Did it ever occur to you why all good business men keep a checking account with a bank? We'll tell you. It enables them to keep their funds in a more secure place than the office safe. It gives them a better standing in the business world. It enables them to pay their bills by check, the returned check being an undisputed receipt.

Individuals find a checking account very convenient and a source of saving. Money in one's pocket is often spent on the spur of the moment, while one is disposed to think twice before drawing on his balance in the bank. "Get the Savings Habit." Lay up for a rainy day. Start a bank account with

Citation by Publication.

You are hereby commanded to summon J. E. Puryear by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 47th Judicial District: but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 47th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Randall county, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Canyon, on the first Monday in November, A. D. 1912, the same being the 4th day of November, A. D., 1912, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 5th day of October." A. D., 1912, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 682, wherein The First National Bank of Canyon, Texas, is Plaimtiff and J. E. Puryear, E. F. Brown, Mrs. M. J. Luna and her husband W. J. Luna, J. T. Bryant, P. F. Craver and W. R. Miller are defendants, and said petition alleging that on the 28th day of October, 1907, E. F. Brown conveyed and delivered to J. E. Puryear by his certain deed in writing, Section No. 547, Block D., Certificate No. 442, John H. Gibson land in Yoakum county, Texas, and that as part of the consideration for said land the said J. E. Puryear executed and delivered to the said E. F. Brown his certain three promissory Vendor's lien notes for $786.66 each, bearing date on the day and year last aforesaid with interest thereon at 8 per cent.per annum from date, interest payable annually and providing for ten per cent attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, and if suit brought thereon.

That on or about the day and date ast aforesaid the said E. F. Brown by his certain instrument of writing sold, transferred and delivered the said notes to the plaintiff herein for value, by his indorsement in blank. Said notes were executed in part payment for Section No. 547, Block D, Certificate No. 442, John H. Gibson land in Yoakum county, Texas, and a vendor's lien was retained to secure said notes. Said notes are due and unpaid and the plaintiff is the legal wner and holder of the same. That on the 7th day of September, 1909, J. T. Bryant and P. F. Craver by their certain instrument in writing, for and in consideration of the conveying to them of the West one half of said section, by the said Puryear, assumed the payment of these notes and agreed to pay the same, and that on the 7th day of November, 1910, W. R. Miller by his certain instrument in writing, for and in consideration of the conveying to him, by the said J. E. Puryear of the West 320 acres of Section No. 547, Block D, Certificate No. 442, John H. Gibson land in Yoakum county, Texas, assumed and agreed to pay said notes. That the said Mrs. M. J. Luna and her husband, W. J. Luna are claiming some interest in the said land and are asked to answer herein what interest they claim. That each of the defendants, herein though often requested, has failed and refused to pay said notes or any part of them, and that said notes have been placed in the hands of an attorney for suit and collection, and plaintiff has agreed to pay them the stipulated attorney fees herein. The plaintiff prays for judgment against each defendant in the capacity bound, and for foreclosure of the vendor's lien on the lands herein, etc., and for other relief prayed for in petition filed herein. Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. ## The Panhandle Is Ready For The Farmer

Here is a deep, rich soil, ready for the plow. An ample rainfall and a most healthful and splendid climate. Adequate railroad facilities by which to reach the markets of the world.

A return to normal climatic conditions, a greatly increased acreage of winter wheat, spring wheat, oats and barley, an unqualifiedly successful demonstration that Kaffir corn and Milo maize cannot be excelled as material for ensilage, the "better farming" spirit and the results of studying and developing this land assures a prosperous year.

For sale by all dealers (Advertisement) The successful outcome of flax culture, demonstrated last year under conditions much less favorable than can confidently be reckoned on in the future has added another to the list of our resources.

Farms can be bought here now cheaper than they can later on, at prices which are certain of a steady advance as the summer and fall emigration stimulates the demand.

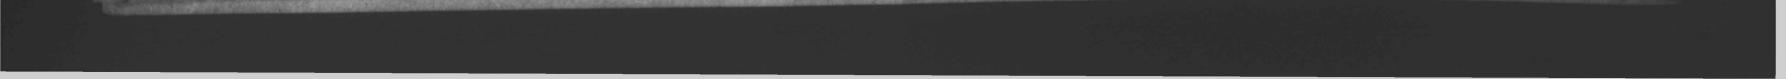

My farms are all favorably located, as regards towns and railroads and give the buyer a wide range in selection. All the improved farms are rented to good farmers and will produce a substantial revenue this year.

"Oh, Ira," she said, "I'm so ashamed to have you see me lke this-the first | the car to wait. morning."

"Well, you haven't got anything on me-I'm not shaved."

"You don't have to tell me that," she said, rubbing her smarting cheek. Then she bumped her head and gasped: "Oh-what you said."

This made them feel so much at home that she attained the heights of frankness and honesty by reaching in her handbag for a knob of supplementary hair, which she affixed dextrously to what was home-grown. Ira, instead of looking shocked, loved her for her honesty, and grinned:

"Now, that's where you have got something on me. Say, we're like a couple of sardines trying to make love in a tin can."

"It's cosy though," she said, and then vanished through the curtains and shyly ran the gauntlet of amused glances and over-cordial "Good mornings" till she hid her blushes behind the door of the women's room and turned the key. If she had thought of it she would have said, "God bless the man that invented doors-and the other angel that invented locks."

The passengers this morning were all'a little brisker than usual. It was the last day aboard for everybody and they showed a certain extra animation, like the inmates of an ocean liner when land has been sighted.

Ashton was shaving when Ira swaggered into the men's room. Without pausing to note whom he was addressing, Ashton sang out:

"Good morning. Did you rest well?" "What?" Ira roared.

"Oh, excuse me!" said Ashton, hastily, devoting himself to a gash his razor had made in his cheek-even in that cheek of his.

Ira scrubbed out the basin, filled it and tried to dive into it, slapping the ington saw, for he went on talking cold water in double handfuls over from behind a towel: his glowing face and putting through "Well, if I were a bridegroom and

About the same time, the man who was still her husband according to the law, rolled out of berth number two. There was an amazing clarity to his vision. He lurched as he made his way to the men's room, but it was plainly the train's swerve and not an inner lurch that twisted the forthright of his progress.

He squeezed into the men's room like a whole crowd at once, and sang out, "Good morning, all!" with a wonderful heartiness. Then he paused over a wash basin, rubbed his hands gleefully and proclaimed, like another Chantecler advertising a new day:

"Well-I'm sober again!" "Three cheers for you," said his rival in radiance, bridegroom Lathrop. "How does it feel?" demanded Ashton, smiling so breadly that he encountered the lather on his brush. While he sputtered Wellington was flipping water over his hot head and incidentally over Ashton. "I feel," he chortled, "I feel like the first little robin redbreast of the merry springtime. Tweet! Tweet!"

When the excitement over his redemption had somewhat calmed, Ashton reopened the old topic of conversation:

"Well, I see they had another scrap last night."

"They-who?" said Ira, through his flying toothbrush. "The Mallorys. Once more he occupled number three and she number seven."

"Well, well, I can't understand these modern marriages," said Little Jimmie, with a side glance at Ira. Ira suddenly remembered the plight of the Mallorys and was tempted to defend them, but he saw the young lieutenant himself just entering the washroom. This was more than Well-
