Four Injured In Series Of Auto Accidents

Four persons were injured, only one seriously, in a series of auto accidents in this county over the week end. Gaines Miller, an employee of Patterson Grain Co. at their elevator, is in Lockney General Hospital suffering with a fractured skull and severe injuries suffered in an accident Thursday afternoon. Miller was a passenger in a 1960 Chevrolet pickup driven by Shelton Shaw when it collided with a 1952 panel truck driven by Don McCready at a dirt road intersection one mile south of Sterley near the Roy Wesley home.

Shaw was traveling north and McCready was going west when the two vehicles collided. Shaw suffered a bad blow on the head and bruises but did not require hospitalization. He is recuperating at his home. McCready has some cracked ribs and also severe bruises. He was two days in Lockney General Hospital but was released Sunday and is recuperating at his home. Both vehicles were total losses. The Beacon was told the pickup belonged to the Patterson Grain Co. and the panel was owned by the Baker Farming Co. of Plainview. The pickup did not turn over at the panel truck turned on its side.

On Friday afternoon a 1970 Chevrolet driven by Donna Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Workman, struck a Dodge driven by Mrs. X. Thomason of Plainview at the intersection of Farm roads 378 and 97 in East Lockney. Donna suffered a light blow on the head but did not require medical treatment. Mrs. Thomason and her three children riding with her were all injured. The intersection was the scene of a fatal accident about three weeks ago when two Silverton young people were killed when their car struck a truck there.

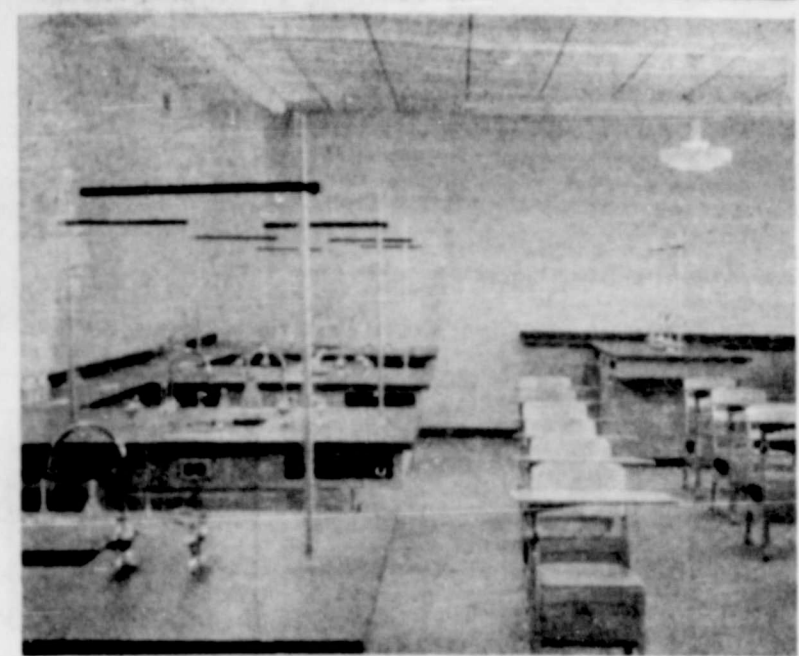

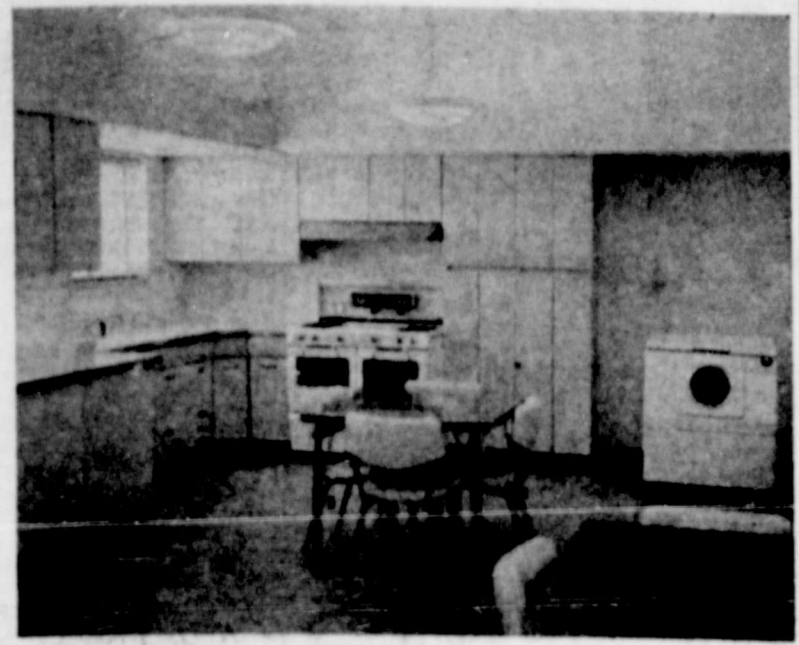

Mrs. Thomason was traveling north on the cut-off in East Lockney. She did not see the stop sign and failed to stop. She was reported to The Workman car struck the Dodge on the right fender. The Dodge was badly damaged but damages to the Chevrolet amounted to several hundred dollars.

Mrs. Ray Thompson suffered a fractured right ankle, severe bruises on her left side and left arm and some head injuries late Friday evening when her 1957 Imperial Chrysler struck the engine on a Santa Fe freight train at a crossing just off Highway 70 in West Lockney.

Mrs. Thompson did not see the train which was traveling east. She had crossed Highway 70 at the Mobil service station and was entering South West 7th Street. The impact threw the heavy car to the right, knocking down the railroad crossing sign, but Mrs. Thompson was not thrown from the car.

She is in Lockney General Hospital and was still having X-rays made Wednesday in an effort to detect further injuries. The fractured ankle was set in a cast Saturday.

Mrs. Thompson had quit work at the Erma & Ray Drive-in, which she and her husband own, and had started home when the accident happened.

FIRST ROAD GAME

Longhorns Test Tough Dimmitt On Friday Night

A severe test awaits the Longhorns Friday night when they journey to Dimmitt to do grid battle with the ever-tough Bobcats. This is the first road trip of the season for the Big Red from Lockney High.

Lockney will be trying for its second victory after downing Hale Center, 20-0, here last Friday.

The Lockney-Dimmitt contest is being tabbed as one of the best in the Parhandle-South Plains area this week. Daily newspapers and radio stations have been playing up the battle. Radio station KGNC, Amarillo, will air the game live Friday night.

The Amarillo Daily News, in its weekly Class AA area rating, listed Dimmitt number four and had Lockney sixth.

The Longhorns are not near top shape for the Dimmitt game. A pair of starters on the dangerously thin squad may see limited action. Tackle Rickey Collis suffered bruised ribs early in the Hale Center game and will see little or no action this Friday, according to Coach R. L. Rhoten. Warren Mitchell, an end, received a finger injury in last week's game, but may be ready to go by Friday night.

Sophomore Russell Davis replaced Collis in the Hale Center tilt and turned in a creditable performance even though he had been ill that day. Davis, Collis, and Mickey Mosley are the only tackles listed on the Horn roster. Ronnie Belt, another promising sophomore, will start at end if Mitchell isn't ready.

Mickey Mosley, senior tackle, has been chosen by the coaches to serve as game captain this week. A game captain will be selected each week to join Captain Wayne Cooper and Co-captain Freddie Gant.

Coach Rhoten stated that the Dimmitt eleven is as good or better than last year's highly-touted Bobcat eleven. They boast possibly the best fullback in this section of the state, Junior Coffey, a 195-pound Negro boy.

Supporting the hard-running Coffey in the backfield are fleet halfback Gene Bradley, halfback Donnie Nelson, and a cliffy ran with the ball several times as the Bobcats easily cut down 2-AA power Abernathy, 18-6, last week.

Last year the Horns contained Coffey as well as any team he faced. They could make things rough for Dimmitt by repeating that feat Friday night.

The Bobcat front wall is stacked with big, rangy boys. Dimmitt's line averages 176 pounds per man, but is not as experienced as last year. They lost All-State end Hal Ratcliffe and All-Regional tackle Jack Ragland by graduation.

Coach Rhoten indicated that he and his staff were proud of the Big Red for their performances in the Hale Center tilt. However, he said that many mistakes were made against the Owls and must be corrected before Friday night.

Probable starting lineups:

Position	Name	Weight
TE	Michael Calvert	170
LT	Jimmy Barber	175
LG	Stanley Calvert	170
C	Darless Goolsby	170
RG	Howard Cummings	185
RT	LeRoy O'Brian	190

Homecoming Is Planned Here On October 14

A homecoming for all ex-students of Lockney High School is being planned for the week end of October 14 and 15, it was announced this week by Robert Lee Smith, president of the homecoming organization.

The committee was compiling names this week preparing to contact all ex-students regarding the event. Definite plans haven't been made as to what will take place but the highlight of the affair will probably be the Lockney-Floydada football game here on Friday night, October 14.

The homecoming is held each five years and in 1955 a very large crowd attended the gala affair.

Other officers of the organization are R. L. Knox, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. Walter Bean (Bobbie La Casey), secretary.

First Bales Of Cotton Ginned In The County

The first bales of 1960 cotton were ginned in this county the past week.

Last Thursday, Sept. 1, the first bale in the county from the 1960 crop was brought in by L. D. Gilbert of the Edgin community, over in the north-east section of the county, and ginned at Dav's Gin Company in Floydada. The bale weighed 465 pounds and was pulled off six acres. Mr. Gilbert also brought in the first bale last year but on August 24th.

The gin paid him 50 cents per pound for the cotton and the Floydada Chamber of Commerce gave him a $100 premium.

The first bale for Lockney came in Monday afternoon from the Marble Bros. farm at South Plains and was ginned at Lockney Gin. This bale also weighed 465 pounds and was ginned from about 1500 pounds of seed cotton. The gin paid 50 cents per pound for the bale and the Lockney Chamber of Commerce will pay the growers a $100 premium. The first bale ginned here last year was on Sept. 1, four days earlier than this one.

Gin men are expecting that not much cotton will be gathered here until about October 1st. The cotton crop is good but is some later than last year.

The parade is due to be a good one, according to Joe Handley, parade committee chairman. Entries will gather on North Main Street, just north of Parker Super Market and travel south down Main Street.

Tuesday Mr. Handley said that he had something like 30 entries and that anyone else who wanted to enter a float in the parade could do so if they would bring it to the place of assembly by 2 p.m. today. He will then assign the float a place in the parade.

The parade will be led by Amarillo Air Force Band which will then present a concert on the fair grounds starting about 4 p.m. Others in the parade in the order of their appearance are: Lockney V. F. W., American Legion, Wayne Arnold's Model T Ford with Mayor J. E. Cox of Lockney and Mayor Jimmie Willson of Floydada as passengers, Lockney High School Band, Lockney Lions Club, McCoy Starkey Club, Parker Super Market, Floydada High School Band, Lone Star Community, Lone Star Rough Riders, Girl Scouts and Brownies, Byrd Pharmacy, Jackson Tire Co., Petersburg High School Band, White Auto Store, Jones Dry Goods, Cub Scouts, Reecer's Cleaners, Brown's Gulf Service, Baeucus Motor Company, A. D. Julian, Luke's Shop, Dan & Gene Auto Service, Lockney Implement Co., Hale County Sheriff's Posse, Poole Automotive, Lockney Farm Supply, Lockney Auto Company.

The Lockney Chamber of Commerce is offering the following prizes for parade floats: Best club or organization float, $15.00; second, $10.00; best child entry, $7.50; second, $5.00; third and fourth, $2.50 each.

Fiddlers Jamboree The Old Fiddlers Jamboree will start at 4:30 under the big tent on the fair grounds but the contest itself will not start until 7:30 p.m. this evening.

Additional space for air exhibits and booths has also been provided by closing up the big west room of the fair building, space which has not been utilized in previous years. Sheet iron was used to cover the big openings and this room will be occupied by a large foods booth

Final preparations were being made Wednesday afternoon for a bigger and better Floyd County Fair, scheduled to be kicked off today (Thursday) with a free barbecue at the noon hour at Lockney American Legion home and a big parade at 2:30 p.m. Construction of the new livestock building has added considerably to the space available and exhibits of all kinds are outnumbering those of previous years. The entertainment is rated as good or better than previous Fairs and all this adds up to a much better Fair than has ever been produced here, Fair officials say.

The building of the big 60x120 foot livestock building has allowed every department more room and brought the shift of some departments from their former locations. The flower show and crafts show will be located on the ground floor, in the room formerly occupied by the livestock department, which has been cleaned and painted. Food booths and commercial exhibits will also be located in this room. Much more room has been assigned to the women's department and the art department as a result of the move.

The agricultural exhibits will be in their usual place in the east end of the big east room in the building with the remainder of that building to be used for commercial exhibit space.

Mrs. Joe Foster, chairman of the commercial exhibits committee, said Wednesday that the Fair board had sold 30 inside commercial exhibits and would probably have several outside exhibits. This is more than any previous year.

Community exhibits are also due to be more numerous than in previous years. Communities which have committed themselves to an exhibit this year are Lone Star, Irick, Harmony, Lockney, South Plains, Providence, Dougherty, Sterley, Lakeview, Sandhill and Prairie Chapel.

The Fair business office will be located the same place as last year, about the center of the building and to the south of the ramp going up into the women's department.

New rest rooms, just completed this week under the direction of Owen Thornton, have been installed just south of the big building and about the center east and west.

In an effort to solve the parking problem, additional parking space has been provided east of the fair grounds. The parking area to the west, near the entrance, will be filled up first and then cars will be directed down a lane on the north side of the fair grounds to the new parking area on the east. However, it will be necessary for everyone to buy their tickets at the ticket booth on the west side of the building.

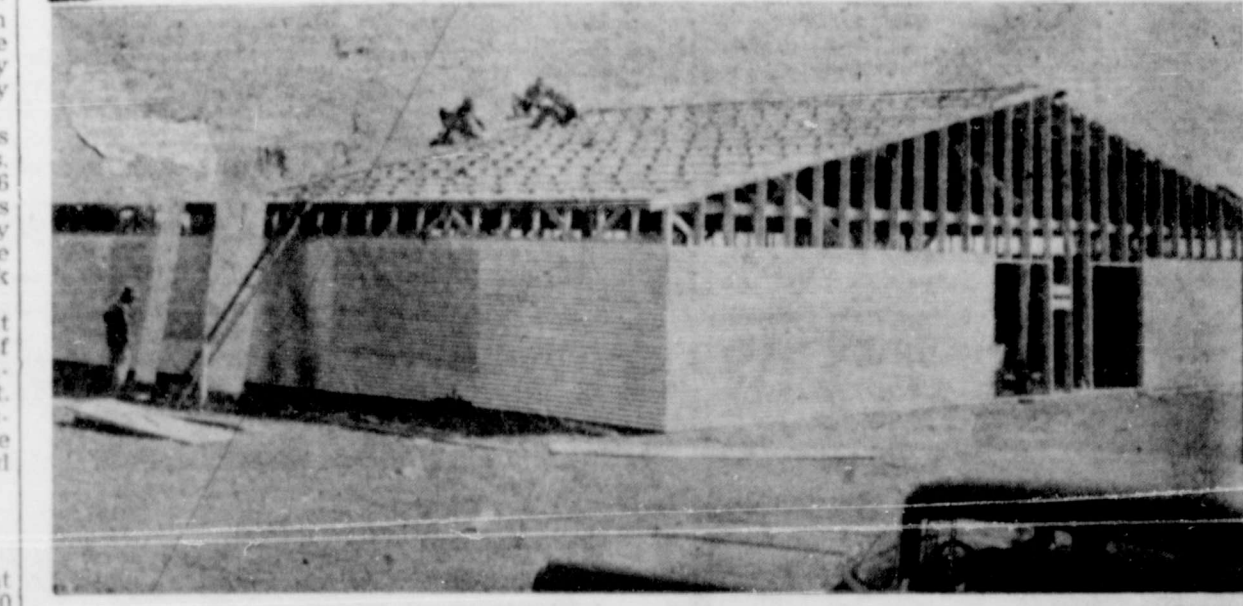

Admission this year is 25c and 50c and no one will be admitted without paying admission or without a pass issued by the ticket committee. Joe Handley is chairman of the ticket committee and commercial exhibitors and others who are due passes must see him or obtain their passes either at the ticket booth or the business office. All children will be admitted free until 6 p.m. today.

Two quarter-inch electric drills will be given away each night as gate prizes. Mr. Handley said. Tickets purchased at the gate will have numbers on each end. One will be dropped in the box providing the purchaser with an opportunity to win one of the prizes. Donors of the electric drills are Handley Shop & Pump Co., Consumers Fuel Association of Lockney, Builders Mart, Carthel Garage & Butane, all of Floydada; Brandon & Clark Electric, Lubbock; G. E. Jones Electric, Plainview.

Large crowds are also expected at the big gospel singing on Friday night when singers from over 10 Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma are due to attend.

Six entries have been received for the community talent show on Saturday night. The sponsors are South Plains Community Club, Lone Star Community Club, Aiken Methodist Church, Providence P. T. A., Dougherty Home Demonstration Club, and Lakeview Home Demonstration Club. Others may enter up until Thursday noon but must be prepared to audition before the entertainment committee, according to Mrs. J.

THE BIG LIVESTOCK BUILDING at the fair grounds was almost complete Monday when this picture was made. The barn is 60x120 feet and will relieve crowded conditions in the main building. It was built mostly by volunteer labor with fair board members and various farmers over the area doing the work. The Lockney Young Farmers organization donated some labor as a group.

ROBERTS - JULIAN VOWS REPEATED IN FLOYDADA

The wedding vows of Miss K. Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Roberts of Lubbock, and Mrs. Kendis B. Julian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Julian of South Plains, were solemnized Sunday, September 4, at 3:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Floydada.

The Rev. Ed B. Bowles performed a double ring ceremony before a background of ferns and a pair of candelabra flanked by a pair of floor lamps. White and blue ribbons formed the entrance to the wedding scene.

Mrs. David Blair of Lubbock played prelude selections, the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied Miss Wren Patterson as she sang "Benediction" and "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her brother, Lyndell Roberts, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white tulle and satin with a white applique of imported French silk lace encrusted with pearls. The sculptured bodice, fashioned with a bertha collar, was caught at the front by a row of tiny covered buttons down the back, terminated with a point at the center waistline. Long sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands. The bouffant skirt was of unpressed pleats with an inverted pleat in the center front and back.

Her ballerina-length veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearlized orange blossoms. The bride carried a small white Bible covered with white tulle and satin streamers, topped with three Belmont gardenias. The entire wedding ensemble was designed and made by the bride's mother.

The traditional something old which the bride carried was a white batiste and organdy handkerchief belonging to her aunt, Miss Benno Wilson; something new was her tiny pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom's mother; something borrowed was the white Bible belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dale Roberts; something blue was a blue garter, a gift from Mrs. Jerry Bullock.

Miss Snow Drop Dunn attended the bride as maid of honor, and Miss Karen Goen served as bridesmaid. Misses Gave and Gayle Rosson were candlelighters. The feminine attendants wore identical dresses of azure blue velveteen, fashioned after the bridal gown. The low V-shape neckline of the bodice was accented by a row of tiny covered buttons down the back, and cap sleeves complimented by white gloves. The attendants wore flat bow headpieces of the velveteen and matching blue shoes. The maid of honor and bridesmaid carried identical baskets of feathered white carnations, white maline and white satin streamers. The candlelighters wore wristlets of feathered white carnations.

Terry Julian of Roscoe served his brother as best man. Alton Higginbotham was groomsmen, and guests were seated by Johnnie Tinnin, Larry Smitherman, and Eugene Beedy.

Mrs. Roberts chose for her daughter's wedding a blue wool crepe dress with matching accessories, white gloves, and white feathered hat. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe dress with matching accessories and white gloves. The mothers wore identical corsages of white gardenias and white satin leaves.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the chapel parlor. The serving table was laid with an imported white linen cloth and appointed with crystal and silver. The two-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and featured the bride's colors of blue and white.

Mrs. Lyndell Roberts, sister-in-law of the bride, assisted with the receiving courtesies, with Mrs. Dale Roberts of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Ray H. Smith serving the cake and punch. Other members of the house party were Mrs. A. T. Hull, Mrs. Helen Patterson, Mrs. Newell Parker, and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

MRS. KENDIS B. JULIAN

For traveling to points in New Mexico, the bride chose a beige wool jersey jacket dress with brown accessories. Mrs. Julian wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Canyon where they will attend West Texas State College. The bridegroom will be a senior student, majoring in agriculture; the bride, a junior student majoring in elementary education. Both are graduates of Floydada High School.

Durham Installed As PCG Director

At the annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., held last Friday in Lubbock, Leroy Durham was installed as a farmer director of that organization representing Floyd County. He succeeds Jerry Cooper. Durham was elected at a meeting of Floyd County members of the Plains Cotton Growers held at the Lockney High School auditorium recently.

Lester Carter of Lockney is the businessman director from this county.

Seven other directors from over the South Plains were installed at the Lubbock meeting and officers of the organization were re-elected. They are W. O. Fortenberry, of Lubbock, president; Wilmer Smith, New Home, vice-president; and Roy Forkner, Lubbock, secretary-treasurer.

Speakers at the meeting included J. Craig Smith, Sylacauga, Ala., president of the National Cotton Council; U. S. Representative Harlan Hagen of California and Ralph H. Raper, director of the cotton division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Commodity Stabilization Service, Washington, D. C. About 600 people from the 23 county area attended the meeting.

Lubbock Fair Boosters To Be Here Sept. 20

Dozens of Lubbock businessmen will participate in the Panhandle-South Plains Fair goodwill booster trips, scheduled to roll into Lockney Tuesday, Sept. 20.

The goodwill boosters, visiting South Plains cities in an effort to build good relations throughout the trade area, leave Lubbock after an early breakfast and distribute a Fair newspaper, placards, balloons and other literature.

On the third day of the tours, the merry-making group will visit Hale Center, Plainview, Lockney, Floydada, Matador, Roaring Springs, Dickens and Spur.

The visitors will be in Lockney on the third trip. A total of five visiting tours are planned, which will take the boosters to more than 45 South Plains cities.

This year, each of the five trips will be sponsored jointly by the Lockney Chamber of Commerce and the Panhandle-South Plains Fair Assn.

The Fair boosters will be laden with souvenirs, free tickets for Kids' Day at the Fair, and literature. The goodwill ambassadors will provide special entertainment in each city they visit.

"After the first ballot at a convention, many of the folks back home think their delegates should be committed."

ORIGINAL SETTING REBUILT

A full-sized replica of the Alamo and parts of old San Antonio as they looked in 1835, has been built on a ranch near Brackettville. This Kinney County town is located in southwest Texas, near the Mexican border.

Built for the biggest motion picture Hollywood has ever made, John Wayne's production, "The Alamo", this century-old setting was constructed from plans uncovered in Spain. The finest adobe craftsmen were imported. No false fronts or imitation work was performed. Walls are as much as three feet thick.

The setting is now open to the public so that tourists may see the lifelike replica of this historic event. Old Fort Clark has been converted to a guest ranch to house the flowing tide of visitors.

Arrangements of garden flowers decorated the entertaining rooms.

Hostesses for the occasion were Misses Janice Hays, Patsy Ashton, Weta Kent, Lawauna Taylor, Shirley Mitchell, Debra Ferguson, Elaine Cooper, Ann Griffith, Pat Reeves, Rita Johnson, and Mrs. Roy Kidd. Their gift was a gown and negligee ensemble.

Dear Editor:

I see where a newspaper writer is kind of sarcastic about our U. S. Senators having some little hide-outs built into their old office building, where tired law thinkers can hole-up for refreshing naps.

My rebutter neighbor says we hadn't ought to begrudge our hard-working Senators their modest comforts and conveniences.

Says, after all, there is lots of wear and tear on them, and it's only fair for us taxpayers to furnish comfortable places where they can sleep off their spending jags.

Grain Sorghum Ass'n Expands Operations

Amarillo. — The research, market development and service program of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association gained added impetus this week with an announcement of expansion of their work in two important directions.

In one expansion move, Frank Moore of Plainview, the Association's president, announced that E. M. McGinley is joining the staff of the organization to enlarge the field service activities. Moore pointed out that this is in order to give greater service to the expanding potentials for livestock feeding in the area, the need for closer relationships with other feeding areas such as the California market, and the need for close attention to legislative matters affecting sorghum growers as farm policy programs are re-constructed during the coming year.

McGinley, former Anadarko, Oklahoma, businessman, will give special emphasis to work with county sorghum producer association directors and local grain elevator operators in organizational matters.

The second area of expansion according to Moore is the naming of a local grain elevator operator to the board of each county grain sorghum producer association. Such officials have in the past worked closely with Association leaders in all phases of their program but this marks the first time they will be serving on the board of organization. These added directors as well as other officers for the coming year, will be elected at county meetings which will be held throughout the sorghum-producing area during the ensuing weeks.

Horns Gain Victory In Opener

Hard-hitting Lockney Longhorns handed their coach, R. L. Rhoten, a victory in his debut Friday night as 2,000 fans looked on as the host 'Horns overpowered the scrappy Hale Center Owls, 20-0.

Lockney's eleven men were tense and sluggish in the initial stages of the game, but they pulled out in the final two periods. Hale Center moved the ball around mid-field but the Big Red defense always held them back. As the Owls moved into 'Horn territory, the Hale Center team's deepest penetration was the 27 yard line in the third quarter.

The 'Horns cracked the Hale Center defense early in the second quarter with a 13-play, 78-yard drive. Fullback Bill Mangold struck the double-stripe from the line of scrimmage. Lockney struck the final minute of the game when Dan Rolling snared the ball on the Hale Center 62 yards for the tying touchdown. Fullback Joe Allard for the two points, giving the local boys a 14-0 halftime edge. Hale Center kicked to the Lockney 24 yard line to open the second half. The aggressive 'Horns never relinquished control of the pigskin enroute to the HC goal line. Fullback Freddie Gant rammed over for the six points.

This ended the scoring, but the Big Red missed a couple more golden opportunities in the fourth stanza. A fumble killed one drive on the HC 6 on the first play of the fourth quarter, and in the final minute a 'Horn drive fizzled on the one yard line. An intercepted pass halted a Big Red counter on the HC 4 in the second period.

Lockney's scoring was well distributed and all the backs moved the ball well. Quarterback Johnnie Belt handled the team superbly. He made several nice gains on the quarterback keeper and completed two passes to Allard. Mangold looked good while carrying the pigskin 19 times. Gant picked up vital yardage for the Big Red when his number was called. Although he didn't carry the ball a single time, Allard cleared the way for several nice runs with blocks, and snared a couple of Belt passes.

In the final period Kenny Clark quarterbacked the team with Jimmy Rushing, Terry Mosley, and Belt (at a halfback post) rounding out the backfield. This quartet moved the ball well the short time they were in the contest.

Blocking by the Big Red linemen was especially sharp with the boys showing a lot of desire.

As usual, Captain Wayne Cooper was the defensive stalwart. But he had plenty of assistance from Mickey Mosley, Donnie Hanst, Clarence Ansley, Rayland Brotherton, Rickey Collins, Russell Davis, Allard, Gant, Ronnie Belt, Rushing, Clark, Rolling, and others.

A pair of beautiful blocks by Mickey Mosley and Allard cleared the way for long runs. Allard's perfectly executed openfield block sprung Mangold loose on a nifty 56 yard sprint in the third quarter. Mosley, playing one of his finest games, threw a tremendous block which enabled Rolling to score on the intercepted pass.

Recap of the game:
HC elected to receive and defend the north goal after winning the toss. Belt's kick was returned from the HC 15 to Lockney's 49. The Owls gained 7, 6, 1, 1, before Collis slipped through to grab a loose ball in the air on the L 45.

Gant carried for 8, 2, 1. Mangold made 2, 0, punted over the goal.
The Owls moved from their 20 for gains of 8, 5, 5, 5, 10, 8, were offside, made 2, were penalized back to the L 37. Cooper dropped quarterback Don Dollar for a 12 yard loss, a pass went incomplete. Dollar punted to the Lockney 22.

Mangold drove for 3, 7, 7. Allard made a diving catch of a Belt pass for a first on the L 44. Belt kept for 5 as the quarter ended.
Mangold and Belt galloped for 12 and 17 yard gains to give the 'Horns a first on the HC 22. Mangold picked up 1, 4, 6. Gant made 3. Mangold pushed for 6, 2, to give Lockney a 6-0 lead. A Belt-to-Allard toss was incomplete for the points. Lockney 6, HC 0 with 7:57 remaining in the half.
Belt's kick was returned from End Harold Wardlow pounced on a fumble on the HC 6 to end the Lockney offensive.

The blue and gold from Hale Center gained 5, 4, 8, 1, 8, 2, 4, 5, an offside penalty against the 'Horns gave them another first on the HC 48. They made 9 yards in four plays, giving the ball to Lockney on the L 43.

Mosley drove for 2, Rushing gained 5, a personal foul penalty gave the Big Red a first on the HC 35. Belt, running at halfback, lost 5, Clark passed to Rolling for 20 yards and a first on the HC 20. Belt scampered for 5, Rushing gained 4, a first on the 7. Lockney was penalized back to the HC 21. Clark kept for 16, 2, Rushing gained 2. Mosley was stopped inches short of the double-stripe on fourth down.
Dollar kept for 18, 1, passed complete for 27 yards as time expired.

The Ralls School District has filed suit in 72nd District Court for an injunction to prevent transfer of Cone high school students from the Ralls school to Floydada High School and a hearing on the request for an injunction is scheduled Sept. 19 in Crosbyton.

The Ralls petition alleges that transfer of the Cone students would "result in irreparable damage to the Ralls district for which there is no adequate remedy at law."

The petition seeks an injunction to prevent transfer of state foundation school funds from the Ralls to the Floydada district, and makes the Floydada School Board a party to the suit. Meanwhile, with authorization of the Crosby County School Board, 16 high school students from Cone have enrolled in Floydada High School.

Until last week, the students were not sure they would be permitted to attend schools at either Ralls or Floydada. The Ralls and Cone districts had not been able to reach an agreement on financial arrangements.

Under terms of the agreement reached with the Floydada board, the Cone district guaranteed transfer of at least 12 students, promised to make an effort to get transfer of education agency funds to Floydada, promised to furnish transportation for the pupil and to pay $2,700 to the Floydada District.

Acreeage Survey Cards To Go Out

Postmaster Jeffie Griffith announced today that Rural Mail Carriers will begin distributing 1960 Acreeage Survey Cards to patrons on their routes about September 14.

The Post Office and U. S. Agriculture Departments cooperatively make this survey each year. These reports, directly from farmers, are the basis for official estimates for Texas acreage of all crops harvested in 1960.

To be sure this community is well represented in the survey, Postmaster Griffith urges each patron receiving a card to fill it out and return it to his mailbox.

Rural mail carriers working on this project are: Arthur Nigh, Route One; Thomas Marr, Route Two; Vestal Elland, Route M; Clyde Stowe, Route F; Cliff Gilly, Route Q.

New Laws Affecting Veterans

Increases in Compensation
PL 86-663, approved by the President on July 14, 1960; Provides that Veterans who are totally disabled from service-connected conditions, and who are "permanently house-bound" by reason of service-connected disabilities, will receive an increase in compensation payment.
The new Law provides for an increase in Basic Compensation Rates from $225.00 to $265.00 monthly, if the Veteran has a service-connected disability rated as total, and, in addition:
(1) Has additional service-connected disability or disabilities independently rateable at 60% or more.
(2) By reason of his service-
connected disability or disabilities, is permanently house-bound.

Instructions in regard to the law have not yet been issued by Veterans Administration, but it is believed that it will not be necessary for a Veteran who is otherwise entitled to be absolutely confined to his home, in order to qualify under this Act.
It is expected that a Veteran who meets the other requirements will qualify for this additional benefit, if, by reason of his service-connected disabilities, he is confined to his house, or immediate premises, assuming that the condition is reasonably certain to be permanent in nature.

Friendship and Business

Buy at home . . .
where friendship is more than frogskin deep

IT'S no strain for any business man . . . city or home town . . . to be friendly when he sees you coming with money in your pocket.

Some of us . . . a little cynical, perhaps, about the way we're often greeted with a synthetic and profit-prompted friendliness when we act like a customer in some strange store . . . may conclude that business and real friendship will never mix.

But they will . . . and they do . . . every day, in thousands of small towns like ours.

Knowing each other outside our places of business, working together for community improvement, in churches, schools, and other groups, sharing the load of civic tasks, helping each other in time of trouble . . . makes it inevitable that each of us can better and more understandingly serve the other in business.

It Pays to Buy where you Live

YOU get everything that your money pays for . . . merchandise AND a trade-invigorated community to live in . . . when you buy from your home town merchants . . .

Hill News

James Jeffress is here again and is busy trying to find produce to enter in the community exhibit. All reports Sand Hill all represented. We were cutting small early feed, but is still not ready. Reported cutting fifty-five acres this Friday. Gene is home after spending the past three years in the Navy. The Swanners plan to make their home somewhere near here. Gene's wife is a California girl. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Swanner and son of Lubbock were also here Sunday. They were all visiting in the home of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Slater Jr. and family, so the Swanners had all their children together once again. Mrs. Swanner had been ill the past two weeks. She was in the Plainview hospital several days last week. We all hope her condition improves very much.

Mrs. Williams Mays was able to attend church services Sunday morning for the first time since last February. We are hoping all her troubles are over and she is on the way to good health again.

The Lockney and Floydada football teams were off to a good start Friday night when both teams won their games. Floydada will have an open date this Friday while Lockney will journey to Dimmitt. Good Luck!

Miss Norma Hollums attended the Lockney football game with Beverly Jeffress Friday night.

Mrs. James Jeffress and Beverly attended the beautiful wedding of Miss Janis Roberts and Kendis Julian in Floydada Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church Chapel, and attended the reception.

Ken Roberts was the supper guest in the home of Beverly Jeffress Sunday night and attended church at Sand Hill.

KELLISONS RETURN FROM MONTH'S TOUR OF EUROPE

Lockney certainly looks beautiful to us," was the remark of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. (Buck) Kellison on their return from a 20,000 mile trip which took them across the Atlantic and a 28-day tour of nine countries and several islands of Europe. They made most of the trip by plane but 4,000 of the exciting miles were made by car.

Highlight of the journey was seeing their daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams and Vikkee of Naples who met the Kellisons at Rome and made the European tour with them. Jack is serving with the U.S. Navy as a career and the family has been in Italy since June 1, 1959. Vikkee, a fifth grader, attends an American school on the naval base. The Adams expect to be in Naples until the spring of 1962 when they will return to America. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Adams of Lockney.

One of the most memorable and thrilling experiences the travelers had was being spectators at the World Summer Olympics at Rome on August 27 when the U.S. contestants broke the swimming record.

The Kellisons left New York July 31 at 7:30 but when they were about 100 miles at sea a motor on the plane stopped and they returned to New York for repairs. They left again at 2:00 a.m. and landed in Rome at 4 p.m. the same day.

The Adams family met the Kellisons and the group went from Rome to Switzerland and saw the beautiful alps and other interesting sights. In Paris, France, they viewed the Eiffel tower, Cathedral of Notre Dame, Arch of Triumph, Napoleon's tomb, Chamys Elysees shopping center, and in Brussels, Belgium, they went through a lace factory and saw what remains of the World's Fair of 1958. While in Holland they visited Rembrandt's home, along with historical points in Amsterdam. On Marken Island, 35 miles off the coast of Holland the Texans saw a colony of Dutch who still live in obscure fashion, refusing to accept their neighbors' modern dress or manner of living. The women still wear the traditional primitive long black dresses or long black baggy pants, they wear their hair in braids and all wear wooden shoes.

In Germany the tourists could still see the aftermath of war in the key cities of Frankfurt, Geomeo and Munich. They crossed over Austria but were advised to make no stops in the country.

From Austria they went to Naples, Italy, arriving there about August 16, making the Adams home their headquarters and from this point they made tours throughout all Italy. They enjoyed riding through the canal streets in Venice in a gondola seeing Marks Square, a shopping center; a glass factory; a boat which is the city's fire station and the island serving as the city's cemetery. In Florence many historical cathedrals were visited and in Pisa they saw the famous leaning tower and one of the oldest churches in Italy.

In Rome they saw the ruins of Julius Caesar's famous coliseum, the dungeon where Paul was held prisoner and the Vatican. In Naples they saw the home and state buildings used by Mussolini, the ruins of the city of Pompeii and many valuable and famous paintings as well as ruins of Neapolitan court. On the island of Capri they enjoyed the Amaphil Drive, an ocean drive featured in the August 29, 1960 Life magazine. In Milano, Italy, they saw Leonard's original painting of the crucifixion. In Madrid they saw the royal palace which Felix III built for his bride and in which all the Felix line through the 13th lived.

Buck and Bobby Kellison boarded a jet plane at Rome for the trip to Madrid and then took a Continental plane Aug. 30 enroute home. They made stops at Lisbon, Portugal and the Azore Islands, before crossing the Atlantic for New York and on to Amarillo where they drove their car home, arriving here Wednesday, 10 p.m., Aug. 31.

Billy Wood of Summerville, Texas, is here spending the week with his brother-in-law, Sid Thomas.

Dear Editor:
I see where a law school is aiming to commence teaching English, and maybe develop a new breed of lawyers who can write legal documents which just people can understand.

My non-filtered thinking neighbor says if laws and contracts and other legal stuff gets written in plain English it might make lawyers as obsolete as side-saddles.

Which he figures would bring up another surplus problem, and says while we could store some more of this legal glut in Congress and state legislatures, no doubt we'd have to put up extra bureaus to warehouse the rest.

Gene Krupa Story Will Show Here

The controversial life and fascinating loves of Gene Krupa, the man who rocked the musical world with his pounding drums, are brought to the screen of the Seale Drive-In Theatre in Philip A. Waxman's production, "The Gene Krupa Story," starring Sal Mineo as Krupa, Susan Kohner and James Darren with Susan Oliver featured. The new Columbia film, playing here Friday and Saturday nights, is said to be charged with the drama of a man's dedication to his music, told against that musical idiom known as swing.

"The Gene Krupa Story" tells of the man's climb to musical fame of his fall into the awful abyss of drug addiction and of his painful struggle to redeem himself.

As Krupa, Mineo is reported to give a superb full-life rendering of Krupa's ardent temperament. Miss Kohner plays the girl who exerted a steady influence on the mercurial musician, and Miss Oliver is seen as the beautiful temptress who caused his downfall. James Darren plays the friend who starts Mineo on his way to the top in music.

County Will Be Short 1880 Hands Is TEC Estimate

Four Floyd County citizens, J. W. Reue, Rev. Ramon R. Asebero, Dan Brown and Jim Simpson, will serve as a County Farm Labor Committee and met with Wm. E. Day, Manager of the Plainview Texas Employment Commission office, to review the total seasonal employment needs developed by the TEC.

The Committee was presented with the figures of the TEC that Floyd County will be short 1,880 cotton pullers during the peak period of the cotton harvest. This shortage will be met by the importation of Mexican National Bracero workers.

The Committee will function under Public Law 78, obtaining facts relevant to the supply of domestic farm workers existing in Floyd County and the shortage of workers, if any, which must be met by importing Mexican Nationals to harvest the cotton crop. Under Public Law 78, the TEC must supply this information to the Secretary of Labor who must limit the number of Mexican Nationals to be used in this county by granting a "ceiling". The Committee consults with the Local Office Manager to assist him in estimating the number of workers who will be needed, based on current local conditions affecting the cotton crop.

"Ceilings" granted by the Secretary of Labor limiting the importation of Mexican Nationals into this area will be posted in Post Offices in Floydada and Lockney and in the County Agent's Office, and in the County Courthouse.

187 Reading Awards Won By Book Worms

Mrs. A. T. Hull, Floyd County librarian, announced this week that 187 certificates and a number of gold seals have been awarded to readers in the county for summer participation in the "Book Worm Reading Event." Total circulation for the summer was 9,938 books.

To receive a certificate a reader must have read at least 12 books during the three summer months. A gold seal was given to those reading more than twelve books during that period.

Floyd County Library is being greatly benefitted by the new Rural Library Service Act which entitled the county library to receive $2500 worth of books as a loan for an indefinite period. This amounts to approximately 850 books, 80 of which have already been received and placed in the library at Lockney and Floydada, Mrs. Hull states.

Difference between a poor man and a rich man is that one worries about his next meal while the other worries about his last one.

Faye and Aileen Musser, students of West Texas State College, are spending this week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Musser and Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Greer and daughter, Sara, of Gorman, Texas visited with his mother, Mrs. N. E. Greer over the week end. Sara attended the wedding of a former classmate, Jeannie Newman of Lockney.

FORMAL CHURCH RITES UNITE FLOYDADA COUPLE TUESDAY

An archway covered by small emerald palms and pink roses, centered with wedding bells, entered with large satin bows, led with luring for the wedding Tuesday evening of Miss Jean Noland and Jerrold Powell in the First Baptist Church, Floydada.

Flanking the altar arch were large arrangements of palms and white satin aisle ropes.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Noland, Floydada and Mrs. Ada Powell, Ralls.

Rev. Dr. Earl Allen of Fort Worth read the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Bill Hardin, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied C. L. Record, Lockney, who sang. Mrs. J. T. Clemons Jr., read Elizabeth Barrett Browning's "How Do I Love Thee."

Escorted by her father, the bride was beautifully gowned in French Chantilly lace and imported silk illusion over satin. The basque waist featuring a sweetheart neckline and long tapering sleeves, joined floating skirt panels of lace which terminated in back in a chapel train. The veil of French imported silk illusion was caught to a crown of pearls. She carried an ivory Bible under a bouquet of Aristocrat roses and red garnet Sweetheart rosebuds.

Attendants of the bride were Mrs. J. R. Noland of Floydada, sister-in-law, matron of honor; Miss Sharon Williams, Plainview, maid of honor; Misses Joyce Noland, Janice Noland and Sandre Stapleton and Mrs. J. T. Clemons of Chicago.

Relda Strain was flower girl and candles were lighted by Brenda and Becky Evant of Ralls.

The feminine attendants were dressed in shades of pink silk organza over taffeta designed identical, and carried a crescent bouquet of red and pink roses.

Louis Powell of Ralls served his brother as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Bart Evant, Donald Rowell, Joe Priddy, and Joe Noland. Craig Hambright, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor. The table was centered with a five-branched crystal candelabra and held the bouquets of the bride and her attendants.

Following a trip to points in Colorado the couple will be at home in Ralls where the groom is employed by Southwestern Public Service and engaged in farming.

Mrs. Powell is a graduate of

COUNTY SOIL TOUR SET FOR THURSDAY OF NEXT WEEK

The Floyd County Soil Conservation District's Annual Soil Tour will be held next Thursday, September 15 starting at 9:30 a.m. The group will assemble at the Agriculture building in Floydada and wind up at noon at Paymaster Farms north of Aiken where barbecue will be served to those present.

The annual tour is a joint effort of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District, Floydada Chamber of Commerce's Agricultural Committee, Floydada Lions Club, Paymaster Farms, the County Agents Office and the Soil Conservation Service office.

The outstanding conservation farmer for Floyd County Soil Conservation District will be named during the noon-day program at Paymaster Farms. The Floydada Lions Club will present a plaque to the farmer who receives this honor. The Lions Club will also have charge of the noon program and Troy McNeill, chairman of the program committee, has announced that James C. Valiant, assistant water engineer for the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, will be the main speaker.

The following is a tentative schedule of the tour route and what items of interest will be seen: Weldon Smith farm, cotton variety test demonstration; J. A. Noland farm, pasture planting of Midland bermuda; Raymond Rucker or Gene Prisco farm, land leveling and for more efficient use of irrigation water; Loyd Widener farm, rotation of cotton following cotton and cotton following soy beans; Charlie Boedeker farm, grain sorghum variety demonstration and noon program at Paymaster Farms.

One of the scheduled stops which will be especially interesting is at the J. A. Noland farm south of Lockney. An excellent planting of Midland bermuda grass has been obtained by Noland from a sprigging operation carried out in late April of this year.

In the short period of four and one-half months Noland's planting has made a complete cover with some runners over five feet long. Annual weeds and grasses were controlled as necessary and 80 pounds of anhydrous ammonia applied at first irrigation. He is planning to continue resting his Midland bermuda until frost in order to allow the root system to develop fully and store up nutrients in order that an early spring growth will be realized next year.

There has been considerable interest locally in this grass and everyone who has land that they are planning to convert back to grass should plan now on making the tour.

All local business men are invited to attend this tour or if business prevents leaving early morning they are still urged to be present for the noon program and meal.

Rough Riders Plan Fair Parade Details

Lone Star Rough Riders met Saturday at Lone Star Community Center to complete the details for the club's participation in the parade opening Floyd County Fair Thursday afternoon. Dennis Griffith, president, presided.

Red shirts with "Lone Star" lettered in white on the backs were voted to be worn instead of the original white shirts.

The club voted to meet each first Saturday at 2 o'clock during the school year.

One guest, Paul Barker, and mothers of club members were present along with the following members: Dennis Griffith, Johnny Lewis, Rickey Kellison, Johnny Thacker, Max Stevenson, Derrell Phillips, Tim Hartman, Russell Smith, and Jerry Billington.

Next meeting will be held the first Saturday in October in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Applewhite, sponsors.

The following schedule will be followed: typing, 6:30 to 7:10 p.m.; shorthand, 7:15 to 8:10 p.m.; bookkeeping, 8:15 to 9:05 p.m.

KOLACHES, 1960

Thorntons Sell Home To Dentist

A contract was signed recently wherein Mr. and Mrs. Owen Thornton have sold their home at the corner of South Main and Spruce streets to Dr. C. W. Jennings, a dentist now living in Plainview. Dr. Jennings will install an office in the building as soon as possible and will practice dentistry here, he said. He plans later to tear down the house and build a modern building there.

Dr. Jennings practiced in Lubbock for some 20 years. The Beacon was told. He was reared at Tulsa. He and Mrs. Jennings have two children, a boy and girl, ages 11 and 13.

The Thorntons are planning to give the doctor possession of the house by September 15 if possible. They will move in temporary quarters and start construction soon on a new home at the corner of South West 7th Street and College Avenue.

Board Employs 5th Grade Teacher

The Lockney school board, in a meeting Tuesday night, employed Mrs. Hugh Marble to teach one section of the 5th grade in the local school system. It was necessary to divide the 5th grade into three sections since 89 were enrolled in that grade, Supt. H. H. Nicholas said. Mrs. Marble will make the third 5th grade teacher.

The board authorized the school administration to dismiss school at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) to allow students to participate in the Fair activities.

Dear Editor:
I see where both big political parties have got very sanctimonious preachment in their platforms this year regarding us U.S. citizens' right to vote.

My unraprtured neighbor says he appreciates the political fervor in favor of preserving his vote, even if it does seem like kind of an empty privilege.

On account of, with maybe 60,000,000 Americans eligible to be elected President by the time he gets to cast his rightful vote, the all-wise people-keepers have framed a sonnet of our prospects out of the race.
