

Brown Injured, Horse Killed In Accident

Frank Brown, a farmer living 10 miles northeast of Lockney, was injured and a colt he was hauling in a trailer was killed in a pickup-trailer mishap which occurred Monday afternoon as Brown was returning to his home from the Old Settlers Reunion at Floydada.

Brown was believed not seriously hurt and was released to his home after being X-rayed at a local hospital. He was considerably bruised and shaken up but Tuesday afternoon he was able to get around some and appeared to be improving. Frank had attended the Old Settlers Reunion and had ridden one of the horses in the parade. He had two saddle horses and the colt in the trailer. About 10 miles north of Floydada on the Silverton highway one of the horses apparently broke loose and moved to the rear of the trailer which caused the trailer tongue to lift the rear of the pickup off the ground. He was unable to control the vehicle and it turned over, turning over the trailer also. Frank was thrown out into the ditch and all the horses were thrown from the trailer. The 3-month old chestnut-sorrel colt was found lying in the ditch and apparently had suffered a broken neck, since it never moved. The other two horses were bruised and cut up but not badly injured. Damage to the pickup may run $200-$300 since the cab was demolished. The trailer was also badly damaged.

Other Accidents

There were at least two other accidents involving horses the same afternoon though no injuries to man or beast resulted. It was reported here. Hubert Frizzell, who lives about 8 miles north of Lockney, was preparing to haul two horses in Floydada for the parade when one of them broke loose. However the pickup did not turn over in this instance and the trailer just turned far enough to dump the horses out on the road. Neither horse appeared to be injured and Hubert continued on his journey after reloading the horses.

A O. Foster, also of the Lone Star community, also had an accident with a trailer loaded with horses when the trailer broke loose from the pickup. However it didn't turn over and no injuries or damage resulted.

Barry Thompson suffered a head cut on his arm Monday night when a pickup over turned. The accident happened in southeast Lockney at the intersection of the Lockney Loop and the Lone Star cut-off. Barry, driving a 1955 Ford pickup belonging to Buck and Marvin Sams, was traveling east onto a dirt road. Billy Lloyd Thurman, driving a 1955 Chevrolet, was going south, and struck the pickup at the rear bumper, throwing it onto a soft shoulder. The pickup overturned but was not damaged. Barry spent the night in a local hospital but was released Tuesday. Damage to the pickup was estimated at $400.

Mrs. Ford Named School Collector

Mrs. Henry Ford Jr. was elected tax assessor-collector for the Lockney Independent School District at a meeting of the board of trustees of the district Monday evening of this week. Her husband was recently elected to a place on the school faculty. The couple have been working in Plainview.

Other actions taken by the board at the special meeting included the employing of C. A. Whitfield of Lubbock, a tax expert, to appraise the property in the Lone Star district. This district recently voted to consolidate with the Lockney district.

The board ordered the board of equalization to postpone its meeting until some time in August in order to allow the completion of the appraisal of the Lone Star property.

The board also voted to request the citizens committee, recently appointed to aid in working out a solution to the Negro school problem here, to make a report to them at the next board meeting which is next Monday night.

The board gave permission to the Lockney Rotary Club to use some of the lights from the local football field on the baseball field this summer provided a contract was signed agreeing to return the lights to the field by September 1st.

VOLUME 55

LOCKNEY, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1956

NUMBER 8

Next Monday Is DOLLAR DAY In Lockney!

Next Monday June 4th, has been designated as Dollar Day in Lockney and many Lockney merchants are offering special prices and bargains in many items to the people of the area.

Putting feet to their thought that "we can do anything any other town can do," the merchants are determined to offer buyers of the area just as good merchandise at just as good a price as they can get elsewhere. The affair is expected to be held each first Monday in the month.

Some 15 stores are offering bargains on this first Monday in this issue of The Beacon, ranging from dry goods stores to service stations and including jewelry, drug stores, variety stores and hardware stores.

The bargain day was planned at a meeting of the business people last week at the Plains theatre here. Claude Brown, chairman of the retail traders committee, originated the idea and sold it to the other business people.

Seeking to compete with other towns in the area which have dollar days each month, the local merchants have tried hard to provide real bargains for this one day. The items range from men's suits to baby food with items between providing for almost anything a man might need to live on.

Merchants are inviting people of the town and area to "come in and shop with us first. We'll try to treat you right."

Delegation Named By Cotton Growers

A five-man delegation to represent the South Plains at the July 17 meeting of the Agricultural Stabilization Commission at College Station was named Tuesday by the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

At the meeting held at the Lubbock Hotel, the cotton growers group voted to instruct the delegation to request the ASC to withhold only 2 per cent of the state cotton allotments for 1957. The commission reserved 10 per cent of the 1956 allotments.

W. O. Fortenberry of Lubbock, president of the Plains Cotton Growers Inc., will head the five-man group. Members include Paul Lewis of Littlefield, W. H. Rose of Dickens, Ben Dopson of Lamesa and Al Harzog of Bovina.

Alternates are Dal Muldrow of Brownfield, Marvin Shurbet of Petersburg, Bill Smith of Ralls, Gene Benham of Morton and Willis Hawkins of Dimmitt.

Rainfall Helps Cotton In Area

A rain that fell just at the right time for cotton farmers, has brightened crop prospects and relieved a very dry situation in Floyd County. The rainfall here measured 2.10 inches in two showers, according to gauge kept at Hammond & Co. Last Saturday night 1.30 fell and on Monday night another .80 of an inch fell here. Reports from surrounding areas reported rains as much as four inches and as little as .80 of an inch.

Cotton that was up and had been worked out "grew two inches" almost over night, some farmers reported. The cotton in the area is in fine shape now and prospects are the best ever seen at this time of year, many farmers say. Some spraying has been in progress to control insects.

The rains served to put the wheat harvest off a few days. Some dry land wheat is ready to cut and is just awaiting dry grounds before the combines start to roll.

Tornadoes Seen

The rain clouds were not without their troublesome moments, however. Tornadoes which insisted on skipping around in this area bothered a good many people. No injuries or property damage was reported in this community.

Late Monday night local officers and some citizens spotted a tornado funnel northwest of town several miles. It was traveling northeastward and was in the sky when seen here. The Plainview radio station warned of the cloud and alerted people in the area.

The tornado struck the ground just once, that point being east of Kress where it ripped out phone lines, stopping communications, but did no further damage.

No hail of any consequence was reported in this immediate area although some did fall. However Jake Jones, who farms some 15 miles north of Lockney and east of Kress was reported to have suffered considerable damage to his crops. Some blowing winds accompanied the rains.

Rainfall reports from over the area included these: At Aiken, Tom Weeks reported 1.60 Saturday night and .40 Monday night for a total of exactly 2 inches.

At Sterley B. A. Howell reported 1.8 inches.

At Pleasant Valley W. E. McClure reported 1.5 Saturday night and 2 Monday night for a total 1.50.

Out near Barwise Bert Elam reported 2 inches all together with 1.60 falling Saturday night and .40 falling Monday night.

At Irick Jaek Dollar reported 2 1/2 inches all together. W. A. Gilbreath, who lives east of Lockney, 20 of an inch Saturday night and 1.2 on Monday.

East of Cedar it was reported .80 of an inch fell.

Most dry land farmers received enough moisture to plant their crops, a situation they have been waiting for. In the Cedar area some farmers failed to receive enough moisture but in most other areas they did.

Pony League To Include 15 Year Old Boys Too

Commissioner Eddie Holcombe said this week that the Pony League, sponsored by the Lockney Rotary Club, will be spread to include 15-year old boys. Those boys who will not be 16 by August 1st may register at Brown's Department Store this weekend and they will be included in the roster.

The league received permission and will remove some of the lights from the high school football field to the baseball field to provide enough lights for the game which will be played on Tuesday and Saturday nights, it was said.

The league has been divided into four teams and they are now working out. No schedule of play was available here Wednesday.

RETIREES — After 42 years as an automobile dealer here, Arthur P. Barker Sr. has retired.

A. P. Barker Jr. Is Chevy Dealer

The local Chevrolet dealership was recently transferred from Arthur P. Barker Sr. to Arthur P. Barker Jr. It was announced this week by members of the firm, The Lockney Auto Co., under which name the Chevrolet dealership operates here, has been a partnership since 1947 composed of Arthur P. Barker Sr., Arthur P. Barker Jr., and Barry Barker. Arthur Sr. ceases to be an active partner under the new arrangement and the two boys have full control of the business under the experienced guidance of J. E. Cox, who has been a member of the firm for the past 30 years.

The Lockney Auto Co. was established here in 1914 as a Ford dealership with Arthur Barker Sr. as dealer. This dealership operated until January, 1930, when the Ford franchise was dropped and Mr. Barker was appointed Chevrolet dealer. He has served in that capacity for 26 years.

Mr. Barker Sr., in retiring said, "I feel that it is time for me to step aside and let another generation take over. The people in this area are the finest. They have overlooked my shortcomings and supported me for 42 years. I am very appreciative of this and hope that you will continue to give my sons this same loyal patronage."

H. A. C. Brummett Asks For Support

It is with a sincere belief that the people of this Judicial District do not believe that the District Attorney's office should be considered the personal property of any one man that I announce as a candidate for District Attorney. The present District Attorney has been elected to the office for five successive terms and is now seeking a sixth term, which will assure him of fourteen years in this office. Upon completion of his present term, he will have received approximately $60,000.00 in salary and expense allowance; if elected to a sixth term, he will assure himself of another $30,000.00 in salary and expense allowance.

If you good people feel that after ten long years in this job, the present incumbent is entitled to a rest, then I would like to work for you. If it is a good thing, it should be passed around; if it is not, then he should be relieved of the burden.

As a lawyer with many years of experience in the trial of civil and criminal cases, I have always been zealous in representing the interest of my client in keeping with the highest code of ethics in my profession. I elected District Attorney, the people of this District will be my clients, and I will be equally zealous in representing their interests. I have always considered it unfair for a District Attorney to take advantage of his office to practice civil law and represent vested interests such as the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and insurance companies. Too often these large corporations are buying the prestige of the District Attorney's Office rather than employing a lawyer.

It is unfair to the other lawyers in the District who must earn their living from their private practice without being subsidized by a salary such as the District Attorney draws, and it is unfair to the people, because many times the duties of

Combines have started harvesting the best wheat crop in Floyd County since 1953. Recent rains have delayed harvest a few days but as soon as the grounds dry sufficiently it is expected that the grain will begin to move to elevators in quantity.

Several elevators have received wheat with the first load for the year going to Producers Elevator in Floydada Wednesday of last week. The load came from the William Bertland farm near Lakeview and the moisture content was high.

Muncy Elevator, between Lockney and Floydada, received a load last Thursday from Ed Muncy on his place about three miles northwest of Floydada. The grain showed moisture content at 14% and tested 69 pounds. J. V. Greer, who farms a mile east of Muncy delivered a load to the Muncy elevator Saturday with moisture content at 13% and test weight 62 pounds.

The first load of wheat to hit a local elevator came in to Patterson Grain Co. here Tuesday night. It came from the Alvin Nichols farm in the Cedar community. Moisture was 15% and weight was 60. The Sterley elevator of Patterson's received a load of wheat Wednesday morning. It came from Jim Colston who lives in that community. Moisture was 14% and the grain tested 60 pounds. The field was averaging about 12 bushels, it was reported.

Eddie Joe Fortenberry brought in a load of wheat Wednesday afternoon to Baxter & Smith Grain Co. here. It was from the Meriwether place at Cedar Hill. The grain tested 12.90 percent moisture, weighed 62 pounds and this particular patch was making 14 bushels, Eddie Joe said. He hopes to average from 9 to 10 bushels over the entire place.

Reports from other areas show that the yield on the 1956 crop is running some better than was expected which leads local elevator men to hope the same may be true here. Present estimates say that most all the remaining dry land wheat will do to cut with the average yield running 6, 7 or maybe 8 bushels per acre. Some wheat acreage has been abandoned due to drought and insect plagues and plowed up.

The irrigated wheat, though much less acreage than dry land, will produce some good yields with estimates saying it may average from 30 to 40 bushels. No irrigated wheat has been cut as yet.

Farm Bureau Talks Weed Control Dist.

The Floyd County Farm Bureau is talking weed control district and some definite action upon the formation of such is expected soon.

At a meeting last Friday evening at the Commercial Hotel in Floydada, Oliver Grote, field man for the county organization, spoke to a group interested in the district. The Farm Bureau in this county is asking 500 farmers to come in and sign a petition calling for an election on the weed control district. The petitions are in the office at Floydada. Too, the farmers will be asked to leave a contribution of $2.50 or more to help pay the cost of the election. If the election is not called the money will be refunded.

Attending the meeting at Floydada were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Walker, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brandes, Robt. Lee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Grote, Sam Puckett, R. G. Dunlap, W. R. Puckett.

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made. In Him was light and the light was the light of men.—John 1:3-4.

REPEATEDLY The Beacon man hears farmers say, "I have the best cotton crop I have ever had at this time of year." The rains over the weekend will make the crop just that much better. If we can just keep Old Man Hail away and those pesky insects under control, that fine per acre yield we had two years ago may be topped in Floyd County.

HOUSING FOR LABORERS to be used in the harvesting of vegetables in the area is worrying Chamber of Commerce officials. Vegetable men say that in many vegetable crops, cucumbers and tomatoes for example, about two persons per acre are required for proper harvesting. The number of acres of vegetables in an unknown factor but supposing there are

2,000 acres all together. That means a possibility of the need of 4,000 harvest hands. Of course farmers of the area have their labor housing but, just guessing, we'd say that we've never had more than 2,000 harvest hands here during cotton season. Of course, the problem may turn out to be no problem at all when the time comes. The amount of the vegetables produced, the market, and other factors will determine the amount of labor needed. But the Chamber is trying to see ahead and be ready if the need comes.

VACATION BIBLE Schools are the order of the day at this time. Most all churches are holding them and they prove to be one of the few schools that are really attractive to children. To quote an old phrase it is a school where "the teacher does all the studying." Bible study coupled with hand work, plus recreation periods and refreshments, seems to be a combination that the youngsters like. Those of us who have children within the age group taught should round them up and get them into one of these schools. It will do them good.

MOST OF US feel slightly uneasy at the sight of a State Highway Patrolman. It is so very easy to break that 60-mile-per-hour speed limit that we probably feel we may have broken it unintentionally if not intentionally. But more Patrolmen are needed, so the state says, and applicants for the job are being sought. The last legislature authorized a 200-man increase in the patrol. Examinations for applicants will be held in June with those passing the exam going into a training period before assuming their duties. The applicants must be between 21 and 35 years of age, must have lived in Texas one year, have a high school education or equivalent and be in perfect physical condition. Application forms may be had at any district office.

EVERY HUMAN being is intended to have a character of his own, to be what no other is, and to do what no other can do.—William Ellery Channing.

DO NOT condemn the judgment of another because it differs from your own. You may both be wrong.—Dandemis.

I DO NOT believe you can do today's job with yesterday's methods and be in business tomorrow.—Nelson Jackson.

NO MAN has ever come to true greatness who has not felt in some degree that his life belonged to his race, and that what God gives him, he gives him for mankind.—Phillips Brooks.

SPEAKING OF 'BIG BUSINESS'

With Our EXCHANGES

THESE DONATIONS . . . Donations for something or the other are always being collected it seems and the favorite topic of condemnation among many local people is the frequent passing of the proverbial hat. Sometimes local businessmen are tapped as much as fifty dollars a month. Although they wince when the time comes to shell out, they will usually admit it is money well spent . . . and most time it is. Take the Legion Hall construction for instance. To give until it hurts to this project is worthwhile because all of us will be given the chance to use local firms. The same holds true for other similar types of signature advertising on calendars and other things posted in public places and sold by cut of town salesmen. This is all right, and is the local merchant's own private business, but shouldn't be posted to donations. Neither should any money going out of Dimmitt through donations be held against local projects. Donations are the only way many of our local organizations can raise money. Most of us belong to one of these and the shoe may be on the other foot sometime. Think long and hard before turning "one of these groups down. Times are a little harder now than they used to be, but we still like to improve and make a better way of life. — Castro County News

A PRECIOUS COMMODITY

Someone said recently that youth is such a precious commodity that it shouldn't be wasted on children. The one who made this statement was not angry at children, nor does he begrudge them the benefits of youthfulness. Rather he felt that young people are incapable of properly appreciating the values of few years. He felt that not until one begins to succumb to the rigors of age can he properly appreciate a body free from arthritis and rheumatism, failing eye sight and hearing, temperamental stomachs and gall bladders, failing strength and slower gait. — Thoughts for Thursday in Tulla Herald.

BE FOR SOMETHING

I have advised my young friends who first asked for advice: Be FOR something and not AGAINST something. You'll get a lot more enjoyment out of living, you'll get more feeling of accomplishment if you'll just follow this little formula. Be for God and religion, better schools, a cleaner town and community morally and physically. This automatically and without the scintilla of a doubt, puts you against the opposite side. What a sermon, but you won't be charged anything extra for it when you next pay your subscription dues. It's gratis, de nada, for free—Scoop in Muleshoe Journal.

Rotary Panel Talks Negro School Problem

A panel composed of Supt. H. H. Nicholas, Oscar Golden, president of the Lockney school board and Waverly Washington, principal of the local colored school, discussed the present negro school problem before the Lockney Rotary Club last Friday night. The discussions were interesting, informative and to the point and the program was well received by those present.

Mr. Nicholas started the program by reviewing the problem of housing the local colored students, told why the board first considered using the city auditorium and pointed out that the needed repairs to the colored school would be costly. He said that some had suggested integration of the high school students only and others have favored integration of the entire school.

Mr. Washington, the colored school principal, told the group that he had 50 boys and girls enrolled in the school with two teachers to teach the 11 grades. He said that these students wanted an opportunity to get an education and that it was up to the people of this district, both white and colored to see that they have that opportunity. He pointed out the inadequacies of the present building, saying it is in poor shape, the grounds were very muddy when it rained and that a stage of some kind is needed for programs.

He pointed out that an uneducated and ignorant population is dangerous while education would afford the student an opportunity to be a useful and worthwhile citizen.

He said that, after talking with some of his people, he felt that they would rather have their own school separate if proper facilities could be provided. He expressed the opinion that the colored people were not ready for integration. However, he said that if the school district decided on integration he would not try to stay on the faculty nor stand in the way.

"I want to teach these boys and girls because they want to learn, but we simply do not have the tools to work with and two teachers cannot possibly do good work in teaching 11 grades," he said.

Mr. Golden presided at a question and answer period following the panel. Rev. H. B. Coggins, local Methodist pastor, in discussing the problem, said "I am ashamed and embarrassed that this problem hasn't been considered before. This community ought to take up public contributions to make the necessary improvements at the colored school if that is necessary." Other discussions were in a similar vein.

We're embarrassed. We'd like to tell you how smart we think we are about insurance. But it might sound like bragging.

But we can say this: We provide insurance for lots of people for various purposes. We keep up on all the new kinds of policies. We're right in the middle of insurance all the time.

So, we think we can qualify as insurance experts. And insurance is a complex subject, these days.

We can make it simple for you, if you'll come in to discuss the protections that you may need — and ask us what they'll cost.

H. A. C. Brummett—

(Continued from page 1) the office are neglected in order to serve private clients. You can not serve two masters, and for that reason I HERE AND NOW PLEDGE TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS DISTRICT THAT IF ELECTED DISTRICT ATTORNEY I WILL NOT ENGAGE IN THE PRIVATE PRACTICE OF THE LAW. I will devote all of my time to the duties of the District Attorney's office and be available at all times to talk with the counsel and peace officers and other citizens who are interested in fair and impartial law enforcement.

In order that you might know something of my background, I would like to make a few brief statements of a personal nature. I have lived in Dickens County for 41 years and practiced law for 27 years, having served as County Judge of Dickens County for 6 years. As a trial lawyer, I have actively participated in the trial of many cases all over West Texas, and I invite a comparison of my trial experience and ability. My first wife passed away in 1951. We had four fine children, three boys and one daughter. My oldest son, Carlos, is in business in Lubbock, Texas, is married and has two children. His wife teaches in Lubbock Schools. My second son, Winston, is a lawyer in Lubbock, Texas. He was formerly County Attorney of Dickens County, Texas, and is now a partner in the law firm of Brummett & Kimmel. He is also married and has four children. My youngest son, Dudley, is also a lawyer. He was County Attorney of Lubbock County, Texas for two terms and is now serving his first term as County Judge of Lubbock County. He is married and has two children. My daughter is now Mrs. Ross Q. Smith and lives in Dallas, Texas. She is married and has four children. Although my children came up through the depression, I am proud of the fact that their mother and I gave each of them a college education, and I am proud of the success they have made.

Two of my four sons were in World War II, and Dudley was a bomber pilot. His plane was shot down while on a bombing mission over Germany, and he was a prisoner of war until liberated. I have always tried to be of help in all community matters wherever I lived. For years I served as a member of the Dickens County draft board under appointment of President Roosevelt and President Truman. For six years during the depression I served as United States Counsellor, Commissioner for Dickens, Kent, King and Garza Counties and helped distressed farmers who were threatened with foreclosures. I am a member of the Methodist Church.

In 1953 I married Mrs. Harriette Hatcher, a fine lady, who is now County Sheriff's Posse. Best dressed junior cowgirl was Carolyn Bell of Lockney while the best dressed junior cowboy was Connie Bradford of Floydada.

The best dressed senior cowgirl was Mrs. G. C. Applewhite of Lone Star and the best dressed senior cowboy was Claude Price of Floydada.

Sandra Carver won the prize for the best decorated bicycle and Radio Electric Co. won first prize for the best display of antiques. Danny Shipley had the best wild flower arrangement.

Winners of the beard growing contest were E. H. Neff with the longest beard, Albert Duncan with the fullest beard, J. B. Colston with the best looking beard, and Harold Wayne Bennett for the best effort.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

Guar, a relatively new soil improving crop, may be the best summer legume for dry land in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District.

Guar should be planted about the same time as cotton. It grows best on sandy loams and the lighter soils but is adapted to wide range of soils.

Plant on moist soil 1 1/2 to 2 inches deep. Plant only 5 to 6 pounds of guar seed per acre. Plant in regular rows, do not broadcast. Always be sure to inoculate seed before planting. Guar is a row crop and should be cultivated to control weeds.

Benefits from guar are as follows: put nitrogen into soil, increases water intake and water holding capacity, increases yields of following crop, reduces the effect of root rot and insect damage on cotton, requires no special equipment, requires no hand labor and seed may be harvested for a cash crop.

Geo. Frizzell, R. G. Dunlap, Shirley Irwin, and Paul Haley are a few cooperators with the Floyd County SCD who tried guar last year.

Records Needed To Get Federal Refund On Gasoline

College Station. — Good records will make the job of preparing a claim for a refund on gasoline used on the farm easier, and the farm tractor a more efficient production tool, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer. Farmers are now eligible to ask for a refund covering the 2-cent per gallon Federal excise tax.

To get a refund, a farmer must file after June 30 and before October 1, a claim with the District Director of Internal Revenue covering the gasoline used during the first six months of the year. After 1956 refunds will be made for a one-year period from July 1 to June 30.

Refunds, explains Ulich, will be made only on gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes. They will not include gasoline used in cars or trucks used on the highways even though on farm business. The recently enacted law also applies to diesel and other motor fuels.

The claims must be filed on Form 2240 which will be available after June 1 from county agents, banks, post offices and Internal Revenue offices.

Ulich reports that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has said that regulations relating to the new law will be issued as soon as possible. In the meantime, he advises farmers to keep a good set of records on all gasoline or other fuels, included under the legislation and used on the farm. When claim filing time rolls around, these records can mean money. If they are studied, they may be the source of information that can save additional money from gasoline or fuel not fully utilized by the tractor and in maintenance costs, says Ulich.

GEO. W. PFEIFFENBERGER

Plains Cotton Growers To Have Full-Time Man

Lubbock. — Plains Cotton Growers will soon have a full-time executive vice president.

George W. Pfeiffenberger, widely known in West Texas and over the nation for leadership in advancing the interests of cotton, will assume top-level staff responsibility for the new organization's program about July 1.

Official announcement of the appointment came from Plains Growers' President W. O. Fortenberry of Lubbock, a leading producer of this area where one-tenth of the total American cotton crop is grown.

An executive vice president of the Plains Growers, Pfeiffenberger will manage an organization dedicated to the promotion and protection of cotton producer interests in West Texas. "Charter members" of the group — which not only includes producers but other individuals and businesses having a stake in West Texas cotton — are now drawn from a 23-county area surrounding Lubbock. Additional counties may be brought in later.

Pfeiffenberger will be concerned with activities aimed at solving cotton production problems in this area, at improving and stabilizing fiber and seed quality, at improved mechanizing and promotion of short-staple consumption, and at analysis of government policies affecting Plains cotton.

A broad outline of how the organization's program is expected to take shape will be made public on Friday of next week, when Pfeiffenberger is scheduled to appear on the program of the American Cotton

Congress here.

In developing Plains Growers' activities, Pfeiffenberger will be able to call on a 25-year backlog of experience with cotton and acquaintance with cotton people.

He comes to the Plains Growers from the National Cotton Council of America in Memphis. For the past two years he has led the Council's research program aimed at developing an improved bale package. Another major project was improvement of methods and standards for laboratory fiber testing and wider application of such tests in large-scale merchandising and manufacturing of cotton. In addition, Pfeiffenberger worked on Council projects to develop automatic controls for gins, and to study the possibility of using mechanical pickers and modern gins for extra long staple cotton.

Prior to joining the Council staff, Pfeiffenberger was Research Director and Technical Mill Consultant for Otto Goedecke Company, Balleteville, Texas. The Goedecke Company is noted for its successful pioneering work in using precise laboratory measurements of fiber properties as a basis for large-scale cotton merchandising — and for its specialized services to cotton manufacturers on their raw material problems.

From 1944 to 1952, Pfeiffenberger was in Lubbock as Spinning Research Director for the Chicago Manufacturing Corporation. Under his direction, the fiber laboratory and pilot plant at Texas Tech analyzed the use value of all types of cotton, measuring varieties in quality caused by area and season of growth, by differences in ginning practices, and by producing cotton under irrigation or under rain-grown conditions. Tests also were run to determine how various qualities of cotton could be scientifically blended to achieve desirable qualities in cotton yarns and fabrics. Information of this kind formed the basis for advising Chicago's management on how to improve cotton buying practices and mill operations.

Before joining Chicago, Pfeiffenberger had been with the U. S. Department of Agriculture for many years, starting in 1930 as a technician performing routine fiber tests. Later he helped organize a section on fiber quality investigations at the U. S. Ginning Laboratory, Stoneville, Mississippi. Then he moved on to College Station Texas, where he helped organize a spinning laboratory for USDA. While there, he worked closely with the research and extension staffs of Texas A. & M. College.

A native of Ohio, Pfeiffenberger is a member of The Fiber Society, the American Society for Quality Control, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Society for Testing Materials, and the Texas Academy of Science.

He studied chemical and textile engineering at the University of Dayton and at Texas A. & M. College.

He and Mrs. Pfeiffenberger, along with 16-year-old son and 19-year-old daughter Ann, will make their home in Lubbock.

The American Red Cross last year issued over 1,000,000 certificates to persons who successfully completed its water safety courses, and nearly 700,000 certificates to those who completed the Red Cross First Aid training course.

Koppen-Parrish Vow Exchanged May 19 In Joliet, Illinois

Miss Carolyn Beth Koppen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Koppen of Joliet, Illinois, became the bride of Wilkie E. Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parrish, Lockney, Saturday, May 19 at 4 o'clock. Double ring vows were exchanged in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Joliet with Rev. J. A. Maska officiating.

Tall baskets of pink and white gladioli and greenery in front of cathedral candelabra formed the altar setting. The pews were marked with pink and white flowers.

Van Thompson organist played a prelude of nuptial music, the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Robert Roberts, close friend of the bride, as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a three length gown of white satin fashioned with an empire waistline. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a turt of pearls and rhinestones. She wore pearl earrings and carried a tapered bouquet of white stock flowers with white peonies and centered with a white arch.

Mrs. George Jeffrey attended the bride as matron of honor and Don Hostick of Lubbock served the groom as best man. Don and Tom Koppen, brothers of the bride were ushers.

White feverfew and white stock mingled with pink asters decorated the serving table at a reception which followed the ceremony in the church annex. After a wedding trip to St. Louis, the couple will be at home in Joliet at 1508 E. Washington Street. They are both employed with the Great American Insurance Company in Chicago.

Gospel of Christ

MAIN STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST
THOS. McDONALD Preacher

PUBLIC CONFESSION

A member of the church who has done wrong in nature so public that others know about it, such as drunkenness, revellings, filthy language, is never humble enough to be forgiven until he is humble enough publicly to take away the reproach brought upon the church. When such men or women are ashamed to go before the whole church to make confession with their own mouths, or through someone else when they are present to give their personal sanction to it, their repentance is not sincere enough to obtain forgiveness. There is never much hope of permanent reformation until such humility and repentance are present.

Some have the false pride of thinking it is degrading to go before the congregation and publicly acknowledge a public sin. The sin is already public - the church knows about it. The stain of it is felt by all, and all are entitled to hear the confession of the wrong, and all enjoy the benefits resulting from such effect upon all parties concerned. It shows the humility of the sinner. It asks the forgiveness of offended brethren, and together both offender and offended pray and petition our heavenly Father to forgive.

Be it understood that sins of a private nature are an entirely different matter, but the sin of being absent from worship of the church cannot, under any circumstances, be classed as a private sin. Let a man or woman confess the whole truth. Then he or she is in a condition to be forgiven, both in the courts of heaven, and by our brethren. Christians are commanded to confess their faults, that they might be healed, and they should honestly, truthfully, and faithfully do so.—Selected.

Three Shots Of Polio Vaccine Advised By Dept.

Austin. — Many inquiries are received each day by the Texas State Department of Health regarding Salk polio vaccine. One injection is of some value but should be followed in four weeks with the second shot and the third seven months to a year later.

Dr. Henry A. Hollie, Commissioner of Health, says the second shot is important and definitely increase the immunity. Even though the second cannot be given for several months, the delay does not lessen the value of the first. Maximum immunity does not develop until after the third shot.

It is advisable to immunize children who have had poliomyelitis because an attack confers immunity only against the one virus type involved and gives no protection against the other two types.

The Salk vaccine is of no value in treating the disease. It should not be used for prophylaxis in family contacts of diagnosed cases, the reason for this being that the remaining members of the family usually are infected with the virus by the time the original case develops symptoms of the disease. The vaccine should not be given to individuals during a major illness or to those with symptoms that may represent latent or stomach upset.

Dr. Hollie says that immunizations should be given before the peak of the season if possible but can be given throughout the summer. Second injections can be given even when the incidence is rising with very little risk. The risk, if any, is less than the risk of acquiring the disease in unvaccinated children.

The Commissioner of Health reports that only about one-third of those eligible to receive the vaccine have received one or more injections. He urges all those below the age of twenty and pregnant women who have not had at least the first immunization "shot" to do so at once.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many expressions of kindness shown us during the illness and at the passing of our mother. We especially thank Dr. Guthrie and the nurses at People's Hospital, Floydada. The children of Mrs. J. A. Smalley.

Milk Cows Need A Vacation

In a study made of 3,599 dairy cows at Michigan State University, records prove that cows produce more if they have at least six to eight weeks of rest between lactation periods.

"Results of the study show that cows dry two weeks or less, produce 9,511 pounds of milk and 347 pounds of butterfat," says Burleson. "Cows dry two weeks to a month produce 10,838 pounds of milk and 390 pounds of butterfat, while those dry four to six weeks produce 11,218 pounds of milk and 404 pounds of butterfat."

Burleson recommends that cows have six to eight weeks of rest between lactations. Cows in this category of the study produced 11,507 pounds of milk and 413 pounds of butterfat.

Though the study was run on Holsteins, production figures for other breeds would be the same in proportion.

Average production for cows given eight to ten weeks vacation was slightly higher, but the difference wasn't great enough to pay for the extra feed involved.

"If the dairyman is neglecting to supply adequate vacations for his cows, he is losing money," says Burleson.

Floydada Hospital Gets Ford Grant

A Ford Foundation grant of $10,000 to the Peoples Hospital at Floydada was announced last week by Frank C. Harmon, president of the board of directors of the hospital. One-half of the amount, $5,000 was enclosed in a letter of approval from Joseph M. McDaniel Jr., the Ford Foundation secretary, and the balance of the grant will be paid in March, 1957.

Under terms of the grant, final decision as to the use of the money is left to the governing board of the hospital.

Immediate steps have been taken to make use of the funds received, stated Mrs. Vera McKay, manager of the Peoples Hospital.

Modernizing patients' bedroom facilities, special beds for patients and fractures, and added equipment in the technician's department, are among the projects on which work will be started soon. Also in the plans are added sterilizing equipment, refrigeration and laboratory facilities.

Farm Bureau To Discuss Cotton At Lubbock Meet

Waco — Critical problems which threaten the future of the cotton farmer will be discussed next week at a series of meetings sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau.

One-day meetings will be held May 28 at White Plaza Hotel in Corpus Christi, May 29 at the Baker Hotel in Dallas and May 30 at the Lubbock Hotel in Lubbock. All interested persons are urged to attend one of these meetings.

Current issues to be discussed include seven cotton acreage reductions, the controversial 10 per cent state cotton acreage reserve, loss of domestic markets to synthetics and loss of world markets to foreign producers.

Jack Lynn, Washington, D. C., American Farm Bureau Federation legislative director, will explain Farm Bureau's seven-point program for prosperity for the cotton farmer. Dr. M. K. Horne, Memphis, Tenn., chief economist for the National Cotton Council, will discuss cotton's competitive price situation. He and other Council economists recently completed an exhaustive study of cotton and synthetic prices, both here and abroad.

Hoyt Gaston, Waxahachie, Texas Farm Bureau director, will tell why the Texas Farm Bureau favors a reduction in the states cotton acreage reserve from 10 to 2 per cent of the state's allotment. The state farm organization has made a thorough investigation of the "inequities" of the present reserve program.

All meetings will begin at 10 a. m. except the one in Lubbock which will open at 9:30 a. m.

Alton Chapman Is Rotary Instructor

Floydada — Judge Alton B. Chapman, chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee of Rotary International, left Floydada early last week for Lake Placid, New York, where he will be an instructor at Rotary International district governors for rotary year 1956-57.

Judge Chapman will be at Lake Placid until May 31 then will go to the International Rotary convention in Philadelphia from June 1 till June 6.

At the request of A. Z. Baker, president of Rotary International, Judge Chapman will act as parliamentarian for the council on legislation at the international convention.

Judge Chapman plans to be back in Floydada by the 8th of June.

L. 255, Guide for Controlling Insects on Vegetable Crops in Texas-1956 is now available at the offices of local county agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

The stepped-up tempo of farming activities over the state will mean more farm accidents unless farm families make it their business to prevent them, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council.

LAMAR FLEMING JR.

"Just what is the world cotton situation today?" Participants in the 17th annual American Cotton Congress in Lubbock on May 31, June 1-2 will find out from the man who probably knows more about cotton than anyone else.

Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro, Texas, general chairman of the Congress, will deliver the keynote address. Chancellor M. T. Harrington of Texas A & M College is chairman of the program committee.

The principal addresses and panel discussions will deal with problems facing the cotton industry. Special sessions will be devoted to cotton production methods, particularly as they apply to the South Plains of Texas.

A field trip, farm machinery exhibits and an open house at the textile engineering laboratory have been arranged in cooperation with Texas Technological College.

Anyone interested in the cotton industry is invited to attend the conference sessions, which will be held at the Caprock and Lubbock hotels, and on the Texas Tech Campus.

IRONING JOY

A home economics expert on laundering explains that a rapid change of temperature helps to set or "freeze" wrinkles and creases in fabrics. That's why it's best not to subject clothes to cool rinses after washing in warm or hot soap or detergent suds.

Coccidiosis is one of the most destructive diseases of poultry and is a continuous threat to every poultry flock, says Ben Wormeli, extension poultry husbandman. Sanitation is a preventative and medication should be used in case of an outbreak.
