Fire Destroys House; Vandals Destroy Station Wagon

A four-bedroom house a mile east of Lockney was burned to the ground Thursday night, when a fire destroyed the house and its contents. Also Thursday night, vandals broke the windows and tore the doors off the station wagon in the background. Lockney volunteer fireman answered the call about 11 p.m. Thursday and arrived to find the house and contents totally destroyed. The vacant house had caught on fire about two weeks ago, Johnson noted, but that time the fire department arrived in time to restrict damage to the roof of the structure.

Mentie Lewis, owner of the house, resides at Sterley, where he is employed by Randy Henderson. Lewis said he had planned to "fix up" the house and rent it.

The older-model station wagon which was vandalized Thursday night or early Friday morning belonged to Lewis's wife, Catherine Angline. The state safety inspection sticker was expired, but the vehicle had current license plates.

No one was living in the house, and electric service had been discontinued. The house was located one-half mile east of the Easton Blenden residence, about a mile east of Lockney.

SPS Files For Electric Rate Increase

Western Public Service Commission filed a request with the Texas Public Utility Commission for an increase in its retail rates. The request, if approved, would increase Southwestern's revenues by 14.78 percent.

Information outlining SPS's need was presented to city officials on January 28. Bert Ballengee, executive vice president for SPS, said the increase is needed for three primary reasons: inflation, the high cost of money and the cost of switching from gas to coal-fired power plants.

SPS also filed a similar request with the Texas Public Utility Commission for an increase in rates for the company's rural customers in Texas.

GAB Meeting Set Tuesday

Lockney Girls Athletics Boosters will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the high-school cafeteria.

The GAB will elect officers and make plans for the sports banquet and Little Dribblers basketball program. Little Dribblers commissioners Kenneth Holt and Eddie Teeter will present information at the meeting.

All Race Seeks School Trustee Position

WEDNESDAY IS LAST DAY TO FILE IN LOCAL ELECTIONS

There are two candidates for three spots on the Lockney city council. J.D. Copeland and Paul Reece are seeking re-election. Alderman Pat Frizzell, who is serving the unexpired term of former council member Jerry Perry, had not signed up for re-election by mid-morning Friday.

Persons not already registered to vote in Floyd County must register by March 5 to be eligible to vote in the April 5 elections. According to county tax assessor-collector Jonelle Fawver, residents are eligible to vote 30 days after registering in the county.

Les Ferguson and Francis Montandon are the candidates for election to the hospital district board of directors. Ferguson is seeking re-election to the hospital board. Helmut Quebe, whose term also expires next month, has served three terms and is not eligible for re-election.

Rodriguez Cafe To Open Here Tuesday

Rodriguez Cafe, located in the former location of Rogers Cafe on Main Street in Lockney, will open for business Tuesday. Ramona and Irma Rodriguez will operate the cafe, serving lunches, salads, fried chicken, hamburgers, Mexican food, and other dishes. The cafe will be open from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day except Saturday.

Public Notice

Southwestern Public Service Company, pursuant to law and the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of its intent to apply for a general rate increase affecting all classes of its retail consumers in the county of Floyd whose rates are subject to the original jurisdiction of either the municipality of Lockney or the Public Utility Commission of Texas. A copy of the Company's statement of intent and proposed tariffs has been filed with said municipality and said Commission.

The revised tariffs are proposed to become effective April 4, 1980. Applied to all affected consumers in the 31 counties comprising the Company's Texas service area, they will increase the Company's retail operating revenues by approximately 14.8 percent.

Important notice: The Case Company has extended its allocation of special incentive dollars to us through March, 1980, so we can continue to offer you big, big savings — hundreds (or thousands...maybe?) of dollars per tractor — on any new Case farm tractor. Exact price reduction depends on tractor model and your "bargaining" skill.

New Rules Mean More Meals For Day Care

More Children will be able to get federally subsidized meals through day care centers and homes as a result of new rules published today by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"We're making more money available to cover the costs of providing meals to children in day care," said Assistant Secretary Carol Tucker Foreman. "As a result, we'll be able to make more meals and better nutrition available to children from low-income families. More day care facilities will be able to join our federal food program and day care providers already using the program will have more money to provide meals."

The new rules for the department's child care food program implement a 1978 Law (Public Law 95-627). Under the rules, people providing child care in private homes can be reimbursed by the federal government for more of the costs they incur in providing meals. In the past, day care homes had to either accept a standard rate of payment or maintain complicated records of their expenses, Foreman said.

Day care homes join the child care program under the umbrella of a sponsoring organization, such as local government agencies or churches. Under the new rules, sponsoring organizations will receive additional money for their administrative costs. Previously money for their administrative expenses was tied to the number of low-income children in their programs. Now administrative money will be provided on the basis of the number of day care homes the sponsoring organization administers.

The new rules also make it easier for day care centers and homes to join the federal child care food program. To qualify for the food program, day care providers must be fully licensed by their state to provide child care. The new rules, however, make this licensing requirement more flexible.

If the state office which licenses day care providers has a backlog of pending applications or doesn't license a particular type of day care provider, the state office which administers the federal child care food program can determine whether or not the day care provider meets sufficient day care standards to join the federal food program.

In addition, sponsoring organizations for day care homes will be now able to get start-up money to expand the program. "The home program has been growing slowly in day care homes," said Foreman. "This seed money for sponsoring organizations will help them start up programs for their homes."

The new regulations also specify monitoring procedures for states administering the food program. Day care organizations with serious management deficiencies will be dropped.

In addition, once a year states will be required to notify all licensed or registered day care centers and homes about the availability of federal funds.

The child care food program now provides meals to 600,000 children. Homes and centers are reimbursed for meals they provide to children based on the type of meal served and the income of the children's families.

Crimes increasing at parks, camp

John Doe. Would you like to win $10,000, $50,000, or even $100,000 for only a $100.00 investment? All you need to do is send $50.00 to the person who sent you this welcomed letter and another $50.00 to the person listed below. Copy the name of the first person to the bottom of the letter, and mail the letter to the person of your own choice. Now just sit back and wait. Others will soon receive letters with your name, and they will shortly be receiving thousands of dollars!

Our attorneys point out that such chain letters are against the law whenever anything of value (such as money, bonds, etc.) is involved. However, chain letters in which prayers, poems, recipes and other similar items are exchanged are not illegal.

In Texas organizers and participants of the illegal chain letter schemes may be prosecuted by the U. S. Postal Service's fraud bureau, the County Attorney's Office, and the Consumer Protection and Antitrust Division of the Attorney General's Office. The postal service tries to discourage chain letters by prosecuting participants under federal lottery and mail fraud statutes. Persons who violate the mail fraud statutes may be punished by a $1,000.00 fine or two years in prison or both for a first offense, and up to five years in prison for a succeeding offense. If the mails are not used to perpetuate the scheme, then the County Attorney may prosecute under §32.48 of the Texas Penal Code which states that "a person commits an offense if he contrives, prepares, sets up, proposes, operates, promotes, or participates in an endless chain." Such an offense is a Class B misdemeanor and may be punishable by a $1,000.00 fine or 180 days in jail or both. The Consumer Protection and Antitrust Division of the Attorney General's Office may also prosecute participants of the scheme under the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Act. The Act declares chain referral sales and pyramid sales unlawful.

If you should receive a letter similar to the one shown above, do not give or send anyone money. Instead contact the three agencies noted above so that proper action can be taken against the organizers and participants of the chain letter scheme.

Cook of the week

Peach Ice Cream
 4 cups milk — scalded in the top of a double boiler.
 4 eggs — beaten — add 1 cup sugar — mix well.
 Pour scalded milk over eggs and sugar. Put back in double boiler, stir constantly. Cook until custard coats the spoon.
 Cool — add 1 teaspoon vanilla.
 Mash 1 quart fresh peeled peaches — lemon juice — add 2 cups sugar.
 Mix all the ingredients, put in a one gallon freezer can. Freeze (fresh apricots may be substituted for peaches. Both are delicious.)
 My mother, the late Mrs. G.R. (Stella) May taught this recipe to me.

Asparagus Casserole
 1 large can green asparagus spears (not cut)
 1/4 pound grated cheese
 1 small onion, grated
 1 small can chopped pimientos
 1/2 cup (or more, according to taste) chopped pecans
 Make a cream sauce, add grated cheese, pimientos, pecans, and onion. Layer asparagus and sauce in a baking dish. Sprinkle top with cracker crumbs. Bake at 350 degrees for about twenty minutes or until it bubbles well. Sprinkle with more grated cheese. Allow cheese to slightly melt.

Pound Cake
 Cream together:
 1 pound butter (2 cups, 4 sticks)
 1 pound sugar (2 1/4 cups)
 1 pound eggs (10 extra large, 12 medium sized)
 1 pound sifted flour (4 cups plain, 4 1/2 cups cake flour)
 Juice of 1/2 a lemon Beat eggs well — I have these at room temperature. Beat them until they fill the mixing bowl.

 Cream sugar and butter well. Alternate eggs and flour, then add lemon juice. Beat! Cook at 300 degrees for about one hour and forty-five minutes — until a light golden brown or until a toothpick inserted comes out clean.
 This is a very special recipe given to me by my late mother-in-law, Mrs. G.R. (Stella) May.

Peanut Patties
 3 cups white sugar
 1 1/2 cups white Karo
 1/2 cup water
 1 scant teaspoon cocoa (for color)
 Mix the above ingredients and let come to a rolling boil. Add 2 cups raw peanuts. Cook until it forms a good soft ball in cold water. Beat until it is creamy. Drop by spoonful on buttered waxed paper, mold in saucers or muffin tins.
 Beating this takes a long time and is very tiring but is well worth the effort. It is a delicious candy.
 This was a recipe which belonged to my mother, the late Mrs. T.J. (Katie) Cardinal. It was handed down to us by my aunt, Mrs. Tate Jones, who had kept it for years.

How can I keep ice from covering the windows on cold wintery mornings?
 Try adding 1/2 cup of rubbing alcohol to a quart of water and rub the inside of windows with a sponge that's been dipped in the solution. Then polish the windows with paper towels or newspaper, or you can moisten a cloth with glycerine and rub on the windows, leaving a little of the glycerine on the inside of the glass.

Ike and Lavon Johnson, know officially as Johnson Bros. auto repair, have purchased the City Garage from Garland Sams and will be set up and ready to go Saturday. Water superintendent Wilbur C. Miller of Lockney has been awarded a grade B Well Water Supply Operator's Certificate.

The city council voted recently to allow sufficient land to be taken from the city farm at the south edge of the city limits to make an airport for small planes.

Maurice Goodwin of Afton, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shelton of Lockney, was seriously hurt Monday of this week when he fell into a conveyor at a gin where he is manager.

February 26, 1959 —

Balloting was being completed Wednesday on five new directors for the Lockney Chamber of Commerce and Board of Development. President Claude Brown said Wednesday that an organizational meeting will be held Monday morning at Golden's Cafe at which time new officers will be elected. Retiring directors are Brown, Kelton Shaw, Ike Johnson, R.C. Mitchell and J.B. Seale. Mayor J.E. Cox and Alderman Kelton Shaw will both seek re-election in the city election set for Tuesday, April 7th. The Beacon was told this week. Alderman Jimmie Hodel said Wednesday that he was "undecided" about running again. Another vacancy will also have to be filled, that of Alderman Charles Baxter, who resigned recently effective April 7. Mr. Baxter's term has another year to run. Mrs. J.D. Copeland of Lockney, third grade teacher in Lockney schools, was elected president of the Floyd County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association in a meeting of the membership here Monday evening.

Tarleton offers fun courses for the non-music major

STEPHENVILLE — By signing up for certain courses, Tarleton State University students may be fulfilling a lifelong dream of learning a musical instrument or improving their vocal ability.

Three classes, piano, guitar and voice, are offered to students this spring, regardless of their major.

The piano major is offered for students with little or no musical background. "By mastering a few chords," says music professor Gregory Pike, "virtually every pop tune becomes accessible to the beginning piano student."

The same philosophy underlies the course design in guitar and voice. All three courses are taught for the students' enjoyment and relaxation.

Is it odd to find these twenty-four words here in your newspaper? But here they are . . . centuries old, out of the enthralled mind of a man who looked at a mountain, at the rugged earth and the vast sky above, at time, at eternity.

Do his words belong among the headlines and datelines, the terse reports of earth-shaking events? Should they compete for our attention with all the goods and services we'd like to buy?

Well this man made a remarkable discovery: he did not simply arrive at the fact of Divine creation. Nor did he merely proclaim the existence and endless reign of God. He spoke to God! He knew Him!

Have our headlines yet reported a greater discovery?

WOODBURNING STOVES

Can you afford next winter's fuel costs? Although Winter, 1979 wasn't a harsh one, there's no guarantee for future mild winters — or stable fuel costs.

Why woodburners? Many burn wood to keep fuel costs down, while others want a wood stove as a backup in case of power failure or fuel shortages.

In shopping for a new woodburning stove, seek out a reputable dealer who can answer you questions and help you choose a unit to fit your heating needs.

Antique stoves may have strong appeal, but the watchword is "buyer, beware." After years of use, antique cast-iron stoves are likely brittle.

Today's "hottest" models are those that look like the old-fashioned wood stoves, or you can find those with a modern touch that look like electric or gas heaters.

One caution on air-tight units, though: there's some question of their safety, since the low-burning wood gives off gases which form creosote deposits in the chimney.

FARM & RANCH NEWS

U.S. Wheat Sets Initial Program Directions

The Executive Committee of U.S. WHEAT ASSOCIATES met in Washington, D.C. this week, the first such meeting of the producer market development organization since it was formed a month ago with the merger of Great Plains Wheat, Inc. and Western Wheat Associates. Leo Witkowski of Hereford, participated in the Executive Committee meeting as chairman of the Texas Wheat Producers Board, a supporting member of U.S. WHEAT. According to Witkowski, the primary purpose of the Executive Committee meeting was to review the progress in consolidating the two former organizations and to provide initial policy direction to the combined staffs.

"The Executive Committee approved a tentative staffing pattern for U.S. WHEAT ASSOCIATES, subject to the approval of the President/Chief Executive Officer, a position expected to be filled in late March," Witkowski stated. The Committee also gave preliminary approval to the proposed budget for the new organization for the 1980-81 fiscal year beginning in July reflecting an increased level of market development efforts by producers. The budget will be reviewed and adopted by the full Board of Directors at the next scheduled meeting to be held March 24-26 in Washington, D.C.

In a meeting with Secretary of Agriculture Bergland, the farmer-board members reaffirmed U.S. WHEAT'S strong commitment to the development of expanded export markets for wheat and other agricultural commodities. They also expressed concern that, despite verbal commitments by administration officials toward greater emphasis on exports, especially in light of the embargo of grain shipments to the Soviet Union, very little concrete action has been taken by government to strengthen the market development programs.

The Texas Wheat leader stated, "U.S. WHEAT urged Secretary Bergland and the National Association of Wheat Growers, to actively seek improvements in the available marketing tools so necessary for the expansion of U.S. grain abroad. Among the issues being supported by U.S. WHEAT are an increase in both the level of funding and the flexibility for PL 480 and Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) export financing programs, as well as an increase in government financial support for export market development activities to match the increasing investment from the wheat producers."

Witkowski stated that U.S. WHEAT ASSOCIATES also reaffirmed its commitment to carry forward its petition initiated by Great Plains Wheat with the support of Western Wheat Associates, against the European Communities' export subsidy program. The validity of the wheat farmers' legal complaint against the European Community was earlier accepted by the U.S. Government and action must be taken on the complaint by the end of July.

According to Witkowski, the Executive Committee concluded with the call for the rapid expansion of the U.S. WHEAT information program to provide the U.S. wheat farmer and foreign customers with timely information on the wheat situation and the outlook for world trade. This would begin with the employment of a "Director of Information" to coordinate and expand on the work previously carried out by the two merged organizations.

U.S. WHEAT ASSOCIATES is the consolidation of WWA and GPW, a foreign market development organization supported by wheat producers through their respective state wheat boards and commissions in Colorado, Kansas, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Washington and Wyoming. In addition to the central office in Washington, D.C., U.S. WHEAT maintains foreign regional offices to promote markets for wheat in Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East.

Texas producers support foreign market development programs of U.S. WHEAT through the Texas Wheat Producers Board by a 1/2 cent per bushel self-assessment on their production delivered to country elevators. Since such work was initiated by the Board in 1971, the value of wheat in Texas has increased from $70 million to $552 million.

"One question in parting - who audits yours?"

Farm Bureau News Summary

CONSUMER PROGRAMS

"We expect this action to result in improved and more effective Federal consumer programs, consumer more responsive to the needs and wishes of the public."

This statement is quoted from page 7697, FEDERAL REGISTER, 2-4-80 with regard to Consumer Affairs Council draft consumer programs.

If government programs are used to provide economic wishes of the public, that government will surely be a socialist government will manage the affairs of the public and it will be a government that divides the poverty. This is based on the fundamental fact that government has nothing except what it takes away from the people, less the cost of taking away and giving back. In addition to the cost of taking and giving, there is always the cost of dishonest administrators and users.

CAPPER-VOLSTEAD REGULATIONS

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced final rules of practice governing cease and desist proceedings under Section 2 of the Capper-Volstead Act which was approved by Congress in 1922 and has not been amended since that date. The stated purpose of the act is to authorize association of producers of agricultural products to collectively bargain and contract. The Act is composed of two basic sections. Section 1 outlines what these associations can do and Section 2 designates the responsibility of the Secretary of Agriculture in determining the degree to which associations may be exempt from anti-trust laws.

In summary, the rules referred to above are recorded in the FEDERAL REGISTER of January 29, 1980, beginning on page 6587. The purpose of the rules are to regulate action taken by the Secretary of Agriculture in controlling the extent to which cooperative marketing associations are exempt from the anti-trust laws.

Copies of the rules are available in this office.

FARM LABOR UNIONIZATION

The National Right to Work Legal Defense Foundation news release reports from Washington on February 8, 1980 that four California farm workers are suing in a California Superior Court Imperial labor law. The farm workers claim that the California law allows Cesar Chavez' United Farm Workers Union to force them into union membership in violation of their constitutional rights.

PARITY

USDA reports the January 15, 1980 parity ratio at 64 compared to January 15, 1979 parity ratio of 73. Adjusted parity ratio for January 15, 1980 is reported at 65 (this figure includes government payments) compared to 73 a year ago.

Based on the government's 1967 index, the January 1980 parity is reported at 88 compared to 99 a year ago.

MEDICAL INSURANCE REGULATIONS

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL of February 6, 1980 reported that the Federal Trade Commission has decided to move cautiously on limiting the control doctors have over Blue Shield and similar medical plans. The panel voted merely to seek comments on whether a rule is needed and how inclusive it should be. The U.S. Congress is now considering legislation designed to trim the Federal Trade Commission's power in this area.

TRANSPORTATION REGULATIONS

The Railroad Commission of Texas has announced its intention to amend rules and regulations designed to remove any financial incentive to overload a truck.

The new proposal is to prohibit truckers from charging more than the applicable rate multiplied by the maximum weight allowed.

The regulation would also make the same limitation with regard to paying drivers. In other words, if a driver is paid on the basis of the percentage of the gross revenue for each shipment, payment would be limited to the percentage times the authorized charges outlined above. (TEXAS REGISTER, 2-12-80)

LAND TAXES

Senator Bill Roth of Delaware, has introduced legislation (S.208) designed to require foreigners who buy and sell real estate in the United States to pay taxes on the profits they make from such sales.

One of the primary problems with foreigners owning American land is tax advantage. This bill has been approved by the U.S. Senate Finance Committee.

The U.S. government negotiates treaties with most countries and would be some conflicts with treaties and any bill seeking to change the situation.

MEXICO'S TOMATO PRODUCTION

Despite limited availability of capital, and some other inputs, tomato producers in Baja California are boosting exports to the United States.

Although tomato production in California is lower than in Baja California, the peninsula is a major supplier to northern Mexico and the United States from the early fall. While tomatoes in California are competitive with those in the United States generally do not interfere with late fall to early spring exports to the United States.

Tomatoes were grown in California and exported to the United States as early as the 1930's. Significant quantities were exported until the 1950's. Planned production has risen since then, but growth has been pronounced in the past 5 years. Estimates for the 1979 season plantings at 3,300 hectares, equals 2.471 acres per hectare at 120,000 metric tons, and 40,000 tons. (FOREIGN AGRICULTURE CIRCULAR, Jan. 1980)

CROP INSURANCE

The U.S. House of Representatives February 13, 1980, approved a call vote of 202 to 140 a bill to expand government crop insurance program for farmers with the 1981 crop year.

Similar legislation is pending in the Senate.

CASH REPLACES STAMPS

Effective April 1, 1980, disabled persons eligible for stamps will get cash instead of stamps in the following counties: Moore County, North Carolina; Dillon, Darlington, and Florence, South Carolina; and Logan, Boone, and Boone, West Virginia.

In the areas named above, all members are at least 18 or are participating in the voluntary security income program check for the amount of their allotment each month.

GASOHOL

Gasohol is a trademarked name for a state of Nebraska for a product created when ethanol and ethyl alcohol are blended to 1 ratio. (FEDERAL REGISTER, 2-14-80, p. 10283)

CLEANING UP THE ENVIRONMENT

In a recent speech at the College in Michigan, Jay Byrnes, Chairman of the Anwar Foundation put the environmental movement in proper perspective.

"The doomsayers are wrong about the world polluting business. Despite all the talk of higher levels of industrial technology have tended to reduce environmental pollution rather than increase it. A single car a mile emits only 300 grams of solid pollutant and 300 grams of an automobile going the same distance emits only 6 grams of pollutants. This is progress." (Environmental Program Letter, February, 1980)

Choosing A Home

When choosing a home, the first look for color is white or creamy-yellow that is pure white with a greenish tinge indicating that it was picked for a four ounce portion of dew melon containing 40 calories.

Cattle Scabies Outbreaks Reported In 11 States

Prosopoc cattle scabies continues to plague the cattle business. F.J. Mulhern administrator of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Inspection Service, said today.

This past January, Mulhern said, there were 59 scabies outbreaks in 11 states. He listed the cases:

- Arizona—one case in Coconino county.
- Idaho—one case in Payette county.
- Iowa—one case each in Cherokee, Dickinson, Mitchell, Palo Alto and Sioux counties.
- Illinois—one case in Fulton County.
- Kansas—one case each in Hamilton, Hodgeman, Ness, Rush and Scott counties; two each in Edwards, Ford and Haskell counties; three in Meade county; four in Finney county.
- Minnesota—two cases in Brown county.
- Nebraska—one case each in Boyd, Box Butte, Dundy, Fillmore, Hall and Rock counties.
- New Mexico—one case each in Colfax and Roosevelt counties.
- Oklahoma—one case each in Beaver, Beckham, Cimarron and Texas counties; two each in Blaine and Major counties.
- South Dakota—one case each in Aurora, Lincoln, Minnehaha, and Turner counties.

Texas—one case each in Dallam, Donley, Hall, Hartley, Parmer, Potter and Swisher counties; four in Deaf Smith county.

January's 59 outbreaks compare with the same number reported in January a year ago, and 41 last December. Nationwide for fiscal 1980, the total stands at 126 cases reported, the same as for this time as last year.

Scabies has long been a problem in some areas of the Southwest, said Mulhern, but now it is appearing at an alarming rate in many midwestern and south central plains states. He said the only way cattlemen can keep scabies outbreaks down and prevent its spread is to check herds regularly and refrain from mixing newly acquired cattle with already established herds.

A tiny, parasitic mite causes scabies. The mite punctures the skin of cattle to feed on body fluids released from the wounds. The mites spread by contact between animals. They are killed by dipping infested animals in pesticides approved by the USDA under state or federal supervision.

Mites cause serious economic losses to cattlemen and feedlot operators but do not affect the wholesomeness of meat, said Mulhern. Therefore, he said, infested and exposed herds are placed under quarantine until the animals are treated and found free of the disease.

COTTON TODAY

A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

COTTON LEADERS NAMED:

Cotton men from the Southwest were elected to key leadership positions at the recent National Cotton Council annual meeting. Top spot went to Herman A. Probst, Anson, who was named president of the Beltwide organization.

The 1980 board of directors includes Wiley Felty, Altus, Okla.; Earl Jalufka, Robstown; Eugene B. Smith, Jr., Raymond V. Cooper, and Peter Hirschfeld, Dallas; Rex Steele, Fort Worth; and Rex McKinney, Lubbock.

Lloyd Cline, Lamesa, was elected secretary of the Council's Producer Steering Committee. Wiley Felty was named a regional director, and David Stratton, Clinton, Okla., and W.B. Criswell, Idalou, are state producer chairmen.

Officers of the Texas State Unit of the Council are Jerry Harris, Lamesa, chairman; Eugene B. Smith, Jr., vice chairman; and Adolph Hanslik, Lubbock, secretary. Elected to these positions in Oklahoma are Jack Myers, Snyder; A.G. Murphy, Guthrie; and Wayne Boothe, Cordell.

presented a proposal for $9 million over 24-month period for research on the problem. Bergland complimented the industry highly, stating, "You have acted responsibly and we are going to help." The secretary indicated that he would place a high priority on the cotton dust problem and would have his top research people examine the industry proposal and would seek to obtain matching funds for the industry-backed research.

COTTON LAUDED:

Strong buyer-seller relationships between U.S. cotton exporters and Chinese officials are paying off with record sales already topping 2 million bales this year. U.S. Ambassador Leonard Woodcock, in a recorded message from Peking to the National Cotton Council's annual meeting, said American cotton now has a major share of China's raw cotton import market. He said situation reflects the effectiveness of activities carried out by Cotton Council International with Chinatex, the government agency which purchases all of China's raw cotton imports. He suggested that these marketing activities be continued and expanded to maintain and service the important Chinese market.

AND COTTON YESTERDAY:

This year is the 90th anniversary of the movement of the boll weevil across the Texas border from Mexico.

Hollis and Sue Jones (left and center) receive their award as the Texas Dairy Queen Trade Association's members who "Opened the Most New Stores and Made the Largest Expansion in Number of Stores in 1979." James V. Burks (right), 1980 TDQTA convention chairman, makes the presentation.

Joneses Receive Dairy Queen Award

Hollis and Sue Jones of Decatur, owners of Hollis Jones Dairy Queen Restaurants, have been honored with a special award by the Texas Dairy Queen Trade Association as the TDQTA members who "Opened the Most New Stores and Made the Largest Expansion in Number of Stores in 1979."

A plaque, made in the shape of the state of Texas, was presented to the Joneses as part of the festivities at the 1980 Texas Dairy Queen Trade Association Convention held this year in San Antonio.

James V. Burks of Texarkana, chairman of the 1980 TDQTA Convention Committee, is pictured on the right making the presentation to the Joneses.

The Joneses now are owners of 27 Dairy Queen restaurants including two DQs each in Decatur, Quana and Vernon and one DQ each in Claude, Crosbyton, Denver City, Earth, Floydada, Fritch, Idalou, Padu- ney, Morton, Olton, Paducah, Ralls, Rhome, Roanoke, Seagraves, Shallowater, Slatt, Smetana, Sunny, Wellington and Wolfborth.

The Texas Dairy Queen Trade Association is the largest organization of its type in the nation. Nearly 1,000 DQ restaurants are located in the state, approximately one-fourth of the total 4,500 Dairy Queens worldwide today.
