Proposed Amendment to the Constitution, to be Submitted to Vote of the People on Tuesday, November 4th., 1902.

JOINT RESOLUTION.

Amending Article 6, Section 2, of the Constitution of the State of Texas requiring all persons subject to a poll tax to have paid a poll tax and to hold a receipt for same before they offer to vote at any election in this state, and fixing the time of payment of said tax.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 6, Section 2, of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Sec. 2. Every male person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in this state one year next preceding an election and the last six months within the district or county in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector and every male person of foreign birth subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who not less than six months before any election at which he offers to vote, shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in accordance with the Federal Naturalization laws, and shall have resided in this state one year next preceding such election and the last six months in the county in which he offers to vote, shall also be deemed a qualified elector, and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence; provided, that electors living in any unorganized county may vote at any election precinct in the county to which said county is attached for judicial purposes; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax under the laws of the State of Texas shall have paid said tax before he offers to vote at any election in this state and hold a receipt showing his poll tax paid before the first day of February next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt, he shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt has been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election, and this provision of the constitution shall be self-enacting without the necessity of further legislation.

Sec. 3. The Governor of this state is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation submitting this amendment to the qualified voters of Texas at the next general election.

CATTLE.

Heavy shipments of cattle from Odessa is reported by Lee Roddy.

Sam Hazlewood and Buck Watson, cattlemen from Texas, are here looking for a location.

Walter Heath and C. C. Keller killed a black bear in the mountains last week which weighed about 250 pounds.

Clabe Merchant has purchased the Hat horse pasture and will perhaps move his cattle to that range, p. t.

Rube Segrest, the big cow man from head of Seven Rivers was here Wednesday looking in fine health and spirits.

Work is to begin August 1st at or near Red Lake, by the Turkey Tracks, TX's, Hats, etc. and will work up the river.

George Pendleton bought the Neal wells and range of the Hats, and of course will occupy his purchase with his stock this spring.

The commissioner's court of inquiry of Lincoln county refused to reduce their raise on cattle valuations, and now some cowmen are hot, hotter, hottest, hottestest.

Cowboy Bill came in from Hagerman the other day and after the first 20 minutes he went round singing the old familiar song, "On flowery beds of ease I fly, From boozee-ee to boozere-eye."

A big cattle and ranch deal was consummated here Saturday morning in which Will Dannelly sold a half interest in his ranch and cattle to G. M. Williams p. t. Geo Williams then sold Dannelly his fine alfalfa stock farm south of town for $2500. The new firm will be styled the 'Plains Cattle Syndicate'. Both are presidents and directors.—Miner Stockman.

A name or date adds much to the value of a ring or watch you are going to buy for some one and costs but little. Chamlee, the Jeweler does beautiful engraving. See him about it.

Self-Defence.

A dog's right of action in self-defence has been upheld by Judge Sidener of St. Louis.

Trouble began with the inevitable small boy, a tin pail full of rocks, a bit of string, and a dog's tail with the dog attached. Just as the tail had been tied to the pail the attacked canine doubled on the boy and closed two rows of sharp teeth just where, at the moment, it seemed that they would do the most good. The dog was haled into court, where the bench decided that he had acted only within his privileges, and that he was, "as justly immune from punishment as the man who strikes a burglar in defense of his own life and welfare.—New York World.

J. A. Wansley & Co. have the largest shoe stock in town. Be sure to see them before buying any kind of shoes.

Jas. Hamilton and H. J. Skinner, of Great Falls, Mont., were here this week. They bought from Manager Dick Walsh, 500 JA heifer yearlings, at p. t. We understand they are also in the market for a string of steers.

Charley Derrick returned last week from Montana where he had been at work for Bill Case, the big ranchman. He was forced to quit work on account of appendicitis, being quite sick for some time and being, for the present at least, incapacitated for range duty.

The heaviest rain of the season fell in this county last Friday night. All creeks were up and the ground thoroughly soaked. Some damage to crops from washing is reported and east of town a small cyclone did considerable damage. A windmill was wrecked for J. O. King as was likewise his barn. Mrs. Crawford's house, five miles east, was blown from its blocks and badly twisted. The family were not at home and no one was injured.—Clarendon Banner-Stockman.

"When'er a noble deed is wrought,
When'er is spoke a noble thought,
Our heart in glad surprise
To higher levels rise.

The tidal wave of deeper souls
Into our inmost being rolls,
And lifts us unaware
Out of all meaner cares.

Honor to those whose words or deeds
Thus help us in our daily needs,
And by their overflow
Raise us from what is low."

Grass Fed Cattle.

Drover's Journal: About the only way to keep the market for thin, light grass cattle from going into bankruptcy is to quit feeding them grass and give them something more substantial. If you haven't the corn, then perhaps it would be better to wait until you raise it. A range of $4.50 per hundred is too wide, and not justified, except on the ground that the receipts of undesirable cattle have been excessive. The fact is high prices have tempted many country speculators to plunge in, and they have bought freely of all kinds of cattle, and more particularly the half fat ones, which looked cheap, but which, in the end, have proved dearer than the good kinds.

The only soda fountain in the city at Street's. Ice cold drinks always ready to serve.

Oscar Hunt & Company carry a full line of caskets and all undertaking supplies. An expert embalmer is always ready to answer calls promptly.

Nine hundred head of S. M. S. two-year-old steers, bred by Swenson Bros. of Stamford on their Motley county ranch, were recently sold and delivered to the American Livestock company of Denver, at the highest price paid for two-year-old steers in Texas this year. The lot did not carry a single off color, and the Denver Record-Stockman refers to the bunch as being the best in Texas. The American Live Stock and Loan company has taken some 25,000 steers out of Texas this year. Swenson Bros. have ranches in Motley, Jones, Stonewall and Throckmorton counties, and have been grading their cattle for twenty years until the S. M. S's are practically full blood white faces with a strain of shorthorn. The steers have since been resold by the American company to J. B. Kendrick, a prominent range man of Sheridan, Wyo.—Texas Stock Journal.

The new candidate for county judge, A. N. Henson, has shown to the people that he is honest, fearless and capable to perform the various duties of that office. He has shown to them that he applies himself strictly to the work he undertakes to do. When he first qualified as justice of the peace he studied the law closely and applied himself so constantly to his business that with the help he secured he put out of the way the gambling dens in the town. In this he displayed good judgment, ability and application. As deputy clerk he has provided the county with the best and neatest books ever kept in that office. Always on duty, pleasant, agreeable and efficient. This is the result of application, good judgment and intelligence. What do you think of him at the head of school affairs in this county? He would take special pride in this work.

As judge of the county court he would be fair, honest, intelligent and ever ready to maintain the law.

As presiding member of the commissioner's court he would be the same and carry to that position the very valuable fund of information he has acquired as county commissioner and deputy clerk, making him one of the best posted men in the county in matters pertaining to that office.

Fellow Citizens:

In announcing for County Judge I will state that, if elected, I shall strive to be county judge and nothing else—giving the office and the schools of the county my undivided attention. I shall not be hampered by a farm, ranch or land agency, but will devote my energies to discharging the duties of the judge's office as laid down in the statutes and will be content with the salary and fees of the office as a means of support, believing that said duties, if properly performed, should occupy all the time of the County Judge.

Lively Briefs.

We some again, very newsy you know, as we always are.

The Reunion is over and every body got home safe and sound, but quite a number got their nice clothes wilted by a hard rain Friday eve. There was people scattered all the way from Canyon City to Beverly, some jammed in their wagons, others in their tents, while some were fortunate enough to get to houses. There were only fifteen stayed in the old Brown dugout but everyone made out exceedingly well.

From what we have heard it was a good thing we left Canyon when we did or we would have been blown away.

We have had a good rain and everything is prosperous in this part of the country.

Mrs. Derr has a sister and niece visiting her from Dallas. We haven't yet learned their names.

Mr. Barnard from Agnes, Texas, one of Briscoe county's first settlers, is back on the Plains prospecting. He thinks this is the only country and is anxious to get back.

Mr. Doughty is working in Amarillo this week.

Mr. Martin and family from Agnes, Texas, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Willis Hastings.

Mrs. Guyer has been almost beyond going for some time with rheumatism in her foot. She is some better now.

Mr. Albert Pletsch has been branding his calves this week.

Mr. E. L. Smith and son from Wildman, Okla., are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Emma Jackson

Brothers Cape and Camerine are holding a big meeting at Milo this week.

Mr. Willis Malone's little boy, William, has a very sore foot caused from poison.

Miss Maud Clayton and Mr. Hancock were married last Sunday evening at the residence of the bride's parents. Quite a crowd of relatives were present. Judge Tomlinson officiated the happy couple. Miss Maud is a fine young lady and we consider that Mr. Hancock has won a prize. May joy, happiness and prosperity follow the happy couple all through life.

Mrs. Dover has gone east to visit her parents.

We learn that Mrs. Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Birch, has been quite low for several days.

Mrs. Kent will leave for Trinidad, Colorado next Monday. She is almost blind and is going to have her eyes treated. She expects to be gone two or three months.

Mr. Sam Howard from Wildman, Oklahoma, passed through this part of the country a few days ago on his way to Mexico.

The country is full of prospectors and now is a good time to sell if anyone is anxious to leave the Plains.

The Methodists and Presbyterians will commence a protracted meeting at Salem on Saturday night before the first Sunday in August. Everybody invited to attend.

We are sorry that Joe Hastings got his nice clothes wet last Friday night. He slept in a lake of water but it didn't hurt him as he didn't know it until the next morning.

Brooks & Brother are shipping cattle this week.

Dr. Turner and family are visiting his cousin, W. T. Helms and family. We haven't yet learned where they are from.

Mrs. Gilbert from Chillicothe is visiting her son, Mr. C. Gilbert. No more this time.

We are glad to learn that our old friend and fellow townsman, Mr. K. E. Bain, of Silverton, is building a nice house in Canyon City, that he may have the advantage of Canyon City's splendid school.

Say friend, try me on dry goods or groceries. I think you will save money.

This week Judge Lair brought to the office some very fine ears of Indian corn and three stalks of Kaffir corn for Mrs. Morgan to take, with other things, as an exhibit, to Fort Worth and Dallas, to let the people know what the "Great American Desert" will produce. Last year she carried down a lot of cabbage, potatoes, turnips, etc. that were grown on the plains, but looked more like the products of the irrigated gardens of Colorado and California than of the arid plains.

We have stored 5,000 tons of Maitland coal. Come now and get your winter supply. Do not wait as you did last year, until stock runs down. Prices right, quality guaranteed.

We have been requested by the business men and peace officers to ask boys and young men of the city, not to play ball any more on the principal business streets. It frightens teams and makes it unpleasant for ladies and children to be on the streets. This notice is kindly meant and we hope will be heeded in the same spirit.

We call your attention to the ad of Gober, Hume & Kenyon. This is one of the best known and strongest firms in the Panhandle. All its members are popular and successful business men, thoroughly familiar every detail of the coal, hay and grain situation the know-how to buy and always sell right.

Mr. Albert Dockery has sold his place near Tucumcari, New Mexico, and returned to the Plains. He was in town yesterday.

A dehorned, unbranded, Jersey cow with underbit in each ear, strayed away from me on the last day of the Reunion. Any information leading to her recovery will be highly appreciated. J. E. Wansley.

We are requested by the peace officers to urgently insist that no more dead animals or garbage be hauled out near the reunion grounds; it must not be left on this side of the railroad. It is only a little more trouble to haul all refuse north of the railroad and it should be done, and persons having pig pens, out houses, etc., that need cleaning are notified that only one more day remains in which to put them in a sanitary condition. When prosecutions take place you will roar, so be warned in time. Clean up, clean up.

The new candidate for county judge, A. N. Henson, has shown to the people that he is honest, fearless and capable to perform the various duties of that office. He has shown to them that he applies himself strictly to the work he undertakes to do. When he first qualified as justice of the peace he studied the law closely and applied himself so constantly to his business that with the help he secured he put out of the way the gambling dens in the town. In this he displayed good judgment, ability and application. As deputy clerk he has provided the county with the best and neatest books ever kept in that office. Always on duty, pleasant, agreeable and efficient. This is the result of application, good judgment and intelligence. What do you think of him at the head of school affairs in this county? He would take special pride in this work.

As judge of the county court he would be fair, honest, intelligent and ever ready to maintain the law.

As presiding member of the commissioner's court he would be the same and carry to that position the very valuable fund of information he has acquired as county commissioner and deputy clerk, making him one of the best posted men in the county in matters pertaining to that office.

THE HERITAGE.

By James Russell Lowell.

James Russell Lowell was born at Cambridge, Mass. in 1819; died there in 1891. He was graduated from Harvard in 1838. In 1855 he was elected professor of modern languages at Harvard. He was editor of the Atlantic Monthly in 1857-'62 and of the North American Review 1863-'72. He was United States Minister to Spain 1877-'80 and to Great Britain 1880-'85.

The rich man's son inherits lands
And piles of brick, and stone and gold
And he inherits soft, white hands
And tender flesh that fears the cold.
Nor dares to wear a garment old;
A heritage, it seems to me,
One scarce would wish to hold in fee.

The rich man's son inherits cares.
The bank may break the factory burn.
A breath may burst his bubble shares;
And soft, white hands could scarcely earn
A living that would serve his turn;
A heritage, it seems to me,
One scarce would wish to hold in fee.

The rich man's son inherits wants,
His stomach craves for dainty fare.
With sated heart he hears the pants
Of toiling hands with brown arms bare,
And wearies in his easy chair;
A heritage, it seems to me,
One scarce would wish to hold in fee.

What doth the poor man's son inherit?
Stout muscles and a sinewy heart.
A hardy frame, a hardier spirit,
King of two hands, he does his part.
In every useful toil and art;
A heritage, it seems to me,
A king might wish to hold in fee.

What doth the poor man's son inherit?
Wishes overjoyed with humble things,
A rank adjudged by toil worn merit,
Content that from employment springs.
A heart that in his labor sings;
A heritage, it seems to me,
A king might wish to hold in fee.

What doth the poor man's son inherit?
A patience learned of being poor;
Courage, if sorrow come, to bear it,
A fellow-feeling that is sure
To make the outcast bless his door;
A heritage, it seems to me,
A king might wish to hold in fee.

O, rich man's son! there is a toil
That with all others level stands;
Large charity doth never soil,
But only whiten soft white hands—
This is the best crop from our lands;
A heritage, it seems to be,
Worth being rich to hold in fee.

O, poor man's son! scorn not your state;
There is worse weariness than thine,
In merely being rich and great,
Toil only gives the soul to shine.
And makes rest fragrant and benign—
A heritage, it seems to me,
Worth being poor to hold in fee.

Both, heirs to some six teet of sod,
Are equal in the earth at last;
Both, children of the same dear God,
Prove title to your heirship vast
By record of a well filled past—
A heritage, it seems to me,
Well worth a life to hold in fee.

We have tried the late cooking oil sold by Wright & Gamble and can heartily recommend it as being much superior to lard for all purposes and taking the place of butter in seasoning vegetables, etc. It is pleasant to the taste and much cheaper than lard. We advise all housekeepers to try one can and think they will be pleased with it.

of the best cattle in existence and it was generally conceded that they would capture the very best prizes as soon as it was known that they would be entered, therefore those who were fortunate enough to capture prizes over these cattle surely have something of which to boast. If their owners would advertise them the cattle would do the rest.

The most pleasing feature of the whole thing is the determination of other fine stock breeders to exhibit another year. Whitman Bros. had some noted cows here not heretofore mentioned:

Fomosa's Gift, sired by Sir Wilton.

Britona, sired by Ancient Briton.

Constancy, sired by Jackson. None of these cattle had been prepared for the show ring and evidence the wonderful trait of the Herefords for putting on flesh.

HORSES.

Then came on the exhibition of horses which was not so well represented and the following were judges:

D. C. Trigg, J. T. Smith and J. Rusk.

The following prizes were awarded:

BEST STALLION.

First prize; Bay Rex, entered by A. M. Potter of Potter county.

Second prize; Ranger R., entered by C. P. Money, Randall county.

BEST GELDING.

First prize; bay horse entered by H. S. Burnham.

Second prize, horse entered by C. P. Money.

BEST MARE.

First prize, horse entered by G. R. Turner.

Second prize, horse entered by Nick Orr.

BEST COLT.

First prize, colt entered by Nick Orr.

Second prize, colt entered by W. E. Bates.

HOGS.

First prize awarded to C. G. Doughty of Running Water, Hale county, Texas.

Fine Stock Show.

The late Fine Stock Show was a feature of the reunion that went ahead of the expectations of the committee and others interested. It is only the beginning of what should be, and probably will be, one of the greatest annual events of the plains. It served to cause the Whitman Bros., C. T. DeGraffenreid, R. A. Campbell and a score of others to a more determined effort for each succeeding year. It further shows that among the best cattle in the world are to be exhibited here. We also had some of the best horse blood to be found and in our own country there are some of the best strains of hogs, viz: C. T. DeGraffenreid's. Following are the prizes awarded:

CATTLE.

R. A. Campbell's bull, Duplicate Wilton, took the first prize; first, for the best bull any age or breed; second, for the best Hereford bull of any age; third, for the best Hereford bull over two and under three years old.

Second prize for best bull any age or breed, also second prize for best Hereford bull any age was awarded to Maple Prince, owned by Whitman Bros., of Swisher county.

Best Hereford cow of any age, Honest Girl 2nd, owned by Whitman Bros. This cow was also awarded first premium for best Hereford cow three years old and over.

First prize, yearling heifers under 2 years of age, Sir Bredwell's Maid, sire, Sir Bredwell, dam, Bonny Maid, owned by C. C. Slaughter of Roswell, N. M.

First prize, yearling bulls under two years of age, Sir Bredwell's New Era, sire, Sir Bredwell, dam, Bonny, owned by C. C. Slaughter, of Roswell, N. M.

First prize, bull calves under one year old, Alfalfa King, sire, Beau Donald 7th., dam, Queen of Hearts, owned by C. C. Slaughter, of Roswell, N. M.

Second prize, bull calves under one year old, Ak-sar-Ben, sire, Matchless Theodore, dam, Miss Wellington, 6th, owned by C. C. Slaughter of Roswell, N. M.

The Fair at Quanah.

The meeting of the Northwest Texas Fair Association to be held at Quanah Aug. 19-22 will be the best in the history of the Association. Arrangements are already under way, and a number of new and interesting features will be introduced for the entertainment of the people. A splendid racing program has been prepared, there being four races daily with liberal purses. It is expected that the "Quanah Stake Race," for which a purse of $400 will be hung up, will bring the cracks from all over the country. It is a running race, three-fourths of a mile. There is also a free for all pace or trot for a purse of $320. All the purses are good. There will also be a novelty race each day, and a balloon ascension with a parachute descent. Some of the popular features of last year's meeting, the ladies' and boys' riding contests and the saddle and harness horse rings, will be retained. Liberal premiums will be given on all kinds of live stock.

It is desired to make this meeting in reality as well as in name a Northwest Texas institution, and it is hoped that all neighboring counties will take an interest. It was decided to hold the meeting earlier this year on account of its being more of an idle time than later on when fall work has begun.

Ceta Notes.

Yes, we have returned from the Reunion at Canyon City where we had an enjoyable time. The kind hospitality of the Canyon people was spoken of by the distant visitors.

We were sorry to hear of the hard wind at Canyon on Friday evening. We too had a fine rain and crop prospects were never finer. Wheat will make a light yield and oats a fair crop.

Land prospectors are quite numerous. Most of them are Texas men, and seem well pleased with the Plains.

Small stock farmers will take the flats regardless of the distant roar of the big stock men. Come on brother farmer, land is cheap now but it won't be cheap long.

The young people of Fairview will attend an ice cream supper at Dr. H. T. Clark's tonight.

Buster DeGraffenried captured the second money prize at the roping contest at the Reunion.

Next year I would be glad to see farmers have on exhibition the fine products of their farms, gardens and orchards. The Plains country is sure to be the garden spot of the Lone Star State so let us take fleeting time by the foretop and quit keeping company with Mr. Procrastination for he has caused us to let our farms get weedy and our cattle to get poor and die. Yes, he has caused many a good man who failed to raise feed for his stock to "cuss" the country and say it is good for nothing but buffalo and race tracks for the Comanche Indian pony.

We met Felix Rumor at the reunion. We told him that we wanted a sure remedy for the "It's and ands." He said, "friend Saw, trade your saddle horse and O. K. spurs for the secret grip of the plow handles." Said we, "By-Gosh, Felix, we have tried the plow handle grip and it makes our heart flutter." Then friend Felix said, "If your heart flutters and you can't perspire you and yours are in the middle of a bad fix." Says we, "What is perspire?" Saw Dust.

Resolutions of Respect.

In as much as it has pleased our heavenly Father to take out of this world our beloved and worthy brother, W. E. Jordan, and

Whereas, in his death our country has lost one of her best citizens, the church an able minister of the gospel; the family a tender, devoted and loving husband and father, and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows an active, loyal member. Then therefore be it

Resolved, that we bow in humble submission to our Father above and pray his tender mercies and fatherly care over the sorrowing family. That we as Odd Fellows, keep sacred the memory of our worthy brother, deceased; emulate his worthy traits of character, keep our lodge room creped and wear the same for sixty days in honor of him, and furthermore be it

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the bereaved family, a copy published in our county paper, and that they be spread on the journal of our lodge in memory of our fallen brother.

Servant of God, well done,
Rest in thy loved employ,
The battle fought—the victory won,
Rest in thy Master's joy.

The cause thou held so dear
Will still live on and on;
But thou wilt rest from labor here,
Thy task is fully done.

The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And life's hard warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

Soldier of Christ, well done,
Praise be thy new employ,
And while eternal ages run
Rest in thy saviour's joy.
