It is gratifying to the friends of The West Texas State Normal College to learn that Judge A. B. Watkins of Athens, a member of the Board of Normal College Regents, has accepted our invitation to deliver the Commencement address on June 4. Judge Watkins is known all over Texas as one of the ablest and most substantial citizens of the State. Besides this he is deeply interested in the public welfare and thoroughly appreciates the services which the Normal Colleges of Texas are rendering. He has a keen sympathy for the struggling and ambitious youth of our country and will bring to our young people an instructive and inspiring message. It is hoped that the entire community will hear him.

Board of Regents Coming

According to law it is the duty of the Board of Regents to visit each Normal College in Texas once each year. It has now been more than a year since the Board was here, and we are glad to know that we shall have them as our guests during the Commencement season. The institution has made notable progress in the past twelve months and will be glad to share its governing board the pride we feel in its achievement. Moreover, there are two new members of the Board, Miss Neal of Carthage and Mr. Bennett of Stephenville, who have never visited us. The faculty and student-body extend to these, as to those who have served us before, a very cordial welcome.

Moved to Kansas

Lee Burgess and family left Saturday for Lone Elm, Kansas, where they are moving to make their future home. Mr. Burgess will look after several farms there for C. O. Keiser. Several cars of cattle were shipped to these farms. The Burgess family has lived in Canyon for several years and have many friends who regret to see them leave.

Stolen Car Here

Sheriff W. C. Black has found a Chandler car which was stolen in Amarillo Sunday. It was on the street in the east part of town. The driver had run out of gas and abandoned the car.

Jack Jones Sure Winner of Ring

Jack Jones of this city is after the Shriner ring to be given to the most popular candidate in Amarillo next week. He is making a persistent campaign among the Shriners over the Panhandle-Plains country and is sure to be the winner when the votes are counted.

Mr. Jones has received letters from all over this section commending his candidacy, and encouragement is offered by some of the most influential Shriners in nearly every town.

The Shriner barbecue which was scheduled for yesterday in Clarendon was postponed a few days on account of the rain. Mr. Jones will attend the barbecue when it is given the latter part of the week, and will address the gathering in the interest of his candidacy.

NURSE CANCELS DATE IN COUNTY FOR THE PRESENT

Mrs. L. Angel of the committee from Friday that the nurse who was to come to the Woman's Book Club, received word to the county last week from the State Health Department, had changed her schedule owing to the fact that the schools of the county were practically all closed. The work that the nurse was giving was of such benefit to the pupils in their school work that she decided it better to wait and come to Randall county this fall after the opening of the fall term.

Every school and every community in the county will be visited by the nurse and highly instructive lectures given on the proper care of the body. Every child will be examined.

Regents Approve Fair Proposition

President J. A. Hill states that the Board of Regents approved the request of the Randall County Fair Association for the use of the Normal grounds for the purpose of holding the annual County Fair.

C. F. Walker, secretary-manager of the Randall County Fair, submitted to Mr. Hill a proposition for the Board of Regents, asking for the use of the grounds, and permission to remodel the machine shed which now stands on the grounds into a modern sales pavilion, which will be for the use of the agricultural department when the Fair is not in session.

Mr. Hill states that the members of the Board were glad to grant the request of the Fair Association.

Stilt-Allred Wedding

One of the most beautiful and yet simple weddings of the spring season took place Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gerald, uniting in marriage Miss Marie Stitt and Mr. Lee Allred. The room was artistically decorated with a profusion of ferns and flowers and the impressive ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Arnett Moreland in the presence of only a few intimate friends. Miss Stitt is from Vigo Park and has made her home here for a long time and has a host of friends here. Mr. Allred has lived in this city for many years, and also enjoys a host of friends in business and social circles, being employed with the Kuehn & Wise Garage.

Canyon I. O. O. F. Team Wins

B. M. Johnson is at Clarendon this week with his team, consisting of the following members: Elzie Price, Glen McGahey, W. L. Browning, H. O. Price, Sam Wiggins, M. A. Henson, J. C. Dowd, Taylor Myers, Lewis Clark, Jack Vester, Bert L. Clark, J. H. Duncan, J. A. Carr, and Bill Stockett.

They are bringing home the Silver Loving Cup, which they won in First Degree contest Tuesday evening. The boys worked hard for this cup and of course are proud of it. It will be on display at W. L. Browning's Jewelry Store.

Marriage Licenses Issued

The following marriage license were issued by Clerk O. W. Gano during the past week:

R. B. McCoy and Miss Beulah Rogers, both of Happy, on May 12.

Jesse McDaniel and Miss Fannie Sauter, both of Amarillo, May 13.

Lee Allred and Miss Marie Stitt, both of Canyon, on May 14.

E. C. Bickford and Miss Grace Arline Cooper, both of whom are with the tent show.

Work on Futurity Show

County Agent C. F. Walker spent one day last week with the stock men of Deaf Smith County. Mr. Walker was able to interest some of the stock men in entering the futurity show in Canyon for this fall as well as getting them interested in pig club work. It is quite possible that hereford will not have a fair this fall, but that many of the live stock owners will exhibit at Canyon.

Recital Tuesday Evening

The Public Speaking Department of the Normal will present seven students in recital next Tuesday evening at the auditorium at 8:30 o'clock. The students appearing on the program are Misses Joye Mills, Edith Eddins, Carlotta Cheney, Hazel Mathis, Thelma Black, and Messrs Hubert Hamill and Deskin Wells. Miss Brown, head of the department, has issued a cordial invitation to the people of the community to attend the recital.

J. L. Duflet left Monday for Indiana where he will attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church.

MORE MEMBERS FOR AMERICAN LEGION'S CLUB

COMMITTEE WILL SELECT FIFTY MORE MEMBERS

H. C. Gamble Elected President of the Club—Will Incorporate the Club House.

At a meeting of the members of the American Legion Club Tuesday night, it was voted to increase the membership of the Club to 150 and to incorporate the Club under the laws of Texas. Officers for the coming year were elected for the Club.

The contract for the new Club house was recently let at $8,100 and the building is now well under construction. The lots cost $600. With the furniture now owned by the Club, and which will be bought when the Club moves to the new home, the property of the Club will be well worth $10,000.00. A membership of 150 will bring in $7,500.00, the remainder of the investment to be paid out by shows and monthly dues. It was the sense of the meeting to limit the membership in order that each shareholder would know that his share was well worth the money invested and make the share marketable at any time the holder wished to dispose of it.

It was voted to proceed at once to incorporate the Club, and President H. C. Gamble will appoint a committee to look after this feature of the work. The annual meeting was set for the first Tuesday in June. The officers elected Tuesday night will hold to this date in 1922.

A committee to take application for membership in the Club was appointed, consisting of Wes Kleinschmidt, E. E. Foy, C. W. Warwick, Grady Oldham and Bob Donald. The membership fee will remain at $50.

The Club will move its property from the present location to the new Club House on June 1st, although the new building will not be ready for occupancy until some time later.

School Trustees Collect Back Taxes

At a meeting of the school trustees Monday evening, it was voted to force collection of all back taxes. A committee of J. A. Cheatham, C. W. Warwick and G. G. Foster will interview the city council and commissioners court regarding a plan for all three bodies to make a united drive on delinquent taxes.

The school has about $800 in delinquent taxes this year. More than half of the amount is owed to the district by half a dozen tax payers, and the property upon which the tax is levied is well worth the money. The school needs the money to complete the year's work. J. B. Hensley, tax collector, was authorized to enforce the law at once.

Miss Helen Croson was elected teacher of the second grade for the coming year. Miss Bertie Lee Burkhalter has not accepted the Fourth grade for another year, and this place together with the seventh grade is to be filled for the coming year in the grades. No high school teachers will be elected until after the special election of May 28th.

Complete Rolls Checking

The commissioners court completed checking the rendition rolls of the county yesterday and adjourned the meeting. Notices are being sent out to about 100 tax payers to appear before the court on May 31st to show cause why their taxes should not be raised.

Methodist Drive for $33,000,000 May 29

The Methodist Episcopal Church South will start a campaign among its members on May 29, and lasting for one week, the purpose of which is to raise $33,000,000 for the benefit of the church schools.

The local Methodist church has been assessed $5,000.00. W. J. Flesher has been elected to direct the drive among the members.

The money will be paid in during the coming five years, the first payment coming due about the first of 1922. This plan is the same as the centenary drive which was made in 1910.

Teams have been named for the local church, and practically all of the work will be done on Sunday afternoon, May 29.

Great Demand for Summer Information

President J. A. Hill stated yesterday there was a greater demand for information regarding the summer school of the Normal than for any previous year. This is brought about, probably through two factors; A change in the certificate law, and a return to the teaching profession of many young men.

Under a change in the law, a teacher to get a certificate under the old law must be in school this summer. This will require many teachers to attend the summer normals of the state who had not contemplated going to school this year.

Mr. Hill pointed out the fact that there were 205 young men enrolled in the Normal during the past year, which was the greatest number of men in the attendance in the history of the school. He has received many letters from former students who did not enter the teaching profession when they completed their work here, stating they would return to the summer school with a view of teaching next year.

Mr. Hill states that practically all of the available rooms in town are now spoken for, and urges the citizens of Canyon to make arrangements to open their homes that the students may be cared for during the summer session. The town is able to well cope with the situation during the regular session, but with the greatly increased numbers attending the school during the summer every available room must be given over to the students.

Recital Today

The Public Speaking Department of the Normal will present students of this department in recital this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Those on the program are Misses Tip Bradford, Jessie DeGraffenreid, Frances Ramsey, Annie Kate Ferguson, and Messrs. Robert G. Hill, W. Archie Jordan and Wayne O'Keefe.

NEARLY TWO INCHES OF RAIN FALLS—WHEAT CROP SAVED BY TIMELY RAINS

NORMAL WALLOPS OKLA. CENTRAL

Tucker Held Sooners While Heavy Hitting Clinched First Game; Helm Pitched Wonderful Game.

By driving Hofer from the mound in the fourth inning and hitting Diff hard, the local Normal won the slow game with the Central Normal of Oklahoma Friday afternoon, 15 to 9. Helm held the Sooners to 2 hits Saturday and we won the snappy game 8 to 2.

First Game

Tucker was given rather erratic support at times, but after the fourth inning was never in danger. He struck out eight men in nine innings, and parked the only homer of the afternoon, in the third inning. Hofer was given fair support by his team-mates, but he struck out only two men, and was jerked in the fourth inning when he lost his head. Diff was very little better, striking out four men but allowing 9 runs.

Central Normal started with a rush in the initial frame. Mitchell booted Force's grounder. Hofer popped to Tucker, and Kidd fanned. Then, with two down, errors by Mitchell, Terry and Helm let Force and Miller cross the plate. Jenkins got a hit in the first inning, but Simms and Tucker fanned. Helm made first on Kidd's error, but Terry popped to Hofer. Central annexed two more tallies in the second inning, Hughes' three-bagger and several errors resulting in the scores.

Johnson's single and Boatwright's three-bagger, together with an error, gave us two scores in the second inning. Central Normal was retired hitless and scoreless in the third inning and fought a losing battle the rest of the game. Simms beat out a rap to F. Hughes, and Tucker scored him with a home run to right field. Helm was safe on an error; Terry scored him with a three-bagger, and was in turn scored when Bloxham placed a pop fly just over Diff's head. McCorkle's host hit Diff consistently, and scored in the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth innings. A pretty double-play was executed by the Tucker-Helm-Terry combination in the fourth inning. The latter portion of the game was played in semi-twilight, yet there were many good stops and running catches made.

The Oklahoma nine scored in the sixth and seventh innings, but gave up in disgust when attempted rallies in the eighth and ninth were promptly snipped. Umpires, Prichard and McGrannahan.

Second Game

Saturday's game was the kind that puts a student on his toes with his whooping apparatus hitting on all cylinders. Helm was right! In 7 short innings he struck out 11 men and allowed only 2 hits! He twisted his tosses into spirals, hooks, cork-screws, and when Johnson asked for one, put something over so fast that the Sooners struck after the ball was on the way back to the pitcher's box! The Oklahomans disturbed the atmosphere somewhat, but their two lone hits were weak singles.

McGrannahan had poor control, and 8 hits were collected off him in 4 innings. He failed to strike out a single man, and was relieved by Hofer in the fourth inning. The latter showed considerable speed. He fanned three men in three innings. The game was stopped in the seventh inning so that the visitors could catch the East-bound passenger.

Central Normal collected a pair of hits in the first inning while Helm was getting warmed up. These with an over throw to Helm and a past-ball let in two runs. Helm fanned the next two men who faced him, and during the remainder of the game had the Sooners looking blue.

In the first inning Jenkins drew a walk, but was thrown out attempting to steal. Simms was safe on an error, and Tucker was hit on the arm. Helm was thrown out on a grounder to Miller, but two errors let Simms score. Bloxham led off in the second inning with a clean double, and scored when Johnson's single was muffed. Mitchell singled. Johnson came home on a past-ball. In the fourth McGrannahan dropped Johnson's fly; Mitchell singled; Boatwright scored Johnson and Mitchel with a clean single, but Jenkins was thrown out by Hofer. Simms arrived safely on an error, and Tucker

SLOW, STEADY RAINS FALL DURING THREE DAYS

Wheat Men Believe Harvest Will Almost Equal That of Last Year in the Panhandle.

A slow, steady rain Friday night Sunday morning and during Monday gave the Panhandle-Plains country a moisture amounting to nearly two inches. The rain is in time to save the wheat crop.

The rain of Friday, Sunday and Monday will do more to revive business in the Panhandle-Plains country than any other agency could possibly have performed. It was a mighty blue set of people who lived in this section last week, when bright prospects, one after another passed, and the rain clouds which seemed to be near and so favorable, flitted into nothingness and the dust grew deeper and deeper.

But it always rains in time to save the crops, and sure enough the rain came this time. The farmers were not so discouraged about the wheat crop as were the business men. One optimistic farmer stated Thursday that he had raised 11 bushels of wheat to the acre on less rain than we had had this year, and several recalled the fact that a few years ago some wheat had been harvested with absolutely no rain from the time the crop was planted until after it had been harvested. People who do not live in the Panhandle will not believe such stories—and they are thoroughly justified in their non-belief, as there is absolutely no other country on the face of the earth where so many miracles can be performed by nature as in the Panhandle-Plains country.

The wheat crop of this year was hurt somewhat by the continued late freezes and the fact that there was so much volunteer wheat in the fields. The best posted wheat growers believe that the wheat yield of the Panhandle-Plains country will be almost on a par with the fine crop of last year. At any rate, there will be a good wheat yield, and the ground is in excellent shape to plant the big row crop which always makes good in this country.

scored Boatwright and Simms with a double to center field. Helm singled and Tucker beat the throw home, coming in from second base. Terry walked, and Hofer was called in to stop the rally, which he did, fanning Johnson. He fanned a man in the sixth, and another in the seventh; our men getting on bases but always retiring on infield hits.

The game was unusual in that none of our "Bambinos" got a home run. Tucker tried to make up for it in the sixth inning however, retiring the side unassisted by catching three consecutive flies. Bloxham came near getting a home run when his long fly was stopped by a ridge of mud. Prichard umpired.

Road Contract is Being Completed

The contract on the new highway leading to the west part of the county is being completed this week, the contractor making the final runs with the graders in order to top off the road. This work has been held up for several weeks awaiting a good rain to properly pack the roadbed.

The commissioners are trying to arrive at a settlement with Rice-Babcock over the contract of the highway running north and south. The contractor abandoned his work on this highway before completion, and now a settlement is trying to be made in order that the county will get all the money coming from the state and federal authorities.

There is going to be a revision of taxes by congress. Everyone is particularly interested that his business be not disturbed by the tax revision, just as each man is interested to see that the other fellow's and not his salary is cut in this period of readjustment. The lawmakers of Texas have sent a strong appeal to congress against the sales tax and demand that the excess profit tax be maintained. They argue that the business man has to pay the excess profit tax, whereas the ultimate consumer would have to pay the sales tax. Such rot. Anyone who knows the first principle of taxation knows that the ultimate consumer pays every tax imposed upon a commodity. The excess profit tax is a bunglesome thing, and hard to figure. It is paid by the consumer. The sales tax is a comparatively easy thing and is likewise paid by the consumer. Why not the simple method of taxation?

Senator Hiram Johnson is on the war path. He has smeared himself with paint and is whetting his tomahawk ready to go after the scalp of President Harding. Harding's cry of "Beware of foreign alliances," has dwindled into nothingness as the Chief Executive and his followers begin to realize that America is a world power in and within the world, rather than apart from the world. It is a sad blow to republican pride to realize that Woodrow Wilson was right in placing this nation along side England and France in the attempt to solve the world's problems. The republicans now realize that they have made a terrible mess of things in America by refusing to make peace with Europe in order that trade might be re-established. President Harding is quietly trying to draw his party into the position it should have taken months ago. Politics is a funny thing.

The local "humorists" have a delightful time in criticising a country newspaper at the "absurd" errors which always creep into every issue. To these highly efficient people the country editor is a common bonthead and the printers are a bunch of cheap skates who do nothing but make unpardonable errors. It is therefore refreshing to note Thursday's issue of the Dallas News when the cartoon on the first page was run upside down. The Dallas News has a whole flock of proof readers and expert editors and printers whose business it is to see that there are no mistakes in that great paper. In this they are making a mistake. They should hire up a whole flock of talent in any country town for half the price they are now paying, who think they know more than the average newspaper man, and would surely make no mistakes.

In times like this, it is very easy to start a rumor which will cause great ruin to a strong financial institution. Such a rumor was started regarding the conditions of a Dallas bank last week. Had not all the banks and bankers of the city, the business houses and the Federal Reserve bank rushed to the rescue, dire disaster might have resulted in the wreck of the bank. Fortunately, this was avoided by the brotherly help of the financial institutions. The banks are doing all in their power to tide over the financial condition. If they were not loaning every possible dollar, they would be severely criticised. Your banker will go the limit to take care of you, but can go no farther. You cannot expect him to do more.

It rained. Yes, just like it always does in the Panhandle, about fifteen minutes before it is too late to save the crops. The weather man is a peculiar cuss, and likes to throw a fit of horror and mental agony into the Panhandle people every year, but finally, at the last minute, he always comes across with the goods. There will be a lot of wheat raised this year. The price is going to be fair. There will be plenty of money to pay debts, and nest eggs left to start out for another year. Great is the Panhandle of Texas.

It is evident that the railroads were able to slip through the legislature the Truck Bill which is now being so generously cussed by the owners of trucks who are fighting the high railroad rates. The truck bill having many points of merit, was much more far-reaching in its effect than the legislators imagined. It will be amended by the special session of the legislature, judging from the strong lobby which will take the matter up with the law-makers.

Unfortunately Edison did not go to school very long, or he would have learned it was possible for most any person to ask questions which a wise man cannot answer. The college students for whom he seems to hold contempt could no doubt ask as many questions which Edison could not answer, as Edison has discovered college men who cannot answer the questions he propounds.

Germany has signified her intention to pay the indemnity, just as the allies demanded. On Nov. 11, 1918, Germany said she was whipped and run up the white flag. Ever since that time she has been trying to kid herself into the idea that she was not the vanquished.

Governor Neff is putting woman suffrage forward faster than some of the women ever dreamed. He has appointed a woman to the Board of Regents for the Normal Schools, the A. & M. College and the University.

SOME EVANGELISTS

Writing from Fort Worth and stating that his business takes him into several Western Texas communities periodically, a thoughtful constituent states that recently in three different towns he heard three different evangelists relate a pathetic little story, each of whom made it apply to the relater's own experience. Our correspondent doubts if the same incident could have happened in the same way to three different individuals, therefore he questions the sincerity of at least two of the three. Furthermore, he believes religion is being cheapened and salvation made "too accessible" by inane evangelists who are not only ill-equipped for the serious work of the church, but are lending to the pulpit an appearance of professionalism which is disadvantageous to the genuine Gospel. "I do not believe there is any necessity for all this professional preaching and singing and agonizing over some old sinner that doesn't care whether his or anybody else's soul is saved," avers the plain-speaking correspondent. Perhaps it is a timely protest. Peregrinating preachers with quivers full of showman's tricks, mingled with burial-ground pathos and dubious jokes, are in position to do incalculable harm in the moral universe. "Evangelistic teams" are in some estimations, affronts to that order of spirituality which has its source in sincere association with elevated thoughts and moral discipline. The idea that every man who presumes to employ himself in the cause of God does some good somewhere may be founded upon firm ground, but is it not possible that many men who presume to speak for God in a manner offensive to the auditor's conception of the Creator do harm? The somewhat prevalent idea that one might safely approach the gate of heaven with a cigarette in one's mouth, and doing bodily genuflections in jazz time, is on a par with the similar suggestion that bizarre bathing suits is proper equipment for the river of death. Preaching is a business for consecrated men, which means men consecrated to the service of mankind rather than to the quest for fame or money. Men who are not so consecrated, men who have not the talent or sincerity to fashion their appeals in the light of intelligent experience and observation and sympathy, should give their places to men better equipped than themselves.—State Press, Dallas News.

Hereford Officers Get Lot of Booze

Sixty cases of genuine bottled-in-bond Scotch whiskey, two women, four men, a Cadillac touring car, and a Reo truck was the catch made by Sheriff C. S. Purcell and Night Watchman Omer Baker, assisted by special deputies Lem Chesser and Bill Kelly, about nine o'clock Tuesday night. The Cadillac, containing three men and one woman, was trapped in west Hereford after a hide-and-seek match across streets with the sheriff while the truck driven by a man with a woman as passenger, was picked up shortly afterwards just in front of the Baptist church.

Neither party offered resistance. They were brought to town and given supper, after which they were interrogated in separate groups by the officers, County Attorney Robinson and District Attorney Braley. The supposition was that they would be held for federal action.

The sheriff at Portales, N. M., telephoned Sheriff Purcell Tuesday afternoon to look out for a Cadillac touring car and a Reo truck, which were presumed to have come from El Paso and which had given him the slip. Mr. Purcell was out at the time and Mr. Baker took the message and hunted up the sheriff. Kelly was deputized to drive the sheriff's car and Chesser to assist. They drove out to Black, hoping to intercept the quarry before dark, as it is almost impossible to stop a fast car after nightfall. Failing to meet the car and truck the officers dropped back to the side road entering the main road near the railroad bridge and waited. When the Cadillac swished around the turn the sheriff's car followed closely. Seeing this the Cadillac turned up 25-Mile Ave., and dodged around a street or two. The sheriff turned off into a side street, switched off his lights, then cut in ahead of the Cadillac and blocked the road, stopping the Cadillac. Omer Baker took the captured party to the restaurant for supper while the sheriff and the rest of the party went out and soon cornered the truck in the same manner. Both cars were put in the Shore garage for the night under guard.

Curious crowds gathered around that heavily-loaded truck and speculated on what would become of all that Scotch. The sheriff, the night watchman and the two volunteer assistants, are receiving congratulations on all sides for their splendid work. It's dangerous business at best, and takes coloness, grit, and headwork. The honors are certainly due the Sheriff and county officers.—Hereford Herald

Claxton Replies to Edison's Charges

Commissioner of Education Denies College Graduates Are Ignorant.

Washington, May 6.—Thomas A. Edison must remember that his fame is not based so much upon his discovery of scientific principles as upon his application of scientific principles which were evolved by others—most of them college men.

This is just one of the answers by Dr. Philander P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, to Edison's charge that the college graduate is "amazingly ignorant."

"Modern progress in manufacturing, mining, transportation, agriculture, and electricity, too—has been guided by the discoveries of science," Dr. Claxton said. "Most of these discoveries have been made by college-bred men."

"It is true that a college man doesn't always apply his discoveries."

"The Tennessee University boy who discovered hog serum may have been a poor vaccinationist, but he stated something."

"It took capital and organization to build the Panama Canal, but the work wasn't possible until college-trained engineers had prepared the plans, and Gorgas, a college man, had built upon the work of Walter Reed, another college man, to drive fever away and establish healthful conditions. "All college men aren't brilliant. They are not all successes. But neither are all electricians nor any other single class of men."

Advertising Today
 Advertising is more effective today than at any other period of American history. The depression in business in some sections only intensifies the need and office of faithful advertising. The people of the country never needed more information on economic buying than at the present time. The merchant with something serviceable and at a reasonable price has never had a better opportunity to cash in on his publicity. Advertising is the only tonic for business and the merchant who refuses to use the tonic carefully and judiciously is in the same class with the man who refuses to allow a doctor's directions when a tonic is what he needs. Today, as always, the merchant with the goods worth while and with prices fair to the public will advertise as usual. Read the advertisements in the News—they are a standing directory of business integrity and honest values.

Experience is valuable, but do not make mistakes just to get it.

The Burmese, because of the income that they get from raising rice, are not so poor as most Oriental people, and they resemble the Filipinos in their inclination to spend their money for anything that appeals to their fancy. The bazaars of the country are the Eastern equivalent of the occidental department store. There is a bazaar at Mandalay that covers several city blocks. Most of the things offered for sale are of British origin, but Italian, Swedish, Japanese, Austrian and American articles appear too. The things that come from America are carpenter's tools and other hardware—such as lanterns, locks and hinges—and canned foods.

So much has been said about the Pilgrim Fathers, and so many pictures have represented them as grave, white bearded men, that it produces an intellectual shock to come upon an article by Sir Arthur E. Shipley, master of Christ's College, Cambridge, England, in which he gives their real ages. Of all those who came over in the Mayflower, only one was more than thirty years old. That one was Capt. Miles Standish, and he was only thirty-six. Instead of being grave and reverend seniors, the Pilgrims were young, sturdy Englishmen in the very flower of early life.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

OUR NATIONAL CAPITOL.

IT IS but fitting that America—the greatest nation in all the world—should have the finest capitol building on earth. The architectural beauty of our national capitol building at Washington is most impressive and, for capitol purposes, it is safe to surpass every other building in the world.

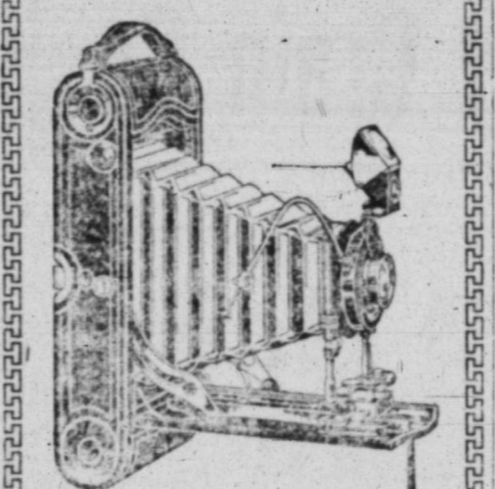

The base of this immense, symmetrically shaped and imposing edifice rests on a level plateau, at an elevation of 97 feet above the historic Potomac river. The building faces the east and is about one mile distant from the White House. The corner stone of the original structure, which comprises the central portion of the present building and is of Virginia sandstone, was laid by President Washington on September 18, 1793—125 years ago. Later, when it became necessary to enlarge the building, two additional wings, of Massachusetts marble, were added. President Fillmore laid the corner stone; Daniel Webster was the orator. These wings were burned by the British in 1814, but were restored. The original building was completed in 1827.

The present structure is 751 feet long and 350 wide. It covers three and one-half acres. The central portion is surmounted by one of the most graceful, pleasingly shaped and massive domes in the world. This dome is 287 feet high. It was completed in 1865. It weighs more than 8,000,000 pounds and is topped by a statue of Freedom almost 20 feet high.

The total value of the building and grounds is estimated at $25,400,000.

In a contest just closed an elm at Govanda won the honor of being the biggest tree in New York state. It is thirty-four feet, two inches in circumference at thirty inches from the ground and more than one hundred feet tall. It has no branches within fifty feet of the ground, and its circumference at fifty feet is twenty feet. The "George Washington Cherry" at Hempstead, Long Island, which must have been too big for George to cut, is fourteen feet in diameter.

UNCLE SAM'S RATS ARE EPICUREANS

Give Them Plenty and a Variety of Food if You Would Succeed in Poisoning Rodents.

A starved rat will eat anything, from a strip of lead pipe to an old boot, but a well-fed rodent, such as we have in the United States, is often inclined to be finicky in the matter of food. Rat-poisoning campaigns often fail because the house owner does not give his intended victims a sufficient variety of edibles. Specialists of the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture urge a rat-control campaign in America and stress the importance of catering to the rodents' tastes.

Rat baits may be divided into three classes: Meat foods, vegetable foods and cereals. In mixing his baits, the successful poisoner selects a food from each of the three classes and combines it with carbonate in the proportion of one part poison to four of food. "Then he puts a teaspoonful of each variety on a strip of paper or a bit of board, so that the rat, traveling along his runway, finds a three-course meal all laid for him. Usually one of the three baits appeals to him and the rat population is reduced by one."

Poisoned baits should be watched carefully, and uneaten baits replaced by others of the same class on the following evening. In this way a wide selection of foods may be used without departing from the basic combination. All baits must be kept fresh and tempting. You can't catch rats by smearing a dab of poison on a bait of stale bread and then putting it under some out of the way corner. Barium carbonate is the poison recommended by the specialists. It is tasteless, odorless, and can be obtained at any drug store. Full directions for its use and a complete list of food combinations suitable can be obtained upon request to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Prairie Dogs seem to have some kind of fore knowledge of the weather, if observers at the New York Zoological Park are right. Now and then the larger members of the colony loosen the earth round their mounds with their forefeet, then shovel the soil upward with their hind feet. Other members working inside the burrow, throwing out earth to aid in the building. When a dike has been built the animals tamp the earth down with their heads—an amusing sight. As those operations invariably take place before a rain, the obvious purpose is to build a dam that will keep the water from running into the burrow.

The loving cup is to be of a rich and graceful model which will be a pride to any society. The proceeds from the admission to the debate will go toward buying the cup and medals.

The students are all eager to hear the Cousins and Antlers decide whether or not "The division of Texas into two or more States would be to the best interest of these states."

The men who will represent the societies in the debate this year are Allan King, Emmitt Hazelwood, Mitchell Jones, Charles Wilson and Lewis Hardin.

He's of no intrinsic value, but He's nice to have around; When you watch the little nymph Play, you can never, never frown.

He doesn't mind the weather, He loves sunshine, rain or fog. The mascot of the campus Is the little prairie dog.

Human Skeleton Is Found Near Hereford

The gruesome find last Tuesday of a human skeleton on his dairy farm in the eastern outskirts of the city has been reported by A. B. Schultz. The skull and portions of the jaw bone and teeth are on exhibition at The Brand office.

Mr. Schultz was digging a hole on his place and at about four feet below the surface of the ground his pick hit what he at first took to be a rock. After picking at it a few times, the pick went through the surface and he unearthed the skull. Digging deeper he found that the body had apparently been buried in an upright position and the bones had slipped down somewhat, as they were below the skull.

Is the find a prehistoric one, or that of an Indian? That's the question puzzling all who have inspected the remains. The skull appears to be rather small, with high cheek bones and slanting forehead. The teeth are well worn down without fillings, and appear to have belonged to a mature person. The thigh-bones are short, and the body of the man or woman must have been short and squat.

Although Mr. Schultz made a thorough examination he could find no traces of clothing, shoes or other trinkets of any kind, and is convinced that the body was that of an Indian. The bones show that they have lain in the ground for many years.—Hereford Brand.

Indian Relics for the Normal

Earl Wainwright has gathered up a collection of Indian relics from this vicinity and will present the collection to the West Texas State Normal at Canyon. The Normal is trying to secure exhibits from the different sections of the Panhandle to be used in the school exhibit and thus perpetuate the memory of frontier times and be a valuable contribution to the history of the days when the red man was "monarch of all he surveyed." Those days have passed, but in this section many relics of his sojourn are still to be found and these should be kept for future generations and we know of no other way better suited to the purpose than to make the collection as complete as possible and present it to the Canyon Normal. A skeleton of an Indian, dug from the Wainwright place south of town, some pottery and a variety of arrow heads, flints, and beads and an old gun, together with many other specimens of Indian handiwork will be given to the Canyon school.—Higgins News.

A Farewell Dinner

Sunday was a day long to be remembered when the relatives and friends of Roscoe B. Davis met at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Davis. They brought with them baskets and boxes overflowing with good things to eat, among which were twenty large cakes. At the noon hour a large table was spread in the yard upon which could be seen almost everything that is good to eat.

After the hunger of all had been thoroughly satisfied and the remains had been cleared away the afternoon was spent by all having a good time, the children playing games and the older folks enjoying the victrola music or having a social chat.

Roscoe has been spending two weeks with his parents and left Monday for Texas where he is engaged in the garage business. This was his first trip home since he was in military service and has been away in all, three years. All departed in the afternoon wishing him well in his Texas home.—Corydon (Ind.) Democrat

Advertisers Growing Wiser

Advertisers are growing wiser each year. Business men of the nation last year spent $200,000,000 for newspaper advertising which was an increase of $50,000,000 over the previous year.

This big increase came too despite higher rates for space, and despite a general business depression. But it is illogical to say that the increase came despite business depression. Good business men know that in times of depression advertising is most necessary. The wise merchant reasons thus:

"I know there is not much money in the country, so it's up to me to get all of the little I can, hence, I will advertise more than usual."

Advertisers know they can not hope to get cheaper rates for a long time, if indeed, rates ever become cheaper. While material costs in many other lines have gone down during the past two years, print paper, inks and other printing necessities have steadily mounted, while wages of employees have not been reduced as they have in many other vocations employing skilled labor.

These facts do not deter the merchant who is proud of his goods from calling the people's attention to them through the proved and admittedly best medium, newspaper advertising.

My Creed

I believe in my town. I believe in her people, in her boys and her girls. I will make myself a committee of one to make of this a good place in which to live and a mighty hard place to leave.

I believe in my town. I believe in her institutions, in her schools, in her churches and in her stores. I believe in the street broom and the street sweeper, and in the paint pot. I believe in never an empty can on vacant lot but many a full one in the larder. Never again will I throw waste paper or rubbish in the street or alley.

I believe in my town. I believe in trees, God's first temples; grass instead of ash heaps, and flowers instead of weeds. May God bless the tongue that gives honest praise and commendation, and may He doubly bless the ear that is deaf to scandal and gossip. If I cannot speak good of my neighbor I will hold my peace. When it costs me nothing, at least, I will spend my money here, and by so doing leave a part of the purchase price to circulate in the channels where its equivalent in wealth was originally created, to do good among the folks who are a part of the community of which I am a part. In the place that I call home, sweet home.

I believe in my town.—National Hardware Bulletin.

TWO NEW WHEAT DISEASES

Flag Smut
Symptoms: Black stripes running lengthwise in the leaf blades and sheaths are typical of flag smut. These black stripes are due to the spores produced by the fungus. The disease is commonly more injurious to the upper leaves of the plant. The stems are also infected to some extent. Infected plants are usually more or less dwarfed, and they rarely head out or produce seed. Commonly all the stalks on a diseased plant are smutted, but occasionally one or more stalks show no infection.

Take-All
Symptoms: Badly dwarfed plants occurring in distinct patches of varying size and shape or singly among the healthy plants, are typical of the disease. These symptoms first become evident in the spring after growth of the healthy plants is well started.

Diseased plants show the following characteristic symptoms: (1) dwarfing and, a little later, (2) abnormal dark green coloration of the fall leaves, (3) dying of the outer leaves and fall tillers and browning of crown and roots, (4) excessive development of spring tillers, or (5) some plants may be killed entirely while in the dwarfed stage.

Badly infested fields may have only a few healthy plants, but where the infestation is slight, it may be very difficult to find the more or less isolated diseased plants scattered among the healthy ones. More commonly, patches or spots of diseased plants show up here and there without regard to the type or condition of the soil. Most of the plants in these spots are diseased and stunted, thus giving a sharply defined margin to the area.

Americans Becoming Big Saving People

Married men save more than single men.

More bank accounts are opened in June, the month of marriage, than at any other time in the year.

The American people—particularly the working people—are doing well in the way of thrift.

Never was the savings of the people greater than in 1920.

The foregoing are facts which were brought out at the national conference of savings bank men in Philadelphia the other day, says Richard Spillane in the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Some of the figures are astounding. For example, The deposits in the 619 mutual savings institutions aggregate $5,535,389,907. It is difficult for the mind to grasp the immensity of amounts when billions are in question. Suppose then you use some illustrations. That $5,500,000,000 almost totals all the currency in circulation in America. It is equal to more than half of the bar and milled gold in the world. It is nearly double the stock of money gold in America. It means about $51.70 per capita—$51.70 for every man, woman and child of the 107,668,000 in the United States.

New York may be a spendthrift city, yet its savings banks have $1,822,666,688 on deposit. In the Emigrant Industrial it has the greatest savings institution in the world. If the rest of America did so well as New York city the savings accounts of the United States would approximate $30,000,000,000. Think of it!

The figures show that 1920 was the banner year for savings banks. The increase over 1919 totaled $471,700,885. Now, where did this come from? Was the American workman "blowing in" his money as generally supposed? Was he squandering his high wages on silk shirts and expensive shoes and was his wife decking herself out in furs and sea-gaws? Maybe some were, but assuredly the vast majority were not.

Many, very many, of the wage earners were prudent, very prudent. Examination shows that mechanics bulk large among the depositors; that the foreign born have a large proportion of new accounts than the native born, and that it is getting to be more and more of a custom for parents to open an account for a babe at its birth and deposit a stipulated sum for the youngster each week or month. In the case of young married couples the majority of the accounts were in the name of the bride. That is fitting and chivalrous.

It may seem queer, but policemen, firemen and newspaper men are at the tail of the procession of savers in these banks. The explanation as to policemen and firemen is that they have their pension and disability funds. There is no explanation as to newspaper men. They seem to be hopeless.

The Modern Dance

The Cornell "Widow," known in the periodical world as one of the cleverest and best-edited of student publications, presents this rimed view of the changes that dancing has undergone:

"Times have waxed and waned a lot, as old-timers can recall, and the dancing now is not what it used to be at all; only awkward rubes and hicks execute the bows and kicks that were once clever parlor tricks when our fathers threw a ball. Our progenitors took pleasure in a slow and solemn way; they would tread a stately measure that was anything but gay, and the orchestra would render sentimental stuff and tender which the folks of either gender wouldn't listen to-day. With a flock of flutes and 'cellos, plus a harp and silver horn, these accomplished music lovers would play on till early morn; they could keep 'Blue Danube' flowing without stopping up or slowing, till the bantams started crowing and they'd leave to hoe the corn. But your strictly modern dancers don't go in for such grace, and the minuet and lancers have been boosted from the place; for the 'poetry of motion' has been backed into the ocean, and a sort of 'free verse' notion has possessed our faded race. Now the orchestra that's snappy and a bit with all the boys, aims to keep the rabble happy with a slew of fancy noise; and the syncopated stammer of a cow-bell and a hammer and the sort of blare and glamour that contains a thousand joys. With a saxophone complaining, and a banjo chirping in; a fiddle that is straining to be heard above the din; and a handy man and drummer, who I think should be a plumber the he's mentioned as a comer—how they make the flappers grin. It is said they play with feeling, yet somehow it misses me; they are experts at concealing all the tune and melody; but for present ways of tripping, cheek to cheek and closely, I admit they're simply ripping, and they suit it to a T!"

Germany should indulge in less pleading and more plodding.—Chicago Journal of Commerce.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer headache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Canyon evidence—doubly proven.

R. E. Hileman, prop. bicycle shop, says: "I found positive relief in using Doan's Kidney Pills for lameness across the small of my back and for my kidneys. I certainly can conscientiously recommend them for lumbago and for embarrassment caused by the kidney secretions. I am quite over all difficulties of that nature since I used them." (Statement given January 17, 1911).

On May 1, 1919, Mr. Hileman said: "Since I used and recommended Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago, I have taken them whenever in need of such a remedy. Doan's have never failed to give instant relief and I am always glad to say a good word in favor of them."

The Family's All Happy

They've read stories snappy of friends, in and out of town. And they've read all the ads and learned to save scads, buying advertised goods of renown.

The home town newspaper records every caper of people, their doings and things; as the town's biggest booster, it's up with the rooster, every modern improvement it brings.

But circ'lars and hand-bills, that clutter the door-sills, are poor advertising at best; from the porch they are swept, while the newspaper's kept to be read during leisure and rest.

Now the moral is plain; when you start a campaign to bring folks new harness or ice, put your ad where 'twill tell them, what you have to sell them, and how much they save on the price.

Put your ad where they'll read it; constant sight makes them heed it; thrifty readers will come to your store. Here your ad is expressive while the hand-bill oppressive, is scattered from gate-way to door.

Bonnet-Brown Sales Service brings even better results than you would expect. We have it for your use.

YOU certainly want to save money, and you would like to have better bakings. Then use Calumet. It's the biggest thing you can do to improve the quality of your bakings—and lower baking costs.

Calumet is made in the largest, most sanitary Baking Powder Factories in the World. No Baking Powder is made under better conditions—none can be better in quality.

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Pure Food Authorities. An absolute guarantee that it is pure.

RAISES THE QUALITY—LOWERS THE COST OF ALL BAKINGS

CALUMET BAKING POWDER BEST BY TEST

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 12 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Cream Cake
Recipe

BOARD OF NORMAL COLLEGE REGENTS MEET IN AUSTIN

As provided by law, the Texas Board of Normal College Regents held its annual meeting the past week in Austin.

Because of the change in the personnel of the Board, there was a re-organization of the body. Hon. A. C. Goeth of Austin was re-elected President of the Board, and Hon. Martin O. Flowers of Lockhart was re-elected Vice-president. The other members of the Board, all of whom were present at this meeting, are Hon. R. J. Eckhart of Taylor, Judge A. B. Watkins of Athens, Miss Margie E. Neal of Carthage, and Hon. J. J. Bennett of Stephenville, the last two being the successors of Hon. A. B. Martin of Plainview and Hon. John Marshall of Sherman. Mr. H. A. Turner of Austin was re-elected Secretary of the Board.

In addition to the Board of Regents all of the Normal College Presidents were present, as follows: W. H. Bruce of Canton, H. F. Estill of Huntsville, C. E. Evans of San Marcos, J. A. Hill of Canyon, R. B. Binnion of Commerce, and R. L. Marquis of Alpine. These officers made reports of the progress of the work at the respective schools and made recommendations for the future.

The Board elected officers and teachers for the ensuing year and transacted usual routine business. Considerable embarrassment was felt because of the lack of an authoritative budget for the next biennial period. The projection of policies and the right expenditure of public funds is difficult enough when one knows the exact amount of available resources, but when this information is wholly lacking the task is all but impossible. The Board and the Presidents approached their problems, however, with conscious responsibility to the public whom they serve. We believe they have done the best possible under the circumstances.

Among matters of general interest was the modification of the degrees which the Normal Colleges will hereafter confer. Instead of the B. A. in Education and the B. S. in Education, as heretofore, there will be conferred the B. A. and B. S. degrees, committing the "in-Education." This step was taken to simplify and standardize the matter of degrees, so that hereafter it will not be necessary to explain the meaning of a degree from a Texas State Normal College. This change becomes immediately effective, and will therefore apply to the present graduating class.

Another matter of general interest was the decision of the Board, with the concurrence of the Legislature, to build the new Normal at Nacogdoches before building the one at Kingsville. These schools were legally established some years ago, but their opening was subsequently postponed because of the War and adverse financial conditions. There has been considerable discussion of the State's need for these two schools and the advisability of postponing indefinitely their opening, or perchance of abolishing them. But the sentiment seems to be growing in favor of the State's fulfillment of its original purpose and the rather prompt carrying out of its contracts. There is no doubt that if Texas is to have anything like an adequate supply of trained teachers, she will have to do two things: (1) Compel every teacher to take specific and somewhat extended training in a Normal College, and (2) Greatly increase the facilities for teacher-training in the State. The adoption of such a course would certainly mean much for the children of Texas, and much also for the people who support the schools. Looked at from this point of view it would seem that the immediate opening of the schools at Nacogdoches and Kingsville would be a step in the right direction.

Thanks to Martin and Marshall
As previously announced in these columns, Hon. A. B. Martin of Plainview and Hon. John Marshall of Sherman have retired from the Board of Normal College Regents through the expiration of their terms of office, and the appointment of their successors. We would be recreant to our duty if we did not publicly acknowledge our appreciation of the services of these two gentlemen to the Normal Colleges in general and to The West Texas State Normal College in particular.

Hon. A. B. Martin became a member of the Board in 1915 and has served it with conspicuous fidelity and wisdom for these six years. By birth, by training, and by experience, he is richly fitted for the responsibilities of a teacher-training Board. He has the view-point of the common man in unusual measure and the Normal Colleges are the common people's schools. Moreover, he has a keen interest in the young man or young woman who are struggling with adversity. With such the Normal Colleges are filled. His legal training and his contact with men have given him an insight into public affairs that served well the State in the matter of training its teachers. He has been peculiarly serviceable to the West Texas State Normal College because of his first-hand knowledge of the conditions with which we are surrounded and the problems that are peculiar to this section of the State. Because of these facts and his proximity to us, his counsel has been invaluable in the development of this institution. He is a comparatively young man and is undoubtedly capable of serving the State in even larger capacity, and we trust the people will some day commandeer his services.

Hon. John Marshall served on the Board only a short while, having been called to fill out the unexpired term of Hon. J. A. Elkins of Houston. Mr. Marshall's value to the Normal Colleges was also unique. He has long been in the public service and understands public questions as few men do. He is also a man of large business experience and wide personal acquaintance. He was once Speaker of the House of Representatives and in that position gained the confidence of the general public. No matter where John Marshall speaks, the people give attention. It is not too much to say that his presence on the Board of Regents added dignity and respect to the business of teacher-training in Texas.

Like Mr. Martin, Mr. Marshall was peculiarly serviceable to The West Texas State Normal College. His interest in the institution dates back to its establishment, for he was Speaker when the Legislature passed the bill creating the school; and he served as a member of the locating board. He was especially interested in the development of the dormitory system here and had remained on the Board would have rendered us great service in this field.

We greatly regret to lose these two good men from the Board, but we rejoice to know that their interests in this school will abide.

Home Economic Luncheon

The Department of Home Economics believes in "practice meals" for the benefit of its embryonic cooks. Hence it was announced recently that for the first of this quarter one luncheon a week would be served to the first twelve faculty members applying for reservations.

The first of these luncheons was given Thursday, May 5, in the college dining-room, with the girls of Home Economics 36 acting as hostesses, cooks, and maids. The table was attractively arranged with its china and silver upon a Madeira luncheon-set (the latest acquisition of the department and its chief pride and joy). Pink roses in an artistic pottery jar made a charming center decoration.

The following delicious menu was served:

- Breaded Chicken
- Cream Spinach Puree
- Brown Bread Butter Balls
- Pear Cheese Salad
- Wafers
- Lemon Sherbet
- Angel Food Cake

The faculty members who took advantage of this opportunity to get "dinner on the grounds" were: Mr. and Mrs. Sheffy, Mr. and Mrs. Terrill, Mr. and Mrs. Donald, Mr. Shaw, Miss Lamb, Miss MacLaren, Miss M. Anderson, Mr. Jarrett, and Miss Baldwin.

On Monday evening, May 2, the Journalism department of the English Club had charge of the program. W. Warwick presented some good examples of advertising and explained the advantage of artistic advertising in a country newspaper. From the talk on special feature articles by Miss Sara Thompson we learned how the human element may be injected into the newspapers. LYCEUM ATTRACTIONS FOR THE SUMMER SCHOOL

The Lyceum Attractions for the Summer Session are unusual in character. On the evening of June 10, Louis Kreidler, one of the most famous baratonos of America, will open the program.

Beginning on Monday, June 14, Dr. Henry S. Curtis will give a series of two lectures daily on Play, Recreation, and Education.

Dr. Edward Howard Griggs, perhaps the most inspiring lecturer of this country, will deliver a series of lectures on July 7, 8, and 9. Part of his lectures will be general in their nature, and a part of them will be on the modern drama.

Sometime near the 20 of July, Vera Poppi, the noted South African English Cellist will give the fourth number. All of these numbers are covered by the blanket tax.

On July 29 and 30 the Devereux Players will be with us again. This excellent company needs no introduction to Canyon audiences. Their repertoire for the summer is as follows: "The Taming of the Shrew," Lytton's "Richieu," Maeterlinck's "Mona Vanna," Ibsen's "Ghosts," Gilbert's "Daniel Druce."

Music Department Recital

Miss Helen Croson, assisted by Miss Roberta McKnight, gave a piano recital in the auditorium, Thursday afternoon, May 12. Miss Croson is a young pianist of splendid promise. Her Bach was played with precision, and at the same time with intelligent conception, showing that Bach is not merely a matter of difficult piano technique to her. The second part of her program was especially well chosen and executed. Especially were the "Wistaria" by Mana-Zueca, and the Valse Caprice by Chaminade.

Miss Roberta McKnight sang two beautiful MacDowell songs. Miss McKnight possesses that rarest of all voices, a pure mezzo-soprano, and reads with unusual feeling for a young singer.

Piano Ensemble Class No. 1 opened and closed the program. This program sets a high mark as a students' program.

Public Speaking Recital

Sesame-Elapheian Debate

The skirmish of Thursday evening, May 5, was one that will never be omitted from the annals of W. T. S. N. C. The warriors of each tribe plunged headlong into the conflict. It was a brave and glorious combat; but alas! one side was doomed to meet defeat.

When the decision of the judges was rendered, the colors of the victorious army gilded the western section of the auditorium, and even the golden balloons sent forth cries of joy to their beloved chieftains, Misses Mona Hor-

An Experiment that Worked

It seems that we are all interested in experiments, whether they take the form of tearing a watch or a car to pieces or making a hat or dress out of "nothing." There are some of us who were especially interested in the Lunch Room Experiment and it seems to be old enough now to speak for itself, although it doesn't seem to shine well away from home. If one could hear it at its most convincing moments, it would be well to call some day at "Cozy Cottage" between 12 and 12:30.

We can't say how many have been benefitted by this work of the Service Committee of the Y. W. C. A.; but if you have, we feel sure you also think this experiment is worth-while. There are, however, a few chairs at the lunch room which are never occupied, and we greatly fear there are some who are eating their lunches in less attractive places. If you haven't formed this habit, come over and see how "cozy" we really are.

Elapheian Meeting

The Elapheian Literary Society had their regular meeting Thursday evening at 7:00 P. M. in Room 105. The subject of the evening's program was "Canada." Miss Carrie Bier discussed "The Domestic Development of Canada," followed by an interesting, instructive talk by Mrs. Lang, who has spent one winter, and two summers in Canada. She told us of the Canadian customs and sports, of their patriotism, and discussed their home life, and clothing, giving beautiful vivid descriptions of the St. Lawrence river, and the Thousand Isles. Mrs. Lang spoke of the three things which the Canadians almost deify, the St. Lawrence river, maple sugar, and the maple leaf. We learned many things about Canada which not only were interesting, but which will be beneficial to us in the future. After this excellent discussion, we all really felt as if we had made a visit to Canada. The program ended with a vocal solo by Mrs. Meinecke, and the society moved to adjourn, declaring this to be one of the best programs we have had this year.

Sesames Hold Initiation Service

On Friday evening, May 13, the Sesames held their initiation ceremonies. The service was a simple but very impressive one, and served as a bond between the old and new members. The Sesames have always made much of the last initiation in the year, since it serves both as a forward and a backward look.

For the number of girls who completed their membership on that evening, it especially means plans for the future; while, for some of the older members it must mean a retrospection. When they look back over this year's work and find that every program has been very worth while, that the society has always stood behind the school and its interests, that many of the more timid girls have "found themselves" through society work, and that no such thing as "politics" has found its way into the work, the girls are exceedingly proud. Those who came under the power of the lovely initiation service, and those who expect to be in school again look forward to the social bond for the summer session, and the many plans for work next year.

Sesames Spend Evening With Greek and Roman Gods

The Sesames spent a very delightful evening with the Greek and Roman gods and goddesses at their last regular meeting. Miss Lillie Dell Slover called the roll, and the dieties responded—from Jupiter and Juno to Pluto and Proserpine. Then the delightful story—old, yet ever new—"Cupid and Psyche" was told in a very charming manner by Miss Lola McGuire. The story-teller carried everyone with the lovers through their many trials to the beautiful climax. A bit of music added to the spell, and then came a glimpse of Pan, the dryads, and the "underworld."

English Club

At a recent meeting of the English Club the following officers were elected for the summer:

- President—Mody C. Boatright.
  - Vice-president—Mrs. J. J. Powell.
  - Sec'y-Treas.—Miss Elizabeth Reck.
- On next Monday evening the Club will have a social meeting on Miss Ritchie's lawn.
