38,000 Bales Harvested

According to Wednesday and Thursday reports gathered by the News, the county's thirteen gins have weighed in 37,980 bales since the beginning of cotton harvest. Bad weather prevented the farmers in attacking their snowy cotton fields for approximately a week and a half. Grade was not injured much by the inclement weather according to the ginners. They report the grade exceptionally good for the conditions. The grade is running strict low middling with some light spot with an average fifteen-about the year-after-year county sixteen per inch staple which is the year-after-year county average.

Most of this year's cotton is being gathered by mechanical cotton strippers. Ginners say approximately 40 to 50 per cent of the harvest has been brought to the yards.

In the ginning report so far, practically all of the cotton has gone by way of loan. Average loan prices are running 29 cents to 29 1/2 cents per pound. Some high grade cotton is averaging 32.39 cents per pound. Only one gin has been sending cotton by way of the market and their average is half to loan and half to the market.

LINED-UP COTTON TRAILERS are evidence of sunshiny weather which has permitted farmers to get the cotton harvest into full swing. Many county gins have yards full of trailers with approximately only 50% of the cotton harvested. See story.

Project Receives Promotion In Area Counties

Local group attended the Running Water Draw meeting at Clovis, N.M., Friday night. They were Wade Mills, Fred Axe, M. L. McFarland, Ernie Brockman, Pete Wright, Eddie Colthorp, and Paul Hilburn.

Others included soil officials, bankers, farmers, business men, and chamber of commerce officials of the area. They were dinner guests of the of Clovis Chamber of Commerce.

Purpose of the meeting, Flip Calhoun of Plainview told the gathering, "is to see if we can't speed up the project a bit and get it given a high priority rating on the state list of projects. Calhoun, who is chairman of the Hale County Soil Conservation board, has been one of the leaders in the program which would involve a half-million acres of land, scattered along the draw all the way from Clovis past Plainview.

THIS STEEL STRUCTURE is the beginning frame of the new C and S Equipment building in progress. It is located at 2nd and Belsler. Housing space of the planned building includes 7,000 square feet of store, 4,000 square feet of shop and 3,000 square feet of warehouse. C & S Equipment Co. Building New Plant

According to Norman Cleavinger, C. and S. Equipment will soon be at a new location on 2nd and Belsler.

A new building was started the early part of last week. The floor was completed last week according to Cleavinger. Six lots will be used by C and S Equipment in their new building.

Stout Steel Building Co. of Tulsa is contractor for the steel structure. Cleavinger says "There will be eight foot masonry walls with steel completing the rest of the way".

"Housing space of the planned building," continued Cleavinger, "includes 7,000 square feet of store, 4,000 square feet of shop, and 3,000 square feet to be used for a warehouse".

The front of the building will be composed of a 50 foot glass front with an accent of eight inch brick-tile. Cleavinger hopes the will be ready for occupancy by January 1.

Farmers Approve Cotton Quotas

Castro County followed the nation trend as farmers voted overwhelmingly Tuesday to keep the present marketing quota and price support program for the 1963 up-land cotton crop.

A total of 375 votes were cast in the county according to reports from the county ASCS office. There were 279 votes supporting the present program while 96 voters were against this year's price support.

Approximately 75 per cent of Castro County farmers supported the present marketing quota and price support program.

Washington says the results of the vote in the referendum was not a surprise since the cotton industry has been hit increasingly in recent years as cotton surpluses mounted. Exports have fallen off and domestic textile mills have also cut back on use of the product reports Washington.

School Board Had Busy Schedule Monday Evening

Board members of the Dimmitt School System met Monday night at 7:30 p.m. to consider several phases of school business.

Reports were given concerning average daily attendance, athletic program, transportation, lunchroom, tax collections, building program, band, and finances.

The board appointed a textbook committee announces Paul Hilburn superintendent. The committee is composed of Paul Hilburn, chairman; Roy Lowe; Geneva Schaefer; Cason Smith; Inez Robinson; Bernice Littlepage; Joanne Snider; Jim Dowty; and Alvis Fuquay.

The State Board of Education has been required under the amended Revised Civil Statutes to formulate specific rules as to the manner of selecting textbooks. The State Board established twelve rules to govern the action of local school officials in the selection of textbooks.

One of the rulings states "All appointments to the textbook committee shall be made by each board of trustees upon the recommendation of the county superintendent of schools and by the county board upon the recommendation of the county superintendent. Should any board actions, its superintendent shall be requested to present to the board a recommendation in lieu of the one rejected".

"The entire personnel of each textbook committee shall be professional employees of the independent school district or of the county system of school districts. The majority of each committee shall be classroom teachers. The superintendent or county superintendent shall be a member and shall serve as chairman of the committee" announces the State Board of Education.

The textbook committee is required to examine all books on the multiple list adopted by the State Board of Education, and to select the textbooks from these lists for use in its school system. Also, the committee must recommend its selections to the board of trustees or county board for ratification.

Other business considered by the board included the accepting of resignations of teachers: Jo Beth Shackelford, Sue Duvall, and Francis Covington.

Mickey Pelley, a former Dimmitt graduate, was recommended to the board for employment as Physical Education Director for the girls.

Chamber of Commerce Endorses Running Water Draw Project

Members of the Running Water Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors met with the directors of the Castro County Chamber of Commerce, Friday, December 7.

C of C had already endorsed the Watershed Project at a previous meeting announced Pete Wright, local SCS supervisor. Wade Mills, chairman of the Running Water SCD explained to the group what has been done to date.

J. J. Calhoun of Plainview, chairman of Watershed Project Steering Committee, explained to the C of C the workings of sponsoring a watershed project. At present, the project has secured the co-sponsorship of the Running Water SCD (Castro County), Lamb County SCD, Hale County SCD, Swisher SCD, Parmer County SCD and Curry County, N.M. SCD. Also, Commissioner Courts of Hale County, Swisher County, Parmer County, and Curry County, N.M. have pledged their support to the Watershed Project. Other approvals are the city of Plainview, city of Clovis, and Curry County Park Board.

The project needs the co-sponsorship of the Castro County Commissioners court and the Lamb County Commissioners Court declared Pete Wright. These co-sponsorships are essential as these groups are legal subdivisions of the State government and have the powers of eminent domain. The Commissioners Court would handle the bids and contracts for all structures installed. They also are needed to take over maintenance of these structures after they are completed and turned over to local sponsors.

James Wohlgenuth, president of the Chamber of Commerce, gave the views of the C of C Board of Directors in the following statement: "It appears that this project, if completed, will afford the county a potential recreational development as well as flood prevention. These include such recreational aspects as fishing and hunting. These, of course, are in addition of the C of C have endorsed the project and encourage the people of Castro County to give this project their wholehearted support."

Sorghum Support Increases

Grain Sorghum Producers Association received a happy surprise Monday afternoon for the Texas farmers when Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman announced a 9-cent hike in support prices for grain sorghum for 1963.

C. W. (Wes) Anthony, president of the Castro County Grain Sorghum Producers Association said that the 9-cent per hundredweight on price support of grain sorghum gained through the association efforts would up the county income by $393,300 over the lower level previously established.

Anthony deserves a lot of credit for the work he has done in the GSPA so results as the above can be accomplished," comments Nolan Chandler, agricultural assistant of GSPA.

The 9-cent hike boosted grain sorghum price support payment and loan rate on a national level from $1.91 to $2 per hundredweight. This figures about 5 cents per bushel raise in price.

Texas produces about one half of the world's supply of grain sorghum, with the 32-county area of the Texas Panhandle producing about 60 per cent of the Texas Production.

Secretary Freeman's announcement came after the Texas delegation's visit to the nation's capital. The GSPA and the Nebraska Grain Growers Association were the only two farm groups objecting to specific articles of the new farm bill's feed grain program in the Washington meetings last week.

The new USDA ruling, Secretary Freeman's office announced, would provide a national loan rate level boost on grain sorghum from $1.82 to $1.71. A direct price support payment of 29 cents per hundredweight, as already provided in the farm bill, will be paid to the grain farmers through local ASCS offices. This termed as certificate payments.

Bill Nelson vice-president of GSPA said during the Washington meetings several case studies on individual farms of the Panhandle area were presented directly to USDA officials to show that the grain sorghum growers were not being treated fairly in comparison with price supports on other farm commodities, such as corn.

Jaycee-Ettes Entertain With Christmas Party

Jaycee-Ettes conducted their Christmas party in the Community Room of the First State Bank, Tuesday night.

After a short business meeting, the group exchanged gifts. Refreshments were served by Jean Byrnes. Christmas decorations enhanced the festive party spirit.

There were 14 members attending and one guest, Peggy Prather.

excellent makes, in anything from a popular priced bolt action to a fine automatic.

Then there are the ever-popular pumpguns and the doubles.

Stay away from the single shot because she'll never be satisfied with it, even if she goes out just once a year. There is too little difference in the price.

Also avoid the .410.

Despite the fact that many husbands talk about getting a .410 for their wives, it is a poor gun for any but expert shots. It leaves too many cripples in the field.

With a 20 she can shoot in anyone's company and be proud of it. Now lets do a bit of Christmas shopping. And may this column mean a Merry Christmas for the outdoorswoman!

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

Every year about this time, we've written a column especially for the wife who wanted to buy a Christmas gift for her outdoorsman hubby.

This year we want to tell the man what he can give his outdoors wife.

During the last few years, women have taken to the field in droves. Although some of them join hunting parties, just like the men, most of them prefer to do their hunting with hubby.

Sometimes this causes a bit of a hardship. Naturally the wife wants to use the gun her husband so thoughtfully gave her—and later appropriated for his own use. So, now that mama wants to use the gun, papa has to make other arrangements.

Chances are that when that gun was selected for the wife, friend hubby paid more attention to his desires than to her needs.

For instance, he may have given her a beautiful .30-06 rifle. She can shoot the .30-06 okay. But, likely as not, it is too much of a gun for the little woman.

Today there are calibers just as effective and not nearly so rough on the shoulders. So this year if hubby is willing to buy a new gun, get her a nice light .243. It's perhaps the nearest to an all-around gun for all game in the United States.

Of course there is the .244, also a nice light gun. But it just hasn't appealed to the public's fancy like the .243.

Now — something about cartridges and the guns that shoot them:

The .243 was developed by Winchester; the .244 by Remington. Ballistically, they are virtually the same. Both are flat shooting, hard hitting bullets. They are ideal for deer and antelope. In the hands of a good shot they are adequate for any game found in the United States.

Although the .243 was developed by Winchester, all the major arms companies producing big game rifles make guns of this caliber.

Winchester, of course, has its model 70, which is a bolt action. It also makes the model 100, a semi-automatic, and the model 8, a lever action, of this caliber.

Remington produces it in the model 700 series in the bolt action, and no doubt shortly will be making it in the 740-760 models, which are semi-auto and pump.

Savage makes the .243 in the famous old model 99 lever action and the 110 bolt action, either right or left handed.

Kodiak and Browning also make the .243 in bolt actions. Then there are mail order houses selling the guns under their own brand names.

Right now commercial production of the .244 rifle has practically ceased and perhaps it will be out of the picture entirely in a few more months despite the fact that it is a very effective caliber.

What is the best type of gun for mama when she goes out after deer?

Again it's a matter of preference, because they are equally effective. Target and varmint shooters will tell you that, for accuracy, the bolt action is the best. And they are right!

However, for everyday shooting of game there isn't a nickel worth of difference in the accuracy of the guns, whether they be bolt, lever, auto or pump.

The bolt action gun is the slowest for getting off the second shot. If the shooter is left handed, there is only the Savage 110 L. But it's a good gun.

Next slowest would be the lever action. However, a hunter used to handling one, can get off the shots pretty fast.

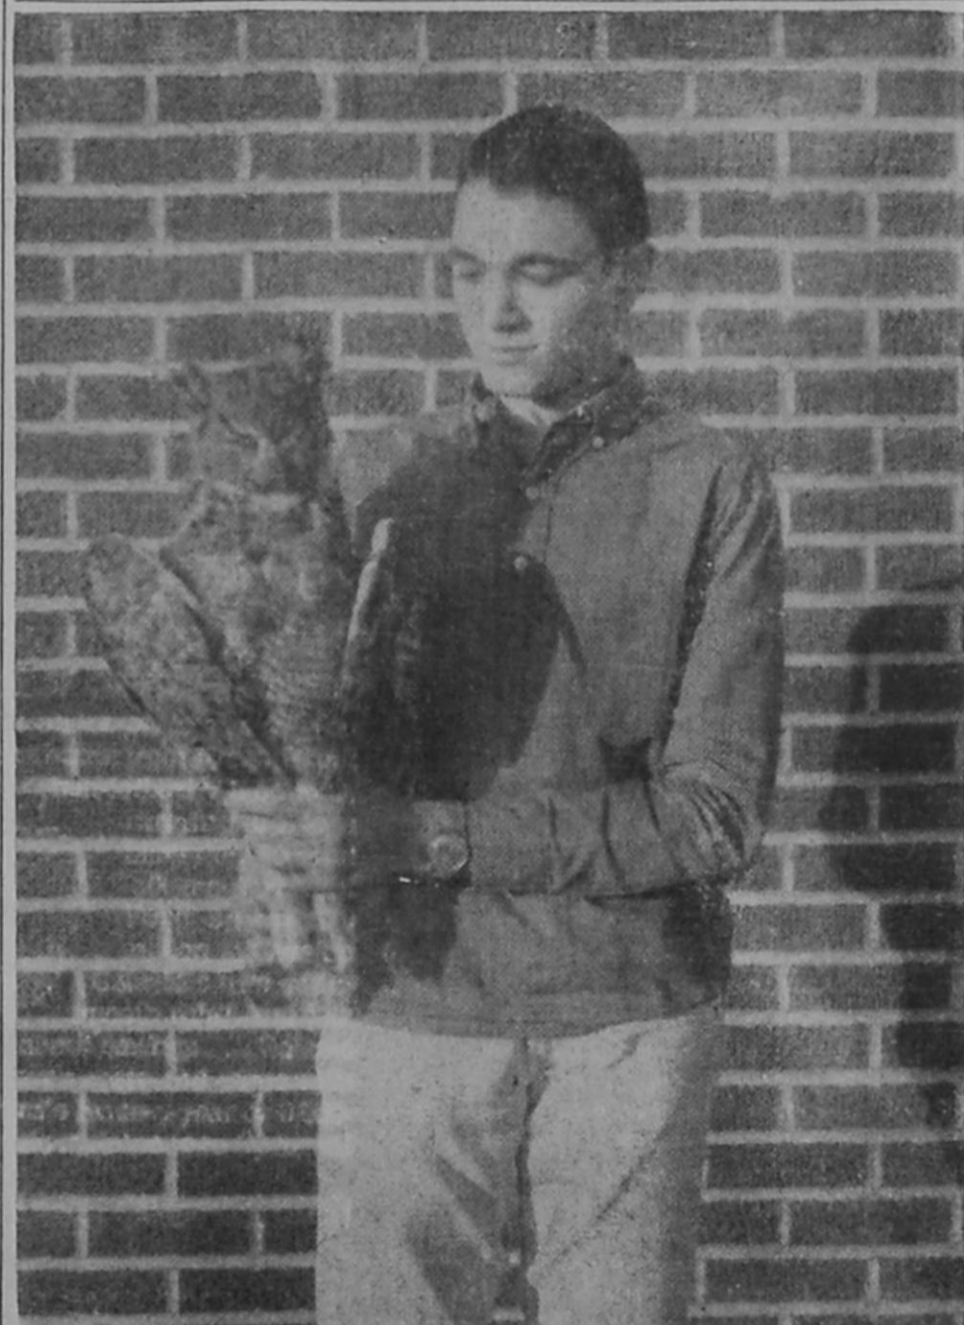

Then comes the pump and finally the semi-auto. They will shoot rapid fire.

Perhaps the best bet for a woman who shoots a pump shot gun is the pump Remington. It is a first class deer gun in any of the popular calibers.

If the little woman is a shotgunner and prefers hunting smaller game, then you have just as many selections to choose from.

For a woman shooter, the 20-gauge is without a doubt one of the best. Many women do use the 12 gauge successfully. But the 12 gauge will give a man a black shoulder if he doesn't hold the gun just right; and it punishes a woman entirely too much.

The 20 gauge comes in many

HORNED BARN OWL, was shot by Arnold Acker (pictured) of Dimmitt last Sunday. This bird which is unusual for the area was discovered by Arnold in a barn about 15 miles north of town when duck hunting with his father. Arnold, a sophomore in Dimmitt High, thought the bird was a cat at first glance in the dark barn. Arnold declared, "All I could see was two yellow staring eyes because of the darkness of the barn." It was a surprise when the cat turned into a horned barn owl upon a closer glimpse. —Staff Photo

Through a hard-hitting, Conscientious Advertising Program

Competition is a demanding taskmaster—but it can also be the greatest rewarding factor in merchandising or servicing. It is a taskmaster when competition defeats, when it sets the rut that engulfs the businessman. Competition is rewarding when the merchant forces it to become his tool, when he knows he has a thriving, growing business that will never want for customers. Business goes where it is invited—and competitive prices, outstanding courteous service with a good selection, and promotional advertising will do the most inviting.

Do yourself, your customer, and your community a favor by using the pages of the Castro County News to sell your goods and services. It is not only good business but it will help you gear your operation to today's quickly changing trends and increasing competition.

Success stories of large businesses almost always hinge around concentrated advertising and other sound business practices. Start a campaign now—you'll be amazed at how quickly you will feel the difference. Just telephone 647-3488 and a salesman will call on you at your convenience.

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

The highly controversial subject of Federal expenditures has received much attention this election year. It occurred to me that the people of our District might be interested in knowing the extent of Federal money flowing into the District, both as direct expenditures and under the Federal Loan and Insurance Programs. Our office made a complete breakdown of this subject matter as applied to the 18th Congressional District note that had all of the Congressional Districts received the same Federal money, loans and insurance, as our own 18th, the Federal Budget would have been some 40 billion dollars in arrears. In other words, the Federal deficit would have been some 40 billion dollars rather than 7 billion dollars.

Divide into departments, the 18th Congressional District received the following:

In view of recent developments with relation to proposed tax cuts and tax revision measures, I want to discuss herein several important aspects of tax reform which would have a most beneficial result in my opinion.

Many suggestions and recommendations have been made thru through the years as to methods and manners of reducing or abolishing the income tax. The present campaign is to try to obtain an increase in the deduction allowed for individuals and their dependents.

The present deduction for the average American citizen is $600 for the individual and $600 for each dependent. I am happy that this movement has begun. In 1951, I introduced legislation to increase the individual exemption to $1,000 and to increase the exemption for dependents to $750. A number of people asked me why I limited the dependent's increase to $750. My answer was that I had no objection to the bill being amended and the amount increased to $1,000 for dependents, but in view of the size of my family, I didn't want the bill to appear as a bill for personal relief simply because I had six children. In a subsequent Congress, I reintroduced the bill $1,000, at the request of a number of their Members of Congress.

I have continued to press for the passage of this legislation through the years because I have long felt that was the fairest way to give proper tax relief. Further, it would provide much needed assistance in trying to help to raise minor children. Anyone who thinks that you can raise a child for $600 a year has not had much experience doing it. In my opinion, the increase in the individual and dependents' exemptions would not only afford much needed tax relief to people throughout this country on a fair basis, but it could very well constitute the economic stimulant needed in many of our communities and areas and, in fact, would.

It is my hope that the people will keep this campaign going full steam. Certainly efforts should be made to continually evaluate the tax structure of this country relief needed in all areas of the economy, commensurate with the maintenance of the proper defense of this country and its economic structure. But, in my opinion, the increase in income tax exemptions for individuals and their dependents would do more to stabilize the general economy, stimulate the purchasing power, and improve the national product than any other one factor.

The present tax structure has not been subjected to a thorough revision for a long time. It has, in one sense of speaking, become a series of patch-words. The tax base has been looked upon as being too narrow, especially in the upper brackets. The lowering of those tax rates could stimulate additional investment, and it is the consensus of many that this base should be broadened, especially as it relates to the business rate. It is thought that this would generate significant new investment and aid measurably in reducing unemployment. I think this is certainly true and should be included in any new tax measure. The primary goal should be to weigh the matter out most carefully. Our national product could be endangered by the new economic blocks being formed in the world. Hence, we should try to work out our tax structure so that business activity would be invigorated rather than stifled.

Teacher of the Week

The hundredth anniversary of the founding of the public school system of Texas was observed in 1954, by resolution of the Fifty-third Legislature. The specific date was January 31, 1854. It was on this date that Governor Elisha M. Pease approved the bill enacted by the Fifth Legislature, setting up the public school system.
 Mirabeau B. Lamar is known as the Father of Education in Texas. To the Texas Congress in 1838, he said, "The cultivated mind is the guardian genius of democracy and, virtue, is the noblest attribute of man."
 In Texas there are 79,304 teachers. Sixty-eight of the teachers are teaching in the Dimmitt Public Schools. One of the fine teachers at Dimmitt is Mr. Kenneth Wayne Cleveland.
 Mr. Cleveland was born at Coleman, Texas. He attended elementary and high school in Coleman. He received the B. S. in Education at the University of Texas.
 He is now working on his Master's at Southwest Texas.
 Mr. Cleveland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Cleveland of Coleman. In 1955 he married Miss Libby Leigh at Coleman. They now have two children. Beth Ann is three and one half and Vicki Lynn is one year old. On vacations Mr. Cleveland goes to school. He enjoys all sports and playing golf. He teaches P. E. and Algebra II. He does not like people that will not put out 100 per cent in both athletics and lessons.
 "The true purpose of education is to cherish and unfold the seed of immortality already sown within us; to develop, to their fullest extent, the capacities of every kind which the God who made us has endowed us."

"Remember Pearl Harbor!"

December 7, 1941, was a nice day at Pearl Harbor for those who remember it. Not many do. Only a few clouds dared to appear on such a beautiful day. Many people sat talking about home, government, and the Christmas holidays.
 One sailor heard a quiet drone of engines in the distance and commented on it with, "Sounds like we are getting some more planes," not noticing that they were from the west instead of the east. The drone became much louder; some were curious and some just wanted to see what kind of planes we were getting. Some were not stirred at all, being quite used to airplanes coming in and out all the time. As they drew closer some realized that this squadron was much different from others, but could not decide just what was wrong until it was too late. One plane dived toward the harbor; an explosion was heard; bombs started falling and chaos broke loose. Panicked men were running aimlessly about the streets. Some tried to arm themselves, but to no avail. Pearl Harbor was not even ready to defend itself.
 Before order could be restored, the attack was over, the island wrecked, and the United States in World War II. All because of several who did not believe that it would ever happen to them, but it did, and revenge set in as "Remember Pearl Harbor!" echoed across Japan, Asia, and Europe.
 December 7, was set aside for two things. First as a memorial of course, but secondly, and becoming more important is the fact that too many people today being attacked, necessarily, but anything troubling the times such as Communism will ever get them. People do not think that already setting a stronghold in our nation whether we realize it or not, as a disastrous thing in the world and that is all; but maybe others remember it as the day that woke the world up.
 PERHAPS THE TIME HAS COME TO RING THE LIBERTY BELL AGAIN!

Ring The Liberty Bell Again!

"My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died! Land of the Pilgrim's pride! From every mountain side, LET FREEDOM RING!"
 Too often in this day of modernism and other "isms" we sing this great patriotic anthem halfheartedly, and we don't really let our Freedom ring out!
 The Liberty Bell is a treasured relic of the early days of American Independence. It was so named because it was rung July 8, 1776 to call citizens together to announce the Declaration of Independence which had been adopted. Its inscription, "Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof," is from the Bible (Leviticus 25:10).
 This quotation did not refer to the Declaration of Independence when the bell was inscribed, for the Liberty Bell was cast many years before sentiment for an independent America developed. The bell was first cast in England, and the province of Pennsylvania paid about $300 for it in 1752. It broke in ringing after its arrival and was recast in Philadelphia from the same metal, with the same inscription, in 1753. It was rung on each successive anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence until 1885. It broke July 8, that year, while tolling the funeral solemnities of John Marshall, Chief Justice of the United States, who died in Philadelphia. Now it is rung only on special occasions.
 PERHAPS THE TIME HAS COME TO RING THE LIBERTY BELL AGAIN!

Peace is not only a word, but a pertinent fact. It can't be won with wars, and congressional acts. It cannot be won with tyrants commanding; it can only be won with understanding. Be not to quick to laugh and scorn. For our country, too, has its thorn.

The Ways We Worship Him

"This is a book of rare beauty and finest appreciation, significant and enduring contribution."
 "In this edition the author was given us a scrupulously fair, accurate and honest account of the three major religions of our country. In addition to its correctness and truth, the section on the Catholic faith forms a story which is simple, reverent, and beautifully told for children of all ages. The pictures enhance a book that deserves both readers and praise."
 These are just two of the comments about the book One God. We Ways We Worship Him.
 This is the story of three great religions of America and the different ways we worship God in this country. It is divided into three sections. They are—The Jewish Way, The Catholic Way, and The Protestant Way, and each has been recommended by educators and organizations of these three religions.
 I think, that if you are interested in America's religions, you will find this book very interesting.

Along with the officers will be a panel from the faculty. Those faculty members elected by the club were: Mr. Fuquay, Mr. Newman, and Mrs. Delozier, the club sponsor.

Student Senate News

The Student Senate met December 5, with Mike Burkett presiding. Mike appointed an election committee consisting of Steve Hutton and Linda McColum for the purpose of being in charge of election of a sophomore representative to fill a vacancy in the Student Senate.
 There was a discussion about naming the bobcat mascot belonging to Suzie Davis. A motion was made and passed that the student body should be allowed to name it officially. Along with a suggestion for a name, a student must submit a reason for the suggestion. From these suggestions, the Student Senate will choose a number of the better ones which will be presented to the student body for a vote. Bob Bradford and Nancy Hays will be in charge of making the suggestion blanks.
 Michael Calvert gave a report on the Student Senate's having charge of the concession stand for a home game. "Smith" gave his permission to this.
 There was also a discussion on operating a hat and coat check stand at the basketball games for a money making project. A motion was made and passed that this be done. Larry Scoggin, Jim Axe, Jan Willis, Olvis Spenger, and Donna Summers will be in charge of working out the details of this project.
 A discussion of the campaign for parliamentarianism was begun. A suggestion that the Dimmitt Student Senate furnish music for the meal at Abilene, the location for the T. A. S. C. Convention, was presented. This would bring recognition that Dimmitt was running, and would be a gimmick for getting votes. A suggestion was made that the Dimmitt stage band go, but no decision was reached to that effect.
 Roy Battles was appointed to be in charge of the paper machines for this week.

Around The Campus

"What's that noise. It's driving me crazy." This is some of the discussion overheard in the science lab. What is the reason for this complaining? Well, it seems that the lab has taken on some new residents. Every year some students use animals for their science fair projects.
 For a week now eleven hamsters and six rats have made their homes in the lab. The animals were bought in Lubbock by George Wall and Gary Morrison. Many students will be using the animals for projects.
 Many people have a great fear of rats, but according to experts, lab rats are among the cleanest animals there are. Certainly nothing could keep one laughing like a hamster can, but they sometimes have bad dispositions.
 It looks as if the classes will have plenty to complain about besides lessons for the next several months. The hamsters will be kept until March. Good luck, science students.

ASC OFFICE NEWS

According to Manager Charley Hill, the ASCS office will begin accepting applications under the 1963 Agricultural Conservation Program on January 2, 1963 in Castro County. The farm limit for Castro County will be $500 per farm. The State A.C.P. Farm limit has been set at $1,000 producer limit for 1963.

A National Marketing Quota of 14,367,000 bales and a National Allotment of 16 million acres have been announced for the 1963 crop of upland cotton according to ASCS office.

The share of the National Allotment for Texas is 6,824,006 acres as compared to 7,698,169 acres for 1962, a reduction of approximately 12 per cent.

Individual cotton allotments will be mailed around the first week in December according to Manager Charley Hill.

Following are the National Average 1963 Crop Support Prices for Feed Grain (the total support prices for 1963 are the same as the 1962 levels except for Grain Sorghum which is down 2 cents per hundredweight):

Loan and purchase agreement average for support price in corn is $1.02 per bushel, for barley is $.79 per bushel, for grain sorghum is $1.62 per Cwt., for oats is $.62 per bushel, and rye is $1.02 per bushel.

Payments-in-kind rate for corn is 18 cents per bushel, for barley is 14 cents per bushel, and for grain sorghum is 29 cents per bushel. There is none for oats and rye.

Total support price for corn is $1.20 per bushel. Support price for barley is $.93 per bushel. The support price for grain sorghum is $1.91 per Cwt. Support price for oats is $.62 per bushel and for rye is $1.02 per bushel.

A feed grain program has not been announced for 1963 although a voluntary program is provided for in the farm bill passed in the last session of Congress. ASCS office will furnish information on the program as they receive it.

The Secretary of Agriculture has proclaimed Cotton Marketing Quotas for the 1963 cotton crop and has set Tuesday, December 11 as the date for the voting in the referendum. Both husband and wife will be eligible to vote at one of the following Polling Places from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. Polling places are Easter Gin Co., Easter; Flagg Gin, Flagg; Morrison Gin Co., Sunnyside; Farmers State Bank, Hart; Harman-Toles Elevator, Arney; Nazareth Gin Co., Nazareth; and ASCS Office, Dimmitt.

If Quotas are approved the marketing quotas and acreage allotments will be in effect. Also, a farmer who exceeds his farm allotment will be subject to a quota penalty on his "excess" cotton. Price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to growers who comply with their allotments.

If quotas are disapproved, no marketing quotas and no marketing quota penalties will apply to the 1963 upland cotton crop. Also, farm acreage allotments will continue in effect. Price support at 50 percent of parity will be available to growers who comply with their allotments.

The vote is not on allotments according to Charley Hill, ASCS manager. No matter how the vote turns out, cotton allotments will remain in effect, and price support will be available only to growers who comply with the allotments for their farms.

At least two thirds of the growers voting must approve the quotas if they are to continue in effect. According to Charley Hill, you are eligible to vote in the referendum if you engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1962.

Interested producers are again reminded that December 14, 1962 is the date to sign-up to participate in the 1963 Wheat Stabilization Program according to ASCS office. If you have any questions contact Castro County ASCS of-ice prior to the Deadline Date says Charley Hill, County Office Manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benton to Live Here After Wedding Performed In Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marion Benton (Martha Ann Adams), whose marriage was read at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, November 24, in Lovers Lane Methodist Church, will be at home on Rt. 4 Dimmitt, following a trip to Denver and other points in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. C. Adams of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Marion B. Benton, 3008 25th St., Lubbock, are parents of the couple.

The Rev. Thomas J. Shipp performed a double-ring service following selections by Bruce Wear, organist, and Malcolm Drummond, soloist.

The bride designed her wedding dress, which was made by her mother. It was fashioned of candle light silk taffeta. The bias band on the bodice, sleeves and train were accented by lace appliques, re-embroidered in crystals and seed pearls. The skirt back, which fell in deep pleats, was accented by three self-fabric cabbage roses. A crown of crystals and pearls held the bride's fingertip length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and English ivy. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Nancy Potts, Fort Worth, was maid of honor; Mrs. Bobby K. Lade, Houston, matron of honor; and Misses Sarah Adams, Dallas; Nancy Rowe, Dallas; and Sharon St. Lawrence, Austin were bridesmaids. They wore moss green velveteen dresses fashioned with empire waists and A-line skirts. Their headdresses were moss green satin and velveteen cabbage roses and they carried cascade bouquets of bronze mums and English ivy.

Jim Hayes, Lubbock, was best man. Jimmy Allison, Amarillo; Buck Campbell, Muleshoe; Gene Pinson, Lubbock; and David Webb, McComb, Miss., were groomsmen and guests were seated by Sam C. Arnett III, Lubbock and E. V. Holub and Don Adams, Dallas.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall. When the couple left on their trip, the bride wore a white wool suit with French hand-picked detailing. Her costume was completed by beige accessories and a champagne orchid corsage.

Mrs. Benton is a former student at Southwestern University where she was a member of Delta Zeta sorority. She is a 1962 graduate of Texas Tech with a Bachelor of Science in home economics. She was a member of Angel Flight and was one of the President's hostesses.

Her husband attended Tech where he majored in agricultural economics.

Lions Clothing Drive Successful

The Clothing Drive sponsored by the Dimmitt Lions' Club was successful according to reports from Judge Raymond Wilson. Due to the adverse weather conditions; however, several boxes were not left on the porch says Judge Wilson.

The Judge commented on two or three calls which reported boxes still available. He said, "If you have anything not picked up, contact the County Judge's office and we will be glad to pick up the clothing".

The Scouts collected about eight or ten boxes of clothing on the drive. Judge Wilson says, "We can still use more clothing".

American Heritage Teaching Materials Are Demonstrated

Plainview, Special—Teaching Materials available to public schools through the Plains American Heritage program were demonstrated at the recent December meeting of social science teachers from the 11 participating cities.

Among the 54 persons attending were seven from Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hilburn, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Newman, Miss Bernice Littlepage, Mrs. Avis Smith, and W. E. Reisdorph. Present from Hart were H. L. Cheatham and G. C. Graves.

Excerpts were played from two long playing recorded history lectures by Samuel Eliot Morison, noted historian, following the dinner session. Ten records by Morison are available on such subjects as the founding of America, causes of the Civil War and Allied strategy in World War II, according to Lyle Brown, program director who is assistant professor of history and political science at Wayland Baptist College. Brown also displayed the micrograph on "What Everyone Should Know About the U. S. Constitution". Those present were given booklets on the Constitution and Congress. They were also given lists of materials available through the program and of books in the Wayland library which are helpful in teaching American government ant history.

Also shown at the meeting was "Korematsu vs. the United States", one of five educational films for use of the schools. Brown and Dr. Eugene Jones, chairman of the Division of Social Sciences at Wayland, explained the background of the Supreme Court decision involved in the case of relocation of a Japanese American during World War II.

Other films are available on such subjects as the Constitution and its relationship to voting and employment standards and the story of the Jazz Age.

Thirty film strips entitled "Pageant of American Series" may also be borrowed. Wayland is the coordinating institution for the program in which other participating schools are Olton, Abertathy, Cotton Center, Hale Center, Kress, Lockney, Petersburg, Plainview, and Tulla.

Where Does This Area's Irrigation Water Originate?

Have you ever asked yourself, "where does all this water that we pump from the thousands of wells in this area come from?"

The High Plains Underground Water Conservation District suspects that many have had such a thought, but that most persons probably do not really concern themselves with actually discovering an answer to the question. According to officials of the conservation district, most people accept water in much the same manner as they accept warmth from the sun and life from the air they breathe.

Spokesman with the High Plains Water District are quick to point out that underground water beneath the Southern High Plains of Texas is quite different however, from air and the sun's rays. They say, underground water in this area is limited—it's depletable, and can be correctly compared to a deposit of oil, gas, coal or gold. There is only a given quantity of water in storage beneath the land surface. When we pump water from a well, we are literally mining our deposit of water that required centuries of time in which to accumulate.

Does this mean then, that we should abandon all of our wells and no longer irrigate our land?

No, not at all, say the High Plains Water District officials. They point out, that water can play a beneficial role in our lives only if we put it to use. However, it does mean that we should use the water that we pump from storage as wisely and as efficiently as we know how.

An analogy was used by the District people in which a man has a million dollars in the bank. If he is to realize any benefit from the money, he must check on his account and withdraw some of the money occasionally and put it to use buying the things that he needs. Spending a part of the money that is on deposit not only benefits the man with the million dollar bank account, but it also indirectly benefits his entire community.

The High Plains Water District takes this line of thinking and applies it to the underground water situation in this area.

They say, "The Good Lord deposited the underground water to our account. Only through use does the water have value and benefit to our society. Using water necessitates the purchase of many items. This brings indirect benefits to the entire area.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

HENRY A. WOLLE, D. O.
Consultant of Health

Healthful nutrition is a year-round job. But as cooler weather comes to Texas, it becomes increasingly important to guard against falling victim of "winter susceptibility."

There really isn't any such term, but the fact of the matter is that bodily resistance may be lessened during fall and winter.

For this reason it is smart to continue to observe the rules of good nutrition.

The well-fed family receives the basic foods in their daily diet. Food rich in protein should be served at every meal.

Meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese and milk are sources of high quality protein. Other sources are cereals, peas, beans, and nuts.

A green or yellow vegetable should be served at least once a day. These contain essential vitamins and minerals and are especially rich in vitamin A.

Because it cannot be stored in the body, vitamin C (from citrus fruits, tomatoes and certain other fresh or processed fruits and vegetables) is needed every day.

With the addition to these to round out meals according to taste and appetites, the well-fed family is provided with the nutrients needed for health and growth.

Breakfast is probably the most important meal of the day because you have gone without food for such a long period of time. One-third of our daily diet should be eaten at breakfast.

Breakfast is essential to children. Fruit, meat, eggs, or other protein rich food and cereal or bread and butter and milk make "The thing to keep in mind, however, is that no one derives any benefit from water used in wasteful practices."

The District officials conclude with a word to those who have been wasteful in their use of underground water in the past. They say, "remember, we're mining water, and unlike the air we breathe and the warmth of the sun's rays we enjoy, underground water is limited. We only have that which is in storage today to last for all time to come. We think that this is a pretty substantial reason for making the most with what water we have.

"Think about it, and we believe you will agree."

a good breakfast. Three good nutritious meals a day will go a long way toward keeping you fit through fall and winter and all year long.

It is ironic that the Christmas season, despite the festive atmosphere, is among the most potentially hazardous times of the year. Most often the agents of tragedy are the very things intended to bring pleasure—the gifts, the lights and the gaily decorated tree.

But State Health Department safety experts report most tragedy is avoidable when ordinary discretion is used in selecting presents and decorations.

Almost all young children tend to taste-test their toys. This is why the lead poisoning death rate among children of the United States is about 60 per year. Most manufacturers use safe paint on toys, but some still do not. Safely painted toys or children's furniture can be identified by the legend: "Conforms to American standard Z66.1—1955 for use on surfaces which might be chewed."

Some plastic toys are so flammable that the slightest contact with a lighted cigarette or match will set off a blaze. Certain types of plastic will burst into flame even at a distance from fire. Others may break with razor-sharp, jagged edges.

Most American toy manufacturers use unbreakable, nonflammable plastics, but low cost imports are not always so safe. It pays to be selective. Manufacturers have been asked to cease making dolls and stuffed animals with eyes a toddler can pull off and swallow or stuff in his nose or ear. Meanwhile, mothers should remove such eyes and embroider new ones in their place.

Projectile-type toys such as pellet guns, darts, etc., inevitably cause their share of serious injury and deaths. It is more common sense to accompany these gifts with strict enforcement of safety rules.

as for tree decorations, if the box doesn't say "flameproof," don't buy it. Use only decorative lighting carrying the Underwriters Laboratory tag of approval. And make it a habit to pull the power cord from the wall outlet when you leave home. This is important because insulation failures and overheated circuits could develop while you're away.

To keep the tree from drying out so quickly, try standing it in a pan of water throughout the holidays. Be sure to add water from time to time so the entire stem will be submerged. As an added precaution, take the tree down immediately after the holiday period.

Hart FHA Chapter To Sing Carols

At a meeting of the FHA Chapter of Hart, last Wednesday, it was decided to have a Christmas Caroling party, Wednesday night, December 19.

Boothes Entertain With Bridge Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Boothes entertained with a bridge dinner Friday evening. Seven couples attended.

There have been some changes made!

Veteran legislators sworn-in for a new term of office in a mass ceremony in the House of Representatives were pleasantly aware of a change of scenery since last January's special session.

The once-dark, dusky setting for the biennial battle of State lawmakers had been transformed in their absence. Every desk, chair and table had been refurnished to a glowing light oak shade. Shiny new seats replaced the drab, worn ones in the balcony. And the brass rails were gleaming.

Most noticeable was a new $20,000 gold wool carpet with a brown Seal of Texas woven into the section installed directly in front of the speaker's stand.

Senate Pay Problem—About one-third of the House now have qualified for the 58th Legislature and have been added to the payroll. But the 10 new senators-elect probably won't start drawing their $400 monthly pay until January 8, when the 1963 session begins.

A recent ruling by the attorney general that members of the Legislature now could qualify for the payroll brought inquiries from seven new senators as to whether they would be included. The term "Legislature" also applies to senate members.

But Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, acting lieutenant governor, and several other senior senators said the official opening date has been the customary time for senators to take office and they think the custom should stand.

Senate Sweepstakes—A small bowl and a handful of tiny capsules will decide the political destiny of Texas Senators, come January.

Once each 10 years, Texas' 31 senators must "draw straws" to determine who will serve a four year term, and who will serve for two years.

Drawing is required by the state constitution. Normally, half the state senate is elected for 4-year terms, overlapping with the other half which still has two years left to serve. However, after each 10-year census and redistricting of the Legislature, all the senators must run for office.

Last time such a drawing occurred was in 1953. Nine senators who will face the glass bowl in January were around that year, and five of them drew two-year terms then.

Ten senators will start serving their first term in January, and one other will be attending his first regular session in the upper chamber.

Bills-Drafting Underway—Business really has picked up in the Texas Legislative Council the past two weeks. House committees turned to the TLC many recommendations for the 58th Legislature to consider. They provided the state's research unit with grist for numerous bills to be presented in January.

House Committee on Saving Taxes, headed by Sen. George Parkhouse, received a lot of attention during its hearings. Subjects under discussion included:

A recommendation by the committee to end taxes on intangible property, such as mortgages on homes and stocks and bonds. Dallas tax collector Norman Register claimed this would cost his city $3,500,000 annually.

Revision of regulation of the railroad industry, which is governed by about 300 state statutes, some of them outmoded.

Adoption of a merit salary plan for public school teachers. The committee's education subcommittee suggested keeping the present minimum salary scale and basing future changes on a cost-of-living index.

A recommendation by the subcommittee on highways and roads to keep two license plates on vehicles. Although the state would save $200,000 annually by using only one plate per vehicle, police officials believe identification is easier with two.

The Distaff Side—Only one woman will be seated in the Senate and two in the House of Representatives come January.

They are: Sen. Nevelle H. Colson of Navasota, Rep. Myra D. Banfield of Rosenberg, and Rep. Maud Isaacs of El Paso.

The small percentage of women legislators (1-30 in the senate and 2-148 in the house; is par for the course in state government.

Although about 5,020,770 of Texas 9,960,000 citizens are women, only 50 women are among the 561 appointees on 8 state boards and commissions—less than 9 per cent—and there are no women on the 30 boards and authorities which govern the state's waterways.

Gov.-elect John B. Connally stated in his campaign platform that he advocated "the appointment and selection of women in those areas of government in which the moral tone of the community is directly affected."

Several state agencies guided by gubernatorial appointees are responsible for the "moral tone" of the community, including: The Texas Youth Council, Department of Public Safety, State Liquor Control Board, Board of Correctors and Department of Public Welfare.

If women in Texas ask to share this responsibility, 1963 may be a political leap year.

Oil Subgroups Named—a recently named advisory committee of the Texas Railroad Commission has set up three subcommittee subdivisions.

A liaison subdivision headed by J. E. Kendall of San Antonio included J. W. Collins, Amarillo; C. G. Condra, Ft. Worth; J. I. O'Neill, Midland; Fred W. Shield, San Antonio; and E. Bruce Street, Graham.

A legal and drafting subdivision is headed by Attorney J. K. Smith.

The third division, a technical of Ft. Worth. On the committee are A. R. Ballou, Dallas; F. H. Pannill, Midland; C. E. Thompson, McAllen; and H. R. Thompson, Houston.

Liaison subdivision, says Pres. James B. Russel of Abilene, will work closely with the Railroad Commission, the Texas Research League and other associations or bodies concerned with oil and gas regulations.

Ten Point Program—The governor's Committee on Children and Youth is prepared to make several recommendations to Gov. Price Daniel. They include:

Expansion of the state juvenile parole program of the Texas Youth Council.

Creation of a state home for dependent and neglected Negro children who cannot be placed in foster homes.

Raising from 14 to 16 the age limit for a child's inclusion in the aid-to-dependent children grant.

Expansion and improvement of child welfare services to deal with prevention of family breakdown.

Recommendations are based on members who also are representatives of state agencies.

Juvenile Jurisdiction—Juvenile courts lose jurisdiction over minor delinquents who come of age before the court can commit them to the Texas Youth Council.

That's the recommendation being considered by a special House interim Committee studying operations of the boards.

Now each board has its own administrative office.

The Texas House committee is studying states that reportedly save money by having a central office, thus pooling secretarial and clerical help.

Under the proposed plan, each board would continue to conduct its own examination of applicants.

Historical Medallions—The Texas Historical Survey Committee awarded historical building medallions to 17 buildings noted for their place in Texas history.

Included were the John Dewberry home near Bullard; Gary House near Starrville; Gingerbread House in Chireno; Leverett House in Overton; the county courthouse at Dickens; Halfway House near Chireno; the W. A. Brown home in Jacksonville, and Shelby County Courthouse in Center.

Also the Moores-Wats-Prior home in Texarkana; First United Presbyterian Church at Ballinger; Central Christian Church in Nocona; Fort McKavitt near Menard; Episcopal Church in Graham; Mission San Saba; First National Bank in Jacksboro, and Field Officers' Headquarters at Fort Richardson.

Texas Stands Seventh—Texas tied with Georgia, New Jersey and Tennessee for 7th place among the "Top Ten" States in industrial development for September.

Twenty-five new plants were opened in 21 towns, according to the Texas Industrial Commission. Small towns such as Center, Big Spring, Hallettsville, Knox City, Willis Point and Yantis, as well as big cities, were successful in attracting industry.

Campaign costs told—Democrat John Connally spent less to win the November general election than did his defeated opponent, Jack Cox.

Expense reports filed with the Secretary of State show Connally spent $193,740.

Cox reported spending a total of $261,072.

SCREWORMS WIDESPREAD: John L. Wilbur, Jr., of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture's Animal Disease Eradication Division reported that all but 13 counties were infested by screwworms in the period from September 23 to October 27.

Screwworm-free counties were Ector, Dallam, Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Camp, Cass, Marion, San Augustine, Sabine, Jasper, Newton and Orange.

Under the screwworm eradication program, 351, 551, 050 sterile flies were released in October in an area bordered by Terrell County on the west; Coleman, Brown and Comanche counties on the north, Calhoun County on the east and the Mexico border on the south.

LCRA Value Increased—The Lower Colorado River Authority increased its assets by $976,266 during the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1962. Assets now total $74,612, 618. The Authority's net worth increased from $3,500,000 to $26,048, 937.

Revenues from plants at Austin, Buchanan, Granite Shoals, Inks, Mansfield, Marble Falls, Comal, Kerrville and the new Gulf Coast Water division totaled $540,404, while expenses ran $418,103.

Texas 41st in Welfare—Texas ranks 41st in the nation in point of per capita expenditures for public welfare.

Department of Public Welfare says the state's per capita expenditure of state and local funds is $5.15. National average is $10.56.

In total spending for public assistance, Texas' average of $17.35 ranked the state 37th in the nation. National average is $22.53.

Total expenditure for Texas last year was $171,559,000. This included $49,498,000 state funds and $122, 071,000 federal.

January Draft—Quota Texas draft boards have a quota of 163 men for January.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service director, said the call represents a decrease from the 235 quota for December.

In November, 153 were called. Tax Take Falls—State Treasurer Jesse James reports a decrease of $69,798 in November from the sale of stamps on cigarettes, liquor and wine, compared to the same month in 1961.

Revenue from the same sources dropped $913,904 from October to November of this year, James said.

Wets Win—Wets have come out on top in local option elections this year, according to the Texas State Liquor Control Board.

Eleven elections were held to legalize the sale of liquor. Four met with voter approval.

Two elections were held to prohibit the sale of liquor. Both were unsuccessful.

Delta Xi Chapter Met In Regular Session Saturday

(Delayed from last week)
Delta Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in regular session Saturday, December 3 in the Home-making Cottage at Bovina.

After the business meeting which consisted of reports from the various committees, Leta Kaul, the program chairman introduced Mrs. Dyalitha Benson, Executive Secretary, Hereford of Federal Credit Union who gave a very interesting address on the origin of the Credit Union in Hereford. The title of her address was "A Dream Come True." The dream was her own. She told of the struggle they had during the days of the dusters and the depression to get people to invest their money in the union. During all this, her faith in the union never faltered and to-day she is rewarded for all her efforts by seeing her "dream come true" in a very successful credit union.

Other numbers on the program were the "Delta Kappa Gamma Song" and a piano duet by Faun Welker and Elizabeth Garner.

After the program the Bovina hostesses served coffee, sweet rolls and bacon from a beautifully decorated Christmas table.

Hart School Board Considers New Building

Hart School Board is studying the problem of housing for the school according to Paul Kennedy, superintendent.

Highest enrollment for the Hart Schools has been registered this year at 554 students. This growing student population has created the problem of overcrowded classrooms teaching purposes comments Kennedy. "At the present, six classes are being taught outside of school buildings in sub-standard facilities," declares Superintendent Kennedy. "Realizing this need," continued the superintendent, "the board has been planning for better school facilities."

The school board is in the process of selecting an architect on a contingent basis says Superintendent Kennedy. The board has visited schools in Lubbock, Dimmitt, Amherst, Post, Brownfield, Littlefield, and Levelland. They are checking on types of construction, types of material, economy of buildings, and adaptability of buildings to various conditions. Paul Kennedy says, "The board is studying the above possibilities, so they can more intelligently meet the overcrowded problem of the school."

A committee has been appointed which consists of one board member and six laymen. Their job is to contact the people of the community as groundwork and find the desire of the people as to the type of building program wanted and needed. Kennedy says the report will be given before the board and the ideas grouped for discussion. Committee members are Ed Harris, Ed Bennett, Eoots Rogers, Mrs. Joe B. Sanders, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Witten, and one board member, Milton Sharp. The board member is chairman of the committee.

P-TA SPOTLIGHT

By Jolene Shropshire
Last year the P.T.A. sponsored some eye tests of school children. This year we are going to run eye tests again. We will begin after the first of the year. The instrument we will use is a new one, never used before, Dr. J. E. Wohl-gemuth, local optometrist has secured this machine for us on a loan basis. However Dimmitt needs this machine. It can be purchased for $235.00 which we hope to raise this year for this purpose. Since we do not have a school nurse in Dimmitt Schools, this machine would be very valuable to us. At our December P.T.A. meeting we are going to ask for special contributions for this purpose. We have a money raising project planned for later in the year, but we need this money now, the company who has loaned this machine to us may not want to wait until we have our project, therefore we hope to raise enough money by special contribution to buy the machine now. Please be generous, this is a bad time of the year to ask for money, but it is for our children and isn't Christmas for children? We are all so excited about our special Christmas program planned for Thursday night, December 20th. There will be three different levels of children used in the program, the second grade will present a little operetta in costume, the sixth grade chorus will sing Christmas Carols and the high school chorus will sing Christmas Carols. We will not have baby sitters for this program, the seventh grade class will have their Christmas party in the old gym that night so please do not take your small children there, and anyway the little ones will enjoy this program, its going to be colorful, gay and inspiring. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowe have worked hard to give us something special. Now don't forget, December 20th, 7:30 p.m. at the South Grade Cafeteria. See you there?

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

The subject of expense accounts has been in the news in recent weeks due to a proposed ruling of the Internal Revenue Service. The ruling was intended to close some suspected loopholes in the manner of reporting deductions for business expenses under income tax law. It generated deserved condemnation by a cross section of the business community, as well as others. Certainly we would all agree that everyone should be covered by the same rules and regulations with regard to payment of Taxes. We would further agree that if persons were caught cheating they should be required to respond in appropriate damages and penalties. However Government Employees sometimes become so dedicated and enthused with relation to their duties that they overlook some of the basic issues involved. Too many times greater attention is paid to streamlining the methods of forcing compliance with Government rules and regulations than proper appreciation of the rights of the taxpayer. It is very well for Government employees to be efficient. Such efficiency should be rewarded in Government employment the same as in private employment. However, all Government employees should be constantly reminded of the fact that the business people and the individual taxpayers who are subjects of these rules and regulations are the same people who are paying the Government employees' salaries. It must be remembered that these people cannot spend all of their time keeping records and filling out forms for the Government if they are going to be able to produce the wealth from which the taxes are to be paid. It would seem to me that if more effort were devoted to methods of decreasing the book work and other burdens on the business community and the individual taxpayers, and less effort toward trying to make the taxpayer do all of the accounting for the Government, the better interests of this country would be served.

ITS RELIABILITY COMES FROM ITS QUALITY

A nutshell description of Chevrolet trucks could be "Trucks That Work". It's not exactly earthshaking but it says a mouthful. It's what Chevrolet trucks are best known for—their reliability. Ready to work, day after day, whenever you are. You can't build trucks that perform like this if you don't put quality into engine, chassis and body. Chevrolet does: double-wall construction, insulated cab, select-wood body floor, chain-supported tailgate, ladder-type frame, the careful attention to upholstery and finish. It's this kind of quality that makes any Chevrolet truck—from pickup to heavyweight tandem—worth more on the average at trade-in!

New High Torque 230-cu.-in. Six is more powerful than its predecessor. Standard in Series C10 through C50.
