Returns to Canyon

J. R. "Doc" Harter and wife arrived in Canyon last Thursday from Indiana where they moved four years ago. They had lived in Canyon for a number of years previously and thought they could move away. "Doc" soon found the call of the Plains too strong and is back here to stay.

Catches Fine Fish

Jim Hood parading the streets Saturday morning with a long string of fish caused quite as much excitement among the local sportsmen as would Barnum & Batley's circus parade. The art of persuasion was vainly used on Jim in an effort that he disclose the particular spot of his good fishing luck. "The creek," was all the answer Jim would give to his many questioners.

Will Have Duroc and Poland China Shows

The Duroc Jersey breeders completed arrangements Friday afternoon for the Futurity Show which will be held during the County Fair on Sept. 28-30. The prizes offered in this show will amount to $400.

The Poland China breeders will have a Futurity Show at the same time, the premiums offered amounting to $100. All of the breeders of registered hogs in Randall county will be urged to bring exhibits to the Randall County Fair.

MUST ELECT COUNTY TRUSTEES APRIL SECOND

Judge W. A. Jennings calls attention to the fact that the law requires each county to have a county board of school trustees which have definite duties in connection with the county schools which can be looked after by no other body.

One trustee must be elected from each commissioner precinct and one from at large in the county. So far no arrangements have been made to put out candidates for this board, but Mr. Jennings is very anxious that the citizens take action at once.

Every school district in the county holds the annual election of school trustees on April second, and at the same time the county school trustees should be selected by the voters.

Several Kinds of Weather Greet Spring

Monday was the official opening of the spring time, and the weather was entirely in keeping with the time.

Sunday morning was warm and the sun shown bright. At one o'clock the wind changed suddenly to the north and breeze increased until by five o'clock there was a stiff gale with a rapidly falling temperature. By 6:30 o'clock there was a little rain falling, followed by sleet and snow. Moisture continued to fall throughout the night. In all there was nearly a half inch of rain and snow. Snow-covered the ground well.

The moisture puts the grain crop in most excellent condition. The ground has more moisture than has been seen in the Panhandle for many years.

The early fruit was in bloom when the snow came, but the most experienced fruit raisers do not fear any harm to this crop as there was so much moisture accompanying the sleet and snow.

Boys Club Handle Chautauqua for 1921

The Randall County Boys' Club has contracted to handle the Chautauqua during the coming summer. The contract was signed Saturday afternoon with the White & Myers Company, this being the Chautauqua which has appeared in Canyon during the past five years.

The program is said to be exceptionally strong this year and the boys are going to offer a great treat to the people of Randall county.

The date for the Chautauqua has not been announced, but will be between the dates of July 10 and Aug. 7.

48c Ads Brings $120

Elmer R. Wilson came to the News office last Friday and stated that the 48c classified ad which he had run in this paper the week previously had brought him $120 in business in a week. In two days after the paper was out he had orders to set 1400 eggs. Mr. Wilson has added another incubator to his plant and now has 1420 egg capacity hatching plant which is being run at full capacity.

The people of Randall county read the ads in the Randall County News, and the live advertiser is the one who gets the business of this county.

NO GREEN BUGS FOUND IN WHEAT IN COUNTY

Several farmers have become alarmed for fear the green bugs, which are doing so much damage around Fort Worth, would make their appearance in Randall county.

County Agent C. F. Walker states that two or three farmers reported they had discovered green bugs, but this was a mistake. The wheat this year is much too thick owing to the large amount of volunteer crop, and this may account for spots, which seem to have become infected.

The green bug attacks the young plant from the end, sucking the vitality. The plant becomes brown. In fields infected with the bugs, there will be found large brown spots, sometimes covering as much as five acres. The bugs will kill the plants in these infected areas.

Mr. Walker states that there is absolutely no danger of the green bug this year owing to the fact that the wheat is so large, and is growing so rapidly. The bug couldn't sap the vitality even though it did get a little start in this section.

Home With Bride

Herman Kuehlman and bride returned yesterday from Germany where they were married a few weeks ago. Herman is a prosperous farmer living east of Canyon and went to Germany in December for his bride.

CLEAN UP DAY FOR CANYON SET TOMORROW

BUSINESS HOUSES TO CLOSE HALF DAY

Firemen and Public School Will Take Big Part—Mayor Gamble Outlines Plans.

A Clean Up Day for Canyon has been set for tomorrow afternoon, Friday, March 25.

On this page of the News will be found a statement of Mayor J. D. Gamble in reference to the organization of work for the afternoon.

Canyon is in great need of such a clean up, and all of the work can be accomplished if all of the citizens put in the full afternoon. Of course little will be accomplished if the majority of the citizens stay at home or go fishing.

Canyon will be visited within a short while by officials from the State Health Department. The city will be inspected as to health conditions and grades published. Canyon should be near the top of the list and this clean up day can result in putting it at the top if all will work hard for the half day.

Every business house in Canyon will close for the afternoon.

Clean Up will be Canyon's slogan Friday afternoon.

Farmers Interested Sales Pavillion—Fair

A number of farmers have come to C. F. Walker with the proposition of aiding with the erection of a sale pavillion in Canyon and the assistance in financing the county fair.

Gus Leseburg yesterday listed with Mr. Walker two fat barrows which will be sold on Trades Day for the benefit of these enterprises. Other farmers have asked to have a part and will list something with Mr. Walker during the coming week.

The articles listed will be sold in the Trades Day auction and the proceeds given to the fund which has in charge the erection of the pavillion and the running of the county fair.

The Hereford breeders and registered hog breeders have been working for some time to put on a benefit sale for the pavillion.

Anything will be accepted on this fund: hogs, cattle, horses, poultry, grain, machinery—anything that the farmer wishes to contribute to the erection of the pavillion and benefit of the fair.

Tractor School is Drawing Big Crowd

There has been a very large crowd each day at the Tractor School being conducted by the Agricultural Department of the Normal. Fred H. Ives, head of the department, is highly pleased at the response of the farmers and the excellent program that is being given by the representatives from the different tractor agencies.

The program will close tonight with a very fine picture show, showing the making and operation of various types of tractors.

MOST CRITICAL PERIOD IN HISTORY— ELECT BEST MEN TO THE CITY OFFICES

There has been considerable discussion during the past few days regarding the election of a mayor and three councilmen in the city of Canyon on April 7.

Quite naturally the business men of Canyon do not want a place on the city council as it is a job with many worries, much abuse and no compensation, either financially or with words of praise. Brickbats are more easily directed at the heads of our city officials than bouquets.

The News believes that Canyon is passing through the most critical period in the history of this community. The News believes that during the next two years Canyon will take steps which will make this a small city, or that we will refuse to take these steps and remain a country village. This, of course, is based upon a return of normal conditions during the next few months.

W. J. Fleisher pointed out to the News Monday a few things which will have to be settled by the city council during the coming two years, and which will take the best minds of Canyon to solve:

- Paving of the principal streets.
- Enlargement of the water supply and extension of the sewer system.
- Granting of a gas franchise.
- Renewal of the telephone franchise.

These four questions are big and their solution depends largely upon the growth Canyon will make.

Canyon has come to the point when enlargement must be made or the city will suffer.

If there is such a thing as petty politics in Canyon, it must be overcome and forgotten. Selfish interests must be overcome. Individual business interests must be sacrificed to the good of the whole community.

Draft men for the job. But be sure that the men drafted are able to cope with the problems of the city.

This is not written with a view of either approving or disapproving any city official. The present city official family may be the men Canyon wants and should have. None of the retiring officers are seeking office. The News simply wants the people of Canyon to know the big problems which are confronting Canyon in order that the voters may better select the proper men for the jobs to be filled, and then see that they are elected.

87 Have Taken Shares In Palo Duro Club

H. C. Gamble, Post Commander of the Palo Duro Post of the American Legion, reported yesterday the sale of 87 shares in the new Club House of the Post. About fifty per cent of the shares have been taken by members of the Legion and the remainder goes to business men of Canyon.

The work is progressing so rapidly that the officers of the Post are confident that all of the one hundred shares will be taken by Saturday.

Work will start on the new Club House on April 1st. It will not be possible to build the house wanted on the first estimate of $5,000, but it is believed that not over $6,500 will be necessary. The additional cost of the house will be made up by giving a minstrel show, and other kinds of entertainment which the officers have in mind to give as soon as the building is completed.

Fire at Bishir's Rooms

A fire was started in the M. S. Bishir rooms over the Supply Co. Friday morning when gasoline was ignited. Mrs. Bishir was at home and received slight burns on the arms. The fire was extinguished before serious damage was done.

Firemen Organize for Clean Up Tomorrow

The Volunteer Fire Department will have charge of the eight fire limit blocks in the Clean Up Campaign tomorrow afternoon. A meeting was held last night for the purpose of organizing for the afternoon's work.

The firemen will meet on the north side of the court house at one o'clock. The official roll will be called and every man not present will be fined. Two captains will take charge of the men and the work will start.

Henry Gamble and J. M. Redfean are captains and the department is divided as follows:

Henry C. Gamble, C. L. Thompson, Jack Jones, Zeb Mitchell, Lewis Hicks, Grady Holland, Lee Foster, Hud Prichard, A. J. Arnold, C. N. Harrison, W. J. Fleisher, which team will work on the east side.

J. M. Redfean, Burt Newlin, E. W. Reid, Jerry Jarrett, E. Burroughs, Mark Foster, Baxter Jordan, Chas. Harter, C. D. Lester, C. R. Fleisher and L. Wirt will work on the west side.

Need More Rooms

S. B. McClure and Frank R. Phillips have completed the survey of the town with regard to getting rooms for the summer session of the Normal, and yesterday reported to President Hill, giving him the list of citizens who have agreed to open their homes for the summer.

This list is not sufficient to take care of the students who are expected, and a check is being made. Those who have not agreed to take roomers will be called upon again and the importance of the matter laid before them. The summer school cannot grow any this year unless more rooms are found at once. Practically every available room in town has now been assigned for the summer.

Normal's Appropriation Approved

From the daily press it is learned that Governor Neff has approved the emergency appropriation of the Normal for the full sum asked by President J. A. Hill, $9,900. The Governor vetoed items from many of the schools and state departments.

Boxing Friday Night

Owing to the bad condition of the roads Monday night it was impossible for the Amarillo boxers to come for the exhibition between the Normal and Amarillo teams. The contest will be pulled off at the auditorium Friday night.

Come to Canyon to live.

PLANS LAID COUNTY FAIR SEPTEMBER 28-30

THREE BIG DAYS PLANNED FOR CANYON

Officers Elected and Committees are Named for Randall County Fair—Outlook is Great.

There was not a very large number attending the meeting Saturday afternoon at the court house to plan for the Randall County Fair, but the work accomplished and the interest shown by those present would indicate there were some very willing workers in Randall county who are highly interested in seeing that Canyon has a fine fair this fall.

The dates chosen for the Fair were September 28, 29, 30. These days are just a week before the Dallas Fair, and the exhibit for Randall county will be chosen from the products of the Randall County Fair.

The Fair of last fall was large enough to show the people of this county that a real county fair is possible for Randall county, and the experience of last fall will go to make the exhibit the biggest in the Panhandle-Plains section for 1921.

The following officers were elected: President—C. W. Warwick. Vice President—Fred H. Ives. Secretary and General Manager—C. F. Walker.

The following committees were named, which are expected to start work now:

- Poultry—Rev. Ted F. Hollifield.
- Farm Products—Rev. Simeon Shaw.
- Hogs—John Knight, Supt. For the Duroc section H. C. Roffey. For the Poland China section, John Vetesk.
- Dairy Cattle—Rev. A. B. Haynes.
- Beef Cattle—R. G. Stratton.
- Baby Show—Mrs. Fred H. Ives.
- Woman's Dept.—Miss Georgia Watkins.

Amusements—Frank R. Phillips. Concessions—C. H. Jarrett and M. A. Henson.

Horses—D. L. Hickey.

Machinery—J. C. Dowd.

Finance Committee—E. H. Powell, W. C. Baird, Geo. Walker, Wm. Ash, W. E. Bennett, Henry F. Miller, W. L. Decker, D. C. McCormick, C. C. Stewart, Jeff Wallace, Cass Jennings, J. J. Bauer, Wm. Schmitz, W. W. Kuehn, J. W. Hancock, C. L. Gordon-Cummings, Geo. Bishop, D. N. Redburn, E. N. Zachery, I. W. Scott, J. E. Dickinson, Paul Richards, E. E. Adams, S. F. Ward, Claude Hamlin, H. C. Dolcater, P. D. Hanna, Frank Culp, Antonio Beckman, George Frank, G. G. Foster, E. J. Friemel, D. S. Hill, W. E. Armstrong, D. A. Park, Tice Hess, Claude Price, O. S. Brown, R. O. Allison.

The finance committee will hold a meeting within a very short time to devise ways and means of putting on the Fair.

Real Estate Selling

S. B. McClure reports the following deals as closed this week:

- W. A. Warren of Wichita Falls has bought the R. A. Campbell residence.
- R. A. Campbell has bought three lots of W. S. Amend west of the Joe Steele place.
- W. S. Amend has bought the quarter block northwest of Huntleigh Hall of W. A. Warren and will soon erect a store building.
- Dave Covington has bought the northeast quarter of Section 71, block K-14 of Roy's Walls for $4,000.

Will Start New Store

W. A. Warren of Wichita Falls has bought the R. A. Campbell home in the east part of town and will move here soon to start a new general store. He has rented the Orton building between the Orton store and the postoffice.

Lower Railroad Rate on Cattle Shipments

The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce sent A. E. Stinnett of Amarillo to Washington to appear before the Interstate Commerce Commission in regard to cattle rates, and as a result of his trip the rate on range live stock has been reduced 35 per cent.

This reduction in rates will mean thousands and thousands of dollars to the livestock raisers of the entire Southwest, and the credit for this saving goes directly to the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce.

It is quite galling to the radical element of the republican party to see President Harding underwriting one after another the policies set by Wilson. The republicans expected Harding to overturn the government in a day. In fact, if we are not mistaken there was a bunch of demerats right here in Randall county who cast their first vote for a republican in the election of last November with the feeling that the world would be changed in a day by the republican administration. Kaiser Bill was the only man in recent history who overturned a world in a day when he started the war in 1914. President Harding is no fool. He realizes that the world is right on a powder mine ready to be exploded in a minute. Harding is not a revolutionist. He is going to approve of more Wilson policies than his followers like, but this country cannot recover in a day from the effects of the war, and Harding realizes it.

The Floydada Hesperian announced last week that the membership campaign of the Chamber of Commerce had resulted in 201 members of that organization. That means there are 201 boosters for Floydada living in that community. Floydada does not have quite such a large population as Canyon according to the last census. A recent membership drive in Quanah, a town a little larger than Canyon, resulted in more than 500 members for the Commercial League. Canyon has on such a drive for members. Yet there are only about one hundred members to this date. We are not willing to believe there are only half as many people in Canyon interested in their town and community as there lives in Floydada. Yet numbers talk. Join the Commercial League if you believe in Canyon. If you don't believe in Canyon you are doing yourself an injustice to remain in this good community.

The man who strives to lead his community is going to be talked about one way or the other. If an official he is called a grafter. If a merchant an ordinary robber. If the banker it is done for selfish reasons and the lawyer is charged as trying to gain influence. If the newspaper man he is sore and trying to get even. The index has found that the man who gets out and speaks and works for his town usually loses some business but gains more in the long-run, therefore there is a reward for faithfulness.—Childress Index.

When you strike one of these real boosters who is trying to do something worthwhile for his community, he is not looking or asking for praise, but he does like a little encouragement. The man who has the good of others at heart may not make a great success financially, but he has the satisfaction of knowing he is doing something worth while to make his community a better place in which to live.

The American people are responding to the call of starving Europe and Asia for food in a manner that shows how big the hearts of our people are. A month ago the middle west farmers offered to give 50,000,000 bushels of corn to the sufferers, and this has been followed by an offer of the railroad brotherhoods to give their services free in transporting the corn. Now the managers of the roads in the corn sections are matching that generosity with offers of free use of the equipment of the railroads; also operators of elevators have agreed to give free use of their facilities for handling the grain and the mills will grind it free. It is a grand good movement all around and means the saving of thousands of lives by a co-operative generosity. Incidentally it suggests that it would be fine if all of us would exercise more of that kind of co-operative generosity for each other in the every-day walks of life and business.—Pampa News.

Are you a member of the Randall County Commercial League? No man can do more for his community than to catch the spirit of the Commercial League. The League needs your dollar per month as well as your personal influence.

Come to Canyon to live.

September wheat can be contracted on the market at $1.25. Many Randall county farmers are willing to contract this year's crop at $1.00 at harvest time. There are many farmers over the country still holding 1919 crop and a part of the 1920 crop, in spite of the fact that they could have sold for $2.50 per bushel. It is too long a gamble for the man who has studied the history of prices. There is a bigger chance that the holders of wheat will sell at about $1.00 per bushel than there is that they can possibly realize $2.00.

We believe that the women of Randall county will heartily endorse the employment of a home demonstrator for Randall county if the Commissioners' Court can finance the proposition this year. Home demonstrators have been instrumental in greatly increasing the efficiency in the country homes all over the state of Texas, and have saved many times the salaries paid by the counties.

It is not too early to begin planning, and thinking about the Randall County Fair. If you have any suggestions about making a real live and up-to-date fair, the officers will greatly appreciate these suggestions. A few men can hardly think and plan all of the good things that go to make a successful county fair.

Is your name among the Canyon and Randall County boosters? Just look over the list of members of the Commercial League members printed in this issue. It costs but one dollar per month to enlist as a booster.

We are going to be called upon, nationally, collectively, and individually, to renounce extravagance and learn anew the old lessons of thrift and providence.—Warren G. Harding.

President Harding has vetoed the plan of the leading republicans to throw out the recent appointees of President Wilson. The civil service plan will be allowed to stand for the present in regard to postoffice appointees.

The enterprising merchants of Hereford have put on a co-operative sale. It speaks well for a town when the business firms will forget competition and join hands in a worthy enterprise. The idea is a good one.

Keep your chickens at home if you do not expect your neighbors to eat them.

Our business may grow while you are asleep—but it will grow faster while you are awake.

This is Clean-Up week in Texas. Get busy and clean up your part of this good state.

Do You Know?
Originally, March was the first month of the year.
A century never begins on Wednesday, Friday, or Saturday.

The earliest standard interval of time was the day, marked by the alternation of light and darkness.

The normal year of 365 days always ends on the same day on which it begins.

Like our leap year, every third year in China is longer than the two preceding, but the Chinese add a month instead of a day.

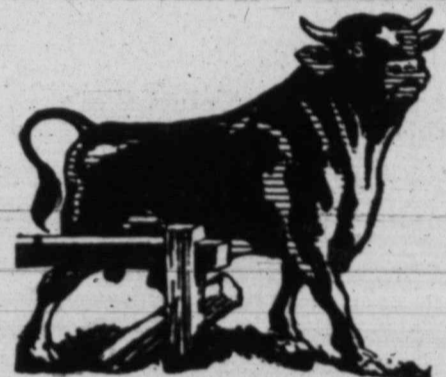

Calendar is defined: The mode of adjusting the natural divisions of time with respect to each other for the purpose of civil life.

Probably the oldest calendar in existence was found in the ruins of Pompeii. It was cut on a square block of marble, upon each side of which three months are registered.

The error in adding one day each fourth year, at the institution of the Julian calendar, was discovered in 8 B. C., when it was corrected by taking one day from the twenty-nine allotted to February and placing it in the month of July.

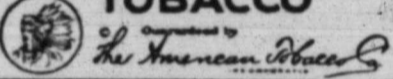

The present calendar year was effected by Julius Caesar in 46 B. C., "the year of confusion," which he caused to consist of 445 days and directed that the succeeding years consist of 365 days, except each fourth year, which was allotted 366.

At Last—A Tube That Closes Punctures

You Pull the Nail and Keep Moving

It Adds 20 to 50 per cent to the Casing's Life

With the Compression Inner Tube there are no long waits on the road—no dirty back-breaking tire changing—nothing to do but pull out the nail and keep moving. Here's why: Compression tubes are about three times as thick as ordinary tubes. Their circumference is greater than the inside circumference of the casing. They are moulded with corrugations which conform to the smooth surface of the casing when deflated. The air pressure, instead of stretching the tube, COMPRESSES it. Thus when the nail is removed the hole closes up automatically. No air is lost!

Compression Tubes—once inflated—are always firm—the proper air pressure is constantly maintained. They add many miles to the life of the casing practically eliminates pinching and rim-cuts—makes the car ride easier. You are not only able to say—GOODBYE PUNCTURES—when your car is equipped with Compression Tubes—but you save money on tires, gasoline, etc. You owe it to your sense of motoring economy to investigate Compression Tubes. Come in and let us SHOW you this puncture-closing tube today.

Beautifulizing the Campus

We are going to have a beautiful campus. The thing we have longed for has come true at last. The State has appropriated funds for beautifulizing the college campus and already the men in charge are hard at work. They have set out trees, blue grass, and flowers.

Seven hundred tulips will be in bloom in a few days. A blue grass plot at the edge of the Normal is laid off; the ground is pulverized and leveled, and already the little green shoots are peeping up out of the moist black earth. Everyone from the most corpulent of our faculty to the tiniest kindergarten has leaned over to watch these little green blades grow.

The little violets are so happy at the prospect of having new flower neighbors, that they are blooming with renewed beauty.

The beautifulizing of the campus is under the direction of Mr. Guenther, one of the best and most experienced horticulturists of the Panhandle, and we are looking forward to pleasing results of his labor.

Antlers Take Last Game

The Antlers Literary Society emerged from the contest with the Cousins Friday evening carrying the bunting on her wobbly horns, when she won the last game of the series, 26 to 22. At no stage of the game did either society have a decided advantage. Dockery was the individual scoring star for the Cousins, and was given good support by Cone and Allen, forward and center, respectively. Golden and Dodson were largely responsible for the low score of their opponents. Terry was fully half of the offensive of the Antler machine. With Service's aggressive assistance he carried the ball to the goal at frequent intervals, and was instrumental in scoring, or putting the ball in the hands of men near the goal. Britain at forward and Rankin at center played fair games, but were very closely guarded. Stratton played a good defensive game, besides passing the ball commendably.

Near the whistle the scores stood only one field goal apart. The game appeared to be anybody's until a goal by both Terry and Britain put the game on ice.

FARM BOYS' DIVISION TO OPEN AT COLLEGE STATION

The authorities of the Agricultural and Mechanical College have added to the work of the Summer Session a Division especially planned to meet the needs of Texas Farm Boys. This Division is known as the Farm Boys' Division and the work will cover a period of four weeks beginning July 5, and ending July 30. The last week of this period will be spent in attendance upon the Farmers' Short Course, which will be held during the last week in July.

The object of this Division is to offer to boys, not under fourteen or over eighteen years of age, elementary, but practical courses in subjects relating to farm life.

For several years there has been growing, throughout the State, a feeling that our farm boys should be given better opportunities for securing special training in agricultural and farm-life subjects. A great majority of these boys have not had access to schools of sufficient grade to enable them to enter college courses, and it is to meet their needs for practical instruction in agriculture that the Farm Boys' Division has been added to the work of the Summer Session.

Courses will be given covering the following important Divisions of Agriculture:

Animal Husbandry: including the judging, feeding, care and management of all of the different classes of live stock.

Agronomy: including a special study of the tillage practices involved in the production of farm crops, crop rotation, and seed selection.

Dairy Husbandry: including the judging, feeding, care and management of dairy cattle; also the testing and care of dairy products and the making of farm butter.

Poultry Husbandry: including a study of the different breeds of farm poultry and special instruction in the care and management of farm poultry.

Horticulture: including budding and grafting, vegetable gardening, and care of the orchard.

Agricultural Engineering: including instruction in farm terracing, farm machinery, gas engines, belt lacing and rope tying.

In addition to the work outlined above, a series of special lectures will be delivered on important phases of rural sanitation.

The work of the Farm Boys' Division will be given in the form of general lectures and demonstrations. Much of the time will be devoted to closely supervised practice work by the students. Every effort will be put forth to make the work as practical as possible.

Recreation: Special forms of entertainment and recreation will be provided. These will include Tree motion picture shows in an open air theatre. The large Y. M. C. A. swimming pool will furnish excellent swimming facilities. All forms of outdoor games and athletics will be encouraged.

College Facilities: All the educational facilities of the School of Agriculture will be placed at the disposal of the students of this Division. These include all the improved breeds of live stock and poultry, the agronomy and horticultural greenhouses, the agronomy of field laboratory, the vegetable garden, orchards, vineyard, and flower gardens, and the large collection of improved farm machinery, gas engines and tractors which have been assembled by the Department of Agricultural Engineering.

Room and Board: The students of this Division will room in the college dormitories and will take their meals in the college mess hall. Special officers of the college will have direct supervision of the boys during their stay here. They will room in the dormitories with them, and will, at all times, look after their welfare. Bed linen, pillows and towels must be furnished by the student. All beds are single.

Expenses: The expenses for the term of four weeks are as follows:

Incidental Fee $ 5.00

Medical Fee 2.50

Room and board for term of four weeks 32.00

Total $39.50

In addition to the above expenses, each student will be required to deposit a trust fund of $5.00 to cover breakage of laboratory material or damage to college property. The unused portion of this will be refunded, by mail, as soon thereafter the close of the summer session as the funds can be checked up.

For additional information, or for a Summer Session Catalogue, apply to the Director of the Summer Session or to the Registrar, College Station, Texas.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK.

GLACIER is one of the newer of our great "outdoor museums" or national parks. Scattered throughout its 1,400 square miles is a jumble of mountains, glaciers, rivers, lakes and waterfalls which looks like "the Great Builder had left the odds and ends of his world making here in one disordered heap."

A newspaper man toiled hard to reach the top of one of the skyland trails. Resting on a boulder and looking far out over the forests, across a flower-carpeted valley to a superbly beautiful mountain lake, he declared he had discovered "Where God sat when he made America."

The dominating feature of Glacier is its magnificently carved mountains. It contains some of the most tremendous panoramas in the world. Some of its peaks remind one of cathedrals, others of forts and castles. The suns and winds of hundreds of years have tinted their summits with varying hues. Often their sides are covered with great, slow-moving glaciers—ice fields, some of which travel fully five inches in a year. Between or below them are splendid forests of pine. The meadows between these wooded patches are a riot of wild flowers.

But the supreme beauty of this park is its mountain-beamed, mirrorlike lakes, fed by glacial streams which tumble down the mountain sides, often in tall, fibronlike falls of great beauty.

Add to this an occasional glimpse of a Swiss chalet (for the accommodation of visitors) and you have an unbeatable combination for the true lover of the wild and the beautiful.

It Doesn't Pay

It doesn't pay to tickle the heels of a mule, fool with a loaded shot gun, or try to sweep back the sea with a broom. These are all foolhardy undertakings.

It DOES pay to have a bank account. You may be as busy as a mosquito in a bedroom, but if you do not save some of your earnings you have wasted a lot of effort. Successful men learn this lesson early in life and open an account at the Bank and put their money to work.

School Notes

This week closes the 7th month of school. Examinations begin Thursday and extend over Friday.

Our campaign for English Classics closed last week bringing into the library about 200 copies.

The ninth grade class brought in more than any other grade and were given a half holiday for their enthusiastic work.

Next week we will take up a campaign for a larger library, built up by donations of books and loans.

The young citizens club had a good meeting last Friday evening. A committee was appointed to draft a set of by-laws and a constitution for the government of the organization.

The purposes of the club are to add to the culture of the members and inculcate the principles of good citizenship. Miss Dean was selected by the club as chaperon for the girls. Each pupil must obligate himself to go to and return from the meetings promptly that no time be unnecessarily lost. They also promise to prepare their parts of the program carefully.

The Elloplan and Palo Duro literary societies are each rendering interesting programs every week. These programs consist of readings, declamations, debates and music.

The Intermediate grades are giving some fine entertainments every morning after chapel. The orchestras add very much to the work. Misses Burkhalter, Rowan, Lancaster and Wiggins are giving very much time to this very important work and they show skill in training out the talent in their grades.

At the close of the faculty meeting Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Hays and Miss Rowan invited us to a spread in the laboratory. Chocolate, wafers and cake were served and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Two interesting practice games of ball were played on the high school grounds. The Old Fellows defeating the High School by a narrow margin, and the High School winning easily from the Training School.

Ninth Grade Notes

On Thursday, March 10, the Ninth Grade had a class meeting for the purpose of electing new officers. The results of the meeting are as follows:

President—Hildah Biggers.
Secretary—Rena Bell Smith.

Treasurer—Frances Hicks.

Org-at-arms—John Burgan.
A committee consisting of Alice Smith, Frank Harrison and Momi Williams was appointed to improve the conditions of the room. They adjourned to meet the next week for the purpose of getting class colors, etc.

The results of the class meeting of March 17, were as follows: Class colors: pink and green; class flowers: ferns and carnation. They also set out a tree and named it in honor of their room teacher, Miss Maude Dean.

The committee agreed on improving the room by bringing pot flowers and decorating it. The Camp Fire Girls of the High School were given a shade tree to plant. They named it "Kabe-yun," the name of the High School Camp Fire.

Wayside Items

Winter lingers in the lap of Spring. Sunday night a slight rain fell; all day Monday cold and freezing; icicles plentiful. Fruit trees blooming profusely. We trust the ice has protected and saved the fruit crop.

Tuesday, change in the temperature, grass is growing, small grain looking well, birds are singing, appearances promises sunshine soon.

A good meeting closed at Wayside Sunday noon. Rev. Barrett of Tulla did most of the preaching. Quite a number of reclamations and professions. Seven were baptized Sunday afternoon at the head of Happy canyon by Rev. N. W. Woodson. The meeting lasted about eighteen days and will long be remembered by many.

W. R. and W. G. Franklin and their families left Armstrong county last August for Arizona. They returned this week. Mexican labor has ruined the labor proposition in that part of the country—Salt River Valley. They left spring gardens flourishing—ready for the market, but are all glad to get back to good old Texas and Wayside.

Visitors from Canyon Saturday: Mrs. N. W. Woodson and three children, Mrs. W. H. Hamblen and two children, Birdie Lou Lane and Zora Wesley.

Ewing McGehee and Mrs. L. J. McGehee, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gillham and W. D. McGehee made a trip to Amarillo last Saturday.

D. J. Graham and Walter Butler left Thursday afternoon for Plemoms.

returning Sunday. J. D. will bring a wagon and team later.

Skin Sufferers Do Not Want Mere Temporary Relief

Of course, if you are content to have only temporary relief from the terrifying itching and burning of fiery, flaming skin diseases, then you are satisfied to remain a slave to ointments, lotions and other local remedies applied to the surface of the skin.
Real genuine relief from eczema, tetter, scaly eruptions or any other form of skin irritations cannot be expected until you free your blood of the germs which cause these disorders. And for this purpose there is no remedy that gives more satisfactory results than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that goes down to the source of every blood disorder and routs out the germs which cause the trouble.
S.S.S. is sold by all druggists. Begin taking it today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 155 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

WHAT you lose thru baking failure must be added to baking costs—it has to be paid for.

Calumet Baking Powder will save you all of that. Because when you use it—there are no failures—no losses. Every baking is sweet and palatable—and stays moist, tender and delicious to the last tasty bite.

That's a big saving—but that isn't all. You save when you buy Calumet and you save when you use it.

It is reasonable in cost and possesses more than the ordinary leavening strength. You pay less and use less. You get the most in purity, dependability and wholesomeness.

In every way — it is the best way to keep down baking costs. That's what has made it the world's biggest selling baking powder — has kept it the favorite of millions of housewives for more than thirty years.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 15 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

TEACHER-TRAINING INSTITUTIONS DISCREDITED

But a short time ago our country was alarmed at the shortage of teachers. Thousands had left the profession for more lucrative positions. An unusual recognition it was, but many of our leading magazines and newspapers devoted whole columns to a discussion of the deplorable condition and its effect upon our democratic institutions. The public was slow to respond, but it too finally began, though reluctantly, to raise teachers' salaries—in the public schools first and in the colleges last.

And then the war came to an end; many great industries stopped, and thousands who had quit teaching once more turned their faces towards this profession for employment. The public with open arms welcomed the return of these prodigals, since numbers—not quality—afforded the flimsy excuse of reducing salaries to "the normal basis." Pray, what is "the normal basis" of salaries for men and women who devote their lives unselfishly to the public good? During this period of the scarcity of teachers the regrettable blunder was made of lowering standards, and many incompetent people were drafted for service in the schoolroom. The doors of thousands of schools had better been kept closed during the past three years; wrong instruction in the schoolroom will undermine our social, civic, and spiritual welfare.

In this scientific age much attention, and rightly so, is being given to "the prevention of diseases." Surely the problems of reconstruction following the world war are as vital, and demand as much intellect and courage for solution, as the issues of that hour when the tide of patriotism flowed strong in every heart. Shall our country make the fatal mistake of intrusting young America into the hands of those ill qualified for the great task? Was all that propaganda arguing the vital importance, to a democratic form of government, of a teacher well trained in head and heart for his great task, but the specious arguments of the demagogue courting popularity at the expense of his country?

I cannot believe that those who preached the social, civic, and intellectual worth to a community of a true teacher were insincere in their purposes. But the effects, upon the profession of teaching, of reducing salaries in certain quarters brings us to the same end, whatever the motive. The cry for economic policies is loud in every quarter, and those in authority have yielded to the public demand for reduced taxation. But it is a poor economy which underfeeds the infant in hope of a fully developed character. That public which tolerates in its teachers an inferior grade of preparation will tomorrow pay the frightful penalty of a generation of intellectual imbeciles; that public which countenances in its teachers those morally unfit, the unpatriotic, will reap a harvest of crime when the boys and girls now in our schoolrooms become men and women. The most expensive investment a community ever made was to employ an inferior teacher, no difference how low the salary. I know of only one way to make our schools what they should be: keep the salaries of teachers adequate and demand a high quality of preparation. The State of Texas is to spend four million dollars, as a supplemental fund, during the next two years, on her rural schools. But if incompetent teachers are to preside over these schools, the money will be worse than wasted.

What is the chief source of supply for trained teachers? There is but one answer—the normal colleges. Statistics show that more than 75 per cent of the teachers of Texas who have had training in a standard college received this training in the normal colleges of Texas. And yet more than a hundred high school principals and superintendents in Texas receive a higher salary than the state pays the heads of departments in its normal colleges. The superintendents of Canadian, Tulla, Amarillo, Childress, Dalhart, and Plainview receive an equal or greater salary for nine months than the heads of departments in the West Texas State Normal College get for twelve months' work. One member of our faculty who was not even the head of a department and who left us on account of low salaries is now getting $3800 as superintendent of schools. The effect of this inequality in salaries tends to discourage many competent teachers from seeking positions in normal colleges. That argument is weak which pretends to put a high value upon expert teaching and at the same time discredits its teacher-training in those institutions which are the most prolific source of supply for well trained teachers.

There is another injustice which the State does its teacher-training institutions. The normal colleges of Texas were created for the sole purpose of training teachers, and yet the State of Texas gives more recognition to the department of education in the College of Industrial Arts and the University of Texas, in which institutions teacher-training is given only a minor place, than it does to its State Normal Colleges. The State Board of Control has recommended that the College of Industrial Arts give its head professor of education a salary of $3500, as compared with a salary of $2500, received by the head of the Department of Education in the normal colleges, and that the Department of Education of the University pay two of its professors in this department $5000, each and two other professors $4500, each. How can the State of Texas justify this discrimination against the faculty in institutions which furnish more than 75 per cent of the college trained teachers for her public schools?

May I extend this comparison just a little further? The present tendency among normal colleges in the United States is to make them standard degree-granting institutions, and many of them are already on this basis. But to maintain colleges of this rank with that dignity consistent with the purpose for which they were created, the State must offer to the presidency of teacher-training institutions a salary sufficient to induce the best talent to seek these positions. Can the State of Texas justify a difference of $1500 in the salary of a normal college president and the salary of a president of its college of industrial arts, both located in the same town and having an equal number of students? Is that training which prepares home-makers more important than that training which presumes to make better citizens of our boys and girls? —From the Prairie.

NORMAL TEAM HAS A GOOD RECORD

Our Quintet is Undisputed Champion of Northwest Texas—Lost Only Three Games.

Hale brought our basketball season to a triumphant close last week when he defeated Simmons College with a thrilling cross-court throw in the last half-minute of play. The defeat was the first Simmons had received on her own court in three years, and our team won the applause of the entire State. Coach McCorkle developed one of the fastest machines that ever played on the Plains. Although nearly all of the men were vaccinated, and played in a weakened condition against some of our strongest rivals, we lost but three games, and all of those on foreign courts. In each case the margins were very small, the largest being 8 points. In our games with other colleges we amassed a total of 456 points to our opponents 237, as follows:

- Normal 44; Wayland 15.
- Normal 61; Wayland 15.
- Normal 29; Clarendon 13.
- Normal 30; Clarendon 33.
- Normal 78; Wayland 14.
- Normal 70; Wayland 30.
- Normal 69; Clarendon 36.
- Normal 36; Clarendon 26.
- Normal 29; Simmons 37.
- Normal 19; Simmons 18.

The snappy Second Team went thru the season without a defeat, and was used in many of the above games. With the occasional use of a few first team men, it defeated Higgins, Farwell, McLean, Hedley, Petersburg, and Lubbock High Schools.

COZY COTTAGE LUNCH ROOM FEEDS HUNGRY STUDENTS

Cozy Cottage Lunch Room is the scene of a merry, chattering group each noon hour when students gather around the tables to eat the lunches brought from home or the sandwiches and hot drinks bought by the committee. The Social Service Committee of the Y. W. C. A., of which Miss Mildred Johnson is chairman, have the Lunch Room in charge and each day sell sandwiches, hot chocolate, tea, soup or milk to those desiring them.

The Lunch Room was opened with a tea and shower, given by the Social Committee of the Y. W. C. A. on the afternoon of February 26. The dainty curtains at the windows, the newly painted tables, the blooming plants and ferns, the gifts laid out in array, the tea cups, the steaming kettle on the new oil stove, the music from the victrola, the buzz of conversation—all combined to give an air of hospitality and coziness upon that occasion. Misses Hudspeth and Lamb were the hostesses of the afternoon and poured tea.

Friends of the enterprise were very kind in bringing gifts. The Home Economics Club presented a three-burner oil stove with an oven. The Home Economics Department has loaned the use of a cabinet for as long as the Lunch Room shall be in existence. Plates, soup bowls, cups and saucers, knives, forks and spoons, pots and pans were showered gifts.

Cozy Cottage is an ideal place for a candy pull, such as the Elaphelians enjoyed when entertained by the Sesames. It is a worthy enterprise deserving the full support of the student body.

The Market for Poultry Meat

Under date of February 3, U. L. Meloney, president of a commission house in New York City, wrote that heavy-weight, high-grade capons, in ton lots, were selling at $6.50 to $9 each. That is as much as a farmer in Illinois could get for a 100-pound hog.

Ordinarily poultry meat has been selling at good prices. During January a framer in Oklahoma could get 26 cents a pound, or $1.50 for a 5-pound hen. At the same time, many sheep owners in Wyoming and Utah were willing to sell a 125-pound ewe for $2.00.

On February 1, an Illinois farmer's wife could get, on the Chicago market, $32 for 100 pounds of live poultry. On the same day, if her husband had loaded his wagon with corn from his crib, and hauled it to town, it would have brought him about $16, or half of what twenty 5-pound hens in a crate were worth on the Chicago market.

If, on the same day, he had sold fat steers, he would have received $9 a hundred pounds for them. That is, 9 cents a pound against 32 cents a pound for chickens.

There is a difference between hens and steers. The only by-product of a chicken is its feathers, which do not weigh much.

In a beef, there is not only round steak, but hide, tallow, fertilizer and glue. All of these by-products must be sold. When hides are worth only 14 cents a pound and the leather market is glutted; when farmers cannot afford to buy fertilizer because grain is so low in price that it does not pay to fertilize the fields, no packer can pay a big price for steers. It is poor business for him to tie up a lot of money in hides and bones. The by-products have got to be sold as well as the beef itself.

Is it any wonder that on the last day of January, Armour & Co. were not killing beef? There were force of workmen were home and they were out of the market for the day.

The packers have had a bad year on meat. They have had a good year on poultry and eggs. Pretty much the same is true of the farmer. Poultry and eggs are the two commodities on which he has continued to make money after other farm products hit the toboggan. While, in general, farmers have laid off buying things, it is probable that they will spend more money for incubators, brooders, poultry equipment and better stock than on any other branch of their farm husbandry.

It is said of business in general that when the farmer quits buying things stagnate. The five million owners of farm flocks in this country are deriving a handsome return from their poultry, and are now more interested than ever in the things that make poultry pay: suitable hen houses, the necessary equipment for early hatching, and pure-bred stock.—American Poultry Journal.

Care of Breeding Flock

Watch the breeding flock carefully and see that the fowls keep in good breeding condition, the United States Department of Agriculture advises, in Farmers' Bulletin #116, on the selection and care of poultry breeding stock. The birds and houses should be examined to see that they are not infested with lice or mites.

Don't Worry—Smile!

The world knows but little of failures, and cares less. The world watches the successes.

Stop worrying over things that can't be helped and go and do things that can be done.

Few people care a continental for your failure. Few, if any, will help. You may sit and mopeify your mistakes, mourn and go mad over your blunders, but men will only smile that cynical smile and say of you, "He's no good."

Self-pity, sympathy-soliciting, wishing and walling will only let you down lower. Brace up. Brush up. Think up. And you will get up. Think down. Look down. Act down. And you will stay down.

Paint your face with a smile. Advertise that you are a success. Then think and work for it.

Whatever you think you are is the price they will pay.—The Silent Partner.

Suppose You Retired From Business Now

Edward Bok, for thirty years editor of the Ladies' Home Journal has retired from business, while still in full working vigor.

Why? Just because he wanted to "play," and because he refused (as he said) to "drop in the harness."

"Play" may mean frittering away precious hours in profitless and even unhealthy pastimes, dangerous to self, family and to society.

But to Mr. Bok "Play" means cultural diversions, more time for good friends, fine sportsmanship, good health, and for the satisfaction of his stored-up longings and dreams of many years, years when Business would not give him the leisure time to play.

We fool ourselves often and are content with talking about Business as the Game of Life—a desperately grim game, and so we go on with it, and "drop in the harness."

Mr. Bok is very wise—but he can afford to be. He retires. What of hundreds of thousands of us who cannot yet afford to retire.

We can also be wise, within the limitations of Business. We can play in our leisure time, sensibly, profitably. Play is today being preached as never before. It is hailed as a great national tonic, a medicine. Walter Camp urges one kind of Play—regular health exercises. To Sir Edward Grey fishing and hunting are indispensable.

Field Marshal Haig withdrew in the midst of intolerable pressure on the western front, from time to time and played golf on the quiet links of France. We loved Theodore Roosevelt for his sportsman's adventures.

But all of these men did something themselves when they played.

They weren't contented simply to sit down and watch a Ruth or a Dempsey, or to follow a Chick Evans about the links, or gaze upon a Tilden. They played actively themselves!

Labor-saving devices, shorter hours, and the closed saloon are producing more leisure time in all of our lives. In a city of 125,000 there are in each day a half million leisure hours.

How will they be spent? For America's good? In what kinds of Play—or Diversions—or Satisfaction of Hobbies—or what?

A national organization, called Community Service, with headquarters at 1 Madison Avenue, New York, has actually been organized to assist communities all over the country to put into the leisure hours of life abundant chances for all the people to enjoy life with play and profit.

Countless communities now almost starve for decent, varied, helpful, amusement and the inspiration that comes from the fellowship of play.

Have you read Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street," the story of a middle-Minnesota community? Strange that Play, the most natural thing in the world, should have had to wait so long to begin to come into its own in the life of the sensible normal man!

As to the Postoffice

During his first week in office, the Postmaster General issued the following statement:

"The Postal Establishment is not an institution of profit or politics; it is an institution for service; and it is the President's purpose that every effort shall be made to improve that service."

"Every effort shall be exercised to humanize the industry. Labor is not a commodity. That idea was abandoned 1321 years ago next Easter. There are 300,000 employees. They have the brain and they have the hand to do the job well; and they shall have the heart to do it well. We propose to approach this matter so that they shall be partners with us in this business. It is a great human institution touching every individual in the country. It is a great business institution."

Get Ready For Easter

Come and take a look at the new spring and summer samples.

The materials are of better stuff—some real pre-war goods that will give 100 per cent wear and satisfaction.

And, Oh Boy, just look at the prices. You get back to the days before the war when you look at the prices. $24.00 buys a cracker-jack good suit of clothes. Prices range up to $50.00.

Come and look us over. Those who know M. Born clothes know they are built to your individual measurement with exclusive style, best of materials and workmanship.

Please remember that our cleaning and pressing department is always at your command.

Will Issue Diplomas

The first and second year normal work in the normals of Texas is the same as offered in the high schools of the state and the Board of Regents has authorized the normals to issue high school diplomas upon the completion of this work. This year's class will be the first to be given this diploma by the normals.

President J. A. Hill stated yesterday that those completing this work in May will receive a diploma worded "The High School of the West Texas State Normal College." There is a large class to receive these diplomas, and will enter the college course next year.

Students Out Guess Teacher

The Vocational Agriculture boys of the Normal Training School out-guessed their teacher last week in the hog weighing contest. Once a month the boys are examined on hog weights. The last week examination consisted of estimating the weight of eight hogs. The number of pounds that each boy failed to guess was charged against his grade. The following boys scored very high:

J. T. Swink missed only 15 pounds out of eight guesses. Edmund Oatis came second with only 36 pounds off. Durward Brown, Alvin Boehning and Sherman Attaway tied for third place.

Notice of Application for Letters of Guardianship

No. 149.
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Randall County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to cause the following notice to be published in a newspaper of general circulation which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year preceding the date of the notice in the County of Randall, State of Texas, and you shall cause said notice to be printed at least once each week for the period of ten days exclusive of the first day of publication before the return day hereof:

Notice of Application for Letters of Guardianship

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To all persons interested in the welfare of Virgil Lee Matney, John Thurman Matney, Mary Edna Matney, Mamie Ruth Matney and Roy Miller Matney, Minors, are hereby notified that Edna Matney Moore has filed in the County Court of Randall County, an application for Letters of Guardianship upon the person and estate of said minors, which said application will be heard at the next term of said Court, commencing on the first Monday in April, A. D. 1921, the same being the 4th day of April, A. D. 1921, at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, at which time all persons interested in the welfare of said minors may appear and contest said application, if they see proper to do so.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Canyon, Texas, this 16th day of March, A. D. 1921.
(Seal) O. W. GANO, Clerk,
County Court, Randall County, Texas.

A true copy, I certify.
W. C. BLACK, Sheriff,
Randall County, Texas.

A CANYON WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Canyon woman?

You can verify Canyon endorsement. Read this:

Mrs. G. A. Jones, Canyon, says: "I was troubled continually with my back. Through the small of my back was a steady, bearing down pain and it was so sore I could hardly stoop over to pick up anything. At night my back was sore and ached so I couldn't sleep at all. I also had awful dizzy spells and headaches. My kidneys were weak and troubled me, too. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and bought a supply from the City Drug Store. Three boxes of Doan's cured me of every symptom of the trouble."
