

CONSOLIDATED TEACHERS' INSTITUTE WILL OPEN NEXT MONDAY IN CANYON

More than seven hundred teachers from twenty-three Panhandle counties will arrive in Canyon next Sunday and Monday to attend the Consolidated Institute lasting from Sept. 9 to 13. This Institute has been held in Canyon for the past four years and is growing in size and importance to Canyon, as well as to the school interests of this section.

The program this year will be the strongest Institute program ever given in West Texas. The special lecturers have been chosen with a view of bringing to the teachers the very latest ideals of the educational world. The program will be highly enjoyable to others, than those engaged in the teaching profession. The complete program was published week before last in this paper.

A word regarding this institute and the reception extended the teachers would not be amiss, although Canyon has always done the right thing by these teachers and those in charge of the program trust that no teacher will go away from Canyon this year regretting that their county judge asked them to join the Consolidated Institute. No county has to come to Canyon for this Institute. Each county may hold its own Institute. It costs the individual teacher more to come any distance to attend this Consolidated Institute than it would if the county judge held an Institute in each county seat. But the teachers are willing to bear the additional expense on account of the great program that is offered in the Consolidated Institute—which program is greater than each individual county might have.

Financially, the coming of these teachers is worth a great deal to Canyon. If these teachers are treated fairly they will continue to come year after year, and the Institute will enlarge year by year. If the teachers are not treated fairly, they will hardly be expected to return, and Canyon will be the loser financially, not only losing the money they might have brought the Institute, but the vast amount of advertising these teachers do for the Normal and Canyon. Room rents should be at rock bottom prices during Institute week. Good rooms with two people are rented in other towns at $2.00 to $3.00 per day. To charge an exorbitant price will mean the loss in support of the Institute, and therefore a loss of all revenue from the Institute.

The teachers from the following counties will be present: Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Carson, Crosby, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Gray, Hale, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lamb, Moore, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, and Swisher.

Seek State Park of the Palo Duro Canyon

Palo Duro Canyon will be inspected by the joint committee of the Senate and the House on September 19 and 20 for the purpose of finding whether it would be suitable for a state park. The party will be headed by Charles G. Thomas, speaker of the House, and Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson, and will arrive in Amarillo at noon September 19 over the Fort Worth and Denver.

Through the efforts of Senator W. H. Biesock of Lubbock, the Palo Duro canyon was substituted for the Davis Mountains in a resolution passed.

Entertainment of the committee will be turned over to the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce and the Amarillo Board of City Development it is expected.

Detail of the trip to the canyon were learned from Lee Satterwhite, representative from this district, who was in Amarillo Sunday en route to Panhandle. The Palo Duro canyon, and senatorial and representative redistricting measures are of vital importance to the Panhandle, said Mr. Satterwhite.

New representative districts formed put Potter, Carson, Armstrong, Randall, Deaf Smith and Oldham counties together. Donley, Collingsworth, Wheeler and Gray counties form the 122nd district. Another Panhandle district is composed of Hartley, Dallam, Sherman, Moore, Hutchinson, Hansford, Ochiltree, Roberts, Hemphill and Lipscomb counties.

Mr. Satterwhite will be a candidate for re-election as representative in the new district and plans to run for speaker.

As the guests arrived they were refreshed with punch drawn from an ice well hidden in a tangle of vines on the porch. After a series of games, contests and music, all were invited into the dining room which was a bower of hearts with its masses of ferns and flowers, and its soft shaded lights. After making wishes and blowing out the candles the little hostess cut the cake, while cream and several kinds of cake were served to the following: Frieda Cheatham, Roy Cheatham, Elmer Wooten, Clayton Powell, Billie Redfern, Wilmoth Gamble, Lenna Foster, William Flesher, Boon McClure, Louise Shaw, Mildred Gregory, Elizabeth Anderson, Louise Guthrie, Newton Crain, Henrietta Mae Flesher, Clark Ash and Lida Ash. ## WORK STARTED THIS WEEK ON THE SALES PAVILLION FOR THE FAIR

Work was started Tuesday on the new Sales Pavillion and Randall County Fair Building, which is being erected on the Normal grounds. It will be completed and ready for the big Randall County Fair which will be held September 28, 29 and 30.

The new building is 120x120, 24 feet wide, built on the order of the matinee cross. It will be one of the best permanent fair buildings in this country. In the center of the cross will be the sales ring which will be used for all sales of registered hogs and cattle in Randall county.

Manager C. F. Walker, of the Fair states that the foundation will be in by Saturday night. Monday morning he wants a big bunch of men to offer their services with the carpenter work. He can use men whether they are skilled mechanics or not, as there is lots of rough work to be done. He wants every man who will donate work for the pavillion to see him at once.

The draymen of Canyon have donated their services to haul the material to the grounds.

Several hog breeders have donated animals to go into the benefit sale which will be held to help pay for the new building. Mr. Walker has the following list of donors of Duroc Jersey hogs: Cas Jennings, Henry Schultz, H. C. Roffey, R. R. Bates, S. F. Ward, L. B. Wilkes, J. C. Dowd, R. E. McCrerey, George Walker, Forrest Burton. Other breeders are expected to increase this list before the time of the sale.

Mr. Walker is anxious to have the premium list ready to publish in this paper next week. He asks that all who have special premiums to offer, or any suggestions to make regarding the premium list to see him at once.

The school building is being put in good condition and everything will be ready for work on Tuesday, Sept. 13.

TAKING A VACATION

Taking a vacation is about the hardest thing a busy man has to do. But it is a good thing to be chased off once a year to see how other people live, how other towns are doing things, and to flirt with the big fish that always get away.

The doctors suggested a vacation and it was easily put into execution after spending a week in bed the first of the month. We were ordered to rest the "eyes," so looked at nothing smaller than Pikes Peak.

We first went to New Mexico. It is a good place to spend a quiet vacation, as there are not such large crowds as in Colorado. As a summer resort New Mexico is just developing. Roads are being put into shape for the tourist. Hotel accommodations are fair, but improving. The scenery is not so spectacular as Colorado, but equally as beautiful, and gradually roads are being pushed into the mountains until within five years there will be as much to see in New Mexico as there is in Colorado. Of course none of those people have gotten an overdose of home brew and marked up every other rock as a toad, frog, castle, cathedral, camel, or what not. It takes a good imagination to see all the things there are to see in Colorado, and no doubt certain brands of liquid refreshments would help.

Most of the so-called highways leading into Colorado are mere byways. The Colorado to Gulf is as rough as a wash board. Little work is being done on it this side of the Colorado line. Dalham and Potter county roads are the worse. Amarillo threatened to divert traffic away from Canyon because our roads didn't suit some of the high moguls. Amarillo will have to look to her own roads and the Colorado to Gulf or all down state traffic will go to Colorado by the new F. F. F. highway through Plainview, Hereford, and Clovis. This highway is much more interesting to travel, but a little longer. We drove nearly 1500 miles and Randall county has the best dirt roads of any we found. Colorado of course leads all in road building. The tourist pays the bill after he gets there.

The flood did everything to Pueblo that you saw in the papers, and more too. It will be months before the wrecked portion of the town is rebuilt. There is hardly a permanent bridge left in that section. Temporary passageways have been built over the streams, some of which have washed out several times since the big flood.

Of course you have something to live for if you have never driven up Pikes Peak. Few people attempt to drive their own cars up although there is a splendid highway all of the way. A jitney can make the trip, but unless you are used to mountain driving with a lot of crazy chaps in big rubber neck busses threatening to dump you off the grade at every curve, better join the crowd and take a service car. There is really no danger, but a hundred feet looks a long way to fall if something should happen.

There are scores of very interesting drives to be made around Colorado Springs and Denver. It would cost a lot of money to take rubberneck busses to all of them, and a jitney is a mighty fine thing to have along. You will never appreciate your old Henry F. quite so much until you get a chance to turn her loose on those cement and hard surfaced roads of Colorado.

Denver is more of a business town than tourist. Of course there are plenty of guys ready and willing to touch up the tourist at every curve, but everyone and everything in Colorado Springs is in that game. Living is about half as cheap in Denver as in the Springs during the rush of the tourist season. The Springs probably hibernate until next season, when they wake up good and hungry. Denver people boast that everything in Denver is the greatest in the world—But why not? Why not get behind your home town and make it the greatest place in the world? No town ever gets bigger than the people who live in it. We are back on the job, hopefully with enough energy to pull through until next summer, when we trust the doctors will order another vacation.

CUT WHEAT ACREAGE

It is likely that Randall county will not have much more than half as much land in wheat next year as we have had this year. It is a move in the right direction. There has been little money made from wheat during the past few years, and with the lateness of the season and impossibility of getting the land in proper condition for the next year's crop, the reduction in wheat acreage is very commendable. Men who have long made a study of wheat raising have long deplored the tendency of the Panhandle farmers to increase their acreage until some are almost wholly wheat farmers, neglecting the stock and row crop.

A man who has been connected with Randall county and Panhandle affairs for many years pointed out the other day that not a single farmer who had devoted his time to hogs, dairy cattle, and row crops during the past fifteen years had failed to make plenty of money—this in spite of the fact that some of these years have been pretty lean years in this section. Hogs are always money makers, despite their present low price. The dairy cow always makes money for the man who will give her the proper attention. Row crops never fail.

It will be a sad mistake to plant wheat this fall unless the ground is thoroughly prepared to kill out the heavy growth of weeds resulting from the rains. It will be a greater mistake to plant wheat which has not been thoroughly treated to kill the smut germs.

We believe the bankers of this country will advise every man to cut his wheat acreage in two for the coming year, spending a greater amount of time preparing the seed bed and treating the seed. Most men will make more money next year with such a program than they have been making on the large acreage of poorly prepared ground.

Get some good samples ready for the Randall County Fair.

Give the legislature another ten years a free hand in the management of the state's educational system, and from the experience of the past session, the state will own a bunch of junked institutions with second class instructors and delapidated buildings. It is time Texas took her educational system out of the hands of the politicians. Give the schools a chance by providing a steady source of support which every little politician in the state cannot use as a football for his own pleasure and discredit of the state. The people of Texas certainly are too big to stand for the disgraceful antics which we have witnessed this caused by a torpid liver and disordered educational business. Texas must have first class educational institutions.

Quite naturally there will be a lot of investigation as the result of the disaster and loss of the biggest air ship ever built. One thing is quite convincing to us—air travel is far from safe, and we will wait several years before trading our jitney for an airplane.

The state has gotten rid of one white elephant—the state railroad. Now why not dispose of the other big one—the penitentiary system. Put the convicts to work on the highways. They certainly can be profitably used in this work.

No one seems to be greatly excited over the fact that we are now at peace with Germany. It is nearly three years since fighting stopped.

High Rent vs. High Taxes

The man who pays high rental, only in exceptional cases has a moral right to kick about it. The man who pays high taxes is receiving its benefits. Being a party to taxes is being a partner in a great enterprise. What does the rent payer get back for his money? For what reason has he to expect more than a shelter for his family, to whom his every instinct should urge him to own his home? The man who will deny his family the pride of home-ownership is, unconsciously maybe, but nevertheless tearing away the basis of our government, society and civilization.

This may be pointed, but it's true. Let us help you build a home,

Poultry and The Panhandle

Amarillo News: Is it necessary to call attention of those who are living on the farms of the Panhandle-Plains section of Texas to the fact that some individual counties are marketing more than a quarter of a million dollars' worth of poultry and eggs in a single year? With a uniform production at this rate throughout this territory there would be a yield of approximately $10,000,000 annually from the hens that should be on the farms.

Dallas News: The Panhandle of Texas ought to be the greatest poultry yard in the known world. It has all the makings of an extraordinary success in poultry culture. In the first place it has the dry, tonal climate requisite for the health of fowls, especially the young one. It has few rainy days and soggy nights, the sort always antagonistic to fowls, excepting ducks or other aquatic breeds. Then the Panhandle is a grain grower and a grass producer, and contains quite sufficient gravel for the chickens to revel in. Then there is plenty of range. A flock of hens may have free run of any reasonable area of land without deprecatating upon neighbors' premises. Is there money in the poultry business? There is undoubtedly. There is money in it for the producer, as well as the middleman and the bunco man. Probably the poultry grower realizes a proportionately larger part of the consumer's money than do the producers in any other primary line. But, in raising poultry, a properly equipped and adequately supplied factory is necessary. We call it a factory because that is what it is in effect. When a man goes into the business of manufacturing shoes he sees to it that he has a weatherproof building, labor-saving machinery, proper lights, ventilation, water pipes and heating plant. These things combined are his factory. If he didn't provide them he wouldn't be a successful shoe manufacturer. So with the poultry raiser. He needs premises especially adapted to poultry husbandry. If he does not provide them, he cannot compete on even terms with those who do provide them.

A Mysterious Find

Last Friday a Mexican laborer who was grubbing on the Oscar Knox farm in the Ogden settlement dug into an old trunk and found therein three old-time six shooters, an old hat, a pair of shoes and a cartridge belt full of cartridges. The trunk, guns and its contents were of a make of twenty-five years ago.

The Mexican had started to grub up a mesquite tree. There was a big pile of rocks around the tree, which he removed. He had not dug very deep until he struck something that sounded like a box. He at once began to dig it out and found that it was an old trunk, containing the above mentioned contents.

The hat had a hole through it, which in every way resembled a bullet hole. Also one of the shoes had a hole in it that looked like it had been shot in there. The whole affair is a mystery to everyone and the sheriff's force. The trunk is not over thirty inches long, and it is evident that no one was buried in the trunk, otherwise there would have been a skeleton in it. The three six shooters were of the old style of thirty years ago, with very long barrels, and broke as did the side arms of that day. Every indication also showed that the trunk had been there for years, as it was metal lined and the old rawhide covered type.—Paducah Post.

Strictly 30 Days

Owing to rigid terms now made by the Whole Sale People, which is one and two weeks on Groceries, and strictly 30 days on Dry Goods, together with the wheat failure which has put us with every dollar out on our books that we can possibly carry, we are now forced to go SPOT CASH, or strictly 30 days. After serious consideration, we have decided to put our business, so far as profits are concerned, on a cash basis, and still make our terms 30 days. In other words, we are continuing to sell on 30 days time at spot cash prices. We fully realize that we must make our prices compete with any other cash store and have marked our goods accordingly. In fact, if our prices are not 20 or 30 percent under cash prices made in Amarillo we will not ask you for your business; but it will pay you to get our prices before you buy your Fall goods. Some declines run as high as 60 percent under a year ago.

We are sorry, indeed, that we are forced to put our credit business on a 30 day basis, but under present existing conditions it cannot possibly be avoided, and in the future, we will continue to sell on credit after 6th of each month only those who have settled previous month's bills. Please do not ask us to sell you on longer terms for we positively cannot.

We want to thank you very kindly for your past patronage, and if prices and quality prevail, we know we will continue to serve you in the future.

Our Educational Institutions

Houston Chronicle: The educational institutions of Texas should be removed from the realm of factional jealousies.

The purpose which they serve is not political.

Their capacity should not be subject to the change of political winds.

This biennial squabble over what, and how much, they should be allowed, does much to destroy their usefulness.

In so far as is possible their income should be fixed, and it should be fixed in such a way as would meet the requirements of natural growth.

There is no reason in the world why Texas should not endow its university and its agricultural and mechanical colleges.

The costs of operating normal schools is naturally dependent on the demands of the entire educational system.

They should be brought up to a standard where an adequate supply of teachers will be insured.

If we have a million children in school, we shall need about so many teachers a year. If 2,000,000, we shall need about twice as many.

There is little mystery about the number of normal schools we should have, of the number of students they should be able to accommodate.

As to the pay of directors, educators, instructors, etc., that is governed by country-wide averages.

If we fail to meet those averages, we shall get poor returns for our money.

If we go beyond them, unnecessarily, we shall be extravagant.

This is obviously a matter to be regulated by the governing bodies of our educational institutions.

Education is not a matter of acts, entitled acts, but such acts are matters of education.

The more we know, on the average, the better laws we shall get, but more laws do not necessarily mean that we shall know any more.

What the state should do for the university and kindred institutions is obviously regulated by what the people deliver.

This need and this ability to deliver, are, to a measurable degree, of natural growth. They are certainly not to need, and what such institutions can be defined by statute.

The trouble with many of us is that we like politics better than education, and whenever the two clash, we go in for the former.

Making Money From Hogs

Down near Happy, one day last week, Ludwig Iribeck sold fifty-five Poland China sows, some of the individuals going as high as $320 each, the aggregate showing a high average price, and bringing the sum total of seven thousand dollars.

Whose wheat crop sold for so much, and showed a similar element of profit? Look the figures over closely, and count accurately the cost, and then determine the number of wheat farmers who came out so well. The hog, especially of the purebred strains, is showing real class as a money maker.

Through this animal the cheaply priced though abundantly produced grains of this section of the State are enhanced in value at an almost unbelievable rate.

Ludwig Iribeck holds no secret in connection with this industry. He has no charm that entitles him to a success not available to other men in this line of endeavor. The country grows feed in greatest abundance, and is at the same time disease-free, and in all things well suited to the production of hogs at low cost. Ludwig Iribeck has cashed a little more than half a hundred hogs for seven thousand dollars, and at that he is not what would be called, in the understood sense of the term, a "big farmer." He is a winner for the reason that he grows livestock and does not depend on his grain as a cash crop entirely.

What Ludwig Iribeck has done, any other farmer may do. To do as Iribeck has done, is to diversify, to think as well as work, to reach out and take hold on the facilities at hand for making money. Happy and her surrounding territory might be duplicated in many other places in this Plains territory, except for Ludwig Iribeck and his hogs, with their ample cash returns. Let the industry be extended for there's a growing demand all over the country for Panhandle-Plains porkers—demand from Maine to California. —Amarillo News.

Plainview Mail Delivery Delayed

The postal department has given notice that it cannot at the present time grant Plainview's application for free city delivery of mail, because the government is in need of the money for other purposes, and is not establishing the free delivery service in any cities.

We understand that Plainview measures up to all the requirements necessary, and that economy is the sole reason for not granting the application now. The department has asked that the application be filed again next May, and it is possible then that the service will be installed to begin with the fiscal year on July 1, next year.—Plainview News.

No Use for Moss

Lady: "Why don't you go to work? Don't you know that a rolling stone gathers no moss?"

Tramp: "Madame, not to evade your question at all, but merely to obtain information, may I ask what practical utility moss is to a man in my condition?"—Selected.

Pull the Cork

When the editor approaches the average citizen in quest of news he is invariably told by the citizen "don't know a thing." And the answer is about as near the truth as the nations of Europe are to affecting a prompt settlement of their differences: Everybody knows something and most people know a lot of something that is worth telling and would make a breezy story, but they just bottle up the walls of their dome and forget that it is there.

Sometimes the editor is able to pry loose word by word until he gets the story, when it would be the easiest and simplest thing in the world to let it out with a rush. Pull the cork, brother, and let out the contents of your intellectual bottle and we will pass it on to others who are thirsty for news. You know a plenty if you only know you know it.—Melrose Messenger.

The Flanders Poppy, which became so well known through Colonel McCrae's poem, in Flanders Fields, has been declared to be an undesirable immigrant to America. Beautiful the flower undoubtedly is, and for many Americans so full of sacred associations that we should be glad to see it growing everywhere here. But investigation has shown it to be an objectionable weed, difficult or impossible to control, since it sows itself persistently and is therefore likely, if introduced here to become as objectionable as the daisy, the hawk weed, or the thistle.

If the purpose is to annihilate tax payers, the merchant ship is about as deadly as the battleship.—Illinois State Register.

We offer the Case 15-27 Kerosene Tractor as the king of them all. It is creating a sensation all over the country. It is the result of 77 years of experience of the famous J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.

It pulls three plows in hard plowing—four plows under favorable conditions. It has abundant reserve power. It burns kerosene successfully and economically.

This sturdy tractor is adaptable for all kinds of drawbar and belt work. It drives a 26x46 Case Thresher with Feeder and Wind Stacker. Its pulley is properly placed for convenient "tuning up."

It is small and compact and built for accessibility. No tractor is finer. You should become acquainted with its many superiorities, which we will be glad to explain. Don't buy before you see this better tractor.

Will Cut Wheat Acreage

I. I. Isabell, who resides in the Lone Star community on a well improved farm, stated to the writer Monday afternoon while in town on business that it was his plan to greatly reduce his wheat acreage another year, and plant more to row crops. He says that he is going to diversify his crops between wheat, maize and hogs. He is a strong believer in hogs in Floyd county as a money crop, and a sure way to independence. He is of the opinion that Floyd county farmers need not sell a pound of feed. It should be fed to hogs and cattle.
 Mr. Isabell is one of a number of farmers we have talked to lately about crop diversification. We have yet to find the first farmer who does not agree with us that we have the right idea about farming in this country. From what we gather from farmers the acreage sown to wheat this fall will be greatly reduced as compared to the crop which has just been harvested. There will be more activity during the coming year in raising hogs than has ever been known in Floyd county. Farmers in general have come to realize the importance of the hog and maize industry.—Lockney Beacon.
 The Leavenworth Post has figured out one thing in favor of prohibition. It is killing off the idle rich, who can afford to buy the bootlegger's stuff.—Kansas City Star.
 Times have certainly changed! A few profiteers now would help the Government mightily in solving its taxation problems.—Columbia Record.
 Owners of horses and blooded stock are large users of Liquid Borzone. It heals wounds, festering sores, barbed wire cuts by a mild power that leaves no disfiguring scars. Price 30c, 60c, and $1.20. Sold by Jarrett Drug Company.

Who says that "bargain" tires are what the people want

THE U. S. CHAIN TREAD
 One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and tire after tire.
 The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handsomest, and by all odds the most popular, of the whole U. S. Fabric Tire line.

Most everybody knows the easy-going sort of man who never takes a tire seriously until he gets a blow-out.
 How long he will resist universal tire education is a question.
 But this is sure—
 More people are finding out every day that between leaving things to luck and getting real economy there is a big difference.
 Many a car-owner has come to U. S. Tires because he couldn't afford to keep on paying that difference.
 Probably seven out of ten users of U. S. Tires came to them only after they'd had enough of "discounts", "bargain offers", "clearance sales of surplus stocks" and other similar appeals.
 They have found economy—and they stick to it.

They pay a net price—not "something off list" that may not mean anything in the first place.
 They get fresh, live tires, being made and shipped while this message is being written.
 No matter where they live there's a nearby U. S. Dealer with his nearby U. S. Factory Branch.
 U. S. Tires keep moving.
 No opportunity to get old and dried out. No shifting here and there trying to find a market.
 Every U. S. Tire a good tire, wherever you find it anywhere in the country.
 Because the U. S. policy is a good policy that serves the car-owner all the time.
 Doing the very best for him that human good faith can do.

HEALTHGRAMS FOR RANDALL COUNTY CHILDREN'S HEALTH CONFERENCE

By Dr. M. M. Carrick, State Health Officer.

The hope of the State lies in its healthy citizens.

Health first—low taxes afterwards.

If Saint Peter demanded a birth certificate, a whole lot of people in Texas would never gain admission to Heaven.

Is your baby registered?

It will be a red letter day in human progress when all forces of every community are mobilized for the conservation of its child welfare.

It is more important to establish regular habits in a baby than to wind the clock.

Many parents lament their inability to give their children "bigger opportunities." There is no occasion for such lamentation in regard to outdoor life—the "biggest opportunity" for the child to acquire health.

Children's first teeth should be retained and kept in good condition as long as possible. Moderately delayed second teeth prove to be better developed and more serviceable.

Every available means should be used to impress upon all mothers in the community, the need for careful attention to their children during the summer months.

Babies do not want silks and satins, but they do want sunlight and sanitation.

A new circular on the Summer Care of Babies prepared by the State Board of Health for free distribution is just off the press. It will be sent to citizens of Texas upon request.

Address the State Health Officer, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

The best service the local newspaper can render to its community is to cooperate with every local agency for the suppression of preventable diseases.

The general health of the public should be the first consideration of all men. Strong, healthy children will form a sturdy race of men and women upon which to found future generations.

Information regarding the enrollment of children for the Children's Health Conference of the Randall County Fair will appear in this paper later.

Pampa Baptists Advertise

Pampa News: An advertisement which is somewhat of an innovation in Pampa advertising circles will be found on the last page of this issue.

It is a two column six inch display ad of the First Baptist church of this city.

Many churches throughout the country have found in the past few years that display advertising carried in the newspapers is a very economical and efficient manner in which to add to the interest and membership of their institutions.

The local Baptist congregation is up-to-date in every particular, and are going to avail themselves of every legitimate opportunity to further the cause in Pampa.

A neat cut of the church building adds to the attractiveness of the Baptist ad, and we feel confident they will get value received for their efforts and

My back was sore and stiff a great deal of the time and mornings when I first got up it was especially so. My kidneys were very weak and acted entirely too often. $625 F. O. B. Detroit

"Yes I've more Time for Myself Since I Got a Fordson"

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine—and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work—

And don't forget—it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows with ease.

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways.

There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card and we will bring them to you.
