DAR honors area students

Senior students from high schools who have been outstanding in leadership, dependability, service and patriotism have been selected by their schools as entrants in the Mary McCoy Baines DAR Good Citizen Award Contest.

The winner of the local Chapter will be entered in the state contest and the winner will receive a $100 award and their entry sent to the national contest in Washington where the first place winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship.

Each student and their parents and sponsors will be honored by the Mary McCoy Baines Chapter, February 11, 1981 in Plainview, at the annual Washington Tea.

Each student will be presented a DAR pin and good citizen certificate.

The following students will receive recognition for their outstanding work at school, church, community, and club work: Bradley Bowen of Abertathy, Julie Ferguson of Lockney, Evan N. Kramer of Plainview, Diana Maldonado of Petersburg, Deanna Merritt of Dimmitt, Melissa Morren of Floydada, Carolina Perez of Julia and Kelli Alana Smith of Oton. The winners will be announced the last week of January.

Julie Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson of Lockney, was selected as good citizen of the Lockney High School senior class to enter the Mary McCoy Baines Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen contest.

She was chosen for her dependability, patriotism, school activities, church and home life.

Julie has been queen of the Lockney Longhorns football team, a band member, junior class marshal, student class representative National Honor Society president, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

She enjoys twirling, basketball, cross-country running and track, working in her church, helping her mother in the home and coaching The Little Dribblers Basketball Team.

Her future plans include college, majoring in biology or physical education.

Melissa Morren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Morren of Floydada, has been selected as senior good citizen of Floydada High School.

She is a busy young lady in school where she has held offices in the flag corps, senior class, and National Honor Society, played in the band four years, annual staff member, and the drama club.

Melissa works at Bishop Ramsey Pharmacy and enjoys helping the elderly in the nursing home.

At the present her college plans are indefinite.

Congressional Comment

Charles W. Stenholm

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Students and teachers interested in participating in the second summer internship program sponsored by Congressman Charles W. Stenholm can pick up applications at the Congressman's Abilene District Office in the Federal Building.

Applications for the program, which will include two Omar Burleson Congressional Interns and two Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Interns, must be postmarked by midnight, February 14, and mailed to the Abilene office.

The interns selected will receive full Congressional Office experience at Stenholm's Washington office, with one intern from each program to serve during June or July of this year.

"After the overwhelming success evidenced by our first internships last year, I had no hesitation in sponsoring the program again," Stenholm said. "The four young people who served during the initial program were truly outstanding workers and I feel that the experience they received will serve them well in the future, whether in a government-related field or as private citizens."

Selection for the internships is made by a District-wide seven-person selection committee, chaired by former Congressman Omar Burleson.

Applicants for the Burleson internships must be 18 years of age at the time he or she is in Washington, allowing high school seniors who have enrolled in an institute of higher learning to be eligible. Others eligible include any student or graduate student who was enrolled during the preceding academic year at any of the District colleges, universities or technical institutes, or any school, if the person's home of record is within the District.

Also eligible are teachers, counselors or administrators in any District elementary, middle school, junior high or high school or any instructor of any grade of professorship or administrator of any institution of higher learning within the District. The only requirement is that the person be involved actively in working with students.

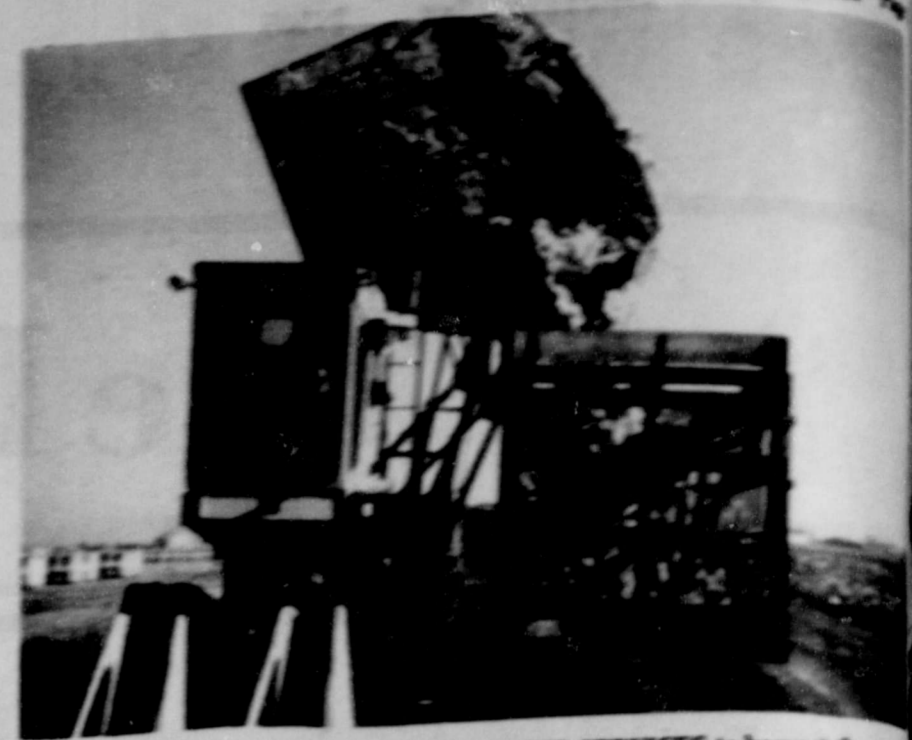

Requirements for the LBJ interns are similar, but teachers must be involved in government or social studies at a secondary or post secondary school in the District.

Formal applications and further details may be obtained from the Abilene District Congressional Office, P.O. Box 1101, Abilene, Texas 79604, or by calling AC 915-673-7221.

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher has found something Congressional to approve, maybe.

A Congressman has come up with a plan to overcome the postal system's one-billion-dollar-a-year loss. He said he thought it up while taking a shower. "I do my best thinking while showering," he said.

If the plan works, right off you can see this is a clear indication that Congressmen ought to take more showers. I don't know why the post office is supposed to do any better financially than the automobile industry or farm-

Lockney men help friend

BY EDITH COOPER

It was an early Christmas present for Mrs. Linnie Abbott, when a group of friends and neighbors gathered at her farm to harvest 50 acres of cotton.

The job was completed in three or four hours. The men brought trailers, pickups, six strippers and the necessary equipment to do the job.

Paul Tueton organized and supervised the crew of men

ers, but note the less it's losing a little over a billion a year and this Congressman says the way to end this is to sell advertising space on postage stamps.

He says plenty of companies would pay 20 cents per stamp to get their advertising message on it, and with the stamps still costing the rest of us 15 cents apiece, you can see the post office would become a business worth business stock in.

There are those who say big companies wouldn't buy space on a postage stamp. Naturally you wouldn't run grocery specials on a stamp. Some people take so long to answer their mail the prices would be out of date. And jeans wouldn't work. The movie star's picture wouldn't show up big enough.

But there are some advertising geniuses in television who'd jump at the chance. You take the guy who thinks a 60-second spot costing $150,000 on TV showing 10 helicopters lowering 10 pickup trucks on to a city parking lot will sell pickups, and he'd jump at the chance to buy space on a postage stamp, maybe on both sides. Pre-

Marble - Brock exchange double-ring vows

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brock are at home in Hart following their January 2 marriage in the First Baptist Church in Hart. The bride is the former Wanda Marble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johns Cox, of Lockney. Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Parr of Friona. Officiating for the 6:00 p.m. double-ring ceremony was Rev. Don Blackman, pastor of First Baptist Church in O'Donnell.

The altar area featured twin candelabra entwined with greenery and soft pink flowers and pink tapers. Miss Julie Mitchell of Lubbock served as candlelighter.

Mrs. James Campbell, organist, presented selected wedding music throughout the ceremony and accompanied vocalists, Mrs. Don Blackman, of O'Donnell and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Uphaw, of Hart.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Jerry Allen, of Hart, and Jim Dixon of Friona. Ushers were the couple's sons, Greg Brock of Canyon, Larry Marble of Lubbock and Marlin Marble of Hart. Miss Rene Brock of Canyon, the groom's daughter, registered guests.

A reception was held in the couple's home, 214 Ave. C, in Hart.

A long yellow cloth covered the serving table which featured a bouquet of yellow roses in a brass vase. The traditional wedding cake decorated with yellow roses was served with banana punch from milkglass appointments. Presiding at the table were the bride's sisters, Mrs. Freddie Ivy of

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

The residents are ready to slow down and rest after the long holidays. Several of the residents went home for Christmas.

Mr. Lawrence went to Matador and spent Christmas with his children. Mrs. Velva Pricer spent Christmas in Oklahoma City with her daughter and family. Juanita Bailey was in Matador with her family. Others spending Christmas out were Mr. Ray Reed, Docia Manning, A.G. Eubanks, W.C. Cates, Ollie Miracle, Verna McSwain and Francis Childs and others I'm sure, but I didn't hear about those.

I spent Christmas with my mother, Mrs. Gladys Manshuck, in Carthage, Texas. I think I gained five pounds in the week I was there. The weather was so nice for traveling, but it's good to be back.

We would like to thank Alton Rose and Edell Moore for the apples and oranges. The residents really enjoyed them.

Thanks also to Elizabeth Armstrong, Helen Solomon, and Emma Lou Whitaker for the party snacks and cake they gave the staff. Hazel Bradley brought snacks to the home over the holidays. Bud Newell brought a cake.

We appreciate everyone's thoughtfulness during the holidays and would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year.

Icy Biggs started the New Year off right by eating black eyed peas with her daughter, Ella, and son-in-law, Maurice Goodwin of Lubbock.

Those enjoying a bus ride to the Country Club and Baptist Assembly were Emmitt Lawrence, Verna McSwain, W.C. Cates, Iva Simpson, Juanita Bailey, Hazel Ginn and Geneda Roberts.

Our visitors this week were Maurice and Ella Goodwin, Vonceil Colston, Mrs. J.D. Hart, Doris Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Hartness, Mrs. McNeely, Harvey Tardy, Flo Ella Jarboe, Melisa Martin, Maurice and Ella Goodwin, Helen Johnson, Lois Jones, Marie Baxter, Beulah Denison, Charley Berry, Burmah Probasco, Otis and Dana Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. P.L. VERSATILE VELOUR

Versatile velour knits can range from elegant to sporty, depending on the selection of pattern style. Velours make excellent jogging suits yet become the perfect evening dress for a special occasion.

When selecting velour, check the label for fiber content and recommended care. Ask for a care label to sew into the finished garment. When selecting a pattern, notice the suggested fabrics on the envelope and in the pattern book.

Before sewing, preshrink the fabric by washing it as you would the final garment or have it dry cleaned. This helps "relax" the fabric and remove chemical residue which can cause skipped stitches when sewing.

Use the "with nap" directions on the instruction sheet for layout. All pattern pieces should go the same direction, either with the nap or against it. When cut with the nap, the fabric will look smooth and shiny. The surface will look darker and rougher when cut against the nap. Decide which appearance you like best, and cut all pieces going that direction. Consider using pattern weights instead of pins to hold the pattern in place. Pins often get lost in the pile. Use sharp shears to cut out pattern pieces. Transfer markings with chalk or use tailor's tacks.

Stitch with a straight stitch or narrow zig zag in direction of nap. To finish seams, press to one side and make a second row of straight or zig zag stitches. Trim excess allowance to prevent rolling. If using fusible interfacing, test the results on a fabric scrap. The fusing process may crush the pile, so a sew-in interfacing may work better.

Nylon or polyester zippers which are lightweight, strong and flexible are recommended for stretch velours. Before hemming a garment, let it hang for 24 hours in case stretching occurs. Then level and hem the garment stretch lace, tape or sew one-fourth inch from edge and catch stitch. Velour is hard to topstitch on, but if carefully done, hems can be double topstitched.

The Lockney Lady Horns, after compiling a sparkling 15-5 non-conference record, open conference play against Abernathy at Abernathy tomorrow night.

The Lady Horns are seeking their third consecutive district 3-3A title after posting an 8-1 record in conference play last season. That one loss came at the hands of Abernathy. The Lady Horns beat Abernathy in two of three match ups last year.

The Lady Horns are led by eight returning letterwomen: seniors Rebecca Evans, Julie Rizzell, Penny Sterling, Tammy Hayes, Rosalind Hill, Julie Ferguson and her sister Clark plus sophomore Connie Coffman.

Coach Marsha Sharp says the conference opener may be the biggest game of the

The Lockney Longhorns are on their quest for the district 3-3A basketball title tomorrow night in Abernathy with a new coach and an improved look.

The Longhorns wound up their non-conference play with a 10-9 record. Going into district play they've already surpassed the seven wins they won all of last season.

New coach Mike Lebby is at the helm of a team which posted a 3-5 district mark last year and has just three returning lettermen this season, Jeff McCormick, John Cummings and Nick Christian.

WINTER BOATING TIPS

Most of the Texas water skiers have stored their gear until next spring. There are a few hardy boaters found cruising around on a warm day along with the waterfowl hunters and winter fishermen and these individuals should be aware of the increased danger of cold water.

Cold weather compounds the chances for a boater to commit a boating error or mistake. Winter winds, low temperatures, ice and cold hands go together to make a potential accident.

Capsize is the number one killer in boating accidents and staying with the boat until rescued is recommended by both the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and the U.S. Coast Guard officials. Most small toward fuel savings and, in many cases, increased performance. Research by agricultural engineers at a leading midwestern university has shown that the fuel consumption of 50 randomly selected tractors was reduced by 14.5 percent simply by tuning the engines and keeping them in tune. As an added bonus, the tractors yielded an 11 percent increase in horsepower. Diesel engines should get a dynamometer check at least annually and fuel injection systems checked by the dealer if horsepower is down. But, don't stop there. Fuel savings can also be realized by maintaining sharp cutting edges on tillage and harvesting equipment, by avoiding excessive depth when tilling, by making sure equipment is hitched properly, by checking tire inflation often. Next week, some fuel saving tips from the driver's seat.

Lady Horns seek crown

The Lockney Lady Horns, compiling a sparkling non-conference record, will play against Abernathy at Abernathy tomorrow night.

The Lady Horns are seeking their third consecutive district 3-3A title after posting an 8-1 record in conference play last season. That loss came at the hands of Abernathy. The Lady Horns beat Abernathy in two previous match ups last year. The Lady Horns are led by returning letterwomen: Rebecca Evans, Julie Zell, Penny Sterling, Amy Hayes, Rosalind Julie Ferguson and Trise Clark plus sophomore Connie Coffman.

Coach Marsha Sharp says conference opener may be the biggest game of the season. Abernathy has five starting girls who began playing varsity ball in their sophomore year and who are now seniors.

Lockney has four starters...Evans, Frizzell, Sterling and Hayes...who also began playing in their sophomore years and who are now seniors. During the past two years Lockney has compiled a 4-2 record against Abernathy. Tomorrow night's game is a renewal of the competition between the nine girls.

Sharp says that Abernathy poses the biggest obstacle in the Lady Horns' quest for a third straight district crown. The other four teams in the district, Floydada, Childress, Tulia and Idalou, are fairly much even, Sharp says, although Tulia may be the strongest of the four.

Sharp says she's "real pleased," with the performance of the Lady Horns in non-conference play.

"We got off on a bad note," Sharp says. "Our offense was sluggish, but it has steadily improved to where it's as good as our defense is now. Against Slaton last week we shot 52 percent from the field and 79 percent from the free throw line. That was undoubtedly our best performance of the season and it sure gave us a boost."

Abernathy was the only team to post a better record than the Lady Horns in non-conference play.

"The chances for a victory for Lockney in the conference opener tomorrow night? "Good," says coach Sharp.

Boys open district play

The Lockney Longhorns are in their quest for the district 3-3A basketball title when they open their season tonight in Abernathy with a new coach and an new look.

The Longhorns wound up their non-conference play with a 10-9 record. Going into district play they've surpassed the seven teams they won all of last season.

Coach Mike Lebby is the helm of a team which posted a 3-5 district mark last season and has just three returning lettermen this season. Jeff McCormick, John Cummings and Nick Chris-

"We've improved a bunch," Lebby says of the non-conference play. "We've been inconsistent, but when we get rolling we've got a real good ball club."

Lebby says if the Longhorns have a major weakness it's a lack of depth. The Horns carry nine players, most others carry 12 to 15.

Abernathy is not only the defending district 3-3A champion but the state 3-3A title-holder.

And Abernathy is not the only top-ranked team in district 3-3A. Childress and Tulia are also among the top 20 teams in the state and the Longhorns must face them also over the next two weeks.

Despite the ferocious district competition, Lebby says he believes a district title is a possibility for the Longhorns.

"If we can play solid ball, we can beat anyone on any given night," Lebby says.

"I think we can do it and if our kids believe they can, then we've got a chance. They've got a lack of confidence because it's been a long-time since we've won."

"But if they believe they can do it," Lebby says, "that's half the battle."

WINTER BOATING TIPS

Most of the Texas water sportsmen have stored their gear away for the winter. There are a few hardy boaters found cruising around on a warm day along with the waterfowl hunters and winter fishermen and these individuals should be aware of the increased danger of cold weather.

Cold weather compounds the chances for a boater to commit a boating error or mistake. Winter winds, low temperatures, ice and cold clouds go together to make a potential accident.

Capsizing is the number one killer in boating accidents and staying with the boat until rescued is recommended by both the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and the U.S. Coast Guard officials. Most small boats will continue to float even when upside down or full of water due to the extra flotation built into the craft.

Winter boating can be fun if you take into account the extra danger of cold water and are prepared for the trip.

Advise someone of your destination on a large lake and give the approximate time you will return from your water activities. This will alert a rescue team if you fail to return.

LUBBOCK — A new pamphlet explaining the "Why and How" of waterfowl regulations has just been released by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The publication goes into the factors determining hunting seasons and bag limits and the results of post-season hunting surveys such as the sandhill crane questionnaire. They also discuss the relationship between nesting surveys and waterfowl hunting. One part of the report covers waterfowl banding and the use of satellites used to tell biologists about goose habitat.

Boys lose 68-44

Poor first quarter cost 'Horns victory

The Lockney Longhorns lost to Dimmitt, 68-44, at Dimmitt in their last non-conference game of the year.

The 'Horns, who open their district 3-3A play tomorrow night against Abernathy in Abernathy, finished their non-conference play with a 10-9 mark.

The Longhorns rallied in the second half, scoring 34 points to Dimmitt's 36. But after the embarrassing first half, it was too little too late.

"Our boys were really up tight in the first half," coach Mike Lebby said. "They loosened up in the second half and played them fairly even."

John Cummings was the only Longhorn in double figures, with 22 points.

Lady Horns lose to Dimmitt, 56-52

The Lockney Lady Horns dropped their last non-conference game of the season, losing 56-52 to Dimmitt at Dimmitt.

Dimmitt won the game at the foul line, going to the free throw mark 17 times while Lockney went to the foul line just seven times.

"We played poorly on defense," coach Marsha Sharp said afterward. "I don't think we were really prepared. We might have been looking ahead to Abernathy Friday night."

The Lady Horns open their conference schedule against Abernathy at Abernathy tomorrow night.

Rebecca Evans was high scorer for the Lady Horns, sinking 21 points for her best performance of the year. She hit 10 of 15 from the field for a blistering 67 percent.

Connie Coffman had 15 points for Lockney which wound up with a 16-5 non-conference mark.

There are all kinds of checks, you know. Plain checks. Fancy checks. Beige checks. Blue checks. Even checks with palm trees and other pretty pictures.

Now, we love palm trees. But in these inflationary times, we think the prettiest pictures around are portraits. Of guys like George and Abe and good old Andy Jackson.

That's the reason for our new NOW account, the checking account that pays you for putting your money in it.

Of course, to keep it working like a checking account but earning interest like a savings account isn't duck soup. It takes some fancy figuring and special conditions. Things like minimum balance, average balance, and number of transactions.

So it makes more than a little sense to go to the people with the most practice. Us. We're A Full Service Bank, the home of modern checking, and we've got it down to a science. Isn't that beautiful?

DECA STUDENTS SPORT NEW JACKETS which arrived this week.

Students able to receive college aid

Most students, regardless of scholastic achievement or financial need, can and do qualify for various forms and amounts of financial aid. The problem, according to Student College Aid, a nationwide computerized scholarship locator service, located at 3641 Deal Street, Houston, Texas, is that the students just don't know that they qualify. That is why last year alone one hundred thirty-five million dollars of student financial aid went unused.

The student fills out a data form requesting information about religion, ethnic background, special interests, etc. This data is read into a large computer crammed with information about a quarter of a million possible sources of financial aid. This aid comes from unions, philanthropic organizations, corporations, colleges and other public and private organizations. The student then receives a computer print out listing up to 25 potential scholarships, grants or loans. In fact, Student College Aid is so sure that it can find sources of funds for students ready to enter college or students in undergraduate college that it makes a money back guarantee. They guarantee to find at least five sources of financial aid for which the student is eligible to apply. Otherwise, their payment is refunded along with any sources of funds discovered for the student. Most students receive 10 to 15 listings valued at $10,000 to $15,000. The computer print out that the student receives lists the names and addresses of the donors, the amount and length of time of the awards, matching qualifications, etc. — everything the student needs to know in order to apply for the funds.

DECA students receive jackets

New DECA jackets arrived this week and were handed out to students by group sponsor, Gene Moore. The jackets were paid for by two projects that all 26 of the DECA students participated in. The light bulb sale was a success with Leslie Strickland earning the top salesman award and Rose DeLeon coming in second while Carmen Powell sold the third highest amount. The second project was the annual Mexican Dinner. Besides the jackets, the class second in the school drive at Christmas. They also donated to Student Council to buy toys for needy. They will use some project money to go on a trip to contest for the who will be participant. At the end of the year the class will annual employee appreciation banquet.

Miss Jody Smith, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Choise Smith, recently showed her 11 lambs at the Vernon stock show and brought home a third place ribbon for a fine wool lamb. She was in Odessa last week. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hop and sons, Mike and Eg, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Pete Calloway of Lubbock, Mr. Sid Brown, Mrs. Marie Hansen, and Mrs. Lodie Cyfert of Floydada a combined birthday party for Mr. Brown and Christ-ine Eve tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Breed San Antonio visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Odell during the Christmas holidays. They went down to visit their neighbors, the Howard Bishops, who also returned the visit. Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams were guests of the Williams family, Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, Ashleigh Austin, of Midland, who all attended the Odessa on Friday night. Good news had fallen in the area previous day.

Mrs. Joe Thurston returned home in time for a Christmas visit from their grandson, Jeff Andrews, Angella's son, who is a student at Texas Tech University. He had been in Dimmitt with Jo and Marvin Crabtree, who have a new baby named Kyle Joseph. Jo married to the Thursday late son, Joe Bob, and feels very close to all the children. Her husband, Kevin, was out of town when the baby was born and called Alta to come and be with her until her own family arrive.

Mrs. Choise Smith and her family, Jody, Dean and Terrent to Spearman for their Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Girtha Gamble. On Christmas Day, Kaydean and their children, met Scarlett and Mike Jackson and their children at Lubbock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flukie Smith. Tal Jackson came to visit for a few days with his cousins before returning to Spearman.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chambers' home was featured in a page, front page, pictorial of last Sunday's Daily section of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. He is a photographer and she is an interior decorator and they have combined their talents and hard work to make their home a beautiful experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taal, and Mrs. Winstead and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Calloway of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hop and family for New Year's Day at the Sid Brown home in Floydada. Other guests included Mrs. Dovie Brown, and Mrs. Goldie Bert of Floydada.

Materials available for schools. Films and other educational materials available to public schools through Region XVII Education Service Center will be shown to interested citizens during a quarterly one-day review session set for Friday, January 23.

The open house is scheduled for 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Media Division of the Service Center, 4000 22nd St., Lubbock.

"Persons wishing to view educational materials should notify the Media Division at least 10 days in advance," said Gerald Rogers, director of media and technology, "so they can be made available."

Fund-raising through seed-selling

Organizations can now sell vegetable and flower seeds from the American Gardening Association as fund-raising projects. "Gardening is a healthful activity, and growing your own vegetables helps fight inflation," an American Gardening Association representative said. "And flowers and green gardens do much to beautify the community."

The American Gardening Association provides free sales literature, packages the seed collections, and mails them to the customers' homes. The local selling organization never has to handle the seeds. January, February and March are the best months for selling the seeds. The seeds are mailed by the Association to buyers' homes for spring planting. Planting instructions are included. Two seed collections, a vegetable collection and a flower collection, are sold through the program. Each collection contains 10 packets and sells for $4.00 plus shipping. The price includes a $1.25 profit for the selling organization.

Widows, widowers due tax benefit

A taxpayer who became a widow or widower in 1978 or 1979 may be entitled to a special tax benefit. The benefit allows the taxpayer to use the "Married Filing Jointly" Tax Table or a Tax Rate Schedule in computing the tax liability, a tax rate significantly lower than those in the "Single" category. To qualify for the benefit, the taxpayer (1) must have been entitled to file a joint return with the deceased spouse for the year of death, even if one was not actually filed; (2) must have a child or stepchild who qualified as a dependent; and (3) must have furnished over half the cost of maintaining a home which was the principal residence for the dependent child or stepchild for the entire year. Taxpayers who take advantage of this benefit should file Form 1040, check Block 5 under Filing Status, "Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child," and figure the tax using the "Married Filing Jointly" tax table or tax rate schedule.

DRIVELINE

Things That Go Bump In The Night—"Statistics show that two out of three accidents happen at night. The after-dark death rate per miles driven is two to three times the rate for daylight driving... Never leave your car on the shoulder of the road with parking lights on. Other drivers may think your car is still moving..." —From New Driver Magazine

BAD NEWS FOR CAR BUYERS! The double whammy of inflation-recession is pricing many Americans out of the new car market. Average price of a new American car is $8,200, up 100 percent in the last decade. The prime lending rate has reached the stratospheric height of 19 percent, and car loans typically run two to four percent higher than the prime. Result? The monthly payment on a 48 month $6,000 car loan is nearly $170.

SMALL CAR HAZARDS: "In a collision between a subcompact and a full-sized car, occupants in the smaller car are eight times more likely to be killed," says the U.S. Dept. of Transportation. Safety experts contend this fact is a strong warning to small car drivers to stay within the 55 MPH speed limit, since lower speeds clearly reduce the risk and severity of injuries.

DRINKING DRIVERS GO TO POT. Nationwide surveys show that 60 percent of America's high school seniors have tried marijuana. Like alcohol during Prohibition, marijuana is illegal, but that doesn't prevent it from being a popular and widely used social drug. One effect of this trend is that many young people now routinely drive while under the influence of marijuana. The problem is that marijuana, like alcohol, is a central nervous system depressant. It slows a driver's reaction time, distorts perception, and reduces the capacity to make decisions. Numerous research studies have demonstrated that marijuana definitely decreases driving ability. Even worse, many people routinely combine booze and pot before they head out on the highway. Researchers have found that the combined damage of alcohol and marijuana to driving skill is more harmful than the effect of either drug used by itself.

Seeding rangeland will boost grazing potential

(COLLEGE STATION) - Seeding rangeland is a step in the right direction for boosting grazing potential. But it's expensive and requires proper planning, selection of adapted plants, good seeding methods and careful management.

"First, look at the quantity and distribution of desirable plants currently present," suggests Dr. Tommy Welch, range brush and weed control specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "If desirable plants make up less than 10-15 percent of the vegetation, seeding is probably necessary."

If desirable plants are uniformly distributed and make up more than 10-15 percent of the vegetation, grazing management can usually improve range conditions, notes the specialist.

"Seeding is usually necessary following a brush control method such as root-plowing that destroys existing turf. Also, seeding is usually the most effective way to establish desirable vegetation on abandoned cropland," says Welch.

He advises seeding only on better range sites to insure reasonable chances of success. Do not disturb steep, potentially erosive sites. Seeding range sites that receive runoff water usually provides good results.

Another consideration is to select species and varieties of plants for seeding that are adapted to the area's soil, climate and topography (lay of the land).

Also, select plants that are easily established, palatable to animals, relatively productive, able to withstand competition by undesirable plants, able to withstand moderate grazing, and able to prevent erosion under moderate grazing.

Welch suggests checking with county Extension agents or local Soil Conservation Service officials for information on adapted plants.

Planting into a well-prepared seedbed is essential. An ideal seedbed is firm below the seeding depth, is free from live plant competition, and has moderate amounts of mulch or plant residue on the soil surface.

"Preparing a good seedbed on abandoned cropland is possible without undue expense, but on rangeland it's a different story," says Welch. "However, prepare the best seedbed that available resources will allow. For example, rootplowing followed by roller chopping or chaining is an acceptable method of seedbed preparation on brush infested rangeland."

When it comes to seeding rangeland, the two most common methods are broadcast and drill. Broadcasting places seed on the soil surface while drilling puts them into the soil and is superior where a drill can be used. However, broadcast seeding by aerial or ground application is often used because most drills are not sturdy enough for rough rangeland, explains Welch.

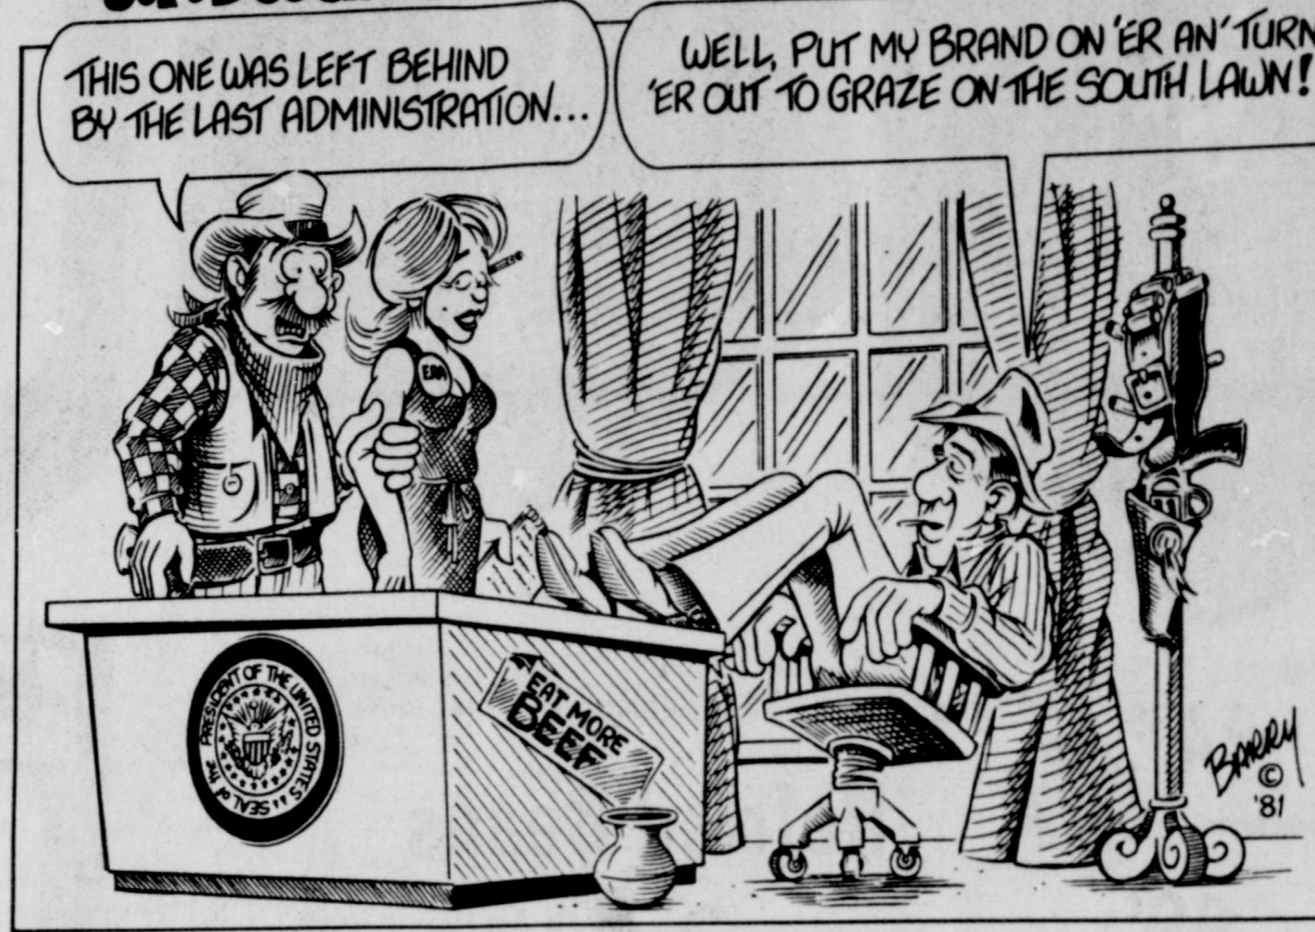

Time seeding so that developing seedlings will have the best growing conditions. Warm season plants grow in the summer and will make their best and most vigorous growth if seeded in late winter or early spring. A late summer or fall seeding date for cool season plants may be best because young seedlings may not be able to tolerate hot, dry summers.

To get a newly seeded area established, protect it from grazing through at least one growing season, depending on growing conditions. During periods of harsh growing conditions, two or three years of deferment may be necessary to allow seedlings to establish.

Welch notes that weed control measures such as mowing, shredding or use of herbicides may be necessary during the first growing season to allow seeded species to become established.

Computer workshop for farmers

CORPUS CHRISTI — Farmers and ranchers are into computers just like the rest of the business world, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service is working to help them make the most of these technical marvels.

That's the purpose of a workshop on "Computers in Agriculture" to be held here January 27-28 at the Holiday Inn—Emerald Beach.

"This workshop is designed to provide agricultural producers, agricultural lenders, commercial fishermen and Extension personnel an introduction to several of the computers available to them," points out Dr. Richard Trimble, Extension economist in management at Texas A&M University.

He notes that computer programs presently available as well as those soon to be available will be discussed. Also, participants will have an opportunity to operate several of the computer programs in "hands-on" sessions.

Discussions the first day will center around electronic decision aids in farm management, programmable calculators, micro-computers and time sharing systems. The second day will be devoted to workshop sessions in these areas: programmable calculators, micro farm accounting system, time sharing systems, micro-computer decision models, TI 99/4 Micro-Computer software, and APPLE programs in commercial fishing.

Speakers will include Extension Service management and marine economists and a data processing programmer.

Advance registrations are requested by January 23. Registration information is available from Lawrence Lipke, Extension area economist, Rt. 2, Box 589, Corpus Christi, Texas 78410 or call 512/265-9201.

Around The County
By Jett Major
FLOYD COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT

If you're interested in getting into farming or ranching, if you're already in the business and want to expand, or if you're thinking about retiring and turning the farm or ranch over to someone else, then there's an upcoming conference designed for you.

The conference is called "Getting In—Growing—Getting Out of Agriculture," and is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Farmer-Stockman magazine. It will be at Texas A&M University Research and Extension Centers in three different cities on three different dates. Sessions are planned for Amarillo, January 20; Dallas, January 21; and Weslaco, January 22.

According to County Extension Agent Jett Major, the conference is intended to help farmers identify non-traditional alternatives for making farm business management easier and to learn more about turning problems into opportunities.

Major areas of discussion will deal with "Agriculture's Future," "Agricultural Business Planning," "Estate Planning Needs," "Financial Planning Consideration," and "Making Other's Problems Your Opportunity."

Featured speakers will include Dr. John Hopkin, head of Texas A&M's Department of Agricultural Economics; Marvin Sartin, Extension area economist at Lubbock; and Dr. Wayne Hayenga, Extension economist in management at Texas A&M University.

Further information on the conference is available from the county extension office.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or natural origin.

Exemption possible for grain firms

Grain firms which exported less than 15,000 metric tons of grain in 1980, request an exemption from inspection and weighing requirements during 1981, a USDA official has announced.

Eligible grain firms must apply to USDA's Federal Grain Inspection Service, which will issue a memorandum of the exemption, pending approval from the U.S. Grain Standards Act, said Jerry Cotter, FGIS director for the Dallas Region at Rockwall.

More than 100 grain firms in Texas, Oklahoma and three in Mexico applied for exemptions in 1980. That includes 36 firms in the Texas territory that are served from 819 Taylor St., Fort Worth, 76102, and the north by the FGIS field office, 3010 Olton Plainview.

"Grain firms which held exemption during 1980-as well as any firm planning to make use of the metric ton exemption program in 1981-must notify FGIS of their intent," Cotter said.

The exemption program is designed to make it easier for small grain exporters to enter the export market.

A firm may notify FGIS of its intent under the exemption program at any time during the year, but should make their request by August 14, 1980, said Dan Gibson, Director, Compliance Division, FGIS, USDA, Washington, D.C.

Inter-cutting illustrations from the historical period, and a contemporary marching band. The producer presents the influence on U.S. history of "Yankee Doodle," "Hail Columbia," "The Star-Spangled Banner," "America," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Dixie," and "America, the Beautiful."

Please Look After This Bear. 6 min. Color. 1975. FilmFair. Pre-EI

While waiting for their daughter at Paddington railway station, Mr. and Mrs. Brown talk to a small, dark bear who wears a label around his neck "Please look after this bear. Thank you." They set out to do just that after learning that the stow-away from darkest Peru is new and alone in England.

Safe in Nature. 20 min. Color. 1975. FilmFair. EI-SH

Dramatizes two examples of young people getting lost in the woods and desert. First shows things the victims did wrong, and then shows what they should have done to help searchers find them.

Ski Fever. 9 min. Color. 1971. BFA Educational Media. EI-A

Enthusiastic skiers take to the slopes and the ski jump in a montage of expertise, mishaps, and just plain fun.

Ti-Jean Goes Lumbering. 16 min. Color. 1953. International Film Bureau. EI

A French-Canadian folktale about the fantastic exploits of a mysterious little boy who one day rides into a winter logging camp. Great fun.

We Call Them Killers. 16 min. Color. 1974. Eccentric Circle Cinema Workshop. SH-A

Produced by the National Film Board of Canada, this film studies man's knowledge of the behavior of the largest mammals on earth—whales. Two whale "performers" are featured, including their sensory reactions, "talking," and learning capabilities.

Exemptions possible for grain firms

Grain firms which exported less than 15,000 metric tons of grain in 1980 may request an exemption from inspection and weighing requirements during 1981 from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, a USDA official has announced.

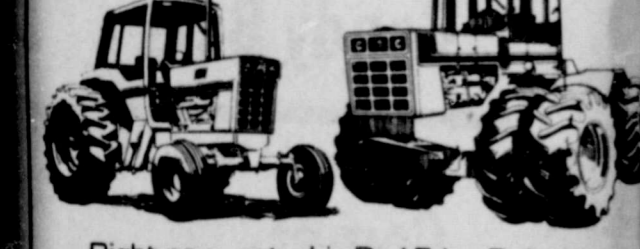

Eligible grain firms must notify USDA's Federal Grain Inspection Service that the firm wants to be exempt from inspection and weighing requirements under the U.S. Grain Standard Act, said Jerry Cotter, FGIS director for the Dallas Region at Rockwall.

More than 100 grain firms in Texas and Oklahoma and three in Mexico applied for exemptions during 1980. That includes 36 firms in the Texas territory that are served from south by the Ft. Worth FGIS field office, 819 Taylor St., Fort Worth, Texas 76102, and the north by the Plainview FGIS field office, 3010 Olton Plainview.

"Grain firms which held exemptions during 1980-as well as any other planning to make use of the 15,000 metric ton exemption program in 1981 must notify FGIS of their intent," Cotter said.

The exemption program is designed to make it easier for small grain firms to enter the export market.

A firm may notify FGIS of its intent to operate under the exemption program at any time during the year. A firm should make their request to Abshier, Director, Compliance Division, FGIS, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250.

It's Not Easy

BY CAROL LEA CLARK

I never realized until I had a child the hardest thing about being a parent is sleep deprivation. They can't understand that the Chinese have a couple of thousand years used of torture that consists of preventing prisoners from sleeping. They can't understand that the Chinese have lessons from my daughter. I think that my cute 22 month old has through the night twice. She's while she was staying with a year. It is a good night if she goes up two or three times. It really so bad on nights when I can't go to sleep, but sometimes I find myself starting at the clock at 11:00 in the morning wondering when will wake up next. I quickly learned that the only way to sleep when she sleeps. You have your choice of a nap in the moon, if you are lucky, and have to get up to ten or eleven at night. Or, you keep her awake all day and have to sleep early, around seven or eight, when she wakes up a few more times at night.

When our family was living in New York, shortly after our daughter was born, we seriously considered suggesting her as a spokesperson for a baby which featured the all night cry and had the slogan, "I'm that never sleeps." My mother reassures me by telling me that this trait of non-sleeping runs in my family. My sister didn't sleep until she was six, and then would go through periods of waking up in the middle of the night. I think that I finally learned to play solitaire in the time between two and six in the morning. I wonder how old my toddler will be when she can teach her to play solitaire.
