EDITORIAL

By virtue of the 17th county in Texas with a population of as many as 3,000, 53, in favor of a hospital and Castro County is no exception. There is much said during the past few weeks concerning the a certain of the local hospital to a county owned institution, its cause, and con, but the fact remains that the main objective is to provide adequate medical and health facilities for the people of the county.

In order to establish a county hospital, and to clear the title of the property as well as to meet the moral obligations involved, it is necessary that funds be raised through a bond issue to pay off all outstanding indebtedness including some $40,000 in borrowed money, approximately $30,000 in membership stock and miscellaneous obligations.

Think it over. The doctors bring us the medical skill to care for our illnesses, it is up to us to provide the hospital facilities to make the health service complete.

WALTER ROGERS' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

TAX REDUCTION DEPENDS ON MARCH 15th TAX COLLECTIONS: Whether or not the American taxpayer receives any relief this year will depend to a large extent on the amount of money coming into the U. S. Treasury from March 15, 1953, tax collections. It is impossible to tell accurately in advance what each year's tax collections will bring in. This was definitely proven when the Ruml plan was originally adopted. The Ruml plan is the plan that requires the employer to make weekly or monthly income tax reductions from pay checks. When this plan was adopted, it was estimated by tax experts that it would increase tax collection approximately 6 billion dollars. It actually increased tax collections approximately 13 billion dollars. There are many factors that must be considered in making an estimate of tax collections. Many of these factors are so fluid that it is impossible for human beings to accurately estimate what effect each will finally have on the amount of money coming into the treasury. Congressman Reed, of New York, the author of H. R. 1, which would advance the expiration date of the 11 percent 1951 income tax increase from December 31, 1953, to June 30, 1953, recently told me that he felt tax collections would be greater than anticipated this year. He has given deep study to the tax structure for many years and the expertness of his tax knowledge is widely recognized. A small percentage increase in tax collection, coupled with reasonable cuts in government expenditures, the trimming of fat from the budget, and a sound reduction in federal employees, would not only balance the budget, but would make possible the tax cut proposed by Congressman Reed. This tax cut would not mean much to those in the low income brackets, but would be a step in the right direction for ultimate relief to all. I personally prefer legislation raising the individual and dependent exemptions in accordance with the bill that I have introduced for that purpose. Such legislation would bring immediate relief where it is most sorely needed and at the same time would not discriminate against those in the higher income bracket, simply because everyone would get the same treatment. This could be done by gradually raising the exemptions for the next four or five years. A present exemption raise of $100.00 would mean a tax reduction of approximately 2 billion dollars. If this was raised $100 each year for four years, the annual loss in tax revenue would be approximately 8.7 billion dollars. Under the Reed bill, the 1953 tax revenue loss would be approximately 1.5 billion dollars. The 1951 increase now yields about 3 billion dollars annually. I voted against this increase in 1951. The benefits of my present tax reduction proposal would go immediately to those in the lower income brackets and in many instances would actually mean more bread or new shoes for the kids. This is a problem that is considerably more serious than might be fully appreciated. The expiration of the 5 percent increase in the corporate normal tax, which expires April 1, 1954, means a reduction of 2 billion dollars annually in tax revenues. The expiration on April 1, 1954, of the increase in the excise tax would mean a loss of about 1 billion dollars annually. The expiration on July 1, 1953, of the increase in the excess profits tax would mean a tax revenue loss of about 2 billion dollars annually. I WOULD HATE TO BE AT WAR WITH THIS COUNTRY. I had a most moving experience recently. A number of congressmen were taken to the Aberdeen, Maryland, Proving Ground of the United States Army to be briefed on the progress that is being made by the Department of Defense in weapons, communications, transportation, and so forth. Of course, I can not divulge the information that was made available to me, but I can tell you that if any country thinks that the United States has been asleep in research and development, that country had better think several times before taking a swing at Uncle Sam. Some of the weapons and equipment have reached such a stage of development that the Army felt secure recently in divulging to the public the potentialities thereof. I witnessed these weapons and this equipment in actual operation, and can assure you that they appear to me to be much more effective than they might appear on a television screen, a movie reel, or being described over the radio. Actually, they are only the beginning. To say that a foreign country jumping on this country would land in a rest of wildcats would be a masterpiece of understatement. The "don't tread on me" warning is still very appropriate.

No other light trucks have all this

YOU don't expect polo-pony agility from a truck in traffic—but the new GMC's have it. You'd like to have passenger-car pace and economy on the highway—and you'll get it from the 1953 GMC's. For there are two great advances that step the new GMC's ahead of all previous truck performance: One: Dual-Range Hydra-Matic Drive*—the fully automatic shift with 3 speeds for traffic, 4 for the open road—available on 19 models through the ½-, ¾- and 1-ton capacity range. Two: a new line of engines of progressive design, with compression ratios of 7.5 to 1 and 8.0 to 1—the highest of any gasoline truck engine ever built. Here's pile-driver power behind every piston stroke—flashing response and better mileage are squeezed from regular fuel. Many chassis advances, too, add to the extra-value features that make GMC's, point for point, the biggest dollar's worth in the light-truck field as well as in the heavier lines. We confidently tell you—these great new GMC's will do your job better, easier, and at the lowest over-all cost. They have stamina beyond their size, because they're "built like the big ones"—the heavy-duty GMC's that lead the world in sales. That's saying a lot. But just come in—and we'll prove it. *Standard equipment on Package Delivery model; optional at moderate extra cost on the others.

The Dimmitt track team fresh from an impressive showing in their first meet of the season placed fourth in a track meet held at Tulia last week-end.

The Bobcats were topped by Floydada who placed first and Friona and Olton who ranked second and third respectively.

Billy Gregory was high point getter for the locals with a total of 10. He placed first in the shot put and discus competition. Jesse Burch was second with four points. He ranked second in the 440 yard dash and fourth in the discus. Gail Sadler was third with two points, placing third in the 220 yard dash. Fourth position went to Paul Stanford who ranked fourth in the 180 low hurdles.

The seven teams entered and the number of points each gathered follows: Floydada, 48½ points; Friona, 47; Olton, 22½; Dimmitt, 17; Tulia, 14; and Plainview, 4½. Happy failed to place.

Seventeen local high school track aspirants are currently practicing.

Dimmitt will be among some 30 track teams to compete in a track meet to be held at Panhandle, Saturday. Last week-end Friona took first place in the meet held at Farwell while the Bobcats grabbed second.

Olton is expected to be the big threat in District 5B this season. However, Dimmitt will be a contender for the district championship meet to be held April 11 at Olton.

36 to Turn Out for Football Practice

Some 36 candidates are expected to turn out for spring football practice which starts at the local high school Monday, April 13, according to coach Leo Fields. This group will be made up of freshmen, juniors and seniors.

Fields is somewhat optimistic about the outlook this fall. He said the team would have a pretty heavy line and that the light backfield would average about 150 pounds. All of the boys have shown good team spirit in past games and are hustlers, he added. A little more experience and they should pass the acid test, according to the coach.

COUNTY DAIRYMEN . . .

ready to be judged not later than 10 a. m. on Friday. The event will be open to all dairymen in the area who wish to enter.

Colored slides of various dairy farms in the county, illustrating dairy practices that have been put into use in the past few years, will be shown in the district court room of the court house Thursday night. A brief explanation of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association will also be given.

Four steps for lowering feed costs and providing feed insurance were brought out during Monday's meeting. They follow:

1. Put up six tons of silage per cow.
2. Store two tons of hay per cow during harvest season.
3. Plant one acre sudan-cowpea mixture per cow for summer grazing.
4. Plant one acre small grain-legume mixture per cow for winter grazing.

The show last year was a big success and area dairymen anticipate an even better event this year.

The purpose of the dairy show as explained by Edd McLeroy, county agent, is to create more interest in dairying and encourage more FFA and 4-H boys to carry dairy projects.

Water Well Tests Are Started on Lee Madden Farm

County farmers' attention will be focused on the Lee Madden farm, one mile south of Dimmitt on the Littlefield highway, during the next few months where an interesting project was started last Thursday by the county agent and two other state agricultural officials.

The project, according to County Agent Edd McLeroy, is being carried out to determine whether water well equipment in the county is faulty or if water bearing sands are being depleted.

Water well measurement tests are being made on a well on the Madden farm to check the static level and drawdown level of the well. McLeroy said that during a test last Thursday the 166 foot static level of the well increased to 226 feet in a period of five hours while the well was pumping.

The county agent indicated that this project would give farmers a better idea of how fast the county is depleting its source of underground water. He added that the county agent, farm bureau and other agencies are encouraging more farmers to check the water level of their wells periodically throughout the pumping season, just as this project is being carried out.

Assisting McLeroy in the tests are Bob Thurmond, extension service irrigation specialist for the High Plains area, and Ross Peterson, irrigation specialist from St. Paul, Minnesota.

Minimum Price Support Level On Upland Cotton Set at 30.80

The minimum level of price support for the 1953 crop of upland cotton, basis middling 7/8 will be 30.80 cents per pound, according to information received recently from the department of agriculture by Horace A. Blagg, county PMA administrative officer.

This is 90 per cent of the current parity and in the event 90 percent of parity is higher on August 1, 1953, than the present price, the support level will be increased accordingly, Blagg said.

The department of agriculture has again reminded farmers that they should guard against over production of cotton in 1953. Blagg pointed out. Production of 12 to 12.5 million bales now appears desirable, which would require a reduction of about 18 per cent nationally below the 1952 plantings, Blagg said.

All warehouse and farm stored wheat loans will mature on April 30, 1953. Any loans not redeemed by this date will be taken over by the Commodity Credit Corporation, according to the PMA administrator.

Producers in Castro County who wish to seed Castor beans for harvest in 1953 are requested to contact Mr. Upchurch at the Baker Castor Bean Company in Hereford.

A further report from the PMA office here reveals that prices received by farmers dropped another 1.5 per cent between Jan. 15 and February 15. Farm prices are now 16 per cent below those of February 1951. Prices paid by farmers dropped less than one per cent during the month. This decline was on food, feeder cattle and livestock feed, and commodities that one farmer buys from another. Prices received by farmers on February 15 equalled 94 per cent of parity.

Some 17,129 bales of cotton in Castro County are now in government loans, which total approximately $2,300,000.

Farmers who have not reported the acreage planted in cotton in 1952 and the production therefrom, are requested to do so at their earliest possible convenience.

With prices what they are, do you think you could run a six hundred million dollar enterprise both efficiently and economically if the largest per cent of your employees in any one wage bracket received not more than $139.02 a month before deductions?

The government of the state of Texas is over a six hundred million dollar business and yet an estimated 32 per cent of its full time employees earn not more than $139.02 a month before deductions, according to W. P. Watts, executive director of the Texas Public Employees Association.

The full impact of this fact is realized when the purchasing power of the dollar is considered. The Bureau of Labor estimates the purchasing power of the dollar to be only 53 cents!

Private industry does not operate under any such conditions. In fact, the wage index of all industry has risen to 277.0 since 1939, with 1939 as a base of 100. State employees' wages, on the other hand, have risen only to 151.9 with 1939 as a base of 100. The cost of living index rose to 192.3 on the same basis.

These state employees receiving such low salaries are the people you entrust with the care of your mentally ill, your blind, your tubercular patients, your prison inmates, etc.

As a Texas citizen you are assured that the water you drink is fit to drink by your Health Department; that you have safe roads due to the 24-hour service of the Highway Department; that you are protected by the Department of Public Safety most anywhere in the state you choose to travel.

Any citizen wants competent people guarding the health and life of his loved ones.

Yet, each citizen wants his tax money to be spent wisely and efficiently.

Private industry has long proven that to succeed it is necessary to pay a living wage to keep competent workers who are capable of producing more for less. Then why should the state government of Texas be run on an opposite basis?

The state itself is a large employer and faces the same kind of competitive labor market every other employer faces. In order to hold its own in the market of employees the state must do as well as that market, said Watts.

In December the average factory worker in Texas earned $70.25 per week, while 59.27% of Texas state employees earned not more than $52.53 per week—and the majority of this per cent earned less, Watts declared. In other words, the average state employee

Fertilize Lawns Now County Agent Says

Dimmitt residents planning to fertilize their lawns should do so immediately or before their lawn starts putting out too much foliage, County Agent Edd McLeroy advised today.

If fertilizer is applied now will stimulate growth and add a greener lawn, McLeroy added. If the lawn owner waits too late to fertilize his lawn, he stands a chance of burning back, the county agent pointed out.

McLeroy said that those desiring to fertilize should apply pounds of fertilizer to each square foot of lawn. Ammonium nitrate 14-14-0 or 16-20-0 are fertilizers that will be suitable for fertilizing lawns.

Useful data on lawn care was obtained at the county office free of cost.

Ban on Sale of Lewd Magazines Given Quick Approval by Senate

It took only five minutes last Monday for the Senate State Affairs Committee to report favorably on Senate Bill 105, which would ban the sale of "girlie" magazines on Texas newsstands.

The bill introduced earlier in the session by Senator Andy Rogers of Childress, also would ban newspapers, pamphlets, penny-arcade machines, postal cards, and motion pictures devoted mainly to publicizing scandals or other immoral conduct.

If the bill is passed in the Legislature and signed by Governor Shivers, anyone convicted of distributing such literature would face a six-month jail term or a $1,000.00 fine or both.

Two amendments to the bill, also proposed by Senator Rogers, would crack down on all agents, firms, or corporations which might force such literature upon newsstand operators in Texas.

Senate Bill 105 is the third such bill introduced into the State Legislature. The first was passed in 1897, but became insufficient for its purpose during the past decade.

In 1915 the law was slowing the unlawful traffic only slightly. The penalty imposed through the law was so severe (two to five years in the state penitentiary) that many juries refused to convict persons arrested on such an offense.

In 1943 an amendment was added to the original bill which reduced the violation to a misdemeanor and included immoral motion pictures and penny-arcade machines to list of "don'ts."

Senate Bill 105 maintains the misdemeanor charge and includes all the same categories of immoral literature traffic which were included in the original bill and amendment, but aims at the newest problems of the newsstands—indecent book covers, pressurized wholesale distribution, and obscenity in books.

By coincidence, the bill aims

Scandals and Cheating

A recent article in "This Week" magazine discussed the problems of cheating in college and in high school. This article said that on an average approximately 85 per cent of students engage in some form of cheating or cheating. It said that no convincing argument had been found against cheating other than it hurts a person later on.

The main cause of this lowering of standards in the schools might be the large number of scandals and cheating practiced by our parents and governing officials. Nowadays, someone boasts if they collect $100 for damages from an insurance company if the actual cost of the repairs was $25.

From the basis of the above information, only one good solution to the problem can be offered. The adults and the morally sound students of the country must set an example for the ones following in their footsteps. The integrity of Americans is being appealed to. The future of our country might depend on the outcome.

Frosh Picnic vs. Dust Storm

Members of the freshman class, their sponsors, and guests enjoyed a picnic Friday evening, March 20, with hot dogs, lemonade, and all the trimmings while a season's worst wind raged. Of course the picnic meal was prepared and served in the Home-making Department by the room mothers, Mesdames O. B. Trimble, C. L. Curry, C. C. Hoyle, Clyde Renfro, and R. E. Wilson. Van Conard and Don Johnston entertained with guitar selections during the meal. A committee consisting of Patricia Wilson, Alton Whitworth, Joe Ben Mitchell, Lannette Hoyle, Dolores Battles, and Jerry Brown planned and managed the picnic. Ronald Rickert, Alton Whitworth, Wayne Collins, and Carroll Herring, the four tallest boys present, were named to choose teams to play a volleyball tournament. Every student was chosen on some team. Alton's team was the winner.

Guests were Mrs. W. A. Morgan, Mrs. J. E. White, and Miss Charlene Potts.

Lovely Lady

Lovely Lady, you are like the silent breezes that blow;
 You come into a dreamer's loveliest dream
 And then you go.
 Your lovely face is a radiant light
 It shines like the stars
 Through the mysterious night.
 Lovely Lady, you are lovelier than words can tell,
 You are as rare as the most sacred flower.

And you flame a man's heart
 Like the fires of Hell!
 Lovely Lady, you have in your heart
 A secret forever to be untold.
 Oh Lovely Lady! If only your heart were not like ice,
 But a heart of purest gold.

Texas' State Youth Development Council has announced that an estimated 15,130 bad boys and girls were hauled before juvenile courts last year. The Council estimated that Texas has a delinquency rate of 15 per 1,000 children between the ages of 10 and 17, which is higher than the national rate of 12 per 1,000. Seventeen key Texas counties were used as the basis from which to project figures for the State average. West Texas counties used were Lubbock, Potter, Mitchell, Tom Green, and Hutchinson.

Everyone admits that the problems of the public schools are serious. Many suggestions have been offered. A strong drive is on here in Austin to effect a broad change in school financing. The main idea is to shift the burden back to local school districts—let them raise or lower taxes and salaries as they see fit. At present the state sets minimum salaries and provides a big end of the finances. Some legislators say this is "extremely socialistic". This group is still in the minority but is growing. They may well touch off the spark that would keep the Legislature in session well past its 120 day Constitutionally provided regular session.

Inflation has hit the livestock business—but not in higher prices for them. Rather, a new bill passed by the House of Representatives increases rates for keeping animals in local "pounds", while waiting for owners to claim them. Present charges were set up in 1899. The new bill would boost the daily fee to $1.00 for a horse, mule or cow (now 25c for horses and mules and 15c for cattle). The charge for impounding a jack or jennett would increase from 10c to 50c with a 25c daily rate for sheep, goats and hogs.

A nominating plan to keep "every crackpot that wants to" from running for public office has been introduced by a Ft. Worth legislator. His plan is to put primary election nominations in the hands of party conventions. The party could offer no more than two candidates for any job.

So whoever controlled the party machinery locally would decide for the public for whom it could vote for all offices.

One legislator said this plan sounded like it was "devised by the Russian Politburo". The author is one of the most influential "conservative" leaders in your Legislature.

New tax proposals would cover many things. To name a few—oysters, sand and gravel, oil, gasoline, natural gas, iron ore, sulphur, water, retail merchants, pipelines, small loan companies, autos, timber, aluminum and chemicals.

Recently a choral group visited the House of Representatives and sang our State song, "Texas, Our Texas." Many members were surprised to know that it was not the "Eyes of Texas."

At least 5 present State officeholders are preening themselves to win favor of the campaign-fund-supplying Conservatives for 1954's Governors race.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, often an early season favorite, is flexing his muscles again. He recently announced that it was "1954 or never" for him.

Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey made his first real move in his inaugural started some old conservative friends by urging better rural roads, higher school teachers pay and improvement of state hospitals.

Chairman of the State Highway Commission, Ely H. Thornton of Galveston, who has carried the ball in asking for a $100,000,000 per year increase in spending for the States highway system, is busy cultivating a deep, southern drawl. His intentions have not been specifically identified, but the broad tone of his speeches, and statements recently point in one direction.

Attorney General John Ben

Sheppard has many supporters beating the drum for him. Right now he is busy saving the tide-lands but he is known to be available. He is known to be cautious and likes to wait for a good opening. However, his strong political name and the way he scared off any serious opposition last year make him an ever present possibility.

Speaker of the House of Representatives, Rueben Senterfitt of San Saba, is the most recent prospect. He is usually quiet and reserved but recent broad statements of his on state policies marks him as another who has been bitten by the bug. He recently brought joy to the "third house" by drawing the line between himself and Lt. Gov. Ramsey in a speech which advised the House of Representatives to resist pressure groups which he seemed to think were mainly teachers, State employees, college professors and State eleemosynary institutions.

All these potential Governors will naturally wait to see what Governor Shivers does next year. Some think he might run for reelection. None of these men would be expected to oppose him.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Few people know that lawyers have a code of ethics more strict than the law itself. It is called the Canons of Professional Ethics and has been in effect in the United States since 1908.

"In America, where the stability of the courts, and all departments of government, rests upon the approval of the people, it is peculiarly essential that the system for establishing and dispensing justice be developed to a high point of efficiency and so maintained that the public shall have absolute confidence in the integrity and impartiality of its administration," reads the preamble of the Canons. Then follows a set of written rules for the conduct of lawyers who establish a high standard for their dealings with the people, the courts and with one another.

All members of the State Bar of Texas are required by Rules voluntarily adopted by them and ordered into effect by the state Supreme Court to observe 43 separate and distinct canons of professional ethics. In addition, there are Canons of Judicial Ethics governing the conduct of all our district and appellate judges.

It is rare that one finds a lawyer who willingly and knowingly departs from the ideals of the code. It is more strict than the law itself, and many acts which are lawful are frowned upon by the code as improper conduct for attorneys. A lawyer may find himself criticized severely by his fellow lawyers and the courts, or even called upon before one of the Texas Bar's 21 grievance committees, because he had done something which, though lawful, is contrary to the Canons.

Here are a few of the principles which lawyers have pledged themselves to follow: A lawyer may not represent clients with conflicting interests except with the client's consent after they have full knowledge of the situation. He is bound to give a frank opinion on the merits and likely results of a lawsuit, and should advise his clients to make a fair settlement if he can avoid or end a lawsuit.

He should not overvalue or undervalue his services. Ability to pay is no justification for an excessive lawyer's fee, although lack of finances on the part of the client may require a reduced fee or none at all. And he must never regard his profession as a money-getting trade but always remember that it is a branch of the administration of justice.

The same code requires that he be fair to other lawyers and that he be frank, cooperative and respectful to the courts. He is responsible for decisions regarding the best procedure to follow in a trial. He must do his best to prevent his client from acting improperly toward the court or jury, or in his duties as a citizen. These and many other restrictions are voluntarily accepted by the lawyer because the acts forbidden are felt to be unworthy of the high standards of the profession.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may charge the application of the law.)

Three Here Attend Law Conference

Three representatives from Castro County, Sheriff M. H. Fowlkes, county attorney Russel

Moran and county judge Bob Estes, were on hand for the state attorney general's Law Enforcement Conference, held in Austin Monday and Tuesday.

The purpose of the conference, according to Judge Estes, was to discuss proper ways of preventing crime in the state.

The conference, called by State Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, was high-lighted by addresses by three prominent officials, Col. Homer Garrison, director of the state department of public safety, Hon. Tom Gentry, Arkansas Attorney General, and Tex Foster, of Houston. The three aired issues pertaining to the narcotics problem in the state. Judge Estes said the speakers stressed the prevention of crime rather than punishment. Other highlights of the conference were addresses by Gov. Allan Shivers and George P. Blackburn, state criminal court of appeals judge. Judge Blackburn gave an account of court procedure on appeal cases.

Physician Warns Against Careless Use of Medicine

The careless or uninformed use of medicines cause much serious illness every year, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today in a statement urging the public to use caution in self-medication.

"It is never safe to take medicine in the dark," Dr. Cox warned. "Always read the label carefully to make sure the aspirin you expect to take is not a bichloride of mercury tablet or some other poison. As a matter of fact, poisons and medicines containing poisons should be kept together, well out of reach of children and marked in some distinctive manner. Another thing to remember is that medicines should always be taken exactly as directed by a doctor because many beneficial medicines can do untold harm if taken too frequently or in too large quantities. It is well to stop and think that you may be taking your own life in your hands when you take medicine casually."

The State Health Officer also warned of the danger in the inclination of many persons untrained to diagnose and treat their own ills. Such persons are apt to guess wrong he asserted, and while they may not take medicine that is actually harmful, they are nevertheless postponing an accurate diagnosis and the resulting proper treatment that could help their illness.

The safest rule is never to use medicine, internally or externally, that has not been prescribed by your doctor and for that particular illness with which you are suffering.

Health Talks

Hospitals have come a long way. In medieval times, and well into the eighteenth century, they were little more than workhouses or almshouses for the poverty stricken or dying. Today nearly everyone can share their benefits, and it has been estimated that at least one member of the average American family of five will spend four days in a hospital during the course of a year.

At first glance hospital costs may seem high. New drugs and more skilled medical and nursing care mean that patients pay more per hospital day than they did, say 65 years ago. However, they save in the long run by having to spend less time in the hospital and by losing less time from work. For instance, in 1888 the average of patient days spent in the hospital was 52 days; today it is less than 8 days.

The dollar the patient pays the hospital has to go a long way. From 58 to 75 per cent of it may go into salaries of hospital personnel. The rest has to stretch to cover other operating expenses such as food, public utilities, and laundry. For future construction and expansion, funds usually must come from other sources such as taxes or private philanthropy through endowments, community chests, special drives or campaigns.

With the higher cost per day of hospital care and shorter hospitalizations during which it may be paid, more and more people are finding it hard to pay their bills in a lump sum. A great many of them find it to their advantage to budget for hospital care in some way—through insurance premiums or arrangements with the hospital for installment payments, either before or after they leave the hospital.

Anyone who thinks he may have trouble meeting his hospital expenses would do well to talk at the earliest opportunity with hospital officials, who can advise him what to do. They can explain, for example, what part of his bill will be covered by insurance and what part he must bear personally. Even if he is unable to pay anything, federal, city, or county hospitals can provide needed care. Furthermore social service workers in these institutions, in cooperation with community welfare agencies, can help him get back on his feet, financially and medically speaking after his discharge.

The hospitals have several other jobs besides caring for the sick. They train future doctors and nurses, provide facilities for medical research, and provide facilities (outpatient clinics, for example) for the actual prevention of disease, thereby raising health standards of the community. Citizens play varied roles in relation to the hospital. First, they are patients. Next, they pay its expenses otherwise as insurance policyholders, taxpayers, or donors to hospital funds. Finally they may work in the hospital on a paid or volunteer basis, and through membership on the hospital's governing board even may help set the institution's policies.

Hospitals belong to the community's citizens, and that's as it should be. What they want from their hospitals they should be able to get by working through the proper channels. Public opinion alone can be a tremendous factor in determining hospital policies.

Fertilize Lawns Now County Agent Says

Dimmitt residents planning to fertilize their lawns should do so immediately or before their lawns start putting out too much foliage, County Agent Edd McLeroy advised today.

If fertilizer is applied now it will stimulate growth and produce a greener lawn, McLeroy added. If the lawn owner waits too late to fertilize his lawn he stands a chance of burning it back, the county agent pointed out.

McLeroy said that those planning to fertilize should apply ten pounds of fertilizer to each 1,000 square feet of lawn. Ammonium nitrate 14-14-0 or 16-20-0 are fertilizers that will be suitable in fertilizing lawns.

Useful data on lawn care may be obtained at the county agent's office free of cost.
