

GOOD EXHIBIT FOR THE FAIR

SENT TO AMARILLO EARLY MONDAY MORNING FOR DISPLAY.

Excellent Garden and Farm Products Will Tell People of the Randall County Possibilities.

Randall county has an excellent exhibit at the Panhandle State Fair at Amarillo this week. The exhibit was sent up Monday morning and is in charge of C. R. McAfee and Joe Garrison. Both of these men are excellent decorators and the Randall county booth is said to compare very favorably with booths of the surrounding counties.

Along the exhibits sent was wheat given by J. D. Key, who made 23 bushels per acre this year, two pound Great Spanish onions by W. J. Flesher, 23 pound Mangle beets of H. C. Dolcater's, fruit and vegetables given by J. E. Rogers, fruit, vegetables and field products given by P. Friemel, row crop by H. J. Weber, row crops by W. E. Lair, alfalfa by C. R. McAfee and Dr. Ingham, an excellent melon by R. B. Cousins and numerous photographs by M. S. Lusby. There are many other fine specimens, names of the donors not being attacked before the exhibit was sent.

School Exhibit at Amarillo.

The Canyon public schools sent an exhibit to the Panhandle State Fair at Amarillo Tuesday morning which was very fine and included excellent representative samples of the quality of work done in the schools.

FOOTBALL TEAM WORKING HARD

TWENTY-FIVE MEN ON THE GRIDIRON EVERY AFTERNOON.

Coach Terrill Says That This Will be the Strongest Team in History of the Normal.

Twenty-five men are working hard on the Normal gridiron every afternoon. The spirit shown among the men is the winning kind and from all evidences the school will put out a very strong team this year.

Coach R. A. Terrill reports that the places on the team are being filled with strong men and that there is a wealth of raw material among the scrubs who are working diligently. He believes that this will be the strongest team the school has ever put out.

Lost To Amarillo High.

The Normal football team played the Amarillo High School yesterday in Amarillo, losing by a score of 6 to 0. The defeat was the result of the forward pass. There are a number of new men on the team and their unfamiliarity with the game was a handicap to the Normal team, but on the whole it was a very creditable game from the Normal standpoint. Black, Conner and Prichard played a good game. Amarillo has a good team and has won every game so far. The local boys relied on straight football while Amarillo used the open play.

ENGEL-DEEKE WEDDING THURSDAY

German Wedding Held North of the City—Seventy-Five Guests Enjoy Excellent Feast.

A very pretty wedding was witnessed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Engel, nine miles north of the city, last Thursday afternoon when their daughter, Mathilda W. and August G. Deeke were united in wedlock by Rev. Noack of the Amarillo Lutheran church.

At 2 o'clock little Miss Louise and Hert Meyer formed an aisle of ribbons and entered the parlors carrying baskets of carnations. Then came Miss Bentler of Lafayette, Ind., as bridesmaid carrying a bouquet of yellow roses and August Engel as best man.

The bride was charming in her wedding gown of all over lace carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and lillies of the valley.

After the ceremony the bridal were conveyed in Mr. Van Natta's auto to the Harris Studio in Amarillo where pictures were taken. During their absence Herman Meyer and Herman Wragge furnished some lively music. Immediately upon the return of the bridal couple a five course dinner was served for the seventy-five guests.

Refreshments of all kinds were served and true to German spirit and genial hospitality, dancing, singing and merry making continued until the next morning when the guests left for their homes wishing the bride and groom much joy and happiness.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Deeke came from Illinois five years ago. Until this spring Gus and his brother farmed east of the city, but since then he has been working for C. O. Keiser. Both bride and groom are well and favorably known over Randall county. They received many beautiful and useful presents.

The happy couple will leave this week for an extended visit in central Illinois and from there intend to their home for the present.

Revival Meetings.

Next Sunday, Oct. 12th, Rev. F. M. Neal will begin a series of revival services at the Methodist church.

He has secured the assistance of Prof. Fred Poulter, of Amarillo, who who will have charge of the music. Mr. Poulter is an evangelistic singer of considerable experience and has had great success in his work. He will enlist all the singers of the city in his big choir and great singing is assured.

All Christian people are urged to cooperate in the meeting and everybody is invited to attend.

Services each day at 10 a. m. 7 p. m.

High School Senior Officers.

The following are the officers of the high school senior class: Ernest Smith president, Miss Zerah McReynolds, sec'y-treas.

The class motto is: Secundum ad nullum. The class colors are white and gold and the class flower is the daisy.

The class is discussing the publication of an annual this year but no definite arrangements have been made as to the publication.

Sells Lubbock Bank Interest.

L. T. Lester has sold his interest in the Lubbock bank to Amarillo parties.

COUNTY COURT OPENS MONDAY

MRS. HENSON TO BE TRIED AGAIN FOR PRACTICING MEDICINE.

Five Criminal Cases are on Docket—Other Business of the Term is Very Light.

County court will begin next Monday, but the first week's business will be light as there are few non-jury cases on the docket.

The interest of the term centers around the case of Mrs. V. Edna Henson who will be tried for practicing medicine without license. Mrs. Henson is a Christian Science practitioner and was acquitted in the July term of the county court when tried on a similar charge. The indictment was returned by the grand jury in the September term of the district court.

The following is the docket:

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

State of Texas vs J. M. Bartley, theft.

State of Texas vs Mrs. Edna Henson, unlawfully practicing medicine.

State of Texas vs T. B. Slaughter, unlawfully working on Sunday.

State of Texas vs E. F. Brown drunkness.

State of Texas vs Ephus (Buck) Chesser, unlawfully giving intoxicating liquor to a minor.

CIVIL DOCKET.

J. L. Prichard vs Joe Foster, suit for commission.

J. A. Grundy et al vs P. & N. T. Ry. Co., damages.

Edward Hyatt vs Elmer Prichard, debt.

APPEARANCE DOCKET.

First National bank of Canyon vs G. N. Yates, suit on note.

C. R. McAfee vs L. T. Lester, commissions.

C. L. Gatten vs S. B. McClure et al, suit on note.

G. W. Conrad vs Elza Page, suit on note.

NORMAL TO SPEND $5,000 ON CAMPUS

ENTIRE GROUNDS AND DRIVES WILL BE INCLOSED IN FENCE.

Number of Windmills Will Irrigate Native Grass—North Section to be Improved

Extensive work will be started on the Normal campus within a short time. Something like $5,000 will be spent to beautify the campus in various ways.

Pres. Cousins has under advisement the purchase of a fence for the entire campus and each of the drives will be fenced so that there can be no more cutting across the campus as is now more the rule than the exception.

Mr. Cousins proposes to leave the native grass on the campus for the present but will fertilize it and will have four or five wind mills for irrigation purposes. This grass makes a splendid lawn when properly cared for and is less trouble than blue grass.

The north part of the campus will be inclosed in a park with drives and walks as on the south side. Trees will be planted along these walks and drives.

Mr. Cousins will have the northeast section of the campus devoted to agricultural experiments as soon as a man is found for this department.

When all this work is completed, the campus will be a beautiful spot. The trees which were put out during the past two years are growing rapidly.

Word Cattle To Show

Judge C. T. Word shipped two loads of cattle Friday to the Kansas City fat stock show. One load consisted of yearlings and the other of two year olds. Both loads were in very excellent condition and ought to make a good showing in this great show.

Come to Canyon to live.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT MONDAY

Postponed Games Will be Played on the Normal Courts if the Weather Will Permit.

The tennis tournament which was postponed two weeks ago on account of the heavy rains has been set for next Monday, the weather permitting. In addition to the Clovis, Hereford, Tulia, Silverton and Canyon teams, a team will also probably be here from Amarillo to compete in the tournament.

D. A. Park reports that two new courts have just been completed at the Normal, on which the tournament will be played. These are very excellent courts with the backstops twenty-one feet behind the line in order to give plenty of room to play back of the line.

The tournament promises to be very interesting and the Canyon teams are in a winning condition.

Normal Notes.

The Senior class met Tuesday and organized with Mr. Jackson as their president, Mr. Cook Vice President and Mrs. Dorham Secretary and Treasurer.

We find our basketball girls are increasing in number. We now have nearly three teams.

Up to Oct. 7th there have been 427 students enrolled out of which number there have been 13 withdrawals leaving a balance of 414 active enrollments. Three new enrollments Tuesday.

G. H. Butt a member of the Junior class was called home Saturday on account of the illness of his father.

Miss Vlasta Krizan a member of the first and second year classes has been sick for several days. She left today for her home near Shamrock.

Mrs. Stafford and Mrs. Dickinson from south Texas attended chapel Tuesday morning.

Miss Floyd has also gone home on account of being ill.

We welcome to our midst a new member of the faculty, Mr. Shirley.

Luther Ham of Strawn, a former student is visiting us for a few days.

PALO DURO AND BARRETT-BROWNING RECEPTION.

Saturday evening the faculty and the student body were entertained by the Palo Duro and Barrett-Browning Literary Societies. The guests assembled in the auditorium and were led to the gymnasium for a grand march. They then adjourned to the third floor, where the evening was made lively by music and many interesting games. Chocolate and sandwiches were welcome after the round of pleasure. Everyone enjoyed the evening which is always true when the Palo Duros and Barrett-Brownings entertain.

Prof. Shirley Here.

Prof. and Mrs. D. A. Shirley have arrived in the city from Hereford and Mr. Shirley has started his work at the Normal. Instead of being assistant to Prof. Reid, as reported in the News last week, Pres. Cousins reports that the department of chemistry and physics will be separated, Mr. Reid continuing with the chemistry and Mr. Shirley to have charge of the physics department. Mr. Shirley will have the standing of adjunct professor in charge of the physics department.

Mrs. A. F. Durham of Seymour is visiting her daughter, Miss Josie Durham who attends the Normal.

CEMETERY CLEAN UP SUCCESSFUL

GREAT AMOUNT OF WORK ACCOMPLISHED DURING DAY.

Workmen Did Not Respond as Largely as Expected—Another Day Will Be Asked Soon.

Although the number of men to respond to the call for the cemetery clean up next Friday was not so great as was desired, the amount of work to be accomplished was very great and the looks of the cemetery was greatly benefited. Few men arrived at the cemetery much before eleven o'clock but most of the remainder of the day eighteen men were at work.

The woven wire fence was erected on three sides. Nearly twenty women responded to the call and worked industriously all day raking and burning weeds in the cemetery.

The ornamental fence which was recently ordered will be put into place at once. After this is done, it is hoped to have another clean up day when all of the cemetery can be put into excellent condition. The water system is in bad condition and it is hoped that the pipes can be taken up and put down deeper.

Dr. F. M. Wilson suggests that Decoration Day be observed in the city in order to create more interest in taking care of the cemetery. This matter ought to be taken up by the citizens of Canyon in order to keep the cemetery in better condition.

PANHANDLE FAIR STARTS STRONG

GOOD EXHIBITS ARE FROM TWENTY PANHANDLE COUNTIES.

Randall County Winning Some of the Good Prizes—First on Alfalfa Seed, Second on Hay.

The first Panhandle State Fair started Monday in Amarillo and the first fair is proving to be as good as the management had contemplated. Exhibits are at the fair from twenty Panhandle counties and a few from Pecos Valley in New Mexico. A wealth of excellent farm and garden products are shown in every booth and is certainly surprising just what good exhibits have been procured this the driest year the country has ever seen.

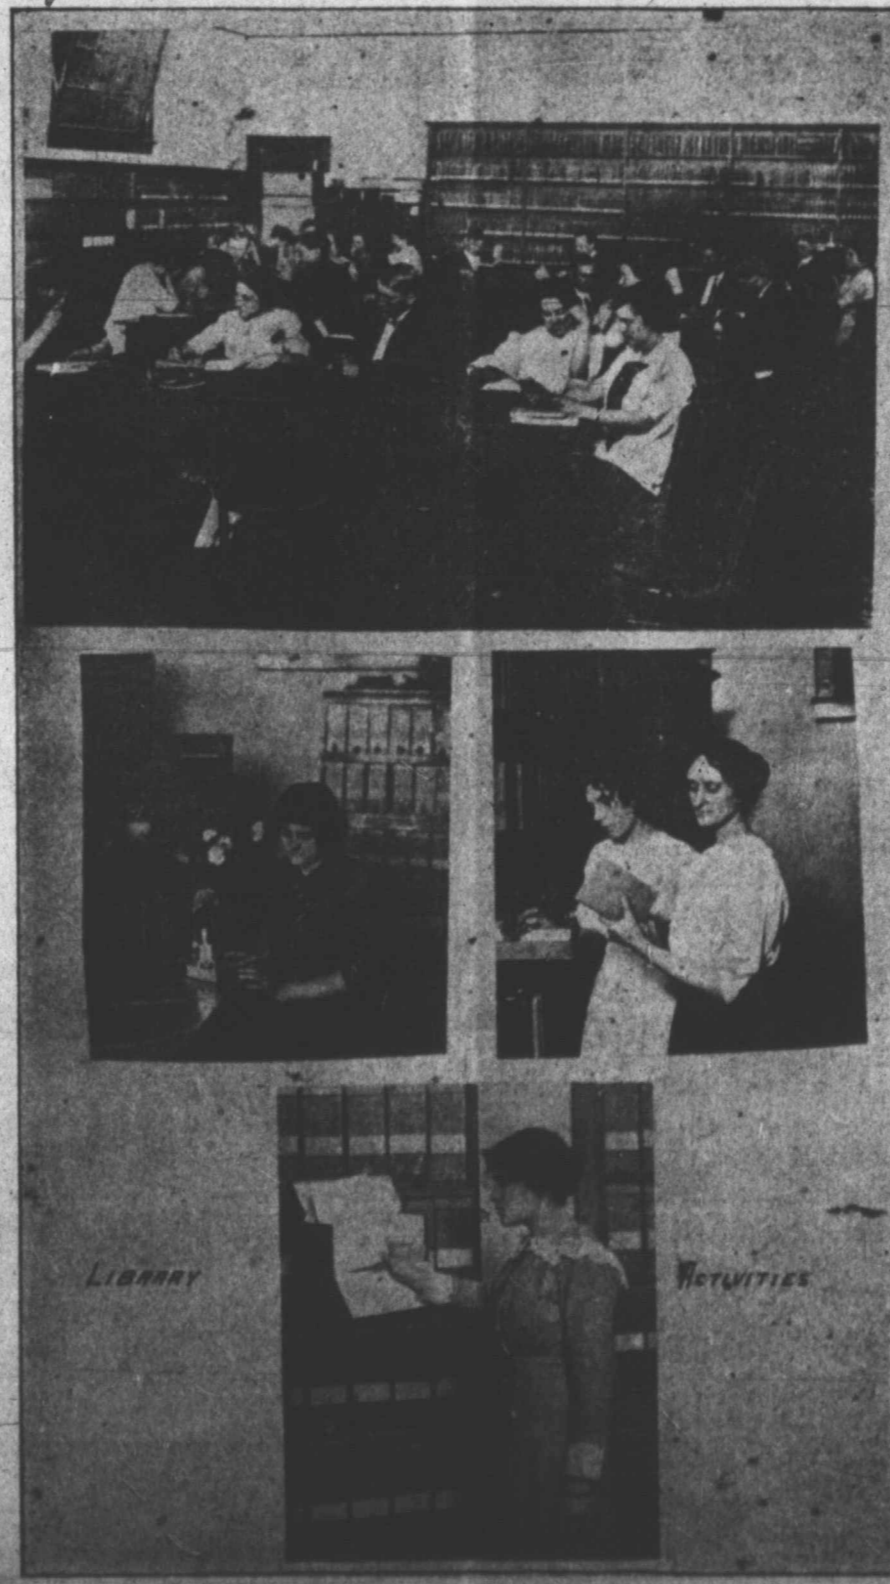

Randall county is scoring success with the exhibit that was gotten up in such a hurry. First was won on alfalfa seed and second on alfalfa hay, and the awarding of premiums has just started. The alfalfa was owned by C. R. McAfee.

First was won on the onions W. J. Flesher sent up and H. C. Dolcater landed first place with his Red Mangle beets.

In the poultry department J. C. Black won 1st pen, 1st cock, 2nd cockerel, 2nd hen, 4th pullet, 4th cockerel, with his White Leghorns.

The air ship has been attracting much attention and the flights have been very interesting.

Canyon schools and the Amarillo schools are the only educational exhibition. These have not yet been judged.

Must Inspect Cattle.

J. D. Gamble calls the attention of the News to the fact that a new law goes into effect April 1st which prohibits a man selling cattle after that date without dipping, unless they have been inspected after Dec. 1. Dr. Briggs was in the city this week inspecting cattle and wishes to impress upon the people who have only a few cattle that these must be inspected if they are to be sold after April 1st. The inspector stated that he could not pass upon the cattle now and give them a clean bill for next April, as this must be done in the winter when the hair is thick. Those who have cattle to sell next spring will do well to communicate with Dr. Chas. Pearson, Amarillo, about the first of December. The man with only a few head is liable to overlook this law and be forced to sacrifice his cattle.

Farm Facts.

(By Peter Radford, president, Farmer's Union.)

Plant more pigs and live at home.

Weeds cut down in their youth never go to seed.

Build a wall around Texas and we would starve to death.

If you have not made a success of farming, plant more hogs.

The Texas farmer should produce everything he uses as well as supply home markets.

The problem that confronts the farmer next to distribution is diversification.

The contented grunting of a pen full of fat hogs is sweeter music than the notes of a grand opera singer.

To eliminate waste and inefficiency in living, the farmer should keep in close touch with market conditions.

We must study the markets of the community, state and nation and see that the wants are supplied and not overflowed.

The farmer cannot be helped until he organizes and the government cannot help the farmer except through organization.

We cannot bring rain when it is needed, but we can keep the cultivators going during the worst drouth that ever happened.

While Texas is the leading livestock state in the Union, we consume $24,000 more of pork annually than we produce.

While the Texas farmer is plowing in the field, he is boarding in Europe or takes his meals with his neighbors a thousand miles away.

If a boy imagines that education will enable him to live without work, he is sadly mistaken. It will only enable him to work to better advantage.

We purchase annually from other states and countries $3,000,000 worth of corn, $24,000,000 of pork, $10,000,000 of sugar, $9,000,000 of potatoes and various other food products aggregating $35,000,00 in value.

Prize Ad Reading.

(By W. Holt Harris, Chairman, Mercantile Committee, Commercial Secretaries Assn.)

To arouse interest in the advertisements of his publication, an enterprising editor offered a cash prize to any one finding a typographical error in the ads appearing in his paper. The plan, being unique, aroused much interest among the readers, and men, women and children scanned the advertising pages closely for mistakes. The uniqueness of the idea caused comment and presented an opportunity. The editor, like most editors do, grasped the opportunity. An advertising campaign was inaugurated and every merchant in town was solicited for space and few refused.

Among those who did not come in on the campaign was a discreet merchant who maintained personal ideas as to how and when he should advertise. This merchant condemned prize ad reading and contended that advertising to be successful should be conducted regularly rather than spasmodically. He held that people who acquired the ad reading habit by being bribed never took advertising seriously and those who pursued the ads for mistakes had no other object in view.

Prudence in purchasing is possible only when ads are read and mentally digested by the prospective purchaser.

The Universal Coffee Percolator makes coffee of a richer flavor than that made by any other method.

The Universal Tea Ball Teapot gives you uniform tea—the last cup the same as the first—because the leaves are lifted out of the liquid when the desired strength is reached.

The Universal Chafing Dish is for real cooking, rather than a warming dish. It is equipped with a powerful blue flame alcohol gas burner that can be regulated to a nicety.

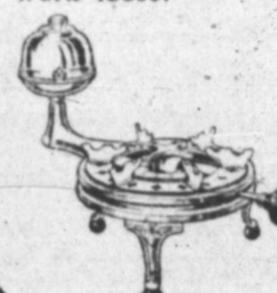

The Universal Bread Maker will make better bread with any flour, any yeast, or any recipe, than can be made of the same materials with hand kneading. Sanitary always, because the hands do not touch the dough.

The Universal Food Chopper cuts like a pair of shears—with two edges that sharpen themselves by acting one against the other.

This is the original food chopper. Cutters furnished for three degrees of fineness.

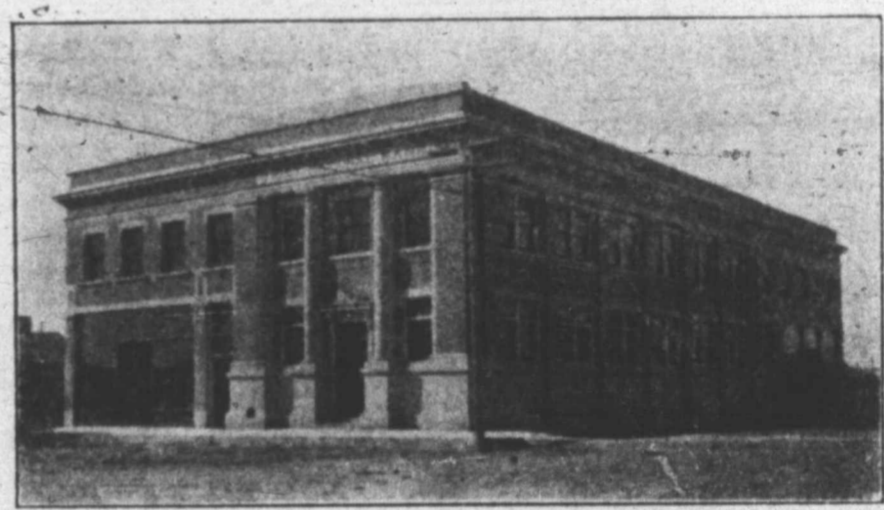

The Universal Thermocell Sad Iron will hold its heat on account of the non-conducting air space surrounding it. Its handle is always cool and can never work loose.

Enrich Yourself.

The following is taken from an advertisement of the Santa Fe regarding the Panhandle country:

The price of beef is steadily rising, due to the shortage of beef cattle. It is no longer profitable to raise cattle on ranges. That was a wasteful method, and with the passing of free pasturage the costs are too great to leave a profit. Yet people need beef and are willing to pay good prices to get it. That is the demand you may profit by supplying.

Search all over this continent and you will find no section in which cattle do so well or can be raised as cheaply as on the plains of northwest Texas. It is the natural home of the steer. Here great herds roamed in the early days. They fed on the luxuriant grasses and went to market without grain. Latterly their weights and the owner's profits have been increased by grain-feeding near to the slaughtering market. But that is now too expensive, considering the high price of corn.

It has been found that the steer can be fed and finished here on ensilage and milo and kafir grain. The cost of feeding is reduced—the quality of the meat improved—a better price is secured and once again beef cattle are money-makers.

The territory available for this work is the millions of acres of northwest Texas, where the rainfall is less than twenty inches a year. It is too dry for corn, but milo and kafir thrive under dry farming methods.

Herefords are graded up to nearly pure blood and they are the most profitable animal to feed. Weanlings can be brought up to 1,400-pound steers in less than three years, and this young beef sells well, saving a year's time, interest and feed.

Hogs thrive on the same feed. This is their climate, too, as there are no diseases in the high dry air.

The interest of the Santa Fe in settlers along its lines does not cease with helping them to select a location. We have a corps of agricultural demonstrators, who are employed by the railroad to help settlers to learn as quickly as possible the best crops and methods of handling for any given section. The assistance of these men will be yours without cost, and the enthusiastic letters from settlers already here will show you that their advice means a large increase of profit to those who have taken advantage of it.

Many New Books.

Secretary Travis Shaw of the Normal says that loads of new books for the library are being received every week. Between $2,500 and $3,000 have been expended for this purpose. The Normal has one of the most complete and working libraries in the state.

Speaking about the library recently, Prof. Marquis said that the students of the Normal certainly used the library to good advantage. Compared with a school in which he used to teach, Mr. Marquis says that the students here use more books in a week than the students of this other school used in a year.

Each department of the school has a good collection of reference books and the students use them to good advantage.

Avoid Sedatives Cough Medicines.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. DANGEROUS CALOMEL GOING OUT OF USE

A safer, More Reliable Remedy Has Taken its Place in the Drug Store and in the Home.

A few years ago, men, women and children took calomel for a sluggish liver and for constipation. They took risks when they did so, for calomel is a dangerous drug. Your family doctor will be the first to tell you this if he discovers you dosing yourself with calomel.

But the drug trade has found a safer, more pleasant remedy than calomel in Dodson's Liver Tone.

The City Pharmacy tells us that their drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tone in practically every case of biliousness and liver trouble where calomel used to be taken.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liver tonic that is absolutely harmless for children and grown people. It sells for 50c a bottle and is guaranteed to be entirely satisfactory by the City Pharmacy who will refund your money with a smile if it does not give quick, gentle relief without any of calomel's unpleasant after-effects.

Ladies Orchestra Pleases.

The Chicago Ladies Orchestra played at the Normal auditorium Thursday night to a large and appreciative audience. The number was the first of the Lyceum course. The program was pronounced by many lovers of music to be the best ever given in the city. The work of Miss Lutz on the violin and the reading of Miss Cawthon are especially praised for their excellency.

In speaking of the lyceum course, Prof. J. W. Reid says he wishes to thank the people of Canyon for their excellent patronage. The faculty strived to get an exceptionally good course and paid a big price for it. Mr. Reid reports that the sale of season tickets and the single admissions Thursday night will almost pay for the course. There are four more good numbers to come.

Will Build Large Vault.

Pres. Cousins is preparing specifications for a large vault to be built at the Normal, commencing on the first floor in the manual training department and extending through the second floor to the secretary's office. The vault will contain the records and valuable papers of the school. This work will be started in the near future.

Sells Legless Calf.

A. H. Elliston has sold his legless calf to Pike Stroud of Amarillo, who is gathering a bunch of freaks for a show. Mr. Elliston came in possession of the calf in a perfectly legitimate way. Ed Money, who runs a large ranch east of town, one morning not long since, discovered a calf in his pasture that seemed not to be running around like the others. So he found that while the calf was perfectly whole every other way, he was minus legs, having only short stubs an inch or two long for fore legs and no sign of hind legs. Mr. Money brought the legless calf to town in his auto and after showing it, struck a trader in Mr. Elliston, who gave him a perfectly good white face calf for the legless one, and both knew they had made a good deal. Now, Mr. Elliston in turn sells it to Mr. Stroud at a good, fancy price. Thus the world moves on.—Hereford Brand.

It seems probable that President Wilson contemplates extending the parcel post until the express companies are practically put out of business, and of buying the telegraph and telephone system. Uncle Sam has been very successful in all of the public utilities he has under control and there is no doubt that these two businesses ought to be under his care. The post is a great success and its possibilities are just beginning to be realized. The telegraph and telephone system can be operated with as great success as is the postoffice department.

The pros want but one candidate in the gubernatorial race. That's all right if Will Mayes is the candidate, speaking from the News' standpoint, but Lane says that his case is up to the people and not to the state makers. Therefore it looks pretty much as if the bars were down for a free-for-all.

The Panhandle State Fair is on. If you have not visited it yet go to Amarillo Friday or Saturday and see just what the Panhandle has produced, this, the driest year in the history of the country.

Let us forget, bring your magazine list to the News office and see how much money you can save. Also let us save you money on your newspapers. We club with all of them.

Advertising Facts All Merchants Know

By HOLLAND.
THE merchant who spends his money for advertising space has but one object—to increase his business. He wants to attract new customers and to let old customers know what particular bargains are available or what desirable new goods have arrived. He does not advertise from motives of vanity, merely to see his name in print. Neither does he do it from motives of charity. The paper is not soliciting gifts.
 No; the merchant is after business, and he goes after it in a business way. He knows that it will not pay to advertise bargains that are not genuine; that it will not be profitable to make false claims or statements. He is building not only for today and tomorrow, but for next week, next month, next year. Looking to the future makes him conservative and truthful in his statements.
 Every advertisement in this paper is proof of the confidence of the advertiser in the goods he offers. He has confidence in himself, in the publication and in the intelligence of the readers. You can profit by sharing his confidence.

The fine weather continues. The grass and vegetation is growing just like the good old spring time.

The Randall County News has done itself a great honor in a special issue which it pleased to call the Panhandle State Fair Edition, in which not only the fair at Amarillo is given prominence, but the city of Canyon and the county of which it is the capital, is given a splendid write up. To get out such an issue requires a good deal of time and effort and a large outlay of the circulating medium, not to say a bit of qualifiedness of the editor. The West Texas State Normal is shown in its working condition by means of suitable pictures and the county's resources are not forgotten. Last but not least, is the evidence of prosperity on the part of the business men of Canyon whose several fine looking ads make a good impression on the business men of other towns. The Brand extends its congratulations to the editor of the News and its faithful shop force.—Hereford Brand.

The Randall County News came out last week with a sixteen-page Panhandle State Fair edition that was "all to the good." Besides a large amount of good reading matter, it contains lots and lots of advertising matter from local and out-of-town merchants, and some splendid illustrations showing scenes at the West Texas State Normal and of Randall county stock farms. The edition is a fine advertisement for the Fair, for Canyon, Randall county, and The News.—Clarendon News

Excellent Guide For a Young Man.

Some time ago there was accidentally killed in the Canadian woods a young Cornell graduate who had been able to purchase his collegiate course because of the kindness of one who believed in him. The young student amply verified every expectation, came from the place of learning an electrical engineer, ranking among the best in his class. After his death, among his effects was found a paper of his own handwriting that bore the title, "My Guide," and which gave expression to the splendid life the young man had lived until death had called him from further activity. The document is not only worthy of preservation, but could be safely taken as the guide of many other young men just taking their places in the world's activity. It reads:

It shall be my aim to respect my country, my profession and myself. To be honest and fair with my fellowmen, as I expect them to be honest and square with me. To be a loyal citizen of the U. S. A. To speak of it with praise and to act always as a trustworthy custodian of its good name. To be a man whose name carries weight with it wherever it goes.

To base my expectation of reward on a solid foundation of service rendered; to be willing to pay the price of success in honest effort; to look upon my work as an opportunity to be seized with joy and made the most of and not as a painful drudgery or to be reluctantly endured.

To remember that success lies within myself and my own brain, my own ambition, my own courage and determination to expect difficulties and force my way through them; to turn hard experiences into capital for future struggles.

To believe in my proposition, heart and soul; to carry an air of optimism in the presence of those I meet; to dispell ill temper with cheerfulness; kill doubt with a strong conviction and reduce active friction with an agreeable personality.

To make a study of my business, to know my profession in every detail, to mix brains with my efforts and use system and method in my work; to find time to do every needful thing by never letting time find me doing nothing; to hoard days as a miser hoards dollars; to make every hour bring me increased dividends, increased knowledge of healthful recreation.

To keep my fortune unmortgaged with debts; to save as well as earn; to cut off expensive amusements until I can afford them; to steer clear of dissipation and to guard my health of body and peace of mind as a most precious stock in trade.

Finally, to take a good grip on the joys of life, to play the game like a man; to fight against nothing so hard as my own weaknesses and endeavor to grow in strength a gentleman—a CHRISTIAN.

So that I may be courteous to men, faithful to friends, true to my God, A FRAGRANCE IN THE PATH I TROD.

Sheriff's Sale.

The state of Texas, county of Randall.
 Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the honorable District court of Randall county, of the 2nd day of October 1913, by the Clerk of said court for the sum of thirty two hundred sixty-four and 53/100 ($3264.53) dollars and costs of suit, under a judgment, in favor of C. Q. Keiser in a certain cause in said court, No. 723 and styled C. O. Keiser vs. A. L. Hemphill, et al and placed in my hands for service, I, Worth A. Jennings, as Sheriff of Randall county, Texas, did, on the 4th day of October 1913, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Randall county, Texas, described as follows, to-wit: The south one-half of Survey No. 108, Block 6, I. & G. N. Ry. Co., Land, in Randall county, Texas, situated about four miles east of the center of said county, and containing 32 acres, more or less; and levied upon as the property of L. M. Hemphill and that on the first Tuesday in November 1913, the same being the 4th day of said month, at the Court House door, of Randall county, in the city of Canyon, Texas between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., by virtue of said levy and said order of sale I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said L. M. Hemphill.
 And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Randall County News, a newspaper published in Randall county.
 Witness my hand, this 6th day of October 1913.
 Worth A. Jennings, Sheriff Randall county, Texas. 293

Come to Canyon to live.

Notice of Trustee's Sale.

The State of Texas, county of Randall.
 Whereas, by virtue of authority vested in me, as trustee, named and appointed as such in a certain deed of trust, recorded in Vol. 4 on pages 131-2 of the deed of trust records for Randall county, Texas, executed and delivered to me on the first day of May 1909 by Lewis H. Myers, then of Potter county, Texas, for better securing the payment of one promissory note for the principal sum of fifteen hundred ($1500.00) dollars, executed by the said Lewis H. Myers and payable to the order of Mrs. Clarisa Sparks, at the First National bank, Amarillo, Texas, and falling due two years after date, with ten per cent (10) interest per annum thereon from date until paid, interest payable annually as it accrues, and further providing for the payment of ten per cent (10) additional on the amount of principal and interest due as Attorney's fees, in the event default should be made in the payment of said note at maturity, and the same should be placed in the hands of an Attorney for collection, or if suit should be brought thereon, which note is more fully described in said deed of trust, to which reference is made; and

Whereas, the said Mrs. Clarisa Sparks is now the legal holder and owner of the said note, and the said Lewis H. Myers has made default in the payment of said note, and the same is now past due and unpaid, the amount now due, principal, interest and Attorney's fees aggregating the sum of twenty-three hundred ($2300.00) dollars; and

Whereas, I have been requested by the said Mrs. Clarisa Sparks to enforce said trust, I will, therefore, offer for sale, between the legal hours thereof, to-wit: Between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the first Tuesday in November A. D. 1913, the same being the 4th day of said month, at the Court house door, in the town of Canyon, in Randall County, Texas, the following described property, to-wit:

All that certain tract or parcel of land situated in Randall County, State of Texas, and known and described as the northwest quarter (1-4) of Section No. 3, in Block No. 8, issued to the International & Great Northern Railway Company by virtue of certificate No. 1670, containing 160 acres of land, located about seventeen miles northeast of the town of Canyon in the said Randall County, Texas, which quarter section of land is known as the Lewis Myers quarter section, together with all the rights, members and appurtenances thereto in anywise belonging.

Witness my hand on this the 7th day of October, 1913.

Keiser Declares Exhibits Fine.
 Amarillo News—"A great display," said C. O. Keiser of Canyon, who with Mrs. Keiser and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Warwick, came over from the Randall capital for the afternoon Tuesday.
 The remark was made to a representative of the News in the Agricultural building, where Mr. Keiser, who is one of the largest and most successful stockmen in the Panhandle had been an interested spectator for hours.
 "I have seldom seen a farming exhibit to surpass this in general excellence, and the showing is all the more remarkable in view of the prolonged drouth which has prevailed in northwest Texas this year. If the Panhandle can produce in such variety and abundance in such a year no fears need be entertained as to its future.
 "This fair may already be classed as a success. It marks the beginning of a great project, and one which will grow, I believe to proportions not yet dreamed of by the Pioneers in its making. I like things here so well that I'm going to tell everybody about it."

LEADING HORSEMEN WILL TAKE PART

Racing at State Fair of Texas Will Be Without Parallel.

GREAT DRIVERS COMING

Leading Men on the Grand Circuit Will Be in Dallas—$40,000 Will Be Given in Stakes and Purses.

Dallas, Texas: Many of the foremost horsemen in America will take part in the races at the 1913 State Fair of Texas at Dallas, which opens Saturday, October 18, and closes Sunday, November 2. Of the 350 harness horses entered in the ten big stake events, representing a total of $27,000 and ranging from $5,000 to $2,500, more than 150 have marks around 2:05.

It is declared that the State Fair races this year have attracted more and a better class of horses than those of any Fair in the United States. The fastest and best class of trotters and pacers in the world will take part and they will be driven by the greatest drivers. In the list of drivers are the following:

Ed Geers, of Memphis, Tenn., the grand old man of the grand circuit, whose name is a household word in every big state in the Union; T. W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., one of the biggest money winning drivers that ever went down the grand circuit; Walter Cox of Dover, N. H., another topnotcher; E. and J. Henyon of Memphis, who have always been in the front rank of grand circuit drivers; Charley Dean, driver of Minor Heir, 1:59½; Rupert Parker who has been so successful with Don Densmore, 2:02½, and Bessie B., both of these horses having won at Dallas the last two seasons; George Castle, the Chicago millionaire, who drives for pleasure but likes to get the money; B. Shively of Sunny Jim fame; Oscar Ames, the famous driver of Joe Patchen, 2:01¼; W. O. Foote of Bonham, Texas, who always has high class horses, and W. B. Taylor of Early Alice fame. Al Russell, the famous California driver will be here with a string of good ones.

Mr. Castle has entered and will drive Baring, Lula Worthy, Judson Girl, Peter Johnson and Lady Grattan. Lady Grattan was a Texas-owned horse, and at the Fair last year forced The Wanderer to a record of 2:08¼, equaling his record. Since then she has been sold to an Eastern party for a reputed price of $6,000. She belonged to Dan O'Connell of Fort Worth.

Other horses that will represent Mr. Cox and will be driven by him on the local track are Del Ray, a very sensational green pacer that was brought from California this year and of whom great things are expected; Woodcliffe King, Cabel, Baron A. Branham, Bauhanman (2:04¼), and Rough and Tear. Cabel won recently a $5,000 stake race at Rockingham Park, Salem, N. H., when he was matched against Edna B (2:10¼). Cabel is a son of Gambetta Wilkes, one of the greatest sires of the turf world.

Thomas W. Murphy will bring a bunch of good ones from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., including Strathstorn, Nellie Temple, Frank Bogash, Jr., View Elder, Longworth B, Junior Dan Patch, Marigold, Jean Arian and Ruth McGregor.

POULTRY FANCIERS AT FAIR.
Biggest Display of Chickens, Ducks, Turkeys and Pet Stock in History.

Dallas, Texas—Poultry fanciers of the State have selected Thursday, Oct. 23, as their special day at the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas, at Dallas, Saturday, Oct. 18, to Sunday, Nov. 2. As judging of birds exhibited in the poultry department will start Monday, Oct. 20, it is expected that practically all awards will have been made by Poultrymen's Day. Plans are under way for a program of unusual interest and dealing with the latest developments in the scientific raising of poultry.

Usually at each meeting of the State Fair meetings of the various associations of fanciers of the State are held at the Fair Grounds. There will be representatives from every association in attendance at the meeting to be held Oct. 23, Walter Burton, superintendent of the poultry department, said:

"We are planning to make Thursday, Oct. 23, a great day for the poultry fanciers of the State. Our display this year will be unequalled both in number of individual exhibits and in quality and it is expected that practically every exhibitor will be in attendance at the meeting. A number of valuable silver cups and other trophies will be awarded this year and these will be shown on Poultrymen's Day."

HORSES AT STATE FAIR.
A Record Breaking Showing Is Predicted for Dallas This Fall.

Dallas, Texas: Director W. I. Yopp of the exhibit horse division of the State Fair of Texas at Dallas, is predicting a record breaking showing for his department at the coming exposition. Classes in his division have been re-arranged and made much more attractive than in previous years. The splendid results of last year's show have resulted in a larger number of exhibitors reserving space. Mr. Yopp reports an unusual amount of interest aroused among breeders in Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri and Nebraska. Texas breeders will be more largely represented than last year. He said:

"The showing at the Fair this fall will be a representative one in every respect. Our prize list has undergone a general revision, and includes practically every variety of horse now raised in America. Entries already made for this year's exhibition indicate that this department will be even more attractive than ever. There are a number of rich special prizes put up by various associations, and in addition to these the State Fair management will award nearly $7000 in prizes. In the thoroughbred and standard bred and saddle horse classes the State Fair has always been a leader in the exhibiting of these useful types of horses. The entry list of this year denotes that the breeders of the North, East and Southwest are all preparing to send their horses to compete, giving assurance of a high class of exhibits."

"The saddle horse class is extremely well looked after. The Texas Saddle Horse Breeders' association offers a special prize for the best saddle animal, foal of 1912, exhibited at the Fair. This prize is divided into four moneys and totals $50 in value. For the best stallion or mare, three years old or under, the American Saddle Horse Breeders' association will award a special prize of $100. All entries in this class must be registered in the American Saddle Horse Register."

Crop Improvement

Volunteers Wanted to Introduce Seed Testing in Every School and on Every Farm.

SEED TESTER

For Wheat, Oats, Barley, Rye, Alfalfa, Etc., Made of Ordinary Blotting Paper—Send for Sample with Printed Directions.

GRAIN EXCHANGE METHOD.

This is Work to be Undertaken by the Seed Committee in Every County in Co-operation with the Public Schools and Newspapers. Anybody May Start It.

BY BERT BALL.

A simple method of testing small grains for germination is to take an ordinary piece of white blotting paper, about 5 or 6 inches wide by nineteen inches long, fold twice, making paper about square, as in cut.

Mix the sample thoroughly so that when you count out 100 seeds they will fairly represent the entire lot.

Mark off 100 squares on one page of blotter after folding. Place one kernel in each square, fold as shown in Figure 1 after wetting thoroughly.

Pile up the tests as in Figure 2 with wicks leading into a glass of water. Keep cool but do not let the test freeze.

Form for seed testing with fields for Name, State, County, School, P. O., and Seed Certificate.

This is to certify that I have tested a sample of Barley seed furnished by John Pottinger which germinates as follows:

Strong 61 per cent, Weak 27 per cent, Dead 12 per cent. Seed Certificate: Simple form to be used for pupils to be returned to their farmer partners.

It is important to test all of the seeds every year, because, for many reasons, there are times when the germination of the seeds is very low.

FARMS ON DRESS PARADE

The Scott County Farm Improvement Bureau has inaugurated a series of farm contests for the purpose of securing better and larger yields, and getting facts which will advertise Scott county.

- 1. Best acre of corn. 2. Best acre of barley. 3. Best acre of potatoes. 4. Best kept farm home.

How He Killed His Antagonist

By EDWARD TOMLINSON Copyright by American Press Association, 1913.

My friend Dr. Wobel, a German by birth, is one of the most quiet, modest little men I ever knew. He has a large practice with women and children—not that he knows any more about the diseases peculiar to them than other doctors, but he is so gentle in his manner that he cures them simply by sympathy.

One day I met a man who had known Wobel in Germany. He told me the doctor had served as a surgeon in the Franco-Prussian war and had been considered by his companions a very brave man.

When Wobel came to my house again I told him what this person had said. He seemed very much embarrassed, coloring to the roots of his hair.

"Tell me about the duel," I said. "I wish to know how you killed the captain." "I didn't kill anybody," he said. "It was all a mistake. I will confess to you if you will agree not to mention the matter to me again or to any one else."

"We marched rapidly across the border. The corps that I was with saw very little fighting during the whole war, so I was not called upon to attend men on the battlefield. My comrades saw at once that I was of a timid disposition and soon began to rally me on my unfitness for war."

"One day this captain whom I have been supposed to have killed called me a coward before the whole mess, and the medical director, hearing of it, told me that I must either challenge him or resign."

"I knew this would not last, for I was sure that when I should meet my antagonist I would quell and that would throw me back to my previous condition. I was the most miserable man in the army."

"One thing gave me hope. Before the time appointed for the meeting arrived we began a desultory fighting with the French. Since I was not exposed, the ambulance corps bringing all the wounded to us at the rear, I rejoiced, thinking that if this continued there would be no opportunity for the duel."

"I was conscious of but one circumstance—that is, aiming at the top of a tree behind my enemy and some forty or fifty feet above his head. At the signal I pulled the trigger. All was a blur before me."

"The doctor paused, then added: 'These tablets will give your daughter every two hours, and if there is more fever.' 'Good night, doctor. Your instructions shall be obeyed.'"

The Prodigal Judge

years' imprisonment; he died, however, before the expiration of his term.

The judge, when he returned to Raleigh, resumed his own name of Turberville, and he allowed it to be known that he would not be offended by the prefix of General. During his absence he had accumulated a wealth of evidence of undoubted authenticity, with the result that his claim against the Fentress estate was sustained by the courts, and when The Oaks with its stock and slaves was offered for sale, he, as the principal creditor, was able to buy it in.

One of his first acts after taking possession of the property was to have Mahaffy reentered in the grove of oaks below his bedroom windows, and he marked the spot with a great square of granite. The judge, visibly shaken by his emotions, saw the massive boulder go into place.

"Harsh and rugged like the nature of him who lies beneath it—but enduring, too, as he was," he murmured. He turned to Yancy and Hannibal, and added: "You will lay me beside him when I die."

Then when the bitter struggle came and he was wrenched and tortured by longings, his strength was in remembering his promise to the dead man, and it was his custom to go out under the oaks and pace to and fro beside Mahaffy's grave until he had gained the mastery of himself.

"My salvation has been a costly thing; it was bought with the blood of my friend," he told Yancy. "It was Hannibal's privilege to give Cavendish out of the vast Quintard tract such a farm as the earl had never dreamed of owning even in his most feverish moments of imagining; and he abandoned all idea of going to England to claim his title."

Mr. Yancy accepted his changed fortunes with philosophic composure. Technically he filled the position of overseer at The Oaks, but the judge's activity was so great that this position was largely a sinecure.

"Oh, Betty! Betty!"

tion was largely a sinecure. The most arduous work he performed was spending his wages.

Certain trifling peculiarities survived with the judge even after he had entered what he had once been prone to call the Portal of Hope; for while his charity was very great and he lived with the splendid air of plenty that belonged to an older order, it required tact, patience and persistence to transact business with him; and his creditors, of whom there were always a respectable number, discovered that he esteemed them as they were aggressive and determined.

Thus surrounded by his friends, who were devoted to him, he began Hannibal's education and the preparation of his memoirs, intended primarily for the instruction of his grandson, and which he modestly decided to call 'The History of My Own Times,' which clearly showed the magnificence of his mind and its outlook.

THE END.

Misses Lola Word and Frankie Gober returned Friday from a months stay in Colorado Springs.

Miss Ruth Stafford was home from Memphis Sunday to visit with her parents.

TAKE TIME TO SMILE

Tennessee Ain't

A man who comes from Tennessee takes great pride in having sat silent at dinner the other day while a New Yorker, who has never been south of Philadelphia, told, amid applause, this story—and planted it in a Tennessee town:

Small Girl (to grocer)—Ain't yer got no onions? Grocer—I ain't said I ain't. Small Girl—I ain't ast yer ain't yer ain't. I ast yer is yer ain't. Now, is yer or ain't yer?

Explanation Demanded.

"Have you heard about poor young Hicks' trouble with his wife?" "No, I've been out of town for the last month. What is it?" "He sent his office boy up to the house for his raincoat one day last week and she found a memorandum in the pocket reading 'Ribbon for typewriter,' and Hicks is having a devil of a time trying to explain."

Self-Preservation.

Mrs. Hicks was telling some woman about the burglar scare in her house the night before. "Yes," she said, "I heard a noise and got up, and there from under the bed I saw a man's leg sticking out." "Mercy!" exclaimed a woman, "the burglar's legs?" "No, my dear! My husband's legs. He had heard the noise, too.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Doing Good.

Mrs. Flitterby—So you are on the visiting committee of your social workers' society. I should think you'd find it dreadfully irksome, making all those slum calls.

Mrs. Hunter-Fadde—I'm willing to make the sacrifice for a good cause. Every visiting day I send my maid around with my cards.—Judge.

TRUE TO PRINCIPLES.

Mr. Converse—My uncle is a vegetarian, so, of course, he is opposed to eating eggs.

Miss Wabbie—And so his little children can't have any? He has tried to compromise by offering them hand painted eggplants.

Just So.

Pedestrians should know their rights; That is my view. Just bear in mind that they will find They have a few.

Its Reconstruction.

"The military airship will shatter another cherished army tradition." "What is that?" "With an aerial corps, it will no longer be a disgrace for a soldier to fly in battie."

Why Not Drop?

Aviator (to young assistant, who has begun to be frightened)—Well, what do you want now? Assistant (whispering)—I want the earth.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Good-By.

"We settle disputes for office in Plunkville without no trouble." "As to how?" "Enter all the candidates in a checker tournament."

His Fear.

"Russian czars do not seem to care much about going to Finland." "Naturally. There is always a prospect that if they go there they will see their Finiah."

Confused Ideas.

"Pop, you know what's an ambulance chaser?" "Ten, my son." "Well, ain't he the same thing as a settlement worker?"

The Resemblance.

"I always feel that a lawyer is a catlike creature." "What makes you believe that?" "Because he belongs to the feline species."
