

T. H. Boedeker Services Held Christmas Eve

Funeral services for Theodore Herman Boedeker, a substantial citizen of the Providence Community for more than 50 years, were held at the Trinity Lutheran Church at Providence on Christmas Eve, December 24. Officiating at the services were Rev. A. K. Windecker, pastor of the Providence church, and Rev. Charles Broadhurst, pastor of the Lockney First Baptist Church. Time of services was 2 p.m.

Mr. Boedeker died in Lockney General Hospital at 1 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 23rd. He had been in ill health for some five years and had been a patient at the hospital most of the time for the past 14 months. He was 85 years of age.

He was born at Gay Hill in Washington County, Texas, on November 14, 1874. He was reared in that area and in 1905 was married to Miss Emma Schmidt at Anderson, Texas. The couple moved to Channing in the Texas Panhandle where they lived for several years and while there he directed the building of the Hartley County courthouse which still stands.

In 1908 the family moved to the Providence Community where Mr. Boedeker farmed until ill health forced his retirement in recent years. Mr. Boedeker had been a member of the Trinity Church since 1915. He was a member of the Church Council for some time and was also a member of the Sons of Herman, a German lodge, served for several years as school trustee of the old Prairie Chapel School District. He was known as a friendly, accommodating man and had many friends in this area.

Mr. Boedeker's father was born in Germany but his mother was a native of Texas.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Edwin of Lubbock, Charlie of Lockney and Willie of Levelland; three daughters, Mrs. Jimmie Hodel and Mrs. Robert McDonald, both of Lockney, and Mrs. Emma Benke Kress. Also surviving are a brother, Leo, of Plainview; a sister, Mrs. Clara Morganthaler, Houston; two step-brothers, Eber and Adolph Boedeker, both of Gay Hill; two step-sisters, Mrs. Emma Green and Mrs. Lilly Muere, both of Gay Hill, and 13 grandchildren.

Burial was in Plainview Memorial Park with Carter Funeral Home of Lockney in charge.

VOLUME 58

LOCKNEY, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1959

NUMBER 39

ROGER BABSON'S BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL FORECAST FOR 1960

1. Naturally, as I am just back from Moscow and Berlin, my first thoughts are what will happen to Berlin in 1960. My answer is definitely, "NOTHING WILL HAPPEN." Mr. K will make no more ultimatums; President Eisenhower will continue his peace talks. Therefore the Berlin situation will be just the same in 1960 and 1961 as it is today.

2. There will be no World War started between Russia and the United States in 1960. This does not mean that such a war will not come within 10 years; but just now neither country is ready for it. I am convinced of this after my recent visit to Moscow.

3. Airplane warfare with the dropping of bombs is a thing of the past. We are turning to rocketry with pinpoint precision. Our expensive air bases may gradually be vacated.

4. Moscow is Mr. K's "pride and joy." It is a beautiful city with broad streets and thousands of new apartment houses. Mr. K does not want it destroyed. Furthermore, he wants a reduction in armaments so that he will have money to raise the standard of living in Russia. I forecast he will have to do this in order to hold his power.

5. We first feared a "shooting war"; now we are in a "cold war"; but we will soon be in an "educational war." In 1960 the United States will expend far greater effort on education.

6. Along with the effort to improve education during 1960, I forecast that our teachers will be given a minimum salary of $5,000 and that schools of all states will receive federal aid.

7. I forecast that instead of spending so much money on new school buildings, municipalities will give more attention to discipline, promotions, and sifting, and to the teaching of mathematics, physics, and chemistry in both grammar and high schools.

8. I forecast that some of those who have gone into business will seek teaching jobs, which will be a major force in postponing World War III. School teaching will be a part of our national defense.

9. The Russians are afraid of China, which I hope to visit again in 1960. Hence, I forecast that more friendly relations will develop between China and the United States during 1960.

10. Space travel to the moon is largely for propaganda purposes and to take our minds off of the military phases of rocketry, submarines, and breaking the earth's crust. Only the fear of retaliation will prevent the Russians from starting a world war.

POLITICAL OUTLOOK

11. I will now forecast who the Republican candidates in 1960 will be — Nixon and Rockefeller.

12. The Democratic candidates cannot now be forecast. Senator Kennedy thinks he has the nomination "sewed up"; but Johnson and Symington, and even Stevenson, have large followings.

13. I forecast that relations with Russia will become far more important than the question of inflation.

14. The Republican slogan in 1960 will be, "It is always dangerous to swap horses going across a rapid stream." I therefore forecast that the Republicans will have at least a 50-50 chance of success in 1960.

15. In fact, on the basis of their slogan, I look for a Republican victory, though with a very close margin.

16. I forecast no reduction in taxes of any consequence during 1960.

17. I predict that present defense expenditures will be reduced and the money spent on rocketry, submarines, breaking the earth's crust, and education.

18. There will be very little reduction in foreign aid during 1960.

19. I forecast an attempt in 1960 to increase tariffs on goods imported from Germany, Italy, Japan, and other cheap labor countries.

20. I expect 1960 to be a "do-nothing" year for our Congress. Both parties will be working for continued prosperity.

COST OF LIVING

21. I forecast no substantial reduction in living costs during 1960.

22. The newly imported cheap, low-priced automobiles are here to stay. Their importation cannot be checked.

23. Electric power rates will be lowered in 1960.

24. Clothing should cost less in 1959. In fact, most textiles and plastics will sell for less in 1960.

25. Soap and all forms of washing powder will sell for less in 1960. This applies also to "wonder drugs" and other chemical products.

26. Cost of wooden homes —

price during 1960. Cement and modern machinery will displace bricklaying. Hence, there may not be much increase in the cost of building fireproof apartment houses.

27. The cost of electronic machinery should be higher because of the growing demand for automation to offset the rise in wages.

28. Steel products (especially stainless) — from the tableware to build bridges — will be in used in homes to the steel used greater demand in 1960.

29. The demand for most food products will increase during 1960. This should especially help the United Fruit Company, as bananas give the most nourishment at the least cost of any known food.

30. I forecast increases in rents, maintenance, and taxes. But supermarkets will compete with one another and the housewife should benefit therefrom.

Florida is a good place for middle-aged people to buy a home in a small city as insurance for the time when they retire. Persons buying such homes should depend upon a check from the North every month and not depend upon getting a job in Florida. Even today in Florida one person in ten is over 65 years of age.

CONCLUSION

The three handicaps to American business in 1960 will be increasing installment purchases, the unfair demands of labor union leaders, and President Eisenhower's physical condition. The three hopes for America are our churches, our schools, and our praying parents.

The trustees of Lockney School District, in a meeting on Monday evening, December 21st, gave final approval to plans for an addition to the present high school building, Supt. H. H. Nicholas said Wednesday.

The addition is estimated to cost $86,000 and equipment will probably cost around $25,000. Mr. Nicholas said. The board expects to be able to pay for the addition and equipment in three years without the issuance of bonds.

The new construction will house a homemaking department and a science department and will contain 7700 square feet of floor space, according to the plans adopted by the board. It is 56 feet north and south and 130 feet east and west and will be attached on to the present high school building at the north end.

Contract will be let about the middle of February, according to the present plans of the board. The process of advertising for and receiving bids is yet to be done.

The building will be one story, brick, tile and steel structure. It will project slightly on the east end to match the south side of the present building.

Rooms included in the new building are a food lab, 26x41 feet; a clothing lab, 27x28 feet; an office 9x12 feet; dining room, 11x12 feet; fitting room, 7 feet 6 inches by 10 feet; living room, 15x15 feet; bedroom 11x15 feet; bathroom, 6x11 feet; chemistry lab, 27x38 feet; project room, 20x26 feet; dark room, 8x11 feet; office, 10x11 feet; combination lab for physics and biology, 37 feet by 26 feet; storage room, 16x26 feet.

EDITORIAL

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. — II Chronicles 7:14.

—oO—
"THIS WAS the era, domestically, when everything was half done; the era, in foreign affairs, when nothing was done right because nobody seemed to care enough to exercise the foresight and take the pains to see that it was done right. This was the time when the job on the car was always half finished, the suit came back from the cleaners half dirty, the yardwork was overpriced and underdone, the bright new gadget broke down a week after you got it home, the prices climbed higher and higher as the quality got less and less, and the old-fashioned rule of a fair bargain for a fair price was indeed old-fashioned, for it never applied to anything. The great Age of the Shoddy came upon America after the war, and Everybody Wants His became the guiding principle for far too many."

—oO—
"THUS ALLEN Drury describes the postwar era, in his remarkable novel 'Advise and Consent' — a work in which he uses the vehicle of fiction to present an extraordinarily revealing picture of Washington's political, diplomatic and social worlds."

—oO—
"THE ACCURACY of his indictment is undeniable. Yet, in the immediate postwar years, it was possible to find seemingly valid excuses. The relaxation of war tensions resulted, naturally enough, in emotional and financial excesses. An attitude of 'live for today and never mind tomorrow' became general. On the purely material side, the lifting of wartime restrictions on industrial production created an eager and apparently insatiable market for almost anything, no matter how poor the quality or exorbitant the price."

HAD THIS sorry situation spent itself in a reasonable time there would have been small cause for worry. But who can honestly deny that the dark picture Mr. Drury paints is still — in the fundamentals, if not all the details — the picture that obtains in this country? —oO—

THE PROBLEM, of course, is a moral problem. The Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, the Rt. Reverend Richard Emrich, speaks for churchmen of all the denominations when he says: "Everywhere I travel I hear arguments, but I never hear a moral argument, with someone saying, 'this is wrong, or unjust, or dishonest, and I will have nothing to do with it.' I think we are floundering as a people."

—oO—
AND THERE lies the tragedy. For the basic strength of any nation is its moral strength. All the weapons, all the productive capacity, all the money on earth, cannot save a people from ultimate destruction if their moral fiber decays, their national character rots, and they sink into an abyss of material cynicism, indifference, selfishness, avarice, greed.

—oO—
A SHORT TIME ago the television scandals, centering around rigged quiz shows, captured the national headlines and were publicized the world around. The Saturday Evening Post has devoted a full-page editorial to the matter in which it makes a big and often overlooked point. It offers no excuses for the deceit — "those who have been damned by the revelations deserved to be damned." But, the Post also says "... we believe that the importance of their guilt has been wildly exaggerated, the significance of their guilt almost wholly overlooked. . . . What is important is that we recognize the television scandals for what they are — a symptom of the declining standards of moral behavior in the United States, that twinge in the national belly that warns of deep-seated malignancy in the body politic." And these declining standards, it goes on, can be found in some form and in some degree virtually everywhere — in schools, professions, the labor unions, business and the government.

—oO—
SO MUCH for the indictments. There is a bright side. It is found in the fact that more and more people, in public and private discussions, are talking about the problem, thinking about it, worrying about it. An astute English observer of the American scene observed that the television mess may prove to be of enormous benefit — by awakening the American people to the extent and character of moral decay, and removing the blinders from their eyes. The American people have been awakened to many kinds of dangers in the past, and have met them with wrath with courage and with understanding.

—oO—
AND THAT is the hope—that there will be a moral revival in this country, a cleaning of dirty houses. Failing that, everything else is doomed to fail.

With Our EXCHANGES

FARWELL TO MR. JOINER

News to many newcomers in and around Crosbyton is the fact that Trends once owned a half interest in The Ralls Banner. Early in 1946 my partner, the late Zeke Brown, and myself decided it was time to sell that newspaper. Ads in The Dallas News brought lots of inquiries but no one with the down payment.

Finally a tall, stately appearing young man called on the partners. Just out of the service, he had only $1,000 in cash. But with his now well-known persuasive powers, he soon had a deed to the newspaper and the partners had a 30-day note for the balance of the down payment. When the note came due, Editor Joiner had nothing to cover it with.

So began Trends somewhat hectic relationship with the Ralls publisher who in recent years has become quite famous as the fearless country editor who dares to tell the truth. At times, we could agree with the public acclaim from afar. But at other times, we must admit, we have considered him a disgrace to the journalistic profession.

Joiner had what it took, however, to make a financial success of his Ralls Banner and ultimately secure him a job as editor of a nationally circulated veterinary magazine. To raise that down payment he didn't have, he talked 10 Ralls men into putting up the necessary money. They got it back.

A few years later, the Banner office burned and Editor Joiner built a nice new building and installed all new equipment with the exception of his cylinder press which was salvaged from the fire. Most newspaper men believe he had taken too big a bite, that his field could not pay for the big new outlay. But Joiner paid for it.

A lot of people sighed with relief last week when the Ralls editor announced that he was leaving today for Santa Barbara, Calif., where he will take up his new duties January 15. But he will be missed, there's no question about that. Right or wrong, he had a knack of keeping things moving in Ralls and Crosby County. His slanderous column and pithy editorials caused this newspaper, and many others in this area, to take a more aggressive attitude. If Ernie could get by with the things he published, surely we could say a few of the things we had been wanting to say.

Yes, Editor Joiner will be missed. In some ways, missing him will be a pleasure. In others, we honestly hate to see him go. But if anyone in staid, country-club Santa Barbara should read this, we want to warn you — wake up. If you don't know that Ernest Joiner has arrived in town you soon will. — Hubert Curry in Crosbyton Review.

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Cal Farley, the Boys Ranch boss, was given something of an ovation by the Dallas Lions Club when he spoke there the other day.

He talked on juvenile delinquency, and it was a tough talk.

His theme was: "The kindest thing you can do for your child is to make him mind."

Children respect adults who can say yes or no and mean it. They find love and security in discipline.

They like to know where they stand.

Vacillating parents never quite know what they want their children to do, and never quite make a command stick.

The blame for juvenile delinquency, Cal told the Lions, falls directly on "us."

Adults tend to take the easy way around a juvenile problem.

They refuse to support stern justice in the courts, with the result that the judge becomes politically fearful of doing his job.

They refuse to back up the school teacher and principal when discipline or flunking is called for, with the result that many teachers are afraid to crack down on Junior. — Wesley Zazzard in Amarillo Daily News.

THERE'S TROUBLE on the St. Lawrence Waterway, as Lynn Landrum reports in the Dallas Morning News. Traffic has been light; operational bottlenecks have appeared, and tolls have been far short of meeting interest and amortization costs.

Dear Editor: I see where the experts working on our farm crop surplus problem are prescribing a bigger soil bank program to get more acres out of production.

My simplified neighbor says they have been giving this acreage reduction medicine for surplusitis all these years, while the virus keeps on spreading.

Says ordinary mortals might blunder along, trying different remedies, but the experts always know the exact cure for an ailment, so if the patient gets worse, all they have to do is give a bigger dose.

Subscription Price To Becon Going Up First Of Year

Dear Editor: I am writing to you because I am one of the many who are claiming it is the most economical, etc. to turn out at the age of 65.

My real - bound neighbor says he don't recall asking anybody to defend him from retirement and believes this is just a low government trick to keep him on as a taxpayer and off social security a while longer.

But says this scheme won't work at him as he has long been looking forward to worklessness, and has done a heap of training for same.

Subscription prices on The Lockney Beacon will be higher after January 1st, 1960. The Beacon has been $2.00 per year in the county and $2.50 per year outside Floyd County for the past eight years while prices of paper and almost everything that goes into a newspaper has continued to rise. The Beacon publishers want all the subscriptions we can get but we feel we must, of necessity, raise the subscription price.

Effective January 1st, 1960, The Beacon will be $2.50 per year in Floyd County and $3.00 per year outside the county. We will continue to accept either new or renewal subscriptions at the old rate until January 1st but will not accept subscriptions more than two years in advance or send to a date later than January 1st, 1960.

The difference in the subscription rate inside the county and outside the county is necessary because of the difference in postage. Due to a postal subsidy on second class mail the cost of mailing The Beacon to subscribers in Floyd County is very little while it costs considerably more when mailing outside the county.

Remember that you can save money on both papers when you renew The Beacon combined with your favorite daily newspaper. We have special rates on the combination.

Insured Are Not Penalized For Some Accidents

Smith. — Texas motorists will no longer be assessed points under the Safe Driving Insurance Plan for certain specific types of collisions, according to a clarifying statement issued by the D. Gibbs, Member, State Board of Insurance.

In order to be in full compliance with the Plan, accidents involving your vehicle while you are legally parked. Also excluded are accidents for which you have been held by the person held responsible for the accident. No points will be assessed in accidents in which only the other party has been convicted of a moving traffic violation, or in rear-end collisions in which you have been struck by another vehicle and are not convicted of a moving traffic violation. If you are the victim of a hit and run accident and report the accident to the proper authorities within 24 hours you will not be charged any points. Regardless of fault, motorists will not be assessed a point when the damage is limited solely to Medical Payments, Gibbs stated.

Texas families whose drivers have not been convicted of an involved in a chargeable accident during the past three years will receive a 20% reduction in the bulk of their private passenger automobile insurance.

A study of 40,000 licensed Texas operators records indicate that 52% of the drivers have clear records. Consisting of the multiple use of an automobile by several members of the family, 57% of the insured automobiles will receive a 20% discount under the new automobile insurance plan. Roughly, points are assigned as follows:

Four points for driving while intoxicated, hit and run, and negligent homicide with a motor vehicle.

Two points for accidents involving $25 damage or more or bodily injury unless specifically excluded as above.

One point for moving traffic violations.

The Plan applies to the driving record of all resident operators of a household.

"The Texas Safe Driving Insurance Plan was adopted after careful study and upon the repeated urging of the careful motorists of the state. These careful drivers believe that they were entitled to reductions in their insurance rates because of their good driving records. Although I was not a member of the State Board when this Plan was developed, I have since had occasion to study it a great deal and I feel that it is a great step forward. It saves safe drivers money and it will encourage other motorists to improve their driving habits so that they too can become eligible for the 20% reduction."

"I anticipate that the Plan will encourage safe driving in our state so that eventually the number of accidents will be reduced, and this will tend to bring about a further reduction in insurance rates for the motorists of Texas," Gibbs concluded.

All companies writing automobile insurance at rates prescribed by the Texas State Board of Insurance must use the Texas Safe Driving Plan when insuring automobiles eligible for the Family Automobile Policy.

TURKEY TALK
The famous "turkey" soup is one thing more interesting than a wife who can cook and won't. That's a wife who can't cook and will. Modern cooks are not only good but practical too. Here is an idea for practical modern homemakers.

You can tempt the whole family with the last bits of left over turkey. Chop the turkey and mix it into a thick white sauce or use condensed cream of mushroom sauce. Cut regular size crust dough into squares or rounds, place a spoonful of turkey mixture on each piece, fold over to form triangles or half moons and seal the edges. Bake in a hot oven 35 minutes until golden brown.

BUYING COATS AND SUITS

If you are planning to buy a new coat or suit during the sales season, choose carefully. Mistakes in selection are often costly, especially in garments which must be worn for a few years. Consider the climate, your activities, and the amount of money you expect to spend. Unless you can afford two coats or suits for a season, you will not want to buy a dressy one. The casual or sport type is more suitable for general wear and for more occasions. Look for becoming styles with good lines, a basic color and designs. Extreme high style features or colors will date the garment. Make certain it fits into the basic color scheme of your present wardrobe. Invest in a firm fabric that will not stretch and sag at the hips and elbows. The lining should be of a good quality, well fitted and smooth. Examine the workmanship carefully. All seams should be well stitched, facings and other finishes neat and well fitted. Fastenings should be durable, pleasing in appearance and sewed on securely.

The type of trimming affects the cost as well as upkeep and durability of the garment. It should be attractive, durable and easy to care for. Tailored decorations such as braids, stitching, trims and self decoration seldom add to the cost of clothing. They merely wear as long as the fabric.

Read all labels carefully before you buy.

MRS. WILLIAM NORTON BAKER

JOAN JACOBS BECOMES BRIDE OF WILLIAM NORTON BAKER

Westminster Presbyterian Church, Corsicana, Texas, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Joan Muriel Jacobs, Corsicana, and William Norton Baker, Lockney, on Tuesday, December 29, at 7:00 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jacobs, 1819 Elmwood, Corsicana, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Baker, Lockney.

Reverend Eugene Wood, pastor of the church, read the single ring ceremony as the couple stood before an altar accented with golden urns holding huge white plume mums and white gladioli which formed the chancel. Dozens of white candles in golden candelabra decked with greenery and ruying complemented the magnificent altar scene. Behind the cross and altar was a massive fan arrangement of white mums. A Pre Delu covered with satin and decorated with satin ribbon was used. Windows of the church were each lighted with three candles set in sprays of spruce.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. C. E. Beene, church organist, who also accompanied John Gravelle, soloist, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was graduated from Corsicana High School in 1955 and received her B.A. degree in social science in January, 1959, from Southern Methodist University, Dallas. She has been employed at Southland Life Insurance Company, Dallas. The bride represented Corsicana as its dutchess in the Tyler Rose Festival of 1956.

The bridegroom was graduated from Lockney High School in 1953, later attending Texas Tech and Southern Methodist University where he received his B.B.A. in June, 1956, and L.L.B. degree in June, 1959. He recently passed his Texas State Bar examinations.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Mexico and South Texas the bride was wearing a suit of frosted limestone Italian pesante with shawl collar and semi-fitted jacket. She wore black lizard shoes and carried a matching bag. Her hat and gloves were cream and she wore a white orchid corsage. They will return January 10.

Bride Wears Satin
Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of light ivory silk satin designed with a tightly moulded basque bodice fastened in back with tiny covered buttons. The high bateau neckline was enhanced by long fitted sleeves. The softly moulded skirt, fashioned with side and back fullness, swept into a cathedral length train outlined with a narrow bias fold. Her veil of heilroom Brussels lace extended the length of the cathedral train from a crown of the same heilroom lace traced with tinseed pearls and iridescent paillettes. She carried a chapel bouquet of Phaelanopsis orchids and stephanotis accented with pearls arranged atop a white prayer book.

Bridesmaids
Mrs. Sam B. Hulsey, Corsicana, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Percifield, Beaumont, Mrs. Pleas Mitchell, Mesquite, Tex., Miss Martha Madden and Miss Fran Aimer, both of Dallas.

They were dressed identically in gowns of rasberry velvet designed with a decollete neckline enhancing the tightly moulded bodice. The three quarter length sleeves featured fan pleated lace over pleated tulle flounces in Victorian manner. The modified dome shaped skirts were waltz length. They wore matching satin opera pumps and carried bouquets of happiness and sweetheart roses, outlined with stephanotis.

Miss Allison Burnett, Corsicana, the bride's godchild, was flower girl.

Lt. Dorsey Lynn Baker, Lockney, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Candlelighters were Bart Reilly and John McClung, both of Corsicana.

Ushers were Ted Carthel, Lockney, Charlie Logan, Nashville, Tenn., Bill Abernathy, Archer City, and Scotty Lowry, Corsicana, cousin of the bride.

Reception
Following the wedding a reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the church parlor. The reception suite was decorated with candles and white flowers. The bride's table featured a formal arrangement of white roses, white stock and white carnations and garlands of string simlax with gardenia tucked in the corners. The flowers stood in a silver wine cooler. Mrs. Scott Lowry, the bride's aunt, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. J. R. Osborne, of Honolulu, cousin of the bride, served punch.

The buffet table was centered with an arrangement of white roses, stock, and carnations and garlands of string simlax. On the table were trays of smoked ham, smoked turkey, homemade bread, cavier spread and coffee. Mrs. Gerald McClung poured the coffee. Others in the houseparty were Mrs. Claiborn Simpson, aunt of the bride, Mrs. James A. Reilly, and other members from Corsicana.

Rehearsal Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Baker were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at the Country Club at Corsicana following rehearsal Monday night at 8 o'clock. The table was centered with an arrangement of red carnations. Members of the wedding party attended.

Dear Editor:

I see where a medicine maker told a nosey congressional committee a while back that drugs are not either too high, but that people just haven't got enough money.

My short-change neighbor says the man has put his finger right on the real trouble, and shows that Congress is barking up the wrong tree.

Says what we need is a committee to investigate the real culprits in this case, who can't pay a modest incentive bounty on drugs on account of frittering their money away on taxes.
