

ELEVEN MEN GO TO ARMY MONDAY

There was a large crowd at the depot Monday morning to bid the boys good-bye who left in the third installment of Randall County's quota to the new army. Eleven men left under the charge of Devotie Winn. Millard Word and Orville Blankenship were designated to go, but Sunday the local board was notified that Blankenship had been granted a short leave in order to assist with the farm work, while in the Word case, it was stated that the question of his exemption was still unsettled, pending further investigation. The following were the men to go Monday: Leon Devotie Winn, Canyon Hill Herbert Miller, Canyon Edward Oscar Williams, Canyon Clarence Robert Farris, Canyon Marion Evans Baker, Amarillo John Peter Meyers, Happy Bruce Francis Gregg, Happy John Jackson Boling, Wildorado Elmer John Franklin Bauer, Happy Fred Henry Albert Bauer, Happy Edward L. Weber, Amarillo From now on, the district board has designated that the men be taken strictly in the order in which they appeared before the local board. The board has received no notice in regard to the time of leaving of the last bunch which must go under the first draft. Various rumors are afloat regarding another draft to be made at once, but so far the local board has received no notice of the same. F. P. Luke is in Amarillo this week in charge of a car load of C. O. Keiser's Herefords which are at the Fair.

PROF. J. A. HILL ASKING FOR BOOKS AND RELICS OF THE EARLY HISTORY

The primitive life of the great Southwest is rapidly passing away. In a very short time there will be few evidences that there ever existed here any other conditions than those now found. It is the desire of the West Texas State Normal College to collect as much as possible of the evidences of the past life of this part of the state, place them in a fire-proof depository, organize them, and make them accessible for the thousands of young men and women who attend this institution. As long as such material remains scattered here and there it is of little value and will eventually disappear. Will you not help us in this enterprise and thereby render a service to the youth of our section? For convenience we have listed a few articles below to give you an idea of the kind of material wanted. We also publish a list of books, which, for the most part, are out of print, but which would be serviceable to us. Address communications to Pres. R. B. Cousins, or to the undersigned. Bancroft (H. A Mother's Guidance

The mother who advises her daughter to use "Mother's Friend" can rest assured that the crisis will be one of much less pain and danger.

"Mother's Friend" is a safe, external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence in relieving pain, discomfort and nausea, and is a most grateful encouragement to the young woman awaiting the happiness of coming motherhood. The action of "Mother's Friend" makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus tension and strain upon the muscles and ligaments is avoided when baby arrives.

Nervousness and twitching spells and that constant strain known to so many women is avoided. "Mother's Friend" is the prescription of a famous physician and may be had at the drug store. It will surely prove of the greatest value, not only to the mother, but to the health and future of the child.

Write to the Bradford Regulator Co., Dept. C, 200 Lamar Building, Atlanta, Ga., for their book, "Motherhood and the Baby". It is free and is a book which every woman should have. Every expectant mother should aid nature for by so doing pain at the crisis is avoided.

Normal School Postponed.
According to the terms of a bill passed by the legislature, the building of the three new Normal schools is postponed, the first to come in 1919 the second in 1920 and the third in 1921. The Alpine school will be opened first and the board of regents will decide which of the other two shall open next.

Under this new arrangement, Pres. R. E. Cousins will remain at the head of the West Texas State Normal College until possibly 1920 or 1921, should the board decide to complete the new arrangements of presidents as was announced a few weeks ago.

The people of Canyon are very glad that Mr. Cousins is to continue at the head of the Normal, notwithstanding the fact that they had great faith in the ability of Mr. Hill to make a great school here, had the original plans of the board been completed.

Vaterland, German Ship, Will Carry Americans to French Battlefield.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 6.—Kaiser Wilhelm himself has contributed Uncle Sam's greatest aid in transporting armies to France.

Thanks to the kaiser's orders to the German shipping companies, Uncle Sam has today one ship which can transport half a division or over 10,000 men, with all their equipment. The ship was designed primarily for that purpose. The giant Vaterland, outwardly a floating passenger palace, when stripped of her ornaments, is the world's greatest troop transport.

As if the submarine were foreseen, the Vaterland is equipped to withstand submarine attack better than any ship afloat. Gun platforms for a whole flock of rapid firers were cunningly built into her. Her speed enables her to run away. Through a system of watertight compartments she is practically unsinkable. If struck squarely by two or three torpedoes she would remain afloat.

As Uncle Sam's engineers have proceeded to remodel the Vaterland since the American flag was hoisted over her, they have been running in to surprise after surprise. They have found their work already done for the most part.

The suitability of the Vaterland for transport purposes has heightened the suspicion that she was built especially to carry a little army for a surprise attack on a distant coast—the United States or Brazil in all probability—if things had gone as the kaiser planned, and our turn had come.

The highest military experts in Germany were consulted in the building of the Vaterland. And now their pet weapon is turned against themselves.

The Vaterland can cross the Atlantic in less than a week. She could take 20,000 men per month to Europe.

The troops sailing on the Vaterland can drill every day. On her giant after-deck a whole regiment can deploy.

No troops have ever sailed the seas in the solid comfort enjoyed by the boys who go "over there" in the Vaterland.

Thank you, Bill!

The only thing which seems to be Kerensky's success as a dictator is that he can't dictate.—Nashville Southern Lumberman.

A German Balance Sheet.

Three years ago Germany began this war for the conquest of middle Europe. What has she gained? What has this gain cost her?

She gained by her arms the territories of Belgium, Luxemburg, Serbia a small but rich section of northern France and parts of Lithuania, Poland and Roumania, a total of a little less than 204,000 square miles.

She has lost: Except for an insignificant corner in southern Africa, all her colonies, more than 100,000 square miles.

Practically all her shipping not bottled up in Bremen and Hamburg, a loss estimated in tonnage as 3,600,000.

Of the flower of her youth, more than 2,000,000.

In cash, nearly $20,000,000,000 to be added to her national debt.

Before the war, though unpopular as a people, Germany was honored among all nations for her intellectual scholarship and her industrial efficiency. She has lost irretrievably this respect and won in its place the mingled hatred and contempt of the civilized world. Scarcely a considerable neutral nation is left—except whose safety compels their neutrality.

No one thinks Germany can retain her gains. No one imagines that she can recover her losses. It is not strange that some of the German people are seriously discussing among themselves the question whether it is not time to change their business managers.—The Outlook.

Burns all the gasses in coal which in soft coal amounts to more than half the fuel and which are wasted up the chimney with the ordinary under-draft stove. The two top-drafts discharge highly heated air into the combustion chamber with a rotary motion, which mixes it with the rising gasses more thoroughly than is possible with a single draft and these gasses are thus oxidized and burned. The stove has a larger positive radiating surface than any other stove of the same diameter. Its handsome appearance with door surfaces milled air tight are additional points in its favor and are not found in any other hot blast. Avoid so-called air-tight stoves having side feed doors.

The News office has been a busy place during the past three weeks. In addition to the 28 page edition of our own paper last week, we had a ten page edition of the Southwest Plainsman to print. The week previous to that the Plainsman put out a 24 page edition while we had ten pages, making in all 72 pages of paper printed in our plant in two weeks in addition to the average run of job printing. The bunch worked day and night and both papers came out on time. The farmers who are not acquainted with the Southwest Plainsman should get in touch with it. J. W. Cheney of Amarillo is business manager and Mrs. Cheney is editor. The paper they publish is a credit to any section of this country and is devoted to the farming industry of this section. The information obtained in the Plainsman is of great value to any farmer or stockman.

The senate devoted the last hours of its valuable time to listening to the windjaming of L. F. Pollette, who wound up by telling the nation that he meant everything he had said and would continue to say what he pleased—all of which was unnecessary for any person who knew anything about Bob and his ways.

If you have not been to the Panhandle State Fair, do not miss the opportunity. The Hereford cattle show is the greatest ever held in the world. The greatest animals of this country are there. Be sure to see them.

Porter Whaley has been designated by the government to do special work in the Panhandle in the food conservation campaign. Mr. Whaley is now in Houston receiving his instructions.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells how to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callus without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus. If your druggist hasn't any freezezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.

Church repairs are now completed. The building presents quite a neat appearance, painted white on the outside, newly papered on the inside, new doors on the east; seats, rostrum and window facings newly stained; entire windows painted white with screens on the outside. W. I. Lane had the work in charge and has done quite a part of it himself. Guy Carter deserves the thanks of the church people for the carpenter work which he gratuitously.

BLACKLEG IMMUNO

Results Count

Canyon, Texas, Feb. 10, 1917.

Purity Biological Laboratories, Sioux City, Iowa.

Gentlemen:

I have been using Dr. Haslam's production for the past eighteen months, having commenced using the double treatment a year ago last fall on a bunch of calves which were dying very rapidly, after being treated with several other vaccines. Since that time we have had no occasion to use the double treatment, but have used the germ free vaccine very extensively and have not lost a single calf from blackleg. We have used over two thousand doses on registered calves and several thousand doses on grade calves, and it is the only vaccine I have ever secured which seems to be an absolute preventative of the blackleg. It is my opinion that this vaccine could not be recommended too strongly. Very truly yours,

(Signed) C. O. KEISER.

A life preventative for calves—to be used on calves not sick with this highly fatal and dreaded disease—it prevents them from contracting the disease.

BLACKLEG KURO

It cures the calves after they have the disease and prohibits the spread of the disease in the herd.

These serums are produced under the supervision of the government and the users are fully PROTECTED and the serums fully GUARANTEED.

Why pay 50 cents for immunizing your calves when you can get the genuine for 35 cents.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES ARE ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED TO SATISFY

At a time when every dollar you spend ought to be looked at twice before you part with it, just remember that you ought to look more than twice at what you are going to get for it.

Hart Schaffner & Marx have based their whole business on the belief that all wool is best for men and young men's clothing; that cotton mixtures, though some what cheaper, are not economy.

They have maintained a strict all wool standard in spite of steadily rising costs of all wool, in the face of the clamor for cheaper clothes, we know that the men and young men of America share this belief that all-wool is the best; is real economy.

Good clothes like every thing else, cost more than they formerly cost, but if all-wool is best and cheapest in the long run, you ought to have it. It means more style, more service, more satisfaction. Its worth the price.

In spite of the War the weavers of England, Scotland, Ireland, and America have supplied the wool goods for these clothes.

We believe we are upholding and strengthening the call for economy in offering these all wool clothes, with an unlimited guarantee of satisfaction.

The Hart Schaffner & Marx label in a garment is the sign of all wool, and an absolute guaranty of satisfaction; a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

HAZEL PARK, Reporter.

Vitalizing Canyon High School.

Patrons of the Canyon High School, we urge you to give the high school report in this issue your unparalleled thought. It is not enough, as is so often the case, for you to read casually this monthly school report. It states briefly all the factors that so far underlie the vitalizing of your school; it shows the cooperation of superintendent, teachers and pupils in the up-building of the school; and it shows convincingly the plans, the ideals and the progressive spirit of your most able Superintendent. This task of vitalizing the school has been assumed by the teachers cheerfully and willingly, not only that they may give your children the advantages of a modern school, but also that they may train them to be worthy citizens of our great democracy.

In this report your attention is called especially to the organization of the study hall, to the institution of student self-government, and to the instruction in community and national life begun in all classes. The study hall has already more than fulfilled the anticipations of both superintendent and teachers. They see in the pupils an increasing interest not only in studying quality, but also in absorbing themselves in a most orderly manner.

In connection with the study hall, the institution of student self-government is being emphasized. The superintendent and teachers believe that the pupils of the high school need to develop themselves along the lines of individual responsibilities, and independence. Experience has shown, moreover, that those pupils who are held under rigid rules and subjected by those in authority often are wholly unable to act wisely and intelligently when suddenly thrown on their own resources. The Canyon High School, therefore, is concerning itself with developing responsibility by giving each boy and each girl an opportunity for responsible conduct.

Lastly, the high school is being vitalized by giving suitable lessons on instruction bearing directly on community and national life. To this end a number of excellent periodicals have been introduced. These periodicals establish points of contact with world-life, with national-life, with community-life, with occupations, with many points of place interest, and thus socializes the pupils unerringly. This study and instruction will lead the pupils to a higher understanding of patriotism. "It will lead them to know that living for one's country is just as patriotic as lying for it; that the heroes of peace are as worthy as the heroes of war."

Commissioners Assist in Fairs.

At the monthly session of the commissioners' court Monday it was voted to assist the exhibit committee from the Canyon Business Men's Association in the exhibits from the county at the Panhandle and Dallas Fairs. $200 was voted for this purpose.

The court ordered Normal and College streets in the Normal addition opened. This addition is outside the corporate limits of Canyon and is therefore under the jurisdiction of the commissioners court.

DON'T MISS THIS, the Greatest of All Fairs

A Plains Dairyman Talks.

One of the most practical and interesting talks made at the recent session of the Panhandle Farmers Congress, was that of R. L. Mobley, a dairyman who lives 8 miles north of Amarillo. Mr. Mobley had not come to the meeting with the expectation of making a speech and he simply told his story in a straightforward, neighborly fashion. He said:

Gentlemen, I will be glad to make a few remarks, although I didn't come up here for the purpose of making a speech. You see the kind of clothes I have on. The fact is I dropped in to take a neighbor along with me on my return home from my day's work. However, I will try to interest you a few minutes. I suppose you have called on me because you want to hear something in regard to my practical experience. I am not a book agent and I am not a public speaker—I am a farmer, and a dairy farmer at that. Now, while I am doing the talking, I don't want you to think I am bragging, I hope you won't think that, because I am going to tell you simply what I have been doing out here in the west and am not inclined to any self-praise in the matter, and I will say in the start that for whatever we have been able to accomplish I give my wife all the praise. Just a few years ago I was a cotton farmer and a renter, renting from a wealthy lady in Fort Worth. This lady happened one day to see our children and she said, looking at the little fellows, "what a fine family you have, Mrs. Mobley. It won't be long until they are big enough to get out into the cotton patch." When I got home that evening my wife was mad and she said: "We have worked hard enough and long enough at this kind of farming. We will never get anywhere with it. We will go out west and get some of that cheap land before it gets so high we can't buy it." I couldn't see how we could talk about anything of that kind. I couldn't figure out how we could make even a start, but she said, "We must make the effort—we have got to get out and try." So I made up my mind right there and I said, "Well, you and me are partners and if you say so we will turn this place over and we will go west and see what we can do." So I went to the rich lady and out of it, but we sold out what we had and came west, and when we got to Amarillo I had just one thousand dollars. I had been renting land and working hard all my life and there I had just that thousand dollars to show for it. I put it in Fuqua's bank and went to looking around and finally went out west of town and bought eighty acres of land and one Jersey cow, and when I had made the check and was coming away I tell you I had the blues—I was feeling awful bad. I said to myself "the only thing I can see to do is to go to work killing and skinning pole cats." But I want to say that I have never seen a place that offers the opportunities that Amarillo does if you take hold of the right thing. So I bought that eighty acres, like I said and I went to peddling milk and butter. Now, of course you know and I know that looked like a slim chance and not much of an establishment for a dairy business—but that isn't all there is to the business. It don't all depend on the outfit or the apparent prospects—it depends on what you do with your outfit. Some of the old timers around here felt awful sorry for me. I remember Felix Franklin said "there is one poor devil that is going to starve to death," but he was one of the big ranch men and he didn't understand what I was trying to do. I remember that there was one gentleman come out here along about that time with a lot of mighty fine stock and some money. He bought the county farm and started out in good shape, but about the third year he got up and left there busted flat—two thousand dollars and all his cattle gone. I built up my herd one by one, making one cow pay for another. I paid $1400.00 for that place, $400.00 down and in three or four years I had the place paid for, with them cows. I worked hard every day, early and late, but I went home every day with some change in my pocket and the first thing I knew I had started a bank account—and it wasn't very long until I had that place paid for. Then my wife said, "this place is too small; we have a big family and if we are going to take care of them right, we have got to get away from here and get something bigger." So I began to look around for a section of land.

I bought a section of land from Brother Jenkins, about 450 acres in grass and 200 acres in cultivation and from my dairy on that section began putting out about eighty pounds of milk a day. As I said before, I have been building up my herd a cow at a time, but I have also been culling out this herd from time to time. Whenever I think a cow don't pay, I cut her out and sell her for beef. In the matter of feed, I try to have all the ensilage I can every year. I hope I will have enough to fill my silo this year, although we have had a mighty dry streak out there this summer. I find the silo a great advantage over just cutting and stacking. It dries out and won't produce the milk that silage will. And I want to say I think this is the finest dairy country I have ever seen. When I lived at Fort Worth I paid strict attention to the cattle ticks every summer and in this country we don't have ticks and they are fine and fat and in good condition all the year. As I said, I think this is just the finest dairy country in the world, and if I could just get it into the minds of the farmers the way I see it and what I think they ought to do, it just appears to me we could have the greatest stock country on earth, because it is such a fine healthy country.

I am partial to the Holstein cow. It is a large fine animal and has a large smooth udder and gives more milk. You can get five or six gallons from a Holstein cow where you could get only two or three from a Jersey and you have so much more skimmed milk for your chickens, hogs and calves. I have 35 fine young heifers that I have raised on skimmed milk and I have sold animals that were raised on skimmed milk that weighed 1500 pounds. You can take that Holstein cow and from the surplus milk raise your chickens, hogs and calves and get the same amount of cream that you would from a Jersey. And then—if any of my cows get sick, it just clogs up the udders and it will affect the Jerseys quicker than any other cows I have. And besides, the Holstein will get up and rustle much better than the Jersey.

It is a little bit particular job to feed a dairy cow. You have to watch what you are doing or you are liable to founder them and make them sick. But you can feed them all the ensilage they want. You can give it to a cow in the morning until she leaves it in the manger and when she comes in at night she is just as anxious as ever to get at that ensilage. Let your cow have lots of ensilage and she will give a lot of milk.

I am interested in the cattle business and I talk with these dairymen wherever I find them flocked together. I have talked with them a good deal about these Holsteins they shipped in from the North. They were all afraid of the Holstein proposition at first, but when they looked into it more thoroughly they concluded to take hold of it, believing that somebody was going to make a pile of money, and so they went into the deal and went north and bought the cows. I didn't buy any of these cows because I raise my own. I raise no male calves I have a sale for all my own milk, but sometimes I go to the factory and buy milk. I will spend a great deal to raise these fine Holstein calves—and therefore I don't have to buy any. I have about forty dairy cows and 35 or 40 fine heifers right now. All these people who bought Holsteins are mighty well pleased. They didn't expect them to do as well the first year as they will do next year, but anyway, they say they are doing as well as they expected them to do. Mr. Sheppard is an awful fine dairyman and he says that these cows are right up with the best of his cows. He says some of them are coming up to my cows. I don't see why people should not be in-

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly... Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children... Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

interested enough to send and get a whole lot of these cows into this country. They would if they knew what I know. They certainly would bring in a few carloads right now if they knew what the dairy cow will do for us here in the west. We may make a wheat crop here every four or five years. I never did sell but one crop of wheat and that made 18 1-2 bushels to the acre, and then I said it is just like gambling to raise wheat in this country. We may raise it and we may not raise it. I have never tried but that one crop of wheat and I am going to stick to the dairy.

I started in with $1000.00 in Fuqua's bank and I have worked and traded around until now I have got where today I would not sell out for less than $20,000.00. Why can't all the farmers do as well, instead of sitting around on goods boxes and talking about the government—why can't they go to work and sell milk. They could raise feed crops for ensilage to put into dairy cows and raise these fine heifers and make an independent living, but instead of that they don't seem to know how to manage. They are people for all purposes in this world and it seems that some men are always going to work for wages in spite of everything. I am going to let the other man work for me, but I don't see why a man can be contented to work just as hard for wages as he would for himself. I tell my man I don't see how he is going to live on $50.00 a month—but what I intended to say was that I started in here in this country without any credit and nothing but my little home out here.

But I have never suffered a minute. Of course I had some recommendations when I came, but I have never suffered a minute for anything at all, not even for money, and now I tell you I have a section of land paid for, eighty dairy cows, automobiles to deliver milk in, and I do my milking with a machine—as I tell them I do my milking with a machine. Every now and then I used to sell a customer a lot of milk—maybe eight or ten dollars worth—and when I came to collect they would tell me to come around tomorrow or the day after tomorrow, and when I came around tomorrow they would be in Missouri or Oklahoma. Now I do a wholesale business and I get good spot cash for everything I sell and I wouldn't pay over a nickel for everything I owe anywhere, and I could go over there to Toll Ware's bank in the morning and borrow two thousand dollars and never give a cent in the world security. Every other man could do the same if he would get up and hit the ball. I will say in this connection now another thing. When I bought my section of land out north of town I went into debt, safe to say, right close to four thousand dollars here in Amarillo. I was strongly advised not to undertake so much.

The best friend I have in town did his best to keep me from making the trade—Mr. Burgess—you know it was costing me a thousand dollars to improve this section of land north of town—and he said: "Mr. Mobley, you have worked awful hard a long time and I hate to see you lose that place you have paid for. If you make that trade and ever start down hill, every man you owe will jump on you for every cent you owe." And I said: "I know that, but if I don't I won't have it. The only thing that will keep me from making that trade is this—I have got to have a thousand dollars worth of lumber—will you credit me for that lumber?" and he said: "Send in your wagons." Today I don't owe a cent in Amarillo.

The Bible says "owe no man," but it don't mean just that—it means don't owe a man more than you can pay. It seems to me that God has blessed me—wonderfully blessed me. I was expressing myself to one of my friends the other day something to this effect and he said "Yes, and he has been getting you up at four o'clock every morning, too."

(And then Mobley ducked.)

Can Corn for Cattle.

Less grain can be fed by many dairymen without reducing milk production, provided they feed more silage and legume hay. Less grain will be available for feeding to cattle, for much more than usual is needed now for human food, and the emergency demands that every effort be made for its conservation. Milk production must be maintained—hence, every effort should be made to substitute other feeds for grain in the dairy ration. To do that, the silo will help.

Fruits and green vegetables are canned so as to supply succulent and palatable foods to the family during the winter. Succulence is just as essential to the cow as to a human being. The abundant milk flow obtained from Jané pasture, to a large extent, is due to the succulent of the grass. Silage provides succulent feed during winter, when pasture is not available. With silage in the ration, dairy cattle can be kept in the condition of health common to animals on pasturage.

The Farm Paper of the Southwest

Senator Willacy's sensational story "The Heavy Hand of Invisible Rule" will begin in the Oct. 20 issue of FARM AND RANCH. It is written in fiction form, but it will throw the searchlight of cold facts on all the new departments, soft jobs, traveling expenses, salary grabs and other rank extravagances of the invisible forces that control our state Government, and which you have to pay for.

It will show you clearly why and how the cost of governing Texas has trebled since 1907. It is something you ought to know. It begins in the Oct. 20th issue. Don't miss it.

The digestive system of a cow is well situated for the utilization of large quantities of green grasses and other coarse, succulent material. Silage is palatable and no other feed will combine so well with dry hay and a little grain to produce maximum economical results.

"Silaging" is an excellent way of preserving the mature corn crop or of saving one which for any reason must be harvested before maturity. About 40 per cent of the total food material in the corn plant is in the stalks and leaves. When the farmer harvests only the ears he loses nearly one-half of the crop; on the other hand, when the crop is put into the silo the losses are very small. When drought, frost, or insects attack a field of corn before it is ripe the entire crop may be lost unless the farmer has a silo ready in which to preserve it.

No feed crops can be so successful harvested under widely varying conditions as those that are put into the silo. Only in case of drought or frost is it necessary to rush the filling of the silo; rain or dew on the forage does not injure the silage.

The silo at all times, and particularly now, offers to the farmer one of the best means of reducing his feed bills. The present great National emergency places these questions before every farmer who keeps cattle—have you a silo? If you have not, your herd is not most economically fed; why not build a silo and fill it before frost comes? If you have one, is it big enough to supply all the silage your cattle can eat before the next crop is harvested? If not, build another one. You can buy one ready to erect, or you can build it yourself. Home-made silos of concrete or wood can be erected with little trouble.

Call on the extension department of your State agricultural college for advice or write to the dairy division, United States department of agriculture, for bills of material, with full specifications for silos of different capacities.

And the Kaiser Ducked.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, single-handed and alone whipped the German Kaiser in 37 seconds in the year 1902. Germany decided to occupy Venezuela. Colonel Roosevelt, then President Roosevelt, warned the ambassador of the Teuton empire to notify the Kaiser to keep off the grass.

His ambassadorship was a timid man and neglected to inform Wilhelm as directed by the chief executive of the United States.

England was backing Germany. Was Theodore equal to the occasion of the great crisis? Yes. He ordered Admiral Dewey to get up steam, go to South America and pound hades out of the German fleet.

Of course the German ambassador came out of his trance, flung aside his timidity, cabled the Kaiser and the war was won without the shedding of a drop of blood or the firing of a gun.

All this is history made by the Colonel and a man who is his own historian is certain to keep the record straight.

Think of it. The world war has cost $3,000,000,000 and ten thousand lives. The colonel's war with Germany over Venezuela cost the price of Dewey steaming up and the cablegram sent to the Kaiser by the German ambassador.

Uncle Sam paid for the steam and the Teutonic taxpayers the cablegram. "How to Meet and Throttle a Crisis" should be read by every American. Or with the battle!—Ft. Worth Record

Love.

Van Alstyne Leader: Love is a great homemaker that makes even drudgery of housekeeping a pleasure and home life is a foretaste of the bliss of heaven. One can not get too much love into one's homemaking, but too little.

Love is the one great, competitionless homemaker. And there is no reason why a Van Alstyne editor should not know it as well as anyone else. Some cynics in every generation affect to belittle love, to ascribe to it evanescent and trivial qualities and to set above it considerations of convenience or money, or even the sort of usefulness presumed to inhere in mere child-bearing. But love goes on conquering and defying all competitors.

Love makes marriage and marriage makes the home, and to reduce marriage to a duty which men and women owe to the State is to rob it of its infinite sweetness and class it with the instinctive matings of the soulless species. Love is not a prompting for the behoof of posterity, but a realization of spiritual capacity, a yearning for the companionship, the touch, the sight the responsiveness of that one whose personality is the competence of the other's. Love is selfish in that it is restless without its own; love is blind in that it sees not the imperfections borne by the beloved; love is kind in that it freely serves, and love is beautiful in that it champions, defends, strives and builds for its own. Love is individualistic; for it does not wish to invite the public into its privacy; love is anti-socialistic, for it does not consent to share with strangers. — State Press.

Store is Burglarized.

Pipkin's grocery store was broken into Monday night, admittance being gained through a window and the door then opened from the inside.

It is impossible to know just how much goods were taken, but it seemed to those employed there that a considerable amount of flour was gone besides the case goods missing. The cash register was relieved of the change which had been left there during the night.

So far there is no trace of the thieves.

NORMAL WINS 6-3 FROM CLOVIS HIGH

The Normal football team won in the game Saturday with the Clovis high school by a score of 6 to 3.

The game went to the Normal on account of a much heavier team, but the brilliancy of the game was easily captured by the visitors. The Clovis team was full of pep and push and put up one of the scrappiest games ever played here.

The Normal team was slow and relied more on beef than brains. Clovis received west, on the 23 yard line. A heavy wind was to their back. They failed to gain and kicked to the 45 yard line.

Upon getting the ball the Normal made four fine gains and then attempted to carry the ball 9 yards, on a fourth down, losing the ball in Clovis' critical territory.

Clovis carried the ball by the forward pass route to the Normal's 50 yard line where a forward pass was intercepted. After three attempts at gain, the Normal punted to the 30 yard line. Clovis started another series of gain and went to the Normal's 30 yard line, where the ball was lost at the loss of the first quarter.

The Normal started the second quarter on their own 30 yard line, but after three gains were forced to kick, the ball going to the visitor's 18 yard line. The first penalty of the game was assessed to the Normal, being 5 yards. Clovis carried to the ball on a forward pass to the 45 yard line where it was lost. The Normal returned to the 30 yard line where another change was taken at making downs, and was lost. Clovis failed to gain, punted, Jackson for Normal returned ball to 20 yard line where a place kick was attempted, the quarter ending as the ball was kicked.

No score during the first half. The Normal received west in the opening of the third quarter on the 35 yard line. The team made a good stand and marched down to the visitors' 30 yard line when Jackson got away for a touchdown; goal failed; score Normal 6, Clovis 0.

Clovis received on the 32 yard line and on the first play Jackson intercepted a forward pass. The Normal lost the ball on the visitors' 32 yard line when attempting to make 9 yards on the last down. Clovis got busy, and with Rayburn carrying the ball went to the Normal's 47 yard line where they lost the ball on downs, and the quarter closed.

The last period was largely played in the Normal's territory with the rooters fearful that something was going to happen as the visitors came dangerously close to the goal a number of times. Just as the period was closing the visitors gave up hope of a touchdown and put over a drop kick on the 15 yard line, making the score Normal 6, Clovis 3.

Leslie Smith in Sousa's Band

The musical world was stirred a few weeks ago when John Philip Sousa, the world's greatest band director, joined the navy in order to devote his time in serving the government as band director. He was at once commissioner Lieutenant and given directors to organize a band.

One of our neighboring town boys, Leslie E. Smith, of Hereford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, formerly of Canyon, is a member of Sousa's great band, being 2nd class baritone.

Mrs. Smith sent to the News clippings from the Kansas City papers regarding the band's visit to that city and the work of the organization.

Leslie's friends in Canyon are certainly proud to know that he was able to get into such a great organization.

Mrs. Cody of Georgetown is visiting with her son Prof. Cody of the Normal. Mrs. C. M. Ackerman left Tuesday for Memphis to attend the meeting of the Presbytery.
