LARGE NUMBER TO HOME COMING

Tenth Annual Commencement of the West Texas State Normal College Will Begin Next Sunday.

Word has been received at the Normal that a large number of alumni of the West Texas State Normal College will avail themselves of the invitations sent out for the Home Coming on the Tenth Anniversary of the school.

The principal speaker at the Home Coming event will be Hon. R. B. Cousins, who was president of the institution from the time of its establishment until the fall of 1918. He will deliver several addresses while in the city as will be seen by the official program printed on this page. R. L. Marquis, now with the Denton Normal will be another speaker in the Home Coming events. He was head of the Biology department from 1910 to 1918.

The class reunions are scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, while the general get-together meeting of all alumni will be held on Thursday afternoon.

Grads Will Play Normal Team

The most exciting baseball game of the year will be played next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when the Normal team will play the alumni. W. H. Blaine is in touch with a large number of former stars on the Normal team who are coming for the Home Coming and will try their hand at the youngsters who are now maintaining the reputation of the school. The game promises to be a good one.

Amarillo High Defeated

The Normal took sweet revenge on the Amarillo high school baseball team Friday afternoon with a score of 9 to 4. Up to the 8th inning the score stood 8 to 0. Having put over a triple out in the fifth, the Normal team loosened up and allowed too many men to reach first base in the 8th inning, and three managed to cross the home plate. Another score was annexed by both teams in the final period.

The high school had defeated the Normal team by a score of 2 to 1 in the game of last Wednesday in Amarillo.

Reception for Mrs. Cousins

The members of the Woman's Book Club are planning a reception for Mrs. R. B. Cousins which will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. G. Allen, president of the Club. A musical program of several numbers will be given.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS WILL PULL OLD TIME CIRCUS

The juniors and seniors of the Normal will put on a real old time circus on the Normal campus next Wednesday afternoon. This is the time for the annual stunts of these classes and they have thrown their forces together to put on a real show.

Pageant Next Wednesday

One prominent feature of the Home Coming program to be held at the Normal from May 30 to June 4, will be a pageant to be presented by the faculty and student body on Wednesday evening. The pageant, entitled "Alma Mater, the Immortal," is an allegorical representation of the history and growth of the West Texas State Normal College, emphasizing, as the title implies, the spiritual quality of Alma Mater.

Beginning with the period prior to the establishment of the institution, the leading events of its history are featured in a suggestive way. The story is removed from its setting in time and place, and is brought out largely by pictorial effect rather than by spoken lines, the lines are made to serve in places. Appropriate musical accompaniment furnishes a background for each scene. The cast contains nearly a hundred persons, who, under the direction of the Department of Expression and the Department of Physical Education, are rapidly mastering their parts.

From all indications, it is safe to predict that the Home Comers and public will enjoy an unusual performance on Wednesday evening.

Reception By Pres. and Mrs. Hill

President and Mrs. J. A. Hill gave a reception last night at the Normal building for the members of the senior classes, the faculty and the alumni. After a social hour an impromptu program was given under the direction of Mrs. Hill. Refreshments were served in the Domestic Science Department of ice cream and cake.

Hereford Defeats Normal

The Hereford town team defeated the Normal baseball team here Tuesday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. The game was close throughout and the Normal almost evened up the visitors at several stages. The Normal will play Farwell this week and will close the season next Wednesday by playing the alumni.

Hill to Austin Yesterday

President J. A. Hill was called to Austin yesterday for a meeting of the educational committee which has in charge the educational problems of the state. He will probably return to the city Sunday in time for the Commencement exercises.

Come to Canyon to live.

MUSICAL PROGRAM OF THREE NUMBERS

Diaz Will Sing Instead of Kreidler; Chorus and Orchestra Tuesday; Frances Ingram Thursday.

The music department of the Normal will present this week three very fine numbers in connection with the Commencement and Home Coming of the school.

Louis Kreidler was scheduled to sing tomorrow night, but Prof. Wallace R. Clark received word he had not sufficiently recovered from his illness which caused the postponement of the recital two weeks ago. The booking agency is sending in his stead Rasaelo Diaz of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York. Mr. Diaz is a very noted tenor. He is very much better known in musical circles than is Kreidler and is booked at a much higher price. Mr. Clark feels that the people will hear a superior artist on account of the change. It was mere luck that he was coming to the southwest and the booking agency procured him for this recital. The admission is $1.00 or by the blanket ticket.

Next Tuesday night, June 1st, the chorus and orchestra of eighty people under the direction of Prof. Wallace R. Clark will present two scenes of Longfellow's Hiawatha, "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," and "Death of Minnehaha." This is one of the greatest pieces of modern choral and orchestral writing, music by Coleridge-Taylor. There will be no charge for admission.

The concert artist for the Home Coming is the great American contralto Frances Ingram. She is easily the most beautiful contralto now before the American public. She has just finished an eminently successful season* with the Metropolitan Opera Company. Miss Ingram has a very able pianist as her accompanist and comes direct from Chicago for this single engagement. She will sing Thursday night, June 3, 8:30 o'clock. The admission will be $1.50. There will be no reserved seats.

TWO RECEIVE DEGREES; FORTY WILL RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

At the Commencement Program of the West Texas State Normal College on Friday of next week Miss Golda Gruver and Easton Allen will receive degrees from the institution.

There are forty seniors to receive diplomas completing the fourth year work. The list was not available for publication this week.

City Property Sold

H. W. Gouldy has bought the O. A. May residence on West Evelyn street and will get possession June 10th.

TAX INCREASE

CARRIES 46-4

Only Three Precincts Hold Elections Saturday to Increase Road Tax Limit of County.

The road tax election Saturday was a very tame affair. Only 52 voters of the more than 800 in Randall county went to the polls to express their opinion on the subject, but the tax carried by a majority of 5 to 1. The election was called for the purpose of giving to the Commissioners Court the authority to increase the tax limit for road purposes from 15 to 30 cents on the $100 valuation.

The following was the vote in the three precincts holding the elections:

	For	Against
No. 1	31	9
No. 3 (Ralph)	9	0
No. 6 (Costley)	6	0
Totals	46	9

Panhandle Odd Fellows Meet

The Panhandle Odd Fellows met in convention in Amarillo, last week, and the attendance was so large that the quarters that had been provided for the meeting proved inadequate so that arrangements were made to hold the sessions in the W. O. W. hall.

Matters pertaining to the "good of the order" were discussed and many helpful suggestions made. The meeting concluded with a banquet and a thoroughly enjoyable social evening.

Happy Defeats I. O. O. F. Team

The I. O. O. F. baseball team went to Happy Friday afternoon where they were defeated by the Happy team by a score of 4 to 2. A return game will be played here soon when the locals promise the Happy bunch a strong brand of baseball.

John T. Holland was in Amarillo Thursday visiting his son, Lyle.

KING GETS HIGHEST GRADE IN POST OFFICE EXAMINATION

Austin King was the highest in rank in the recent examination held for the postmastership of Canyon. The report came from the Civil Service Commission yesterday morning.

Under the rules of the examination, this commission reports to the postmaster general, who in turn recommends to the President the person highest qualified to hold the office. It is expected that the appointment will be made in a very short time.

The following were the grades of the applicants:

Austin King	74	3-4
A. W. Blough	73
Roscoe Davis	71	2
Dewey Foster	70
Worth A. Jennings	61
Mrs. J. D. Bybee	47

BOYS WANTED TO SIGN

UP FOR PIG CLUB WORK

C. F. Walker wants more boys to sign up for the Pig Club. He is planning to have more pigs for the boys next Trades Day, June 14th, and wants every boy interested to see him at once. He has some good pigs in view for the boys, but must know just how many will want pigs for the club in order to get the proper number in Canyon to distribute on Trades Day.

The following boys have already joined the club:

Edward Forsyth.
Millard Boehning.
Alvin Boehning.
Kenneth Boehning.
Lenton Poole.
George Hancock.
Normal Claunch.
Edgar Laxson.
Herbert Brown.
Everett Carter.
Edmond Sone.
Robert H. Hester.

Trip Open to More Boys

C. F. Walker has received notice this week that more boys will be given an opportunity to make the big trip through the northern states to the Niagra Falls and Washington. A number of big firms of Texas are being interested to give free tickets to boys making the highest grades. Under this plan, two or more boys will get to go from the several counties of Texas.

Since this section has the best stock in the state, it is likely that the boys from the Panhandle will stand the best examinations and it is not at all improbable that Randall county will have one of these boys get a free trip. Randall county will raise $300 to send one boy.

Mr. Walker wants every fellow interested in good stock to get into the stock judging course and win one of these free trips.

Buys Steen Place

Peter Myers has bought the Steen place in the southwest part of town and will take possession about August first. Mr. Myers recently sold his farm in the northwest part of the county to J. A. Hazelwood and will move to Canyon on account of the schools. Mrs. Myers will go to Iowa in a few weeks where she will visit for some time at their old home.

The people of Canyon are pleased to have this splendid family move to the city.

Foster-Gibbs Wedding

Miss Ruth Foster and J. C. Gibbs were married Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of the bride's father Jim Foster, Rev. Simeon Shaw officiating. Only a few close friends and members of the family were present at the wedding.

Both the bride and groom are well known in this community. Miss Foster has lived here since childhood and has a large circle of friends in this city. Mr. Gibbs has been employed on the Foster farm for the past few years, where the bride and groom will continue to live.

Canadian to Central Time

The citizens of Canadian are tired of the Mountain time and on June 1st, will go back to the Central Time.

An investigation was held in Amarillo in February under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission which placed this section in the mountain time region, and it was believed that the evidence presented would restore this section to the central zone, but so far no report has been made.

STOCK RAISERS

CALLED TO MEET

Wednesday, June 2nd, 2:30 p. m. Meeting to be Held to Organize Breeders of the County.

C. F. Walker has called a meeting of all stock raisers and those interested in better stock at the district court room at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 2nd. The purpose of the meeting is to form a county organization of all breeders.

There is no limit to the membership of the organization. Chicken raiser are wanted, turkey raisers should be there, rabbit breeders are expected to come in, the scores of breeders of registered hogs and cattle are going to come into the organization.

A big county fair is being planned for Randall county in September. The stock raisers will have an important part in this fair.

Mr. Walker has been assured of a large attendance but he wishes to see every breeder present.

W. L. Ward a specialist from College Station will address the meeting.

DALLAS BOOSTERS HERE

FRIDAY AFTERNOON FOR VISIT

The special train of the Dallas jobbers arrived in Canyon Friday afternoon promptly on time, 2:45 and remained for thirty minutes. It was planned to take all the men to the Normal for a few minutes, but the leader of the party deemed it best that they should not attempt the trip owing to the short time they were allotted for the stay. Cars brought the men to the square where they staged a parade, and then visited the various stores. Their band gave a short program. After visiting the business section a few minutes quite a number were taken to the Normal and were shown the most interesting parts of the building.

The Normal band under the direction of Prof. Wallace R. Clark met the train, playing while the boosters unloaded and played from the time the first cars arrived back at the train until it was ready to pull out. A number of the Dallas men stated it was the best band they had heard while on the trip.

John Fry's Ford Stolen

John Fry had his Ford car stolen Friday night. He went to the tent show with his family and the car was left parked with a number of other cars. A little after the show started one of the attendants at the tent saw a man drive away in the car, but had no idea it was a thief. A car drove up at that time, and took the place left vacant. Neither the driver of this car or the showman were able to describe the thief as they paid no attention.

The car was found Tuesday afternoon near Happy. It was not badly hurt by the driver.

Only one car has been stolen in Randall county and never recovered. In 1918 J. W. Reid lost a new Ford of which no trace was ever found. There have been many joyriding thefts in the county such as presumably was the case with Mr. Fry's car.

Sunday, Decoration Day

In view of the commencement sermon at the Normal, there will be no Memorial services but will meet at the cemetery at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon to decorate the graves. Our cemetery has been very much neglected and much work needs to be done before Sunday. Everybody is invited to meet at the cemetery Friday afternoon and Saturday to help clean up. Committee.

Why Lose the Time and Money You Have Invested in Your Crops?

Every year hail storms cause enormous losses to growing grain. Do not forget that the high price for wheat is a very significant fact to every grower of grain.

The farmer who escapes one year may lose the savings of a lifetime the next!

Can you afford to take the risk of losing all you have invested in your crops by a hail storm when you can insure yourself against such a loss for a trifling sum?

I will gladly call and explain to you the policy issued.

It was a great meeting at San Antonio last week, according to the press reports, when Pat Neff spoke to a large crowd of his followers. In the height of enthusiasm Mr. Neff exclaimed that he would "spit slap-dab in the middle of the political slate and wipe it clean with the sleeve of his good right arm." Neff has been accused by his opponents of being a demagogue and a socialist. These words will brand him as too narrow minded to hold the office he seeks if they are not retracted or explained. Neff came out on a graduated land tax proposition. This socialistic doctrine was later sidestepped by the explanation that it referred to only a dozen non-residents, who, by the way, have no vote in the elections. The only explanation of his San Antonio remarks leads to the conclusion that everything at Austin is wrong and he will clean house if elected. Some good men have been governor of Texas. We cannot believe that everything is wrong in the departments at Austin, as Neff would lead us to believe.

Attention is called to the probability of a very serious accident unless great precaution is used by all automobile drivers. Several cars have nearly gone into the ditch at the junction on East Houston street and the highway on account of the fact that the culvert is altogether too narrow. Under normal conditions it is very hard for drivers to make the turn. When the roads are slippery or it is night, the danger of a serious accident is greatly increased. The commissioners and the city council ought by all means remedy this defect at once before there is a loss of a car with the possible loss of life. The culvert should be at least twenty feet longer. There is need of a light over the center of the road so that drivers may see at night that they are approaching the corner. When the new highway is connected up, a better corner should be made. In the meanwhile, caution is needed of part of all drivers.

Mr. Citizen of Canyon: Are you willing to see the town suffer because you are not willing to open your home during the summer and undergo a little inconvenience? That is just what is going to happen if those people who have vacant rooms do not wake up to the fact that Canyon is facing a really serious condition. The regular boarding houses cannot take care of the large numbers who come to the summer school. All homes must be opened. The Normal and Canyon will be greatly injured in reputation if we do not take care of those who wish to attend the summer session. If you have not opened your home, phone the News office of Miss Abbie Graham at the Normal and your home will be listed.

The stage is set for the big convention in Chicago when the republicans will name their standard bearer. The country is vitally interested in this convention, but hardly a mutter is being made regarding the democratic convention to be held in San Francisco. Wood is going into the convention with the largest number of votes but by no means a majority. The uninstructed voters hold the trump card. The politicians have decreed that neither Wood nor Johnson will fit the bill. For the benefit of America, we trust they are right. There is a hard horse just behind the curtain being groomed silently for the big race in November.

The open shop movement is gaining strength all over the country. The unions are doomed if the radical leaders are not checked in their avarice. There is no attempt to produce an honest day's work on the part of these leaders. The slogan is: Get all the money you can with as little labor as possible. These leaders do not consider breaking their word an offense against capital or the public. The only thing that will save the unions from disruption and disrepute is to fire these red leaders and produce an honest day's work.

The people of Canyon regret very much to hear of the death of Mrs.

Lee Satterwhite of Panhandle, wife of Editor Lee Satterwhite, who is an able member of the legislature. She was well known in Canyon. For more than a year she has been a patient sufferer with an incurable disease. The many friends of the family extend sympathy to the bereaved husband and children.

It was Thomason who called Joe Bailey's hand during the campaign and challenged him to leave it to the voters of their old home, Gainesville. Joe replied he would get out of the race if he couldn't carry his home town, Joe lost in Gainesville, but still maintains he is in the running.

We are wondering what became of those libel suits Bailey was going to file against three morning newspapers Monday after the memorable May 1st. Did he discover they knew more than they were printing?

Figures are said not to lie, but all of the towns whose populations have been reported by the census bureau are of the opinion that sometimes they greatly falsify.

Poor old Carranza is dead after a frightful five years of reign in Mexico. Another revolutionist will take his place, only to be murdered or exiled as have been the last five presidents of that unfortunate country.

The Dallas boosters came, saw and were conquered by the boosters of Randall county. It pays to be a booster.

Hell or no hell, it's just as well to behave, believes the Pampa News.

Grover Cleveland in his message vetoing the Texas seed bill, said "The lesson should be constantly enforced that though the people support the government, the government should not support the people." Times have changed since then. Nowadays most everybody wants the government to support him. So many are demanding pensions, bonuses, jobs and other help from the government. This is fast becoming a paternalistic government. Socialism of an insidious species is gradually eating itself like a canker into the government. The old-fashioned democratic principle of "the government is best that governs least" has been lost sight of. The government now circumscribes every moment of a man's life from the time he is born until he is buried. Grover Cleveland was right, however, nobody should ask anything of the government except a fair deal.—Plain-view News.

After the horse is stolen is a bad time to lock the door, but it is better to take preventative measures against a nuisance late than to take them never. The Reporter, in the name of common decency and in behalf of the fair name of our city, here and now pleads for a city ordinance that will hereafter forever bar the abominable "street carnival" from our town. The outfit that conducted a public gambling resort in this city under the guise of a "carnival" and under the auspices of a local institution is a disgrace to civilization, and the pitiful sum garnered by our local courts through the fines paid, is nothing more than blood money. The Reporter has in former years urged that these "carnivals" be barred, and we again bring the matter to public attention. They are an unnecessary form of amusement at best, affording no amusement features of merit, and money spent with them is wasted—gone forever. And when permitted to conduct gambling devices as happened here last week, they are disgrace to any decent community.—Rockdale Reporter.

Hotel Clerk—The gentleman in 201 says that his room is full of steam from the laundry. Proprietor—He does? Add $1.50 to his bill for a Turkish bath.—Boston Transcript.

"I don't need to advertise," said the manufacturer of women's hosiery. "My customers always advertise my goods."

"But," argued the solicitor, "it doesn't always rain."

Some Types of Letters
Letters are a form of literature that we like to receive, but hate to answer. Among the many different kinds, a distinct type is the letter that we receive from home. This letter is enjoyable in its way, the quality depending upon which particular member of the household wrote it. If it is from brother, the principal theme is, "When did you see my girl last?" If it is from father or mother, it will likely contain some parental advice. For instance, a letter received from father reads, "Quit worrying about your looks. You can't help having red hair and freckles; it is not your fault, so why worry about it? Concentrate your mind upon your books and your looks will take care of itself".

Another type is the letter that you receive from your chum. This letter is very long and contains more real news than the Christmas issue of the "Star Telegram". Directly opposite this type is the cold business letter or patent medicine advertisement that we so often find in our box.

But of all letters, the most highly prized, the most enjoyable, the most eagerly watched for is the love-letter. This is the letter that a boy writes to his sweetheart, or "vice versa." More time is spent on its composition than a poet would spend on his best poem. It is very precious and for it a boy or girl will walk miles thru a blinding snowstorm. It is usually carried in the pocket nearest the receiver's heart until another comes to take its place. It is then laid carefully away in a candy box or some other suitable receptacle.

When we consider all the different types of letters, we find that some are interesting while others are not. For example, a letter dealing with the writer's health or the condition of the weather can not be called interesting. On the other hand, a letter reading, "Dear Daughter, I am, please send me at once the five ded dollars", would be very interesting. A letter reading, "Dear Madam, please send me at once the five dollars that you owe me," would also be interesting but in an altogether different way.

In all the letters mentioned, the closing is a very important part. It would be indiscreet to close a business letter, "with love", and it would be equally absurd to end a love letter with "yours truly."

Honesty First
"No," said the old man sternly. "I will not do it. Never have I sold anything by false representation, and I will not begin now."

For a moment he was silent, and the clerk who stood before him could see that the better nature of his employer was fighting strongly for the right.

"No," said the old man, again. "I will not do it. It is an inferior grade of shoe, and I will not pass it off as anything better. Mark it, 'A Shoe Fit for a Queen,' and put it in the window. A queen does not have to do much walking."—London Tit-Bits.

"I've written a grand opera." "Do you think it will be a success?"

"It ought to be. Practically all of it is jazz music."—Syracuse Orange Peel.

More opportunities are lost in our leisure time—those golden moments wasted in frenzied search for health and pleasure—than cross our paths in all our working hours.—Sheldon.

Much may be done in those little shreds and patches of time that every day produces and which most men throw away.—Colton.

Too much idleness fills up a man's time much more completely and leaves him less his own master than any sort of employment whatsoever.—Burke.

Very few people are good economists of their fortune, and still fewer of their time.—Chesterfield.

The vices of sloth are only to be shaken off by occupation.—Seneca.

Doest thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.—Benjamin Franklin.

Look forward with courage or you will look back with tears.—Spanish Proverb.

It is a matter of supreme importance how one educates oneself.—Hamilton W. Mabie.

I imagine nobody had ever such pains to learn a trade as I had; but I slogged at it day in and day out; and I frankly believe (thanks to my dire industry) I have done more with smaller gifts than almost any man of letters in the world.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Kitchen Aprons

When making kitchen aprons put in a wide tuck, then when they are worn out at the top and good at the bottom cut off the worn part and hem let out the tuck, turn upside down and run a wide tape or band through what was the hem.

CREDIT

Nine-tenths of the business of the United States is done on a credit basis. This means that a very large proportion of the business of the country depends on the credit given by banks in the form of loans and exchange.

If you will consider the matter you will realize that a large portion of the business of this community depends upon the credit of the local banks. If you are not already a customer of this bank, we want you to make a start with us and we will then be better able to pass on your request for an accommodation, if you should find yourself in need of it.

When a person knows some good news, which he feels will interest and benefit his friends and neighbors, he becomes anxious to tell it. That is the way the advertisers on this page feel. They have news of vital interest to you—news that will save you money on some article you desire to buy, or news about some new merchandise just received.

Since it is impossible for them to see everyone personally they take this method to tell you their message. Read every ad. You will find it worth while.

Miss Gober Files Suit for Damages

A suit for damages has been filed in the district clerk's office against J. Ray et al., by Miss Frankie E. Gober, who was caught under the falling timbers and debris when the Green Bros. Furniture Company building was wrecked about two months ago by the falling of the Olympic theatre building walls.

In her complaint, Miss Gober asks for $40,000 actual damages besides $15,000 punitive damage and an additional $3,000 as hospital expenses, physician and nurses fees and other expenses incident to her sickness. The complaint sets out that plaintiff was a business woman earning $120 a month at the time of the accident, and that by the reason of injuries sustained when the Olympic building walls crashed through the Green Bros. building, she is now totally disabled.—Amarillo News.

Hereford Breeders Incorporate

Following their successful First Annual Sale of last month the Hereford Registered Breeders' Association of this county have determined that they cannot stand still or rest on their oars but must progress if the Association is to grow and prosper.

Accordingly they have resolved to incorporate for $20,000, rebuild the old Bowie barn, across from the depot, for a conditioning and feed barn, and then erect a modern, up-to-the-minute Sale Pavilion, seating 1100 people, where future sales can be had. These steps were officially determined upon a meeting held last Friday afternoon when a committee to handle the matter was appointed. A good slice of the stock was taken on the spot by the breeders present, and the coming week a drive will be made over the city and county to place the balance of the amount needed and go ahead with the construction work. The exact location for the Pavilion has not yet been determined.

The new barn is to be 60x100 feet, with four rows of stalls and capable of housing 100 head of cattle. The Pavilion is to be 65 feet in diameter, octagon shaped, with seats raised about the ring side. This aggressive forward move on the part of the breeders is but a culmination of a series of similar live movements made by this organization since its formation, and assures the future status of the association as well as meaning much for the prosperity of the entire country hereabouts.—Hereford Brand.

Interesting Facts About Operators

The Telephone Operator is selected from among many applicants, because every one who applies is not fitted for this work.

She is chosen because she has a good speaking voice, is free from nervousness, is quick-witted and blessed with poise. These attributes are necessary in order insure service to the Telephone User.

After a young lady is accepted by the employment department she is given instruction and is taught the art of handling the switchboard.

Her health and general comfort are in the hands of competent and careful experts. She has good accommodations, a well ventilated, well lighted place to work and conditions surrounding her equal to many of the better class homes.

Our operators are faithful and industrious. Noted men and women have visited our exchanges and have departed impressed with the remarkably bright, loyal and industrious personalities they have found at the switchboards and in our executive departments.

The BEST EFFORTS OF THESE YOUNG LADIES are offered you in the telephone service; a kind word to them over the wires when you are calling will always bring a gentle "Thank You" as she instantly does her best to connect you with the number you are calling.

These are times of unrest and apprehension. The turmoil following the close of the war has found its reflection in unrest on the part of the people and an unusual irritability. Telephone patrons can assist us in swinging the telephone service back to normal by making it a point to encourage our young women with kind words.

Childers for District Attorney

We are authorized to announce the name of W. H. Childers, of the firm of Barrett & Childers, for the office of district attorney, subject to the Democratic primaries in July. Mr. Childers was born in Bosque County, Texas, October 4, 1881, and is 38 years of age. When 4 years old his father moved to Arkansas where he was reared. Was educated in Public Schools and finished Junior year in college. Studied law and was admitted to practice in Arkansas Courts in 1906. Practiced law a while in Walnut Ridge, Arkansas, and later became connected with American Trust Co., Jonesboro, Ark. Moved to Memphis, Texas, in 1912, and was associated there in the practice of law with Judge R. J. Thorne. Was assistant Cashier and Vice President of Amarillo National Bank, Amarillo, and Vice President of Drovers Cattle Loan Co., Kansas City, Mo., until 1919, since which time he has been associated with Judge L. C. Barret in the practice of law. During the present term of district court he has defended five cases and secured five acquittals. He asks the voters to remember him at the coming primaries.

Pin Pricking Among Allies

When the armistice was declared, less than two years ago, an alliance that seemed to most of us to have every element of permanence had won the military victory. But the current events and the forces of conflicting interests and ideals are already tearing that alliance apart. Italy, checkmated by President Wilson in its desire to get undisputed control of the Adriatic, has lost its affection for the Allies who failed to help it to get what it wanted. France and Great Britain have differed on the way to deal with Germany. There is no break, but there has been a disquieting amount of disagreement and suspicion.

Our own unfortunate political differences at home have destroyed our influence abroad and seriously strained the confidence and affection of the peoples whose brothers in arms we were only two years ago. Our refusal to ratify a treaty that our representatives had a great part in framing cannot be made comprehensible to the British and French.

That refusal is the basis of a dangerous amount of anti-American feeling in both countries—especially perhaps in England, where there seems to be some organized attempt to misrepresent our action and to arouse hostility to us. The propaganda has no responsible source. Like most propaganda, it is spread anonymously, subterraneously, secretly. It can be traced perhaps to persons who resent the commercial and financial position that the United States has attained, and it finds its nourishment among those who believe that we have shirked our international duty and interfered improperly in the settlement of the Irish question.

At the same time there is a great deal of anti-British propaganda in this country. Some of it, obvious enough in origin, grows out of the Irish problem, which has suddenly become more difficult than ever; some flows from sources that were and are favorable to the German cause; some from overseas men who for one reason or another found British soldiers hard to get along with. A lot of people are whispering that some day we shall have to fight Great Britain are hearing it said that the United States is building a greater navy and that it means to take from the British Empire the naval as well as the commercial supremacy.

No calamity could be greater than the growth of real hostility between the two countries. If they should be drawn into war, it would mean the end of our civilization. Only persons who are not intelligent enough to know what they are doing, or who are too reckless in their malignity to care what ruin they bring about, will repeat such insinuations and innuendoes as are altogether too common to-day.

Looking Downward

Some people are happiest with their inferiors. That is likely to be true especially of persons of an energetic, managing temper, of a strong executive faculty. To be sure, the largest and surest executive achievement of the world is accomplished by those who have the subtle and persuasive gift of conveying their own enthusiasm to all sorts of men and women, to many perhaps who far excel themselves in particular powers and abilities. But there is an active, busy, bustling type of spirit, which can do a great deal of work in the world, useful work, too, but which can do it only by a complete, despotic control of those about it, which cannot yield to, or respond to, the different methods or aptitudes of spirits of equal power and energy. Souls of that type are at home and at their best only when surrounded by their inferiors.

The same thing is even more subtly and curiously true of a very different class of minds. There are people who seek the society of their inferiors simply from natural shyness, timidity and reserve. Spirits like those are crushed by the company of their superiors. With those above them in society or wealth or intelligence they shut up, withdraw into themselves and have nothing to say, forget to produce even the best that is in them, which is often rare and sweet. Put those same people with their inferiors, and they seem altogether different. Their souls bloom out fresh and rich, like flowers in a favoring atmosphere. And, consciously or unconsciously, that is too likely to be the atmosphere they seek. Yet is dangerous to them and in the end often destructive. Just because they are so sensitive and so subtly responsive, they are certain to acquire more or less of the inferiority about them. Their language, their manners, their thoughts, even the most delicate tissue of their souls, become in a measure degraded by contact with substance coarser and more common than that for which they were born. It is one of the tragedies of life to see a finely touched nature dragged down by constant exclusive association with those inferior to it.

For the true secret of happiness is to associate with those equal but different; and with individuals, as with nations, the only solid basis of respect is to get and to give.

Be Satisfied

Don't kick at the high cost of every old thing. Be glad you don't live in Turkey. A Red Cross man writes that eggs in Constantinople are thirty cents a piece. They're not passed by the censor, either. Bread is eighty cents a loaf, milk ninety cents a pint, butter four dollars a pound and sugar two dollars a pound. Just imagine a flock of wives at those prices. Two army officers, says the Red Cross man, stopped over night at a hotel and had to pay two hundred and thirty-five dollars for lodging, breakfast and dinner. Wonder what they had to give the hat boy?

Sewing Room Hints

When the dressmaker comes draw an old pillow case over the leaf of the machine and secure it. Goods will not slip and the seamstress saves time. Run a draw string through the wide hem of a not too worn pillow case and hang it in the sewing room to hold a half finished garment over night; join two together and make of them a cover for the evening frock.

Begging the Question

She met him in a darkened room, Said he, "I've brought some roses?" She answered with irrelevance, "Oh, dear! how cold your nose is!" Ouch! The grocer saw his best customer was a bit ruffled over something, so strove to be extra obliging and pleasant.

"I think," he said blandly, "living is getting cheaper. For instance, a year ago them eggs would have cost you five cents more."

"A year ago," said the customer, "when these eggs were fresh, they would have been worth more.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

FORDSON USED ONLY 5 GALLONS OF KEROSENE.

On Feb. 19, at 9 a. m. Fordson tractor No. 100,000 left the assembly line in the Fordson plant at Dearborn, Mich., slightly less than two and a half years after No. 1 was completed. And here again has Henry Ford set a new high record in the manufacture of farm tractors via the quality production route.

Some fifteen years ago Ford began work on what has come to be the Fordson. This tractor was really a Ford car equipped with special wheels and included of course some mechanical changes.

By 1908 he had a workable tractor; it plowed, harrowed and did much other work on the farm. Then ensued nine more years of experimental work before the first tractor was put on the market.

Fordson tractors are now being assembled at a rate of 350 daily at Dearborn, 100 at the St. Louis assembling plant, and it is estimated that within a short time the Des Moines branch will be in operation. There is also an assembling plant in Cork, Ireland.

Your Liberty Bond

The United States Government borrowed money from you to finance the war. You hold the Government's promise to pay you back. This promise is called a Liberty Bond or Victory Note. On this Bond is stated the conditions under which the Government borrowed money from you.

For instance: If you hold a Bond of the Third Liberty Loan, it states that on April 15th and October 15th of each year until maturity you will receive interest on the amount you paid for the Bond. Other issues bear other rates of interest and other maturity dates, all of which are clearly stated on the Bond.

Now, if you keep your Bond until the date when the Government pays you in full for it, you do not need to worry if, in the meantime, the price is low one day or high the next. You and Uncle Sam are living up to your agreement with each other, and neither will lose by it.

On the other hand if you sell your Liberty Bond now, you will find that the man you sell it to will not give you a dollar for every dollar you paid for it. The price has been brought down because so many people are offering to sell their Bonds. If the market is flooded with tomatoes, you can buy them cheap, but if everyone is clamoring for tomatoes and there are few to be had, the price goes up. The same is true of Liberty Bonds. Short-sighted people are dumping them on the market and the wise ones are buying them.

The best advice that can be given to the owner of a Liberty Bond is this: Hold the bond you bought during the war; it is as safe and sound as the United States government itself.

Buy as many more at the present low rate as you can afford. If you hold them to maturity, you are bound to make the difference between what they sell at now and their face value. You will also receive good interest on your investment.

Hold on to your Liberty Bonds and buy more.

Discontent

The expression "divine discontent" is a familiar one and has no doubt served many restless, discontented persons well. It is always comfortable to have some sanction for an attitude of mind that is troublesome to other people and of no great pleasure to yourself. The idea that discontent is intrinsically noble is as pernicious an abstract idea as has ever been circulated. Discontent with your achievements, dissatisfaction with your response to opportunity or to duty may be and ought to be stimulating, may merit even the superlative appellation of divine. But a more common sort of discontent is that which finds fault with fate, which complains of lack of opportunity, which in persons of a passive type produces inertia, and which urges the more active to mutiny and rebellion.

Most of the discontent that people are exhibiting today has little of the divine element. It is occasioned by a desire to get much more for little, to work short hours and to enjoy luxuries. Very few persons are interested in making more for themselves; a great many are determined to get more for themselves. That determination would not be discreditably were it based on a recognition of the fact that getting comes by earning. But discontent has produced a false philosophy that teaches in effect that getting comes by taking. The thing that makes Bolshevism attractive to the discontented is the idea that the people who are prosperous are so only because they or their ancestors have taken more than they had any right to take and that under a system of proper equality the property of such people will be confiscated and distributed.

Fact and Comment

It may take a "pull" to get ahead, but it takes a head to get a "pull." Of every hundred men who fail, too much work ruins one and too little work ruins the ninety-nine others.

In central Africa, travelers report, the price of wives has doubled. A native who before the war could buy a fine wife, sixteen hands high, for four spearheads or for four cows now has to pay eight.

Efficiency experts say that the people who get the most work done in a day are those whose desks have the least on them. They lose no time in hunting for material and are never discouraged by an accumulating mass of work. Each item is taken up in turn and disposed of, and there is nothing else to divide the attention of the worker.

Golf as Habib Ullah Khan, the late Ameer of Afghanistan, played it was not a tiring sport. As his enthusiasm grew, he increased his game from four holes a day to six. He once had buildings torn down and machinery removed in his search for a lost ball; and as for the rules, he ordered them changed to suit his convenience or to hinder his opponent.

Last year in one state sparks from chimneys started fires that cost $237,285 in damages; the carelessness of smokers, fires that cost $117,000; and using open lights to thaw the ice in pipes, fires that cost $44,000. It may be difficult to keep sparks from flying, but there is no excuse whatever of a careless smoker, and thawing pipes with fire is little less than criminal.

With an English one-pound note a British soldier stationed on the Rhine bought a leather case containing three pairs of good scissors, a snake skin jewel case, a huge shaving brush of real badger hair and a number of other odds and ends. At the normal rate of exchange his purchases were worth at least thirty-five dollars, or more than seven times what he paid for them.

The original causes of tedious lawsuits sometimes are absurdly trivial. Witness a suit that was settled by the highest court of New York after a legal war that lasted five years. In 1915 some one left a five-cent loaf of bread in a train. The man who found it was arrested for petty larceny and, having been acquitted turned around and sued the railroad for false arrest and malicious prosecution. He has been fighting his case ever since.

As the health officers at London found when they fumigated the Japanese freighter Alps Maru, to destroy the rats on her, it is not the easiest thing in the world to rid a sound ship of those vermin. During her subsequent voyage from London to New York the rats reappeared in increasing numbers, and, as rats from Oriental ports almost always carry disease, the officers of the port of New York held the ship at quarantine for two days while they fumigated her again.

Talk

An Irishman overheard talking to himself was asked why he talked to himself. His tart reply was, "Because I loinke to talk to an intilligent mon and hear an intilligent mon talk."

Talk builds and destroys empires; talk makes and unmake men; talk fuses, diffuses, enthuses; talk furnishes the stimulus, the enthusiasm to do, but it takes the "do" qualities along with the talk qualities to really get there.

It is a pleasure to sit in animated conversation with friend, relative or sweetheart.

Talk, talk—but please try and know what you are talking about!

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the Mucous Surfaces.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE.

Blaming the Farmer

When town and city people think of the cost of living they think in terms of $2 wheat, 80 cent butter and 70 cent eggs, rather than in terms of $15 shoes, $75 suits and $20 hats. Laboring classes demand higher wages and in the same breath, cheaper food. They do not take into account that increased wages in the industries mean increased cost for farm labor and for all the things the farmer must use to produce the nation's food.

When people are hurt they are likely to blame the group that has the least come-back—in the case of the H. C. L., the farmer. City people complain less about the high cost of clothing, of shoes and building materials than of the high cost of food. They fail to realize that even at 15 cents a loaf for bread, 80 cents a pound for butter and 70 cents a dozen for eggs they are getting more real value for their money than when they pay the prevailing prices for lumber, furniture, plumbing, shoes, and clothing. They fail to realize that out of that 15-cent loaf the farmer gets only 4 1-2 cents. They do not know that the farmer selling milk for 8.5 cents a quart at his farm is working for less than 30 cents an hour, and would be much better off if he sold his hay and grain and disposed of his cows.

Take wheat as an example. The guaranteed price of $2 a bushel was double what the farmer got before the war. He could have obtained not less than $3 a bushel if the price had not been fixed. The $2 guarantee taxed him $1 on every bushel of wheat he grew. Along with that farmers frequently pay double the old rate for labor to grow that wheat and more than twice the old price for harvesting machinery. On 300 farms in 12 Kansas counties the net cost of producing a bushel of $2 wheat in 1918 was $1.47 to $5.49 a bushel and in five of those counties the cost was more than $2 a bushel.

Let the town man consider too, the meat he eats. I'll bring in a 250-pound Kansas hog because I am more familiar with Kansas, although a hog from any other farm state would show equivalent results. It cost the farmer $41.50 to put that hog on the Kansas City market in December, 1919, and he received $33.75, just $7.75 less than it cost to produce the hog. If he had bought the hog back in the cheapest form of pork it would have cost him $66.02, based on retail prices at my home town, Manhattan, Kansas, February 13. And if he had preferred bacon to dry salt bellies in buying his hog back, he would have had to pay an additional $9.45, or a total of $75.47 for the hog that cost him $41.50 to produce and for which he received $33.75.

Now take a Kansas steer, also a steer from any other farm state would give practically the same figures. The farmer bought this 900-pound bullock for $90 in the fall of 1919, fed him 120 days and increased his weight to 1,200 pounds at a total cost of $158.60. That steer on the Kansas City market in the week of February 16, 1920, brought the farmer $140, and if the farmer bought back the steer in the form of ribs, chuck, brisket, loin, round and rump, representing 81.86 per cent of the dressed weight, it would have cost him $166.56. In 1916 the by-products of that steer amounted to $40.60.

will first feel the pangs of hunger, not the farm regions.

Last fall American farmers planted 38 million acres to wheat. The year previously they planted 50 million acres. The area planted to rye is 2 million acres less than a year ago. In Kansas the swine industry is at its lowest ebb since the early 80's. There are 12 per cent fewer beef cattle in the state than a year ago. If farmers were making the profits attributed to them in a thousand street car conversations every day would they deliberately cut off their source of income?

City people are honest in their views. They simply are uninformed. About all the city newspapers publish on agriculture is an occasional account of some farmer, who because of unusual circumstances or a desire to advertise, tells of making a great deal of money. Such news is pleasant reading, but it does agriculture a great wrong.

If the farming business were run on an 8-hour-day schedule, to say nothing of the 6-hour day that labor talks of, it would cut down production to such an extent that food would be out of reach of the purse of even the highest paid 8-hour-day laborer. The farmers cannot feed the nation without hiring help and already high city wages have caused such a shortage of farm labor that many farmers are cutting down their work to where it can be handled by their families and their neighbors. Laborers are town folks who are helping to make farming harder.

Cities and town are crowded with people who want urban ease, social and educational advantages. The average city has too many wholesale and retail enterprises. The average town has more grocery stores, butcher shops and bakeries than it needs. All this excess costs tremendously and the cost is tacked on to the price of foodstuffs. The farmers who go to town or city to trade, pay their share of this huge overhead expense. The farmers even pay part of the expensive delivery system that goes to the city dweller's door, but not to the farmer's door.

In our early history we gave the emphasis of legislation to manufacturing. In the last 50 years the emphasis has been given to transportation. It is time to emphasize the interests of the producer. Men in political life must keep in mind the needs of the agricultural workers. Lack of consideration of their interests will inevitably react upon the economic welfare of the nation. If farming has not its rightful place our progress as a nation will be uncertain.—W. M. Jardine, President Kansas Agricultural College in Capper's Farmer.
