In the regular monthly meeting of the Lockney school board, trustees called for bids on a 1971 Ford pickup and approved the purchase of new desks and five new computers.

Trustees voted to call for bids to sell the 1971 Ford pickup owned by the school system. "Cost of repairing the pickup will be somewhere between $400 and $700 depending on what is found to be wrong with it," commented Superintendent W.H. Hallmark. The pickup is knocking and will require some mechanical work on the motor. Bids will be opened in the January board meeting.

Board members approved the purchase of new student and teacher desks for high school and junior high. Hallmark said that to his knowledge no student desks have been purchased in the last 12 years and many need to be replaced.

The board also approved the purchase of five new computers for the high school computer department. This is being done in order to meet state mandates. The schools are now required to teach two different "computer languages" and in order to teach the Pascal method new computers were needed.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Tax report #3 shows that Lockney I.S.D. has collected 62.66% of the current tax roll. $300,852.00 of the $491,706.00 current tax roll has been collected. Also $8765.00 in delinquent taxes have been collected.

In other matters the board tabled two items on the agenda. The first was acoustical repair in the old gym and the second was a fence for the elementary school. The board and Superintendent Hallmark will be looking at these matters at a later date.

Hallmark felt that a fence or some type of barrier is needed at elementary school for the protection of the students. "With the possibility of balls rolling into the street and the like I feel that some type of fence or barrier is needed, but we will be looking at this later."

In other action the board approved changing the date of the January 8 board meeting to January 15.

The board heard a report on the Lockney TEAMS tests. This year students scored in the 71% bracket in language and 73% in math as compared to 89% and 82% respectively for the past school year.

Parents of the students with problems will be contacted by the school and students will be allowed to retake the tests again in the spring of 1987. Students are required to pass the tests before they can graduate from high school.

Trustees also held an executive session before adjourning for the night. The session was for the purpose of evaluating the superintendent.

In other action taken by the board, the minutes of the previous meeting were approved, the payment of current bills and making investments was approved, and the tax report was reviewed.

Citizens express desire to correct drainage problem

In all, 20 homes will be affected by the city's drainage correction proposal. Virtually all of those property owners affected have expressed their desire to cooperate with the plan.

On Monday, December 8, a meeting was held involving property owners, city officials, the city engineer, county commissioner Floyd Jackson and city attorney Paul Lyle.

During the meeting city councilmen discussed the proposed plan to alleviate the drainage problem which occurs in southwest Lockney during heavy rains.

In order to correct the problem the city needs the cooperation of property owners. The owners will be responsible for purchasing new culverts for their property and the City of Lockney will incur the cost of the installation.

A total of about 36 culverts will be replaced and not only is the city willing to pay the cost of the installation, but they will incur the cost of replacing the culverts which are at each intersection and also at the alleyways.

Citizens will purchase their culverts from the city and will be billed on their monthly water bills at a reasonable rate. No interest will be charged to those citizens involved.

Culverts may cost as much as $12.30 per foot; however, the city will be taking bids on them and will see that the best and cheapest culverts are used to avoid costing property owners more than necessary.

In addition to replacing culverts on

Southwest 6th, 8th, and Shurbet streets, the work will include regrading ditches, cleaning out present ditches, and doing the necessary work to make flood waters drain off properly.

All of the citizens who attended the meeting last Monday night were in favor of the proposed plan to keep from having basements, garages, and roads flooded during heavy rains.

All of the citizens at the meeting were willing to cooperate with the city on the plan. Most expressed the feeling that if the city is willing to bear the greatest expense of the project they will be willing to do their share to help.

Phil Cotham selected to 'Outstanding Young Men'

William Philip (Phil) Cotham, head boys basketball coach in the Lockney school system, has been selected for the Outstanding Young Men of America awards program. He will be included in the 1986 edition of OYMA.

Now in its 24th year, the OYMA program is "designed to honor and encourage exceptional young men between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in many fields of endeavor, such as service to community, professional leadership, academic achievement, business advancement, cultural accomplishments, and civic and political participation.

"Achievements in these areas are the result of dedication, responsibility and a drive for excellence — qualities which deserve to be recognized and remembered."

Cotham is married to the former Cindy Frizzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Frizzell of Lockney. They reside in Lockney and have one son, Todd who is 2½ years old.

Cotham was raised in Brownfield and attended West Texas State University where he graduated in 1982. He has lived and coached in Lockney since that time.

He is the son of Joyce Cotham of Brownfield.

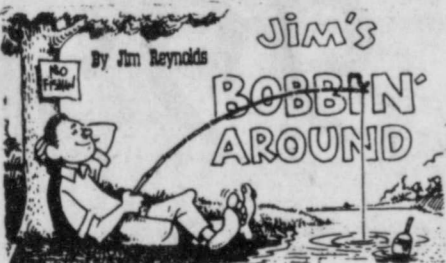

Also named for the honor was Jon Allan Chandler of Westminster, Colo. (The Beacon was unable to learn of his connection to Lockney.)

TALKING HORSES?

With plans to help a friend "cow-boy," an area man went out about 5:30 that morning to feed his horses and prepare for a busy day. It was dark and cold when he arrived at the pens.

The fellow admits that he wasn't moving too fast when he heard a voice out of the dark say desperately, "Sir, could you help me?"

Nobody else was around, he thought; could those horses be talking to him? "I'll have your breakfast in a minute," the stunned fellow found himself saying to his horses.

"Stop that," he quickly said to himself. "Those horses aren't talking to you."

"Sir, could you help me?" was repeated. He turned to make out the form of a tall — "he looked seven foot tall!" — younger man, who was shivering in the cold because he was wearing only a thin windbreaker and sneakers.

The young man had run out of gasoline down the road a couple of miles and had left his wife and two children while he went for help.

The older fellow was really happy to render assistance...partially because he was so glad to know the horses weren't talking to him!

AVERAGE AMERICAN MALE'S DIMENSIONS

What are the average American male's dimensions?

Most of us would probably guess high, because apparently the typical West Texan is a bit larger.

The fellow who stands 5'8" weighs 162 pounds is exactly average, according to the folks who claim to know.

NOW THAT'S DRY

Even on those wet years, such as this, conversation in West Texas frequently shifts to droughts.

Remembering one of those dry spells, a Crosby County fellow says, "We had three-year-old catfish which hadn't learned to swim."

WORN DOLLAR BILLS

The reason dollar bills wear out so fast is that people keep passing the buck.

4-Hers speak up for better communication

More effective communication may be one solution to closing, or at least narrowing, the generation gap.

4-H young people from 9 to 19 in the 4-H public speaking program are working to establish better rapport with adults—and with peers. Through learn-by-doing activities, these 4-H'ers become skilled and confident in presenting their ideas formally to an audience. As a result, they are better able to get their message across clearly and convincingly in informal, everyday situations.

The 4-H public speaking program teaches 4-H'ers to:

*Choose an interesting topic, research it thoroughly, organize carefully, then make an outline.

*Speak clearly and loudly enough to be heard throughout the room and avoid nervous mannerisms.

*Capture audience attention; open with an anecdote, startline statement or quotation.

*Cover no more than three to five main points in the body of the speech.

*Stick to the time limit. Close with a summary of major points and an effective quotation, surprise statement or appeal for action.

To recognize the accomplishments of 4-H'ers, Union Oil Company offers medals of honor to outstanding members in each county and an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for each state recordbook winner in this category.

A public speaking contest is held each year. 4-H'ers write and practice then present their speeches at this contest. Time is drawing near for interested people to start working. If you are interested in learning more about public speaking, call the Extension Office at 983-2806.

Have a good day

Lockney basketball news

Despite an early exit, the improving Longhorns had the misfortune of drawing a couple of toughies in the New Deal Tournament last week-end.

The Red and White dropped a 43-34 decision to Hart on Thursday and fell 51-48 to Crosbyton in a consolation semi-final match on Friday. Crosbyton was in front 24-23 at intermission and each club scored 14 in the third period.

Against Hart, the Longhorns trailed 22-16 at half, but outscored Hart 12-9 in the third quarter.

Torrez, Frizzell and Hallmark each netted 8 points in the Thursday match. Torrez scored 18 and Teeter put in 13 for the Horns.

Cotham said, "We were close to Hart throughout the game. They scored some big baskets late in the game to put us away. Our kids are getting better at shooting the ball."

"Our team is playing good basketball, but they are also playing good teams. If we continue to improve, we should get on the winning track before long," commented Cotham.

The Lady Horns were outlasted 70-20 by Hart and 60-16 by Crosbyton in the tournament.

Ruth Wilson and Rosellen Arjona each scored 4 in the Hart match, and Miss Wilson was high point with 4 in the Crosbyton outing.

The Lady Horns were stopped 67-13 by Lorenzo on Dec. 9. Veronica Blanco put in 2 field goals and one free throw for 5 points. Credited with one basket were Ruth Wilson, Rosellen Arjona, Renee Brotherton and Carol Gonzales.

TOURNAMENT WIN

Lady Horns played in the consolation championship match the previous week's tournament.

After being stopped by Motley County in the opener, Lockney downed Cotton Center on Friday and was beaten by Dimmitt in the Saturday consolation finals.

Leading 14-12 and 25-16 after the first two quarters, Lockney smacked Cotton Center 37-29 in the semi-finals. Scorers were: Vasquez 11, Wilson 8, Blanco 7, Terrell 6, Lane 5, Carol Gonzales 4, Arjona and Brotherton, 2 each.

In the 61-12 setback at the hands of Motley County, Lady Horn scorers were Vasquez 5 and Ruth, Blanco, Melinda Basaldua and Terrell, 2 each.

FLOYDADA TOURNAMENT

After dropping a 35-11 decision to Crosbyton in the first round of the Floydada tournament on Dec. 12-13, the Shorthorn seventh grade boys dropped Kress 36-20 for third place.
