

Ford Given Away Monday

TICKETS GIVEN UNTIL FOUR O'CLOCK P. M.

Next Monday is the big day in Canyon, when the Ford car will be given away by the business houses to one of their customers.

The Canyon Business Men's Association wishes to make the day the biggest in the history of Canyon and to that end are making preparations to take care of the crowd and show them a jolly time from morning to night.

The big day starts at nine o'clock with a band concert by the Amarillo Band. This will be the big concert of the day, and all should be here to enjoy the band. While the band will play several times during the day, the first concert will be the big one.

The next big attraction will be the chicken flight at 10:30. The business houses of Canyon are furnishing chickens and prizes for this flight. The contest is strictly for boys and girls only. If a grown person gets a chicken it must fly again as the children have no chance when the grown people are standing around to catch the chickens on wing. Every boy and girl in the county should be here for that chicken flight at 10:30. J. M. Pedforn has charge of the flight.

After the chicken flight will be another short band concert.

In the afternoon promptly at 1:30 the big auction sale starts on the south side of the square. Manager S. F. McClure has a large list of articles to be sold, and the new merchandise for this month will be the largest of any Trades Day. You will get some big bargains by attending this sale.

J. W. McCrery of Wayside is the auctioneer.

After the sale, the Red Cross will have an auction on the west side.

At four thirty in the afternoon comes the big event of the day—the giving away of the Ford.

Every ticket holder should have in mind the following regulations:

The ticket drawing the car must be presented by the holder—in other words, if you leave your tickets at home that day, you won't stand a chance at the car.

You should have your tickets listed on a piece of paper and then put up in packages of numerical order so you can get at them readily and see if you hold the ticket drawn.

The business firms will give away tickets on the Ford up to FOUR O'CLOCK on Sept. 10th.

All ticket giving stops promptly at four o'clock and the car will be given away at 4:30 o'clock.

The crowd will assemble on the north side of the square where a platform will be used or a flat top wagon.

C. W. Warwick will preside at the drawing, but he will have nothing to do with the drawing. He only represents the Canyon Business Men's Association in the matter.

Since all of the tickets belong to the people and the Ford belongs to some one in the crowd, the people will be asked to send five men to the platform to do the drawing. These men will do all of the stirring of the tickets, and will mix them until the people are fully satisfied that the lunch has been thoroughly stirred up. These men will then call for some little girl in the crowd to come forward to do the drawing. The little girl will be blind-folded and asked to draw a number, which will be the number to get the car, provided it is presented to the committee of five men within one hour.

Realizing that there is a possibility of the first number having been lost, the Business Men's Association has decided that there shall be five number drawn does not show up at the end of the hour, the second number drawn, will then get the car. By drawing five numbers to begin with, much time will be saved as one of the first five drawn will likely show up within the hour.

To illustrate: Suppose No. 79 was the first one drawn, 111,444 the second, 325 the third, 1,275 the fourth, and 37,897 the fifth number.

These numbers being drawn by the committee from the crowd and the little girl, No. 79 will get the car, if the number is presented before the end of the hour. But if at the end of the hour 79 has not shown up, then No. 111,444 gets the car if that No. is presented. However if that number is not presented, then No. 325 would be the lucky one. And if that number should not be there, then No. 1,275.

If none of the first five numbers drawn show up within the hour's time then there will be another five drawn.

The above numbers are used only as illustrations, and have absolutely no meaning except in making plain the plan to be used.

COMMITTEE FROM BAPTIST ASSOCIATION TO LOOK AT CLUB

The proposition of the Baptist Association buying the property of the Canyon City Club northwest of the city was furthered in a meeting on Tuesday afternoon in Amarillo when delegates met and a committee was appointed to investigate the proposition and to inspect the property.

Rev. B. F. Fronabarger of the local Baptist church was present at the meeting. He is very enthusiastic over the proposition and believes that the purchase will be a great thing for the church of the Panhandle.

Some definite action is expected to be taken within a short time.

Soldiers to Ft. Worth.

The company of soldier boys from the various Panhandle towns which has been in training in Amarillo for the past few weeks left Tuesday afternoon for Ft. Worth where they go into training at Camp Bowie.

The boys had been furnished no equipment while in Amarillo, and consequently were anxious to get to Ft. Worth to obtain their uniforms and arms.

There are fifteen Canyon boys in the Company.

Inspector Satterwhite Here.

Lee Satterwhite of Panhandle, publisher of the Herald, is in the city on official business, he also being land inspector for the Federal Loan Land of Houston. He will inspect the land of Randall county where loans have been asked for by the owners.

JIM FULLINGER GETS THREE YEARS—SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Jim Fullinger, the young man from Plainview, who was indicted last week by the grand jury on the charge of forgery, was tried in the District Court this week and given three years in the penitentiary. The jury recommended that the sentence be suspended.

Only one case against him was tried. Very little business has been before the court during the week.

3100 HEAD OF CALVES SOLD THIS WEEK BY JUDGE WORD

One of the largest sales of calves made this year was closed when Judge C. T. Word sold to Amarillo parties 3100 head of calves to Amarillo parties, the price being $35 per head. Delivery will be made about the middle of October.

Judge Word still has on hand between 500 and 600 head of calves from the 2-year-old heifers, which are not so good as those sold.

Terrill and Ballard Back from El Paso

Ben A. Terrill and Guy R. Ballard are back from El Paso to await orders to appear in training camp. These men have been recommended by Col. Scott to be sergeants in the new army and they reported in El Paso for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements.

They will probably be called into service when the first men arrive in the training camps.

D. A. Shirley and son returned on Friday from a visit at Ft. Worth and other points.

RED CROSS AUCTION MONDAY

The Red Cross auction sale will be held Monday afternoon, Sept. 10th, at the old Guthrie Garage on the west side of the square, immediately following the auction of the Canyon Business Men's Association which will be on the south side.

As previously stated in the News, the auction sale is for the purpose of giving each and every family in the county a chance to contribute some article of worth for the sale which can easily be dispensed with in the home, and at the same time bring some money to be used in the great Red Cross work.

Let all who will agree to donate articles for the benefit of the Red Cross work, please bring them to the building by Saturday. A committee will be there Saturday to arrange articles for the sale. Any perishable articles may be brought Monday morning.

R. A. Campbell will auction the sale. Those who have been asked for donations and have not yet given the committee an answer, should see one of the committee at once in order that some idea may be had of the articles which will be sold.

RAIN OF ONE AND SIXTEENTH INCHES FELL SATURDAY NIGHT

A fine rain fell Saturday night of one and one-sixteenth of an inch. The rain started to fall at ten thirty and continued for more than two hours, falling gently so that all of it went into the ground.

Owing to the high winds of last week the ground was getting dry on top and this rain puts everything in very fine condition.

The row crop is looking fine and will make a bigger yield of grain than has been harvested for several years.

Grass is doing fine and the cattle are fat.

Plows may be seen on every hand getting the ground ready for a big wheat crop.

REVIVAL MEETING TO CLOSE SUNDAY

The revival meeting which has been in progress for the past three weeks at the tabernacle will close Sunday night. Rev. Lockett Adair and his workers will leave Monday for Monday, Texas, where they will start in a meeting.

The meeting this week has been the best of the services. The attendance has been large and the interest has greatly increased. Rev. Adair is preaching powerful sermons which is stirring the men and women who attend the meetings.

So far during the meeting there have been more than seventy five conversions.

The prayer meetings will continue during Sunday. The attendance at these prayer meetings during the past week has been large. The young people's meeting at the Presbyterian church have been largely attended and have been highly spiritual.

Those who have not attended the meetings regularly at the tabernacle should not miss a single service from now until the close.

SAVE SAMPLES FOR AMARILLO AND DALLAS STATE FAIRS

Time is now short until the Panhandle and the Dallas State Fairs. Randall County must have a fine exhibit at both fairs.

Last year Randall county won first place at Amarillo and first place among the Panhandle counties at the Dallas Fair. Randall county must get busy now and get up her exhibit.

Every farmer should save good samples now and help with the exhibit.

Owing to the fact that the Dallas Fair starts the day th Amarillo fair closes, it is necessary to have two separate exhibits this year for the two fairs.

Mrs. G. W. Tannahill of Abernathy has moved here on account of the schools.

NORMAL WILL OPEN EIGHTH YEAR ON TUESDAY, SEPT. 11th

The eighth session of the West Texas State Normal College will begin on next Tuesday, September 11.

Secretary Shaw states that he is unable to give an estimate upon the attendance for the coming year, but there has been a good demand for catalogues and a large number of rooms have been secured by the students in the various houses near the Normal.

It is expected that the war will cut the attendance among the boys for the coming year and the drouth in many sections of the state may have some influence, but the attendance is generally expected to be as large as last year with probably a little increase.

The two years additional work will start this year, which will draw many advanced students who have gone to other institutions.

The new members of the faculty are expected to arrive during the latter part of the week.

Mr. Mogelock will take a year's leave of absence and attend Harvard where is working for a degree.

CANYON PUBLIC SCHOOLS WILL OPEN NEXT TUESDAY, SEPT 11th

The Canyon Public Schools will open next Tuesday for the school year 1917-18. Everything indicates that the school session will be highly successful.

Both of these young men will make splendid records in the new army.

Pierce Sells Calves at $35.

L. A. Pierce reports that he sold this week to Kansas parties 60 calves at $35.00. He states that this is the best price so far for range calves, but this is one of L. A.'s old tricks, out selling the other boys.

The work of the institute will close Friday afternoon.

Miss Erna Leseberg and Carl Bauer were married last Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Leseberg, east of Canyon.

A large number of friends from all over the Panhandle assembled to witness the touching ceremony which united these two splendid young people in the bonds of holy wedlock.

The afternoon was spent in a social way, a large wedding feast being served to the guests.

Large numbers of beautiful and useful gifts were received by the bridal couple.

Both of the young people are well known in Randall county. Miss Leseberg has lived here for a number of years with her parents and is a splendid young woman. Mr. Bauer is the son of Commissioner and Mrs. J. J. Bauer and is a thrifty young farmer.

After a wedding trip to Nebraska where they will visit their old homes, they will make their home in this county. The News joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

A GREAT FAIR.

That the Panhandle State Fair, to be held at Amarillo, October 8th to 13th, will be much better and bigger than ever before, is now an established fact. There will be upwards of 20,000 in premiums and purses to be contended for. There is $10,000 in the cattle division alone, $6,500 of which is offered in the Herford classes. Already enough entries have been announced to make the coming exhibition in the class with the Chicago Fat show and the Royal at Kansas City, and it will be better than the Denver and Fort Worth shows. If the people of the Southwest can be brought to realize this fact as many as 75,000 people should pass through the gates at the fair to see this feature alone. But this is only one of the main attractions. One of the best agricultural displays ever shown is already promised all over the Panhandle section. Never in the history of the fair has the amusement end received so much attention as is being given it this year. Secretary J. L. Van Natta informs us that there are more than fifty horses already entered in the harness races and he expects to see the number increased to eighty before the entries close. There is $4,000 in purses hung up for the races. Then Mr. Van Natta has secured several clean amusement features which will practically make "something doing" every minute. Among these latter, Mlle. La Bella and Dare Devil Hurley appear twice daily in their great automobile cloud swing, which has to be seen to be appreciated; Bell and Eva, do acrobatic and clown stunts that are right up-to-now; Grace Ayer, said to be the premier roller skater of the world

The Randall County News

Incorporated under the laws of Texas
C. W. Warwick, Managing Editor

Entered at postoffice at Canyon, Texas, as second class matter. Office of publication, West Houston St.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 PER YEAR

Treason—sedition—disloyalty are words seen often in the public press of today. We of this peaceful and country-loving community know little of these terms, and many people are of the opinion that they have been greatly exaggerated and overworked, while as a matter of fact they are terms applied to dangerous people working in all sections of the country. The government should shoot like a dog this class of individuals. They are the class who are destroying Russia today.

Real estate is changing hands so fast in Randall county that it is impossible to keep up with the changes. Randall county dirt is a profitable investment and every man who can should own a farm here. Not only own one, but work one. This is the best part of Texas, and when our section is properly settled, there will be a wonderful change take place in this community. We are in the live, growing section.

If Texas is ever divided, it will never be on account of the diversity of interests in the state which makes a large state impracticable, but it will be on account of the abuses and inequalities the old section heaps upon the new section. The expense of a new state government will not make much of a hit with the low tax seaker—but low taxes in Texas are now a thing of the far past in the establishment of the numerous new state institutions and the establishment of the complicated bureau system now fashionable in all governmental affairs.

Things have been happening so fast in Texas that the average citizen can't keep up with them. The senate and Governor Hobby has put a new bunch of regents in control of the university, all of whom are friendly to the institution. The senate has asked Chairman Allen to resign, which he refused to do, and impeachment proceedings are threatened in the house against him. The house passed the university appropriation bill which Hobby signed. Ferguson is missing a bunch of fun by not being Governor.

Indications are that war profits will be taxed very heavy—rightly so. There are a number of industries which have made profits of more than one thousand per cent on account of the war, while other industries have suffered. Congress first attempted to place a special taxes upon newspapers. Only at the last minute did the bodies realize that the war shouldered a great expense upon all newspapers which the plants had to bear without a chance for recourse.

The price of wheat was set at $2.20 which is fair enough for both producer and consumer. In war times the farmer should get more for his produce, owing to the higher cost of living while the consumer naturally expects to pay more for the necessities of life.

Talking of peace is absurd. There can be no peace until Germany is whipped, and whipped to a finish. It is either a fight to the finish now, or there will be another world war within twenty five years. Bill Hohenzollern will never be satisfied until he wins or gets externally whipped.

The impeachment trial of Governor Ferguson is now on before the senate. Indications are that the trial will be speedy and that the senate is the freest of politics the state has recently seen.

If Ferguson is impeached, who will get the glory? There are at least a dozen men ready to grasp said glory by the forelock and claim her for himself.

Ferguson pardoned 147 convicts before being put out of office. Wonder if he contemplated adding these to the ranger guard around the mansion and to his body guard.

While we are cleaning up Texas politics, why not clean up on the dirty pros who are mere anti politicians on the pro bandwagon?

The public school pupils are getting ready for school next Tuesday. The school promises to have a large attendance for the coming year.

Were Ferguson to be tried before the people of Texas, there is little danger of his retaining the office of Governor very long.

The rain Saturday night was a fine thing for the growing crop and for the crop which will soon be planted.

Conserve the Dairy Cows.

In the Agricultural Digest for July, the following statements are given under the above heading: "Meat from one cow will supply a sufficient amount of beef in a ration for two soldiers for a year; while milk from one cow of good average production will supply an equivalent food value for twenty soldiers for one year."

"In addition to this the cow pro-

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus, so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezeone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezeone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin. If your druggist hasn't any freezeone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

duces a calf for the future propagation of the production of milk. When she is slaughtered for meat her existence ends, but if used for milk production she will duplicate her work the following year. This alone is sufficient evidence of the supreme necessity for preserving this valuable animal.

"The dairy cow has another asset in that she consumes rough feed and produces the best human food. It should, for that reason, therefore, be the duty of the state and nation to immediately take steps to maintain and stimulate dairy production according to the proclamation, previously mentioned, in the following ways:

"First, by the prohibition of the slaughter of productive and profitable dairy cows and dairy heifers from good producing cows.

"Second, by the use of selected and efficient sires in the propagation of herds, since there are sires whose daughters have produced 550,000 pounds more butter fat during their lives than the daughters of the average bull.

"Third, by an extensive campaign to educate the farmers so that they will increase rather than decrease the number of efficient dairy cattle in their herds.

"Fourth, by arranging for some method by which the dairyman will receive proper remuneration for his products, so there will be an incentive for him to remain in the business.

"Fifth, by educating the consuming public to the food value and the relative economy of the use of milk and its products, to assist in the economy of food in present crisis."

Baby Bitten by Rattler.

The year old infant of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Pickle, the former employed upon the J. M. Love ranch north of this city, succumbed to the bite of a rattlesnake Saturday morning after being brought to this city for the care of physicians. The child had been playing in the neighborhood of the chicken house on the place when it came to the house with its hand swollen. Suspecting that the wound might be that of a snake bite, J. M. Love in company with the parents of the child brought it to this city for treatment. Within thirty minutes after its arrival the fatal poison had

Horse Drowned in Canadian River.

While attempting to cross the North Canadian river Tuesday just before noon on his way to town, Adolph Staub narrowly escaped being drowned, and one of his horses was strangled to death, being unable to hold its head above the water while tangled in the harness. His team was being led by his companion who walked in water two feet deep near the lower edge of the bridge. The horse on the left sided a little further to the left, stumbled off the edge into the swift water, taking with it the buggy and driver. Staub succeeded in swimming ashore and a man by the name of Holding came to the rescue of one of the horses.

Although the buggy and driver and horse on the left were in the water, the horse on the right managed to stay on the bridge. — Woodward (Okla.) Democrat.

Feed on Wheat Land.

T. J. Day visited the Enterprise office Saturday, with a report of fine crops in his section. Mr. Day says he has feed a foot high on the land from which he cut wheat three weeks ago.—Lorenzo Enterprise.

Campers Child Burned.

While camping near the Granada bridge in Prowers county, Colo., J. Rattler, wife and 5 children were living in a covered wagon. One night the mosquitoes were so bad that a smudge was built during the evening and some time in the night the wind rose, blowing sparks into the wagon and setting it on fire. When the family awoke everything was in a blaze and it was with difficulty that four of the children were rescued. The fifth burned with the wagon and contents. Nothing was saved and Mr. Rattler was severely burned in rescuing his family. Fifty dollars in bills which they had saved while hauling hay for a company at Holly, was burned also. The family was living on a homestead near Springfield, Colo., and Mr. Rattler was trying to make enough money to carry them through the winter.

HUSBAND SUFFERED.

Dear Editor:
"I sent for a box of Dr. Pierce's 'Anuric' Tablets for my husband, and he has been greatly benefited by them. He suffered from lame back and weak kidneys; kidney excretions being too frequent. After giving 'Anuric' a trial we are convinced that it is the best kidney medicine made. Will be glad to recommend it."
(Signed) Mrs. E. D. MILES.

Note.—Dr. Pierce, who is director and chief physician at the Invalids' Hotel, and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has been testing this wonderful medicine for the relief of over-worked and weakened kidneys. The relief obtained by sufferers from rheumatism, lumbago, etc., has been so satisfactory that he determined to place "Anuric" with the principal druggists. "Anuric" is not harmful or poisonous, but aids Nature in throwing off those poisons which cause so much suffering, pain and misery. Scientists assert this remedy is 37 times more potent than lithia. Send 10 cents for large trial package.

Enjoys Unique Experience.

Buck Greatrix, of Atlanta City, Wyoming, enjoys the distinction of having lived in two territories, one state and three counties and yet never to have moved from his one house. He came west in 1865 to grow up with the west. In 1868 he settled at Atlantic City, which then was in Carter county, Dakota territory. In 1869 the territory of Wyoming was created and Atlantic City was included in the sub division called Sweetwater country. In 1884 the county of Fremont was created from the northern part of Sweetwater county and Atlantic City was included in the new county. Finally in 1890 Wyoming was admitted to statehood, and Breatrix then achieved the distinction of having lived in two territories, one state and three counties and yet never to have moved his domicile.—Mountainair (N. M.) Independent.

Believes in Keeping the Plow Going.

C. J. Gardner, who is farming a couple of miles south, was in town Monday mingling with the crowd. When asked about his crop he stated that it was spotted from the dry weather but that he had some splendid feed. He planted early, got a good stand and kept the ground well stirred through the dry spell. He says this is the secret of successful farming in this country.

S. N. Jackson who is farming a couple of miles northwest of town has an unusually good crop for the year we are told. He got his crop planted early and through all the dry spell kept working it when others quit to wait for rain. In this manner he kept his stuff alive and green and when the rain did come it had nothing to do but respond to the moisture. Mr. Jackson is one of our best farmers, and he attributes his success to the fact that he never gives up for droughts or hails or other adversities.—Crosbyton Review.

The preliminary work for track laying on the Santa Fe's new line from Shattuck to Spearman was begun on Thursday, August 9, and it is now under full headway. There seems to be nothing to hinder them from reaching Spearman by December 1 and at any rate our next Santa Claus should come by rail instead of taking the Reindeer, Ford or auto route. The heavy bridge-building is about finished and the work will now progress more rapidly.—Hansford Headlight.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side... My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there. I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did. This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble. I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic. Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists. NC-122

DISTRIBUTION WHEAT CROP BEGINS-SEPT. 4

New York, Aug. 31.—The food administration grain corporation on Sept. 4 will begin to buy and distribute the wheat crop of the United States at the base price fixed Thursday night by President Wilson—$2.20 a bushel for No. 1 Northern at Chicago. This was officially announced tonight at the headquarters of the corporation here. The corporation's effective arrangement with the mills of the United States will begin Sept. 1, its statement says, but to provide a stable basis to country elevators and other buyers, now in doubt as to the value of their purchases when delivered at terminals, the corporation will, on Sept. 4, begin to buy wheat at its various agencies.

The price basis which the administration expects to maintain in accordance with the recommendation of the President for the period of this crop year will be at seaboard and interior primary markets as follows:

No. 1 Northern, No. 1 red winter, No. 1 hard winter, No. 1 Durum, No. 1 hard white, at New York $2.30, Philadelphia $2.29, Baltimore $2.29, Buffalo $2.25, Galveston $2.20, New Orleans $2.20, Chicago $2.20, St. Louis $2.18, Duluth $2.17, Minneapolis $2.17, Omaha $2.15, Kansas City $2.15.

The No. 2, of each of these grade 3c a bushel less.

The No. 3 of each of these grades 6c less.

The No. 4 of each of these grades 10c less.

Mixed wheat 4c less than the price of the predominating grade.

Dark hard winter, dark Northern spring and amber Durum 4c a bushel premium over the basic grade.

Soft red winter, red spring and soft white 2c discount under basic grade.

Yellow hard winter and white club wheat 4c discount under basic grade.

Red Durum and red Walla 10c under basic grade.

Mamback 10c under basic grade.

Lower grades will be purchased by sample on basis of relative values.

Purchases will all be on the basis of Government standards of grades of grain.

Grain bought for export will be paid for after being unloaded and warehouse receipt issued in a public elevator or in a private elevator where receipts are issued under safeguards provided by State governments.

Insurance for the Soldiers and Their Families.

The plan proposed by Secretary McAdoo for insuring at a low cost the soldiers of the country and making some allowance for their dependents, should receive the hearty support of the entire country, according to Colonel Richard Edmonds of the Manufacturers Record of Baltimore. The Record is in sympathy with the McAdoo insurance plan and agrees with Colonel Edmonds that nothing that this country can possibly do can really be called liberal or generous to these men as an offset to the lives which they are offering upon the altar of the world's civilization and our nation's existence. It is scarcely conceivable, he says, that anyone in the country should antagonize this plan on the ground that it will add a financial burden to the nation. The burden will be small as compared with the work to be done, and justice, not generosity, demands that we shall at least do as much for the soldiers and their dependents as Secretary McAdoo has proposed. Colonel Edmonds insists that congress would have to go a long distance beyond what his plan involves to make it generous. Simple justice requires that and national lawmakers should do at least as much as he has outlined.

Every man called to the colors in defense of the nation should be made to feel that his family will be cared for and that he will be protected if he lives to return, and thus be saved from the constant fear of the suffering of his family or his own poverty should he come back an invalid or cripple from the battlefield," editorializes our Baltimore contemporary. "Out of more than 100,000,000 people in this country, 90,000,000 or more cannot go to the battle line. They must let others do the fighting for them and their loved ones, and he least that these 90,000,000 can possibly do in justice to those who are standing between them and barbarism is to see that they and their families are cared for financially, that no fear of suffering shall minimize their strength on the battlefield, and that no fear of not being cared for when they return from the war shall embarrass their efforts in the great fight."

A soldier risks his life for his flag and his country. He is willing to shed his blood for the preservation of national honor and the liberties of his fellows. A civilian should be willing to part with some of his money to pay the cost of insurance for the man who goes forth to battle and for the protection of the dependents of the defender of democracy and champion of justice and humanity. Insurance for the soldiers and their families should enlist the support of all property owners, all patriotic citizens and all men who are willing to contribute something in this gigantic struggle for the annihilation of auto-craze and to usher in lasting peace for the civilized world.

What are Your Chances?

Conklin Mann has an interesting article in Leslie's Weekly with this caption: "What are your chances in war?" He has the statistics and while he admits that the total number killed in Europe staggers the imagination, the best available information points to a lower proportionate death rate than in any previous struggle. Proportionate losses are smaller than when the North and South fought it out for four bitter years. He marshals the facts to sustain his position. But 300,000 French soldiers have been discharged from the service on account of wounds though nearly 3,000,000 have been under arms constantly. "American soldiers go to the battle front under the most advantageous circumstances," reads the Mann story. "They are being taught all that the allies have learned in their years of war and they equipped with the latest methods and devices for offensive fighting. If preparation counts casualties will fall even lower than figures for the French army."

Individual Sacrifice is Demanded.

Last April, Arthur J. Balfour, the tall British foreign minister said to the American people upon his visit in this country: "Realize people of America that you face a real fight. Be prepared for the great individual sacrifices—for it will be demanded—Time will bring the war home to you—as it has done to us."

The British diplomat was astonished at the failure of the American people to take the war individually at heart at that time, and his significant comment was, "You will see."

The people of the United States are given to optimism; they refuse to consider seriously the conditions which give promise of a long, exhaustive conflict in which every resource of the nation will be taxed to the utmost. In the recent military success of the French and British forces in denting the Hindenburg line and in the internal dissension in Germany, the people of America see only what appears to them to portend to an early peace. Americans have abounding faith in the kind side of destiny and in their own resources. To build ships, make munitions and land money comprise the average American's idea of carrying on the war. The imminence of a world fails to sear itself in to the standards of living; wastefulness and extravagance continue. "It's too terrible really to happen; something will occur to bring about the end of the war," is the general attitude that prevails, despite the anked truth that these conditions have obtained in Europe almost since the war's beginning.

If the war is to be won by an actual crushing back of the lines, it will indeed be a long and bitter war. The German armies are not yet upon German soil—have not yet been pushed back from conquests of their first fierce drive. It is to be presumed that the further the German armies retire, the stronger will be the defenses they will occupy, and the long trench fighting may be necessary to break the deadlock. The probability that the war will be ended by other means than military conquest seems more likely but at present distant is the realization.

The American nation is facing the darkest hour of its life since the year 1776. The very soul of the nation is at stake. The sons of her soil have been called upon to undergo the greatest of individual sacrifice before the end comes. If humanity is to live, if civilization is not to crumble them we must prepare ourselves for individual sacrifices.—Plainview Herald.

Work earnestly, save steadfastly, and turn your face away from no man.

I Believe in the Power of Newspaper Advertising.

The press, I have found, is a prime factor in commercial activity of every kind. It is invaluable in broadening a market and in promoting understanding between industrial institutions and the public.

The press in a sense belongs to the public and enjoys its confidence and respect. That is fitting and proper, for I know of no greater and more unselfish force that is working for the interest of the public.

The unit of our national life is the community. On the prosperity of the community depends the prosperity of the nation. Fortunate is that community which has a good, live newspaper, for its editorial and advertising activities are second to no force in building up and developing its territory.

Our civilization is based on specialization and specialization is based on the finding of a market for the product of the specialist. The newspaper finds this market and develops it, thereby developing the home community, making it bigger and more prosperous and a more satisfying place in which to live.

Before a newspaper can make itself a power it has to absorb quantities of money and the best and untiring efforts of its many directors. Its founders had to show their faith in the community, because a newspaper, more than any other commercial institution, identifies itself with its locality and lives and grows only through that identification. It is time that we recognize what the founding and developing of the press requires on the part of the newspaper pioneers and those now in charge.

The press has made itself a great economic factor in the commercial activity of this age. It has demonstrated its worth to a point where I can say without hesitancy that I believe in the power of newspaper advertising to create, intensify and broaden business.

To gain a full realization of the influence of newspaper advertising one has only to imagine the effect upon the business of this country of a sudden stoppage of all means of

Words and Ideas.

Cleburne Review.—There are several hundred thousand words in the English language. Noah Webster himself would be overwhelmed with the multiplicity of words in this day. And of course it is quite impossible for any one person to possess a working knowledge of any greater per cent of these words. Shakespeare used about fifteen thousand words, probably more than any other man. The average vocabulary is said to be about five hundred words, while a great many people use possibly no more than one hundred words. Words represent ideas and convey thought, and the larger one's vocabulary, the greater power of mind will one possess.

State Press Dallas News.—The relation of vocabulary to mental power is at once an interesting and a different problem. It is not to be doubted that the continuity of thought, and hence, its very existence, is dependent on the acquisition of some means of communication. One can not think, except in a very primitive way, without words. Indeed, it is probable that whatever degree of mental action is possible without words or numerals is properly merely instinctive. But once man has acquired a working vocabulary, the range of the mind farther on is more or less independent of words. For instance, a man with a very small vocabulary may, nevertheless, possess a mind that is of great power of penetration in a field more or less divorced from the literary—the field of invention or mechanics, for example. To a man whose work lies in writing or speaking, however, the possession of a broad and detailed vocabulary is practically indispensable if he is to acquire any proficiency in that field. For breadth of vocabulary makes for exactness in writing and speaking; and for a writer or speaker to be able to say exactly what he means to say, and not merely approximately so, is to him of the highest importance. Of course, in another aspect, words are inimical to the development of thought. Phrases and expressions that have become hackneyed and stereotyped may be written or spoken without the entrance of any mental action whatsoever; and such short cuts to thought are conducive to rendering a man platitudinous instead of acute. The best kind of a vocabulary for a man to strive for is a vocabulary that will allow him to express his exact meaning in a way that will at the same time require of him that he think. High sounding and euphonious methods of writing and speaking may captivate the multitude, and persuade them that the speaker or writer is a genius. But unless conviction and sound analysis are behind each word the cultured man will not be fooled. A slovenly and vicarious vocabulary is the father of loose thinking. An exact and discriminating use of words however, makes for clear reasoning.

A Timely Editorial a Hundred Years Old.

The Independent: We had intended to write something here on American participation with England in the present war. But why should we, when what we wish to say has been so much better said nearly a century ago by one who can add the weight of his authority to the force of the argument? Accordingly, we quote: "Great Britain is the Nation which can do us the most harm of any one, or all on earth; and with her on our side we need not fear the whole world. With her, then, we should most sedulously cherish a cordial friendship; and nothing would tend more to knit our affections than to be fighting once more, side by side, in the same cause. Not that I would purchase even her amity at the price of taking part in her wars. But the war in which the present proposition might engage us, should that be its consequence, is not her war, but ours. Its object is to introduce and establish the American system, of keeping out of our land all foreign powers, of never permitting those of Europe to intermeddle with the affairs of our Nation. It is to maintain our own principle, not to depart from it. And if, to facilitate this, we can effect a division in the body of the European powers, and draw over to our side its most powerful member, surely we should do it. Nor is the occasion to be slighted which this proposition offers of declaring our protest against the atrocious violations of the rights of nations by the interference of any one in the internal affairs of another."

This was the reply that Thomas Jefferson sent in 1823 when President Monroe consulted him about the advisability of fighting on the side of the country which the United States had been fighting against ten years before. The question was, as Jefferson said, "the most momentous which has ever been offered to my contemplation since that of Independence. That made us a Nation, this sets our compass and points out the course which we are to steer through the ocean of time opening on us. And never could we embark on it under circumstances more auspicious." Since we can republish this without change of a word in support of the present Government, it is evident that President Wilson can not justly be accused of departing from the principles of the founder of his party.

Crowder Explains New Rule.

Washington, Aug. 25. — Provost Marshal General Crowder Saturday night explained the section of the new order regarding exemptions of married men with dependents issued from his office Saturday. The order followed President Wilson's suggestion to Secretary Baker that a more liberal policy toward married men be followed.

The President suggested that wives of men selected in the draft should not, because they had employment before marriage, be thrown upon their own resources or upon the charity of their own or their husband's parents for support.

The section covering this question Provost Marshal General Crowder pointed to as "the heart of the new rules", in discussing this order, he said:

"It means," he said, "that if a man has been dependent for the support of his family, not on his own efforts and labor, but on the assistance which was given him by his own or his wife's parents, he will not be subject to exemption. But if his wife and his children, if any, are dependent upon his own earnings for their support whether either has parents able to support the wife and children, he will be discharged."

"It must be understood, however, that this does not apply if part of his income on which he supports his wife and children is derived from a continuing course—that is, a legacy, an estate, land holdings, stocks, bonds or similar holdings, the income from which would continue to flow in to the wife during his absence and adequately support her. The same is true if she has such a source of income."

"But, if the livelihood of the woman and children, if any, depends entirely or principally upon the man's earnings, he is subject to discharge."

Cheer Up.

Though days of strife be drawing near, though war may last for many a year, it is not well to yield to fear; cheer up! Don't let your optimism fade; you give the foe untimely aid when you fear you make parade; cheer up! I have three uncles bearing arms; nine cousins went to war's arms, and yet my smile retains its charms; cheer up! They say we'll soon be short of meat, we'll be deprived of corn and wheat, but while we have enough to eat, cheer up!

They say we'll bear upon our backs the burden of a frightful tax; just now no man that burden packs; cheer up! They're designed to knock our spirits flat, and "they" are talking through a hat—cheer up! Don't cross the bridge until you're there; don't look ahead to borrow care; don't starve until your cupboard's bare; cheer up! Don't try to chill the hopeful chap; you'll never help him win a scrap by having tears upon your map; cheer up! Just now we need no talk of gloom, no prophecies of dole and doom; be cheerful as the flowers in bloom—cheer up!—Walt Mason.

The Value of Contentment.

Contentment is the secret of happiness.

What a priceless possession is happiness; wealth cannot buy it, nor can poverty drive it away; but poverty does not always have it, and wealth does not always possess it.

It is dependent upon no external conditions, but grows out of an internal condition.

Contentment is in the final analysis based upon trust in God, belief that He is over all, and that with His children all is well.

It is not fatalism; for it accepts the daily lot, not stoically but cheerfully and willingly.

It is essentially a characteristic of manhood, and does not come to us as a rule at an early stage in life.

Therefore we have to learn to be content.

Some have wondered if the fact that the American troops in France will be up against a foreign tongue will not handicap them and lower their military efficiency. Possibly, to some extent. But they can shoot in any language.—Yonkers Statesman.

It would be difficult to recruit a regiment of American women soldiers, as was done in Russia, because there are hardly that many women in America having no dependents.—Kansas City Star.

Olympic Finishes Improvements.

The Olympic Theatre has finished the improvements on the building, an extension being added to the alley. This gives a building 140 feet in length. A small stage has been added which may be used for a speaker's stand, but Manager Ford assures that no cheap shows will be allowed to come into the house as a result of the stage.

The additional seats have not arrived, but when placed there will be 499 opera chairs.

The Olympic has been doing a fine business since opening a few months ago, and the management takes a great pride in showing only the best and latest pictures obtainable. Mr. Ford states that announcement will soon be made of improvements in the excellent program already running.

Commissioners View New Road.

J. A. Guthrie conscripted the members of the Commissioners Court Friday afternoon and took them out in his Super Six to see roads of this and adjoining counties.

Those interested in good roads wish to have the Commissioners open a new road from Canyon to Amarillo, going east to the Dr. Ingham place, striking the railroad on the north side of the canyon, keeping to the east of the right-away until the road leading in to Amarillo was struck.

The work that is being done in Potter county on the roads was inspected.

The Commissioners were well pleased in the opportunity to look over the roads in a body.

It was not possible to act upon the question at the meeting last week but this will be taken up later.

The question to be decided by the court is whether the county can open this new road with less expense than it can put in first class order and maintain the old road.

Engineers who have looked at the new road say that for a period of years the county will save money by opening the new road as the drainage is perfect, whereas on the old roads there are many places which would have to be worked up now, and would be a constant expense in the future.

The Commissioners will take up the question at the next meeting of the Court to go further into the question.

A Safe Test

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Canyon people.

Mrs. M. A. Higginbotham, Canyon, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Holland Drug Co., several years ago and they proved very satisfactory. They cured me and I have not been bothered by my kidneys since."

Price .60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mrs. Higginbotham. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Paige cars have long since demonstrated their independence of all "price fields."

American men and women now buy a Paige—not because of the price tag which is attached to it—but because of its well established reputation as a fine mechanical product.

On this basis, the Paige will always represent a "preferred investment" among motor cars. Its actual cost in dollars and cents will always be an important, but an altogether secondary consideration.

Value of Good Roads.
As never before, hard-surface roads are going to mean prosperity to the American farmer, says a writer in the New York Engineering News Record. No small part of the great American problem of feeding the rest of the world rests on the serviceability of our country highways. The difference between mud roads and hard-surface roads will be the difference between crops rotting on the ground in many states and crops on the way to the world's markets.

It is admitted that never before have the railroads been so tied up with the transportation of industrial products. Building of the many army cantonments and the immense shipments of lumber and other construction material required for them is but one item in the transportation business which the establishment of these cantonments and military training camps will bring about.

If the pinch of railroad congestion has been felt by such shippers as the great industrial concerns, how much more will it be felt by the lone farmer, is the question asked by the editor of the eastern trade journal. If the motor trucks have helped solve the problem for the manufacturer, merchant and the contractor how much more will they help to solve the problem for the farmer, provided the farmer has the roads to utilize the trucks. Again he says more than ever before will the farmer appreciate good roads if he has them, or lament their absence if he has them not.

Texas needs thousands of miles of good roads; and the way to build them is to vote bond issues to defray the cost of first construction and then for commissioners' courts to appropriate the necessary funds for their maintenance.—Ft. Worth.

Colorado Town Hit By Cyclone.
This county was shocked last Saturday morning when the news came over the wires that the town of Two Buttes had been the victim of a cyclone. Only one man, J. C. Pruitt, a printer on the Sentinel was killed.

The damage to property was considerable, almost every building in the main part of town being damaged to a certain extent. The Wheeler and Stanton stores was completely demolished. This was a cement building and was one of the best store buildings in the town. The Gifford Real estate office and the U. J. Warren residence, both recently built, were totally destroyed. A number of other buildings were twisted and some unroofed. In almost every house in town the windows were broken out.—Springfield (Colo.) Democrat.

Boy Accidentally Shot.
Floyd Stewart, son of W. H. Stewart of the Grenville country, was accidentally shot in the right leg by Fred Mahannah last Tuesday. It seems the boys had been hunting and that the Mahannah boy was shooting at a bird, the shot going wild and striking the Stewart boy. The wound is quite serious.—Des Moines (N. M.) Swastika.
