HS cagers open district play tomorrow at Floydada

Lockney High School basketball teams open district play tomorrow at Floydada, and both varsity teams have been declared "ready to go" by their coaches. The action in Graves Gym starts at 5 p.m., when the junior varsity boys' teams take the floor. The varsity girls play at 5:30, and the varsity boys tangle at 8.

The Longhorns, riding a two-game winning streak after posting a 1-13 record in the early going, are "very much looking forward to Friday night," coach Ed Koester told The Beacon. "I'm excited, and the kids are excited," Koester said. We're looking for a full house, and we're ready to get after those people in green."

It was just one thing after another for the Longhorns in pre-district play, with key players suffering injuries and getting sick, but the 'Horns are on the mend now, with both Arnold Alaniz and Kevin Evans back near top form and no liness on the squad. (The Big Red team showed its stuff Tuesday night at Olton, whipping the Mustangs 68-37.) The Longhorns may be only 3-13 for the year, but the coaches and players are showing a great deal of confidence as district play approaches. "The key to the first round of district will be winning the home games," Koester said. "The key to the second round will be winning the 'must-win' games."

The Lady Horns carry a 12-8 record to the district wars. Their first loop opponents, the Whirlettes, own a 14-2 non-conference record. The Lockney girls have been playing teams like Plainview, Dimmitt, Dumas and Hale Center, and participating in tournaments such as the Plainview Queens Classic and the Slaton Tournament. Floydada's schedule has included games with Ralls, Lorenzo, Patton Springs, McAdoo and Kress, and tournaments at Ralls, Jayton and New Deal.

"We knew we'd probably lose some early games, but we scheduled some tough teams to help us prepare for a tough district race," coach Marsha Sharp said this week. "We got some good experience, and the kids came out of it (the tough pre-district schedule) with more confidence than you might expect," she stated. The Lady Horns are in top physical condition, Sharp said.

"We feel there's a good chance to keep the district title in Lockney again this year. Lockney has a lot of pride, and the team members feel very strongly about winning back-to-back district championships," the Lady Horn coach declared. (Her Lady Horn teams have won several district titles out have never managed the feat two years in a row.)

And: "We feel if we get to bi-district we can win," Sharp said. Dimmitt and Muleshoe are co-favorites in District 3-AA. Lockney is 1-1 against Muleshoe this season, having defeated the Mules by eight points at Lockney and lost by four in double overtime at Muleshoe. The Lady Horns have played Dimmitt three times, losing all three but getting closer each time. The Bobbies won by 17 points in the first game, by 12 in the second, and by just four points the last time around.

Lockney and Abernathy are the co-favorites in 4-AA. Sharp says, with the Lady Lopes having perhaps a slight edge because of their returning experience.

LOCKNEY BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Jan. 10-12 — 8th grade boys and girls at Littlefield tournament
Jan. 10-12 — 7th grade girls and "B" boys at Lorenzo tournament
Jan. 10-12 — JV boys and girls at Slaton JV tournament
Jan. 11 — Varsity boys and girls, JV boys at Floydada (district game)

Chili supper Friday in Floydada

The Floydada High School DECA group will host a chili supper in conjunction with the Floydada vs. Lockney basketball games January 11. The menu includes all the chili you can eat and a generous portion of spicy apple pie, tea or coffee, for only $2.25. Serving will begin at 4:30 p.m. at the Floydada Jr. High Cafeteria and will continue until 8:00 p.m. DECA students promise the meal is a bargain! Proceeds from this chili supper will be used to aid in financing DECA students trip to the state convention and to provide a club banquet at the end of the year.

CK THROWERS caused a mess early Tuesday morning when they attacked a plate-glass window and door at the sheriff's/police/justice office in Lockney. The vandals' missiles didn't go through this safety glass window at the front of the building but shattered the window beyond use. Three of the four front windows were destroyed, as well as the glass door and window on the north side of the building. One front window and the front door were not broken. The Lockney police department is investigating the incident because it occurred inside the Lockney city limits, but the building is owned by the county. Lockney patrolman Charles Higgs discovered the vandalism about 1 a.m. Tuesday. No arrests had been made Wednesday afternoon.

School board meets tonight

The Lockney Independent School district board of trustees' regular monthly meeting is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. (Thursday). The school board usually meets on the second Monday of the month, but the meeting date was changed for January only.

One item on the agenda is a discussion about hiring a new head teacher. (The board interviewed four prospective coaches in a special executive session Tuesday afternoon and had after talked to two coaches from within the Lockney school system who had applied for the position.)

They will also consider cafeteria workers' salaries, extension of contracts for the superintendent and tax assessor, a request for a student auditor, a proposed trip by the high school band, and the local superintendent's attendance at a superintendent's conference January 22 and 23.

Nutt withdraws from county race

An early contender for the precinct one county commissioner spot Wednesday morning announced his decision to withdraw from the race.

Edwin Nutt made his decision not to campaign after reviewing the effects that being a candidate would have on his family and business.

Nutt said that with children in school, holding public office could interfere with his responsibilities as a parent as well as make it more difficult to operate his business.

"Most of all, it wouldn't be fair to the county since I wouldn't have enough time to devote to the job," Nutt said. "This isn't a pop-up thing. I've been considering it for the past three months."

The former candidate thanked everyone for their encouraging words and telephone calls of support.

"Perhaps I might run in the future, when the kids are older," Nutt commented.

"But it's better to withdraw now and give others a chance to consider running for the office," he said.

Cardinal announces for re-election

FRED CARDINAL

Incumbent Floyd County sheriff Fred Cardinal Tuesday announced that he was a candidate for re-election to his first full term in that office.

Cardinal, a former deputy sheriff and farmer, was appointed and elected two years ago to fill Bud Rainey's unexpired term.

Cardinal is a member of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce. His wife, Polly, is an English teacher at Floydada High School. Their son, Louis Reid, is a Department of Public Safety trooper at Post.

The Cardinals attend the First United Methodist Church in Floydada.

Standing on his past record, the sheriff pledged to maintain law and order in the county if re-elected.

J.W. Becker seeks commissioner's post

J.W. BECKER

J.W. Becker, who resides two miles south of the Sandhill Community, this week became the second candidate to announce for the precinct one county commissioner's seat.

Becker, 59, farms land in the Sandhill and Barwise communities.

The candidate told the Hesperian that he was persuaded by friends to join the race for commissioner.

Becker was raised in Slaton. He moved to Floydada from Levelland in 1954 with his wife, Libbie. The couple have six children: Robbie, Sam, Kelly, Barbara, Larry Schneider and Joan Gindorf.

Becker is a member of the Farmers Home Administration. The family belongs to Grace Lutheran Church of Slaton.

Walter Hollums seeks JP re-election

WALTER HOLLUMS

Walter Hollums, incumbent justice of the peace for Floyd County precincts one and four, announced Monday that he is a candidate for reelection to that office in the upcoming county elections.

Judge Hollums was appointed to the office of justice of the peace on March 6 of last year upon the death of H.E. Porter. The incumbent is now seeking to serve out Porter's unexpired term.

Prior to being appointed to the justice position, Hollums served as Sheriff of Floyd County for 16 years.

Joyce Lipham first woman JP candidate

JOYCE LIPHAM

The first woman in Floyd County history to file as a candidate for justice of the peace did so this week.

Joyce Lipham announced this week that she had filed as a candidate for justice of the peace in precincts one and four. Mrs. Lipham, 45, is seeking the seat that incumbent Walter Hollums assumed upon the death of Tom Porter.

The candidate is a homemaker and has taught music in the Floydada community for 25 years.

Mrs. Lipham graduated from Floyd.

YES, FRIENDS, the Beacon office is moving. The fact is obvious to everyone who has entered the office at 220 South Main the last few days, but perhaps some of the rest of you are still wondering about it. The reason we didn't tell you sooner is that we didn't know for sure until just the other day we were moving to, and it was only a few days before that we knew we were going to move at all.

WE'RE MOVING four blocks up the street to 211 North Main, next door to Pioneer Natural Gas, where The Attic Shoppe is/was located. (It's still there now, but it won't be long — we're supposed to start moving in Saturday and hope to complete the move by Tuesday.)

I UNDERSTAND that Thomason's Grocery has bought the building where the Beacon has held forth for the past few years and will locate the grocery store there. More about this in later editions.

WE'RE TEMPORARILY — I said temporarily — out of the office supply business while we're packing to move, but we should be back in full operation in a week or so. Try to bear with us for a while. We don't know which box contains the typewriter ribbons and which has the index cards right now, and there's not much left on the shelves at all this writing. With any kind of luck at all it'll be all boxed up by the time you read this.

Y'ALL COME see us on North Main Street.

Appraisal board elects officers, discusses appraisal contracts

The Floyd County Appraisal Board met in the commissioners' chamber Wednesday morning to elect officers and discuss the contracts with the two reappraisal companies.

The board elected Travis Jones as chairman and Tom Duvall as secretary-treasurer.

Jim McMorries, of the Hereford appraisal company, explained to the board ways that agricultural land could be valued for tax purposes. Valuation could be determined on choice farmland and the tax schedules factored in for lower-graded land.

Floydada merchant David Kirk appeared before the board to question McMorries on the policy toward appraising commercial inventories.

McMorries said that he would appraise on an average of 85 percent of the market value of the inventories, excluding certificates of deposit and other bank accounts and farmer-owned grain stored in an elevator. Commercial elevator operators would have to pay tax on grain in their elevators, but cooperatives would not, the appraiser said.

McMorries did agree with Kirk that it was necessary to keep the evaluations as low as possible.

The board stressed the point that it was important to remember that taxes assessed by each of the 10 taxing entities in the county would be based on the same valuation under the new law.

While there is still resistance to the so-called tax relief amendment, indications from board members were that people would go along with the taxation system as long as valuation was done on an equitable basis.

The appraisal board agreed to hire someone to evaluate personal property in the county and to appoint a board of equalization, a duty formerly performed by the commissioners' court.

Boyd Latham received tentative confirmation of a contract with the board to handle the industrial appraisal in the county.

Latham quoted a price of $7,500 for this service. The most likely method of splitting the cost among the different entities would be the same formula that was used to pay McMorries, the members agreed.

Under Senate Bill 621, a new appraisal would have to be undertaken every five years, with maintenance evaluations being made on new facilities that come into service each year.

The board members and McMorries began a round of appearances Wednesday to local groups and communities to explain the new tax appraisal system.

Attending the meeting were board members Travis Jones, Tom Duvall, Eddie Teeter and Jack Lackey. County Judge Choise Smith also sat in on the conference.

LOCKNEY LOCALS

Home for happy holidays were the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brandes. Pam of Dallas arrived on Wed., Dec. 19, bringing with her Becky Scheele Duckworth and her three children, Stacy, Scott and four-week-old Amanda of Lewisville to visit with her parents, the Albert Scheeles. Randy Duckworth came on Friday night. Then on the 22nd, the Brandeses' other daughter, Debra and Bill Hays and six months old daughter Megan of Houston arrived to add to the joy.

A Christmas family dinner was enjoyed on Sunday in Plainview at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M.C. Nance, parents of Mrs. Brandes. Also attending were Lanny, Cathy and Rance Barnett and C.E. and Wanda Flippin of Lockney and Ricky, Susan and Ty Flippin of Edmonson. Sunday evening the 23rd, some 30 friends called in Brandes home to share Christmas cheer.

On Christmas Day, dinner guests in the Brandes home were their children, her parents the Nances of Plainview, Eak and Anna Dell Quebe and John and Karen Quebe of Lubbock. Bill Hays returned to Houston on the eve of Dec. 25 and Debra, Megan and Pam remained until Sat., the 29th. Bud and Georgie Brandes spent the New Years holidays at their cabin in Ruidoso with friends, the S.M. Trues of Plainview.

priority in the 1980s, Congressman Charles W. Stenholm announced his plans Tuesday to run for his second term of office.

Stenholm told supporters he was committed to a stronger defense position that could "leave no doubt in any nation's mind of America's resolve to defend our hard-won freedoms."

Stenholm, 41, was elected to Congress following the retirement of long-time Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson. He serves on the House Agriculture Committee and was recently named to the House Small Business Committee. A native of Jones County, he graduated from Tarleton State University in 1959 and in 1961 received his BS degree from Texas Tech University. The following year he earned his MS in Agriculture Education at Texas Tech.

Outlining his overall views, Stenholm said he had "every confidence in our system of government and I am optimistic about the second session of the 96th Congress." He stressed the elimination of deficit spending as another primary goal and emphasized his intentions "to continue to do all that is possible to cut any unnecessary federal spending."

"The true test of a good Congressman however is knowing where to cut — knowing what is unnecessary fat and what is real muscle. In the case of national defense, we are dealing with the backbone of our country," he emphasized.

Crime victims

to get compensation

Legislation became effective the beginning of this year which for the first time in Texas would provide monetary compensation from the state to individuals who are the innocent victims of crime.

Senate Bill 21, sponsored by state Sen. Ron Clower (D-Garland), sets up a Compensation to Victims Crime Fund, which will be administered by the Industrial Accident Board. The fund began collecting monies Sept. 1, 1979 and currently holds approximately $90,000.

Awards from the fund would be made to victims or their dependents for financial losses suffered because of personal injury or death resulting from crimes occurring after Jan. 1, 1980. Awards can also be made to private citizens injured while attempting to prevent crime or apprehend a criminal.

Under the program, a person injured (or his or her dependents) could be awarded a maximum of $50,000 for the costs of medical, hospital, nursing or psychiatric care or counseling, and physical therapy; loss of earnings not to exceed $150 each week; care of minor children; and loss of support by dependent and funeral and burial expenses if the victim dies.

Victims would not, however, receive compensation for pain or suffering nor for loss of property, but only for actual financial losses because of injury or death.

To qualify for compensation a victim will have to be a Texas resident and will have to suffer "financial stress" as a result of his or her injuries. The victim will also need to report the crime to the appropriate state or local public safety or law enforcement agency within 72 hours after the crime is committed and file a claim with the Industrial Accident Board within 180 days after the date of the crime. Forms will be available from hospital emergency rooms, law enforcement agencies and the Industrial Accident Board.

No state general revenues would be used for payments. Money for the fund would be generated by adding $15 to the court costs for any felony conviction in the State and $10 to the court cost for any misdemeanor conviction punishable by imprisonment or a fine of more than $200.

No additional court costs would be added to most traffic violations or any other Class C misdemeanor. These additional court costs should generate the approximately $2 million it is estimated that the program would cost each year. It is also estimated that about 3,000 claims will be filed the first year, that reimbursements are anticipated to be awarded to about 1,200 of these crime victims and that the average award will be about $2,400.

"Some twenty other states have laws similar to this one," Clower said, "and I am pleased that the 66th Texas Legislature agreed with me that it is time Texas had one, too. It is simply not fair that any of our neighbors can be financially wiped out through no fault of their own just because they are singled out by someone with no regard for the law or his fellow citizens. This law will not eliminate crime, but it should help eliminate some of the problems and distress a criminal all too often inflicts on his innocent victims."

One legend places the Garden of Eden between the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers in today's Iraq.

Former Lockney PNG manager transferred to Hereford

AMARILLO, Texas — Charles K. Vaughan, vice president for distribution operations of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, has announced three management changes within the distribution department of the utility division of Pioneer Corporation.

Harry Neel, recently elevated to Amarillo division manager from Amarillo district manager, has assumed additional responsibilities as assistant to the vice president. The Amarillo division provides utility services to a Panhandle area which includes the cities of Amarillo, Hereford and Pampa.

Nicks V. Fariss has been promoted to Amarillo district manager. He has been Hereford district manager for the past five years.

Replacing Fariss as Hereford district manager will be Gene Ehler who has been manager of the local office of Pioneer Natural Gas Company in Floydada.

Floyd Philosopher talks about TV hokum and finds a new reason for conserving our oil

Dear editor: Frequently the commercials on TV are much better than the programs they're interrupting, so much so that you get the notion the programs are interrupting the commercials.

But like the programs, some commercials specialize in hokum. For example there's one advertising a computer, an item I've never been much interested in buying—I don't need a computer to tell me when to throw another log on the fire. It claims it's fighting inflation and says that if the price of a hamburger had dropped as much proportionately as the price of that computer in the last 25 years, a hamburger would now cost 5 cents. What it fails to mention is that if a hamburger 25 years ago had cost as much as that computer then did, hamburgers would have cost $150 apiece.

Second prize for hokum goes to the car manufacturers who claim their cars go further on a tank of gas, without mentioning that perhaps their tanks are bigger. One claims that with extra tank you can go halfway across the United States without filling up.

Everybody talks about conserving gas but nobody seems to know how to do it, except to drive less, which is unthinkable. The problem is so serious that people realize the need to conserve. Now if we pump all that oil out, what's going to happen? Why the earth, without any help, won't be able to sleep at night because of the noise. And already the dip sticks we're two quarts low.

Meanwhile, to change the subject, the United Nations can't do anything about the Iranian situation, should consider taking it up with the P.T. Yours faithfully, AUSTIN—One of his fellow Republicans last week warned Gov. Bill Clements to keep a "strong nose-count" of votes in the Legislature before calling his promised special session on wiretapping, initiative and referendum and any other issues.

Houston State Rep. Chase Untermyer said his recent poll of his conservative district showed overwhelming public apathy on the governor's targeted issues.

Untermyer is the first Republican to publicly caution Clements, who has repeated his promise to call lawmakers back to Austin in either March or September.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and House Speaker Bill Clayton have also publicly warned Clements there is no strong backing in the Legislature to spend extra tax dollars with a special session.

Clements has called tax reform, I&R, and wiretapping "three super issues" on which Republican candidates could run and win in 1980.

Untermyer said his poll showed constituents in favor of the issues, but the 1.3 percent questionnaire response showed little public concern.

Mortgage Rate Hike

Representatives of Texas savings and loan institutions are predicting interest rates on home loans will float to over 13 percent following enactment of a federal law last week which removes rate caps in all states.

The law suspends all rate ceilings for 90 days. Texas has a 12 percent cap after the last Legislature raised it from 10 percent.

Two House committee chairmen announced last week they will not seek re-election, raising to 16 the number of members who are quitting.

The objectives of the special week are to focus attention on the power of the written word and letter writing to shape opinions, preserve memories, lift spirits and link people and to encourage personal correspondence.

There will be special school activities, highlighted by the publication of a new page book, "All About Letters," prepared by the Postal Service with the cooperation of the National Council of Teachers of English. The book is designed for students in grades six through twelve and will be distributed during National Letter Writing Week, many post offices will offer to distribute special guided tours of their facilities and in some cases will send letter representatives to classrooms to

Minimum wage increases to $3.10 an hour

The federal minimum wage increased from $2.90 an hour to $3.10 an hour, effective Jan. 1, according to the U.S. Department of Labor.

More than 5 million of the 57 million workers covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act are eligible for pay increases because of the change. These workers are covered by the act who make less than $3.10 an hour. The Jan. 1 change in the minimum wage was provided for in 1977 amendments to the FLSA.

Jerry Boudreaux, a Texas Employment Commission statistician based in Lubbock, said that the agricultural orientation of Floyd County makes it difficult to estimate how many people in the county were affected by the minimum wage.

"Assuming that there are persons in the Floyd County labor force an estimate of 350 of those affected by the new wage would be ball park figure," Boudreaux told Hesperian Monday. "It can't be determined exactly because the agricultural representation could considerably raise that figure."

the end of the first quarter, but they came out smokin' in the second period and owned a 35-15 advantage at halftime. It went to 47-26 at the three-quarter mark and finally wound up 68-37 in favor of the visiting 'Horns. Arnold Alaniz was high-point man for the 'Horns with 15. Alaniz, who is coming off an ankle injury, played his best game of the season, Koester said. Every squad member played Tuesday night, and every one scored. Evans put in 11 points, Cummings 10, Christian eight, McCormick seven, McCarter five, Warren four, Moody and Craig Ellison two apiece. "Everybody played hard and well and executed the game plan really well," Koester said. Alaniz is recovering from his injury just in time for district play, and Evans, who has been hurt off and on all year, is also ready for district, Koester claims.

The Lockney Beacon Sports

LOCKNEY 68, MEADOW 43 The 'Horns went out in front 16-10 at the end of the first period Friday night and increased the lead over Meadow to 18-10 at halftime and 55-30 after three periods. Kevin Evans was top Lockney scorer with 20; Jeffrey McCormick had 12, Nick Christian 12. Bingham of Meadow scored 21. Also scoring for Lockney were John Cummings, seven points; Steve Warren, six; Roy Moody, five; Arnold Alaniz, Steve Aufluff and McCarter, two each. Christian grabbed 13 rebounds, and Evans came

Girls trip Meadow

In a basketball game at Meadow Friday night, the Lockney High School girls' team trounced the host girls 58-32. The Lady Horns showed little evidence of a tough double-overtime loss to Muleshoe just the night before, as they dominated the game after the first quarter. The score was 11-9 Lockney at the end of the first period, and the Lockney girls outpointed Meadow 17-4 in the second and 10-12 in the third and wound up winning by a comfortable 26-point margin. Coach Marsha Sharp said Meadow had a "pretty good team," and the Lady Horns were impressive in their comeback from the previous night's overtime disappointment. The Lockney scoring went like this: Rebecca Evans 14, Connie Coffman 12, Tammy Hayes 11, Julie Grizzell 11, Susan Fitzgerald five, Marina Tijerina three, Donna Moats one.

Lady Horns beat Olton 57-43

Lockney High School girls beat Olton 57-43 Tuesday night in the Lady Horns' final game before opening district 4-AA play at Floydada tomorrow. The Lockney girls posted their best scoring performance of the season, leading their point total for the game with a 57-percent field-goal average. Rebecca Evans led Lockney with 18 points, followed by Tammy Hayes with 12, Penny Sterling with eight, Julie Grizzell and Susan Fitzgerald with six each, Connie Coffman with four, and Marina Tijerina with one.

The first half of the Olton game was "maybe our best two quarters," offensively and defensively, all year," coach Marsha Sharp said. The Lady Horns scored 18 points in the first period and 19 in the second, held the Fillies to 13 and 9, and "did a lot of things better than they've done all year," Sharp said. Hayes scored eight of her 14 points in the first quarter, and Evans notched eight of her 18 in the second. The Lockney team got help from the bench in the persons of Tijerina, Donna Moats, Sheris Clark, Julie Ferguson and Rosalind Hill, and Fitzgerald's performance Tuesday was probably her best of the year, Sharp said.

'Horns suffer one-point setback

The final score was Idalou 40, Lockney 39 in the freshman basketball game played here Monday night. Down by two points, the Longhorns had the ball no less than four times in the last two minutes of the game but couldn't hit the basket. Idalou sank a free throw with eight seconds left, and the 'Horns put in a two-pointer with one second left to finish one behind the Wildcats. "We looked good in sports but just couldn't score when we had to," coach Joe Killer told The Beacon. The 'Horns made 17 of 51 field-goal tries for a 33-percent average ("Not good enough," Killer said) and went five-for-13 (38 percent) at the line. Killer said the 'Horns got good offensive performance from Tony Rodriguez, who scored 24 points; defensive effort from Russell Warren, Mario Arellano and Kyle Brock; and rebounding from Arellano and Steven Johnson.

Eighth-grade Shorthorns edge Idalou

Lockney Junior High eighth-graders scored Idalou 28-15 in the second of Monday night and registered a 39-point basketball victory over the Idalou boys, who led 24-12 at halftime.

The Shorthorns increased their field-goal shooting efficiency from 23 percent in the first half to 38 percent in the last half and wound up with a 33-percent average for the night. They made eight of 15 from the free-throw line for a 53-percent average.

7-8-9 girls lose at Idalou

Lockney girls' basketball teams lost three games at Idalou Monday night. Idalou Junior High prevailed 20-18 in the seventh-grade game and 37-31 in the eighth-grade contest, and the Lockney High School ninth-grade team was defeated by the score of 49-25.

The final period was even, with both teams scoring eight points to make the final 37-31.

Postal Service letter writing week

The Postal Service announced today it will sponsor a National Letter Writing Week from February 24 through March 1980. The objectives of the special week are focus attention on the power of the written word and letter writing to shape opinions, preserve memories, lift spirits, and link people and to encourage personal correspondence. There will be special school activities, highlighted by the publication of a new page book, "All About Letters," sponsored by the Postal Service with the cooperation of the National Council of Teachers of English. The book is designed for students in grades six through twelve and will be distributed during National Letter Writing Week, many post offices will offer to students special guided tours of their facilities and in some cases will send representatives to classrooms to talk and answer questions about the mail service. In addition to schools, National Letter Writing Week will also be observed by business, media and trade associations, Museums, public libraries and other buildings of historic significance will be encouraged to display books about letters and letters written by famous people who have helped influence the course of human events throughout the ages. The occasion will also be marked by the issuance of a special three-pair set of U.S. postage stamps. Prominent Americans in all walks of life are being asked to share with the Postal Service letters from their experience that have preserved memories, shaped opinions, and lifted spirits, the three themes to be stressed during Letter-Writing Week. The results of this survey will be made available during the Week.

Men's weightlifting class slated

An organizational meeting for a proposed men's weightlifting class will be held Jan. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the new Lockney high school gymnasium.

Terry Bunch, Crosbyton high coach, will teach the class. Tuition is $20 for each student. A minimum of 10 enrollees will be necessary to hold the class.

Miss Glenda Cooper and Archie Jones were married December 28 in the First Baptist Church of Lockney. Reverend John Jenkins officiated at the 7 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie and lace, designed with a fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and bouffant skirt. The skirt terminated in a chapel train. The fingertip veil was trimmed with wide lace and was attached to a crown of lace. She carried a nosegay of gardenias and white roses entwined among ivy, baby's breath and holly.

As something old, the bride wore a gold ring belonging to the groom's grandfather, Mr. Otis Purcell of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The ring, as had the wedding gown, had been worn by all three granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Purcell at each of their weddings. "Something new" was a gold and pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom; "something borrowed" was the veil, belonging to the bride's cousin.

sin, Mrs. David Love of Albuquerque; and "something blue" was a garter.

Matron of honor was Nelda Figueroa of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and bridesmaids were Linda Jones of Lockney and Diane Barnes of Duncanville. Bridal attendants wore floor-length dresses of satin knit with floral sheet cape collars, carried votive candles set among holly wreaths and wore pink silk flowers in their hair.

Candlelighters Tracey and Leslie Figueroa, flower girl Sammie Cooper, and guest registrar Greta Cooper of Houston, were dressed in floor-length pink satin knit dresses with floral cape collars. They wore wristlets of pink carnations.

Rodney Edwards of Lockney was best man. Groomsmen were Tim Cooper and David Lewis.

Ushers were Johnny and Bobby Jones and Terry and Teddy Cooper.

The wedding scene was decorated with two candleabra trees standing on each side of a taper-arch. The windows were decorated with candles and holly.

Music was provided by organist Margorie Ferguson and pianist, Ann Race. Soloists were Tim Cooper, Monty Richards and Stacie Layton.

Reception
Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. A three-tiered cake trimmed with burgandy and pink flowers graced the bride's table, which was set with a crystal service. Serving at the bride's table were Mrs. O.C. Love and Mrs. Dean Purcell, aunts of the bride, of Albuquerque.

Mrs. Ted Cooper, sister-in-law of the bride of Houston, presided at the groom's table, serving the chocolate cake which was shaped like wedding bands. The cake was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ross Cooper.

Assisting with the reception were Mmes. Jeff Terrell, Dub Mercer, Tom Marr, Kenneth Murdock, Tom Duval and Eugene Owens.

Caprock Camera Club meets in Floydada

Caprock Camera Club met last Thursday night in the Lighthouse Electric Cooperative building in Floydada.

The group viewed color transparencies shown by club member Wilson Bond, and members Ray McDonald and Bill Kincaid presented a program on closeup photography equipment.

The camera club meets the first Thursday night of each month. Everybody interested in photography is invited to attend the meetings and join the club.

The camera club is a new organization (the first meeting was held in November) which tries to offer "something for everybody" in photography, from the Instamatic snapshotter to the advanced amateur and professional photographer.

More member slide shows, print exhibitions and programs are planned for future meetings, as well as special programs from Eastman Kodak and area professionals. Club members have also talked about sponsoring photography field trips next spring and summer.

Paul Radloff pledges Alpha Phi Omega

Paul Radloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Radloff, 510 W. Missouri, Floydada, was one of 17 students who recently pledged the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity at the University of Dubuque. Radloff is a graduate of Floydada High School.

Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity. It was organized at the University of Dubuque in 1965. The fraternity promotes high academic and social standards, with an emphasis on service to the school and community.

Highlighting the fraternity's projects is the annual Red Cross blood drive held on the UD campus. Pledges participate in an initiation period when they familiarize themselves with the policies of the group and become acquainted with their fraternity brothers.

The University of Dubuque is an independent liberal arts college and graduate theological seminary with a combined coeducational enrollment of 1,200 students. Undergraduates at the University of Dubuque may choose from more than 30 majors and pre-professional areas of study offered by the Presbyterian-related college. There are seven social fraternities and sororities and a service sorority on the UD campus, in addition to the Alpha Phi Omega.

Rebekah Lodge installs officers

Floydada Rebekah Lodge, No. 77, met on Jan. 8 to install officers for the new term.

Dorothy Reeves, Noble Grand, and Barbara Gilliland, Vice Grand, were installed into their respective chairs by Grace Grundy, District Deputy President and her installing staff. The new Noble Grand gave her acceptance speech and presented her theme for the new term —

Her theme: "Minister to Others; Symbol — Giving a drink of Water; Slogan — "Loving and Forgiving;" watchword — "Bear ye one another's burdens;" scripture — 1st Peter 4:10 — "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God;"

Colors — yellow-green-brown; Flower — yellow carnation; and song — "Will Jesus find us Watching," which Amanda Hart and Grace Grundy sang.

Other officers installed to assist the Noble Grand and Vice Grand were Grace Grundy, recording secretary; Artie Webb, treasurer;

Barbara Landreth, warden; Eula Parrack, conductor; Lona Sparks, Jr. P.N.G.; Valree Turner, chaplain; Amanda Hart, musician; Dartha Westbrook, outside guardian; Willie D. Hill, inside guardian; Ruby Davis, R. S. to N.G.; Jewell Price, Lt. S. to N.G.; Ora King, Rt. S. to V.G.; Mabel Price, Lt. S. to V.G. and Jewell Price, Lodge Deputy.

OUR INFLATED FUTURE

A Hershey bar for over $1, a Baskin-Robbins ice-cream cone for $1.76, the Sunday New York Times for $2.88, a head of lettuce for $2.12, and $17,460 for a year's tuition at Harvard? Yes, indeed. These horrible prices will come to pass by 2001 if we have an annual inflation rate of 6 percent. (That rate is conservative, incidentally; last year it was 9 percent.)

Before you throw up your hands, remember that people in 1959 would have reacted with similar horror to projections of today's prices. There are also reasons to believe that future prospects are not as bleak as they first appear. For one thing, we should find ways to make things more cheaply. Then, too, ways will be found to make things last longer. We may also find ourselves doing with less in some areas — by extending ground beef with soybeans, for example, or by accepting shrunken versions of standard sizes.

But keep in mind that, in 2001, you'll probably be making a good deal more money. If your total family income is now between $20,000 and $23,000 then by 2001, you should be raking in at least $77,000 a year. Quite enough, I think, to afford a $1.76 Baskin-Robbins ice-cream cone.

	1979 Price	2001 Price
House	65,000.00	234,000.00
Apartment (per month)	500.00	1,800.00
Baskin-Robbins ice cream cone	40.00	88.00
Double room at Holiday Inn	4.90	15,084.00
Ford Fairmont (list, stripped)	4,850.00	17,460.00
Annual tuition at Harvard	8.99	32.66
Johnnie Walker Red (5th)	.60	2.16
True cigarettes	3.50	12.60
Movie admission	20.00	72.00

Bus fare	1.00	3.60
Big Mac	.49	1.76
Baskin-Robbins ice cream cone	.30	1.08
Hershey bar	1.99	7.16
Folger's coffee (1 lb.)	.20	.72
Campbell's tomato soup	.59	2.12
Wonder Bread (1 lb.)

Figures are based on an average inflation rate of 6 percent each year until 2001.

Deaths

Pastor of Cone church dies

Services for the Rev. Crutcher Olaf Haile, 67, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Cone, were at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church of Megargle. Haile, a native of Megargle, died at 4:45 a.m. Monday in Caprock Hospital. He had been in ill health. He married Mildred Meredith in 1936 in Megargle. They came to Floyd County five years ago from Liberal, Kan. Survivors include his wife; a son, George of San Antonio; a daughter, Mrs. Frances Chiddix of Plainview; a brother, Horace of Gonzales; a sister, Mrs. Fred Hilbers of Levelland; and seven grandchildren.

Officiating was the Rev. John Bobo of Hurst and the Rev. Mike McKinney of Houston. Burial was in the Megargle Cemetery under the direction of Lond Funeral Home of Olney. Local arrangements were by Moore-Rose Funeral Home.

Robert Cortinas receives associate pastor appointment

Robert Cortinas, deacon of St. Mary Magdalen's Catholic Church in Floydada, was appointed associate pastor of the Sacred Heart Church of Petersburg, and its mission church, St. Isidore in Abernathy, effective January 1, 1980.

The appointment was made by the order of the Administrator's Office by Fr. Norbert G. Kuehler, Chancellor of the Amarillo Diocese. Cortinas is the first deacon to be appointed an associate pastor of the Amarillo Diocese. Until Cortinas was named to the post of associate pastor, Sacred Heart Church and St. Isidore were without a priest or deacon.

Cortinas was ordained along with 33 other candidates, October 9, 1977 by the late Bishop Lawrence DeFalco of the Amarillo Diocese, at Our Lady of Grace Church in Lubbock. These were the first men to be ordained in this diocese as deacons. Cortinas is employed by the Tye Co. of Lockney. He and his wife Angelita and children Janie, Robert Jr., Angie, David and Danny reside at 700 Thorton Street in Floydada.

Cortinas will serve in Floydada on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, and on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday will minister to Petersburg and Abernathy.

Before the U.S. symbol was Uncle Sam, it was Brother Jonathan since President Washington often consulted Gov. Jonathan Turnbulb of Connecticut.
