Longhorns Play Ralls 'Rabbits' There Friday

Another rugged game faces Lockney's Longhorns when they travel to Ralls Friday evening to battle the Ralls Jackrabbits.

Ralls has nine lettermen, among them five starters, back from last year's team which lost to Sundown in the Class A State Quarterfinals. The 'Rabbits' are reported to have a good, heavy line. Bolstering the forward wall is Paul "Pony" Langdon, 210 pound two year letterman and All-State guard. Pre-season picks to top 4-A again this season. Ralls lost their first game last week to undefeated Floydada, 8 - 6. Lockney downed the 'Rabbits', 13-0, last season and they will be out for revenge.

The Longhorn coaching staff was well pleased with their team's showing against Tullia last week. They said the team showed much improvement and played another good game on defense. The coaches added that every boy played well, but singled out tackle Ricky Duvall and end David Robertson. Halfback Jackie Don Calahan and fullback Bill Race were also praised by the coaching staff.

Because of their fine performance against Tullia, Duvall and Robertson will serve as captains against Ralls. Everyone was in good shape late Tuesday so the Longhorns will probably be at full strength Friday night. Lockney will be seeking its third win of the season against the Jackrabbits. They have lost one contest.

Band Boosters To Meet Tuesday

Postponing a meeting scheduled for this week, the Lockney Band Boosters Club will meet Tuesday evening of next week at the high school cafeteria at 8 p. m., according to announcement by Laverne Carthel, president.

Mr. Carthel said that 12 new uniforms for band members were expected to arrive this week and that the band would be well outfitted for the South Plains Fair Monday. The Longhorn Band will participate in the parade of bands at the fair in Lubbock.

Mr. Carthel said that the Band Boosters cleared $220.00 on the mystery show presented at the High School auditorium recently. They also cleared about $200 on the concession stand at the football game last Friday night and another $200 on a concession at the fair. All this money will go to make a payment on the new band uniforms purchased last year.

No Serious Injuries In Auto Wrecks

There were no serious injuries in a series of auto accidents here the past week.

Last Friday night a car driven by E. F. Washington of Tullia overturned on Highway 598, 7 1/2 miles north of Lockney. Washington lost control of the car causing it to overturn. There were two other young men with him but none of the trio were injured. The car was badly damaged.

An auto collision between a car driven by a man by the name of Bruce of Plainview and another by the name of Freeman of Tullia occurred near the James Taylor home two miles north of Lockney also Friday night. Bruce received three broken ribs in the accident.

Tom Rankin Jr. escaped without injury Tuesday afternoon when the 1957 Chevrolet pickup which he was driving rammied into the rear of a cotton trailer on Highway 598 four miles north of Lockney. The trailer belonged to Paul Cooper and was pulled by a truck belonging to and driven by Cruz O. Bregon. Bregon slowed preparatory to turning at the intersection when the pickup hit the trailer. Rankin's pickup was a total loss, officers said.

Mrs. Martha Mann To Be Buried Here

Graveside rites will be held at Lockney Cemetery Thursday morning at 11 o'clock for Mrs. Martha Mann, former Lockney resident. Mrs. Mann passed away Saturday in California. She was about 80 years of age.

Rev. E. Lee Stanford, Methodist minister, will be in charge of the services. The body arrived Wednesday night and will lie in state at Carter Funeral Home until time for the final rites.

Mrs. Mann is survived by three sons, Homer, H. B. and Carl; and three daughters, Mrs. Lavata Anderson, Mrs. Edna Reeves and Mrs. Lida Skaggs. Interment will be beside the grave of her husband, J. H. Mann, who passed away here about 25 years ago.

The family lived here during the 1920 and '30s before moving to California.

Gas Firm Asks $66,846 To Move Lines On Hiway

The Pioneer Natural Gas Co. estimates that it will cost $66,846 to move their gas lines and make other changes necessary for providing right-of-way for the improvement program along Highway 70 from Floydada to the Hale County line, in a letter to the County Judge J. D. McBrien dated Sept. 21.

The letter was in response to a request from Sam Fowler, resident highway engineer, to R. R. McCafferty, general superintendent of transmission for the gas company, at Amarillo, for estimate costs on the projects.

The estimate covers four different projects, some of which are in the "must" classification and others which are optional.

The first, and by far the most expensive project, is the removal of some 20,000 feet of gas line lying along the north right-of-way between Lockney and Aiken. Three choices are offered by the gas company for the new location of the gas line, ranging in cost from $53,989.00 to $61,307.00. The lower priced location would be south of the new right-of-way, the highest priced one would be to place the line 30 feet north of its present location along the railroad right-of-way and the third choice, quoted at $60,508.00, is north of the railroad. The removal of this line is optional with the Court. Commissioners Hugh Counts said Wednesday, but the Court would like to move the line if it is feasible in order to lessen the amount of right-of-way required on the south side of the highway.

The second project is the installation of 190 feet of casing on a 4-inch line in the distribution plant at Lockney and the relocation of 220 feet of 3 1/2 inch line at the Y in south Lockney. The cost of this is estimated at $1,965.00.

The third project is the installation of 400 feet of 6 5/8 inch casing on a 4 1/2 inch line at the east intersection of Lockney Loop and Highway 70. Cost of this is estimated at $1,899.00.

The fourth project is the moving of the town border station at the northwest edge of the city of Floydada, and the relocation of some line there. The cost here is estimated at $8,999.00.

The latter three projects are considered "musts" although the Court has made no decision about accepting the gas company's estimates as yet, Mr. Counts said.

The estimates do not include cost of right-of-way for the gas line, according to the letter and that cost is estimated at $3,500.00 additional.

The letter included detailed itemized estimates on each of the projects along with salvage value of the old pipe which is credited against the total cost. The estimates quoted are net costs.

Mr. Counts said that the Court had not met to consider the gas companies estimates as yet but indicated he considered them too high.

In addition to cost of moving the gas installations, the county must also pay for moving power lines along the highway and the sub-station four miles west of Lockney. No estimate on the cost of this project has been made as yet.

Moving of telephone lines will be made by the telephone company without cost to the county, Mr. Counts said.

Miss Grace Marshall left Wednesday, Sept. 24, for Houston where she will have a medical check-up at M. D. Anderson Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Arthur and son of Littlefield were guests during last week in the T. B. Mitchell home.

Plains Hotel Building Is Sold Monday

A contract was signed Monday of this week in which L. M. Golden, proprietor of Golden's Cafe agreed to purchase the Plains Hotel building. Sellers were Mrs. Bernice Miller, Mrs. Gilbert Huls and Bob Miller.

Mr. Golden plans to completely remodel the lower floor of the building, installing a modern cafe with facilities to take care of club meetings and parties.

The contract was signed Monday. The Beacon was told, after two or three weeks of negotiations. The Millers and Huls have owned the hotel building since the mid-forties and have leased it out during that time. Only last year the entire building was renovated, repainted and new fixtures installed.

Mr. Golden said this week that he would remove the partitions and install the cafe in the east end of the building fronting on Main Street. The kitchen will be in the center of the lower floor and the west end will be club rooms with facilities to take care of two parties or meetings at one time. "It will be some time before we can get into the building since we must give the office tenants time to find a place to move," he said. The Lockney Real Estate Co. and Buster's Barber Shop now have office space in the hotel building.

"We expect to have a modern, well equipped cafe and one that the community will be proud to use," Mr. Golden said. He estimated that it would be two months before the remodeling could be completed and fixtures installed.

The hotel part of the building, the upstairs, will be opened this week end to accommodate those who wish to remain. It has been closed down for several weeks.

Consideration in the transaction was $23,500 which included the furniture in the hotel part and some fixtures for the cafe.

Senior Rings Have Arrived

Members of the senior class are wearing the new '59 rings very proudly this week. The rings arrived Monday.

The oval shaped ruby stone is surrounded by the words "Lockney High School". On one side is 1959 just above a Longhorn head and on the other side is the Texas seal below a 1959. The student's initial is carved inside.

Total County Tax Rate Set At $1.25

Floydada. — The tax rate which the Commissioners Court decided upon early in the year, became the official one last week when the Commissioners adopted the annual budget for 1959.

Although the court has to make a decision early in the year so the Tax Assessor-collector can carry on his work and have the rolls ready for the October 1, deadline, the court does not make the levy official until August.

Total county rate this year is $1.25 per $100 valuation. The levy is made for the various funds as follows: Jury fund 5c; Road and Bridge 20c; General 35c; Library 5c; Special Road and Bridge 23c; court house 10c; Special Road Fund 1958 12c. Total $1.25.

Be Sure Combines Are Clean—Degge

"Make sure a combine is clean of noxious weed seed when it pulls into your field," Douglas Degge, supervisor of the Floyd County Weed District urged this week. Mr. Degge was displaying a stalk of combine maize which had been fully covered by bindweed. In fact the bindweed was some six inches above the maize head with seed pods in the top.

"This is an example of what can happen when a field is taken by bindweed," Mr. Degge added.

"Money talks, but about all it ever says is 'Good-bye'." — S. F. Brandt.

Longhorn Band Will March In Parade In Lubbock

Lockney Longhorn Band will enter the annual "parade of bands" Monday, Sept. 29 in Lubbock which opens the week long 41st Panhandle South Plains Fair.

Cash prizes totaling $600 will be awarded winning bands. Fifty-eight band members from the local schools are expected to make the trip, accompanied by Clyde Seaman, director.

School students of the area will be admitted to the fair grounds free of charge Monday, opening day. Among the afternoon entertainments at the fair will be the Water Folies. General admission for the matinee is 90 cents.

Lettuce Crop Is Excellent, Harvest Begins

Harvest began this week on one of the best lettuce crops grown in this area, according to vegetable men. Two car loads were cut Monday from the Trautmann Bros. Field on the Leslie Ferguson farm, five miles north of Lockney. The rain Monday night stopped the harvest but some 50 workers were in the field again Wednesday morning and harvest was in full swing.

Bill Young and Boyd Martin, field foreman for Trautmann, estimated that they were cutting 250 crates per acre and getting about half of the crop. They said that probably two cuttings would clean the field. They estimated a yield of some 500 to 600 crates per acre when harvest is completed. They said that harvesting of the 100 acres on the Ferguson farm would require about three weeks.

The men said that the Lockney lettuce was excellent quality, "better than anything we have seen at Hereford this year."

The Trautmann Bros. lettuce is trucked to Hereford where it is cooled and packed.

Start Friday

"B" Sanger, field foreman for Alexander Marketing Co., said that the lettuce harvest would begin Friday on the Lloyd Readhimer farm in the Lone Star community. The Alexander Marketing Company, a subsidiary of Nash-Finch Corporation, has a contract with the Lockney Vegetable Growers Association to harvest and market their lettuce. Members of the association have some 300 acres of lettuce in the area and the harvest will require some six weeks to complete, Mr. Sanger said.

Bill Collier is shed manager here for the marketing company and will also handle the selling. A vacuum cooler, used here last year and moved to the Valley for the summer, has been set back on location here and all lettuce grown by the association will be cooled and packed here. The Beacon was told.

Vegetable men said Wednesday that the going price on lettuce was "fair" at the present being quoted at from $1.25 to $2.00 per crate. Others said that the price was "rising" and market prospects looked good.

Earl Coopers Will Return To Lockney

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cooper will move back to Lockney soon, he said this week. Mr. Cooper has resigned his position as deputy sheriff in Hutchinson County effective October 1. He has served in that capacity more than a year. His plans are indefinite, Mr. Cooper said, except that he does plan to make his home here for the present.

Two Lockney Soldiers Are In Lebanon

Two Lockney soldiers, Pfc. C. F. Barber and Pfc. Charles (Goobar) Williams are both in Lebanon with the United States armed forces and have been there for some time, it was learned this week.

Barber is the son of Floyd Barber Jr., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Barber of Lockney. Williams is the son of Mrs. Van McCada of Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Miller of Rogers, Arkansas, have been guests of their daughter, Mrs. Chester Mitchell and family this week.

2,000 To 3,000 Are Needed In Cotton Harvest

"We need from 2,000 to 3,000 hands right now in the Lockney community," one ginner told The Beacon late Wednesday. "We have lots of white cotton open in the fields and many farmers have no hands to gather it," he continued.

Every ginner questioned by The Beacon came up with the same answer — hands are needed now — and badly. Lack of hands is laid to the fact that there is very good cotton in the area below the cap, an unusual situation, and also to the early opening of cotton in this area. Many years it is October 1st before cotton is ready for gathering on the High Plains.

Not only a lack of hands but wet weather has also hampered harvest operations the past week. A check Wednesday showed that the four gins in Lockney now have ginned a total of 984 bales compared to 350 the same time last week. The eight gins in this area, those at Lockney, Lone Star, Aiken and Sterley, have ginned a total of 2124 bales compared to 762 at this same time last week. The eight gins can easily gin 5,000 bales per week when they have the cotton to gin.

A rain late Friday afternoon and night shut off harvest operations and brought some hail damage to the Lone Star area. The rain totaled 1.35 inches here and fell from about 3:30 to 5 p. m. The rain and hail at Lone Star came about 9 p. m.

Another rain fell here Monday afternoon and night and totaled one-half inch.

The hail in the Lone Star area brought considerable damage to feed crops and undetermined damage to cotton. Reed Lawson estimated that from one-third to one-fourth of his feed was lost when the hail storm shattered the heads. Lowell Jarrett also had some heavy damage to his crops as did Raymond Teeple, all in the same general area northeast of Lone Star. Other farmers with crop damage were Rex Holt, Harold Griffith, Melvin Brock and Jewell Rexrode.

Cotton will probably suffer some damage to grade, since the hail will cause some spots. The Beacon was told. Rain in the Lone Star area totaled one inch on Friday night and another inch Monday night.

J. B. Robertson Named County ASC Chairman

J. B. Robertson, who lives in the southwest part of Floyd County, was elected county chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee at a meeting of the county convention Wednesday morning.

Named to serve with Robertson were Henry Schacht of Lockney, vice-chairman and Shirley Irwin of Floydada, member.

The ASC officials were named by a convention composed of the various community chairmen from the nine ASC communities in the county. The community chairmen were elected in recent balloting by mail among Floyd County farmers.

Robertson served as vice-chairman the past year and Schacht was the member of the committee. Retiring chairman is B. L. Breed.

EDITORIAL

But, ye brethren, be not weary in well doing. Thess. 3:13.

WE WISH to respectfully question the recent population estimates released by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. We can't figure how their estimate of Floyd County can be correct. They list Floyd as one of the 54 counties in the 132-county area where the population has declined since 1950. If that is true, we need to wake up in this county and seek ways of enticing people to make their homes here. But where have we lost this population? Surely the City of Lockney has grown quite a bit since 1950 and Floydada has probably done likewise. In our own city, our population was listed by the Census Bureau as 1692. At that time, the Southwestern Public Service Co. reported 653 electric meters within the city. This week they have a total of 817 meters within the city limits. That's roughly a 25 per cent increase which means the City of Lockney now should have better than 2,000 population. We don't believe the rural areas have lost enough population during the past eight years to offset this gain. Therefore we question the WTCC figures.

DID YOU KNOW there is a street named Lockney in Amarillo? We wonder if the street was named after the same man for whom our city was named. He lived at Amarillo for a time in the early days, soon after leaving Lockney.

AUTO INSURANCE rates on cars driven by young men under 25 years of age are higher than any other. When you go to pay for your auto insurance you'll find it costs you more if you have a young man under 25 in your family. This higher rate does not apply to young women of a similar age either. Are the young men poor drivers? No, it appears that isn't the case. The trouble is they take too many chances. They just feel the need to "show off", to take chances to impress someone. The Association of Casualty and Surety Companies suggests that driver education classes may be a help to solve this problem. A little education at home probably would also help.

THE SITUATION at Little Rock is bad business. It appears that Governor Faubus has no chance of winning the fight in the long run and the situation could explode into a national tragedy. People can only be pushed so far, then they rebel whatever the cost. The blame is not all on one side either. The United States Supreme Court must assume its share of the blame for this crisis. Their insistence on interpreting the law to suit their own bias, not only in the integration question, but in many others as well, has brought criticism from many informed jurists. Among those who have criticized the Supreme Court are Judge Learned Hand, considered the nation's greatest living jurist; former Supreme Court Justice Reed, by a national conference of state chief justices, and by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

IN WHAT way have they criticized the Supreme Court? They say the Court has exceeded its powers, has permitted its personal predilections to deny Congress and the state courts authority which they should have and which is Constitutionally proper, has been too ready to upset long-established legal precedents, and has shown insufficient respect for written law. In other words, the members of the Supreme Court have interpreted the law to say things they want it to say with too little regard for what the law makers had in mind when it was passed. Whatever the results the "nine old men" must assume their share of the blame. We now have a government of men rather than a government of law.

WASTED MONEY

Twenty, 25 and 30 years ago, solo airplane flights across large bodies of water, or over lengthy land routes, were big news. Also, they contributed knowledge to those engaged in the then new human undertaking: mastery of the clouds. Today, however, it is extremely doubtful if such flights are worth what they cost their backers. It is even more doubtful if they are worth what they cost in the way of safety precautions carried on at the expense of taxpayers, or others not connected with the flights. There is little, if anything, that such stunts can tell people in the aviation field, circa 1958.

What difference can it possibly make now whether or not Joe Blow can fly non-stop in a single engine plane from New York to Milan, Boston to Rome, Washington to London, etc.? Literally dozens, if not scores, of people already have made such flights, some of them two decades or more in the past.

It's nobody's business, of course, if individual pilots and their backers among plane manufacturers, equipment makers, gasoline producers, etc., want to attempt such flights. However, it's everybody's business when tax dollars have to be spent in searching vast areas after such attempts go awry. — The Plainsman in Lubbock Avalanche.

LAWFUL PREY

Houston Boyd comments: "In this day and time, I find it a cautionary measure to read the warning of John Ruskin (1819-1902):

"There is hardly anything in the world that some man cannot make a little worse, and sell a little cheaper, and the people who consider price only are this man's lawful prey." — The Plainsman in Lubbock Avalanche.

PROFITABLE BUSINESS

Ralph Gardner dug this one up for us last week—we can tell you right here and now that Ralph ain't married—so he can afford to offer advice.

His clipping is taken from a news letter of the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Assn. — and is their advice to a drunk: "Since you cannot refrain from drinking, why not start a saloon of your own in your own home? Be the only customer and you will not have to buy a license.

"Give your wife $55 to buy a case of whiskey. There are 240 drinks in a case. Buy all your drinks from your wife at 60 cents a drink.

"In 12 days (when the case is gone) your wife will have $89 to put in the bank and $55 to buy another case. If you live 10 years and continue to buy whiskey from your wife and die in your boots, your widow will have $27,125.47 on deposit.

"That's enough to bring up your children, pay off the mortgage, marry a decent man and forget she ever knew a bum like you." — Lometa Reporter

WISE PERSON

Most of us fail to realize most of our shortcomings and lack of knowledge. A scripture from the Good Book points out, "Lord, make me to know . . . how frail I am," taken from Psalm 89:4. A Persian proverb further declares:

He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a fool. Shun him.

He who knows not, and knows that he knows not, is a child. Teach him.

He who knows, and knows not that he knows, is asleep. Wake him.

He who knows, and knows that he knows, is wise. Follow him. — Paducah Post.

Dear Editor:

I see where it has now been set up so that our ex-presidents get a $25,000-a-year pension, plus an office and staff and relief from 4-cent postage.

Which my fair-play neighbor says seems like is showing partiality to old Presidents over old taxpayers, who are also useful citizens but don't get near that much old age assistance even after figuring in their new $4.74 a month raise.

What he don't understand, of course, is that a pension is for retiring, and old taxpayers never retire. They just have to die out of it.

Karl Sammann Gives Account Of His Recent Trip To Germany

(Editor's Note: Following are some excerpts from letters by Karl Sammann concerning his recent trip to Germany. Mr. Sammann and his son, Arthur of Tullia, returned early this month from a two-month trip to his native land.)

Trip To Germany
In his most recent letter to his wife, Mrs. Karl Sammann, Mr. Sammann, who has gone to Germany to view the scenes of his early childhood, is getting anxious for word from Texas. He notes the seven hours difference in the time, but said he would be in Esens, his native town, on the afternoon of August 1.

Mr. Sammann gives an interesting day by day account of the crossing from New York City on a German liner to the arrival in Bremen. He told about the weather — at times the sea was rather rough. He and his son Arthur, who is making the trip with him, enjoyed the life aboard ship. The German food got special mention — turkey and duck, hot German sausage and limburger cheese.

There was a movie three nights during the 10-day trip — the same movie every time; and dancing to the "fine German music," almost every night. Mr. S. said he really enjoyed the music, but he didn't appreciate the women smoking — and he didn't do any dancing, just listening. He said Arthur took in every nook and cranny of the ship, but the "steps were too steep" for him to follow.

A baby was born on shipboard, which Mr. S. said was rather strange as women more than six months pregnant were not permitted passage. And a 69 year old man, trying to get to Germany for surgery, died at sea.

Arrive in Germany
The latest letter from Karl Sammann, who is in Germany visiting his native city, Esens, was addressed to all his friends in Plainview. He and his son, Arthur, arrived in Esens on August 1, and Mr. S. found the town was much larger than when he last saw it.

The streets and sidewalks are very narrow, and he saw many bicycles and motorcycles as well as small foreign cars in use. The town is only a short distance from the North Sea, and he stated the weather is very cold and they wear coats most of the time. Mr. S. wrote that much rye is raised there as well as a lot of cattle, mostly Holsteins. It rains so much the farmers find it hard to harvest their grain. He says the prices are about the same as in the United States, some cheaper and some higher.

He and Arthur have been so busy writing letters home they haven't had much spare time, he said, but a later letter to Mrs. Sammann said that they now have a car and are planning to leave for Holland to visit the nieces of his brother-in-law.

German People Are Grateful For American Aid
The German people are very grateful for American aid, reports Karl Sammann, Plainview, who with his son, Arthur of Tullia, has just returned from a visit in Esens, Germany, his native city. Mr. Sammann said he noted this attitude everywhere in Germany. "They told me again and again," he said, "that they would have starved to death right after the war if our food and help had not come, as there was nothing left for them to eat."

A royal welcome was accorded Mr. Sammann and his son when they arrived in Esens. The Mayor, the city secretary and the county judge were waiting at the depot to welcome them. None of these men had automobiles, but they had arranged taxi transportation for the American guests. It was Mr. Sammann's first return to Germany since his father brought him to the United States

State Fair Portrait Gallery

All the animals will be there, the blue-bloods in all their proud splendor, at the 1958 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, October 4-19. The fabulous Pan-American Livestock Exposition will present unprecedented champions of 26 breeds of beef and dairy when he was eight years old. Mr. Sammann found some familiar spots in his old home — the house in which he was born was still standing with very little change, and the school he attended was in good repair. The beautiful old church, built in 1850, in which he was baptized, was untouched by the war, though nearby buildings were destroyed by bombs.

In describing the county Mr. Sammann remarked "The streets in most of the towns are very narrow, two cars can just pass. All the streets are paved, and all the houses, built of stone, are very close together. There are no wooden houses in any of the countries visited. The land was very level and fertile, and crops were good, except for the grain which had received too much rain. There is lots of cattle in all of the low countries, all Holsteins. The farmers all milk cows, and it looked like the country is in the creamery business as there are creameries every few miles along the highways."

Mr. Sammann and Arthur rented a Volkswagen for their travels, and covered 4,000 miles. They found many paved roads, bordered with trees and almost all the driving was alone these shaded routes. They entered Holland on the northern end and went all the way through Belgium, crossing two rivers on ferries because there were no bridges.

They spent one day at the Fair in Brussels and were much impressed with the huge U.S. pavilion. They wanted to visit the Russian building but it was closed that day for cleaning. After leaving Belgium they went to Switzerland, then returned to northern Germany along the Rhine highways. They were thrilled at the sight of the many freighters and passenger ships on the big river. They visited many of the larger cities in the Rhine valley, Basel, Strassburg, Mannheim, Bonn, the present site of the government, and others.

They rested a few days, visiting around Esens, then drove to Bremen and Hamburg and up into Schleswig-Holstein and Denmark. The people in the area adjoining Denmark do most of their shopping for dairy products and sugar in that country, Mr. Sammann said, as the prices are about half what they are in Germany.

The trip over was made on a German liner, landing at Bremerhaven on August 1. They came home by air, boarding a Pan American plane at Hamburg. Landings were made at London and Shannon, Ireland, where buses took the passengers on sightseeing tours, but Mr. Sammann did not leave the plane. They were ten days crossing the ocean to Europe and about ten hours traveling over it flying home.

Before returning to Texas, the Sammann men visited Niagara Falls, crossing over to the Canadian side of the falls. They returned to Plainview the same way they left it, via Santa Fe.

"We were gone seven weeks and I enjoyed every minute of the trip, but I was glad to get back to home and friends," Mr. Sammann said — adding a word of appreciation to "the good people of Plainview for helping my dear wife while I was on my visit to the land of my birth and childhood."

Floyd Co. Noxious Weed Control Dist.

By Douglas Degge

The grain harvest is getting into full swing now and farmers are urged to take precaution in making sure that all combines which enter their fields are free of all noxious weed seed. Several bindweed infested fields which have been examined here in Floyd County have many seed pods intermingled with the heads which will be mature enough by the time of cutting that it will be inadvisable to use this grain for seed but only for commercial use. Many of these plants will measure four feet in length when stretched above the grain.

The first of several bindweed demonstrations has been set up this week on the J. T. Spears' farm six miles west of Floydada on FM Road 784. The public is invited to stop and see this plot at any time. Plans are to have at least one demonstration in each precinct by the end of October. The purpose of these demonstrations is for the farmer to see what the different chemicals will do to help him make up his mind as to which one or ones he prefers to use and also to find out how effective they are as to kill and sterility of the soil.

The chemicals for this first demonstration were donated by different dealers in Floyd County and one of the chemical distributors in this area. We wish to express our thanks for their cooperation in this program.

FROM THE County Agent's Office

By Cecil Lewis and Harold W. Ellison

Flea Beetles
Flea beetles are still attacking seedling wheat throughout the county and causing economic damage. This small insect over winters in the adult stage and may cause damage during the winter on warm days.

Spraying should be done after the wheat is up so that there will be leaf area to hold the poison. The use of 1 1/2 quarts of toxaphene, 1 quart of heptachlor, and 1-1.3 quarts dieldrin is recommended for the control. This should last from 5 to 7 days. Successful control has been received in using these poisons.

In all probability if we can protect this small wheat until it gets to growing good the flea beetle will not do too much damage.

Angular Leaf Spot

Now is the time to start planning cultural practices to prevent heavy infestations of leaf spot in next year's crop. If at all possible clean ground will help in preventing leaf spot. Plan to turn under all infected plant residue to prevent spread. Plan for acid or saw delinting and seed treatment for the 1959 planting seed. These steps will help control spread in next year's crop. This is not a soil borne disease but is spread by infected plant residue and by the seed.

Plains Cotton Growers Elect Officers At Annual Meeting

Lubbock. — W. O. Fortenberry, Lubbock, and Wilmer Smith, New Home, were re-elected President and Vice President respectively, August 18 at the second annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. held in Lubbock.

Roy Forkner, Lubbock ginners, who is the past president of the Texas Ginners Association, was elected a director of the P.C.G. from Lubbock County. Forkner succeeded Roy B. Davis, Plains County Mill, as a director, and A. (Rip) Elms, Littlefield, Secretary-Treasurer.

The P.C.G.'s second annual meeting, attended by more than 100 farmers, ginners and allied industry businessmen, was highlighted by the appearance of three nationally known U.S. Congressmen and the President of one of America's leading textile corporations.

W. R. (Bob) Poage, Waco, Vice Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, and W. E. Reid, President of the Riegel Textile Corporation, New York City, were featured speakers. Senator Ralph Yarborough of Austin, and Congressman George Mahon, Lubbock, made brief talks at the one-day meeting.

The new legislation under which it appears farmers will operate for the next two years probably will not meet agriculture's long-range problems, Poage told the group. Speaking in informal fashion he told the farmers that he believes "we're going to build up too much cotton in the next two years" under this legislation. "And if we do, we're going to have to re-evaluate our farm program," he said.

The government in the long run will be faced with the necessity of making direct subsidy payments to cotton farmers, he added.

and Mrs. Bill Stringer and Christy, Molly and Christy returned home with her parents to spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffress and family visited her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins and family in Baileyboro Sunday. Mrs. Watkins had minor surgery recently.

Business meeting was held Wednesday night at the church. All reports on Sunday School and Training Union were given. Grades and attendance were both lower than the past month. A committee consisting of James Jeffress, Olen Baird, Marvin Swanner and Bill Rowland, was appointed to discuss building on to the church, as it is badly in need of some new class rooms and a kitchen.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Olen Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas Sunday were their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Baird from Plainview.

Mrs. J. T. Spears will be hostess to the Sand Hill Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. O. C. Phillips. There will be a workshop in Plainview Oct. 8th, 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Everyone is asked to bring a sack lunch. All officers are urged to attend. Meeting time has been changed to Wednesday nights beginning the first of October. It was voted to send the Christmas in August box to Rev. and Mrs. Ed Taylor in Wellington, Texas.

Those present were Mmes. Ed Noel, M. B. Swanner, J. T. Rowan, James Jeffress, T. C. Hollums, Tom Thomas, J. T. Spears and Grover Coffee.

Sand Hill News

By Mrs. James Jeffress
Delayed

Everyone is looking for hands to pull cotton this week, and looks like they may be pretty scarce. A few bales of cotton was pulled last week. Some feed has been cut but most of it is still too green.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Durham accompanied their daughter, Anita, to Canyon Sunday where she enrolled in West Texas Monday. Mr. Durham went on to Amarillo, where he will be until Wednesday on business. Mrs. Durham returned home with friends Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Earp and Brad of Munday spent the week end visiting their daughter, Mr.

Reid, who is also a director of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, told the group that "we need a realistic cotton policy that will enable us to expand our foreign markets and to sell aggressively against our competition here and abroad."

"As a major supplier of raw material, your future must parallel that of your customers. Over the long term, your prosperity must be equated with that of the manufacturers."

"If the spinner and weaver cannot get the kind of cotton they need, in the right quantity to remain competitive with other materials and textile fibers, cotton's kingdom will topple," Reid said.

In calling the meeting to order, Charles A. Guy, Editor and Publisher of the Avalanche-Journal, told the group that he considers the founding of the Plains Cotton Growers one of the most important steps the cotton industry has taken "in the 36 years I've been on the Plains."

In the President's opening remarks, Fortenberry pointed out that the PCG played a prominent role in getting light spotted cotton recognized as a separate grade in the government loan — which is part of the new farm bill — and this could mean as much as $14 million to this area off a crop such as the one produced in 1957.

Smith traced the progress the PCG has made in research, service and promotion in giving the annual report.

Directors of the P.C.G. elected to serve this year, include: Guy Nickels and Joe Sooter, Bailey County; Jim Burkett and W. C. Couch, Borden; Bill Wilbanson and Lee Deavenport, Briscoe; George Gabel and Edd McLeRoy, Castro; Willard Cox and J. R. Kuykendall, Cochran; Ed Smith and Mell Cherry, Crosby; E. D. David and Ben Dopson, Dawson; Joel Hodges, Jr. and W. H. Andrews, Deaf Smith; Lloyd Hindman and G. B. FLOYD COUNTY FAIR

I was very happy that I could attend the opening of the Floyd County Fair, the Bar-be-que and watch the parade.

Everyone who participated in these events can feel justly proud of their part in making the 1958 Fair the best yet.

The Bar-be-que, which, I believe, over 800 people attended, is evidence of the fact that people still like to get together and hear what other people are and have been doing.

The parade, which a lot of people have stated was the biggest and best ever, proves that people are still proud and like to show others what they have to offer by entering floats, exhibits, displays, etc., in a parade as well as out at the Fair grounds.

The Telephone Company is certainly proud of "Oley" Olson and the part he played in helping you fine people with the 1958 Floyd County Fair.

HOLIDAY HELPER

Weekend hunting trips, out of town football games, and pleasant drives to nearby cities are just around the corner now.

If weekend excursions are on your calendar, why not let long distance give you a hand with the arrangements.

A long distance call is the easiest way I know to arrange overnight accommodations, plan visits with friends, check on ticket reservations, save time and trouble on the dozens of details that go into planning a trip.

And when you've reached your destination, a quick call home to make sure everything's all right is worth a lot to your peace of mind. You can relax and enjoy your weekend even more.

TAKE AUTUMN INDOORS

The cool days and brilliant colors of Autumn seem to give folks extra energy for finishing up projects like redecorating and repainting around the house.

And your family's telephones shouldn't be overlooked when you bring that touch of Fall indoors. Add color phones just as you would new slip covers or curtains for perfect harmony in a favorite setting.

Cherry red, rose, rose pink, and pastel yellow are Indian Summer colors that will add a note of warmth and cheer all winter. Phones in moss green, light beige and aqua blue complete color schemes with a touch of softness.

Our gleaming white phones are just the thing to fill a woman's demand for efficiency and clean style in the kitchen. Ivory and light gray are distinctive colors for the elegant touch.

Call the telephone business office today and choose your telephone colors for Autumn in the traditional table instruments or the new wall models.

Everyday Special for Real Bargain Hunters

YOU'D stop . . . and you'd act . . . if you ever saw a sign like this in a store window. All of us like bargains, hunt bargains . . . and grab them — if we see them.

But some of us don't see the biggest bargain of all — the dividend we draw from buying at home.

Statisticians tell us that a home-spent dollar will turn over 3 or 4 times in the community before it normally moves on to some other area. That means $3 or $4 or more local trade volume for every dollar we spend here. Which makes the "$3 for $1" sign not too far-fetched after all.

More local trade volume brings more local prosperity . . . and all the things that go with it. Thus . . . the biggest REAL BARGAINS in the world: the things we buy at home.

Longhorns Upset Tulia, 14-6

In rain-soaked Mitchell-Zimmerman Field Friday evening the scrappy Lockney Longhorns upset Tulia's powerful Hornets 14-6 to get back on the victory trail. Some 2,000 fans packed on as the Longhorns used ball control and a powerful offense to down the District 1-AA favorites.

The Longhorn line was again instrumental in the Big Red forward wall — Byron Brock, Duane Duvall, Dan Smith, Ronnie Harris, Stephen Minter, Milton Mickey, David Roberson — outcharged Tulia boys throughout the game.

The Longhorn backfield composed of quarterback Jimmy Calahan, halfbacks Ronnie Thornton and Jackie Don Calahan, fullback Race showed vast improvement over previous years. All four made nice gains during the battle. Terry played a good game at defensive halfback and Alvin made several nice punt returns.

Race broke the back with 1:36 to play in the first quarter when he drove from the one yard line to the end zone for two extra points. The Minter ran across for a first down on Tulia's 31 yard line. The guard-linebacker Ronnie Calahan covered a fumbled Lockney kick nine to cross the double.

The Hornets got back into the game in the second stanza when fullback Buzzy Poage drove on a dazzling 66 yard return. Poage was stopped on an attempt to drive for an extra point.

Mickey added another TD in the final period when he drove the ball to the end zone for a one yard out to cap a 21-yard drive.

The touchdown was set up by a nice punt return by Hayes. Race was stopped as he attempted to add two points.

A 1.35 inch rain was recorded Friday afternoon, but, due to the fine turf on Mitchell-Zimmerman Field, did not greatly affect the running attack of either team. However, the ball was slick and few passes were thrown.

The defending District 2-AA champion Longhorns have posted a record of two wins and one loss.

Recap of the game: Lockney elected to receive the opening kickoff. Clark returned the ball to Lockney's 39. Thornton made 9, Race

The Longhorn "B" squad came out on the long end of an 8-0 score last Thursday against Idalou "B" there. Lockney's freshmen didn't do so well, losing 20-14.

The "B" squads were locked in a scoreless battle until the last four minutes of the game when tackle James Davis blocked a punt which end Billy Dan Rolling picked up and ran across the goal. Fullback Bill Mangold ran for the extra two points.

According to Coach Troy Lemley, Davis, halfback Lewis Eiland and quarterback Jake Wofford showed up well for the local team.

DEAR DIARY—Jean Carter of Atlanta, Ga., enrolled as a junior at Emory this month, but she's still dreaming of her days as the 1938 Maid of Cotton. Reading the diary she kept on tour, she recalls: (1) "We went boating in the San Diego Harbor in between posing for fashion pictures. What fun." (2) "What a royal reception we received in Rotterdam, Holland. The welcoming committee wore bowlers and tails. Crowds on bicycles followed our open convertible." (3) "Midnight in Jamaica and my first fashion show after leaving New York. I modeled my beautiful cotton brocade evening gown in the moonlight on the terrace of the Round Hill Hotel." The contest to choose the 1939 Maid of Cotton is now open, and Jean says, "There's a wonderful and thrilling seven months in store for the girl who wins the title. I know." Complete details on the contest are available from the National Cotton Council, P.O. Box 9995, Memphis 12, Tenn.

I see where the U. N. kind of word to sleep here the other day and woke up to find somebody had sneaked over an outlandish proposition to let the Middle East folks run their own squabbles.

My jug-bitten neighbor says a doctrine like this could get to spreading if it's not watched, and next thing we'd know everybody would be minding his own business and letting his neighbors' go to pot.

Might even get so epidemic that federal know-bests would abandon our schools, farmers, and whooping cranes to fumble out their own problems without the benefit of Washington wisdom.

2,000 Attend High Plains Field Day

Ninety-seven communities and seven states were represented at the second Annual Field Day of the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation at Halfway, Sept. 17th. Over two thousand visitors participated in the tours which began at 1:00 p.m., and ended with the barbecue at 6:15. Due to an early harvest this year, the number attending did not exceed that of the first Field Day.

Projects with top popularity were the recharge well, irrigation studies, grain sorghum and cotton varieties, and fertilization tests. 147 varieties of corn, 37 varieties of cotton and 155 varieties of grain were on display. Experiments at eight steps on the implement exhibit created considerable interest.

Harold Hinn, Chairman of the Council, expressed appreciation for the many volunteers who made the smooth operation of the Field Day possible. These volunteers came from the Chambers of Commerce, surrounding communities, Experiment Station, Soil Conservation Service, county agents, fertilizer implement companies.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fountain, Colorado, Mrs. Burton Thornton, Colorado, came Friday, friends and relatives.

Most people are beginning to see us made complete and we appreciate every visit," he said.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Edgar Hays, The Lockney Beacon, Lockney, Texas

Dear Mr. Hays:

The officers and directors of the Greenbelt Bowl Association sincerely appreciate the publicity and news stories which you have published in your paper concerning our game. We fully realize that without the cooperation and good will of the various news media our efforts could not be the success that it has been each year.

We wish it were possible to place paid advertising with each news media. Our total capacity in our stadium is only 5,025 which gives us a maximum possible gross of $6,000. From this gross must come the cost of housing, feeding, and transportation costs for the players; pay for the coaches and trainers, and the many other costs of such an effort. Our game is sponsored as a civic, non-profit project. All profits, if any, go into the youth recreation program in Childress. We have tried to make the game as interesting as possible to the spectators and to keep the sponsorship completely clean of commercialism.

It is our sincere hope that you will continue in the future to give this game your support. Thanks again.

Yours truly,
W. T. "Bill" Thompson

International Letter Writing Week will be celebrated in Lockney during the week of October 5 to 11. Postmaster Jeffie Griffith announced today.

Twenty-one years ago, realizing the importance of written communication, the Post Office Department joined in the observance of an annual letter writing week — an event celebrated to emphasize the meaning and value of letter writing as a link between people throughout the world.

Postmaster Griffith explained that by participation in both International Letter Writing Week this worthwhile objective is promoted between all peoples everywhere.

Letters between our citizens and between peoples of different nations are a sure method of establishing friendly relationships and understandings."

"I urge all citizens of Lockney to join in this celebration of International Letter Writing Week. And at the same time, don't overlook your friends and relatives in America. Write them a letter too!"

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Teacher pay raises, an issue that has packed legislative galleries in past years, will probably return next session.

Base pay raises of almost $600 a year will be recommended to the Legislature by the Hale-Aiken Committee. This group of 24 lawmakers and private citizens has spent almost two years in a massive study of ways to improve Texas' public school program.

Its recommendations, now being readied for final presentation, would, for the most part, involve extra spending running into the millions. Cost of moving up the floor on teacher salaries is estimated at $70,000,000 a year.

Advocates say better salaries are necessary to attract and hold enough good teachers. But even within the committee there were objections.

Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, co-chairman, voted against the raise recommendation. He said this, plus other proposals would mean "about a quarter of a billion dollar tax bill."

Other committee members said they felt the problem was not a shortage of teachers, but unequal distribution. While small districts may have trouble filling faculties, they said, some cities have a surplus.

Many legislators, elected on "economy in government" platforms, can be expected to echo Hale's sentiments. Since a huge state deficit is foreseen without raising the cost of anything, the squeeze could be especially acute.

Teachers, always a potent force because of their number, might be substantially reinforced by the current concern to "catch up with the Russians" in education. A head-on crash between these groups and the economy flashes might well provide the flashiest fireworks of the next session.

NO THANKS — Another Hale-Aiken Committee suggestion: Texas should quit accepting federal money for the school lunch program and vocational education.

Federal funds now received are estimated at $9,000,000 a year. Committee said local districts and parents should pay for these services.

It did recommend, however, that federal aid be continued to districts where military installations bring in a large non-tax-paying attendance.

Other committee recommendations:

1. State should quit levying property tax, leave this source to local districts.

2. Permanent School Fund should be kept as an endowment, not spent for current needs.

3. Counties, not state, should bear the cost of maintaining county school superintendents' offices.

BRIGHTER WEATHER — Texas Securities Board reviewed its first year as a separate state agency and declared the "investment climate" had improved under tougher regulation.

Securities Board was set up by the last Legislature by combining functions formerly handled partly by the Secretary of State's office, partly by the Insurance Department.

Texas' investment climate "was very poor" when the new law went into effect, said Board Chairman Maurice Bullock. Score for the "tightening-up" years: (1) a drop of 37 per cent in the number of licensed securities dealers, (2) investigation under way in 215 cases of possible securities law violation and (3) 75 cases referred to district attorneys over the state.

Bullock said the Board's aim was to weed out the wild promotion schemes so as to restore confidence in Texas securities, but not to be so zealous as to discourage legitimate offerings.

LOCAL PARKS URGED — Several parks now under the administration of the State Parks Board should logically be in the hands of local communities, according to State Auditor C. H. Cavness.

Cavness' audit report on the Parks Board noted that Gonzales State Park had been turned over to the city of Gonzales. Others used on a community basis also could be community operated, he said.

Cavness also noted the addi-

Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner officiated at an impressive candlelight service installing new officers for the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday night, Sept. 18, in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Hodel.

The next meeting will be held October 2 at the Fashionette Beauty Shop. Members are reminded that 1959 dues should be in by October 1. Anyone interested in joining the organization is invited to attend the October 2 meeting.

Pictures Made At LHS Thursday

Pictures for the annual will be made at Lockney High School Thursday of this week for students of the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades.

Senior pictures will be made Tuesday, October 28.

Football pictures and other activity groups will also be made Thursday, according to F. M. Smith, principal.

More Nitrogen May Be Needed On Wheat

College Station — The heavy stubble from last year's wheat crop is responsible for a situation which makes the use of nitrogen fertilizer more important for this year's crop. The situation, says W. F. Bennett, extension soil chemist, means that more of the soil nitrogen will be tied up in the process of decomposing the heavy stubble and a nitrogen shortage will exist.

This shortage would result in a reduced growth rate for this year's wheat crop during the fall and winter months, says Bennett. The nitrogen needs will vary depending upon the amount of stubble and present level of soil nitrogen. Nitrogen needs at planting time, believes Bennett, will generally vary from 20 to 50 pounds an acre. A soil test can be used to determine the amount.

Phosphorus and potash are found in good supply in some soils but in others these vital plant food elements may be deficient. Here again a soil test could prove most helpful.

Bennett says that in addition to the nitrogen applied at the time of planting, another application in late January or early February might prove profitable if the supply of soil moisture is good or if the wheat is irrigated.

For information on soil testing, the chemist suggests visit with the local agent. Generally, he adds, 10 days are required for the laboratory before getting the results to the farmer.

CROSS ROAD REPORT

Dear Editor: I note some pretty cries around over the cause because Alabama has been planning to eradicate a man who beat up and robbed an old lady.

Seems most of the blame on account of he only $1.95 for his trouble.

My anti-mugger neighbor says maybe these hearted folks could see this character eliminated if his victim had been an old lady with, say, $50,000 to raise his crime up to the class with malicious chief and petty murder.

WATER NEEDS FORECAST

— Demand for Texas surface water is expected to triple in next 50 years. Prediction is by Harry P. Burleigh, area engineer for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

Where will it all come from? Burleigh says enough water is now being wasted to meet that demand. Problem of saving it is up to engineers to solve. Needed is a simple low-cost means of capturing run-off water now flowing into the Gulf of Mexico and delivering it to points where it is needed.

Burleigh was one of 10 speakers at a water conference sponsored by Texas A&M College. Gov. Price Daniel praised the recently adopted statewide water program and urged against sliding back into apathy as a result of recent drought-breaking rains.

Revision in the rate structure for city water users was proposed as one means of conservation. Lubbock hydrologist W. L. Broadhurst said that increasing the rate instead of decreasing it as more water is used would cut down household waste.

HIGHWAY WORK AT PEAK

— Two-thirds the way through 1958 the State Highway Department already has placed as much highway construction work under contract as in the entire record-setting year of 1957.

Total for this year reached $224,000,000 this month. Low bids opened in a two-day tabulation for this month's proposed projects amounted to $28,669,432. Department spending on Texas roads in the next three years is expected to reach one billion dollars, Highway Commission Chairman Marshall Formby said.

On Sept. 20, 1814, after the national Capitol had been destroyed by the British, Congress moved into Blodgett's Hotel under guard of U.S. Marines.

The U.S. Navy's missile age began Sept. 6, 1947, when a V-2 rocket was successfully launched from the aircraft carrier USS Midway.
