County Commissioners 'reluctantly' redistrict

The County Commissioners Court in a special session that was continued from Monday through Tuesday have adopted a tentative redistricting plan slightly changing the precinct lines in Floyd County.

Texas counties which have an unbalanced population in voting precincts as shown in the 1980 census have until November 30 to present a redistricting plan to the Secretary of State in Austin. "We don't like a turn dull bit," stated County Commissioner Bob Jarrett, "but that's beside the point. We've got no choice."

Jarrett was referring to the fact that several surrounding counties have had suit brought against them by a group called Southwest Voter Registration and Education Project, based in San Antonio.

The group is dedicated to the protection of the voting rights of the minorities. This group is very active in the South Plains according to Mark Turnbough whose company, Southwest Polimerics, prepared the redistricting plan.

Costly court fees and the precinct lines being drawn by non-residents are a reality in Crosby and Castro counties.

Hockley and Gaines Counties have been filed on. There have been reports of court costs of over $50,000 and of precinct lines being drawn with seemingly little regard for any county business except the shuffling of voters numbers.

In order to satisfy the Justice Department and thus to stave off the possibility of being filed against, the redistricting must be done on a one-person, one-vote basis. And there must be one minority precinct with about two-thirds of the minority population in it. This assures the minorities of a chance to elect a minority representative if they choose to do so as a block vote.

Since Floyd County has a total minority percentage of 38%, one precinct must have over 65% minority population in it.

The one-person, one-vote qualification means that all precincts must have equal population figures according to the latest census. The Justice Department uses only the census figures according to Turnbough.

With some adjustments in the precinct lines in Lockney and Floydada the population and minority specifications have been achieved with little disruption of other county functions.

In fact the new plan has equalized the road miles in each precinct. For instance, precinct three has been given some of the extra miles and population that precinct two has had.

Because Floyd County Commissioner chose to go ahead with their own plan of redistricting they have achieved an almost perfect plan of equalization, not only of road miles but of population.

"I haven't done one that came this close," Turnbough said. The total deviation of the proposed plan is 0.5%, which is remarkably close.

The Justice Department does not like the deviation to be over 4%. At the present time the deviation in Floyd County is 74%.

The total population of Floyd County is 9834. Divided equally between the four precincts would give an ideal size of 2458 people in each precinct.

Under the tentative plan: Precinct 1 would have 2465 population whereas at the present time it has 2249 people; Precinct 2 would have 2457 in population, and they now have 3528; Precinct 3

SPAG refinancing plan told

Sylvia Clark, South Plains Division of Government (SPAG), Floyd County business and leaders in August it was to set up a Board of Directors for the issuance of local Revenue Bonds. The Board has been chartered. The Bonds are a long term issue for up to $10 million. There is a need for long term issues less than $1 million," Clark said. The Development Company, whose papers are in the final stages of processing, will be authorized to sell debentures. These debentures will carry an SBA guarantee, and must be used only for land, building, and equipment costs for small business expansion.

The debentures will form only 40% of the loan amount, not to exceed $500,000. The needed for the small business. The owner must put up 10%. The remaining 50% would be provided by a non federal source, generally the local bank.

The 50% bank loan would be on bank terms and at bank interest rates, for the bank short term. The bank would hold 100% of the collateral but would only issue 50% of the loan.

The advantages of financing through Caprock is that the bank takes less chance with a full collateral loan, and that the SBA guarantees the debenture money. Also Caprock will be able to service the loan, for themselves and for the bank if it's officers so decide.

Clark said that assistance program for both starting a new business or to expand an existing business. Generally the way to find out about the program is through your local banker. If he sees that the term of a loan will make the repayment too high he might suggest using the long term loan available through Caprock.

The interest rates on the debentures is published each month. The month of September it was 15.075%. The loans must be bankable, must be approved by both the bank and the SBA.

Representatives of both Floyd County banks were at the meeting.

This Week

Genealogical Society Meeting slated

The high Plains Genealogical Society will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, November 3, at 7 p.m. in the basement meeting room of the Elmer Memorial Library in Plainview. Sandra Turley, one of the many members from Lockney, will present the main program on her personal experiences and her research in the field of genealogy. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Lockney Methodist Church sets harvest festival

The Lockney United Methodist Church will hold their annual Harvest Festival Saturday, October 31, beginning at 10 a.m. The country store, featuring small handcrafted items and homemade goods, will open at 10 a.m. followed by a turkey and dressing lunch from 12:30 to 1:30. An auction sale of a large variety of larger items will conclude the day's festivities.

Open house scheduled

The Lockney High School girls varsity basketball team will hold "open house" at the high school gym Monday, November 2, beginning at 7:30 p.m. It is expected that each girl on the squad will be introduced to the public by Sheri Haynes and that the fans and boosters will have the opportunity to meet them and become acquainted.

Private pilots license course offered

Bayland Baptist University is presently offering an aviation ground school course designed to enable a beginning pilot to pass the private pilots license written examinations. The course runs for six weeks from 7-10 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. Further information may be obtained by contacting the university registrar.

Postal rate rises Sunday

The cost of mailing a First-Class letter will rise to 20-cents beginning Sunday, November 1 when new postage rates go into effect. Postmaster Doug Meriwether reminded customers today.

Seven 'crucial' constitutional amendments up for Tuesday vote

Countians will join other Texans Tuesday in voting on seven Constitutional amendments which are designed to alleviate some of the state's most pressing and outstanding problems.

Three of the seven proposals are side in scope and range from tax reductions to cure urban blight, formation of a state financial management commission, establishing increased tax exemptions for homeowners, increasing the land fund program to the use of half of the state's surplus funds for a wide range of water development projects.

The seven. Proposition Four is undoubtedly of the greatest interest to West Texas as it deals with our most limited and most precious resource—water. It is an occasion when West Texans have the opportunity to express their desires on the ballot on this all-important issue.

Last time a constitutional amendment was proposed for a West Texas water plan was in 1969 when it was narrowly defeated by less than 6,000 votes with the margin of defeat being attributed to East Texas voters generally and Harris County (Houston) particularly. It is expected that this proposal will be contested again this time and it will take an especially heavy turnout of voters in western half of the state if it is to be successful this time.

Amendment four creates a state water trust fund, which would set aside half of state revenues (over and above the spending limitations of the state government) for the purpose of development of existing and new water sources. Population of Texas is expected to nearly double within two decades and nearly half of the state must have additional sources of water to assure continued progress and prosperity, according to the proponents of the proposal. It goes without saying that the farmers and ranchers of the West Texas area are in dire need of new sources to replace the water being taken from the rapidly depleting and non-replenishable Ogallala Aquifer which is their only source at the present time. This amendment has been far and away the most publicized of the seven in this area, probably due to the backing given it by its chief sponsor and drafter, Speaker of the House Bill Clayton of Springlake. He was also chief architect of the measure that was barely defeated in 1969.

In addition to Clayton, amendment four has the strong backing of Governor Bill Clements who says "Contrary to some deliberately misleading propaganda, this is not a proposal designed to favor some parts of the state over others. In the near future this state must have additional sources of water to assure our continued growth and prosperity and expanded opportunities for future generations of Texans. I endorse all seven of these amendments, but consider number four so important as to warrant additional emphasis."

He went on to state that Amendment 4 would set aside half of surplus state revenues, which otherwise would be eaten up by current spending demands, to build up the kind of water projects adequate to the needs of our ever-growing population. The amendment also allows the use of the state's credit to guarantee local water project bonds, creates a state bond retirement program and increases interest rates to make authorized, state bonds marketable. The proposal would raise the interest rate from six to twelve percent to make the bonds more attractive to investors.

In an effort to curb residential tax increases and head off so-called homeowners'

"tax revolts," Amendment 6 would authorize local jurisdictions to exempt a percentage of the market value of residence homesteads. The amendment would also allow the Legislature to change some current property tax administrative procedures, including the "truth in taxation" notice requirement. The amendment would make it easier for those on low or fixed incomes to buy and keep a home.

It is worth mentioning that other amendments to be voted on November 3 would authorize an additional $250 million in Veterans Land Bonds at marketable interest rates; authorize issuing patents for school lands held in good faith for a half century; make property tax relief available to encourage redevelopment or improvement of blighted areas; and include livestock and poultry with farm products exempt from taxation.

Among the most important of all, Amendment 3 provides significant budget execution authority subject to limitations imposed by law. The finance management committee and procedures to be set up by Proposition 3 are now needed urgently.

The committee—to be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, House Speaker, two key Senators and two Representatives—will provide the vehicle for allocation of tremendous sums in federal block grants anticipated to flow into the State, without the necessity of a special legislative session.

In the future, subject to legislative direction, the committee may become an effective mechanism for meeting other unexpected financial emergencies when the Legislature is not in session, may significantly improve budgeting of State funds and save millions in tax dollars.

Sandra Crawford appointed librarian

The protracted search for a qualified person to head up the Floyd County library system came to an end Monday as the county commissioners court unanimously passed a resolution to hire Mrs. Sandra Crawford to the position.

Mrs. Crawford will replace long-time head librarian Jackie Walls who recently resigned with an effective date of November 1. She is presently a resident of Plainview and has been employed in Floydada for the past five years in the office of local attorney Ben Ayres.

The new librarian, who attended Texas Tech University for two years meets all the requirements of the Texas Library Association and the West Texas Library System and will enable the library to enjoy all the benefits of membership in those two organizations. She will be required to be re-certified each year.

Mrs. Walls, at the request of the commissioners court, has agreed to continue on the job until November 20, on which date she estimates that Mrs. Crawford, who has had no previous library experience, will be trained and broken in to her new duties.

Mrs. Crawford has the commissioner court approval to work half days at the library and a half day for Mr. Ayres until the November 20 date so as to give the attorney ample time to find a would have 2457 in population and they now have 1905. (this is also the precinct that will have a 65.2% total minority population under the new plan); Precinct 4 will have 2456 population and now has 2146 persons.

In order for all resident of the county to fully understand the changes and how it will effect them personally, there have been two public hearing scheduled in the county on November 5.

There will be a public hearing in Floydada in the county court room at 5 p.m.

There will be a public hearing that same day, November 5, at the City Hall in Lockney at 6:30 p.m.

The meeting will be conducted by Turnbough and his partner, Bob Bass. Bass is an attorney, formerly Hale County Attorney.

Turnbough is a professor of government and public administration at Wayland Baptist College. Both men live in Plainview. Bass writes the legal submission and Turnbough does the statistics and map work for the company.

The company has recently done the redistricting plan for Hale and Terry Counties. Hale has been approved and Terry is close to approval. They will also prepare the plan for Swisher and Deaf Smith Counties.

Other consideration in the new precinct lines were the hospital districts and the voting boxes.

The changed precinct lines do not effect the hospital districts nor will it effect the tax base.

Since the proposed changes occur mostly in the cities of Lockney and Floydada the new precinct lines will have very little impact on voter precinct lines. None of the small rural boxes will be changed.

Ben Ayres, Democratic Chairman, was informed of the changes during court meeting Tuesday, and he indicated that he was satisfied that the changes would not work a hardship on the rural voters.

Court members and Turnbough expressed the need for residents of the county to attend the public hearings on November 5. "It will allow the citizens an opportunity to examine the proposal and ask questions," Turnbough said.

After the hearings on Thursday, the Court will vote to adopt the redistricting plan at the regular court session Monday, November 9.

The plan will then be sent to the Justice Department for pre-clearance. The county will be notified when the plan has been approved.

The county will then submit the plan to the Secretary of the State of Texas for filing.

Turnbough, who had worked most of Monday night drawing in the changes made by the commissioners to his first draft, said "The commissioners have been very cooperative in a very difficult task. They have been very helpful," and then he added almost as an aside, "Much more so than most."

Motion was made by Sam Spence and seconded by Bob Jarrett that the following election judges and alternate judges be appointed. All in favor.

Ken Campbell of the Cattle Chairman of the Board, has announced his proposed Constitutional Amendment Five, saying that pasture and livestock would be a viable business in Texas.

Proposition Five proposes livestock and poultry products already exempt from (ad valorem) taxes, and to be considered by Texas voters in November 3.

Those products are currently inconsistently taxed across the state. Ken said that livestock and poultry products "Texas is among the large cattle states which allows such a tax."

"Any producer of any product recover the cost of production taxes, and since some products stay in business," Ken said. "I would remove property taxes on stock and poultry, some products conclude that they cannot remain in that business. There is a drop in production which hurts our local economy."

Postage increase effective Nov 1

The cost of mailing a First-Class letter will rise to 20-cents beginning Monday, November 1 when new rates go into effect. Postmaster Westerman reminded customers.

The 20-cent First-Class rate increases for other classes of mail proved last month of the Postal Service, take effect at 10 a.m. local time on November 1.

"However," Postmaster Westerman said, "customers should not wait a week to make their stamp purchases. Now is the time to buy in bulk. Necessary lines on the stamps are being covered at these workshops elements of crime, effective stamping, and the do's and don'ts of stamping in court."

Instructors were Bill Barnes, and George Briant, Dumas, both investigators with the attorneys offices in their respective offices. They are members of a ten-man team on loan to the Prosecutor Council for these eight-hour courses around the state.

Collins announces candidacy for '82 Senate

Ken Campbell of the Cattle Chairman of the Board, has announced his proposed Constitutional Amendment Five, saying that pasture and livestock would be a viable business in Texas.

Proposition Five proposes livestock and poultry products already exempt from (ad valorem) taxes, and to be considered by Texas voters in November 3.

Those products are currently inconsistently taxed across the state. Ken said that livestock and poultry products "Texas is among the large cattle states which allows such a tax."

"Any producer of any product recover the cost of production taxes, and since some products stay in business," Ken said. "I would remove property taxes on stock and poultry, some products conclude that they cannot remain in that business. There is a drop in production which hurts our local economy."

The Rev. Michael O'Connor's Perspectives

BY MICHAEL O'CONNOR

Carl Sagan is going to testify in the Arkansas evolution trial. This may not sound like big news, but it means that the Arkansas case, which is to determine the constitutionality of a state law which requires the teaching of scientific creationism alongside evolution, will now have a bona fide star witness.

So what? Well, back in the twenties, a young teacher agreed to allow himself to be placed on trial for teaching evolution, which was then outlawed. His name was John Scopes, and the trial is generally referred to in the annals of history as "The Great Monkey Trial." What made the whole event so memorable was the presence of two superstars in the legal profession - William Jennings Bryan for the prosecution, and Clarence Darrow for the defense.

The trial rapidly became a media circus and was nationally reported. Bryan was an excellent speaker, and often broke out in long speeches during the questioning of witnesses. His closing arguments read more like a sermon than legalese.

Darrow, on the other hand, was cool, calm, and above all, rational and logical. He methodically ripped the fundamentalist Bryan's arguments to shreds. Scopes was secondary to the whole trial. The end result was the eventual overturning of the law preventing the teaching of evolution, and the run of Scopes' life.

The situation in Arkansas today is a little different. There is no public school teacher's head on the block. But it is somewhat alarming that Sagan has been called to be an expert witness.

While it is true his credentials are impeccable, he is a media star. Will the other side now counter by producing their own media star? If so, then a new circus will come out of this debate and, if the men I have seen defending creationism are indicative, any fundamentalist superstar will be eaten alive in Sagan's suave, sophisticated, self-assured, patiently reasonable manner.

We must hope that this case will be settled in the court in sound legal fashion. I fear the introduction of celebrity experts and the attention they automatically bring may hinder the process.

Hightower Highlights

Congressman Jack Hightower (D-Vernon) expressed harsh criticism of the 1981 farm bill just recently passed in the House. This legislation has been hotly debated in Congress for the past three weeks.

"Our problem," explained Hightower, "is that many people do not understand the reason, the philosophy, behind the farm programs. Farm bills should be designed to assure an economic climate for agriculture that will make it possible for the farmer to continue to farm... This bill is a totally inadequate response to the very real crisis of our smaller farmers being squeezed out of business by low commodity prices, cheap foreign subsidized competition and the high cost of fertilizer, equipment and loan money."

Hightower went on to explain several reasons for the failure of Congress to pass a more favorable bill. "First, we have an educational problem. Too many of our non-farm-state congressmen lack an understanding of agricultural problems and they see all this as a struggle between the farmer and the consumer.

It's not that at all. They're really on the same side," Hightower said. "If the small farmer goes under, we'll see first a concentration of production in the hands of a few agribusiness corporations, then we'll see food prices go up more and more steeply."

Speaking of his efforts, Hightower emphasized his belief that higher commodity loan rates than are in the bill would have enabled many farmers to survive longer financially. "We did everything we could to raise the loan rates on commodities - something that

MR. AND MRS. KEN STEELE

Double-ring ceremony unites Alice Moosberg, Ken Steele

Alice Moosberg and Ken Steele were united in marriage on Saturday, September 12, in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church in Floydada. Doyle Gilliam of Lubbock officiated at the ceremony.

Gracing the altar for the double-ring ceremony were two brass candelabra adorned with fern and burgundy ribbon. Similar arrangements with fern and silk flowers graced the pews of the chapel.

Soloist Deon Zumwalt of Floydada presented vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. Bill Orman, also of Floydada, at the piano and organ. The vocal selections included "Could I Have This Dance?", "Lady," and "Color My World." Mrs. Orman provided music at the organ for the remainder of the service.

Members of the wedding party included Tim Riggs of Houston as best man, and Alan Dyess of Lubbock as groomsmen.

Attending the bride were her sisters: Mrs. Donny Winslow of Duncan, Oklahoma, as matron of honor and Mrs. Tommy Sherman of Lockney as bridesmatron.

Shane Orman of Floydada was the candlelighter for the ceremony and Mrs. Oscar Santos of Floydada registered guests.

The bride's two attendants wore tea-length burgundy dresses featuring tucked shoulders and burgundy satin ribbon at the waist. They wore straw picture hats accented by burgundy ribbon at the crown and a nosegay of silk flowers at the back. They carried bouquets of preserved fern and silk flowers in blue, burgundy, and grey; accented with burgundy ribbon.

The groom's attendants, the groom, and the candlelighter wore grey tuxedos.

The mother of the bride wore a two-piece street-length burgundy dress accented with beige accessories.

The groom's mother wore a navy street-length dress and navy accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink, white, and burgundy silk rosebuds.

The groom escorted each mother into the chapel for the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white, tea-length dress with a white organza jacket accented by lace at the cuffs and neckline and a white satin ribbon tied at the waist. The bride's waist length veil fell from a white lace hat accented with flower appliques and pearls. She carried a bouquet of burgundy silk roses and white lily-of-the-valley with burgundy and white ribbon streamers.

As "something old", the bride carried her maternal grandmother's wedding ring tied in her bouquet; "something new" was her dress; "something borrowed" were her earrings, and "something blue" was her garter.

The bride presented her mother and the mother of the groom with a long-stemmed rose as she proceeded to the altar.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The four-tiered, heart-shaped wedding cake was decorated with pink, burgundy, and grey silk flowers and a figurine of two white birds at the top.

Raspberry punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Mints and nuts were served from blue crystal serving plates.

The bridal bouquet and two white candles in candlewick crystal candelabra centered the table. Silver appointments and burgundy napkins completed the setting.

Mrs. Monroe Shannon of Shamrock served the cake while Misti Orman of Floydada served the punch. Kristy and Stacey Dawdy of Floydada passed out rice and bird seed bags to the guests at the reception.

As the bride and groom left the church, the bride wore a blue and white striped skirt and jacket with a navy camisole top and navy accessories.

After a wedding trip to Orlando, Florida, the couple are now at home in Perryton, where Ken is employed by Halliburton Services and Alice is a homemaker.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom, was held at K-Bob's Steak House in Plainview. After the dinner, the bride and groom presented their attendant's gifts.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Relatives of the groom attending the wedding from out-of-town were his father, Ed Steele of Okinawa, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gilstrap of Neosho, Missouri, and his mother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Becker of Yuma, Arizona. Other of his re-

Harmony Homemakers learn to "energize"

The Harmony Extension Homemakers Club met in the community center October 26 with Juanita Pool as hostess. She read the devotional Isaiah 3:18-23. Roll call was answered by: Describe your wedding dress.

The program, Energize Your Wardrobe, was presented by Bess Carr. This was an interesting and informative program. Material referring to the program was passed out to the members to refer to as the need arises.

Ruth Scott resigned as council delegate. Bess Carr was elected as council delegate.

The next meeting will not be the regular meeting date November 9, but will be November 13 to make salads for the Christmas in November bazaar.

The hostess served refreshments to these members: Bess Carr, Anna Maude Hopper, Ruth Scott, Arvie Schultz and Blanche Williams.

Layette shower honors Lutricks

Tobi Lynn and Tessa Lannette Lutrick, twin daughters born September 24 to Roby and Teresa Lutrick, of Hereford, were guest of honors Saturday October 24 at a layette shower in the home of Mrs. Fred Marble at South Plains.

Special guests besides the babies and their mother were the grandmothers, Mrs. Dean Stewart and Mrs. Buddy Lutrick. Great grandmothers attending were Mrs. Ruth Babb of Logan, New Mexico, Mrs. Pete Robison of Abernathy and Mrs. Lottie Stewart of Lockney.

Over 50 friends and relatives registered or sent gifts.

Two highchairs were given by the hostesses: Margaret Kitchens, Pat Wood, Nina Upton, Mamie Lou Hartman, Bonnie Julian, Garnie Taylor, Mamie Wood, Peggy Roberts, Phyllis Johnson, Nancy Marble, Neta Marble, Sherre Holms, Nancy Hagood, Adeana Morris, Rhonda Stovall, Diane Meyers, Ruby Lee Higginbotham, and Carolyn Marble.

latives at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James Cogbill of Woodland, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wilson of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Relatives of the bride from out-of-town, besides her attendants, included Ms. Margie Knight of Nacogdoches, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moosberg of Des Moines, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garner of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Garner, Timothy and Donny Winslow and Tommy Sherman, both brother-in-laws of the bride; and Zade Winslow, nephew of the bride.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ed Lee of Matador, Mrs. David Ray of Plainview, Mrs. Alan Dyess of Lubbock, Mrs. Doyle Gilliam of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Outhier, Tammy and Dawn, of Amarillo.

Penseroso Jr. Study Club met Oct. 22

The most important thing is communication. Never be afraid to be yourself and never be ashamed to get help. Sandy then answered questions. We were all a little better equipped to deal with stress following her talk.

After a very interesting roll call - My Greatest Weakness - the meeting was called to order. Minutes were read. Old business discussed and new business was brought forward.

Members voted to give a Valentine party to the residents of the Lockney Care Center.

The money earned at the planned December 12 breakfast will go toward buying a new color television for the Care Center. Il Penseroso paying the balance. Members were asked to send recipes to the Care Center for their cookbook.

Quilt squares were passed out. They are due February 25.

The play Aladdin and His Magic Lamp will be presented the 17th of November.

Members present were Gayle Jackson, Kay Martin, Linda Marr, Cathy Barnett, Reeda Cay Smith, Lisa Mosley, Sandra Cummings, Treena Aston, Kim Lambert, Julie Hickerson, Janette Workman, Judy Jackson, Cynthia Bybee, Cindy Ford, Kelly Fortenberry, Ginger Mathis, Kathy Kellison, Anita Bigham, Lesca Durham, Charlanne Burson, Jessie Johnson, Linda Cunyus and guest Marilyn Biggs and Laura Wilson.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—Mr. and Mrs. Edd Neff announces the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Angela Kay, to Dale Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Stevens of Morton. The couple plan a December wedding.

Gift tea honors Linda Sue Morris

A gift tea held Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Warren Mitchell, south of Lockney, complimented Miss Linda Sue Morris of Slaton.

Miss Morris and Mike Ferguson of Lockney will be married Nov. 14 in Slaton.

Mrs. Mitchell greeted guests and presented them to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. O.D. Morris of Slaton, and Mike's mother, Mrs. James Ferguson.

Guests were registered by the prospective groom's sister, Miss Julie Ferguson of San Angelo. Special guests were Miss Morris' grandmother, Mrs. Berdie Yandell of Slaton, and Ferguson's grandmothers, Mrs. Hall Ferguson of Lockney and Mrs. M.D. Lacy of Lubbock. The grandmothers, mothers and Miss Morris wore corsages of blue and white silk flowers.

Among the out-of-town guests was Ferguson's great-aunt, Mrs. R.L. Rawdon of Plainview.

Mrs. L.T. Cooper and Mrs. G.L. Hight alternated at the serving table which was covered with a white lace cloth over blue. A silver and crystal server was filled with white daisies and blue accents to form the table centerpiece. A silver service was used to serve coffee and hot apple juice. Also served were assorted cookies, ham roll-ups and nuts.

The hostesses gave the betrothed couple a set of cooking ware. On the hostess list were Mmes. Cooper, Hight, Mitchell, Richard Wiley, Keith Jackson, Jeff Terrell, Bill Race, Joe Nance, Ray Aston, Tom Duvall, Ray Ford, Glen Cooper, Delton Jack, Tom Johnson, Buck Ford, Tom Marr, David Frizzell, George Sparkman, Carolyn Whittington, Dub Mercer and Alice Mitchell.

Lockney Methodist to hold Harvest Festival

The public is invited to join members and friends of the First United Methodist Church of Lockney in activities of the third annual Harvest Festival to be held Saturday in the church fellowship hall.

A turkey and dressing meal will be served from 11:30 to 12:30. Tickets are $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for children 10 years old and under. Take-out plates may be picked up during the same time.

A special service, for shut-ins only, is delivery of the takeout plates. To request the delivery service, persons should call the church at 652-2193. Delivery will begin at 11 o'clock.

A Country Store for handmade and homecooked items under $25 will open at 10 o'clock, and remain open through the meal.

An auction of the larger items, including paintings, a quilt, an afghan, a mailbox, etc. will begin at 1 p.m. Jack Dulin of Hale Center is to be auctioneer.

Other items not listed will be available in both the Country Store and in the church.

Don't Be Trick'd
Trick-or-treaters can cut down the chances of running into trouble by staying in their own neighborhoods. Children should be reminded that parents must inspect all unwrapped treats before they're eaten.

The time is here to plan your Christmas decorations and gifts. Let us design them for you. Our "Do It Yourself" items are on display.

Ill Wind blows over Longhorns

The Floydada Whirlwinds proved to be as good as their name as they blew into town Friday night, and after a short but fierce tussle, blew out again with a 42-0 district win wrapped in rawhide stripped from the Lockney Longhorns.

Playing very close to flawless football, the "Winds" scored early and late as they racked up six points in the first period, 15 in the second, 7 in the third and 14 in the fourth to put the game out of reach of the mistake-prone Longhorns. They depended mainly on their rushing game with speedy runningback Bruce Williams totting the pigskin 35 times for 205 yards and three touchdowns and five other Floydada backs rushing in double figures. The Longhorns held their passing game to 4 of 9 for 38 yards and two interceptions.

A rueful Longhorns coach Sexton, selecting back on the game Monday, said "we took a pretty bad physical beating. They were bigger, stronger and deeper than we were and they just literally overpowered us. I am far from ashamed of the showing our kids made though, in fact I am very proud of them. They played 48 minutes of football and were fighting as hard at the finish as they were at the beginning," and added, "I don't think the word 'quit' is in their vocabulary, and I seem always to be able to depend on them for a top effort, whatever the odds."

"We sure have our work cut out for us this Friday when we take on the Abernathy Antelopes, who are even bigger than Floydada and are the real favorites in this district," the coach said. "Their line averages well over 200 pounds per man and their backfield are not just little kids. We hope to catch them looking past us at some of their more highly rated opponents. If they do, we will guarantee having their undivided attention before the final whistle sounds," he added.

The Horns showed no outward signs of a letdown as they went through a light workout Monday designed to loosen up the kinks and smooth over the bruises of their tough physical battle of the previous Friday night. They showed high spirits as they remained on the field for a game of touch football following the regular workout.

Statistics for the Floydada game are as follows:

JEFFREY MCCORMICK

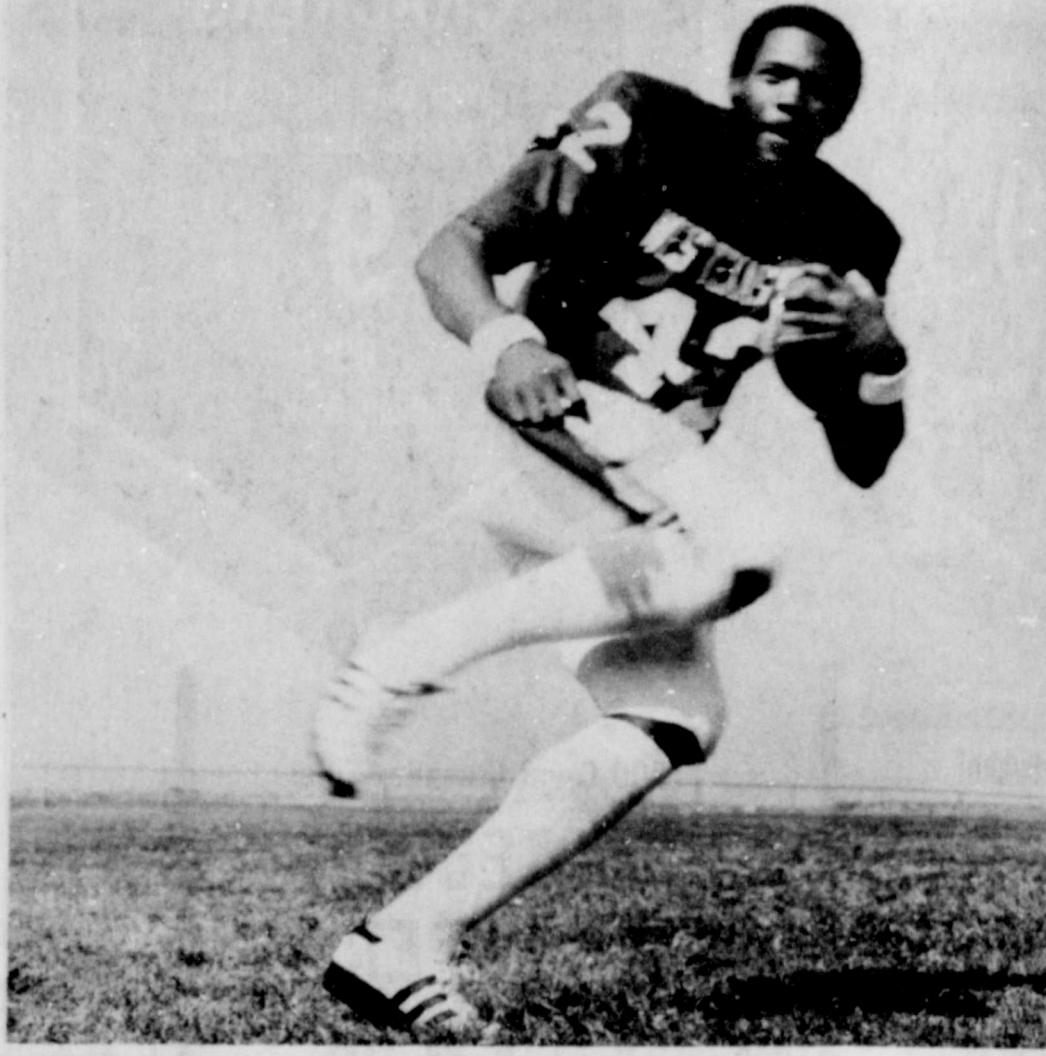

McCormick wins his Longhorn

(Editors note: Each week the Beacon is honoring one or more seniors on the Lockney Longhorn football squad. This week the honoree is quarterback Jeffrey McCormick.)

Playing in the position of quarterback this year for the Lockney Longhorns is Jeffrey McCormick. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Audrey McCormick.

Jeffrey weighs in at 170 lbs. and also plays strong safety on defense. He has participated in football, basketball, track and tennis all four years in high school. His sophomore and junior year he was also on the golf team.

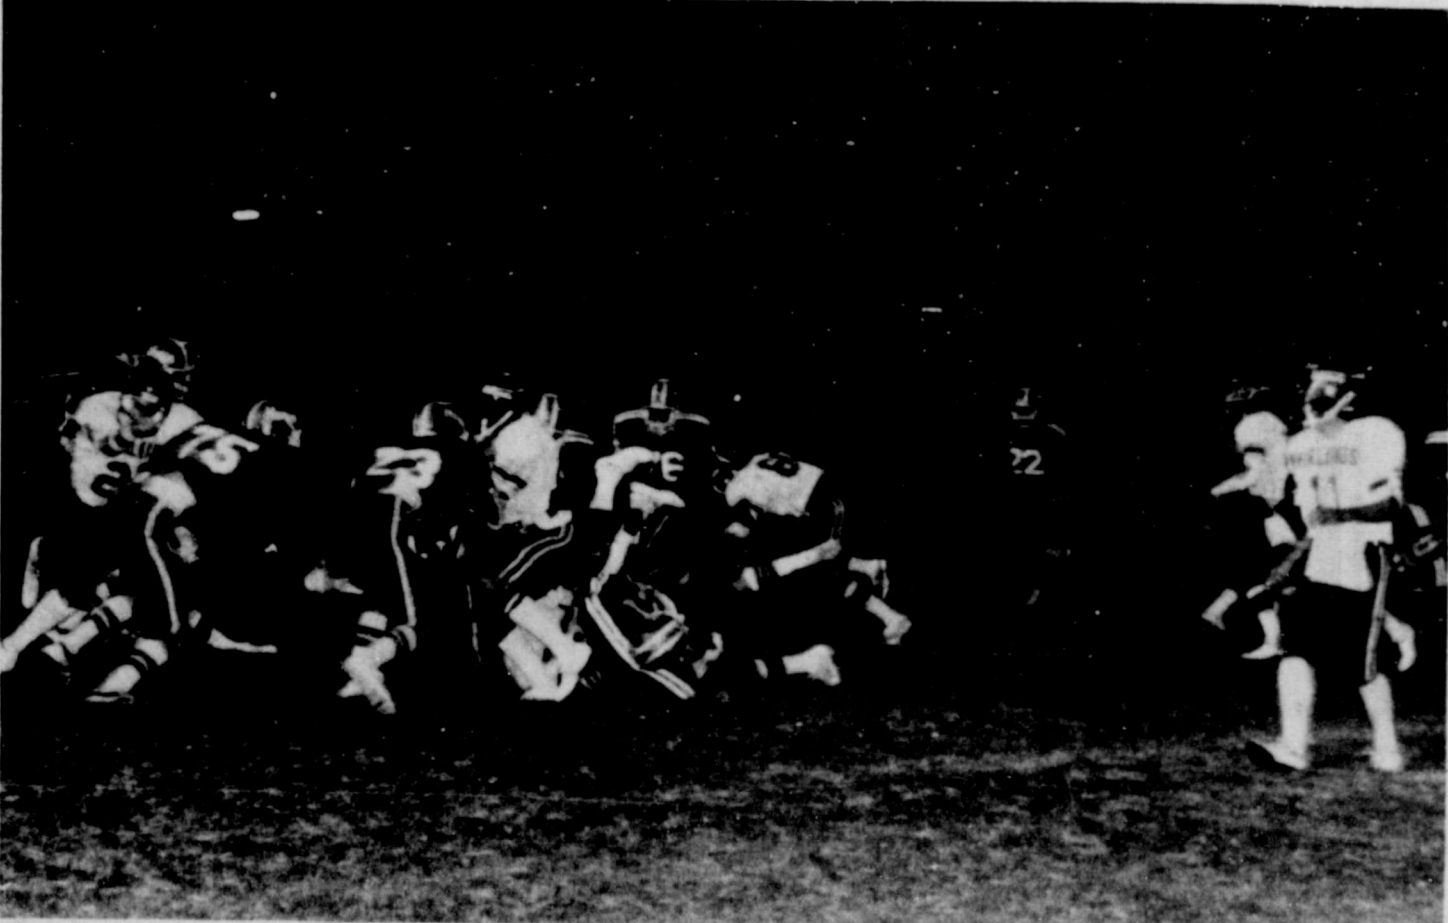

In football he was named the 2nd team All-District, his sophomore and junior years. In basketball he made the DANNY CLARK, of Lockney, is a member of the 1981 West Texas State University football team. Clark is the second leading rusher with 353 yards on 70 carries. He has scored two touchdowns and caught two passes for 10 yards. Career wise, Clark is ninth on the all time list with 1700 yards [392 carries] and needs 128 yards to move into the eighth position. Further, Clark stands fifth on the scoring list with 136 points.

EVEN THE WEATHER was uncooperative as things just didn't go right for the Lockney Longhorns in their annual shootout with the Floydada Whirlwinds Friday night. Here the bundled-up Longhorn cheerleaders look somewhat disconsolate as they watch their trailing team fight a valiant but losing battle with the mighty 'Winds.

STALWART DEFENSE—The Lockney Longhorn defense showed spurts of brilliance at times during an over-all ragged performance against the Floydada Whirlwinds Friday night. Those spurts were all too few, however, as they went down to a 42-0 defeat in the face of the strong 'Winds. Here they stop a Floydada runner in his tracks—his tracks being up in the air as they stand him on his head at the line of scrimmage.

Happy Halloween!

Opal Rogers reports Wiley Rogers in St. Paul's Hospital, Dallas, after a car wreck, would be doing well except that he has taken pneumonia. Let us remember all the sick in our prayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren are home after a weekend in Muleshoe with their daughter, Elaine Stout and family. Elaine is on the sick list. Let us remember her.
Mrs. Elmer Warren visited her sister Mrs. Workman of Lockney Friday. Sunday Mrs. Ava Jackson and Mrs. Elmer Warren dined with Mrs. Leon Frizzell.
Sunday afternoon Johnny Warren and family of near Lubbock visited his mother, Mrs. Ethel Warren.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT—Sylvia Coleman has been awarded a $1000.00 Academic Scholarship from Angelo State University, where she is attending this fall. She is the daughter of Shirley and Chester Coleman of Floydada. Sylvia graduated from Floydada High School in 1981.

School of law honors county bar associations

Members of the Lubbock and surrounding county bar associations will be honored by the Texas Tech University School of Law during a reception and art show Friday, November 6.
The 7-10 p.m. reception in the Forum of the Law School is open to the public and refreshments will be served. More than 500 bar association members from Lubbock, Hale, Hockley, Crosby, Lamb, Garza, Lynn, Terry and Floyd counties as well as Texas Tech administrators and faculty and members of the Texas Tech Boards of Regents have been invited.
The art show, arranged by the Texas Tech Department of Art, will include sculpture, pottery, blown glass, enamelware and oil paintings.
Sculptures will be metal cast sculpture by John Queen and a large multi-media construction piece sculpture by Sara Waters, both of the art faculty.

Bill Bagley and Donna Read, also of the art faculty, will exhibit a variety of blown glass pieces and enamelware plates and bowls.
Pottery from the MacKenzie Terrace Pottery Center will be shown by the center's director James Watkins.
Oil paintings will be by Hugh Gibbons, Texas Tech art professor, and Jean Thomas and Tom Chung, graduate art students.
Drive Defensively
If you're planning to be out on Halloween, remember that children are apt to be careless on this festive night. Avoid accidents by driving slowly, keeping an eye out for ghosts and goblins. Alertness can avoid an accident and keep Halloween one of your favorite holidays.

Corn Farmers! What corn hybrid outperformed the 9 most-planted hybrids in the Panhandle? Stauffer Seeds™ S7795 S7795—The Panhandle's new yield leader. Results tell the story: Stauffer Seeds S7795 won both the 1979 and 1980 Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Yield Trials at Halfway, and holds a two-year test yield of 10,899 pounds/A. It's the hybrid breakthrough Panhandle Corn farmers have waited for—a rugged drought and heat resistant hybrid that pays off big at harvest.

Stauffer Seeds™—not a new company—a new brand name. You can expect this kind of record performance from Stauffer Seeds, a brand that is produced by 3 leading regional seed companies—Prairie Valley, Inc., Blaney Farms, Inc., and RBA, Inc.—over 45 years of hybrid seed corn experience and knowledge. Now, backed with the resources of Stauffer Chemical Company, Stauffer Seeds will continue bringing you new and improved hybrids for your farm.
And for a limited time—get a Free Stauffer Seeds Cap! Size up the yield-winning characteristics of S7795 for yourself—by returning the coupon below. We'll give you a free Stauffer Seeds cap just for asking about Texas' new yield leader. But hurry! This offer expires December 31, 1981.

SHERYL WALTRIP

Waltrip to compete in pageant

Miss Sheryl Waltrip, age 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Waltrip of Enochs and niece of Mr. and Mrs. Don Chesshir of Floydada, has been selected to be a finalist in the Annual 1982 Miss Northern Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant to be held at Clarendon College, Clarendon, Texas, on May 14th, 15th and 16, 1982. The Miss Northern Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant is the Official Regional Finals to the Miss Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant to be held in June, 1982.

Nancy Daniel of Hampshire, Texas, the 1981 Miss Texas National Teen-Ager will crown the new Queen.

The reigning Miss National Teen-Ager is Lisa Bell of Wapato, Washington.

Each contestant accepted will be requested to participate in the Volunteer Community Service Program of the National Teen-Ager Pageant. This program teaches teen-agers to share and to participate in school and civic affairs. A Mini-Modeling Charm Course will be given during the week-end of the Pageant.

The winner of the Miss Northern Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant will receive a Cash Scholarship, other prizes and will be fully sponsored to compete in the Miss Texas National Teen-Ager Pageant to be held at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth. Contestants will be judged on scholastic achievement, leadership, poise-personality and appearance. There is no swimsuit competition.

Each contestant will have a choice of either reciting a 100-word "Essay" on the subject, "What's Right About America" or a 2-minute talent presentation providing her own music and/or props.

Miss Waltrip is being sponsored by The Muleshoe Jaycees. Her hobbies include basketball, track, cooking and sewing.

Turbines suspended in the Mississippi current may one day provide electric energy. The possibility along with many others is being investigated today.

The electric cooperative is working with industry and government leaders in the extensive search for alternate, less costly energy sources to produce electricity.

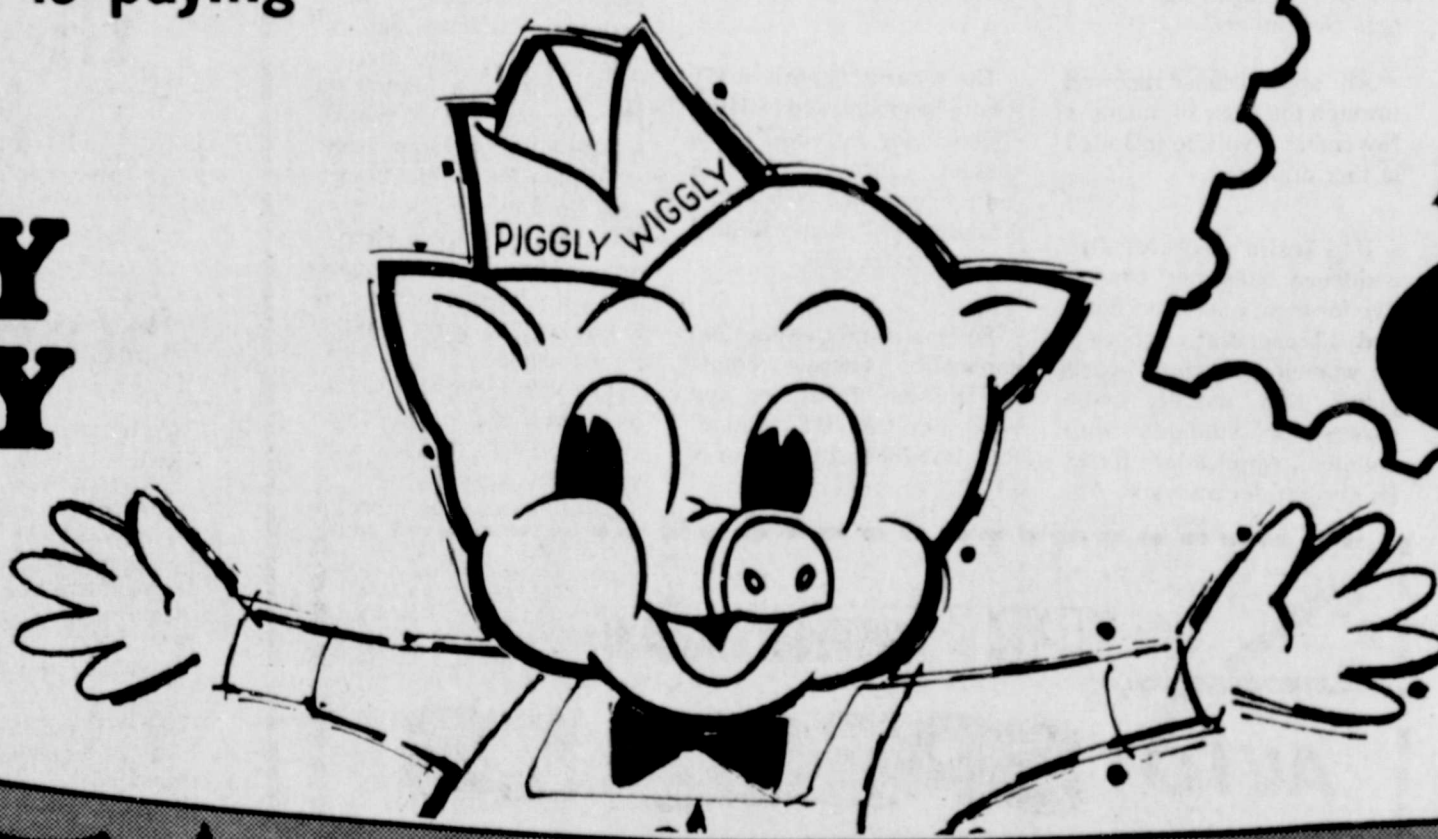

But for the present we have only five ways to meet the demand; gas, coal, hydro, nuclear and conservation. Of these five, conservation, available nationwide, is the surest way to stretch kilowatts and save on your electric bill.

TODAY'S BABY: AN $85,000 BUNDLE

Shocking as the figures sound, current estimates place the cost of raising children at about $85,000 from birth through 4 years of college at a public university. This is 33% higher than in 1977 when the figures were last updated. However, when you look at the cost of rearing a child as a percentage of your total income over the years—then that percentage—or chunk of your income has not changed all that much and it isn't expected to in the near future. But here are two estimated costs for 18 years of child-rearing (excluding the costs of childbirth and a college education) in the United States. It will cost a farm family in the South $47,973 and an urban family about $900 less. These figures only include direct maintenance costs for food, clothing, housing and medical care and education to age 18 in family that earns about $18,000 a year. Families with higher after-tax income will have greater costs associated with child-rearing. For example, southern families with an after-tax income of $22,500 to $27,500 could expect costs to be $71,478 (farm), and $74,568 (urban). Add the costs of childbirth and a college education and the over-all cost approaches $85,000. Averaged over 18 years, the cost of child-rearing takes about 19% of after-tax family income.

Its findings report that such a lifestyle includes conservation through biking for transportation, self-sufficiency in services and goods, recycling of resources, such as metal and glass, recycling of durable goods, such as furniture and clothes, and living productively with nature. Implications for the next few years—and decades—to come are many. Acceptance of voluntary simplicity—in addition to the changing values—could affect American society's consumption patterns, lifestyles and organization structure. Some specific implications are these:

1. more widely accepted conservation,
2. an increased market for do-it-yourself products and recycled durable goods,
3. more interest in self-help programs, and
4. more control over individual quality of life with less concern for socio-economic status.

To say all this in just a few words: Simplicity is "in," and work, indeed is respectable.

create a bountiful garden. What might have started as a hobby is becoming "personal Production" and it's likely to be economically significant as well as relevant to the molding of an individual's social character. In fact, it appears likely that in the future human traits considered favorable by a large portion of society will include self-reliance; the ability to adapt and survive under difficult conditions and the ability to do things with one's own hands.

This "new" trend has an especially eager following in younger, more educated homeowners along with middle-income families—the two groups more prone to adapting the simplistic lifestyle, according to a California study.

For example, southern families with an after-tax income of $22,500 to $27,500 could expect costs to be $71,478 (farm), and $74,568 (urban). Add the costs of childbirth and a college education and the over-all cost approaches $85,000. Averaged over 18 years, the cost of child-rearing takes about 19% of after-tax family income.

Lubbock to host state vet. reunion

The Texas Department of the China-Burma-India Veterans' Association (CBIVA) will hold its fall reunion at the Holiday Inn on October 30, 31, and November 1. The CBIVA is made up of members of the Armed Forces who served in the China-Burma-India theater during World War II. There are a number of CBIVA servicemen, who live in West Texas area, but this reunion is statewide.

The meeting will be hosted by the Lubbock BASHA (Chapter), of which Harry Herber, 4503 78th Street, Lubbock (792-0303) is commander. There are approximately 30 members of the Lubbock BASHA (each chapter is named for the bamboo huts that were the barracks for most of the men who served in this theater). Of the more than 9,000,000 men who were in service in World War II, only about 400,000 served in the China-Burma-India Theater. This theater of war, often called the Forgotten Theater, was the supply line and support for the Republic of China, as all supplies and communications across the Pacific were blocked by the Japanese.

The American forces succeeded in tying up many divisions of the Japanese troops, which made the taking of the Pacific Islands much easier. American troops also built the famous Ledoburma Road that served as a supply route to China, once it was opened. Prior to the opening of the road, all supplies were flown in and, at one time, Kun-

Drivers must have proof of compulsory insurance

Beginning January 1, 1982, Texas drivers contacted by Department of Public Safety officers during traffic stops and vehicle accident investigations will be required to furnish proof of compliance with the new compulsory liability insurance law.

Under House Bill 197, an amendment to the Safety Responsibility Act approved this year by the Texas Legislature, all drivers must carry minimum liability coverage for medical expenses of $10,000 per person ($20,000 for two or more persons) and property damages of $5,000.

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director, said troopers will accept as evidence of insurance coverage the policy for the vehicle being operated or a document issued by the insurance company. "Such a document must contain a statement that the liability coverage for the motor vehicle is the minimum prescribed by the law," Adams said. "The document must also include the name of the insurance company, name of the insured person, policy period and policy number. This document may take the form of a letter or a card, depending upon the preference of the insuring company."

Adams pointed out that DPS troopers will be enforcing the provisions of this law along highways and rural roads. "Local police officers and sheriff's deputies also have the authority to request this information from drivers," the DPS director said. "I am sure most law enforcement agencies in our state will also be enforcing this statute in their respective jurisdictions."

Drivers who do not maintain the specified coverage risk being fined at least $75 for the first offense and a minimum $200 for subsequent violations. In addition, a conviction under this new law will result in the suspension of the violator's driver license and motor vehicle registration unless the violator establishes and maintains proof of financial responsibility for five years from the conviction date.

Adams also said vehicles which are to be used in the driving test by new driver license applicants must be covered by the minimum liability insurance specified by the law. Applicants will have to certify on the license application that the minimum coverage is in effect for the vehicle before they will be permitted to take the driving test.

The DPS director predicted that more Texans will obtain the required liability coverage when the new law goes into effect.

"Current figures show that approximately 74 percent of the drivers involved in accidents carry liability insurance," Adams said. "This indicates that a substantial number of people must secure the required coverage or face the possibility of heavy fines and loss of driving privileges."

Out-of-state, government-owned and self-insured vehicles are exempt from the insurance requirements of the new law. However, drivers of self-insured vehicles will be asked by DPS officers to produce evidence of self-insurance at accident scenes and traffic stops.

Lubbock SBA disaster loan office moves

Phil O'Jibway, District Director of Small Business Administration's Lubbock District, announced recently that the processing office for SBA disaster loans, located at 720 Texas Avenue in Lubbock will move to the Federal Office Building effective October 28.

The office, which will be manned by a reduced staff, will be in Room 224 of the Federal Building located at 1205 Texas Avenue in Lubbock. The servicing office for existing disaster loans will continue to operate out of Room B-46 of the Federal Building, according to O'Jibway. The District Office is located in Room 712, Federal Building. For additional information, call (806) 762-7481 or (806) 762-7462.

SELF RELIANCE—BIG VALUE CHANGE ACROSS NATION

A "big" value change across the nation is underway — self-reliance, or "keeping down with the Jones," as some like to call it.

It has lots of different characteristics, too: handwork is increasing in prestige, the simple life is "in" and conservation is "the Thing" to do.

Why? Inflation, nostalgia and a desire for a simpler, less-complicated lifestyle — long a disenchantment over quality of workmanship done by others and a larger chunk of leisure time — are some of the reasons.

How encompassing and different is the change from values and lifestyles of the past few years?

Self-reliance seems to be sweeping the nation, and this rush to do things for one's self instead of paying someone else to do it reflects a substantial change in values.

Instead of ranking people by what they own, this emerging "prosumer" ethic (production for personal Consumption) is placing a status value on people for what they can do.

Handwork is increasing in prestige — whether it's to build one's own home, mend a fence, cook a great meal, make one's own clothes or

Christmas selections vary at Cogdell's Store

An old-fashioned tree in 1981, try popcorn and ornaments designs from 1890 two-story from Col. C.C. Whiteface.

Limited-edition ornaments featured at the General Store of the Heritage Center.

ter of The Museum of Texas Tech University. The 1981 ball depicts the Long S Two-Story dugout from the outdoor exhibit.

The 1981 ornament is the fourth in a series of ornaments depicting structures at the center. A few of the second balls, made in 1979, and depicting the center's mid-1870s Jowell House, are still available. The 1978 ornament, depicting the 1887 Masterson JY Bunkhouse, and the 1980 ornament, depicting the 1883 Harrell House, sold out.

Each ornament comes with a description of the building and its historic significance. A Christmas card picturing the Masterson JY Bunkhouse is available at the store.

Other ornaments reflecting a traditional Christmas include old-fashioned foil-covered, chocolate Santas and cornucopia box ornaments—boxes decorated with Christmas scenes from yesteryear. They can be filled with candy or small toys.

For the western or Texas Christmas tree, the store has leather cowboy boot and cowboy hat ornaments and ceramic Texas ornaments including the map of Texas, stars, longhorns, armadillos, pioneer ladies and cowboys.

White, crocheted angels, bells, balls, snowflakes and hearts could add an elegant touch to a tree.

Other items of decoration include cornhusk and cinnamon wreaths, stuffed wreaths complemented by lace and dried flowers and stuffed wreaths in a variety of shapes including one that spells J-O-Y.

Quilting group participates in training

Sgt. Edward Aguilar of Carmen Aguilar recently participated in training and an exercise at the Marine Air/Ground Center, Twenty-nine California.

A member of the 1st Camp Pendleton.

California. His unit participated in squad, platoon and company level tactics, desert operations and survival training. They conducted live-firing exercises with the M-16 rifle, M-60 machine gun, the light anti-tank assault weapon, mortars and other anti-tank weapons.

The training culminated with the participation in a "Combined Arms Exercise." The exercise is designed to emphasize fire support coordination between infantry, air, tank, artillery, mortar and anti-tank missile units.

Aguilar joined the Marine Corps in February 1975.

Jarnigan returns from deployment

Chief Machinist's Mate M. Jarnigan, son of Floriene Jarnigan, recently returned from a deployment to the Pacific and the Indian.

is a crewmember

aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Bainbridge, homeported in San Diego. During the seven-month cruise, his ship operated as a unit of the 7th Fleet and participated in various training exercises with other 7th Fleet ships and those of allied nations. Port calls were made to Korea, Thailand, Republic of the Philippines and Hong Kong.

The Bainbridge is 565 feet long and carries a crew of 500. It is outfitted with Harpoon cruise missiles, missile launchers, torpedos and anti-submarine rockets.

A 1969 graduate of Floydada High School, Jarnigan joined the Navy in April 1971.

Mer Mellrath of San California visited last with her mother, Ethel and her sister and in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

1981 cotton crop could considerably more than predicted, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, recently released figures. Based on conditions, the now estimates the 14.8 million bales, or million metric tons, a third above the 1980 Although the USDA estimates disapp at a higher rate, 1, 1982 stocks could 1 million - 0.91 metric tons from this August's beginning level. More news from USDA: Textile mills are to increase their of cotton from 5.9 bales in 1980-81, to million bales. Although estimates cotton will continue to in- cautions that recovery will be slowly slow. However, usage and styles are moving strongly toward natural look - good news for cotton producer.

LET'S KEEP THE WATER RUNNING IN TEXAS!

In cities and towns all across Texas, local water problems are threatening to erupt into one enormous statewide crisis. Countless communities are facing growing water supply, water treatment, sewage treatment and flood control problems estimated to cost a staggering $50 billion over the next 25 years. To make matters worse, federal funds for water projects have recently been slashed.

But on November 3, Texans have the opportunity to adopt a plan, already passed by two-thirds of the Legislature, which would harness a portion of our state's budget surplus to help shoulder that heavy local burden.

The plan is proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 4.

Passage of Amendment No. 4 would:

- Make possible the sale of more than $200 million in authorized and urgently needed state bonds to address a backlog of needed projects.
- Create a loan guaranty program to enable local communities to save millions of dollars in issuing future bonds.
- Begin to build a "nest egg" for the future from a part of the state's budget surplus to assist local governments in financing future water and sewage projects.

Texas' water needs must be met, either now or in the future. We can act now, and save money... or pay the higher price later for our neglect, with possible increased taxes. Sensible action now makes much more sense for Texas.

Key Notes to appear in Floydada at First Baptist

A Gospel Trio from Perryton, Texas will be singing in First Baptist Church in the Adult 2 Sunday School department and in the Morning Worship Service on Sunday, November 1.

The group is composed of Charlotte Davis, who also plays guitar; Margaret Swinney, Colleen Jones, accompanist, and Esther Parker.

now of Floydada. The group began singing together in the 1960's—mostly at Key Heights Baptist Church, then began travelling in 1973 averaging 5,000 miles a year and including five states.

Church worship services, weekend revivals, banquets, civic clubs, and company parties were the varied places of service for their ministry. Two long-play record albums (and tapes) were also made during this period and will be available.

The appearance here will be a reunion of the group which has not sung together since Esther Parker moved to Floydada in February.

You are cordially invited to hear the Key Notes this Sunday, November 1 at First Baptist Church in the 11:00 Worship Hour.

Continuing bollworm threat demands farmers attention, conference told

A serious onslaught by bollworm this year, cotton yield losses were only half what they were in 1979, according to a cotton entomologist with the Agricultural Extension Service at the 29th annual Texas Agricultural Chemicals Conference in Lubbock.

Dr. James Leser, extension entomologist, is due to producers becoming more aware of the problem. Losses from bollworm could amount to 50,000 bales, but might have reached more than 100,000 bales if effective control had not been applied, he said.

Participants in the two-day conference at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center heard speakers discuss the use of hazardous wastes, weed killers, growth regulators and pesticide regulations and the use of computers in farm management and the agricultural chemistry. The educational program was presented by the West Texas Agricultural Chemicals Institute and participants from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and other states.

worked for Shamrock Oil Co. and was manager of Hale Center Butane Co. for several years before starting his farm supply business.

Garretson will be installed as president of the Texas LP Gas Association later this year. He also is a member of the Texas Oil Marketers Association, Texas Plant Food Institute, and has served two terms on the Hale Center city council.

Ivie is director of the agricultural and environmental sciences division of the Texas Department of Agriculture. He received the institute's award presented annually to a representative of a public institution.

The institute cited his leadership in grasshopper control and diapause boll weevil control programs, which saved thousands of acres of rangeland from devastation and limited the spread of the weevil. He also was lauded for working closely with industry representatives in getting federal designation of appropriate chemicals for state special local needs and for his active support for establishment of reasonable guidelines for aerial application of chemicals.

A native of Denison, he is a 1958 graduate of East Texas State College and has worked with TDA since his graduation. He served as an agricultural inspector at Longview, assistant supervisor at Tyler, and district supervisor at both Odessa and Lubbock before assuming his current post in 1972.

Ivie is a member of the Texas Structural Pest Control Board, the Texas Boll Weevil Advisory Committee, the National Plan Board Advisory Council and the American Association of Pesticide Control Officials. He has served as secretary, vice chairman and chairman of the Southern Plant Board.

In the session on hazardous wastes, a Dow Chemical Co. representative, John Drenckpohl, predicted that future issues on hazardous wastes will be "cradle-to-grave". The person who starts a project will be responsible from beginning to end, said Drenckpohl, quality assurance manager for Dow's agriculture production department.

Dr. James Supak, cotton agronomist with Extension, reported on work being conducted with growth regulators. "Many people feel growth regulators will become as important to us as herbicides and insecticides," he said. Preliminary tests indicate some yield benefits, but the chemicals still are being researched to determine their effect on fiber quality and consistent results from specific applications, he said.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT—Texas Tech University senior agriculture engineering major Ricky Covington has received a $1,000 scholarship from Farmland Industries. Present at a luncheon honoring Covington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Covington of Floydada, and other scholarship recipients were, from left, Dr. Fred P. Wagner, assistant dean of engineering; Dr. Robert L. Newell, associate dean of engineering; Covington; and Mike Goolsby, Farmland Industries members relations consultant for the southwest region. and senior agricultural engineering major Ricky Covington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Covington of Floydada.

On hand for a luncheon honoring the scholarship recipients were Agriculture Dean Samuel E. Curl, Business Dean Carl H. Stem and Farmland Industries representatives Michael Goolsby, member relations consultant for the southern region, and John Barstow, regional market representative in Amarillo.

Covington is scholarship recipient

Four Texas Tech University students have been awarded $1,000 scholarships from Farmland Industries.

Recipients of the scholarships are senior agricultural entomology major Brad Lance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy and senior agricultural engineering major Ricky Covington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Covington of Floydada.

Lance of Farwell; junior agricultural economics major Mark Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Moore of Lorenzo; junior management information systems major Janet Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Medlock of Lorenzo;

On hand for a luncheon honoring the scholarship recipients were Agriculture Dean Samuel E. Curl, Business Dean Carl H. Stem and Farmland Industries representatives Michael Goolsby, member relations consultant for the southern region, and John Barstow, regional market representative in Amarillo.

Farmland Industries, one of the country's major farm supply companies, has been giving scholarships to Texas Tech students for 20 years.

Brucellosis control will continue this year

The Texas livestock industry will continue its progress in brucellosis control during the coming year, John Armstrong, Kingsville, chairman, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

He made that assessment following a study of proposed changes by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and recommendations to them made at a recent meeting of the U.S. Animal Health Association in St. Louis. The changes are scheduled to go in effect January 1, 1982.

Armstrong noted these features of the Texas Plan will continue for 1982:

1. A two-area concept which rewards progress in brucellosis control:

2. Incentives for Texas producers to clean up infection;
3. Emphasis on vaccination which reduces the number of tests for brucellosis on eligible cattle;
4. Certified brucellosis free herds.

"A great deal of progress has been achieved in a short time by cowmen in this state with the present Texas Plan. We can see an increase in this effort as we have in place a program for Texas with which producers can and are cooperating," Armstrong said.

More than 98 percent of cattle herds in Texas are free of brucellosis. "Our Texas program is designed to be epidemiologically sound, yet one which will be flexible enough to allow as much free movement as possible for those cattle herds which are not infected with this disease. Proposed changes continue this positive program," Armstrong said.

USDA proposals for 1982 include a four status classification: Free, A, B, and C. Rates of infection will determine the status for the state or area within a state. Free means no herd infection; A means herd infection rates from 0 to .25 percent; B will be from .25 percent to 1.5 percent; C will be 1.5 percent herd infection rate and over.

"Preliminary data suggests that Texas will be in a B and C classification. The B area will generally be the western half of the state; the C area will be in the eastern half," he said. (They likely will coincide closely with the present brucellosis control areas.)

"The proposals carry on our Texas plan of rewards and incentives. As producers continue to clean up infection, the two-area plan will permit upgrading our status classification which will lead to fewer restrictions on movement of cattle.

"Producers in the western half of the state can receive the benefits of their labor by having a higher classification than the eastern half. And the plan will encourage producers in the eastern half of the state to increase their efforts to clean up the disease so they, too, can be faced with fewer restrictions as their progress continues," Armstrong explained.

Vaccination, he noted, is strongly emphasized in the proposals in that a vaccinated animal will be able to move more freely than one which is not vaccinated. "One of the main parts of the Texas Plan is vaccination with the reduced dosage of Strain 19. It is a key element in our total program," he said.

Armstrong also suggested that every cattle producer in the state, both registered and non-registered and beef and dairy, consider working towards a certified brucellosis free herd. "This will provide the producer with freest movement of cattle possible," he said.

Armstrong is vice chairman of the brucellosis committee of the U.S. Animal Health Association. That organization is nationwide in membership, and is made up of industry spokesmen and state and federal regulatory personnel. It reviews and recommends any changes that appear needed in regulations affecting animal diseases in the U.S. USDA proposes changes to USAHA for its advice.

Range water vital to ranching

Plenty of good quality water well-distributed over a ranch is essential for balanced forage and livestock production, says Dr. Wayne Hanselka of Corpus Christi, a range specialist.

"Water is essential for the well-being of livestock," explains Hanselka, who is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "Watering facilities contribute to daily grazing behavior and influence grazing distribution."

Water for livestock comes from three main sources, notes Hanselka. These are rain water, surface water and underground water. Developing the sources includes drilling a well, constructing a tank or reservoir or piping water.

Depending on the amount of rainfall and soil type, reservoirs, and stock ponds may or may not provide enough water during summer dry spells. When constructing water facilities, use care to provide as much water as possible while limiting the surface area to reduce evaporation," urges Hanselka.

Pumping is one of the most common means of obtaining water. However, problems may arise during the "dog days" of late summer when there is little or no wind.

"Use of PVC (polyvinyl chloride) and plastic pipe to transport water to livestock has become popular in recent years and has opened up a great deal of rangeland for grazing," explains the range specialist.

Location and number of watering facilities are important considerations for the rancher, adds Hanselka. Cattle should travel no more than two miles round-trip for water which should ideally be located in the center of the pasture. This distance should be less with rough or brushy terrain. If the pasture is continuously grazed, the specialist recommends one watering facility for every 50-60 head.

"Even though cattle and horses can travel greater distances for water than sheep and goats, they require water more often," notes Hanselka. "Water intake will be less on green forage in the spring when weather is cool. Minimum water requirements for a cow with a calf is 10 gallons per day, but this increases to 15-20 gallons during summer days."

Water is also a major concern to wildlife production, says the specialist, but it's generally sufficient for the needs of wild animals.

"One final consideration for ranchers is the quality of water for livestock. Good quality water is clear and odorless, contains no disease organisms, has no undesirable flavors and no objectionable gases. Even though water may not measure up to these standards, it may be suitable for consumption," adds Hanselka.

He suggests caution when using water from old oil bores perforated for use as water wells. Such water may be high in salts and gases and could be contaminated with caustic chemicals used in well drilling.

Texas farms increasing while nation's total drops

While the total number of farms in the United States continues to decline, Texas is bucking the trend.

The most significant reason for the increasing number of farms in Texas is the division of medium-sized farms in East Texas, according to Dr. William E. Black, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"But a relatively small portion of the total number of farms are now producing an increasingly larger share of agricultural products," Black notes. "This is called concentration."

According to the 1978 Census of Agriculture, about 2.8 percent of the Texas farms produced 60 percent of the value of farm cash receipts. This compares with about 2.8 percent of the U.S. farms producing about 36 percent of the nation's cash receipts from agriculture.

The U.S. Census Bureau defines a farm as "any place from which $1,000 or more worth of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold in the previous year."

This general definition of a farm, which has been changed since the 1974 Census of Agriculture, is part of the reason for an increasing number of farms in Texas, adds Black. Along with this is the disappearance of medium-sized farms.

"In West Texas, medium farms are being consolidated to form bigger, more profitable farms," Black explains. "But in East Texas, medium farms are being subdivided into smaller farms to be used as weekend retreats by folks who have to live and work in the city during the week."

In 1974 there were about 174,000 farms in Texas and in 1978 the number had increased to 194,253, according to Census Bureau figures. During the same period, the number of U.S. farms declined.

"Technical advances since the '50s, market pressures and growth in non-farm employment in rural communities are three reasons for the overall decline of this nation's farms," notes Black.

Silverton Young Farmers meet

Silverton Young Farmers held their regular business meeting on Thursday October 22 with Brad Ziegler presiding.

The club will host an appreciation supper on Tuesday, November 3, for all people who helped the Young Farmers with the rodeo held in August.

February 20 was set for the annual Silverton Young Farmers Awards Banquet to be held in the Silverton school cafeteria. The banquet committee was appointed with Bill Reid, chairman, assisted by Donnie Perkins and Tobe Riddell.

Members discussed the upcoming halloween carnival to be held Saturday October 31 in the Briscoe County 4-H Barns. The club voted not to have a booth this year.

The Young Farmer Club voted to have a amateur rodeo in August, if the club can. Wayne Stephens was appointed to get prices from the rodeo producers.

Wayland Fitzgerald will get the guest speaker for the November 12 meeting.

"Candlelight At The Museum" to be held December 2nd and 3rd

Visitors to the 4th annual "Candlelight At The Museum," December 2-3 will walk down Christmas memory lane at The Museum of Texas Tech University and the Ranching Heritage Center.

Christmas scenes will include an austere 1840s Christmas at the El Capote Log Cabin, a traditional frontier German Christmas at the Hedwigs Hill Log Cabin and an elegant turn-of-the-century Christmas in the Barton House.

At The Museum, visitors will see "Holiday Excursions," demonstrating ways people travel during holidays, and "Collector's Treasures," with collections such as dolls, Christmas plates, nativity scenes, 1930s toys, toy lead soldiers and music boxes.

Focusing on the theme, "A Time for Remembering," "Candlelight at The Museum," will be 6-8 p.m. both Wednesday and Thursday. Admission is $2 per family or 50 cents per person. The annual event is sponsored by The Museum.

Caroling, a Christmas puppet show by the Texas Tech Puppeteers, music by the South Plains College Country and Bluegrass Department, and refreshments served by the Women's Council of the West Texas Museum Association will be part of the festivities.

Volunteers and staff members of The Museum, dressed in pioneer attire, will be housed in the lighted buildings at The Ranching Heritage Center to demonstrate Christmas activities typical of each building. Activities will include baking, tree-trimming, wreath-making, gift-wrapping, needlework and whittling.

Corn grinding and corn-husk doll making will be part of the activities in the El Capote Log Cabin while a pinata will be the center of attention in the Picket and Sotol House.

The Victrola will be played in the Harrell House, the pump organ in the Box and Strip House and the piano in the Barton House, while guitar strumming and harmonica playing take place in the Masterson JY Bunkhouse and the Matador Half-Dug-out.

A Christmas ball is planned in the Las Escarbas ranch headquarters.

Girl Scouts will make tree decorations and trim the tree in the Bairfield Schoolhouse. After "Candlelight At The Museum," the tree will be donated to a local nursing home.

Cowboys will be gathered around the campfire near the Reynolds-Gentry Barn, settlers will be feasting on Christmas goodies at the Jowell House and a cowboy will be awaiting the arrival of Christmas in the Long S. Two-Story Dugout.

Lanterns, candles and luminarias will light the paths of visitors during the event as firelight flickers in the fireplaces of several buildings and in the Edith McKanna Whatley Parlor.

Parmer County Christmas Bazaar scheduled

Announcing! The Seventh Annual Christmas Bazaar sponsored by the Parmer County Family Living Committee is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, November 20 and 21 at the Community Center in Friona.

SPC to sponsor festival

Attention High School seniors on the South Plains! South Plains College, Levelland, is hosting an art festival and competition just for you! Winners will receive certificates, and art works will be displayed at SPC during November. And there'll be a special reception for top artists and their families. Deadline to enter is November 7th! Contact Don Stroud, creative arts chairman at SPC, for more information. That's 806-894-9611!

South Plains College at Plainview will offer another in its recent series of photography courses beginning October 29, and meeting each Thursday night from 6:30 to 10:00 p.m. for seven weeks, excluding the week of Thanksgiving. Class will be held in room 104 of the Muncy Building, located at 708 Yonkers. Interested individuals may register in the Continuing Education Office and also at the first meeting on the 29th of October. The cost of the course is $40.00, payable at registration.

Kevin Keeling will teach the seven week course entitled "Color Photography."

It will touch on the basics of camera handling, composition, use of light, creative use of filters and choice of film for best color effect. Besides classroom instruction, the students will be involved in shooting and developing their own slides.

Keeling is a freelance photographer and sales manager for a local photo shop. He is a member of the Society of Certified Photographic Counselors of the Photo Marketing Association. His teaching experience includes adult continuing education classes at Wayland Baptist University, color and portrait classes for South Plains College at Plainview and numerous photo and yearbook workshops at area schools, including an adult education class for Tulia High School in basic photography.

Anyone needing additional information may contact Bill Polk at 293-3605.

Classes to be taught on nursing in Crosbyton

The Crosbyton Independent School District, Western Texas College and Lubbock Methodist Hospital have announced a long-range plan to prepare students wishing to enroll in the hospital's school of nursing.

Classes will be taught in Crosbyton starting in the spring of 1982. Enrollment is open to adults beginning their study as well as to vocational nurses who would like to become registered nurses. The current series will run through the summer of 1983 and is then to be repeated for other beginning students. Upon completion of the program, students may apply for entrance to Lubbock Methodist Hospital's nursing school. Persons already licensed as vocational nurses may attempt to gain additional credit through the College Level Examination Program (CLEP).

Courses on the 1982 spring schedule are Microbiology (BIO 247), Child Growth and Development (PSY 232), and Composition I (ENG 132).

Attending the planning meeting for the new program in Crosbyton were Jerry Scott, superintendent of Crosbyton schools; Helen Payne, career counselor at Methodist Hospital; Marquita Montgomery, a prospective student; Dr. Duane Hood, Dean of Student Services at Western Texas College, and Dr. Mary Hood, Director of testing and counselor at WTC.

Persons wishing additional information about the program may contact Scott in Crosbyton at AC 806 675-2611 or Dr. Duane Hood at WTC in Snyder, AC 915 573-8511.
