Fatal accident results in injuries to driver

A 19-year-old Floydada man died Wednesday, April 13, from injuries sustained when he was struck by a tractor-trailer traveling west on U.S. Highway 62 about one-half mile east of the city limits.

Michael Dewayne Self, flagman for the Texas Highway Department, was hit at about 3 p.m. He was working with a road crew repairing the asphalt surface when the accident occurred. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Walter Hollums. Self's body was taken to Moore-Rose Funeral Home. Services were held on Friday.

The 1982 International tractor-trailer rig was driven by Fred Malcolm Amburn, 61, of White Oak, Texas. The rig he was driving belonged to the Gregg Poultry and Egg Company in Longview. He was enroute to Plainview from Abilene. Amburn was pinned in the cab of his truck briefly until rescue teams could free him with the Jaws of Life.

Traffic was halted for several minutes while the debris was cleared, from both lanes of traffic. Two winch trucks were brought in to set the truck upright for removal.

According to DPS officials, the west-bound vehicle hit a highway pickup bearing a flashing arrow, then swerved sharply to the right. The impact forced the sign trailer into the north ditch. The truck skidded approximately 60 feet after turning over on its side. Officials said they could safely calculate that the truck was not speeding.

The actual cause of the accident is not known. The case is still under investigation by a grand jury.

The driver sustained a puncture wound and a broken bone to his right leg. He also suffered an abrasion to his right arm and a laceration to his forehead.

According to a company spokesman, because the front and rear axles were not damaged, the tractor rig was not totaled. The engine and transmission will have to be overhauled and a "glide kit" will be installed.

Self moved to Floyd County in August 1964 from Paris, Texas. He played varsity football for Floydada High School for two years. He and his fiancée, LaDonna Hefflin, were to have been married July 8. He was a Baptist.

The Michael Self Athletic Scholarship Fund has been set up in accordance with the family's wishes. Memorials are being accepted at the Summit Savings and Loan in Floydada or Littlefield.

His survivors included his parents, Dicky and Peggy Self of Littlefield; two sisters, Connie Self and Julie Self, both of the home.

Airport's future looks brighter

A consensus of aircraft owners, county officials and concerned citizens met with the Floydada City Council Tuesday to discuss the future of the reconstruction of the Floydada Municipal Airport.

The Federal Aviation Administration will provide 90 percent of the $352,000 needed to bring the airport up to FAA standards provided the City will raise the remaining 10 percent balance of $35,200. These funds must be in an account before the FAA will grant the funds.

These funds the FAA supplies come from aviation development funds paid for through aviation fuel taxes, federal aircraft taxes and passenger boarding taxes. This development fund is designated for the development and maintenance of airports and airways.

The Council voted to provide one-third of the deposit, if the balance was provided from other sources. Tom Powell, president of the Floydada

Chamber of Commerce, pledged the support of the Chamber to raise part of the money through a fund drive. Floyd County Judge Choise Smith expressed doubt of the county's ability to help, but he asked a group of aircraft owners and citizens to meet with the commissioners to present their insight to the airport.

The primary problem with the airport's state of disrepair is the base got saturated and the surface started to crumble. In 1979 the City turned down an offer to upgrade the airport due to other projects the City was working on. In 1982 the Texas Aeronautics Commission met with the mayor, City Manager Bill Feuerbacher and the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the possibility of repairing the airport.

The city then applied for grant money from the FAA, which would provide 90 percent of the funds to rebuild the airport. The city also applied for financial help from the TAC which would help with the local share of the money. However the TAC declined support. In a letter to the City Manager, the TAC said:

"We noted that an application had been submitted to the FAA and that you are requesting TAC to share in the local share. In attempting to help as many different airports as possible with our limited funding, the Commission has determined that if the FAA is or will be assisting a local community with a project, TAC will not participate in the same project. This is especially true with the FAA providing 90 percent financing."

The council has asked the FAA for a little more time in order to get these funds together. The need of the airport and the benefit to the county, especially to the farmers for agriculture use and spraying, was stressed in the meeting. Another public meeting is planned in the near future.

Hospital receives new equipment

Caprock Hospital Medical Services, Inc. is continually striving to provide excellent health care and to identify new areas of need in the community. Because of this effort, the hospital has purchased a computer controlled Treadmill and a 12 lead, 3 channel Electrocardiogram (E.C.G.). This combination of medical equipment allows the physician to observe the heart's performance during a controlled exercise.

The American Heart Association

estimates 2 million people will be heart attack victims this year. It is the No. 1 killer of men and No. 2 killer of women in the United States between the ages of 35-54.

Dr. Kenneth Cooper, M.D. of the Aerobic Institute and Research Center in Dallas, Texas recommends a complete cardiac examination yearly after the age of 35. A complete cardiac examination consists not only of blood tests, medical history, listening to the chest and blood pressure determination but also that your heart be monitored during rest and exercise with an electrocardiogram (E.C.G.).

The American Heart Association has set up some general indications to warrant Exercise Stress testing.

1. Well people over the age of 35 who are about to embark on an exercise program or increase their physical activity.

2. A person of any age with risk factors or disease which increase the

Large crowd attends Producers meeting

An outstanding crowd of approximately 425 attended the 39th Annual Stockholder's Meeting for Producers Cooperative Tuesday night. The barbecue meal, starting at 6:30, was served in the high school gym by caterers, Southern Seas.

The business meeting immediately followed in the auditorium.

Bill Hardin, president of the cooperative, called the meeting to order. In his opening remarks he announced that previously the stockholders meeting had been held approximately a month later; therefore dividend checks would be mailed to the patrons the latter part of May instead of being personally handed out.

Ken Durbin of Lubbock gave the auditor's report and announced that the cooperative was in a "very stable condition" even with sales down and operating expenses up a little.

Door prizes were handed out to all those attending. They were small instant emergency lights distributed by the makers of Prowl.

Bill Cagle gave his manager's report from the past year. He recognized the board members, employees and special guests. He reported that they were shipping grain out as fast as possible in preparation for wheat harvest. He said it looked like they could be filled to capacity by the end of harvest season, but the way the PIK program is working out they could be empty by January.

The manager went on to say they were making every effort to be as progressive and stay as prudent in their operations as possible for the protection of their 409 members. He said the construction was on the new warehouse being erected on the business site for seed and seed cleaning was coming along nicely.

Thomas Warren, a retiring member of the board, was presented with a plaque for six years of the dedication and hardwork he had exerted toward the goals of the cooperative. In Warren's response he said he had delivered his first crop to the Producers in 1942.

Robert Pyle announced to the audience the nominees selected by him and the other two members of the nominating committee: Cob Gilly and Weldon Pruitt. Kay Crabtree, Steve Newsome, Jake Younger, and Bill Hardin were nominated.

With no more nominations being made from the floor, ballots were distributed to the stockholders in attendance.

Bill Hardin was re-elected and Kay Crabtree was named the new member of the board.

Tickets were drawn for prizes during the meeting while the ballots were being counted.

Richard III, and the hunchback of Notre Dame.

Because of the damage that can occur from undetected Scoliosis, the Physical Therapy department at Caprock Hospital will conduct a screening at Andrews Ward on Friday the 22nd, of April. The Physical Therapy Department will perform this service annually to prevent this from affecting any child in this school system. Caprock Hospital's Physical Therapy Department is proud to offer this to the community.

A TRACTOR-TRAILER RIG westbound on U.S. Highway 62-70 toward Floydada about 3:00 p.m. last Wednesday came to an abrupt halt when it swerved to miss a road construction crew and turned over on its side and skidded 60 feet. The case is still under investigation.

Opportunity knocks as senior citizens

A campaign will be launched Monday, April 25, to help aid the Senior Citizens, who are in need of assistance to repair the damages sustained to their parking lot during the winter snows.

An appeal to the South Plains Association of Governments failed to secure any help for the cause. It has become necessary for them to find a way to help themselves.

L.D. Britton, president of the organization, is in charge of committees who will be sent out by voting precincts.

The only bid that has been obtained amounted to about $2200.

The Senior Citizens have a membership of approximately 135 members in Floydada and serve a few Lockney visitors since they do not have an organization. The number of meals served daily on a 5-day a week schedule ranges from 30 to 60 a day. Between 5 to 15 meals a day are delivered to homebound members.

A luncheon prepared every third Thursday of the month is served to from 75 to 100 persons.

These senior citizens, the special residents of our community, have served a good purpose in our community both presently and in the past. Their goals through the organization are very beneficial to serving a large percent of our senior citizens.

It is hoped that funds sufficient for covering the expense will be obtained in order for the work to be done during the summer months.

Now that this dedicated, contributing citizens are in need, let us all assist in helping them.

The residential and business areas will be canvassed for donations.

If a committee members knocks on your door asking for a donation, please respond if you can.

Inquiries may be directed to the Senior Citizens at 983-2032 until 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday or donations may be sent to Senior Citizens, Box 573, Floydada, Texas 79235.

VOLUNTEER FIRE FIGHTERS fought controled fires, such as this simulated pickup LPG fuel tank fire, at the Lubbock Fireman Training School last week.

Nine Floydada firefighters attend fire school

Many volunteer firefighters are inexperienced due to the lack of opportunity to respond to fires. To give a volunteer firefighter the chance to learn the proper techniques of fighting fires, fire training schools were organized. Last week, nine members of the Floydada Volunteer Fire Department attended one of these schools in Lubbock.

The 35th Annual Lubbock Fireman Training School drew 851 volunteer firefighters and instructors from 66 cities and agencies. This school gives volunteer firefighters the chance to get actual firefighting experience. They learn proper techniques to fight house and garage fires, LPG tank fires, spill fires and pressurized flammable liquid fires.

Four members of the Floydada Fire Department served as instructors in this school. Dinks Eckert, training officer, and Carroll Sims, first assistant chief, gave the fire tactics lecture. Larry Guthrie, second assistant chief, was in charge of the house fire field project. Bobby Welborn, chief, gave the protective equipment and breathing apparatus lecture and the smoke house field project.

All of the instructors were also from volunteer departments. The Lubbock Fire Department supplied equipment and several members assisted in the fire projects.

This school started as an instructors' conference with daytime lectures. In 1968 the school expanded to include some of the activities used now. Initially the school for volunteers was all daytime sessions, but now it is strictly night sessions. The school is open to anyone, but the largest percent of the enrollment are volunteers.

According to Lubbock Fire Chief, Tom Foster, the school is designed to reach volunteer departments to create an interest in the fire service.

"One advantage of this school," Foster said, "is that it lets the volunteer know what to expect in a fire situation, and it lets them feel confident in each other."

"The difference between a volunteer fire department and a paid fire department is a paid firefighter is expected to know what to do and expected to do the job. A volunteer likes the job and sees the need in the community for fire protection service. The desire in training is parallel to a paid department. In many cases the volunteer firefighter is less experienced than a paid firefighter because there is less opportunity for response to a fire."

"The volunteer must make arrangements to leave his job to fight fires. The pay is one of the motivations to a paid firefighter. Volunteers are motivated by seeing the need and by being a part of that need."

"Other than that, it is hard to distinguish between a paid and a volunteer firefighter. The dress, mannerisms and talk is the same in all firefighters. The camaraderie is almost universal."

Vietnamese family to reside in Floydada

Nguyen Trong Chanh and his family may soon be residents of Floydada. The Vietnamese family have been residents of Plainview for the past three years, coming to the United States in August of 1979. Chanh has opened a new business in Floydada. E.T. Television Service will be located at 111 W. California. The family will probably move to Floydada immediately following the dismissal of school for the summer break.

Chanh will have a co-worker, James Ferguson, also of Plainview, to help with the repair of radios and stereos. His wife Karen is an LVN in the Plains Convalescent Home in Plainview. The couple have six children: Andy, 16, Kathy, 15, Bobby, 12, Patrick, 5, Ira, 2, and David, 4 months.

Ferguson is a cousin to Henry and Mable Price of Floydada.

Many of our readers may recall reading about the Chanh family when they arrived in Plainview in August, 1979. Their family's strange and trying escape from the Communist takeover in Vietnam was written in the Plainview paper at that time. They were among the 750,000 hungry and desperate Southeast Asian refugees referred to as the "Boat People."

Chanh, 43, his wife of 22 years, Hoa, and their seven children and one nephew survived 21 days in a boat with 35 other people after the Communists took over Can Tho in 1975, a city of 200,000 located southwest of Saigon in South Vietnam at the mouth of the Mekong River. Chanh was imprisoned for a month more than 100 miles away. The expression of the man of tiny stature, usually a smiling, gracious countenance, hardens when he relates stories from these days. He said he and his family became so fearful for the lives of their children and their own that they could not eat their meals or sleep at night.

Chanh finally was released from the prison, borrowed some money from a friend and returned to Can Tho by bus. But the police always kept a wary eye on the former South Vietnamese soldier who once hoped to be an engineer.

"We were not authorized to go anywhere and I had to give the police a report of everything I was doing and everyone I was meeting or seeing," he said.

In late February Chanh, the senator of the province and some other relatives decided to make an escape attempt. "We had been planning an escape for more than a year. We decided that if we stay in Vietnam we have no freedom or human rights. We might die anyway. If we die in the ocean, it would be better. We would not have to worry anymore. In Vietnam we worry day by day," Chanh explained.

Even knowing the high risk and with Vietnam's Communist Prime Minister ordering the anyone...children, families...be killed if they tried to escape," the families pooled their resources and purchased a diesel-powered wooden boat. The boat, 36-foot long, 6 feet wide and 3 feet in depth, was docked in a port some 50 miles from Can Tho. One night the group of refugees, ranging in age from eight months to 78 years, stole their way from their place of hiding in the jungle to the boat at about 2 a.m. and cast out on the terrifying journey.

The boat headed for Thailand, about 250 miles north, but was stopped by a Thai fishing boat. The fishermen stole everything of value, broke the covering over the boat and threatened the lives of the passengers, but did not harm the women.

When the already seaskick group tried to land at Malaysia, the army would not let the refugees land, so they traveled another mile down the coast where they were allowed to land when they promised to leave in two days. While there the boat was repaired and food and fuel was obtained from the Malaysian government.

A Navy ship was ordered to lead the Vietnamese to the Bi Dong Refuge Camp, but their boat was not fast enough to keep up with the Malaysian ship.

"They got mad and shot holes in our boat, and two people had to pump water all the time," Chanh said. The refugees managed to get to an island where the boat was repaired and a second boat was sent to take them to the camp. The Malaysian ship pulled the refugee boat for two days and one night at such speeds all the passengers, who had to sleep sitting up because there was no room for anyone to lie down, were frightened.

Without warning the Malaysians cut the Vietnamese boat loose and warned the refugees not to come back or else they would be shot.

"We were in the middle of the ocean with no compass and no map. We navigated by the sun," Chanh related. The boat made several stops for rice and diesel, but was not allowed to remain at any place. Finally, the refugees were advised that the United Nations had set up a refugee camp in Kijang, some two days south.

"We did not use the light at night for fear of being shot," said Chanh. The refugees pressed rice together, splashed on soy sauce and ate with their fingers.

At Kijang, the camp was overrun with 1,900 people, each subsisting on three eggs, eight pounds of rice, one pound of vegetables, one-half pound of sugar and coconut oil a week. "We built a hut and slept on the floor. We made a well to take a bath and washed our clothes in the sea," said Chanh.

But the Immigration Service interviewed Chanh in April and the wheels began to turn for him and his family to come to America.

Exercise Stress Testing can be similar to testing a used car. You don't just idle the car in the parking lot, you take it out on the highway and put the engine and body into stressful performance. This is what is done during the exercise stress test. With proper screening, supervision and monitoring, stress testing is a valuable tool of proven safety.

If you or any of your family or friends have any of the symptoms mentioned above, please encourage them to visit one of our excellent physicians. They can possibly avert any problems in this area and you can live a more healthy, productive life.

"All time we travel, we are very frightened. But we are not hurt and no one dies. There is someone up there... God is watching over us," said Chanh, a Buddhist, his voice almost breaking.

Then he turned pensive. "But I am thinking of the refugees in the camp and those under Communism without freedom or human rights. It makes me very sad. I cried when I got out of the refugee camp. They had voted me to be their representative. I tried to help them with their troubles. I cried with them," he said almost in a whisper.

Chanh served in the military for several years after attending a university in Saigon for one year. While serving in the Vietnamese Marine Corps during the Vietnam War, fighting alongside American troops, he was severely injured in 1964 when a vehicle in which he was riding ran over a mine, causing it to explode.

Chanh bears a long, deep scar on the left side of his face and other body wounds. He was hospitalized for almost a year before he was discharged in 1968 as a First Lieutenant.

In 1964-65, he was trained at the Quantico Marine Base in Virginia, and studied English in Washington, D.C. at the Navy's Defense Language School. He observed military training in San Diego to help train his countrymen.

Chanh was recognized as one of the outstanding students in radio and television at Wayland. Their service will include repair and parts.

Chanh's wife, Hoa, was employed at the Levi plant in Plainview until its closing in December, 1982. She has since attended the Learning Center to improve her English.

The six Chanh children include: two daughters Phuong, who is an electron-

MRS. MARK ALAN GARDENHIRE

Faulkenberry, Rainwater repeat vows April 16th

First United Methodist Church of Floydada was the site for the 6 p.m. wedding ceremony uniting Kay Delene Faulkenberry and Andy Ray Rainwater April 16. The Rev. Jim Smith, pastor, read the exchange of vows.

The couple are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Faulkenberry of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rainwater of Dougherty.

The ceremony was performed before a brass candelabra arch. At the sides were spiral candelabra with teal blue candles, these were entwined with plumosa. Votive candles encircled with silk flowers in teal blue and large teal blue satin bows marked the aisles.

Escorted and presented in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a white gown of Wedgewood lace and point d'esprit featuring a high wedding band collar and dropped shoulders. The English net yoke with Schiffl embroidery trim was edged with a Wedgewood ruffle. Lace motifs accented the Bishop sleeves. Rows of Wedgewood lace made the full bouffant skirt which ended in a train.

The bride's headpiece, fashioned by the groom's mother, was a raised crown with seed pearls, the attached lace veil was of chapel length. Her cascade bouquet was of white silk roses and carnations accented with blue baby's breath and Boston fern. A corsage was also part of the bouquet.

Following tradition, for something old the bride carried a white silk handkerchief, brought from Germany by her maternal grandfather during WWI. Something new was her bridal attire, something borrowed was her paternal grandmother's ring and something blue was her garter. The garter was made of wide lace, as that used for the bridal veil, and the same brand of fabric from the bridesmaid's dresses. It featured small flowers which were sewn to make pockets, which held pennies of the birthdates of the couple and a new 1983 penny.

Serving her sister as maid of honor was Julie Faulkenberry of Floydada. Bridesmaids were Sheila Clark, and Amy Jones of Lubbock and Tammy Payne of Planview.

The floor-length dresses were of crepe-backed satin in teal blue. They were accented with draped necklines and butterfly sleeves. Their wide cummerbunds held a rose at the back which was made of self fabric. They carried a white Bible, a gift from the bride, which was topped with silk teal blue flowers.

Flower girl, Jennifer Crow of Floydada, wore a light teal blue floral polyester dress of floor-length. It had long sleeves and also a rose of self fabric at the back part of her waist.

Best man was Randy Rainwater, brother of the groom of Dougherty. Attending as groomsmen were John Henry and Jim Foster of Lubbock and Mike Bean of Van Nuys, California.

Randy Pernell, Joe Faulkenberry, brother of the bride, and Mike Rainwater and Carlos Rainwater, brothers of the groom were ushers. Rance Pernell of Dougherty was ring bearer.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, followed the wedding ceremony in the fellowship hall.

A plated white cloth draped the serving table, which held a four-tier square wedding cake. A satin wedding bell adorned the cake, along with roses. A crystal candelabra with teal blue candles completed the table's decoration.

tions. Crystal appointments were used. For a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, the bride chose an orchid sundress with a short white jacket. White accessories completed her attire.

The bride, a 1979 graduate of Floydada High School, is manager at the Olde White House. The groom graduated from Floydada High in 1977 and is employed with REM Farms, Inc.

Mona Beth Henderson, Mark Alan Gardenhire wed April 16th

Mona Beth Henderson became the bride of Mark Alan Gardenhire during a 7 p.m. wedding ceremony April 16 in the home of the bride's parents. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. O.K. Bowen, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Memphis, Texas.

The couple are the children of Deanie and Nita Henderson of Silverton and Linton and Linda Gardenhire of Memphis, Texas.

Musical selections presented were "Walk Hand in Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Gary McKay, sister of the groom of Austin, was soloist. Pianist was Mrs. Dwayne Floyd of Memphis, Texas.

The mantle held a basket of silk wild flowers tied with mauve moire ribbon. Mauve votive candles on either side completed the setting.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory embroidered net gown designed by Murray Hamburger of New York. The bodice featured a high neckline accented by a lace ruffle. The embroidered lace was outlined in "V" shape that extended to the natural waistline accented by a satin sash. The candlestick sleeve was accented by a lace ruffle at the wrist. The skirt of all embroidered net was gathered at the waist and fell to tea length. Her headpiece was a derby style hat of all embroidered net. Net blusher draped around the back and made a bow.

She carried a Victorian style fan covered in antique French lace, hand-made flowers and bows of satin accented the front with satin ribbon tied in love knots. Touches of gold adornments fell from the flowers.

For something old, the bride had tied in her bouquet the gold wedding bands of both her paternal and maternal grandmothers; something new was her bridal attire, for something borrowed she wore a gold heart necklace given to her mother by her maternal grandfather and something blue was her garter.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Mike Mathis of Lockney, served as matron of honor. Her street-length dress was of mauve and ivory float with ivory lace at the collar. She carried a bouquet of wild flowers tied with ivory lace ribbon.

Miss Kaci Mathis, niece of the bride of Lockney, was flower girl. She wore a long dress of mauve color, trimmed in ivory lace with a wide sash in the back. A mauve basket covered in lace and tatting with satin ribbon was carried by Miss Mathis. Kirby Gardenhire of Memphis, Texas attended his brother as best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The table was covered with a white batinburg tablecloth. The brides fan served as a centerpiece with Fostoria candlesticks on each side. A Fostoria punch bowl and Fostoria appointments complimented the table.

An ivory lace and satin box with a dove was on top of the two-tiered white wedding cake. It was adorned with touches of ivory, mauve and burgundy flowers cascading down the side.

Presiding at the serving table were Miss Lori Johnston of Lubbock and Miss Renee Norman, also of Lubbock.

The bride has attended Lockney High School and West Texas State University. The groom, who is employed with Energas, has attended Lakeview High School and West Texas State University.

Christine Marie Huffman, Mark Ralph Odom united during afternoon ceremony in Lockney Saturday, April 16th

Wedding vows uniting Christine Marie Huffman and Mark Ralph Odom in Christian marriage were repeated Saturday afternoon in the First United Methodist Church of Lockney, Texas. The Reverend Frank Oglesby of the Forrest Heights United Methodist Church of Lubbock officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huffman of Lockney, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ralph Odom of Abilene, Texas. As guests entered the foyer of the church, they were greeted by a cousin of the bride, Janna Lee Walker, at the registry. The register table was laid with the bride's book and a bouquet of purple and orchid flowers arranged in a brass cricket box, a gift of one of her music teachers, Elaine Hardy. Bouquets of greenery led your eyes to the altar area, which was flanked with palms at each altar rail, while votive cups, entwined with English ivy, graced the communion rail area. The altar arrangement was of various greens and hurricane candles entwined with ivy, and a double star unity candle, encased in a hurricane globe, was placed in the center of two smaller Chi Rho Symbol candles in globes. These decorations were in front and below a beautiful, brass altar cross and candles. Baskets of greenery were on the flower stands at either side of the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white, bridal satin fashioned with a gored skirt attached to a fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline. The sweetheart neckline was edged in pearls, framed with Alencon Medallions. The set-in, puffed satin sleeves were fitted at the wrists with a wide cuff of white, overlaid Alencon and satin buttons. Edged with Alencon lace, the skirt formed a chapel train. The dress was designed, fashioned, and presented to the bride as a gift made by her mother. She, also, wore a gold locket belonging to her mother, a childhood gift from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clay Inmon.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a small pearl crown surrounded by lily of the valley and illusion tufts. The veil was borrowed from a cousin Mrs. David Walker. She chose a cascade of yellow ribbons placed atop a white Bible, a gift and tradition carried on by the groom parents. Inside the Bible was a tatted Cross, a graduation gift from a very special third grade teacher, Mrs. Dee Copeland. For something old the bride carried in her bouquet the gold wedding band of her great-grandmother, Julia Etta Farnsworth Huffman. Something blue was the garter, a gift of the maid of honor. Penny's were worn in her shoe with the bride and groom's birth year on them. Her gown was her traditional something new.

Maid of honor was Mary Frances Huffman, sister of the bride. Also attending the bride were Denise De Haven and Gaye Brown of McMurry College, Abilene, Texas.

The bridesmaid gowns were fashioned of solid color lilac polyester chiffon over a taffeta lining. The blouson bodice dresses were lace trimmed with yellow and dark purple ribbon belts and handkerchief hems. Lilac and white shoes complimented the gowns. Each girl carried long stemmed yellow roses, white cushion mums and ivy tied with lilac ribbons fashioned as an arm bouquet. Hair pieces were orchid and deep purple silk flowers entwined with light orchid ribbons.

Jim Davis, Abilene, served as best man. Tom Cox and Alan Park of Abilene served as groomsmen. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo, while the groomsmen were attired in silver grey western tuxedos.

Flower girl was Missy Odom, niece of the groom. She was dressed in a long orchid peasant style crepe de chine dress bedecked with white lace and orchid ribbons. Her belt was of yellow and purple ribbons and her hair piece of orchid and purple silk flowers. She carried a white basket filled with fresh flowers.

Candlelighters were Elizabeth Lynette Walker and Monty Rex Walker.

cousins of the bride. They lit the brass altar candles and were dressed in the traditional church acolyte robes. The mothers of the bride and groom lit the Chi Rho candles from the altar candles upon being ushered into the sanctuary. Ushers for the service of unity were Terry and Opie Odom, Abilene, brothers of the groom and Larry Wayne McVay, College Station and Judson Walker, Kress, cousins of the bride. The ushers seated the grandparents of the bride, Mrs. Ernest Inmon of Paris, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herman Huffman of Lockney, were in attendance.

Ring bearers were Bryan and Drew Odom, nephews of the groom. They carried the groom's ring on a pillow borrowed from the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Herman Huffman. Matthew Clay and Stephan Brian Inmon, Phoenix, Arizona, cousins of the bride carried a pearl studded pillow made by the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Herbert Walker and carried in several family weddings. This satin pillow held the bride's ring.

The musical selections were played on the piano by Becky Cole, pianist for the McMurry Chanter Choir, Abilene. One of these selections will be "Claire De Lune" a favorite of the bride.

Vocal selections of "We've Only Just Begun," "Wedding Song," "Let It Be Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" was voiced by Mary Daniel, also of McMurry.

The traditional "Wedding March" was performed on the organ by Mrs. C.L. Record, Lockney.

Following the service of love a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a floor length white cloth having a deep ruffle overlaid with a heavy white lace caught at intervals with orchid bows. The table was graced with a crystal punch set and an orchid and yellow silk arrangement. The bride's cake was a three tiered white cake topped by a gold Chi Rho ornament and white silk flowers. The two wedding rings entwined on the Cross of the Chi Rho symbolizes the union of the couple in Christ. The cake and banana punch, nuts and yellow mints, were served by Sue Burt, Texas Tech, Lubbock and Tammy Adams, Wayland Baptist University, Plainview.

A table was set with an ecru cloth overlaid with a hand crocheted ecru tablecloth made by the great-grandmother of the bride, Mrs. John Fraser, Sr. This table held a picture of the bride and a silver candleabra with crystal votive cups.

The groom's table was set with a floor length ecru cloth overlaid with a light brown cloth. Chocolate cake and coffee were served from copper appointments, a gift to the groom's mother from his father, Reverend Ralph Odom. Serving from this table were Mrs. Tim Odom, sister-in-law of the groom of Graham and Mr. Ben Ed Hillhouse, sister of the groom of Wheeler. Also in the reception room was a table of sandwiches, fruits and cheeses.

Assisting in the reception were cousins of the bride. These girls were dresses in grape colored dresses, each a style of their choosing. Hair decorations of silk flowers complimented their outfits. Rice bags of grape fabric tied with orchid and white ribbons were made and distributed by these girls. Angela Kay and Kathy Walker, Brenda and Donna Walker, Plainview, Elizabeth and Janna Lee Walker, Kress and Pheadra Booth of Lubbock.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Bill Whitfill, Byron Ford, Durward Jack, Delton Jack, Jerry Ford, Hansel Sanders, Gale McPherson, Duard Reves and Johnny Adams.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of Lockney High School, attended McMurry College and is presently employed at Hendricks Memorial Hospital, Abilene. She is an affiliate member of Fairmont United Methodist Church, Abilene and the Alpha Psi Alpha at McMurry.

A graduate of Abilene Cooper High School the groom has a B.S. in Animal Science from McMurry College and is presently employed in the Athletic Department of the school. He is a member of Fairmont United Methodist Church, Abilene.

A Friday evening rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's family at the Far East restaurant for the wedding party. A meal of Chinese food was enjoyed. A bridesmaid luncheon was served at the home of the grandmother, Mrs. Herman Huffman on Saturday for the bride's party.

The bride chose a white georgette dress topped with a sailor collar trimmed with an orchid ruffle for her going away dress. She wore with this the locket given to her as a baby by her grandmother, Mrs. Inmon. A corsage of yellow rose buds complimented her dress. After a wedding trip to Galveston and points South the newlyweds will be at home in Abilene.

Resthome Birthday Party

By Lorilla Bradley

April often brings us flowers... But SOMETIMES it is snow!!! Yet, come what may we celebrate For birthdays, sure, we know.

*****

Our Mr. Leon Marble... He counts from '99... Has done a "heap 'o living" And working in his time!

*****

We greet our Mrs. Wilson... Her years are 83... She always looks so "spic and span" And pretty as can be!

Let's do the good old birthday song To bring a bit of cheer... And help these lovely people To start another year!

Thursday, April 14th, was party time at the Rest Home with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ hosting the occasion. Residents and guests were ushered into the dining room with the honoree (we are so sorry Mr. Marble was unable to join the party) being seated at the "honor" table.

Places were marked with special birthday cards. Compliments of Williams Florist Mrs. Wilson wore a lovely corsage of pink carnations and Mr. Marble was presented a red carnation boutonniere. The table was laid with an ecru, lacy cloth and centered with a floral arrangement in blue. As a special tribute to her sister Bennie, Mrs. Jessie Stewart baked a delicious angel food cake, which was served to other guests as well.

The Hesperian photographer came for the "picture taking" after which the poem was read and all joined in singing the Happy Birthday song.

Seated with Mrs. Wilson was Mrs. Stewart and Janis Julian. With Mrs. Addie Lindley was her daughter Letha Lightfoot and Mr. M.D. Goolsby had as his guest Ruth Bradford. We are all delighted to have guests and we urge all of you to come and be with your friends and loved ones each time we have a party.

A refreshment plate of the angel food cake, a delicious butternut pound cake and tangy fruit punch was served to the honorees, guests, residents and employees. The next party will be Thursday, May 12th, 2:30 p.m. Please be with us then.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Winona Jackson

This has been a busy week. We have had two more new residents. Earl Bishop from Floydada, and Bertha Anderson from Matador are with us. We are so happy to have these two sweet persons in our home. Welcome! Vera Duke has had eye surgery but is back and doing fine. Efford Parrish is still in Caprock Hospital but hopefully will be back with us next week.

On Monday, at our coffee klatch, Wendy read one of Helen Steiner Rice's poems and led a quiet devotion and sharing time. Wendy, Irene, Una, Addie, Bennie, Emmitt and Lura enjoy this morning time of coffee and lots of talk and sharing. We are all happy to have Ruth Benson back and sharing coffee with us again.

Jim Guess led the regular morning devotion time for twenty-four residents. Ray Macha again shared his "Count your blessings" message with us. Thank you, Ray!

Last week when Bennie Wilson got out of her wheel-chair, stood up and did the "Hoky Poky", I felt it would be an inspiration for others...it was!! Monday morning in exercise class, Emmitt Lawrence, Iva Simpson, and Sue Thompson also stood up and did the "Hoky Poky." Monday afternoon, Olive brought the ceramic pieces, which were painted the week before, back all fired and so pretty. Lura, Bessie, Emmitt, Una, Bennie, Addie, Iva, Hallie, and Irene painted new pieces today.

On Tuesday, Neeley Richardson brought devotions and singing for twenty residents...and of course...the banana break! Tuesday's Bible Study was attended by Alta, Una, Bennie, Lura, Addie, Hallie, Annalee, Emmitt and Clara, Irene wasn't feeling well and could not attend. The Bible Study was just not the same without her insights and wisdom.

On Wednesday, Br. Zumwalt and eleven volunteers led devotions and singing for seventeen residents. Wednesday's bingo players were: Una, Annalee, Sue, Addie, Bennie, Lura, Hallie, Alta, Emmitt, and Iva. Emmitt and Lura won three games, Una and Bennie won two games and everyone else won one game.

Addie Lindley was the black-out winner.

Wednesday evening our friends from West Side Church of Christ were here to sing for us again. Their harmony is so pretty. Emmitt and Slim were singers in their younger days so they enjoy this group so much. We all do!! Thank you, friends, for sharing your love and talent with us.

On Thursday, I was at John Knox Village in Lubbock attending a Music for the Aging Seminar. I was away from the Home all day, but I was told on Friday morning about the lovely birthday party our friends from City Park Church of Christ hosted for everyone. Bennie Wilson and Pappy Campbell were the birthday honorees this month. Everyone said Bennie was so pretty...all dressed up and wearing the flowers James and Cindy Williams always send from Williams Florist. All of these friends make the day so much brighter for thirty-eight dear people.

On Friday, Mary Corley led devotions and as always, her stories keep everyone so interested. Friday afternoon nineteen residents and two visitors watched a very good film, "Journey into Summer"...with popcorn!! Steve said I had finally found "my" calling...sweeping up popcorn!! Thank you, Steve!!

A special thanks to all the volunteers and friends who visit each week and to the Jr. class and Janet Milam for "their" remembering...We love you!!

Visitors were: Gene Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Klyce Ooley, Opal Nelson Higgins, La Mesa, Ca.; Deane Nelson Bellflower, Ca.; Otis, Dana, Kim and Jo Lee Ellis, Lisa Graham, Dolores Cannon, Marilyn Smith, Opal Higgins, Lloyd Nelson, Mrs. Myrtice Rainer, Miss Jennifer Palmer, Miss Michelle Lewis, Ollie Meek, Mabel Meek, Beulah Denison, Charley L. Berry Sr. Bessie Martin, Mary Corley, Hazel Bradley and Kim, Shelly and Sandra Coleman, Debra and Justin Bailey.

Also Elvis and Lovelle Childs, Dana and Jo Lee Ellis, Frances Finch, LuAnn Collins, Mattie Collins, Mattie Wester, Debra and Justin Bailey, Dorothy Neff, Gene Baird, Margie Baird, Almaogordo, New Mexico; Deeta Odam, Pauline Pierce, Mrs. Klyce Ooley, Ray Nelson, Earl Edwards, Jess Glover, Christine Robertson, Estelle Hinkle, Hazel Bradley and Kim, Helen Breed, Letha Lightfoot, Juanita Hamilton, Sue Hamilton, Richard Campbell, Ann Campbell.

On Wednesday, Br. Zumwalt and eleven volunteers led devotions and singing for seventeen residents. Wednesday's bingo players were: Una, Annalee, Sue, Addie, Bennie, Lura, Hallie, Alta, Emmitt, and Iva. Emmitt and Lura won three games, Una and Bennie won two games and everyone else won one game.

Mrs. Bernice Carey today is doing very well in Caprock Hospital. And let us remember these in prayer.

Mrs. Elmer Warren is feeling better today at home.

Mrs. Meredith likes to be home.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian
 South Plains, April 18:
 The death of Cecil Osborne, Sr. of Emory, on Thursday afternoon, came as a shock to our community. Mr. Osborne was the father of Cecil Osborne, Jr. minister at the South Plains Baptist Church. Rev. and Mrs. Osborne went there and will be in Emory until the latter part of this week. Services for Mr. Osborne, Sr. were held on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at Emory, and Rev. Osborne, Jr. assisted by his son-in-law, Rev. Ron Somers, conducted the last rites. Those from here who were able to be present were Nathan Johnson and Carlton Johnson, who flew there for services on Saturday. We extend our sympathy to the pastor and his family in their loss.
 Dr. Dan McClellan, Vice-president of Wayland University at Plainview presided in the pulpit for both Sunday services in the absence of Reverend Osborne, and messages were enjoyed by all those present. Visitors for the morning services at the South Plains Baptist Church included Penny and Cindy Mulder, from here, Reverend and

Mrs. R.C. Guest from Silverton, and he was a former pastor of the South Plains church. We welcome all those visitors. Last Sunday's speaker for TANE was Dennis Quattlebaum, from Lubbock.
 Wednesday, April 20, at 2:00 p.m. the South Plains Hobby Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Marble in South Plains for a study on genealogy assisted by Mrs. Nita Marble.
 The South Plains Baptist Vacation Bible School will be held this spring on May 30th through June 3rd, in the afternoons from 2-5 p.m. at the South Plains Church.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest and Ruth Smitherman went to Austin Friday to spend the weekend with their son and family, the Larry Smithermans and Kay Lynn. They are expected home early this week. They flew to Austin for the weekend with their children.
 Mrs. Sylvin (Bobbie) Kinnibrugh entered the Central Plains Hospital Sunday afternoon for major surgery this Monday, April 18th, and she will be in Room #230 there after her surgery. We pray for a speedy recovery for her.

Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. (Lillie Mae) entered the Lockney General Hospital Friday and is still in the hospital there this Monday morning but we hope she will be home very soon. She was suffering from a stomach virus.
 The Floydada Band Concert was held Sunday afternoon at Floydada in the high school auditorium, and was enjoyed by a large group. Luncheon was served prior to the concert there in the High School Cafeteria. Several from our community are in the high school band.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jerry and Darla Chappell spent the weekend over in Ruidoso on the ski slopes. Skiing has been excellent, and lots of snow has fallen on the slopes this winter. It was 30 degrees just last Thursday morning here.
 We extend congratulations and best wishes to Miss Connie Welch and Steve Pritchett as they have announced their engagement and approaching marriage in June. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Welch and Mr. and Mrs. E.P. Pritchett. They are to be honored with a bridal shower on Saturday, April 23rd, between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. in Floydada at the home of Mrs. Jane Bean.

Vocational students to compete at state

Floydada High and Junior High Vocational Construction Trades Students came away with some first place ribbons at contest in Amarillo Saturday, April 9.
 Bernie Maldonado and Martin Murillo won blue ribbons on their wood projects. They are qualified to go to the state contest.

 Harry Juarez received a second place. In the skills contest of nail driving and measure cutting off on 45° Rod Davis, Bernie Maldonado, Martin Murillo, Harry Juarez, Robert Camacho, and Roy Hill won red ribbons. Bernie Maldonado won fifth place.
 Dale Smith, VOCT instructor said, "Overall it was a very productive trip. With support and help, all of us are very excited about doing even better next year."
 "We want to thank the parents, the community, our entire school system: the superintendent, the junior high and high school administrators, the school board, and the teachers for the cooperation which made it all possible. We plan to make next year better."
 An expansion of the vocational classes is anticipated, making it possible for more students from a wider range of classes to learn some of the vocational arts.
 The state competition for the students will be held in Corpus Christi May 13 and 14 at the Bay Front Convention Center.

Wednesday, April 12, the Junior American Citizens Club of the South Plains Elementary School enjoyed a field trip to Floydada. The students met Sheriff Fred Cardinal and two members of his department and were given an interesting and informative tour of some areas of the county jail. The students, then went to the courthouse where they were introduced to Barbara Edwards, who took the JAC members on a tour of various county offices and the county and district courtrooms. The students were privileged to have a chance to visit with District Judge George Miller, District Attorney Randy Hollums, and the defense lawyer, Mr. Lee. The students proceeded to the Floydada Fire Station where Fire Chief Bobby Welborn met them. As Mr. Welborn was beginning the tour for the JAC members, he received a call and he and some of the volunteer firemen had to make an emergency run. The students observed a very speedy, efficient unit in action. The entire trip helped the Junior American Citizens better understand how the county government operates. JAC members are the 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students.
