plains.

Soil Conservation News

"COVER CROPS"

Mr. Frank Probasco, who farms just west of Floydada and South of Alken, is a conservation farmer who has found Vetch to be a good soil improving crop for him.

Let us take a look at how Mr. Probasco handled his Vetch to find it so beneficial.

First, Mr. Probasco seeded his vetch on wheat land last September 25. He took advantage of the land between the time his wheat came off and the time to plant his grain sorghums in the Spring. He planted the Vetch for the specific purpose of improving the structure of his soil and the adding fertility as a result of the decaying green Vetch.

Although Mr. Probasco only watered his Vetch one time in March, he had a very heavy crop of green cover to turn under this Spring.

The green Vetch was turned under around the first of May and a grain sorghum was drilled in about 30 days later. He used a drill because he was afraid his listers would drag. However, Mr. Probasco thinks now that a lister may be used alright because of the rapid rate in which the green vetch broke down.

The grain sorghum on this field looks very good at this time.

Mr. Probasco has used some commercial fertilizer this year, but he said in the future he plans to obtain his fertility through the use of a legume because it is a lot cheaper and besides it improves the tilth of his soil and the following crops seem to respond more favorably.

He thinks enough of his last years Vetch to plant 100 acres this year.

Frank may water his Vetch this fall to get an increased growth so he can get some fall, winter and spring grazing as well as improving the fertility and structure of his soil.

He is thinking about seeding rye with some of his Vetch so he can harvest the seed.

The use of cover crops is a practice which has been proven and we would encourage farmers who are interested in improving the condition of their soil and who are interested in an increased yield to try this thing of "Cover Crops."

I would like to remind you that the Floyd County Soil Conservation District has some special equipment for seeding Cover Crops, pastures and alfalfa. If you are a cooperater with the Floyd County District, contact Mr. Barber or Mr. Price, Vocational Agriculture Teachers at Floydada or Mr. Brewer, Vocational Agriculture Teacher at Lockney—if you would like to use this equipment.

Locate Wildcat In Hale County

Lawless Drilling Co., Inc., of Odessa is to start drilling by Sept. 15 at its No. 1 Harmell estate, slated to be a 10,500 foot wildcat in east central Hale County, 12 miles south of Plainview.

The project is projected to the Ellenburger unless it finds the granite before drilling to that formation or unless it gets production in the Pennsylvania lime reef.

Location is 330 feet from south and west lines of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 5 block R EL&ER survey.

This prospector is 1320 feet due north of Ray A. Albaugh of Midland No. 1 Harmell, wildcat which has been temporarily abandoned since January, 1951, at a total depth of 9,079 feet in an unidentified formation. The Albaugh project was drilled tight and no official information on it has ever been released. It has not been plugged.

Albaugh is reported to have been quietly buying more minerals in that region during recent months.

The Lawless No. 1 Harmell is to be drilled on a lease secured by that concern in a farm-out deal from Albaugh out of the 7,000-acre block he holds in that region.

Albaugh's No. 1 Harmell is located 330 feet from south and 2310 feet from east lines of section B EL&ER survey.

He drilled a south offset to that well as his No. 1 C. A. Robertson. It was located 2310 feet from north lines of section 3 block R EL&ER survey. It drilled to a bottom of 6810 feet in an unidentified lime. No shows of oil or gas were reported from it.

Operator reported to the railroad commission of Texas that he had plugged and abandoned the No. 1 Robertson on March 7, 1951.

He has never filed any sort of a completion on his No. 1 Harmell to the commission.

Mrs. Sallie True of Austin visited here Wednesday on business. She has a farm north of town. Mrs. True also visited relatives at Lubbock and Clovis.

Cotton producers are urged to destroy all cotton stalks as soon as possible after the harvest is completed. Early stalk destruction is one of the best known methods for controlling cotton insects.

Eisenhower Would Give Texas Back Her Tidelands

Fort Worth. — Texas-born Dwight D. Eisenhower, "a fighter all his life," will fight, as President of the United States, to restore to Texas her precious tidelands. He will also fight unceasingly and with all his heart to stamp out Socialism and Communism in this country.

This was the message that Texas-born Governor Dan Thornton, of Colorado, brought to the Lone Star State Thursday when officially opened the State Eisenhower Headquarters atop the Continental Life Building in Fort Worth.

Speaking to a large and enthusiastic crowd of "Ike" supporters in Will Rogers Auditorium, the tall and rangy Governor, son of a West Texas sharecropper, charged Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic nominee, of being the personal candidate of President Harry Truman. He said that there can be no hope for a change in Washington when only the faces of the nominees are changed, but the powerful Administration forces remain in control of the Federal Government.

"The Democrats have nothing to fear but fear," Thornton declared. "And I mean mink. Now is our opportunity to throw the rascals out who would destroy America. We need a more decent type of man in the White House than we have now."

Thornton characterized the campaign as: "not a struggle between two political parties, but a struggle between two philosophies. One believes in freedom of the individual and the other that the State is all-powerful."

Appearing with Thornton on the program were Jack Porter, Houston, G. O. P. National Committeeman from Texas, and Ben Guill, Porter's appointee as campaign manager for Eisenhower in Texas.

Guernsey Cow Has Twin Heifer Calves

A Guernsey cow belonging to J. B. Morgan, just south of town, is doing her best to overcome the recent drop in the livestock market. She presented her owner with twin heifer calves Saturday night. Mr. Morgan lives just a half mile south of town.

Mrs. Johns Cox returned home Saturday from the Plainview Hospital where she had spent 12 days undergoing medical treatment. Her daughter, Mrs. Pepper Martin and son, Bruce, of Hart are visiting her.

A county program for the control of noxious weeds was discussed and a committee composed of Chester Mitchell, Harmon Handley and Fred Fortenberry was appointed to work out the details for presentation to county officials.

The resolutions adopted will go to the State meeting and if adopted there, will go on to the national meeting of the farm bureau representatives. It was pointed out.

The farmers and a good number of wives, along with local businessmen who are members of the organization, were served a barbecue supper starting at 7 p. m. Barbecued beef, brown beans, pickles and other accessories were enjoyed by the group. The First National Bank of Lockney was host for the barbecue.

Getting into the program at about 8:30, Helmuth Quebe, president of the county organization, introduced Rev. H. L. Anderson, pastor of the Providence Lutheran Church, who gave the invocation.

A program of songs by the Four Sharps of Plainview was thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd. Mr. Quebe introduced W. C. McFarland of Lubbock, secretary of the Hi-Plains Underground Water Conservation District who spoke on the work of the district for a few minutes.

Mr. Quebe reported that the county organization now has a membership of about 550 members and that a few members are being added at intervals. The annual membership drive will be put on this fall.

Mrs. Suzetta Draper and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stasny of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Hutcherson of Wichita Falls visited with Mrs. F. E. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Counts last week.

Floydada Men Return From Tour Of Holy Land

Rev. R. Earl Allen, pastor of the Floydada Baptist Church, and Dr. C. M. Thatcher, Floydada dentist and member of Allen's congregation, returned Monday, September 1, from a 38-day tour of Europe and the Holy Land and reported a "wonderful trip."

Visit Jerusalem

Highpoint of the trip, Thatcher reported, was visiting the historical shrines in Jerusalem. He mentioned in particular Mary and Martha's home, and the Garden of Gethsemane. One thing which amazed the travelers was the closeness of the various shrines in the Holy Land. "From reading the Bible and historical literature," Thatcher said, "I had the idea that they were all miles apart. But they were close together."

Paris is an amazing city, Thatcher asserted, and not at all what the men expected.

"I thought it would be a gay city," he said, "with all the women half dressed. But the women there wear more clothes than they do here in the U. S. And Paris isn't gay. They are living in the past and not looking toward the future at all."

Amazed At Contrasts

Thatcher reported that they found this attitude throughout most of the European nations they visited, except in Switzerland. "Switzerland is a place where I would advise anyone to go to spend a wonderful two or three weeks vacation," he added. "Everything is so clean there."

Thatcher added that they found a great deal of bad feeling toward Americans in their travels, particularly in the Arab countries.

This was not true, however, in England. "But the English are a dejected people," he said. "Their economy is in pitiful condition."

The two men traveled with a party of about 70 ministers and laymen. Rev. Allen's expenses were paid by his congregation and Thatcher paid his own way.

"Everything about the trip came up to our expectations. It was wonderful," Thatcher declared.
