

Big voter turnout likely here Saturday

Kent Hance's bid for the US Senate and contested races for his vacated congressional post and two county commissioners' seats are expected to spur a bigger-than-ever turnout of Castro Countians in the party primary elections Saturday.

Hance is one of six Democratic candidates for the post being vacated by longtime US Sen. John Tower. The race has come down to a three-man fray between Hance, former Congressman and Ambassador Bob Krueger and State Senator Lloyd Doggett.

The race is sure to go into a runoff, and Hance — a native of Dimmitt — is hoping to be one of the two Democrats to make it to Round 2.

Four candidates are vying for the Republican nomination for Tower's Senate post. They are Congressman Phil Gramm, Hank Grover, Rob Mosbacher and Ron Paul. Gramm, a former Texas A&M economics professor, is considered the front runner.

Another hot race is the one for Hance's current post — United States Representative, District 19. The ultimate winner in November will become only the third man to ever hold the post, after George Mahon and Hance.

Democratic candidates for the congressional seat are former Hance aide Don R. Richards, surgeon John Selby, agricultural economist Gary D. Condra, attorney Thomas M. (Tom) Richards and former state representative Delwin Jones. All five are from Lubbock.

Seeking the Republican nomination for the same congressional seat are Tom Schaefer, a college professor; Larry Combest, a Lubbock wholesale distributor and former aide to Sen.

Tower; Richard Wilder, who is retired from the US Air Force; and Ron Fleming, a Certified Public Accountant. Schaefer is from Odessa and Combest, Wilder and Fleming are all from Lubbock.

On the Democratic Party ballot, there are contested races also for five state judgeships — two places on the Supreme Court and three on the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(For a study of the candidates in these and all statewide contested races, see the League of Women Voters Guide supplement in this issue.)

At the county level, contested races have developed for the two available seats on the County Commissioners' Court — those in Precincts 1 and 3.

In Precinct 1, longtime Commissioner George Ed Bennett of Hart is being challenged by Curtis Snitker of Hart. In Precinct 3, Jeff Robertson of Dimmitt is challenging veteran Commissioner Jimmie Howell of Bethel.

Both of the contested county races are on the Democratic Party ballot.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday. The Democrats will conduct their primary election in 16 precinct boxes, while the Republicans will run their election in a central location, the County Commissioners' Court meeting room.

To be eligible to cast a ballot, a voter must show his blue 1984 voter registration certificate, which was issued in March.

A person may vote in either party's primary election, but not in both. If any race goes into a runoff, a person who voted in one party's primary cannot vote in the other party's runoff election later.

Azteca to run migrant program

The Azteca Development Corp., headquartered in Dimmitt, has been awarded a grant by the Texas Department of Community Affairs to be used to establish and administrate a Migrant and Seasonal Farm Workers Program for the 25 counties of the Texas Panhandle.

Two full-time workers and one part-time worker will handle the duties of the program, designed to provide aid and assistance to migrant workers and to refer them to already existing programs in the 25 counties.

"The program will provide employment information such as crop acreage and weather conditions gathered from county agents, farmers and vegetable shed owners, and will distribute this information to the migrant workers," Azteca President Larry Gonzales said.

Gonzales said the program will also refer workers to social, church or government assistance programs that are available and will seek to establish six self-help food pantries scattered throughout the area.

Counseling and referral to legal aid will also be offered. Gonzales added that very minimal funds will be available for aid vouchers for use in emergency situations.

Conducting seminars and discussion sessions about the workers' needs will also be a part of the program.

The project has been funded for 12 months and is renewable on a yearly basis. Two other corporations had applied for the funding — Texas Panhandle Community Action Corp. and the Texas Migrant Council.

"We were selected because we are local and can be more sensitive to the needs of the workers," Gonzales said.

Most of the funding will go to cover personnel, travel and facilities.

"We want people to understand that we are willing to work with anybody. We just want to be given a chance," Gonzales said.

were in the back seat — Alejandro Esparza, 23, and Alfonso Castillo, 60, also of Amarillo.

Troopers Ron Morgan and Rick Bentley said that the two vehicles were both traveling approximately 55 mph when they collided left-front to left-front in the northbound lane.

The impact threw the rear-seat passengers against the front seat at the same time the car's dashboard was being forced toward the front seat from the opposite direction, officers said.

All three occupants of the front seat were wearing seat belts, "and it's a good thing they were," Morgan said.

Miss Juarez, who was sitting between Mojica and Mrs. Chavez, received a broken left arm and jaw. Mojica sustained a severe head injury and possible internal injuries, and Mrs. Chavez escaped with bruises, officers said.

Castillo received severe internal injuries and a back injury when he was thrown against the front seat, troopers said. Esparza apparently received only bruises.

Meanwhile, Rodriguez — who was traveling alone in the pickup — received multiple fractures of the left leg and probable internal injuries.

One of two passersby who stopped at the accident scene was trained in emergency medical procedures, the troopers said.

The passersby "got them out and on the ground, and had them pretty well triaged

David Olvera of Nazareth was awarded a plaque in Dimmitt Tuesday from the Texas Dept. of Public Safety for his efforts in saving the life of DPS Trooper Mark McCormick, 29, of Canyon.

Last call for baseball boys

Today is "absolutely, positively" the last chance for boys to sign up for Kids, Inc. summer baseball, according to KI President Jerry Stump.

Final sign-ups will be held at 5:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at the baseball parks concession stand in West Dimmitt.

"Even if you played last year, you need to sign up again," Stump reminded.

Player fees are $17 per boy for insurance, caps and partial costs of uniforms.

Kids, Inc. provides four leagues for boys of different ages. They are the Tee-Ball League for boys 7 and 8, Mustang League for those 9 and 10, Bronco League for boys 11 and 12 and Jr. Babe Ruth League for boys 13 through 15.

The incident happened Sept. 17, 1983 when McCormick's patrol car was run into by a drunk driver in a van on US 60 between Canyon and Umbarger.

Olvera and his wife were driving in the vicinity and stopped to render aid.

"First I went to the van, and all its occupants were able to get out after I pulled the door open," Olvera said. "Then I went over to the patrol car. It was already on fire and some others were standing there trying to get the door open."

"Somebody said they thought (McCormick) was already dead, but I said we still needed to try to get him out, so I pulled real hard on the door and got it open. Then we pulled McCormick out and laid him on the ground."

"Right after we got him out, the car really started to burn, and some of the ammunition inside the car started going off. I think I was more scared about that than anything else," Olvera said.

McCormick required 20 stitches on his head and was treated and released. His patrol car was burned to the ground and all its contents destroyed.

"Later, when I heard that some of them thought I was dead, I was certainly glad that David cared enough to find out for sure," McCormick said.

Captain Bob Russell, supervisor of DPS Region 5, District B, told those at the presentation ceremony that the driver of the van was recently convicted on DWI charges, fined and placed on two years' probation.

The Director's Award plaque read "in grateful recognition of significant service to the mission of law enforcement — Col. James B. Adams, Sept. 17, 1983."

"It was just an automatic reaction," Olvera said. "I'm just glad I was able to help."

Republican Party Primary
All Precincts — Commissioners' Meeting Room, Courthouse.
POLLS OPEN 7 A.M. TO 7 P.M. SATURDAY

Precinct conventions: the 'other' election

The Democratic and Republican Primary Elections are only one phase of Saturday's political process.

The other phase comes after the polls close — at the precinct conventions, where delegates will be elected to the parties' county conventions to be held later this month.

In the Democratic Party, the presidential race between Walter Mondale, Gary Hart and Jesse Jackson will be decided in precinct conventions, or caucuses, across the state. The presidential race isn't on the Democratic Party ballot.

The county's Democrats will hold their precinct conventions at 7:15 p.m. Saturday at their respective polling sites.

The Republicans' precinct conventions will be held concurrently at 7:30 p.m. in the Dimmitt City Hall meeting room.

Both parties will have their county conventions May 19 — the Democrats at 2:30 p.m. in the Courthouse assembly room and the Republicans at 7:30 p.m. in the Dimmitt City Hall.

Each precinct convention Saturday is open to all voters who cast ballots in that box during the day.

Editorial

Let's win it for Kent

Castro Countians have always been proud. Since the first sod was broken here, they've exhibited that pride in many ways — through their pace-setting agriculture, their progressive nature, their willingness to work, their schools, their athletic teams.

Such counties produce leaders, and Castro County has produced its share in many fields.

One such leader is Congressman Kent Hance. Although still young, he's a penultimate politician, in the best sense of the word. He's a fighter and an innovator.

Now he's in the toughest political fight of his life, and he needs our help. Let's give it.

The race for the US Senate is so close between the three front runners that it's sure to go into a runoff. Every single vote in the Democratic Party Primary Saturday could be important — in his home county, and all across the state.

We ask you to get to the polls Saturday and cast your vote for Kent Hance for the US Senate.

And we urge you to do more than that before Saturday. Call anyone you can in West Texas, South Texas, East Texas, where he is not as well known. Give them the word — Kent Hance is the heavyweight candidate in this race. He is the best qualified candidate for the Senate. He has been an innovator and a can-do representative in the State Senate and in Congress. He will gain national prominence for Texas. He could be President someday.

Don't be afraid to let your Castro County pride show.

Few counties in our vast land ever have the chance to help elect one of their own to the United States Senate. We have that chance Saturday.

Let's show Kent our support with the biggest turnout in our county's history in the Democratic Primary Saturday. Let's exhibit our Castro County pride once more. Let's show the rest of the state exactly where we stand. Let's win again.

THEY'RE OFF and running in the five-kilometer and 10-kilometer race in the Run for Life Saturday morning. Seventy-eight runners from Texas and New Mexico braved the morning chill (37) and wind to take part in the event, which raised $300 for the American Cancer Society. For results of the races, see Page 8.

All candidates for Congress give their views

Five Democrats and four Republicans are seeking their parties' nominations for the 19th District congressional seat being vacated by U.S. Rep. Kent Hance.

Here are the self-described qualifications of each candidate, along with their viewpoints on budget deficits and nuclear weapons freeze/nuclear war. Also, since each candidate's views on federal agricultural policy are so vital to Castro Countians, the News is presenting their key statements on agriculture and the 1985 Farm Bill, gleaned from the candidates' position statements in news releases or their statements in campaign visits here.

Here are the candidates for United States Representative from District 19, listed in the order they'll be on Castro Countians' ballots Saturday:

Democrats

Don R. Richards

Lawyer-Journalist
Age 36; Lubbock
QUALIFICATIONS: Former administrative aide to Congressman Kent Hance. Thorough understanding of legislative and political process. Served with Hance in Washington during passage of last farm bill, tax and budget cuts of 1981, and other major legislation. Experienced in federal bureaucracy and solving citizens' problems with red tape. West Texas native. Operated small business; active in civic and political affairs. West Texas newspaperman 6½ years. Graduate of Texas Tech; completed Texas Tech Law School. Associated with Lubbock law firm of McWhorter, Cobb & Johnson.

BUDGET DEFICITS: Defense contracting is the largest single area of present taxpayer dollar abuse. Overlapping of spending among the four military branches could be eliminated with centralized purchasing in weapons and supplies. Emphasis first on military expenditures for supply, repair and maintenance; tighter controls of general defense contracting. Entitlements are one of the fastest growing budget items and should be constantly reviewed. Basic human services should be maintained, with adequate safeguards to eliminate fraud.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: I support a bilateral, mutually verifiable freeze, and reduction of nuclear arms agreement between the US and the Soviet Union. While in Washington, the FBI cleared me for Top Secret security briefings and I understand US and Soviet military capabilities. In addition to an emphasis on nuclear arms reduction talks with only the Soviets, we should include Third World countries, where the greatest threat of nuclear proliferation exists.

AGRICULTURE: Farmers must have higher support prices and adequate re-financing programs to stay in business or the effects in West Texas will be disastrous on not only farmers, but on all merchants, banks, ag-related businesses and everyone else dependent on a healthy farm economy. It is imperative that the congressman from West Texas know how to protect our farmers in the 1985 Farm Bill, which will be the first item on the agenda of the new Congress.

John Selby

Physician/Surgeon
Lubbock
QUALIFICATIONS: Thoracic surgeon; chairman eight years of South Plains Health Systems Agency; member of Statewide Health Coordinating Council. Dartmouth College, AB 1941; Boston University School of Medicine, M.D. 1944; University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Medicine 1948-49. US Navy 1946-48. Instrumental in founding several Lubbock medical institutions, including Methodist Hospital. Member of 20 civic and service groups; listed in six "Who's Who" publications. Resident of West Texas 32 years. District governor, Rotary International.

BUDGET DEFICITS: Our nation must realize that we can no longer go on spending more money than we have. We cannot afford to increase taxes, this only stifles the development of business. Nor can we tolerate inflation which robs the poor, the elderly, and those who try to be good custodians of their future by saving money and using it carefully. We must find ways to solve these problems of deficit spending and inflation. Good business management and control of government spending and waste is essential.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: No response.

AGRICULTURE: I am committed to a program that will put profit in the farmer's pocket. We must have a consistent and reliable program that the farmer can count on from year to year. Government's involvement in agriculture, if we must have it, should be aimed at developing a continuing, improving program that would add stability and predictability to the farmer's peculiar situation at the source of production, where he is powerless to adjust. Farmers need to know from one year to the next what kind of farm program they may be encountering so they can plan financially for their crops. Serious efforts to conserve and develop new sources of water should be one of the priorities of West Texas.

Gary D. Condra

Agricultural Economist
Age 39; Lubbock
QUALIFICATIONS: I have the training and experience to understand and act on serious economic problems which we face as West Texans and Americans. Training: Bachelor's in animal science from Texas Tech, master's in agricultural economics from Texas Tech, doctorate in agricultural economics from Texas A&M. Experience: Professional agricultural economist, irrigated farmers, real estate appraiser, private consultant, feedlot office manager, author or co-author of over 20 publications on a wide range of agriculture and natural resource topics.

BUDGET DEFICITS: We must reduce the federal budget deficit by requiring that any increase in outlays for a given program be offset by corresponding decreases in outlays for other programs, or increases in revenues. I am not in favor of increasing defense outlays by decreasing outlays for human services or entitlements. Decreases in outlays from 1984 funding levels should be across-the-board to the greatest extent possible.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: We must maintain a strong defense because the United States should be prepared, but prepared for peace. Therefore, I will support any bilateral, mutually verifiable freeze agreement, consistent with an adequate preparedness posture for the United States. We must also reduce the threat of nuclear war by minimizing confrontational rhetoric and actions in situations where military action is not required, or where we have not made the necessary national commitment to achieve the defined objective.

AGRICULTURE: The primary question we need to address in the 1985 Farm Bill is "What do we want agriculture to look like in the year 2000? What kind of agriculture will we have in the United States, in Castro County, in the 19th Congressional District?" Farming is a business, and we need to recognize in the 1985 Farm Bill that businesses cannot operate without a profit. We need stability. We need a long-run program . . . that will allow us the flexibility that's required for planning. Young people today, and lenders, can no longer plan for the future when we're looking at programs where we don't even know when the sign-up date is over. That program, to be effective and to accomplish the goals of profit, stability and long-run, needs to be a program that's mandatory.

Thomas M. (Tom) Richards

Attorney, Farmer/Rancher
Age 43; Lubbock

QUALIFICATIONS: I am a native West Texan, growing up on a farm and ranch. With degrees from Texas Tech and Baylor and personal experience, I know and understand the problems of agriculture, energy, and the small businessman. I enjoy working with people, and offer my constituents honesty, fairness and compassion. After seeing the effects of legislation, I want to represent, work for our district, and repay a country that has been good to me.

BUDGET DEFICITS: All three areas need to cut waste and tighten administrative costs. Efficient human service programs are needed. Entitlements are a big problem. For example, we cannot cut Social Security because people deserve to get back what they have paid. The military budget offers the best opportunity for cutting spending. We want the strongest defense, but when the Pentagon spends thousands for a wrench available at the hardware store for pennies, something is wrong.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: If mutual on-site inspections could be attained, it would be desirable. My main concern is a basic distrust of the USSR to "come clean" with their nuclear arsenal information. Past performance shows they cannot be trusted. One thing is clear, the arms race must stop! The chances of avoiding nuclear war depend entirely on the US staying strong. I support disarmament talks, but we must never let down our guard.

AGRICULTURE: I believe that agriculture is the most critical problem that this country faces this year and in the coming year. I stand very firmly committed to the preservation and continuation of the family farm. That's what I grew up on, and it works, if we're left alone. We've got to have a long-term program. It's got to be backed by the administration and Congress. We've got to have a supply management program. Reasonable farm credit has got to be a top priority in any farm program. Derogulation of natural gas is a necessity and should be implemented immediately.

Delwin Jones

Farmer/Businessman/Investments
Age 60; Lubbock
QUALIFICATIONS: Eight years as state representative, farmer for 26 years, business and investments for nine years; meet a weekly payroll for 20 or more employees each week. Authored bills creating Texas Tech Medical School, Lubbock Hospital District, District Court and Criminal District Attorney's office for Lubbock. I also secured funding to build the Tech Law School, Lubbock State School for Retarded, Textile Research Center at Tech, the museum at Tech, and numerous agricultural projects.

BUDGET DEFICITS: Waste and fraud in military budget and other areas of waste and fraud in government agencies are the cuts I would emphasize to combat budget deficits.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: I support a bilateral, mutually verifiable freeze agreement between the US and USSR on nuclear weapons. Specifically, we must keep dialogue open between any countries on this subject. We must lead in efforts to freeze production of nuclear weapons first and then push for reduction of present nuclear weapons world-wide.

AGRICULTURE: I favor a mandatory control program, because without one we will not achieve the intent of any farm program, which is to get the supply and demand in perspective so that agriculture can make a profit. I favor an export subsidy program to enable us to compete with foreign producers on their terms. I believe in an indirect subsidy program for agriculture similar to what the federal government provided for Chrysler and Boeing, which didn't cost the federal government a dime. I do not favor agency financing because of the red tape that is generated. I think we've got to develop a long-range program.

Republicans

Tom Schaefer

Professor
Age 46; Odessa
QUALIFICATIONS: As a former business school dean and businessman, and, presently, a professor of business, I know the business-like way of doing things. Government needs more of it! As a long-time lover of the West Texas spirit, an advocate of free-market economics, and adversary of waste of all kinds, as one having lived and worked hard in the nation's capital (I received my Ph.D. from Georgetown U.), I know my qualifications for holding federal office more than meet voter's expectations.

BUDGET DEFICITS: In view of past and projected national budget deficits — I believe that all programs within the government have some waste, and many are full of bloated waste. The defense of our nation should be second to none, but there is waste in cost overruns. When buying in volume, the military services should achieve economies by getting together. We should quit transferring technology to the Soviets and thus would not need to depend as much on defense. I will take the lead in Congress to enact recommendations of the Grace Report. That report states that poor management costs the federal government $400 billion over three years.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: A freeze on nuclear testing, production and deployment is most desirable IF truly verifiable. The Soviets, however, have not kept the spirit or the letter of past such agreements. Chances of nuclear war are decreased precisely by preparedness to obviate its occurrence. Given the history of Soviet duplicity on this issue (not to mention duplicity on many others), wisdom dictates that negotiations transpire from a position of strength — that, along with a spiritual revolution, gives us the best chance for peace in this nuclear age.

AGRICULTURE: I will call on the Congress to pass legislation making emergency preparedness — emergency relief — for drought-stricken ranchers and farmers the law of the land. Let's put together a drought relief program on standby, just like other emergency relief programs. I am contacting members of the Texas congressional delegation, to ask them to initiate a bipartisan action to introduce, and pass, emergency drought relief legislation during the current session.

Larry Combest

Wholesale Electronics Distributor
Age 39; Lubbock
QUALIFICATIONS: The first 27 years of my life were spent farming. I worked for the ASCS and for seven years handled agricultural legislation for John Tower. Since 1978 I have owned and operated a business and I understand business problems. I taught school one year. I know the problems facing agriculture, business, education and oil and gas. I can hit the ground running in Washington.

BUDGET DEFICITS: I feel there needs to be review of all programs, not just from the point of cutting but rather bringing into line the problems of today. I feel there can be no budget items exempt from review. I support the line-item veto power for the President.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: We must strive for negotiated peace. For us to ever expect the USSR to negotiate, they must feel it is in their best interest. If we are in a position of being weaker, they would have no reasons for treaty. In order to insure compliance with any treaty, we must have some means of inspection.

AGRICULTURE: The best possible economic conditions for farmers and the rest of the nation is for the farmers to produce at full production at a profit. In order to do this, we must export at least half of our production. We must establish long-term, year-in and year-out markets that we supply on a regular basis. We must put the world on notice that this country is not going to be crowded out of the market by countries who subsidize their exports. It is time to closely examine the export subsidy program for US farm exports. However, we must be cautious not to abandon the farmer while we are moving in this direction. The farm programs that have been a part of farming for several years cannot be put on the shelf until such time arrives where we can adequately assure farm profit. All of the support programs of the past have actually been subsidies to the consumer, as we have the best and least expensive food and fiber in the world.

AGRICULTURE: Position unknown.

Assured Destruction in a nuclear war. A new system using current technology, developed by private resources, called "High Frontier," deploys satellites which fire heat-seeking plastic bullets at any and all nuclear missiles in an attack and destroy them without detonating them. This will insure our survivability without destroying the other side as well as the world we live in. Will urge Congress to adopt.

AGRICULTURE: Position unknown.

Ron Fleming

Certified Public Accountant
Age 40; Lubbock

QUALIFICATIONS: As a CPA, my professional training has prepared me to deal with the most serious problem facing America — the pending economic crisis that will result from continued deficit spending. Solutions to this most serious problem lies not in increasing taxes. Rather a more positive approach would be to cut spending and initiate serious tax reform. These two items are critical to get America through a difficult period of time. My profession has trained me specifically in these two areas. Of all the candidates, my qualifications are superior in working in the area of economics, budgets and taxes.

BUDGET DEFICITS: We cannot cut enough from the present budget to balance it without creating enormous problems in certain areas. We can, however, make some fundamental changes that will begin to show significant improvements to our overall economic situation. For example, we can as a minimum eliminate the cost of living increases that are built into the entitlement programs thus insuring that no one is eliminated from the program yet the cost will be fixed at a lower level and not continue at a higher inflated spiral. Each major category should be closely examined for the following issues:

1. Is the purpose of the department or program still legitimate?
2. Is the budgeted item accomplishing what it was originally intended?
3. Is there a better way to achieve this objective (e.g., through other departments, programs or through state and local governments)?
4. Are the dollars accomplishing the goals of the program or are they simply paying overhead?

After each department and program has been subjected to such an evaluation then we must look at resources to meet these objectives.

NUCLEAR WEAPONS FREEZE/NUCLEAR WAR: I do not support a bilateral, mutually verifiable freeze agreement between the US and USSR. The USSR cannot be relied upon to negotiate with integrity. The reason the US is currently lagging in military equipment is a result of the USSR going on a massive buildup during a period of time when America was giving little attention to its defense posture. Their (USSR) intent is one of superiority — the only deterrence to that is a highly qualified and technically superior defense capability.

AGRICULTURE: I am a conservative who believes strongly in American agriculture. This is the land of plenty — a land who not only has fed and clothed our own people but people of other countries. The American farmer should not be penalized because of his efficiency. The 19th District needs a healthy farm economy. As a CPA, I have seen through my farming clientele the awful financial deterioration of family farms. We must provide farmers the opportunity to continue their much needed contribution to America and to the world.

Prints For Life effort continues

The Dimmitt Police Dept. and the Castro County Sheriff's Dept. are cooperating in the "Prints For Life" program to aid in identification of lost or kidnapped children.

After the recent fingerprinting of preschool children, law enforcement officials were to obtain fingerprints of students at the Lucky U Christian School Wednesday, and will work with students in kindergarten through the eighth grade in the public schools on Monday.

Parents of school age children are asked to sign a release form giving the police permission to fingerprint their children. This release must be returned to the school by Friday so that the fingerprinting may be done Monday. The fingerprint record will be given to the parents for safekeeping. There is no charge.

"The physical appearance of children will change over a period of time as they grow, but fingerprints will not change," said Dimmitt Police Chief Don Franklin. "We hope these fingerprints will never have to be used, but it is best to be prepared."

"The patient conquer."

Livestock teams compete at SPC

The Dimmitt High School FFA livestock judging team entered the South Plains College invitational livestock judging contest and placed sixth in team totals with 1,136 points.

DHS also had the number one team in swine judging. Team members were Kennen Howell, Roxanne Gabel, and Mark Standlee, coached by Ed Standlee.

In individual scoring, Chad Smithson was first over all individual in swine judging with 100 points and Mark Standlee was third over all individual in sheep judging with 139 points.

More than 500 contestants from 90 high schools throughout West Texas participated in the invitational contest, held at the SPC livestock arena in Levelland.

Eight county students make honor lists

Eight Castro County students have been named to the Fall honor rolls at Texas Tech University.

Six from Nazareth and two from Dimmitt were named to the deans' and presidents' lists.

To make the president's honor roll, a student must make a perfect 4.0 (A) grade-point average while enrolled in 12 or more semester hours of classwork.

For the dean's honor roll, a student must finish 12 or more semester hours with a grade-point average of 3.5 or above.

Making the president's list were Nazareth's Perry Brockman, David Huseman, Deanna Hoelting and Danelle Schmucker.

Making the dean's list were Dimmitt's Kevin Spinhirne and Laine A. Snider, and Nazareth's Dale Hoelting and Mark Hoelting.

Easter greetings brought by balloon

Robert Wilhite was changing water at his farm three miles northeast of Dimmitt recently when a small balloon came floating down from the sky. He chased it and caught it before it touched the ground.

Attached to the balloon was this note: "God loves you. Happy Easter from the Faith Presbyterian Church, Hermiston, Oregon."

"We looked it up on the map, and Hermiston is almost on the Canadian border," Wilhite's wife Tammy said. "We traced the distance and it's 1,140 nautical miles."

The Wilhites wrote a letter to the Oregon church Tuesday acknowledging that they had recovered the balloon, and sent the church a Chamber of Commerce brochure about Dimmitt.

This is the second balloon Robert has found. The first one came down in a field he was harvesting two years ago. He climbed down off the combine, recovered it, and learned that he had just won a 12" black-and-white TV set from an electronics store in Clovis.

Treasurer attends educational program

Castro County Treasurer Oleta Raper was one of 206 county treasurers, 21 deputies and two guests, taking part in the 12th annual County Treasurers' Seminar at Texas A&M University last week.

Theme of the 1984 seminar was "Learning Today for a Better Tomorrow."

The annual seminar is an educational program of the V. G. Young Institute of County Government, a part of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System. The Institute is designed to help Texas' elected county officials become more effective public servants, said Oleta.

Cooperating with the Extension Service in conducting the seminar was the County Treasurers' Association of Texas.

This year's seminar featured discussions on the duties of the County Treasurer, basic budgetary procedures, basic accounting principles, current microcomputer applications and use of the "Texas County Treasurer's Procedure Manual."

In addition, professional improvement sessions dealt with cash management, motivation, stress management, written communications, personnel management, and the legislative process.

The annual seminar provides 20 hours of study for county treasurers as required by House Bill 570 passed by the 68th Texas Legislature.

Raper will be presented a special certificate for successfully completing the two-and-a-half day educational program.

Dimmitt FFA elects officers

The Dimmitt FFA Chapter recently elected officers for 1984-85.

They are: President, Mark Standlee; Vice President, Cinnamon Cox; Secretary, Kim Howell; Reporter, Woody Glass; Treasurer, Bill Patton; Sentinel, Karen Nelson; Parliamentarian, Ricky McKay; Chaplain, Charlynn Hunter.

Conference set

The annual Preservation Conference will be held in Lubbock today (Thursday) through Saturday.

Castro County Historical Commission members plan to attend the conference.

Each year the conference brings together preservationists from all over the state to compare programs, listen to expert reports, and reward good works.

The theme of the gathering will be, "The things we leave behind: Preserving 20th century history."

★ WATER

"Five generations of my family have watched our part of West Texas change from cattle country to the greatest agricultural area in the world. The changes have brought miracles, but they have cost heavily in water use. We must search for new ways to preserve and rebuild our precious water for our children and grandchildren." Thomas M. Richards

★ ENERGY

"We must provide tax breaks and other incentives for new oil exploration so that we never become dependent on foreign oil and gas." Thomas M. Richards

★ FEDERAL DEFICITS

"Congress is going to have to get serious about deficit spending. We simply are going to have to learn to say 'no' when bloated and over-staffed bureaucracies hold their hands out for more funds." Thomas M. Richards

★ AGRICULTURE

"Farmers want to be let alone to make a living, not to rely on charity. When I'm elected to Congress I'll lead efforts to find more and better markets and to get a workable farm program whereby producers will be assured of a fair price for their production." Thomas M. Richards

★ SOCIAL SECURITY

"Our parents and grandparents made this country great. I will work to make sure all our senior citizens get a fair return on what they paid into the system." Thomas M. Richards

'Texas' musical drama enters 19th season

The popular musical drama "Texas" will kick off its 19th colorful season June 13 at the outdoor Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

The spectacular production, staged by the nonprofit Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, re-enacts events during the settling of the Texas Panhandle in the 1880s.

During 1983, "Texas" played to 87,881 visitors from all 50 states and 68 foreign countries, and has entertained almost 1.5 million during the past 18 seasons. It will play Monday through Saturday nights until Aug. 25.

The amphitheatre is framed by a rugged backdrop of canyon walls in one of the state's largest parks. Palo Duro Canyon State park is located 12 miles east of Canyon on FM 217.

Tickets for "Texas" may be reserved at any time at 2010 4th Ave. in Canyon, or by writing P.O. Box 268, Canyon, TX 79015. The telephone number is (806) 655-2181. For overnight camping reservations at the state park, write the park superintendent at Route 2, Box 285, Canyon, TX 79015, or call (806) 488-2227.

Campaigners get reminder

Harold Bob Bennett of Hart, co-chairman of the Castro County Hance for Senate campaign, urges all telephone committee members to be sure to carry through on their assigned calls within 48 hours of the election.

Reminder letters were sent to approximately 50 committee members.

"If any telephone committee member becomes sick or has to go out of town, he or she should contact me at 938-2425 or Jean DuLaney at 647-2525 or Carl King at 647-4224 so that the assigned calls can be taken care of," Bennett said. "The telephone committee is about as important a committee as there is in an election."

Bennett added that the three phone numbers given above can also be called to arrange transportation to the polls if needed.

Letter Not a bad sight

Dear Editor:
"The optimistic Old Man," was looking at himself in the mirror, his belly was hanging over his belt, his chest was down where his belly should be, his chin was hanging over where his chest used to be, his ears were touching his shoulders, and his bald dome was shining back at him.

Well! That is not such a bad sight, when you consider all the fun I have had getting in this shape.

Life is great!

Let the new generation of hybrids do for your sorghum acres what Pioneer has done for Plains corn.

8222 Big yield potential under full irrigation. A widely adapted hybrid, 8222 has produced a superior record under many different environmental conditions. But it's especially adapted to full-season production in this area. Provides outstanding stress tolerance, plus excellent resistance to MDMV and head smut. It's an attractive, medium height hybrid with semi-open heads of bright red, hard-textured grain. Leaves that are above average in width help provide first-rate shading. And outstanding root and stalk strength keeps plants standing for maximum harvest.

8493 Especially adapted for dryland or very limited water conditions, this is a fast maturing hybrid with exceptional drought tolerance. It has the ability to take full advantage of normal early season rainfall; then it makes efficient use of available ground moisture to produce all that the season allows. Under tough growing conditions, the standability of many hybrids often suffers. But not 8493. Strong stalks and roots keep medium height plants standing straight for easy harvest of dark red, high test weight grain. It's the standard for resistance to greenbugs.

8333 Pioneer plant breeders developed this great new hybrid to make the most of what the growing season has to offer. This one has outstanding drought tolerance, too—but you should plant it on good dryland or under limited irrigation to take full advantage of its maturity and yield potential. In irrigation tests throughout the Plains, 8333 has produced exceptional yields. The field appearance of the bronze, hard-textured grain is most attractive. Harvesting is made easy, too, by excellent head exertion and very good standability. For late season plant health, 8333 is highly resistant to MDMV, head smut, and Biotype C greenbugs.

Choose the combination best suited to your land and your conditions — and get ready for a great sorghum crop.

West Texas to host Historical Conference

Several county residents are planning to attend the Texas Historical Commission Annual Preservation Conference today (Thursday) through Saturday at the Holiday Inn Civic Center in Lubbock.

"This is the first time in many years that it has been held in the western part of the state," said Castro County Historical Commission member Teeny Bowden of Sunnyside.

Theme of the meeting will be "Things We Leave Behind." Keynote speaker Dr. Thomas J. Schlereth of the Department of American Studies at the University of Notre Dame will also speak on the same subject.

The Distinguished Awards Presentation Ceremony will be held Friday at 10:15 a.m., and an awards luncheon will be held Saturday at noon.

Session subjects will include cultural resources, downtown preservation, historic bridges, ghost towns, archeology for Twentieth Century youth, oral history, ranching history, Texas music in the Twentieth Century, and collecting Twentieth Century artifacts, among others.

Veals signs with Broncos

Dennis Veals, 22, formerly of Dimmitt, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boyd of Dimmitt, signed a professional contract Wednesday morning with the Denver Broncos football team.

A 1979 graduate of Dimmitt High School, Veals will be a defensive back. His three-year contract will be renewable on an annual basis.

A football standout at Dimmitt, where he served as captain of the team, he went on to play for Texas Tech University's team for three years.

Leyba wins 10K again

Kip Leyba of Lubbock repeated as the winner in the 10-kilometer run Saturday, crossing the finish line in 34 minutes, 23 seconds in the American Cancer Society's Run for Life.

The 28-year-old Leyba finished two minutes and 16 seconds ahead of the second-place finisher, Dale Thompson of Amarillo, in the gruelling race, which was run in mid-30's weather against a biting wind. Thompson, 49, won the men's 45-and-over division.

Other overall winners in the Run for Life were Cliff McCurdy, 30, of Canadian in the 5K run (16:17) Donny Vernon, 20, of Amarillo in the mile run (4:54); Nicki Lee, 20, of Lubbock in the women's 10K run (40:41); Beth Buckley, 24, of Dimmitt in the women's 5K run (23:42) and Renea Harman, 10, of Dimmitt in the women's mile (7:00).

Despite the windy chill Saturday morning, 78 runners made the race — 30 in the 10K, 28 in the 5K and 20 in the mile run.

Race coordinators Roger Malone and Beth Buckley reported that the run netted $300 for the Cancer Crusade. Here are the top finishers in each division:

CUFUPU contest is continuing

The clean up contest being conducted by the Dimmitt Clean Up, Fix Up, Pride Up Campaign Committee will continue through May 15 and additional entries are invited.

Committee chairman Joe Higgs encourages schools, churches, businesses and organizations to enter the contest. Points are given for beautification projects, as well as planting of shrubs and trees. Prizes will include a shrub or tree to be planted for the winner of each category, either on their own property or wherever they designate. Higgs reported that more than 68 attended the kickoff breakfast Saturday for this year's CUFUPU campaign.

The car crusher machine that was scheduled to visit from Amarillo didn't make it, but will come at a later date. About 20 cars were gathered during the work day Saturday, along with several old appliances and other junk items. Additional items will be gathered until the crusher's visit. For pick up of cars or other items, call 647-2524.

Higgs reported that seven trees have been designated in the memorial planting program. He also said that barrel planters are still available from the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce.

"We really appreciate the efforts of all who helped with the kickoff breakfast and the work day," said chamber manager Delores Heller.

Nazareth is at regional

Nazareth High School's boys tennis and golf players were in regional action Tuesday and Wednesday, with the tennis players being eliminated from the playoff race, and the golfers ranking fifth as of Wednesday morning.

The doubles tennis team of Kenneth Kleman and Sid Gerber lost their bid in early action, while Todd Hill went to the second round in singles action before being eliminated.

EGGS are a low-cost, low-calorie source of high quality protein.

The golf team results from Wednesday were not available by press time, but Dale Albracht was ranked fifth place medalist in Tuesday's play.

Hart players lose at region

Two Hart High School tennis players in boys' singles played at the regional tournament Tuesday and were defeated, eliminating them from the state tournament.

Martin Castillo was defeated in the first round of play by Reyes of Memphis by scores of 6-4, 7-5.

Mark Castillo won his first round over Woodruff of Shallowater, 6-1, 6-1, but lost in the quarterfinals to Duncan of Gruver, 6-1, 6-4.

More about Precinct ...

man Oscar Wylie said each person attending will be asked to sign in and give his or her preference for the party presidential nominee, or list himself or herself as "uncommitted."

Each Democratic precinct will elect one delegate to the forthcoming county convention for each 25 votes cast in that precinct for Gov. Mark White in the 1982 general election, Wylie said.

The preference of the delegates elected will determine which presidential candidate can claim the most support in Texas, Wylie said. After all delegates have been elected, the County Democratic Committee will tabulate the number of delegates committed to each presidential candidate, as well as the uncommitted delegates, and will report the totals to the state Democratic Party headquarters in Austin.

That tabulation will determine how much support each Democratic presidential candidate can expect from Texas Democrats at the national convention later this year.

Republicans will do it differently: The GOP ballot has the President's office listed, and calls for the voter to decide whether he or she is for President Ronald Reagan or is "uncommitted" regarding a party nominee for the presidency.

Election workers in the Republican Primary will simply tabulate the "Reagan" and "Uncommitted" votes and report the totals to State Republican Party Headquarters in Austin.

Then the Republicans will gather to elect delegates to their county convention.

At the county conventions May 19, delegates from the precincts will choose from among themselves who they wish to represent the county at the state Democratic and Republican party conventions this summer. The state conventions, in turn, will elect delegates to the national conventions, where the presidential and vice-presidential nominees will be chosen.

NHS tennis duo to go for gold

Nazareth's duo of Leona Gerber and Ramona Heiman will represent Region I this weekend in doubles action of the Class A state tennis tournament to be played in Austin.

Gerber, a junior, and Heiman, a sophomore, are making their second appearance at the state tennis meet. Last year they went in singles, Gerber as Region I champ, and Heiman as runner-up. Heiman reached the state finals.

The Nazareth team will play a first round match at 9 a.m. Friday at UT's Intramural tennis courts. A win would put them in the semi-finals, to be played at 1 p.m. Friday.

The finals of the doubles will be played at 9 a.m. Saturday at Penick courts. Nazareth coach Sandy Oliver said a team from Paint Rock will be there, and she thinks a Santa Anna team qualified for the state meet. Both are familiar names in the state tournament, and both should have competitive teams.

Last year Region I's Fort Davis and Anton doubles teams won first and second at state.

With both of those teams graduated, Gerber and Heiman may be the strongest team in the competition. "I think Leona and Ramona are better athletes than either of the two teams that finished first and second last year," Oliver said. "If they play up to their potential they have a good chance to win."

The NHS team made a quick trip through district and regional opponents, winning all of their matches handily, without dropping a set. Their closest match to this point has been a 6-2, 6-2 win over Borden County's Tammy Miller and Kelli Williams in the Region I finals.

Schilling to run 400 at state meet

Shari Schilling will be in Austin this weekend competing in the Girls' State UIL track meet.

Schilling, a Nazareth senior, won the 400 meter dash at the Region I-A meet held at Levelland.

Schilling won the regional meet in 61.04.

NHS track coach Joe Lombard said Schilling would have to improve her time at least two seconds to win at Austin. "Usually the winner runs a 58 or 59," Lombard said.

Schilling ran her best time (60.07) this year in the regional preliminaries. "Shari is very capable," Lombard said. "If she can knock off a little bit of time I think she will be really competitive."

Lombard said he felt Schilling was just now reaching her peak, because of the late start. "I think she will continue to improve and do well this weekend."

14 county boys go to regional

Two from Dimmitt, and six each from Hart and Nazareth begin competing Friday in regional track meets which will be held at Levelland, Lubbock and Odessa.

Two Dimmitt runners qualified for the 3A Region I meet which will be held in Odessa.

Two from Nazareth will go in field events, and four are entered in running events in the Region I-A meet to be held at Levelland.

Hart has both relay teams competing, and four going in individual events in the Region I-2A meet set for Lubbock.

Dimmitt's David Barton will run in the 110 hurdle competition. He finished second in district in 15.46.

Joe Alvarez will run in the 3200 race. He ran a 10:41.12 in district for second.

Hart's 400 meter relay team (Chris Rodriguez, Rene Gonzales, Tommy Menchaca and Johnny Washington) will compete at region as will the 1600 meter relay team. It has the same members except Ronnie Rodriguez runs instead of Chris Rodriguez.

Ronnie Rodriguez also will compete in the 300 IH hurdles.

Darrell Ethridge of Hart will go in discus competition. He finished second in district with a 108-6 throw.

Nazareth's Billy Steffens and Frank Wortham won first and second in the discus throw at district and will test their skills at regional.

Alan Birkenfeld and brother Joel will compete in the 3200 and 1600 runs, respectively. They both finished second in those two events at district.

Russell Hoelting is going in the 100 dash. He was second in district in 11.2. Chris Gerber won the 400 dash at district (53.19) and will compete in that event Friday.

Locals have niece in Canadian group at area festival

Among the public-school music groups participating in the Greater Southwest Music Festival in Amarillo Thursday through Saturday was an 88-member group from Grand Prairie High School in Alberta, Canada. Pianist for the group is Leslie Ann McClosky, who is the niece of Mrs. Richard Wooten of Dimmitt.

The Alberta students made up one of two Canadian groups that took part in the Amarillo festival, along with 10,000 students from Texas and four other states.

Scholarships are available for Hispanic students

LULAC Chapter #4378 of Dimmitt has scholarships available for college students who will be enrolled in a two or four-year accredited college in the Fall.

The scholarships are available to Hispanic students and the deadline for applying is May 15. For application forms and more information contact Angie Sandoval, 647-3406 or John Thomas, Dimmitt High School counselor.

Half of the money for the scholarships was raised through local projects and then was matched by the national organization.

Apply now for scholarships

The Castro County 4-H Council will distribute two $500 scholarships this year for county 4-H members wishing to attend college or a trade school.

Applications for the scholarships must be turned in to the county agents' office by May 12.

Schilling and Navar are wed Saturday in Lubbock

Debra Lynn Schilling and Bert Manuel Navar exchanged wedding vows Saturday evening in a formal, double-ring ceremony conducted by candlelight in the St. Elizabeth Catholic Church of Lubbock with Fr. William Hanley officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Schilling of Dimmitt, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adalberto Navar of El Paso.

Amid ivory candles in two candelabras decked with ivory bows, and two sprays of pale pink and blue carnations on the sides of the altar, the ceremony included music presented by organist Norman Goad and guitarist Marsha Tye. Soloist Lola Martinez sang "Follow Me," "For Baby," "Sunrise, Sunset," "The Wedding Song," "On Eagle's Wings," and "One Bread, One Body."

Tammie Sheets of San Antonio served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Shari Schilling of Dimmitt, niece of the bride, Donna Schilling of Dimmitt, cousin of the bride, Bonnie Pesina of Lubbock, and Connie Navar of El Paso, sister of the groom.

Hector Navar of El Paso, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Mark Foght of El Paso, Chuck Quenon of Lubbock, Ed Barrio of El Paso and Jim Foght of Bryan.

Flower girl was Heather Schilling and ring bearer was Gaylon Schilling, both of Dimmitt, and the niece and nephew of the bride. Serving as altar boys were Kyle and Brandon Schilling, both of Dimmitt, nephews of the bride. Gift bearers were Kelly Schilling of Dimmitt, niece of the bride, and Martha Gentry of Dallas, sister of the groom.

Ushers were Fred Navar of El Paso, brother of the groom, and Danny and Kenneth Schilling, both of Dimmitt and both brothers of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight, basque-style dress designed in New York. The bodice had a bolera effect formed of lace, and a high neckline of sheer Venice lace. Lace also formed the gathered, elbow-length sleeves, which were accented by matching lace gaunlets. Venice lace also outlined the full skirt, which formed a cathedral-length train ending in a V-shape, trimmed in lace. Lace, pearls and sequins adorned her Juliet cap, which anchored a full-length veil of illusion, scattered with lace flowers and edged with lace in a scalloped design, which outlined the train.

Silk ivory roses, blue lilies and pale pink flowers formed her cascade bouquet, which was accented with baby's breath. She wore a blue garter and gold locket worn by her mother on her wedding day.

The bride's attendants wore periwinkle blue chiffon dresses styled with a scoop back neckline with a chiffon ruffle. A tie belt of satin outlined the princess waistline, followed by a flowing chiffon skirt. In their hair, they each wore a blue silk flower with baby's breath and an ivory ribbon.

The flower girl wore a long dress of ivory eyelet with puff sleeves and a ruffle at the hemline. It was accented with a periwinkle blue satin sash and ribbon trim. After the ceremony, a reception and dance were held at KoKo Palace in Lubbock. The tables were decorated with blue candles and blue flowers.

The bride's table held the three-tiered wedding cake along with a crystal candelabra.

A buffet-style dinner was served. Music was provided by "The Country Addition" of Lubbock.

The couple went on a wedding trip to Puerta Vallarta, Mexico, and will be at home at 1123 W. Magnolia, San Antonio, after Sunday.

Employed by St. Luke's Lutheran Hospital in San Antonio as an RN, the bride is a 1978 graduate of Nazareth High School. She also attended Texas Tech University, and graduated in 1983 from the Methodist School of Nursing in Lubbock.

A 1978 graduate of Eastwood High School in El Paso, the groom graduated from Texas Tech University in

Burke is honored

Cathy Burke, bride-elect of Mark Summers, was honored with a miscellaneous shower April 21 in the home of Mrs. Stan Byrnes of Dimmitt.

Receiving guests were Mrs. Byrnes, the honoree and the prospective groom.

Covered with a white linen cloth, the serving table featured crystal appointments and a spring bouquet of silk flowers.

Fresh fruit and sweetbreads were served along with coffee and spiced tea. Servers were Teresa Lantz and Camille Summers.

Sharing hostess duties were 27 women. Hostess gift to the couple was a mixer and cookware set.

Engagement is told

Elaine Thompson and Alan Steinle, along with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thompson of Cleveland, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Steinle of Lucas, Kan., announce their engagement and approaching marriage.

Vows will be exchanged June 2 in Lee Street Baptist Church of Dimmitt with Rev. Ronnie Travis officiating. All friends of the couple are invited. No formal invitations will be mailed.

The bride-to-be is a 1978 graduate of Bradley Central High School in Tennessee. She received her bachelor's in education from Lee College in Cleveland, Tenn., and currently teaches fourth grade in Dimmitt Middle School.

A 1975 graduate of Lucas High School in Kansas, the prospective groom received his bachelor's degree in 1980 from Fort Hays State University in Hays, Kan. He is employed as a teacher and coach at Dimmitt High School.

The pair plan to reside in Dimmitt after the wedding.

Mothers and Children

Modeling new spring fashions from Tots and Teens this week are Barbara Steffey and her children, Steve, 6, and Leslie, 4.

Barbara, who is wearing a dress by Act 1 in a tie dye fabric, helps Steve with his Billy the Kid necktie, which he's wearing with a double-breasted coat and slacks by Jonathan Strong and a Deerfield shirt. Leslie wears a blue-and-white pinafore by Bryan.

For the latest in spring fashions and colors for mothers, daughters and young sons, stop by the "Young at Heart Corner" and see us.

Timothy Lay and Tammy Calhoun

Couple to marry

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Calhoun of Dimmitt announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Tammy, to Timothy David Lay, son of Lona Lay of Lutz, Fla., and Leon Lay of Pagosa Springs, Colo.

The pair plan to wed June 16 at the Lee Street Baptist Church of Dimmitt. Friends of the family and the couple are invited to attend. Miss Calhoun is a 1983 graduate of Dimmitt High School and is now attending Amarillo college.

Lay is a 1981 graduate of Dimmitt High School and is employed at Thriftway Supermarket of Dimmitt.

The couple plan to reside in Dimmitt after the wedding.

Luncheon set by Book Club

The Dimmitt Book Club's Spring Luncheon will be held Wednesday (May 9) at the Hereford Country Club. Guest reviewer will be Mrs. Frank Truitt. She will review the book "Jaworsky."

Everyone must be at the country club at 11:30 a.m. Guests are welcome but reservations must be turned in to Shirley Stephens, Mildred Bradford, Margaret Parsons, or Murna Miller by Monday.

Chit Chat From South Hills Manor
Central Care System

By Barbara Armstrong
Hello from South Hills Manor. This is a little different this week. It is to everyone in the community. We need some volunteers at our Home.

We would like for groups, small or large, to come and just "pick a friend" and sit down and visit with this friend for 10 or 15 minutes. There are a few residents who never have company. So won't you come out and spend a few minutes with these sweet people?

We are in need of musical groups. I am sure there are some of you retired people or housewives who can play a trumpet, violin, accordion, piano, or who can sing. We do not expect perfection. Won't you who have talent come out and entertain us for a few minutes?

Does anyone have a parakeet and cage, or fish aquarium that you would like to get rid of? It would be lots of fun and would pass away lots of long lonely hours.

I know there are lots of talented people in Dimmitt so won't you come out to share it with us? We would certainly enjoy it.

Chris Elkins and Sheri Austin

Pair to wed in July

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Austin of Olton announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sheri Denise, to Christopher Scott Elkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Elkins of Sunnyside.

Miss Austin will graduate in May from Olton High School, where she has been active in band and FFA.

Elkins graduated from Springlake-Earth High in 1980 and attend Texas Tech University three years, majoring in agricultural economics. He is engaged in farming in the Sunnyside community.

The couple will exchange wedding vows at 7 p.m. July 14 in the First United Methodist Church of Olton, with all friends in the area invited.

Jackson is award winner

Dimmitt High School Junior Stacie Jackson has been selected as a 1984 United States National Award winner in honor roll by the US Achievement Academy.

Nominated for the award by DHS counselor John Thomas, Jackson will appear in the academy's official yearbook, published annually.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Jackson. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Jackson of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Bailey of Cleburne.

Winners are selected upon the recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors. Criteria for selection include a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude.

Stacie Jackson

Hargrove honored

The National Secondary Education Council announced recently that Laura Hargrove, a Dimmitt sophomore, has been named an Academic All-American.

The Academic All-American Scholar Award was established to offer recognition to superior students who excel in the Academics disciplines. The academic All-Americans must earn a 3.3 or better grade point average.

Hargrove was nominated for this award by her history teacher, Dana Beck.

Hargrove is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hargrove.

DHS students elect Sava to top office

Greg Sava will be the president of the Dimmitt High School Student Council next school year, and Stephanie Ryan will be the vice-president.

They were elected by the student body last Wednesday to serve as the Student Council's top two elected officers.

Sava, a junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sava. He is the president-elect of the Key Club, a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council and Lyre Club, and competes in football and track.

Sava will succeed Chad Thompson as the Student Council president.

Ryan, a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ryan. She is serving this year as the Student Council secretary, and also is the Key Club reporter and a vice-president of Future Homemakers of America. She is a member of the DHS Band and Lyre Club and competes in basketball and track.

Benjamin Franklin was the first head of the U.S. Post Office.

Vote for the Best Qualified Man —

DON RICHARDS

for U.S. Representative, District 19

EXPERIENCED:

Don Richards was Kent Hance's right-hand man in Washington for three years, during passage of the Farm Bill, the PIK Program, the tax and budget cuts of 1981, and other major legislation. Since 1981 he has served in Congressman Hance's Lubbock regional office while attending law school, and has specialized in helping area farmers and veterans deal with the FmHA and the federal bureaucracy. He KNOWS how to cut red tape and get things done.

PREPARED:

Don Richards has prepared himself to serve us. He is both a graduate journalist and an attorney at law. He was an award-winning newspaperman 5½ years at Hereford and Clarendon, and recently graduated with honors from the Texas Tech Law School. He is in touch with ALL of us as only a community newspaperman can be... and he knows the theory and reasoning behind our nation's laws, as only an attorney can know.

KNOWLEDGEABLE:

Of all the candidates in both parties, Don Richards is the most knowledgeable about the passage of legislation in the federal government. And that's vitally important to us, with a new Farm Bill coming up in 1985. He has BEEN there. He has BEEN working for ALL of us. Let's give him the opportunity to CONTINUE working for us!

DON RICHARDS is at the TOP of the ticket on your ballot!

PLAINS MEMORIAL
Arnold and Mary Gonzales of Dimmitt are the parents of a girl, Amanda, born April 27 at 12:35 p.m., weighing 7 pounds and 1/4 ounce and measuring 19 1/4 inches in length.

OUT OF TOWN
Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lambert of Amarillo are the parents of a boy, Beau Wayne, who was born Friday April 27 at 11:07 p.m. in High Plains Baptist Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 9 1/2 ounces and was 20 inches long. He has a 4-year-old sister Amanda. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gilreath and Mrs. Pennie Lambert of Muleshoe. Great grandmother is Mrs. I. D. Onstead of Littlefield.

TURKEY production decreased 30 percent in Texas in 1982 from 1981.

BASEBALL TALK

We have a shortage of boys and girls to have a full baseball program. So please note... Late sign-up will be held at the ball park, in the concession stand, today (Thursday) at 5:30 p.m.

This shortage may be the result of several factors — one being the player fee of $17. Let us state this right off: We, Kids, Inc., are doing everything we can to lower this fee, and might be able to do so by the time the season starts.

Kids, Inc. philosophy is, "If a boy or girl wants to play baseball, let's not let the player fee prevent that child from being able to play." This applies especially to the family that has two, three or more children who want to play. If the player fee is keeping your child from playing, please call Jerry Stump at 647-2631.

Some of you may not know that the concession stand and storage building were vandalized this past winter. Not only was there substantial damage done to the building, but we are missing several hundred dollars' worth of baseball equipment and equipment used in the concession stand. All of this adds severely to our (your) cost of operation. In other words, some of our "friends" have taken several hundred dollars out of our pockets.

Add that to the normal cost of baseballs, hats, shirts, equipment lost to normal wear and tear, insurance, uniforms lost to normal wear and tear, upkeep of the parks — just to name a few items — and you have a very large budget. Much larger than we had anticipated.

We want to have a good baseball program this summer for our kids. So if you want to play, just sign up and we'll do our best to see that you get to play.

Kids, Inc.

Council plans programs for Homemakers Week

May 6-12 is National Extension Homemaker Week, and the Castro County Extension Homemakers council has planned several programs of interest that will be held next Thursday (May 10) at the Senior Citizens Center in Dimmitt. Programs for the day will range from crafts to cooking, and each will last one hour. At 9:30 a.m. Teresa Nutt, CEA-HE, will give instruction in candlewicking. Participants are asked to bring an embroidery hoop, scissors and 25 cents. Please call ahead if you plan to attend so that enough supplies may be provided.

Raymond Davis, Energas representative, will speak on how to lower your high energy bills, beginning at 10:30 a.m. From 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. participants in the programs are invited to join the Senior Citizens for a lunch of ham, buttered carrots, English peas, tossed salad, plum cobbler, relish tray, coffee and tea. The cost is $3 per plate or $2 for members of the center. Call 647-2654 for lunch reservations.

The subject of cooking on a restricted diet will be covered at 1 p.m. by Mary Blinderman of Southwestern Public Service Co.

At 2 p.m. Don Franklin of the Dimmitt Police Dept. will speak on missing children and parents' responsibility. Call Teresa Nutt at 647-4115 for more information, or to make reservations for the candlewicking program.

Clothing project will start soon

Workers are needed to help with the 4-H clothing project this year, according to County Extension Agent Teresa Nutt.

"When school is out, we'll be sewing, modeling, learning about grooming, makeup, hair styles and other subjects," Nutt said.

Those interested in joining are asked to fill out the form below and send it to Teresa Nutt, CEA-HE, Courthouse, Dimmitt, TX 79027.

"We also need some mothers to help teach projects or to be teachers' helpers," Nutt said.

CONDRA FOR CONGRESS

We are asking you to support Gary D. Condra for the U.S. Congress. Gary is the right man for the job because he has the economic training and experience to help find workable solutions to the problems which face West Texas. There are others in the race who are qualified in professions such as law, medicine, and journalism. But Gary Condra is the only candidate who is a recognized professional in the areas of economics and agriculture; not only in West Texas, but in Washington as well.

Gary Condra grew up working on a West Texas farming and ranching operation. He has worked in a feedlot and operated his own irrigated farm. He was trained as an agricultural economist at both Texas Tech and Texas A&M. And Gary has spent the last 10 years as an Extension economist, helping West Texans in 42 counties solve economic problems.

Condra saw the Pecos Valley go out of production and he knows "when Congress talks about the 1985 Farm Bill, it is talking about the survival of West Texas agriculture." As he says, "Agriculture needs profit and stability, not promises and sympathy." Gary also believes that we must have a long-run program with mandatory participation.

Gary Condra knows that the oil and gas industry is an important sector of the West Texas economy. His economic training will be invaluable when Congress considers legislation on the pricing of natural gas and the windfall profits tax. As Gary says, "Congress can pass bills, but it can't repeal the laws of supply and demand."

Gary Condra and his family have made a big commitment to the survival of West Texas. And we have joined them in this commitment. Now we are asking you to do your part by helping hire the right man for the job. You, too, can make a commitment to the survival of West Texas with your personal support and your vote for Gary D. Condra for the U.S. Congress in the May 5 Democratic Primary.

Two fined, sentenced in court here Friday

Two Castro County men were fined $1,500 each and given probated sentences after pleading guilty in 64th District Court Friday to felony crimes.

Judge Jack R. Miller sentenced James Robert Kendrick, 33 of Hart to four years' felony probation and fined him $1,500 plus $96 court costs after Kendrick pleaded guilty to unlawful possession of marijuana.

Judge Miller also ordered Kendrick to pay a $15 per month reporting fee to the Adult Probation Office.

Court records indicated that Kendrick was arrested last Aug. 16 at his farm near Hart when agents of the Dept. of Public Safety came to his home regarding an arrest warrant on a DWI charge in Farmer County. The DPS officers reportedly discovered more than two pounds of marijuana growing on his farm.

Francisco Luna, 19, of Dimmitt pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Mini Mart at 500 E. Bedford last July. Judge Miller ordered him to pay a $1,500 fine and $96 court costs, and to serve a five-year felony probation. Luna also was ordered to pay $15 per month reporting fee to the Adult Probation Office and to pay $120 in restitution to the owner of the Mini Mart building.

Court records indicated that Mini Mart Assistant Manager Janet Leingang discovered Luna inside the store when she arrived to open the business for the day last July 31. Luna reportedly fled on foot, and was not apprehended for the offense until November.

In other 64th District Court action Friday, Judge Miller ordered a Lubbock man to pay a bail-bond forfeiture of $1,500 to the county as the result of the failure of Nathan Zachary Brewer to appear in court for trial.

Judge Miller issued the order to D. P. Trammel of Lubbock, who had signed a bail bond to secure Brewer's release from jail.

Brewer reportedly left the state while awaiting trial for the July 22, 1982 assault against Tony Montemayor Jr. in downtown Hart. An arrest warrant for Brewer is still outstanding, District Attorney Jimmy Davis said.

An 18-year-old Amarillo man, stopped Sunday on suspicion of DWI, was found to be driving while his license was suspended from a previous offense of driving without liability insurance.

DWI charges were brought against an 18-year-old Bovina man Sunday. April 24 John Rodriguez, 31, of Dimmitt was cited for failure to yield right of way and for no proof of liability insurance when the 1979 Chevrolet he was driving collided with a 1978 Buick driven by Candelaria Perez, 40, of Dimmitt. The collision took place at the intersection of Andrews and Northwest Second Streets.

Cited for failure to have liability insurance was 26-year-old Orlando Juarez of Dimmitt last Thursday when the 1969 Ford he had parked on Northwest Fourth street was struck in the left rear quarter by a 1980 Thunderbird driven by Doris Covington Ward, 48, of Dimmitt.

No one was ticketed Monday when a 1984 Chevy pickup driven by Hubert Backus of Nazareth attempted to change lanes going south on Broadway and struck a 1974 Ford driven by Sulena Menchaca Reyna, 40, of Hart.

No injuries were reported in any of the accidents.

VOLUNTEERS HONORED — Dimmitt Mayor R. L. Fleming takes to the wheelchair and whips out a proclamation to commend volunteers for the necessary services they provide in our society. Manning the wheelchair is Ruby Wood, first vice-president of the Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. Looking on are two other representative volunteers — Joe Josselet (left), who works with the Meals on Wheels program for shut-ins, and Joe Higgs, chairman of the city-wide Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Pride-Up campaign this year. The mayor and Gov. Mark White have both proclaimed May 6-12 as Volunteer Week, with the theme, "Lend a Hand . . . Volunteer!" The special week commends "the dedicated volunteers who give their time and talent in a labor of love to enrich life in their hospitals and communities."

Police calls

Three traffic accidents, a case of criminal mischief, a DWI, and a case of driving while license suspended were all handled by law enforcement officials in the county during the past week.

Approximately $100 worth of damage was reported at Granny's Chicken and Biscuits in Dimmitt and a 21-year-old Dimmitt man is in custody in connection with the incident reported Friday when several of the video games at the establishment were damaged.

Concerts group seeks members

Forty-four workers and patrons were on hand Monday night for the kick-off dinner for the 1984-85 membership drive for the Castro County Community Concerts Association.

Mary Lloyd of Columbia Artists Management of New York City came to Dimmitt to help encourage workers to put the drive over the 824-member mark that was reached last year.

Association President Nolan Froehner urged campaign workers to turn in memberships as they are obtained rather than waiting until all prospects are contacted.

The National Choir of Romania will be the first attraction of the season, with the concert set for Oct. 10. The 35 to 40-member group will perform and sing in the colorful native costumes of their country as a part of the program, Mrs. Lloyd said.

The dinner was held at the Colonial Inn Restaurant in Dimmitt. Table decorations of bright red geraniums were provided by the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce and Joe and Joyce Higgs.

40 YEAR REUNION

The Class of 1944 will have a reunion Aug. 25, 1984, at the Courthouse Assembly Room in Dimmitt. For information contact: Billy Hackleman, 647-5336; Bill Birdwell, 647-2575; or Kenneth Jackson, 647-3294.

Cancer Society

"Volunteers of the Castro County Unit of the American Cancer Society are in the process of waging a door-to-door battle against cancer this week," declared Doris Lindsey and Louise Mears, Residential Drive Chairpersons of the 1984 Cancer Crusade.

C-Days are the door-to-door aspect of the annual educational and fund-raising campaign of the American Cancer Society, when volunteers call on their neighbors and friends to distribute information about cancer.

"This year, trained volunteers will be carrying information on the two most common and deadly forms of cancer," said Lindsey and Mears.

A folder offering a "Quick Test on Cancer Risks for Lung, Colon and Rectum" will be handed out to all residents.

"This short test may help save some lives here in Castro County," said Chairpersons Lindsey and Mears.

C-Days also will provide an opportunity for people to contribute toward the support of the Society's year-round cancer control program.

Obituaries

Florence Luzina Dodson

Funeral services were held Friday for Florence Luzina Dodson, 81, of Memphis, in Spicer Funeral Home Chapel of Memphis, with Derrel McLaughery, minister of the Church of Christ, officiating.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery. Mrs. Dodson died April 25 in Amarillo. She was the mother of two Dimmitt men.

Born in Alabama, Mrs. Dodson had lived in Donley and Hall Counties since 1936. She was a Nazarene.

Survivors include a daughter; four sons, including Buddy and Al Murdock, both of Dimmitt; a brother; three sisters; 18 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Guadalupe G. Gonzales

Services for Guadalupe G. Gonzales, 81, of Dimmitt, were held Friday in Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Dimmitt with the Rev. Raphael Chen, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens by Parsons-Foskey Funeral Home.

Mrs. Gonzales died April 24 in Plains Memorial Hospital.

She was born in Mexico. She married Juan Gonzales in 1926 in Carrizo Springs. She was a housewife and had lived in Dimmitt seven months, moving from Swayzee, Ind. She was a member of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

Survivors include six daughters, Maria Ramirez of Carrizo Springs, Berta Guerrero of Marion, Ind., Elvira Pena of Dimmitt, Josefa Gonzales of Edinburg, Steffy Herrera of Swayzee, Ind., and Odelia Espinoza of San Antonio; two sons, Ramon of Dimmitt and Ancension of Carrizo Springs; two sisters, Petra Torrez of Phoenix, Ariz., and Isabelle De La Cruz of San Antonio; one brother Alfredo Garcia of Eagle Pass; 45 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

John W. Landers

Services for John W. Landers, 86, of Fritch, were held Friday in First Southern Baptist Church of Fritch with Rev. L. C. Landers, Baptist minister of Tahoka, and the Rev. Ron Trusler, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery in Amarillo. He was the father of a Hart woman.

Mr. Landers moved to Fritch six years ago from Tullia. He worked for United Carbon nine years in Tullia. He was preceded in death by his wife Maggie in 1975 and a son, Edward, in 1959.

Survivors include four daughters, Christine Box of Hart, Inez Sheen of Arlington, Freda Boyer of Fritch and Murlene Atkinson of Denton; a brother, Robert of Forestburg; two sisters, Eunice Dill and Lena Foster, both of Odessa; 22 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren and a great-great-grandchild.

Claude Lee Morris

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Claude Lee "Pee Wee" Morris, 78, long-time Castro County resident and retired farmer.

Mr. Morris died Monday. Services were held in the Fourth and Bedford Street Church of Christ with Dale Wells, minister, officiating. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens Cemetery by Parsons-Foskey Funeral Home.

Born in Bonham in Fannin county, Mr. Morris came to Castro County in 1928 and ran the White Rose Cafe with his brother. Later, he sold it and became a car salesman.

On Dec. 23, 1930, he married the former Anita Willis in Clovis, N.M. They opened the Green Lantern Cafe in Dimmitt, and later sold it. They lived in Hereford for a while, then moved back to Dimmitt and started farming south of town.

Mr. Morris retired from farming in 1974. He was a member of the Fourth and Bedford Street Church of Christ.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Larry of Dimmitt and Jerry of Dallas; a brother, Clarence of Memphis; and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Mike Baca, Gene Bradley, Andy Rodgers, George Copeland, Alan Gowdy and Morris Gowdy.

Howard Schulte

Howard Schulte, 42, of Luling, and formerly of Nazareth, died Friday in Miami, Fla., of an apparent heart attack as he stepped off a plane on his way home to Luling.

Funeral services were held Monday morning in St. John's Catholic Church in Luling with Rev. Bill Brooks, pastor, and Rev. Harold Waldow, pastor of Holy Family Catholic Church of Nazareth, officiating.

Born May 13, 1941 in Dimmitt, Mr. Schulte graduated from Nazareth High School and obtained his bachelor's degree in agricultural education from Texas A&M University. He was employed as an offshore oil well driller, and had most recently been working in Brazil.

A Catholic, he was a member of St. John's Catholic Church. He married the former Susan Dobmeier of Nazareth.

He is survived by his wife; four daughters, Sonia, Rachelle, Lora and Leanne, all of the home; five brothers, Marvin, Kenneth, Clyde and Bob, all of Nazareth, and Olen of Amarillo; four sisters, Raylene Hoelting, Bernita Hoelting and Vera Ramaekers, all of Nazareth, and Cheryl Schulte of Amarillo; his parents, Ray and Martha Schulte of Nazareth; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Wayne and Leon.

Mexican grain team here today

A seven-man grain storage team from Mexico will be in the Dimmitt area today (Thursday) to study commercial and on-farm grain storage facilities.

The team will be made up of mid-level representatives of CONASUPO, a government-sponsored commodities purchasing organization, and will include grain merchandisers and feed experts.

They're being hosted by the US Feed Grains Council, which is helping Mexico gear for importing and using US feed grains to solve its meat and milk deficits. Mexican imports of coarse grain rose from 2.27 million metric tons in 1977 to 7.71 mmt in 1982, and the US government projects the figure to grow to 8.09 mmt by 1985, with 84% of the imported grain coming from the US.

The group will be accompanied by members of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association, and is scheduled to visit Taylor Feed Lots and the farms of Jimmie Howell and David Cole to see modern storage, drying, milling and handling facilities.

Nazareth News

By VIRGIE GERBER
Helen Backus attended the Confirmation of her grandson Glenn Backus, Wednesday evening at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Hereford. She spent the night with the Francis Backus family.

Walter and Easy Schulte enjoyed a week's vacation with their family, Etta Mae and Bill Sellers of Tahlequah, Okla. They live at the War Eagle Camping Resort — Easy says it is a beautiful place but was a little on the cool side. Etta Mae is doing fine since her surgery and thanks everyone here for their prayers.

The Albert Gerber families enjoyed Rick and Jessica Gerber this past week. We had several get-togethers which are always fun.

Marion Durbin is doing fine after having an arterial coronary bypass surgery at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. She is in room no. 769.

The Schulte and Dobmeier families, friends and Father Harold Waldow attended the funeral service for Howard Schulte, 42, in Luling. We extend our sympathy to them.

Laverne and Ronnie Wilhelm rode with Walt and Zelma Warren and John and Regina Warren of Hereford to Waterflow, N.M., to attend an uncle, Leo Warren's funeral on Friday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Leo died Monday, April 23 in Waterflow following a lengthy illness. He is survived by his wife Helen and 10 children, of Star Route 2, Box 48, Waterflow, N.M. 87421. Others from Nazareth attending the funeral were Rose Warren, Bud and Rita Kern, Anne and Gene Kern, Lillian and Paul Venhaus, and Margaret Birkenfeld. Lee and Helen lived at Nazareth when they were first married.

Ivan and Carrie Schacher and their twins are trying to relocate after losing their home and its contents in a fire.

Philip, Dora, Frank and Rita Pohlmeier and Theresa Rider were in Lawrence, Neb. to attend the 40th anniversary celebration of Edgar and Eileen Buescher.

Rita Pohlmeier from Aurora, Colo. spent 10 days vacation with her parents Philip and Dora Pohlmeier.

Company in the home of Max Acker over the weekend were Tom Acker of San Antonio, Myrtle and H. D. White of Amarillo, Janice White of Dallas, Colleen Eck, Bradley and Janele of Amarillo.

Steve Albracht was kept overnight Sunday in the Tullia Hospital for observation after an accident involving the drive shaft of a well motor.

Relatives who came for the funeral of Mamie (Annen) Schuchert were her husband, John, of Bentonville, Ark.; two nieces, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Costar of Aurora, Colo., and Mrs. Johnnie Fay Williams of Olive Branch, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Plano; and Monroe Harwell of Terral, Okla.

Mrs. Cornelia Annen is spending a week in Fort Worth for a medical check-up and visiting with the Gene Hubbards.

Rev. B. A. Dickerson of Plainview filled the pulpit Sunday morning in the absence of Dr. Strauss Atkinson. His wife accompanied him and they were guests of Clyde and Judy Damron, Justin and Tracy. There were no Sunday night services since so many were going to be away. Dr. Atkinson preached the messages in both morning services and the evening services at the First Baptist Church in Canyon. After the evening services there was a fellowship in his honor and a plaque presented to him for his many years of service as their pastor and as area missionary. Gale and Verna Sadler and E. R. and Willie Mae Sadler attended the Sunday night services there, for the inauguration of Dr. Strauss Atkinson as pastor emeritus. He will be helping them make some of their decisions.

Cliff and Naomi Brown attended the awards assembly at South Plains College in Levelland Tuesday, and the reception for students, family, and faculty following the assembly. Lynn Brown received an award for Technical Theatre.

CORRECTION: In the recent article concerning the death of Bill Matlock, I mistakenly listed his wife as Betty McClanahan Matlock instead of Dorothy. Betty, her older sister died in the 1960s.

Dr. Strauss Atkinson showed a film on the Cooperative Program at the Wednesday night services. Cliff and Naomi Brown attended the awards assembly at South Plains College in Levelland Tuesday, and the reception for students, family, and faculty following the assembly. Lynn Brown received an award for Technical Theatre.

Ezell and Verba Sadler left Wednesday for Breckenridge to make preparations for the Louder reunion over the weekend. Alton and Betty Louder and L. B. and Teeny Bowden joined them Saturday and Sunday. The Loudders spent Thursday Friday at Stamford Lake.

Howard and Corrine Spencer of Red River came in Thursday to visit over the weekend with Mrs. John Spencer in South Hills Manor and with Noah and Ruth Spencer.

Larry and Sharon Sadler, Carrie of South Plains College, Stacy and Laura and Chad and Juanelle Windsor, Cory and Kasey of Fort Worth spent last weekend at Hubbard Creek Lake at Breckenridge.

Ezell and Verba Sadler attended their rock club meeting in Hereford Monday night.

Rev. Bentley Gwyn of Fort Worth will come before the church in view of a call and Lee and Gale Brown, Jared and Jason, attended the services at the First Baptist Church in Levelland Sunday morning to share in their "Adopt a Student" service and luncheon following the service. The students and their families get to meet and visit with the adoptive parents. The students are those attending South Plains College.

Alviaro Acosta was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt Monday when the horse he was riding fell with him. He received a broken pelvis, but was dismissed Thursday.

Phyllis Bridges, Retha Wilson and Renee Wilson finished their computer courses at Wayland Baptist University in Plainview this week.

Bill Talley was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital and underwent major surgery Wednesday afternoon.

Teeny Bowden and other members of the Castro County Historical Commission attended the Commissioner's Court meeting Monday morning in regard to disposing of records in the vault.

On the Go

With Mary Edna Hendrix, 647-3343

Mae Taylor and Lillie Mae Wilson from Plainview have returned from the "Springtime in Texas Tour." They left Amarillo and drove to Johnson City where they drove to the L.B.J. State Historical Park, saw Johnson's birthplace, drove by the guest house, "The Texas Whitehouse," the one room school house where Johnson attended school, and the family cemetery. They saw the cattle on the ranch, an airplane and the landing strip, and the Lincoln Continental that Johnson used in Washington, D.C.

They drove to Austin, had a tour of the capitol and the L.B.J. library. That night they went for a nighttime view of the capitol and the Governor's mansion. The next day they went to San Marcos where they saw the underwater show and rode in the glass bottom boat.

On to San Antonio where

FREE HEARING TESTS SET FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

LIVINGSTON HEARING AID CENTER, INC.
1913 A. 19th St.
1-762-2951

Offers a new concept in helping the hard of hearing. Livingston Hearing Aid Center, Inc., will sponsor free electronic hearing tests on Thursday from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. The tests will be given at the Senior Citizens Center in Dimmitt by Clinton S. Simmons. His experience and professional approach assures you of personal understanding and expert help.

Most hearing aid specialists sell you the brand of hearing aid they carry. And that brand may not have the model that's exactly right for you.

With Livingston Hearing Aid Center, Inc., it's different. We offer a new concept for the hard of hearing by carrying a variety of hearing aids from over 12 different manufacturers. We promise to fit you with an aid that answers your problem exactly. And our promise is backed by a 30 day satisfaction guarantee or your money back.

Everyone, especially older citizens, should have their hearing tested electronically at least once a year. Many of you may suspect you have trouble hearing and understanding.

Repair service and cleaning will be available to you for your present hearing aid — no matter what brand or where you bought it. The hearing tests are free and will only take 20 minutes of your time. Please come in and take advantage of this special opportunity.

Pd. Adv.

they walked along the beautiful river front, and to the Alamo. That evening they had dinner at the Tower of the America's Restaurant and later took a ride on the river in a small boat.

The next day on the road to Houston they saw the beautiful fields of Bluebonnets and Indian Paint Brush. While in Houston they visited the NASA Space Center, Mission Control Center, Battleship Texas and San Jacinto Monument. That evening they ate at the San Jacinto Inn where they were served raw oysters, delicious sea food, and chicken.

The group had a tour of the Astrodome and saw the Astros beat the Cincinnati Reds. After leaving Houston they drove through the Coastal Plains to Corpus Christi, drove over the tallest bridge in Texas, drove through the Naval Air Station and had an interesting shore line drive.

After leaving Corpus Christi they went to the King Ranch, ate lunch in Harlingen, and drove on to Padre Island.

From there they went to Brownsville, boarded a Gray Line bus and rode to Matamoros, Mexico. Then back to Harlingen they toured the Confederate Air Force, Flying Museum, in Uvalde they visited the John Nance Garner Museum. That evening they attended their Farewell Banquet.

The next day they drove through the pretty Hill Country and went by fields of vegetables and on in to Amarillo.

Mae told me she was the oldest one on the tour but kept up the pace better than some of the younger ones!

Jean DuLaney and sisters, Faye Findley from Olton, Thelma Watts from Farwell, and Ava Cox from Carlsbad, N.M., visited relatives in Plainview and they all came back to Dimmitt to spend the week with Jean and family. Jean asked me to mention to her Kent Hance telephone committee to remember to make their calls as noted in her earlier letter.

The annual Spring banquet honoring the widows was held at the F.B.C. on Tuesday evening with the deacons and their wives sponsoring the event. The tables were decorated with beautiful Spring bouquets of fresh and silk arrangements with pink and green streamers down the center of the tables and yellow candles. V. C. Hopson gave the invocation and Elbert Smith gave the welcome.

The Singing Farmers from Hart entertained with several religious songs which included "At Calvary," "You May Ask Me How I Know My Lord is Real," "King Jesus," "The Statue of Liberty," and "Let Us Have a Little Talk With Jesus." The quartet consists of Preston Upshaw and his nephew, and Weldon Davis and his son. Denise Smith made the place cards using her beautiful calligraphy handwriting. Dr. Charles Vandiver gave the benediction. Thanks deacons and wives!

Emma Beth Brinker from Englewood, Calif. has been visiting her sister, Mary Lou Frazier, and family for a few days.

Josie Bradford was hostess to the Friday bridge club. Betty Cartwright won high and Josie won second high. Others playing were: Mildred Bradford, Dorothy Elder, Gladiola Shipley, Betty Renfro from Amarillo, Retta Cluck, and Cletha George.

The Thursday Bridge Club met at the Senior Citizens Center with Susie Reeves as hostess, and she also won high score. Jean Christian won second high and others playing were: Oleda Schumacher, Ferne Dickey, Johnnie Vannoy, Emily Clingsmith, Jo Gregory, and Alice Collyer.

Pointing the way

Early churches used steeples to make the building higher than all others in the city. People could see God's House from any direction, and could easily find their way to a place of worship. Today, with many office buildings towering into the sky, churches are not always the tallest buildings. However, churches still point the way to God, and provide a place of worship.

Presbyterian happenings

Friday, all across the Christian world, is celebrated as May Fellowship Day.

Sunday is the Third Sunday of Easter, Christian Family Week begins, and it is Consultation on Church Union Sunday.

There is a Sunday Church School class for everyone every Sunday at 10 a.m. The Adult Bible Class meets at the home of Mrs. Emily Clingsmith; all other classes meet at the church.

'Three Red Lights' will be the subject of Pastor Edward D. Freeman's sermon at the Sunday morning church worship service at 11. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated.

A service of prayer, praise, and Bible study will be held on Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Several Dimmitt residents attended the last community concert of the season in Plainview featuring Leonard Pennario, pianist. We saw Jack and Murna Miller, Jennie Miller, Jo Gregory, Nolan Froehner, Ed Freeman, Oleta Gollehon, Guy Walser, Myrna Cowsert, Opal Bearden, and Irene

Carpenter. We also visited with Dr. Ivy Loy Bishop, and Rev. Weldon and Jean Butler and their son, Ricky. About 70 sleepy-eyed persons attended the early morning breakfast at the United Methodist Church sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Then they all braved the cold wind to go out to clean up the town — hoeing weeds, cleaning up scattered papers, hauling off old cars and appliances and planting flowers in the barrels that the men had filled with dirt.

Frances and Carl King attended the "Little Miss Hereford" Pageant on Saturday night that was held in the Hereford High School auditorium. Kendra King, daughter of Steve and Barbara King, won the "Cutest Little Miss" award from the 31 contestants in the pre-school and kindergarten category. Other grandparents are Della and Nolan LeGate.

Dr. Bob and Pat Brock visited Bob's parents Earl and Mable Brock and family on Easter Sunday. They were returning home from visiting their son, Rebby who is attending the University of Indiana in Bloomington. Reb was in Spring training for football.

We were saddened to hear of some of our area families, who have experienced sorrow recently.

We extend our sympathy to: J. R. Mixon in the loss of his mother.

The family of William O. Simmons of Clarendon, brother of Mrs. Mildred Kyle and Mrs. Maurine Henderson, and brother-in-law of Mrs. Letha Messenger.

Mrs. Joe (Joyce) Higgs, whose great niece, Kerri Hooker, of Longview died April 25. Kerri, who was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hooker, was four months old and was a victim of meningitis.

★ Juanita Bruegel recently returned from a trip to Hong Kong. She flew to Dallas March 20 to meet a tour group of 46 people from the Houston area. They departed the Dallas-Fort Worth airport, arrived in Seattle, Wash., where they boarded the plane for Hong Kong. From Dallas to Hong Kong, it took approximately 22 hours. They arrived there at 9 p.m.

Kai Tak Airport handles more than six million passengers a year, but when all those 747's are arriving and departing at the same time, the runways and skies are like an airborne cattle yard, but it is a very efficient airport.

The tour guide met their plane and they all went by bus to the hotel, the Holiday Inn Harbor View, which was a beautiful hotel with excellent service. Juanita says they made you feel very special and the Hong Kong people are very friendly and helpful and the food was outstanding.

After a good night's rest, the next day the group was ready to "Conquer the Dragon." Shopping was so much fun, so many decisions, what to buy first, or just to look the island over.

To anyone who is planning a trip to Hong Kong, Juanita suggests you look at as much merchandise as possible before buying anything. Hong Kong has 4,000 tailor shops, so you can find lots of bargains if you shop carefully. Juanita said she discovered that late. The money exchange was $7.70 Hong Kong dollars to each American dollar. It changes a little every day.

The Hong Kong people are very concerned about their future. They love the freedom they now have and do not trust Mainland China's government to let them keep their freedom, and they don't have much respect for the British.

Another highlight of the trip (one of many) was when Juanita and two friends went to the Peninsula Hotel to have tea, coffee and crumpets and across from their table sat Mary Martin with some friends (all Texans) showing off pictures of her grandchildren. Juanita went over to her table, introduced herself and she seemed as thrilled to meet her as Juanita was. After she learned Juanita was from Texas, one of her friends suggested she have her picture made with Mary and of course, Juanita was delighted. She said Mary was a very warm and charming person and much more beautiful than in her pictures.

Juanita says these are only a few incidents of her trip. She said she truly dreaded the trip, but is so glad she went. She reports it was a marvelous tour and she highly recommends it to anyone. Says she is also happy to be home again, though.

PRIMARY ELECTION

★ MAY 5, 1984 ★

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan organization which works to promote political responsibility through active informed participation of all citizens in their government. The League DOES NOT support or oppose any political party or candidate. It does publish and distribute factual information to help prepare citizens to cast an informed vote.

The Voters Guide includes responses from candidates in any contested statewide race. The information in the Voters Guide was obtained by means of a questionnaire sent to each candidate and is printed as received by the League. Due to space restrictions, the candidates were advised that their responses would be limited. (Word limitations follow each question.) In Texas, a voter must choose the party in which he participates in the primary. Therefore, this guide is organized by party. Since state law provides that ballot order be selected by lot by each county executive committee, candidates for each office are arranged in alphabetical order here within each contested race. The candidates' names are listed in each uncontested race.

QUESTION 1 75 word limit

What are your views on nuclear freeze proposals?

QUESTION 2 75 word limit

What is your opinion regarding reductions in federally supported human services (health care, housing assistance, food stamps, etc.)?

QUESTION 3 75 word limit

What means, if any, would you support to reduce growing federal deficits?

Lloyd
DOGGETT

UT Business School, first in class. UT Law School honors. Ten years Texas Senate, President Pro Tem, Consumer Affairs Subcommittee Chairman. Author of 124 laws, including Sunset Act, Human Rights Commission. Fought for utility regulation, consumer protection, and fiscal responsibility.

A broad spectrum of Texans understand the futility and danger of a continued arms race. I will support specific proposals for bilateral, verifiable reductions in nuclear weapons, and an end to nuclear proliferation. I favor a strong defense, but disagree with my main opponent's record of support for the MX, neutron bomb, and other destabilizing weapons. I will work as hard for peace and stability as the current Administration works for confrontation and fear.

Wasting human resources in the name of cutting financial waste represents false economy. A nutritionally deprived child begins the educational process at a disadvantage. Poor education produces people who cannot compete, and too often become dependent on public support. Our treatment of the elderly and disabled is a measure of our civilization. I support efficient service delivery, not deprivation of those in need. The Administration's spending reductions have been excessive, unfair, and economically counterproductive.

Apply the 'pay-as-you-go' approach I've fought for in Texas to the federal budget. Scrutinize all government programs for waste. Curtail both illegal tax evasion schemes and any tax breaks for the privileged whose cost outweighs their public benefit. Apply the sunset procedure I established in Texas to federal taxes and regulations, forcing periodic reviews to assure that federal taxes are fair and the federal government is efficient.

Kent
HANCE

As a native born and Texas educated attorney and professor, for the past ten years I have served the people of Texas as a State Senator and a U.S. Congressman. I have worked effectively to solve the problems facing Texans.

I support nuclear freeze proposals when they contain these three basic elements: assurances of parity, mutuality, and provisions for verification. Without any of these three provisions a nuclear freeze proposal would be unacceptable. It is important that we start negotiations with the Soviets as soon as possible. I support the 'build-down' proposal which would provide for fewer nuclear warheads. Such an agreement would be an important first step toward the goal of nuclear disarmament.

I have always felt strongly that government has a role to play; that role is a helping hand for those in need. As budget cuts are considered in the future certain human service programs which have already experienced substantial cuts should be exempted from further reduction other than to prevent fraud, abuse, corruption and waste. The money allocated to these programs should go directly to those in need.

I support efforts to balance the budget, and I currently have such a proposal pending in Congress. We must be willing to make budget cuts in nearly all areas. Cutting waste, fraud and abuse must be a priority. I support a strong defense, but the Pentagon must account for what it spends. We must also have a flexible monetary policy which would lower interest rates and encourage investment.

Robert (Bob)
KRUEGER

In the last twenty years I have worked as an educator, businessman, rancher, Congressman, Ambassador-at-Large, and Coordinator for Mexican Affairs. I will therefore bring a strong sense of America's promise, and of our people's hopes and concerns to the U.S. Senate.

I do not presently favor a freeze because we must allow ourselves enough flexibility to be able to give a strong response to Soviet aggression. I favor building a conventional Allied force in Europe while negotiating for an arms build-down agreement, and replacing the MX with the smaller Midgetman missile. At the same time, we must ensure that any agreements made are both mutual and verifiable.

We must reverse the Administration's budget cuts that hurt the needy in programs like food stamps, housing and jobs assistance, and Medicare. Funds to restore cuts can be reallocated from the considerable waste and/or inefficiency of other programs. The federal government has a moral and Constitutional obligation to provide for the general welfare of this nation's people, and we cannot shirk this in favor of tax cuts that demonstrably favor the very wealthy.

The trend of spiralling budget deficits must be reversed because it is endangering our children's future. We must stop the growth of the budget and allow the economy to catch up by re-evaluating federal spending to reduce waste and inefficiency like that found in Pentagon contracts. Funds must be allocated both fairly and economically to ensure that we do not sacrifice existing social programs crucial to America's future like federal aid to education.

Sam Houston CLINTON

Qualified by Baylor Law School training and thirty years of professional learning experiences, since 1979 as Judge I have written for the Court a yearly average of more than 200 opinions. (The national average is about 100.)

QUESTION
100 word limit

What methods would you favor to reduce the caseload in the courts and to expedite final disposition of cases?

Divert to administrative or civil proceeding presently designated criminally offensive conduct that may be treated just as effectively. Take almost any infraction of wildlife code; for example, shrimping in closed waters. Additional suitable exclusions will follow realization that our criminal justice system simply cannot cope with every conceivable societal ill.

Many appeals may be determined on abbreviated record, rather than wait months for court reporter to transcribe every word spoken during trial. Appeal from guilty plea ought not to be considered unless appellant demonstrates grievous error. Court of Criminal Appeals must restrict intake to cases presenting significant points of law.

Qualifications - Same as Place 1 & 2

Walter BOYD

Trial and appellate attorney; lecturer and writer in criminal law subjects; certified in criminal law by Texas Board of Legal Specialization; former research assistant at Texas Court of Criminal Appeals; active in many civic organizations and bar associations.

Question - Same as Place 1 & 2

The criminal courts, both trial and appellate, are bogged down in often meaningless procedure. The criminal judicial system is largely handicapped by a continual self-inflicted lack of direction, energy, and motivation. By writing so many confusing and inconsistent opinions during the last decade, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has created no less than a nightmare in the criminal law. A broad based citizens group or groups, such as perhaps the League of Women Voters, composed of persons of all political persuasions, should be formed to study and impact on the justice system in the various communities.

George ELLIS

Presently, Judge on the 14th Court of Appeals. Practiced law for 23 years in Houston. Graduated from Ohio State University BBS degree, Business Administration 1955. Received Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Texas Law School, 1959.

To improve the administration of justice in the courts, I would recommend these methods:

(1) Have a court administrator oversee the setting of the cases and not have the attorneys set them at their will. Dismiss the case if there is not good cause to reset it. This method would encourage settlement of cases.

(2) Take the individual courtrooms away from each trial judge and assign each judge to a courtroom for trial. This would save space and obtain maximum use of each courtroom.

(3) Require the parties and attorneys to try to settle cases before trial.

Oliver Stanley KITZMAN

For seventeen years as an elected District Attorney and District Judge, I have had responsibility for trial and appeal of all types of felony cases. I am experienced and formally trained in criminal law and problems of judicial administration.

"Judicial Economy" must be respected as an honorable concept in criminal justice at all levels. Prudent concern in appellate thinking for time and resources will actually promote impartial justice for the State and those accused.

The importance of the reasons for delays in the finality of judgment in criminal cases must be weighed carefully against the resulting harm.

We must reverse the trend toward the expansion of the "fundamental error doctrine" which encourages unfounded appeals in great numbers.

Over all, I would reaffirm the Court of Criminal Appeals as the consistent leader of Texas criminal justice.

Kerry P. FITZGERALD

I have written hundreds of appellate briefs for State (Chief of Appeals) and defense. Have lectured on "Criminal Appeals" throughout Texas over the last 18 years. Board Certified in criminal law. Elected Chairman of Criminal Law Section of State Bar.

The Court should:
Render decisions within a reasonable time after case is submitted to the Court and set internal time limit of 90 days on initial drafting of opinions by individual judges;

Permit caseload equalization among judges and have newly elected judges assume a portion of cases filed and assigned prior to their election;

Hold a conference on date new cases are submitted to Court, discuss merits and take an initial vote, with initial random assignment of cases to a judge who voted within the majority; and Allow oral argument when Court determines it will aid in resolving issues presented.

JUDGE, COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS, PLACE 2

W.C. (Bill) DAVIS

Graduate, Baylor University Law School, 1948. Law practice in Bryan, Texas. Municipal Judge, Bryan, 1955-1959. County Judge, Brazos County, 1959-1967. Judge, 85th Judicial District Court 1967-1978. Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, 1978 to present.

To reduce the caseload of trial courts in criminal cases, I favor the appointment of Masters to hear such matters as guilty pleas, probation revocations and many pre-trial motions that now take so much of trial judges' time. This is done now very successfully in Domestic Relations Courts in large cities.

The Constitutional Amendment giving Courts of Appeals jurisdiction in criminal cases has expedited appeals from criminal convictions. The biggest time lag now in criminal cases is getting appeals from trial courts to appellate courts. I recommend more court reporters and use of computer technology in preparing transcripts of testimony.

Harry HEARD

Police Officer, Texas Department of Public Safety; City Prosecutor and Assistant District Attorney, Collin County; elected District Attorney, Upshur County; in private practice of criminal defense work; certified by the State Bar of Texas as criminal law specialist.

It will be difficult to reduce the caseload of the Court of Criminal Appeals and effectuate a speedy disposition of cases due to the inordinate amount of cases appealed to this Court. All cases where the death penalty is assessed are automatically appealed to it.

It may be necessary to create another court to reduce the caseload that now exists.

There has been little relief for the Court of Criminal Appeals since the Courts of Appeals have been allowed to hear criminal cases as an unfavorable verdict at the Court of Appeals level is then appealed on to this Court.

Roy E. GREENWOOD

UT Law Graduate; Staff Attorney, TDC; Administrative Assistant, Texas Court Criminal Appeals; Private practice, specializing in criminal law for 14 years; noted legal lecturer, author and editor; Member, GOVERNOR'S CRIMINAL JUSTICE STANDARDS COMMITTEE; U.S. Supreme Court Bar; TCDLA and TTLA.

Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals must provide leadership to the entire Criminal Justice System of Texas in all matters, such leadership requiring the promotion and guiding of: reform legislation to streamline courtroom procedures; better training programs for law enforcement officers, prosecutors, defense attorneys and court staffs; revision of present appellate procedures, and the supervision of the improved quality of the Judiciary to ensure the Constitutional rights of the citizens of Texas, while reducing economic waste, legal technicalities, and the unnecessary delays that hamper the fair and swift administration of justice to those who have committed criminal offenses.

William B. PHILLIPS

I served as a felony prosecutor in a large D.A.'s office, prosecuted misdemeanors in a major City court, and have represented defendants in all types of criminal matters for over ten years.

Reduce the following time limits: Notice of Appeal from 15 to 10 days; approval of record by Trial Court from possible 20 to 5 days after filing of the record; Defendant's brief from 30 to 20 days; State's brief from 30 days after Defendant's brief to 10 days after; Petition for Discretionary Review from 30 to 20 days; Response to Petition for Discretionary Review from 30 to 10 days.

All of the above new time limits would, of course, be subject to extension for good cause as the present ones already are.

Experience, private practice, Assistant District Attorney, Attorney for City of Dallas. Advisory Board Southwestern Law Enforcement Institute.

Case load can be reduced by setting forth principles of law in clear, concise and consistent language so that trial judges and lawyers will know the rules and be required to follow them consistently. Accountability of judges at the Appeals Court level should help reduce delays in opinions. Technicalities in the law should be reduced. Basic rights of accused and victims should be defined and protected. Appeals in which accused is in custody should be given priority. Legal education programs for judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys should be made available and their importance stressed.

Buddy STEVENS

Assistant State Prosecutor before the Court of Criminal Appeals; Senior Assistant District Attorney in charge of all criminal proceedings, Brazoria County; Senior Administrative Assistant, Court of Criminal Appeals; Lecturer for State Bar Professional Development Program; Instructor, Brazosport College, Criminal Law.

Recent legislation should reduce the work load within the next two years. In the meantime, there has to be more control of the time judges must now spend in conference. This could be done by agreeing beforehand which opinions are in dispute, if there is full agreement as to the disposition, then there is no need to waste time in conference. Also, not every case needs a written opinion. The Court may decide the case by certification of affirmation or reversal with citation of supporting authorities as provided by statute. Appellate courts should not legislate but adjudicate the law.

Bill WHITE

Twenty-two years of Criminal Law Experience. Former Asst. City Attorney, Asst. District Attorney, State Asst. Attorney General and Criminal District Attorney. Participated in over 300 criminal trials. Supervised over 140 employees that included 75 attorneys.

Although 1980 Constitutional Amendments have expedited appeals, we are still experiencing severe delays between the time of trial and the filing of cases in the Appeals Court. Leadership from the highest level of our Court System is needed to demand strict adherence to procedural time limits on filings of briefs and possibly establish new methods for preparations of briefs. At the trial tremendous delays still exist between the time a case is filed and when it is tried. Alternatives to trials must be seriously considered in an effort to remove less serious matters from our overcrowded trial courts.

U.S. SENATOR — 6 YEAR TERM

QUALIFICATIONS

40 word limit

Please describe your training and experience that qualify you for this office.

Phil GRAMM

I hold a Ph.D. in economics, the subject I taught at Texas A&M University for a decade. As congressman since 1979, I authored and won passage for major legislation, including President Reagan's economic recovery program.

QUESTION 1

75 word limit

What are your views on nuclear freeze proposals?

As the father of two little boys who sleep each night at "ground level zero" in Washington, I share the concern for peace and will support mutual, verifiable arms agreements. I cannot, however, support proposals for a unilateral freeze which would grant the Soviets free rein to threaten us with new weaponry.

As President Kennedy said, "Only when our strength is sure beyond doubt, can we be sure beyond doubt it will never be tested."

QUESTION 2

75 word limit

What is your opinion regarding reductions in federally supported human services?

We have set high standards in spending the taxpayers' money. In the two budgets I co-authored, I have insisted that those who have earned benefits by paying into Social Security, federal and railroad retirement or, in the case of veterans, through a direct sacrifice for their country, be paid their benefits first.

Overall, of course, human resources spending is at the highest level in American history.

QUESTION 3

75 word limit

What means would you support to reduce growing federal deficits?

Renewed control of federal spending and, ultimately, passage of a balanced budget amendment to the Constitution are the keys to dealing with the deficit. As the lone candidate in this race who has been effective in reducing federal spending — through adoption of the Gramm-Latta budgets — I am proud to have had a role in removing some of the burden of taxes and inflation from the working people of Texas.

Henry C. (Hank) GROVER

Six years as a State Representative and six years as a State Senator. In addition, I have innumerable contacts in Austin and in Washington who keep me abreast of what is going on.

I am completely opposed to all nuclear freeze proposals. There is strong evidence that in both Europe and the United States the nuclear freeze movements were started and financed by the Soviet Union.

If we provide support for those who really need such services and eliminate those who are getting a "free ride," the reductions would be enormous.

Do not raise taxes but reduce spending. Get the President to eliminate both the Department of Education and the Department of Energy as he originally promised. Also, take all necessary action to implement many of the Grace Commission recommendations.

Rob MOSBACHER

I am a businessman with six years' experience as a senior advisor to the Senate Republican Leader Howard Baker coupled with public service as a leading member of President Reagan's Advisory Council on Private Sector problem solving.

We must protect our citizens and maintain peace. I share Americans' concerns about nuclear warfare. I am convinced a freeze would create a false sense of security because it locks America into an inferior position when rough equality is needed. Soviets understand strength, and realize they are dealing with a resolute adversary in Ronald Reagan. I am convinced they will return to the bargaining table and work toward mutually verifiable reductions which I strongly support.

These are real human problems and they will not go away because government spending must be reduced. We must make federal spending reductions across the board in order to complete a stable economic recovery. At a time when Government is doing less, I am convinced there is a responsibility for the private sector either independently or in partnership with Government to do more in areas such as health care, child care and job training.

We must take bold, specific steps to reduce the Federal deficit. I support the Three-Percent Solution which would limit Government growth to three percent per year. All Government programs would receive the same budget scrutiny. I believe in January 1985 President Reagan can take the steps necessary to deal with budget deficits by taking an across the board cost-cutting evaluation of every Federally funded program.

Ron PAUL

As Congressman, I have always worked and voted to cut federal spending and taxes, balance the budget, and provide a strong defense for America (which does not include being world policeman). As Senator, I will fight for these same principles.

The defense of the United States, its people, and their liberty is the government's most important job. But building more nuclear bombs doesn't help. Nor does signing unenforceable treaties with the Soviets. Instead, we should concentrate on non-nuclear defensive systems like the High Frontier anti-missile program. Since the entire budget needs to be reduced, the money can come from stopping subsidies to wealthy allies like Japan and West Germany.

The entire federal budget must be cut, and cut drastically, to avoid economic disaster. No part — from welfare to the Pentagon — can be exempt. These "human services" are in fact welfare for the wealthy — builders of public housing, corporate agricultural interests, Medicaid doctors, etc. Inflation and depression will hurt the poor most. These "human services" add to the burden of government which is leading us directly to an economic apocalypse.

My votes on cutting spending have consistently rated me the National Taxpayers' Union top award. And cutting spending is the only way to cut the deficit. More money for the politicians only makes them more profligate. We should first cut all departments where possible, and then reduce the budget by the percentage of the deficit. Everything must be cut.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE IN PARTY PRECINCT CONVENTIONS

The major parties hold their precinct conventions (caucuses) on the day of the primary at a time (between 7 and 9 p.m.) and place designated by the county executive committee. To be eligible to participate in the precinct convention a voter must have voted in that party's primary that day and may not take part in another party's precinct convention. The election officer at the primary election shall have stamped the appropriate party designation on the voter's registration certificate. In case the voter has voted on a statement of lost registration certificate, the presiding judge shall issue to him a certificate of his having voted in the primary election. A voter should arrive at the designated location on time and sign the roster. The agenda will include election of a permanent chair person and selection of delegates to the county or district convention. In addition, resolutions relating to party platform or proposed legislation are considered at this meeting. The Texas Election Code governs the conduct of party conventions generally; however, each of the major parties has its own rules of delegate selection. FOR DETAILED INFORMATION, CONTACT THE PARTY HEADQUARTERS IN YOUR COUNTY. FOR RULES GOVERNING MINOR PARTIES WHICH DO NOT HOLD PRIMARIES, CALL THE PARTY HEADQUARTERS.
