Ten Dollar Cattle.

Predictions that corn finished cattle would sell up to $10 per D. W. Black of Lyndon, Ohio. 100 pounds this season have so far not been verified on the face of the returns, $9 having been the highest figure paid. But there are those who make the assertion that had anything of sufficient quality been on the market buyers would have readily paid $10 for it.

"Tom" Sotham, who last fall predicted $10 cattle before the season of scarcity ended, was prognostication had not been land Bros', drug store, Dr. Dye's verified when in town a few drug store, the post office, Dobbins' tan shop, Williams Bros', grocery, days since.

sisted. "The cattle that would were destroyed. We have no parhave brought $10 did not come ticulars as to origin of fire or insurto market, that's all. Louis ance. Pfaelzer and Wellington Leavitt, two of the best authorities the druggist's line go to in the stock yards, told me that they would have willingly given $10 for cattle equal to the prize winning bunch shown at the International last December by

Yes, sir, my prediction came out right, but the cattle didn't come to market to get the money, that's all.-Chicago Livestock World.

Where connection will be made with Train No. 428 on the A. T. & S. F. Ry. We shall make every endeavor to run this train promptly on above schedule, but this notice is not a guarantee that we will do so. Shippers should file orders for cars at least three days before the date on which they expect to load.

The Fort Worth & Denver City Co. will run a similar train to connect with our train at Washburn at midnight Monday.

We will continue to handle trainload shipments, with proper notice, on any day of the week, as suits shipper.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 5th, 1902

To the readers of The Stayer:

Through the kindness of your editor, we are permitted to present to the voters of your community each week some matter on the Prohibition question and the relation sustained therto by the Prohibition Party. We will try and present only well attested facts, and plain logic, and we invite your careful consideration of same: and then beg that at the ballot box in November, you cast your vote as you pray.

E. H. Conjbear, Chmn., Prohibition Party of Texas.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Prohibition Party in Arkansas this year made a fine gain, something over five thousand votes being cast for our nominee for governor, Geo, H. Kimball., This is four times larger than any previous vote, and ten times the vote of 1900.

Vermont and Maine made fine gains, the former increasing 150 per cent and the later 100 per cent over 1900.

From all over the nation come fine reports of the onward march of the Pprohibition party. We hope and believe that Texas will not show up behind the procession on November 5th. in her vote for Carroll and Everts.

Some local prohibitionists are making themselves very conspicious by rushing into print and explaining why they vote for local option and not for the Prohibition Party. If they only knew it every blow they strike at the party is but a stepping The Stockmens National Bank, stone to our ultimate victory: as the more discussions provoked, at Canyon in the state of Texas, at the more men will be convinced of the absolute rightness of our the close of business, Sept. 15, 1902. issue, and vote with us.

A number of Texas papers are advising their readers not to vote for Carroll and Everts. They fear that a large vote may, open people's eyes to the hypocracy of the Democratic Party and U. S. bonds to secure elrperhaps beat the editors out of some 'pie'.

THE FAMOUS.

THE LADY'S "YES."

By Mrs. Browning.

"Yes" I answered you last night; "No," this morning, sir, I say; Colors seen by candlelight Will not look the same by day.

When the viols played their best, Lamps above, and laughs below. "Love me" sounded like a jest, Fit for "yes" or fit for "no."

Call me false or call me free, Vow, whatever light may shine. No man on your face shall see Any grief for change on mine.

Yet the sin is on us both; Time to dance is not to woo; Wooing light makes fickle troth, Scorn of me recoils on you.

Learn to win a lady's faith Nobly, as the thing is high, Bravely, as for life and death, With a royal gravity.

Lead her from the festive boards, Point her to the starry skies, Guard her by your truthful words, Pure from courtship's flatteries.

By your truth she shall be true, Ever true, as wives of yore: And her "Yes," once said to you, Shall be "Yes" for evermore.
