

395 celebrate 'difference you've made'

A crowd of 395 enjoyed a feast and a rapid-fire program of entertainment, inspiration and awards at the 39th annual banquet of the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce last Thursday night in the Expo Building.

Deanne Clark was announced as the Citizen of the Year, Bill Sava received the Citizen Through the Years honor, and Kay Kellar was awarded the Teacher of the Year plaque.

Also, Dr. James E. Wohlgemuth received a special plaque of appreciation for his 37 years' service to the community. Dr. W. J. Hill made the presentation to the recently retired optometrist.

Master of Ceremonies Gerald Hanners praised the Methodist Men for the filet mignon dinner which they catered for the big crowd and served in record time. Members of the Dimmitt Dynamos greeted and registered banquet-goers as they arrived, and the high school cheerleaders served the tables.

"Take Stock in Dimmitt . . . Invest Yourself" was the banquet theme. A large mural behind the head table showed Dimmitt's stock going up, and ticker-tape and gold coins decorated the tables. Garland Coleman was the banquet chairman, Susan Coleman headed the decorations committee, and employees of the American Fructose Corporation set up the banquet hall.

Chamber President Doug Pybus presented appreciation plaques to three outgoing directors—Dr. Hill, Chuck Braafladt and Marlos May—and recognized all other board members. Newly elected directors are Garner Ball, Garland Coleman, Danny Newton and Danny Rice. They join Pybus, Bob Towler, Carol Schroeder, Don Nelson, Gene King, Don

Deanne Clark
Citizen of the Year

Deanne Clark, Dimmitt's Citizen of the Year, has provided years of voluntary and elective service to her community.

Still, as presenter Don Nelson said, it was a "tough, tough choice the selection committee had in picking one person to honor as our Citizen of the Year" last Thursday night.

"During the past year, Dimmitt people have made their voices heard in the halls of Congress, in the Departments of Energy and Agriculture, in our schools and churches, in our hospital and city hall, and in our homes and our hearts," Nelson said. "A few have made contributions that will benefit our community and state literally for centuries to come. Others have made significant person-to-person contributions, enriching our lives by their presence and unselfish service."

"Rather than simply tell you what our Citizen of the Year has done, I would like for you to imagine, with me, what our lives and our community would be like without this person," Nelson said.

"What would things here be like if this woman did not realize that the real joys of life come from giving instead of receiving, and from unselfish service instead of self-indulgence?"

"How much more difficult would life be for many of our homebound and elderly people if this woman didn't provide her car and her time to take them to the doctor's office or the store?"

"What would the progress of a young brain-damaged boy in Hart be if our Citizen of the Year had not worked with him, and enlisted other workers, in the relatively new volunteer service known as team patterning?"

"What would life in her church (First United Methodist) be like if she did not play a major role in it, as a Christian educator at all levels, as a certified elementary church-lab instructor, as a Vacation Church School worker, as a youth coordinator, as a singer, as a local member and former district officer of the church women's group, or . . . most

Bill Sava
Citizen Through the Years

Dimmitt Postmaster Bill Sava has brought regional and nationwide recognition to Dimmitt through his voluntary work as an instructor of Odyssey of the Mind teams, author of a musical about Dimmitt and its people, three-time director of the Harvest Days Follies, youth worker and civic booster.

For these and other accomplishments, he was named Dimmitt's Citizen Through the Years last Thursday night.

In presenting the award, Deanne Clark commented, "Believe it or not, there are people who were not born in Dimmitt who move here and make it their own. These people become involved in the community's activities and make Dimmitt even better than it is by welcoming visitors and newcomers, promoting its businesses, pitching in on its cleanup and beautification, and by giving all customers a fair shake."

"Some of these transplants work with our young—in our churches, in our schools, in choral groups and on a one-to-one basis. Our Citizen Through the Years has given untold hours of service to the children and youth of this community."

"There are even newtimers . . . who pull us together in projects and activities—often at a cost of time and patience that goes unrecognized. Our recipient has worked for several years on community-wide promotions both as leader and follower."

"The history of our town and its leaders has been preserved and publicized by our honoree. None of the deeds of our Citizen Through the Years is done for personal gain. No award is expected. . . ."

After calling a group forward to sing "We Live in D-I-double M-I-double T," which Sava wrote for his musical, The Times and Tales of Mr. Goose, Mrs. Clark told the audience, "As our friendly postmaster, Bill Sava, comes forward, let me tell you that he is 49 years of age and was born in Texarkana, Ark. His wisdom and insight is evident in his choice of Jackie Freymuth of Tucumcari, N.M., as his

Kay Kellar
Teacher of the Year

Kay Kellar, Dimmitt's Teacher of the Year, was cited Thursday night as "a wonderful motivator who never gives up on a child."

She was presented the award by Charles Cotter, last year's winner.

Mrs. Kellar, a second-grade teacher in Richardson Elementary School, was nominated for the special award by 22 co-workers, including three principals with whom she has served during her 23 years as an elementary teacher here.

"She is a person people feel comfortable with," Cotter said. "She has a positive outlook and an accepting nature. She can make children believe in themselves and has a deep concern and love for her students. She is known to all her co-workers as a responsible and conscientious person."

Mrs. Kellar has compiled 126 hours of credits for certification in bilingual education, Cotter noted. She is a former officer in the Texas Classroom Teachers Association; is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, professional sorority for women educators; and has served on the school district's Five-Year Plan committee.

In addition to her school and professional alliances, she is a past president of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, has worked on the Harvest Days Parade, "and always supports Dimmitt's community activities," Cotter said. She, her husband Tommy and their son, Ty, 17, are members of the First Christian Church, where she has served as a Vacation Bible School teacher.

"Our Teacher of the Year makes learning exciting for her students," Cotter said. "She has the talent to get from every child his or her very best. She is a wonderful motivator and never gives up on a child, working with each one on his own learning level."

"She is an example of the best a teacher can be. She has the respect and admiration not only of her students and co-workers, but also of board members and administration."

"She definitely is a teacher who, on an individual basis, has made a difference in many lives," Cotter said.

Now I know why Dale Van Horn didn't send us an advance press release or photo, as most professional speakers do, before his appearance at the Chamber of Commerce Banquet. Advance knowledge that he is functionally blind would have destroyed the effect of his program.

He's an exceptional guy. I told him after the banquet that he's a good cure for anyone's smugness about their own accomplishments.

Kudos to the Methodist Men for preparing the best, most tender filet mignons we've ever eaten. The guys hand-picked the tenderloins, then trimmed them so there wasn't a speck of fat or gristle in any steak. A meal can't get much more TLC than that. The guys could take their show on the road, for sure.

Who bushwhacked who Monday night?

Vice-President George Bush claimed that CBS News anchorman Dan Rather got him on the interview program on false pretense, then proceeded to turn it into a confrontation by drilling him about his knowledge of the Iran-Contra weapons-for-hostages deal.

Bush lowered the boom on Rather with a fury that made Dan look, as a CNN commentator put it, "like an aging network anchorman facing a midlife crisis."

I think Bush was the ambusher and Rather the ambushee.

With the Iowa caucuses coming up, Bush still needed to shake the undeserved "wimp" tag that some of his opponents have been trying to hang on him. What better way to do it than to rack Rather, the network news star who's the most feared and least liked by conservatives?

I think it was a cunning move on Bush's part, and that we'll see the results of it in the Iowa caucuses and the Republican "Super Tuesday" primaries.

Forty-six states observed Martin Luther King Day recently. Arizona wasn't one of them, because Gov. Evan Mecham vetoed the enabling legislation last year.

Help sought for fire victims

Two families, one at Hart and one near Tam Anne, suffered losses as a result of fires last week.

The home of the Tony Acosta family, located 14 miles west of Dimmitt on SH 86, suffered heavy damage in a fire last Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 19.

Fire broke out in a bedroom of the small home, owned by Charles Rickerd, at about 3:30 or 4 p.m. Acosta is employed by Rickerd.

The bedroom where the fire originated sustained extensive damage, and the entire house was damaged by heat and smoke, according to Friona Fire Chief Jim Taylor. Taylor said the cause of the blaze was undetermined, though Rickerd suggested that it might have been caused by a gas heater.

The heat inside the house was so intense that it melted the thermostat off the livingroom wall.

Using a water hose, the Acosta family managed to extinguish the fire by the time firemen arrived at the scene.

One of Acosta's sons had broken the outside bedroom window, climbed in and rescued his baby sister who was asleep in the burning bedroom. Two of the Acosta's six children received treatment for minor injuries at the Hospital Emergency Room.

The next morning, Jack and Vickie Vise of Hart lost their mobile home to fire.

A fire broke out in the Vise's mobile home at about 9:30 a.m.

Wednesday, Jan. 20, according to Hart Fire Marshall Brad Barnes, rendering the home a

Feb. 7 set as deadline to register

The deadline for voter registration in order to be eligible to vote in the March 8th primary elections is Sunday, Feb. 7.

Those wishing to register may do so in person at the County Tax Assessor-Collectors office or by mail.

Deanne Clark is also taking voter registration applications in Dimmitt, and Marilyn Covington and Jean Kennedy are taking registration applications in Hart.

Those who have registered in person by 5 p.m. Friday, Feb. 5th, will be eligible to vote in the primaries. Applications received in the mail by Monday, Feb. 8th, will also allow eligibility to vote in the March 8th primaries.

Clark, Covington and Kennedy will turn in their final applications on that Monday also, so they may take registration applications on the weekend of Feb. 6-7.

There are currently 4296 registered voters in Castro County, representing about 43% of the county's total population, according to Billy Hackleman, county tax assessor-collector.

Secretary of State Jack M. Rains has instituted a program called "Voter '88", the primary objective of which is to register 1 million voters in Texas this year.

"Voter '88" is an attempt to bring Texas up to par with the national average in the percentage of eligible citizens registered to vote, according to Rains.

On the Go

with Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Opal Odom received a unique Christmas gift from her daughters this year.

On Dec. 26, 1987, she joined friends from Lubbock and Denton to attend the Rose Parade in Pasadena, Calif.

After arriving in the Los Angeles, Calif. area, they had dinner on the Queen Mary, toured the Crystal Cathedral and Universal Studios, spent a day in Disneyland, and saw various historical sites of interest in Los Angeles.

Touring Los Angeles was fun and interesting, but the highlight of the trip was the Rose Parade. The tour group had reserved seats on Colorado Street, which gave them a birds-eye view of the parade and related activities.

The consensus of opinion was that everyone should see the parade in person. The colors are much more vivid and the floats more beautiful than television depicts them.

After leaving the Los Angeles area, the group went to Las Vegas for a day of fun and games. They also toured Hoover Dam and Lake Mead.

Opal and her friends returned home through Old Town Albuquerque. They admired the icy terrain as they left Texas and the beauty of the desert with its capings of snow as they traveled through New Mexico and Arizona.

The beauty palled as they came back into Texas and were met by another ice storm which extended their trip another two days.

Everyone finally made it home safely and all agreed that it had been a wonderful trip.

The installation team of the Hereford Rebekah Lodge 228 installed officers of the Dimmitt Rebekah Lodge 54 last Thursday night. Those attending were Urselle Jacobson, Lydia Hopson, Verba Sowell, Faye Brounlee, Susie Curtisinger, and Leona Sewell. A salad supper followed the meeting.

Dimmitt officers installed were Ocie Bolton, noble grand; Gennie Bruton, vice grand; Mary Lou Weatherford, secretary-treasurer; Willa Mae Reynolds, chaplain; Marzell Powell, warden; Lois Waggoner, conductor; Connie Ivey, musician; and Gene Ivey, inside guardian.

Tommie Sue Nisbett honored Oleta Gollehon on her birthday with a luncheon at K-Bob's. Others enjoying the celebration were Geneva Dennis, Irene Carpenter, Hazel Bagwell, Billye Wesson, Ruth Hays, Mauzee Youts, Mary Edna Hendrix, Connie Ivey and Wilton Graef Armstrong of Hale Center.

The children of Shorty and Rachele Cleaver honored their parents with a 50th wedding anniversary celebration on Saturday afternoon at the Senior Citizens Center. Beth Odom greeted guests and Carol Odom served cake and punch. I visited with Lometa Odom who is a basketball coach in a junior high school at Plainview.

The annual Chamber of Commerce banquet was held at the Expo Building last Thursday night. The theme was Take Stock in Dimmitt, Invest Yourself. The Methodist men served a delicious meal of steak, baked potato, tossed salad, French bread and ice cream.

Gerald Hanners was the master of ceremonies. Rev. Ken Cole gave the invocation, Garland Coleman introduced the guests, and Doug Pybus recognized the directors.

Charles Cotter introduced Teacher of the Year, Kay Kellar. Citizen Through the Years, Bill Sava, was introduced by Deanne Clark. Don Nelson introduced the Citizen of the Year, Deanne Clark.

Garland Coleman was the banquet chairman and Susan Coleman was chairman of the decorations. Arrangements were by American Fructose, servers were the Dimmitt High School Cheerleaders and the Dimmitt Dynamos greeted guests.

The guest speaker was Dale Van Horn of Raleigh, N.C. who was an interesting and delightful speaker. He also played and sang several selections including What a Difference You Made in My Life.

Van Horn has been partially blind since birth and attended the same school for the blind with Ronnie Milsap. He depends on his wife to drive him everywhere he goes and his 15-year-old daughter told him she would be glad to get her driver's license so she could drive for him. He will probably be totally blind in a few years.

A beautiful wedding for a lovely couple, Laine Snider and David Horton, was held Saturday night in the First United Methodist Church with Van Ear Hughes performing the ceremony. Shirley Peggram and Wes and Kimberly Welborn provided the music.

The reception was held at the Country Club where pick-up food was served along with the groom's chocolate cake and the bride's beautiful five-tiered wedding cake.

Among the out-of-town guests were Barry and Stephanie Love of Plainview and the Askews from Dalhart. Mr. Askew was the girls' basketball coach in Dimmitt several years ago.

Bro. David Frazier of Lockney came before the church in view of a call Sunday morning. He was accompanied by his wife, Debbie, and their children, Hadley, Haley and Harmony. After the noon fellowship meal, he preached again and after he had gone, the church extended the call for him to be the pastor. He accepted the call Sunday night when he was notified. They will move to the community in two or three weeks. His first Sunday will be Feb. 14.

Bro. Jim Tilley of Dimmitt visited Monday with L. B. and Teeny Bowden and watched the dialysis process including the coming off process.

Hershel and Retha Wilson have been busy the last two weeks adding a new display room for their arts and crafts.

Don and Sherry Ott, Misty and Meri Lynn moved back into the community from Muleshoe last weekend. The girls started to school at Springlake-Earth Monday.

Lillian Carson left Wednesday for Dodge City, Kansas to stay with Haley and Kacie Carson while their parents, Gene and Bonnie Carson took a few days vacation.

THPD reports Dec. accidents

For the month of December, area highway patrol troopers investigated one fatal accident, one personal injury accident and six property damage accidents according to Brad Parker of Tulia.

One person was killed and one person was injured in these accidents, Parker said.

Amarillo Highway Patrol District Supervisor Capt. Bob Russell reported that his troopers investigated seven fatal accidents, 121 personal injury accidents, and 263 property damage accidents in December.

There were nine persons killed and 198 injured in these accidents, according to Russell.

You and Your Car Have Rights.

If you are required to get several estimates for repairing your car, remember: you don't have to go with the cheapest bid.

The cheapest estimate sometimes isn't the best deal for getting your car repaired adequately. The low bidder may not have the special equipment needed to do your repairs right, or he may not be figuring all the parts that need to be replaced.

Under the law, you have the right to have your car repaired wherever you wish. Your insurance company can negotiate the cost of repairs, but it can't dictate where you have your car repaired. Most insurance companies will pay what it takes to have your car repaired right, if you and your repairman explain what was needed and what was done.

After your car is repaired, if you aren't satisfied with the job, you have recourse through your insurance company. Let your agent or the company know.

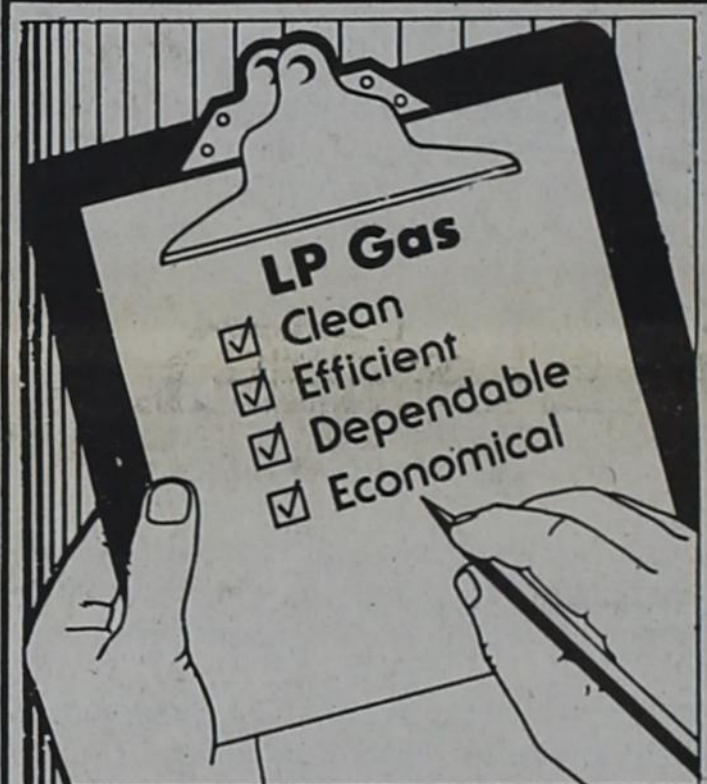

Remember, your insurance company and your repairman both have obligations to you. That's what you're paying your money for.

READY, SET, CLICK! — What do students from all over the world do when they get together? Shoot pictures, of course. Here, foreign students and their Dimmitt hosts pose with each other during a dinner party Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall, one of the highlight events of the three-day "AFS Weekend" which Dimmitt hosted. Eleven exchange students from throughout the Panhandle attended the weekend's events here.

Youths from around world gather here over weekend

Eleven foreign exchange students from throughout the Panhandle gathered in Dimmitt for an "AFS Weekend" Thursday through Sunday. Their gathering here was sponsored by the local American Field Service chapter, and included a full weekend of activities. Each student stayed with a different family, attended classes with their host students Friday, went to the basketball games at Tulia Friday night, lunched together at the Doug Pybus home and had a swim party at Ruskin Racquet Club Saturday afternoon, enjoyed a party featuring sandwiches and banana splits Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall, and attended churches here Sunday morning. After the sandwich supper Saturday—during which many of the exchange students built their own banana splits for the first time—they told about their families and what life was like in their homelands and schools. The visiting students and their host families here were: — Jenny Alistan of Sweden, Harold Hyman family. —Mark Shirley of Ireland, Ray Bradley family. —Johanna Metz of The Netherlands, Arlie Petty family. —Yukari Akiyama of Japan, Larry Morris family. —Florencio Uy of the Philippines, Pete Stewart family. —Vitawat Kasemudhi of Thailand, Jean Petty family. —Nong Sundaratura of Thailand, Johnny Davis family. —Memika Papakosta of Greece, Joe Jossel family. —Riko Teruya of Japan, W. J. Hill family.

—Tomoaki Kungai of Japan, Chuck Braafladt family. (Masatoma Itonaga of Japan, Dimmitt's AFS student this year, also spent the weekend with the Braafladt family.) "AFS Weekends" are designed to enable exchange students in the region to renew acquaintances with each other, meet new people and share experiences of their year in America. Dimmitt, which has one of the oldest and most active AFS chapters in the Panhandle, has hosted several AFS Weekends in recent years.

Snider and Horton exchange vows Saturday

Laine Alea Snider and David Ross Horton were united in marriage Saturday night at the First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt.

The couple were united in a formal, double-ring ceremony with Van Earl Hughes officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snider of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Coder of Arlington.

Guests were registered as they entered the church by Lori Lemons of Dimmitt and Mary Dye of Dallas, both friends of the bride. A soft-sculptured basket of candlelight leno held the wedding programs which were distributed to guests.

The communion table of the sanctuary held contemporary crystal spiral votive candleabra surrounded by greenery and calla lilies flanked by four Boston ferns. Church pews were adorned with votive candles surrounded by bows of forest green ribbon and puffs of candlelight illusion.

A medley of traditional wedding songs were played by Shirley Pegram, organist and Kimberly Wellborn, pianist, as guests were seated. Wellborn sang The Hawaiian Song and I'll Still Be Loving You, prior to the entrance of the bridal party. Kimberly and Wes Wellborn sang Household of Faith and Christian Edleweiss. Grandmothers and mothers of the couple were seated to Henry Mancini's Thornbirds Theme and the bridal party exited to the theme from Dynasty.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents and sister and escorted by her father, walked down the aisle to the Trumpet Voluntary.

She wore an original couture formal evening gown of candlelight silk paperweight taffeta. Tiny covered buttons extended down the back of the body-skimming torso to a godet, which fell into a chapel-length train. An oversized candy box bow with cascading tie ends caught the top of the godet. A simple scooped front and back neckline enhanced the dramatic full-skirted ballroom sleeves which ended at her wrists with tiny covered buttons.

She wore pearls and a blue garter that was worn by her mother at her wedding on the same day 33 years ago.

The bride's headpiece was a vee-shaped band of seed pearls and tear drops which held a pouf of illusion edged in candlelight antique satin. A shower of lilies of the valley and seed pearls with filament cascaded down the back and on the shoulders.

She carried a hand bouquet of six fresh calla lilies surrounded by clouds of candlelight illusion.

Linsae Graham of Lubbock served her sister as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Tiffany Young, Harker Heights, cousin of the bride; Amber Horton of Arlington, sister of the groom; Kathy Williams of Houston, friend of the bride; and Kim Sisco of Duncanville, sorority sister of the bride.

Each attendant wore a forest green iridescent taffeta ankle-length gown fashioned after the bride's gown.

Each bridesmaid wore a headpiece designed with a band of black beads topped by a pouf of black illusion.

The maid of honor carried a hand bouquet of fresh calla lilies, while the bridesmaids carried a single flower, all encased with candlelight illusion.

Austin Dean Horton of Lubbock, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Kevin Riley of Springlake, college roommate of the groom; Robert Boozer of Dimmitt, childhood friend of the groom; Kevin Smith and Tim DeBusk, both friends of the groom from Lubbock.

Flower girls were Megan Nordyke of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, and Ashley Irons of Dimmitt,

MRS. DAVID ROSS HORTON
... nee Laine Alea Snider

niece of the groom. They wore ankle-length Priscilla gowns of forest green iridescent taffeta with candlelight tights, black shoes and headpieces similar to the bridesmaids' attire. The flower girls candlelight taffeta baskets were tied with forest green ribbon and held petals used to mark the bridal path.

A reception honoring the couple was held at the Dimmitt Country Club following the ceremony.

The room was decorated with ivory wooden lattices intertwined with forest green bows and greenery.

Small ivory draped tables centered with vanilla candles and bows lined the room for guest seating.

The bride's table, covered with candlelight leno, held a five-tiered coconut and pineapple-filled cake accented with fresh daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The bride's table was presided over by Kim Watson of Ranger and Debbie Underwood of Dimmitt, both friends of the bride.

A traditional German chocolate cake was served from the groom's table by Sherry Irons, sister of the groom.

The cake was served from an ivory-draped round table with a forest green overlay. The table was decorated with tapers in brass holders, a mirrored brass centerpiece, and a brass helicopter representing the groom's business.

Coffee and punch were served from a third round table by Kelly Bagley of Amarillo, friend of the bride.

A fourth round table held a champagne fountain.

Guests enjoyed a menu of pick-up foods consisting of barbecued sausages, bacon bread sticks, an assortment of cheeses and crackers, cream cheese-filled tortilla roll-ups, pretzels, relishes, vegetables and dips, stuffed jalapeno peppers and fresh fruits.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will make their home in Dallas.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Dimmitt High School where she was president of the Student Council, drum major and salutatorian of her class. She received her bachelor of science degree in 1984 and her master's degree in 1985, both from Texas Tech. She is health promotion specialist at Region 10 Educational Service Center in Richardson.

The groom graduated from Arlington High School in 1981 where he was on the baseball team and was involved in aviation training. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Tech. He is owner-operator of North Texas Aviation, Inc. in Grand Prairie.

Shippy makes dean's list

Shippy, a sophomore, posted a 3.53 grade point average for the recently-completed term. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Shippy of Dimmitt.

The dean's honor roll is announced at the end of each semester by Dr. Bill Hardage, academic vice president and dean of the university, and lists the names of students who earned at least a 3.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale while completing at least 12 semester hours during the term.

Bobcats outlast Wildcats in furious battle, 78-68

The Bobcats had to fight one of their toughest district battles in years before outlasting the ball-hawking Littlefield Wildcats, 78-68, in a furious game Tuesday night at Littlefield.

Dimmitt led by only four points with a minute left in the game, but Jeremy Warren sandwiched a pair of clutch free throws and a final basket around a layup by James Alexander in the final 55 seconds to give the Bobcats their 10-point victory margin.

The Wildcats served notice early as they jumped to a 13-6 lead on the hot hands of Richard Cano and Sean Parmer, assisted by the ball-stealing prowess of big David McGehee. Cano finished the first period with 10 points as the Wildcats built a 19-16 lead at the buzzer despite the six-point efforts of Dimmitt's Alexander and Warren McDonald.

Furious full-court defense and sharp shooting characterized the second quarter as the Wildcats struck for 27 and the Bobcats 25, with many of the points coming off of steals and forced errors.

Alexander tied the score for the first time at 21 with a steal and drive early in the second, and Dimmitt got its first lead moments later when McDonald connected to make it 25-23.

The Bobcats extended their lead to seven (35-28), but the Wildcats roared back with free throws by Mark Ellis and Mark King, a three-pointer by Parmer and a basket by Ellis to put the Maroon out front again, 36-35. The two teams traded 10 points within a minute in a glitzy streak of run-and-gun, then a basket by Mark Ellis, a steal and layup by Cano and a pair of free throws by Parmer completed an eight-point Wildcat run to give Littlefield a 46-39 lead. Alexander sank a follow shot to cut Littlefield's advantage to 46-41 at half-time.

McDonald and Alexander for Dimmitt and Cano for Littlefield all finished the first half with 16 points each, while Littlefield's Parmer netted 13. As it turned out, that would be all of Cano's points as the Bobcats successfully shut down the 6-ft. senior guard in the second half.

The Bobcats opened the second half with a vengeance, scoring 13 straight points in the first two minutes to take a 54-46 lead. Alexander and Mat Bradley opened with the first two baskets, Warren followed with a three-pointer, then McDonald scored three straight baskets in quick succession to force the stunned Wildcats into a time-out to regroup. Dimmitt rebounded three missed Littlefield shots, made a steal and forced a turnover on a charging violation to stifle the Wildcats' offense during the run.

The Bobcats never trailed after that, although Littlefield cut their lead to a point, 58-57, at 1:02 of the third. Alexander scored his 24th point of the night on a driving layup to open Dimmitt's lead to 60-

57 at the end of the third. Jason Long sank a baseline shot at the buzzer that would have hiked Dimmitt's lead to five but the refs ruled it was put up too late.

With Warren and Jim Nelson both in foul trouble, Coach Ken Cleveland called off the Bobcats' full-court press late in the third in favor of a half-court defense. Meanwhile, the Wildcats continued to press the length of the court with fresh troops from their long bench.

The teams traded baskets early in the fourth before Littlefield's Ellis cut the Bobcat lead to one again at 64-63 on a short jumper. But Warren hit a pair of free throws and followed with a layup, then Bradley sank two charity shots to make it 70-63 at the three-minute mark.

Leading 72-65, the Bobcats started using the clock. But a missed free throw, a Littlefield rebound and a three-pointer by Parmer made it a four-point game (72-68) and led to a rash of missed free shots and some furious board battles.

With 55 seconds remaining, Warren sank two free throws, then rebounded a long-shot rim-out by Littlefield and fed it to Alexander, who drove the baseline for two to put Dimmitt up by 76-68. Later, Nelson collected his final rebound of the night and it led to another Warren basket to give the Bobcats their final victory margin, 78-68.

It was only the second loss of the year for Littlefield. The victory hiked Dimmitt's record to 20-5, 4-0 in district play.

Early leads, defense lift Naz boys, girls over Happy

Defense was the name of the game Tuesday night when Nazareth's boys' and girls' basketball teams nabbed a pair of crucial District 5-1A victories over Happy.

The Cowgirls, faced with an intense Swiftette man-to-man pressure defense, turned the ball over 18 times in the contest. Nazareth turned seven of the 18 turnovers into 15 points and went on to take a 58-49 win.

In the boys' game, the Swifts, who lost to the Cowboys in a double-overtime thriller just a little over two weeks ago, held Happy to just six first-half points on their way to a 45-29 victory.

The win earned the Swifts, 5-1 in loop play, a share of the district lead with Happy.

"I felt like the kids played the game they needed to tonight," said Swift Coach Roland Shippy. "We played really tough defense — as good as we've played all year. I was surprised we could hold them to 29 points. They are a good team."

The Swifts mounted their early halftime lead by crashing the offensive and defensive boards and forcing Happy to turn the ball over nine times.

"We hit the boards well. Our goal at the start of the game was to keep them outside and not let them have any second shots, and I think we did that," Shippy said.

"We didn't really have a single star. Everybody played well. We moved the ball around and hit the boards. I think we put a little more pressure defense on them this time than we did in the first game. We got second shots on the offensive end," he added.

Happy never held a lead in the game.

The Swifts jumped on the scoreboard first and the closest the Cowboys came to the lead was a tie at 2 and 4 points early in the first quarter.

From then on it was all Nazareth. Kyle Schilling, who finished with 10 points, hit a pair of jump shots inside three minutes to give the Swifts an 8-4 lead after the opening period. Chris Schmucker picked up the first of his three three-point shots in the game at the start of the second period and started an 11-point run that put the game away. Happy's only points in the second period came with one minute left, making the score 21-6, but Schmucker sank his second three-pointer at the buzzer for a 24-6 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Swifts jumped out to a 20-point lead several times, and Happy never came closer than 16 points for the rest of the game.

Schmucker paced the Swifts with 15 points while Heath Schulte added 14.

"We kept our composure tonight. This is the kind of game you dream about. We got the big lead and didn't let them back in it. I think the guys have really looked forward to this game," Shippy said.

The Swiftettes opened a 6-0 lead in the first quarter, but Happy battled back to knot the score at 8 with 3:38 left in the period. A series of Nazareth steals and Happy turnovers followed, enabling the Swiftettes to build up a 23-9 lead at the end of eight minutes.

Happy shot 100% from the field in the opening period (4 of 4), but the Swiftettes sank 10 of 15 baskets, including a three-pointer by Traci Hill to open up the lead.

The teams traded turnovers for half of the second quarter. Marlena Cogburn scored the first basket of the quarter with 5:33 left and Happy went on to outscore the Swiftettes 9-8, but the first quarter deficit was a little too much for the Cowgirls to overcome and they were still down 31-18 at intermission.

The Cowgirls made a serious run at the start of the third quarter, reeling off six straight points to pull within nine, but Nazareth's Rachel Huseman connected on two shots to end Happy's spurt.

The Cowgirls narrowed the margin to 10 at the start of the final period, but eight points was as close as they would come to the No. 1-ranked team in the state.

The Swiftettes improved their record to 23-2, 6-0 in district

GETTING READY TO ACCEPT—Cheryle Pybus, wife of Chamber of Commerce President Doug Pybus, makes a big display of getting ready to accept an award while Deanne Clark extols the good qualities of the Citizen Through the Years during the annual CofC Banquet Thursday night. It was part of an act which later included Mrs. Pybus and others in an ensemble singing "D-I-double M-I-double T," which was composed by the real Citizen Through the Years winner, Bill Sava.

Boulter feels state needs a 'responsible alternative'

Beau Bolter of Amarillo, Congressman from the 13th District, announced recently his plans to seek the Republican nomination for Senator and a chance to face the incumbent, Democrat Lloyd Bentsen, who is seeking re-election to that post.

Saying that the people of Texas deserve a responsible alternative to Lloyd Bentsen's record of tax and spend, Boulter points to his leadership in the founding of the bipartisan Grace Caucus, which is now the largest congressional organization on Capitol Hill and is dedicated to reducing government waste. Boulter says the group has saved the American taxpayer almost $70 billion in the last three years.

He has worked actively for reduced government spending, preservation of the Social Security system (especially cost of living adjustments), and a strong national defense, and led the fight against a congressional pay raise passed earlier this year.

Elected to represent the 13th Congressional District in 1984, Boulter was re-elected with a 65% majority. He had previously served on the Amarillo City Commission, defeating a five-term incumbent for the position in 1981.

Boulter serves as a member of the House Budget Committee, and is the chairman of the House Republican Energy Task Force. He was recently honored by the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association for his work to promote a national energy policy.

A graduate of the University of Texas, he finished in the top 5% of his class at the Baylor University School of Law. He and his wife, Rosemary, have a son, Matt, and two daughters, Libby and Rebecca.

LEARNING GOOD HABITS EARLY

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

This statement (made by Solomon, thousands of years ago) is just as true and vital today as it was then.

Teach your children the good practice of saving for the future. Teach them to attend worship services in God's house by taking them

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Cargill to aid students

One hundred and fifty high school seniors from farm families throughout the United States will be awarded $1,000 college scholarships this spring by the Cargill Scholarship Program for Rural America.

"This program, now in its third year, is designed to recognize and encourage academic achievement, accomplishments and talents of young people from U. S. farm families and to help them get started with their post-secondary education," said Calvin Anderson, executive director of the sponsoring Cargill Foundation. The foundation is a philanthropic arm of Cargill, a Minneapolis-based agribusiness company.

To qualify, students must have plans for full-time enrollment this year at an accredited two- or four-year college, university or vocational-technical school. An independent national scholarship service organization manages the selection process, which is based on several criteria including academic records, leadership and extra-curricular accomplishments.

Scholarships are limited to two per community. Local high schools and Cargill offices have further information and applications forms. Children of Cargill employees are not eligible.

True Value named home security specialists

Killingsworth True Value Home Center has been named the authorized Black and Decker Security Specialist for Castro County and the surrounding area.

"The Justice Dept. estimates that one home is burglarized every eight seconds in the U. S., creating a huge need for home security. Companies like Black and Decker and True Value are trying to respond to this need by providing people with new, more reliable ways to protect their home," Jim Killingsworth of Killingsworth True Value Home Center said.

Your chances of being burglarized are greater today than in 1973, Killingsworth noted citing a Justice Dept. survey on the incidence of home burglaries.

According to the survey, home burglaries in small cities are up 55%, and are up by 51% in rural areas, by 37% in large cities and by 36% in suburban areas.

The survey noted that 70% of burglaries involve forced entry. 46% of all home burglaries occur in the daytime, 34% in the evening and 20% at night.

According to the survey, 24% of home burglaries occur in spring, 26% in summer, 25% in fall and in winter, 25%.

You could be assaulted as well as burglarized, statistics show. Three-fifths of the rapes and one-third of the assaults that occur at home are committed during a burglary.

The chances of a burglary occurring drop dramatically for persons with a home security system that sounds an alarm, according to the FBI.

Boulter's bid spurs reaction

Formation of the "Panhandle Republicans and Independents for Bentsen" was announced at a press conference in Amarillo last Thursday.

Jerry Hodge and Jim Simms, Amarillo businessmen, announced the formation of the committee to assist in the re-election of Senator Lloyd Bentsen. Hodge is a former mayor of Amarillo, and Simms is past president of the Amarillo School Board. They will serve as co-chairmen of the new group.

"The Panhandle Republicans and Independents for Bentsen is being organized as a response to Congressman Beau Boulter's announcement that he will give up his congressional seat to run against Sen. Bentsen," said Hodge.

"Most of us have been Boulter supporters and would have been delighted to work for his re-election," Simms remarked. "However, most of us also have voted for Sen. Bentsen, and we think his continued service in the Senate is vital to Texas and the nation."

He added, "We pleaded with Beau to stay in Congress since we had worked to get him elected and we felt he had done a good job, but he wouldn't take our advice. Now, we feel we need to let Sen. Bentsen know he has a lot of support in the Panhandle from Republicans and Independents. We appreciate what he has done for us over the years."

People believe if a spider swings down in front of you, you will hear good news.

'School Nurse Week' set

Gov. Bill Clements has proclaimed this week, Jan. 25 - 29, as School Nurse Awareness Week.

A professional registered nurse is recognized as a health specialist in the educational setting, according to Sunny Thomas, Texas Education Agency School Nurse Director.

It is understood that a mentally, emotionally and physically healthy child is better capable of taking advantage of quality education, Thomas said. The school nurse strengthens the educational process by administering the health program which is focused on the promotion of healthy lifestyles, the provision of specialized health services, to meet the needs of individual students, and the prevention of illness or injury.

The TEA and Gov. Clements encourage you and your school to recognize your registered nurses during Texas School Nurse Awareness week.

DISD nurses are Grace Killough and Carol Lantz.

DALE VAN HORN performs the hit song which he wrote, "What a Difference You've Made in My Life," during the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet Thursday evening. Most of Van Horn's audience didn't realize until well into his program that the musician and inspirational speaker is functionally blind. In addition to being on the nationwide speaking circuit, Van Horn is a radio personality in Raleigh, N.C., and owns his own recording and production companies.

Sheffy, Richard Stahl and Stan McDaniel on the chamber's governing board for the coming year.

Pybus also expressed his appreciation to the associate directors who served during the past year—Newton, Ball, Harry Jones, Reta Welch and Rick Wright.

One of the evening's highlights was a program by Dale Van Horn of Raleigh, N.C., radio personality, musician and composer.

Most of those in the audience didn't realize until Van Horn was well into his music-and-speaking program that he is functionally blind, and has been since birth.

He explained that his father, a partner in the family construction business, was willing to take a job digging ditches in Raleigh so he could attend the Gov. Moorehead School for the Blind there.

Van Horn became the first student ever to go from the Gov. Moorehead School into public school and graduate—"not because of any special ability on my part but because of the love and concern of a lot of people."

Van Horn went on to graduate from North Carolina State University, and applied for a broadcasting job at virtually all the stations along the eastern seaboard except Station WKIX in Raleigh—"the big momma of all the rock stations in that part of the country, so big that a fledgling need not apply there." His disability kept him from being hired anywhere, he said, until the president of WKIX called him and said, "If you'll take a chance on us, we'll take a chance on you."

Van Horn has been with Station WKIX ever since, and has also built his own production and recording companies, despite a retinal separation that left him totally blind in one eye and a retinal degeneration that now threatens the other eye.

He told of the depression that followed these setbacks, and the inspiration from his wife, daughter and friends that helped him overcome the periods of depression.

"Each of us comes to the table of life with certain gifts and certain limitations," he said. "As God made every snowflake differently, he made every individual differently. Learn to accept and live with your limitations, but give them no more importance than they're worth, and develop your gifts. I've learned that there are worse forms of blindness than mine—the blindness of bigotry, of hate, of ignorance."

Accompanying himself on the piano, Van Horn performed several of the songs he has written, including the hit, "What a Difference You've Made in My Life," which was made famous by his former classmate, Ronnie Millsap.

noticeably . . . as a skilled organist and pianist?

"What would the services at two other churches in our community have been like if she had not volunteered her talent and time to play the piano and organ for them?"

"How would we manage during many of our weddings and funerals, were she not available and willing to provide the music?"

"What would be the status of public education here and elsewhere in Texas without her six years of positive input as the first woman trustee on the Dimmitt School Board, as president of the Panhandle Association of School Boards, or as an active participant at the state level of public education?"

"What would our experience in party politics and self-government be like if this dedicated Republican had not worked diligently to build the Castro County Republican Committee, serve as its long-time chairman and create a viable two-party system in our county?"

"What would be the status of youth and adult tennis here without her efforts?"

"How bright would our days be without the presence of this attractive, talented, cheerful blonde woman with the sunrise smile, who can wear purple and green together and get away with it?"

"In short, what would life in our community be like without the public involvement and private commitment of our Citizen of the Year, Deanne Clark?"

In her comments after accepting the award, Mrs. Clark told the audience, "I was hoping that the person I nominated would win this," and added, "Dimmitt is a community where a newcomer can be made to feel at home, and to belong."

wife. They have four children, Debra, Greg, Scott and Jennifer. Barbara Sava, Bill's mother, now lives in Dimmitt also. Congratulations, Bill, and keep up the good work."

One of those nominating Sava for the award wrote, "It needs to be made known that Bill created the slogan used on the 'Welcome to Dimmitt' signs posted at the entrances of the town. . . .

"Bill has been instrumental in school-sponsored Odyssey of the Mind productions that have brought recognition to Dimmitt on a regional and nationwide level. He has served as coach of at least two teams participating in OM. Countless hours are required to develop and guide young people to take a concept and create a project depicting the concept, and then plan its execution and performance.

"When asked, Bill takes time out from his own time to build props or plan events, whether they be for his church (Catholic) or his civic activities. For example, the joint Methodist-Baptist children's choir needed a castle prop for a specific production and asked Bill's help. He not only designed and built it, but delivered it.

"He makes every attempt to see that all are treated fairly in the business of the local post office. . . . Often his own paperwork requirements are met after hours and on weekends because he stopped to help someone.

"Bill believes in Dimmitt and proves it by promoting it in every way. He contributes that which is lasting to its history through his writing and musical compositions and performances. Nicest of all is his feeling that social status nor color nor creed matters not—with Bill, everyone gets a fair shake."

Another nominator wrote, "Bill's personality and jovial nature generally brighten one's day."

Still another nominator noted Sava's leadership in Dimmitt Kids, Inc., Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and church youth training, and commented, "He is very civic-minded and puts a lot of energy into the youth of the community (at times when no one else will."

Now Arizona is preparing for Evan Mecham Day.

Arizona's foot-in-mouth governor was notified by the secretary of state Tuesday that enough signatures have been validated on petitions to force a recall election against him unless he resigns by Sunday. Meanwhile, the Arizona Legislature is beginning impeachment hearings over charges that he lied about some of his campaign funding.

Mecham, a millionaire car dealer and your ultimate arch-conservative, has been running for public office for a quarter of a century. When he first ran for statewide office, he was so off-the-wall that he couldn't get the endorsement of either Sen. Barry Goldwater or the state's Republican newspapers. That upset him so much that he established his own statewide newspaper chain, the American group, with county editions that had Old Glory in full color on every front page. I got to compete with one of these local American editions. I don't know when his papers folded—it's been since I moved back to Texas—but it was inevitable since they were founded mainly for political motives.

My Arizona friends told me last summer that Mecham would not have won the governorship if it weren't for the state's "brother-in-law" election system, in which a candidate can win office in a three-man race without having to face a runoff election. In this case, an independent candidate jumped into the governor's race and pulled enough votes away from the Democratic nominee for Mecham to slip in. Ever since then he's been an embarrassment to the good people of Arizona.

Police Calls

There was a rash of car burglaries in the city last weekend.

David Allison reported to city police that, sometime between 9 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday, someone took a cassette box and tapes, valued at $170, from his 1970 Dodge.

Larry Morris told police officers that, sometime between 1:30 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. Sunday, someone broke into his 1979 Buick and took a purse. Value of the purse and its contents was estimated at $295.

Jeanna Henson reported that, sometime between 1 a.m. and 9:10 a.m. Sunday, someone broke into her 1979 GMC pickup through the driver's side window and took her purse, checkbook and other items.
