Floyd Pioneer Reunion Saturday

Outstanding Oldtimers To Be Revealed

Recognition of the outstanding pioneer man and woman of 1979, the oldest man and woman in attendance, and the person traveling the longest distance will be among highlights of the 51st annual Floyd County Pioneer Reunion, which unfolds this Saturday (May 26) in Floydada.

Another major attraction of "Old Settlers Day" will be a colorful parade in downtown Floydada. It is scheduled for 2:30.

The courthouse lawn will be the site of most Old Settlers activities.

REGISTRATION AT 9

Registration at 9 a.m. leads off the day's agenda. Mrs. Jonelle Fawver is to be in charge of registration in a tent on the courthouse square.

Complimentary tickets for the catered barbecue lunch are to be issued during registration to anyone who has resided in Floyd County or in an adjacent county 50 or more years and to those who lived in Floyd County 50 or more years ago. Sponsoring the luncheon are: Light-house Electric Cooperative, Floyd County Farm Bureau, Production Credit Association, Producers Co-op Elevator, Floydada Co-op Gins, Consumers Fuel Associations of Lockney and Floydada and Lockney Cooperatives.

Anyone not eligible for a free lunch ticket may purchase the barbecue meal for $3.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Beginning at 10 o'clock, the morning program features a memorial service conducted by Mrs. J.D. Copeland of Lockney.

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of First Baptist Church in Floydada, is to deliver the main address at 11 a.m.

Group singing of pioneer and traditional songs is to be led by J.D. Copeland of Lockney.

Recognition of the oldest man and woman attending the reunion, the person having traveled the longest distance, the outstanding pioneer man and woman of 1979 will be given during the morning session.

The Barber Shop Quartet of Plainview will provide lunch entertainment.

Exhibition square dancing is planned from 1 until 2 p.m.

PARADE AT 2:30

Everyone who plans to participate in the parade is asked to register before 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Josephine Lyles at Duncan Abstract Office.

The parade will form on South Wall Street, near Piggly Wiggly. It will advance north to Missouri Street, travel west up Missouri to Lamplighter Inn, turn south to California, and then move east to Main where it will be disbanded.

All organizations, businesses, and individuals are encouraged to enter a parade float.

Immediately after the parade ends, the Quitaque-Silverton Hee-Haw Version group will provide "many laughs, good music and songs."

The B.W. Cox Band also will furnish entertainment.

OLD TIMERS DANCE

Traditional old timers dance begins at 5 p.m. on the slab. The two-part dance is planned from 5 until 7 o'clock on the slab and then resumes at 8 p.m. at Massie Activity Center.

The Don Richardson Musicians again will provide dance music.

Admission is $4 for each man who dances. There is no charge for women dancers. Spectators are invited at no admission fee. "One charge covers the time on the slab and center dances," officials say.

Mrs. Jettie Moss and Mrs. Mamie Wood are supervising the show. The public is invited to enter.

A bevy of books are on display at Allen's TV Service, 115 E. Missouri (across the street north of the courthouse) for a Floyd County Library Book Sale this Saturday.

Proceeds from sale of the books — which have been given by the public — will be used for the county library.

Area artists will have table displays for an arts and crafts show Saturday at Art Southwest. The show is planned from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Open House Friday

Night At Museum

Floyd County residents have been extended a special invitation to attend an open house at the Floyd County Historical Museum Friday night (May 25) from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Large crowds are expected at the museum on Saturday, "Old Settlers Day," and the Friday-night opening is planned for the purpose of giving local persons the opportunity to see the museum — and several brand-new exhibits — under less crowded conditions.

The museum is located at 105 East Missouri in Floydada.

Cleanup 'Fairly Successful'

The City of Lockney's 1979 spring cleanup campaign has been described as "fairly successful" by Councilman J.D. Copeland. Copeland said about 50 dead trees and 14 extra loads of trash were hauled away last Thursday and Friday. There might have been more, but a few persons left some doubt as to what was supposed to be picked up from the alleys behind their houses.

Copeland expressed appreciation for the cooperation of the citizens and for the help from the Lockney High School ag students.

Jr.-Sr. Banquet Awards Announced

Lockney High School seniors were honored Saturday night at the junior-senior banquet. The "Who's Who" and "Best All-Around" students, as selected by LHS teachers, were announced, as were the banquet favorites, who were chosen by the junior class members.

Theme of the banquet was "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." Decorations included a rainbow with pots of gold at each end, a waterfall, a pool with real fish, a garden with a fountain, a wishing well, and a rose trellis.

The banquet was held in the Elementary School cafeteria. After the prom, the juniors had breakfast at the Buck Ford home, and the senior class

Up To 9.9 Inches Fall In County

When it finally rained, it poured!

Monday afternoon cloudbursts dumped as much as an unconfirmed 9.9 inches west of Acco Seed at Aiken, which is near the Hale County line.

"Good rainfall" was received throughout virtually all of the county, with the least amount reported being nine-tenths of an inch at the Sterling Cummings place near South Plains. Another site near South Plains reported 1.4 inches.

Heaviest rains apparently fell in the northern and northwestern sections of the county. Fields and roads were virtual lakes in many areas until water subsided that night.

An estimated eight inches fell on the Claude Brown-Bill Race farm near Irick. The rain gauge overflowed.

John Terrell, west of Irick, had 7.2 inches and Buster Terrell gauged seven inches.

At Providence, Ronnie Thornton received six inches. Marvin Lemons and D.K. Jackson had 4.75 inches reported 6½ inches at Prairie Chapel.

W.J. Lee reported 6.75 inches at Aiken.

3.6 INCHES IN 'LESS THAN AN HOUR'

Herman Graham said 3.6 inches fell in "less than an hour" Monday afternoon at Muncy Elevator. Total rainfall there was placed at 4.9 inches.

Sandhill had 3½ inches, as did Pleasant Valley, according to a spot check Tuesday. Three inches were reported at Lakeview and McCoy. John Dorman had 5½ inches at Barwise.

Aaron Carthel had five inches at his farm, five miles north of Floydada. Amounts varied in the two county towns.

Jon LaBaume said he measured 2.88 inches in Floydada. Hubert Davis said four inches fell at his Floydada home. "Five inches came down at the cemetery and more than that further north," David said. He believes that actual rainfall was heavier than gauged due to high winds.

Lockney Gin's gauge showed 5.25 inches and the First National Bank of Lockney showed 3.8 inches.

John L. Riley at Prairie Chapel reported 5½ inches, and John T. Carthel, northwest of Lockney, had four inches.

Joe Richard Noland had four inches at Center.

HAIL AT LONE STAR

Two and a half inches came at both Liberty (Wayne Bramlet) and at Lone Star (G.C. Applewhite).

Some crop and vehicle damage was sustained in the Lone Star community. Amounts were lighter in the western parts of Floyd County. Dougherty had 1½ to 2 inches. An inch and a half fell at Cone.

MIXED EMOTIONS

While most farmers were "thrilled" to have the badly needed moisture, many would have preferred lesser amounts. Some cotton acreage will be replanted.

HAIL STRIKES EARLIER

Hail wiped out some wheat and young crops "north of the Matador highway" last Thursday night. Information on the amount of acreage lost was not available. One source said "several sections" were wiped out. Wayland Jones was one farmer reportedly having losses.

A report of hail damage last week in the Sandhill-Barwise area could not be confirmed.

Springtime Wedding

Miss Sparkman, Henry G. Presley III Wed Saturday In Lockney

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Presley III will be at home in Waco after a wedding trip to New Mexico. The couple, children of Mr. and Mrs. Hank G. Presley Jr. of Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Sparkman of Lockney, were joined in marriage in a 4:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday, May 19.

Scene of the wedding vows exchange was the First Baptist Church of Lockney. Church minister Rev. John C. Jenkins directed the service.

The nuptial area was centered by a brass candelabra which was flanked by spiral candelabra covered with flowers and tropical foliage tied with tri-color satin. A brass kneeling bench held the unity candle and completed the setting. The candles were lit by the bride's sister, Miss Terri Sparkman, and by their cousin, Miss Amy Hinkson of Stephenville to mark the beginning of the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. C.L. Record was organist for the program of music and also accompanied Mrs. Richard Wiley as she sang "O Promise Me", "Never My Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Proceeding the bride down the church aisle were bridesmaids Lou Ann Skinner of Amarillo, Julia Garrett of McAllen and Roanne Riley of Big Springs; maid of honor, Robbie L. Sparkman of Beeville, sister of the bride; flower girls Michelle and Marloee Sparkman of Perin, cousins of the bride, and ring bearer Greg Sparkman, brother of the bride. The attendants wore yellow floral polyester dresses and yellow hats trimmed with yellow satin ribbons. Dresses worn by the candlelighters were of apricot floral polyester. The attendants carried crescent arrangements of yellow gladiola buds and white daisies accented with apricot and lime green satin streamers.

The groom's brother, Kenneth Presley of Richardson, served as best man. Mike Wende of Arlington, Brian

MRS. HENRY G. PRESLEY III

McFarland and Wyatt Allen, both of Richardson, were groomsmen. Ushers were the bride's brother, Doug Sparkman, and Brent Rickles of Spur, Joe Bell and Randy Bell, both of Richardson.

George Sparkman accompanied his daughter to the nuptial area. For her wedding, the bride chose a white gown of imported silk organza. The Czarina bodice was frosted with French chantilly lace and tiny seed pearls. The sheer lantern sleeves were cuffed with an organza ruffle. The crescent waistline fell into a full, bouffant skirt that ended in a chapel train. Chantilly lace motifs centered with seed pearls trellised the skirt. Bordering the hemline was a ruffled flounce.

Her waist-length veil of imported silk illusion was layered in three tiers and was attached to a camelot half-cut. The veil was edged in Chantilly lace. The bouquet, a cascade arrangement of yellow roses and white starburst poms showered with gypsophila was carried on the Bible used by the bride's mother in her own wedding.

The reception honoring the newlyweds was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table held a three-tiered cake and the bride's bouquet in a crystal decanter.

The groom's table was accented with a brass candleholder surrounded by greenery, and apricot and yellow silk flowers. The groom's cake was shaped like a top hat.

Reception attendants were Cindy Smith, Dianne Brewer and Elaine Lackey.

Presley is a graduate of Richardson High School and will be graduated in August from Baylor University. He will be employed this summer with Sears. His bride, a graduate of Lockney High School, is attending Baylor, and will be graduated in December.

NEWS 'N' NOTES

County Extension Agent
 We explored the microwave oven, the cooking method of the future. It is a relatively short wave length and is sufficient in cooking normal-sized food items. Some also operate on a frequency of 915 MHz, a longer wavelength for deeper penetration of larger food items. Portable microwave appliances plug into ordinary 110-120-volt household circuits, but a large, free-standing one will require its own 220-volt line. Because cooking time is so much shorter when using a microwave appliance, it costs less to operate than a conventional range.

OPERATING FEATURES
 * Interlocks-Turns off the energy as soon as the door is opened. All microwave appliances must have at least two operating safety interlocks. Some models also use special energy-absorbing material around the door.
 * Signal-A buzzer or light indicates when set cooking time is over.
 * Start button-is pressed to start cooking action. Some models eliminate the switch-cooking begins by setting the timer and closing the door.
 * Timer-Regulates cooking time. Usually marked in seconds so that short heating cycles can be set. The energy stops at the end of the present time.

SPECIAL FEATURES

* Browning device-A special browning unit or a special utensil that produces browning by capturing microwave heat is available with some models. If the microwave appliance you select does not have this feature, foods can be browned in a conventional oven after being cooked in the microwave appliance. The initial cost of the microwave appliance will be higher with the browning feature, but it is more economical and convenient than using two appliances to cook one food item.
 * Automatic defroster-Switch power on and off every 30 seconds to achieve even thawing. Without this feature, microwave appliances have the tendency to overdo the outside of foods and leave the inside icy.

TWO YOUNG FLEAS FELL IN LOVE
 And it came to pass that two young fleas fell in love, and after a short courtship, married and settled down. They found a large, good-natured and inactive dog for a home.
 Theirs was truly an ideal life. Food, shelter and heat were provided. There was a housing unit in every wrinkle. Life was sweet and easy. All they did was eat, sleep and multiply.
 Freedom from want and freedom had been attained, and they and their offspring enjoyed the abundant life.
 But the patient old dog — sore and unappreciated — grew weak with wear. Unable any longer to support the hungry and rapidly multiplying non-productive population, he finally staggered off into the woods and died.
 Consternation reigned among the fleas. They held meetings, protesting that the economic system had let them down. Some even threatened to vote for the other party. There was talk of siring the old dog for lack of cooperation.
 Many of those panicky parasites perished on the spot. Others, bitter in spirit, trudged off into the cruel world and died by the roadside, trying to thumb a ride on another dog.
 Now the moral of this story is that if too many people depend on society, industry and government to look after them, to provide them with security, they may end in want and distress amid the wreckage of the nation.
 Men must never forget that there is no substitute for self-reliance, individual striving and thrift to provide for their future needs.
 It's a pretty good lesson.

Too Many Doctors?

So They Say . . .

Views of Other Editors

DOCTOR SHORTAGE
 The drive is on again to cut back enrollments in United States medical schools.

Dr. Donald B. Louria of the New Jersey Medical School is the latest to get big headlines from coast to coast. He did so by saying that American medical schools should cut back their enrollments that to avoid a glut of physicians that could lock doctors into cutthroat competition and promote unnecessary treatment.

"Increasing evidence suggests that there will be a surplus of physicians in this country within the next three decades," Dr. Louria declared.

To back up his claim, the note health specialist said that in 1950 there was one doctor in the United States for every 735 people. In 1980, there will be one for every 500, and by 2020, there may be one physician for every 250 or 300 people if the current trend continues.

Somehow Stephens County got left out. There is one doctor for every 1,555 people here if you use 1970 census figures.

Probably the figure is closer to one doctor for each 1,800 people. That means we have half the 1950 national average.

Dr. Louria would also limit the number of Americans trained abroad who would be allowed to take postgraduate programs in the United States. He would also make foreign doctors who come to the States train five years before being required to return home.

There may well be too many future doctors being trained, but if that is the case they are all going to the big cities.

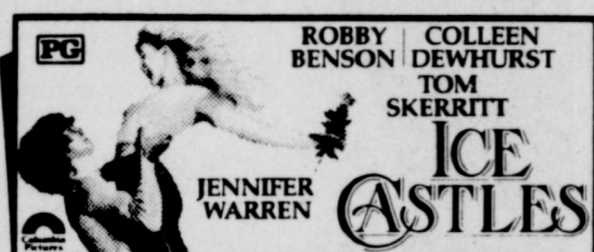

Perhaps rather than cut down the number of students accepted by medical schools there should be less emphasis on training specialists and more on training family physicians.

Using Dr. Louria's average on the number of doctors now practicing nationwide Stephens County should have 10 doctors, not just four.

Let's solve the problem of too few doctors in the rural areas before we reduce the number of physicians being trained.

POSITIVE THOUGHTS TO GASOLINE SHORTAGE

People need to give some positive thought to our gasoline shortage. No need to get all uptight with nasty negative reactions.

—O—
 For example, people in towns our size could walk to work instead of driving, and even kids could walk to school—and probably be a whole lot healthier for it.

—O—
 Maybe you don't like that one, but we have another one which is pretty good. That is to start scheduling vacations to begin in mid-week. That way you can get where you are going to "vacationate" before the gas stations close for the weekends and come home early in the week after they reopen.

—O—
 Vacations should only be scheduled in the first three weeks of the month because gasoline supplies will be shorter at many stations toward the end of the month.

—O—
 A third idea is to get smart, and find some vacation fun close to home so you don't have to roar down the road all day, or maybe more than one to get there, and the same on the return trip. If you're enterprising you might convert the idea into a money maker yourself.

E.E.R.? I never worried about it until I found out what it meant.

When I discovered that an air conditioner with an Energy Efficiency Ratio (E.E.R.) of 10 was twice as efficient as one with a rating of 5, it got my attention. Because with electric power at present price and likely to go higher the years ahead, twice as much cooling for my money makes real sense.

So shop for the higher E.E.R. when you buy any appliance and compare prices. Just remember the higher E.E.R. means less electric power required. And conservation of power is the only sure way to save on your electric bill.

Think the Willoughbys know something we don't.

May 21 — This is a rainy Monday, also cool after a warm summer Sunday. A number of the folks in the community received rain on Thursday and again Sunday.

Amounts of moisture received during the three day period range from one to two inches and maybe more on some farms. The community expresses sympathy to the family of Bob Ratjen who was killed Thursday afternoon in a two car crash west of town. Mrs. Jewell Teague and Mrs. Ethel Graham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huggins. In the afternoon all of the above went to Lockney to visit Sharron Huggins. Tackett and Mrs. Birch Gilliland during last week. Mrs. Kate Crabtree has not been feeling well for the past several days and her daughter-in-law Hope Crabtree and daughter Becky have been going in to see about her. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bullard of Portales, New Mexico, were here Saturday and visited his sister, Mrs. Kate Crabtree. Saturday night Preston and Cora spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. T.L. Perry. The Preston Bullards were on their vacation and were on the way to visit their children who live in different states east of here. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Denison of Sun City, Arizona, spent Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Denison. Russell is Carl's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Kay Crabtree, Becky, Sam and Anissa went to Idalou on Mother's Day and visited her mother, Mrs. Elmer Griffith. Friday was Lee Burton's birthday and his daughters Phyllis Reeves and Carolyn Burton were with him to help celebrate the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Payne were among those attending the Coop Elevator meeting and barbecue Saturday night at the Floydada High School. Late Monday afternoon folks here in town as well as out in Fairview Community had rain—Here in town we have had a "County flood." L.A. Cardinal of Stockton, California, came Friday to the home of Mrs. Verna Lee Cardinal. Saturday Verna Lee's son, Jerry Cardinal of Houston, arrived for a week's visit with his mother. On Sunday E.J. Matsler of Lubbock came up and spent the day with the above named. Other Sunday dinner guests in the Bill Beedy home were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beedy, Mark and Todd, Mr. and Mrs. A.S. Mize and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tye. In the afternoon the above guests were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Walton Wilson. Late reports on the rain of Monday afternoon — Mrs. C.W. Payne reports three inches at their place. The report here in town was three inches, so it seems the drought is broken. Attend the church of your choice this Sunday.

Methodists To Pick Delegates

Balloting for delegates to represent the 92,904 member Northwest Texas Annual Conference at next year's quadrennial meetings of the United Methodist General Conference and the eight-state regional South Central Jurisdictional Conference is expected to extend over the three-day meeting of the annual conference which opens May 29 at Polk Street United Methodist Church in Amarillo.

The Northwest Texas Annual Conference is one of seven Methodist conferences meeting within a four-week period in Texas and New Mexico. The conferences are composed of an equal number of clergy and laity.

This annual session will elect four clergy and four laity delegates to represent them at the denomination's law-making General Conference scheduled for April 15-25, 1980, in Indianapolis. The General Conference sets the policy that determines the worldwide ministry of the 10-million member denomination for the following four-year period.

Tomatoes Like To Be Caged

By: Stephen R. Herber
County Extension Agent

West Texas in spring can be a hostile place for young tomato plants. Newly set plants suffer a severe setback, sometimes death, when exposed to wind and cold. However, there is a way to set out tomato plants in May and protect them until the wind calms down and the nights warm.

Enclosing tomatoes in plastic-wrapped cages gives them much needed protection during May. Caged plants will grow much faster and produce many more early fruit and greater total yield than those grown with staking and pruning or ground culture systems.

Construct cages from concrete reinforcing wire, hog wire or any sturdy wire mesh fencing that is two-and-a-half to five feet tall with openings for four to six inches. Cut and bend the mesh material into cylinders about 18 inches in diameter. Fasten the ends together by bending the wire inward so that it will not scratch you as you work around the plants. Wrap the full height of the cage in a sheet of clear plastic. Allow enough extra plastic to make a neat baker's fold which you will staple every four to six inches to tightly secure it around the cage wire.

Allow four to five feet between plants to give you plenty of room to work around your caged plants. Select tomato varieties well adapted to caging such as Spring Giant Hybrid, Big Set Hybrid, Small Fry Hybrid, Jack Pot Hybrid, or Sun Rip Hybrid.

After transplanting the tomatoes and watering them in with a stater solution, place a cage over each plant with the plant centered inside the cage. Anchor the cage to a stout stake driven into the ground and tied to the cage with wire or string. This is about all there is to it.

As the days grow warmer and daytime temperatures rise into the 80's, slip the plastic wrap inward to allow cool air to enter the cage, thereby preventing excessively high temperatures around the plant. When the night temperatures stop going below 55 to 60 degrees, you can remove the plastic wrap entirely.

Cages will cost about 50 cents apiece and will last at least four to five years. The cage supports all fruits up off the ground and encourages the plant to grow upright so that the leaves shade the fruit and prevent sunburn. The plants are easier to spray and you will have less problems with insect and disease control.

Caged plants are not pruned, but simply trained so that several stems grow to the top of the cage while others grow out through the openings at different heights.

Other vegetables adapted to caging include peppers, egg plants, cucumbers and pole beans.

Lockney Care Center Family News

by Yvonne Steele

"You Light Up My Life" was the theme of Nursing Home Week which began Sunday afternoon, May 13, with Open House. Monday evening, we enjoyed gospel songs sung by members of the Spanish Baptist Church of Lockney. The Lockney Care Center provided home-made ice cream and cake Tuesday afternoon. Claudine Conway of Irving, Texas, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carpenter, helped us serve the refreshments. One of the highlights of the week was the noon cookout Wednesday. Eating hamburgers and hot dogs picnic-style was quite a treat for us. Then we had bingo in the kitchen. Attending were Lula Mae Cottrell, Myrtle Burke, John Turner, Bill Holt, Sally Carpenter, Tricia Steele, and Lewis Roberts. A visitor, Tricia Steele, won the blackout game. We appreciate the prizes so generously donated by BROWN'S DEPARTMENT STORE, BYRD PHARMACY, ROSA'S HAIR CHATEAU, SCHACHT FLOWER AND GIFT, ROGERS PASTRY SHOP, THOMPSON GROCERY, WHITE'S AUTO, DAVIS LUMBER, AND MIZE PHARMACY. Margie Gentry, manager of DAIRY QUEEN, made a personal donation. Margie Gentry also donated several gallons of ice cream Thursday afternoon. After we "licked the bowls clean" we listened to the Lockney Jr. High Choir directed and accompanied by Peggy Bain. We also had two treats Friday. That afternoon we "got out our fishing poles" for the fish fry. Then we applauded the Flomot Youth Group who sang several songs for us. We found the hand gestures that were combined with some of the songs quite entertaining. This group also served cookies. Saturday evening the Baptist Youth Group chartered by Mrs. Don Vernon presented a puppet show. Later that night a group sang and played Country and Western songs accompanied by one of our residents, Bill Holt, on the fiddle. This talented group consisted of John Francis, Jerry Miller, Clifton and Joy Stodgel of Silverton; and Bruce Griffith of Lockney.

We want to thank everyone who had a part in "Lighting Up Our Lives" this past week. This would not have been the success it was if it had not been for all of you volunteers, visitors, participants, businessmen and staff. A special thanks to: Marilyn Cates and Margie Savage for decorating our Home for this celebration; The Home Economics Department who made the cookies for Open House; Tye Company who loaned us a large barbecue pit; Bruce Griffith for cooking the hamburgers, hot dogs and fish; James Steele, Cleatis Hayes and Ike Tickle for transporting the barbecue pit; Lavern Thompson who served at Open House; First Baptist Church who loaned us chairs and tables. We are happy to report that Willie Hathecock has returned from the hospital and that Alpha Kitchens was able to return from the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. She and Eula Thornton are in the Lockney General Hospital.

stock by the use of a pulley at a well. After I got there, she would sit on the well and hold to my dress tail to keep me from falling in the well while I drew the water.

My grandmother's place was a little back from a road. All day long Indians were up and down that road. Some were in old, trappy wagons, some walking, some were women carrying babies on their backs. They scared me.

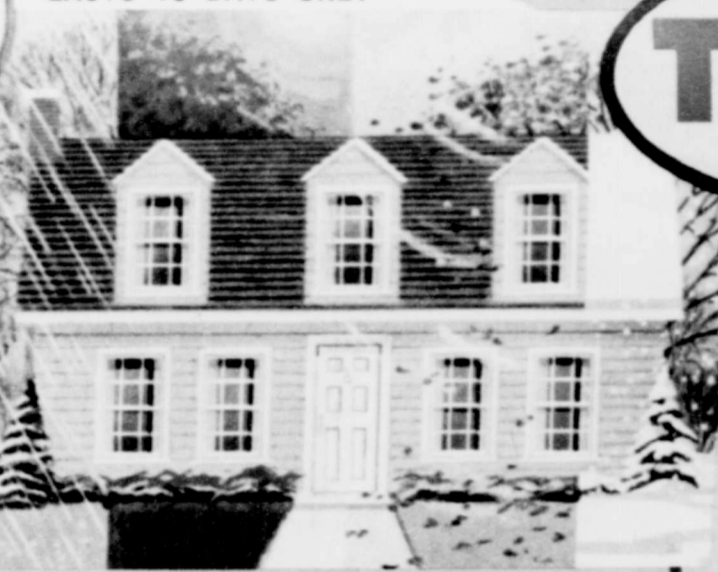

My dad rented a place about a mile from Grandma's. Since we didn't have a cow, I was sent to Grandmother's for milk. It was a frightening chore. I could just see Indians all along the way in the tall grass ready to get me.

When we went to the 4th of July picnic, an old chier with a baby the same age as my brother, wanted my dad to change babies with him. It was a joke with him. He knew my father well

CHRISTINE HUFFMAN

Christine Huffman played a flute in the Texas Association of Future Teachers at the Future Teachers' Meeting in Lubbock, Texas, on May 13. She was the first to perform in the "Today's Tomorrow" meeting which was held at the Tarrant County Convention Center, with approximately 7,000 young people from all over the state.

Miss Huffman was accompanied by her sister, Mary Huffman, who sang at the State FH Convention in Lubbock, Texas, earlier in the year. The choir was directed by J.

Lockney Care Center Family News

by Yvonne Steele

"You Light Up My Life" was the theme of Nursing Home Week which began Sunday afternoon, May 13, with Open House. Monday evening, we enjoyed gospel songs sung by members of the Spanish Baptist Church of Lockney. The Lockney Care Center provided home made ice cream and cake Tuesday afternoon. Claudine Conway of Irving, Texas, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carpenter, helped us serve the refreshments. One of the highlights of the week was the noon cookout Wednesday. Eating hamburgers and hot dogs picnic style was quite a big hit with the men. Attending were Lulla Mae, Cottrell, Myrtle Burke, John Turner, Bill Holt, Sally Carpenter, Tricia Steele, and Lewis Roberts. A visitor, Tricia Steele, won the blackout game. We appreciate the prizes so generously donated by BROWN'S DEPARTMENT STORE, BYRD PHARMACY, ROSA'S HAIR SALON, A SWEET CREAM ICE CREAM SHOP, GERS PASTRY SHOP, THOMPSON GROCERY, WHITE'S AUTO, DAVIS LUMBER, AND MIZE PHARMACY. Margie Gentry, manager of DAIRY QUEEN, made a personal donation. Margie Gentry also donated several gallons of ice cream Thursday afternoon. After we "licked the bowls clean," we listened to the Lockney Jr. High Choir directed and accompanied by Mrs. W. H. H. We had two treats Friday. That afternoon we "got out our fishing poles" for the fish fry. Then we applauded the Flomot Youth Group who sang several songs for us. We found the hand gestures that were combined with some of the songs quite entertaining. This group also served cookies. Saturday evening the Baptist Youth Group, chartered by Mrs. Don Vernon presented a puppet show and played Country and Western songs accompanied by one of our residents, Bill Holt, on the fiddle. This talented group consisted of John Francis, Jerry Miller, Clifton and Joy Stodgel of Silverton; and Bruce Griffith of Lockney.

We want to thank everyone who had a part in "Lighting Up My Life." It is just because the success it was if it had not been for all of you volunteers, visitors, participants, businessmen and staff. A special thanks to: Marilyn Cates and Margie Savage for decorating our Home for this celebration; The Home Economics Department who made the cookies for Open House; Tye Company who loaned us a large barbecue pit; Bruce Griffith for cooking and fish; Joanne Stoebe, Cleatis Hayes and Ike Tickle for transporting the barbecue pit; Lavern Thompson who served at Open House; First Baptist Church who loaned us chairs and tables.

We are happy to report that Willie Heathcock has returned from the hospital and that Alpha Kitchens was able to return from the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. She and Edna Thompson are in the Lockney General Hospital.
