Beautiful Weather Follows Week End Showers In Area

Floyd County and the South Plains area was favored with beautiful Spring weather the first three days of this week following showers Saturday and Sunday. Total precipitation for this area averaged an inch and a quarter although rain was reported as high as an inch and a half along the Floyd-Briscoe county line north of Lockney. Floydada had a bout the same amount.

The rain fell slowly and although not heavy made rural roads very muddy and almost impassable in some places. The week end moisture added to previous wet weather made the ground very wet.

Farmers say that if the present ideal weather continues they may get into the fields by the middle of next week. Cotton planters will start humming about that time in many fields where the land is ready for planting.

The rain was very beneficial to wheat and barley over the area and farmers with big wheat acreage are happy over the moisture situation. Some were starting to think about irrigation when the rains fell.

The crop experts say that this area has very good prospects for one of the largest per acre yields in small grains in many years. There is little or no insect infestation here and the only trouble encountered thus far has been high winds which brought some damage to wheat by blowing dirt.

Onions Set
The rains stopped the setting of onions in this area but an estimated 1400 acres have been set out in Floyd County, probably half of that in the Lockney community. The Beacon was told. Onion setting was already behind schedule due to the spring rains. The job is almost done but some additional acreage will still be planted, it was said. Sowing of carrot seed is expected to start soon in this community.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Broadhurst went to Gruver Monday to visit Mrs. Broadhurst's father who is recuperating from a heart attack. They returned Tuesday.

Vegetable Meeting Set April 18th

A meeting of farmers interested in growing lettuce and carrots will be held Friday evening of this week, April 18th. It was announced this week by Elmer Thornton, Howard Beasley of Hereford, representative of the Salt River Valley Produce Co., Phoenix, Ariz., will be present and discuss the matter with local farmers. Mr. Thornton said. Beasley spent one day here this week. His firm is interested in supervising growing and marketing, he said.

The meeting will be held at Golden's Cafe starting at 7:30 p. m.

Fair Association Secures Carnival

The officers and directors of the Floyd County Fair Association, in a meeting last Thursday evening at Golden's Cafe here, agreed to a contract with the Amarillo Amusement Co. for rides to appear at the fair next fall, and made other plans concerning the annual fair.

The Amarillo firm will furnish only rides for the fair and other concessions will be sold to local organizations, the directors decided. Charge will be $15 for each concession and the concession committee composed of R. L. Knox Jr. and Mrs. Burl Holt, Lockney, Mrs. Alma Holmes and Sam Puckett, Floydada.

Schools of the county have been contacted regarding the furnishing of educational displays for the fair and have responded favorably, it was said. Also request has been made for the cotton wardrobe to be modeled at the fair.

The directors have made arrangements to rent the same thing they used last year for the singing, it was reported.

Some changes were made in the prize list in the agriculture department. Prizes were raised to $150, $100 and 50 cents for the first three places in each class.

Attending the meeting were President Raymond Rucker, Willis Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, R. L. Knox Jr., Sam Puckett, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mitchell, Chester Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tinsley, Shirley Irwin, Mrs. Alma Holmes, Mrs. Burl Holt, County Agent Cecil Lewis and Assistant Agent Harold Ellison.

Two Charged With Theatre Break-In

Two Latin Americans, members of an onion setting crew near Lockney, were charged with burglary following a break-in at the Seale Drive-In Theatre last Sunday night. The two made statements admitting the break-in, members of the Sheriff's Department said.

In jail at Floydada are Frank Rivera and Antonio Dominguez Sandoval. Officers were able to track the two from the theatre across a muddy field to the farm house where they were staying. They broke into the concession building, making off with cigarettes, candy and a little more than $100 in change, officers said.

Clarence Larkins was tried in 110th District Court at Floydada Tuesday on a forgery charge and the jury found him guilty, assessing his punishment at three years in the penitentiary. Larkins then pleaded guilty to a second count and was assessed another three-year term to run concurrently with the first.

The selection was made by a committee of high school faculty and announced this week.

Boys State is a program of education open to juniors in senior high school. It is in operation, a government unit in which each boy participates in the practical functioning of local, county and state government.

Boys State citizens will be housed on the campus of the University of Texas.

Approximately 370,000 outstanding boy leaders since 1935 have experienced the rare privilege of learning government by participating in government through Boys State. This is the first year the local organization has sponsored a boy to the event but "We feel this will be money well spent," was the comment made by Jimmy Hodel, local Post Commander.

The American Legion Auxiliary has sponsored a girl to Girls State in Austin for the past few years. Janice Hays was chosen to attend this year's event which takes place June 11-20. Elaine Cooper is the alternate.

500 Expected At Baker Reception
Some 500 persons, local and out-of-town are expected at the reception next Wednesday for Mrs. Alice Baker, The Beacon was told this week. The event honors Mrs. Baker on her 64th anniversary in business in Lockney.

Some 200 out-of-town invitations have been mailed and all local friends are expected to attend without a printed invitation. Mrs. Jimmy Hodel said. Responses have been received from Governor Price Daniel and Congressman George Mahon, both of whom will be unable to attend but will send greetings. Senators Lyndon Johnson and Ralph Yarborough have also been invited as has House Speaker Sam Rayburn.

The reception will be held at the American Legion Home here from 3 to 6 p. m. on Wednesday, April 23. Mrs. Hodel and Mrs. Lena Fae Sweatt are leading in making plans for the affair.

Refreshments will be served and the High School orchestra will play for the occasion.

Methodist Revival To Close Sunday
The revival meeting now in progress at the First Methodist Church will close Sunday night. Attendance and interest has been good all through the week, according to the pastor, Rev. E. Lee Stanford, and it is expected to be even better the latter part of the meeting.

Services are held each evening at 7 p. m. The morning services are held at 7:30 a. m. with breakfast served to various groups. Young people will meet for breakfast this (Thursday) morning, the women of the church on Friday and the men on Saturday morning.

A meeting of all children under 12 years of age is set for Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. McDonald will be in charge.

New Road Bond Tax Rate Set At 12 Cents

The Floyd County Commissioners Court set the tax levy to retire the new $294,000 road bond issue at 12 cents per $100 valuation in regular meeting Monday. This brings the total road bond levy to 35c including the 23c levied on previous road bond issues voted in this county.

The county received their money on the new road bond issue this week, the total running to $299,028.82 which included a $3,000 premium and accumulated interest on the bond issue.

The constitutional levy of 80 cents was divided as follows:
July fund, 5c; road and bridge, 20c; general fund, 35c; permanent improvement fund, 15c; library fund, 5c.

In addition the county levy will include 15 cents for the special road tax fund and 10 cents for the court house bond sinking fund.

Two other tax collecting bodies will also collect money through the county tax assessor-collector's office under contract. The High Plains Water District levies five cents per $100 valuation and the Floyd County Weed Control District levies a tax of three cents per acre.

Canvas Election
The Commissioners Court canvassed the returns on the county school board election of April 3 and found no errors in the unofficial count except in the office of county trustee from Precinct 4 in which F. M. Covington was unopposed. His total vote was reduced by five.

The county school board election of April 3 and found no errors in the unofficial count except in the office of county trustee from Precinct 4 in which F. M. Covington was unopposed. His total vote was reduced by five.

Cancer Drive Over The Top

The American Cancer Society drive in Floyd County has gone over the top and is still going, according to a report from Mrs. Bill Hodel, local chairman, Wednesday. Mrs. Hodel said that she had on deposit in First National Bank here $1,014.44 and on deposit at Floydada Tuesday night was $721.00. The county goal was $1500.

The drive is not complete in either community, Mrs. Hodel said, and several workers are yet to turn in their reports.

In addition to the above Lockney total, the students at C. N. Townsend Grade School have donated $27.16. The students heard the meaning of "C. Day" and immediately offered to sacrifice the money they planned to spend on candy, gum and cold drinks and gave it to the Cancer fund.

The drive is still open and others who wish to donate may leave their money at the First National Bank.

Highlights of the annual affair were the Concert by the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra and the Amarillo High School Bel Canto Chorale Sunday evening, and the Governor's Banquet on Monday evening.

Various conferences on Rotary's four avenues of service filled the two day program. Morris Higley, editor of the Childress Index, is district governor.

FATHERS ARE IMPORTANT

In the present concern of things, in spite of some opinion to the contrary, a study at Harvard University revealed that a father's influence is important in preventing juvenile delinquency. In hundreds of cases over 80% of the delinquents either had no father or one whom they rarely saw. Many modern parents, both fathers and mothers, take their parental responsibilities much too lightly, taking a "get lost" attitude toward their children when the child needs advice, guidance or even help in their problems. The trend toward juvenile delinquency is largely the fault of parental neglect.

THE MALL-ALLEN COMMITTEE

has completed its work in Floyd County and many recommendations have come out of the study. The Beacon will publicize these as soon as they are available. Some of the recommendations no doubt will be surprising to the citizens of the county while others will be expected. Regardless of whether you agree with the recommendations you must remember that these committees have spent some time studying the school problems, mostly from a state level. It is true, but their decisions have not been reached on the spot of the moment. We are suggesting that you agree with all of them. We are suggesting that you be tolerant of the other man's opinion, and consider the fact that he has spent some time looking into the matter.

—C.K.—

IT WILL be interesting to see what the State Committee of 21 does with the multitude of recommendations they receive from the counties. No doubt many of the recommendations will conflict and some will be completely unfeasible but still we believe it is a healthy thing when the citizen gets down and study the problems and the recommendations come from the grass roots.

—C.K.—

WE LIKE the way the Lockney Chamber of Commerce directors are going about their job. They have some plans, they are working at the job like they mean business and we believe they'll accomplish something for the community this year. If the community will give them the proper backing and support we know they will.

Reduce Delinquency

WHAT KIND OF START?

(A distinguished Texas judge offers pointers on combating our rapidly increasing juvenile delinquency problem.)

By JUDGE AARON T. HUGHES

JUDGE AARON T. HUGHES

In a majority of juvenile cases the parents don't get along and many delinquents have no home life. If parents are unstable, unstable children will be the result. It is the respectable people of the city and community who are making it hard on the new police department — on the police department — on the police department. People who would conserve the traffic laws, intentionally in Lubbock and other large places become extremely angry when stopped for such a violation in Crosbyton. Such an attitude can only do what these good people think advising practices are necessary in Lubbock, but that the safety of Crosbyton people just doesn't matter. And in our city, I know these all right, they are in Crosbyton. And you see heavy trucks going through town at 60 miles an hour. Double parking when it is a real nuisance, has just about ended. There are a few incidents relating to our police department. They are not like, of course, but personally we would regret seeing without the department. Regardless of what might be said against it, we think the good law must be that effect the road during the past 12 months the city policemen, Budg. Deane and Jim Crowl, have given the following: 15¢ for speeding, 5¢ for no inspection stickers, 1¢ for faulty mufflers, 1¢ for running stop signs, 2¢ for driving without a license, 1¢ for illegal parking, 2¢ for parking in a bad place, 2¢ for cutting traffic and 2¢ for other violations. —W. ### CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

Epidemic of big prize contests seem to have broke out and the winners of some will be getting everything from flowing oil wells to cabin cruisers.

Now I have always managed to subdue my lust for a cabin cruiser, but another one of these contests has got a first prize which sure appeals to me.

However, for the moment I am holding back my entry as Uncle Sam will have a better chance to enter and win. He needs the prize even worse than I do. It being to get all your debts paid off and a $10,000 stake to start a new clean life with.

With Our EXCHANGES

LAW TROUBLE

And taking about city affairs reminds us of a note we have had on our desk for three or four weeks, pertaining to the work of the City Police Department. This department is still a controversial one, which is quite the Crosbyton is that stage of development in which it is too big for its own protection and too small to enforce the law without making people mad.

Strange as it may seem, it is the respectable people of the city and community who are making it hard on the new police department — on the police department — on the police department. People who would conserve the traffic laws, intentionally in Lubbock and other large places become extremely angry when stopped for such a violation in Crosbyton. #### SALES TAX ON WAY

Mention of the word "Sales Tax" is to many Texans, the equivalent of waving a red flag in front of an enraged bull. The fact is, however, that Texas will probably have a sales tax within the next decade.

Natural resources have carried a heavy burden in state financing in recent years. This is only part and fair but as costs continue to rise taxation on these resources has gradually climbed its way to the point that it might easily become a costly burden. More the same story is true concerning real estate. Today many people do not consider land and property a sound investment due to local and state taxes.

Meanwhile, steadily thousands of citizens enjoy the benefits of city school, county and state government — and cover up the whole cost of taxes, except through the purchase of gasoline which is to sell for a dollar.

To us, a combination of the two methods seems partial, certainly our voters' resources are not evenly taxed, and a general portion of our governmental revenues should be distributed to state the entire burden.

A sales tax is a peak measure. No doubt about it. On the other hand, it has solved the serious problem of other states and without question will become a reality in Texas. Perhaps more sooner than now, if it really is — Herstein Brand.

IT CAN'T BE DONE

The committee on Meteorology of the National Academy of Sciences has recommended establishment of a $50,000,000 National Institute of Atmospheric Research.

It is possible that eventually the institute may work out some way of controlling the weather.

However, as one Texas editor points out, even if means are found for controlling the weather, artificial or natural will assist all affected by it.

Maybe it's just as well if everyone could have the kind of weather he wants, any time he wants it, what would we have left to complain about? — Lubbock Avalanche.

SIX TESTS ON SPENDING

J. Cameron Thomson, of the Committee for Economic Development, suggests six pragmatic tests to apply to every demand for new or increased federal expenditures. Here they are:

1. Does the request fill a real need?
2. Is it a need which only government can supply?
3. Must the need be met by the federal government?
4. Will spending by the federal government meet the need to a degree to make it worthwhile?

Floydada Wins 2-A Meet

Lockney Team Takes Second, Longhorns Dominate Sprints

Floydada's whirlwinds captured the District 2-A track and field title Friday on Texas Tech's track (Lubbock). Floydada edged past their Floyd county rival, Lockney, 43 points to 39 points.

A three-team race between Lockney, Floydada and Abernathy (32½ points) developed for the championship. Slaton was fourth with 18½, followed by Tahoka with 11, Spur with 4 and Post with 4.

The Longhorns placed first in six events, only three firsts or Floydadas, but the whirlwinds gathered an array of second, third and fourth places to outscore the local team.

Lockney, sparked by Jerry Williams and Nelson Wofford, dominated the sprints. Williams and Wofford placed 1-2 in the 100-yard dash and in the 220-yard dash. Wofford, Williams and Dickie Barton claimed the top three places. The Longhorn team—Williams, Wofford, Barton and Cliff Hardy—also won the sprint relay.

Big John Hamst aided the local cause by capturing wins in both the discus and shot put. Bill Race won fourth in the discus.

Bill Musser finished ahead of the pack in the mile run. As has been the case this year in all sports, the local team was hampered by injuries. Larry Hammit, a top point-maker for the Longhorns was side-lined by an ankle injury. Hammit would have entered the 440-yard dash, mile relay, pole vault and discus. Byron Brock, a top man in the shot, has been out of action for some time due to a knee operation.

Floydada's all-around athlete, Bill Patterson was the whirlwind's big gun and also high-point man of the meet with 18 points. Patterson won the low and high hurdles, grabbed second place in the high jump and broad jump and was third in the 880-yard run.

First and second places in each event qualified for the Region I meet at the Tech track Saturday.

Floydada's junior high team also won district with 23 points to runnerup Abernathy's 18½. They were followed by Spur, 18; Tahoka, 14½; Lockney, 10; Post, 3 and Slaton, 1.

Abernathy won the grade school title with 22 points. Post was second with 18, followed by Floydada with 18. Lockney with 10, 1-4 Spur with 9, 1-4 Slaton with 6 ½ and Tahoka with 3.

Longhorns Fail To Win In Tennis

The Longhorn tennis team failed to gain a first place in the northern half District 2-A matches at Abernathy last Thursday. Lockney reached the finals and placed second in every event.

Winners from the northern and southern half of the district will be matched to decide the 2-AA tennis champions. Lockney, Floydada and Abernathy make up the northern section of the district and the southern half includes Slaton, Tahoka, Post and Spur.

Dickie Barton and Ronnie Laceywell were entered in senior doubles. Kelly Harrison played senior singles, and Bill Mangold and Rodney Rigby represented Lockney in Jr. doubles.

Bonnie Dowling of Floydada, runner-up in the regional matches for the past three years, was beaten by an Abernathy boy. Winners in each class are unavailable.

AT FORT CARSON

Jimmy Myers left Tuesday morning for eight-weeks boot training in the U.S. Army. His wife, the former Ernestine Spradlin, is staying here with his mother, Mrs. Olive Myers. She drives back and forth to Plainview where she is employed with Pioneer Gas Company.

RUDY HAILE GOES TO ANDREWS

Elvin Lyon Is Named Longhorn Head Coach

Rudy Haile, Lockney Longhorn head coach for the past four years, has resigned his post to accept duties as line coach at Andrews High School. Elvin Lyon, who has served as assistant coach under three head men since coming here in 1950, has been elevated to head coach.

Haile presented his resignation to become effective April 26 and he will resume his duties at Andrews Monday, April 25. Rudy will work under Glenn Frazier at the AAA school.

A native of Plainview and a graduate of Plainview High School, Coach Haile came here in 1954 after serving in the armed forces. He was head coach at Falls in 1950-51, his first job after graduating from McMurry in 1950.

The Longhorns have compiled a record of 25 wins, 18 losses and one tie since Haile came here. Lockney failed to win a game in 1954, won four contests in 1955 and tied for the district title in 1954.

Last fall the Longhorns won the District 1-AA title and squeaked past Darrin in the 7-6 district contest before falling to Seymour 27-4, in the regional match. A Lockney team had never before reached the regional playoffs.

Haile has also served as track coach of the Longhorns which won the district championship last year. Several Lockney boys participated in the state track meet at Austin last spring.

The 35-year-old Haile and his wife are parents of a son, born last December.

Haile said that he has "thoroughly enjoyed his stay in Lockney" and thinks the kids here "are the finest." He expressed his desire that everyone get behind and help Coach Lyon as much as they have helped him.

Coach Lyon was hired by the school at the Thursday evening meeting. He has served as assistant coach under Curtis Kelley, Johnny Truslove and Haile. Lyon attended school at West Texas State College, Canyon, and played football there three years before graduating from Sam Houston State Teachers College, Homeville. The Longhorn head man played service football three years while serving in the armed forces. The 35-year-old Lyon is married and the father of one daughter. Elvin is a 1941 graduate of Olton High School.

Coach Lyon said Tuesday that no assistant has been named. Troy Lemley will remain at basketball coach and assistant football coach.

Tickets On Sale Here For Plainview Opening Game

Tickets for the opening home game of the Plainview Athletics baseball team, scheduled for Wednesday, April 30 at 8:30 p.m., have gone on sale here at Byrd Pharmacy and at Dutch's Food Store & Aiken.

In addition, other businessmen and baseball fans will also be selling tickets. Colorful placards advertising the game have been put in several store windows.

The Athletics, outgrowth of the old Plainview Juniors, will utilize an entirely new concept in baseball in this area.

For the first time, the team is being directly sponsored by a major league club. In fact, the entire new Sophomore League is backed by the majors, not only by advice, interest, player training and procurement, but financially as well.

The Plainview Athletics are, naturally, backed by the Kansas City A's. There are five other teams in the new league.

The real strength of the league, from the fan's standpoint, is that only first and second year ballplayers will be on the team. That means that each will be young and trying his best to go to the majors. The brand of ball should be outstanding with lots of bustle. All players will train at the Kansas City minor league camp in Pensacola, Florida.

With Kansas City as low in the standings as it has been in recent years, chances are good that one or more of the boys playing in Plainview this summer will be in the majors within the next few years.

Amarillo is the only other town in the area offering organized professional baseball to the fans.

Baseball Association personnel indicate that a crowd of 2,000 or more is expected for the opening night game. The league President's Award, a $150 trophy, will go to the member club having the largest opening day crowd.

Weed Control A Must For Best Returns

College Station—Weeds often cause tremendous reduction in pasture and hay yields by stealing moisture, plant food and light from desirable pasture plants, warns E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist.

Too, he adds, they lower hay quality, harbor insects and diseases, and increase labor and equipment costs.

Weed control is essential for best returns from productive pastures and meadows, but is not always profitable, says Trew. It is profitable only if the pasture or meadow is productive.

Weeds may be controlled several ways, points out the specialist. The best way is through prevention. Weeds are a minor problem in good stands of adapted grasses that are fertilized as needed and properly grazed or utilized.

Cultivation is still an excellent means of control. Most annual weeds and seedling perennial weeds are easily killed by plowing.

Another effective method of weed control mentioned by Trew is mowing. Properly timed mowing will kill most pasture and meadow weeds. The best time to mow is when the worst weeds begin to bloom. They are weakest and damaged most by mowing when in bloom. The specialist advises starting in time to mow all the pasture before the weeds produce seeds.

Chemical control is usually fast, cheap and effective, says Trew. One spraying at the right time often gives near-complete control for one season. He advises checking with our local county agricultural agent for instructions on when to spray as well as what to use and the recommended rates. Too, get a copy of State Herbicide Regulations and study them he suggests. It is important to know how they can affect you.

CARD OF THANKS

10 CLUES TO CANCER

Clue No. 2, Spontaneous Regression

Every now and then a patient dreadfully ill with cancer suddenly will improve for no reason known to Medicine or Science. On rare occasions — one estimate is one in 80,000 cancer cases — a patient will be restored to complete health, his cancer disappeared for all time.

These awesome events are known as spontaneous regression.

Science is skeptical of miracles. Researchers believe there is nothing spontaneous about these cures. . . many feel that some unknown mechanism of natural resistance comes into play. In far-flung laboratories they are seeking to identify this mechanism and to adapt it to clinical use against cancer.

Help science help you! Send your contribution to the American Cancer Society!

SCIENTISTS MUST EAT — With all the emphasis on scientific education, importance of training farmers and ranchers should not be neglected, said Gov. Price Daniel.

Speaking to a Future Farmers group, the governor said food is as necessary to the nation's defense as development of better weapons.

Texas' farm population, he noted, has declined by more than one-half since 1933.

PINCH ON SMALL SCHOOLS — Small schools are going to have to have help to meet higher state standards in math and science, says Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro.

Beginning with the 1959-60 term, high schools are to be required to teach four years of science and four years of math. Sen. Martin said he doubted smaller districts had or could get, without assistance, the necessary staff and equipment to meet the new standard.

"Must have gymnasiums," he observed, "but a lot lack laboratories."

SHORT SNORTS — Deaths from industrial accidents dropped from 167 for the first three months of last year to 152 for the same period this year, reports the Industrial Accident Board. . . Named by Governor Daniel to the Texas Civil Judicial Council: John Peace of San Antonio, Emil Rassman of Midland, Chief Justice T. C. Chadwick of the Texas Court of Civil Appeals and Baylor University law dean Abner V. McCall of Waco (reappointed). Council is to advise Legislature on civil court matters. . . Other gubernatorial appointments: George Dahl of Dallas and Louis Page of Austin to the Texas of Architectural Examiners, Mrs. James L. Moore of San Antonio to the State Board of Cosmetology. . . Unemployment claims inched up slightly — from 89,326 to 89,786 — in latest weekly report, but Texas Employment Commission officials expressed confidence that the month as a whole would show a drop in number of jobless. . . Texas' traffic fatality score for 1958 looks better than ment — but no prospect of close harmony.

COWBOY HAT IN RING — One morning, in between pouring his coffee and finishing his bacon, William A. Blakely decided to run for the U. S. Senate.

Blakely served as junior U. S. Senator for four months last year as the appointee of former Gov. Allen Shivers. He was not a candidate in the special election when Ralph Yarborough was named to succeed him.

Son of Oklahoma homesteaders who had to "work out" for other farmers, Blakely parlayed a little grit into a lot of money — in law, banking, real estate, ranching, oil, gas, insurance and an air line.

He'll not be troubled by most candidates' sorest problem — raising campaign funds.

Incumbent Yarborough has made statements leaving the door open for either of two courses — running for another Senate term or a fourth try at the governorship.

PURSE - WATCHER NEEDED — Texas's governor should have some power to keep a hand on state purse strings after the Legislature leaves.

So says Vernon McGee, director of the Legislative Budget Board. McGee heads the board with responsibility for studying the fiscal needs of all state departments and making recommendations to the Legislature.

Under present system, McGee pointed out, after the Legislature makes its appropriations, only the individual department heads are responsible for how the money is spent. Many administrators are admirably "tight-fisted," McGee said, but others will spend money, that could be saved for later needs, just because they have it.

McGee's recommendation: give the governor authority to ask for periodic reports from departments and to cut from their budgets items no longer necessary.

Most other states have this system, said McGee.

STILL TOO MUCH OIL — Despite severe cuts in production, Texas is still producing more oil than anyone wants to buy. It could mean even deeper cuts and more idle drilling rigs next month.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson noted an increase of 1,208,000 barrels in stocks of crude oil. It shows, he said, that April's lowest-in-history, 8-day production pattern was needed.

He suggested that new wells coming in may make an even lower pattern necessary for May.

SET TO GO — Texas Highway Department is poised for a $36,000,000 speed-up in road building if a new stepped-up federal aid bill becomes law.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said the bill, sent to the President by Congress, would enable Texas to avoid a summer lull in highway construction. Texas has already planned the projects in anticipation of the money, said Greer.

Designed as an anti-recession measure, the bill specifies the extra money must be spent within 12 months.

It won't put all the unemployed people to work, said Greer, but it will stimulate the economy. And, he added, it's not a "leaf-raking job."

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Next summer's campaigns are tuning up to play from a familiar score of the conservative vs. liberal melody Texas voters have been hearing for years.

But, like the rock 'n roll version of a Stephen Foster song, it may sound different. Campaign pitches will have to keep time to the fast beat of 1958's new issues. Such as "curing the recession" and "catching up in education."

On the federal level, talk is of cutting taxes to give the people more money to spend. Here in Texas, it's raising taxes to give the state more money to spend.

In a situation like this, a voter can get confused.

For each issue, there'll be several choruses — more or less drowning each other out. Some will chant of scaring away recession with large-scale government spending. Others will say the only way is to give business a break.

For schools, some are calling for a nationwide program to require more work from students, provide better teachers at better pay, more lab equipment, scholarships for promising students, etc. But many Texans say "never" to any scheme that would eat away at local control over schools.

On how to get money to bail out the state treasury, there are already a number of tunes being struck up — sales taxes, income taxes, corporation taxes, more economy in govern-

Lutherans Attend State Meeting

Seguin — Delegates to the annual convention of the Texas District of the American Lutheran Church endorsed a greatly expanded benevolence program when they met April 8-11 on the campus of Texas Lutheran College, Seguin. Approximately 360 pastors and lay delegates from Texas, Arkansas, and Louisiana attended the 28th annual convention.

Attending from the Trinity Lutheran Church at Providence were Pastor Arnold K. Windecker and Lay Delegate W. C. Koenig.

The convention heard plans for a $2,000,000 building program at Texas Lutheran College and resolved to participate in the capital fund raising drive for the expanded program at Grace Lutheran Sanatorium of San Antonio. Reports of mission churches which had become self-supporting during the past year and plans for establishing several new mission churches in the District were approved by the convention. All told, the convention endorsed a 35% increase in benevolent giving for the district for the coming year.

Delegates experienced the innovation of a new convention procedure for the four-day session. Pastors and lay delegates were divided into four discussion groups to review reports of the church's programs before they were brought to the convention for action.

During the convention a banquet honoring the 10th anniversary of Texas Lutheran College as a senior college was held in the college dining hall. Among those bringing greetings were Dr. Henry F. Schuh of Columbus, Ohio, president of the Amer. Luth. Church, and the Rev. Vernon A. Mohr of Austin, president of the Texas District.

Officers elected during the business session were the Rev. Gorge Krueger, Hallettsville, 1st vice-president; Dr. Ed A. Sagebiel, Seguin, 3rd vice-president; Robert Penning, Austin, treasurer; Dr. William Krausbar, Seguin, archivist; Herman Gaskamp, Houston, member of the District executive committee.

The 1959 convention of the Texas District will be held at First Lutheran Church in Galveston.

FROM THE County Agent's Office

By Cecil Lewis and Harold W. Ellison

Summer Pastures — Temporary pastures of sudan, millet and other grasses are a good way to rest Native Grasses and also furnish more grazing during the hot summer months.

You will need about one acre per animal unit for best grazing results. Successive plantings may be made to increase the length of the grazing season since we have a lot of available moisture. Grazing should start when the plants are 24 inches high.

Treating Planting Seed — This practice is always good insurance. It helps prevent the seed and seedlings from seed and soil-borne disease, especially in cold damp soils.

In treating legume seeds, such as soybeans, the seed treatment should be done at least two weeks before the seeds are inoculated with nitrogen forming bacteria.

Tractor Operators Contest — The contest will be held on two different days. The first meeting will be held Friday night, April 18, at 7:30 at the Stock Show Barn in Floydada. The driving contest will be held Sunday, April 20, at 1 p.m. at the Stock Show grounds. The public is invited to attend the contest.

Grain Sorghum Hybrids — If you are planning to plant some early feed the most adapted hybrid is Texas 601. It is not as sensitive to day length as the other hybrids and tends to make good yields under these conditions.

Land Judging Contest — The Floyd County 4-H Land judging team consisting of Dan Smith, Lockney, Pat O'Brien, Aiken and Billy Don Colston, Floydada, participated in a land judging contest held at Plain-

Soybeans Would Help Plains Farming Magazine Says

"Soybeans Would Help Plains Farming", points out an article by Editor Eugene Butler in the May issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine. Soybeans would fit smoothly in a three-year rotation of grain sorghums, soybeans, and cotton.

Folks on Paymaster Farm in Floyd County have had more experience with soybeans than anyone else on the Texas Plains. Harold Loden, manager, and Quentin Adams, seed breeder, say they take about the same amount of water as cotton, the article points out.

In 1957, about 20,000 acres of soybeans were planted on the High Plains. Don Lawson and J. L. Odell, Western Cotton Oil Co., believe that as soon as farmers learn how to grow soybeans and how well they fit into a three-year rotation of sorghums, soys, and cotton, the acreage will jump.

The two highest yielding varieties tested at the Lubbock Station have been Ogden and Lee. Ogden may make more beans. But Lee will put more in the bin, because there is less shattering.

Dave Sherrill, Plains irrigation specialist, figures 30 bushels of soybeans at $2.00 a bushel is about equal in profit to 4,000 pounds of grain sorghums. Cost of growing the two crops is about the same.

Plains Cotton Guide Is Offered To Farmers By Cotton Organization

Lubbock — The Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. in cooperation with the Texas Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has drafted a "Plains Cotton Guide."

Personnel of the Extension Service, Experiment Station and other organizations have met with the PCG and planned a coordinated cotton educational and promotional program for the High Plains area.

The new guide will be used for the educational program, which is to be aimed at helping High Plains farmers grow quality cotton and have it processed and marketed for greater profit.

The guide is divided into three sections, production, processing and marketing. It is to be made available to county agents and others who work with farmers throughout the High Plains. All members of the PCG will be mailed a copy.

The guide analyzes the Plains cotton situation and sets forth steps to help producers in the production of higher quality cotton that has more uniformity and good character and in the marketing of such quality cotton for greater profit.

"For many years the personnel of the Lubbock Experiment Station have worked on problems to give better quality cotton. However, sometimes these farming tips and suggestions are not as widely publicized as they might be and too many farmers do not know of their importance. In our educational program we hope to spread this type of information throughout the area and help our farmers in producing better quality cotton," W. O. Fortenberry, PCG president, explained.

Directors of the PCG approved the educational and promotional program at the last board meeting and appropriated necessary funds to carry out such a program.

By cooperating with the Extension Service personnel and members of other organizations, we hope to eliminate duplication of effort and help one another in an overall educational program. George W. Pfeifferberger, executive vice president of the PCG, said.

W. H. Jones, district Extension agent, Lubbock, pointed out that production practices in general govern quality and yield. Processing procedures are problems of the farmer in harvesting and of the ginner in ginning cotton.

"The cotton farmer has a greater opportunity to improve his production and harvesting practices than to better the ginning and marketing procedures, but an understanding of how cotton is processed and marketed may enable him to realize more net return from his investment and labor," Jones said.

Earl Hobbs, New Deal, president of the Plains Ginners Assn. sat in on several planning sessions and urged the cooperation of ginners with the farmers in this united effort to raise the quality of Plains cotton.

The new cotton guide was printed by Texas A&M College and 50,000 copies are to be distributed to farmers and others in the area.

Eleven of the top cotton officials in this area and in Texas assisted in drafting the cotton guide and have approved the information it contains.

These include Charles Fisher, Don L. Jones, Dr. J. D. Bilbro, all of the Lubbock Experiment Station; Ernest Thaxton, formerly with the station here, now project leader of a new experiment station at Pecos; Bill Taylor, Lovelland, Hockley County Agent; Bill Kimbrough, Littlefield, Lamb County Agent; Olie Laner, Hale County Agent; Lee McLeroy, Lubbock County Agent; John Box and Fred Elliott, both of the Extension Service, College Station; Dr. Tom Richmond, who has charge of cotton research at College Station; Dave Sherrill, district Extension Service, Lubbock; Jones and Pfeifferberger.

The guide was edited by Conrad L. Lohoefer, director of public relations of the PCG, and Tad Moses of the Extension Service information office, College Station.

Copies of the guide will be available from the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. office, 220 Lubbock National Bldg., Lubbock, or any county agents' office.

is for sound American Pro...

There has been quite a lot of discussion to the National Farm Program in recent weeks. Especially the position Farm Bureau has taken and the policy of the American Farm Bureau, like to take this opportunity to clarify the purposes of our organization and to point out the problems involved in solving the complex that American agriculture faces today. Some say and rumors can greatly hamper the great number of men have spent toward the position of the American Farmer in our country.

There is no doubt that the farmer is not his fair share of our nations wealth under present conditions and there is no doubt that something must be done about it. Farm Bureau has a very positive program that will correct the situation. Farm Bureau does not believe that there is an "All" solution to this problem, nor does it believe the Farmer should become entirely dependent on government appropriations for his income. Past experiences have taught us that government control, rather than create more problems than it solves, other hand, Farm Bureau does not believe that prices should be raised or lowered entirely at the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture. The problem then is how to earn and maintain an income and create economic conditions that are favorable to Agriculture. Let's look first at the Government programs based on rigid prices. Federal Aid always goes Federal Regulations will be limitations to some and wasted resources. Also, the uncertainty of the duration of such a program could cause a serious economic situation when the Government in Administration or a reduction in funds causes the farmer to become a political weapon used for selfish interests — not always good for the well-being. A government market causes market conditions that tend to create a false economy will draw excessive resources into agriculture already producing a plentiful supply of food. Government programs based on rigid prices have tended to diminish the demand for farm products and hamper the natural market.

Government can never give more to the farmer than it takes from them. When any one segment of the economy draws excessively on federal funds, the tendency to level the wealth of one segment at the expense of another. This is against the basic principle of economics that have caused this nation to prosper. This practice or concept of government will eventually lead to socialism.

These are but a few of the possibilities of a program that causes the farmer to become dependent on congress for its income.

With these facts in mind, one may wonder can be done to assure the farmer a full parity (or more) for the products he produces and with freedom, without being subjected to frequent squeezes that might force him out of business? Farm Bureau believes that a step in the right direction is to regain your natural markets by making your products competitive, yet retain a government program to insure the farmer from being squeezed out by sudden fluctuation in Cost or Prices. This program support then becomes a "protective floor" instead of ultimate income to the farmer. The farmer would be able to produce for the market and be unable to lose his potential income. Farm Bureau Does Not believe that the decision on what the government support should be should be left entirely up to the Secretary of Agriculture. Exhaustive research has been done to determine where this price support should be set to assure the farmer a fair income, yet allow him to develop a natural market that will yield a net result well above the support price.

It is written into Farm Bureau policy that the government support price should be set at 90% of the previous 3-year weighted average. Under present conditions the support price on cotton would be 30.98¢ but the market price would be above this for the crop. Under this plan supports could not be changed from one year to the next and would allow time for corrections in marketing quotes to keep in line with demand, and retain your market. Price supports would then be geared to the supply-demand situation as reflected at the market place, which is the best yet devised by free men to tell producers whether to increase or decrease production. The present support would indicate that prices paid farmers would increase and stocks would decrease under this program approach would allow the basic principles of economics to function and create a favorable market.

There are numerous other proposals advanced during the last 20 years, for example, it is known that during the last 20 years, the actual market price for farm products has been above the government support price but the farmer has not received the benefit of this increase. Consequently, Farm Bureau proposes that the federal government not be allowed to sell CCC stocks directly to the consumer for less than 110% of the market price. This would force the buyer to go directly to the market for his supply, giving him the benefit of the highest demand price. CCC stocks would then be used to fund the export subsidy program. This would tend to reduce the surplus and cause American Cotton to be competitive on the world market. In effect, it would increase the demand for your product.

In closing, I would like to say that the members of Farm Bureau who take an active part in determining policy are aware of the problems in Agriculture and are working diligently to solve them. Members who are not active, by requirement, are bonafide farmers and their interests and the organization can only advocate what the majority vote. I invite you to study the facts, participate in the Farm Bureau and express your convictions on the important State issue to watch for this year will immediately affect Agriculture are: Farm to Market Road Building Program, Redistricting of Congressional Precincts on Population Basis, Preservation of Rural Land Operations, and Animal Health Problems.

National issues include AFBF policies on price supports (including the F. B.'s "new look" program on cotton and feed grains, Extension of National Wool Act, Direct Production Payments, Agriculture Extension of Reciprocal Trade Agreement Act, War Relocation Hour Legislation and Labor Racketeering.

On Wheat Marketing Quotas For June 20

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson proclaimed marketing quotas for the 1959 crop of wheat. He announced a national acreage allotment of 55 million acres, the minimum permitted by law; set June 20 as the date for a grower referendum in which growers will vote or disapprove quotas. He also announced that the minimum national average support price for 1959 production will be determined before the June referendum.

This is the sixth successive year that the minimum national average support price for 1959 production will be determined before the June referendum.

It is also the fifth consecutive year that the 55 million acre minimum allotment has been applicable.

The Texas share of the national allotment for 1959 has been set at 4,099,094 acres. The 1958 allotment was 4,164,302 acres.

If marketing quotas are approved by wheat producers in the June 20 referendum, the national average support price available to eligible growers in the commercial area (Texas is in this area) will not be less than the minimum support to be announced later. Individual farm marketing quotas will be normal or actual production, whichever ever is larger, from the farm acreage allotment.

Growers in the commercial area who plant within their allotments will be eligible for price supports on their entire production. Those who exceed their farm allotments will be subject to marketing quota penalties if they have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest or have not signed applications for exemption under the feed wheat provision permitting 30 acres or less to be used exclusively for feed on the farm.

If marketing quotas are disapproved, there will be no restrictions on wheat marketing. Acreage allotments will remain in effect as a condition of eligibility for price support at the 50 per cent of parity rate. In the referendum for 1958 crop wheat, 86.2 per cent of the farmers voting favored quotas.

THE LOCKNEY BEACON, LOCKNEY, TEXAS, APRIL 17, 1958

Dear Editor:

I see where Agriculture Secretary Benson thought better of it after his bureau had printed up 2500 booklets reporting on the farm situation, so he had them all burned.

Newspapers say this operation cost the government $50.78, and I am writing my congressman about getting me a job as a government book-burner.

Seems like this is very good pay for the light and congenial job of burning 2500 government pamphlets, and I don't know where else a man could find all this plus such a fine opportunity for public service.

ORTHOCLIDE SOIL TREATER X

Protects your seed after germination against DAMPING OFF — SORE SHIN — SORE SHANK — SEEDLING BLIGHT — SEEDLING ROOT ROT and other soil borne diseases.

Cold, wet ground many times brings some of these soil borne diseases to cotton seed. ORTHOCIDE SOIL TREATER X protects your seed from these diseases which kill young cotton plants just before or soon after they come up, bringing poor stands and costly replanting.

IT'S EASY TO APPLY . . .

No special equipment is needed. Just sift the ORTHOCIDE dust directly on the seed in the planter box. The dust gives previously treated seed added protection from seed rot. The excess material filters down into the furrow. The fine dust mixes with the soil — forms a protected zone around the seed and seedling.

ORTHOCLIDE SEED TREATER X does not take the place of seed treatment at your delinting plant. It adds to and supplements that protection.

Sanderson Out Of Rep. Race

Ray Sanderson of Tulsa has withdrawn as a candidate for State Representative of the 89th district in favor of H. G. Wells, also of Tulsa, who is a candidate.

Sanderson issued the following statement:

For several years I have desired to hold public office and work for the people of the 89th legislative district in promoting good government in Texas. I certainly appreciate all the support and encouragement I have received from many people in the district since I announced for the office. However, it seems highly unreasonable for two friends of the same political philosophy and from the same town to compete in the same political race.

RUSSIA CAN'T GARBLE THIS MESSAGE

Behind the iron curtain is a powerful transmitter which tries to garble the messages which come from the free world.

We like to think that no one can garble the prayer of a little child to his God. But sometimes, right here in a free Christian land, we jam the wave-lengths of faith with examples of doubt and indifference. Even parents occasionally stifle the spiritual yearnings of their own children!

One of our freedoms is FREEDOM OF WORSHIP. In the sight of God, and before the eyes of a growing generation of free Americans, what shall we do with this freedom?

There has never been a day when Christian sincerity in the community, Christian example in the family, and Christian devotion in the individual were more essential for the preservation of our spiritual heritage to another generation!

Come to Church—join the Church—support the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

More than 12,000 lawyers will begin expressing their preference for appellate court candidates in the Texas State Bar's seven judicial poll in May. Bar director Richard F. Rowell of Floydada said Wednesday that the ballots will be mailed to all State Bar members soon after the May 5 filing deadline.

Rowell will leave Thursday for Galveston to attend the State Bar board of directors quarterly meeting, where details will be completed for the nominal singling of lawyer opinion on qualifications of all candidates for higher court places. The ballot will include candidates for contested places on the Texas Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Court of Civil Appeals for the district in which the voter lives.

The Floydada attorney said the poll will be tabulated and counted June 25 at State Bar headquarters in Austin and the results made public soon after. Board Chairman Frank W. Blumhagen of Chicago will preside over the two-day Galveston meeting, which will include the study and adoption of the State Bar's 1958-59 budget, a progress study of plans for the "Law Day U.S.A. in Texas" observance May 1, and final plans for the Bar's annual meeting July 2-3 at San Antonio.

Goodall was killed when a stock rack from a pickup truck hit his car, crashing through the windshield and striking him on the head. The stock rack and an iron bar believed to be from the stock rack were found at the scene of the accident. The auto continued down the highway moving 250 feet before it left the road and stopped in a field. Marshall told officers that he did not realize that a part of his truck had hit the car.

Bond was set at $2,000 and Marshall was released Sunday.

Play, Salad Supper Friday Evening

The rollicking, three act comedy senior class production, "Spooks Alive," rolls a curtain up Friday evening in a show calculated to make Fred Hitchcock take a back seat. Curtain time is 8 p. m. The high school journalism class will feed the public a salad supper in the cafeteria prior to the show. Tickets are available for both events from any member of the Senior Class or the Journalism class. In the play John Hamst finds that gridiron tactics are profitable on the football field but don't work as a ghost. Betty Gram finds that ghosts aren't so bad, particularly if you are the ghost. Hope Cox finds that being married to a college professor has certain drawbacks — also having to live in a rented house for three months. Her husband can write a manuscript on ghosts — from actual experience. Nelson Wolfson finds that if you commit murder you might get it upon. David Howell finds that, as a doctor, he forgets his pill bag and goes in search of a ghost. He might actually have his efforts rewarded in finding a real live one — that he might settle his nerves. Jerry Williams and Dickie Arton find that it is possible to paint scenery on the stage even during practice — a little paint on the cast won't make any difference — they're supposed to be funny anyway. Charlyne Bunyan and Kay Golden find that as student directors they can just about go crazy directing a little thing like this — but they are worried about a little thing like that — if they do go crazy they can just be shifted from director to a part in the play and everything will be just lucky.

Paul Schacht plays the part of the professor and Hope Cox his wife. Loy O'Brien and an Widener are daughters of a couple and Eddie Gloyne is a son. Other members of the cast are Jean Wofford, Gayle Schuch, Nelda Tims, Martha Lynn, Kelly Harrison and Lajuan Banditt.

Students are on sale for the week with reserved seats at $1.00, general adult seats at 75 cents and general admission at 50 cents. The salad supper begins at 7:30 and lasts until 7:30. The salad supper is for adults and 50 cents for children under 12.
