

The Rev. Michael O'Connor's

Perspectives

I almost hate to admit it, but I like boxing, watching that is, not doing. I would also have to admit that I put on gloves once in college and did some body boxing just to see what it was like, and I own a "speed bag" which I occasionally pump up and beat the living daylights out of.

I got hooked on boxing during the '76 Olympics. There was sheer delight in watching Sugar Ray, and agony watching Stevenson of Cuba win again. Then Rocky came along and turned folks into fight fans who had never even heard of combinations, uppercuts, overhands. Some probably thought a left hook was something invented for wrong-handed knitters.

I suppose it is the very brutality of the sport which fascinates those of us who enjoy the sport. I really don't know how to explain to those who deplore the sport why I enjoy it. But then hunters and non-hunters are often unable to communicate; as are football fans and non-fans, hockey devotees and hockey haters.

Every so often an incident occurs which mars any sport for its fans. A football player is left permanently paralyzed following an illegal block, hockey players maimed in fights, race car drivers perishing in flaming wrecks. Last week a Korean boxer was knocked unconscious in a title fight, and at this time has been declared hopeless, though not officially dead.

I have no idea whether such a tragedy could have been avoided. The promoter of the fight is calling for a moratorium on pro fights until that issue is dealt with. Two things disturbed me during that fight, however. The first was a shot of the champ making the sign of the cross before the final round, and the second was his jubilation when Kim went to the mat. Somehow the two scenes do not belong together, as they often were on the news.

That kind of brutality and the Christian faith just don't go together. Jubilation should have been concern instead. Certainly Mancini has since expressed concern, gone to mass for the defeated opponent, but that was not his first reaction.

I doubt that I will quit watching boxing, though perhaps I should, but I think we need to divorce religion from the sport, from all sports really. I don't think God gets that big a kick out of having athletes ask Him to help them destroy their opponents.

Tickets available for benefit show

Tickets went on sale this week in Ralls, Lorenzo and Crosbyton for a "Child Welfare Benefit Show" featuring some of the finest musical talent in the Southwest. The musical benefit will be staged at 8 p.m. Thursday, November 18, in the Ralls High School Auditorium.

Tickets are $7.50 per person and seating will be on a first come, first seated basis. Profits will go to the Crosby County Child Welfare Fund to be used for children from Crosby County who are in custody of the State of Texas.

Funds for these children's special needs, such as Christmas and birthday gifts, school and sport supplies and others, have been raised in the past through contributions to the County Child Welfare Board.

Margaret Jordan's musical talent is equally well known in this area since she is from the Ralls area and has presented her witness in song to churches throughout the region.

Tickets can be purchased from Child Welfare Board members and at many businesses in Lorenzo, Ralls and Crosbyton. Anyone wishing additional information may contact Dismukes, Ralls; Billye Stockton, Crosbyton; the Department of Human Resources, 675-2367, Crosbyton.

Clower speaks at Nursing Home Convention

Laverne Christian, representing Lockney Care Center of Lockney joined colleagues in Houston last week for the 32nd Annual Convention of the Texas Nursing Home Association held at the Shamrock Hilton Hotel.

While there she attended four sessions of lectures to earn seven official hours of credit toward the continuing education requirements of the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators. Instructor for the study sessions was Jim Brennan, who pre-as emcee and vocalist.

The Maines Brothers have received acclaim for performances at the Lone Star Cafe in New York City and Billy Bob's Texas, Ft. Worth, have opened for such entertainers as Ronnie Milsap, Alabama and Merle Haggard, along with having an ever-growing popularity throughout this region.

Caldwell, a regular on the West Texas Saturday Night Opry in Lubbock, prides himself on being "West Texas' best-dressed fiddle player."

Fullingim, Petersburg farmer turned music evangelist, has spread the gospel with his easy country music style all over the nation and served as emcee and one of the vocalists for the "Pure Love Praise Gatherings" in Lubbock, in which each of the benefit's stars were participants.

Coordinating arrangements for the program are Sherry Fleming and Camille Ellis, Crosby County Protective Services Workers.

The educational sessions as well as the social events emphasized the Convention theme "Changing Times."

A featured luncheon speaker was comedian Jerry Clower. An awards luncheon honored top achievements by those within the profession and others who had aided its objectives.

Educational and commercial displays in the Shamrock Hilton Hotel numbered more than 100, all related to the newest equipment and innovative techniques for the long-term care profession.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

This letter is to everyone, but in particular to the individual who sent me the "Good Luck" chain letter.

To begin with, the word "luck" comes from the same root as "Lucifer," so generally should not even be used by Christians. "Fortune" is a better choice.

The letter states that one will receive good luck by mailing twenty identical letters to those whom one wishes to send good luck. Bible passages are quoted to make it sound Christian. However, there is nothing Christian about it (the devil is very adept at using the Bible — knows it better than any Christian).

The letter continues that if one does not send twenty letters within 99 hours, one will receive bad luck. So the letter is actually sending a curse to the recipient. If you receive such a letter, burn it immediately.

I know whoever you are that you meant well and I thank you for your warm intentions; but please do not try to put such a curse on me. Life is hard enough for me and everyone else without this added burden.

Sincerely,
Betty Goen

Area man charged

Murder charges were filed Wednesday against a Lockney, man and a teen-ager from Midwest City, Oklahoma, in connection with the strangulation death of an 18-year-old Midwest City woman.

Ronnie Dale Callaway, 27, of Lockney, and Larry Dewayne Duty, 17, of Midwest City, were charged in the death Monday of Nancy Salmon, whose partially clad body was found in the bedroom of a rural Midwest City home.

Midwest City police officers told newsmen that the two men and the woman were acquaintances and that the two men were at the scene of the death on Monday. Robbery apparently was not a motive in the slaying since cash was found at the scene, police said.

Radiology Equipment

The equipment was delivered on September 17, by Atlas Van Lines from the Milwaukee, Wisconsin General Electric warehouse. The total weight of the equipment was approximately 5,000 pounds. The new equipment includes:

— A new radiology film processor (developer) which develops and dries the exposed film in 120 seconds

— New high-speed film cassettes (holders) and high-speed film which will cut the amount of radiation exposure to the patient in one-half to one-third, a safety feature to the patient.

ment, the district will lose a total of $23,065,996 tax base based on 1981 values. This year all cattle and $15,000 and $30,000 in farm equipment had been exempt. The full effect will not be known until the 1983-84 legislature come up with a finance bill.

The purchase of new typewriters for high school this year did not require as much as had previously been budgeted for the purchase, creating a credit balance with IBM.

The board approved the purchase of two more computers for the junior high with the remaining credit.

The resignation of bilingual resource teacher Richard Gonzales was accepted by the board. He taught in the elementary school. A replacement will not be considered until after the end of the semester.

Superintendent Hallmark was approved as representative on a joint committee of the Regional Service Center.

Request had been made to the Region XVII Service Center for approval of Lockney ISD faculty members to attend 4 of their 8 days of in-service as members of a cluster group in order to benefit from a consultant. The request was approved.

A new policy was adopted in the gym beginning with the basketball games. No food or drinks will be permitted in the stands. Superintendent Hallmark said the passing of the policy was a matter of "catching up with the times." This policy has already been enforced in a large majority of the schools.

Cogdell Foundation

The Cogdell Foundation, donors of the $50,000 gift to the hospital, was established by the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust Fund. The fund was created by the wills of the late David M. and Johnnie Kate Cogdell in memory of their daughter, Martha Ann, who died at the age of 13.

The foundation previously donated $150,000 in October, 1978, which funded the construction of the Cogdell Clinic.

West Texas hospitals, clinics and educational institutions have been recipients of grants from the trust.

Next year will be the 10th anniversary of the Hospital District.

Control Panel

All equipment in the radiology department has been replaced with the new equipment. The quality of the X-ray films will be superior, enabling the physicians and radiologist to provide quicker, more detailed diagnosis at a minimum cost to the patient. The dependability of the new equipment should virtually eliminate "down time" due to out-of-repair equipment. The equipment was purchased at a cost of $8,700 for the film processor and $68,000 for the diagnostic table, generator, and controls.

Radiology Department

The radiology and laboratory functions of the hospital are combined under the supervision of Otto Pugliese, Medical Technician and Director of Radiology/Laboratory. The department is staffed by two other full-time employees: Estefana Gatica and Josephina Hernandez. The years of experience among the three individuals in the field total 53 years.

A SOLAR UNIT has recently been installed on the Billy Joe Turner residence for supplementary heat. An Open House is being held Saturday from 10-4 for the benefit of the public.

Domino fever has really hit us. We play every chance we get. Our regular players are E.M. Pyle, Lewis Roberts, Albert Poole and Mary McCracken. The competitiveness is really growing.

Our weekly bus trip was cancelled this week because our driver Mable Foster was ill. We hope she is feeling better. Our trips are very enjoyable and it helps us all to have a change of scenery.

Kim Sherman was here Wednesday for Music Therapy. Singing old songs and reminiscing is really good therapy. It gives us a chance to share good times with all.

Ethel Carrol, Euna Bradshaw and Bertha Gregg are in Lockney General Hospital. We hope they are improving and are well enough to come home soon. They are truly missed.

We welcome Mrs. Lee Atchley, mother of Claude Brown, to our family and are looking forward to her joining in our activity program.

Thursday and Friday just wasn't the same because Laverne Christian, our administrator, was in Houston attending the 32nd Annual Convention of the Texas Nursing Home Association. Mrs. Christian has a way of brightening up our day with her zest for life and lovely smile.

Until next time, enjoy.

Bits of Humor, Trivia, and an occasional Word of Wisdom

A popular song is one that makes us all think we can sing.

Adolescence is that period in a child's life when his parents become more difficult.

Nothing makes you feel better off than your first ride on a horse.

You don't realize how complicated the simple life really is until you try to load your gear into the family car for a camping trip.

If mankind really profits from its mistakes, we should have a glorious future coming up.

The most disappointed people in the world are those who get what's coming to them.

Well, cotton harvest has started. Some maize is still being cut too. It has been real cold the last few mornings.

Monday we painted ceramics and had a good group there. We had ten residents to paint.

Tuesday we had Bible study and the residents decided which book of the Bible they liked and talked about it.

Wednesday we played bingo and had four players. Emmet Lawrence was the big winner with six games. Sue Thompson won four games. Una Clark and Vera Duke both won two games each.

Thursday we fixed some pictures in craft. We have one resident that enjoys anything you do so he can help you.

Friday we had two movies and they were very interesting and the residents enjoyed them.

We are going to have our monthly birthday party the 18th. We have two Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Harrison of Floydada. Even though their mother is no longer on earth the Smiths still love to gather near her big house for family get togethers at Ruth and Dons.

A good shower Wednesday morning left about 1/2 inch of moisture.

Mrs. Howard Bishop relaxed on her Veteran's Day holiday from her job at the local ASCS office and she and her sister, Mrs. Pete Calloway went to Plainview. On their way home they stopped in Lockney and visited their aunt, Mrs. Neva Calahan, sister of their mother.

Judge and Mrs. Choise Smith and children, Dean, Hunter and Jody were in Lubbock Friday to spend the night with Mrs. Flukie Smith. Flukie was in Spearman staying with the children of his daughter, Scarlett. Scarlett and Punk Jackson had gone to Nevada to see one of their horses run and planned to go on to Las Vegas before returning home.

Rex Harrison was down in the canyon bird hunting Sunday afternoon. Later on, Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Pope and sons drove up to look things over.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of San Antonio and son, Ford of Texas Tech, met their aunt, Mrs. O.D. Williams, and all attended the Tech-SMU football game Saturday afternoon. They ate supper at Furr's afterward and enjoyed a good visit.

Well, the Floydada cannery is part of history now. It served its purpose and according to the figures read at the Commissioners Court, had become a tradition we can no longer afford. The Lockney cannery, open about six months this year, has cost the county $22,000. If as many as 20,000 jars or cans of food were processed, which is doubtful, then divide the 20,000 into the $22,000. And you get over a dollar a jar or can it cost the taxpayers to keep even the Lockney cannery open. It would be cheaper for the Commissioners to just buy every family a brand new canner cooker and tell them to go home and start canning. And it was said that not all the people using the cannery were Floyd County citizens, so this means we were paying for the neighboring county's food processing too. Yes, it was time to close the cannery down and put the building to other use. Good bye, old timer. You provided the means for many a widow woman to put food on her shelves for the winter, and many a family to eat a balanced diet of good Floyd County vegetables for the past fifty years.

Q: What can I do to remove the tar that occasionally gets on my car?

A: Tar and certain oils used on roads can pose problems for motorists and require an extremely strong solvent to remove. Naturally it isn't possible to use those solvents when we wash your car since just a few washings with such a strong chemical could harm a car's finish. However, there are many good chemical solvents on the market and we would be happy to recommend one to you. A word of caution: follow directions carefully and wash your car as soon as possible after using such a solvent.

Landscaping & Gardening

Because the human eye adjusts readily to changing light conditions we seldom notice the drastic reduction in light intensity in our homes during the winter months. This reduction in light intensity is the reason so many plants tend to deteriorate during the winter. The lower light intensity means a reduction in the amount of food the plant leaves can manufacture through a process called photosynthesis. Some plants just can't produce enough food to sustain themselves, therefore deteriorate rapidly.

There are a number of good plants which will thrive in low light conditions and are relatively maintenance free. Here is a list and a description of a few.

Chinese evergreen, Aglaonema commutatum - This relatively unknown plant is perhaps the easiest of all plants to grow. It will thrive in very low light conditions, with low humidity. Most species will grow one to two feet tall, with leaves six to eight inches long and two to three inches wide. The variety Silver Queen is the most striking. Only pot-bound plants will bloom but bloom they do luxuriously in late summer and early fall.

Janet Craig, Dracaena deremensis - The most charming of all the indestructibles. All members of this genus show excellent survival in low light and low humidity, but Janet Craig is the toughest - Its decorative dark green, strap-like leaves are 12 to 18 inches long and two to three inches wide and will fill the need for dark green foliage in all interiors.

Heartleaf philodendron, Philodendron oxycardium (cordatum) - This plant will survive for long periods under very low light conditions. For this reason, it can be found growing in almost any office and it's usually planted in a jar of water or in a dish garden. Potting soil and a pot with a hole in the bottom would be better but the fact that Heartleaf Philodendron does well even this type of adverse root environment indicates just how tough it is.

Devil's ivy, Scindapsus aureus - This plant looks a lot like Heartleaf philodendron and, in fact, is often called "Philodendron". To further confuse matters, it is also "Pothos". But, whatever you call it, it is easy to grow. It, too tolerates water culture. The best variety of Scindapsus is Marble Queen. The leaves of this variety are variegated and the variegation is more intense in bright light.

Snake plant, Sansevieria sp. - This plant is indestructible. It, too, can tolerate low light and low humidity. However, the leaves of this plant are thick and leathery, thus, it is also capable of withstanding occasional dry periods. There are generally two forms of Snake plant -- one that makes a compact rosette of leaves, and a tall erect form. Some varieties have silvery horizontal leaf bands, others are almost entirely green, while still others have bright yellow leaf margins.

Cast iron plant, Aspidistra elatior - An old favorite with long green leaves which will endure heat, dust, darkness and lack of water. When well cared for, it produces a mass of broad green leaves.

Other honorable mentions: Spathiphyllum, the so-called closet plant, is very tolerant of indoor conditions even though it won't grow in a closet; and Nephtytis (Syngonium) also thrives under household conditions.

ed on our streets and highways for 1981 and statistics show 923 fatal accidents caused 1,082 deaths and 17,343 injury accidents that caused 27, 907 injuries in Texas that involved a drunk driver, according to Major Bell.

"Many drivers are not tested," Bell said, "because Texas has no law requiring chemical test on drivers in fatal accidents and it is probable that more than 50% of the deceased drivers in Texas were driving while intoxicated and were not reported as DWI."

Boys Scouts gains a record membership increase

The Boy Scouts are on the move! The South Plains Council, headquartered in Lubbock, is experiencing outstanding growth this fall. The character development organization has gained a record membership increase for the second month of their annual fall enrollment period.

"Last month Scouting on the South Plains had nearly a 5% increase over last year at the same time. October's report showed a 14.1% growth. At this rate the council is expected to reach a 20% growth at year end," said South Plains Council President, Dr. Roy C. McClung. McClung went on to say these growth figures didn't count the Scouting organization's new Tiger Cub program for second grade boys and their adult friend. There are nearly 200 Tiger Cub families in the area.

McClung added the fact that the South Plains Council was ranked number four among the 46 councils of the five state South Central Region in membership growth. The first three growth councils are headquartered in Lake Charles, Louisiana, Houston, and Corpus Christi.

"This membership growth represents over 2,600 new families involved in Scouting," commented Robert F. Bouse, Scout Executive for the South Plains Council. "These young people and their family are starting a great adventure together. Our recent Scout-O-Rama was an all time record for attendance and participation. This has been a great year for Scouting and 1983 looks even better."

Bouse went on to say that ambitious plans have been made for Scout camping next summer. The Explorers will have an area Olympics at Texas Tech and the Cub Scouts will have five day camps to attend.

Dr. McClung and Bouse joined in their praise for local unit leaders and the job the training teams are doing educating all the new Scout leaders.

"It is a fun time to be a Scout," said McClung. "The whole family is having fun together."

"SHOWING SUPPORT"—TTU Weightlifting and Bodybuilding Association President K.C. Nix gives support to Alpha Delta Pi sorority members Paula Terry [left] and Gay Waltrip, co-sponsors of the second annual "Lift-A-Thon" to be held Saturday morning, November 20th at the South Plains Mall. Contributions from the event will go to the "Christmas for the Kids" fund, providing needy area children with gifts.

"Lift-A-Thon" to be held for the "Christmas for the Kids"

The kickoff for the 1982 "Christmas for the Kids" has been announced by project chairman Jeff Klotzman. This year's campaign, which will serve 400 children, features two special fundraising projects.

On Saturday, November 20th, the Texas Tech University Weightlifters and Bodybuilders Association and the Alpha Delta Phi sorority will sponsor a "Lift-A-Thon" at the South Plains Mall from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Contribution may be made at the "Lift-A-Thon" by sponsoring a weightlifter and pledging a penny per pound of weight lifted.

Money from the "Lift-A-Thon" will be added to contributions from the fifth annual Christmas for the Kids Band Concert to be held on December 12th.

This year's goal is 12,000 dollars. Funds will be used to buy "wished for" Christmas gifts for children at Girls Town USA, Texas Boys Ranch, Buckner's Baptist Childrens Home, Children's Home of Lubbock and Foster Children of the South Plains.

Any other donations are welcomed and may be sent to Christmas for the Kids, P.O. Box 2805, Lubbock, TX 79408.

Around The County

By Jett Majors

County Extension Agent

The Texas Crop and Livestock Report Service will begin contacting farmers and ranchers across the state in mid-November for final 1982 crop acreage, yield and production totals and end-of-year livestock and poultry inventories.

State Statistician Doug Murfield reported that with low prices depressing farm incomes and the severe weather cutting crop production in the northern part of the state, producers are depending on this information for an accurate picture of the 1982 agricultural situation.

Murfield explained that the confidential interviews, conducted by mail or in person by field enumerators, provide information used by farm organizations and legislatures in planning and developing farm programs; by extension economists and management consultants in advising producers; and by exporters in planning and promoting sales of Texas agricultural products.

"Without these reports, farmers and ranchers would have to rely on other sources of information for crop and livestock prospects," Murfield added.

He stressed that the end-of-year crop and livestock surveys should not be confused with the 1982 Census of Agriculture which is being mailed in late November. "While the census is a more detailed accounting of Texas agriculture, our two-page questionnaire is short and can be completed in a matter of minutes," Murfield explained.

To reduce survey costs, Murfield is urging farmers and ranchers to return the mailed questionnaires as soon as possible. The reported information will be combined for state as well as county estimates.

Annual county estimates are published for livestock, dairy, poultry, cotton, field crops, small grains, fruits and pecans, vegetables, and cash receipts from the sale of farm products.

Copies of these bulletins can be obtained by contacting the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, P.O. Box 70, Austin, Texas 78767.

DPS urges people not to "Drink and Drive"

Major C.W. Bell, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region 5, said, "As we approach Thanksgiving Day weekend, all of us are making plans of one kind or another for observance of this traditional season of the year. Many DPS officers will make plans of a different kind. They will be on duty to stimulate safety-consciousness throughout this festive holiday."

During the last Thanksgiving holiday weekend, Texas experienced 53 fatal accidents and 57 traffic fatalities. Major Bell said, "Speed and alcohol are the main contributing factors in the majority of traffic deaths in Texas."

A total of 4,701 fatalities was recorded

ed on our streets and highways for 1981 and statistics show 923 fatal accidents caused 1,082 deaths and 17,343 injury accidents that caused 27, 907 injuries in Texas that involved a drunk driver, according to Major Bell.

Open House to display solar system Nov. 20

An Open House is to be held at the Billy Joe Turner residence at 511 S.W. First Street, in Lockney. Saturday, November 20, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. their recently installed solar system will be displayed. If adverse weather conditions should interfere, causing the skies to be overcast, the Open House will be postponed until Sunday from 12:00 noon to 4 p.m.

The solar unit, a Solar Age product, consists of a 3 1/2 ft. x 11 ft. collector, installed on the roof of their garage for the most efficiency due to shading and floor.

The system is Nationally certified after having been tested by Desert Sunshine Environmental Testing Laboratories, Phoenix, Arizona and The Solar Testing Facility of New Mexico State University.

The unit weighs 68 pounds. The absorber is of louvered black aluminum with an inner glazing of Lexan and an outer glazing of Filon.

An automatic control (sensor) inside the collector will not let the system come on until the unit reaches 90-95 degrees. It will shut off when it drops below to 75-80 degrees. The system will not run on totally overcast days. It operates totally from available sunlight during the winter the system will come on between 8:45 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. and will shut off around 5:00 p.m.

The system is designed strictly as a supplement to present system and will provide 30% to 60% of required heating needs. It is designed to cut usage, not total bill. Under normal conditions it will keep area of house from 68 to 70 degrees. The system, designed to heat approximately 1,000 square feet, is designed for highest efficiency to come into a house in a single hot air register.

The installing of this solar system entitles the homeowner to a generous $900 tax credit.

Other homes in Lockney with the same system installed are the homes of the Tom Marrs, the Jimmy Stennets, the Lon Colvins, and Gail McPhersons.

The public is invited to attend the Open House, see the unit in operation and ask questions.

"Good Ole' Days!?"

Sometimes we get discouraged about the economy of our country. Particularly in this agriculturally-dependent area with times not being too prosperous and crops a little on the shy side due to adverse weather conditions.

We thought a little look at some days gone by might be interesting. It might give us a little insight as to what we really need and what are really luxuries that we have taken for granted for so long that we consider them essentials. Some of these stories may help us to set our priorities.

Richard Lanham

Richard Lanham, 85, a resident of Lockney Care Center, spent the Depression days on a farm near Quitaque.

He recalled how they had their hens, raised hogs, and milked cows. He said they farmed their rented farm with a span of mules.

Saturday was "egg and butter day." Practically all the farm families would load their families in the wagon and take surplus eggs and cream and whatever they had to sell to town to the Produce House where they were shipped to Trinidad, Colorado. The Lanhams made a 4 mile trip into town. Some had a longer trip, of course.

"We had a car," Mr. Lanham. "but it did not amount too much." The family car had to be set up for several years during the Depression, because there was no money. "That was a thing of the past."

Mr. Lanham had a wife and two children, a son and a daughter, during those days. He said this wife "canned everything in the world to eat." They raised practically everything they ate.

At hog killing time they rendered the lard and made soap from the cracklings. But Mr. Lanham said they had meat every meal.

Cotton was bringing about 4 or 5 cents a pound and rent took 1/4 of the maize. Calves sold for $11-12 a head if you could get them to market.

Mr. Lanham told of how one time he hired his brother to take some of his cattle to Ft. Worth in his truck. They drove down one day, spent the night in a motel downtown for a $1 each, and drove back the next. In that load he had a heifer calf in good shape to bring $11, but a 500-pound steer who had its ears frozen off brought $5.40.

This remarkable gentleman began cowboying at the young age of 10. That experience came in handy when he was pressed for money. When he could secure the work, he worked for neighboring ranchers for $1 a day.

But in spite of the conditions, which Mr. Lanham affirmed it was some of the happiest days of his life. Everybody was in "the same boat." He said on Sunday mornings the church buildings were always full with standing room only at times.

"When we farmed, we didn't farm so many acres," Mr. Lanham said. "We would borrow from $200 to $300 a year to make it through the year."

Credit was hard. "You knew a man was good and that he would pay if he could, but you just did not know if he would be able to or not."

Having lived in the Quitaque area from 1915 to the 1960's, Mr. Lanham said he was confident that it was easier for them to have made it through the hard times living on the farm. He said they saw many small businesses have to close up.

When asked how they managed for items like shoes or some other essential they needed and could not raise or make, he answered emphatically, "That's it, we managed. Then with some thought he added, "Those with larger families, I don't know. I really don't know."

For recreation at little no expense he said they would visit house to house with their neighbors. Dominoes was a favorite in all seasons and ice cream suppers were especially enjoyable in the summer time. Then they could get 100 pounds of ice for 50 cents.

"I worry for the young people," Mr. Lanham commented. "With the huge amounts of money that is involved in each and every piece of equipment that they own, I just don't know how to even begin to know how to help them."

"In 1907 there was not anything here but wild horses and land. Now there is no more land."

Mr. Lanham's more than seventy years experience took him on many cattle drives, and he worked with wheat harvest crew for many years, working their way from Crowell to Chuck Water, Wyoming.

"The difference in then and today," Mr. Lanham summed up, "is that then people would invite you in. Now they invite you out."

Elva Perry

Elva Perry, a 82-year old Lockney resident for the past nine years, spent the bigger part of the Depression in Amarillo.

She and her husband lived in a 4 or 5 room house. They had a son, Thomas Roy who passed away in 1959, and a daughter, who now lives in Las Vegas, Nevada.

"Amarillo was a lot like Lockney is now. You could get around in it," Mrs. Perry said.

Mr. Perry coordinated routes and supervised a fleet of trucks hauling aviation gasoline for the airplanes. Mrs. Perry fed and housed the drivers, getting up to prepare their breakfast whenever they left, no matter what time it was or how many different departure times might be adopted during a 24-hour period.

When asked what she could remember was the hardest thing they had to do without, Mrs. Perry said, "I don't remember us having to do without essentials. We had clothes and food."

About the food, did you have meat every meal? she was asked. "No."

What substitutes did you use when meat was unavailable?

"I just don't remember. It's just too far. We had buffalo meat."

Where did you get it?

"Right out of the store."

The Perry children walked to school in Amarillo, which was not many blocks.

Mrs. Perry did alterations for Klein's

Mrs. Earl Edwards

The Lakeview Community was the home for the Earl Edwards family during the depression. Mrs. Earl Edwards remembers the depression as a time when fellow neighbors helped one another.

The Home Demonstration Club was originated during this time to help educate people in the rural communities. Child car, pressure canning, sewing methods were just a few of the subjects taught by these clubs.

There were around 12 clubs in Floyd County, compared to the 3 or 4 that exist today. Mrs. Edwards helped start the Lakeview Home Demonstration Club. She believes these clubs helped people to make it back then.

As farmers they raised their own vegetables, meat and milk. When one of the neighbors butchered an animal such as a steer, they shared it with the other neighbors. They took turns doing this since they had no refrigerator.

Prices for the farm products were not the greatest. Cotton sold for about 5 or 6 cents a pound, bushel of wheat went for 15 cents and 10 cents would buy you a dozen of eggs.

Mrs. Edwards believes that farmers didn't feel that crunch of the depression as bad as those who lived in town due to their food resources.

But she also believes that today compared to then isn't as bad because of all the things we own now and especially because of the good nutrition now.

Alfred (Shorty) Barker

Alfred (Shorty) Barker lived in Floyd with his wife, Ethel during the depression. Shorty believes that compared to the depression times, people today really don't have it as bad. People back then lost their homes, cars, just about everything they had, including some lives (due to starvation).

Wages were usually about a $1.00 a day and one worked from sun up to sun down. For extra money, Shorty ran a rowbinder all night for $1.50 and as a fireman for a $1.00 a fire, which really helped out. As a mechanic he made $7.50 for a six day week.

These wages enabled them to pay $7.50 for rent each month. Groceries would cost about $3.00 a week and they ate like kings on that. Gas cost around 14 cents a gallon which really went a long way in their Model A Ford.

Growing their own vegetables and chickens helped out on their tight money. Milk was supplied by their own milk cow. Working in exchange for services often took place during these times. Such as working on Dr. George Smith's car in exchange for the doctor's fee for delivering their son.

It just seems that people were more willing to help each other.

How better energy decisions make the difference

You and Southwestern Public Service Company are partners, making energy decisions that make the difference.

How you manage electricity in your home helps us make our decisions about generating power to meet the electrical requirements of the Southwest. For when you install a High-Efficiency Add-On Heat Pump, you can manage the electricity used for your home's heating and cooling — which helps SPS determine how much power you, and the Southwest, will need.

So that economical power will always be available, SPS is developing better ways to generate electricity. One way is with coal.

Construction is now completed on the first unit of our second coal-fired power plant, Tolk Station, which is now on-line and generating electricity. Harrington Station, SPS's first coal-fired power plant, has been operating since the early 1970's.

As partners we have made energy decisions which have built Tolk Station. We're proud of the new power plant as you will be too. You're invited to the Open House of Tolk Station between Muleshoe and Earth, Texas. Just follow the map and join us Saturday 10 to 4 p.m., November 20, or Sunday 1 to 4 p.m., November 21. Come as you are, dress casually. There will be refreshments and guided tours for the whole family.

South Plains News

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN

South Plains, November 15:

A taste of winter has been in the air Sunday evening and this Monday, as it is 28 degrees today. Saturday it seemed extremely cold with such a hard wind blowing across the plains.

We were sorry to learn of the accident which happened to Mrs. Walter Wood, who now lives with her daughter and husband in Whitney. Two weeks ago this Tuesday Mrs. Wood fell and broke her hip. She was in the Whitney Hospital in intensive care for four days, but is now in her room there at the hospital and getting along very well. All her friends and relatives here are thinking of her, and wishing her well. A card to her at the Whitney Hospital would be appreciated I am sure.

Visitors at the South Plains Baptist Church Sunday included little Josh Gregory from Floydada in the morning services. After evening church services all gathered in fellowship in the basement to enjoy sandwiches, homemade ice cream, cakes, coffee and tea, and a time of visiting. It was good to have Mrs. Early Pritchett (Nell) back in church after her long summer out in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Jack Smitherman (Ailene) were here over the past week-end, and with vehicles and pickups they moved her belongings from the home where they had lived so long, to Dimmitt. She will be living in an apartment there. If you would like to reach her with a card send it in care of her daughter, Mrs. Polly Simpson, who is County Judge, living there in Dimmitt. We all feel such a loss with the Smithermans gone from our community.

Tony Shipley, who lives in Floydada, spent the week-end out here with his friend, Bill Staples and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Staples and children.

We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Early and Nell Pritchett back at home here after several months of going back and forth to Ruidoso, New Mexico, where for health reasons Mrs. Pritchett needed to live. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Y'Blood from Littleton, Colorado with their children, Laura and Kent have been visiting here the past week-end at the home of Mrs. Jo Y'Blood. Tom's mother, who lives in Floydada, and the Pritchetts and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Shorty and Louise Turner have been visiting together during their time here. Tom Y'Blood is Mrs. Pritchett's nephew. They had arrived Thursday and flew home Sunday to Littleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Burks and children of Amarillo accompanied Mrs. Pat Huff (Jeaneva) and Duane of Amarillo here on Saturday and they all spent the day with Mrs. Huff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mildred and Harold Hamm.

Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Smith of Odessa arrived Sunday to have dinner and spend the day here with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie and Sylvan Kinnibrugh.

We enjoyed a rainy day here Wednesday, and 40 was reported around our community on November 10th, but all wished for more moisture, as we have been dry so long.

Mrs. Leighton Teeple (Juanita) spent

Wednesday in Plainview where she worked in the bazaar held at the First Assembly of God Church.

Ernest Smitherman is getting along well from his surgery at the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview, last Thursday, November 11, and hopefully will soon be ready to come home.

Word from Mrs. Louzila Nichols who moved to Sweetwater, states she is getting along well, and settled in her new home there. It is a great change for her, as she has lived all her life here on the plains. Her new address is 1708 Woodruff Lane, Sweetwater, Tx. 79556, if you would like to write her.

Despite rain showers and some muddy rural roads, Hobby Club members were gathering at the home of Mrs. Hansel Sanders (Connie) on Wednesday, November 10, with a good number attending, albeit the rain. The program was on Microwave Candy Making, and roll call was "a good recipe I use to make candy."

Mrs. Sanders made microwave Peanut Brittle, and on the stove she made Millionaires and Peanut Patties. Refreshments of applesauce cake, coffee and punch were served to nine members.

Next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Juanita Teeple, with a Christmas party. Mrs. Frances Stanforth will be giving the program and each member will be helping with the Christmas menu and buffet supper.

Those who attended the November meeting at Mrs. Connie Sanders' were Mmes. Don Probasco, Ronald Kitchens, E.J. Kinslow, Fred Marble, Harold Hamm, Keith Marble, Sterling Cummings, Edward Hartman, and hostess Mrs. Connie Sanders. The Christmas party will be on December 10, at 7:00 p.m. in the Leighton Teeple home.

The Rev. and Mrs. David and Sherlene Reddout, of Springfield, Missouri, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Teeple, and left for their home Monday morning. They had been in Levelland on November 5th and 6th, for an Enrichment Training Conference where the Rev. Reddout spoke as an Adult Specialist in the National Sunday School department, and Sherlene Reddout spoke as a Pre-School Specialist at the Assembly of God Meeting.

BY GRACE LEMONS

Our farmers are still needing a rain to sow wheat. Cotton harvest is in full swing although the turnout is not good. This has been a bad year for crops.

Joy Guest of Floydada and daughter Janie Guest were visitors at the Baptist Church Sunday morning. The Rev. and Mrs. R.C. Guest returned home with them for dinner.

Edna Gilly visited her mother, Ruthie Clark in Plainview Friday and Ruthie accompanied her to Plainview where they visited Delise and Johnnie Harrison and family. Christie returned home with Edna for the night and Delise came after her Saturday.

Norma Welch visited Cephus and Imogene Fortenberry Friday evening. Gladys Fortenberry visited Norma Welch Saturday.

Jannette Lackey entered Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Sunday afternoon and chemotherapy treatments began Monday. She is in Room 480 and would appreciate hearing from her friends.

Albert Mize has not been well the last few days and we trust that with his new medication he will be feeling much better.

Last week Gladys Fortenberry spent some time in Lubbock helping with the wedding of Danita Boone and Paul Clark. She sat with Patrick Vick and Trevor Hayhurst while the wedding party attended the rehearsal and rehearsal dinner hosted by the grooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clark at K-Bobs Restaurant in Lubbock. Gladys returned home Saturday and Tom accompanied her back to Lubbock where they attended the wedding at the First Assembly of God Church Saturday evening. They remained in Lubbock until Sunday visiting Patsy and Lafayette Boone and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Taylor attended the Mogg Auction Sale in Plainview Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Lemons were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lemons and family Sunday.

Mrs. Marvin Lemons and family Sunday.

Norma Welch still has some of the books called "Clyde" that were written by his wife Alpha Fortenberry Henson. Clyde A. Henson was an evangelist who became interested in the American Indian and spent much time at the Indian Reservation in Phoenix, Arizona. A memorial chapel was built in his honor and proceeds of the book will go to the improvement of the campus of the American Indian Bible Institute. If you are interested in the book you may get one for $2.95 from Norma.

Many times the troubles that are the hardest to bear are those which never come at all.
