

Floyd Voters Nix Weather Modification

Weather modification voters soundly rejected propositions on hail suppression flights in Floyd County Tuesday. Floyd County voters were not the only ones to turn down the propositions handily. Castro and Bailey voters also voiced their opinions strongly against the propositions.

In the election held Tuesday 851 people went to the polls to determine the fate of weather modification efforts in Floyd County. With a total vote of 727 against and 124 persons for, voters turned down the issuance of a weather modification permit which includes hail suppression in a major portion of Floyd County. With 14 precincts voting, only two precincts voted in favor of the proposition, those being Sandhill and Allmon. At Allmon only nine persons turned out to vote and at Sandhill only 34.

Those in the communities of Goodnight, Baker and Dougherty were not eligible to vote because they are not in the target or operational areas in Floyd County.

Voters in Southwest Floydada cast 11 for to 136 against; East Lockney, 13 for to 74 against; Providence, 6 for to 18 against; Lone Star, none for, 34 against; South Plains, one for and 51 against; Cedar Hill, none for to 48 against; Harmony, 7 for to 8 against; West Lockney, 43 for to 165 against; Northwest Floydada, 2 for to 59 against; McCoy, none for 11 against; Southeast Floydada, four for to 65 against; Northeast Floydada, one for and 28 against; and absentee, one for and 22 against.

Approximately the western 1/3 of Floyd County is located within the target area for hail suppression covered by the permit granted to the Plains Weather Improvement Association of Plainview. The overall vote in the target area was 116 for and 505 against. The middle 1/3 of the county is within the operational area of the permit. In the operational area 10 boxes voted against hail suppression activities. The operational area is a strip of land eight miles wide immediately to the east of the target area, over which planes may fly to seed clouds. The vote in the operational area was 7 for and 200 against.

At Cedar Hill, more voters turned out for this election than for any in the history of that election precinct.

Of 52 voting boxes over the South Plains eligible for the election, only nine approved of continuing suppression flights by Plains Weather Improvement Association of Plainview or Atmospherics Inc., of Littlefield. Voters were eligible to cast ballots only on the proposition affecting their area.

Exact results of the election will not be known until the Texas Water Development Board convenes in Austin sometime in September or October to certify election results and amend the companies' permits to operate, according to board general counsel Bruce Bigelow.

Only in clear cut operational areas will election results be final and valid, and then only as soon as Bigelow receives a certified copy of the results from county commissioners.

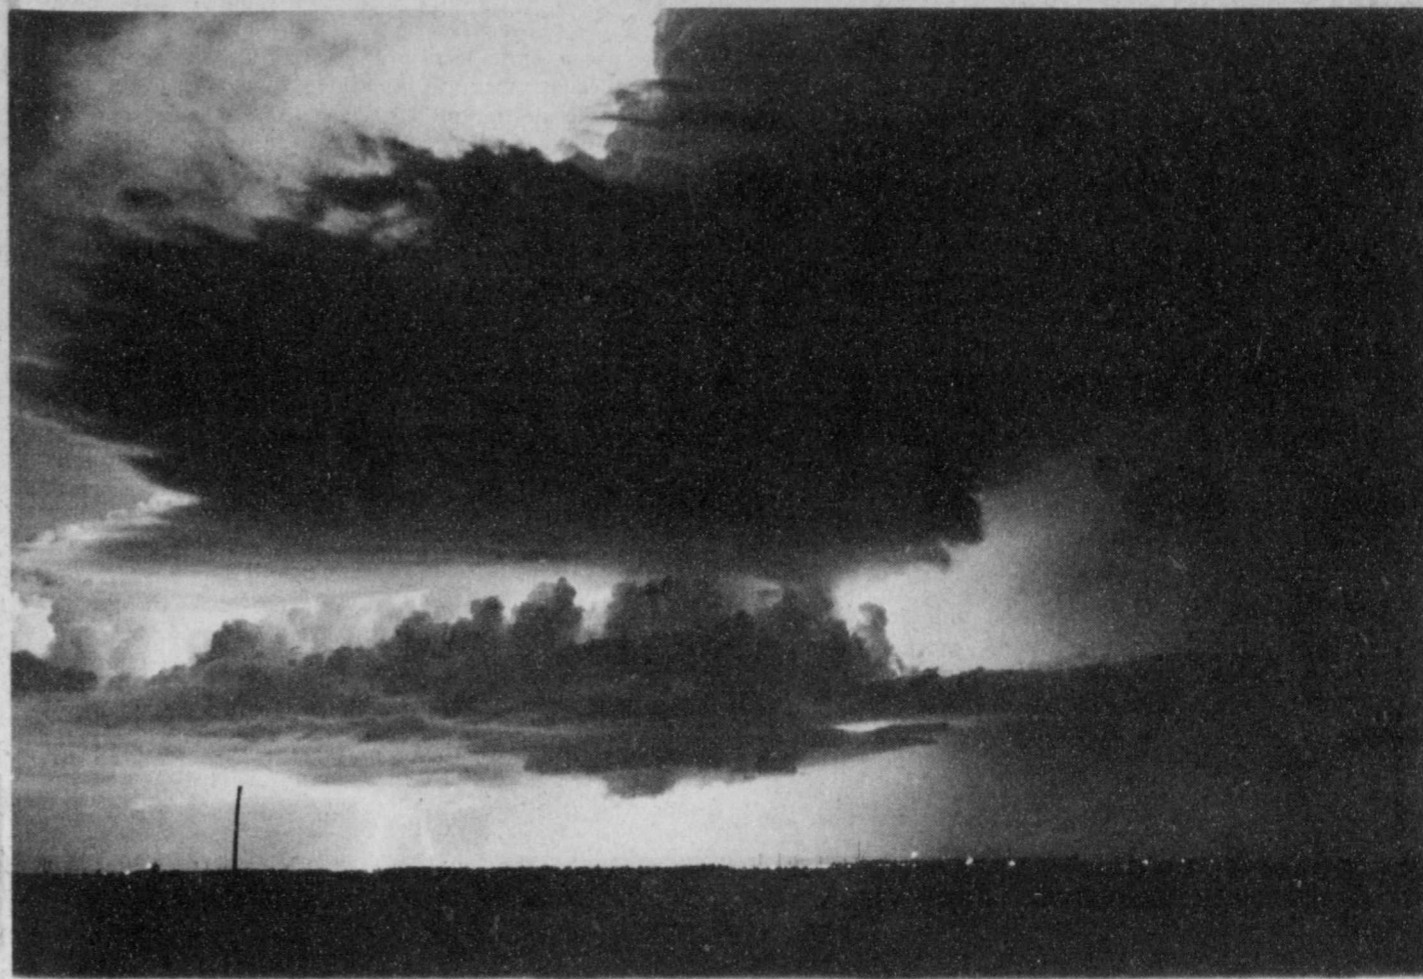

Immediately thereafter, companies will be notified to cease flights over operational areas which voted against the propositions.

Modification companies made their biggest gains last Saturday with the Lamb County elections. Voters in eight target area precincts there approved modification activities, while the proposition failed in only one area precinct. Voters in seven other operational precincts also defeated the proposal.

W.R. Ware of Cedar Hill and with the group opposing the weather modification efforts, said, "We are very happy with the results of the election."

He went on to say, "We certainly appreciate the efforts of those who worked on the petitions and on the election, and we want to express our thanks to the Citizens for Natural Weather for their help. After seven years of struggle to end cloud seeding, the Citizens for Natural Weather hope that at last politicians across the state will take notice that people disfavor these weather modification efforts." Ware stated that six out of every 7 people disfavored cloud seeding in the election.

On Friday morning at 9:00 Floyd County Commissioners Court will meet in special session to certify the results of the election. Notice of the results of the election will be on to the Texas Water Development Board in Austin.

LIGHTNING lit the sky Tuesday night, and showers continued in Floyd County. Rainfall totals of up to four inches have been reported in the past week in some parts of the county. (Staff Photo)

Natural Weather Advocates Happy

"Now we know for sure that the majority of the population does not want weather modification," was the way Wayne Bramlet, secretary-treasurer of the Floyd County Citizens For Natural Weather, summed up the results of the election Tuesday. Floyd County voters cast their ballots 727 against, 124 for issuance of a weather modification permit, including authorization for hail suppression, in the county. Voters in only two boxes (Allmon and Sandhill) approved the weather modification proposal.

Bramlet, on behalf of W.R. "Raz" Ware, chairman of the Citizens For Natural Weather group in Floyd County, said Wednesday, "A few of us worked hard to get the election scheduled, and we appreciate the voter turnout, and of course we're happy with the way the vote went."

New County Budget Filed

The new Floyd County budget of $759,164.00 has been filed in the county

Floyd County Farm Bureau will have a bond-burning celebration at the clerks' office at the court house by auditor, Olin Watson, and is open for public inspection. A public hearing on the budget will be held at 1 p.m. on September 12 in the county court room.

There is little change in the new budget...with no new tax increase. The tax rate remains at 95 cents per $100 valuation. Estimated tax valuation for the county is $54,514,500.00 as given by the tax assessor.

The budget includes a five percent raise for all county employees, subject to the approval of county commissioners, according to the auditor.

All items are manufactured by Lighthouse For The Blind. Profits from the broom sale to the Lighthouse For The Blind and for local Lions Club projects.

Big College Bill

NEW YORK, Aug. 13— Residents of Floyd County whose sons and daughters will be heading for college soon are finding that the cost will be greater than ever.

Colleges in all parts of the country have raised their rates again, citing their own increased operating expenses for faculty salaries, fuel, supplies and maintenance.

For residential students at four-year private institutions, the average increase is $242, for those at public colleges, $115.

For Floyd County families, based upon the number of local youngsters who are college-bound this year, the added cost will amount to approximately $43,000.

According to the latest estimates, some 310 young men and women from the Floyd County area will be going to college this year.

The total cost involved, for local parents, is approximately $1,065,000. This is based upon the assumption that half of the students will be going to private colleges and half to public ones.

Reserved Seat Options Up For Renewal

Lockney football stadium reserved-seat options are due and payable September 1. Those who wish to renew their stadium seat options should contact the Lockney ISD superintendent's office.

Lockney fans will be sitting on new aluminum seats this year. First home game for the LHS team is September 9, when the Longhorns face Friona. (There's a scrimmage tomorrow (Friday) evening, starting at 6 p.m., in the local stadium.)

There have been some other changes in the home-side seating arrangements, too—the band and student sections have been moved to the south end of the stadium, where the general admission section has been. The general admission section is now on the north end of the stadium. And a few changes have been made in the reserved-seat (center) section seating because of alterations made when remodeling the stands.

Scrimmage Changed To Tomorrow

The Lockney-Muleshoe football scrimmage originally scheduled at 5 p.m. today (Thursday) has been changed to 6 p.m. Friday. The scrimmage will be at the Lockney stadium.

First regular-season game for the 'Horns' is the following Friday, September 2, at Post.

THIS WAS SUBMITTED by Soila "Sally" Reyes—a reminder at an appropriate time, since school starts today:

"Cindy hummed a little tune as she walked to school. This was her third day in the first grade. She felt so happy because she was a big girl of six now. No more baby stuff like kindergarten and fat crayons. She loved her teacher Miss Carey, and she loved sitting at a big desk. She had five new outfits for school and different colored ribbons for her hair and shiny Mother Goose shoes.

"She stopped and looked both ways as her mother had taught her to do. She had begged so hard to be allowed to walk the three blocks to school by herself this morning. After all, she was a big girl now, and her mother shouldn't have to walk her every day. One more street and then the crossing where the school safety patrol stood, and she'd be there.

"As she came to the end of the block she saw her friend Marcy. 'Marcy!' She waved and stepped off the curb. She saw the car bearing down on her, blue like her favorite dress...

TOWER TALKS

by U.S. Senator for Texas
JOHN TOWER

Crude Oil Price Deregulation

WASHINGTON—The Administration's repeated talk about the ill-effects of deregulated energy on the consumer is a good example of how misinformation—if unchallenged—becomes the conventional wisdom, despite facts to the contrary.

Such tactics do a gross disservice to the American public, obscuring the issues with political propaganda at a time when Texans and all Americans deserve straight talk about energy policy and how it will affect their pocketbooks and their way of life.

Unfortunately, the public has been subjected to so much contradictory information about the consequences of various energy proposals that distrust may be the prevailing attitude.

Yet it is critically important that we understand that the policy decisions made now will have far-reaching implications, affecting the quality of our lives well into the next century.

Vitality important to our industrial and economic future—and among the energy issues most consistently misrepresented—is crude oil supply and its price. The Administration has argued that a cap must be continued on the price of crude oil to prevent an alleged rip-off of the consuming public. Oil companies, so the argument goes, would reap windfall profits and would be under little pressure to plow back profits into exploration and production, so that little additional supply of oil would result.

Such claims are patently exaggerated and do not stand up under examination when even basic economics are applied.

The real consumer rip-off, it is important to understand, is an energy policy which assures a scarce supply of domestically produced oil, while at the same time continues reliance on the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) for oil at a price they can raise at the drop of a hat.

The Administration's crude oil plan is just such a policy.

Basic economic facts argue forcefully for deregulation. Even though Arab oil is priced high, it sells and will continue to do so on the world market because Federal regulation of the domestic oil companies discourages American exploration and production. With little or no American supply competition, OPEC has a corner on the oil market.

American companies, like most businesses, must justify the soundness of their investments. Oil exploration and production, hobbled by excessive regulation, is simply not a sufficiently attractive investment. Unable to realize a return on investment, American companies have been forced to produce less and the consumer therefore pays a price dictated by the Arabs.

Deregulation would reverse this perversion of the marketplace. American companies could begin to bring in new sources, eliminate the OPEC monopoly on supply, and allow the marketplace to determine prices.

Windfall profits? Every reliable study comes to the same conclusion—profits would remain about the same as for other segments of industry. Congress has considered an excess profits tax before. Should deregulation result in higher prices not accompanied by increased supplies, such a tax could again be considered.

More importantly, we would begin to rely on American production, not Arab whim or costly government controls to assure a vital supply of oil.

Seminar Seeks Solutions To Gin Waste Problem

For cotton gins throughout the Cotton Belt, gin waste is a problem of staggering dimensions.

In Texas alone, assuming a 4 million bale production, gin waste would total about 2 million tons.

With federal and state regulations restricting the traditional ways of burning gin trash, gins are faced with either finding ways of burning without pollution or disposing of the trash some other way.

Solutions to this problem were the topic of discussion at a seminar on gin waste utilization and stick separation held earlier this year by Cotton Incorporated in cooperation with the Southern Cotton Ginners Association and the National Cotton Council. Cotton Incorporated is the fiber company of American cotton producers.

Proceedings of the seminar have recently been published to make them available to interested persons.

Alternatives examined at the seminar included heat-recovering gin waste incinerators, composting, using gin waste for building materials, and a feeder-cleaner unit to remove the waste before it gets in the gin.

Outlining the problem at the seminar, Jack Hamilton, president of the Southern Cotton Ginners Association, told the ginners and producers in attendance that "we are just not going to be able to continue burning as we are burning now."

The results of tests of heat-recovering gin waste incinerators have proven "impressive" in tests, according to Beverly Reeves, extension agricultural engineer for cotton mechanization and ginning.

"We have a lot of people working on gin trash incineration and heat recovery, and I think we are making good progress," Reeves told the approximately 50 persons at the seminar.

Equipment manufacturers, scientists, and ginners outlined the pros and cons of various incinerator systems and their overall effectiveness. Engineers from Cotton Incorporated presented results of two seasons' tests on heat-recovering incinerators.

The audience also heard about alternatives other than incineration.

Composting offers some advantages as a disposal method, according to a report from Calvin B. Parnell Jr. of Texas A&M. He said composting of gin waste has the potential of bringing Texas ginners an additional $48 million revenue yearly.

Evangelos J. Biblis, professor of forestry at Auburn University, reported that gin waste from spindle-picked cotton could be combined with wood particles and wood fiber to produce insulation board that meets commercial standards.

Another alternative explored was a better system of removing trash from seed cotton before it enters the gin.

A unit that doubles as both a cleaner and a feeder was explained by Lambert Wilkes, professor of agricultural engineering at Texas A&M University. Wilkes reported that the feeder-cleaner removes over half the trash from seed cotton while providing the efficiencies of an automatic gin feeder.

Gary Underbrink, a research associate at Texas A&M, detailed research findings of tests in various parts of Texas of a field unit of the feeder-cleaner.

J.K. "Farmer" Jones, Cotton Incorporated vice president and associate director of agricultural research, told the seminar the feeder-cleaner has the potential to reduce energy per bale and airborne dust at the gin.

He said it could be a great aid in parts of the Cotton Belt where more and more stripper harvesting is taking place but where gins are equipped to handle only spindle-picked cotton.

Proceedings of the gin waste utilization and stick separation seminar have just been published as an agro-industrial report by Cotton Incorporated. Copies of the proceedings are available by writing Dr. William F. Lalor, Cotton Incorporated, 4505 Creedmoor Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27612.

Wedding In San Antonio Unites Miss Kauffman Bill Mack Norman

The chapel of Sunset Ridge Church of Christ in San Antonio was the setting for the double ring wedding ceremony of Cynthia Gale Kauffman and Bill Mack Norman on August 6th. Ray F. Osborne, minister, performed the vows at 7 o'clock p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. Kauffman of San Antonio are parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Weims L. Norman of Dougherty are the groom's parents.

The bride's gown was fashioned of silk organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace veiled over peau de soie. The gown featured a high rise collar and bishop sleeves with applique lace enhancing the empire bodice and trumpet skirt, with a deep flounce hem. Unpressed pleats swept to a wide chapel train. She wore a picture hat accented with matching lace daisies, and carried a bouquet formed of peach colored glamelias, white and aqua tipped carnations, baby's breath and stephanotis.

For something old the bride carried a Mother of Pearl pin which belonged to her late grandmother, Erma Kauffman. She borrowed a lace handkerchief from her mother, and also wore the traditional blue garter.

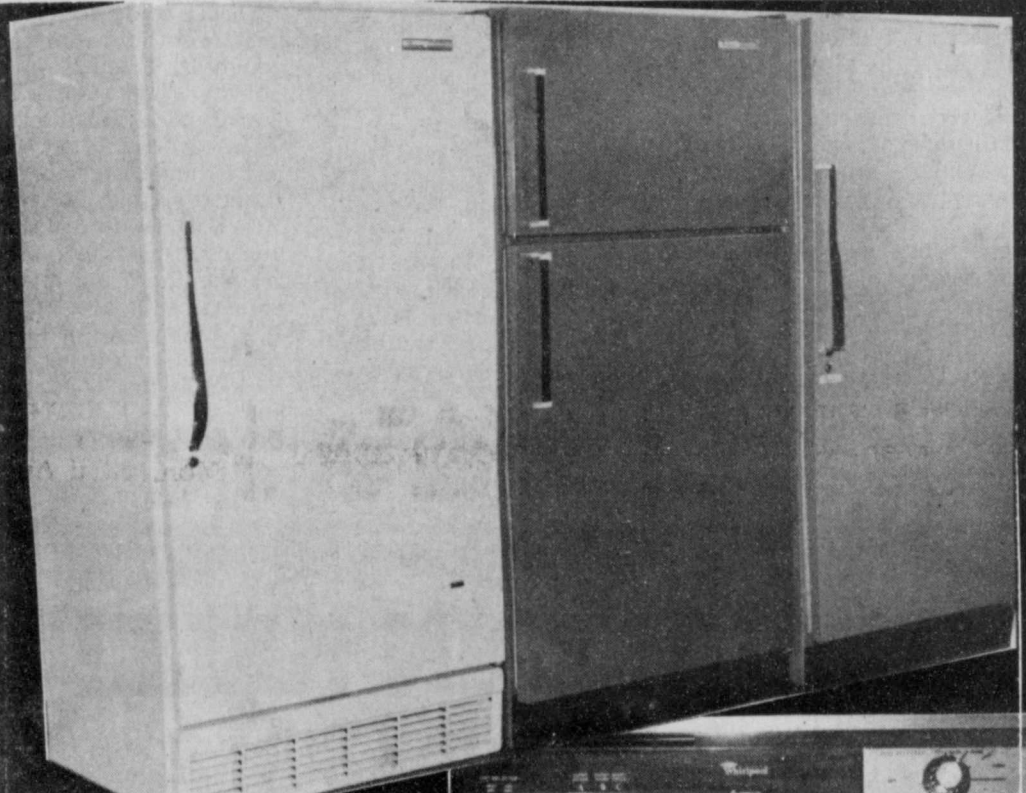

Darlene Marge of Pampa, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Susan Ellis, College Station, Ginny Zerr of Hondo and Linda Norman of Dougherty, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were gowned in floor length ensembles of a delicate tree pattern in varying shades of aqua. The dresses were fashioned with empire waists, round necklines and long full sleeves. They wore aqua colored picture hats and carried bouquets of long stemmed peach colored glamelias, greenery and baby's breath.

Larry Smith of Ottumwa, Iowa was best man. Groomsmen were Steve Hale, Floydada, Ray Hinton, Dougherty, and Gerald Ripps, San Antonio. Serving as ushers were David Reed of Mansfield and Tony Goen of Floydada.

Candlelighters were Tom and Mitch Ross of Floydada, cousins of the bride. Following the reception the bride changed to a blue sundress and the groom wore a three piece beige suit for travel. They are presently making their home at 103 Lake Street in Bryan where the bride is employed at the College of Liberal Arts at Texas A&M. She is a graduate of Marshall High School and Texas A&M. The groom is a graduate of Floydada High School, and a graduate student of Texas A&M.

Vows Exchanged By Mitzi Terrell, Jimmy Glenn

MRS. J AMES JOSPEH

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday night in First Baptist Church in Lockney by Mitzi Gail Terrell of Lockney and James Joseph "Jimmy" Glenn of Plainview. Brock Sanders, cousin of the groom, and music and director of College Avenue Baptist Church, Levelland, directed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. B.J. "Jeff" Terrell of Route 1 Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Glenn of 207 SW 10th, Plainview.

Candlelight from a candelabra set the scene for the exchange of promises. Focal point of the nuptial area was a kneeling bench holding a unity candle. Tropical foliage tied with pink satin enhanced the candleabra.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Harley Terrell of Plainview and Mrs. Gary Morgan of Telham, Alabama, sister of the groom and then seated in the church by ushers, Bernie Ford of Lockney, Barry Street of Kress, and Greg Goree of Sabinall. Mr. Ken Watson of Lockney, brother-in-law of bride was organist and Mrs. Lavonia Vaughn of Petersburg, aunt of the bride was pianist. Gary Morgan, groom's brother-in-law of Telham, Alabama sang "With These Hands" and "Sometimes."

Mrs. Eddie Fullingim, of Petersburg, cousin of the bride, sang Russ's song and a duet, "There Is No Greater Love," with her brother Karl Vaughn of Edmonson. They both joined their sister, Mrs. David Foote of Petersburg in a trip by singing the "Wedding Prayer."

Escorted to the altar area and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a white Victorian gown of all over rope medallion chantilly lace. The sheer, ruffled yoke bodice featured a wedding band neckline and sheer lace cuffed with scalloped lace tating. Her five tiered chantilly skirt was accented by a crescent waistline and fullness that was gently shirred to the back creating her a chapel length train. A camelot cap held her tiered illusion which was edged in matching chantilly lace. Atop a white lacey Bible, the former Miss Terrell carried a bouquet arrangement of pink roses, gypsophalia and springes fern.

Following bridal tradition, she used "something old" which was the original wedding rings of both the mother of the bride and the mother of the groom, tied to her bouquet. "Something new" was pearl earrings; "something borrowed" was pearls belonging to the

The reception was in the church fellowship hall. Covering the bride's table was a pink floorlength cloth trimmed in pink and white lace and overlaid by a ruffled lace cloth. The centerpiece was a five branch candelabra surrounded by the attendants bouquets. The four-tiered wedding cake was made by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Watson. Silver and crystal appointments completed the table decor.

Assistants at the bride's table were Barbie Butcher of Lubbock and Joy Frizzell, Kathy McCarter and Cinde Christrian, all of Lockney. For the grooms table, assistants were Carrie Vaughn of Tulsa, Kim Lackey of Floydada; and Dar Lee McPherson and D'lyn Mathis, both of Lockney. The groom's table was covered with an ivory polyester tablecloth edged in ivory lace. The centerpiece was a blue jean cake made by the groom's sister-in-law Mrs. David Glenn of Ozark, Alabama, and a copper coffee service accented the decor.

Members of the reception houseparty were Mmes. Tom Marr, Tom Duvall, Jack Frizzell, Dub Mercer, Larnee McCain, Larry Christia Warren Mathis Pat Frizzell, Gale McPherson, and Glen Copper.

Parents of the groom hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday night at the Holiday Inn in Plainview. Guests were members of the wedding party.

A bridal luncheon was given at noon Saturday in the home of Mrs. Tom Duvall. It was given by the maid of honor Miss Teresa Duvall. In attendance were the bride, her mother Mrs. B.J. Terrell; the groom's mother, Mrs. A.C. Glenn of Plainview, and his sister, Mrs. Gary Morgan of Telham, Alabama; the bride's sisters, Mrs. Ken Watson and Miss Kay Terrell of Irving; Misses Janis Marr, Kristie Ford, Barbie Butcher of Lubbock, and Joy Frizzell; Mrs. Tom Marr, Mrs. Claude Brown, and Mrs. Harley Terrell of Plainview, cousin of the bride.

To go away in, the bride wore a pink sundress trimmed in pink eyelet with matching pink accessories. The groom wore grey slacks with a gray and pink figured shirt. After the honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Edmonson, Texas, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Roland Hayes, Denise Bridges Married

Roland B. Hayes and Denise Bridges exchanged marriage vows Thursday, Aug. 18, at 3 p.m. at the residence of Rev. Bob Wright, minister of the Assembly of God Church. Present were the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Hayes, Mrs. Bob Wright and the Wrights' three children. They left on a wedding trip for the Stephenville and Dallas area.

Dunavant And Hahn Vows Read In Durango

Linda Elaine Dunavant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Dunavant of Bayfield, Colorado and Rick Hahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hahn of Durango, Colorado were married at 8 p.m. July 29. Gray Fields performed the ceremony in the Florida Mesa Church of Christ in Durango.

Baskets of yellow mums and orange candles were used in church decorations. Cheryl Byrne, Ron Dunavant, and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Byrne were vocalists.

The bride wore a long gown of white satin with an inset yoke of lace and long lace sleeves. Her finger-tip length veil fell from a head piece of embroidered pearls and she carried a cascading bouquet of orange and yellow carnations.

Sandra Dunavant was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Dawnella Sower, Monica Strohecker, and Lorie Green. All wore long gowns of yellow and orange flocked print and orange picture hats. Each carried a long stem orange carnation and baby's breath tied with a yellow ribbon.

Davis Friemuth was best man. Dennis Patrick, Randy Mason, and Kevin Fields were groomsmen and also served as ushers.

Julie Green was flower girl. She wore a floor length gown and hat to match the bridesmaid and carried a nosegay of yellow and orange carnations. Mark blue and white carnations.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Granberry the couple will be at home in Barwise Community of Floyd County where the groom is engaged in farming.

The bride is a graduate of Shallwater High School and attended Texas Tech. Her husband is a graduate of Floydada High School and South Plains Junior College.

Fields was ring bearer. A reception was held in the Bayfield Lions Club with Mary Ann Green, Mrs. Ron Dunavant, and Mrs. True Kirk assisting.

The bride attended Bayfield High School. The groom is a 1975 graduate of Durango High School and is employed by McNew Construction Co. The couple is making their home in Bayfield.

Out of town guests at the wedding included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. A.B. Clark of Floydada and her aunt, Mrs. E.L. Norman Jr. of Lubbock.

Mrs. Mark Probasco

Miss Thompson, Mark D. Probasco Wed

Laura Lee Thompson and Mark Douglas Probasco exchanged twin ring vows August 12th in the First United Methodist Church in Shallwater. Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Floydada, performed the 7:30 p.m. ceremony before an arch of greenery and white carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Thompson of Shallwater and the groom is the son of Mrs. Kenneth Eugene Probasco and the late Mr. Probasco of Floydada.

Attending the couple were Jeanye Hunter of Shallwater and Ashley Wester of Lubbock. Serving as ushers were Tommy Cleavinger of Dimmitt and Mitch Probasco of Floydada, brother of the groom. Wes Hunt of Odessa presented solos of traditional wedding selections.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon floor length gown styled with a low neckline with an overlay of pleated chiffon bordered with a band of satin. Matching rows of satin complemented her picture hat as well as her bouquet of white carnations and white and yellow daisies.

After the wedding, the newly-weds and their parents greeted guests at a reception where punch and cake were served by Carol Shropshire and Kim Young both of Shallwater. The serving table was laid with a white lace cloth over blue, holding a centerpiece of blue and white carnations.

Payne Family Gives Senior Citizen Program

Senior Citizens met Wednesday, August 1 with 27 members and six visitors present. After a luncheon the Hollis Payne family gave a devotion of song and prayer.

W.C. Plumlee introduced Mrs. Betty Shannon, Project Lubbock. She spoke concerning the organization of the club and the possibility of establishing a Senior Citizen Center in Floydada.

Menard Field, president, appointed several committees to serve for the next year.

FLOYD DATA

Mr. and Mrs. M.W. Carpenter have returned home from a visit with their son, Donald Wayne Carpenter and family in Atlanta, Ga.

The Floydada couple also visited friends in Dallas and Fort Worth and with other relatives at Wichita Falls.

LHS Students Attend Student Council Workshop

August 10—Three students and one sponsor from Lockney were among approximately 230 students and advisors from high schools across Texas who attended a leadership training workshop last week (July 31-August 4) on the campus of Angelo State University in San Angelo.

Attending from Lockney High were: John Cummings, Katherine Moore, Kevin Stennett and Sheree Cannon, sponsor.

The workshop was sponsored by the Texas Association of Student Councils and students attending were all members of their school student councils.

Participating students and advisors were housed in the university's high rise residence halls and made use of university recreational facilities during their free time.

Sessions in leadership training were conducted to emphasize better communication and understanding between students, faculty and administration and to discuss problems encountered in high school and what student councils may do about them.

LOCKNEY LOCALS

Mrs. Ted [Sally] Carthel flew to Austin, Tx. last Monday where she visited with her sister. She went to Gonzales, Tx. and visited her mother Mrs. Sally Miller. While there, her two brothers who live in the South Texas area visited with her. She returned home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harris have enjoyed a visit from their grandchildren, their grandson, Brooks, and their granddaughter, Cameron, the children of Dane and Joan Clark who live near Denver, Colo. The grandchildren arrived by plane Friday, Aug. 12th; and also visited their other grandmother, Mrs. Maymie Clark of Floydada. The Dane Clarks came last Thursday and stayed until Monday. Their children accompanied them home.

Rusty and Jody Baccus spent last Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in Detroit, Michigan for a showing of the new 1978 models. While the Ford dealers toured the automobile plant, their wives went on a tour of Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Worsham spent Saturday and Sunday in Amarillo visiting their son Mr. and Mrs. Jack Worsham, and their granddaughter Mrs. Juanita Scholl and children. The Worsham's other son, Glen and Nancy Worsham, Amy and Robert, of Burleson, Tx. were in Amarillo and visited with them.

Mrs. Mary Ansley returned Monday from a month's visit with her son's family, James and Sally Ansley and sons, Hank and Clarence, of Bonners Ferry, Idaho. Prior to her Idaho visit, Mrs. Ansley accompanied her sisters, Mrs. Ottamie Cook of Albuquerque, and Mrs. Matilda Enriken of Spearman, on a one-week tour of the Hawaiian Islands.

Janie and Bill Chandler and sons, Mike and Randy of San Antonio, are here visiting her mother Mrs. Mary Ansley, and her brother Clarence and Katy Ansley and their children. Mike Chandler plans to stay with his grandmother and attend school in Lockney.

Jerry Mudgett of Slaton, Tx. visited his sister Mrs. Olive Myers this past weekend, and with the Donnie Bybrees, the Mike Mooneys, and other relatives in the Lockney area.

Mrs. Fritz Schacht and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Clar Schacht, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Schacht and Mr. and Mrs. David Cameron, hosted the annual Morris reunion on Saturday and Sunday August 20th and 21st.

Attending were Mrs. Fritz Schacht's sisters, Pauline Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warden from Liberal, Kansas; cousins present were Mr. and Mrs. Arley Morris, and Mr. and Mrs. Mason Norris from South Haven, Kansas; nieces and nephews in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Douglas, Paula and Darren of Kansas City, Kansas, Brandee Warden and Betty Inland from Liberal, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. J im Ferrey, Danny and Connie from Woodward, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Ken Castle, Barton, Kendra and J ana from Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J oe Pingley from Kanawha Head, West Virginia; and Anna Schacht.

Friends who attended to help make the occasion more enjoyable were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Word, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Belvred Jack and J ustin, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Brasher, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bollman.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Schacht, Otto Jackie-Don and Byron Fritz-Nelson, returned to their home in Bryan, Tx. Tuesday morning after visiting with their families and helping with the hosting of his mother's family reunion on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Buck Sams has returned from a 6-week's vacation. She first went to Concord, Calif. and visited in the home of her sister Mr. and Mrs. Turner Crowell. On July 23rd, they left on a trip to the Pacific Northwest. They went sightseeing in San Francisco, and then followed the Pacific coast highway. In northern California they went through the redwoods known as the 'Avenue of the Giants' and visited points of interest along the coast to Seattle, Wash. There, Mrs. Sams and the Crowells went to the top of the Needle and visited the parks in Seattle.

They drove to Vancouver, British Columbia in Canada, and at Tsawwassen, B.C. boarded a ferry with their car and disembarked at Swartz Bay on Victoria Island and drove to the city of Victoria. Near Victoria, they visited the famous Butchard Gardens, which are the well-known formal flower gardens landscaped in different styles, such as, Italian, Japanese, sunken gardens and others. Since Victoria is the capital of British Columbia they toured the government buildings, the wax museum, and a museum of the early culture of British Columbia, including totem poles three-stories tall, and many artifacts of its early people. They visited the old and well-kept Empress Hotel on the harbor. Another ferry took them back to Port Angeles, Washington from where they went to Olympia, Wash. At Mt. Rainier National Park they saw the snow-capped mountains and beautiful wild flowers.

A telephone call to Concord revealed that forest fires were near the Crowell's home; so on an inland highway they hurried back to California to find the fire missed their home by one-half mile.

Mrs. Sams visited her nieces in Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Vedovelli and children, Jeffrey and Denise, and Cathy Crowell and daughter, Betty.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Perkins and daughters, Elizabeth and Carol, arrived Friday from Houston to visit his mother, Mrs. Frank Perkins, and to enter Carol as a student at Texas Tech in Lubbock. The Perkins returned to their home Sunday morning.

Mrs. Jewel Roberts went to Amarillo Sunday to attend her granddaughter Brandi Roger's birthday party. Brandi is the daughter of the Ronny Rogers and was 4-years old. Mrs. A.P. Barker accompanied Jewel as far as Tulsa and visited her sister-in-law. They both returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. C.E. Childers returned Friday from a month's vacation and a visit with relatives in several states.

Lockney Native Receives Award

For the steps he has taken to provide expanded and improved seed production, Duane Griffith, a 14-year employee of Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., recently received the company's honored "Footprint Award."

Griffith, general production manager for the Southwestern Division of Pioneer, received the award from Jim Lindsey, president of the Plainview Texas, based firm.

"Duane Griffith has covered his 'territory' and left impressive footprints in some very significant places," Lindsey said in making the announcement.

During the last three years, Duane has overseen a four-fold expansion of processing and storage facilities for the Southwestern Division.

"He's also integrated the Lankart and Lockett cotton planting seed production facilities and personnel into those of Pioneer. And he's accomplished some things in corn and wheat seed production that some very knowledgeable people said couldn't be done."

As general production manager for the Pioneer division, Griffith is responsible for over 75,000 acres of seed production. He is also responsible for the processing and storage of the company's corn, sorghum, cotton, and wheat seed.

Griffith joined Pioneer in 1963, shortly after graduation from Texas Tech University in Lubbock, where he received a bachelor's degree in agronomy. While at Tech, he served as president of the Agronomy Club.

A native of Lockney and graduate of Lockney High School, Griffith worked on his parents' farm near Lockney during his high school and college years. He is the son of Harold and Mary Griffith, who reside north of Lockney.

He now lives in Plainview with his wife, Plat, and daughters, Lori and Kristi.

August 22-

My! what good rains we have been having the last three nights! It has cooled off a lot too, an improvement on the summer's temperature. The amount of moisture in the area varied from 4 to 6 or 7 inches.

On Aug. 2nd the children of the James E. Greens decided to get together at the parental home the next day and all four and most of their families plus Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lotta and Sam Lotta and family showed up. Some reasons were: Clyde's daughter had arrived after a year in Arabia (Baghdad) preceding her husband; for the Clyde Greens with Annie would have a temporary change of residence soon. Back to Ala-bama to teach the 1977-78 year; Kenneth Mark to depart for his Freshman year at Baylor University; and Gretchen and Elmer Shore back to Arabia. I wonder sometimes the tearing apart of families, even temporarily is worth it. A mother's verdict! When school begins, there are to be four other University students to check in in three other schools. Well, we hope to see most of the group again Christmas sometime.

Wednesday about 4 p.m. all had left for home. The Ryman group accompanied by Ma Green (to her surprise).

Monday Mrs. Ryman (Margaret) and daughters, Donna and Nancy, and Ma Green left for a quick trip to Alabama. The trip and visits with relatives were wonderful. We saw an aunt in Red Bay, and the old Bolding home at Pleasant Site and the ice cold spring that comes out near the foot of a hill, where my mother grew up. Then to Albertville to the home of a cousin, Mrs. Gertrude Bowen and her mother, my Aunt Namie Fiuch. (Tomorrow is Aunt's birthday, she'll be 97 years old.) The next day another daughter and husband from Washington D.C. arrived. I had not seen her in over 40 years. What a good time we had! Enthusiasm they have for life! Most of them visited us in West Texas years ago.

Thursday we drove to Tusculumbia and spent the night and visited Matthew's relatives, Margaret and Tom Anderson, my father's niece and husband, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lucille Matthews. Margaret's daughter came over from Atlanta Friday morning. There was a visit to Helen Keller's home. There were four Margarets at the dinner table where the Anderson home is a beautiful old Ante Bellum mansion. We went thru one in Vicksburg, too.

Friday after dinner we left for Hubbard, and arrived at 3:30 a.m. Saturday. I visited the Rymans, then my brother and wife, Tarpley and Mattie Matthews at Hillsboro, and took the bus Tuesday for Big Spring to spend the night with son, Don C. and family and Wednesday to Plainview then home.

Visitors with Miss Vera Meredith last week were Mrs. Geroge Stiles and Mrs. Green who visited Friday; Rev. and Mrs. Clay Muncy on Thursday, and Mrs. Muncy on Sunday p.m.

The Clarence Ashton's company Sunday was a sister, Mrs. Sharon Fowler and son and daughter and their mother Mrs. Hattie Fuqua of Amarillo. In the p.m. all along with the Joe Dunns met at the Floyd Fuqua home for a family get together.

Mrs. Joe Conway spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Carpenter. The Conways, recently of Plainview, are moving to East Texas.

Mrs. Green visited Miss Esther Peck after church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Denison visited Mr. and Mrs.

Walls Sunday. Mrs. Frank Dunn had all her children visit her recently. Jimmy and Margaret and families of Lubbock, and Joe Lee and Mary Grace and families of Houston. Mrs. Dunn visited Mrs. Vinson one day last week.

Mrs. Elmer Warren was in Matador Thursday and spent the night in the home of her son, Bill and family.

Mrs. Elmer Warren and Mrs. Flora Warren dined Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Warren.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Lightfoot were Doris and Joe Whitworth (Letha's sister and husband) and Mr. and Mrs. Coy Ingram and some friends all of Dallas.

Three Lubbock grandchildren spent the week with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer. Thursday all had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Millard Watson. Others present were the Dean Watsons, the Ken Robersons, La Tonia Brewer of Idalou. The Millard Watsons and the Ervin Brewers dined Wednesday night with the Henry Brewers. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goundy of Dallas and Sue and Milton Mensch and baby boy of Lubbock spent the weekend with Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartline have had all their children and most of the grandchildren visit them, but not at the same time. They are Dub and wife and Robby and Buddy, Phoenix; June Landry and three children of Plainview and James and wife and sons of Levelland.

Mrs. Shelby Cook of Amarillo came Sunday and is visiting Mrs. Fred Battey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Spence and Mrs. Green were among the more than three hundred people who attended the Pioneer Reunion at Crosbyton Saturday in spite of the rain. The meeting of old friends, the good dinner and good program were surely enjoyed.

Visitors at the Spences some time last week were Mrs. Higgins, Willie B. Eakin, Petersburg and Mrs. Kate Crabtree, city and daughter, Mrs. Leslie Jo

Moore of Tuscaloosa, Ala. who is visiting her mother and other relatives.

It was sad to find when I reached home that Mrs. Lillian Marble had passed on. She was a beloved primary teacher at Center when our children were small. We sympathize with her family and her many friends.

Today we attended last rites for a dear long time friend, Mrs. Noah (Bunny) Wright, who passed on Saturday after a long illness. Several weeks ago she and her husband had been taken to their daughter's home in Arkansas. We grieve with loved ones.

Mrs. Morris Carroll and children, Robin and John, returned home last Tuesday from East Texas where for months Mrs. Carroll has often been at the bedside of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Morris Carroll Sr. in a Dallas hospital. Mrs. Carroll Sr. passed on August 5th. Last rites were in the Wiley Church of Christ (grandsons were pall bearers) and burial in a Paris Cemetery. Mrs. Carroll remained a while and visited other relatives in the area including her mother. She also took the children to Six Flags, and went thru the capitol at Austin.

Mrs. Clarence Foster, in Caprock hospital, is reported improving.

FLOYD DATA

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Medley accompanied by a brother-in-law Virgil Boyd of Dallas vacationed several days in Ruidoso, New Mex, returning home Monday. They stopped over in Lubbock to meet their son, Dan Medley of Denver, Colo., who flew here for a visit with his parents, and his sister, Mrs. Larry Guffee, here from her home in Duncan, Okla. Visiting overnight Tuesday with the Medleys and their guests was Cliff Southerland of Burkburnett, Tex, school classmate and Navy buddy of Dan Medley. Mrs. Medley took her daughter back to Duncan Thursday and visited there until Saturday.

Myasthenia Gravis Clinic Set For August 26th-27th

The Northwest Texas Chapter of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation announces the date for the annual MELBA BANDY MASTERS CLINIC for Myasthenia Gravis patients in this area. The clinic will be held the 26th and 27th of August 1977, at the Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center, Texas. The free patient clinic has been funded by a Trust set up by the Masters families of Amarillo and Cotton Center, is maintained through contributions enabling the free clinic to become an annual event. Time for the clinic will be from 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. each day. Appointments may be made by calling Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center, (806) 839-2471 ext. 36.

Dr. J.E. Tether of Indianapolis, Indiana will be in Hale Center to conduct the clinic, and will be assisted by the medical staff of the Hi-Plains Hospital. Dr. Tether is well known in this area as a noted authority on the diagnosis and management of Myasthenia Gravis, having been active in the field for over 20 years. He is Professor of Neurology at the University of Indiana School of Medicine, and is Physician in charge of the Myasthenia Gravis Clinic at the Indiana University Medical Center. As a member of the National Foundation of Myasthenia Gravis, Dr. Tether has served on the Medical Advisory Board since its inception, and is the author of several text books and articles on Myasthenia Gravis.

Myasthenia Gravis is a neuromuscular disease, characterized by varying weakness of the voluntary muscles of the body. It is aggravated by exertion, emotion, infection or stress. It is relieved, in part, by rest and anticholinesterase drugs. The first symptom may only be unusual fatigue, which may be accompanied by aching in the neck, back, or legs in milder cases. Ptosis of one or both eyelids, blurred vision due to difficult focus, or actual diplopia are the most frequent early signs and symptoms. Slurring, nasal tones, jaw weakness, and fatigue on chewing may occur in early or more severe cases. Many complain of arm fatigue on reaching up, as in the care of hair or in shaving. Legs tire on stairs or short walks, or may collapse without warning.

J.E. McVicker of Muleshoe is chairman of the Northwest Texas Chap.; Emory Hunter of Wellington is vice-chairman; E.E. Masters, Cotton Center is Treasurer, and secretary is Mrs. H.J. Carlisle of Plainview. Serving as area representatives are: John Dunbar of Clovis, New Mexico; James and Mamie Mason of Burkburnett; Don Hutton of Dalhart; Dr. George Payne, Jr. of Levelland; Mrs. Wesley Masters of Amarillo; and Mrs. J.E. McVicker of Muleshoe.

The Chapter supports the annual Free Patient Clinic and a Drug Bank through gifts and contributions. The Drug Bank makes it possible for M.G. patients to buy essential medication at the least possible cost. The Chapter also participates in area Health Fairs and distributes important educational literature on request. They answer many letters regarding Myasthenia Gravis problems.

On Friday evening, Aug. 26 at 7:30 p.m., a meeting of the North-West Texas Chapter will be held in the dining room of Hi-Plains Hospital, Hale Center. At this time, Dr. J.E. Tether will be the Guest Speaker. All interested persons are invited to attend both the Clinic and the Chapter meeting.

Floydada Folk Serve As Cotton Enumerators

AUSTIN—Three residents of Floydada travel to cotton fields in the area to check on the progress of the crop.

They're not cotton buyers. Billy and Eleanor Hendrix of 711 West California and Billie Moore are among 54 field enumerators in Texas employed by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service to provide a detailed study of a "section" of a cotton field, 10 feet x 2 rows.

This work is part of the overall process of estimating cotton yields and harvesting losses in providing statistics on the state's cotton production.

Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown commended the work of the enumerators. "We have found that these enumerators are trained well by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service and do a thorough job."

During the cotton growing season, special plant counts and measurements are made to indicate yield as a guide to production. There are 710 such sample units across the state.

The enumerator returns to the same units each month to count the number of squares, blooms, and bolls. This information along with the acreage data, and a continuing response to mail questionnaires sent to cotton farmers are important ingredients in accurate monthly production forecasts, issued beginning August 1 through December.

Near harvest time, the enumerator, who started the season with an intensive course, picks the cotton in the sample units and sends it to the laboratory in Austin for moisture checks and other examinations to refine the estimate.

After the farmer harvests the field, the enumerator makes one final visit to glean the cotton missed by the stripper or picker as an indication of harvesting loss.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service is a cooperative effort of the Texas Department of Agriculture and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Such field surveys are conducted for wheat and corn also.

Look Who's Here

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Sharkey, of Lake Conroe Hills, Tex., announce the birth of a daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, who was born August 4, in Houston, weighing 8 1/2 lbs. Mrs. Sharkey is the former Lucy Cogdell of Floydada.

Paternal grandparents are Mrs. Ronald Blewitt of Manitou Springs, Colo., and Kenneth Sharkey, Phoenix, Arizona. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Nellie M. Dickey of Manitou Springs, Colo.

Lucy is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph Cogdell of Floydada and the late Ralph Cogdell.

The earth's surface is constantly gaining weight because of a steady dustfall of small meteoritic particles.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Wright

Funeral rites for Mrs. Bonnie Mae Wright, 81-year-old longtime Floyd County resident, were held in New Salem Primitive Baptist Church Monday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Wright died at 2 p.m. August 20th in Bella Vista, Ark., where she and her husband had been making their home with their daughter.

Joe Jackson, elder of the Primitive Baptist Church, officiated for the service. Burial was in Floyd County Memorial Park under the direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Jim Jackson, Joe Richard Noland, John, Floyd and Olin Lyles and John Cochrell.

Born in Tarrant County on November 6, 1895, the former Bonnie Mae Hopper moved from Oklahoma to Floyd County in 1911. Her parents were Jefferson D. and Martha Hopper. She and Noah Wright were married in the Lakeview Community in Floyd County on June 10, 1916.

Mrs. Wright was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church.

Survivors included her husband; a son, Harley Wright of Dallas; a daughter, Mrs. Marvin Lyles of Bella Vista, Ark.; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Joe B. Jones

Joe B. Jones, 68, of Lockney died at 11 a.m. Sunday in a Lubbock hospital after a brief illness.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in Franklin-Bartley Chapel in Lubbock with the Rev. Robert Wright, minister of First Assembly of God Church in Lockney, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. Morris Church in Lubbock. Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park in Lubbock by Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home of Lubbock.

A native of Brown County, Mr. Jones had lived in Lockney 19 years after moving there from Amarillo. He was a member of First Assembly of God Church in Lockney and was a retired farmer.

Surviving are his wife, Johnnie, a stepson, John Davis of Amarillo; four daughters, Jo Williams, Bobbie Ellison and Foy Nelson, all of Lubbock and Joy Johnson of Seminole, Okla.; two stepdaughters, Mell Halford of Lubbock and Edith

William Hartley

Services for William Reed Hartley, 89, of Lockney, Monday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. John Jenkins, pastor, officiating. Burial in Plainview Memorial Park at Plainview under direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Hartley died about 4 a.m. Saturday in Central Plains General Hospital in Plainview after a lengthy illness.

The Paducah, Kentucky native married Rosie Lee Bell November 17, 1907 in McKinney. She died March 17, 1976. The retired farmer had lived in Floyd County more than 60 years. He was a member of the Woodman of the World and a deacon of First Baptist Church.

Survivors include three sons, W.K. of Pampa, the Rev. Leonard A. Hartley of Odessa, and Edgar A. of Hereford; two daughters, Mrs. Mary Ann Ebeling and Mrs. Leona Jameson, both of Plainview; a brother, Herbert of Plainview; 14 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Gough

Mrs. Clyde Comer Gough, 93, a former Lockney resident, died August 12. Services were held at Waxahachie, Texas. She attended Lockney Christian College and was married to Dr. E.F. Gough while she lived at Lockney. Survivors include a niece, Mrs. O.B. Fore of Plainview.

ASK BOB BULLOCK

Comptroller of Public Accounts

Dear Mr. Bullock:

I am a widow and am considering doing sewing in my home to supplement my social security check. My customers will provide the materials and I will be doing only the sewing.

Must I collect sales tax for my work?

Yes, a seamstress is considered a manufacturer or processor and manufacturing and processing labor is taxable under the law. Therefore, you must collect the tax.

Contact my Field Office nearest you. They will assist you in obtaining a Sales Tax permit, and provide any information you may need on collecting the tax.

Dear Sir:

Are soft drinks and other snacks dispensed by vending machines subject to the sales tax?

Yes, if the sales price of an individual item exceeds 16 cents. In most cases, the tax is included in the price to the customer. The vending machine owner then rebates the tax to the state.

What One Person Can Do

RONALD E. GADDIE, earthworm farmer

Most of us associate "a can of worms" with either fishing or a problem. Ronald E. Gaddie turned worms into a solution—and a fortune.

Vermiculture is Mr. Gaddie's business. He is founder and president of North American Bait Farms, Inc., in Ontario, California—a world leader in earthworm technology and marketer of worms. He has proved that the lowly worm can make short shrift of solid waste accumulations and produce fertilizer in the process.

His company which spent $100,000 on research last year, put worms to work on 15,000 pounds of ground garbage from Los Angeles. Within three days, all odor was gone. In 28 days, the worms had consumed 90 percent of the solid waste and created hundreds of pounds of fertilizer selling for 70 cents a pound.

Ronald Gaddie had been a truck driver. In 1967, he underwent surgery for a back ailment. He was forced to go on welfare to support his wife and six children. As he recuperated, he started raising worms as a hobby. Now he is a millionaire.

In his book, "Earthworms for Ecology & Profit," Mr. Gaddie writes that billions of dollars are being spent to reduce pollution caused by burning and dumping of various types of organic wastes. "While all of this money is being spent," says the author, "1,000 lowly earthworms, which cost $5 to $6, and all of their descendants can convert approximately one ton of organic matter into one of the highest yield fertilizers available, within a year."

Mr. Gaddie's successful experimentation has interested several American cities and prompted his own city of Ontario to ask him to develop a worm-consumption program as part of a total waste-management system.

At a low low point? That's where Ronald Gaddie started. But he didn't stay there.

Sharon Jones Attends Cooperative Institute

Sharon Jones of Lockney attended the National Institute on Cooperative Education (NICE), at Texas A&M University, August 15-18 with about 800 other young people from all over the nation.

Nationally known speakers discussed specific solutions for farmer cooperatives around the 1977 theme, Cooperation-Making It Work. NICE, the largest annual gathering of agricultural and cooperative leaders in the United States is sponsored by the American Institute of Cooperation, a national educational organization for farmer cooperatives, headquartered in Washington, D.C. and Texas A&M University. The Texas Federation of Cooperatives, the Houston Farm Credit Banks, and Texas Cooperatives are acted as hosts to the nearly 2500 attending.

The young people (ages 14 to 20 years) called Youth Scholars, participated in special sessions pertaining to cooperative fundamentals, as well as the general sessions where speakers discussed current challenges cooperatives face in a swiftly changing economy and environment. Other special groups who attended were young farmer couples, women, and employees of cooperatives and collegiate students.

Most of these Youth Scholars have won competitions—speaking or essay contests, special quizzes, or exhibited special leadership qualities that have made them eligible to attend NICE. Floydada Land Bank selected Miss Jones because of her participation in 4-H and FFA. She and Darlene Broseh won 1st in the state Poultry Demonstration. Miss Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Carlton, Rt. F, Lockney.

FLOYD DATA

Mrs. Valree Turner accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Medley back to Floydada Sunday night from Dallas where she had spent the week with a sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Boyd. The Medleys were there for the weekend to also visit her daughter, Mrs. Dwayne Myrick and family. Other relatives visiting the Boyds during the time were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Medley of Mustang, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ford of Agra, Okla. Ira and Floyd Medley, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Ford are sisters and brothers. The group celebrated the 46th wedding anniversary Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Ford.

FLOYD DATA

Mrs. Lula Green attended the twenty-seventh annual Masten reunion at Sudan recently. Fourteen cities and towns of the Hi-plains area were present, one hundred and twenty attended. Mrs. Alice Frazier, age 94, was the oldest present and F.O. Masten, 90 was next oldest present. A three weeks old baby was the youngest to attend.

Floydada man injured in auto accident

A traffic accident which occurred on the Santa Fe Railroad overpass on U.S. 70 on the eastside of Plainview early Sunday morning left one man in critical condition in the Intensive Care Unit of Central Plains General Hospital Monday morning.

Hector Tapia, 37, of Floydada was being treated for injuries he received to his legs when he was trapped between the car he was pushing and another car when the second vehicle, driven by an Amarillo man, struck the Tapia vehicle in the rear. A few seconds later, a third car, driven by a Plainview man struck the second car.

Joe Luis Tapia, also of Floydada, was treated and released from the hospital after being treated for an injury to his foot. The drivers of the other two cars were not reported injured.

Alpha Mu Delta Holds Rush Party

Members of the Alpha Mu Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a party, Saturday, August 13, for their prospective rushees. Rushees and their husbands were invited, so that members and rushees could get acquainted. Several joined in a few games of volleyball and it was agreed unanimously, that members should play more often. There was only one near black eye—when Branda Leonard tipped a ball back and it hit Ilene Kendrick; and only one near heart attack when Jan Nichols nearly stepped on a small waterdog. After the vigorous and exciting volleyball games, they retired to the house for refreshers consisting of cake, chips and dips, etc.

Next the couples participated in a game of "Tattle Tales." All enjoyed finding out who was the smartest, husband or wife; and that none of the women resembled their husbands first girlfriends.

After finishing a game of "Tattle Tales" the group proceeded with an exciting game of "Pit" in which everyone for themselves, as shown when Brent and Sarah Sanders had a near tie on ringing the bell, but Brent edged in and won the hand, no special favors for wives.

Those present were: Byron and Ilene Kendrick, Dean and Brenda Watson, Brent and Sarah Sanders, Mike and LuAnn Collins, Carl and Brenda Leonard, Danny and Lynn Daniel, Donna Henderson, Jan Nichols, Kaye Powell, and JoAnn Patterson.

The next opportunity for members to meet rushees will be Beginning Day, Monday, August 29, 1977.
