The building of a dressing room at the football field was also approved. The room will be built onto the field house which is already located there.

A school tax equalization board was appointed and the board instructed to meet July 17 and 18 at the city hall. The board also appointed T. T. Hamilton, county tax assessor-collector as tax collector for the school district and the county office will handle the collection of taxes for the local district again this year.

A CLEAN CITY IS A SAFE CITY!

Cotton Acreage Shows Slight Increase Over '52

The cotton acreage in the Lockney area, including all of northwest Floyd County, is increased slightly over the 1952 planting according to estimates by local gin men and others who have observed the crop.

Although the increase is small, the belief persists that the acreage in this area of irrigated cotton has been increased by perhaps as much as 5%, in spite of the fact that many farmers have reduced their cotton acreage.

Over the county County Agent Bill Rogers says that the acreage generally of both dry land and irrigated cotton will be about the same as last year and he estimates that at 200,000 acres of which probably 140,000 acres is irrigated cotton.

An earlier estimate of cotton acreage in Floyd County was set at 225,000 acres but the drought has caused that figure to be reduced considerably. The dry land farmers in this part of the county will have very little if any cotton. However there is still some dry land cotton in the Cedar area, reports say.

Cotton Is Early

Read Wiprecht, consulting agriculturist from College Station, who was here this week, says that the cotton crop in this part of Floyd County is at least two weeks earlier than last year. Mr. Wiprecht says that farmers should watch their cotton and poison for thrip when necessary since the thrip will delay the growth and fruiting of cotton as much as 20 days. They also cause lighter boils on damaged plants, he said.

Mr. Wiprecht operates a consulting service on insects in this area and his associate, Spencer Buchanan, is spending full time here.

Dry land farmers are watching the skies in hopes that rain will fall sufficiently to plant feed. A lack of underground moisture as well as top-soil moisture has about stopped all dry land farming in the area.

Meanwhile irrigation farmers are busy, some already watering cotton and others preparing to do so. Some farmers have resorted to watering "down the row" in order to get the cotton up big enough to work while other cotton is large enough to water the conventional way, down the middle.

Despite complaints and fears expressed by some the general opinion seems to be that the cotton crop in the Lockney area is off to a good start and that over all it is in fine shape and looks good. Reports from other irrigated areas indicate that the cotton around Lockney is much better than that around Plainview and Lubbock.

Clean-Up Committee Says "Thank You"

Members of the Lockney Clean-Up Committee this week said "thank you" to all the citizens of the city for their co-operation in the recent clean-up campaign. "This was the best clean-up job that has ever been done in Lockney," they said, "and we sure appreciate the co-operation of the citizens. Places that were never before cleaned up have been cleaned up this time and we think the town is in very good shape from a cleanliness standpoint."

Members of the committee were Hershel Swepton, Mrs. M. E. Shipp, Tom Moore, Audvie Barnett and Mayor J. E. Cox.

To Buy Sprayer

The City Council voted recently to purchase a spraying machine and when it is bought the city will be sprayed with an insecticide probably once each week, according to Mayor J. E. Cox.

Record 106 Degrees Made Here Sunday

A record of some sort was made here Sunday when the thermometer climbed to 106 degrees. It was the hottest recorded here this year and probably for some years back. Joe Holt, local weather observer, reported that his government thermometer recorded that figure.

It was the tops as far as heat goes in two weeks of unusually hot weather. The minimum temperature for the day was 72. On Saturday the high was 102 and the minimum was 68 and on Friday it was 100 and 68.

Since Sunday the temperature has been running 100 degrees maximum and 69 degrees minimum. No moisture has fallen here this month and none is forecast.

Local Council For Girl Scouts Planned Tues.

A group of local Girl Scout officials and others interested in the movement voted in a meeting Tuesday night at the Scout Hut to organize a community council for the Lockney area. A nominating committee was appointed with instructions to suggest a slate of officers for the council.

The group enjoyed a picnic supper in the City Park before the meeting.

Mrs. J. M. Weaver of Clarendon, who is directing a Day Camp for Lockney and Floydada girl scouts at the Baptist Camp grounds south of Floydada, was in the Tuesday night meeting and explained the purpose and work of the council. She pointed out that a community council would lead in the developing of scouting in the community, would be responsible for setting up an organization, provide a program of work, promote interest, develop a camping program, recruit and train adult workers and to finance the work of the scouts.

The nominating committee composed of Mrs. George Webster Jr., Mrs. Loran Rhodes, Mrs. S. A. Bayley, Milton Ashton and Edgar R. Hays, will meet Thursday night of this week. Another meeting of the entire group is set for Tuesday night, June 30 at which officers will be elected and the organization completed.

Senior Trip Pictures To Be Shown Thurs.

Color movies as well as colored slides of the recent trip to Washington, D. C. by the Senior class will be shown in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church Thursday evening of this week, it has been announced by James Carthel, who took most of the movies.

The colored slides were made by Elvin Lyon and MacLee Brewer, sponsors on the trip.

In addition some movies of the inauguration of President Eisenhower will be shown. These were made by Hershel Carthel.

"We are showing these in appreciation of all the people who made the wonderful trip possible for us," James said. "The seniors all appreciate every one who helped us make the trip and this is one way we have of showing our appreciation. There will be no charge and the public is invited."

James also asked that all seniors bring snapshots they wanted to exchange.

Baptist VBS Closes Wednesday Night

Vacation Bible School closed a ten-day session at the First Baptist Church Wednesday night with commencement exercises being held at 7:45.

Following a program presented by pupils of the school, parents and friends were invited to view handwork in each of the departments. Climaxing the activities was an ice cream supper held on the church lawn at the close of commencement exercises.

Final enrollment in the school reached 255 Wednesday. Rev. R. E. Wiley was principal.

Ask Co-Operation To Lighten Load On Water Dept.

The City of Lockney isn't running short on water yet but such could be the case if consumption continues to increase and the city well should fail only slightly, city officials said this week. With that threat over them, the Council has asked that local citizens help in the matter by alternating in watering lawns and gardens. All people living south of Poplar Street, the street running east and west by the Baptist and Methodist churches, are asked to water their lawns and gardens in the morning and those living north of this street are asked to water their lawns and gardens in the afternoon.

This plan will help to lighten the load on the city water department during the heavy consumption hours from 5 to 3 p. m. each day. During these hours the city pumps cannot keep up with consumption, Water Superintendent Harmon Mills said, and the water pressure falls.

"We urge the co-operation of the citizens on the matter," Mayor J. E. Cox said this week. "The situation isn't serious yet but it could get that way and we need your help."

Mills also suggested that in case of fire all residents should immediately shut off any water they may have running in order that there will be sufficient to fight the fire.

Consumption of water here has been running close to 600,000 gallons per day for two weeks, and has gone over that amount two or three days.

City officials have decided to lower both city wells and thus expect to increase the water pumpage. The wells are now setting on about 160 feet. If the available water increases as it is expected to do from the lowering then the danger of a water shortage will be past.

Nephew Slain By "Unloaded" Gun

Mr. and Mrs. B. Phillips of Lone Star attended funeral services in Dallas Saturday for Mr. Phillips' nephew, Jimmy Bryson, age 16, who was accidentally killed by a friend Friday when the boys were playing with guns.

Jimmy was at his friends home and the two boys were preparing to go swimming. They found some guns in the house and Jimmy picked one up and playfully pointed it at his friend. The other boy picked up another gun, not knowing it was loaded, and pointed in Jimmy's face and pulled the trigger. The gun went off killing the Bryson boy almost instantly.

Parents of the boy are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bryson and Mrs. Bryson is the former Jackie Phillips. She was reared at Lone Star. Also attending the services were two aunts of the slain boy, Mrs. Georgia Dellis, Plainview, and Mrs. Farnkie Hudson, of Dimmitt.

Patricia Plyant Is Bride Of Alfred Smith

In an impressive double ring ceremony performed in the home of the bride's parents, Patricia Plyant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Plyant, became the bride of Alfred James Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith, Sunday afternoon, June 15 at 3:00 o'clock.

Mr. Paul A. Thompson, minister of the Church of Christ in Lakeview, who is an uncle of the bride, read the vows which were exchanged before an improvised altar in front of a picture window flanked with candelabra and tall baskets of pink and white gladioli, maroon daisies and babybreath. Above the altar arrangement hung a profusion of daisies and wedding bells.

June Wiley played "Indian Love Call" and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life." She accompanied Ray Murphy of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride who sang "Always" and "Because," and Faywayne Murphy, also a cousin of the bride, who sang "One Alone."

Candles were lighted by little Vernon Ray White, cousin of the bride, and Charles Smith, Jr., brother of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white nylon tulle over taffeta. The basque waist was fashioned with a high neckline of tulle overlaying an off-the-shoulder effect of scallops accented with small covered buttons. The back was closed with covered buttons, and the long sleeves terminated in points over the hand. The full gathered hoop skirt was floor length. Her finger tip veil of tulle was outlined with lace and fell from a lace cap. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of gardenias showered with satin ribbon and pink rose buds.

For something old the bride carried a white linen handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Charlie Smith, mother of the bridegroom, for something new she wore a pearl necklace, gift from the bridegroom, borrowed was a pair of diamond ear studs, belonging to her mother, and blue was a garter. She wore the same penny in her shoe that her sister, Mrs. Lena Sue Babitzke wore at her own wedding.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lena Sue Babitzke, and maid of honor was Clara Lee Smith, sister of the bridegroom. They wore waltz-length gowns of net fashioned identically with basque waist, high neck and covered buttons at the back to the waist line. The skirts were full. Mrs. Babitzke's gown was blue, her accessories were pink and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations. In her hair she wore pink feathered carnations arranged on combs. Miss Smith's gown was pink, her accessories blue. In her hair she wore blue carnations arranged on blue velvet ribbon. She carried a nosegay of blue carnations.

John Alvin Dorman was best man and Teddy Carthel was groomsmen.

Mrs. Plyant, mother of the bride wore navy nylon lace and Mrs. Smith, mother of the groom wore pink nylon. Their accessories were white and they wore corsages of white gladioli.

The bride is a 1953 graduate of Lockney high school and attended Abilene Christian College, Abilene. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lockney High school, also of the class of '53 and is associated with his father, who is a dirt moving contractor. After a wedding trip into New Mexico the couple will be at home in Lockney until September when they plan to enter T. C. U., in Fort Worth.

For going away the bride wore a yellow and black nylon faille suit with black accessories.

Reception

At a reception held immediately following the ceremony in the Plyant home the bride's table was laid with a satin cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Tapers in crystal holders and the attendant's bouquets completed the table decorations. Arrangements of white gladioli were placed at vantage points about the room. Presiding at the table were Mary Louise Manning and Glenda Ann Readhimer.

Guests were received by Mrs. Lena Faye Sweat, aunt of the bride, and Elizabeth Handley presided at the register.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Plyant and sons of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thompson and sons from Lakeview, and Mrs. Ola Murphy from Dimmitt.

Mrs. Clyde Farrish gave the devotional. Mrs. Fritz Schacht introduced first, Miss Lucille Flowers of Plainview, Conference Secretary of Guild Work, then Mrs. Marvin Boyd of Plainview who was speaker for the evening. She gave a review of the work of the Missionaries supported by the women of Methodist Churches.

Mrs. Paul Cooper and Mrs. Wayne Bybee directed the pledge service. The meeting was adjourned with Mrs. W. L. Thomas Sr., leading the closing prayer.

 AMERICANS HAVE HEARD THE LIBERTY BELL ECHO THEIR

 PEALING JOYFULLY FOR JUBILEES AND HOLIDAYS AND PEACE.

ON JULY 4, 1776 — THE DAY WE CELEBRATE OUR NATION'S

 ADOPTED IN CLOSED SESSION THE DECLARATION OF

 NOT UNTIL JULY 8 WAS IT RUNG — TO CALL PHILADELPHIANS

FINDERS NOT ALWAYS KEEPERS
 The old rhyme, "Finders keepers — losers weepers," is not always strictly accurate under law.
 It is sometimes difficult to define the rights of a finder in court, and much confusion on the subject exists in the mind of the public generally. Confidence men have many times taken advantage of such confusion to "fast talk" unwary individuals out of large sums of money.
 There are some rather fine distinctions and exceptions to the "finders keepers" maxim that have plagued the courts—and finders—for generations.
 In the first place, the finder is not entitled to keep the property unless the original owner is not known and cannot be located.
 Neither may he keep it unless the object is truly "lost," and not merely "misplaced." In general, property is legally "lost" when parted with involuntarily — through accident, neglect, forgetfulness or any other unintentional circumstance. Property is not lost in the legal sense when voluntarily left by the owner, intending to pick it up later — even though he fails to do so.
 Such property is "misplaced."
 Thus, if one loses a watch on the street by having the clasp break, not knowing where or when it was dropped, it is legally "lost." The same is true of a fountain pen falling through a hole in one's pocket unobserved.
 In such cases, the finder owns what he has found against all but the true owner.
 But when articles are left on a train or bus, in a public hotel room, or even when dropped on a shop floor, under circumstances indicating that the true owner will later return to claim them, such items are not considered lost. The proper custodian to hold them for the owners return would be the proprietor or other person in charge. Remaining unclaimed, the property sometimes goes to this custodian, sometimes to the finder. The distinction here appears to be whether the place it is found is private or semi-private, or a place used by the general public.
 Every month or so we see a newspaper item telling how some gullible person has learned the intricacies of the shady game known to police as "pigeon drop," at a cost of several hundred dollars. This confidence racket has many variations, but generally runs something like this:
 A pair of smooth operators slide up to their intended victim on a down-town street. Strangers to each other, they have just found a billfold containing a large denomination bill or a large check, say $1000. They want to split the find, but neither has the money to buy out the other's interest. Now, if the victim can get hold of some cash, they are willing to split three ways, or even to give him more than one-third.
 When the sucker produces the money in anticipation of a quick return on his investment, complications develop. One of the confidence workers may have consulted a fictitious employer in the absence of the victim. Now the billfold, its contents and the victim's money must be left in the employer's custody a few days in case the owner appears.
 Then the division is to be made.
 He takes the money to turn it in to the employer — just up the street a few doors — and disappears. His co-worker also judiciously takes his or her leave.
 Numerous twists, not too credible in print, but all sounding

Minute Editorials

Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of Man cometh. —Matt. 25:13.

It will probably be cooler in July and August than it has been in June. Mrs. R. C. Bennett, who has lived around these parts long enough to be familiar with the weather's habits, says that usually when we have a drought on the hottest part of the summer is in June. That ought to be some comfort to us newcomers who thought perhaps this heat would last all summer and maybe even get worse. Although this writer has been on the Plains only about 11 years we believe this is the worst, and earliest, heat wave we've experienced in this section.

Will Lockney merchants close up July 4th? This year this national holiday comes on Saturday. It has been the custom of local merchants to close on July 4th but will Saturday make any difference in the custom? The Beacon man would like to see the business houses close but he would also like for someone else to make a canvas of the city and find out what the consensus of opinion is. It has fallen his lot in recent years to make a canvas of the business district each time a holiday came along and try to determine what the merchants want to do. Speaking from experience it is truly a thankless task. Very few, if any, appreciate the effort and some seem to resent it. We would like to publicize the plans of the businessmen for July 4th but we have to know what those plans are before we can write the story.

"Business is so slow I don't believe I'll run an ad." How many newspaper men have heard that comment? Many merchants fail to consider this point: When business is slow is the time to advertise. You don't need to advertise if you are being overrun with business and can hardly wait on your customers. Advertising is for the purpose of stimulating business. And when competition gets tough and the big city boys are scrambling for business is the time for the little city boys to do some scrambling also. Advertising is not made for the purpose of making a purchaser come into your place of business and take something away from you. It may work that way sometimes but not often. Advertising needs help to do its best work — like attractive window displays, attractive displays of merchandise, competitive prices and courteous clerks who have helpful suggestions for the customer. We are proud that Lockney has its share of merchants who realize this point and are operating their business thusly.

This kind of year makes a farmer appreciate his irrigation well. Very few dry land farmers have had enough moisture to plant on and crops that have been planted on dry land are about gone or are in danger of being lost completely. The farmer who can turn his water loose at will and give that thirsty cotton a drink of water has reason to be mighty grateful.

WHAT'S NEWS . . . ?

"What's new this week?" Often you hear the question around a little newspaper like The Brand. When someone asks it, they are generally thinking in terms of big happenings, things like murders, explosions and riots. Most newspapermen know this, so they generally grin and say, "Nothing Much."

In the first place, a town like Hereford has very few items of such interest. In the second place, they are pretty generally our poorest form of news—simply because most people already know about them. The only chance we have is more complete, reliable details. The "Hospital Notes," for instance, probably have more real to stop at a stop sign. The most frequently missed stop-sign, according to highway officers, is the intersection where the Lockney loop enters highway 70 enroute to Plainview. The farm highway to Sand Hill also intersects here and officers hand out more tickets at this intersection than any other place. A fine of $14.30 minimum is a pretty big price to pay for driving 75 miles per hour or neglecting to stop at a stop sign. Better watch out.

news value for our readers than the lead story in this very issue. Take a fire, for another instance. The Brand will cover any piddling little blaze, whereas the Associated Press is not interested unless there is a loss of life or extremely heavy damage. Still that fire probably caused a lot of heartaches for the family involved.

What we are trying to get across is the fact that the small-town newspaper does a job no other medium achieves. It is down to earth and owes its very existence to understanding and writing about things in which the metropolitan press would sneer. It prints the good along with the bad, withstands a lot of abuse and criticism, is the brunt of many jokes — and still manages to struggle along.

Despite all of this, most people subscribe to their hometown paper — and a few are proud of it. In addition, it affords a service which residents of the big towns are denied. People who live in small towns and on farms get the same newspapers the city folks get, they get the same big-time radio programs and they watch the same television shows and newscasts. In addition, they have the hometown newspapers, a grass-roots medium which covers the little things and, once in a while comes up with something truly clever, readable and worthwhile. — Hereford Brand.

TIMES DO CHANGE

How times do change! Once upon a time a merchant built a tremendous business upon the thesis that "the customer is always right." Then came a war, and there were more customers than merchandise, so the attitude changed to "take it or leave it."

The changes have not been confined only to the merchants and consumers. The employee, too has seen some attitude adjustments.

An amusing and significant example is found in a set of rules posted in an Illinois store back in 1880. These included the following: Store must be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. the year 'round. Store must be swept; counters, shelves and showcases dusted; lamps trimmed, filled and chimneys cleaned; doors and windows opened; a pail of water and a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast. The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, being shaved at the barber's, going to dances and other places of amusement, will assuredly give his employer reason to be suspicious of his integrity and honesty. Each employe must pay not less than $5 per year to the church and must attend Sunday School regularly. Men employes are given one evening a week for court-ship. After 14 hours in the store the leisure hours should be spent for the most part in reading.

That was the situation 73 years ago. In retailing, as in other enterprise, the lot of the American worker has improved to an almost unbelievable extent. — Quittaque Post.

Pay more? What for?

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts. Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

- 1. A V-8 engine—powerful and smooth!
Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!
- 2. America's most economical Six engine!
If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker . . . the engine which, with optional Overdrive, won over all other cars in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run!
- 3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive!
Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter.

- 4. Automatic gas savings!
Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely.
- 5. America's newest and finest power steering!
Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Steering is up to 75% easier.
- 6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field!
Ford alone gives you a choice of
- 7. A body that's the style-setter!
Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a hull-tight Crestmark Body . . . the trend-maker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest.
- 8. New driving conveniences!
Ford's first in its field with "Worth More" features like . . . easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes . . . foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models . . . and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.
- 9. An automatically controlled ride!
The wide front tread (widest in the low-price field) takes of turns . . . goes your level ride. With new "suspension" new spring shock absorber action and rubber compression bars road shock in the front end is reduced up to 80%.

- 10. It's worth more when you sell it!
An impartial survey of prices proved that Ford's a greater proportion of original cost than any cars in America.

But don't take your word. Stop in and Test Drive Ford for yourself. We'll be sold before you second! It was true last year it's even truer this year. You pay more, but you get better than Ford.

Highlights Of Recent Senior Trip

By Frances Des Copeland

It was a jubilant and excited bunch of seniors and sponsors that boarded the T. N. M. & O. chartered bus at 11:45 p. m. after graduation on Monday, May 25. The senior mothers had served us sandwiches, cold drinks, ice cream, and cookies; the extra sandwiches and cookies were stuffed in the little spaces not taken up by luggage; and we were rarin' to go. Quite a delegation of parents, kinsmen, teachers, sweethearts and friends appeared on the scene to give us a good send-off and we left, amidst shouting and yelling at 12:00.

By the light of a beautiful full moon (which was no bad situation for Dan Cupid), we journeyed eastward, stopping at Gainesville to get our permanent driver, Orville Leggett, who drives the regular T. N. M. & O. bus between Lubbock and Amarillo. At 10:45 Tuesday morning we took a last glimpse of Texas which was to last us for a seemingly long time, and crossed into Arkansas. We went through Little Rock that afternoon and caught just a glimpse of the Capitol and three hours later crossed the Mississippi River into Memphis, Tennessee, where we spent our first night.

We left early Wednesday morning and came upon four school buses of Texans about the middle of the morning. We toured the reproduction of the Parthenon near Nashville, Tennessee, and when we had finished we had the feeling of having visited the Acropolis in Greece. We also visited Andrew Jackson's home, The Hermitage, located about 15 miles east of Nashville. Andrew and Rachel Jackson came to The Hermitage to escape the ugliness of the campaign against him when he ran for President of the United States. We spent Wednesday night in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Thursday morning we were up bright and early, leaving at 7:00 and soon came into the Smoky Mountains. We crossed into Virginia about 10:00 and in the afternoon visited the Natural Bridge, one of the seven natural wonders of the World, in Natural Bridge, Virginia. We then enjoyed an immensely scenic drive in the George Washington Park which extended from Natural Bridge to Charlottesville, Virginia, where we spent the night.

Friday morning we visited Thomas Jefferson's home, Monticello, just outside of Charlottesville. Jefferson was quite an inventor and he used his inventiveness freely in his home — a clock which told the day of the week, a swivel chair, an underground tunnel to protect his servants from the weather, an air tunnel, and a system of pipes connected to a cistern to conserve water.

We ate dinner at the Hot Shoppes just out of Washington, D. C. and crossed the Potomac at 2:15. On the way to our hotel, the Sam Houston, we saw the Pentagon, Jefferson Memorial, Washington Monument, the Capitol, and several government buildings. Friday night we saw a Big League ball game — the Washington Senators beat the Boston Red Sox 4 to 1.

Saturday we visited the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials. The Jefferson Memorial, modeled after the Rotunda of the University of Virginia, which Jefferson designed, is located on the bank of the Tidal Basin. On the north wall of the Lincoln Memorial is the Gettysburg Address and on the other is Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address. The 19 foot statue of Lincoln faces the entrance.

From Lincoln Memorial we went to Arlington Cemetery where Memorial Day Services were in progress. After numerous ceremonies, placing of wreaths, and playing of hands, the 21 gun salute was sounded and President and Mrs. Eisenhower entered and he placed a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

We then went to Washington Monument, which is about 555 feet tall and the world's tallest masonry structure. We all walked up the 896 steps to the top, but nearly everyone took the elevator down.

After dinner we went out to George Washington's home, Mount Vernon. There, we were literally drenched with a down-pour that we wished had been in Texas instead of in Washington D. C. It prevented us from seeing as much as we would have liked to have seen.

Sunday morning some went to church where President Eisenhower usually goes but he was not there. Sunday afternoon we went to the Archives Building where the original Constitution, Declaration of Independence, and Bill of Rights are enshrined. The Japanese Surrender Documents, Louisiana Purchase documents, several writings concerning the situation of each state as it entered the Union, and many other important documents are also in this building.

We then visited Smithsonian

Institute and saw the "Spirit of St. Louis," "Kitty Hawk," coin collections, First Ladies' dresses, Edison inventions, gem collections, and Teddy Roosevelt's stuffed animals. Four hours was hardly enough time to see nearly all of the things assembled by thousands of people over a period of more than one hundred years. Before going back to the hotel we drove down Embassy Row, where all the homes of the Ambassadors are located.

Sunday night we boarded the "S. S. Mount Vernon" for a voyage on the Potomac River to Glen Echo Amusement Park and the roller coaster, crazy house, tilt-a-whirl, and all sorts of entertainment.

Monday was our last day in Washington D. C. and was also the busiest day. Miss Dorothy Van Pelt, Cong. George Mahon's secretary, met us at the hotel and from there we went to the Treasury Department where 44 million dollars of paper money is printed daily — no, we didn't have a chance to get our hands on any of the green stuff.

We met Secretary of Navy Anderson of Vernon, Texas, on the steps of the Pentagon and had our pictures made with him. June Wiley's cousin, Commander Charles Payne, and Miss Carolyn Beene of Chillicothe, Texas, were our guides through the Pentagon. The Pentagon has five sides, five stories, five rings, and five acres of land in the center. The concourse is a regular little city with cafes, bakery, drug store, florist and department store.

After the Pentagon we went to the Capitol and met Congressman George Mahon, of Lubbock, who took us into the House of Representatives and explained the proceedings of that body. We then visited Speaker of the House Joe Martin's office and then went to Supreme Court. We had a lucky break and got to see Supreme Court open. We went to the Senate office building and rode the one rail subway to the Capitol. There we met Lyndon Johnson, Price Daniel, and Sam Rayburn, and visited the Senate and House in action. The gavel used to open the House of Representatives session that day is to be sent to Norton Baker, president of our class, to go in the trophy case in LHS.

Seale Drive-In 1st Anniversary Is June 19th

The Seale Drive-In Theatre, located 2 1/2 miles west of town on Highway 70, observes its first anniversary Friday of this week, June 19th. The Drive-In was opened on that date last year with a statewide picture premier and is celebrating like-wise this year with a West Texas premier of the picture, "TAKE ME TO TOWN," starring Ann Sheridan and Sterling Hayden.

Also the theatre will give away a number of free passes to the show on Friday in observance of the anniversary date, according to J. B. Seale, manager.

The picture, "Take Me To Town," shows both Thursday and Friday nights with a cartoon rounding out the program. It is in technicolor and has few serious moments from beginning to end. It is rated as a comedy that will keep the audience laughing but does have a serious side when Ann Sheridan, an entertainer in the western style, falls in love with Sterling Hayden, a minister and his three orphan boys.

"Hard Luck" Dogs The Pat Woodburns

Plain old "hard luck" continues to dog the footsteps of the Pat Woodburn family. They have been recently visiting his mother, Mrs. Lula Woodburn, while on vacation from his job at a gasoline plant of the Pure Oil Company at Van, Texas.

The family's string of bad luck began last August when Pat was hurt in an accident at the plant. He suffered a broken shoulder and other injuries and spent quite some time in a hospital and more time in bed at home. Early this year the family awoke one night and found their home in flames. They just managed to escape and were unable to save any of their belongings.

Then late in May Pat was given a two weeks vacation and he and his family came out to visit his mother to forget their troubles. But the troubles followed them. Mickey, Pat's wife, took the mumps while here and Pat was bitten by a spider and spent a couple of days in the local hospital.

Now the couple is back at home. Pat is back at work and they hope that Old Man "Hard Luck" will leave them alone for a while.

MRS. LOUIS LLOYD

Janice Thompson Bride Of Louis Lloyd

Miss Janice Thompson, niece of Juanita Thompson of Lockney, and Louis Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lloyd of Floydada, were married Saturday, June 6 at 5 p. m. at the First Methodist Church in Lockney.

The Rev. N. S. Daniel performed a double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with palms interspersed with baskets of white gladioli and shasta daisies. The archway was covered with greenery and white daisies with wedding bells centered at the top. Candelabra holding white tapers flanked either side of the altar.

Mrs. C. L. Record played the organ prelude and accompanied Mr. A. P. Barker Sr. who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." She played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Dale Smith of Floydada, nephew of the groom, who sang "Through The Years" at the close of the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Buck Sams, the bride was gowned in nylon organza styled with a net yoke outlined in a ruffled bertha. Her bouffant tiered full skirt fell into a full cathedral train edged in ruffles. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion net cascaded from a lace Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls. The bride's only ornament was a single strand of pearls belonging to the matron of honor. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis on top of a white Bible. The wedding band of the bride's mother was entwined in the bouquet.

Mrs. Michael Lehr from Abilene was matron of honor. She wore a pastel yellow organdy dress with small half sleeves and straight low cut neck line. The waist was tightly fitted and the skirt was in seven tiers graduating in size to the largest tier at the bottom. The waltz length dress was worn over crinoline giving it fullness. She wore opera pumps of the same color as her dress, and carried a nosegay of aqua daisies. Her mitts and headress were of the same organdy as her dress.

Miss Betty Sue Stephens, of Anson, and Miss Janet Lloyd, of Floydada, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Betty June Jackson, of Lockney, and Miss Marjetta Thompson of Lovington, N. M., cousin of the bride were junior bridesmaids. Their dresses were all identical to the matron of honor except that they were in pastel aqua. They carried baskets of yellow shasta daisies and had matching mitts, head-dresses, and pumps.

Ray Lloyd of Floydada, was his brother's best man. Groomsmen and candlelighters were: Bill Thompson, Barry Thompson, brothers of the bride, Bryan Collins, and David Willson, both of Floydada.

Miss Thompson, aunt of the bride, wore black crepe with black and white accessories. Mrs. Lloyd, mother of the groom, wore navy sheer with white accessories. They both wore corsages of white carnations.

Miss Goldie Lee Sewal, of Floydada and niece of the groom, was flower girl. Her dress of white organdy was patterned similar to the brides. She carried a white basket of petals with rainbow colored streamers. Her mitts and headress were of white organdy.

The reception was held in the basement of the Methodist Church. The floral arrangements and the table decorations carried out the bride's chosen colors, pastel yellow and aqua. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Buck Sams was in charge. Miss Kathryn Norris and Miss Algene O'Daniel served the cake and punch. Miss Mavis Tate secured names for the register.

After a wedding trip to Colorado Springs and Estes Park, Colorado, the couple will be at home near Floydada where the bridegroom farms. For travel the bride wore an apple green linen sun dress trimmed in black velvet with jacket to match. Her accessories were black and white. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Dimmitt Hospital Sold To County

Dimmitt — Plains Memorial Hospital stockholders voted unanimously to accept the $70,298 hospital purchase offer, tendered by Castro County commissioners here in early May, at joint membership and board meeting in the local high school auditorium, Monday night.

On motion of Dimmitt Mayor E. B. Wright the group agreed to the offer which includes the hospital, facilities, grounds and all assets of the institution.

Wright made a second motion that the membership take a vote to see if it was the group's desire to accept $40 for their membership certificates. Board president Tom Bice, who presided at the meeting, called for a vote on the motion and members responded by voicing approval. Members also voted approval of a third motion made by Wright that the membership donate all assets not purchased in the transfer to the county association.

There reportedly was considerable sentiment among members to give the proceeds from the sale of their stockholders shares to the hospital when it becomes county-owned, for an operating fund.

County Judge Robert Estes stated Tuesday that the way has been cleared for transfer of the hospital to the county. He added that he had been authorized to have $70,000 in bonds printed and sold. As soon as the state attorney general approves the bonds and turns them over to the American National Bank of Austin, C. N. Burt and Company, Dallas investors who the county contracted to sell the bonds to, will pay off the amount of the bonds. The funds derived from the sale of the bonds will then be turned over to the local bank, where they will be kept until the transaction is made.

Estes indicated that funds for purchasing the hospital would be available in a matter of a few days.

Proper Way To Defrost Is Told By Specialist

College Station. — When, how and why to defrost differs considerably with the refrigerator and the home freezer. Home management specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service say according to Dr. Earl McCracken, physicist for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, frost is one of the homemaker's concerns in summer.

Frost on the evaporator of the refrigerator should never become more than 1/4 inch thick. The thicker the frost, the more it insulates or "blankets" the evaporator and reduces its cooling effect on the interior of the refrigerator, no matter how much the motor runs. Thus, thick frost lets the inside of the refrigerator warm up so that foods don't keep well. Most home refrigerators need defrosting at least once a week — or oftener in summer when hot weather plus more use of the refrigerator for chilled foods and beverages causes frost to form faster.

Dr. McCracken advises following the directions in the booklet that comes with the refrigerator for defrosting. Some manufacturers advise quick defrosting with hot water in the ice trays while others warn against it. Some refrigerators have automatic defrosting.

In contrast to the refrigerator, home freezers or freezer compartments of refrigerators should need defrosting only once or twice a year. Best management calls for removing frost when it is about 1/2 inch thick on larger areas of walls or shelves. However, Dr. McCracken's tests show that frost can accumulate up to 1 1/2 inches thick (in chest-type freezers operating at Zero F.) without warming the interior of the freezer enough to endanger frozen food. Even this excessive frost did not cause much more than normal running of the freezer-motor, Dr. McCracken reports. Thick frost in a freezer is wasteful because it cuts down storage space, and because much electricity is spent to defrost at zero as on frost-free space.

Frost can be removed from the freezer in an operation called "scoop-type" defrosting. Scoop-type defrosting catches the frost as it scrapes it off. Some of the types are made of plastic, enough to damage freezer or the gasket around the door.

Ice that forms in the freezer is too hard to scrape off and is melted. To remove ice, disconnect the freezer and take cold water over it, if the freezer has a drain. Otherwise, the melting by placing a fan so that it blows cold air and warm air in. Remove the water that forms. Run inside dry when you connect electricity and put back frozen food.

Farm Cash Income Down From 1952

Austin, Texas. — Farm cash income in Texas for the first four months of 1953 totaled $431,994,000, about $123,000,000 less than the same 1952 period, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Six commodities brought income increases this year. Wheat income was up 144 per cent, and oats, 75 per cent. Income from sheep and lambs, eggs, poultry and mohair gained from 25 to 3 per cent.

Producers of cottonseed, wool, grain sorghum, cotton, corn, and cattle too, the heaviest relative losses. Cotton and cattle producers suffered most in actual dollar losses. Cotton income was down $57,600,000, and cattle, $42,500,000.

Cotton Prices Due To Advance — Cox

Austin, Texas.—Current market conditions indicate cotton prices will increase if they change substantially at all, Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas cotton marketing professor, says.

The total U. S. supply for this year is about a half-million bales greater, yet domestic consumption to date is 100,000 more than the comparable part of last year, Dr. Cox points out. Confidence that the 1953 crop will be large has weakened in recent weeks.

John D. Faught, center, of Roanoke, receives a $500 check from W. W. Overton, Jr., left chairman of the board, and P. B. (Jack) Garrett, president of Texas Bank & Trust Company of Dallas, for his selection as the state's outstanding soil conservation district supervisor for 1952. Faught is supervisor for district five in north central Texas. Texas Bank annually sponsors the soil conservation district supervisors award.

Deferments May Lengthen Draft Status Of Registrant

(Article III of a series.) Young men of draft age who ask for and get deferments under certain conditions automatically extend the time during which they can be drafted by nine years.

Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director, names the following types of deferred men, among others, who have their liability for service extended until age 35:

1. Members of the ROTC and other officer training programs.
2. Students deferred to go to high school or college under requirements of law; college students deferred under authority of the local board.
3. Men left at home for civilian employment.
4. Men deferred to farm.
5. Married men deferred because of their children or because of extreme hardship and privation to dependents.
6. Men classified as mentally, physically, or morally deficient or defective.

"The regulations spell this out," General Wakefield says.

"So when a man gets the privilege of a deferment he is taking a corresponding responsibility. The man who never receives a deferment like these cannot be drafted after he reaches his 26th birthday."

The state draft director says that, under this provision of law, it is possible for a deferred man to lose his qualification for deferment at age 34, for example. Under such circumstances, he would again be eligible for draft.

HOME HINTS

Next time your family gets in a chocolate-cream-pie mood, try this surprise on them. Just before serving, remove pie from the refrigerator, cut into pieces and top each piece with a ball of ice cream instead of whipped cream.

HOME HINTS

If the broiler pan and grid of your gas range are spattered with grease, soak them in warm soapy water while the dishes are being washed. A detergent sprinkled in the water helps loosen the accumulated grease. Then wash these sections with fresh hot water, using a stiff brush and cleanser for dirtier spots.

Overloading Washer Causes Trouble

College Station. — For best results in your washing machine, don't overload it with too many clothes or too many large pieces of clothing. Home management specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service say this advice comes as a result of an extensive study made at the Ohio Experiment Station.

Findings from the study indicate proper loading is important for successful laundering in many washing machines. Research included washing 20,000 pounds of soiled clothes from 32 different families in 5 different automatic washers and a reliable, well-known conventional or non-automatic washer for comparison. During the study 75 women reported machines that would not remove soil and the trouble often was found to be overloading. Ten self-service operators reported overloading as their greatest problem with cylinder-type washers.

Manufacturers of the cylinder or agitator-type washers rated the load capacity as 9 pounds and the pulsator washer as 8 pounds. The Ohio study showed that all washers did a better job with a 7½ or 8-pound load. This indicates it is wise to weigh clothes before putting them into the washer until the 8-pound load becomes easy to estimate.

The specialists say the research also indicates a combination of large and small pieces is practical and satisfactory for family washing. Combinations of small items washed well because they could move freely, but a load of sheets, for example, gave trouble. In agitator-type washers a load of sheets could not move freely. They billowed around the agitators, and turned over so slowly that the mechanism seemed to work continuously only on part of the washing.

For best results, the research indicates a typical assortment for an 8-pound load: 2 sheets, 2 pillow slips, 2 bath towels, 2 men's white shirts, 2 luncheon cloths, and about a pound of tea towels or other small items. In the typical family wash there will be two such loads, then a third load of dresses and undergarments, and finally a load of colored or badly soiled items that must be washed separately from the white clothes.

HOME HINTS

A wedding breakfast that's easy and yet delicious to serve is lime-flavored fresh fruit balls, chicken and fresh mushrooms sauteed and served on toasted English muffins. And to complete the menu, use the broiler of the gas range to toast finely chopped nuts to add that "nutty" flavor to the wedding cake. Serve with coffee.

Salt Deficiency May Cause Cramps

Austin. — If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 degrees and above.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fag. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramp is characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

SOUTH PLAINS NEWS

by Mrs. Murray Julian

Ernest Smitherman, John Wilmon, Ernest Huckabee, Fred Fortenberry and many others in our community have either finished combining their wheat or are in the cleaning up process. Hot winds and lack of rain during the past season made for a meager yield.

Friday night, June 19, at eight thirty, the BTU of the South Plains Church is sponsoring an ice cream social at the church and everyone of the community is cordially invited to attend. Lights will be strung up in the church ground and games and other entertainment will be enjoyed during the evening. Do come for an evening of fellowship with your neighbors.

The Daily Vacation Bible School finished an eight day school on Wednesday, and that evening commencement exercises at the church at eight o'clock were held. There were 62 enrolled, and almost all the children performed in the evening's exercises, which was a fine one and enjoyed by a large crowd. Teachers are to be commended for the wonderful work which they accomplished, and the faculty consisted of Rev. W. S. Spearman, principal, and teachers Mmes. Kendall Cummings, A. S. Vinson, J. B. Thames, Arby Mulder, W. S. Spearman, Grigsby Milton, Billy Bean, Shelby Calahan, Frank McClure, L. T. Wood, Bryan Karr, Raymond Upton, I. H. Parks, and Paul Snodgrass. Mrs. Snodgrass was pianist for the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders and Martha Lee and Mr. and Mrs. John Smitherman went to Amarillo early Sunday morning where Martha Lee caught a TWA plane to Los Angeles, California, where she will enroll for the coming four weeks at the Hazel Hurst Seeing Eye Foundation and where she will receive her dog, and be instructed, and where training will be given during that time. We all wish Martha Lee a wonderful vacation out there and hope she has a fine time. She thoroughly enjoyed the plane trip out to Azusa, Calif.

Carol Reeves has finished her teaching term at Buckners Orphan Home and is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves for a few days before she has to return to the school where she has enrolled as a Vacation Bible School teacher for the coming four weeks. Carol will be home for the bridal shower of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Reeves which will be on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Smitherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr., Donita and Barbara Sue left Monday afternoon to go to Amarillo where they will bring his mother, Mrs. Grigsby Milton Sr. and Linnie home with them for a visit here. Mrs. Milton will visit relatives here and attend to some business in Lockney for the next few weeks. They will come back here Monday evening.

Bob Reeves came home Thursday of last week from Camp Roberts, California in time to be at the birth of his son, Kerry Sim, who was born in Plainview on Saturday. The baby did not take nourishment at first and consequently was quite weak. The baby is better now and it is hoped they can bring him home from the hospital this week, before Bob has to go back to camp.

Rev. Chas Joiner and Terry Julian will leave Lockney Tuesday morning to spend most of this coming week in Abilene with relatives. They will attend the Associational church meeting in Ralls on Tuesday, and go on to Abilene after the morning session. They intend to be home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thames and children went to Lubbock over the week end to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leslie and other relatives.

There will be a WMS meeting at the church on Wednesday afternoon, June 17, for an afternoon of Royal Service, and the time has been changed to 3:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and Karen were visitors in church Sunday morning, from Lockney, and they went home with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Karr and family to have dinner and enjoy the afternoon with them.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Bartlett, from Fort Worth, and his mother, Mrs. Mary Sammons, from Greenville visited Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders and other relatives over last week end.

Menard Field and Pete Thornton are spending this week in northern Arkansas where they are enjoying a fishing trip on the rivers there. They are expected home in the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weast arrived home on Saturday evening from Terrell and we are glad to report Mr. Weast is feeling better after going through extensive tests at the clinic there. On the way home they visited old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, who now live in Seymour, but who formerly lived on the Shelby Calahan farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian and boys had as their dinner guests after church Sunday, Rev. Chas. Joiner of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton and girls Bud Higginbotham, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure who spent the afternoon visiting with them.

We are glad to find that Mrs. Wilbur Wilson of Plainview, who was badly hurt in a freak accident over the week end, is getting along much better. The whole family of the Wilsons were with Mrs. Wilson in Plainview hospital on Saturday. Physicians greatly feared her back was broken when the car started rolling, Mrs. Wilson was partly in and she was thrown from the car as it rolled. We hope she continues to improve, and that no complications ensue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beedy from Amarillo visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy and Eugene Sunday afternoon. They also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooper in Floydada during the week end.

The South Plains baseball team played two games this past week in Lockney. On Thursday night the American Legion forfeited the game to South Plains on account of too many of their team being absent, and on Friday night South Plains played Aiken and came off victor.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Weast went to Sterley to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smith where they enjoyed dinner and the afternoon of visiting. Other guests at the Smith home were Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Smith of Lockney.

Dean Stewart from Camp Hood, Texas, near Belton, is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart, for a ten day furlough. He arrived home last Thursday.

Mrs. H. C. McKee, from Chattanooga, Tenn., with her two daughters, Sheri, and Cynthia, arrived last Friday in Lubbock by plane and spent the week end with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pitts and children of Lubbock. Sunday she arrived here to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Young and family. She will spend five weeks visiting out here and will visit Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton and other relatives while on her vacation.

The cotton gin in South Plains is fast going up south of the railroad and north of the Parks residence, the owners residence is getting a good start. We are glad to see South Plains grow.

Club Meeting At Mrs. Jones

The South Plains Home Demonstration club met Wednesday, June 10, for its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Dock Jones in South Plains with Mrs. I. H. Parks as co-hostess, Mrs. H. L. Marble presided over the meeting and roll call for the day was my favorite labor or energy saving device. Answers were varied, but electric sweepers, washers and ironers and deep freezers were selected as the greatest energy savers. The members went into the demonstration for the day, which was craft work in copper, under the guidance of Mrs. I. H. Parks, who taught the group how to make copper plaques. So many were absent on account of busy season in the fields that there will be another meeting for copper making later in the fall. Refreshments of ice cream, punch and orange cake were served to the following members, Mmes. J. K. West, Fred Fortenberry, Frank McClure, John Smitherman, S. A. Thornton, Bryan Karr, W. S. Spearman, M. M. Julian and H. L. Marble, by the hostesses Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Jones. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. K. West, with Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrough as co-hostess, and the date is June 24.

Mrs. Bert Sewell is spending this week in Amarillo visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford. The Crawfords are leaving for California next Sunday and if Mrs. Sewell is feeling able to travel, she will accompany them to visit relatives and friends out there.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Roberts and daughters returned home Sunday night from a ten-day vacation in Minnesota where they were guests of Rural Life Insurance Company.

ENEMIES OF CHRISTIANITY

Last week we began our study of enemies of Christianity. We noticed in that lesson that the word Christianity is often much abused and misused and age. It is often used to include almost any religion. It is applied to a great majority of the existing denominations. When we use the word in only the strict sense of the word, it refers only to the doctrine and teachings of the apostles.

Many of the enemies of Christianity are the enemies of the cross of Christ and of the teachings of Christ. One of the first groups to notice as being enemies of Christianity is the world as a whole. That there are religious wars, conflicting doctrines and division in the world needs no proof. These wars, conflicting doctrines are contrary to the Word of God. We remember that Christ prophesied among his followers. In John 17:20-21 we know for whom Christ prayed were those who should be united in Him through the words of the Apostles. Friends, followers of Christ will we not be united in Him? Does Christ approve of ALL of the conflicting doctrines that exist in the religious world today? If you will have to answer that He does not approve of these doctrines that are contrary to the Word of God, which are sanctioned and approved by Him, which are in harmony with what He taught, which are in harmony with the teachings of Christ and which are approved by Christ.

Friends, how can you possibly believe the doctrines of the religious world are in harmony with the teachings of Christ? Denominationalism, if it is not approved by Christ, is an enemy of Christ. If all of the religious world were Christians, only then there would be but ONE church and one denomination would exist.

We remember that the apostle Paul was in the church at Corinth and rebuked them because they were not united as they should have been. He told them "all speak the SAME thing, and that ye be perfectly joined in the same mind and in the same judgment." Friend, the denominational world does not speak the same thing commanded by Paul. Can we disagree with the command and still not be an enemy to Christ?

We invite you to attend all of the services of St. Church of Christ. Our Sunday evening service is at 6:00 p. m. Wednesday evening at 8:00 p. m. study with us.
