

SWINE BREEDERS PROGRAM JAN. 1st

Best Speakers in the State Will be in Canyon for the Meeting—Sale Will be Big Feature.

R. E. Prewitt, President of the Northwest Texas Swine Breeders Association, called the News from his ranch in the Ceta community Monday stating that he had just returned from Childress where he conferred with the secretary of the association regarding the program of the meeting to be held in Canyon January 21-22.

Mr. Prewitt stated that the program will be ready for publication in the next issue of the News.

He is highly pleased with the prospects of the program, which includes some of the best speakers in this section of the state.

The secretary is now at work on the catalogue of the sale, which will include about forty of the best hogs from the leading herds of Northwest Texas.

MRS. MARTHA ANNA SCOTT DIED SUNDAY AT SON'S HOME

Mrs. Martha Anna Scott died Sunday at the home of her son, Will I. Scott in the southwest part of the county, west of Happy. Mrs. Scott had been in good health until a week previous when she was taken ill with pneumonia, from which attack she recovered.

Mrs. Scott is well known to all of the people who have lived here for any length of time. She has made her home with her son and been very active in assisting in every way possible in looking after the duties of the ranch.

Mrs. Scott was 69 years, 2 months and 2 days of age but had the health and vigor of a woman twenty years younger.

The funeral services were held at the Cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. Thos. Nance of the Hereford Christian church of which denomination she was a member.

Mrs. Scott leaves two sons, Will and Alex, the former a well known stock-farmer of Randall county, and the latter a pastor of the Christian church in Dallas, one daughter, Mrs. Finis Bradley of Memphis, and a sister, Mrs. Ellen Ewen of Memphis. All were present at the funeral.

Heyser For Treasurer.

By request of my friends and general feelings of myself, I am announcing myself a candidate for County Treasurer. I have been a tax payer since February 1888. When I was a young man I did not want a county office, but now things are very different. My books will show that I am qualified to fill the office I am asking for. The office does not pay very much and the war depreciation of the dollar made it pay less. I live in town and have nothing to do but attend to the office. So if you will give me the office I promise you that I will make you a better officer. It will do you and me both good. Thanking the people for their past favors and soliciting their votes and influence.

I am for County Treasurer.
S. H. HEYSER.

Bought 30 Registered Heifers.

H. C. Taylor was here from Missouri Saturday and bought 30 head of registered heifers which he shipped to Belle Center, Ohio.

He took six from the E. E. Adams herd, nine from H. C. Dolcater, nine from Tom Dowlen and six from Nealey Bros.

He contemplates coming after several loads more.

Drew Talking Machine.

The giving away of the talking machine by the Cayon Supply Co. Saturday drew a very large crowd to the store.

George Thorp, who worked for Fitz Friemel, held the lucky number.

City Property Sold.

P. K. Bryan of Claude bought the John Rowan home Friday, and will move to Canyon about the first of the month.

Land Sale Closed.

J. A. Chestnut Saturday bought the J. A. Weston section northeast of town, upon which J. P. Grimes has been living, for $21,000.00.

CHRISTMAS TREES AT THE CHURCHES

All of Canyon's Churches Will Hold Services on Christmas Eve—Appropriate Exercises.

All of the churches of Canyon are making preparation for appropriate Christmas exercises and programs by the children of the Sunday School on Christmas Eve.

Committees were busy throughout yesterday getting decorative trees ready for the exercises which will be held tonight.

All who attend the services in any of the churches tonight are promised a good program.

ONE INCH OF MOISTURE FALLS THURSDAY AND FRIDAY LAST

A fine rain started to fall in Canyon about noon last Thursday and continued far into the night when it turned into snow. However, the temperature remained warm and the snow soon melted.

The rain and snow gave the country a little more than an inch of moisture. The wheat was needing this moisture, which was sufficient to give the crop a very fine start.

Followed by the warm weather of the past week, the farmers are well pleased with the way the wheat is picking up.

CHRISTMAS RED CROSS SEAL SALE GOES TO NEARLY $150

Randall County is about $75 short on her quota for the Red Cross Christmas Seal sale. C. L. Condrey stated yesterday that nearly all reports were in and from these he did not believe the sale would amount to more than $150.

Reports generally show that the quota was not reached this year in but few counties.

Lois Fern Fletcher Died.

The funeral of Lois Fern Fletcher was held Friday afternoon at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. B. F. Fronbarger.

The little girl died at the home of her parents in Wichita Falls, and was brought here for burial. Mrs. R. V. Fletcher, her mother, and two sisters accompanied the remains.

Lois was eight years of age and has been sick most of her life. She underwent an operation in Amarillo a few weeks ago, but this did not relieve her suffering.

Building Parsonage in Happy
Rev. C. W. McNeely of Happy was in the city Tuesday on business, and stated that plans are being made to begin work at once upon a new parsonage for the Methodist church in Happy.

Mr. McNeely also stated that the congregation was contemplating enlarging the church building which was not large enough to meet the demands of the congregation.

The new industrial commission, we see, is holding its sessions in secret, so it does not seem likely to add as much to the general confusion as had been feared.—Grand Rapids Press.

MRS. REYNOLDS TO GET NEW TRIAL

Canyon Woman Charged With Murder of Husband to be Tried For Fourth Time

Austin, Texas, Dec. 17.—Because of improper charge to the jury as to circumstantial evidence and of misconduct of the jury by reason of the jurors discussing the fact that appellant did not testify, the Court of Criminal Appeals today reversed the case of Florence Reynolds, from Lubbock County, convicted of the killing of her husband, Samuel Reynolds in Randall County and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. The evidence, the opinion handed down by the higher court said, indicated strongly that Reynolds' death was accidental. The killing occurred while Reynolds, accompanied by his wife, was out hunting.

This is the second time the case has been before the Court of Criminal Appeals. At her first trial, Mrs. Reynolds was convicted and given twenty years. The judgment of the lower court was reversed and the case remanded for another trial, the case being transferred to Lubbock County on charge of venue. One trial resulted in a hung jury.

Kärth-Meyers Wedding.

Miss Hazel Kurth and John P. Meyers were married Sunday in Tulsa.

The bride lives near that city, and has been a very successful teacher in the Swisher County schools during the past few years.

Mr. Meyers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meyers and has lived with his parents west of Happy for a number of years. He is a progressive young farmer, having returned only a few months ago from overseas services.

The young couple will live on the Wm Dohe place north of the Meyers home.

The many friends of the young couple are extending hearty congratulations.

Huff-Johnson Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Vinny Leal Johnson and Raymond Huff of Trinidad, Colo., was solemnized Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Johnson, Rev. Simeon Shaw officiating. A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony.

Miss Johnson has been a very successful teacher in the public schools of Canyon for four years, and has a large circle of friends in Canyon among the young people. Mr. Huff is superintendent of the Trinidad schools and they left on the morning train for their new home.

Hearty congratulations and best for a long and happy wedded life go with the bridal couple to their new home.

Teague-Donald Wedding.

Miss Susie Theodora Teague and Robert Donald were married in Amarillo Sunday afternoon, Rev. R. Thomsen officiating.

Both of the young couple are well known in Canyon. For some time Miss Teague clerked at the Holland Drug Company and was secretary of the Canyon Business Men's Association. For the past year she has been in Amarillo. Mr. Donald is a teacher in the Manual Training Department of the Normal. Both have a large circle of friends in Canyon who were highly pleased to hear of the wedding and are extending hearty congratulations.

They will return to Canyon next week in time for the opening of the Normal and will live in the John T. Holland home on West Evelyn Street.

Miss Clyde Winn Married.

George Edgar Webb of Hereford and Miss Clyde Winn, a former Canyon girl, were married on last Wednesday evening in Dallas at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Finley. The ring ceremony was used. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Webb left for Ft. Worth where they spent a few days before going to Hereford where they will make their home.

The bride, with her parents, came to Canyon several years ago and is well known to the Canyon people, having made their home until several months ago when she went to Dallas to be with her sister.

Mrs. Webb spent a few hours in Canyon Tuesday, visiting among her many friends and receiving their hearty congratulations for a long and happy wedded life.

A Merry Christmas To One and All

Time Ripe for National University.

The idea of a national university is not new. The propriety of this undertaking has even been debated in Congress. But so far no definite steps have been taken to make America the educational Mecca of the world.

If we are to profit in full measure by what Germany has taught us, the time has now come when this dream of the few should be made a reality in our national life. Before the World War thousands of students from all parts of the civilized world studied in German universities. From these centers of learning the most skillful doctrinaires preached the insidious and nefarious theories of German Kultur. By 1914 Germany had almost proselyted half the world to her way of thinking. Her system of education had fastened its poisonous fangs upon the vitals of many of our universities, and had even found its way into our public schools. And then, the moment she came to believe that she had convinced the world that her Kultur was all essential to civilization, she took the bold step of attempting to put her theories into practice by declaring a war whose purpose was to force the world to recognize her superiority. To my thinking, her whole educational system was the foundation of that gigantic structure of world-wide propaganda which she waged so systematically and so vigorously for many years preceding the war. Her psychology was good. But the Kaiser's anxiety for immediate aggrandizement prompted him to take the fatal step before this conviction had become a fixed habit of belief in the minds of a sufficient number to justify the venture of world conquest.

A nation's ideals—not its ideas—determine the character of its civilization. If the text of that sermon we preach from every house top true, that the world is looking to America for ideals, what better means could we adopt of disseminating these ideals than to found a national university? Such a university should be sufficiently endowed to attract the best talent, the most experienced, and the best brains of which the world boasts. A chair of international law and jurisprudence should receive first consideration. If we believe in our democratic principles, why remain in "slothful ease" while the tares of Bolshevism and anarchy root them out?

Army tests revealed to us the glaring fact that the vitality of our American manhood is below the standard. This condition it behooves us to remedy speedily. Such a university should be the source of the most thorough and scholarly scientific investigations touching upon all forms of diseases and their cure, of sanitation and hygiene, and of right methods of living. Why not buy many master-paintings from impoverished Europe, and make this university the most famous art gallery in the world? A school of experimental psychology should be established. In brief, such a university should be made the center of our national life, the source of our cultural inspiration and practical help.

The time has come when our government must take cognizance of the problem of educating her citizenship. Nor am I one of those who believe that a certain amount of centralization will rob me of my individual rights. We as a nation have gone to the opposite extreme of allowing too many interests to take care of themselves. This is particularly true in matters of education. Undesirable foreigners have segregated in objectionable sections of our larger cities, and here they are perpetuating those very conditions they left at home. Such conditions are festers on our national body politic, and our government should adopt drastic measures to rid the country of this evil. Not only this, but our educational systems in different states act

DEATH RATTLE OF CALOMEL IN SOUTH

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's Dodson's guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up, better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate so let them eat anything afterwards.

like a brush shell in a muzzle loading gun, and sometimes work at cross purposes. In other words, we have no national system of education. Such a system, it seems to me, we need, in order to give unity and direction to our national ideals.

Naturally, some may argue that such a university could not be made flexible enough to meet our many-sided interests. But surely some fundamental general principles apply equally well to all parts of our country. If not, national unity with us will forever remain an impossibility. The larger universities would perhaps oppose such a university. Still others might insist that such a university would soon fall under the ban of political patronage. But if the United States is to withstand the shock of the many blows aimed at her national life, we must rise above the level of political parties and individual selfishness.

To-day more students from foreign countries are attending our American universities than was ever known before. They are coming for a specific purpose—to learn and appropriate all we have that is good. Why neglect our opportunity of service to humanity by refusing to establish a national university which shall bear the stamp of all we consider most worth while? Besides, I believe that such a university would tend to crystallize our ideals, unify our country, and be instrumental in our own political and intellectual salvation.

A Successful Experiment.

Enterprise readers will remember our report of Mr. Tom Odiore buying a bunch of ewes, near a thousand in number, last fall. These ewes Mr. Odiore turned into his maize field, which he reports brought him $45.00 per acre.

This seems like a pretty large profit, but Mr. Odiore made a good buy when he bought these ewes. They had just been separated from lambs and were light in flesh, and as he bought them by weight, they did not stand him very much per head. He sold them about three weeks ago and they were shipped south, where they will be held for breeding purposes next spring.

Mr. Odiore after selling his ewes, bought the lambs that Mr. W. A. Romine had been feeding. These he also sold and they were shipped south.

We understand Mr. Romine realized $20.00 per acre for his maize.

The rearing of sheep in this immediate vicinity is something of an experiment. Several farmers have concluded that method of disposing of their maize crop is about the most profitable and satisfactory of any, since they realize much more from the fattening of sheep and lambs than they can get by the sale of grain on the local market.

Mr. Odiore tells us he expects to go into the sheep business on a larger scale next year, and will buy earlier in the fall than he did this year.—Texline Enterprise.

The railways of the United States are more than one-third, nearly one-half, of all the railways of the world. They carry a yearly traffic so much greater than that of any other country that there is really no basis for comparison. Indeed, the traffic of any two nations may be combined, and still it does not approach the commerce of America borne upon American railways.

—United States Senator Committee

Ask Any Doughboy Who Was "Over There" and he will tell you that American railroads are the best in the world.

He saw the foreign roads—in England and France, the best in Europe—and in other Continental countries—and he knows.

The part railroads have played in the development of the United States is beyond measure.

American railroads have achieved high standards of public service by far-sighted and courageous investment of capital, and by the constant striving of managers and men for rewards for work well done.

We have the best railroads in the world—we must continue to have the best.

But they must grow.

To the $20,000,000,000 now invested in our railroads, there will have to be added in the next few years, to keep pace with the nation's business, billions more for additional tracks, stations and terminals, cars and engines, electric power houses and trains, automatic signals, safety devices, the elimination of grade crossings—and for reconstruction and engineering economies that will reduce the cost of transportation.

To attract to the railroads in the future the investment funds of many thrifty citizens, the directing genius of the most capable builders and managers, and the skill and loyalty of the best workmen—in competition with other industries bidding for capital, managers and men—the railroad industry must hold out fair rewards to capital, to managers and to the men.

American railroads will continue to set world standards and adequately serve the Nation's needs if they continue to be built and operated on the American principle of rewards for work well done.

TO OUR FRIENDS

It is the season of Christmas cheer in all the homes where subscribers to this paper dwell.

Christmas also in the minds and hearts of you good friends of ours.

Christmas, with all that term implies as to universal fellowship, bounteous unselfishness and renewed recognition of the fact that to give is actually better than to receive.

As you have put into anything, that much will you get out of it. Out of the interest you have taken in this paper during the past year we hope you have derived an equal personal pleasure.

And likewise in that same spirit which makes Christmas what it is, we take this opportunity of expressing our thanks to the business men of this community, and of the territory within which this paper circulates, for their cordial cooperation in practical ways which has made it possible for us regularly to present our best editorial efforts to the community in a creditable manner.

May the kindly glow of this holiday season color life for you and yours throughout the coming year.

THE PUBLISHERS.

Humanity quickly forgets. A few months ago Americans were crying, "To hell with Germany and her goods." The war stopped. German workmen went to work. American workmen started loafing, and prices went out of sight. Now the American public is crying for cheaper goods and the German has them. We will take them. It's a great old world.

Berger, under conviction for stopping the government's progress during the war and refused a seat in Congress, was re-elected Friday from the Milwaukee congressional district. His seat will no doubt be refused again in the house, and this particular bunch of outlaws in Wisconsin will remain without a representative.

A bunch of clothiers in Chicago stated last week that a fair price for a suit of clothes would be $25.00. A reporter started out to find such a suit. After three days' search he found a pair of pants at that price. The clothiers must have had reference to the suit Adam wore.

Every business house in Canyon is in a most prosperous condition in spite of the excessive high costs of doing business. Randall county as a whole never saw a more prosperous Christmas than today. The business interest extend thanks to the people of the county for this prosperity.

A number of the Panhandle newspaper men ate so much turkey they couldn't get out an edition this week. What would they think of any merchant in their town who closed up for a week just because it was Christmas.

Two of the biggest events of the year will be in Canyon during January-The Poultry Show on Jan. 12 and the Swine Breeders Association on January 21-22. Not a person in Randall county can afford to miss these events.

Last fall when it looked as if every house in town was being sold, some of our people thought it was only a boom which would soon pass away. Not so, however, the demand is still as great as in the fall, and unless your house is for sale, it is not safe to put a price upon it.

It appears that in the republican party all of the big guns are ready to sacrifice themselves as presidential candidates, while all of the same calibre democrats are still afraid of Wilson for a third term.

With print paper which sold at $3.00 per hundred before the war being almost impossible to obtain at $12.00 today, the publisher has to pinch himself to realize that this is a Merry Christmas.

If the high cost of gifts hits old Santa as hard as the rest of us, we're afraid all he puts in our socks tonight will drift out through the holes in the toes.

NEW TRIAL GRANTED WHEN JUROR EATS WITH LITIGANT

A lawsuit with a rather unusual sequel was tried in the District Court here this week. The plaintiff was A. F. Luse and the defendant the First State Bank & Trust Company. The suit involved a lot of complicated dealings in cattle and, after a tight battle, the jury awarded Luse a certain amount.

The unusual sequel followed when counsel for defendant filed a motion for a new trial on the ground that one of the jurors had eaten dinner with the plaintiff during the course of the trial.

A new trial has been granted, on this point, it is understood. The Brand understands that there was no question of wrong intent raised against either the plaintiff or juror but that a new trial was granted because such an action is contrary to established legal procedure.—Hereford Brand.

WHY HOLLY IS USED AS CHRISTMAS DECORATION

Holly has its place in the legends and at one time many carols were composed in its honor.

European peasants think that a sprig of berried holly which has been used in church decorations will bring luck to the house, so then the evergreens are removed they beg for a spray. Holly used for decorating houses must, on the other hand, be burned after January 1, or ill-luck will follow.

In some parts of England, as in Ireland, girls seek omens from burning the Christmas decoration, and say the more noise they make and the brighter they blaze up the warmer is the affection of their lovers. In some places it is considered unlucky to burn the Christmas decorations, and they are thrown away instead.

The holly tree was dedicated to Saturn and was said to have many healing virtues.

A pretty legend is handed down about the first Christmas tree. When Ansgarius preached the "White Christ" to the Vikings of the North the Lord sent his three messengers, Faith, Hope and Love, to help to find the first tree. They were to seek one that should be high as hope, as wide as love and that bore the sign of the Cross on every bough; so they chose the balsam-fir, as it met their requirements better than any other tree in the forest.

It was usual at Roman weddings to present the bride with a wreath of holly, significant of the warmest congratulations.

In India and Persia the followers of Zoroaster, the founder of fire worship, seek pinces of holly bark in winter, and throw the infusion in the faces of newly-born babies, believing it will insure them prosperity and safety in the world.—St. Louis Republic.

Christmas Thoughts

Christmas Nineteen Nineteen. How different are the conditions today from the picture our fond hopes painted a year ago. Then the world was just beginning to rejoice at the cessation of hostilities and suffering humanity looked forward through its tears to the time when it would take up the tasks of Reconstruction. To-day that time seems further off than ever.

Surely there is peace on the shell-torn fields of France. The dead rest in undisputed possession of the fields of honor. But the rest of Europe is ablaze with war. On over twenty different battle fronts, armies are contending for supremacy with the resultant toll of death and famine and even the Germans are threatening to take up arms again.

Must the Peace of Versailles go down in history as the Truce of Versailles?

Nor is war confined to the battle-fields of Europe. In every country class is arrayed against class in bitter industrial conflict. A glance at the world today would almost justify the conclusion that four years ago and that men no longer act from other motives than suspicion and hatred. But we are reluctant to believe that industrial disputes in this country must descend to this level where the only arbiter is strife to the bitter end.

We will not believe that all the fruits of victory which our people have won by heroic sacrifice and self-denial are to be lost to them while class wrangles with class in a struggle, the net result of which is not so much to improve their own condition as it is to jeopardize the welfare of the class against which they struggle and the vital interests of the public at large.

Christmas, Nineteen Nineteen. If only the spirit of Christmas could gain a little foothold in the world today! What a memorable Christmas this would be if we Americans could be inspired again by a spirit of sacrifice and devotion to our country's needs and lift every industrial controversy which threatens our national life out of the mire of self-interest and settle it once for all in the light of the interests of the American people and humanity.

The greatest Christmas gift which the American people can make to the world is not in bread and clothes alone, through millions of starving humanity will die this winter for the lack of them. The example which this country must give of a people working out their own salvation through the observance of the homely virtues unstinted toil and thrift in mutual confidence and trust would mean far more to a world which has wandered off after the false gods of short hours and soviet control of industry.

Under the spell of the Christmas season may we hope that, in the Providence of God, after a lapse of twenty centuries, to America has been assigned the role of the Wise Men of the East to bring again to a waiting world the Message of "Peace on Earth, Good Will toward Men."

Avoiding Tuberculosis.

Austin, Texas.—The Texas Public Health Association, which for eight years has been waging war in the state on tuberculosis, has issued "a dozen rules for good health." These rules are to be used to prevent tuberculosis and other diseases. The Association is working to prevent the "White Plague" as well as to cure it. The health axioms issued by D. E. Breed, executive secretary of the Texas Public Association are: "Food: (1) Eat plenty of good, wholesome food; but do not over-eat. (2) Do not gulp down your food; chew it thoroughly. (3) Do not confine yourself to meat, potatoes, eggs and bread; eat a variety of foods.

"Fresh Air: (4) Have plenty of fresh air in your home and in the place where you work, and do not be afraid to breathe it clear down to the bottom of your lungs. (5) Ride, walk, and keep in the open air as much as possible; and sleep where there is plenty of ventilation. (6) Wear warm clothes in winter; wear loose porous clothes in the summer, and let your body breathe fresh air.

"Good Habits: (7) Keep the digestive system cleared. (8) Do not stoop or slouch while sitting, standing or walking; keep erect and straight. (9) Keep the body clean externally and internally—wash and bathe regularly, and do not use poisonous drugs. (10) Keep cheerful and do not worry; be an optimist.

"Rest and Exercise: (11) Work hard, but take your proper rest and get plenty of sleep. (12) Play-time is as necessary as work-time—exercise both mind and body pleasantly.

The Texas Public Health Association, which is sponsoring the Modern Health Crusade among the Texas Children, issues these health axioms in order to carry good health among the "grown-ups" as well as the "kids."

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Canyon people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. R. E. Hileman, Prop., of bicycle shop of Canyon endorsed Doan's eight years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"I found positive relief in using Doan's Kidney Pills for lameness across the small of my back and for my kidneys," says Mr. Hileman. "I got this medicine at the druggist, east side of square. I certainly can conscientiously recommend them for lumbago and for embarrassment caused by the kidney secretions. I am quite over all difficulties of that nature since I used them." (Statement given Jan. 17, 1911).

On May 1, 1919, Mr. Hileman added: "Since I used and recommended Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago, I have taken them whenever in need of such a remedy. Doan's have never failed to give instant relief and I am always glad to say a good word in favor of them." 60c at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Why Germany Balks.
 New York Evening Post: Berlin's sign of the peace protocol is on four specific contentions in respect to only one of which Germany make out a case. This is the matter of reparation for the Scapa low sinkings. Berlin's plaint about the delay in the repatriation of her prisoners would have had more force if the difficulties she is now raising had not occurred. It was just against such a contingency that Clemenceau declares he prepared himself. As for the other two points, the refusal to surrender officers charged with criminal acts and the objection to the treaty clause which permits the entry of allied troops to enforce the terms of the armistice, there will be very few apologists for Germany in face for her well-known record in the war, now being supplemented by revelations from her own archives as studied by her own representatives.

But the dominant reason for Germany's new claims is to be found neither at Scapa Flow nor in the French prison camps nor in the clauses of the armistice and the Versailles treaty. The true explanation is found at Washington and in the history of the three months since Mr. Lodge brought his treaty report out of the Foreign Relations Committee. It would be too much to expect that the German mind, with its genius for basing fatal policies on the "interpretation" of events and states of mind in other countries, should resist the present opportunity. Recall how the war was made possible in part because Germany interpreted the labor troubles at Petrograd in the summer of 1914 as a sign of evolution. Recall how Germany saw England kept out of the war by impending revolution in Ireland and the selfish interests of a huckstering Albion. Recall how the United States was to take advantage of Great Britain's embarrassments by seizing Canada, and how Mexico was to take advantage of our own embarrassments by invading Texas and California. Recall the whole story of German military leaders deceiving themselves or their people with America's inability to ship her men to Europe, and England starved to her knees in three months. And then see how easy it is for Germany to evolve new hopes out of the present state of mind and facts in Washington.

That state of mind and affairs at Washington, as Germany sees it, is simple. The Versailles treaty has been rejected, and that is the first break in the unity which brought German defeat. A separate peace between the United States and Germany, either by negotiation or by a resolution of Congress, is discussed in Congress and the American press, and that carries with it possible consequences before which German statesmen might well grow a bit dizzy. Given the well known operations of the German mind, we can not expect it to enter into a subtle analysis of just what the rejection of the treaty means as an expression of America's fundamental attitude on the issues of the war. Nor can we expect the Germans to delve into the provisions of our Constitution which make all talk of peace by congressional resolution sheer nonsense. In looking forward to a break-up of allied unity, Germany sees only a rejected treaty, a suggestion of separate peace, and a tempor among the Republican majority revealed in the famous Lodge treaty report.

Is it impossible to visualize the German Cabinet arguing the probabilities of America's abandoning the allies on the basis of the text of that Lodge report? There the Germans may read:

"To relieve the United States from having representatives on the commissions established by the League which deal with questions in which the United States has and can have no interest."

"The conference would be at least as usefully employed as they are now in dividing and sharing Southeastern Europe and Asia Minor, in handing the Greeks of Thrace over to our enemy, Bulgaria, and in trying to force upon the United States the control of Armenia, Anatolia and Constantinople.

"Great banking firms which had a direct pecuniary interest in securing an early opportunity to reap the harvest which they expect from the adjustment of the financial obligations of the countries which had been engaged in the war.

"The other nations will take us on our own terms, for without us their league is a wreck and all their gains from a victorious peace are imperiled."

When the Germans read this declaration of war upon our allies in September, they may have asked themselves: "Can Lodge be in earnest? It is too good to be true." Today the Germans seem to be convinced that Lodge was in earnest. But they must now read Mr. Polk's simple comment on Lodge versus America.

The Most Welcome Tire That Ever Came to Market

Men Who Appreciate Superlative Values Prefer The Brunswick

In every great tire factory, the chief question is: "How much can we give for the money?" And the product depends on the policy adopted.

Every man who has become acquainted with Brunswick Tires knows that Brunswick standards are again evident. This famous concern—noted as a leader in every line it entered since 1845—has once more proved that its policy is right.

A perfect tire is simply a matter of knowledge and standards and skill. No secrets nor patents prevent making an ideal tire.

But standards come first. For in tire making there is vast room for skimping, for subtle economies, for hidden shortcomings. Makers without the highest standards don't build high-grade tires.

The Brunswick organization of tire makers includes a brilliant staff of technical experts. Not a man among them has spent less than 20 years in handling rubber.

Each is a master of his craft. And the new ideas they bring to the attention of Brunswick directors receive sincere consideration.

Every proved betterment is adopted unanimously.

The Brunswick Tire is a combination of acknowledged features—plus Brunswick standards of manufacture.

The result is a super-tire, the like of which you have never known before. The kind of a tire you will gladly join in welcoming.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Try ONE Brunswick. We promise a surprise. And we feel certain that you will want ALL Brunswicks.

Then good tires will have a new meaning to you.

You Do More Work.
You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.
GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine; it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.
The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store, 50c per bottle.

Capitalistic Bacon.
Dallas Evening Journal: Ethel and Ruby Hood, 11 and 13 years old, respectively, of Coppell, Dallas County, paid $55 for a gilt last year with money borrowed from the Security National Bank as members of the bank's Farmer Boys' and Girls' Club. Saturday they paid the loan and reported a profit of $352.50, in addition to owning a sow worth $75. The girls sold $418.50 worth of pigs and paid $66 for feed during the year. Houston Temple, 12 years old, a Dallas County boy, bought a gilt with money borrowed from the bank. When he paid the note Saturday he reported owning a sow and pigs worth $375, receiving $105 from the sale of three pigs, $35 in prize money won by his hogs and expenses for feed of $68.

State Press in Dallas News.—Why sigh for an oil well, when there is a bigger profit in pigs? Is there an oil company in Texas whose dividends, from operation, have equaled the returns gained by Ethel and Ruby Hood and Houston Temple, in proportion to original investment? Not one! Many of us are forever wishing we were rich, and doing nothing in particular to get rich. Ethel and Ruby and Houston probably wished they were rich a year ago and they would have taken it out in wishing if they had not ventured into the hog business and then given that business their intelligent and industrious attention afterward. The bank that loaned these young folks the money to make their start is what some of our very ornate intellectuals would call a "capitalistic" institution, which means that it and all other banks ought to be destroyed for the sake of progress toward that beatific political condition known as communism, like in grand old Russia, where the banks were put out of business to take the people's minds off of money. And yet this bank served at least one good end. By lending some of the community's reserve of wealth to these girls and this boy, the bank was instrumental in producing a considerable new contribution to the community's food supply. That is what capital is doing everywhere and all the time; making possible increases in the necessities of life. A country without banks is one without capital, and a country without capital is poor, sickly, ignorant. Consider interior China, interior Russia, interior Africa—consider any hinterland where capital has not ventured, and you will find populations stagnating in poverty, swarming in misery. Instead of capitalism being an enemy to the welfare of the people, it is the surest safeguard against the blight of worklessness and the long train of evils that attach to any population which has but the most primitive employments and the clumsiest of tools.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic restores vitality and energy by purifying and enriching the blood. You can soon feel its strengthening, invigorating effect. Price 50c.

First thing you know the public will die of starvation or something, and then capital and labor will have had all their trouble for nothing.—Kansas Industrialist.

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezzone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! Dec. 21, At Methodist Church. All services were well attended.

The morning and evening sermons as announced were further developments of the theme discussed on Dec. 14. The purposes and results of Christ's coming.

Roman civilization stood as the greatest example of worldly power as the Greek did for sensuality and the Jew for religious formalism.

But the insatiable thirst for power led this great race from their once exalted plane of purity and high ideals into all forms of crime and shame.

The Savior came to save the world from these evils and to save to the world the best that Rome possessed.

The closing sermon discussed the propagation of the Gospel among our ancestors of Northwestern Europe.

From unspokeable savagery we have been lifted by His coming into the leadership of the world.

Many of the Audience pledged a greater fidelity to the spreading of the Gospel and to Christian living.

This is a farmers' show. We have made an effort to offer a premium for every breed that is extensively raised in this county.

No entry fee will be charged. Premiums for this show are being offered by the Randall County League of Canyon business men. Make your entry with County Agent, C. F. Walker. All exhibits must be placed in the show room, main hall of the County Court House, before 10:00 a. m. on Jan.

12th. All birds must be exhibited by their owner. No diseased birds will be accepted. All birds will be judged by score card by a competent and impartial judge.

We urge every one who has good good chickens and turkeys to exhibit them at this show. The premiums are small, but the winners of "First cock" and "First hen" will take home $8.00 in cash. People will want to buy setting eggs and breeding stock in a few weeks from now. This show will give you enough free advertising to make it worth your trouble. Bring in your chickens and show the county what you have. Members of Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Clubs are urged to exhibit their chickens.

We want more and better poultry in this county. Everybody help make this show a success.

HOME NEWSPAPERS INDISPENSABLE SAYS UTILITY BUREAU

Communities Would Be Dead Without Them; Urges They Be Given Fullest Support.

"As Kin Hubbard has expressed it in 'Abe Martin's Philosophy,' 'the prettiest girl in town is likely to die an old maid if she doesn't get out and advertise.' And the place to advertise is in your home town newspaper."

B. J. Mullaney, director of the Illinois Committee on Public Utility Information, told members of the Illinois Electric Railway Association at the mid-summer meeting in urging them to give full support to their home newspapers. He explained the functions of a newspaper: how "news" is the newspaper proprietor's "stock in trade," which he sells to his readers, thereby building up a circulation which enables him to sell advertising. He told the street railway men that the newspaper proprietor wants help in obtaining news as well as advertising and that managers of public service companies should give him full aid.

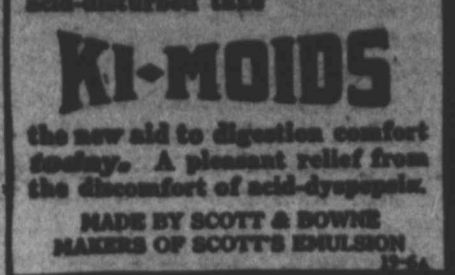

"Make news for him," Mr. Mullaney said. "When you or your company are starting something, doing anything, tell him about it, for everyone in the community is interested. You will find newspaper proprietors, with but remarkably few exceptions, honest and fair minded, with the best interests of their home town at heart, and having a wider knowledge of your difficulties than you imagine. He knows the importance of the functions of the public service companies to the community and that any news regarding your industry is of vital interest to his readers, all of whom are necessarily patrons of electric, gas or telephone companies, or the street railways. He wants dependable news about you and your business and you are the only person who can furnish it to him."

A $1,000,000 Ranch Deal. Henry Hobbs and W. Oscar Williams have purchased the F. D. W. Ranch east of Texline. This is known to be one of the most desirable ranches in Northwest Texas, and there are scores of cattlemen in this section who will envy the purchasers of this valuable property.

The ranch consists of 80,863 acres and is well improved. It has 27 windmills, fine headquarters and living water. The property belonged to Mrs. Wight of Denver and Los Angeles. The purchasers are the majority owners of the Texas Chief Oil Co., at Burkburnett, and have other oil interests. Mr. Williams was county and district clerk of Motley county and Mr. Hobbs was a cowman in that county until the Texas Chief.

Got Car, Also Got Arrested. Sheriff Woodburn arrested a man by the name of Stewart here Wednesday morning who was wanted at Amarillo on a charge of theft of an automobile. Stewart had stolen a Ford car belonging to a man at Happy in Amarillo only a short time before his arrest. Sheriff Woodburn and S. E. Smith were returning from Amarillo and came up on Stewart, who had stopped in the road west of town. He asked them for gasoline and they obligingly shared with him. He beat them to town and they passed him at the Magnolia Garage where he was getting gasoline. On reaching town, Constable I. N. Collins gave Sheriff Woodburn the description of the man and car, which had been phoned down from Amarillo, and the sheriff nabbed Stewart just before he was ready to "high-ball". Stewart was turned over to Sheriff Roach of Potter county Wednesday afternoon. —Claude News.

Dairy Cows From Arizona.
W. S. Farnsworth, agricultural agent of the Santa Fe writes the following interesting letter in regard to getting dairy cattle from the Salt River Valley of Arizona:

Editor Plainsman,
There seems to be great interest in the Panhandle at the present time, in dairy development.

I thought you might give your readers some interesting information and figures from what we have developed in the Salt River Valley lately.

Chas. L. Seagraves, Supervisor of Agriculture of the A. T. & S. F. Railway Company, Chicago, Illinois, sent me to the Salt River Valley in October to investigate the condition of dairy stock with a view of determining whether we could not deliver dairy stock from that district to Texas points at a less figure than from Wisconsin and Eastern Producing Points.

The French Commission, who are purchasing through the Northern and Eastern Markets, are combing them in an endeavor to ship 3000 head per month to France, resulting in increasing the prices materially.

In the Salt River Valley around Phoenix, they formerly had 65,000 head of dairy stock, which has been reduced to about 20,000 head on account of the farmers' mad rush into raising Egyptian Long Fibre Cotton, which is producing a bale to the acre. Present quotation 85c per pound.

They are plowing up alfalfa fields and planting cotton and sacrificing their dairy stock.

Their dairy cattle is all top stuff. The original stock was secured from New York, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Iowa.

They have kept, with few exceptions, registered Sires. There are a number of pure bred herds such as those of Reno's, Howards' and Sanders', which have furnished registered Sires for the Valley.

In the Reno herd there is a $7,000 bull which is full brother to Duchess Shylark Omsby, World's Champion cow, that produced over 1500 lbs. of butter in one year. Mr. Reno has a $1500 cow in his herd.

They have taken a great deal of care and pride in breeding and to obviate abortions. There is very little of the latter in that section.

They lately shipped 60 head to Minneapolis, valued at $28,600, and 20 head of cows to Michigan, valued at $1,000 each.

They are not sacrificing their stock now because it is poor stuff, but solely to get more out of their land, valued around $300 per acre, which is renting from $50 to $60 per acre, for raising Egyptian Cotton as stated above.

As a result of our correspondence with County Agents and others interested, since returning from Phoenix in October, we have moved about 14 carloads within a month to Santa Fe system points.

The following are the average prices paid on 216 head purchased lately:

Cows, coming 4-year-olds, bred, freshening soon, good records, $100.
2-year-olds, heavy springers, $69.
Yearlings, some bred, $40.
Calves, weaned, $25.
Calves, small, $15.
Yearling registered bulls, $150.
Bulls, 2-year-olds and older, registered, $200.

Bulls from pure bred dealers, two years old, cannot be secured for less than $225.

The following freight rates per 36 foot car will enable interested parties to figure approximately the cost delivered from Phoenix, Ariz., to the following points:

Amarillo, Texas, $175; Canyon, Texas, $172.50; Plainview, Texas, $179; Snyder, Texas, $182; Sweetwater, Texas, $182; Roswell, New Mexico, $175; Portales, New Mexico, $168; Clovis, New Mexico, $166.

Dr. R. J. Hight, State Veterinarian at Capitol Building, will personally give the Subcutaneous Tubercular test, that will be accepted by the officials of the State of Texas and New Mexico. His fee is $1.00 per head. Dr. Hight and the Arizona Livestock Sanitary Board are very careful not to allow any stock he tests to leave that district, which show the slightest inclination to react. No other Veterinarian Certificate should be accepted.

The brand certificate must be secured of the State Official Inspector at the Union Stock Yards at a cost of 10c per head.

I will be pleased to furnish further information and accompany and assist, gratis, help in securing cars and proper rates, also in loading and securing certificates necessary.

Yours truly,
W. S. Farnsworth.

A LITTLE WANT AD BRINGS RESULTS

You'll Want This Combination

It is the Case 10-18 kerosene tractor and a two-bottom Grand Duesor plow. It is an ideal plowing outfit for either small or large farms.

The tractor weighs about 3,500 lbs., just a trifle more than a big team of horses. It burns kerosene economically, developing full power on the same.

The tractor has a four-cylinder valve-in-head motor, mounted crosswise on a one-piece frame. A Case Siphon Thermostat controls the cooling system and insures complete combustion. The all-steel gears, with teeth cut and hardened, are enclosed and run in oil.

The Grand Duesor 2-bottom Automatic Lift Rigid Beam Plow will fill the plowing requirements of the most particular farmer. Grand Duesor plows are strictly quality plows. They are light in draft, yet so well constructed that they will give years of faithful service at a low cost of upkeep.

We would greatly appreciate the opportunity of telling you more about Case tractors. Drop in and let's talk it over.

PERFECT HEALTH IS EVERY WOMAN'S BIRTHRIGHT

Houston, Texas:—"I was in a terribly run-down condition of health after a siege of ptomaine poisoning, and then the influenza. I could not seem to regain my strength and was really not able to do my housework. I knew I needed a good tonic and builder and remembered how my folks used to regard Dr. Pierce's remedies in my girlhood days, and then I decided to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I am now taking the second bottle and it is doing me a world of good. My strength is returning rapidly and I feel better in every way.

"I am glad indeed to recommend the medicine that is doing me so much good and do not hesitate to give this statement."—Mrs. GERTRUDE SELL, 2117 Common St.

Then, three years ago, a friend advised her to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It helped her right away and she has been in a healthier condition ever since that time.

"I would never hesitate a moment in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all young girls who suffer, I have such great confidence in it, seeing how it helped her."—Mrs. MARY E. BRAMMER, 1970 Harrison Ave.

The man tried to speak to everybody on board the ship, but none could wait to hear what he had to say. At last he came to the captain again.

"Look here," said the captain, "I can tell you what to do when you want
