

Cogdell Foundation makes generous gift

On Friday afternoon, September 30, 1983, Lockney General Hospital received a check for $100,000.00 from the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust at the request of the Trust's Advisory Board President, Mr. D.M. Cogdell, Jr.

The Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust was created by the will of the late David M. and Johnnie Kate Cogdell in memory of their daughter, Martha Ann, who died at the age of 13. The Foundation has previously donated a total of $200,000.00 to Lockney General Hospital. $150,000.00 was donated in October, 1978, and $50,000.00 was donated in April, 1981.

The $150,000.00 donation was used for the purpose of constructing the new Cogdell Clinic which was completed in December of 1980. The $50,000.00 donation was used for the construction of a new room of diagnostic radiology equipment and a new surgical table for the Operating Room, these being completed in November of 1982 and December of 1982, respectively.

Historically, and previous to these Cogdell Foundation donations, the hospital was not able to fund the needed equipment replacement, new equipment, and facility improvement requirements. The Lockney Community and the area around Lockney which the hospital serves can hardly be keenly enough aware of the important role that the Cogdell Foundation has played in the growth and success of Lockney General Hospital.

The use of the $100,000.00 donated on September 30, is unrestricted. However, the Board of Directors of Lockney General Hospital District have assured the Cogdell Foundation that the hospital will exercise good stewardship of these funds for the benefit of the patients. More specifically, the Board of Directors has agreed that these funds will be used for improvement of patient care equipment and patient care facilities.

The Board of Directors, the Medical Staff, the Staff and Management of the hospital would like to openly and formally express their appreciation to the Advisory Board Members of the Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust. The Advisory Board Members are: Mr. and Mrs. D.M. Cogdell, Jr., Lockney, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. William Cogdell, Tulia, Texas; and Mrs. E.A. Birdwell, Silvertown, Texas.

Quoting from a letter from the Board of Directors of Lockney General Hospital District, written October 18, 1983: "The Board and the community can not adequately express their appreciation for the improvements made possible by the Cogdell Foundation. The hospital would have not seen these improvements, the patients would not have enjoyed these benefits, had it not been for your help. The Cogdell Foundation is giving and has given this hospital new life for making more precise diagnosis, new life for better care of clinic patients, and a new life for performing surgical procedures."

October 18, 1983

Martha Ann Cogdell Hospital Trust Advisory Board
c/o Mr. D.M. Cogdell, Jr., President
Route 0
Lockney, Texas 79241

Dear Mr. and Mrs. D.M. Cogdell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William M. Cogdell, and Mrs. E.A. Birdwell,

On behalf of the community we represent, each of us would like to express our most sincere appreciation to each one of you for the gift of $100,000.00, received by the hospital on September 30, 1983.

You will never know how much the community and the hospital appreciates each of you individually and collectively as the Cogdell Foundation.

Historically, the hospital has not been able to purchase the necessary equipment or needed building improvements. Historically, over the past 20 years, the hospital has averaged less than $15,000.00 per year in hospital funded equipment and building improvements and replacements.

With the recent previous gifts of $150,000.00 and $50,000.00 from the Cogdell Foundation, the hospital has been able to see some of its needs come to life. The new Cogdell Clinic, with construction completed in December 1980, has provided the area with a much more efficient and appropriate facility for clinic patients. The completion of the new diagnostic Radiology Room in November of 1982, has provided the area patients and Medical Staff with a much more beneficial and precise diagnostic tool. In addition, the new surgical table installed in December 1982, has provided a modern and efficient tool for the hospital's surgeons.

The Board and community can not adequately express their appreciation for the improvements made possible by the Cogdell Foundation. The hospital would not have seen these improvements, and the patients would not have enjoyed these benefits, had it not been for your help. The Cogdell Foundation is giving and has given this hospital new life for making more precise diagnosis, new life for better care of clinic patients, and a new life for performing surgical procedures.

With the recent gift of $100,000.00, the hospital will begin planning for needed improvements on in-patient facilities.

Our only purpose for the hospital's existence is the care of our patients. We have set goals for operating a most efficient hospital without sacrificing the informal atmosphere we are so grateful for. In short, our Motto is, "Our Family Serving Your Family."

We are so thankful for your friendship, your love and concern for our hospital, and for helping us to provide a much greater level of care for our patients.

On behalf of the Medical Staff, particularly Dr. William Mangold, Sr., and Dr. Gary Mangold, we want to convey sincere appreciation. The doctors have expressed their happiness over and over again for your help. These doctors are very devoted and extremely qualified, and this community will never know how fortunate it is to have such outstanding doctors! We thank each one of you again for helping our doctors to better serve their patients.

Again, with our most sincere appreciation to each of you, we remain,

Sincerely,

Lockney General Hospital District Board of Directors:

CHARLOTTE MITCHELL, general chairman of the Lockney United Methodist Church fifth annual Harvest Festival which is to be held Saturday, October 29, discusses the chair which Art Barker is donating to the auction which will begin at 1 p.m. Although Barker is a wood carver, he bought this chair in San Antonio and painted it. He also is giving some fish he carved to be sold in the Country Store portion of the festival.

K. Griffith — son of pioneers

Kenneth Griffith, 63, of Route 2, Plainview, died Tuesday afternoon in a tailwater pit near his home. Griffith was the brother of Lockney resident Harold Griffith and a second cousin to Nora Bybee. Services for Griffith were held Friday at the 11th and Amarillo streets Church of Christ and burial was in the Lockney Cemetery.

Griffith, born on December 1, 1919, in the Lone Star Community, moved to Plainview in 1945. He and his brothers and sisters were reared on land which his grandfather, J.D. Griffith settled when he came to the Lockney area in 1891.

Griffith came to Lockney with his wife Sallie and their seven children by wagontrain from Eaton, Tennessee. They settled in what is now the Lone Star Community, 11 miles north and three miles east of Lockney. Upon arrival at the location chosen for their home, Sallie, an asthmatic, thought that she would surely die in this land covered by tall waving grass. But that is where she was wrong. She rose from what was assumed to be her deathbed to regain her strength, raise her family, and live to the age of 85.

The Griffith family lived in a half dug-out, looked out for Indians and fought to establish a permanent home and develop a community that would attract more settlers to the area.

Life in a half-dugout, Indian watches, struggles to establish a permanent foothold on the land and build a community to attract other settlers consumed the interests of this family. With a sod plow they broke out one hundred acres to grow feed for their cattle and build up a herd.

They freighted to obtain supplies; they hauled wood from the breaks and began with what tools they could obtain to develop the land.

Forest fires often raged, and the winters were often severe, with no protection for the cattle. There was open grazing but because of loco weed it was necessary to herd the stock away from the plant in 1891 loco was extremely bad.

As Griffith became more prosperous he filed claims on more land closer to the town of Lockney and later moved into town where he was very active in the development of the town.

In 1908 the First National Bank of Lockney was organized and Griffith served as one of the first directors of the bank. He also served as the president of the bank from 1911 to 1914. He owned several lots of land in what is now downtown Lockney.

In 1919 the Westside Church of Christ was organized. It later became the West College and 3rd Street Church of Christ. Griffith along with J.H. Nall, and C.W. Smith served as directors of the church upon its beginning.

Sallie Griffith died in 1933 and her husband followed in 1938. They were typical hardy pioneer stock who were instrumental in the development of Floyd County.

Walter Griffith, J.D. and Sallie's second son was 15 when his parents came to Floyd County. He attended the Lockney Christian College, which was closed just before WWI broke out. He later married Annie Roberson, a teacher in the community schools, in 1911.

Annie and Walter moved to the original land settled by his dad where they established a home and raised their family of eight children, two of which were Kenneth and Harold. Walter lived in this home until his death. Their children all grew up, without having moved until they married, and established homes of their own. The one exception was Harold; he lived in the house where he was born until 1980, when he moved into Lockney.

Annie taught at the Lone Star school which was started in 1890 and Walter served as a school trustee for the school. The Lone Star school was incorporated into the Lockney school system in 1950.

Most of the family food was raised on the farm and clothes were homemade. The family even devised some plow tools for use on the farm. There was a draw which ran through the property that supplied water for cattle in times of drought.

Harold Griffith was the first child born to Walter and Annie Griffith. He lived on the land occupied by the Griffith family since 1891 until he moved into Lockney. He attended school in the Lone Star Community as did the two generations before him, but graduated from Lockney in 1930. He was very active in agriculture advancements and new methods of soil conservation and irrigation. On April 1, 1934 Harold married Mary Harris of Lockney.

Both of them have been very active in the community. Like his father Harold served as a trustee for many years for the Lone Star school and later served on the Lockney Independent School District Board of Directors, where he encouraged further development in the areas of agriculture and physical education. He also served the community in machinery repairs. He has been called out many times to help keep harvesting equipment running during wheat, grain, and cotton harvest times.

While in the Lone Star area his wife helped organize help groups for people in need, worked at the community store, and promoted school activities as long as the Lone Star school was open. She was also instrumental in opening the Community Center in Lone Star.

Harold and Mary had three sons, Harold Dean, Duane, and Dennis. All three boys played football for Lockney and was active in the interscholastic track activities.

The Lockney community is indebted to this fine family of pioneer stock.

Harvest Festival features new items

At least one unusual item will be in the fifth annual Harvest Festival auction Saturday at 1 p.m. at First United Methodist Church of Lockney.

Most of the items auctioned by Sam Fortenberry and Earl Brosch will be handmade but Barry and Algene Barker are donating 50 lbs. of Hereford beef which has been processed and frozen.

Also promised for the auction are several afghans, a baby quilt, a clock, a quilting picture, oil paintings, a ceramic Christmas tree, painted shirts, counted cross-stitch pictures and pillows, a painted chair and many other items.

All persons present at the end of the auction will be eligible for a drawing for a handmade clock donated by C.L. Record.

The Harvest Festival begins at 10 a.m. with the opening of the Country Store in the church parlor. A Christmas corner including decorations and baked goods will be featured. Lots of baked goods, jellies, hot sauce and chunky relish have been prepared by the church ladies for the Country Store. Also, small handmade items including Halloween motif table decorations and napkin rings, needlework, pillows, etc. priced at under $20 will be sold.

The seated turkey lunch with tickets at $2.50 for children under 11 years of age and $3.50 for adults will be served in the church fellowship hall from 11:30 to 12:45.

Take-out plates may be picked up from 11:15 to 12:30. Deliveries will be made only to shut-ins or hospital patients or nursing home residents with deliveries to begin at 11 o'clock. Persons may call 652-2193 to request deliveries.

Since last year's huge crowd of over 500 nearly overwhelmed the church ladies cooking the meal of turkey and all the trimmings, extra portions are being prepared this year. Fruit cobblers will be served for dessert.

This year for the first time, the Harvest Festival chairmen are presenting a gospel singing group, the Smith Family Singers of Pampa, in the church auditorium from 11:30 to 12:30. This music should provide food for the soul for those waiting to eat or waiting to attend the auction.

The public is invited to participate in any or all of the Harvest Festival activities.

Cub Scouts host carnival

The Lockney Cub Scouts will be sponsoring the annual Halloween Carnival, Saturday, October 29 from 6:30-10:30 at the Scout Hut on Main Street. The Scouts have several booths planned for the evening. They will also have a concession stand offering Frito pies, popcorn, and cokes.

One of the main attractions will also have a spook house. Booths for the carnival include a fishing pond, milk can throw, ring toss, balloon darts, a rope ladder, nail drive, quarter drop, water-gun shoot, cake walk, fortune telling, a marriage booth, and a game called "witches wart" which is like pin the tail on the donkey.

Everyone is invited to come out and have a fun time and everyone is welcome to wear their Halloween costumes.

County Judge explains confusion

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

On Tuesday, November 8th, you will have two ballots in Floyd County, to-wit:

(a) The ballot with the 11 proposed constitutional amendments, and (b) A SPECIAL BALLOT FOR FLOYD COUNTY, which will state "For" or "Against" THE ADDITION OF ASSESSOR-COLLECTOR OF TAXES

This special ballot is confusing, and this explanation is made to assist you. The Texas Constitution states, that when the population of a county is below 10,000 according to last census, that the Tax Assessor-Collector shall be the Sheriff of the county, unless an election is held and the voters elect to "add the office of Tax Assessor-Collector to the list of elective offices". Floyd County dropped below 10,000 population this last census for the first time since 1930. Therefore, the commissioners court is giving the voters the right to decide if the office of Tax Assessor-Collector will be filled by appointment made by the sheriff or will the office be filled by vote of the people.

A vote "for" adding tax assessor-collector, simply gives to the voters the right to decide who will hold this office, as an elected official, as it has been for the last 50 years.

A vote "against" adding tax assessor-collector, simply gives to the sheriff of Floyd County the right to appoint a person to fill this position.

A vote "for" adding tax assessor-collector, will not add any new employee and will not cost the taxpayers extra. The office of Floyd County Tax Assessor-Collector will continue regardless of how this vote may turn out, and the only issue here is shall the office be elective by the voters as in the past, or shall the sheriff appoint a person to fill this job.

PERSPECTIVES

By the Rev. Michael O'Connor

Television is an amazing part of our culture. It eats up a goodly portion of time in many households, even in those where the folks say they don't watch it much. It has the power to entertain us, to turn us into zombies, to challenge our thinking, or perhaps to lull us into complacency.

I have been concerned about the effect of television for a long time. Unfortunately, like most other subjects, you can find nearly any position you want to take expressed by someone's research. TV does a great deal of harm; it does not do much good. It is OK to let children watch some otherwise objectionable programs if their parents are watching with them and interacting; it is never acceptable for children to watch objectionable material on TV.

Public Opinion magazine did a survey of leaders in the media, and the results they came up with were not encouraging. Their survey showed a definite bias on the part of the media elite toward liberal politics, away from religion, and they definitely felt TV should be used to bring about change in our attitudes.

Since Public Opinion is a conservative publication, it did not take long for the howls to start. The basic argument was that old saw about TV producers only giving the public what it wants. They only report the news, not make it. Arguments like those sound good until you pay attention to the programming.

For instance, would James Watt still be secretary of the Interior if there had not been a story on how incredibly stupid he was every time we turned on the news, or picked up a newspaper? Just exactly whose were the cries demanding his resignation?

On one particular weeks worth of programs that I saw, I was amazed at the number of news analyses I saw on the homosexual phenomenon. By coincidence (?) that same week, several of the fiction pieces aired contained "gay" characters. The message in all of the programs was the same - homosexuality is OK. There was never a single negative word uttered on the subject.

The list could go on - the nuclear disarmament question, "Reaganomics" (even the President noted that term had declined in popularity since there seems to be a turn around in the economy), the validity of our presence in Lebanon, all sorts of things like these often get one-sided coverage on Television news, and dramas give us their views as well.

Should a police officer appear nude in a men's magazine; is it alright to engage in sex with people you are not married with; the answers to those questions were answered in the affirmative in the same program.

Television may be the worst thing ever to happen to a civilized society. It could be just the opposite, but we must demand that it be responsive to us, not the other way around.

Lockney Care Center Capers

By Mavis Barton & Mary Jo Fielding

Monday, Oct. 17: I did not go home last Sunday because of the weather. But I sure made up for it yesterday.

There was a lot of fields stripped of cotton, chiseled, or plowed up and a lot of strippers were getting after it. I even saw an old blower stripper I know what that is, we used to have one and I was in the trailer hooking it to the back and when it was getting a little high, I would go to stomping it down. All the time I was stomping, the cotton still blowing in, I moved down a little to stomp that, but somehow I always stepped into a hole and got covered up with cotton. Oh, what I could do a few years ago and all I do now is sit in a wheelchair, but I am kept busy writing to everybody and letters to my family.

The days go by just as fast, I am glad to be alive and able to write my column. I have Laverne Christian to thank for that. She was the one who asked me if I would do the column for the Center.

When we were getting close to home, Bud asked me if I wanted to go home or to Steve's. I said to Steve's. He said Ann and Bruce are there. I said, by golly yes, we'll go to Steve's.

Ann put the burger patties on the grill to start cooking and the grease kept dripping on the stumps and they caught fire. That meant more water. We finally got the patties cooked and when they got through, as always the stumps were smouldering just right (doesn't that take the cake). We took them inside to eat, we had a battle with the stumps and didn't feel like battling with the flies.

It started to sprinkle and Bud went to our house to close the windows. While he was there, our phone rang. It was my sister from England. She called to Steve's so instead of wasting time, getting me in, Ann passed the phone through the window. I talked to her and also my niece who I haven't talked to or seen for thirty-three years. It was one o'clock here and seven o'clock in the evening over there. It was so good to talk to them and the reception was as good as if somebody here in Lockney was calling across town.

Ann and Bruce got the weekend off and came to spend the weekend with Steve and Beverly. Bud came and got me and I spent the day with two of our children and in-laws and five of my grandkids. I enjoyed them all, it was a surprise. The youngest daughter and son-in-law were not there, but that is understandable. She is going to have a baby. The doctor told her it should be around the 9th of Oct., but she is still going. So I am waiting for our sixth grandbaby. Bruce and Ann and family left to go home around 6 p.m. Becky goes to school now and they had to go to Muleshoe.

After Bud had brought me back 2 weeks ago he went home and turned up our road and saw a jackrabbit running out of the ditch ahead of him, so he sped up to 45 miles an hour and ran over the rabbit, to feed the cats. So he backed up to where he thought the rabbit should be and when he slowed down to get him in his headlights, the rabbit passed him about fifty miles an hour. We all had a good laugh about that.

Monday: We had a staff meeting on the aging process. If our staff goes an entire month without an accident, the company gives a $50.00 bonus to the staff member who's name is drawn at the beginning of the meeting. This month's lucky winner was Toni Sevrá.

We are glad Neva Calahan got her cast off this week, but sorry she left us... Really, we will miss her and hope she comes for a visit. We also hope Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Smith a speedy recovery.

Tuesday, 18th: Well we had Bingo this afternoon and Mamie Wofford won the Blackout. She chose a small bottle of perfume.

Well, Wednesday and Thursday I was sick had to stay in bed. Mary Jo Fielding came and visited me, she had missed me. Mary Green also told me she had missed me. It is wonderful to be missed.

Wednesday: We had almost the entire day to ourselves. Laverne Christian went to Lubbock to a South Plains Chapter meeting of the Texas Nursing Home Assn. She's been the secretary-treasurer for the chapter last year and was elected again for the coming year.

We really are enjoying our Monday bus trips with the Floydada Sr. Citizens in the van. Today we went to Dougherty.

We are looking forward to Laura Wilson coming every Tuesday to help us with crafts.

Jackie is still going to school at Amarillo College every Saturday and works with the Sr. Citizens group at her church on Sunday. Maybe she will get a break around the first of the year.

Sure was nice to see the sun come out - we sprung a few leaks after the rain.

Reminder - Last chance is this week to buy tickets on the Afghan. Drawing will be held on October 31.

Thursday: President Gemayed of Lebanon charges that his nation's problems stem from the intervention of Syria and its refusal to withdraw their troops. Off the coast of Lebanon is an armada of 12 vessels. Their mandate is: Defend the Marines and the troops of Italy, France, and Britain, the three other Western nations in Lebanon. The U.S. flag ship is the aircraft carrier Dwight D. Eisenhower with a total of 90 F-14 fighter interceptors. There is a ship known as the Tararva with 2,000 combat marines to support the 1,200 marines already on shore. The battleship New Jersey is reported en route to Lebanon on its previous duty off of Central America. Vice Adm. Edward Martin said, "We do have the right of self-defense, and we shall exercise that right whenever necessary to protect the Marines."

Friday: I was well enough to go to church this morning. Didn't feel good, but it was better than staying in bed.

We had Bingo again today, (forgive me if the words don't come out right) Richard Lanham and Mary McCracken were the winners. Richard chose jelly beans and Mary chose orange slices.

I stayed in our room after supper and thought about "The Dukes" and "Dallas." I forgot them. Isn't that awful? They had done been on.

Let's talk.

Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Community Relations Manager

A look at the future

When Southwestern Bell is divested from AT&T next January and becomes a separate company, you can be sure that your local telephone service will continue working the way it always has. We're committed to providing high quality, dependable local service at affordable rates.

But there will be some changes in the way you do business with us... from how to handle telephone repairs to the way you're billed. Here's a quick look at what will and won't change:

Local service

As mentioned, Southwestern Bell will continue to be responsible for providing local telephone service. To start, stop, change or move service, you will do the same as you do now - call your Southwestern Bell business office.

Long distance service

Beginning January 1, Southwestern Bell will still provide long distance service within your surrounding area. However, calls outside this area will be handled by AT&T or other long distance companies. Since there will be more competition in the long distance market, there will be more choices for you as a customer.

Telephone sets

Between now and the first of the year, all single-line customers have the option of buying the telephones that they currently lease on a monthly basis from Southwestern Bell. If you decide to continue leasing your telephone sets, ownership of this equipment will be transferred to AT&T January 1. Of course, you'll still have the option of purchasing new telephone equipment from a variety of other suppliers. Pending agreement from the Federal Communications Commission, Southwestern Bell may also offer telephone equipment for sale, beginning in 1984.

Telephone repair

If you continue to lease the Bell-owned telephones, repairs will be handled by AT&T beginning January 1. There will be no charge for repair of these phones, provided you either mail your leased phone or return it in person to designated AT&T locations. However, if you wish to have a service technician repair your phone on your premises, there will be a charge for this service.

Telephones purchased from Southwestern Bell before the end of the year also will be serviced by AT&T, but you'll be charged for those repairs if your set is out of warranty. Of course, repairs of telephones purchased from companies other than Bell should be referred to the store they were purchased from or the manufacturer.

Billing

You'll continue to receive one bill for all services provided today by the Bell System, except for purchases of new equipment from AT&T. This single bill - to be produced by Southwestern Bell - will list Southwestern Bell's charges separately from AT&T charges. In the future, Southwestern Bell may serve as a billing agent for other long distance companies as well. Toll-free telephone numbers of each company will be featured on your statement in case you have questions about your bill.

We want you to know

At Southwestern Bell, we want you to know about these and other changes that will affect the way we do business with you. Watch for more details in the months ahead - both in this column and in your bill insert.

Remember, if you have something to talk about, don't hesitate to drop me a line.

REFUGIO VASQUEZ

Horn of the Week

Refugio Vasquez plays defensive corner for our Lockney Longhorn team. Refugio is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Refugio Vasquez Sr. He has played football all of his high school years and has been on varsity for the last three years. He is a 1983 team captain.

Cookie has also played basketball and participated in track. His freshman year he was chosen to be Class Clown, and he has been picked as Most Attractive the last two years.

Cookie's been a real asset to the team. Keep up the good work.

IN HONOR OF National Business Women's Week, Merle Mooney, vice-president of Lockney BPW, is presenting a Certificate of Appreciation to W.H. (Dub) Hallmark, on behalf of the Lockney Independent School District, for their promotion of the interests of business and professional women in Lockney. Tammy Zachery was the recipient of a one year membership to the club made by the Lockney Business and Professional Women's Club. Tammy is presently employed at the Lockney Feed Yard, where she has worked for 4½ years.

Horns fall by 3 points

Turnovers again played a big part in Friday's game against Slaton. Lockney fumbled the ball two times in the first quarter leading to Slaton's only scores of the game. The first fumble lead to a 31 yard field goal by Slaton and the second lead to a Slaton touchdown.

The Longhorn defense played an excellent game Friday, holding Slaton to only 156 total yards and the defense held Slaton running back Gerald Lacy to only 47 yards for the night and before Friday's game Lacy had been averaging 200 yards per game.

Lockney's only scoring drive came in the third quarter when after several carries, Dickie Hernandez made a 9 yard run across the goal line and Moses Blanco converted the extra point. Hernandez finished the night with 19 carries for a total of 97 yards.

The Longhorns were able to make 11 first downs in the game, but were unable to convert those into scoring drives.

The outstanding Horns of the Week are Dickie Hernandez, offensive back; Scott Poole and Moses Blanco, offensive line; Terry Mathis and Monty Teeter, defensive fronts, and Hector Molina on secondary.

This week the Horns will face Post. Also Friday night the 1983 Football Queen will be announced at about 7:10 before the game starts. The football queen is selected by votes cast by the football players.
