FRED W. HELLER WRITES ARTICLE

SAYS SWEET CLOVER IS A PAYING PROPOSITION

Illinois Dairyman Reinforces Statements made in the News few Weeks ago.

The following article is a letter from Fred W. Keller, of Kane, Ill., to Dr. S. L. Ingham, of this city. Recently the News published a statement made by Mr. Heller regarding sweet clover:

"I have been watching with interest the discussion of the noxious weed as some of the Texas farmers call sweet clover, but I only wish that I could grow more of it. For then I am sure that I would not have to be worrying about the land running out. It seems to me that if it were only used to enoculate the soil so that you could get a stand of alfalfa that it would more than pay for the trouble. I am glad to see that we have such men as Minter and Coburn on our side for I know that we are in the right. If some of you who are subscribers to the Breeders Gazette would write to Joe Wing and ask him his opinion of sweet clover you would get an article that would be worth keeping. He is an authority on sweet clover, and is considered as such the world over. I have 23 acres of worn out land that I am going to sow to sweet clover to use as pasture, and I expect to have a good pasture as well as build up the land and my cattle wont be starved either.

"When at Jerseyville I had 10 acres of alfalfa that I cut from 3 to 5 tons to the acre and I had 7 cows on a 7 day official test one summer and as grass was short I thought I would turn them on the alfalfa for two or three hours a day thinking that each would give a tub of milk, but to my surprise I found that they would not eat it, but left going around the field eating dry grass. I do not mean by that that cattle will not eat green alfalfa, but that they have to be educated to it.

"I think you stirred up quite a mess when you put that article in the paper, but good for you. They will all come your way when they see the effects of sweet clover. You know some of us are slow in taking hold of new things and can't get out of the old rut until someone comes along and drags us out and then we come to and see that we are 'old fogies.'

"I am sending you a sample that I got of Wing and you can get seed from them. It will cost from $6.50 to $8 a bushel and prices are subject to change.

"I also got the Hereford Brand and notice that the editor said he was from Missouri. Tell him to get into the band wagon and boost, not knock, for he will have to come across some day, and it may embarrass him when he comes."

Finger Badly Mashed.

J. L. McReynolds was down on his ranch Saturday and found a steer that was seemingly choked. Mr. McReynolds roped him and started to pick up a rock to put in his mouth so that the steer could not bite but decided he could easily run his hand into the steer's throat without any danger. The operation was going nicely until Mr. McReynolds had his hand deep into the steer's throat when the animal threw his head and caught Mr. McReynolds's middle finger on his left hand before he could get it out of the steer's mouth. The flesh was mangled very badly and the bone fractured. Mr. McReynolds reports that he suffered very greatly until Wednesday morning when the pain was almost gone. He says he warns his friends never to put their hands in a steer's mouth because they bite mighty hard.

New Church for Umberger.

The people around Umberger are discussing plans for the erection of a new Methodist church in their little city. R. E. Pickens was in the News office Saturday and stated that he and a number of members of this denomination had been considering the plans for some time and were now seeking to find those who would be interested financially in the proposition. The Methodist people have quite a number of members at Umberger and believe that they are in position to erect a good building. Mr. Pickens says that he will let us know how the proposition is progressing from time to time.

Silo Proving Valuable.

The silo is making friends for itself over Hale County after actual trial. The most encouraging feature is that most new silos are being built where the first ones were put up.

"The silo is a fixture with us," said Geo. M. James, from the southwest part of the county, yesterday. It enables the feeder to save more of his feed, and puts the feed in such shape that stock eating it gets far more food value than from other forms of feed." The silo is a sort of insurance policy for profitable crop yields.—Hale County Herald.

Training School Girls Win

A basketball game was played Saturday between the girls of the public school and the girls of the Normal training school. The training school girls won by a score of 14 to 4.

Mrs. J. W. Stoddard left Sunday for home at Meadville, Mo., after spending a week here on business. Mrs. Stoddard says that Randall County looks mighty good to her this trip. She thinks her son will move down next year and would not be much surprised if she didn't move within a short time.

The case of the Southern Kansas Ry. Co. vs J. C. Vance which was tried in Randall county last year was reversed and remanded in the court of Civic Appeals at Amarillo last week.

Wm. Willard has returned from a business trip to Kansas.

When Will It Be?

Will a merchant who is wise Ever cease to advertise? Yes—when the trees grow upside down;

When the beggar wears a crown; When ice forms on the sun; When the sparrow weighs a ton; When gold dollars get too cheap; When women secrets keep; When girls go back on gum; When the small boys hate a drum; When no politician schemes. When mince pie makes pleasant dreams;

When its fun to break a tooth; When all lawyers tell the truth; When the drummer has no brass; When these all come to pass, Then the man that's wise Will neglect to advertise.

IMPROVEMENT OF ROADS NEAR CITY

THREE BRIDGES HAVE BEEN REPAIRED DURING PAST WEEK.

Several Bad Places in County Roads Repaired Under Direction of Commissioner Shelnett

Commissioner H. T. Shelnett, of precinct one, has just completed some very much needed improvements in roads leading to Canyon.

The road leading southwest to the cemetery has been graded up along the creek and the bridge remodeled. This road has been bothering for sometime but Mr. Shelnett says that it is now in excellent condition and that the bridge has been made thoroughly safe. A new floor was laid over practically all the bridge and fills made at the end which had washed out.

The bridge to the southwest of town has been put in good repair and is now in excellent condition. The crossing on the creek northwest of town has been filled with rock and gravel until it is in splendid condition.

The second bridge on the west Amarillo road has been repaired. This road was recently shown to be to far east by a re-survey of this block of land and if the road remains where it now is, it is proposed to take the bridge out, put in a culvert and fill in the hollow. The bridge is in very bad condition and has been pronounced to be unsafe for heavy loads. It is to be hoped that the culvert will soon be put in to take the place of the bridge.

EIGHTY-ONE JOIN THE KAFFIR CLUB

TWO-THIRDS OF THE MEMBERS ARE FROM RANDALL COUNTY.

Randall and Potter County Maize and Kaffir Club Will be Successful This year.

Eighty-one boys and girls of Randall and Potter counties will contest this year for the $675 offered in prizes by the business men of Canyon and Amarillo. Nearly two-thirds of this number is from Randall county. The final date for entrance was March 1st and the members of the club will soon begin to receive special instructions from H. M. Bainer, agricultural demonstrator for the Santa Fe.

The News asked Mr. Bainer for a list of the names of boys and girls from Randall county who had entered the club and received the following letter in reply:

"I have your letter of the 3rd instant, in regard to the Boys and Girls Kaffir and Milo Maize club. In getting out the application blank we failed to have in connection with it the name of the country in which the boy or girl resided. On account of this we are unable to tell you the exact number coming from either county. As you know several of the boys and girls in the north end of Randall county get their mail at Amarillo.

"We have to the present time 81 applicants from the two counties. I should judge there were more than two-thirds of this number in Randall county. A little later when we have had an opportunity to get the names of county from each of these members, we can give you the exact number from your county. Also give you the names of those in the club if you so desire."

He will have exclusive charge of two large departments and will buy for the Artisia store and the one the company has at Hope.

Hunt Slowly Improving.

A letter was received yesterday from Mrs. J. C. Hunt stating that Judge Hunt is slowly improving. He has recovered from the meningitis but still has fever which greatly puzzles the doctors. He is still in very bad condition but it looks favorable for his recovery. His hearing is still affected, not being able to hear at all in the right ear. His sight will not be affected. He is still unconscious for a greater part of the time and the doctors say that he may continue this way for several weeks but they believe his mind will gradually clear up. The trial has been very great for Mrs. Hunt and the Judge's friends all over the Plains hope for a most speedy recovery.

Former Resident Suicides.

John Brown, a resident of this city several years ago, committed suicide by drowning in the Ohio river at Cairo, Ill., Feb. 25. He is well known among the old timers of Randall county, having worked for L. G. Conner for some time. EXHIBIT FOR THE TEXAS STATE FAIR

PROF. J. G. MILLER GETTING FINE EXHIBIT READY.

Different Pieces of Work Will Be Sent To The Fair Next Fall—Other Normal News.

Prof. J. G. Miller is getting ready a very fine exhibit to send to the state fair at Dallas next fall. With the fine work he has now prepared and with that which he is planning to make before fair time, there is little doubt of the Normal winning its share of blue ribbons. The manual training department of the Normal is superior to any in the state and the work being done has attracted the attention of all visitors.

The present work of the department is largely devoted to turning out cups, goblets, mugs, step pulleys, inlaid plates, balls, chucks and balls, napkin rings and many other very fine articles.

ATTENDANCE IS 424.

The attendance has reached 424, or just 33 1-3 more than the total attendance of last year.

The request of literature concerning the summer session is still very great.

Miss Lamb reports that she finds a wealth of teaching material among the members of the senior class. She has many whom she would readily recommend to any school as a teacher. There are about 90 in her practice teaching classes and most of them are doing splendid work.

Ask For $100.

At the meeting of the Civic Improvement League Friday afternoon at the court house it was estimated that the League lacked about $100 having enough money to complete the improvements they started at the cemetery and to put a fence around the grounds. It was decided to ask 100 ladies in Canyon and those who formerly lived here to give $1 each in order to make up this fund. Several ladies have the matter in charge and they hope to have all the funds raised and start on the work by April 1st.

Claarendon Beats Normal.

A RECIPE FOR A DAY

"Take a little dash of water cold
And a little leaven of prayer,
And a little bit of sunshine gold
Dissolved in the morning air.

And then as you prime ingredient
A plenty of work thrown in.

But spice it all with the essence

Offer Prizes in German.

The Order of Sons of Hermann have again offered $150 in cash prizes to the students of the Normal and the examiner for the order will be in the city in May to give the examinations to those competing. Prof. F. P. Guenther reports that the students are taking a great interest in German this year and are looking forward to the series of examinations with a great deal of pleasure. Six prizes in all are offered. $35 each is given to first and second, $25 each to third and fourth and $15 each to fifth and sixth.

This order is giving $1500 a year in prizes to students of the various Texas institutions. The results so far obtained are very satisfactory to the members of the Order and they intend to continue giving these prizes for a number of years.

Weeds and Sweet Clover.

Breeder's Gazette: A weed is a plant for which a use has not yet been found. At least one weed has been taken out of that category and placed among our useful plants. It is sweet clover or mellilotus.

Long dreaded, despised and fought along our roadsides and in waste places, this plant has proved, according to "Joe" Wing, that it has in it as much protein as alfalfa and, cut early it is a good feed. Talk of bacteriological laboratories, the sweet clover plant has all the other clovers beaten a mile; its roots are fairly beaded with nodules and teem with nitrifying bacteria.

Sweet clover revels in poor soil; if it has lime enough it fills the soil with nitrogen and makes it rich. This legume may yet be the poor man's alfalfa, for it waits not for perfect drainage or perfect cultural methods. Give it lime and inoculation and it thrives amazingly. "But," some one argues, "animals will not eat it." Do not be deceived. Cut and made into hay, all class of stock eat it greedily in winter.

Calomel! Dangerous!

Is a warning that should be placed on every package of that drug. Any reputable physician will tell you that mercury should not be taken into the system and that it is only used by Doctors in extreme cases and then great care is used to eliminate it as soon as possible on account of the danger, both of salivation and the bad after effects of the drug. The frequent use of calomel, or mercury in any form, generally causes Rheumatism and other ills as an old age heritage.

Don't take Calomel, Salts, Castor Oil or nasty tasting Mineral Waters. When you are sick tongue coated, your head aches, and you feel bad generally, your Liver is out of order. You need PODOLAX. PODOLAX does not gripe nor sicken, tastes good and every bottle guaranteed to give entire satisfaction or you get your money back. 38m6.

time. Why not make a test of this by making into hay next summer that sweet clover patch along the roadside? Do not let it get to rank and woody before cutting it.

Farm Life Facts

(By S. A. Lindsey.)

The plow is mightier than the sword.

Those who till the soil are the chosen people of God.

Farming is as old as the human race and is yet in its infancy.

Success is bound to come to the farmer who plans while he plows.

The tenant farmer beats the bush while the landlord holds the bag.

No civilization has ever advanced beyond its agricultural development.

Upon a proper tilling of the soil rests every institution of civilization.

Co-operative thinking is the biggest problem that confronts the Texas farmer today.

We may do away with any class of labor, but we cannot do away with the farmer.

Farming is a business proposition and the farmer is the biggest business man in business.

The development of the farmer himself must precede the full development of the ground he tills.

The future of the nation is dependent upon the farmer, the farmer dependent upon his methods of culture.

No true gentleman ever ridiculed the farmer or his work. Farming is the most honorable and noble of vocations.

If he should stop his plow and his hoe for one year, the larger part of the human race would starve to death in that time.

In order to make farming profitable two things are essential. First intelligent and diversified production; second, successful marketing.

Some of the world's first gentlemen and scholars and patriots were farmers and today some of the world's best thought is given to farming.

New Tanning Process.

Geo. H. Pendleton, of Kansas City, has been in the city this week demonstrating a new process of tanning hides which he has discovered. He has the process patented and has been selling county rights. W. E. Bates has bought 200 counties of state including Randall. The new process allows hides to be tanned with or without the hair and in a very short time compared with the old method. The leather resulting from this method of tanning is said to be superior to that tanned under the old method. Mr. Bates intends to do an extensive business here.

Oil Charter Received.

W. E. Bates has received the charter for the Victory Oil, Gas and Development Company from Phoenix, Arizona. The articles of incorporation have been forwarded to Austin to be approved and Mr. Bates received word this week from the comptroller that this matter will be looked after at once.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. TO THE NEWSPAPER FRATERNITY

The citizens of Canyon will entertain the Panhandle Press association on Saturday, April 12. Each newspaper man and woman in the entire Plains country is expected to be in Canyon on that day to assist in making the program the most interesting of any ever given in Texas.

If the success of President Wilson's administration is to be determined by the selection of an able cabinet, there is no doubt of his administration going down in history as the most successful for many years. Mr. Wilson has chosen men with no idea of political preferment and all are well fitted to fill their respective places.

A large number of republican newspapers have extended hearty and whole-souled congratulations to President Wilson during the past week. Practically all the republican exchanges that come to this desk prophecy for him a very bright and successful administration.

We certainly feel sorry for those office seekers who went to Washington to see the new president. They've had no chance to tell Mr. Wilson how hard they worked for him.

Senator W. A. Johnson, of this district, and editor of the Hall County Herald, wants the job of minister to Chili.

Speakea Clark has come out in favor of having the states pass laws allowing citizens who are not at home on election day to cast their vote by mail on a sworn blank. Thousands of voters would thus be allowed to in the government where now they are barred. Kansas already has such a law.

Newspaper folks should not forget that the Panhandle Press Association meets in Canyon on Saturday, April 12th. Be on hand if it is at all possible to get there.—Clarendon News.

Easter.

The Easter day so bright and fair Has come again with perfumed air. Today we sing with heart and voice, The life immortal for which all rejoice. Farewell to thoughts of death and gloom—

A last long look at darkened tomb. Today with joy our faces shine With gleams of brightness, all Divine.

Our every heart is filled with love Like unto that which is from above. Glorious anthems we shall sing Of Christ the Lord our risen King.

We, from darkness into light, Shall arise—oh all receive our sight. The life Eternal surely does await, All the redeemed who pass death's gate.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated.

Testimony of Canyon Citizens.

When a Canyon citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Liver pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Canyon resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

George Reynolds, grocer, Canyon, Texas, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney complaint. For a long time I had pains in my back and sides and my kidneys became weak. I got Doan's Kidney Pills and was soon cured. Another of my family had still worse trouble and Doan's Kidney Pills quickly cured that case. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills the best remedy for kidney complaint on the market."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mayor Gamble Writes Again.

Mr. Editor:— I beg pardon far further annoying you and your readers and will promise in the outset not to take two and one-half columns of your paper to write a ten line article.

I wish this to reply to Mr. Henson's letter printed in your paper last week.

If I may use enough space to utterly disprove one of his strongest statements then I will be content to let the public draw their own conclusions regarding the balance of them.

I said in my previous article: "for so far as I am able to ascertain the mayor got more money out of the said sale in 1911 than did in the city." (Referring to the delinquent sale of 1911.)

In 1911, according to all the records in the hands of the city clerk, the city after paying all expenses of the delinquent sale had left a balance of $13 and some few cents. In this investigation it has also developed that Mr. J. H. Jowel, collector, paid Mr. Henson at that time $15 for writing the deeds of sale and some other moneys (approximately ten dollars) for getting up notices of sale; all these moneys coming out of the proceeds of said sale.

Now if Mr. Jowel is mistaken and 13 is more than 25, then all of my previous statements are "inconsistent, irrelevant and illogical and non-computible", but if Mr. Jowel's statement is a fact and 13 is less than 25 then I leave this as an impeachment of the aforesaid writer's genial denial.

It would hardly be fair and I will refrain from asking at what times and on what pages of the county commissioners court records the three orders for delinquent sales were spread, prior to two years ago, but will be content to hurl the "false and libelous" epithet back into the teeth of the sender.

J. D. Gamble.

START YOUR LIVER, DON'T STOP WORK

Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Mildly, but Surely. Livers Up the Liver and You Stay On Your Feet.

It is the experience of calomel users that if they take enough of the drug to have the desired effect, it seriously interferes with their work the day after. But this is the least important item, for calomel is often a dangerous drug and acts on the system violently.

Don't take chances with calomel. Get a bottle of the pleasant, safe and perfectly harmless Dodson's Liver Tone, guaranteed to take the place of calomel. Instead of making you feel worse the next day it makes you feel better—and you actually are better, for no remedy in the whole world lives up the liver, regulates the bowels and really rejuvenates the system any better than this dose.

You are the sole judge of its merits. City Pharmacy is fully authorized to hand you back your money with out question if it fails to please you—and relieve you.

Remember if you feel constipated and bilious, what you need is Dodson's Liver Tone. A large bottle and a good guarantee for 50c from the City Pharmacy.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago, says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all Dealers.

even then to act in your defense. I heard all that was said, saw all that was done.

"You—were there?" sobbing out the words. "You saw me kill him?"

"Yes, and had you delayed another instant I should have done it."

"Then—then," she glanced up, tears dimming her eyes, "you do not blame me? You do not think me a wicked wretch?"

"I think you a brave, noble woman," I burst forth. "How could I feel otherwise? Look up, little girl; I want to see your face. No, don't shrink back from me. There is no cause. I know the whole story without your speaking a word. You asked me to come back to help you, and I came."

"Yes," she whispered, "I know. You have been so good."

"Good! I loved you, dear. From the moment I lifted you out of the way of that mob in Philadelphia, I have loved you. I did not understand much that occurred, but I have never doubted you. Now I realize the cause of your masquerade and know you were justified. I can bring you good news—Eric is not a traitor, but was a prisoner, captured by Eagin, and held at Grant's request. We found him bound and under guard out yonder, as we approached the house."

"And he is here now?"

"Yes; he was hurt in the fight, and is still unconscious, but will live."

"His reputation—"

"Is safe. Washington believes he brought him the news of Clinton's route of march, and will never know otherwise."

She arose to her feet, standing straight and slender before me, the flickering light of the candle, on her face.

"Major Lawrence," she began, "I wish to get out of here—it seems like a grave to me—but I must speak first. Oh, I am so glad I have accomplished what I endeavored to do for my brother. Captain Grant tried to make me believe him a deserter, but I would not. When he failed to come back to me as he had promised, I could hardly determine what my duty was. I knew his plans, his orders, and the thought came that I should carry these out myself. We looked sufficiently alike so that this could be done with little danger of discovery. He had uniforms concealed here, and I felt driven to impersonate him. I do not insist that I did right; I do not know—only it seemed right to me. Then—then" her voice faltered, "I met you, again and again, and I—I began to doubt myself. I had no one to confide in, no one to advise me. I was simply compelled to go ahead, and keep my own secret. The only ones I knew I could absolutely trust were our old house servants."

"You doubted me, even?"

"Yes, at first, but you must not blame me. We met strangely; you were a gentleman and an officer; I felt sure of this, and was tempted often to tell you my story. But before I dared do so, you—you spoke of other things—and then I was afraid."

"Afraid of what?" and I caught her hand in mine. "That a knowledge of what you were attempting to accomplish would turn me against you?"

Her eyes fell, shaded by the long lashes.

"Yes; once, do you remember I almost began a confession, when you spoke of your old-fashioned mother, and her conception of womanhood. How could I tell you then that I had dressed as a man, and played the part of a spy? I—I thought you might despise me, and—and I wished so to retain your respect. It was an accident we were with Delavan that night. We were endeavoring to waylay a courier, and rode suddenly into his party. I had to invent a tale on the spur of the moment. Major Lawrence, now that you know all, tell me the one thing I must know before we join the others—would you wish your own sister to do as I have done?"

"Not to pass through the dangers, surely?" I returned eagerly, "but I should rejoice at her loyalty, and be proud of her. Claire, Claire, there has never been in my heart ought but love for you. As Lady of the Blended Rose, as daughter of a colonel of Queen's Rangers, even in the disguise of a dragon, I have never questioned the depth of your womanhood. Once I guessed you a British spy, yet ceased not to love you. Am I to have my reward? You know little of me, as you say, but as an officer and a gentleman, I ask you to repeat again what you whispered to me once yonder under the stars—do you remember, dear?"

"It was only to compel you to leave me."

"And now it is an invitation to remain."

Her eyes were uplifted to mine.

Slowly I drew her toward me, her arms were upon my shoulders, and our lips met.

"I love you," she said slowly. "Yes, dear, I love you."

Above us, his head thrust through the opening, Farrell called:

"Have you found her, major? Shall I come down?"

"It's not necessary."

"The colonel is half crazy, and the boy is getting back his senses."

We went up together, I hearing the candle in one hand, and helping her along the circular stairs with the other. In the upper hall I glanced below, but the bodies of the dead had been removed. Farrell stood bare-headed, a great figure on his short legs.

"This has been a fine night's work," he said steadily, "the last of Fagin's gang."

"Dead?"

"Ay, and Grant with him—begging your pardon, mistress."

Her eyes glanced from his face into mine, and my hand-clasp tightened. It was thus we went in together, and stood opposite the colonel's bed.

[THE END.]

Miss Hedrick Married.

The following item was handed in by a Canyon young man who attended the wedding, but just because he could not be the bridegroom at the happy occasion he refuses to let his name be used as merely a guest.

At the home of her parents in Amarillo on Wednesday, Miss Grace Frances Hedrick was united in marriage to Sam W. Lathin, of Taylor. The groom wore the conventional black, but I don't have the remotest idea of what the bride wore, but to me it looked like a pretty dress. The home was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. F. Jenkins.
