

SWINE SALE ON SATURDAY WAS SUCCESS

FORTY ONE HEAD SOLD AVERAGE $72.87

Pig Club Boy Tops Sale With Gilt at $180—All Breeders Very Highly Pleased With Sale.

The sale of the Randall County Swine Breeders Association Saturday was considered a very great success by all of the contributors in the sale. Several breeders were fearful of taking a great loss owing to the passing financial flurry, and while it was generally conceded that the best hogs did not bring all that they were worth, yet all were most highly leased. Those who visited the Lubbock and Tulla sales state that the animals in the Randall County sale were superior as a whole to those in the other two sales.

Roy Tate, a Pig Club Boy, topped the sale, his gilt selling for $180. W. H. Younger, Jr., was the purchaser. A sow sold by John Knight to W. H. Younger for $160, topped the Duroc Jersey sows.

A sow sold by Ludwig Irlbeck to W. J. Flesher for $170 topped the Poland China sales and was second high sow in the sale.

The 14 head of Poland Chinas averaged $56.25. This low average was due to the fact that a number of pigs were sold, several of which were due to the fact that a number of pigs were sold, several of which were boars.

The 27 head of Duroc Jerseys averaged $81.29.

The average of the 41 head sold was $72.87.

The sale of a number of boar pigs brought down the average very much lower than the quality of the sows and gilts justified. The average of the sows and gilts, both Poland Chinas and Duroc Jerseys, was $84.57.

Sentiment is strong among the breeders for the building of a sales pavilion and going into the registered sale business right. The Hereford breeders of the county will be asked to join in the enterprise and erect a pavilion worth while.

The following were the sales made Saturday:

Gave Dry Check Is Now In Jail

S. Martin was arrested a few weeks ago for giving a dry check to John Weyen. He decided to fight the case in court and consequently when Judge Jennings called his case Monday morning a jury was selected and Martin's lawyer plead in his defense.

However, the jury did not agree that the young man was absolutely faultless in giving the check with no money back of it, and assessed the sentence at $25 and five days in jail. The costs in the suit were about $50. The check given amounted to $340.

Several more dry check artists are before the court for trial.

Poll Tax payments in Randall County are very slow and the number is far below that of last year. Last year no man who had discharge papers from the army or navy needed a poll tax receipt. Precinct No. 3	25
Precinct No. 4	8
Precinct No. 5	13

High School Notes

Our basket ball boys played another practice game with the Training School last week and were badly beaten. This is the first time the boys have been beaten this year and this will not be considered a victory for the training school as it was only a practice game. The practice games that we play with the training school are not to be counted as victories by either school but two match games are on schedule for the home honors and will be the only real match games played between the teams.

The girls also played a practice game last week and were fortunate to carry off the game although they had not been practicing regularly. The girls have several match games scheduled for the future.

The orchestra has been playing in chapel regularly for some time. It is their intention to give march music regularly to furnish accompaniment for the singers. They will entertain at the public plays and programs.

The Literary societies are well under way and the first program was given last week. The names of the societies are: The Utopian and Palo Duro.

The Mid-Term tests started this morning (Tuesday) and every pupil is confident that he or she will have no trouble in passing these tests satisfactorily.

EVANGELIST HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT--LAST NIGHT IN JAIL

Dr. M. Lee Starke of New York City, evangelist who is holding a series of meetings at the local Methodist church, spent last night in the Randall County jail under a writ of commitment, issued out of the Justice Court by Arnott Moreland, Justice of the Peace. The steps leading up to Dr. Starke's confinement in the jail are as follows:

Sunday morning Dr. Starke charged in the pulpit that he had seen crap games going on in Canyon that morning. Monday morning a Court of Inquiry was called by the Justice of the Peace, but Dr. Starke was out of town and the subpoena for him to appear was not served. No action was taken Tuesday.

Wednesday morning the subpoena was served on Dr. Starke and he refused to go into court. The Justice then issued a Writ of Attachment to the Sheriff of Randall County, W. C. Black, which Writ was served and Dr. Starke was brought into court.

Questions were asked Mr. Starke regarding the games he had seen in Canyon Sunday morning. According to the reports given out by the officers, Dr. Starke refused to give the information sought, and the witness was charged with contempt of court, and a Writ of Confinement placed in the hands of the Sheriff for execution. The preacher was placed in the county jail awaiting his decision to answer the questions propounded by the court.

The revival meeting continued at the church with the pastor, Rev. Simeon Shaw taking the place of the evangelist. He announced at the evening service that a prayer meeting would be held at the jail after the service and several scores of people went to the meeting. Songs were sung and prayers were offered.

This morning Dr. Starke was again brought into the Justice Court and asked regarding the affair.

The proceedings of the court of inquiry are secret as is the work of the grand jury, and none of the questions and answers recorded in the court were available for publication this morning. The court officers state that the statement made this morning was satisfactory to the court and Dr. Starke was therefore released.

Excitement prevailed in the city during yesterday and last night, and the people of Canyon regret the incident very much.

DEBATERS FOR NORMAL CHOSEN LAST SATURDAY

COMMERCE, HUNTSVILLE OPPONENTS

Tarleton, Baucom, Hill and Boatright Selected to Represent W. T. S. N. C. in April.

The try-out Saturday for debaters to represent the Normal in the inter-normal debates in April resulted in the selection of the following men: D. T. Tarleton, I. C. Baucom, Lester Hill and Mody Boatright, with Virgil Dossan and Lewis Hill as alternates. The men selected Saturday are perhaps the most mature and have had more experience than any teams which have represented the school in the past. The men will be divided into two teams, one to meet Commerce here and the other to go to the Huntsville normal.

The West Texas State Normal first entered interscholastic debate in 1912, when the two teams were defeated by Denton and San Marcos.

In 1913 both teams lost.

In 1914 the old building was burned just a month before the date of the debates, the teams losing all of their material and no debates were held.

Debating was not resumed until 1917 when the team won from Denton and lost to San Marcos.

In 1918 the West Texas State Normal College won both debates, defeating Denton and San Marcos.

In 1919 one team lost to San Marcos while the other one lost to Commerce.

Last year the team divided honors by winning from San Marcos and losing to Denton.

PRICES HAVE HIT THE BOTTOM

Newspaper editorials in the larger daily papers of the country were one of the greatest factors in starting and sustaining the public's buying strike. The bar is all equally strong forces in bringing it to an end.

Public opinion is not so much reflected in the newspapers as it is made by them. Newspapers owe a duty to the people and to the business men whose advertising supports the papers.

There is no use blinking the fact that the public is now refusing to buy the things it actually needs because it hopes there is going to be some miraculous fall in prices. This is not going to happen. There will be a slow decline in prices, but nothing spectacular is in sight. The person who refuses to buy now when the merchants are cutting and slashing prices at and below cost in many instances, will more than likely pay more for what they need in a short time later.

On the other hand, if everyone follows the course of holding off now, this action is going to seriously affect business, and this in turn is bound to react unfavorably upon the whole community. We cannot live for ourselves alone. We should therefore not refrain from buying now. We are not advocating extravagance or advising people to buy anything they do not need. On the contrary we should buy everything we need as the merchants have done their best to bring prices down and we believe that they have hit the bottom.

The News column carries advertisements each week of the progressive business firms of Canyon and when you want to buy something you can rest assured that they will give you the lowest prices and service unexcelled.

It was a foregone conclusion that the republicans once in power would remove from office all democratic employees. The postoffice situation is nevertheless a shame and disgrace to this American republic. The senate will not approve the appointments made by President Wilson, and the conclusion is that after March fourth, 15,000 postmasters are to be replaced by hungry republicans. In Canyon an examination was held and the man passing the higher grade was given the office. Regardless of whom the winner was in the contest, he should be allowed to hold the full four year's of office. The removal of these postmasters will be a reversion to the spoils system the rankness of which was sought to be overcome in placing the post offices under the civil service.

It doesn't take a thorough education in logic to reason out the profitableness of thoroughbred stock over the unprofitableness of the scrub. Nor does it take much actual experience in raising the scrub to discover the unprofitableness of said animal, if once the test of profit and loss is applied. Randall county has had a demonstration of both thoroughbred hogs and poultry during the past week. Ask the man who has tried both the scrub and the thoroughbred route. There is no question as to which pays the largest dividends. Most people in Randall county realize the profitableness of better hogs and cattle and poultry, yet postpone going into the more profitable realm. Let the lessons of the past week not be overlooked by our good farmers and stockmen.

The proposed moving of the State University to lands outside of Austin should cause the state to closely examine all of its state institutions and see whether or not they have sufficient land for future development. If the founders of the university had had the vision of what the school would have become in 1925, the waste of millions of dollars in the proposed move would never have become necessary. There is probably no state institution which has sufficient ground that will allow a natural development of more than ten or twenty years. After that period the state will be up against the same proposition as it is with the university in Austin.

ADVERTISING IS "BAD TIMES" CURE SAYS MERCHANT

New York, Jan 3.—Advertising should be maintained and not cut at this time when many manufacturers and merchants are seriously overstocked, according to Stanley E. Cunnison, a director of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce, writing in the current issue of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce Bulletin.

"We have come to a critical period in the growth and existence of many business houses," said Cunnison. "Decisions that are made today will be determining factors in the success or failure of the years to come.

"The greatest and most successful concerns have always been the most consistent advertisers. Mindful of the lessons of the past, they safeguard the present and anticipate the future. Yet today we hear business men talk of curtailing their advertising at a time when they are overstocked with goods and are undersold to the extent of thousands of dollars."

NEED OF SALE PAVILLION

The sale of the Randall County Swine-Breeders' Association Saturday most clearly demonstrates the need of a sale pavillion in Canyon.

Canyon has a public sale within the city every month of the year, on Trades Day. The swine breeders have agreed to hold an annual or semi-annual sale in the city. The Hereford breeders have discussed a sales pavillion several times. Right now is the time to act while the need of such a pavillion is so greatly impressed upon the minds of the people of the county.

The breeders of Hereford erected a very fine pavillion last year, and the increased revenue of the first sale was almost enough to pay expense of its erection. What Hereford has done can be duplicated in Canyon and to the great advantage to the town and county.

A number of breeders were discussing a pavillion Monday morning. All were in favor of starting upon a building at once. All that is needed is leadership to put over the proposition. The Randall County Swine Breeders' Association should start the movement at once and stay by the proposition until it is completed.

Hon. Lee Satterwhite has been appointed chairman of the Appropriations Committee in the Texas Legislature. Satterwhite is one of the oldest men in point of service in the House. Satterwhite is one of the ablest men who ever sat in the Texas Legislature. Satterwhite is a West Texas man. He hails from Panhandle and is editor of the Panhandle Herald. His committee is the most important at the hands of the speaker, and the Panhandle Plains folks congratulate Texas that this mantle has fallen upon the shoulders of one of the biggest men in the state. Satterwhite stands for economy. He stands for efficiency in state government. The appropriations he approves will be just, needful, yet generous enough to take care of the state departments.

Just why a business man should send his printing out of town is hard to justify. The mail order printing firms suck the blood from the home printers just as the mail order mercantile firms suck the blood from the veins of the home merchants. The home printer is as much entitled to the printing of his community as is the local merchant entitled to the mercantile business of his home community.

Clean Up is the watchword of the Canyon Fire Department. Make Canyon as nearly "fireproof" as possible. As a result of having no fire losses during the past year a generous reduction in the city's key rate is promised in March. A clean city will add much to a further reduction of insurance costs in Canyon.

ADVERTISING IN THE COUNTRY WEEKLY

Newark (N. Y.) Union-Gazette.

Advertising in the country weekly is the most valuable advertising in the world. Expert advertisers say it is not only the most valuable but the most scientific advertising in the world. Advertising in the magazines has to be general, for the reason that the average magazine that you receive today was set in type several weeks ago, and the advertising copy was probably prepared several weeks before that. This means that advertisers in the magazines have to anticipate several weeks in advance of the time the copy is prepared.

This is not so with advertising in the country weekly, for the country weekly has the advantage over the magazine in that the weekly circulates in a comparatively small territory and the name of the merchant or the business man who is selling the goods can be placed in the advertisement. This is impossible in magazine advertising, which covers sometimes the whole nation.

The weekly newspaper also has been considered the best advertising medium in the world by expert advertisers for the reason that it has a more intimate association with the family than a magazine or a daily paper.

No local merchant can afford not to advertise in weekly newspapers of the better class. It is a sad commentary upon small town business men that they don't see the advantage to them of carrying an advertisement in the small town paper every single week. Such an advertisement is the cheapest salesman that the merchant can employ. The money spent in advertising in the better class of weekly newspapers is an investment and not an expense; and it is the best-paying investment that the merchant can make; but not one in a thousand publishers of the weekly papers is compensated anywhere near what he is worth to the merchants and to the community in which he lives and to whose interests he dedicates his life. Every editor of a weekly newspaper is constantly working in behalf of every merchant in his community, whether that merchant patronizes the local paper or not; but every merchant of every community, unfortunately, does not have the business common sense and the business foresight to see that it is to his own personal advantage to help support the country editor by advertising—telling the people in the newspaper what he has, how it can be used and what it costs.

William P. Hobby retired as Governor of Texas on Tuesday. For many months during the first part of his administration, there were many people in Texas who considered Hobby a mere figurehead in the office of Governor. Hobby was not so spectacular as many of his predecessors. That is not Hobby's nature. But all through his administration there has been sound business judgment, and today Hobby stands high with the people of this state. It is said he has further political aspirations. Be that as it may, Mr. Hobby can be assured that the people of Texas are grateful to him and appreciate the work he has done for the state.

It was a great surprise to many that Generals Pershing and Bliss should so strongly favor disarmament. Being soldiers by profession, this step might not be expected of the Generals. All nations are talking of disarmament. With so much favorable discussion, some great good may be expected. The hell of war should be terminated with the great struggle which we are now trying to wind up.

This is a funny old world: The Jap is willing to come here and pay poll tax; the Chinaman is willing to come here and pay poll tax; the Hindu is willing to come here and pay poll tax. All are barred. Americans, native Texans, must be urged to go to the office of the tax collector, contribute to the school funds and arm themselves with poll tax receipts.—Fort Worth Record.

The political waters are muddy. Senator Culbertson's term of office expires next year. Already there are a dozen avowed candidates and several more as listening painfully for the call of the "weegie." Culbertson is the master mind of Texas politics. It might be better for some of his numerous "successors" to take into consideration the Senator's feelings in the matter.

At least one boy is on the trail of the rats in Randall county. One lad with a bunch of rat tails was chasing around the streets the other day looking for the man who was to give him the money in payment for the slaughter of rats. The rats should be killed—money or no money.

The town of Miami on the Santa Fe is to have a new depot. Why not Canyon?

One fire in Canyon during 1920 and 33 in Childress! Where does the broad difference come in? Is Childress 33 times as large as Canyon? Our most optimistic booster would scarcely claim that. In fact, Uncle Sam's census shows Canyon about one-half as large as Childress in population. According to the Canyon record, Childress should have had but two fires. Doesn't this convict Childress people of great carelessness in some way? Surely we are not thirty-three times as careless as Canyon people, and yet the record is a hard thing to get around. When your house is burning and you learn that it was a bad fire or a gasoline explosion, you can see how easy it would have been to prevent the loss. Think of these matters ahead of time and do your part to prevent fires.—Childress Post.

Sentiment in the Legislature seems to be favorable for a Constitutional Convention to be called in Texas in December. This is as it should be. The old constitution was well made for its day—but that was long years ago. Texas needs a new working manual. There will be representatives elected from every district to this Constitutional Convention. The holder of a poll tax receipt will be a voter for these representatives. The men and women who do not hold a poll tax receipt had as well live in India so far as their influence will count in the election.

It may not be possible to force women to pay their poll tax this year, but the state officials have issued authority whereby all women must pay their poll tax beginning with next year. It takes a brave man to give women advice, but it is nothing more than right that since women are granted equal suffrage in this country that they should pay the poll tax this year without being forced to by the law. The money goes to the school fund, and what woman is there who does not believe in strengthening the educational system of Texas.

There is little sense in advocating a larger House of Representatives in Congress. The House is already too large for efficient service. The adding of fifty more members will mean an added expense of a million dollars per year. Just now Uncle Sam has about all the millions of expense that he can handle. If anything, the membership of the House should be reduced.

Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson has made a sensible suggestion for the use of the state's prisoners to build highways. The state has poured millions into farms which should have been self-supporting through the work of the prisoners. The building of highways could not be less profitable.

Chase the gloom. A long face never melted an ice berg.

At Last!—A Tube That Closes Punctures

You Pull the Nail and Keep Moving

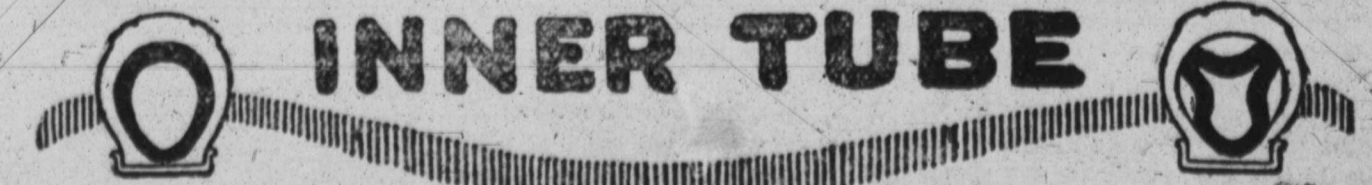

With the Compression Inner Tube there are no long waits on the road—no dirty back-breaking tire changing—nothing to do but pull out the nail and keep moving. Here's why: Compression tubes are about three times as thick as ordinary tubes. Their circumference is greater than the inside circumference of the casing. They are moulded with corrugations which conform to the smooth surface of the casing when deflated. The air pressure, instead of stretching the tube, COMPRESSES it. Thus when the nail is removed the hole closes up automatically. No air is lost!

It Adds 20 or 50 per cent to the Casing's Life

Compression Tubes—once inflated—are always firm—the proper air pressure is constantly maintained. They add many miles to the life of the casing—practically eliminates pinching and rim-cuts—makes the car ride easier. You are not only able to say—GOODBYE PUNCTURES—when your car is equipped with Compression Tubes—but you save money on tires, gasoline, etc. You owe it to your sense of motoring economy to investigate Compression Tubes. Come in, and let us SHOW you this puncture-closing tube—TODAY.

Modern Printing Machinery

The Randall County News can truthfully say there is not another printing plant in Northwest Texas better equipped for all around printing than YOUR PRINTING PLANT right here in Canyon.

Our new Model Eight Linotype has just been installed, and with its three magazines allows the operator, without leaving his seat, the following range of type faces:

THE MILLER FEEDER

Canyon was the first town of its size in the whole State of Texas to install a Miller Feeder. This automatic job press feeder is a revelation to laymen as to the possibilities in the printing industry. The Miller Feeder will handle a range of paper from onion skin to 6-ply cardboard. Each sheet is printed absolutely straight, with no finger marks—something which is impossible in hand feeding. This machine produces high class work speedily and accurately.

BABCOCK STANDARD PRESS

MENTGES FOLDING MACHINE

The citizens of Randall County are welcomed at all times to visit the Randall County News Plant. We will take a special delight in showing to those interested any of the above machinery. The Linotype is in operation every day. The Babcock Standard Press and Folding machine may be seen in operation on Thursdays. If you will phone, we can give you the times that you may see the Miller feeder in operation.

BOOK LEARNING BECOMES VALUABLE TO CANYON-BOY

Scott Amend is a member of Mr. Phillips' Agricultural class of the Normal Training School. It is a rule of the class that every member must have some kind of animal to feed and care for before he gets his promotion in Agriculture. Scott is feeding a pig for his real project work and keeps a record of his mother's cow as a side line. Scott asked his mother to let him change the feed, which had always been considered good enough for the family cow to one which he had figured out in class. Scott argued that his ration would cost only thirty-four and one-half cents per day and that it would get them as much milk for the family as the old ration which was costing over fifty cents. His new ration was twenty pounds of ground milo heads, twelve pounds of alfalfa, one pound each of cotton seed meal and wheat bran. Results in two weeks was that the cow had doubled her milk production. Incidentally Scott is giving her a small increase in feed. The neighbors say that Scott's mother is exceedingly well pleased with her son's work in "Book Farming" under Mr. Phillips.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND REVIVAL M. E. CHURCH

SPECIAL SERVICE FOR YOUNG MEN SUNDAY

Great Interest Manifested in All of the Services—Large Children's Meeting Last Sunday.

The greatest crowd ever assembled in Canyon heard Dr. Starke Sunday night. Every available space in the large auditorium of the Methodist church was filled and every inch of standing room was occupied long before the time of preaching. The announcement was made that no more room in the Methodist church and an overflow meeting was to be held in the Baptist church—and a very fine audience heard Rev. B. F. Fronbarger who is earnestly backing the revival.

Dr. Starke is one of the most distinguished general evangelists of the Northern Methodist church and has every where been successful in his chosen field. Listen!

The Ladies' Guild, S. C. said: "No man astute, fearless, and able defender of the doctrines of religiousness and salvation as taught by Jesus Christ was ever heard in any pulpit. This is the reason the people in great crowds are seeking to hear this modern John the Baptist."

Dr. G. H. Fiedling, pastor Methodist Church, Piedmont West Va. "Dr. Starke is true to Methodist traditions. He is true to the Scriptures and uses it abundantly. No strained interpretations of it, but plain gospel truth. He denounces sin unmercifully. He did a great work here. Hundreds were converted and joined the church."

Rev. Charles Htraud, D. D. of New York says: "Dr. Starke is safe and sound and his converts stand the test of time. That he is a God called, God animated spirit filled and spirit led man no man who hears him can doubt."

The News, Orangecock Va., said of him: "From all over the county they come to hear the Great Evangelist preach his famous sermon 'The Old Ship of Zion.' Many declare it was the greatest sermon ever delivered in the county." Dr. Starke will preach this sermon "The Old Ship of Zion" next Sunday night at 6:30 p. m.

Mr. Shaw, who is writing this, could easily fill the whole edition of the Randall County News with commendations such as these. But we who have heard Dr. Starke need no more recommendations. Personally Mr. Shaw thinks Dr. Starke the greatest evangelist since the death of Sam Jones.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the sermon will be to young men who will be admitted by tickets which will be distributed during the week. Every young man in Randall County is urged to come and occupy the seats in the main auditorium. All other men, women and children will be admitted without ticket and sit in the wings.

In order Sunday night to accommodate the overflow crowd or rather to prevent an overflow, Mrs. Shaw will conduct a great children's meeting at the Baptist church. All children and young people of the training school and high school are urged to attend this service Sunday night. Miss Imogene McIntire will preside at the organ and Bro. Shaw will lead the singing of a great children's chorus, and Mrs. Shaw will draw pictures. At the Baptist church, Sunday night at 6:30.

Mr. Shaw is deeply grateful for the help of the Presbyterian and Baptist preachers and their flocks. Let every Christian come up and join in a great effort to have a great revival of religion.

A school for personal workers will be conducted by Rev. Simeon Shaw in the pastor's study every evening from 6:30 to 6:45.

READ! THINK! ACT!
"Market Your Grain on the Hoof" is the Slogan for 1921.

The Childress County Livestock Association is urging the farmers of Childress county to raise more livestock during 1921. It advances the argument that livestock just now is procurable and is comparatively low. Livestock offers the best way in marketing a cheap grain crop. Will P. Jones, Duroc breeder and a banker, and S. E. Lewis, a breeder of Big Type Poland Chinas, are respectively the president and secretary of the association.

In presenting the proposition to the people of Childress county the association issued a folder containing the following suggestions:

DO YOU KNOW—
 That Texas has the Best Feed Crop this year that she has enjoyed for many years? Other states, our two neighboring states, Oklahoma and New Mexico in particular, also have enormous crops. Wheat, oats, corn, kaffir and maize have all done exceptionally well.

DO YOU KNOW—
 That with the enormous feed crop throughout the country with the Poor Marketing Facilities that the price will decrease. Many farmers will be compelled to dispose of grain because of scarcity of storage and lack of live stock to eat.

DO YOU KNOW—
 That on account of difficulty in gathering and storing this grain that a large percent of it will Spoil On The Farm and that this damaged grain will have a tendency to lower the price on good grain?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That there are 3,000,000 fewer hogs in the United States than there were last year, and that with a constantly increasing population and a Decreasing Hog Supply there is the same extent that cotton has?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That there is usually enough rough feed wasted on the farms to raise a few good beef calves? Or that by giving this feed to a good dairy cow and selling the cream and butter, that the skim milk will Pay For The Up-keep of the cow and the cream check will be Clear Profit? This has been proven out by capable men, who have an accurate account.

DO YOU KNOW—
 That right now, with hogs lower than they have been for years, that there is a greater spread between the price of grain and the price of pork than was ever known before, and that the damaged feed can be Fed To Hogs At A Profit?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That feeding the grain to live stock will Settle The Marketing Problem and eliminate any chance from spoiling grain?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That in many instances the crop can be gathered by the live stock and thus Save A Big Expense in crop gathering?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That the man who went in for hogs and fed last year is now "sitting easy"? The price of cotton is Not Worrying Him. He has grain to feed and Hogs To Sell.

DO YOU KNOW—
 That the cream check from a herd of five or six good milk cows will Pay All Expenses of the average family and that the other crops will then be clear at the end of the year?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That with a beef or two, a few chickens and eggs, a little cream, and a few hogs to sell each year, that the Road to Prosperity is plainly blazed so that it is easily followed?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That your banker will much more readily finance a man who is engaged in the many different lines of farming and live stock raising combined, than he will the man who is a One Crop Man? He has found from long experience that the Diversification Farmer is a small borrower and usually pays up promptly.

DO YOU KNOW—
 That it takes but little money to start in any of the lines mentioned above and that Right Now Is The Time?

DO YOU KNOW—
 That it is too late to sow wheat? You say there is nothing in cotton, then the feed route is the only one open, and this being the case you cannot Afford To Overlook the live stock along with it.

DO YOU KNOW—
 That Now Is The Time To Buy and as soon as this idea soaks in there will be the biggest demand for breeding stock that Childress county has ever seen and that there will not be enough to go around?
 A word to the wise is sufficient but breeding animals while they are available.

 Market your corn on the hoof next year.
 Do not let low priced cotton get you down.
 Buy hogs, chickens and cows and arrange to get the most out of your feed.
 Place good stock on your farm, and thus increase your interest and the interest of your family by giving them something to think of that has life and can appreciate good treatment.
 Any member of the Childress Live Stock Association will be glad to advise you where you can get what you want.

Will P. Jones, President.
 S. E. Lewis, Secretary.

The Soil Was Pretty Rough
 A farmer's daughter, who thought that she was destined to become a great vocalist, started to practice in private. No one except her mother knew the secret. One day her father came in from the fields unexpectedly, just when Jane was practicing her top notes.

"What's that extraordinary noise?" he inquired.
 "That, dear," replied his wife proudly, "is Jane cultivating her voice."
 "Cultivating? Huh!" ejaculated the farmer. "That ain't cultivating—that's harrowing."

Another Task
 There had been a difference of opinion in the preacher's family and youthful Elizabeth thought that she had received the worst of it. So at prayer time she was resentful and unhappy, but she went through her usual petitions. "O Lord," she finally prayed, "make all the bad people good. And God, if you can please make all the good people nice."—World Outlook.

Coming His Way!

Merchants and manufacturers endorse pure-bred cattle because they make business better. They buy electric-lighting plants; farm power; machinery; pianos; household conveniences—power washers, sweepers, churns; better buildings; better homes. They buy improved roads and more efficient schools.

Farmers raise pure-breds for the same reason. They like to be prosperous and pure-breds will make them so. Better cattle widen the margin between the producing cost and the selling price of beef; they make their own market as breeding stock.

Don't let a pure-bred bull go to waste in this community. Remember that the poorest pure-bred is better than the best scrub. He is easier to feed, he makes better beef, and he will pass his money-bringing qualities on to his get. Only the pure-bred can make the cattle industry stable and certain of steady return, year after year.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, whose cooperation enables us to present these advertisements, has long been an ardent supporter of the pure-breds, because they pay the farmer who raises them. This dominant weekly of farm service studies for you every aspect and every problem of your business and the conclusions at which its trained investigators arrive can be accepted as thoroughly reliable. These investigators say: "Buy Pure-Breds."

In the next 52 big issues (which will come to you for just $1.00) the editors will tell you why.

The Purina System of Feeding keeps the flock laying in the fall and the winter, because it supplies plenty of material for whites as well as for yolks. This enables the hen to make complete eggs of all the yolks that develop in her body.

When a grain ration is fed there is not enough protein for whites. Many yolks that form are not laid, but are eventually absorbed back into the system as fat.

More-Eggs Guarantee

Purina Chows, when fed according to directions, are guaranteed to make hens lay more eggs than any other feed, or the money paid for Purina Chows will be refunded.

OUR EDUCATIONAL AWAKENING

Mrs. Phebe K. Warner in Amarillo Tribune.

The year 1920 will soon be gone. To some of us it may seem like a very quiet uneventful year. No real wars at home. No great moves on foot. To others it has meant disappointments. To all of us who are enough alive to know we are alive it has been an anxious year. But through the chaos, a star of hope is gleaming. It is a new star, and a bright star, and like the star of the East it is going to guide us all to a higher, better life, no matter what our political and commercial disappointments may have been there has never been such an educational awakening as this year has wrought. The very air seems saturated with a longing for a new educational system. Everybody is talking real education, a knowledge of conditions, as well as things; a knowledge of the causes, effects and cures of all the conditions; a knowledge of the present as well as the past and an outlook into the future as to its needs and how to meet them.

Oh, it has been a glorious year, this old, trying year of 1920. It has set more folk to thinking than any other year in their lives, thinking seriously; thinking deeply. What are we coming to? How come we to it? And why have we arrived? For about a hundred years the United States has been constructing one of the greatest educational systems in the world. But for the past quarter of a century our educational architects have been so absorbed in perfecting their system that they failed to notice that the whole nation had not grown the system before it was complete and that the great mass of our people had drifted off into idleness and ignorance in search of real education while our higher educators were working out their ideal educational plans. And finally many of our leading educators (so called) have awoke from their intellectual slumps and dreams to discover that the fellows who have really been of greatest service to their fellowmen and who have pushed the world forward every day were those who laid down their books and went to work with their hands and heads and hearts to do something for somebody, and to make some new history and discover some new things for the old scholars to write about. Land snakes! What would our great scholars have to talk about and write about today if some of the stupid had boys of seventy-five or a hundred years ago had not got out into the world and done something? And their work has set so many new wheels in motion, created so many new positions for men and women too, that a whole new system of education is in demand by the masses of mankind to fit them for the multiplied new forms of industry that the century has brought about. And the people have seen the situation. They are beginning to understand why the world is like it is. The people are beginning to study the people, their conditions, their needs and how to realize their new dreams of life, and tiring and studying folk as well as books has made us all akin. It has quickened our interest in one another. It has awakened responsive chords in all our hearts, and these chords are drawing all mankind nearer together, and the whole world is getting interested in itself and its people. And they are finding out the truth about this big human family. The world is looking into the condition of its children, its industries, its fathers and mothers and everywhere we hear the cry for more useful and more practical education. Education that educates a boy to grow into a useful man instead of an aristocratic hobo. As a result the school bells are calling our boys back to school and offering them something of special interest to their lives. The school bells are calling our daughters to school to learn the lessons they will need every day of their lives.

The people are finding out why there are so many diseased children, why there is so much crime, and much unrest and unhappiness in this world of sunshine and plenty. And the people are going to evolve out of all these trying conditions to a race of self-reliant, self-respecting, self-supporting citizens that will know better how to use themselves and the world for the welfare of us all. This day of chaos, suffering, sorrow and disappointment had to come to wake us up, but we are getting our eyes rubbed open and the next generation will reap our belated reward. And what greater reward does any of us wait than to know our children will live in a better day because of the awakening.

Come to Canyon to live.

Come and take a look at the new spring and summer samples which we have just received.

The materials are of better stuff—some real pre-war goods that will give 100 per cent wear and satisfaction.

And, Oh Boy, just look at the prices. You get back to the days before the war when you look at the prices. $24.00 buys a cracker-jack good suit of clothes. Prices range up to $50.00.

Come and look us over. Those who know M. Born clothes know they are built to your individual measurement with exclusive style, best of materials and workmanship.

You cannot beat these prices by further waiting.

Please remember that our cleaning and pressing department is always at your command.
