Floyd County gins on downhill side of '81 runs

BY BILL SAYERS

Harvest throughout Floyd County has been able to operate "ginning along" at an average pace and is rapidly winding up its closing stages. The exception, bright, sunny weather the experienced during November thus far in December has enabled almost continuous harvesting and the gins have been able to operate 24 hours per day to keep pace with the glut of cotton that has been filling the gin yards to capacity.

Unfortunately, however, this period of beautiful weather was preceded by a long, wet, cold period throughout

August, September and part of October that dealt irreparable harm to the quality of cotton being harvested. Though the quantity in most instances has held up in this area, the quality is way off from that of past harvest years, according to the ten gin managers and gin spokesman contacted in Floyd county during the week.

Contacted independently, and with no foreknowledge of what other ginners may have said, they were unanimous in their opinions that this crop is very inferior to those of the past several years. The consensus throughout is that the adverse weather of the late summer months vastly effected the grade and the turnout.

Grades were universally low and the turnout reports ran from as low as eight percent to 22 percent, with the average over all around 17 percent. All reported an overload of green bolls, much stalk and other trash in the cotton as it came into the gin yards. This, again, they attribute to the weather which delayed and prevented maturity, and in some cases hail, which heavily damaged the crop.

L.D. Smith at Hendricks Barwise Gin, was the only one who reported heavy hail in the area back in June. He reports that in many cases the hail caused late planting and with the weather of August and September, the cotton just could not mature into a good crop.

Most of the ten gins contacted said they were approximately 80% complete on the season, though some, mainly the bigger gins, reported approximately 60% complete. Completion times for the earliest and the latest run from the week after Christmas to well up into January.

All gin spokesmen were agreed that ninety five to ninety eight percent of the cotton crop in Floyd county had been stripped. That that has not been received at the gins is probably still in modules in the fields, they state. The ginners all seemed to agree that the cotton was arriving at the gins around half and half in trailers and in module form. They also agreed that the module form is a highly welcome innovation and most expressed their hope that the day of the cotton trailer is numbered.

Floydada Coop Gins was far and away the largest of the ten gins contacted. As of 15 December they reported approximately 55% complete with 17,200 bales ginned, with approximately 15,000 to go. Gin manager Ray Ferguson estimates they will need another 40 days to complete this year's run.

This gin survey was made based upon the following basic questions:

1. What percentage of the year's run have you completed?
2. How many bales ginned? How many do you expect to gin?
3. What grades are you getting compared to other years?
4. What is the average turnout?
5. If grades and turnout are low, why are they low?
6. When do you expect to complete your gin run?

Based upon these basic questions, these are the answers given by the ten gins surveyed in Floyd county:

Floydada Coop Gins — 1. 55% complete 2. 17,200-15,000 more. 3. Grade is fair, mike is low. 4. Average turnout 17-18%. 5. Both low due to weather in August and September. 6. In about 40 days.

Lockney Coop Gin, Gail Kring, Manager—1. 85% complete. 2. Don't release that information. 3. Grades lower than 1980 crop. 4. Turnout not reported. 5. Not reported. 6. Early January.

Lockney Gin, Lester Carter, Manager; Howard Brown, spokesman. 1. 80% or more ginned. 2. We have ginned approximately 5,700 and expect to gin 7,800 more. 3. Grades fair to good, not as good as 1980. 4. Average turnout is 17-18 percent. 5. Bad turnout due to cold, wet weather in late summer. 6. Weather permitting we will finish by early January.

Evans gin, Spokesman unidentified. 1. 80% complete. 2. We have baled 80% of 6,000 expected. 3. Grade is fair to good. 4. Average turnout is low at 17-25%. 5. Poor grade and turnout due to bad weather. 6. 10 days to two weeks to go.

Sterley Gin, Jim Roberts, Manager. 1. 75% complete. 2. Have baled 6,511 of 9,000 estimated total. 3. Grades fair to poor. 4. Turnout running 18-20%. 5. Not reported. 6. Early January.

DOVE COTTON MODULES represent the very latest in cotton harvest on the High Plains. Unfortunately, they also represent the 1981 crop which is to be one of the poorest crops of recent years in grade and turn-out. The poor quality is attributed by producers and ginners to the unusually wet and cool weather during its normal maturing time in August and September.

Tulia government officials represented

Tulia meeting protests nuclear dump sites

Approximately 150 opponents of a nuclear waste dumping site in the Panhandle met Monday night to emphatically voice their opposition to the proposal. Among the speakers were representatives of STAND (Texas Against Nuclear Dumping) and other representatives of state and local officials, who all registered their opposition to the plan.

Nuclear waste disposal project in the Panhandle area as a liability site due to the geological conditions there which will fit the need for safe storage of radiation waste from nuclear plants. The Tulia area and surrounding areas are considered especially well suited as disposal sites due to the huge salt beds required and the stability of the local geological formations.

Deaf Smith and adjoining counties are also considered prime prospects by the Department of Energy (DOE). Two test holes have already been drilled in Swisher county (Tulia) and others are projected for both that and other counties.

One of the biggest objections—aside from the apparent dangers to human and animal life—expressed by residents of these counties is the fact that Deaf Smith county, a prime target area is the number one agricultural producing county in the state and Swisher county is number six. The other counties involved also have outstanding agricultural production potential.

Their arguments include the fact that one nuclear dump requires 160 acres for the main dump site, plus a five mile restricted area around that and prohibition of oil drilling or mining for 12 miles beyond that. This would take—considering more than one dump site—and untold number of acres of prime farm land out of production.

Glenna Crooks, Chairwoman of STAND, the Tulia-based organization that sponsored the Monday meeting, said the next major action of nuclear waste opponents will be to attend public hearings sponsored by DOE in Tulia, Hereford and Amarillo in January. The hearings will afford the federal government the opportunity to receive local citizens comments on the nuclear waste dumping project.

If this area is selected as a prime site and the project is completed, actual burial of the nuclear waste may not be carried out until around the year 2,000 and would involve spent waste from nuclear power plants. This lag time seems much less important, however, when the facts are known that the waste from nuclear power plants has the strongest radiation of all the wastes and requires at least 10,000 years of isolation.

Among those expressing alarm was Lynn Kemper, a marketing specialist at the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Kemper told the Tulia group that the Department of Agriculture is concerned about having the Panhandle as a dump site because it might adversely affect some $170 million a year in agriculture products in Swisher County and the surrounding areas.

Kemper handed out press releases in which Agricultural Commissioner Brown said, "I can't imagine a poorer choice for a site that is to contain nuclear waste. You can't find more productive land anywhere in Texas...my major concern as commissioner of agriculture is for the continued crop and livestock production."

Linda Ginsberg, a Lubbock aide to Sen. John Tower told the group that the senator has requested that Energy Secretary James Edwards provide a detailed report about plans for nuclear waste dumping in the Panhandle. The aid said the senator, for now, is taking a "wait and see attitude."

Tulia area Congressmen meet with FmHA official on loan foreclosures

Wholesale foreclosures on those farms on the High Plains holding Farm Administration (FmHA) loans have been shortstopped, at least temporarily, by the action of four congressmen representing districts in the Panhandle and South Plains.

Representatives of four other states, and representatives of Senator Lloyd Bentsen and K. de la Garza with FmHA Administrator Charles Shuman in the office of Rep. Hightower. The other congressmen besides Hightower included Cong. Kent Hance, Cong. Marvin Leath and Cong. Charles Stenholm.

The following is a report on the meeting and agreements made there by Cong. Stenholm.

Some 900 West Texas farmers who were scheduled to receive warnings from the Farmers Home Administration that their financing for the 1982 crop that they were in danger, will be dealt with on an individual basis. Congressman Charles W. Stenholm was assured by FmHA Washington officials late last week.

Some "policy letters," official warnings from FmHA that future financing would depend on the farmer being current on his 1981 loan, unless he met certain criteria, have already been sent to Texas borrowers, Stenholm said.

"A warning of this type causes tremendous concern among those farmers who are already holding on by their fingernails," he said, "and the uncertainty of just what the FmHA position was going to be prompted Congressman Jack Hightower, Kent Hance, Marvin Leath and Stenholm to meet with FmHA Administrator Charles Shuman and members of his staff to get some answers."

Following the Friday morning meeting, Stenholm said he felt "reassured that FmHA would handle the cases on an individual basis and be seriously trying to avert large-scale liquidations just to meet the exact letter of the law."

Stenholm expressed his continuing concern, however, with the criteria to be applied to those cases, particularly official FmHA policy regarding commodity pricing projections. "The question is whether a farmer's whole livelihood will be determined by actual current commodity prices that presently don't even come close to allowing him enough income to pay back his loan or some obscure pricing formula set arbitrarily either in Washington or the state level that just doesn't reflect the seriousness of the current situation," Stenholm said.

Areas of Texas, including West Central Texas and the High Plains region, have been particularly hard hit, with some 100 farmers in Stenholm's Congressional District, 400 from Hance's district and 400 from Hightower's district, reportedly scheduled to receive the warnings. "We are trying to work closely with the FmHA Administrator to avoid any failure of communications between Washington and the local FmHA administrators to cause what could only be termed economic disaster for the producer involved," Stenholm explained. "I'd have to add that there will undoubtedly be those marginal operations that may well go under if commodity prices don't improve, but there are many efficient producers who are unjustly caught up in this economic nightmare who deserve every opportunity to weather the storm," he continued.

Quilt to help local family

A drawing for a quilt, with funds benefitting the Guadalupe Martinez family, is being sponsored by friends of the family. Martinez was in an automobile accident last Sunday morning, as he was returning home from work.

Drawing for this quilt will be on Friday at the meeting room in the Agriculture Building at 3:30 p.m. A door on the south side of the building can be used. The winner will be in the December 24th issue of the Hesperian.

"This will help his family have a Christmas this year. Thank you for your donations and cooperation," stated a friend.

For more information, anyone interested in helping may call 983-5698 or go by 405 W. Grover, Floydada.

The Rev. Michael O'Connor's Perspectives

The governor of South Dakota sees no reason why a nativity scene should not be placed on the grounds of the state capitol. Nativities are seasonal more than religious, and to some people "they are like Barbie dolls," according to the good governor.

At issue, of course, is the separation of church and state, and ACLU sponsored groups are suing across the nation trying to prevent local and state governments using public property for the display of Nativity scenes.

The original intent of the establishment clause of the Constitution was to prevent the government from declaring any one religion or denomination the official religion of the country. The ACLU seems to think it was meant to give government the right to have absolutely nothing to do with religion.

The real tragedy lies in the South Dakota governor's remarks. That a representation of the Christ's birth should be placed on a level with tinsel, Santa Claus, "a Hemphill's time of year," and, it is so hard to say it, Barbie dolls, is a barbarity almost beyond description.

Such an attitude says that the act of God in giving himself to the world, is essentially a harmless thing. Whatever else in the world they may be, the birth, life, and death of Jesus were anything but harmless. The Roman Empire spent a good deal of time trying to stamp out the effects wrought by the followers of that child born in the manger. What other person's birth is celebrated in such a worldwide manner?

If the governor is right, the ACLU doesn't have a thing to worry about. But if he is wrong, then perhaps the ACLU is on the right track. After all, we can't let the government be involved in spreading the message that "in the fullness of time, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman". God knows what would happen if that word got out.

Social Security News

BY RAY PURCELL

Today's column deals with changes in the tax rate and wage base in 1982. If you receive Social Security or work in employment covered by Social Security this will be of interest to you.

Starting in January the tax rate will be 6.7% for covered workers. Self-employed people will be paying 9.35%. The self-employed person pays a little more because no one matches his contribution; whereas, the employer pays 6.7% for each employee.

The maximum earnings that are subject to social security taxes will increase also. This year the maximum is $29,700. In 1982 the figure will be $32,400. This means a worker earning over $32,400 will pay $2,170.80 in FICA taxes in 1982. In 1981 a worker who earned the maximum paid $1,975.05 in Social Security taxes.

Not everyone earns the maximum, so just what does this mean for the average wage earner or one with low earnings? An average worker earning $13,729 in 1981 paid $912.98 in Social Security taxes. In 1982, based on an estimated salary of $15,045, this worker will pay $1,008.02 in Social Security taxes.

A person with lower earnings of say $6,968 in 1981 paid taxes of $463.37. This worker will pay $511.61 in 1982 if he earns $7,636.

There have also been changes in the amount a person who receives a social security benefit may earn. If a beneficiary is under 65 years of age, he or she will be able to earn $4,440.00 before any adjustment. This is an increase of $360 over the 1981 amount of $4,080. For a person who is 65 years old or over, the amount will be $6,000 in 1982 — an increase of $500 over the 1981 level of $5,500.

After a person earns the applicable limit, his or her social security benefit is reduced $1.00 for every $2.00 over the limit that is earned.

Just what do all these taxes and various limits translate into? Next week we will review the various types of protection all of this buys for the worker and his or her family. In the meantime, if you have a question, feel free to call our toll-free number for assistance — 1-800-392-1603.

It was signed by President Ronald Reagan.

Double ring ceremony unites Johnson, Burson

On Saturday evening, December 12, Denise Johnson repeated wedding promises with John True Burson in the South Plains Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. L.N. Johnson of South Plains and Mr. and Mrs. Don Burson of Silverton. The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daniel of South Plains and Mr. and the late Mrs. O.A. Johnson of Pampa. The groom is the grandson of Mrs. Iris, and the late True Burson and Mrs. Nannie, and the late Tom Bomar, all of Silverton.

Hollis Shewmake, Baptist minister of Levelland, directed the exchange of double ring vows.

The altar area of the church was decorated with large ivory vases containing dark red roses and ivory broomweed underneath an arch of brass horseshoes centered with the couple's personal brand. Behind this was a double arch candelabra holding sixty-four lighted cranberry tapers. Vases of roses and broomweed flanked either side of the area and were also in planter boxes alongside the musical instruments. Aisle pews were marked with brass horseshoes. Windows of the church held candle arrangements.

At the close of the ceremony, the newlyweds lighted the unity candle which was on the kneeling bench rail. Mrs. LaRue Garvin of Silverton was organist and accompanied Pamela Hull of Lubbock as she sang, "The Rose," "Through the Eyes of Love," "Walk Through This World With Me" and "Color My World" in which she was joined by Deneen Johnson on the flute. Mrs. Hull also sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

The mother of the bride was escorted by her son and wore a grey chiffon gown complimented with a corsage of rubrum lilies. The groom's mother was escorted by her son, Tom Burson and was attired in deep teal blue with an orchid corsage.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were Miss Deneen Johnson, maid of honor and twin sister of the bride; Mrs. Shari Smith, sister of the bride; Mrs. Diane Johnson, sister-in-law of the bride; and Mrs. Debra Burson, sister-in-law of the groom; ring bearers Tanner Jay Johnson and Ryon Lee Smith, both nephews of the bride; and flower girl Catherine West of Lubbock.

Bridal attendants wore cranberry polyester knit floor length dresses with pleated skirts falling from an empire waist and topped with short, sleeveless jackets of crystal pleated chiffon featuring ruffles at the neck and arms. They carried bouquets of dark red roses, rose hibiscus and ivory broomweed backed with a lace trimmed handkerchief of rose in a small design. The bouquets were made by her sister, Shari Smith. The flower girl wore a long pink chiffon dress and carried an ivory lace basket containing rose petals.

Bryan Burson was his brother's best man and groomsmen, who also served as ushers were Tom Burson, brother of the groom; Carlton Johnson, brother of the bride; and Brad Smith, brother-in-law of the bride. They wore black tuxedos and ivory shirts with dark red rose boutonnieres. They entered the sanctuary wearing white Stetson hats, then removed them and hung them on a brass hat tree. The ring bearers were also attired in black with ivory shirts and pink sweetheart rose boutonnieres.

Mrs. Ruby Lee Higginbotham of South Plains registered guests and handed out wedding programs.

Presented by her father in marriage, the bride wore an ivory gown made for her by her mother. It featured a long sleeved jacket of heavily pearl-encrusted re-embroidered Alencon lace with a scalloped peplum and double ruffles of crystal pleated nylon at the neck and wrists. The front was closed with tiny covered buttons and was tied at the waist with a satin bow. The skirt of chiffon over polyester ended in a chapel train. She wore a matching picture hat with a bow and floor length veil of point d'esprit illusion. Her bridal bouquet consisted of minuet roses, dark red and pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Tied in the ivory streamers were the wedding bands of both her paternal grandparents.

RECEPTION

The reception featured a complete bar-b-que supper prepared and served by Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham and members of her family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cypert and Mrs. and Mrs. Dick Guggenheim, all of Amarillo.

The bride's table was presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Burgess of Dumas, aunt of the bride. It featured a cake of pink iced in ivory, decorated with miniature cowboy hats, boots and saddles and was encircled at the base with dark red roses. It also held a silver tray filled with white chocolate mints decorated with tiny dark red roses.

Miss Shelley Harris of Silverton served the groom's cake, which was a full size chocolate version of a pair of the groom's boots. A full size pewter hat and silver spurs completed the decorations. The table was laid with an off-white burlap cloth.

Wheat bags, in lieu of rice bags, were passed to the guests by Tanner Johnson and Ryon Smith.

Following their honeymoon, the couple will reside east of Silverton where the groom is engaged in ranching.

The bride, who is a candidate for December graduation with a degree in agriculture education from Texas Tech University, graduated in 1977 from Lockney High School and attended Clarendon Jr. College.

The groom was graduated in 1973 from Silverton High School, attended Clarendon Junior College and received his BS degree in agriculture economics from TTU.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at K-Bob's in Tulla with guests seated at tables centered with Christmas decorations.

Lockney Care Center news

BY VICKIE HUTTON The Christmas spirit has really hit us in a big way. The Home Ec Class and the Early Living Class of Lockney High School came Thursday and Friday and decorated the Care Center for Christmas. We thank these young people for adding something special to the Resident's life. Lockney is very fortunate to have such caring young people. Their smiling faces were really a blessing to everyone. Friday they brought homemade treats for the Residents and everyone had a wonderful time.

Our lucky bingo winners this week were Ruby Vaughan, Evie Henderson, Myrtle Howle, and Myrtle Burke. Our bingo cards are really getting a work out. The Residents enjoyed ice cream bars after the games. Thanks goes to Delinda Glasson, Almeda Phillips, and Lindee Holley for taking time out of their busy schedules to add something special in the lives of the Residents.

Wednesday, the ladies of the Main Street Church of Christ gave another lovely birthday party. We didn't have any birthday honorees in December so the Residents sang "Happy Birthday" to one of our dietary employees, Linda Nuncio. We wish her a "Happy Birthday" and many more.

We were fortunate again to see another Charlie Chaplin film, "The Dentist" it was full of enjoyment. While watching the film we enjoyed some delicious popcorn. Thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. Sv Davis for the popcorn.

Our ceramic class is really in full swing. We are plan-

Christmas News! The newest development in farm implements was announced today. Called a breakthrough in total-usage, energy efficient equipment it may possibly be the most important innovation of the century. The implement's energy efficiency comes as the result of its power source. Using absolutely no gasoline, oil, propane or other petroleum product, it also boasts nearly zero maintenance costs, since it has no moving parts and has managed to reduce friction by floating on air, finding it necessary to land, only occasionally, on rooftops. Although many agricultural engineers scoffed at the power source - eight tiny reindeer - none in the demonstration audience could argue with the message the operator shouted as he drove out of sight: "Merry Christmas to all - thanks to you, we'll eat well tonight!"

No one

 ...like Jesus

No one understands!
 At least it seems that way sometimes. You have hurts, needs, longings, and no one seems to know or care.
 How could they? People may be all around you but they can't look inside to see what you really are, how you feel, or why you do what you do.
 No one understands?
 That's not really true. The happy truth is "No one understands like Jesus!"
 For your sake. He faced life and death and overcame, and He's alive to hear and help you now.

F. PREMISES. A lot or parcel of land, including a building or dwelling, and auxiliary structures thereon.

SECTION 2. ENFORCEMENT OFFICER.
The provisions of this ordinance shall be administered and enforced by the building inspector, or his duly authorized representative, of the City of Lockney.

SECTION 3. RIGHT OF ENTRY.
The building inspector shall enforce the provisions of this ordinance, and he, upon presentation of proper identification to the owner of such property, and in such manner as to cause the least possible inconvenience to the persons in possession, may enter any building, structure, or premises during all reasonable hours, to make inspections or examinations thereof in order to perform the duties imposed on him by this Ordinance.

SECTION 4. WARRANT TO INSPECT PREMISES.
If the owner of any building or dwelling refuses admittance thereto of the building inspector, or his agent or representative, for the purpose of making an examination or inspection of the premises, the building inspector may make an affidavit before any judge or a court of competent jurisdiction that the building inspector believes or has reason to believe, that by an inspection of certain premises designated in the affidavit, he will obtain evidence tending to reveal the existence of violations of this Ordinance. Upon receiving this affidavit, the judge may issue a warrant authorizing the building inspector to inspect the premises named in the affidavit and designated in the warrant, to obtain evidence tending to reveal the existence of violations of this ordinance.

SECTION 5. CITATION
When it shall be determined by the building inspector that a building or structure is vacant and dangerous, within the terms of this ordinance, the building inspector shall cite the owner of such building or structure, or his authorized agent or representative, to appear before the city council and show cause why such building should not be declared to be a public nuisance and why the owner should not be ordered to remove or demolish and clear such building or structure from its premises. The date of such hearing shall be not less than (10) days after such citation shall have been made.

SECTION 6. SERVICE OF CITATION
Citation may be served by personal delivery of a copy thereof to the owner of the property, as such ownership appears on the last city tax roll; or by deposition such citation properly addressed and as certified mail in the United States Post Office; or by attaching a copy of such citation to a place of prominence on such building or structure. Notice shall also be given by publishing the same in the official publication of the city at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for a hearing which notice shall state the time and place of such hearing.

SECTION 7. HEARING.
On the date set in such citation for hearing, hearing shall be had and on the basis of such hearing the city council shall determine whether or not such building or structure is vacant and dangerous.

Public Notices

SECTION 8. REMEDY
When, upon proper hearing, the city council determines that a building or structure is vacant and so dilapidated, damaged or decayed as to be beyond repair, it shall issue such orders, by the adoption of a proper resolution, as shall appear reasonably necessary to prevent that building or structure from continuing as a hazard to life and property. Such order shall ordinarily be to demolish and clear or remove the building or structure, and such orders shall include the specifying the owner may voluntarily comply with the provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 9. POSTING OF ORDER
Any order issued by the city council for the demolition or removal of a building or structure shall be immediately and prominently posted by the Building Inspector on the premises, in the form of a placard. Such placard shall declare the premises unfit for human habitation and contain other information as to the order in force.

Any person who shall use, enter or occupy such premises and/or any person who shall interfere or hinder the demolition or removal of any building or structure under the terms of this Ordinance, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine as prescribed herein.

SECTION 10. FAILURE TO COMPLY
In any case where the city council orders a building or structure demolished and cleared or removed, and the owner of any such building or structure fails to comply within the time period allowed in the order, the city council may cause the same to be done, and pay therefor, and charge the expenses incurred thereby to the owner of such premises. Such expenses shall be assessed against the lot or real estate upon which the work was done. The doing of such work by the city or the ordering of the same by the city council may not relieve the owner from prosecution for failure to comply under the terms of this or other Ordinances.

SECTION 11. ESTABLISHMENT OF LIEN
Whenever any work is done on any building or structure by the city under the provisions above, the building inspector on behalf of the city, shall file a statement of the expenses incurred with the county clerk. Such statement shall give the amount of such expenses and the date or dates on which the work was done, or the expenses incurred, and costs of demolishing, cleaning, or removing the building or structure. When this statement is filed with the county clerk, the city shall have a privileged lien on the lot or real estate upon which the work was done to secure the expenses involved. Such lien shall be second only to tax liens and liens for street improvements, and the amount thereof shall bear interest at the rate of ten (10%) per cent, per annum from the date the statement was filed with the county clerk. The statement of expenses for work done and filed with the county clerk, or a certified copy thereof, shall be prima facie proof of the amount expended for such repairs, demolition, clearance or removal.

SECTION 12. LIABILITY
Neither the city nor any authorized agent or employee of the city acting under the terms of this ordinance shall be liable or have any liability by reason of order issued or work done in compliance with the terms of this ordinance.

SECTION 13. PENALTIES
Any person violating the terms of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00); and each and every day's violation shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

SECTION 14. SEVERABILITY
If any article, paragraph, subdivision, clause, phrase, or provision of this ordinance shall be adjudged invalid, or be held unconstitutional, the same shall not effect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or any part of the provision thereof, other than the part so decided to be invalid or held to be unconstitutional.

Passed and approved and adopted this, the 6th day of August 1981.

Card of Thanks
It is difficult to find enough words of thanks and appreciation to the many people who brought cotton strippers, module builders, pickups and other harvesting equipment to complete the cotton harvest on my farms. A special thank you to the women who prepared and served lunch. I am grateful and appreciate your unselfish and generous deeds. As I convalesce from heart surgery, I hope to get around to thank each of you personally. Mack Fowler

Parsonage to hold open house

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN
South Plains, Dec. 14:

There will be a Christmas Open House at the Baptist Parsonage Sunday afternoon, December 20, between the hours of 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. with hosts for the Come and Go gathering, the Reverend and Mrs. Cecil Osborne. That evening, beginning at 6:30 p.m. there will be a candlelight service at the South Plains Baptist Church. Please come and enjoy the beautiful service and Christmas carols.

Visitors at the Baptist Church Sunday morning for church services were Mrs. Corda Taylor of Muleshoe, mother of Mrs. Osborne, who is visiting here the past week, and will be here with them until after Christmas. Other visitors were Cindy and Penny Mulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton went to Lubbock Sunday to visit their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Craig and family, and they spent the night with them.

Mrs. Mamie Wood held her Christmas Open House Saturday afternoon, Dec. 12, and Mrs. Sherri West of Floydada gave a jewelry demonstration during the afternoon at Mrs. Wood's home.

Services for Mrs. Nellie Bolin, 94, of Amarillo, who formerly lived in Plainview were held this Monday, Dec. 14, at 2:00 p.m. in the Wood-Dunning Chapel in Plainview. Burial was in the Lockney Cemetery. Mrs. Bolin had died Friday. Those from here who attended her services were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvin Kinnibrugh. She was the sister-in-law of Mrs. B.F. Harper (Vera) of McAllen.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton and Diane Johnson, Tanner and Carson, will host a Christmas coffee in their home, Sunday afternoon, December 20, from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m.

Guests here with Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham were her brother, Warren and Beth Cypert of Amarillo who came Thursday and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dick and Edith Guggenheim, coming Friday, all from Amarillo, and they visited here until this Monday.

Rehearsal supper for the wedding party of Miss Denise Johnson and John Burson of Silverton was held after the wedding rehearsal at the South Plains Baptist Church on Friday night, December 11, with hosts Mr. and Mrs. Don Burson of Silverton. Christmas Hobby Club Party
The South Plains Hobby Club met for their annual Christmas Club party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred and Carolyn Marble in South Plains on Thursday evening, December 10, at 7:00 p.m. The beautifully decorated home shone with Christmas lights, flowers and a big Christmas tree aglow with twinkling lights. Poinsettias, red candles and decorated tables were lovely, and a Christmas menu of ham, salads, vegetables, hot rolls, tea and coffee, and for dessert pecan and coconut cream pies were served to guests. After the banquet guests gathered at the Christmas tree where gifts were exchanged. Present for the evening were Fred and Jewel Fortenherry, Letha Mulder, Ruby Higginbotham, Bonnie Julian, Dorothy Cummings, Neta and Keith Marble, Juanita Teeple, Harold and Mildred Hamm, and guests from Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Beth and Warren Cypert, were present with hosts, Carolyn and Fred Marble.

Lockneyites attend open house

Mr. and Mrs. Johns Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Holcomb attended Christmas Open House Saturday night in Hart. The event was hosted by the Cox's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brock.

The serving table was laid with a navy cloth edged in white lace. Centering the table was a rust candle in a large globe surrounded with pine greenery. Silver and white milkglass appointments were used to serve an assortment of breads, cookies, finger sandwiches, candy, punch, hot tea and coffee. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Brock's sister, Mrs. Holcomb and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Larry College Poll.

Mrs. L. Nichols left here Nov. 24th for Sweetwater and she visited there with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whitfill, and had Thanksgiving with them and Cindy and Terre Michaels of Dallas. Mrs. Nichols returned to Dallas with her grandchildren, the Michaels, and spent a week there. Later she flew to Sweetwater and from there, she returned home to South Plains in her car on Tuesday a week ago.

Several from our community went to Floydada Sunday to have dinner at the Floydada High School and later attended the Christmas Band concert which was held at 2:00 p.m. at Floydada High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Kim, Monica and baby Zach Cummings will be arriving at his parents, the Sterling Cummings on Christmas eve. It will be little Zach's first Texas visit and his first visit with relatives here, the Cummings family.

Kevin Whitsil from McKinney was here in the South Plains area hunting pheasants Saturday and Monday with his cousins, Kendall and Sterling Cummings. Kevin and his cousin Bus Whitsil had dinner with the Sterling Cummings Monday.

The wedding of Miss Denise Johnson and John Burson took place at the South Plains Baptist Church Saturday evening, December 12, at 6:30 p.m. with the Rev. Hollis Shewmake reading the wedding vows. The church was decorated beautifully with western motif and friends and relatives filled the church. After the reception at the church guests went to the gymnasium where a western wedding barbecue was held. It was a joyous event for everyone attending.

After the sumptuous meal, wedding cakes were served to all, and the newly wedded Mr. and Mrs. Burson left amid showers of rice and good wishes for a long and happy life together.

ster receives award from ACTF

Wayland Baptist students, including Floydada were recipients of major awards at the American College Theatre Festival which was held recently in Amoco Awards.

Wayland's production of "Hashema-im," an original two-act play written by Juanice Myers.

The Irene Ryan Scholarship Awards provide recognition, honor, and financial assistance to outstanding student performers wishing to pursue further education. A total of 15 awards are given, including 12 Regional Awards consisting of a $750 scholarship for each winner of a regional ACTF competition and two national awards of $2,500 each for the winners of the national contest held in Washington, D.C.

Wayland was one of eight schools competing in the Northwest Texas Area festival at the University Theatre on the Texas Tech University campus. Other schools represented included the University of Texas-El Paso, Texas Tech, and Angelo State University.

JOEL MITCHELL, left, received the Outstanding Chef Award and Valency Zumwalt, right, received the Outstanding Rookie Award at the Annual Floyd County Food Show which was held in Lockney, December 5.

scholarships to be given by USP

University Scholars Program which will provide scholarships to students with outstanding academic backgrounds, has been announced by Texas A&I University.

Bill Franklin, president of the program, said that the scholarships are available to students with a minimum grade point average of 3.0 and who are currently enrolled in the program, which was established last year.

The program will provide scholarships for two students in each of the university's five undergraduate colleges.

Applications for the scholarships may be secured from high school principals or counselors, or by writing the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Campus Box 102, Texas A&I University, Kingsville, Texas 78363.

Applicants for the scholarship must have a minimum of 25 on the ACT or on the SAT, must show a record of success in the field as determined by the selection committee, and must have made a record that would be considered for a scholarship and must be in the upper quarter of his or her graduating class.

"We believe that the intellectual vitality of any university depends essentially on three things: the academic quality of the students, the quality of the faculty, and the resources that are available to support the teaching/learning process. This University Scholars Program is designed to attract some of the academically most capable students in the State to our University as a means of enhancing the quality of education we provide for all our students," stated Dr. Franklin.

Applications for the scholarships may be secured from high school principals or counselors, or by writing the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Campus Box 102, Texas A&I University, Kingsville, Texas 78363.

Social Security News

BY RAY PURCELL

The customary charge is the usual fee each doctor charges for a specific service. For example, if Dr. Smith charges $15 for a specific treatment 80 times during a year and $12 for the same treatment once, his customary charge is $15. In the event Dr. Smith charged several different prices throughout the year, the median charge would be determined to be his customary charge.

The prevailing charge is determined by comparing the amounts charged by all physicians in a given area. The charge that is just above 75% of the various charges for a given service is determined to be the prevailing charge. Once each of these amounts is figured, the insurance carrier determines the lowest to be the approved amount.

One final note, the information on each charge is collected in the calendar year preceding the "fee screen year." For example, the approved charges used by Medicare during the period 7/80 through 6/81 (the fee screen year) were based on information collected from 1/1/79 through 12/31/79.

Perhaps this brief discussion of the manner in which Medicare determines approved charges has helped to explain the process. However, if you do not agree with the approved charge or need further explanation, contact the local social security office at Plainview or use the toll-free number 1-800-392-1603.

How is the approved amount determined? It is the lowest of the actual charge, the customary charge, or the prevailing charge.

Actual charge is self-explanatory. It is the amount charged by the physician for a given service.

Mrs. Ethel Giddens celebrates 100th birthday November 28

Mrs. Ethel Giddens celebrated her 100th birthday at a party November 28 at the Holiday Inn. It was hosted by her children, Harvey Giddens of Odessa, Naomi Burt of Corpus Christi, Sue Starr, Plainview, Mrs. Lester Carter of Lockney and Joe D. Giddens of San Angelo.

Mrs. Giddens was born Ethel Ucllis November 28, 1881 in Florence, Alabama. At a young age she came with her family to Jonesville in Wascom County and then moved to Red River County. There she married Joe D. (Dick) Giddens.

The couple came to Plainview April 29, 1901 and lived there for a time before moving to Lubbock where they resided until his death October 26, 1947. After his death Mrs. Giddens moved to San Angelo to be near her son.

MRS. ETHEL GIDDENS

Mrs. Giddens returned to Plainview 12 years ago and resided at 2204 Kokomo until moving to Care Inn three years ago.

She received a Music Education degree from Kidd Key College in Sherman in 1900 and was active in church work while she resided in San Angelo.

She has 10 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson.

Medical Assn. warn about earaches and winter

As winter approaches with its cold air and drafts, the susceptibility to earaches naturally increases, says the Texas Medical Association.

There are various ways in which an earache can develop, but the most common causes are:

An infection of the middle ear—the middle ear becomes inflamed, pus accumulates and the ear drum bulges, causing pain.

An inflammation of the ear canal—better known as "swimmer's ear"—occurs when water accumulates in the ear, flushing out the protective layer of wax. This leaves a dark warm place for bacteria to grow, and if an infection takes hold, the tissues in the ear swell, resulting in an intense earache.

Wax impactions or foreign bodies—if wax in the ear becomes hard and presses against the ear drum, a particularly irritating ache can occur.

It is easy to recognize an earache because the pain is so intense, but other symptoms such as bleeding, inflammation, swelling, or drainage from the ear indicate that the ear is infected.

In the absence of any drainage, an individual can usually alleviate a simple earache by placing several drops of warm mineral oil in the ear, inserting a cotton ball and lying down, with the ear pressed on a heating pad.

But if there is any drainage whatsoever, nothing should be placed in the ear until a physician can be consulted. If the ear happens to be infected, as drainage often implies, an untrained individual can easily aggravate the condition and cause the infection to spread beyond the middle ear to the brain, ultimately resulting in a hearing loss.

VA News

The Veterans Administration is reminding veterans and their dependents that they shouldn't let a lost document prevent them from applying for VA benefits.

Officials in VA's nationwide regional offices often report that some veterans who can't locate a birth or marriage certificate do not apply for benefits because they think these documents are essential.

VA will accept certified statements from applicants in instances where documents needed to establish eligibility for benefits are lost.

In the case of a marriage, this policy applies only to the first marriage for each partner, and there must be no contradictory information on file with the agency.

In years past, VA has required formal documentation to support claims for compensation and education benefits for veterans, widows and orphaned children.

More recently, however, the agency has accepted a certified statement regarding the birth of a child or as proof of age and relationship in disability cases.

Veterans or dependents with questions about eligibility for benefits are urged to contact the nearest VA regional office, veterans county service office, or representative of one of the national veterans organizations.

Efficient Gas Energy for West Texas

Based on 1981 D.O.E. Established Average Values.

What's an average day worth?

On an average day you probably get out of bed, adjust the thermostat, make a pot of coffee, cook breakfast . . . perhaps use the dishwasher.

Later, maybe you do a load of laundry and listen to the radio. Then you cook dinner and put the leftovers in the refrigerator. You may turn on the television or settle down in your favorite chair next to a lamp to read.

For all of you, all of this and more adds up to one day . . . just 1/30th of your average monthly electric bill.

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing.

Farming Has Undergone Transformation To Sophisticated Business Enterprise

This article was printed from the Sunday morning edition of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

WHAT IS DESCRIBED AS THE FIRST comprehensive, scientific study of the contemporary American cotton producer has been released by Cotton Inc.

The study documents the transformation of farming into a progressive, sophisticated business enterprise and describes the impact this has had on life and work patterns of today's farmers.

Nearly a third of those surveyed consider themselves primarily businessmen or managers rather than farmers.

The success of the agricultural community in the face of difficult economic times and accelerated change is mirrored in the 600 percent increase in productivity among cotton farm workers since 1967, and in the high level of job satisfaction expressed by the farming population.

The report finds farmers today particularly innovative and growth-oriented.

In the past decade, 48 percent of those surveyed increased the acreage they own, 51 percent increased the acreage they rent, and 58 percent increased their investment in farm machinery.

A NUMBER OF THE STUDY observations have been isolated previously by social scientists and journalists, the Cotton Inc. report says.

But it adds that this survey, conducted by the New York City firm of Research and Forecasts, Inc., is described as the first to scientifically explore who the people on America's farms are, what they are doing in business, and how they differ from the rest of the nation.

"These findings are critical to predicting future trends in the American agricultural community," says Dr. John Crothers Pollock, president of the survey firm.

While the ranks of farmers continue to dwindle, the fruits of agriculture remain a mainstay in the economy and "a massive positive influence towards reducing U.S. balance of payments deficits," the study points out.

To manage their finances and survive in a one-world marketplace, farmers have had to become what Pollock terms "aggressive information activists rather than passive information receivers."

THIS IS REFLECTED IN THEIR increased willingness to use outside consultants. In the crucial area of pest control, for example, one-half of the cotton farmers use private consultants to help monitor their fields, up from one-third 10 years ago.

And in what perhaps is only the beginning of a trend, the survey results reveal that 12 percent of the respondents use a personal computer to assist them in managing their farms, or are considering buying one.

The willingness of modern-day farmers to aggressively seek out and apply the most up-to-date scientific technology as well as to rely on the expertise of outside specialists "suggests a notable contrast with the adamantly independent, individualistic attitude" traditionally held by farmers before the age of highly demanding agribusiness farming, the study says.

Even with their improved professionalism and resourcefulness, an overwhelming 91 percent of those polled believe "a farmer faces more risks than people in other occupations."

And indeed, beyond the perennial problems of uncertain weather and drought, there is the growing pressure from the high cost of money.

WITH ONLY A SLIM PROFIT margin to rely on, farmers must borrow heavily to expand production. For most, this means incurring continuous substantial debt.

The struggle for increased efficiency and higher yields to counter soaring costs has led to many casualties. In 1959, there were more than a half-million cotton farm owners; 10 years later, there were roughly 200,000; in 1981, there are approximately 50,000.

Though their profession is less secure than most, farmers are significantly more likely than the public to agree that America offers an opportunity for financial security to all those who are willing to work hard (93 percent against 78 percent).

Much of the stability of the farm community is attributed to "a firm foundation of commonly held values" or "farm ethic" which sets farmers clearly apart from Americans as a whole. A key element of the farm ethic is an unusually strong commitment to traditional family values. A majority of cotton farmers (65 percent) say they would try to reconcile marital problems "at all cost" rather than seek divorce, compared with a minority (44 percent) of the general public.

AND WHILE 90 PERCENT OF cotton farmers believe it is "very important" to do things as a family group, only 74 percent of the public believe this.

The survey also finds little validity in the "prevalent notion . . . that the family unit on the farm is threatened with extinction by the rapid encroachment of . . . huge agribusiness concerns."

Only 9 percent of the farms surveyed are corporations, of which 8 percent are family-held. The report observes that the farms which have incorporated "have remained truly family businesses."

Sixty-five percent of the "corporate" farmers report that their children work on the farm with them, compared with 55 percent of those classified as "family farmers."

The Cotton Inc. report points to the "fervent optimism" among respondents that farming will remain the focus of their family tradition. Nearly nine of 10 farmers say their children will inherit their farms, and only 3 percent say they will sell them.

THE STUDY ALSO DISCOVERS that the younger, more educated farmers are the most likely to say they would encourage their children to remain in farming.

While the young and more highly educated once migrated from the farm, the report reveals that today they are returning to it, bringing with them "a new sense of optimism."

The farmer of tomorrow, the report concludes, will be "operating in a milieu of more complex roles — manager, marketing specialist, scientist and engineer" and will be "a highly sophisticated businessman."

But, the report adds, he will not be a corporation man but a "highly successful family farmer."

COMPUTER KNOWHOW — The information explosion and astonishing growth in the complexity of agricultural undertakings have caused today's farmers to turn to an extensive array of new tools and equipment, including personal computers, according to a case study of cotton farmers by Cotton Inc. Improve area's playa game habitat for possible economic returns

A Texas social event isn't necessarily a ballroom gathering or a $500 a plate dinner.

To many persons the second Saturday in December, the opening of pheasant hunting season, is the "creme de la creme." Dr. Fred S. Guthery, range and wildlife professor at Texas Tech University, said at that time the population of many rural Texas Panhandle towns increases dramatically as persons from throughout the state flock there for some serious hunting.

The fact that the area's playa lakes attract pheasants and consequently hunters may be an incentive for some farmers and ranchers to improve upland game habitat for possible economic returns.

Guthery and his students have developed a simple means by which the pheasant population can be increased, if desired, by landowners.

He said a playa approximately 25 acres in size should be designated a pheasant refuge and be neither farmed nor grazed. The natural vegetation there will provide excellent nesting and wintering habitat for the fowl.

Wheat and seed corn should be grown in fields of approximately 100 acres adjacent to the playa lakes. Waste grains from the corn crop provide winter food for the pheasant while wheat serves as a source of nesting coverage and food in mid-June.

With this simple prescription, Guthery said a landowner can expect 100 to 150 pheasants on the playa come hunting season with 40 to 60 cocks harvested annually from this population.

Farmers and ranchers interested in improving upland game populations must weigh costs involved in implementing this researched strategy.

Guthery figures the grazing loss of the playa acreage, market prices of seed corn and wheat over more profitable crops and lost efficiency in farming, due to smaller fields, are probably expenses.

Costs could be offset, however, by selling day or season hunting leases. This practice is common in all areas of Texas except the High and Rolling Plains.

Rick W. Whiteside, an agricultural doctoral student, is studying the pheasant response to land use in the Texas counties of Castro and Deaf Smith. Results of his work will aid farmers in determining the economic feasibility of pheasant management on their lands.

"What we want to find out is how landowners can maximize pheasant production at minimum costs," Whiteside said.

The price farmers and ranchers are getting for pheasant leases vary, he noted. "Generally it's anywhere between $50 to $100 per gun for either a day or season."

Deficiency payments likely on '81 cotton

Cotton farmers will likely collect 5 to 7 cents a pound from the government for their crop this year. The money will be in the form of deficiency payments—the difference between the target price set by the government and the actual market price.

If payments are necessary due to poor market prices, they will be the first since the target price program was established in 1974.

"The 1981 target price for cotton is 70.87 cents a pound," explains Dr. Carl Anderson, economist in cotton marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "The average price received by farmers in July (70.20 cents) just missed this level. Since then, the cotton market fell to 65 cents a pound in August and in October was running about 60 cents. At this level the deficiency payment would be 5 to 7 cents."

And this is a likely probability since plentiful cotton supplies, high interest rates and a weak demand will tend to keep market prices down the remainder of this year, contends Anderson. Although cool, wet conditions may reduce the Texas crop some from the 5.8 million bale October estimate, there is plenty of cotton to go around.

Deficiency payments will be based on the difference between the weighted monthly average price received by farmers in 1981 and the target price of 70.87 cents, explains the economist. Monthly prices received are weighted by the proportion of the crop sold that month. Normally about half the crop is sold during the last three months of the year, so low prices at that time will greatly influence the 1981 average farm price.

"All farmers get the same payment regardless of the price they received for their cotton," says Anderson. "Payments are based on the farm program acreage and yield established on each farm."

Deficiency payments are limited to a combined total of $50,000 per person under the Upland cotton, wheat and feed grain programs in 1981. Farmers must be in full compliance with government programs involving other crops to receive payments under the cotton program, adds the economist.

Wheat, barley producers to receive payments

Eligible wheat farmers soon will receive an estimated $420 million in deficiency payments on their 1981 crop, while barley farmers will get about $50 million, according to Everett Rank, administrator of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Deficiency payments are required under the 1981 wheat and barley programs because average market prices received by farmers during the first five months (June through October) of the marketing year were below established target price levels of $3.81 for wheat and $2.60 for barley.

National weighted average market prices were $3.66 per bushel for wheat and $2.49 per bushel for barley. Thus, eligible producers will be paid 15 cents per bushel for their 1981-crop wheat and 11 cents per bushel for this year's barley.

The 1981 wheat crop totaled about 2.75 billion bushels, while the 1981 barley crop was about 476 million bushels. USDA estimates place the average farm price for these crops this year at $3.80 to $3.95 per bushel for wheat and $2.45 to $2.60 for barley. If these estimates prove correct, the value of the 1981 wheat crop would be between $10.44 and $10.85 billion, while the barley crop would be worth between $1.17 and $1.24 billion.

Deficiency payments will be made to wheat and barley farmers who reported their 1981-crop acreage and filed an application for payment with their local ASCS office. Rank said the payment checks will be issued through local ASCS offices as soon as possible after December 10.

The final 1981 national program acreage for barley has been increased from 9.7 to 10.2 million acres and the national program acreage for wheat has been increased from 71.0 to 84.5 million acres. The national program acreage represents the number of acres of a crop needed to meet estimated demand and assure desirable carryover levels, Rank said.

He said a primary factor for increasing the national program acreages for the two commodities was higher-than-expected U.S. exports of barley and wheat this marketing year.

The allocation factor for both wheat and barley is 100 percent. The allocation factor is computed by dividing the national program acreage for a crop by the harvested acreage.

If 1981-crop deficiency payments for sorghum are required, they will be made next April, Rank said. If payments are necessary for rice and cotton, they will be made next February.

Annual Crop Production and Utilization Symposium to be held

The Annual Crop Production and Utilization Symposium will be held on February 18, 1982, at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center at Amarillo. The facility is located at 6500 Amarillo Boulevard West. According to Dr. G.B. Thompson, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station Research Director at the Center, the symposium will start at 9:30 and continue until mid-afternoon.

"Managing Farm Resources" is the theme of the symposium, Dr. Thompson said. "The program is designed to help farmers manage their assets in the most efficient manner during the 1980's."

Management of financial resources will be covered in the morning. Mr. J.B. Wheeler, President of the Hale County State Bank, keynote speaker, will discuss "How Bad is the Farm Crisis." Managing cash flow and farm budgets will be covered by Drs. Ray Sammons, and Wyatt Harman, Agricultural Economists at the A&M Center.

Afternoon sessions will deal with natural gas prices, center pivot irrigation, water conservation, cropping systems and limited tillage.

The event is sponsored by the USDA Conservation and Production Research Laboratory at Bushland, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Panhandle Economic Program.

"Love and Kisses" opens in Amarillo

Dorothy McDonald and Archie Dwyer star in the Country Squire Dinner Theatre production of Love and Kisses that opened the first of December at the Amarillo theater.

McDonald and Dwyer portray Carol and Jeff Pringle, average parents with a suburban home and two children. Son Buzzy is a high school senior planning to spend the summer working for his father before going to the university. Daughter Elizabeth is getting married, and her elaborate wedding plans rival those of Prince Charles and Lady Diana.

In the middle of Elizabeth's wedding preparations, Buzzy comes home and announces that he married his girlfriend during their lunch hour.

The ensuing confusion is the basis of this comedic tribute to matrimony. Jeff and Carol try to offer advice and support to both their children and the results are often hilarious.

McDonald comes to the Country Squire following an eight week engagement at the Harlequin Dinner Playhouse in Santa Ana where she co-starred in The Marriage-Go-Round with Steve Meyer.

She has appeared in several Country Squire productions including The Rainmaker and Not Now, Darling. Ms. McDonald now lives in Los Angeles, but said she enjoys returning to her native state of Texas.

Dwyer calls Amarillo home and he also has appeared in other Country Squire productions. His most recent performance was in Janus with Virginia Mayo.

Other cast members for Love and Kisses include John Glenn, Maura Soden, Sheridan Wright, Stephen Berrier, Robin Goodhue and Jerry Brewer.

Love and Kisses plays each Tuesday through Saturday at the Country Squire. Curtain is at 8 p.m. following a buffet meal that begins at 6 p.m.

Special Sunday hours are 4 p.m. for the buffet and 6 p.m. curtain time.

The Country Squire Dinner Theatre, now under new ownership is located at Interstate 40 and Grand in Amarillo. Call 372-4441 for reservations.

Paul Taylor Dance Co. to preform at Tech

The Paul Taylor Dance Company, which marks its 27th anniversary this season, will perform January 28 in the Texas Tech University Center Theater.

In its long career in modern dance, the company has performed in more than 200 U.S. cities and has completed 24 overseas tours.

Paul Taylor began his dance career in New York City where he studied with Martha Graham and Anthony Tudor. From 1955 to 1962 Taylor was a soloist with the Martha Graham Dance Company. Taylor has been awarded two Guggenheim Fellowships for Choreography and recently received the Dance Magazine Award for 1980. He has choreographed more than 80 dances for his company.

The New York Times has called the Paul Taylor Dance Company, "one of the most exciting, innovative and delightful dance companies in the entire world."

The January 28 performance is at 8:15 p.m. For ticket information call (806) 742-3610.

Planetarium to show "Star Of Wonder"

"STAR OF WONDER," the planetarium show at the Don Harrington Discovery Center, is both a miracle and a mystery. This traditional program, showing for the first time in Amarillo, uses the planetarium instrument to take visitors back in time to view the sky at that magical moment, discusses several possible explanations for the "STAR OF WONDER" and retells the traditional Bible story of the Baby's birth.

"Star" is designed for the entire family. Music of Christmas past and present, a magical Christmas tree, Santa and his famous reindeer all combine for a memorable experience.

How did the night sky appear to the three wise men nearly two thousand years ago? What was that fortu-ous "star of the east?" Could a comet explain the wondrous heavenly sight? Is it possible this phenomena can't be explained by astronomical accounts? Was it indeed a miracle?

Each visitor will draw his own conclusion based on personal beliefs. The important facts that can't be altered are that Jesus was born, that He dwelt on earth for a time and that His teachings have altered the history of the world.

"Star" starts the first weekend after Thanksgiving and runs until Christmas. Programs are scheduled on Saturdays at 2:00, 3:00, and 8:00 p.m. and on Sundays at 2:00, 3:00, and 4:00 p.m. Admission prices are $1.50 for adults, $1.00 for students and senior citizens.

Joy to the world and peace on earth.

We had both this week. Monday was full of joy as we decked our halls and trimmed the tree. A beautiful plant was given to the residents by Margaret and Tom Fowler and the Methodist Church. Later several of the residents enjoyed painting ceramics.

Tuesday is our Bible study day. We felt "Peace on earth" as the residents expressed their opinions and discussed the lesson for this week.

Wednesday we went to Petersburg, enjoyed the country drive and took a side trip to visit horses belonging to the family of Nora McKnight.

Thursday, carols rang down the halls as Cub Scout Troops 1 and 2 brought treats and cheer to the residents, who would like to say a very special thank you with lots of love.

We also enjoyed our bingo party, with yummy prizes presented to Emmitt Lawrence, Clara Williamson and Nora McKnight.

Friday was peaceful, with a good movie and popcorn. We are looking forward to our Christmas party on the 22nd with great anticipation.

As always we thank each one who gave of their hearts to our home. Merry Christmas.

Visitors included: Helen Solomon, Elizabeth Armstrong, Marion Bailey, Bruce William, Beulah Denison, Deetta Odum, Merlene Breeding, Sonnev and Arlene Holmes, Dorothy and Mac Ledbetter, Tom, Tim, Joe and Billy Collins, Dana and JoLee Ellis, Jewell Price, Estelle Hinkle, Earl Edwards, Burmah Probasco, Lucille Loffan, Pauline Pierce, Mrs. Grady Dunavant, Gene Baird.

We are so sorry to hear of the mishap Sid Brown had when he fell breaking a shoulder and a hip Friday morning. He underwent surgery in the Caprock Hospital Saturday morning and is doing as well as could be expected. His children came to be with him. He is still in the intensive care.

We are still having some residents confined to their homes with illness. Mrs. Vance Mitchell and her daughter Virginia are both suffering with the flu.

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing, while others judge us by what we have already done.
